

KNOCK-OUT BLOW AT AUSTRIA IS MARSHAL FOCH'S LATEST STRATEGY

While Revolution Stalks in Ranks of Austrians, Allies Launch Big Drive in Effort to Eliminate One Enemy

SUCCESS OF PLAN WOULD OPEN ROAD TO BERLIN

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Today's new offensive by the British and Italian armies along the Piave is an effort to knock Austria-Hungary out of the war and permit the establishment of a new front against the Kaiser's military machine along the Austro-German boundary.

As the result of the Piave operations, Austria-Hungary were to surrender unconditionally, von Hindenburg would have to face an impossible strategic situation brought about by the opening of a new route to Berlin. By passing through Austria and entering Bohemia, an allied army would reach unhampered the border of Saxony, 140 miles directly south of Berlin.

Critical Moment The only way von Hindenburg there after would defend Berlin would be by withdrawing troops from the Alsace-Lorraine front. If he thus weakened his forces in western Germany, he would open the way to the Rhine. It would be impossible for the Kaiser to save both Berlin and the Rhine.

Today's operations along the Piave may turn out to be the most important of the war.

After frenziedly acclaiming Liebknecht, the people hoisted him into a vehicle filled with flowers.

Amidst wild cheers, Liebknecht stated: "The people's hour has arrived!"

FOCH STRIVING TO RIP OPEN ENEMY DEFENSES; FIGHTING EXTENDED TO ITALIAN PAVE FRONT

LONG INACTIVE ITALIAN FRONT BRISTLES WITH SHARP FIGHTING

WAR SUMMARY

THE Allies launched an offensive today on the long-inactive Italian front, Italians and British, according to unofficial reports received in London, attacked along the Piave on a front of nearly thirty miles, extending from the Mont Tombar river southeast to the vicinity of San Polo.

In the center of this front is the famous plateau of Montello, where the Italians smashed the last Austrian offensive. Early advices stated that Almon, four miles west of Valdobbiadene, and the islands of Grave di Papadopoli and Magiore, eight miles northwest of Treviso, had been captured. Four armies are said to be engaged in the attack, which is reported to be progressing well.

The British, with Americans cooperating, have entered the third day of their drive on Montebello, which extends from Valenciennes southward to the Sambre canal.

On the Serre front, north of Laon, the French, who began a drive this morning, have crossed the river between Crecy and Mortiers and have captured Vesles and Pierrepont.

The Americans, in heavy fighting between the Argonne and the Meuse, have made further progress northwest of Bantheville and in the Grandpre region. They have also won additional local successes east of the Meuse, near Davillors.

The Allies are gaining at all points in the Balkans.

ONE OR OTHER PROBABLE OUTCOME OF NOTE EXCHANGE—ARMISTICE CONDITIONS TO BE THRESHOLD AT PARIS CONFERENCE

By ROBERT J. BENDER WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—At an important later Allied conference to be held immediately in Paris, proposals growing out of Germany's peace note will be threshed out to accomplish complete unity on the diplomatic front of America and her allies.

General House, President Wilson's confidential adviser, Admiral Benson, representing the navy department, who have just arrived in France, and General Bliss, representing the war department, who is already there, will constitute America's team at the big conference.

Other members of the party are: Gordon Auchincloss, Colonel House's son-in-law, and a trade expert of the state department, and Joseph Grow, former secretary of the American embassy at Berlin.

Consult With Allies American military, naval and diplomatic chiefs, fully advised of the United States' position on an armistice, will be prepared to counsel with Allied representatives on that document before it is ready for final submission to the respective allied governments.

General Bliss, at the Versailles conference, will probably be the military spokesman. The naval and diplomatic representatives have not been revealed, though it may be significant that recent cables announce that Admiral McVey, chief of the American fleet, is abroad.

No Hitch Looked For It was learned authoritatively today that the president deems it absolutely necessary that any armistice program agreed upon by his chieftains shall be submitted to their respective governments and then must stand upon its provisions before they are finally approved and sent forward to Germany.

However, it would appear that some time will elapse before there is another step in the world maneuver to determine whether there shall be peace by German capitulation or war to the end.

YANKS ENGAGED IN GREAT BATTLE

Tremendous Pressure Exerted Against Enemy's Lines—Americans Threaten Break in Verdun Region While to Extreme North Allies May Crush Whole Lys-Escaut Front

By JOHN DWORANT

PARIS, Oct. 25 (4:20 p. m.)—The Allies are threatening a general crossing of the whole Lys-Escaut line from the Dutch border to Fournal, according to the battle front dispatches received here this afternoon.

French troops in Flanders have crossed the Lys canal and captured the Deynze-Courtrai road between Beteghem and Olen, on a front of about three miles, according to battle front dispatches received here today.

Between the Scheldt and the Sambre-Oise canal, where the British are striking toward Maubeuge units of twenty-five German divisions have been identified. The Germans, giving way under the force of the French attack, are abandoning formidable positions before Crecy, between the Oise and the Serre.

In the Serre valley, the French attack began this morning and resulted in the capture of Vesles and Pierrepont, northeast of Laon. La Ferté was also surrounded and Serre crossed between Crecy and Mortiers.

Franco-American forces are engaged in a great battle with the Germans between Vouziers and the Meuse which is expected to result in important developments within a few hours.

General Ludendorff is reported to be reinforcing the Armentières-Charleville-Montigny line; also the other defenses of the Ardennes.

Italian Attack Launched

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A big offensive has begun on the Piave front in Italy by the British and Italian forces, according to a dispatch to the Evening News today.

Four armies are engaged. Italian garrisons have entered Almon. The attack is progressing satisfactorily.

It is also learned that Italian troops have taken Gravetana, Bohl and Maggiori Islands in the Piave.

In the Mont Grappa sector, the Italians, after crossing the Orme, have captured Mont Bolario, three miles west of Alano.

British Attacking South of Valenciennes

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Fighting on the battle front south of Valenciennes was resumed early this morning; Field Marshal Haig announced.

Vendegies-Sur-Escaloin, six miles south of Valenciennes, where determined enemy resistance had held up the British advance, was captured yesterday afternoon.

"On the remainder of the battle front, our advanced troops pushed forward at different points."

French Renew Attack Along the Serre

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The French began an attack along the Serre and Bouchevillers, north of Laon, this morning. It was announced by the war office.

The assault was accompanied by heavy artillery and machine gun fire.

On the Alano, east of Bethel, the village of Amby-Fleurs was captured yesterday.

The German assaults were repulsed on the Oise front, between Longchamps and Noireux. Two enemy surprise attacks.

ROOSEVELT RAPS FOURTEEN POINT PEACE PROGRAM

Dictate Peace to Hammering of Guns Not to Click of Typewriter, Is Roosevelt's Advice to Senators

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Colonel Roosevelt is out in the open today in opposition to President Wilson's fourteen-point peace plan, and his correspondence with Germany. In telegrams to Senator Lodge, John and Charles McNair, Roosevelt said he hoped the senate would declare against adoption of the fourteen points "in their entirety" as a basis of satisfactory peace.

Roosevelt declared for the unconditional surrender of Germany and said he hoped the senate would take action for an unconditional surrender peace and against a negotiated peace.

"Let us dictate peace by the hammering of guns, and not chat about peace to the accompaniment of the clicking of a typewriter," the colonel said.

He asserted that the language of the fourteen points was not clear, that some of the points might form the basis of the unconditional surrender of the United States, that Wilson's terms are satisfactory to Germany and to pro-Germans and pacifists; and that many of the president's points are "utterly and thoroughly mischievous."

MAY WAGE WAR AGAINST HUNS DURING WINTER

Effort to Break Down War Shattered Spirit of Germany May Lead to Big Campaign to Start at Once

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A winter campaign by the American army toward the Rhine may become strategically advisable in order to break down the shattered spirit of Germany and hasten the enemy's unconditional surrender.

Expectations that cold weather would enforce a cessation of hard fighting along the German frontier must be forgotten in the light of Germany's greatly weakened morale. A policy that might have proved bad against a strong and belligerent nation, holds out possibilities of success against a discouraged and dispirited enemy. The fact of an invasion of Germany will be becoming a nightmare to the German people. Their guilty consciences are causing them to cringe before the destruction as the result of war being dealt with this condition of mental terror in Germany, it might well prove advisable to the military leaders to decide upon a winter campaign for the foe. There are no impossible obstacles to successful winter fighting if pressed with vigor.

Enemy Does Not Get a Moment's Rest—Terrific Pressure Is Maintained at All Points on Huge Battle Front

By LOWELL MELLETT

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 25.—The British driving on Manbauge, have extended their line of attack northward to the vicinity of Valenciennes. They advanced on this whole front of nearly 35 miles yesterday and last night, progressing 2 miles at some points.

The western border of the huge Morval forest and the western outskirts of Le Quosney were reached. Desperate German resistance at Maing and Vongtrot-Bur-Excellion resulted in a deep pocket being formed south of Valenciennes, which the enemy must soon evacuate or risk losing a great number of prisoners.

More than 7,000 prisoners and 100 guns have been captured since Wednesday morning, when the attack was launched over a front of about 25 miles.

The right wing fought its way through L'Evoye wood, and captured the village of Or, four miles east of Le Quosney. It is in this region that American troops have been co-operating with the British.

Further north, the villages of Poiz-Du-North and Les Tuilleries were captured and the British lines carried beyond toward Engletfontaine.

The village of Chalignoy, a mile southwest of Le Quosney was occupied. The Germans determinedly defended the crossings of the Beaulieu river, northwest of Ollingrains, but the British overcame their resistance.

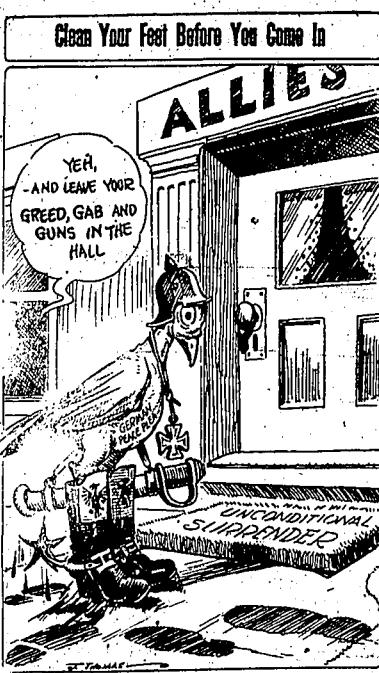

Some progress was made in local fighting between Valenciennes and Tournai. The French crossed the Ourthe near Long Champs and carried the line to the southwest. French troops captured important gains between the Ourthe and the Sere, reaching the Perle-Christians, 20 miles north of Tournai.

The British are carrying on the plan of fighting in a series of attacks. General Wood's army of 100,000 men has been building an unequal number of bridges as the result of the Germans putting up barbed wire and other obstacles.

The British are feeling the flooded region, unbroken by a row of shells such as has been seen since the days of the first world war. The British are giving the impression of a naval battle. The Germans reciprocated as best they could, but it was a sorry demonstration.

MAKERSHIP MACHINERY FOR HANSEN BUTTE

Pumps and Motors for Reclamation of 7,000 Acres of Arid Lands Leave Manufacturers' Warehouses

Pumps and motors to be used in the reclamation system of the Twin Falls Miller Land & Water company to furnish water for the reclamation of approximately 7,000 acres lying under the first lift of its project of the Hansen butte between Hansen and Minner, will be shipped by the manufacturers, the Allis-Chalmers company of Milwaukee as soon as boxes can be secured and the cars loaded.

This is the information conveyed in a telegram from the manufacturers to J. B. Moorman, a director of the company, this week. The telegram states also that transformers to be used with this equipment will be completed and forwarded within the next 60 days.

Payment in full for this machinery has been made to the manufacturers, Mr. Moorman states, and under this condition an order can be placed now by the Land & Water company for machinery for the second lift of its project under which approximately 20,000 acres will be reclaimed.

The machinery for the second lift can be completed and forwarded within ten months time, Mr. Moorman states.

Preliminary to the delivery of the machinery to the first lift, the Land & Water company last week began work at Miller where water is diverted from Snake river and pumped to the lands to be reclaimed.

ADMIRALTY HEAD WARM IN PRAISE AMERICA'S HELP

Sir Eric Geddes Comments on Wonderful Enthusiasm of the American People—Assures Victory, He Declares

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Germany is as strong as ever, as far as her submarine powers are concerned, and by the end of this year will be able to renew an extensive submarine offensive, declared Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty in an interview upon his return from the United States.

Replying in behalf of the admiralty regarding the activities of the British navy referred to in an American flag resolution, Sir Eric said that it is the tradition, privilege and pride of the navy to have borne the brunt of the sea war, and that no part of that duty was carried out with greater zeal, or more personal affection than the conveying and escorting of American soldiers.

Eager to Share Perils. "Since the first day the United States joined the Allies we have been proud to share with your navy our hourly perils."

"I wish to assure the people of the United States we appreciate fully, in fact more than we can express, the wonderful enthusiasm of the great American people in the fight for a common cause."

"The enthusiasm of the Americans which I personally witnessed in your country recently cannot fail to insure complete victory for the nations united in the battle against a common foe."

BOYS LAUGH AT INJURIES

Yankees Display Remarkable Nerve in Spite of Misfortunes. AN AMERICAN HOSPITAL IN FRANCE.—The worse they are hurt, the better their spirit, the doctors say. Doughboy philosophy is great. They are then discussing their misadventures.

Said one: "I didn't need that left leg, anyway. I'm a lawyer, and what good's two legs in a law office? It's not any, I wanted it to be the left one. I got my wish."

Said a second: "Well, my right's gone, but if I had it I'd just have it to wash all my life, so I'm saved a lot of work."

The third got enthusiastic: "Say, I've got it all over you. I lost both legs." Another doughboy came out of either just as they were finishing his operation. "Say, doctor, can I smoke?" he asked. The doctor gave him a cigarette, and the doughboy smoked calmly on the operating table as they bandaged him. He now claims he put one over on the doctors by smoking while they operated on him.

Progress Slow But Steady in Face of Heroic Resistance—Make Important Gains on East Bank of Meuse

AIRMEN ENCOUNTER MORE HUN AIRPLANES

Shortening of Lines in Belgium Gives Germans More Planes for Champagne Sector—Bombing wreaks havoc

By FRED S. FERUSON
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 25.—The Americans have won important new successes on both sides of the Meuse.

Attacking on a 2-mile front east of the river yesterday, they cleared out four woods which were filled with machine gun nests and now are within a mile and a half of the important village of Hamville.

Another attack carried out simultaneously northwest of Bathoville, resulted in the capture of Grand Carre farm, a mile and a quarter northwest of the village.

In Aincerville region, northeast of Bathoville, the Americans attacked on both sides of the Aincron brook, drove into the Freya Stellung, the new defense line which the Germans have established.

Follow Gigantic Gnawing Process
French troops cooperated with the Americans in the operations east of the Meuse. Usually heavy machine gun resistance was encountered and overcome.

After losing Grand Carre farm, the bochs were forced to retreat through a mine which was dominated by our artillery. They lost heavily.

The American attacks now have developed into a constant gnawing process. Their positions are constantly improved by taking hills, woods or farms and forcing the enemy back steadily by continuous pressure.

The attack which is preceded by heavy artillery preparation, is really an isolated battle, but as soon as the infantry moves forward, the militia to the right and left of the attacking force move up to maintain them against any resistance they encounter.

Bochs "Bokehivis": taken prisoner declared that boys of 14 and 15 manning machine guns have shot down strikers in Hamburg and other German cities.

Bombing Popular With Both Sides
Despite the misty weather, American airmen were up in great force yesterday. They concentrated a new squadron of hostile planes, painted a bright red. Shortening of the line in Flanders has enabled the bochs to send additional planes against our airmen who have shot down seven per cent of the total enemy planes on the west front in recent weeks.

German bombing squadrons are becoming more active at night in the American rear areas. Our search plane fight these off, and our bombing squadrons make life miserable for the bochs.

Leutenant Bens fired hundreds of rounds of machine gun bullets into an enemy train and bombed two towns during one flight.

COURT TAKES ASSAULT CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

Probate Judge O. F. Duvall hears stories of altercation between Hansen neighbors

Probate Judge O. F. Duvall has taken under advisement a motion for dismissal filed by J. B. Bethwell, attorney for Mitchell Johns of Hansen, who is charged in a complaint filed by the prosecuting attorney, with assault upon Joe Stastney, a neighbor, with a deadly weapon.

The case was tried Thursday in Judge Duvall's court. It is accused of assaulting Stastney with a shovel, following an argument of the alleged trespass of swine owned by Stastney. The assault took place on September 20 on the public highway near the "plac" in Hansen. It was rendered unconscious for several hours as a result of the injuries inflicted.

Johns pleads self defense and alleges that before he struck Stastney with the shovel Stastney struck him with a piece of timber.

Stastney, a Bohemian, required the assistance of an interpreter in placing his testimony before the court. Johns is a Syrian.

WOMEN WORKERS HELP OUT IN SHIYARDS

Girls Unload Hugo Iron Bars and Other Materials as Easily as Men

LONDON.—One of the most remarkable developments which the war has brought about is the introduction of women workers in the shipyards.

No industrial branch of work comprises a rougher or harder occupation than the building of a large merchant steamer. Women are now working with riveters, heating the rivets and carrying them to the men who drive them home.

The speed with which the girls unload high bars of iron from railway wagons and wheel them away in barrows is a source of wonder to the on-lookers.

Experienced girls even drive cranes and winches—a nonrecreational occupation, inasmuch as the lives of others depend upon their actions.

DEFENSE COUNCIL WARS ON ILLEGAL SALES OF STOCKS

Declares Violations of Federal Law Are Reported, and Calls for Assistance in Bringing Offenders to Justice

Calling upon patriotic citizens to assist in bringing to justice offenders against the federal law prohibiting the sale of corporate securities which have not received the approval of the capital issues committee, and declaring that complaints have been received of violations of this law in this country, the council of defense has issued the following statement:

Complaints have been made to the council of defense that in many portions of the country there have been sold stocks of corporations that have not received the approval of the capital issues committee.

This is in direct violation of the war finance corporation act approved April 5, 1918. Section 300 of said act imposes a fine of $10,000, or imprisonment for one year, or both, as penalty for its violation.

Many doubtful stocks in various corporations for the development of oil fields, mining claims, and for other purposes are being offered to the public, and would absorb a large amount of liquid capital that should be conserved for investments in government securities or such industries as are approved by the government as being necessary to the well fare of the nation during the time we are at war.

We, the council of defense, request all loyal citizens to apprehend and report all violations of the act that such disloyal parties may be brought to justice.

THE KEPT PRESS

The News has not undertaken a discussion of the Nonpartisan league and its candidates without full knowledge that it would draw down upon its head a variety of orderlies epithets.

First of all it felt that to even question the wisdom of anything proposed by the league, or to even suggest the lack of qualifications of a single one of its candidates, would be to invite—not a honest, above-board discussion of merits of the matter—but an imputation of bad faith on its part, ulterior and even improper motives.

Charge of bad faith are an easy method of argument. It is a complex human failing to accept and magnify improper motives, while at the same time discounting honest purposes. It is futile for a person—much less a newspaper—to discuss or even defend its own honesty or sincerity of purpose. There are those who claim to be particularly gifted in reading between the lines, and what they insist on seeing there nobody can prevent. But, after all, charges of bad faith constitute a cheap and shabby method of argument—a seeming admission, as it were, that the argument can't stand on its own legs.

The News has not met, abuse with abuse. It has chosen to ignore much of the insult thrown at it by those who seemingly do not want their practices and policies and candidates exposed to the light of day.

The Journal should not be alarmed. The News circulation is largely among the farmers of the county, probably by among the members of the League, and if everything is straight and above-board The News could not do the Journal's cause much harm if it chose. It would probably be better judgment to continue to ignore the hair-raised charges that the Journal makes, the boycott talk, and similar matter. But now and then it helps a lot—and sometimes even works out for the best—to step to the level of the muck-dealers and meet them on their own ground.

There has been a lot said in this campaign about the "Kept Press."

The expression refers to every paper on the face of the earth that does not endorse the Nonpartisan league and all of its appointments without qualification.

As the Journal itself puts it: "If you are not for us, you are against us."

In the first place it is highly desirable to look for the source of the charges. The "Kept" institutions are the most likely to judge others by their own standards, and hurl the charges against their opponents to the four winds of heaven.

The following will give our readers an idea of the Journal's editorial process. It says The News is trying to "earn the coin that the other side is putting up for the News to fight us." Then it prates about "Gooding and his petty hirelings, such as the Twin Falls News." Now then, here are some facts:

The News HAS received money from Mr. Gooding, or rather expects to.

The News HAS received money from the Gooding Motor company, and, incidentally, spent it long ago.

The News HAS received money from the Nonpartisan Journal, for advertising. Every cent received or expected to be received from any of these sources was earned by advertising in the columns of The News, plainly distinguished from news matter.

One man controls the policy of The News. He has received no favors from, and expects none, from either side in the present campaign. Can the Journal say so much?

The News owes Towalley nothing. It owes Gooding nothing. Can the Journal say so much? The News owes nothing to any political organization. Can the Journal say so much?

The News can and does stand for what its editor, thinks is proper and for the best interests of the community in which he lives, the state in which he lives, and the nation in which he lives. Can as much be said for the Journal?

The News does not have the advantage of class hatred, political strife, agitation and prejudice, with which to cloak its statements. It has to rely on the naked truth.

It has no lies to sustain, no false arguments to make consistent, no one to cover up, apologize for, or explain for. Can the Journal say so much?

The Journal claims to be the "Organ of the Nonpartisan League for Twin Falls County." A newspaper that is only an organ inevitably has to be content with a poor organist.

The Journal in one issue says that the reporter of The News "deliberately misquoted" what Mr. Berger said in his news story. This was on October 17. In its issue for October 24 it reproaches word for word the news story contained as untrue, and commends editorially: "The News made a misstatement of three or four words in quoting Mr. Berger, but the general meaning is the same."

This is the sort of bunk the Journal is trying to convey under the name of "The News is 'Kept'."

Here is another. The examples are endless, and these are selected at random.

In its issue for October 17, it runs the following story. Read it.

P. O. DEPARTMENT O. K.'S NONPARTISAN STATE PAPER

Uncle Sam again puts his stamp of approval on the Nonpartisan League. Last week the Idaho Leader, the official state paper of the Nonpartisan League, was granted full second class mailing privileges by the postoffice department. THE APPLICATION HAD BEEN PENDING SEVERAL MONTHS, and if there was anything wrong with what the League is advocating, the postoffice department had ample time to find it out. The fact that the Idaho Leader was O. K.'d by the department may be considered in itself governmental approval of the League's work. (The capitals are ours.)

Here is an attempt to make the Journal's readers believe the League has been O. K.'d by the government.

The facts are that admittance to the mails has nothing whatsoever to do with the matter. The "Appeal to Reason," "Menace," and similar yellow cars might claim the same endorsement.

The Journal says the application was pending "several months." The Daily News applied for admittance to the mails on April 9, of this year, and was admitted to the mails on April 23, LESS THAN TWO WEEKS LATER.

The News regrets the circumstances that seem to make the printing of an editorial of this character necessary. But it wants to caution its readers to go slow in believing that the press of the nation is all "kept." The ethics of the press in general are such that the News does not feel called upon to apologize for, or to be ashamed of, the press as a whole. There are blackguards, to be sure, but the press of America in general is a credit to the nation and to the ideals for which it stands.

The News is utterly and unalterably opposed to the election of Messrs. Aman, Berger and Little to the Legislature. It has given its reason for opposing these men and it is prepared to carry its opposition clear to the last ditch in the interests of what the News takes to be right in Twin Falls County.

The News is opposed to the whole proposition of the Towalley-Lesueur-Berger element in Idaho politics. But it is not opposed to the interests of the farmers or any other single class in Twin Falls County, be they League members or non-League members, the edition of the Journal to the contrary notwithstanding.

WOMAN ASKS DAMAGES FOR FALL INTO TRENCH

Mrs. Amelia A. Wheeler and Husband Bring Action Against City for Recovery of $10,000

As a result of serious injuries sustained by Mrs. Amelia A. Wheeler on the night of October 9 when she stepped into a trench dug in connection with the installation of the new waterworks distribution system and left uncovered and without warning device across the width of the sidewalk on Second street between Main avenue and Second avenue west, suit has been filed in district court here by Mrs. Wheeler and her husband, George D. Wheeler, against the city of Twin Falls for recovery of damages in the sum of $10,000. The accident occurred on the night of the celebration here over receipt of word that Germany had asked for peace. Walters and Hodgkin represent the plaintiffs.

100 FLU VICTIMS DOCTORS ESTIMATE

Eleventh Patient Is Received at Emergency Annex to the County Hospital

There are in Twin Falls approximately 100 cases of Spanish influenza, according to the estimate made this morning by Dr. W. E. Pike, city physician. It is difficult to determine accurately the number of sufferers from the disease, Dr. Pike stated, for the reason that not all of the cases are reported. There have been no deaths here this week from the malady. The eleventh patient was received this morning at the emergency annex to the county general hospital, opened in the building formerly occupied by Dr. J. E. Morgan's hospital for the care of influenza victims. There were nine patients being cared for there at noon Thursday.

WOMAN SUES AUTO DRIVER FOR PERSONAL INJURIES

Norman Berry Is Defendant in Action for $10,000 Damages Brought By Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Munson Claim for damages in the sum of $10,000 is set up in the case of Louis H. Munson and Hester Munson against Norman Berry, filed Thursday in district court here by Walters & Hodgkin, attorneys for plaintiffs. The action is brought as a result of injuries sustained by Mrs. Munson, June 26, when the buggy in which she, with her son, Howard, and daughter, Marjorie, was driving on the public highway near Kimberly was struck by an automobile driven by Berry. According to the complaint, Mrs. Munson was thrown from the buggy and received fractured ribs and other injuries which kept her confined to her bed for some time. It is alleged that Berry gave no warning of his approach and that he struck the buggy from the rear.

MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE OWNS CHIEF AFTER BRIBE ILLNESS

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—William J. Murphy, owner and publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune since 1861, is dead here today after a brief illness. Mr. Murphy came to Chicago early this week, taking apartments in a hotel. He became ill Tuesday and was taken to a hospital, where the end came late yesterday.

FELT LIKE MUSCLES WERE TIED IN KNOT

That Is Exactly the Way Tindall Says His Rheumatism Ached

"I had never taken a dose of Tanlac in my life till some six weeks ago, but I have received more benefit from three bottles I have just finished than from all the other medicines I have taken put together," said George B. Tindall, of 6002 18th Ave., South, Seattle, the other day. Mr. Tindall is employed at the Skinner & Eddy Ship Yard.

"For several years," he continued, "I suffered terribly from muscular rheumatism and kidney trouble. The muscles of my right arm would draw up at the elbow, and feel like they were tied in a knot. I had no appetite and the little I forced down didn't do me much, if any good. My kidneys worked me night and day. I had an awful misery up and down my spine, and my back right over my kidneys would hurt so bad that if I stooped over it would almost kill me to straighten up again. I couldn't rest well at night, and many a time I would wake up at midnight, and never sleep another wink the balance of the night, then my back would start hurting so bad that I could hardly get up out of bed.

"I guess I have taken most every kind of medicine sold without getting a bit of relief, and I was in mighty bad shape when I decided to see if Tanlac would help me. Well, I can honestly say that I haven't had an ache or a pain since shortly after I started on Tanlac. I sleep like a log at night, and my wife tells me that I'm habbo to eat up both out of house and home if I keep on with the appetite Tanlac has given me. I feel so well and hearty in every way that I have told the boys down at the ship yard how much good Tanlac has done for me, for I hope that my experience will be the means of helping others who may have troubles like I had.

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy, in Rogerson by Thompson Drug Co., in Murtaugh by Murtaugh Drug Co., in Filer by A. B. Wood, in Hall by C. D. Boring Brothers Co., and in Kimberly by A. L. Stowe.—(Advertisement.)

White Buzzards.
A page from Captain Dempster's "First Voyage to the Bay of Camperdown" published in 1723, tells of white buzzards. A native of the southern states, will vouch for the fact that a white buzzard in those parts would be regarded as something of an absurdity, but says the voracious old sea captain: "Some of the curlew crows are all over white but their feathers look as if they were sullied."

"This seldom that we see a great number of black ones but that we see one white one among them."

Know What You Want.
"The lumber customer I hate," a salesman in a city store declared recently, "are the people who are waiting for someone to tell them what they want." Find out for yourself. The first step toward getting what you want is to know what it is.

VOTE FOR EMMA LONGLEY WARREN

FOR COUNTY TREASURER

The present County Treasurers in several counties in Idaho are women. It is generally recognized that women can perform the duties of such office with singular ability. Such a course, likewise, assists in relieving men for war work.

EMMA LONGLEY WARREN has been a resident of Twin Falls County for six years past, and for such time has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools of Twin Falls City. She has had an extensive business experience and is entirely capable and highly efficient, and will bring to the performance of the duties of such office, rare ability and entire fidelity.

Twin Falls should follow the example of several other Idaho counties and elect a well qualified woman as County Treasurer.

PRINCE MAX'S DOVE BEHAVES BADLY

As a peace dove trainer, Prince Max of Baden is meeting with success. Maximilian is the new chancellor appointed to Von Hertling's place by the Kaiser-drafted for the peace proposal to which the allies' emphatic No is even yet responding. Maximilian has great task a year ago in compelling Russia into a compromise.

R. O. JONES ASKS VOTERS' SUPPORT FOR TREASURERS

To fill the vacancy on the state ticket made by the resignation of W. W. Von Cannon, the Republican state committee recently nominated Robert O. Jones, of Kellogg, to make the race for secretary of state.

Mr. Jones is an Idaho product. He worked as a laborer in the Coeur d'Alene mines to obtain money to get a college education and graduated from the University of Idaho in 1909 with distinction. He was for some years thereafter identified with mining operations in Shoshone county. In 1918 he was elected to the state legislature and in 1919 participated in the state-wide contest at Boise in the interest of a Workmen's Compensation Law. In 1916 he was selected by the late Senator James H. Brady as his secretary and for three years was in Washington, D. C., looking after departmental matters affecting the state. He then returned to his family in Idaho problems and would carry to the office of secretary of state the training and education to make him a very capable official.—(Advertisement)

Garford MOTOR TRUCKS

Fred Fletcher, a successful Western farmer, makes as high as 72 miles daily over sand roads hauling grain. 1840 sacks of wheat in 10 days is his record with a 2 ton Garford.

Getting to Market on Time

The success of the farmer depends upon crops and markets. Getting crops to market at the proper time to reach the top price is an important part of his business.

This is particularly true of perishable produce. Modern farmers cannot be placed at the mercy of uncertain transportation.

Fred Fletcher, a successful farmer of Winthrop, Washington, has solved his problems with a 2 ton Garford.

His success, like yours, is the result of business judgment. He saw the situation and met it with a Garford.

SAYS CANADA IN GRIP OF INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

Dr. R. A. Parrott Reports on Conditions in Provinces Visited

The Spanish influenza epidemic is exacting heavy toll of Canada, already previously stricken in casualty lists among her fighting men overseas, according to Dr. R. A. Parrott, who returned Wednesday throughout northwestern provinces of the Dominion after a seven weeks visit at the home of his cousin, Dr. I. P. Dawe in Juneau, Alaska.

Passengers on the trains throughout the Dominion are required to wear masks as safeguards against the malady. Dr. Parrott says. He declares that one train on which he traveled here seven weeks containing the bodies of seven victims of the disease.

The city of Lethbridge, Canada, was under quarantine so that no one was allowed to board or leave trains passing through it on the day that Dr. Parrott arrived in Calgary, intent upon visiting with friends in the city under the restriction.

Heavy storms of several days duration that wrought havoc in Juneau, prevented Dr. Parrott from carrying out his intention to bag some big game while in Alaska. He had just set out on the hunting trip when the storm broke and was compelled to bring his boat into harbor and remain there until the storm had passed.

Dr. Parrott was accompanied on this trip by Mrs. Parrott and their daughter, Irene.

Plagues in Making Others Happy. If those of us who are spending ourselves in the pursuit of empty pleasures stop for a moment and, desiring to look up our ill or best friends, would seek to see them once in a while, or would send some brief message of cheer, we would experience a joy delightfully new and satisfying to ourselves. We would find it far more useful to bring a smile to lips that have been wet with pain or sorrow than to seek pleasures that may amuse us only for a moment and then, because we are satiated with "good times," leave us no longer—Kavanaugh.

Mischivous Mapple. Birds of the same kind are, by their follies, full of mischief, envy and mimicry. There is a story of a tame mapple that was seen busily employed in a garden gathering pebbles, and with so much solemnity and a studied air dropping them in a hole made to receive a pebble. After dropping each stone it cried "Carrack!" triumphantly, and set off for another, on examining the spot a toad was found in the hole, which the mapple was storing for his amusement.

Grand River Water Power. The Grand river in South America is said to have a remarkably even year around flow for a tropical stream and also to afford a great opportunity for the development of electrical power. There are three waterfalls within a short distance of the spot where it empties into the Orinoco river, and from the lowest of these it is estimated more than a million horsepower can be generated without any necessity of building dams.

Oddly enough the first artificial eyes were not made for living persons, but for the dead. In the days of the earliest Pharos the Egyptian embalmers removed the eyes, poured plaster or wax into the sockets and set in eyes of volcanic glass or some precious stone.

ONLY DEMOCRATS ARE WANTED NOW

President Appeals to Country For Support of Bourbons in Elections

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—President Wilson today appealed to the country for a vote of confidence in his leadership "both at home and abroad" by returning the democratic Congress.

In a statement addressed to "My fellow countrymen," he said that the republican leaders "have unquestionably been pro-war, but anti-administration" and said election of a republican majority to either house of congress would "certainly be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership."

President's Statement

The president's statement follows: "My fellow countrymen: "The congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership, and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a democratic majority to both the senate and the house."

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust assigned me by the constitution would be seriously impaired should judgment be otherwise, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth."

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too keenly the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliation, to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that make it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a republican congress would divide the leadership."

Minority Pro-War

"The leaders of the minority in the present congress have repeatedly been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn since we entered the war they have sought to take the choice of policy and the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of 'institutions' of the war. In order that this is no time either for divided counsel or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil affairs as it is upon the field of battle. If the control of the house and senate should be taken away from the party now in power, an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all nations to be taken amid contest and obstruction."

"The return of a republican majority to either house of congress would, moreover, certainly be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the republican party are urging you to elect a republican congress in order to back up and support the president, but even if they should in this way impose upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they should impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here, that the republican leaders desire not so much to support the president as to control him. The people of the allied countries with whom we are so associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had chosen to support their president by electing to the congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact in sympathy with the acts of the administration."

As World Example

I need not tell you, my fellow countrymen, that I am asking your support not for my own sake, or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself, in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times I would not feel at liberty to make such an appeal to you. In ordinary times divided councils can be carried without permanent harm to the country. But these are not ordinary times. It is these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds. I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either here at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you."

"WOODROW WILSON."

The Courage to Believe in the Worthiest and Best

We are at war for ideals of liberty and democracy. These ideals have done wonders for America since we entered the war. They have welded our people together; wiped out class distinction; given life a loftier meaning.

America must maintain her quality standards in the eyes of the world, and drive home and abroad the economy of buying the best. Right now the worthiest and best is of utmost importance.

Right now the clothes buyers of America should put behind them the temptation of seeming cheapness.

In the present age of high costs and material shortage, it is plainer than ever that true economy lies in buying only quality goods.

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

for three generations has held to its belief in quality. It is one of the very foremost clothing concerns in the world. It has an organization and buying power surpassed by none. It places itself in the service of all who believe that this is the time to hold high the banner of quality.

The same ideals which have inspired the House of Kuppenheimer are paramount in this Kuppenheimer House in Twin Falls.

Not Desperate But Grave, Is His View

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 25.—The military situation is grave but not desperate; we are still able to make stubborn resistance," General von Schuch, Prussian war minister, told "the reitshag, according to dispatches received here today.

President's Reply Cheers Germans Up

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 25.—The German press, although not satisfied with President Wilson's reply, declares the note means progress toward peace.

The Berlin stock exchange is optimistic and prices have risen since Wilson's reply became known.

tacks were broken down east of Bismarck.

"On the Oise front between Longchamps and Noyales, last night, we repulsed two tentative enemy attacks," the communiqué said.

"On the Serre-Somme front, under protection of artillery and machine gun fire this morning, we resumed our pressure against the enemy.

"East of Riezecq, the Germans launched two surprise attacks against Serres and Nisy-Le-Comte, without result."

"The attack of Bethel, a well conducted operation gave us the village of Amble-Flours, despite determined resistance. We took a hundred prisoners, including many officers and some machine guns."

"North of Oilly, west of Grandpre, our patrols took 50 prisoners."

Belgians Repulse Counter Attacks

HAYRE, Oct. 25.—German assaults in force northwest of Ghent were repulsed with heavy losses, the Belgian war office announced today.

"The enemy attacked our lines along the northern part of the Derivation canal using several assault columns and heavy artillery preparation," the communiqué said.

"Attempting to debouch via Strootburg, Morsenhuisen and Balderhoek, he was repulsed with heavy losses."

Pershing Reports Artillery Activity

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Severe artillery fire along the entire Verdun front with a 600-meter advance in local fighting Thursday was reported by General Pershing.

"On the Verdun front there has been local fighting throughout the day Thursday," the communiqué said.

"It's a minor operation in the region east of Bantheville our troops advanced therein 600 meters, reaching the ridge north of the village and captured 170 prisoners. As a result of yesterday's action east of the Meuse, our troops were heavily established on the higher ground in the Bois de Ezy. Artillery fire has continued severe on the whole front, especially on the Cote de Chauillon and Bois de Cures."

One of the points the Allies will insist upon, it is said, is that their representatives be placed in German frontier and port entries to collect a part of the customs as indemnities for France and Belgium.

Two Alternatives

One of two things is expected from Germany now. Either they will be developments of great importance in that country, marked by the abdication of the Hohenzollerns and a speedy announcement to the world of this fact; or, a policy of waiting to see what the Allied armistice terms are before making her decision as to surrender or fight.

Maybe This Explains That "Peace Retreat"

PARIS.—If the Germans ever see this story, they will probably begin moving their trenches back farther from the American outposts. Recently at an athletic meet at Columbus, Private Sears, U. S. A., broke the world's record for throwing the hand-grenade. He heaved the grenade just 233 feet and 2 inches.

CHICAGO TO HAVE ANOTHER "SPORTLESS SATURDAY"

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Although another generally "sportless Saturday" will be endured here tomorrow, announcement was made today that Northwestern university footballers will play the Great Lakes Naval Training station eleven at Great Lakes tomorrow. The game was scheduled following the cancellation of the Michigan A. C. Northwestern game at Ann Arbor, Nov. 2, on account of influenza.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Fuel Administrator Gerald L. Sweeney notified bituminous workers that an increase in their wages is not warranted by "existing information."
