Prince Max Speeds Up Peace Efforts While Hun War Lords Strive to Extricate Their Battered Armies From Desperate Predicament

LUXEMBURG APPEALS TO PRESIDENT WILSON FOR PROTECTION OF TERRITORIAL RIGHTS

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 14.—The government of Luxemburg has appealed to President Wilson for protection of the rights of that country, according to official dispatches received here today. Luxemburg demands that its territory shall be evacuated by the German army.

English Decline Flatly to Take Hun's Word for Anything—Bad Faith and Unscrupulousness Come Home to Roost.

By ED L. KEEN

LONDON, Oct. 14.—General opinion here with regard to the German reply to President Wilson's note of inquiry is summed up in the statement that there is doubt in Germany's sincerity. "How do we know Germany is playing straight this time?" "What guarantees have we that this note is not another scrap of paper?"

These are the queries that the man on the street is putting.

Military men are most suspicious of Germany's self-expressed "surrender." They believe an armistice without binding guarantees would be a most fatal mistake. German's armies still are comparatively strong, and while the Prussian war machine still remains unshaken.

Crash Militarism, First

It is most likely that Great Britain and the other Allies will insist that if the German war machine is to be dismantled and dismantled even after the evacuation of occupied territory before the entente considers relaxation of the military, naval and economic pressure.

London newspapers detect a lack of straightness in the German reply, and can discover no guarantee of the genuineness of the apparent democratization of the German government in Solff's statement.

Charge Bad Faith

The Sunday Times says: "Dr. Solff, as German colonial secretary, has been as jingoistic as any of the militarists in his demands for German world expansion, though of late he has seemingly inclined to the majority party resolution. The social-democrats who are now represented as having an active share in the government, are 'suspect'." In July, 1914, the Social-Democratic party declared it would not vote for the German war credits. On August 4, all but two voted for them.

"Reichsmann, German majority socialist leader, and his fellow signers openly opposed the minority section in their demands for prosecution of a peace without annexations and indemnities. They even threw over the majority resolution at the time of the German offensive last spring, and they made no visible effort to secure the promised democratic reforms."

Calls Armistice Extrajudicial

The London Observer says: "The note was as conciliatory as possible."

COUNTRY TO KNOW WILSON'S ANSWER TONIGHT

(The News will keep its leased wire open today until the President's answer is announced, informing the public of developments through its usual bulletin service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Secretary Lansing tonight will tell the nation what may be expected from President Wilson in reply to the German note received today.

No indication whatever is given as to the nature of the president's response.

It was indicated that it would meet the situation and satisfy the demand of this country and the Allies. Announcement that this information would be given out, was made at the White House, following a conference between the president, Secretary Lansing, Counselor Pike, of the State department, and Secretary Tammily.

By ROBERT J. BENDER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—With thousands of telegrams pouring into the White House today demanding the unconditional surrender of Germany, the hope was openly expressed in official circles that the president would refuse to negotiate with the central empire as long as the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs remain in power. The official German text was delivered to the president at 12:15 p. m.

Meantime the president conferred with Secretary Lansing, Secretary Baber, Secretary Daniels and Colonel House regarding the reply which all agree must be forthcoming as quickly as possible. That the president will stand pat on his refusal to accept the word of, or deal with, the Hohenzollerns was held certain by authorities usually reliably informed. It was indicated that the reply will make it clear that the Allied nations cannot trust the German government as at present constituted.

Only one thing, the record of the Hohenzollerns, appears today to stay the hand of President Wilson in accepting Germany's plea for action to restore peace. And even this obstacle may be waived by the president provided a bond, either human or Allied occupation of some German territory, is given to insure Germany's keeping faith. If, however, the president finds he cannot talk business with the German authorities as at present constituted, it is believed certain he will clearly point out in his reply to the German people how they may hasten peace.

GERMANY SEeks TO AVOID UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

PARIS, Oct. 14.—"The Nationalists seek to avoid an unconditional surrender," declares the Cologne Volkszeitung, in discussing Germany's reply to President Wilson. "The note was as conciliatory as possible."

The Cologne Gazette says:

"No one should expect Germany to sacrifice her life interests."

Must Not End in Words

The Allies, this information declares must not stop with mere words to Germany. That nation must be put in a position where it will be impossible for her to escape punishment.

If Germany's offer is accepted, necessary military guarantees must be taken to insure that she will not be able to strike back in case she breaks her word.

After all she has done the Allies are skeptical and should act accordingly it was declared.

Belgians and British Combine in Great Effort to Drive Enemy Back—"Progressing Well" Is Report

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Belgians and British began a great attack in Flanders this morning, the Fall Mill Gazette declares it has learned. The attack is said to be "progressing well."

The Anglo-Belgian front, at the end of the recent drive, extended to a great arc from Dinant to the vicinity of Lens, where it joined with the present fighting line. This front was about 65 miles long. Northward from Dinant to the sea there has been only minor fighting for years.

The Belgians were last reported on the outskirts of Boulogne, while the British were within less than five miles of Lille.

SURRENDER IS LOGICAL STEP FOR GERMANY

Enemy Troops on Eve of Great Disaster of Whole War—Armistice Now Would Be a Hun Victory

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—An armistice permitting Von Hindenburg to retire unscathed to the German frontier would give the Kaiser one of the major successes of the war.

The heroic struggle of the American forces north of Verdun is threatening to cut one of the two avenues of retreat for the German armies in France.

Luxemburg, by protesting today to President Wilson against the further occupation of her soil by German troops, shows a complete understanding in the little duchy of America's advance down the Moselle.

Luxemburg knows the Americans are closing in on the famous Stenay line of communications, so necessary for Von Hindenburg's safe retirement to Germany.

While General Pershing is blocking the way to the German frontier to the glory of American arms, the Kaiser appeals to President Wilson to let Von Hindenburg's defeated armies pass through Pershing's lines unscathed.

The only alternative for Von Hindenburg is to fight his way home. His forces are too large and too unwieldy to try to make a run for it. They would be overwhelmed and thrown into devastating confusion.

Three Months Work

It is three months ago tomorrow since the Americans first the Germans back across the Meuse and started them on their disastrous retreat. Since then Von Hindenburg has gone from 461,200 prisoners to report.

St. Gobain Massif, Cornerstone of German Defensive System, Wrested from Germans—Lines Falling Back Rapidly Towards Hirson, Enemy's Principal Supply Base, the Occupation of Which Will Divide Hindenburg's Fighting Forces

By WEBB MILLER

PARIS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Deeply the existence of strong machine gun defenses on the Bony-Loy, hills, the French have crossed the Grog-Leon railway at Barantou-Bugny, five miles north of Leon, according to reports from the battle front this afternoon.

The Champagne General Gouraud's men have reached the northern outskirts of Bethel.

The French are swiftly following up the German retreat along the battle front between La Fere and the Argonne region.

The whole Leon front, following evacuation of the St. Gobain massif, is crumbling. The French have captured a dozen additional villages. The railways leading from these are intact and great masses of shells and other war materials have been seized.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The last great German stronghold in France is in the hands of the Allies. The St. Gobain massif, which formed the cornerstone of the enemy's defensive system—the spot powerfully the world has ever known was wrested from the invaders Saturday and yesterday.

The big west front salient extending from the region of Gembrat to Verdun, is thus crumbling for its entire length and the Germans are staggering back toward the impassable Ardennes mountains.

In the north still remains the so-called Valenciennes line. It is still practically unscathed by Allied blows, but its hasty construction cannot have rendered it comparative with the Hindenburg system, which was four years in building.

Leon and La Fere Taken

With the fall of St. Gobain forest from which Paris was so long bombarded by long range cannon, both Leon and La Fere were occupied by the French.

Passing these cities, the French and Italians are advancing on the whole 35-mile front between the Oise and the Aisne.

The Allies are thus within less than 20 miles of the vital gateway center of Hirson, at the western tip of the German frontier, which will definitely split the German armies. French troops advancing westward in the Oise region are about 17 miles from Hirson while those pushing northward against the Leon are within 15 miles of the town.

To the eastward of Leon the French and Americans have practically cleared the Aisne bend of Germans and the fall of Bethel and Attigny is imminent.

It will have not already been occupied still further to the east the Americans apparently are still encountering resistance between the Argonne and the Meuse.

British Encounter Resistance

British and American troops east of Cambrai, are up against a system of new defenses which will be the outworks of the Valenciennes line. Fighting in this region has not been protected of important gains for several days.

Northeast of Cambrai the British have pushed to within eight miles of Valenciennes itself, while to the westward, Douai is practically in their hands.

Serbs Take Nish

Occupation of Nish by Serbian troops is officially admitted by both Germany and Austria. The Serbs are advancing northward and westward from the city. In the Salonika region the Greeks are rapidly re-occupying their invaded territories.

The Austrians attacking Albania are menaced on three sides. In addition to the Italians, advancing from the south and the Serbs and French, advancing from the west, the Austrians are now being harassed by foreign bands of Montenegrin irregulars in their rear.

Vienna reported encounters with these new forces near Zek.

Since July 19, the Allies on all fronts are estimated to have taken 461,200 prisoners.

TURKS ASK FOR COMPLETE HALT OF HOSTILITIES

Definitely Ask President to Arrange for Armistice on Land and Sea and in the Air—Fourteen Points Accepted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Turkey today besought the President to take upon himself the task of re-establishing peace; accepted Wilson's fourteen terms as a basis for negotiations and requested an immediate general armistice.

"In order to put an end to the shedding of blood, the imperial Ottoman government requests that steps be taken for the immediate conclusion of a general armistice, on land, on sea and in the air."

The September 27th speech referred to above was the president's talk in New York declaring for impartial justice to all, whether friends or enemies.

The new following closely the lines of the British and American peace notes, was delivered by the Spanish ambassador, who received it yesterday. It read:

"The undersigned charge d'affaires of Turkey has the honor of conveying your instructions from his government, to request the Royal Government to inform the secretary of state of the United States of America by telegraph that the imperial government requests the President of the United States of America to take upon himself the task of re-establishment of peace; to notify all belligerent states of this demand and to invite them to delegate plenipotentiaries to initiate negotiations."

"(The imperial government) accepts as a basis for the negotiations, the program laid down by the president of the United States in his message to congress of January 8, 1918, and in his subsequent declaration; especially the speech of September 27."

Yanks Participate

On Several Fronts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Strong and repeated enemy counter-attacks on both sides of the Meuse Sunday were broken by American forces, General Pershing reported today.

"On both sides of the Meuse, our troops today (Sunday) broke up strong and repeated attempts of the enemy to dislodge them from their recently won positions," the communique said.

"American divisions continued to participate in the successful operations under command of the British north of LeCateau and of the French in the Champagne. At other points held by our troops, there is nothing of importance to report."

FOREST FIRES SWEEP TIMBER TAKING LIVES

Over Two Hundred Persons Lose Lives in Thirty-Six Hours and Millions of Dollars Property Lost

FOURTEEN TOWNS RAZED AND THOUSANDS HOMELESS

Trains Run Terrifying Races Through Flames, Saving Hundreds of Lives—Worst Fire in History

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 14.—More than 500 persons have perished in the most disastrous forest fire in the history of Minnesota, according to the belief of city officials today. Reports exhibited from the devastated region indicated that fully that number of bodies had been recovered, it was stated.

One hundred and eleven bodies lay in Duluth morgues. At Moose Lake, Minn., 102 bodies have been found.

Automobile trucks, manned by home guards, were arriving hourly at Duluth with other charges, bodies.

State Forester W. T. Cox, estimated the damage at $30,000,000. Fifteen thousand square miles of forest land, he said, had been fire swept.

Some of half crazed refugees screeched, "Big, God, Ditch! Dooms, turned and state gardenmen were giving relief to the injured.

Flames still raged in many sections of the stricken district today, though the situation was greatly improved. Smoke palls and smoldering fires hampered the work of rescuers. Many fire fighters, and some workers have returned to Duluth suffering from injuries and burns.

Governor Burnquist and Adjutant General Rhinow, were at Moose Lake today directing rescue work.

Start in Post Days
Early today the fire was reported checked, but still burning.

First fires were reported Saturday in post box, 75 miles east of Duluth. These drove directly east toward the cities of Duluth and Soperwood Wis., both of which were singled. Other fires originally in the Superior region, extended to Duluth.

The towns in the path of the flames were saved by surrounding swamps. Others were wiped out and are mere blackened ruins today.

Trains Race For Harbor
Residents of these cities hurried out for refuge. Some were reported checked, but still burning.

At Moose Lake, Minn., a score stood neck deep in the lake over night, fighting the flying brands. Some guards checked the fire, dragged the refugees from the water and hurried them to Duluth, where other hundreds were cared for.

Ship 300 Cakes
Adjutant General E. P. Rhinow ordered 300 cakes shipped to the fire swept district, but the number of deaths was only a gross.

Bodies taken today swept through the desert territory without dispatchers' orders, telegraphic lines being destroyed.

In addition to residences in destroyed villages, millions of feet of lumber have been burned.

Among Minnesota towns reported practically wiped out are Cloquet, Brookston, Arnsvold, Corona, Odenah, Odeida, Emerald, Moose Lake and Wright.

M. Jones, of Pine City, drove an automobile truck into the woods at night and returned within half an hour with 14 bodies.

"I thought they might be alive," Jones said, "but when I lifted them, their flesh fell away and only the bones were left."

Charred Bodies Taken From Auto Wrecks

MOOSE LAKE, Minn., Oct. 14.—Working under the personal direction of Governor Burnquist and Adjutant General W. E. Rhinow, every unburned man and woman in this stricken community searched the blackened pine woods today for forest fire victims.

In a bare shed 102 bodies, brought in by home guards and railroad lay in rows. It would seem that the dead still here will grow.

Thirteen bodies were taken from the cellar of the home of E. C. Dudley at Pine City, Minn. The victims were three entire families that had sought refuge here.

Wife Found Wiped Out
A man and two hysterical daughters had resorted to a shallow ravine in the woods outside the village where seven other members of the fam-

TEXT OF GERMANY'S ANSWER TO PRESIDENT'S PEACE QUERIES

"In reply to the questions of the President of the United States of America, the German government hereby declares:

"The German government has accepted the terms laid down by President Wilson in his address of January the eighth and in his subsequent addresses on the foundation of a permanent peace of justice. Consequently, its object in entering into discussions would be only to agree upon practical details of the application of these terms. The German government believes that the governments of the powers associated with the government of the United States also take the position taken by President Wilson in his address. The German government, in accordance with the Austro-Hungarian government, for the purpose of bringing about an armistice, declares itself ready to comply with the propositions of the President in regard to evacuation."

"The German government suggests that the President may occasion the meeting of a mixed commission for making the necessary arrangements concerning the evacuation. The present German government, which has undertaken the responsibility for this step toward peace, has been formed by conference and in agreement with the great majority of the reichstag. The chancellor, supported in all of his actions by the will of this majority, speaks in the name of the German government and of the German people.

ly lay dead. Ina Jopinski, terribly burned, was being cared for by doctors when the bodies of his mother, brother and three sisters were brought to the make-shift morgue.

Edward Lower of Kettle Lake, Minn., and a doctor other was herelately run through the burning woods, moving 80 pounds of dynamite, wrapped in wet blankets, to a place of safety.

Just out of Moose Lake rescuers found seven automobiles piled in a twisted heap on a turn in the road. Blinded by smoke, the drivers are believed to have plunged off the curve with their cars, each adding to the wreckage. Fire had swept the pile, and many burned bodies were removed.

Home gardeners have commenced every available automobile and truck and are searching the woods for victims.

COECHOHAN FOR COMMISSIONER
M. B. Coechohan, a former resident of Twin Falls well known here, living now on his farm near Eden, Idaho, has been nominated by the Republican central committee for Minidoka county, as a candidate for county commissioner in the third district to apply the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of A. B. Rice. Mr. Coechohan is a Democrat and is nominated by the Republican committee in pursuance of a fusion program adopted in Minidoka county with a view to defeating candidates nominated by the Non-partisan league.

"THE COURTS ARE OPEN TO YOU, TOWNLEY, LE SEUR, M'KAIG, SCHOLTZ, SAMUELS. I AM TEARING OFF YOUR MASK."---FRANK R. GOODING

I CAN PROVE EVERY STATEMENT I MAKE
---READ FACTS ABOUT THE WAY THE
NON-PARTISAN LEADERS ARE CON-NECTED UP WITH DISLOYALTY

I am tearing the mask from the Non-Partisan League leaders. Am showing the connection between them and disloyalty. I am trailing these leaders down.

Take Townley first. He openly worked with the Socialists until he discovered that the farmers were not inclined that way. Ever since he has been attempting to promote Socialism through the Non-partisan league. He is today as much a Socialist at heart as he ever was. He has catered to pro-Germans everywhere.

Arthur LeSeuer is executive secretary of the Non-partisan league and Townley's most active right-hand man. LeSeuer directs McKaig and Scholtz and all the other Non-partisan league leaders in Idaho. He is a rank I. W. W. and has been interested in formulating and extending the pro-German sentiment in this country. Read his letter to Bill Haywood, printed on this page. LeSeuer is president of the Socialist college founded by Debs, who was sent to prison for twenty years for sedition.

LeSeuer sent to Idaho Horace Mann, who confessed that he was an I. W. W. sympathizer, rank Socialist and disloyalist and that he had been peddling Bolshevik literature in Idaho. Read the story of Mann's confession on this page.

All in a String

Here we have Debs, Haywood, Townley, LeSeuer, McKaig, Mann, Scholtz, and all the others who are attempting to deceive the farmers of Idaho, lined up together---WHISPERING HOT AIR IN THE FARMER'S EAR WHILE POURING THE POISON OF SOCIALISM IN HIS COFFEE.

In March of this year LeSeuer, as executive secretary of the national Non-partisan league, wrote Governor Burquist, of Minnesota, asking him to address a convention of the league. Governor Burquist declined. He branded the Non-partisan league leaders as disloyal and LeSeuer as an I. W. W. and said, among other things:

"How, under such circumstances, the farmers of Minnesota, who have been threatened with the loss of their farms, who have time and again been compelled to appeal to peace officers for protection against the members of this lawless, anarchistic organization, can now join a league with promoters whose sympathies have been with this law-breaking, Bolshevik element of our society is well-nigh incomprehensible."

Condemned by Roosevelt

In the course of a liberty loan speech at Billings the other day Theodore Roosevelt, the best friend the farmers ever had, read LeSeuer's letter to Haywood and commented on it. ROOSEVELT DENOUNCED THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE LEADERS AS UN-AMERICAN AND BOLSEHEVISTIC. And he said more. He declared there was no pro-German in the country who was not praying for the success of the Townleyites with their ranting Socialism. They want McKaig and Scholtz and Samuels and the whole lot to win in Idaho. Do you?

Roosevelt admitted that the Non-partisan league leaders had fooled him for a time but at last he saw them in their true colors, so he repudiated them, JUST AS OTHERS ARE REPUDIATING THEM.

Read That Letter

If you don't believe it, read the letter of Paul H. Allred, of Blackfoot, Idaho, to the headquarters of the Non-partisan league. He is a farmer. He joined the league. He gives in this letter one reason for quitting the crowd.

Samuels Failed in Duty

There is another article on this page I want you to read---the telegram from Bartlett Sinclair to me. It tells the story of how H. F. Samuels, who is the Non-partisan league candidate for governor, showed the white feather when he was prosecuting attorney of Shoshone county during the Coeur d'Alene riots.

HE FAILED TO PERFORM HIS SWORN DUTY IN THE GREATEST CRISIS IN THE HISTORY OF IDAHO. COULD SUCH A MAN BE TRUSTED TO ENFORCE THE LAW IN IDAHO? Would not such a man be more apt to stand in with disloyalists than to attempt to enforce law and order?

I can prove all the statements I make. The courts are open to Haywood, Debs, Townley, LeSeuer, McKaig, Scholtz and Samuels.

The fight is on against the plan of the Non-partisan league to set up a Bolshevik government in Idaho.

Mr. Citizen, which side are you on?

FRANK R. GOODING.

Mr. Wm. D. Haywood,
194 W. Washington St.,
Chicago, Ill.

Fellow Worker:

Have just returned from Des Moines, Iowa, and am very glad to be able to report that all of the cases there are disposed of favorably and the boys at liberty. I think the Defense Committee is satisfied with the handling of the case. Of course, it was not one in which any labor principle was involved, and, therefore, the fight was simply made to get the boys out.

My expenses for the trip were $34.30 and if you will send me a check for that it will clean the matter up.

How are you coming with the Minnesota proposition? I hope you don't start anything until the year has expired. This damned war business is going to make it mighty hard to do good organization work or good radical work of any kind, but I think the fight should be now centered against spy bills and conscription.

Have you heard from Pennsylvania and Powers of Attorney?

Yours for industrial freedom,
(Signed) ARTHUR LE SEUER.

AL:Y

The above letter, which is a facsimile of one of the Government's exhibits introduced in evidence at the recent trial in Chicago of 100 members of the I. W. W., was written by ARTHUR LE SEUER, and shows his connection with William D. Haywood and the I. W. W.

Haywood, with ninety-two of his associates, was convicted of violating the espionage act, interfering with conscription, hampering the Government of the United States in the prosecution of the war, and was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment and fined $20,000. In his testimony, Haywood identified the above communication as genuine. ARTHUR LE SEUER is also SECRETARY of the NONPARTISAN LEAGUE.

If the above letter had been written after the espionage law was enacted, Le Seuer would be in prison today with Haywood.

HORACE MANN'S CONFESSION

This Disloyalist Was Sent to Idaho by Le Seuer and Worked Under the Direction of McKaig.

You have all read the confession of Horace Mann. He admitted under oath that he had been sent to Idaho by Arthur LeSeuer, secretary of the Non-partisan league, to work among the farmers for the league; that he had been working under the direction of Ray McKaig, the field secretary for the league in Idaho. He confessed that he was a Socialist and a sympathizer with the I. W. W.; that he had made statements in defense of the acts of Haywood; that he declared the draft law unconstitutional and that he was against the war; that he had told a number of people that the Bolshevik government was the highest type of democracy that the world had yet produced. He also admitted the authorship of a Socialist book containing rabid statements.

When Mann was arrested letters and documents were found on him confirming his confession. Among them were letters from Ray McKaig praising Mann's "good work"---his damnable Socialism, I. W. W.---pro-Germanism.

Before Mann confessed, affidavits of reputable citizens were published in Boise and all over the state reciting the disloyal statements he had made. McKaig was fully advised of these affidavits but he did not stop Mann, but sent him back to continue to peddle pro-German propaganda, and when he was arrested McKaig took steps to defend him.

But the evidence was overwhelming and Mann confessed everything. Many incriminating letters were found on Mann and were taken over by the secretary of the Gooding county council of defense. Later the secretary's office was burglarized and all the Mann letters that were there, then were stolen. The more important ones had been placed in a bank vault. Who burglarized the secretary's office McKaig knows why this was done! Tell us, McKaig.

Read This Letter--It Gives One of the Reasons Why Farmers Are Disgusted With the Nonpartisan League Leaders

Blackfoot, Idaho, B. F. D. No. 2, Oct. 5, 1918.---Headquarters Non-partisan League, Boise, Idaho.---Dear Sirs: Some time ago I gave a deferred check to your organizer to pay a membership fee in what the organizer pledged me was a clean, legal and loyal beneficial organization of farmers. Today I am ordering payment upon said check stopped because I refuse to support any organization that so plainly bears the earmarks of being under a leadership whose highest ambition it is to sling mud and malign the character of men who have stood as bulwarks of the loyal citizenry of our country. The first circular ever mailed me from your headquarters, contains a letter signed by Troness and French and published by you as a light of literature, when every honest farmer must see, if he would take time to read it, that the vituperative language used against Governor Alexander is too vile for publication even in the dirtiest of political sheets. And then, when Roosevelt, our foremost citizen, was being beset through the columns of your paper, his eyes at his solicitation were paying out their heart's blood for you and me. And when the Non-partisan leaders have been banking the president, their national secretary was writing seditious love letters to big Bill Haywood, arch-traitor of modern history.

Where was this party's leaders when F. B. Gooding, another state and national leader, was risking his life to bring to much-merited justice the same traitor ere he had yet struck at the heart of his country? When farmers choose to organize, they will not need to stoop at the dirt contained in your publication to win their cause.

Respectfully,
(Signed) PAUL H. ALLRED.

R. F. SAMUELS QUIT IN FACE OF DUTY IN HIS OWN COUNTY

As Prosecuting Attorney During the Coeur d'Alene Riots He Refused to Attempt to Uphold Law and Order

TO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF IDAHO:

Read this telegram from Bartlett Sinclair with care. In the greatest crisis that ever came to Idaho this man Samuels, who now asks you to honor him as your governor, failed to do his sworn duty.

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Oct. 7, 1918. Frank R. Gooding, Boise, Idaho. It is a source of great satisfaction to the law-abiding citizens of north Idaho to learn that you have accepted the challenge of the Non-partisan league and that you are fighting against the scheme to substitute a condition in our state bordering on anarchy for one of government.

In this contest now going on in Idaho you have a record which gives your assertion great value. From personal knowledge I know you gave the late lamented Stuenberg his personal and official aid in his war against anarchy. He lost his life as the result of that war but I pray that no such and awaits your defense of established society in Idaho.

When the unspeakable riots of the Coeur d'Alene of 1899 occurred I happened to be state auditor. The extent of these bloody outbreaks necessitated the declaration by Governor Stuenberg of martial law.

He saw fit to appoint me under our state law his representative in the disturbed district in order to re-establish normal conditions.

At that time H. F. Samuels, the Non-partisan candidate for governor, was prosecuting attorney of Shoshone county, the scene of the insurrection. He had personal knowledge that murderers had been committed and that the great mills of the Bunker Hill & Sullivan company had been destroyed by the rioters and that hundreds of workmen thereby had been thrown out of employment, and yet he took no action to punish the offenders.

Samuels was then forced to go before the courts and disqualify himself in all trials growing out of the Coeur d'Alene riots.

To perform the duty he had sworn to perform other attorneys at great expense had to be retained by the state. Senator Bornh, James H. Hawley and J. H. Forney were three of the attorneys retained.

In the prosecution Samuels took absolutely no part. To again entrust him and his allied Non-partisans with the highest powers of government at this time of our country's trials is dangerous in the extreme.

Be assured that your championship of decent and sane state government will receive the support, not only of the Republicans of the north, but the Democrats as well. In this campaign the only issue in Idaho, as we view the campaign, is between the forces of law, patriotism and established society on the one hand and the forces of anarchy and discontent on the other.

Before recording of these articles made with Samuels I had wired Governor Stuenberg that Samuels was cowardly and incompetent and an obstruction to the restoration of order and constitutional government in the Coeur d'Alene. Every one of these statements are part of the state record. (Signed) BARTLETT SINCLAIR

THE WAY TO GO ABOUT IT

Saturday afternoon peace plays are getting to be a regular part of life in Germany. Beyond doubt, no more interesting program for the entertainment of the German people could possibly be devised.

The point to be kept constantly in mind in connection with the present peace negotiations is simply the great fact that an unconditional surrender alone can mean peace. If all Germany subscribes to the fourteen points of President Wilson's program, will peace be a long way off.

Official Washington is not deceived by the bon canoeing. The men at the helm here are moved only by facts, not rhetoric. The picture of a German submarine engaged in shelling the unprotected sailors in small boats, who were endeavoring to get safely away from the torpedoes of the Ticonderoga does not square with the official announcement.

Controllery Intelligence. If caterpillars cannot actually think, it appears that they have a dexterity of sense not generally recognized. In a London institution lecture some time ago Frederick Enoch, who has been studying the insects for half a century, showed that they really seem to be conscious of their markings and coloration and are able to use the knowledge in protecting themselves from birds, their natural enemies.

V. H. Decker Takes Charge of Campaign to Gather Material for Gas Masks

V. H. Decker of Twin Falls, upon whom the responsibility for collecting within his territory trench pits and gas shells, painted red, white and blue, will be placed at central locations for the reception of the materials desired. These barrels will be emptied as they are filled, and in this work, in Twin Falls, the Boy Scouts will play an active part.

Following is a list of the materials that are called for in the manufacture of gas masks for the protection of our fighting men from German poison gas: Peach pits, apricot pits, plum pits, olive pits, date seeds, cherry pits, nut shells except peanut shells.

SURGEON SUPPLIES NOSE FOR AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM

John H. Turner, Boise Road Man, Thanks Return of the Restoration of His Nose

To surgical skill, exemplified in an unusual operation performed Friday at the Twin Falls county general hospital, is the credit due for the fact that John H. Turner of Boise, a representative of the state highway commission, has today a nose and that his face is not as flat as it was left as a result of an automobile accident in which he was injured two months ago, while inspecting work in the Bush highway district.

As a result of the automobile accident, in which Mr. Turner's head was caught between the edge of the car when it skidded and turned over, every bone in his face was broken. One eye was removed by the surgeons and his jaw, which had been torn loose, was wired into place where he was first brought to the hospital.

Mr. Turner is well on the road now to complete recovery, and will bear few evidences of his unfortunate experience.

Zero Hour no Longer Excites Yank

The "zero hour" falls now to excite Yank warriors. A close up and a few hand-to-hand fuses with Huns is the reason. Going over the top is now merely a matter of the day's work—as this photo from the western front shows. Here is our staunch Yank scrapper, brigaded with the British Tommy. They are up in the reserve trench and awaiting the word to go over. Our Yank enjoys a restful nap until that order comes.

Bottles Put in Hobo Office Were a Poor Joke

WHO was the "wot" individual that laboriously collected 20 ancient and empty whisky bottles and placed one, each at the doors of 20 different representatives in the house office building where the junior cabinet help but stumble over them? And who among the members of the house, if they see fit to indulge in alcoholic spirits, are fools enough to advertise their falling at a time when prohibition is on us, everyone?

The 20 "hobo soldiers" alleged to have been collected by the janitor of the house office buildings on his Sunday rounds were placed purposely, it is seemed, at the doors of representatives who voted to keep the prohibition rider in the $10,000,000 agricultural appropriation bill. Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, leading prohibitionist, not only attributes this pitiful joke to an abortive attempt to discredit the work of the "dry" element in congress for the nation as a whole, but characterizes it as an attempt to forestall the attempts to make Washington "bone dry."

FORTUNES OF WAR BINDS TO COMRADESHIP

The fortunes of war reduces seemingly quaint costumes and race characteristics to a common understanding such as no other medium. For example—these comrades in arms—three years ago unable to understand the aims and ambitions of each other, today fighting and dying for a common ideal—freedom, democracy. Left to right they are American, British, India and French, all helping to curb the Hun.

Very Good Reason. One reason a man has more pockets than a woman is because his collar is too tight to permit him to throw things down his shirt front. Galveston News.

ABSENCE DID HELP

By CATHERINE PARSONS. (Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.) Katrina flung her hook on the ground and sprang to her feet impatiently. "I'm a fool," she told herself crossly. "A stupid, silly girl! I came here to get away from Carter—because I thought I hated him—and I've never passed such a miserable week in my life!"

"Hello!" piped a shrill, childish voice near her. Katrina looked around and saw a small ragged little girl regarding her intently. "I live over the hill in the gray house," she began by way of introduction. "I seen you dittin' here yesterday and you looked so sad that I thought maybe you got some trouble, too."

ENTERS TRAINING FOR MUNITIONS INSPECTOR

E. P. Nafziger, Formerly of Twin Falls High School Faculty, Describes New Work

Edward P. Nafziger, instructor in science and athletic coach last year for the Twin Falls high school, has been transferred from Camp Lewis, Washington, to Carver's Point, New Jersey, where he is in attendance at a technical school for two months training preparatory to service in one of the numerous munition factories in the east as an inspector.

Regarding his work and surroundings Mr. Nafziger says in a letter received here, "There are some eighty men here at present. The school is located in the limits of the DuPont powder mills which extend five miles down the Delaware river and also that distance inland, so it is a big enough plant, Carver's Point might be termed a 'war baby' town for it is an outgrowth of Penn. Grove is just across the river from Wilmington, Delaware.

Girls are 'Powder Monkeys' "A good many girls and women work in the mills in the capacity of 'powder monkeys' dressed in kinked bloomers and trench hats. They have signs in the mills, 'Don't talk to the powder monkeys,' which proves that the entrance of women into the industries calls for regulations. The mills run night and day, three shifts of eight hours each.

Secretary Baker Urges Full Speed Ahead in Work of Sending Men and Munitions to the Battle Lines

FRUITS OF VICTORY MUST BE SAFEGUARDED

No False Assumption That the War Is Nearly Over Must Be Allowed to Interfere with Government War Program

By CARL D. GHOAT
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(What was the result of the peace proposals? The war department must proceed at full speed with men and supplies, and the people must support the army until the boys are back with the fruits of victory safe and sound.)

Must Have Full Support
Victory for American Allied arms in a few short months, regardless of what is done about diplomatic maneuvers, was predicted by Baker's associates, provided the loan is overwhelmingly supported.

Has 'Inside' Information
There is reason to believe the President knows much behind the scenes in Germany of which the world at large is ignorant.

Fourteen Peace Points
Open peace negotiations.
Freedom of the seas in peace and war.
Elimination of economic barriers among nations according to league to insure peace of armaments.

Great Gun Concentration
Speaking of the St. Mihiel drive, Baker revealed that more than 2,000 guns were concentrated there.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER IS SENATE'S IDEA

Senator Lodge Would Compel President to Drop Parley and Demand Unconditional Surrender as Only Terms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Germany's unconditional surrender was demanded in the Senate today, as the only peace terms that would be acceptable by the American people.

Understanding of "Erebration"
It is understood that this government means that Germany's agreement to evacuate occupied territory includes Russia—and means she will withdraw all her great armies back to her borders.

Does not express by officials that an armistice which would be arranged entirely by General Foch, Esig, Durr, and the Greek and Serbian staffs would be conducted in such manner as to insure the allies against any Tontin trick.

Thus, only on the question of dealing with the Hohenzollern upon this event, which will determine the destiny of the whole world, apparently is there indecision now in the President's mind.

Lodge Against Negotiations
Senator Lodge, ranking Republican of the senate foreign relations committee, introduced a resolution declaring that no further communications be had with the German government except to demand unconditional surrender.

Declaring that he had "no confidence in Germany or her promises," Senator Chamberlain of the senate military committee said the German note should be rejected.

Whether Germany's reply amounts to a promise of unconditional surrender or not, I am in doubt, and there should be no doubt in any mind," said Chamberlain.

Reading between the lines of the note, I feel that it is a suggestion of negotiations rather than a promise. I am not in favor of its acceptance."

Senator Lodge Would Compel President to Drop Parley and Demand Unconditional Surrender as Only Terms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Germany's unconditional surrender was demanded in the Senate today, as the only peace terms that would be acceptable by the American people.

Acceptance by Germany of the demands of the Allies for reparations, evacuation and guarantees, in addition to the fourteen points of President Wilson, before any agreement is entered into, for discussion of armistice, is demanded in a resolution introduced today in the senate by Senator Thomas, Colorado.

Senators Brandegee, Connecticut, New, Indiana and McCumber, North Dakota, emphasized that the only way to insure a real victory, was by a crushing defeat of the enemy.

"Nothing short of absolute, complete and unconditional surrender, carrying with it full reparation for damage brought, will be accepted or tolerated," said New.

Favor Complete Victory
"It is my belief that anything that even has the appearance of willingness to accept anything less will be taken as a failure to carry out the purpose for which we entered the war."

Senator Reed, Missouri, said he believed the country and some of the members of the senate had obtained a wrong impression of what the president's note to Germany really meant.

Declaring that he had "no confidence in Germany or her promises," Senator Chamberlain of the senate military committee said the German note should be rejected.

AUTOCRACY MUST GO FIRST IS ANSWER OF THE PRESIDENT

NO ARMISTICE POSSIBLE WHILE GERMANY CONTINUES ILLEGAL PRACTICES

PRESIDENT'S ANSWER ALREADY ON THE WAY TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Autocracy must go before a peace can be arranged with Germany. This condition was laid down by President Wilson today in a note to the German government which also bore the plain notice that no armistice could be considered while Germany continued her illegal inhumane practices on land and sea.

The note to Germany was a "decision"; it did not permit of discussion as such.

"Satisfactory safeguards and guarantees of the maintenance of the present military supremacy" of the American-Allied armies must be given as a preliminary to any armistice arrangement, and the military advisers would be responsible for its arrangement.

The note announced by Secretary Lansing today and submitted to the Swiss minister said: "Sir: In reply to the communication of the German government dated the twelfth instant, which you handed me today, I have the honor to request you to transmit the answer:

TEXT OF REPLY

"The unqualified acceptance by the present German government and by a large majority of the German reichstag of the terms laid down by the President of the United States of America in his address to the congress of the United States on the eighth of January, 1918, and in his subsequent addresses justifies the President in making a frank and direct statement of his decision with regard to the communications of the German government of the eighth and twelfth of October, 1918.

"It must be clearly understood that the process of evacuation and the conditions of an armistice are matters which must be left to the judgment and advice of the military advisers of the government of the United States and the Allied governments, and the President feels it his duty to say that no arrangement can be accepted by the government of the United States which does not provide absolutely satisfactory safeguards and guarantees of the maintenance of the present military supremacy of the armies of the United States and of the Allies in the field. He feels confident that he can safely assume that this will also be the judgment and decision of the Allied governments.

"The President feels that it is also his duty to add that neither the government of the United States nor he is quite sure, the governments with which the government of the United States is associated as a belligerent, will consent to consider an armistice so long as the armed forces of Germany continue the illegal and inhuman practices which they still persist in.

"At the very time that the German government approaches the United States with proposals of peace its submarines are engaged in sinking passenger ships at sea, and not the ships alone, but the very boats in which their passengers and crews seek to make their way to safety.

"And in their present enforced withdrawal from Flanders and France the German armies are pursuing a course of wanton destruction which has always been regarded as in direct violation of the rules and practices of civilized warfare.

"Cities and villages, if not destroyed, are being stripped of all they contain, not only that but often of their very inhabitants.

The nations associated against Germany can not be expected to agree to a cessation of arms, while acts of inhumanity, spoliation and desecration are being continued, which they justly look upon with horror and with burning hearts.

"It is necessary, also, in order that there may be no possibility of misunderstanding, that the President should very solemnly call the attention of the government of Germany to the language and plain intent of one of the terms of peace which the government has now accepted. It is contained in the address of the President delivered at Mount Vernon on the fourth of July, last. It is as follows: "The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world; or if it can not be presently destroyed, at least its reduction to virtual impotency."

"The power which has hitherto controlled the German nation is of the sort here described. It is within the choice of the German nation to allow it."

"The President's words just quoted naturally constitute a condition precedent to peace, if peace is to come by the action of the German people themselves. The President feels bound to say that the whole process of peace will in his judgment depend upon the definiteness and the satisfactory character of the guarantees which can be given in this fundamental matter. It is indispensable that the Governments associated against Germany should know beyond peradventure with whom they are dealing.

"The President will make a separate reply to the Royal and Imperial government of Austria-Hungary."

NEUTRALS BELIEVE HINDENBURG WAR MACHINE HAS BROKEN DOWN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The German military machine has broken down, according to the belief prevalent in Switzerland, diplomatic dispatches declared today.

The report says establishment of a parliamentary cabinet was not so much from pressure by the German people as from acknowledgment of the military leaders that they are unable to escape defeat on the field, it is said. German newspapers are quoted in support of this contention.

LAST GREAT ENEMY STRONGHOLD IN FRANCE OCCUPIED BY ALLIES

St. Gobain Massif, Cornerstone of German Defensive System, Wrested from Germans—Lines Falling Back Rapidly Towards Hirson, Enemy's Principal Supply Base, the Occupation of Which Will Divide Hindenburg's Fighting Forces

By WEBB MILLER

PARIS, Oct. 14 (3:50 p. m.)—Despite the resistance of strong machine gun defenses on the Bancy-Lafay hills, the French have crossed the Gize-Lachy railway at Baudon-Suzery, five miles north of Laon, according to reports from the battle front this afternoon.

In the Champagne General Geraud's men have reached the southern outskirts of Bethel.

The French are swiftly following up the German retreat along the battle front between La Fere and the Argonne region. The whole Laon front following evacuation of the St. Gobain massif, is crumbling. The French have captured a dozen additional villages. The railways leading from there are intact and great masses of shells and other war materials have been seized.

Laon, Oct. 14.—The last great German stronghold in France is in the hands of the Allies. The St. Gobain massif, which formed the cornerstone of the enemy's defensive system—the most powerful the world has ever known was wrested from the invaders Saturday and yesterday.

The big west front salient extending from the region of Odebrail to Verdun, is thus crumbling for its entire length and the Germans are staggering back toward the impassable Ardennes mountains.

In the north still remains the so-called Valenciennes line. It is still practically untested by Allied blows, but its hasty construction cannot have rendered it comparative with the Hindenburg system, which was four years in building.

Laon and La Fere Taken With the fall of St. Gobain forest, from which Paris was so long bombed by long range cannon, both Laon and La Fere were occupied by the French. Passing these cities, the French and Italians are advancing on the whole 35-mile front between the Oise and the Aisne.

The Allies are thus within less than 50 miles of the vital enemy center of Hirson, at the western tip of the Ardennes, seizure of which will definitely split the German armies. French forces are advancing westward in the Gude region, are about 17 miles from Hirson while those pushing northeastward from Laon are within 18 miles of the town.

To the eastward of Laon the French and Americans have practically cleared the Aisne bend of Germans and the fall of Bethel and Attigny is imminent if they have not already been occupied. Still farther to the east the Americans apparently are still encountering resistance between the Argonne and the Meuse.

British Encirclement Expected. British and American troops east of Cambrai, are up against a system of new defenses which may be the outworks of the Valenciennes line. Fighting in this region has not been productive of important gains for several days.

Northwest of Cambrai the Allies have pushed to within eight miles of Valenciennes itself, while to the westward, Douai is practically in their hands.

Serbs Take Nish.

Occupation of Nish by Serbian troops is officially admitted by both Germany and Austria. The Serbs are advancing northeastward and westward from the city. In the Salonika region the Greeks are rapidly re-occupying their invaded territories.

The Austrians evacuating Albania, are massed on three sides. In addition to the Italians, advancing from the south and the Serbs and French, advancing from the west, the Austrians are now being harassed by formidable bands of Montenegrin irregulars in their rear. Vienna reported encounters with these new forces near Trieste. Since July 15, the Allies on all fronts are estimated to have taken 451,000 prisoners.

SURRENDER IS LOGICAL STEP FOR GERMANY

Enemy Troops on Eve of Greatest Disaster of Whole War—Armistice Now Would Be a Hun Victory

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—An armistice permitting Von Hindenburg to retire unopposed to the German frontier, would give the Kaiser one of the major successes of the war.

The heroic struggle of the American forces north of Verdun is threatening to cut one of the two arteries of retreat for the German armies in France.

Luxemburg, by protesting today to President Wilson against the further occupation of her soil by German troops, shows a complete understanding in the little duchy of America's advance down the Meuse.

Luxemburg knows the Americans are closing in on the famous Moselle line of communications, so necessary for Von Hindenburg's safe retirement to Germany.

While General Frenching is blocking the way to the German frontier to the glory of American arms, the Kaiser's appeal to President Wilson to let Von Hindenburg's defeated armies pass through Frenching's lines unopposed. This only alternative for Von Hindenburg is to fight his way home. His forces are too large and too unwieldy to try to make a dash for the west. They would be overwhelmed and thrown into devastating confusion.

Three Months Work.

It is three months ago tomorrow since the Americans threw the Germans back across the Meuse and started them on their disastrous retirement. Since then Von Hindenburg has gone, like all

Yanks Participate On Several Fronts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Big and repeated enemy counterattacks on both sides of the Meuse-Sambre were broken by American forces, General Frenching reported today.

"On both sides of the Meuse, our troops today (Sunday) after a strong and repeated attack of the enemy, to dislodge them from their strongly held positions," the communication said.

"American divisions continued to participate in the successful operations under command of the British north of Leclairey and of the French in the Champagne. In other sectors of our troops, there is nothing of importance to report."

THE WAY TO GO ABOUT IT

Saturday afternoon peace plays are getting to be a regular part of life in Germany. Beyond that no more interesting program for the entertainment of the German people could possibly be devised.

The point to be kept constantly in mind in connection with the present peace negotiations is simply the great fact that, an unconditional surrender also can mean peace. If all Germany subscribes to the fourteen points of President Wilson's program, still peace is a long way off.

Official Washington is not deceived by the thin camouflage. The men at the helm here are more up to date than "hotshots." The picture of a German submarine engaged in shelling the unprotected allies in small boats, who were endeavoring to get safely away from the torpedoes Thundersaga does not square with the official announcement.

Now is the time to hold fast, not waver for a single moment from the great outstanding proposition of unconditional surrender consulting the gateway to peace. When this comes, it should come as a military move, not a political or civilian decision. Let Hindenburg throw down his arms.

SAYS SUGAR BEET GROWERS' TROUBLES END

Farm Bureau Committee Reports on Its Investigations into Differences with Company Operatives

That there exists now no legitimate cause for friction between sugar beet growers and the Sugar company, and that the Sugar company is conforming with its verbal agreements previously made with the growers, although it was reluctant to reduce its acceptance of these agreements in writing, is the substance of a report just issued by the county farm bureau committee, which was appointed to inquire into the grievances between the growers and Sugar company and use its offices to adjust such differences as were found.

Following is the complete report of the committee:

Some time ago the farm bureau of Twin Falls county appointed a committee of three, consisting of C. E. McLean, Frank Deklotz and Luke Bonner, to find out what the growers' complaints were against the Sugar company or Amalgamated Sugar company, and then to endeavor to have the same corrected if possible.

We notified all of those that we could find that were the most outspoken against the growers and notified them to appear before us and that the growers might wish to formulate their complaints and also if made through the farm bureau committee some at the farm bureau office, mittoe or any committee member where they had been lodged by those growers, if they so desired.

Getting aside some minor causes of little importance, we found that the following were the principal grievances and which we felt that the growers were entirely justified in making the complaints.

First was that the weighers and tare takers care of the beets at the different unloading or receiving stations, would be there early enough in the morning, would close up entirely at noon, and quit too early in the evening, which caused great delay and inconvenience to the raisers and haulers.

Second, that where they had unloading dumps last year the dumps would work so poorly that the haulers would have to often wait for hours to get unloaded and that the beets might wait so long would finally rot them on the piles.

Third, the method used in taking tare was very unsatisfactory.

Fourth, the growers' feeling that they should have a voice in selecting the weighers and tare takers.

Fifth, that those that handled direct to the factory were not satisfied as to the weights that they were getting there, whether this was justified or not we did not know, but do not think that were.

Before going any farther I wish to restate that Mr. Bonner, owing to the need of help, had so much to attend and consequently lost faith in the committee's promise. That was the reason he did not attend to this date.

While we recognize that this is a little late in entering the information, it has not been our fault, and as the complaints have been rectified as far as we know, but nevertheless we had intended to have this published some time ago before any beets had been delivered.

one set of scales at the factory with the full load and on another when we loaded and they felt that they were not getting full weights that way, we investigated this also, and found that the company weights were correct, as the beets came in so fast at times that it would create confusion if this was not done, which we could readily see, but on the other side, we thought that the scales should be balanced quite often to give fair results in this method. One inquiry found that they had one set of scales about every fourth month or so, and that they would balance them at any time a load was brought and demanded by the hauler. They also said that they would be better satisfied if the growers could have a man to check the weights and tare at every receiving station if they wanted to, and would pay him, or once in a while, by any time they wanted to.

In fact, they seemed to be very anxious to rectify any just complaints against their company, and they notified them to appear before us and that the growers might wish to formulate their complaints and also if made through the farm bureau committee some at the farm bureau office, mittoe or any committee member where they had been lodged by those growers, if they so desired.

There also was some complaint about the amount of tare on some of the first deliveries this fall, especially after the recent rains. The committee went to the two of the dumps to look this matter up and found that there really was an amount of dirt adhering to the beets after and during the rains, which will gradually disappear more as the ground gets drier. We also found the Sugar company especially de-loading or receiving stations, would be there early enough in the morning, would close up entirely at noon, and quit too early in the evening, which caused great delay and inconvenience to the raisers and haulers.

So, if during this season, the company's employees do not comply with the results enumerated in the foregoing, or if any other just grievances are made known to the committee, they will be glad to undertake to correct them or have them compiled with.

As said before, we did not have the best of luck in getting the results or complaints rectified verbally with the company's officers, but they seemed to be very reluctant in settling forth the same in writing, as they had agreed to do, and some of the growers told the committee that the company had made verbal promises before and not kept acreage on the basis that those promises would be carried out, but were not so much to attend and consequently lost faith in the committee's promise. That was the reason he did not attend to this date.

While we recognize that this is a little late in entering the information, it has not been our fault, and as the complaints have been rectified as far as we know, but nevertheless we had intended to have this published some time ago before any beets had been delivered.

VERSATILE VELVET PROVES ITS CLAIM

Making its bid as the most versatile of materials, black velvet suits not only in woman's millinery from the smartly tailored broad brim to the toque. At the top the chiffon velvet employs an ostrich pen comb of the same shade. In the center a celluloid ornament holds the crown of a panache. At the base a signet ring holds the bottom of the ostrich feather gives a "highly-sometimes" needed by smaller folks.

With Hosts and Hostesses

Mrs. D. W. Hunter charmingly entertained the Shamrock club Thursday afternoon, October 10, at her home southeast of town. After a delightful social hour a brief business session was held.

Mrs. J. L. Dallas and Mrs. Mart Dean served delicious sandwiches, coffee and cake. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. Z. Iron on November 14.

ENTERS TRAINING FOR MUNITIONS INSPECTOR

E. P. Nafziger, Formerly of Twin Falls High School Faculty, Describes New Work

Edward P. Nafziger, instructor in science and athletic coach last year for the Twin Falls high school, has been transferred from Camp Lewis, Washington, to Carney's Point, New Jersey, where he is in attendance at a technical school for two months training preparatory to service in one of the numerous munition factories in the east as an inspector. It is the duty of these inspectors to run tests chemically for the government and see that the munitions are properly made and of the required grade.

Regarding his work and surroundings Mr. Nafziger says in a letter received here: "There are some eighty men here at present. The school is located in the limits of the DuPont powder mills which extend five miles down the Delaware river and also that distance inland, so it is a big enough plant. Carney's Point might be termed a 'war baby' town for it is an outgrowth of Penns Grove just across the river from Wilmington, Delaware.

Girls are "Powder Monkeys". "A good many girls and women work in the mills in the capacity of 'powder monkeys' dressed in khaki bloomers and trench hats. They have signs in the mills, 'Don't talk to the powder monkeys,' which proves that the entrance of women into the industries calls for regulation. The mills run night and day, three shifts of eight hours each.

Influenza Epidemic. "The influenza epidemic is very severe in this section of the country, taking many from the civilian population and from the cantonments. I hope it does not reach the west. The physicians do not seem to be able to combat it successfully in a good many cases. The cities have been placed in limited quarantine, so far as public gatherings are concerned."

Encouragement. "Dey so many folks 'mug'd dey's all in ween all dey needs in a jiff' encouragement. Mah folks turn a ole uno loose in de wood lot 'd dey en sho guth a havin' me 'en 'o' down fo' much 'o' fence.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

EXPERT ADVICE

Chicken—I'm so delicate I'm afraid I won't live long. I wish I were as strong and rugged as you.

Beef—It's all in the way you live, child. You should adopt a strict diet of uncooked vegetables and Freshens as I do.

HOW ABOUT IT?

He—Dancing, you're looking prettier every day.

She—Then why do you want to marry me so soon. Why not wait, if that's the case!

Inane Pretend Inanity. A rather paradoxical message comes from the Paris Medical, in general, it seems, the doctor is not lightly to diminish inanity which is obviously simulated. A pathological basis should be sought. There are cases where the patient is insane to pretend to be insane.

Goat's Milk Popular. Cannot quote milk is finding an increasing market all over the world, and is said to be a profitable industry. In the course of the year the goat will produce twelve times its weight in milk, while a cow will yield only three times its weight, but the goat is not so reliable as an all-year-round source of supply. Goat's milk is very rich, and is in demand as a food for invalids and many children, and the goat is said further to be free from tuberculosis.
