

KAISER SHORN OF POWER DECLARES GERMAN REPLY

PEOPLE CONTROL IS CONTENTION

Promise Immediate Abandonment Unrestricted Submarine Warfare—Requests President Wilson to Arrange Armistice Compatible With Honor German People—Denies Inhumane Actions

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Germany today definitely announced that the kaiser has been shorn of his power to declare war, and declared that German submarine commanders had been ordered to stop torpedoing passenger ships; in her reply to President Wilson's note.

In agreeing that the terms of an armistice should be fixed by the military advisors, the German note stated that the present standard of power "of both sides" should be safeguarded. There was no definite acceptance of Wilson's statement that the terms should be fixed by the military advisors of the United States and the Allies. The text apparently left open the possibility of Germany claiming that the military advisors of Germany as well as the Allies should participate in fixing the terms of an armistice.

TEXT OF GERMAN REPLY

BERLIN, Oct. 21. Via Wireless Via London (3:07 p. m.)—Germany, replying to President Wilson's note, announced that orders had been issued to all submarine commanders to stop the torpedoing of passenger ships.

The text of the note, giving this point follows: "In order to avoid anything that might hamper the work of peace, the government has caused orders to be dispatched to all submarine commanders regarding the torpedoing of passenger ships without, however, for technical reasons being able to guarantee that these orders will reach every single submarine at sea before its return."

The German reply was handed by the German government last night to the Swiss legation in Berlin for transmission to the United States. The note begins with the following:

"In accepting the proposal for the evacuation of occupied territories, the German government assumed that the procedure for this evacuation and the conditions of the armistice, should be left to the judgment of the military advisors and that the actual standard of power which both sides in the field have should form the basis of arrangements safeguarding and guaranteeing this standard."

DETAILS AFTER ARMISTICE

"The German government suggests to the President that opportunity be brought about for the holding of an armistice.

"The German government trusts that the President will approve of no demand which would be irreconcilable with the honor of the German people, and to the opening of the way to a peace of justice.

"The German government protests against the reproach of illegal and inhumane actions made against the German land and sea forces and thereby against the German people."

With reference to the responsibility of the existing government, the note says:

"The leaders of the great parties of the Reichstag are members of this government. In future, no government can take office or continue in office"

GERMAN ANSWER FAILS TO ALTER EXISTING STATUS

Belief General in Official Washington That Latest Note Is Merely a Declaration of Good Faith

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Germany's reply to President Wilson's "declaration" on terms for peace negotiations appeared to officials today to be merely a "declaration of intentions," the good faith of which can only be ascertained by waiting.

It was authoritatively stated that the German answer "appeared" to be an awkward acceptance of President Wilson's decision and that it "appeared" to raise no controversial points.

It was pointed out emphatically, however, that President Wilson in his first reply to the first German offer stressed the point that he could not pass on the Toulon proposal to the allies until occupied territory had been evacuated. This position of the president it was strongly indicated still stands as a primary condition today.

Hence, it is indicated that President Wilson, if he replies at all to the German note, can scarcely go further than state he must wait to see what the future brings, before additional steps can be made.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing today had before them the unofficial German reply, as picked up by wireless from the great German stations at Naumen.

It was officially stated, however, that the text of the Toulon response would not be made public here nor would any comment be made on it pending receipt of the official text.

ENEMY BEING SWEEPED RAPIDLY FROM NORTHERN FRANCE; BELGIANS AGAIN COMING INTO THEIR OWN RIGHTS

WAR SUMMARY

THE Germans have been thrown back from their lines on the Lys river and the Allies are already in touch with them on the Escaut, or Scheldt, north of Tournai, where the enemy was expected to make another stand. British troops are nearing Tournai in Belgium, having driven the enemy over the Belgian-French frontier before that city. A few miles south, the British are approaching the important manufacturing city of Valenciennes from the west and south. Three thousand prisoners were taken by Haig yesterday in the fighting in that vicinity.

North of Toulon and in the Champagne, the southernmost stretch of the active battle front, there was an artillery fight during the night and Americans and French, despite bad weather, are making slow, but steady progress at several points.

Significance is attached to the raiding operations reported by the French war office in Alsace and Lorraine. Usually extensive raiding precedes the opening of a drive and it may be that the time is approaching when Foch will launch his long expected thrust into the enemy lines which border German territory from below Metz to the Swiss frontier.

To give the German troops in Belgium time to retreat to their next line of defense, it is necessary that the front further south hold firm. Otherwise disaster may overwhelm the units now falling back with all speed in the region from the bocle hordes. This accounts for the bitter opposition encountered by the British in their push toward Valenciennes. Progress in that direction would greatly increase the pressure on the defeated armies in Belgium, and might force them to precipitate flight. Therefore the Germans held the Selle river in all strength, and made each village a strong point. But the tanks cleared the way and the English, Welsh and Scottish crossed the flooded stream, their batteries close behind them, passing over hastily constructed bridges. Haig reported that his tanks negotiated the river at an early hour, but how they made their way through the flood waters is not explained.

American troops are playing perhaps the least spectacular but one of the most important parts in ousting the Germans. In the Champagne, where every slight gain narrows the enemy's maneuvering ground between the front and the difficult, forested Ardennes highlands, the Yankees are making steady progress in spite of bulldog resistance by the Germans, wet weather and the strongest kind of natural defenses. Having crossed the Grandpre pass through the Argonne forest, they are forcing a way through the north-

GERMANS FORCED ACROSS THE LYS AT THREE POINTS

Flanders Offensive Developing Rapidly—Allies Driving Close to Ghent and Tournai

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Germans have been hurled back over the Lys river at three places and the allies are driving close to Ghent and Tournai, Field Marshal Haig reported today, in a special statement on the Flanders offensive. His report made it evident that the attempt of the Germans to make a stand on the line of the Lys river has been overwhelmed and that the allies are already in touch with the next defense line along the Escaut river.

Haig declared the enemy had been forced to withdraw on its whole front in Belgium. The allies have reached Aalst, 11 miles west of Ghent, the greatest road center in western Belgium and have occupied several villages on a line running northward to the Dutch frontier.

New Bridgeheads
The French have established bridgeheads on the eastern side of the Lys between Grammeens and Pezenghem, 11 miles southwest of Ghent and at a point near Oghem, a few miles further south. Beyond Lille, the British have driven the Germans across the border from France into Belgium and have reached the outskirts of Peec, six miles north of Tournai.

The statement said: "The Germans valiantly endeavored to arrest our progress toward the Lys, toward Douynse, Escloo and the Dutch frontier."

"The Germans were forced to withdraw on their whole front in Belgium."
Occupy Many Towns
"On our left, tonight the Dutch frontier, we occupied Kamelare, Aalst, Adegem, Balloo and Ussel."

BREAKNECK PAGE ON EVERY FRONT NEVER SLACKENS

Huns Continue to Retreat, Putting Up Stiff Defense at Some Points and Half-hearted at Others

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
PARIS, Oct. 21.—The German's vast turning movement backward continues at full swing today.

Six new armies under Prince Rupprecht, General Von Boehm and the Imperial Crown Prince, pivoting on Metz, are falling back from Belgium and France. The enemy line is swinging like a great gate, the retreat becoming more and more rapid to the Rhine from the Hinge. Thus, the huns are fighting like madmen before Metz, whereas, their resistance in Flanders is slight.

King Albert may enter Brussels within a fortnight. The fourth and sixth German armies of Von Arnim and Von Quast are hard pressed. They face the alternatives of scrambling back across the Dutch frontier, surrendering to the Belgians or precipitately fleeing southward toward Liege.

No Strong Defenses
Neither army appears to be in a position to put up a strong defense. The enemy doubtless hoped to delay the pursuing Allies at first, on the line of the Lys, and secondly, on the line of the Escaut, while the Meuse line was strengthened, but the demoralized foe can scarcely be expected to show much fight now until they get behind the Meuse.

TO CENTRALIZE ALL RECRUITING

Personnel Branch General Staff Will Hereafter Care for New Officers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Recruiting of officers for the army hereafter will be centralized. The new personnel branch of the general staff under General Blahop will establish bureaus in all big cities and through those all requirements of the army will be filled. This service will take care of all branches and hereafter no direct applications for commissions will be considered through the staff corps. At the same time, pressure in Washington will be relieved.

The plan is moving with some opposition in the various branches. Many officers hold that each section of the army should retain its own personnel section as in the past, holding that one centralized bureau cannot judge as thoroughly of the needs of several bureaus and the qualifications of men applying.

British Take 3,000 Prisoners Sunday

LONDON, Oct. 21.—More than 3,000 prisoners were taken by the British north of Le Cateau yesterday, Field Marshal Haig reports today.

British Force Crossing of Lys River and Come in Contact With Enemy on Escaut River Line—Ford Selle River North of LeCateau and Are Within Five Miles of Valenciennes

LONDON, Oct. 21.—On the vital flanks of the German front in Belgium and France, the Allied troops drove on today. In Belgium, the northern flank, the progress was spectacular. On the southern flank, where the Americans and French are fighting in the Champagne, the enemy made desperate resistance, but failed to halt the slow methodical advance.

The French official statement declared that despite bad weather, the Allied positions between the Escaut and the Sere have been extended. East of Vornuail, the French reached the summit of the heights west of Grandall, All the French guns were made in the face of fierce counter attack. East of Vornuail, the outskirts of the village of Peronne were reached.

Meanwhile, at the northern end of the battle field, Belgian cavalry is pursuing the fleeing enemy. The Havre official statement declared that cavalrymen charged German machine-gun units, taking prisoners. vast quantities of abandoned German material were taken, including a battery of heavy guns on the coast. At Langenboom, the Belgians took the famous German long range gun, which for years has bombarded Dunkirk.

Prisoners Declare German Command Must Hold Americans Back to Protect Retreat in Region of North Sea

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 21. (Moore)—German prisoners state that Germany made arrangements to evacuate France before the peace note was sent to President Wilson. These prisoners remark: "The Americans have the worst blood-letting sector of the entire line. Every foot of ground is to be disputed until the German retreatment from the sea region is completed."

ALL ARMY PLANS BASED UPON ONE YEAR MORE WAR

Belief Entertained That Germany May Try Last Desperate Gamble on the Fighting Front

GENERAL STAFF IS GOING RIGHT AHEAD

Present Efforts Provide for Four Million American Troops in France By Middle of 1919

By CARL D. GHOAT
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—With Austria and Turkey now a millstone around the German neck, military authorities here today are studying war needs, on the basis of prospective elimination of these nations.

Such a break, in one way, would strengthen Germany's position, but her to fight a stiff defensive warfare on shortened lines at her own doors. Collapse of Austro-Turkish military aid to Germany is deemed certain. Then should Germany decide that she will fight on into the coming year, a struggle of immense and costly proportions would be undertaken.

The United States is proceeding on the theory that just such a maximum effort will be required. The general staff is taking into account some of the peace necessities.

May Take a Chance

Some indications are that Germany is planning to "take a chance" on battling over into next year. The position, with her, as military men see it, is whether she can obtain a better standing at the peace table by such a gamble.

In the event, the war department is forging ahead with its plan of four million men abroad by mid-year, the quartermaster branch is preparing to supply this vast force; and the shipping board has been called on for more troop and cargo ships.

As the war situation shows up at the moment, military men doubt that the boche will be able to stand behind the Scheldt, as is planned to do. The thrust at Valenciennes will compel evacuation of the salient to the north. Meanwhile, the American pressure in the Meuse region continues. The first man is holding desperately on to the pivot in that region, so as to complete his Belgian retirement in comparatively good order, but it is held that his complete removal to his own frontiers is a task that will be accomplished before the winter sets in.

VETERANS TAKE CHARGE OF MILITARY FUNERAL AT JEROME

JEROME.—The body of Carl Otto, Company E, 30th Infantry, Lafayette Division, of the National Army, arrived in Jerome last Friday noon, and was turned over to his father and two brothers residing here, says the North Side News.

Owing to the health regulations there was no public indoor funeral service. The body was taken from the depot directly to the cemetery under escort of a party of Spanish war veterans acting as pall bearers, with the American flag, leading the procession. Owing to the very short notice, no advance notice having been received by the relatives of the hour the body might be expected, there was not opportunity for the public generally to learn of the funeral arrangements. However, a good sized procession of loaded automobiles followed the body to the cemetery.

Rev. R. Lloyd Roberts here conducted the services. He stated that although the departed soldier was denied the privilege of actual combat upon the battle field, he had no less made the supreme sacrifice for his country and the cause of liberty and justice. And from the grave he called out to those remaining to take his place. Rev. Roberts stated that in order to take the soldier's place it was necessary to prepare by words, by sacrifice and self-denial as he had prepared.

The casket was draped with the American flag and many beautiful flowers. At the close of the service tape was sounded, and as nearly as possible under the circumstances, a military funeral had been held. This is the first soldier of the national army to be buried in Jerome cemetery.

Loyal People of Idaho Will Not Stand for Candidates Who Are Under the Thumb of LeSeuer

Overpowering Proof of the Connection of Nonpartisan League Leaders With the I. W. W. Forces Some Admissions--Effort to Give Standing in Idaho to a Notorious I. W. W. and Sedition-Breeder Who Was Kept in the Background Until I Tore Off the Mask.

The Non-partisan league leaders have been smoked out as to Arthur LeSeuer. The proof I have presented has been more than they could stand. IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR THIS PROOF THEY WOULD HAVE GONE ON TRYING TO FOOL THE FARMERS OF IDAHO ABOUT THIS I. W. W. LEADER BY KEEPING HIM IN THE BACKGROUND READY TO SPRING AS IDAHO'S LEGAL ADVISER FROM NORTH DAKOTA IN CASE THE NON-PARTISANS WIN IN THE NOVEMBER ELECTION.

These Non-partisan league leaders now admit LeSeuer's connection with the league but deny he was "national secretary," but documentary evidence (see his letter on this page) shows that he signed himself: "National Non-partisan league by Arthur LeSeuer, executive secretary."

THESE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE LEADERS IN IDAHO BRAZENLY ATTEMPT TO DEFEND LE SEUER AND TO GIVE HIM SOME CHARACTER AND STANDING IN THIS STATE.

These Non-partisan league leaders of Idaho express their pride in Arthur LeSeuer, but the loyal people of Idaho do not and will not.

THE LOYAL PEOPLE OF IDAHO DO NOT WANT THEIR PUBLIC SERVANTS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF SUCH A PERSON AS—

Arthur LeSeuer, comrade of Bill Haywood, who wrote Haywood a seditious letter against the government, even going so far as to urge opposition to legislation to curb German spies in this country.

Arthur LeSeuer, notorious I. W. W. agitator, LEADER OF THE ORGANIZATION THAT HAS HELD UP FARMERS WHEREVER THEY HAVE OPERATED, AND PRACTICED SABOTAGE OF THE MOST DAMNABLE VARIETY—THE SAME GANG THAT THE FARMERS OF IDAHO WERE COMPELLED TO ORGANIZE AGAINST FOR SELF PROTECTION.

Arthur LeSeuer, who, in another letter signed himself "Yours for the revolution."

Arthur LeSeuer, who, with other I. W. W.s, was arrested and jailed at Minot, N. D., where they sang, "To Hell With the Government."

Arthur LeSeuer, who, with Townley, has been branded by Roosevelt as being as dangerous for America as Lenin and Trotsky were for Russia.

Arthur LeSeuer, who sent Horace Mann to Idaho to preach sedition and Socialism to the farmers of Idaho.

Arthur LeSeuer, who directs the political campaign of the Non-partisan league leaders of Idaho as part of a conspiracy to set up a form of Bolshevik government in this state.

Of course the truth hurts. You talk about loyalty, McKaig and Scholtz. You have the same quality of loyalty as your masters, Townley and LeSeuer. Read about their loyalty on this page. You brought the Townley brand of "loyalty" to Idaho, Ray McKaig. I will see that you do not divert the minds of the people from the real issue.

You act in the capacity of secretary of the Nonpartisan league in Idaho; a new position was created for Scholtz, who is called the Manager of the campaign. IS IT NOT TRUE THAT YOU REPORT TO THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, LE SEUER, ONCE A WEEK? Is it not true that you could be dismissed by Townley without a moment's notice? You and Scholtz are but mere puppets, employed by the most dangerous men this country has ever known.

To the Farmers of Idaho

I want to say that I am making your fight. I am making a fight for every good loyal citizen in this state. No one knows the farmers better than I do. Ninety-five per cent of them are as true and loyal Americans as can be found on earth. Five per cent of them are rank Socialists. I am not addressing my remarks to them.

Loyal citizens of Idaho, this government has paid out millions of dollars for war contracts, scattered in practically every state in the Union, with the exception of Idaho and two others. If we keep our state clean, capital will be seeking investments along every line in this state. New settlers will be seeking homes in this great commonwealth of ours. If Townley is successful in Idaho at the coming election, not a dollar of outside capital will come to this state.

Do You Want Townley Governor of Idaho?

DEAR IN MIND, ALL THE TIME, THAT TOWNLEY HAS ELECTED HIMSELF FOR 12 YEARS AS THE MASTER AND THE CZAR OF THE NONPARTISAN LEAGUE IN THIS COUNTY AND THAT HE WILL BE IDAHO'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE, DICTATING ITS POLICY, THROUGH HIS REPRESENTATIVES, MCKAIG AND SCHOLTZ.

Many are asking the question why, if Townley is a traitor, he is still at large. This question was asked by Senator Sherman. Read his remarks in the Congressional Record of May 8, page 6710. I leave it to you why Townley is at large. I do not know. Here is what Senator Sherman said:

Mr. Townley is responsible for the language which I am about to read. Instead of arresting him on such language, instead of stopping him, even after the espionage law was passed—it has been in force since last fall—he has been running at large, uttering his sentiments at pleasure. He is in Washington. He has abused his liberty and his citizenship. He is under indictment for arrest now, but not under any act of congress or as a result of any prosecution by a Federal officer. He is now being prosecuted under the state laws of Minnesota. Mr. Townley used this language on the 8th day of July, 1917. It is worse than anything used by the I. W. W. He has never apologized for or retracted it:

"Townley, the man who, on the 8th of July, 1917, at Buffalo Lake, in Sargent county, N. Dak., delivered himself of these sentiments, AT HEART WAS NOT A GOOD CITIZEN, whatever promise he may make now, however plausible may be his denunciation of others, however much he may accuse others of falsehoods.

"Mr. Townley is on record not only on this extract from his speech, BUT IN MANY OTHERS AS A SEDITIONARY CHARACTER HIMSELF. As I stated a few days ago, he was five times on the platform with Frank Little in the state of Montana. HE WAS THERE FOR SEDITIONARY PURPOSES. He was caught in the company of the I. W. W.'s in that state. They were engaged in disturbances of the public peace. What they did is well known in that state."

Don't Forget This

Every legislative candidate of the Nonpartisan league is pledged to vote only for such legislation as is approved by their executive committees, which means Townley and LeSeuer. Are not the candidates of the Nonpartisan league for state offices similarly pledged as to their duties?

FRANK R. GOODING.

Read the following letter written to Governor Burnquist of Minnesota by Arthur LeSeuer, notorious Socialist and I. W. W. agitator, and executive secretary of the National Nonpartisan league. LeSeuer is the man who sent Horace Mann to Idaho to spread sedition. LeSeuer is the man who wrote Bill Haywood a seditious letter against the government. You will notice LeSeuer signs himself "Executive Secretary" of the National Nonpartisan league. I have a photo of this letter sent me by the governor of Minnesota.

NATIONAL NONPARTISAN LEAGUE
A. G. TOWNLEY, PRESIDENT
NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
ST. PAUL, MINN.

March 6, 1918

Hon. J. A. Burnquist,
State Capitol,
St. Paul, Minnesota.

Dear Governor Burnquist:

The Minnesota Branch of the National Nonpartisan League in co-operation with Organized Labor of the Twin Cities will hold the first Nonpartisan Campaign rally at the St. Paul Auditorium on March 18th, 20th and 21st.

I am authorized to extend to you, as Governor of this State, our cordial invitation to attend this Rally and address the meeting for such time and upon such subjects as you may desire. We would like an early response in order that our Program may be completed and adjusted to the Speakers who will be there. If possible give us the subject of your address and the specific day and time of day most convenient to you.

We expect to have a very large attendance at this Rally and will appreciate your attendance and address, should you find it possible to honor us with your presence.

Very respectfully yours,

NATIONAL NONPARTISAN LEAGUE

BY ARTHUR LE SEUER,
Executive Secretary

AL/MA

Read Governor Burnquist's reply to Arthur LeSeuer, Executive Secretary of the National Nonpartisan league. Do not miss a word of this letter. It states many important truths.

Arthur LeSeuer, executive secretary of the National Nonpartisan League, St. Paul, Minn.
Dear Sir—Your invitation to address the Nonpartisan campaign rally is declined by me for the following reasons: The name your league implies that it is non-partisan, but in fact there is no organization more partisan. At this time, when other political parties are trying to put aside, for the good of the country, any factional spirit that might exist, your organization is doing everything within its power to increase it.

It is the time of our entrance into the European conflict your organizers commenced our government for existing the war. When it became apparent that this course would result in disaster for this organization, they changed their claim and made an eleven-hour claim to your loyalty, but notwithstanding this claim, they are still a party of disloyalty. It has drawn so to the program element of our state. Its leaders have the position of traitors, with the lawless I. W. W. and with the Red Socialists, pacifists and peace advocates, whose doctrines are of benefit to Germany, are among their number.

These in charge of the league have catered to this faction of labor which has violated the law and been opposed to compliance with just orders of duly constituted authority. You, who sign yourself as the executive secretary of the league, were connected with the People's Peace Council, which through your proclamation of August 29, 1917, was barred from holding meetings in this state, and thereafter in Wisconsin and Illinois, and they have traveled to North Dakota with its governor, who was elected through the efforts of your league. The cheating and the spreading of the untrue statements of Senator McKaig's article at your last convention put a stamp of disloyalty on it that can never be erased. Your present publicity agent has invited to North Dakota, at that time because he supported La Follette's unpatriotic ideas, and after his discharge by his employer he was employed by your Nonpartisan league.

Another of your leaders, Joseph Gilbert, called a director and manager, I believe, has been convicted by a jury because of his disloyal utterances, together with Mr. Hannan, an attorney of your organization, unpatriotically used a strike situation here to advance the political interests of the league.

These two men have maliciously slandered public spirited members of the public safety commission, and together with Mr. Logan, the farmers and wage earners for the political purposes of your political party's self-constituted leaders, who are neither farmers nor real laborers, but self-styled demagogues, who, the actual farmers and the actual laboring men of our state will sooner or later find, are nothing but pretended friends, wolves parading in sheep's clothing. You, who appear to be the executive secretary of this organization, were the attorney who defended the murderers in the I. W. W. trials on the night of the years ago, and who has assisted the I. W. W. organization, which has publicly announced that it is its intention ultimately to take the farms from the farmers, who are the farmers since the commencement of the war have been raised by the federal government, and whose members are now taking refuge in such organizations as the National Nonpartisan League.

How, under such circumstances, the farmers of Minnesota, who have been threatened with the loss of their farms, who have time and time again been compelled to appeal to peace officers for protection against the members of the I. W. W. and their associates, can now join a league with promoters whose sympathies have been with this lawless, Bolshevik element in our society will seem incomprehensible.

Another reason for declining your invitation is the possibility of constraining my presence at your partisan campaign rally by some as an endorsement of your party classes. Such arraying of class against class would be welcomed by the enemies of our republic, for such a course will result in a division of our state into classes. The only issue that to me is paramount at this time is the winning of this war, and that cannot be done if our house is to be divided against itself through the squabbles on the part of political agitators such as those who head your organization.

The only party and politicians whom I am in this campaign going to oppose are that party and those politicians who, for party purposes, by naming me loyal to their country. The only people by claiming this is a war begun by the rich, or that the burdens of the conflict will most heavily on one class than another, who make statements which in some way or another will lengthen the conflict by creating dissatisfaction at home and thus indirectly cause the death of additional thousands, if not millions of our fellow citizens on European battlefields.

All agree that war profiteers should be dealt with as drastically as it is possible to deal with them. But it cannot be said that this is a rich man's war, for those who have gained most from it would have made greater profits if the United States had not entered it. I hold no brief for any class, but to make the farmers or laboring men believe their sons are discriminated against in this war, as implied in your statement of principles, is reasonable conduct, for the rich man's sons are conscripted proportionately to a greater extent than those of the farmers and laborers.

Your leaders are continually attacking what you term "big business." Personally, I am as strongly opposed as anyone to what is known as government by privilege, but I would permit myself to be put in a position where I could be compelled to cater to any particular set of men. I could not be fair to organized or unorganized labor, farmers' organizations, to big business or to little business.

Knowing, as I do, the political ambitions of your organization and the desire of your officers, who have agents and agents have made through your official newspapers against honest and patriotic public officials, I cannot be fair to those of your officers who have sent me in any sincerity of purpose. The failure on the part of anyone to turn over the state government to those of your officers who have assumed the organization of the alleged Nonpartisan League and the control of the millions of dollars collected from the back of the invitation you have made, but I know that such men, pretending to be friends of some particular class and deceiving some well-to-do class of people, are among those whose policy of deception, for the patriotic farmers in the country and the loyal laboring men in the city know that their true friends are among those who strive for the maintenance of law, order and justice, especially in this, the most serious hour of our history, for that only of the American people essential to the successful termination of the war. Very truly yours,
J. A. BURNQUIST.

NO GROUND CHANCE

Those persons who are in the habit of digging up excuses for ending the war on the score of humanity will not ponder the depths of depravity reached by the German beast in the evacuated sections of Belgium and Flanders.

Eight Over Saturday

Unofficial estimates compiled by the United Press at the close of the campaign Saturday night indicated that eight of the twelve federal districts had topped their quota.

GETTING BACK OUR HOUR

A good many Idaho people will find food for rejoicing over the announcement that on Sunday, October 27, the clocks and watches of the country will be set back one hour, under the terms of the Daylight Saving law.

Plan Next Loan

As the nation's financial situation now stands, the fifth war loan will probably have to come about March 1, 1919. This is further indicated by the fact that the treasury provisions for making the entire proceeds of this loan available to the use by February 1.

WRIGHTLY GIVES THE GOVERNMENT

OHIO, Oct. 21.—To help meet the needs of the government, Wrightly will discontinue the use of tin foil as a wrapping for "Daisy Brand" chewing gum, in order to release this valuable material to Uncle Sam.

Hundreds of thousands of pounds per week of tin-foil will thus be made available to the government, it is said. "Daisy Brand" will hereafter appear in the hermetically sealed pink wrapper, same as "Spermat" and "Donkey Brand" will also be wrapped in waxed pink paper, instead of green.

BACK ON JOB AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Brewster, who developed influenza earache home from Europe, returned to his desk today.

LOAN FIGURES BEAT MINIMUM BY LARGE SUM

Six Billion Dollars of Great Bond Issue Exceeded By Subscriptions to Extent of Substantial Sum

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Approximately 26,000,000 persons, or 80 per cent of the nation's population, subscribed to the fourth Liberty loan, official reports today indicated. This is about a twenty per cent increase in individuals over the third loan, when 18,300,000 persons bought bonds.

Secure Revenues Early

It was indicated today that the treasury will begin to encourage strongly the purchase of treasury certificates of indebtedness as a means for use in payment of war taxes next June. Most of the certificates are of 90 days maturity, but certificates of longer maturity are to be issued so the government will have advantage of next year's revenues at an early date.

Never Too Old to Learn

It has often been said that a man cannot learn a new trade after he is forty, but this statement has frequently been disproved. Peter S. De Fontaine was eighty when he wrote his valuable treatise on the Chinese language, and had only then recently taken up the study; and the late John Bigelow was still an author turning out a book when he passed his ninety-fifth birthday.

Had Elephants Break Step

It is a tradition among newspaper men—and one that may be founded on fact—that in the old days when Barnum's elephants were marched across the Brooklyn bridge, in the night hours before daybreak, the keepers were instructed to prevent the huge animals from keeping step lest the perpendicular of strong vibrations might injure the structure.

Bestow Your Bless Now

What a happy world this would be if only love and friendship would pay their debts as they go along! If the words of appreciation could come now while they are due, and the little gift briden they wish to be had, how much more they would be worth than when held back to become a part of the estate.—Exchange.

LEADER OF NONPARTISANS IN NORTH IDAHO IS IN BAD

District Manager Carl H. Davis Arrested for Alleged Sedition Utterances

LEWISTON.—Carl H. Davis, district manager in the ten northern Idaho counties for the Nonpartisan league, has been arrested here on a charge of seditious utterances alleged to have been made early in August in Latah county. The specific charge made is that Davis, in conversation with farmers near Moscow and in the presence of two witnesses, said, "the capitalist and big concerns of America and other countries in war met in Berlin and framed this war. You don't have to join these Liberty bonds. These bonds are nothing but a trap. Those who framed the war by the bonds. The government is standing in with the banks and you only get 4 per cent for your money. The banks charge you 8 per cent for the money."

It is further alleged that when Davis was asked about the Red Cross he said, "The Red Cross is all right but you don't know if the money goes to the right place."

The complaint alleges the Latah County Council of Defense and the United States Department of Justice have been working on the case.

November at the present rate of war expenditures

Secretary McAdoo today is counting down—as well as dollars—on the fourth Liberty loan. He has sent a wire to all federal reserve banks to submit as quickly as possible estimates on the number of individuals who subscribed and the approximate total subscriptions for each district.

It was estimated today that around 18,000,000 Americans invested in this greatest loan of the war and that the total would run some millions over the minimum, $5,000,000,000.

Wanted Full Particulars

Before Little Bill and his mother reached their little home he was annoyed to see his next behavior and to be nice to "mother's friends." But he was such a little boy to be good all the time, and a few hours after his arrival he apparently sized up the situation and asked, "Well, who else do I have to be nice to besides mother's friends, and Aunt Mary's friends, and Aunt Margaret's friends?"

Quality That Counts

It is no great matter to associate with the good and gentle; for this is naturally pleasing to all, and every one willing enough, peace, and forth how best that agree with him. But to be able to associate with hard and perverse persons, or with the dissolute, or with such as go contrary to us, is a great grace, and a most commendable and manly thing.—Thomas a Kempis.

THE PEACEMAKER

By F. A. MITCHEL

Ellis Girard of Philadelphia was a relic of former days. He died at the age of ninety-three. His son Ellhu is seventy, and his grandson, born in his father's ripe manhood has had thirty birthdays.

The first Girard was a china merchant sailing his own ships early in the nineteenth century. He turned over the business to his son thirty years ago. Ellhu the second discarded sails and used steam as a motive power. When his son became a man his father took him on his ship and later made him master. Finally Ellhu the second retired and his son sailed their ship, the Peacemaker, without having the father on board to give him orders.

When the world's war broke out, Girard second, had not been on a voyage for several years. He was devoted to peace, as were his ancestors. Hearing that German cruisers had captured every one of the commerce ships, he concluded, and fearing that his son might become involved when out on the ocean, he resolved to go with him on his next trip.

Young Captain Girard was somewhat nervous when his father informed him of the fact, but said nothing. A month elapsed before the Peacemaker was ready for her voyage, during which time her captain was making preparations for defense.

"My son, I presume that you know I am opposed to any kind of warfare. If a German cruiser mistakes the Peacemaker for a ship belonging to one of its enemies, I desire to make no resistance, but lower the flag at once."

"Just so, father," was the filial reply.

"I see no preparations for defense," added the father, looking over the vessel for guns.

"Preparations for defense only excite irritation," replied the captain bravely.

The old man went aboard, the captain followed and the Peacemaker started out into the Atlantic.

One day Girard the second was sitting on deck in a peaceful reverie. His father was in the cabin and he did not notice a cruiser firing the German flag about three miles distant and heading for the Peacemaker.

"Father," said the captain who was near the old man, "I have something to say to you in my cabin. Please come here with me."

The father arose from his chair and followed his son below. The former entered the captain's cabin and the latter locked the door.

"Father," he said from without, "look through the porthole and you will see a German cruiser coming."

"The old man looked in time to see a ship approaching from the west passing a cable's length from the bow.

"Bring her to a stop," he shouted.

"Not a bit of it," replied the son. "It is too much right to sail this pond without interruption as she goes."

"But we are not at war; she wishes only to search us."

"Very well, let her send an officer aboard to search us."

The captain was so reply to this. The officer came on deck and was given orders. The cruiser—the turned out to be a gunboat—was bearing down on the Peacemaker, thinking that she was a Britisher sailing under the American flag. When she got within range, a side of the Peacemaker opened up and displayed a line of guns.

Captain Girard had got what he was itching for. The Girards were rich and he had been enabled to put aboard an efficient armament. His father had suffered during the years before his son's birth. Between the noise of the explosion, the words "Let me out!" were heard accompanied by a vigorous kicking on wood. Presently a crash was heard and up came the captain's father.

He saw several things almost simultaneously. The first was a dead sailor who had been killed by a shot from the German; the second was the wreck of one of the deck houses; the third was the falling of the gunboat's shot against him. Between the noise of the explosion, the words "Let me out!" were heard accompanied by a vigorous kicking on wood. Presently a crash was heard and up came the captain's father.

"What are they waiting for?" asked the old man of his son.

"Amputation, father; it's coming right along."

At that moment a shot from the German whizzed by him. Girard and knocked a bullet into his forehead.

"Ellhu, are they going to stand here idle while they sink the ship?" asked the captain's father.

"There was no reply, for men came with the ammunition; it was put in the guns. They were manned by sailors who knew nothing about their use. One of the squads failed to load in time to satisfy the old Quaker. He gave the gun which was getting in the shot a shove that sent him spinning; put the shot in the gun himself, and removing in a similar way the man whose part it was to do the piece, pulled the lanyard himself.

The shot was a brief one, for the gunboat was but scantily equipped for battle, and she soon turned and showed a clean part of keels. The captain gave orders for the Peacemaker to close her ports.

"What are you going to do," roared the old man.

"Continue our intended course."

"Without striking the pirate?"

"Father," replied the son impressively, "remember that our ship is the Peacemaker."

"Peacemaker be—" sneered the old man and disappeared down the companionway.

WOULD FORGIVE ALL THE DEBTS OF THE ALLIES

Former Government Official Proposes Novel Scheme for Relief of England, France and Italy-After War

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—International financiers were interested today in the suggestion of George W. Wickham at a Y. M. C. A. meeting that the United States cancel all the obligations of the allies—France, England and Italy—to this nation for the billions loaned those governments.

Wickham is a corporation lawyer and was attorney general in the Taft administration.

"I would like to see America forgive our allies the debts they owe us and send a receipted bill to Great Britain, France and Italy," said Wickham.

"We can afford to do so, for we must remember all they have borne, what they have suffered during the years before we entered this war."

GERMANS BEHAVE LIKE BEASTS IN FLANDERS TOWNS

Stories of Savagery and Brutality Continue to Roll in From Inhabitants of Evacuated Territory

PILLAGE AND VIOLENCE ARE GIVEN FULL SWAY

Children Suffer for Need of Milk Following Theft of All Cattle From Ostend—Everything Destroyed

LONDON, Oct. 21.—From all quarters of the country that have been under the heel of the enemy come stories of brutality toward helpless women and children, the theft of provisions intended for their help and other acts of savagery.

One woman surviving in London continues to furnish proof of outrage committed by the Germans in their retreat from Flanders. The enemy set fire to Boulers in several places and thousands were killed. Inhabitants left hand-to-hand stories of pillage and violence and say just before the end the Germans stole their food so as to force them to consent to quit their homes.

A correspondent of the Havas Agency on the British front telegraphs that on Friday afternoon shots were fired at the crowds in Lille from a German airplane and several persons were wounded. The enemy also bombarded the town with a long range gun. The Germans have destroyed the municipal water works and gas and electric appliances.

On September 30, the Germans carried off all securities which were still in possession of banks of Lille.

King French Flynn

Two outstanding crimes disgrace the invaders—the deportation of women in October, 1918, and the carrying off of men, which was effected ten days ago. These men went out of Lille singing the "Marseillaise."

The Germans have robbed and pillaged in every direction, destroying furniture and breaking open floors and ceilings. When the Germans left Ostend they drove every head of cattle out of the town. When the Allied troops arrived there was no milk in the place and the children were suffering. The British landed thousands of tins of condensed milk and many tons of flour for the inhabitants.

Reparation Demanded

The Burgomaster of Ostend was taken in a torpedo boat destroyed at the request of the King and Queen of Belgium, who went minutely into the condition of the Ostend inhabitants. Dr. Calmette, director of the Pasteur Institute at Lille, has written a letter describing the action of the Germans in carrying off the last three horses remaining at the institute for the production of anti-diphtheria serum. In view of the fact that this action is not only contrary to international law, but also in opposition to the most elementary dictates of humanity, Mr. Calmette demands that reparation be exacted.

Alex Gray Is Victim of Heart Disease While at Work at Rock Creek

Stricken by heart disease as he was at work branding calves at the home at Rock Creek of Dr. D. E. Funeral services, under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, were held Monday morning at Rock Creek. Interment was in the Twin Falls cemetery.

CLOSES SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT IDAHO

State Board of Health Makes Further Order to Stop Epidemic Spread

Public and private schools in Idaho have been closed until further order by the state board of health as a means of preventing the spread of the influenza epidemic. Judges of the several district courts also have been asked by the state board of health to postpone hearings until the onset of the epidemic is passed.

Prior to the receipt of the order closing the public schools, on Saturday afternoon, Miss Britton-Wolfe, county superintendent, telephoned to Dr. E. T. Brewer, secretary of the state board of health, asking for authority to close the schools of this county, because the attendance was falling off so seriously. The receipt of the telegram issued Saturday by the state board of health, gave her this authority, and she communicated at once with the several school boards to the effect:

Judge W. A. Babcock, upon receipt Saturday evening of the request of the stateboard to postpone court sessions, stated that he would merely open court at 10 o'clock, call the calendar and then adjourn. He held that it is his opinion the precaution taken in respect to assemblies at courts was a wise one.

Prevalence in County

Three new cases of influenza in Twin Falls were reported Sunday to County Physician C. D. Weaver. The total number of cases in Twin Falls, as given by the three physicians who have reported, is 28. In Mortham, one case is reported; in Filer, 12; and in Hallock, 25.

Order Closing Schools

Following is the telegram ordering the closing of the schools:

It having come to the attention of the state board of health that attending physicians in various parts of the state, from motives unknown at the present time to this board, are unprofessionally refraining from reporting cases of epidemic influenza, it is deemed necessary to close all public and private schools. This order is to be effective until resisted by the board.

Castanets.

Castanets are musical instruments of percussion in the form of two hollow nut-shells, which are bound together by a band fastened on the thumb, and struck by the fingers to produce the rattling sound in accordance with the rhythm of the music. The castanets were introduced into Spain by the Moors, where they retain the name of castanuelas, from their resemblance to the form of the chestnut. The castanets were once much used in the ballet and in the opera.

CONSERVATION RECIPES

Used by Twin Falls County Women and Recommended by Mrs. O. H. Brown, Emergency Home Demonstrator Agent, Twin Falls County Farm Bureau

There are going to be 33,174 tons less of domestic beet sugar this year than in 1917.

Sugar is going to continue to be scarce.

Other sweets must be used.

Sorghum is one of the best.

We hoped to get it here in barrels, but it cannot be had in barrels this year.

However, you can get sorghum from $1.10 to 1.50 a gallon - at $1.50 in half-gallon tins and $1.10 in five gallon tins. Ask your grocer.

If he hasn't it, ask the Farm Bureau for a list of the grocers who are selling it and who will deliver it anywhere in the county for the above prices.

Here are some good sorghum recipes:

Wheatless Sugarless Gingerbread

1 1/2 cups sorghum, 2 rounded teaspoons ginger, 1 tablespoon cottonseed, 1 teaspoon soda (rounded) dissolved in 1 cup boiling water, 2 cups barley flour, 1/2 cup rice flour, 2 eggs.

Mix ingredients in order named, stirring in the well beaten eggs last of all. Bake in a moderate oven - Mrs. Howard Barnes, Hansen.

Boston Brown Bread

1 cup corn meal, 1 cup barley flour, 1 cup rye meal, 1 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup sorghum, 2 cups sour milk, 3/4 tablespoon soda.

Stir dry ingredients together, add sour milk and sorghum. One cup chopped raisins may be added if desired. Steam three or four hours - Mrs. Geo. McPherson, Dahl.

Corn Meal Gingerbread

1 cup corn meal, 1 cup flour, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 cup sorghum, 1 tablespoon soda, 2/4 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 teaspoons ginger, 1 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1 cup sour milk, 1 egg (if desired).

Stir together the dry ingredients. Combine liquids and add to dry mixture. Mix either in a tin loaf or in muffin tin - Mrs. L. A. White, Dahl.

Drop Cookies

1 cup sorghum, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup coffee, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sour milk, 2 cups rolled oats or 2 cups oat flour, 1/2 cup wheat flour or oat flour, 1 cup raisins, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Nuts may be added, nutmeg and cinnamon.

Drop on greased and floured pan - Mrs. Laura F. White, Twin Falls.

Defection of Vienna Would Result in Complete Cutting Off of German Empire from the Rest of the World

ADVANCING FROM NISH IN TWO DIRECTIONS

Clear Road to Bulgarian Frontier Will Be Opened With Capture of Defensive Center of Negotin

By J. W. T. MASON
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Invasion of Hungary by Allied forces operating in Serbia is now threatened by way of the "iron gate of the Danube," near Orsova, where the Hungarian, Rumanian and Serbian frontiers meet.
The Allied advance from Nish to the present base of operations in Serbia, is taking two directions, one directly north toward Orsova and the other northwest toward Belgrade, the Serbian capital. The Orsova movement is by far the more important. It has progressed half way from Nish to the Hungarian border and there remains but 50 miles to be traversed before the Danube will be reached.

One Point Remaining

The defensive center of Negotin also remains to be taken by the Allies before they have a clear road to the Hungarian frontier. Once the Danube is crossed and an invasion of Hungary actually begins, the possibility of a separate peace being agreed to by the Hungarian government will increase with each mile the Allies advance toward Hungary's wheat fields and cattle plains. There is every indication that the movement against the Hungarians for complete separation from Austria has lately reached disquieting proportions in the Balkans. Instead of independence an extension of self government is being promised which does not satisfy the Hungarians. The Hapsburgs look upon the independence movement as a traitorous act toward their own feudal dynasty.

Advance Is Opposite

An advance into Hungary by the Allies at this time would be therefore, at an opportune moment to permit the Hungarians to decide their own future, according to the Wilson policy of self-determination. With Allied troops at hand to support a declaration of independence, the Hungarians, a sudden break-up of the Hapsburg empire would receive every encouragement.
The Allies' advance through Serbia may be regarded as having this objective in view, to permit the Hungarians, if successful, Germany's isolation would require only the defection of Vienna to become complete.

GERMAN ANSWER FAILS TO ALLUDE

curity or half measures, she is reckoning without the facts, according to authorities here. President Wilson has stated plainly "upon what terms the German people can obtain peace, if it will be the only way which will give peace on that schedule, they can continue the war, for the military men here say that it is a mathematical certainty that peace terms can be enforced by arms in the coming year. Continuation of the war depends upon the decision it is keeping with the spirit of the nation, it is held.

Interest Is Waning

Hence, authorities here are daily taking less interest in the purported "Treaty of Versailles" of defiance and of partial acquiescence.
"The whole matter is 'up to Germany,'" the United States is going ahead on a scale bigger than ever before, and the military men are disregarding the peace situation.
And in the meantime Belgium, it is officially announced here at the legation, is attempting to compute the losses her land has suffered in the years of German occupation, preparing to make a claim before the peace table.

Claim Message Now on Way

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Conflicting rumors concerning the German reply to the United States were in circulation today.
It is reported from American that the German reply to the United States minister in Berlin Saturday night. According to this American report, the reply says German consents to evacuate Belgium, but needs several months for the evacuation; denies responsibility for the war; offers and children in territories she has taken to peacefully regard unprovoked United States in the violation of peace; disavows the act of foreign powers to dictate to wreck Hindenburg's plans at several points on the line. Cavalry is pushing on toward Ghent and Aardenne, threatening Germany's northern flank. British, American and French are meeting the enemy center, while the French and Americans in the Meuse region threaten the very hinge of the whole movement. An entrance contact is therefore in progress between the Germanic armies and the Germanic civilians.

In Race for Lige

The armies are racing for Lige, the Meuse, Metz, Strasbourg and the Rhine, on which line they hoped to make a stand before the civilians demand a showdown from their rulers and force the same as in the past. It is the most fearful of future hopes, but it is the only chance that the Kaiser has of saving even a dilapidated remnant of his throne and his crown. According to opinion here, his chances are precisely the same as those of the proverbial scorpion in the Sahara.

SAFEGUARDS FOR PEOPLE

"The responsibility of the chancellor of the empire to the representatives of the people is being legally developed and safeguarded. The first act of the new government has been to lay before the Reichstag a bill to alter the constitution of the empire so that consent of the representatives of the people is required for decisions as to war and peace.
"As a fundamental condition of peace, the President prescribes the destruction of every arbitrary power that can, arbitrarily, secretly, and of its own simple choice disturb the peace of the world. The German government pledges that hitherto the representatives of the people of the German empire have not had influence on the formation of a government. The constitution did not provide for the concurrence of representatives of the people in decisions as to peace and war. These conditions have just now undergone a fundamental change. A new government has been formed in accordance with the wishes of the representatives of the people, based upon equal, universal, secret and direct franchise.

AS TO INHUMAN PRACTICES

With reference to the charges of illegal and inhuman practices, the note says:
"For covering a retreat, destructions will always be necessary and insofar as necessary, they are permitted by international law."
"The German troops are under strict instructions to spare private property and to exercise care for the population to the best of their ability."
"Where transgressions occur in spite of these instructions, the guilty are being punished."
"The German government further denies that the German navy, in sinking ships, ever purposely destroyed lifeboats with passengers."
"The German government proposes, in regard to all these charges, that the facts be cleared up by neutral commission."
"THE PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT"

"The permanence of the new system of government is, however, guaranteed not only by constitutional safeguards, but also by the unshakable determination of the German people, whose vast majority stands behind these reforms and demands their energetic continuance."
"The question of the President as to with whom he and the governments associated against Germany are dealing therefore is answered in a clear unequivocal manner by the statement that the offer of peace and an armistice comes from a government which is free of any arbitrary or irresponsible influence—is supported by the approval of an overwhelming majority of the German people."

"State Secretary of Foreign Affairs."
"Berlin, Oct. 20, 1918."

German internal affairs; and asserts Wilson's information regarding Germany's war methods came from prejudiced sources.
From Geneva came a rumor that the reply also will abandon the claim that a mixed commission must arrange details of the evacuation of occupied territories.

From the Ancient Greeks.

"To throw dust in one's eyes" is a saying derived from the ancient Greeks. Epaminondas, wishing to surprise the Lacedaemonians, is said to have carried a 1,000 man army to an advance in front, kicking up a great dust which the wind blew into the faces of the enemy, thus blinding them to a flank movement he was executing with a view to taking the coveted heights in the rear.

have forced a passage of the Sella river between Le Cateau and Denain, where they are pushing toward the Belgian border south of Valenciennes. Villages in the river valley were seized. The British now drove the last enemy rear guards from the town of Solesmes. Belgians captured the heights dominating the Harpele valley. The Germans fought with determination, Belgians reported.

The British are at Denain, five miles from Valenciennes, and have taken the village of Haveluy, just north of Denain. British troops have reached the line of Haveluy, Wandignes-Hamelle, Brillon, Beauvry. Two thousand prisoners were taken here, and some guns. As their main point is toward the British are two miles from that important Belgian city.

Allied airplanes continue to destroy German communication centers behind the enemy lines. In spite of misty weather, with rainstorms, British planes have taken important photographs and dropped seven tons of bombs on rail road stations and troop transports.

The Berlin official statement admitted loss of Bruges, Thildet and Courtrai. It admitted the Allies had reached the Belgian-Dutch frontier, and that Germans had been pressed back across the Lys. Allied progress south of Courtrai, east of Douai, in the region of Laon, on the north bank of the Aisne and in the neighborhood of Valenciennes was announced by Berlin.

Paris Reports Raiding Operations

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Raiding operations in Lorraine and Alsace resulted in capture of prisoners, the French war office announced today.
"This may indicate that the Allies are planning an attack on the southern part of the west front, and are seeking information of German troops in that region."
"Between the Serre and the Aisne, during the night, there was increased artillery fire," the communique said. "In Lorraine and Alsace, our raiders entered the German trenches and brought back prisoners. Elsewhere the front was calm."

GERMANS FORCED ACROSS

New Waterproofing Oil

A French oil for waterproofing leather, cloth, paper and other materials is a mixture of eight parts of methyl acetate and four of castor oil, with one part of sulphur chloride stirred into it. Though this form is jelly, giving off hydrochloric acid, it hardens after being kept tightly covered a few days, and the acid being then neutralized with barium carbonate, gives a colorless solution on filtering. This is a valuable waterproofing material, dissolved in the liquid after the addition of alcohol or benzine.
