WITH THE AMERICANS' WEST OF VERDUN Oct. 3.—While activity in the remainder of the line is confined to repelling bitter counter attacks, and consolidating new positions, the Americans in the depth of the Argonne forest are showing forward somewhat today.

Drive Not Over

The Americans are continuing up both the heights. The fact that they have not made any great strides forward in the last few days does not indicate that the Americans are through. On the contrary, they have just begun, and from now on, the first army can be counted on to make a steady, though not spectacular, advance.

Evidence is accumulating that the Germans are preparing to withdraw from their advanced positions opposite the Americans. Coupled with the Czech advances on the left, this will bring the plucking out of the famous forest that much nearer. American patrols have already penetrated Montrean wood.

Overcoming most insurmountable obstacles, they are retraining their line, the density of the forest renders it most difficult, but each group goes forward as rapidly as possible, maintaining communication with the aid of runners.

American Strength Triumphant

Continuous counter attacks in the region of Apremont resulted in territory being gained for the first time at the end of the whirling fighting, the Americans had won a slight advance.

Austrian Premier Deplacés the Proper Steps Taken—Grave Situation, He Admits, But Gives Assurances

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 3.—Bulgaria has created a grave situation, but it is not critical," Baron von Thun, Austrian premier, declared Tuesday, in addressing the Reichstag, according to a dispatch from Vienna today.

"We have taken proper steps, which are progressing. On the Balkan front our troops and Germany are standing shoulder to shoulder preserving the front line."

"Just as in battle, we will go hand in hand in the way of peace. The future which humanity is thinking of and longing for cannot be expected from the sword."

ATTENDANCE AT COUNTY FAIR A RECORD BREAKER

Gate Receipts Are Larger Than Ever Before in History of Association—Weather Conditions Favorable at Flier

The attendance Wednesday at the Twin Falls county fair at Flier, was the largest first day attendance ever recorded in the four years' history of the Twin Falls County Fair association. Total receipts for the day from all sources, according to the report of Secretary J. M. Markel, were $1,460, of which amount $954 was for gate receipts.

The weather, although rainy and threatening in other parts of the county, was ideal at Flier, and Secretary Markel reported this morning that only light rains had fallen there during the night, so that no interference with the program for today's events in any respect is anticipated.

Twin Falls Day Today

Today in Twin Falls day at the fair. Some of the local business houses closed their doors at noon to spend the afternoon at Flier, and a constant stream of fair visitors is leaving here.

ITALIANS OPEN NEW OFFENSIVE

Would Destroy Austrian Army in Albania and Add to the Troubles of Turkey

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The Italian army in Albania has started an offensive against the Austrians, according to cable to the Italian embassy today.

The purpose of the offensive is to demoralize and destroy the Austrian armies in Albania with a view to facilitating the expected surrender of Turkey, the cable explained. General Ferrero, operating three columns, is advancing victoriously with the object of affording a junction with the left wing under General. The Austrians are retreating vigorously, acting to hold the Albanians in check at all costs until reinforcements arrive.

The advance already made by the Italians in the north, following close on the heels of the retreating Austrian army, is threatening them with isolation from the north.

HUNS STRIVE TO SAVE FALTERING LINES FROM COMPLETE COLLAPSE

GENERAL WITHDRAWAL ON ALL FRONTS COMMENCED BY HUN MILITARY CHIEFS

WAR SUMMARY

Evacuation of Belgium, hoped and fought for by the allies, through four bitter years, appeared to be under way today. The evacuation appears to have begun with a German retreat on the twenty-mile front between Ypres and Lens with the British, closely following up. The retreatment already has reached a maximum depth of two miles. The Germans have given up strongly organized positions which they have maintained ever since trench warfare began and which rendered a portion of this sector the most thoroughly stabilized on the whole northern part of the west front.

The British, pressing forward on this front, are within about seven miles of the important French commercial and communication center of Lille, the civilian population of which is already leaving under orders of the Germans.

Earlier unofficial reports from various sources, stated that virtually a complete withdrawal from Belgium has been begun by the German high command.

Armentieres has been practically surrounded and its fall is expected hourly. The enemy is reported to be burning Boners, at the apex of the Anglo-Belgian wedge farther north, which also has been nearly encircled.

Field Marshal Haig renewed his attacks north of St. Quentin this morning, where yesterday the British nearly effected a breakthrough by slashing a breach through the Beaurevoir-Fonsomme subsidiary defense line. A counter-attack yesterday closed up the hole and won back the village of Sequehart for the enemy. Haig apparently is determined not to permit the Germans to again consolidate their position there.

The French continue to drive ahead in the Champagne and west of Rheims. Challerand, which forms one of the mountainous defenses of the western fringe of the Argonne forest, has been captured. General Berthelot is rapidly circling the enemy in the angle formed by the Aisne river and the Aisne-Marne canal northeast of Rheims. He is now within five miles of Craonne.

The fall of Damascus, officially announced yesterday, added six thousand prisoners to General Allenby's haul in Palestine, making the total sixty-seven thousand. British and Arab forces, after the capture of the city, pushed rapidly northward, with Aleppo, nearly two hundred miles further on, as their objective. Seizure of the latter city will give the British control of the railways from Damascus and Bagdad to Constantinople.

The French war office announced the occupation of Uakub, in Macedonia, by French cavalry. Two hundred German prisoners were taken there. A great deal of material destined for the central powers was seized.

Bulgarian Prisoners Work for the Allies

MILAN, Oct. 3.—Bulgarian prisoners will continue to work for the entente under the armistice terms, the newspaper Secolo learned today, while at the same time Bulgaria releases all entente prisoners. The armistice also provides for the withdrawal of Austro-German troops from Bulgaria, within four weeks.

GERMANY NAMES NEW CHANCELLOR

Resolution Replaced on Former Status by Viva Voce Vote—Can Be Passed Any Time Forces Are Strong Enough

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—By the viva voce the senate today reconsidered the vote by which the new suffrage resolution was defeated. This puts suffrage in exactly the same status as before its defeat. It can be called up for action any time suffrage forces are strong enough to pass it.

There is no intention to call it up unless the November elections change the complexion of the senate.

FATALITY IN CAMP STRIKES LOCAL HOMES

Donald E. Smith and Mrs. Aaher B. Wilson were called Wednesday morning to their former home in Colby, Kansas, by word informing them of the death from pneumonia at Camp Dix, New Jersey, of their younger brother, Leroy O. Smith, a member of the Banditron division which was stationed for a time at Camp Ody, Texas. The remains of the young soldier will be taken to Colby, where his mother resides, for interment. Another brother, Leroy O. Smith, was well known in Twin Falls, having resided here for nearly a year, and leaving about two years ago to return to his home in Kansas.

Berlin Concedes Retirement from Lens Salient, Declaring It Was Carried Out "Without Fighting"—Sequehart Retaken by Germans in Fierce Counter-Attack Again Wrested from Enemy by the British

By LOWELL MELLETT
WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 3.—British troops smashing into the German lines on an 11-mile front north of St. Quentin, today wrested the villages of Le-ranetel, Gony, Rancourt and Sequehart back from the Germans. They took 2,000 additional prisoners.

Retake Lost Towns

These villages were lost to the enemy in the series of counter attacks he launched when the British threatened to break through the Beaurevoir-Fonsomme line. It was at Rancourt that Field Marshal Haig announced yesterday a breach had been made in the Beaurevoir-Fonsomme line. In a later communique he reported the Germans had taken Sequehart, which is about a mile and a half south of Rancourt.

Retiring Vandals Fire Roulers

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The Germans have set fire to the Belgian city of Roulers. Roulers, which was one of the principal objectives of the previous British drives in Flanders, has been practically surrounded by Belgian and British troops. It is about 12 miles northeast of Ypres.

French Near Berthenicourt

PARIS, Oct. 3.—General Debay, attacking on the 15-mile front between St. Quentin and La Fere, is nearing Berthenicourt, on the Oise, five miles southeast of St. Quentin, and is rapidly outflanking La Fere. The latter town is the northern outpost of the great-Gohat Massif.

Australians Bag 1,500 Turks

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Australian troops yesterday, in the vicinity of Kubetli-Atli, 17 miles northeast of Damascus, captured an enemy column, taking 1,500 prisoners and 40 machine guns. It was announced in the Palestine communique received today.

Challerand Taken By French

PARIS, Oct. 3.—French forces continue to advance in the Champagne and Vesle regions, the war office announced today.

Challerand, a mile and a half east of Montreuil, was captured yesterday evening. North of Rheims, the French took Leuvre.

The French attack was resumed at daybreak this morning.

On the front north of Rheims, the French, continuing their advance took Leuvre, six miles north of Vesle, the communique said.

In the region of Lelleville, a mile and a half west of Rheims, a German counter attack was unsuccessful.

In the Champagne the fighting continued yesterday afternoon and evening. The French took Challerand. The Germans made a powerful effort to eject us from the wood southwest of Orfeuil, six miles west of Challerand.

NO OBSTACLE IS TOO GREAT FOR YANK INFANTRY

Tangled Growth of Argonne Forest Fails to Slow Down Advance of Pershing's Men at Any Point

By FRED S. FERGUSON
WITH THE AMERICANS' WEST OF VERDUN Oct. 3.—The Americans have now advanced from seven to eight kilometers, 4 to 4.2 miles, through the tangled Argonne forest since the start of their offensive.

This forward movement has been accomplished by smothering machine gun nests, bridging great masses of barbed wire entanglements, and dragging up artillery and wagons by hand.

The tangle of underbrush which spreads over the Argonne region like a thick carpet, it is impossible to locate some enemy machine guns except by drawing their fire.

Several instances have occurred where men deliberately exposed themselves for the purpose of locating snipers that rushed in and cleaned up the nests.

Wipes Out Whole Crew

One man, who had been in the fighting only a few hours, sighted a machine gun and killed the officer and four men forming the crew, before he was wounded himself. The capture was confirmed by the finding of the four dead bodies and their officer. The latter had been bayoneted through the heart.

One doghouse stood upon a parapet and deliberately wired its arms to draw machine gun fire. The ruse was successful and a gun and its crew were captured.

Aviators Do Good Work

American aviators are continuing their remarkable work observing and regulating artillery fire, fighting off German planes and strafing infantry and transport. In the latter, some of the planes fly as low as 50 yards above the trees.

In the region of France, east of Verdun on the Metz front, a Franco-American raid resulted in the taking of 50 Austrian prisoners.

Sixteenth Ward of California and Lieutenant Alvin K. Rowak, M. I., had a thrilling experience yesterday afternoon, their motor going dead just as they dropped a load of bombs on Grandpre. A boche plane then attacked them. They couldn't fight but were compelled to glide down, landing in a field which they thought was German-held territory. That the sight of some doghouses reassured them. They were picked up in the United Press crew and returned to their field.

MID-EUROPEAN FEDERATION IS LIKELY RESULT

Formation of Chain of Small States Extending from the Baltic to the Black Sea is Under Discussion

REPRESENTATIVES HERE TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS

United States Stands Semi-Officially as Sponsor for the Liberation of Oppressed Nations

of a mid-European federation to consist of a chain of small states extending from the Baltic to the Black Sea, is under way here, it was learned today. The United States, semi-officially, will sponsor the movement.

Representatives of the committee for Allied-European federation are to be opened here this week. Representatives of the people will confer tomorrow over innumerable problems presented by the scheme. This federation is to fight on a reconquered eastern front, it being organized as a step in fulfillment of President Wilson's program of liberation for all oppressed people. It is said to spell defeat of Germany's ambitions in the east during the war and will be incorporated into the world league of nations at the peace conference, according to the present program.

Yugo-Slavs, Czech-Slovaks, Italian Irregulars, Poles, Ukrainians and Romanians in America, are uniting in Europe. They hope to induce their countrymen in Europe to join them.

More Asia Expected
Later, Poles, Lithuanians, Estonians, Greeks and even the Bulgars people may join in the movement, its leaders say.

Sixty million people in Europe are affected. Ten million of their countrymen in the United States are being relied on to start formation of the federation. Military participation in the war against Germany is regarded as essential to the success of the scheme. Every nation joining the federation must recruit its power to fight the central power, according to plans now in contemplation. Colonel House, Charles Brandegee, and others, have been studying the plan as outline by its leaders.

Austria were to be reduced to its German-speaking population which could unite with Germany after the southern Slav and Czech provinces were part-way, backers of the plan pointed out. Magyars in Hungary, traditionally anti-Germans, could be admitted to the mid-European federation provided they became demilitarized.

Democratic Government

would prevail throughout the federation. Although a political constitution would be necessary, leaders admit, before democracy in its fullest degree could be instituted. Records of these oppressed nations would fight of the eastern front as best their nature will as possible, with the object of liberating it and inducing their countrymen to forsake their German oppressor.

Lenders in the movement include Professor Masaryk, of the Czechoslovak national council; Paleyevski, the pianist, representing the Poles; Dr. Mikovitch of the Yugo-Slavonians. President Hamill, Oberlin college, is president of the mid-European council.

DESCRIBES LIFE AT THE FRONT

Sergeant T. E. Bowen Tells of Surroundings of Twin Falls Men

Mrs. Arthur M. Bowen has received from her son, Sergeant Theodore E. Bowen of Washington company, One Hundred Forty-sixth field artillery regiment, a letter under date of August 31, which gives a happy picture of the life and surroundings of the members of the Twin Falls unit in foreign service. He says: "It is too bad that I didn't think of my birthday sponsor, or I might have sent you a real live boobe for a present. I will have to let it go until next year, you see, and bring you home then. What do you people think of the war? The general idea here both among the Americans and French is that next year will see the end of it. In Quiet Sector

I am forced to admit that there has been some little time since my last letter. Since writing it we have been back for 8 short rest and 24 days back on the firing line. The war is different here than it was where we were before—more like the front in the papers than the other one. Here there are dugouts many meters deep as a shelter against German shells and bombs. Little dinky narrow-gauge railroads run right up to the front line trenches. There is not much fighting either as compared to other places, and it seems calm and orderly after the confusion and dirt elsewhere. My slump in letter writing can be explained partially by the fact that we have been on the move so much and it is so difficult to get the necessary copy. Just because I may write as often as I would like is no reason for you and all the kids to lay off. It has been a month today since we have had any mail! If all, so you can see how badly we want it.

Eats Hold Up

While we were in one of our camps behind the lines I saw Ted (Holliman) quite a bit, but lately I haven't seen anything of him. He used to slip me doughnuts or something when he was on K. P. We don't fare so badly as we might in the way of grub. Tonight we are to have blackberry pie made from blackberries that grew in the woods. We had hot cakes for breakfast yesterday morning and there was quite a contest to see who would get away with the most. I usually won, but had to quit to go to regimental headquarters. There is only a few over 30 men in this detachment, so it isn't so hard for a cook to look up something.

Did you see in the papers where the central army corps was cited for special honoring for excellent services in the recent Franco-American drive? Did you know that we were in that first army corps?—We are in no division, but when you read of the first army corps or the first field army, you will know that means us.

STATE OF IOWA QUOTA COMPLETE

Fourth Liberty Bonds Selling Rapidly Over Whole Country

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Following the announcement that Iowa had subscribed its quota to the fourth Liberty Loan, treasury officials today issued the following statement: "A new spirit has penetrated the nation. Liberty Loans no longer are novelties; the people accept them as a part of the regular routine which combined with genuine American enthusiasm, makes for success."

Optimism prevails among war loan officials. Some sections were lagging but for a majority of the nation, it can be said there is no slacking. Acceptance of the fourth and greatest Liberty loan, as a part of "the regular routine in war time," means much officials believe. They expect a steady, consistent canvassing of investors with no loss of time.

Administration officials were somewhat worried today lest the American public suffer from over confidence, because of allied successes and fall to buy their limit in bonds, expecting the war to end soon.

They warned that the fullest subscription was necessary as part of the knock-out punch.

What Becomes of Your Money?

Ever wonder where your last month's salary went?
There is a way to tell where every penny goes—a way that will show you where you are spending too much and will also prevent the payment of the same bill twice through error.

It's an Easy Way, Too—

On the first day of each month every check you have drawn on your account with this bank is returned to you, also a statement showing how much money you have deposited here and just how much you have spent—the checks show to whom you have paid the money—and by looking over the returned checks you can easily note the ones that were unnecessary; then, knowing just where the leaks are you can easily stop the waste.

Suppose you open your account TODAY—begin to cut off the useless expense NOW.

AMERICA'S SPIRIT

About the city streets and on the campus we see a company of high school boys drilling. Working hard to master the rudiments of soldiering. They are going to the thing with all the vigor of youth stimulated by the knowledge and realization of the possible need of this training in doing their part to "make the world safe for Democracy."

What a contrast these lads offer to the thousands who have trained in Germany! These of Germany have been forced to train in order to satisfy the lust of their masters for conquest. To force on weaker peoples the will of the mighty that they may be exploited to increase that might. Our boys train that they may, if need be, render efficient service that all men may be free and equal. Here we see the Spirit of America today typified in the earnest desire of these young boys to become proficient in the unselfish giving of time and knowledge by their instructors and in the unselfish applause of those on the walls of the little band passes. That is the American Spirit. That is what will whip the Hun. True, it will take men and dollars, but to win, both must be backed by the right spirit, and they are.

IT'S WORSE IN CANADA

Two pounds of economy-butter per person per month is the allowance by the government in Canada. In all the main butter producing provinces the output of the creameries has been commandeered by the government in order to feed the fighting. Probably there will be a little more available for home consumption from dairy farmers but not a great deal. Canada is an agricultural, not a stock country. Contrast this condition with events here at home. We are on a sugar allowance to be sure, but the allowance forces no one to greatly cut down on consumption. Meat and bread regulations, whereby thousands of tons of foodstuffs have been shipped overseas, has worked no particular hardship on anyone.

HERBES AND COOTIES

There comes a story from Washington that specialists are laboring on the problem of finding an exterminator for "cooties" ("cooties" are common or garden variety of louse in disguise). It seems that some unscrupulous person is submitting the anatomy of a stamping ground for the "cooties" while the experiments take place. As heroes go this man is in the front rank. His trials must continue long after the experiments are concluded. In fancy we see him years later, the proud lion of a haughty hostess, endeavoring to mingle with the guests. He finds this mingling difficult for all have an eye on him. Daily the ladies draw their skirts close to pretty wrinkles as he approaches. A sharp scowl and a hasty brush of the hand renounce the man who has come in contact with him. The dowagers ply their loganets, industriously searching when he is not looking.

The gentle gathering passes into the great dining hall and are seated at dinner. To right of him and to left the diners see only half of their chairs. Servants do not crowd him, showing great care that they retain a safe jumping distance. (This distance varies with the size, age and agility of the "cooties".)

If he is at all sensitive he must observe the strictest secrecy in relieving mosquito bites; he must suffer acute agony when he has the bites. He must not scratch, never, lest people think the "cooties" were not all exterminated. No one can help him, simply because no one can know the particular spot where help is most needed. Truly, this man is a hero.

THAT NEW PARTNERSHIP

Kaiser Wilhelm is considering, apparently, the proposition of taking his people into partnership with him. They have done his dirty work in the past, and it presumed he would now reward them for their faithfulness.

However, it would be well for the people to demand a financial statement from Bill before they sign up. The concern has been plenty prosperous in the past, having increased its holdings by the acquisition of Belgium, Serbia, Rumania, and in sundry other ways.

But Bill wasn't talking partnership then. It is only in the past few weeks that Bill has been contemplating letting the "pippen" in the deal. The world thinks well of Bill, and wouldn't put it a bit past him to believe that he was looking for somebody to hold the sack.

The German nation will do well to have a reliable accountant take inventory first. They may get gipped.

ALLIED SUPPLIES IN COMMON POOL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—America and her allies have extended the unity of military command in the formation of an inter-allied supply pool.

Proposals long considered for uniting all economized sources have been accepted. So today, all the raw materials and finished products of the United States and her associates, at need in the war, are unified and the disposal of the whole cause. Hereafter, there will be an apportionment of supplies through a central body, which will get its data from the inter-allied economic group.

YARD-BY-YARD ALLIED TROOPS CONTINUE GAINS

Indications of Further German Retirement Multiplying Every Hour—Enemy, Morale Shattered

By WEBB MILLER
PARIS, Oct. 3.—While in the main the onward drive of Marshal Foch's ten armies appears to have slackened somewhat. In the last few hours, the facts are that the battle has reached a point where a gain of a few hundred yards is worth more than a gain of miles' 72 hours ago.

And, yard by yard, the Allied armies are chiving their way ahead over those precious bits of soil, the loss of which is throwing consideration into the hearts of the Germans.

It is in the wind, pointing to further retirement at several points, are multiplying every hour. Many military experts see as imminent the necessity for a general enemy retirement. Prepare for Retreat?

There is significant activity miles back of the lines in the north where the Germans are throwing temporary bridges across rivers and canals and building permanent roads and bridges.

All along the line Germans are fighting with the fury of despair in an attempt to save off the penetration of Foch's wedges into the most vital spots of the enemy defenses.

General Von Ludendorff is worrying most over the steady advance of the Allied and General Flanders in Belgium. The network of Belgian railways is humming with troop trains tramping up every division the high command can scrape from the depleted depots, in an effort to halt the Belgians and British on the Flanders plain.

Has Good Effect

In the regions of Cambrai and St. Quentin, the Allied armies are about to gather the fruits of their advances. The fall of these cities will have an important reaction farther north.

Foch's masterly strategy is no better illustrated than by the events in these regions, where the French wremes inside of four days have removed the great menace to Belgium.

In the Champagne and Argonne, both General Gouraud and General Pershing have made advances which, while not great in distance, are important from a tactical standpoint. Gouraud dominates the narrow Grandval valley. Pershing is methodically wiping up new strips of the Argonne forest.

ASKS ADVANCES ON WHEAT CROP

Frank R. Gooding Points Out Serious Situation and Requests Aid

(Special to The News)
GOODING—Frank R. Gooding Monday asked an appeal for help by Senator Borah in the matter of car shortage for wheat shipments. The message explains itself. It is as follows: Hon. W. E. Borah, U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C.

I regret to advise you that a very serious condition exists in Idaho owing to the shortage of railroad cars and the embargo that is on wheat. In the face of this discouragement, however, Idaho will go over the top in this bond issue in a short time.

Those who understand the situation are not finding fault with the railroads, as we know they are straining every nerve and every man in their employ is loyal and giving his best service. Idaho has a tremendous wheat crop this year. With the exception of fruit, the state is reaping a bountiful harvest.

What you are kind enough to take this up with Idaho's delegation in congress and see if more liberal rules and regulations cannot be given to the federal reserve banks doing business in Idaho?

If it is possible, arrangements should be made where the government can advance 75 per cent of the value of the wheat, to the farmer until such time as Idaho's crops can be moved. If a continued shortage of cars, a very serious condition will follow. Something should be done to meet what threatens to be a most serious situation in Idaho.

TEUTON GRIP RELAXING ON NORTH FRONT

Indications Are Overwhelming That Winter Will See the End of the German Peril in France and Belgium

MILITARY AUTHORITIES PREDICT WITHDRAWAL

Country Warned Against Over-Confidence, But Outlook Declared to Fully Warrant the Highest Optimism

By CARL D. GHOAT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Winter will find Belgium and northern France out of the grasp of the Teuton.

Military authorities made this prediction today, as the first of the great German breaks—the retreat eastward from the Labasse canal region—became an actuality.

Impressed by... including vast reserves, the German retreat in Belgium... the enemy is shifting his U-boat bases out of Belgium and is preparing to save what he can in the country he has ruthlessly trampled in 1914. The objectives of the American Allied forces since the Marne turning point battle has been the wrecking of the German army. To day there is a chance that an attainment of that object will come far sooner than has been anticipated. In any case the retreat to present conditions many elements of extreme danger to the boche. He has been fighting hard to escape a ruinous retreat and it is not at all certain that he will be able to extricate himself without a disaster to his forces.

Army Men Jubilant

Army men are jubilant over the present situation and the future outlook.

The latest sign of the times is held to be the state department's advice to the American government for a relaxing of the grip on Belgium.

The boche is gathering up his material and shifting his naval bases eastward.

Labeled "Voluntary"

Authorities warned that the man may have the tendency to label this movement voluntary and use it as a sign of sincerity in further peace maneuvers. But, the plain truth of the situation is that he is being forced out of Belgium and France

MOUNTAIN BRAND PURE LARD

YOU NEED a greater proportion of fat in your food as the weather becomes cooler. Mountain Brand Lard gives this fat in a pure, wholesome form. Use it for the dishes that taste so good in the fall—but use less than you do of other fats because it is so rich and pure. Delicately flaky crusts for pies and fruit cobblers can be made more economically with Mountain Brand Lard. The ideal shortening for cakes. All good dealers carry it.

by the series of battles raging from the sea to Verdun. Everywhere the British, French and Americans are backing at the class which have held tenaciously to keep power in France and Belgium. Now the weight of the Allied pressure, due to American reinforcements, is such that the boche cannot cling much longer.

More Bond Money Needed

Both American and foreign officials here are unanimous, however, in warning against over-confidence at this time. While they foresee vast possibilities in the next few months, they suggest that any let-down now would be fatal. To this end they are urging over-subscription of the Liberty Loan and speeding up of prosecution.

In twenty-four hours the troops in Belgium have made more gains than in four months in the early part of the war. Germany's allies, while Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey are trying for peace is considered to mean that the Teutons are waiting for the Allied expressions.

Germany is preparing to step in at the physiological moment with a peace proposal on which she will stake her chances. If it fails, she will have to throw up her hands.

Changes in the imperial military are being reported, reports here indicate. These will prepare the way for a peace proposal. Diplomats believe.

FIRST DAY FAIR ATTENDANCE

both on the train and on motor vehicles. The fair will be children's day when pupils of the public schools will be the guests of the fair association. Entries in all departments are unusually large this year. Judging by the yesterday and is practically finished today, the ribbon indicative of the awards being displayed on each prize winning display.

Lacks No Attractions

The fair is lacking nothing the fair visitor expects to see, and has, besides, several new and unusual attractions all contributing to the entertainment and profit of the crowds of people in attendance.

The balloon ascension on the program yesterday, failed to materialize for the reason that wind, switching from the prevailing direction, prevented the filling of the big bag. The attempt to carry through the ascension yesterday, however, revealed the cause of failure which will be remedied to permit of a successful flight today and again tomorrow.

Red Cross on Grounds

Among the concessionaires at the fair, the most popular are the Red Cross booths. Both the Twin Falls and Filer branches are conducting booths for the sale of refreshments, candies and soft drinks, and in the women's department building there is a booth for the sale of flowers donated by J. A. Waters, Byrd Walter and others for the benefit of the County chapter Red Cross shop.

Duke of Cumberland. He has not been prominent in anti-Allied propaganda in Germany and is said to have handled satisfactorily negotiations concerning care of British and Allied prisoners in Germany. He is on record against nationalist policies being carried to extremes and is considered moderate in his views on German foreign policy.

Gerard Says Max Not German Type

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 2.—Germany has sent out a stalking horse by appointing Prince Max of Baden to succeed Chancellor Hertling, in the opinion of James W. Gerard, former American ambassador to Germany. And this stalking horse turns a copy of Emerson's essays, instead of a gun. In the new German chancellor, according to Gerard, the Allies will find a new type of German statesman.

"Prince Max of Baden is about 51 years old, tall, well built, with brown hair and brown moustache," Ambassador Gerard told the United Press today.

"In manner, Prince Max is Prussian, not even German. He has none of the arrogance and wooden-headedness which characterizes most of the ruling statesmen of Germany. His mother was Russian and that gives him a viewpoint."

"Prince Max has a most charming personality. He speaks French and English perfectly and greatly admires Emerson. He carries Emerson's essays with him always."

"There is no sure indication of the desire of the German rulers to win over the other nations to peace time the appointment of Prince Max."

range, where we penetrated. Three times their assaults broke against our lines. All our gains were maintained and heavy losses inflicted upon the enemy. The number of prisoners was still further increased during the fighting.

"The attack was renewed this morning at daylight."

Enemy Evacuating Lens Pocket

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Germans are retreating on the 20-mile front between Arras and Lens, Field Marshal Haig announced today. They are evacuating highly organized positions which they had held since the beginning of trench warfare.

The retirement already has reached a maximum depth of two miles and the British advance is continuing. The Germans have fallen back to the line of Cite St. Auguste, Douvain, east of Labasse, east of Aubers and west of Bois Grenier. Cite St. Auguste is about a mile directly north of Lens, Douvain is a mile and a quarter south-east of Labasse, Bois Grenier is two miles directly south of Arras.

"From Lens to Arras the enemy is concentrating highly organized positions which he has held since the commencement of trench warfare and which hitherto were defended with the most resolution. This unexpected movement is being followed up closely by the British and is maintaining constant touch with the German rear guard, and are inflicting many casualties and taking prisoners."

"Progress made by the allies of Flanders and before Cambrai and St. Quentin combined with the losses incurred by his troops in their endeavors to resist the successful allied attacks, has compelled the enemy to undertake an extensive withdrawal," the statement said.

"The retirement was not unexpected. We already have reached the general line of Cite St. Auguste, Douvain, east of Labasse, east of Aubers, and west of Bois Grenier. The advance continues."

"Yesterday evening the enemy attacked north of Cambrai. He was repulsed, leaving prisoners."

"This morning we renewed our operations south of St. Quentin which the British attack north of St. Quentin was renewed this morning."

Belgians Announce New Gains

BRUXELLES, Oct. 2.—Our local pushes at different points have improved our positions," the Belgian war office announced today. "British troops have captured Ghelwe, Le Biset and La Planchette Farm."

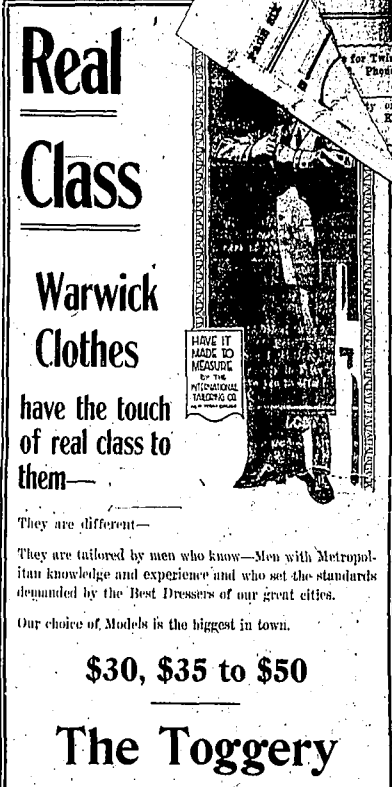

"British airmen destroyed nine enemy machines and two balloons."

ively for road building are among the prisoners, as well as some from crack divisions.

Wire bridges, upon which American soldiers walked over the deepest networks of barbed wire in the Argonne forest, are among the unique features of the recent fighting.

Beats Barb Wire

In some places, the boche wires were interwoven in the underbrush to the depth of a hundred yards. They were practically impassable and held up our advance more than the enemy resistance, until Colonel Sherrill, of the engineers, already famous as the author of several army text books, devised a scheme to overcome them.

Rolls of chicken wire were reinforced with iron bars and strips of steel. These were thrown over the entanglements.

The American walked across the chicken wire easy. The colonel told me that he knew the bridges were good, because he had walked on them himself.

Huns Lost Vital Position

The taking of Montauban deprived the boche of positions dominating everything from south of the 'old line to north of Vonziree. So long as the Americans threaten, a further advance, the Germans' ultimate retirement on the Vosges line is probable. The Verdun-St. Mihiel line is understood to be only partly completed. If it is broken, the Americans are likely to pour through to some distance, necessitating the employment of still additional reinforcements to prevent them from breaking through entirely.

New York troops are operating in the Argonne. At the other extreme of the line, Illinois units are advancing along the bank of the Meuse and have reached the outskirts of Brioules. Negro troops are participating in the French advance on the west side of the Argonne.

Wreck Enemy Transports

In the center, the boche are hurrying in reinforcements by battalions, companies and even platoons. The Americans' artillery is badly smashing up the enemy's transport.

The Americans at Bois D'Mont captured a battery shell and three balloons. Four Pennsylvania captured 75 German without any notable loss.

American aviators are dropping food and cigarettes on the front lines when the troops are without rations.

PLAN TO STOP DOMINATION OF HUN IN EUROPE

Meeting of Representatives of Oppressed Nationalities Will Plan in Interests of Permanent World Peace

STRONG RESOLUTIONS WILL BE PRESENTED

Professor H. A. Miller Designated by American Government to Outline Purpose of Proposed Federation

By RAYMOND CLAPPER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Representatives of oppressed nationalities gathered here today to form an Allied-European federation to include subject peoples now living under the shadow of Teutonic domination.

Those represented included: Czechs, Slovaks, Poles, Ukrainians, Jugos-Slavs, Lithuanians, Finns, Roumanians and Italian Irredentists—600,000 people now largely without self government and political freedom.

Resolutions denouncing the disintegration of the Austro-Hungarian empire and formation of a mid-European federation were to be adopted. The representatives intended to offer the entire moral and resources of their countries in Europe to the cause of the allies.

Erection of a barrier across the heart of Europe to serve as a wall against German aggression is the immediate aim of the mid-European federation. It will seek to organize a political military and economic wall along the eastern frontier of Germany.

Forces in America and in Europe are to be co-ordinated to this end, it is declared.

The purpose of the federation was outlined at the opening of the conference by Professor H. A. Miller, designated by the American government.

Unique to History

"Never before in history have the representatives of the eight nationalities here represented been gathered together in the unanimous purpose of working out a constructive political program for 65,000,000 people living in territories extending from the Arctic ocean to the Black and Adriatic seas," Professor Miller said.

Necessary to Permanent Peace

"It is the birth of the federation of states without which there can be no permanent peace. For many centuries the problem of the solution of which this organization was established, have been dealt with by methods in which justice played no part and in recent years it has been the deliberate purpose of Austria and Germany, by every possible artificial means, to stimulate disunion among them.

"Today the Union has been begun and the strength generated by those centuries of oppression is turning with its full force in the new defense. It is based on the democratic principle which President Wilson has so often proclaimed.

Checks Aun Aggression

"The strategic position is an absolute check against German aggression which means the realization of French Ambassador Jusserand, unable to attend, wrote: "I need not say that I sincerely share your sentiments for the nations still in bondage whose day of liberation is at hand. There is no son of France that does not believe as you do."

HUN CRUISERS SINK MUTINOUS UNDERSEA BOATS

Many Stories From Neutral Sources Tell of Revolt on Land and on Sea Against German War Lords

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 2.—Four German torpedo boats whose crews mutinied and attempted to take them out of harbor during August, were pursued by cruisers and sunk, according to information received here today. The occurrence is said to have been confirmed by the washing ashore of 15 bodies.

Thirty German sailors were executed at Kiel recently as the result of a mutiny against submarine duty. It is reported.

Several mutinies occurred among German and Austrian soldiers in the Ukraine during September. At Kherhoff, 6,000 Austrians are reported to have refused to go to the water front.

ROTTERDAM, Oct. 2.—Two German officers were killed by 100 mutinous soldiers on the Dutch-German frontier a few days ago. The troops refused to go to the front. Officers then fired upon them. Immediately the mutineers shot two officers dead.

ONE BILLION DOLLARS REMAINS TO BE RAISED

Country That Much Short of Total in Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Falling behind in its response to Liberty loans, the nation today had only raised the $500,000,000 mark. This achievement has required four days. Thus to subscribe $4,000,000,000, the minimum quota in the allotted time, daily sales hereafter must exceed $100,000,000.

Treasury officials, while admitting that the country is materially behind its requirements, pointed out that today's figures are not exactly fair. Reports indicate that millions of dollars in bonds have been sold but which have not been reported to the federal reserve banks. The discrepancy, therefore, may not actually be as great as it appears.

Despite unfavorable totals, encouraging reports are coming from various sections. Michigan reported that its quota was 60 per cent raised and Wisconsin claimed 37 out of 45 counties over the top at noon today.

Indications were this morning that Indiana will be one of the early states to attain its minimum. Iowa, which already has reached Ne-quota of $147,000,000, reported an over-achievement of $5,000,000 with the campaign still going.

INFLUENZA CAUSES LEMONS TO GO UP

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 3.—Spanish influenza is set without its compensations to the lemon growers. Reports received here today show that the heavy demand for hot lemonade in eastern cities, notably Boston, has sent lemon prices up to $7.45 a box. This is a 44 increase since influenza discovered America.

ROBINSON RESIGNS FROM ANTI-DIVISION COMMITTEE

State Committeeman Withdraws from County One Rights to View of Party's Decision

C. A. Robinson of Twin Falls, recently elected Republican state committeeman from Twin Falls county, has resigned as chairman and as a member of the anti-county division committee formed here previous to the primary elections. Mr. Robinson's resignation is tendered in view of the position taken by the Republican county central committee that the county division fight, if it is an issue in the present campaign, is to be waged outside the party councils.

FILER SOLDIER HAS "MOTHER" IN FRANCE

Madame Fijos Sends Greeting From Paris to Mrs. Etta Loehner

Mrs. Etta Loehner of Piler has received from her son, Corporal Homer A. Loehner of D Company, One Hundred Forty-seventh machine gun battalion, a letter which is enclosed a message from his French "mother." Corporal Loehner is stationed at Paris as a machine gun instructor. Without the friendship of his French "mother," he says, he would be lonesome, as his work is monotonous. Following is a translation of the French woman's letter:

"It is a mother who wishes to speak to you concerning your son, and who addresses to you her best congratulations concerning him. During the last month, while I have been with my sister, he comes every day to talk French with me. His progress is a pleasure. His visits are very pleasant to me for I am at present always awaiting news from my own dear boy who has been a prisoner for three months."

"Your son, dear madam, reminds me of him. Your son also is a brave boy who does not forget you for he often speaks of you. It is with pleasure that I shall follow him during his sojourn in France. His health is good and his conduct perfect."

"We mothers of France console ourselves thinking of the mothers of America who are separated from their boys which is a very painful. Nevertheless we are happy to see them under the folds of the flag."

"I greet you, madam, by sending to you love from your son."

"With best wishes from a friend."

"YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING," BUT THIS FILM STAR WINS MILLIONAIRE

"Kedsie" Wanted to Be a Motion Picture Star—Mrs. Cheever Wanted a Divorce—Jim Dyckman Wanted Mrs. Cheever, but Married "Kedsie"—So There You Are.

HOW Anita Adair, a film star, whose real name is Kedsie Thrupp, and who hails from Nimrod, Mo., won James Dyckman, scion of an old Manhattan family, in one of the most interesting developments of Cecil B. De Mille's special Artcraft picture production, "We Can't Have Everything," which is being displayed at the Idaho Theatre three days, commencing today.

According to the story, the couple met at the Iowa City and were wedded quickly. "Damon" had connected the name of the young millionaire with Chastity Coe Cheever, whose husband, "Felix" Cheever, was also rumored, had been finding amusement in association with a certain beautiful dancer—and for a time it was supposed that this would end in a divorce action. Cheever and Dyckman were childhood lovers. This was announced, how-
