ALLIED TROOPS MOVE FORWARD TO GERMAN SOIL

American Soldiers Occupy Metz and Strassburg — French Civil Officials Accompany Armies on March

LONDON, Nov. 14 (1:55 p. m.)—The Americans have begun their march to Metz and Strassburg, according to advices received today. President Poincaré, Premier Clemenceau and Marshal Foch will personally accompany the Americans in their occupation of Alsace-Lorraine, it was stated.

PARIS, Nov. 14 (1:40 p. m.)—The Americans have occupied Metz, center of the famous iron basin of that name. It is twenty-eight miles northwest of Verdun, twelve miles northwest of Metz and only three miles from the German frontier.

PARIS, Nov. 14 (10:30 a. m.)—The Allied armies on the west front, following the evacuation of the Germans, are reported to have started forward this morning. Strassburg, Metz, Colmar, and various towns in Alsace-Lorraine are expected to be occupied Sunday.

The Americans are said to be marching toward Metz and Strassburg, Metz being the first objective. They will take possession of those two cities in the presence of President Poincaré.

PEACE MUST BE ON JUST BASIS

Lloyd-George Again Emphasizes Necessity of League of Nations

LONDON, Nov. 14—Premier Lloyd George in an address here November 11, declared in favor of a league of nations and against a pact of vengeance. "One of the principal issues at the forthcoming general elections will be the nature of the peace settlement," declared the premier. "It will mean the settlement of the world. What are the principles on which that settlement is to be effected? Are we to lapse back into the old national rivalries and animosities and competitive armaments, or are we to initiate the reign on earth of the Prince of Peace? What are the conditions of peace? They must lead to settlement which will be fundamentally just. No settlement that contravenes principles of eternal justice will be a permanent one.

"We must not allow any sense of revenge or a spirit of greed or any grudge."

RUNISHMENT FOR WAR ATROCITIES IS AN UNCERTAIN QUANTITY NOW

Off Hand Interpretation of Amendment Article Six of Armistice Terms Indicates Grave Question as to Allies Intent in Way of Punishment

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—Germans responsible for the "unspeakable" atrocities in Belgium and elsewhere may get free, under amendment, article six, of the armistice.

Without having definite information of the meaning of this article, some state department authorities so interpreted the sentence therein reading: "No person shall be prosecuted for offenses of participation in war measures prior to the signing of the armistice."

FIRST TROOPS MAY BE BACK BY CHRISTMAS

Rainbow and New England Divisions Will Probably Be Among Early Returns to Native Soil

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Rainbow and New England divisions are likely to be back in the states by Christmas. With the exception of the first regular division, they were the first troops to land in France. While priority of return will not entirely follow priority of original shipment, these two divisions are likely to get back first.

The war department, however, has made no announcement yet as to the probable time for any unit and its plans are unsettled.

The war plans section of the general staff is giving serious attention to the problem of making some proper demobilization, and also the problem of universal training. These subjects have been before the section for a long time and probably will be presented to secretary Baker soon.

New Up to Congress
According to Baker's interpretation of the present military status, all enlistments will close with the end of the war emergency, unless congress acts before that time. Hence it is believed that the war plans section's decisions will be embodied in legislation for congress.

Congress will determine in the last analysis how great a standing army the United States is to have and whether universal military training should be followed now that the war is ended. The regular army establishment prior to the war was augmented to about 200,000 officers and men.

War department officials believe universal military training should be instituted, but they are doubtful about the tone of public opinion and inclined to the belief that the public will prefer to settle back to the pre-war status.

ASKS IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 14.—The immediate withdrawal of German troops from Russian and German Poland to prevent further bloodshed is urged in a telegram sent today to President Wilson by B. Lempi, president of the Polish Federation of America, which has headquarters in Milwaukee.

them for crimes they committed beyond the pale of war laws. On the other hand, some interpreted the clause to mean the peoples of evacuated territories should not be punished in any way for participation in the war, either actively or in sympathy with either side.

The clause has aroused indignation in some quarters on the theory that it means those who ravaged Belgium will escape any punishment.

PREDICT BOOM IN EVERY LINE OF INDUSTRY

Leading Government Officials See No Chance of Hard Times But Look for Acceleration of Business

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Within a few weeks the United States will undergo a big boom, according to the forecast of leading government officials here today. They anticipate no hard times or panic during the process of graduating industry back from war to peace.

So confident is President Wilson that the foundations for reconstruction are firm that he will not hurry in his recommendations to congress for legislation needed for reconstruction. Pending his appearance before congress, which will probably await his annual message—the president may place in the hands of a commission of experts, members of the house and senate appropriations committee, and secretaries Baker and Daniels, the work, the materials and labor from factories engaged in making shells, explosives and those commodities which are strictly munitions. As soon as the war industries board is notified materials and men released will be made available for commercial use which can best absorb them.

NEW PRUSSIAN CABINET FORMED BY THE WORKMEN AND SAILORS

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The revolutionists are coming more firmly into power in Germany, it is indicated by reports from various sources. Councils of soldiers have been organized at Landsberg, Warthe, Ologau and Sensburg.

Newspapers Bitter
German newspapers continue their bitter denunciation of the terms of the armistice.

The armistice terms are modeled upon those which Home crashed from Carthage," says the Deutsche Tages Zeitung. "The German people must ask that the government take measures to meet the catastrophe."

"The entente diabolical plan to keep the blockade will result in famine and perpetuation of the revolution; it is monstrous," the Tageliche Rundschau declared.

"It is unprecedented in humanity," according to the Tage Blatt.

COMPULSORY WEARING OF MASKS IN SAN FRANCISCO STAMPS OUT "FLU"

Odd Effects in Styles Seen on City Streets, and Ingenious Expedients Resorted to by Smokers to Beat the Regulation of Board of Health

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 14.—Compulsory wearing of gauze influenza masks in San Francisco probably will be abandoned Thanksgiving day, board of health officials say today.

For two weeks, San Franciscans have paraded the streets in Turkish, harem style. It costs five or ten dollars and sometimes a day in jail to let down a mask on the street even to take a smog.

As a result of the compulsory wearing of masks, the influenza epidemic has been practically stamped out here within two weeks. For a time, over 2,000 new cases were reported each day. Today they average about thirty a day.

Churches will re-open Sunday, but everybody must wear masks. Schools will open Monday with all the pupils masked.

The most popular style of masked effects here consists of from four to eight thicknesses of gauze, fitting tightly over the nose and chin, like goggles to the head, with two strings, the ends of which tinkle the back of the neck. Many people, however, prefer strings which loop over each ear. In sequestered corners, where no policeman are, "There is no alternative but to be bending one ear forward, and then with the gauze hanging to the other ear, they smoke.

An early rage for buckram masks would not fit the face, soon died out. The buckram was found to scratch more than an underdone collar, and people learned that the starch in Buckram won't stand wash boiling. Some ladies have masks to match their gowns.

NO VENGEANCE IN SETTLEMENT WITH GERMANY

Lloyd-George and Wilson Are 'One With Respect to Civilization's Duty Towards Defeated Foe'

By ROBERT J. BENDER.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Wilson and Lloyd George stand squarely together on the main problem of peace—justice, without revenge or cruelty.

At the same time, the two allies are working out, separately but in many respects with the same ideas in the fore, the problems of reconstruction.

As revealed by Premier Lloyd George's latest utterances and as known from President Wilson's speeches, the league of nations idea will be put forth vigorously in the peace conference. Lloyd George stands with the president on his proposed peace principles. Particular stress is being laid down by the British premier and the American president that the great peace must avoid "base, sordid, squamous ideas of vengeance and avenging."

Main Points Known

Both Lloyd George and the president are now buying themselves with reconstruction matters. Lloyd George has declared for big housing schemes for creation of the minimum wage, for reduction of hours and for increased production from the land.

President Wilson has not yet declared himself on the program of the future. But he has under consideration the creation of a reconstruction commission, which should be a group of experts acting as a clearing house for the financial, labor construction problems. These moves by Great Britain and the United States are seen to be the big fight now under way to curb Bolshevism in the world.

Big Business Waiting

"Big business" is anxious for a pronouncement of policy. Labor wants to know what its future shall be.

Lloyd George says that Bolshevism is not feared if the problems are handled wisely. This is a move to avert the curse of Bolshevism and hence it proposes to have a sound reconstruction policy at the earliest possible time.

Sinking of U. S. Cruiser San Diego on Atlantic Coast Few Months Ago Traceable to Former Cargo Carrying Sub

By OARE D. BROAT

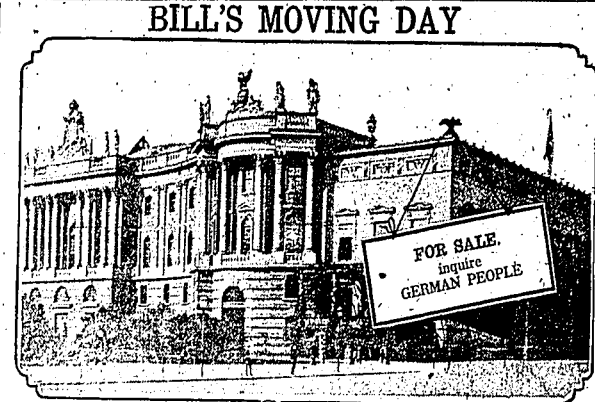

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The German submarine Deutschland is charged with responsibility for sinking the United States Cruiser San Diego a short distance out of New York a few months ago.

The information is the best available that the navy department has to the case, it was stated by an official today.

The Deutschland, originally a cargo submarine cruiser, was converted to lay mines and also was fitted with torpedo tubes. She was known to have operated for a while off the Azores, it was stated.

As far as the navy has been able to ascertain, she was the vessel that cropped into American waters and discharged mines which later wrecked the old cruiser San Diego.

It was indicated that the navy's proof is not positive, but its evidence is regarded as rather conclusive.

It took some time and trouble to hang that sign up there on this building, but it means a great deal to the world. The structure is the ex-kaiser's palace at Berlin. The world to move, folks, the world do move.

STEEL PRICES REMAIN FIXED AS AT PRESENT

Manufacturers Perfectly Willing to Continue Along on Existing Basis—Foreign Demand Enormous

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The steel industries want the war industries board to continue distribution of steel. This was indicated by Chairman Haruh, following a conference with the steel committee of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Baruch said that prices will continue to be fixed by the price fixing committee in accordance with the demand if they are allowed by cancellation of war contracts.

To date, no munitions contracts have been cancelled by the war department. J. Leonard Replogle, steel administrator, said before the meeting that he has a general estimate for steel required by the French and Italian governments for reconstruction purposes and that they amount to millions of tons. The production of this steel, probably will be considered.

American Naval Losses Are Light

United States Suffers to Extent of Only Five Ships of All Classes

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Since the beginning of the war, American naval forces in European waters have lost one destroyer, one corvette cutter, one armed merchant ship, and two transports.

In the past, since January 1, 1918, the Americans are known to have sunk four submarines and probably two more, and have damaged eight. The majority of American warships were engaged in convoy work on the Atlantic, where the chances of making big bags of submarines was small.

During July and August, 1918, the total losses of all shipping convoyed by American vessels was one per cent.

No Loss in Two Months
During the same months, American forces, with their base at Casablanca, escorted 2,785,908 tons without any loss. They steamed 200,000 miles. The individual record for consecutive days at sea was established by the U. S. S. Allen, fifty-two days.

DISPOSITION OF FORMER KAISER IS MAIN TOPIC

French Opinion Pretty Well Divided But Probable Majority Favors International Trial For Crimes

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

PARIS, Nov. 14.—While Wilhelm loses his head, he himself or be allowed to disappear.

Public opinion here is divided. High circles apparently are almost unanimously in favor of an international trial for the former kaiser, who was regarded as the principal artery of war and the murderer of 20,000,000. These are in favor of an international trial for the former kaiser, who was regarded as the principal artery of war and the murderer of 20,000,000. They oppose banishment as tending to apologize him into a hero of which it is not worthy. Others declare the kaiser and crown prince were marionettes in the hands of the militarists and kings of commerce, who are the ones responsible for the war. They contend that, if possible these ringleaders also should be haled before an international court so that something like justice might be achieved.

Hard Job Ahead

The opinion is unanimous that the allies have hard jobs in fixing Germany so that no one man, or clique can make war against and at the same time, avert a famine so far as circumstances permit by holding out a helping hand to a thoroughly beaten foe.

Jan Van Hamel, professor of jurisprudence in Amsterdam, now in Paris, was interviewed concerning the possible disposition of Wilhelm. He said he believed the Dutch government will refuse to all the former kaiser the benefit if an international court of justice should require his appearance.

FEDERAL RATES CANNOT REPEAL STATE TARIFFS

Convention of State Utilities Commissioners Hears Interesting Address on Subject of Intrastate Freight

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Serving notice that the state utilities commissions would oppose the installation of a uniform classification rates, Delight Lewis, of Iowa, told the convention of state utilities commissioners that the president has not been empowered to enact federal rates which would repeal state rates.

Lewis declared that the action of Director General McAdoo in raising all rates had worked a great hardship on every intrastate shipper. He said the rates now in effect in some cases were higher than under normal times.

In a report by the committee on safety, C. C. McChord of the interstate commerce commission showed that the railroads have been forced to violate national regulations because of their inability to secure the necessary equipment.

Efficiency Interfered With

"The dangers of placing inexperienced boys in responsible positions," McChord said, "has been very apparent since the first of the year. They have been overworked and efficient work therefore was impossible."

McChord said that the withdrawal of hundreds of thousands of men from the industrial world, has been reflected in a spirit of unrest among railroad men.

COMMUNITY KITCHENS A SUCCESS IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Sept. 15 (By Mail).—As a food economizing measure, the food ministry has requested English householders to forgo the luxury of individual cooking fires this winter and patronize the national kitchens wherever available.

More than 600 of these hot meal clearing houses already have been established throughout the kingdom, and a large extension of the system is planned. The community kitchens have been eminently successful. More than 1,000,000 portions are being dispensed by them daily.

Housewives take their food, have it cooked, and call for it in time for dinner. A small fee is charged for the cooking.

A restaurant usually is operated in connection with the kitchen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—With the signing of the armistice, the nation is already preparing to place itself on a peace basis in anticipation of the time when war legislation will automatically cease.

Repeal will be the congressional watchword from now on. This was originally voiced by Senator Martin, democratic leader, has been echoed by Senator Borah (Ind.), and Senator Snout, Utah, republicans.

Important war legislation, that ceases with the signing of the peace treaty or a few months later, includes:

The food conservation act which ceases when the state of war shall have terminated.

WOMEN REPORT SUCCESS MAKING SYRUP OF BEETS

Twin Falls County Housewives, With View to Sugar Conservation, Evolve Methods of Utilizing Product

The women of Twin Falls county have been experimenting for some time in an effort to hit upon a formula for making a satisfactory table syrup from sugar beets. The following is an account of the work done in making the syrup to the present time, as collected and compiled for publication by the home demonstration agent, county farm bureau:

Resembles Borghum

Mrs. Theodore Duerig, Twin Falls, took ten beets that had lain in a ventilated cellar for two months. Peeled them, cut off the top third of each beet. Sliced them with a slaw slicer, poured on boiling water and let it come to a boil. Cooked the beets until partially tender, drained them through a colander with a hole in the bottom. The resulting liquid was cooked slowly for several days and skimmed frequently. The shells of one dozen eggs were added during this time. One-half gallon of brown syrup, sweet and with a good deal of foam on the top, was the result of this process. This syrup has no bitter taste. It may be seen and tasted at the Farm Bureau office.

Mrs. M. E. Callicotte, Twin Falls, took two beets from the garden ground, sliced with knife, poured over water on an hot stand 24 hours. It was brought almost to a boil, then poured water off immediately. Cooked liquid down slowly, greater part of one day, over a low fire. When syrup was thick took it off at once. Let stand, spoon, five to ten minutes. Let stand and sugar down. Result about one-half cup of brown sugar. The sugar tasted like beets, but made a good cake as follows:

1-2 cup beet sugar, 1-2 cup sugar, 1-3 cup sour cream, 1-3 cup buttermilk, 1 cup flour, 1 duck egg, 1 tsp. soda (level), 1 tsp. baking powder (heaping); 1-8 tsp. cinnamon, "78," salt, nutmeg.

It stands in pan about six hours. Moderate oven one-half hour. She also took one beet out of the ground some time. Not sliced so fine. Poured on cold water and brought it to a boil. When water was boiled away or but not so long. Poured off when finished. Result, one-half cup of brown syrup. Tasted a little of beets. Used with hot cakes.

Caramel for Hot Cakes

Another experiment is explained as follows by Mrs. Mary Layer: Take two beets and cut them into thin slices. Cut off top at point of lowest leaf scar. Peel them carefully, taking out every eye. Slice this as possible with a knife. Pour on two and one-half cups boiling water. Let this stand an hour in a cloth kettle off the fire. Set over slow fire and heat until almost boiled. Get off and allow to stand one hour. Strain through 4 thicknesses of coarse cloth. Ret liquid remaining over fire. When scum begins to rise, add 1-4 soda. Stir frequently. Add small pieces of charcoal to clarify (in cheesecloth bag). Boil down slowly to the desired consistency. 1-2 pint of clear brown syrup, sweet and thick, resulting. No booby taste. Pleasant variation may be observed by allowing the syrup to caramelize. This is particularly nice on hot cakes.

Scientist Reports Results

C. O. Townsend, pathologist in charge of sugar plant investigation, has summarized the results up to the present time in the manufacture of beet sugar syrup in the following statement: The syrup as stated in our bulletin is dark, but it should not be a grey brown in color nor should it have a bitter taste. When we have used beets that are fully-matured and have skimmed the boiling liquid carefully and persistently we have obtained a palatable syrup free from bitter or booby taste. We have recently found that if the beets are sliced so thin that the slices fall directly into water a syrup of lighter color and better flavor is produced. The liquid should be boiled in a porcelain or copper utensil, that is, the syrup should not come in contact with iron. An iron spoon or skimmer should not be used.

Size Had No Effect

The size of the beet would not have any effect, so far as I know, providing the roots are mature and possess a satisfactory sugar content, as practically all mature sugar beets do in your state. Of course, the smaller roots would have more of the surface than would the larger beets and for that reason might be slightly objectionable.

Some makers of beet syrup claimed to improve the flavor by using a little molasses or by adding a little lemon juice. We have not tried anything of this kind as we have not found it necessary.

OFFICIALS LEND AID TO STRICKEN FAMILY

Probation Officer Is Called to Minister in Buhl Home Under Shadow of Disease

Probation Officer John R. Ault was called upon Tuesday evening to render assistance in the case of the family of James Albert Tuelor, laborer, of Buhl. The family consists of the parents and four children under the age of 10 years. The father and mother and one child are seriously ill with influenza, the father having been a patient for several days in a Buhl hospital.

The mother and children were brought to Twin Falls, where the mother and the afflicted children were placed in the emergency annex and the other children are being cared for at the county general hospital.

When stricken with the disease, the family made their home in a tent on a farm two and one-half miles northwest of Buhl, where they were employed tending sugar beets. During the summer the father was employed in work on the roads within the Buhl highway district.

Provost Marshal General Expresses Thanks and Directs Limitation

The local board received Tuesday, through the office of Adjutant General C. S. Moody the orders under which it is now proceeding, together with the congratulations of Provost Marshal Crowder on the work it, with other elements in the selective service machinery, had done in the past. The telegram conveying his message is as follows:

Release 37 Year Old Man

The provost marshal general instructs you as follows: The secretary of war has today issued the following order, to the provost marshal general: "You will at once instruct select board headquarters and local district boards immediately to discontinue all work connected with the classification of men who on September 12, 1918, had attained their thirty-seventh birthday. You will further instruct said boards to continue the completion as expeditiously as possible the classification of all registrants who on September 12, 1918, had attained their thirtieth birthday and had not attained their thirty-seventh birthday. You will, finally, at the earliest appropriate moment direct all local and district boards to issue questionnaires to all registrants who on September 12, 1918, had attained their eighteenth birthday and had not attained their nineteenth birthday, and to proceed with and complete as early as possible the classification of such registrants."

Covering the matter of sending questionnaires to men classifying eighteen year old registrants, further orders will be issued later.

End of Great Work

Entering pursuant to the foregoing instructions upon what seems, in view of the mighty events of the day, to be the final work of this character to be done by the selective service draft system, I extend to the members of the

SWEELEY'S FOOTBALL REPUTATION LIVES LONG

Gridiron Ability of Former Twin Falls Mayor Theme for Coach Eckersall

A reputation as a football star while a student at the University of Michigan that has endured for more than 20 years is that of Everett M. Sweeley, attorney and former mayor of Twin Falls, who is now in attendance at an army officers' training course at Camp Pike, Arkansas. This fact is borne out in the fact that an article written by Walter Eckersall, appearing in the issue of the Chicago Daily Tribune of November 7, says: "When Michigan takes the field against Chicago on Stage Field Saturday in the first game in thirteen years between teams representing these institutions the Wolverines will be fortified with a kicker whom Coach Yost claims is the best booter he has had since the days of Sweeley in 1899, 1901 and 1902. When Sweeley was booting the oval for Michigan he used considerably to run with the ball. He was one of the best players of the west who could boot the oval a long distance while on the dead run. It was his ability to do this that made him doubly effective. Pat Page of Chicago was the nearest equal to Sweeley in this kind of play. Since Sweeley's time Yost always has tried to develop kickers who were also good open field runners."

RESERVOIR SITE LAND CANCELLED

State Land Board Withdraws Area Where Bruneau Project Dam May Be Built

HOIHE.—Learning that favorable consideration is being given by reclamation officials to the plan for the construction of a reservoir at or near the American Falls for the irrigation of more than 600,000 acres in the Bruneau project, says the Idaho Statesman, the state land board Tuesday withdrew the lands lying approximately on the reservoir site from public sale.

State Land Board Withdraws Area Where Bruneau Project Dam May Be Built

The board's resolution of withdrawal was as follows: "Whereas, there is come to the knowledge of this board that the United States reclamation office is favorably considering the construction of a reservoir at or near American Falls to impound the waters of Snake river; and

"Whereas, the following described state lands, to-wit: Northeast quarter of the northeast quarter and northeast quarter of the northwest quarter and lots 1, 2 and 3, section 36, township 6 south, 37 east, are within what would be the reservoir site;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the said described lands now being advertised for sale, be and are hereby withdrawn from such sale."

COMMON SENSE AND GRATITUDE

Probability of the permanent cessation of hostilities in the great world war gives wider opportunity and inclination for consideration of some of the phases of the work that has made possible the successful advent of the United States into the conflict and some of the epoch-making achievements of the government of the United States in this connection.

Not the least of these achievements are the plans that have been evolved and are being worked out in expression of public recognition of the sacrifices of the fighting men and their families, whose achievements have made the final successful outcome of the struggle possible.

The modern prototype of blind patriotism has never bogged his broad in the streets of an American city. The American people have been generous in the past in their tangible and material expressions of appreciation of their fighting men, and whatever mistakes may have marked this expression have been of the head and not of the heart.

Those in authority when America entered this war have heeded the lessons taught by experience in respect to provision for the nation's defenders, and if for no other reason, they are deserving of all praise for their successful efforts to provide a modern substitute for pensions for injured soldiers by the dependents of soldiers killed in the service.

A present indication of the movement in this direction is the fact that the Injury, Division of the Information and Education Service, Department of Labor, is collecting information for soldiers and their relatives in regard to the provision that will be made for them.

The United States, under the new regime, provides compensation to injured soldiers or to the dependents of soldiers who are killed, in addition to all allowances, family allowances, and war risk insurance. This compensation is entirely distinct from government insurance and protection, and applies to officers and enlisted men alike, without regard to rank or pay. It applies to total or partial disability and to death incurred in the line of duty.

Following are some of the provisions of this plan as quoted from a recent bulletin of the Department of Labor:

In case of death of the soldier's widow, children, or dependent parents are entitled to compensation. If the disability is partial, the sum paid is based upon the percentage due for total disability and upon the reduction in earning power. If total, the amount of compensation varies from $30 to $75 a month, depending on the size of the disabled man's family.

In certain specific cases, such as the loss of both hands or both feet, or blindness in both eyes, or in the case of becoming permanently bedridden from causes occurring in the line of duty, compensation is payable at the rate of $100 a month.

In the event of death, compensation ranges from $20 to $75 a month, according to the number and relation of the soldier's dependents. The widow, children, and dependent parents are entitled to compensation. The widow shall receive compensation until her remarriage, and children to the age of 18 years.

WAR'S CLOSE IS CELEBRATED IN COUNTY TOWNS

Buhl Stages Parade and Exercises—Barbecue Feature at Filer—L. L. Breckenridge Speaks at Both Events

Both Buhl and Filer have celebrated during the week the German acceptance of the armistice terms. L. L. Breckenridge, manager of the Twin Falls mill, who has recently returned after spending six months in France as a Red Cross and V. M. C. A. worker, was the principal speaker at both events, and Twin Falls people in considerable numbers attended either occasion.

Band Furnishes Music

Buhl celebrated on Tuesday with a program following a big parade. The Twin Falls band furnished music, and the program was interspersed with vocal numbers by local talent. The speaker in addition to Mr. Breckenridge, included C. B. Manning, superintendent of Buhl schools, who leaves soon to enter army Y. M. C. A. work, and former Senator M. J. Eweley of Twin Falls. C. H. McQueen acted as the presiding officer for the exercises.

Till Barrow for Red Cross

A barbecue at which two stores and three bars were raised was a central feature of the celebration at Filer on Wednesday. A program of exercises with J. M. Markel presiding as chairman, following a parade in which the office of the Kaiser which was later strung up in a tree and burned, was an interesting feature. During the celebration a wheelbarrow was trundled through the crowd for the reception of donations to the Red Cross. It was filled nearly two-thirds full with currency.

Speakers, in addition to Mr. Breckenridge, included Judge John E. Davis of Twin Falls; Rev. C. E. Deal, Rev. M. J. Carmichael and Rev. I. M. D. Hall of Filer.

Citizens Pay Expenses

The barbecue was prepared under the supervision of John H. Bliss and John Durfee. Fires were kindled two days before the celebration to insure the proper preparation of the meats. More than 4,000 bars were consumed. The expenses of the barbecue were defrayed through a collection taken among Filer citizens some days in advance of the celebration.

COUNTY LACKS HALF AMOUNT OF ITS WAR QUOTA

Rural Districts Lag, Says Campaign Manager W. R. Priebe, and Drive to Put Over the Top in Prospect

Approximately one-half of Twin Falls county's minimum quota of $45,000 in the United War Work Campaign had been subscribed when the records at headquarters were cleared Wednesday night. Campaign Manager W. R. Priebe stated this morning. This amount has been raised almost entirely through solicitation carried on through the mails. Subscriptions are coming in better from the urban than from the rural districts, Mr. Priebe declares.

Drive Coming Up

A drive will be put on in the cities and towns of the county on Saturday, and all day Sunday will be devoted to securing subscriptions in the rural districts to raise the quota, according to indications this morning, he announced.

Block captains in Twin Falls have been set to work checking up the subscriptions in each block and it is expected, as a result, that before Saturday night, Twin Falls will have reached its quota.

How They Stand

Following is a statement showing the quotas and the amount of the subscriptions reported up to Wednesday night for several districts in the county:

IDAHO ELECTS TWO WOMEN LEGISLATORS

Two Out of Four Fair Candidates Successful—Mrs. White Complimented

Discussing the election of Mrs. Carrie Harper White of Twin Falls, wife of Captain John E. White, to be one of the representatives from Twin Falls county in the next session of the Idaho legislature, the Idaho statesman, Boise, in Wednesday morning's paper, says: 'Mrs. Carrie Harper White represents the rural women, being a rancher herself. She organized the highly successful Rural Federation of Women's clubs and acted as county agent of the Twin Falls farm bureau for a time. She is actively interested in the Y. W. C. A. and all work pertaining to the advancement of women. She, too, is a good parliamentarian, and the co-workers of the two women elected to the Idaho legislature say that the Idaho legislators will have to look to their heels in the next house. Out of four women candidates for the legislature, two, Mrs. White from Twin Falls, and Dr. Emma Drake in Payette county, were elected.

NO RELIEF IN-SIGHT FOR THE PUBLISHERS

Newspaper Paper Conditions Not Likely to Change For Some Time to Come
CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—That newspaper paper conditions are still serious and that there is no likelihood of an immediate reduction of prices was the opinion expressed here today by Thomas E. Donnelly, chairman of the paper committee of the war industries board. 'Book papers have a better tone about them,' said Mr. Donnelly, 'but manufacturers claim that their prices as fixed by the board are too low on newspaper. We do not expect to make any decision in lifting the ban on the establishment of new newspapers until newspaper conditions are better. All paper prices are about as low as they can get at this time. I am of the opinion that for the present newspaper prices will remain stationary.' Mr. Donnelly left today for Washington to attend a meeting of the paper section which will consider book paper prices and conditions.

Farm Where You Can Produce Most

Upon the efficiency and efforts of the American farmer depends, to a very vital degree, the success of the cause for which America's sons and her allies' sons are shedding their blood.

Europe's grain production this year is about 525,000,000 bushels below normal. Her cattle, sheep and hogs have diminished by over 30,000,000 animals.

Not only therefore, must America maintain her normal exports of grain and animal products to her European allies—she must make up these terrific shortages and add enough to counteract the losses from submarine warfare.

It is therefore incumbent upon the American farmer, handicapped as he is by labor shortage, to farm where he can produce most.

offers to American farmers an opportunity for maximum production and consequent larger earning capacity. This great ranch is located in the heart of California's famous Sacramento Valley. The crops that are being produced here right now are almost beyond the conception of the farmer who is unacquainted with this section.

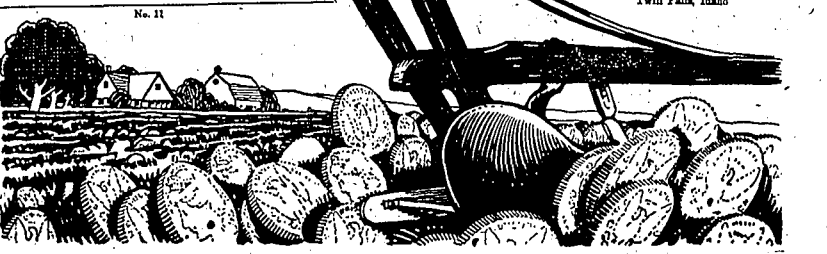

There are no extremes of climate to combat. The land is ready for immediate cultivation and production. Close to markets. Good roads. Splendid neighbors. Excellent schools. Delightful climate. Electricity on every farm. Abundant water supply. Every condition is ideal for profitable, intensive farming. No Pioneering.

The last of the land is now being offered. If you are interested we suggest that you investigate at once. Would you like us to send you the names of farmers from your community who have bought at Capay Rancho.

SIGNAL HONOR COMES TO LOCAL G. A. R. VETERAN

W. W. Humphrey Is Appointed Aid-De-Camp on Staff of Commander-in-Chief of National Organization

Signal distinction has been conferred upon William W. Humphrey, commander of Dan McCook post, Grand Army of the Republic, Twin Falls, who has been designated by Clarence Adams of Omaha, commander in chief of the national G. A. R. organization, aid-de-camp on his staff. The appointment carries with it the honorary rank of colonel.

Comes as Surprise

Always an active member of the Grand Army, Mr. Humphrey had never aspired to so high a position in it and he was much surprised some days ago to receive the word that he had been selected for this position. It was a matter of keen regret to Mr. Humphrey that he was unable to attend the last national encampment at Portland at which he was named as one of those who is to serve as elected. It was the first encampment Mr. Humphrey had failed to attend in the history of the organization. His absence on this occasion was a result of the illness of his brother in New York, who later died.

The appointment assured to Mr. Humphrey a prominent position in the next annual encampment to be held in Columbus, Ohio. "You may say for me that I will be here," he said today.

Gets Badge of Office

On Wednesday Mr. Humphrey received the badge of his office, and a commendation stating that the commanding officer designated him to fill the position to which he has been appointed will follow in a few days.

The badge consists of a large bronze G. A. R. emblem suspended from a representation of a colonel's shoulder strap by an American flag against a background of yellow ribbon.

His Service Record

Mr. Humphrey served throughout the civil war as a member of the Army of the Potomac. He called at the age of 18, and while serving as a dittoed officer for his uncle, General A. A. Humphrey, commanding the second corps of that army, was shot through the right arm at the first battle of Bull Run.

His discharge issued to him at this time real that he was unfit for enlistment in the veteran's reserve corps, but he persisted in his purpose to re-enter the service; was successful and served until the discharge for the second time as color bearer of the 168th regiment of New York volunteers.

Was Often Wounded

He was shot three times through the body after his enlistment. He claims the distinction of being the only soldier who never lost arms in action and survived.

Mr. Humphrey is one of the pioneers of the Twin Falls country and has taken on a prominent part in plans for the development of its several irrigation enterprises.

Even Modesty Is Expensive

War conditions, working on the character of woman, has done more toward the return to the really modest evening gown than any decree ever issued by fashion maker or moral squad. The new gowns for the winter season show higher necks and sleeves. Silhouettes of materials and almost prohibitive prices mean nothing to woman. Those conditions only work to exclusiveness—no woman will have it. ## Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Grown"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of half a century.

Because of all these elements working in correlation and union, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

You get more than clothes here

WHEN you come to us and buy a suit or overcoat—or anything else to wear—you get a good deal more than clothes; but you don't pay anything for this "more," tho' it's almost as important—maybe more important than the clothes.

The part you don't pay for—the "more"—is a positive assurance of your satisfaction, guaranteed, or your money back.

We're really not taking much of a chance in such a guaranty; the clothes take all the risk. When you see Hart, Schaffner & Marx name in a garment you needn't have any anxiety about the quality or the service you're getting. You'll be satisfied; and if by any chance anything goes wrong, we'll make it right in any way you say.

Specialty good overcoat values We have them; in box overcoats like you see in the picture; in Chesterfields, ulsters, slip-ons and military models—also fur lined and fur collar overcoats. We'll be glad to show you.
