British Begin Now Advance Eastward From Lens—Enemy Seeks to Check Tide With Machine Guns

By JOHN DE GANDY
PARIS, Oct. 10 (3:45 p. m.)—The Germans are reported to be withdrawing on all sectors along the whole 100-mile front between Cambrai and Rheims. They are employing countless machine guns to check the Allied push. Toward Lens, the Allies are accentuating their progress and are reported to have reached the Sambre-Oise canal. This represents an additional advance of about four miles northward of St. Quentin. The railway from Lens to Manbeuge via Gale is now under fire. Southeast of Vailly, General Manstein is advancing on the roads toward Ormaux.

CAVALRY POURING THROUGH GREAT RENTS IN WEST FRONT PURSUES FLEEING HUNS

Half Million of Germany's Best Soldiers Reported to Be in Utter Rout—Slaughter of Retreating Enemy Forces Appalling—Thousands Taken Prisoner in Mad Retreat—Quantities of Munitions and War Materials Fall Into Hands of Victors

The greatest victory in military history appears to be in the making. Attacking on a front of nearly fifty miles, from south of St. Quentin to the vicinity of Douai, British, French and American troops are reported to have effected a complete break through along nearly half of this front.

Through this gap the Allied forces are pouring in pursuit of nearly half a million of Germany's best soldiers, who are reported to be in utter rout.

Allied cavalry is galloping at the heels of the retreating Germans, while our infantry is following in their wake, practically without opposition.

A great number of prisoners and vast quantities of material have been taken. Slaughter of the enemy, as the allied troops swept through their last organized defenses on this front, is reported to have been appalling. More than 12,000 prisoners were taken in Tuesday's operations alone, according to official reports. A number greatly in excess of that figure is believed to have been captured yesterday.

The great German center of Douai appears to be within the Allies' grasp. The bases of Bohain and Housigny have fallen and the important transportation centers of Leconte, Solesmes and Billefont are being rapidly approached.

The next defensive system prepared by the Germans—known as the Valenciennes lines—is fully fifteen miles to the eastward of the present battle front. It is believed the enemy can not reorganize its armies and make a stand before that line is reached. While the British, French and Americans are widening the scope of their victories in this region, the French and Americans are battering away on the eighty-mile front between Rheims and Verdun, progressing on wide sectors.

The Argonne pocket has been utterly wiped out. The French and Americans here are now within less than two miles of Grandpre, with its control of the pass and railway through the forest.

GREATEST BATTLE OF ALL TIMES RAGING ON FRONT OF 160 MILES

The greatest battle of all times is being fought over fronts totaling 160 miles between Lens and Verdun. The British, French and Americans are advancing between Lens and Moy on a front of nearly 75 miles. The Champagne-Argonne-Meuse battle in which French and Americans are participating extends from Berry-A-Bac eastward to Beaumont, a distance of about 80 miles. Between these two great fronts is a stretch of about 50 miles, which swings around the St. Gobain massif. Huns Run Like Scared Rabbits Before Allied Attacks on Front of Twenty Miles Beyond Cambrai

By LOWELL MELLETT
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 10.—The Germans in the St. Quentin-Cambrai region, staggering under the impact of the combined British, French and American blow, appear to be on the verge of an utter rout.

The Allies have burst through the last of the organized German defenses along a front of a score of miles and have poured into the open country beyond.

The Germans are reported to wild retreat to the eastward, abandoning everything that would retard their flight. Allied cavalry is cutting and slashing at the enemy's heels, while our infantry is marching in the wake of the horsemen in column formation.
Additional advances of more than six miles at some points along the 60-mile fighting front are reported since yesterday's successful attack began. Bojay, Dunajky, Gazy, Gazy, Faussemme, Currier, Carnieres, Fontaine Notre Dame, Marcy and Mesieres-Sur-Oise are reported to have fallen.
The British and Americans are reported to be on the outskirts of Le Cateau and approaching Solesmes. To

And the War Has Arrived in Germany

And now comes the sequel. The war is "arriving" at home for Germany. American airmen in daily increasing number are carrying it there—in one and one-half hours—blasting the way for Furling's warriors toward the Rhine. The hero worship of the Kaiser allowed inevitable air circus is rapidly being lost with the home falls these days. This new map shows how American airmen are searching themselves, whipping the best the Kaiser can offer in the air and invading German territory—dropping bombs on the weaker troops, supplies or fortifications can be spotted—sends important rail centers in larger towns. The road to Saarburg, towns of Bayreuth, Freivalts, Salsburg, Longway, Omland and Garsse and even Metz suburbs are bombed daily.

RED CROSS IN CHARGE OF SOLDIERS' PARCELS

Twin Falls Chapter Gives Rules on Mailing of Christmas Packages

The Twin Falls County Red Cross chapter, in a statement given out today, makes public the instructions issued by the northwestern division, acting forth the conditions under which Christmas parcels may be mailed to men in the service overseas.

Following is the statement:

Families of men in the service abroad are eager to make Christmas conditions overseas as merry as conditions permit. The war department, realizing this, has decided that each man may receive from his family a Christmas package of standard size and approximately standard content.

The American Red Cross will prepare these parcels for mailing, an arrangement having been made between the war department, the postoffice department and the Red Cross.

Shipping space available will permit the sending of just one parcel to each man.

Men Getting Labels Now

To avoid any duplication and to make sure that each parcel is correctly addressed, a Christmas parcel label is now being issued to every man abroad. Every man abroad will mail his Christmas parcel label to some relative or friend who will be entitled to send him a parcel by complying with the conditions herein set forth.

Must Apply to Red Cross

The relative or friend who receives the Christmas parcel label from a man in service overseas, will apply to the nearest chapter, branch or community auxiliary of the Red Cross or to such other Christmas parcel station as may be designated by his Red Cross chapter, and upon receipt of the Christmas parcel label, will receive one carton, 3 1/2 x 5 inches in size. Cartons have not as yet been received by the Twin Falls county chapter. Notice will be given in the newspapers when they arrive.

The carton may be filled with any combination of articles that fit in it and which are not barred from Christmas parcels by the post office department. The list of articles which may be sent may be procured from the same place as the carton.

The weight of the parcel must not exceed two pounds fifteen ounces and wrapped.

When the carton is filled, it should be taken to the office where it was procured. Red Cross representatives will inspect the parcel and will exclude any article barred by the post office department from Christmas parcels; remove any notes or messages; wrap, tie and seal the parcel, place on the parcel the Christmas parcel label received from abroad, bearing the name and address of the recipient.

The person sending one parcel will, in the presence of the Red Cross representative, affix stamps at the rate of 12 cents for each pound or fraction thereof. (Parcel post rate to Hoboken, New Jersey.)

The Red Cross representative who inspects the parcel will then affix to the parcel the Red Cross inspection label, properly signed.

Parcels ready for mailing shall remain in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered by its representatives to the post office authorities.

Labels Are Required

No Christmas parcel can be mailed later than November 15.

No Christmas parcel can be accepted by the post office without the Christmas parcel label from overseas.

No duplicate can be issued if the Christmas parcel label is lost. This rule cannot be altered by anybody.

The store now, in these times, touches your interest with the force and pressure of a living theme. You cannot overlook it without overlooking your immediate purse interests.

SHEEP MUST BE DIPPED

Pursuant to a proclamation issued by Governor Alexander wherein the state is cooperating with the bureau of animal industry, all sheep that have been on the range this summer must be dipped. Any standard dip will do but a list of the accredited dips may be had upon application to Dr. W. A. Sullivan, inspector in charge at Twin Falls. J. J. Moon is sheep inspector at Rogers, and Mr. W. Sims will do the inspecting at Buhl.

Farm Where You Can Produce Most

Upon the efficiency and efforts of the American farmer depends, to a very vital degree, the success of the cause for which America's sons and her allies' sons are shedding their blood.

Europe's grain production this year is about 525,000,000 bushels below normal. Her cattle, sheep and hogs have diminished by over 30,000,000 animals.

Not only therefore, must America maintain her normal exports of grain and animal products to her European allies—she must make up these terrific shortages and add enough to counteract the losses from submarine warfare.

It is therefore incumbent upon the American farmer, handicapped as he is by labor shortage, to farm where he can produce most.

offers to American farmers an opportunity for maximum production and consequent larger earning capacity. This great ranch is located in the heart of California's famous Sacramento Valley. The crops that are being produced here right now are almost beyond the conception of the farmer who is unacquainted with this section.

There are no extremes of climate to combat. The land is ready for immediate cultivation and production. Close to markets. Good roads. Splendid neighbors. Excellent soil. Delightful climate. Electricity on every farm. Abundant water supply. Every condition is ideal for profitable, intensive farming. No Pioneering.

The last of the land is now being offered. If you are interested we suggest that you investigate at once. Would you like us to send you the names of farmers from your community who have bought at Capay Rancho.

GROWING CLOSER

The average man will find it a little difficult to realize that the election is only about a month off. Events three or four thousand miles away submerged politics for the first time in the history of the country. The public generally is interested in the war, and in politics, only incidentally. From time to time a newspaper story calls attention to the fact that the Constitution says something about electing representatives to Congress every two years, the question being of course, shall these representatives be Democrats or Republicans.

For a time it appeared that the Republican party was bidding for support and advocating as its sole platform the more or less uncertain fact that the Republican brand of patriotism was a little bit better than the Democratic brand. It now appears that there is another reason, namely, that what the government needs is opposition in order to make it strong, criticism to keep it straight and pitiless publicity of a kind calculated to stir up the smoldering embers of the fires of Republicanism wherever the word shall fall.

This is the idea brought forward by the Kansas City Star. We need, declares this Progressive-Republican organ, an opposition party. It is not in human nature to be an official's friends to criticize him wholeheartedly. The opposition on the other hand is not deterred by any personal or political consideration from pointing out weak places and insisting on strengthening them. The Republicans, we believe it can be said in truth, have not been deterred from criticism of the present Administration. They should be given control of the next Congress, therefore, (1) because they will support the President unconditionally; (2) because they will criticize him mercilessly.

Criticism, let it be remembered, has always been the main weapon of the opposition, whether that opposition be Republican or Democrat, but that there is any particular difference between the patriotism of a Republican and the patriotism of a Democrat the average man will find it hard to believe.

The Democratic party is doing what she can to fix up her fences to be sure, just as would the Republican party, if it were in power. After the war there will probably be something of a house-cleaning and if it is then shown that any certain officials have been directed in the conduct of their office, neglect of the public good to the aggrandizement of their own personal and political fortunes or subservient to any set of special interests in the detriment of some other class, it will be possible to invoke a remedy. But this sort of thing has very little to do with Republicanism or Democracy.

PATRIOTISM AND THE PARADE Patriotism is one of the greatest of war forces, and properly applied is responsible for unmeasured impetus along hundreds of lines of useful war activities, but patriotism in itself is but a state of mind. A mental condition which makes great demonstrations possible, helps to carry to a successful conclusion those war movements which without it might drag and in innumerable ways adds to the expert de corps of communities and nations. Patriotism finds expression in many ways, one of the commonest being the holiday and the big parade with its accompaniment of flags and banners, bands, speech making, red fire and parade men and women. During the parade, none work. Useful labor of every kind is laid aside, the task at hand is left unfinished; the nation or the community lets itself go for a period of idleness. The machinery of production along every single line is stilled. The parade amounts to a hiatus in the day's work.

There is room for question as to just the extent to which parades make for patriotism, but there is no question whatever but that patriotism makes for parades, and in so far as this is true there is justification for the parade, and no farther.

The matter is not one of primary importance in the West, but in the East and middle West the time is coming when one's mere presence in the line of march will not be regarded as the last word in the way of evidence of patriotism on the part of the marcher. The slowing down of the machinery of production due to the parade is difficult to measure, but in large centers, where the parade takes hours to pass a given point, it is considerable, and this at a time when the Nation is striving every view to supply needed requirements in the great war game and where every hour counts to an extent undreamed of only a year or two ago.

There can be no question but what an occasional holiday celebration is a good thing. It helps to keep alive the spirit upon which feeds the clear white flame of patriotism in its purest form, but too many holidays are a luxury in times such as these and the man or woman who cannot see and perform his or her duty except under the frequent spur of emotional stimuli such as is the main outward effect of such demonstrations, is of no particular consequence to the body politic anyway.

As before stated, holidays do not make for patriotism to one half the extent patriotism makes for holidays, and there are more useful ways of demonstrating one's patriotism.

PUTTING IT OVER Twin Falls County has gone over the top. C. D. Thomas, chairman of the committee having the big subscription in charge, is authority for the statement. If there ever was any room for doubt as to the ability of the people of this county to rise to an emergency when called upon to do so, that doubt is forever set at rest. The record is one of the most remarkable in the entire history of this section.

There is no evidence of gloom or discouragement in the record, rather there is presented an ennobling picture of sturdy endurance of the country's war aims of splendid confidence in the righteousness of the Allied cause and of deep and abiding faith in the resources of this section and of the country as a whole. And the part played by Mr. Thomas and his corps of willing assistants

THREE DREAMS

By JACK WALTON. Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union. The old lawyer carefully searched the library, but no later "will" could be found. The one replying in the safe could have no special value because across its back was written in bold letters: "This will is void. A later document may be found, leaving all to the niece whom we have learned truly loved us."

"Do not let us talk about such things," murmured Mary. "The man you think best with your property," Marsha had unselfishly advised. The first will divided the estate equally between the sister—why the elderly couple had seen fit to change their minds was a problem. Vaguely troubled, the girls added in the search with no success. Alone, they looked into one another's faces. "Had either one of us guessed them?" asked Mary. Marsha shrugged her shoulders. "I think we've been pretty grateful," she said, "staying with them night after night. And Uncle Horace was not the easiest person to manage, after Aunt Jane went. However, what difference does it make? Either one of us, should be willing to divide with the other."

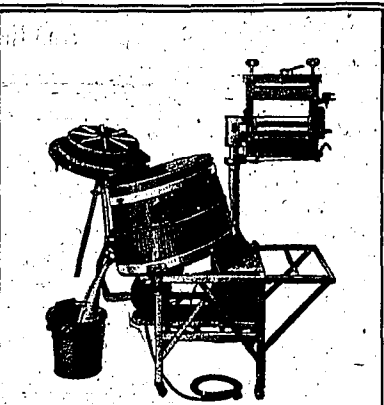

"Of course, dear," Mary hastily agreed, but a line showed between her pretty brows. She was thinking anxiously about the man whom Marsha was determined to marry. His exact name was well known. The division of property Mary considered just, but she wished wistfully that she might have been able to keep up the dear home and to live there with old Mamma Bell—when Marsha should be married.

Ferretly she looked over the months that were gone; could it be possible that she had offended? They had been so good to her, and she had waxed. And Marsha, too, looked back. "They could not have been prejudiced against Lester Blake," she remarked with satisfaction, "because they had never well of his intentions. You did not tell, Mary?" But as quickly she laughed. "Of course you wouldn't, loyal soul," she said.

So weak went by, with no solution of the mystery. "Praps, Miss Jane and Mister Horace weren't such decided which loved 'em 'till 'tween they went, honey," Mamma Bell suggested. They probably agreed to leave things up to her, she said. As for the three had exhaustively talked the subject over one evening. Mary went to her room and had a dream; at least it must have been a dream, though she was sure of its intention. She had unbuttoned her long hair before the glass, and turned to sit down in her favorite rocker, when in their usual easy way, Aunt Jane and Uncle Horace entered the room. Both were dressed in an old familiar manner, as arm in arm they stood for a moment looking down upon her.

"Oh, Aunt Jane," she cried, "and Uncle Horace, how glad I am to see you!" But though both old faces were illumined with a wonderful smile, Uncle Horace motioned her back; his eyes sought the timepiece upon the mantel. "Please do not go—But they were gone."

"Oh, Mary!" she exclaimed. "I have had such a terrible dream, though it wasn't in the least like a dream. I was reading before the fire, when the door opened and Uncle Horace came in. Yes, he did, with Aunt Jane behind him. They seemed to wait until I could control myself, and then Uncle Horace looked toward the clock, and all at once it came to me, like a flash, now was my opportunity to learn the truth, so I managed to blurt out: 'Where did you put the will?' It said: 'Who gets the property?' 'Speak quick,' I gasped, but they were gone."

SEVEN WARWORK RELIEF AGENCIES JOIN IN DRIVE

Recognized Great Organizations Representing All Creeds and Elements Welded Into One.

$170,500,000 IS THE GOAL

Plan of War Department to Avoid Wastes of Energy and Duplication of Effort Enthusiastically Adopted and Unity is Achieved.

WHAT GENERAL PERSHING NEEDS

"Give me nine men who have a hut and I will have a more effective fighting force than if I had ten men without it."

—General Pershing.

On November 11 the American people will start a one week's drive to give the largest amount of money ever given outright by any people in the history of the world.

The drive will be a new thing under the sun. For the first time Protestants, Catholics and Jews, forgetting all their differences, will line up shoulder to shoulder, welding their individual organizations together in the common devotion to the boys in the cantonments and over there. This amalgamation of the seven great agencies engaged in war work is one of the fine developments which have been brought about by the war and under the wise guidance of President Wilson.

The seven organizations which are gathered will make this united appeal to the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C., the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. Each of them will need funds this fall; each had planned a separate campaign for support.

By acting on the suggestion of the President's letter of September 6, the seven campaigns will be rolled into one. The American people will be spared the burden of seven separate drives and the nation will have an opportunity to demonstrate splendidly that men and women of all creeds at home can work together, as men of all creeds over there are fighting and dying together.

Dr. John R. Mott, whom President Wilson has spoken of as one of the ablest and most useful men of his generation, has been selected Director General of the drive. It is interesting to note that Dr. Mott's name was placed in nomination by John G. Ager of the National Catholic War Council and seconded by Moses L. Schiff of the Jewish Welfare Board. The general committee having the campaign in charge contains such well known names as Raymond B. Fosdick, Chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Activities; George W. Perkins, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the U. S. Steel Corporation; James F. Cannon of Hornbitter and Wacker, Honorable Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France; Cleveland H. Dodge, George Gordon Battle, Mrs. Henry F. Davison and Frank A. Candler, president of the National City Bank.

In every city, county and town the campaign will be in charge of the biggest of the community. Together these seven organizations represent a work that is staggering in its proportions. They have more than 10,000 uniformed members, standing shoulder to shoulder with the boys on every step of the way from home to the front line trenches. They operate more than 3,000 buildings and ship 600 tons of supplies to the boys in France every week. Fifteen miles of film are sent for the other side each week under their direction, and the regular weekly attendance of soldiers and sailors at their motion picture shows is more than 2,000,000. The Bibles furnished to the boys since the war broke out would, if piled one on another, make a pile more than twenty miles high.

"Morale," said Napoleon, "is as other factors in war as three to one." By which he meant that one man who is kept contented and happy will counter three men who are discouraged and homesick. It is the business of these seven great agencies to help maintain morale. They are keeping up the fine fighting edge of the nation by their ministrations, helping to put added power into our army and navy and so hasten the hour of victory when they will bring our boys home again.

It is predicted by national leaders that this great victory drive will "go over the top" in a larger way than any campaign that has preceded it.

WILL EMERSON HUN CLIMB BACK TO HOME DEFENSES

to emphasize allied determination for unqualified peace. The victory on the west front will carry to Germany more than anything else to date the fullness of her dreams of conquest.

Newsboys after two great disasters, now again and was not unqualified until his Waterloo. Germany must not be given even the opportunity to rise again in her military might, army men declare.

Already the smacking has reached the German people, according to reports to this government. Public opinion, which was counting on a stop at the Hindenburg line "is seriously affected." There is feverish recruiting everywhere in Germany.

All accepted are taken. Workmen are replaced by prisoners, by Russians and Poles—vegetable slaves—and by Belgian and French exiles. It is reported that the Allied bombardments have maddened the people.

They foresee that the German retreat eastward between Cambrai and St. Quentin and the German border and the American smelting of the Krommshilde line are the fore runners of a general withdrawal that will free Northern France and Belgium of the enemy. They think that this retirement can be accomplished before winter sets in.

Don't Like Peaceful Withdrawal

Military men privately expressed displeasure at the idea of granting the German acceptance to evacuate occupied territories and hand his arms out without damage. As his west front situation is now developing, they say the German is destined to suffer heavily in his retreat.

This fact is evidenced by official reports showing that the British took 6,000 prisoners Tuesday. The present retreat is considered the result of the hammering all along the west front. Each has kept the Huns in doubt as to his next move and has made the shifting of reserves a difficult task. Now, he has shaken the hold of the Huns on every important key of the western line and a secure establishment is in store for the Steing Germans.

But all available advice of an evacuation indicate that elimination of the evil genius militarism, can only be attained by absolute defeat and Germany will only confess she is vanquished when her people see, close at hand, on their own soil, the horrors of war.

Report Offer to Evacuate

Some military men here believe that Germany will answer President Wilson's inquiry with an offer to withdraw from invaded territories. They say that the German peace offer was the result of the desperate situation in which the Huns find himself on the west front and that he would like nothing better than the chance to get out with an armistice. However, mere acceptance of the armistice idea will be insufficient for the present, for the president left another stumbling block in the path by his demand that he could not bargain with the Hohenzollerns.

Military men are delighted over the developments of the western battle line.

Secret of Giragosian's Motor Not to Be Revealed

THE mystery that has surrounded Giragosian's free-energy invention—the "Gamma"—is not to be cleared by the official tests ordered by congress. The secret of the invention, if it proves a success, will not be disclosed until after the war. The Garabed, his inventor claims, will be of great use as an engine of war, and for that reason he does not wish its secret to fall into the hands of the Germans.

Five New England scientists have before them today invitations to be members of the board that will judge the invention. Giragosian will not tell their names. The tests will be held in Boston—and "very soon"—but the exact place and exact date the inventor will not give. He left Washington to arrange for the tests on February 20. The scientists will be the only persons present with Giragosian at the tests. Robert Hennessey, the inventor's closest friend and the only man to whom he has confided the secret of the Garabed, will not be allowed to witness these tests. The board of scientists will be pledged to secrecy. When the tests have been carried out, they will be permitted to make only one or two announcements. They may say either "it works" or "it has failed"—nothing more.

Giragosian approaches the tests with the same absolute confidence that he has displayed in every step of the long fight to have his invention tried out.

"M'KAIG AND SCHOLTZ, THE COURTS ARE OPEN TO YOU"—F. R. GOODING

H. F. SAMUELS QUIT IN FACE OF DUTY IN HIS OWN COUNTY

As Prosecuting Attorney During the Coeur d'Alene Riots He Refused to Attempt to Uphold Law and Order

Representative of Governor Steuneger, Who Gave His Life for the Honor of the State, Demanded in Vain That Samuels Act, But the Present Nonpartisan Candidate for Governor Went into Court and Disqualified Himself

TO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF IDAHO: Read this telegram from Bartlett Sinclair with care. In the greatest crisis that ever came to Idaho this man Samuels, who now asks you to honor him as your governor, failed to do his sworn duty.

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Oct. 7, 1918. Frank R. Gooding, Boise, Idaho. It is a source of great satisfaction to the law-abiding citizens of north Idaho, to learn that you have accepted the challenge of the Nonpartisan league and that you are fighting against the scheme to substitute a condition in our state bordering on anarchy for one of government.

In this contest now going on in Idaho you have a record which gives your assertions great value. From personal knowledge I know you gave the late lamented Steuneger personal and official aid in his war against anarchy. He lost his life as the result of that war, but I pray no such end awaits your defense of established society in Idaho.

When the unspeakable riots of the Coeur d'Alene of 1899 occurred I happened to be state auditor. The extent of these bloody outbreaks necessitated the declaration by Governor Steuneger of martial law.

He saw fit to appoint me under our state law his representative in the disturbed district in order to re-establish normal conditions. At that time H. F. Samuels, the Nonpartisan candidate for governor, was prosecuting attorney of Shoshone county, the scene of the insurrection. He had personal knowledge that murders had been committed and that the great mills of the Banker Hill & Sullivan company had been destroyed by the rioters and that hundreds of workmen thereby had been thrown out of employment, and yet he took no action to punish the offenders.

As administrator of martial law I appealed to him to do something to vindicate the state and the law. He refused.

Samuels was then forced to go before the courts and disqualify himself in all affairs growing out of the Coeur d'Alene riots.

To perform the duty he had sworn to perform, other attorneys, at great expense, had to be retained by the state. Senator Horn, James H. Hawley and J. H. Forsay were three of the attorneys so retained.

In the prosecution Samuels took absolutely no part.

To again entrust him and his allied Nonpartisans with the highest powers of government at this time of our country's trials is dangerous in the extreme.

He assumed that your championship will receive the support, not only of the Republicans of the north, but the Democrats as well. In this campaign the only issue in Idaho, as we view the campaign, is between the forces of law, patriotism and established society on the one hand and the forces of anarchy and discontent on the other. Before resorting to these extreme methods with Samuels I had wired Governor Steuneger that Samuels was cowardly and incompetent and an obstruction to the restoration of orderly and constitutional government in the Coeur d'Alene. Copy of these telegrams are part of the state records.

(Signed) BARTLETT SINCLAIR.

Every Statement I Make Is Backed by Facts That I Can Prove in Court—I Will Call Off This Fight Only When Your Mask Is Torn Off—A Word to Laboring Men: If Gompers Were Here He Would Be Fighting With Me Against Disloyalty.

To the people of Idaho: In my fight against disloyalty in Idaho I shall confine myself to statements that can be proven in court. Ray McKaig, Scholtz and Samuels, please take notice that the courts of Idaho are open to you.

A WORD TO THE LABORING MAN

There appeared in The Statesman on Sunday an advertisement from the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, under which appeared the name of Samuel Gompers as president. If Samuel Gompers was in Idaho, he would be fighting with me against disloyalty. I have had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Gompers, and to my mind only a few men in America have done more to help win this war than he.

If the Executive Committee of the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy in Idaho, will take the Idaho Leader, published by the Nonpartisan league, six other papers that are published by the Nonpartisan league, and five others that they have subsidized, and read the columns of these papers, they will find that these issues are practically devoted to arraying one class of citizens in Idaho against another. The dollar mark is set opposite my name in some of these papers. Cartoons, appear in which "Big Bis", as they call it, is drawn in the most hideous form possible. I am satisfied that the Executive Committee of the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy has been deceived by Ray McKaig and Scholtz, as many other honest citizens of Idaho have been deceived.

DISTRIBUTORS OF POISON

Ray McKaig, you ask me to discontinue my fight against disloyalty in Idaho. When you discontinue publishing the vile sheets that you have bought in Idaho with the farmers' money, and through which you are trying to poison the minds of the people against everything that is decent and fair and just, then and not till then will I discontinue my fight against the agents in this state of Townley and Arthur Le Seuer, Bill Haywood and the rest of the gang.

HIDING BEHIND LIBERTY BONDS

Ray McKaig, it is not strange that you would hide behind the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, if you could, but I am going to keep you in the sunlight, you and the men you represent. What have you done to help win the war. Are you any better than your national secretary, whose letter appears on this page. You, who boast of having a hundred organizers in Idaho who have been busy ever since this country entered the war, trying to divide the people among themselves. You are performing the same work in Idaho that the Bolshevik did in Russia. There they were successful, but here you will fail.

WHO COMMITTED BURGLARY?

Tell me, Ray McKaig, who broke into the window of the office of the County Council of Defenses in Gooding and stole from the records all the papers they could find in the Mann case. The papers that the thief was looking for were not there. They were safely locked in a vault. Tell me who sent a lawyer from Boise to Shoshone to represent Mann when Mann had his hearing and was bound over to await the action of the Federal Grand Jury.

I AM HELPING THE PRESIDENT

I am helping President Wilson fight the enemy at home, and the man that is not behind President Wilson at home and abroad with all his energy and with every effort of his mind and body is a traitor to his country.

McKaig and Scholtz, agents of Townley and Le Seuer, employers of Horace Mann, when you repudiate Townley and Arthur Le Seuer, I will call off my fight. It is always an open season in Idaho against disloyalists. When I tear off the mask from the agents of Townley and Arthur Le Seuer and they stand before the people of Idaho in their true light, this fight will end.

NOT MAKING POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

I am not fighting for the senatorship. I have forgotten all about office since I discovered that you are the agents of men who are traitors to our country. I have forgotten everything else, I am fighting for Idaho, the state that has honored me as it can honor only a few men in my lifetime.

WHAT ROOSEVELT SAID

That great American, Col. Roosevelt, brands your leaders, Townley and Arthur Le Seuer, as great enemies of society as Lenin and Trotsky.

Ray McKaig, you and Scholtz, go and see the great war drama by Griffith, "Hearts of the World," and there learn what was means, what the people of France have suffered and are suffering, while you are arraying one class of citizens in Idaho against another.

As you watch this great drama, and see our boys go over the top, don't forget to call back to your memory the guilty knowledge that while our boys have been facing bullets, you have been pouring bullets into their backs by creating dissonance at home.

Yes, I'll call off the fight, when the mask is torn off.

FRANK R. GOODING.

"FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE WORKERS BY THE WORKERS"

April 5, 1917.

Mr. Wm. D. Haywood, 164 W. Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Fellow Worker:

Have just returned from Des Moines, Iowa, and am very glad to be able to report that all of the cases there are disposed of favorably and the boys at liberty. I think the Defense Committee is satisfied with the handling of the case. Of course, it was not one in which any labor principle was involved, and, therefore, the fight was simply made to get the boys out.

My expenses for the trip were $34.30 and if you will send me a check for that it will clean the matter up. How are you coming with the Minnesota proposition? I hope you don't start anything until the year has expired. This damned war business is going to make it mighty hard to do good organization work or good radical work of any kind, but I think the fight should be now centered against spy bills and conscription.

Have you heard from Pennsylvania and Powers of Attorney? Yours for industrial freedom, (Signed) ARTHUR LE SEUR.

The above letter, which is a facsimile of one of the Government's exhibits introduced in evidence at the recent trial in Chicago of 100 members of the I. W. W., was written by ARTHUR LE SEUER, and shows his connection with William D. Haywood and the I. W. W.

Haywood, with ninety-two of his associates, was convicted of violating the espionage act, interfering with conscription, hampering the Government of the United States in the prosecution of the war, and was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment and fined $20,000. In his testimony, Haywood identified the above communication as genuine. ARTHUR LE SEUER is also SECRETARY of the NONPARTISAN LEAGUE.

If the above letter had been written after the espionage law was enacted, Le Seur would be in prison today with Haywood.

HORACE MANN'S CONFESSION

People Given Opportunity of Judging Nonpartisan League Leaders

PURPOSE OF ATTACK ON GOVERNOR GOODING DISCLOSED. RAY-M'KAIG'S LETTERS SHOW INTIMATE PERSONAL FRIENDSHIP WITH HORACE MANN, ADMITTED ORGANIZER OF NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE FOR GOODING COUNTY.

MANN'S CONFESSION

Gooding, Ida., Sept. 24.—At a meeting of the Gooding county council of defense last night Horace Mann, the organizer for the Nonpartisan league, was brought before the council to investigate his activities in this county. He was sworn and testified, in substance, as follows:

THAT HE WAS A RESIDENT OF CALIFORNIA; THAT HE WAS A SOCIALIST; THAT HE CAME TO IDAHO BY THE DECEPTION OF THE NATIONAL SECRETARY OF THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE; AND THAT HE WAS THE OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVE IN GOODING COUNTY OF THE STATE ORGANIZATION.

HE ADMITTED THAT HE HAD TOLD A NUMBER OF PEOPLE HERE THAT BILL HAYWOOD WAS NO BETTER HAVING MADE ALL THE STATEMENTS THAT HE HAD MADE CONCERNING GOV. GOODING, AND THAT GOODING HAD KIDNAPPED HAYWOOD AND BROUGHT HIM TO COLORED TO IDAHO TO BE TRIED; THAT HE HAD WATCHED THE CARE VERY CLOSELY AND WAS IN SYMPATHY WITH HAYWOOD.

HE ALSO ADMITTED THAT HE HAD TOLD A NUMBER OF PEOPLE THAT THE DRAFT LAW WAS UNCONSTITUTIONAL, AND THAT IN HIS OPINION IT WAS UNCONSTITUTIONAL, THAT HE WAS AGAINST THIS WAR AND EVERY OTHER WAR THAT HE HAD ALSO TOLD A NUMBER OF PEOPLE THAT THE BOLSHEVYK GOVERNMENT WAS THE HIGHEST TYPE OF DEMOCRACY, AND THAT THE WORD HAD NOT YET PRODUCED, AND THAT HE HOPED TO SEE A SIMILAR DEMOCRACY IN THIS COUNTRY.

HE ADMITTED THAT HE HAD TOLD A NUMBER OF PEOPLE THAT THE SOCIALIST BOOK PUBLISHED IN 1910, IN WHICH HE MADE THE STATEMENT THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AT WASHINGTON WAS A CANCER THAT MUST BE CUT OUT, AND THAT HE WAS STILL OF THE SAME OPINION.

the department of justice to proceed against him. This resolution was adopted unanimously. Mann was arrested by the sheriff and placed in jail last night and is still there. At the hearing were filed affidavits of the persons to whom he had made these statements, but inasmuch as he had bettered having made all the statements, they were not put on the stand.

WOMAN'S AFFIDAVIT

Mrs. J. B. Arkoon, in an affidavit, says that Horace Mann, the organizer of the Nonpartisan league, told her that the Bolshevik government was the best form of democracy in the world and that he hoped that we would have that kind of democracy in America. Mann admitted under oath that he made that statement.

LETTERS ON MANN

Letters found on Mann were as follows: Letter dated July 25, on Nonpartisan league stationery, signed by O. B. Fleming; letter of the same date signed by Ray McKaig; letter dated Aug. 9, signed by R. E. Kahl; letter dated Aug. 10, signed by Ray McKaig; letter dated Aug. 10, signed by Ray McKaig; also the official receipt book used by Horace Mann was discovered and a copy of the following Socialist pamphlets: "A People's Peace or Labor's Demand"; "Secrets of Diplomacy, or Profiteering"; "War, Who Gets the Profits and What Are You Going to Do About It"; "The Message of the New Russia"; "Democracy and Peace."

All of these letters are the most radical type of Socialist literature. A telegram dated Aug. 18, signed Nonpartisan league, and directed to Horace Mann, sent from Boise, was also found.

COPY OF LETTER FROM M'KAIG

"Nonpartisan League of Idaho, State Headquarters, Aug. 20, 1918. Dear friend Mann: Evidently you did good work, judging by the Gooding and ligerman meetings. We had a fine report of what was done there. The meeting at Gooding was splendid from what the governor (Samuels) told us, guess that county is well. The meeting at Shoshone was just put in there to call the preacher of kaiserism in that little town. The killers in Boise here are all on their knees. We are pulling in deal off tonight that will make them put their heads to the ground. The fact is in Boise, we have rotten ratten bunch, and I guess we have them on the run. Scholtz did good work in this strategic battle.

Very sincerely yours,
RAY M'KAIG.

SCHEME FOR MORE FARMERS

Another letter, on same stationery, follows: Boise, Sept. 10, 1918. Mr. Horace Mann, Gooding, Idaho. Dear Mr. Mann: Since the victory of September 3, our many farmer friends who voted with us but were not members have had their backbones stiffened and their enthusiasm intensified.

Commencing with Sept. 3, we are issuing receipts for the campaign for the next two years. In this mail we are sending you a receipt book for membership to 1919 and 1920 ending Dec. 1, 1920.

With this receipt, many a farmer will join who otherwise would turn us down.

Some of the organizers, two of them especially, reported yesterday that they were having no trouble getting men who turned them down last summer. For old membership you can renew, but just at the present time it is better to confirm your work to men who are not members. It is crowding a little too soon to ask for renewals from old members.

However, use your own sense of propriety in this.

If some of the old members should kick about the new members having an extension of time till 1920, and I can also ask your work to men who are not members. It is crowding a little too soon to ask for renewals from old members. The professional politicians not only on election day, but also in the reorganization, off up for their personal use, and about the machinery for the benefit of the people. Anyway, the reorganization has got to change the date at some time and the day of the primary election is a good hour for the change.

Very truly yours,
RAY M'KAIG.

GERMAN ARMIES DEMORIALIZED BY ALLIED ADVANCE

AMERICANS MOVE ON IN COLUMN FORMATION

Enemy Makes But Halfhearted Efforts to Resist Crushing Blows and Then Turns Tail

The southern French are bearing down on Ribemont.

A tremendous explosion yesterday was reported to have wrecked the center of Cambrai. Already swept by fire, fifteen or twenty blocks in the heart of the city are completely in ruins.

Progress Extends Northward

The Allied progress has been extended northward to the Scarpe and our detachments are reported to have entered Vitry-Es-Artois and Arras and to be headed for the greater center of Douai.

Inspired by their government's request for an armistice, of which they have heard only as much as was contained in the Kaiser's order of the day, some German divisions made one of the feeblest fights seen since the Somme became a battle field.

"They didn't fight like they did a week ago," said a South Carolina boy, who participated in both battles.

"If the Kaiser doesn't want to fight, why should we?" asked a German private, who became a willing prisoner.

Tanks Open the Ball

While the fighting was resumed in full force at dawn yesterday morning and some advances had been recorded north of Cambrai, even before that hour, the break was not noticeable until mid-day. Then some tanks were sent out across objectives varying from four to six thousand yards beyond the starting point.

As soon as the tanks were deployed in many places far ahead of the objectives.

The number of captured and slain Germans is staggering. Prisoners already filled the prepared cages to overflowing, while dead Germans and dead German horses strewn the ground everywhere. This, despite the fact that English, Scotch, New Zealand, French and American troops, participating in the advance, have escaped with light losses.

Many German Dead

Among the hundreds of Germans dead wherever the front has advanced forward, an unusual proportion were found with only a single clear bullet wound, bearing out admirable reports of the remarkable use of the tanks made of their rifles against the boche machine gunners.

The youngsters were not too busy shooting to take prisoners, however, as is shown by the fact that 1,050 men and officers were in the American camp before noon, and more were being taken.

Capture Town Three Times

They also took time to assist 32 old men and women and some children to escape from Mont Brehan to the rear. These French women had been in the hands of the Germans for four years. The Australians captured the town three times before it stayed captured. In the meantime the citizens remained in their cellars four days and nights. When some Americans passed through, on their way to join their comrades up in front, they asked to be sent back. This was promptly done.

These French people made no complaints of German cruelty. A French officer, experienced in handling refugees, explained discrepancies in stories of enemy treatment of civilians by saying it depends largely on the personal character of the German town commander. "He is an autocrat in complete control."

Tanks Do Good Work

The tanks had one of the most successful days yesterday in their comparatively brief military career. They went forward in long zig-zagging, crumbing formation to machine gun nests, mired with only a minimum of disaster. Lieutenant Koch of Washington, D. C., commanding a tank squadron with all-American crews, said: "We went straight through them without a hitch. There wasn't a single hitch between the kick off and the goal."

"When I left," said Carmon Dozier, of Yorkville, Tenn., "the Germans were running every way, ducking into sagrains holes. They didn't want to fight."

John Buntos, of Greenville, E. C., and Charles Freeman, of Anderson, B. C., confirmed Dozier's statement. A German officer in the prisoners' cage said a certain American brigade, when asked why his soldiers ran, sighed and said:

"Ems Won't Fight."

German officers have a hard time now. The men won't fight. The Kaiser's order of the day, telling us he wants peace, was read by the men when we received it day before yesterday. It hasn't helped any. The war is over, so far as we are concerned. Another officer said he didn't suppose the Allies would agree to peace now. Asked why he thought that, he replied that no "didn't know; just felt sure."

A third officer was greatly interested in the news reported and wanted all the details. He said the demoralizing of Germany already is under way, but that he doubted if they want to dismiss the Kaiser. It was a great day in the air, not only for the airplanes, but for propagandists, who sent up hundreds of paper balloons, carrying messages to the German troops. The refugees from Montbrehan reiterated the valuable fact such literature is having on the German soldiers.

and Americans consolidated their newly won positions.

Surprise Is Complete

The attack west of the Meuse was a complete surprise to the Austrians in that section. It would have taken four or five days to smash the wires and reduce the defenses by artillery preparation, but the surprise attack enabled the infantry to permeate the lines within a few hours and hold them.

The Austrians were anxious to surrender. One captain was found waiting on the trunk of a fallen tree. All the principal centers behind the German lines were bombed extensively, in connection with the attack. Tons of explosives were dropped on Metziers, Vuslens and points along the Meuse.

COUNTY BOARD SEEKS FURTHER INFORMATION

ish influenza. There seems to be nothing in the state law as it stands to warrant a physician in quarantining such cases, and action by the state board to this end may be required.

Inquiry as to the effect of the order upon the public library, pool hall and lodge also is to be made of the secretary of the state board by the county board.

One case in which Spanish influenza is suspected was reported to the county board here last Friday evening. It is stated that the person afflicted with the disease arrived here recently from Portland. The county physician has directed that the children of this family shall be kept at home until instructions from the state board are received.

It is reported also that one case of influenza exists at Hanson.

Effects of Order Locally

As a result of the issuance of the order by the state board of health, the regular meetings of several lodges to have been held here tonight have been abandoned. The public meeting at the close of the meeting of the synod of the Presbyterian churches of Idaho in session here last Tuesday evening has been cancelled. Manager E. C. Lavering of the Lavering theatre has called off the production here of the musical comedy, "You're in Love," which was to have been given Friday evening, and is refunding money paid for tickets in advance, and the motion picture houses last night sold their last admission tickets until the order is raised. The order has been received here generally in good part, and the appreciation of its necessity as a means of safeguarding public health.

FRENCH SHEEP HERDER'S HUMBLE ACT AN INSPIRATION

To the agriculturist or stock raiser of America who pursues their war work amid the quiet beauty of peaceful America, here is a picture which should prompt inspiration to stifle all complaints. It shows a French sheep herder driving his flock home amid the sound of cannon and bursting shell near the present line of battle. The great and the center of the destroyed church by the roadside tells of the nearness of the hateful Hun.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes For True Economy

"THE best is the cheapest," an ancient wisdom; the deep truth of it is now being made clearer. Clothes made of right materials in the right way last longer and look better; you pay more for them, but they cost less than poor stuff.

The reason we talk about Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes and say that if you need clothes they're the ones you ought to buy, is because the long wear and satisfaction you get makes them the least expensive clothes we know of.

Makers of Baby Vehicles Emit a Terrible Wail

ATLANTIC CITY.—The first thing happy young mothers know they will be troubling their babies in soap boxes or carrying them on their backs is Indian squaw fashion. Such, in effect, is the terrible warning uttered at a war emergency conference held by the National Baby Vehicle Manufacturers' association here.

The paternal United States government is using up all the materials that go to construct baby carriages—steel particularly.

One manufacturer asked, feelingly, if babies are not "essentials." All the perambulator makers expressed regret that the government has not recognized their product as among the essentials and has not acknowledged it as such.

It was pointed out that a baby who has to walk when it is very young will surely become lanky-legged and peevish, that bandy-legged young men are not made good soldiers—except, perhaps, cavalrymen.

A pessimistic manufacturer spoke of the importance of child conservation during the war, and declared there will have to be fewer babies for, certainly, there will be fewer baby carriages.
