

CLEARING DECKS FOR ACTION AT CONFERENCE

Great Gathering Not Likely to Be Convened for Another Month—Details Are Being Worked Out

By ROBERT J. BENDES
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Prominence for the great peace conference are now well under way. It was indicated today that the convener might be held before, or shortly after, the first of the year. The next week, this government will send representatives to aid Colonel House in his work as attend upon the opening of the conference. These representatives are understood to include George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information; James G. Thompson, head of the foreign division of the committee, and regarded as an expert on Russian affairs; Walter Rogers, chief of the propaganda service in New York, and a group of secretaries.

May Be Month Yet
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—While the peace conference will be delayed another month, according to the best information here today, this government and the Allies are working on details both at the home capitals and through the supreme war council at Versailles. The United States for some months has been engaging its suggestions through Colonel House and his aides. A careful study has been made with respect to peace adjustments needed in the Near East, where any nation has a share of long-provisioned safeguarding of these groups will be one of the chief problems to be considered. The state department has done nothing yet with respect to the German wireless appeal for the early cessation of the hostilities appears to be not to hasten matters until Germany appears more stabilized than at present.

Prospects Improving
However, it seems likely from press dispatches that constitutional changes are in effect in Germany now and that steps are under way for forming a stable government. The main question is whether any particular government will stand at this time, with unrest and revolution underlying the whole Teutonic situation.

More than twenty-five nations have a right to place at the peace table as belligerents against Germany. These countries will not have equal voice in the session, even though technically entitled to it. Instead, France, Britain and the United States and Italy will have the main power.

SURVIVORS TELL TRAGIC TALE OF HUMAN HEROISM

Twenty-five Sailors Saved From Death on Ill Fated Destroyer Shaw Land Safely in Port

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Twenty-five American sailors who faced death in battling against flames and the sea when the United States destroyer Shaw was wrecked in collision with the big transport Aquitania, off the coast of England October 9, arrived here today on the Canadian Pacific liner Metala. They described how fourteen Yankees of the little warship went heroically to their deaths, fighting to save their ship. The Shaw was finally towed safely into Portsmouth, England, where she is being rebuilt. After the collision, a number of the destroyer's crew were imprisoned below decks by flames, which burst from two big oil tanks under the bridge. One by one, the others were rescued after they had saved the vessel by getting a cable through a porthole to another American destroyer. Wave Quench Flames This dragged the Shaw through the sea at great speed until the waves flamed over the deck and extinguished the fire. While the destroyers was (Continued on page three)

NO RELIEF FOR TAXPAYERS FOR YEARS TO COME

American People Will Be Called Upon to Continue to Pay for War Until Nineteen Twenty-Two

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—America will be paying war taxes until 1922. Treasury plans an official today show that the heavy burden of taxation must continue for at least six years more. The end of actual fighting has cut the 1918 cost by $3,500,000,000. Secretary McAlister announced, but immediate war expenses will continue to come in for three years. The action will have to provide funds, according to officials. Facing the treasury for the present fiscal year were expenditures of $18,000,000,000; for the fiscal year ending June, 1920, $3,500,000,000, and for the next four years the government expenses will range around $3,500,000,000.

LAW AND ORDER ARE IMPERATIVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—General Poviching is greeted warmly by Paris through whenever he is recognized on the streets of the French capital, the French cables today declared.

Question of Early Peace Settlement is Up to the People

LONDON, Nov. 12.—If the reported anti-semitic program in Warsaw is confirmed, the government will view it as an encouragement to the forces of disorder and violence which are threatening the populations between the Rhine and the Volga. The Allies are ready to lend their whole resources for restoration of the economic bases of civilized life in those countries desiring order and civilization. But if the people of the central empire are disorderly, it is lamented today, the Allies will only be able to wait for restoration of conditions leading to the processes of peace.

Yank Flyer in Cologne

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 12.—An American airplane landed in Cologne yesterday, it was reported here today. Cologne, the northernmost of the important Rhine crossings to be held by the allies is 35 miles from the nearest point on the Dutch border and 125 miles from the nearest point of the allied lines, as established at 11 a. m., November 11.

Metz Forts Are Occupied

PARIS, Nov. 12 (4:55 p. m.)—French and American troops have occupied the advanced forts of Metz and are advancing toward the city. The Germans are carrying out their evacuation faster than was expected. It is possible that King Albert will enter Brussels Sunday.

Belgians in Antwerp

LONDON, Nov. 12 (11:50 a. m.)—The Belgians are in possession of Antwerp today, according to reports received here. The dispatch does not indicate whether Belgian troops occupied the city, or whether the Germans had evacuated and Belgian civilians resumed charge of the city's administration. Antwerp is the chief seaport of Belgium. It is located on the Scheldt river 22 miles north of Brussels and is 25 miles from the nearest in the Belgian lines as established at the close of hostilities.

German Withdrawal From Belgium Will Be Complete Soon

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 12.—Evacuation of Belgium is expected to be completed by the end of the week. Antwerp is said to be in control of the workmen's and soldiers' administration. Food conditions in Berlin are reported to be bad, in information sent out by the Germans. The distribution of meat is said to have been stopped. The horse races at Kalkbier have been cancelled. Officials of the course recently have feared to traverse Under Lind en in automobiles with the gate receipts, through danger of being robbed. ## Would Have Special Tribunal Organized For Trial of Kaiser

French Deputies Give Notice of Movement to Punish War Lords

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Three deputies today served notice they will move that the allied governments open legal proceedings against those responsible for the war, through establishment of a tribunal composed of representatives of all the countries which have suffered from the machinations of these men. They declared in a memorandum that even if Holland should refuse extradition, "the fact" that the Kaiser, the crown prince and their advisers had been condemned by such a tribunal would place them in such a position that their only refuge would be death. It is now expected that the peace conference will be held in Versailles early in 1919. Foreign Secretary Balfour and Foreign Minister Sonnino already have arrived here. Premier Lloyd George and Premier Orlando are expected soon. Colonel House is working overtime.

GREAT PRAISE FOR PERSHING AND SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Expressing appreciation of the "real, courageous and strength" of the American expeditionary army, Secretary Baker, in a telegram to General Pershing today promised "as early a return of the American army in the United States as the military situation would permit."

Secretary Baker Congratulates All Concerned and Promises as Early Return as Possible

"The signing of the armistice and the cessation of hostilities brings to an end the great heroic military adventure in which the army under your command has played a part of distinguished gallantry and success," said Baker. "It gives me pleasure to express to you the confidence and the appreciation of the war department and to extend to those who have labored with you to make the result possible, the appreciation of their zeal, courage and strength both of purpose and achievement."

Appeal of German Women to Wife of President Regarded as Part of Organized Effort to Create Mischievous

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The United States and the Allies will see to it that rolling stock provisions of the armistice do not work an undue hardship on Germany, provided that condition is its utmost to maintain order. This, unofficially, is the government's attitude toward the German women's wireless appeal to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and to Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, received by the war department overnight. The appeal declared that German women had been starving for years and would now die from hunger "by millions" if the associated governments did not relax the stipulations as to seizure of railway material. No Modification It is indicated here that the governments have no intention of modifying the armistice terms. But, at the same time there was indication that the rolling stock seized could be placed to aid the German people another the specter of Bolshevism now stalking in their lands. Suspect Sympathy Game There is disposition in many quarters to believe that Germany is overplaying the "sympathy game."

SITUATION IN HOLLAND BAD

Socialists Said to Have Demanded Abdication of Queen

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The situation in Holland is becoming more serious, dispatches received by the Express declared today. The Socialists are demanding abdication of Queen Wilhelmina. Jonker Colijn, former Dutch war minister, has been recalled from England to Holland and, it is believed, will be charged with formation of a new Dutch government.

NO RELAXATION OF VIGILANCE IS TO BE ALLOWED FOR THE PRESENT

British Admiralty Points Out Possibility of German Troops Refusing to Acknowledge Authority of Present Commanders and Revolutionary Committees Declining to Be Bound By Armistice Terms

LONDON, Nov. 12 (British Admiralty wireless).—"It is evident that we must remain prepared for possible hostile action on the part of certain elements of the enemy's forces," writes the military correspondent of the wireless service. "Revolutionary councils have been set up which may refuse to acquiesce in the terms of the armistice and the mere fact that the armistice can be terminated by either side at forty-eight hours notice necessitates our being fully prepared for all eventualities."

PROLONGED RESISTANCE IMPOSSIBLE BUT DANGER IS NOT YET ELIMINATED

Future Attitude Uncertain
Whatever happens no organized or effective resistance can, under any circumstances, be offered by the German army, but if the troops refuse to acknowledge the authority of their present commanders and the army should disintegrate, the Allies may still have much work to do. "The victory gained by the Allies is one of the most complete recorded in history, the Allied nations being in the almost unparalleled position of being able to dictate any terms they please to the enemy who no longer has any means of resisting or prolonging the struggle for a single day. Problems Are Political "However, the problems which lie before us are political rather than military—but for the moment we are faced with a situation which may require further military effort from some, or all the Allies. The whole of central and eastern Europe is in a state of extreme anarchy from the Rhine to the Ural, and the Allies are pledged to reconstruct a new Europe out of this chaos. How this will be done, it is impossible to say, but it is evident that transition from war to peace must be very gradual."

NO HARDSHIPS TO BE WORKED TO THE PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Congress is participating a revolution 'all its own,' when it convenes to organize March 4 next. First-rundings of progressives' intention to play an important part in the organization and naming of committees by Republicans are now being heard in the capitol classrooms. There is a strong progressive faction in the senate including Borah, Keayon, Norris, La Follette, Hanna, Johnson, California, and McNary of Oregon. Capper, of Kansas, is expected to line up with them. This group privately admits it is preparing to demand recognition and ample representation on those committees which will handle reconstruction legislation. Many of its personnel are strong government ownership advocates—as opposed to the Lodge, Penrose, Brandegee majority group. Opposed to Mann While the house situation is more stable, the progressive element there is regarding classroom opposition to the selection of Mann as speaker, declaring such a choice would mean the selection of a Republican of the "old school" for floor leader. Also the progressives in the house, including members of the Minnesota, Wisconsin, Kansas, Nebraska and Idaho delegations are prepared to fight for retention of the present system by which a committee makes assignments instead of the speaker. Question of Health The opposition to Mann, however, will not take definite shape until his health, which will handle reconstruction whether he is physically able to take the job. Madden, of Illinois, will be of Ohio, says he is not a candidate, but he commands progressive support and may be persuaded to run. Logsdorth, of Ohio; Moore, of Pennsylvania, Campbell, Kansas; Turner, Iowa; and Gillett, Massachusetts, are other candidates mentioned.

ANARCHY WANES IN GERMANY IS FRENCH BELIEF

New Government Appears to Be in Control of Both Civil and Military End of National Affairs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Anarchy is waning throughout Germany, according to Berlin advices received here today through diplomatic channels.

The new government seems to be in control and has the situation both on the regard to the civilian population and the demobilization of the army well in hand, it is declared. The advices are that Hindenburg is in direct charge of the French, Belgian and German territory, acting directly under Ebert and Haase.

The information from Berlin is that the whole of the former administrative personnel has remained in place. "Diplomats hold that this has made possible the great ease with which the governmental change was effected."

Situation Unsettled

French diplomatic advices today were that "we have no reason to think that the German revolution will turn to disaster, but at the same time, the actual situation is unsteady."

It is the French opinion that the conditions under which it will be possible to revivify the demobilized army, and also the conditions under which the demobilization will take place, will make for decisive action on future conditions in Germany.

NO BEEF TRUST IN EXISTENCE SWIFT CLAIMS

Head of Well Known Packing Plant Says He Has Nothing to Fear From Threatened British Investigation

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—"There is no beef trust," Louis F. Swift, president of Swift and Company, packers, said today when shown a dispatch from London, saying that a parliamentary investigation had been asked of the so-called "Chicago beef trust."

American packers' profits have been limited to nine per cent per year, Swift said. He added he did not regard that as excessive.

"War-time necessities have made higher prices," Swift explained. "Austria being far removed from Great Britain, and a shortage of ships naturally caused Britain to turn to the nearest source of supplies. This threw an extra, heavy burden on livestock producers in this country with the result that increased demand naturally drove prices to new high levels."

Sheep Go Way Up

"The cost of sheep has increased in the United States 109 per cent since 1915, but the cost of dressed mutton has increased only 89 per cent."

"The packers have done everything they could to feed not only the armies and navies of our allies and our own country, but also to keep a supply of meat before the civilian population."

"As to the Australian situation, my beef or mutton sold there was as profitable at prices fixed by the Australian government."

AUSTRALIA RECEIVES NEWS WITH ENTHUSIASM

Governor General Congratulates and Thanks Allied Nations for Results Achieved

MELBOURNE, Nov. 15.—Australia celebrated the news of victory with deep fervor.

The governor general sent the following message to the secretary of state in London:

"On behalf of the government and people of the commonwealth I hasten to express the profound feelings of welcome and joy prevailing throughout Australia at the signing of the armistice, symbolizing as it does, the surrender of Germany."

"I congratulate his majesty's government on the results attainable which made and preserved the grand alliance which confronted and finally defeated the enemy."

"I wish to express the deep gratitude of the commonwealth to the allied nations whose selfless devotion to the cause of humanity has re-established safety and liberty. To the men of the navies of Great Britain and the allies, Australia renders profound and grateful thanks for their unparalleled valor of the service."

All Wheat Bread Again Allowable

Government Throws Off All Restrictions But Cautions Against Waste

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The American public may now eat all wheat bread. The white loaf may return to Uncle Sam's table.

The food administration has announced that all regulations regarding use of wheat substitutes in baking are suspended. However, Administrator Hoover still advocates restricted consumption of wheat bread.

Already plans are being perfected to carry forward the stocks of cereals. Greater care now for the course grains will be used most for animal feeds.

Millers who have trouble disposing of substitutes acquired before November 15, probably will be able to sell them to the food administration at a price which is formulating plans to purchase such cereals.

AUSTRALIA WILL WELCOME PROBE INTO BEEF TRUST

Members of Parliament and Several Newspapers Demand Investigation as to Prices During War

LONDON, Oct. 31. (By Mail)—Investigation of the alleged Chicago beef trust is being demanded by members of parliament and a section of the British press. Bitter criticism of American beef exporters is expressed in such headlines as these:

"At the mercy of the meat trust."

"Inquiry needed into workings of United States concern."

Answering the statement of H. H. Cantley, member of parliament, that the food control departments of Great Britain and America are being run together to a great extent and that American influence in the direction of their policy is very strong and is exercised in the interest of allied American meat trust, J. R. Clynes, British food controller, declared the charge is a "gross misrepresentation."

Cantley, however, is not without support. Sir John Tavorner, who for 31 years was agent at Victoria, Australia, advocates a probe.

"Mutton in Australia was commandeered by the government, and cheerfully relinquished by the producers at 12 cents a pound," said Tavorner.

Price is Too High

"It costs two cents a pound to deliver it here and should be sold with a reasonable profit at 19 to 20 cents. Instead it was sold at 26 to 40 cents a pound. Australians wrote me indignantly about it when they heard of those high prices for meat they had relinquished at 12 cents a pound."

"When complaint was made we were told that the government had to average up British prices, in other words, they used this Australian meat to make up their losses on the excessive prices they paid the American meat trust."

"It has always seemed the greatest injustice that the Australian meat, which is cheap, should be handed over to our allies while to the British people should be left the dear meat of the American trust. That is why I think there should be an investigation."

FINAL CASUALTY TOTAL CANNOT BE ESTIMATED

To Date Nearly 75,000 Are Reported to War Department and End is Not Yet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Nearly 75,000 American casualties have been reported to the war department up to today.

War department officials said today there is absolutely no way of making the final estimate of what the final total will be.

Casualties for October are coming in. Some of the most costly fighting of the war occurred in that month.

Returning officers have said that the casualties, including slightly wounded, whose cases were almost negligible, would run past 200,000. However, war department officials give no authority for such a claim, and the conservative estimates go as low as 100,000.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION RESTRICTIONS LIFTED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Restrictions on road construction, made necessary by the nation's war program, were today lifted by the United States highway council.

The council announced that no further applications need be made to it for approval of highway projects. That previous disapproval was revoked and no further applications require no further action.

Mrs. Bennett Had Suffered 18 Years

Was in Bed Weeks at a Time Unable to Move—Now, Does Own Housework

"For the past eighteen years my wife was a sufferer from rheumatism in one of its worse forms," said William Bennett, who is employed by one of the large saw mills at Redmond, Wash., recently.

"Whenever these attacks came on," he continued, "she would get so weak and crippled up, that she would have to take to her bed, where she would lie for two or three weeks at a time, suffering under agonies and unable to move. Her left foot was drawn up and twisted so with pain that she seemed to be permanently crippled, and one finger on her left hand was drawn all out of shape so it was useless to her. Her stomach, too was all out of order, she had no appetite, and although she was just as careful as she could be about her dieting, her food would sour on her stomach and cause her great distress afterwards. Her nervous system seemed to be shattered, and her rest was so broken at night that she could hardly sleep. Her arms and throat appeared to be withered, the skin soft and flabby, and she was just about as miserable as anybody ever got to be. For years she had been too weak and ailing to do any of her housework, and what time she wasn't in bed she was barely able to get around."

"I consulted specialists about her case but they could give me no hope and I took her in one of the most celebrated health resorts in the country, hoping she would be benefited through drinking the water, but it seemed to do her no good. Then she tried all kinds of medicines, but next day she started taking Tonic did she find any relief whatever. After taking a few bottles of this wonderful medicine we are prepared to say that Tonic is the only thing we have any faith in. Her next attack of rheumatism was all of two months ago, and she hasn't had a twinge since. Her twisted foot is getting back into its normal position, and that bent finger is getting straight and supple like the others. Her stomach is in such splendid condition that she can eat anything she wants without suffering any bad effects afterwards, or arms and neck are filling out, and are plump and firm, and she sleeps like a child every night. She is now able to do all her housework, and she is in better condition than she has been in many years."

Tonic is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy, in Regester by Thompson Drug Co., in Filer by A. B. Wood, in Buhl by C. D. Boring Brothers Co., and in Kimberly by A. P. Stone.—(Advertisement.)

FOOD CONTROL TO END SOON SAYS HOOVER

Administrator Declares He Has No Plans for Incorporation of Plans in Any Other Department

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—No legislation to continue existence of the food administration after the declaration of peace will be sought by Food Administrator Hoover, according to senators who conferred with him on the eve of his departure for Europe.

Hoover, they said, declared he had no plans for incorporating the work of the food administration in any other existing government departments.

Hoover, also said, according to the senators, that he and Judge Glasgow, counsel for the food administration, would make an special study of food conditions in Germany as well as in France and Belgium, while abroad, and would return to the United States about Christmas.

At that time, Hoover hinted, it might be necessary to ask for a large appropriation to carry on food rationing abroad. At present he said, there was no further prospects of food rationing in this country.

Some senators came away with the impression that it might be necessary to establish a credit for bankrupt Germany, although they declared Hoover had not touched specifically on that point.

MURTAUGH IN GRIP OF INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

Twin Falls Physicians Are Kept Busy Making Professional Calls to Community

MURTAUGH—Twin Falls physicians have been busy lately making professional calls here, as the influenza epidemic has gained a foothold here and is spreading rapidly. A number of families are afflicted at the present time. It has been suggested that people endeavor in every way possible to prevent the spread of the disease by remaining away from towns except when called there on business, and by wearing gauze masks when, and avoiding congregating in groups.

Thirty-eight sweaters, 19 pairs of socks and 18 pillows have been completed and turned into the Red Cross chapter headquarters at Twin Falls by members of the Murtaugh branch. Several sweaters of last month's appointment have not yet been completed and a few of the knitters have had to have their time extended.

Mrs. Harry Applebaum and son, Max, suffering from the influenza, were taken Monday to a Twin Falls hospital. Mrs. Applebaum received Monday the sad news of the death of her brother, J. Lavin of Eden, who had been sick for several days from pneumonia at Twin Falls.

IT'S UP TO US

There is occasion for grave concern in the statement given out this morning by Division Campaign Manager E. J. Macvicar that every county in the southern Idaho division, with the exception of Twin Falls county, has either subscribed its full quota to the United War Work Campaign fund, or lacks but a few hundred dollars of that attainment.

It matters not that the progress of the campaign is slow throughout the State—that only one-third of the amount the State is expected to subscribe has been given up to the closing of the fourth day in the one week's campaign.

Twin Falls county, in every previous call for war contribution, has taken the first and foremost place among those eager and willing to meet the demands incident to the waging of a successful warfare, and it goes hard, now to witness her tardy progress in this most important undertaking.

The war is over only in the fantastic fancy of the most superficial intellects.

It is true that there is every probability that hostilities in the great world war have reached a permanent cessation. But war is not all fighting, as the people of America and of every other nation have had abundant opportunity to learn in the necessity for sacrifice and close cooperation demanded of the "second line of defense."

The end of the work of destruction and the cessation of the roar of guns in battle in this war most necessarily merge into the greater work of reconstruction of the war stricken world, and the man who has been called upon to fight our battles are now called upon in large part to assume an important place in the rehabilitation of the world.

The business of the fighting man is fighting. He can, and will, most efficiently, do the work he is called upon to do after the fighting is over, but the central aim and stimulus afforded in battle—like unto which there is no other—is lacking. And under these circumstances, the aid and comfort with which it is the purpose of the United War Work Campaign to surround our fighting men, is a matter of greater import than it would have been during the continuance of hostilities.

Twin Falls county is not ungrateful for her fighting men for the splendid part they have played in the winning of the world war.

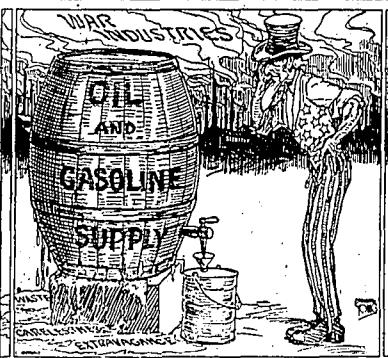

She has an opportunity to prove this gratitude in a form most acceptable to her fighters through her subscription to the United War Work Campaign fund.

Twin Falls county is going to keep the faith with her representatives overseas, and take the place she has held in the past in the front rank of war workers. But she must not tarry longer.

Dozens of Stories of Individual Heroism See Light of Day for First Time—American Officers and Men Give Wonderful Account of Themselves in Last Few Days of Struggle

By WEBB MILLER

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Nov. 6 (Delayed).—There are numerous tales of individual heroism as the Yankees push on their "peace drive."

One of the most spectacular was furnished by Lieutenants B. O. Acomb and W. Darwin, of Chicago, aviators, who yesterday engaged in the stiffest fighting north of Beaumont. German machine gunners forced the two to land close to the enemy nests. Instead of surrendering, the Americans used the guns on their planes to hold off the Boches until darkness fell. Then they escaped and reached the American lines this morning. "The doughboys are having the greatest difficulty in catching up with the Germans. Our aviators are using great numbers of captured enemy cannon and motor trucks, are gathering up deserted ammunition, food and other supplies. These trucks sometimes are operating far ahead of the doughboys, who find everything ready for them when they advance."

Great Engineering Feat

One of the greatest feats of engineering work ever accomplished by the American army was the bridging of the Meuse in the region of Stonay, where the Yankees were under terrific shellfire in building the positions of their used Boche boats and materials captured during the fighting at Chateau-Thierry. These had been brought from Germany for the Kaiser's Paris offensive in July. There was more than enough material to cross the Meuse, which was flooded to a mile in width, thanks to the Boches' ambitious summer.

Hundreds of civilians, robbed by the Germans, have been rescued by American soldiers.

Refused to Rest

A tent already had been erected by the supply train and the crew were ordered to pile into it and get some sleep. Instead of resting, they started to work. Before 9 o'clock, they had made 2,000 doughnuts and were serving them with chocolate along the line.

When Boche shells whistled overhead, the doughboys would duck into nearby shellholes, but the girls never moved. They made doughnuts all morning under constant bombardment.

Nearly entire Salvation army women were acting as nurses in first aid hospitals.

The Salvation army is planning to keep in touch with the Americans till the last man returns home.

JUDGE BARCOCK WINS HIGH VOTE AT ELECTION

Official Canvass of Election Results in Twin Falls County Reveals Interesting Turn of Disposition

District Judge William A. Barcock of Twin Falls, candidate for re-election, received more votes—411—in Twin Falls county than 373—his opponent, candidate for a contested position in 1917 last election, and the largest plurality—1,907—was given to Representative Addison T. Smith of Twin Falls, candidate for re-election, against C. P. Jepperson, nominated by the non-partisan league on the democratic ticket.

Moore Leads in County Among the candidates for county offices, T. E. Moore of Filer, republican candidate for reelection as commissioner from the third district, against Frank Holtz, democratic non-partisan, received the largest plurality, or 1,877 votes, while Mrs. Emma Longley Ward of Twin Falls, republican candidate for treasurer, crowded this record closely with a plurality of 1,274 votes over her opponent, P. H. Crow, democratic endorsed by the non-partisan league.

These facts were verified by the official canvass of the returns completed Wednesday by the board of county commissioners. The total vote cast for each candidate in Twin Falls county, as established by the canvass, together with the pluralities of the successful candidates, except in the case of district judge and state representatives, is as follows:

The War Today J. W. T. Mason

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Germany is continuing with subtle persistence her effort to secure support of the United States as special counsel at the peace table.

By trying to create the impression that the United States Germany has a lenient friend at court, the government at Berlin is seeking to start controversy at the peace conference between America and the other democratic nations. There is admitted danger to America's best interests in the effort of the Germans to isolate Americans; but how that the United States may be destined to play the prominent part in the forthcoming league of nations, the qualities and leadership leadership have a new value for this country.

Leadership among nations is a matter of character, strength and ingenuity ability to do the right thing at the right time.

Germany is trying to develop the notion that American leadership means America must be addressed as a favored nation apart from other nations and as the world's commander-in-chief. In this idea lies the germ of destruction of full co-operative effort between America and the allies at the peace conference.

America can not ally Germany to single out this country from among the world's democracies for the purpose of addressing her notes and petitions exclusively in Washington. International questions in this connection are as dangerous as personal suspicion and jealousy. Germany had traded on this fact for years. It is wholly for her advantage to continue to do so. What Germany must be asked from the world is what Germany has to place in mitigation of the acceptance for her terrible crimes against humanity should be taken not to America, as an inter-esser, but to all the victims of German lust and enmity. If the Berlin government receives encouragement in its aim to ignore Europe and deal as a client with the United States, Holzner's in his Dutch waiting place will grin with a morose satisfaction. The most difficult work of coalition is not making war, but making peace. Many a hazy nation has saved itself by shying conditions at the peace conference. The stake is too large for Germany to neglect any gambler's device that holds a similar possibility of success now.

TEUTON MIND WORKS SLOWLY FOR THIS MAN

Naval Lieutenant Gives Graphic Account of Escape From German Prison Camp Across Barbed Wire

LONDON, Oct. 31. (By Mail)—Lieutenant J. V. Jones, U. S. N., decided he was at right time to allow American war government as an inmate of the German prison camp at Villagid, on the German imposed a bridge of light boards on which he crawled from his barracks window, jumped the barbed wire and dropped right between two German sentries.

"The Teutonic mind seems slow at grasping new situations," said Jones today. "Never before had an escaping prisoner appeared right under the noses of those German guards. They seemed almost to decide what to do. Before they fired I was several meters away in the darkness."

Jones, whose home formerly was in Cresco, Iowa, was captured by the U-9 which torpedoed and sank the President Lincoln in May. Captain Henry of the U-9 took Jones from a raft when the German sailors failed to find the ship's captain.

After being landed in Germany following a trip through the Kiel canal, Jones became the target for German intelligence officers who tried to persuade him the United States should have joined the war on the side of Germany.

At one place he was lodged three days in a "listening post" where diagrams were strung all over the room in the hope that the prisoners would discuss military secrets. Jones told the German learned from him by this device.

Jones made an unsuccessful attempt to escape when he jumped from the train taking him from camp. Although the fall hurt him severely he made a break for liberty, but was finally obliged to throw up his hands when the German bullets splattered close. When taken, he was clubbed and beaten.

Lincoln County Sheriff Seeks Trio of Alleged Burglars Now at Large

Sheriff Clarence Wheeler of Shoshone, Lincoln county, is offering $50 reward for the arrest and delivery to an officer of Lincoln county, either C. W. Darcy, Frank Sullivan, or Edward Miller, said to be three of the most dangerous criminals in the country, who broke jail on the morning of November 5, at Shoshone, where they were being held to answer in district court to grand larceny charges.

Record of Companions

Sullivan, Miller and Darcy, in company with Frank White, Joseph Logan, George Dunninghoff and Wm. Moore, quarantined in Idaho for a number of months prior to their arrest on September 17, 1918. Miller and Dunninghoff were arrested in June of this year while in the act of carrying away $400 worth of merchandise from the H. M. Durditt clothing store at Wendell, which they burglarized. Merchandise to the value of about $15,000 had been stolen from stores in Twin Falls, Elmore, Lincoln, Bonneville, Bannock and Bear Lake counties, and these men played an important part in each of these robberies. These men are now serving terms upon conviction of burglary in the Idaho state prison.

Are Widely Implicated

Sullivan, Miller, Walsh, Hogan and Darcy were arrested September 17 by Sheriff Wheeler at Jerome. It is alleged that they have been implicated in a number of stores robberies in Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming. The evidence upon which the officers made the arrest was obtained by the Bevelauro secret service.

The thirst for popularity and position will lead one to blind the conscience that selfish ends may be gained and Lord Bacon speaks of the "love of the lie for it's own sake."

But it is of the consequences of the annihilation of conscience, we would speak. "The wicked shall eat of the fruit of their own way." The light that was intended to lighten and gladden and bless, is turned into darkness. Walking in that darkness, one stumbles and falls, hopeless and bleeding.

The power that would exalt the soul, debases it.

Conscience is robbed of it's vitality and life is changed into death. Faith, joy, peace and love take wings.

Healer, because sin is sweet, and the selfish ends appear desirable, have you engaged truth into a lie and a lie into truth and annihilated your conscience? Take heed how you hear the truth. Take heed how you trifles with the truth. Take care how you heed the truth, for if the light that is in there be darkness, how great is that darkness."

GIVES HIS ARM, BUT IS PLEASUED OVER VICTORY

Private Arthur Alworth of Twin Falls Exhibits Pluck of Fighting Man in Letter

Wounded seven times in one engagement in France as a result of which he has lost his left arm, Private Arthur Alworth, member of the national rifle team of an infantry unit, in the following letter, under date of October 14, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Alworth of Twin Falls, exhibits the never-failing optimism and pluck that are characteristic of the American fighting man:

Dear Folks—

I guess I should have written to you before this but I did not feel much like writing to anyone.

I suppose by the time you receive this letter, Joe will have let you know that I am wounded, but I thought I had better write to you myself.

Coming Home Soon

I had seven wounds when I arrived at the hospital, but only one was bad, and that was my left arm, which they amputated about four inches below my shoulder. When the doctor dressed it today, he said it was fine and that it would not be very long before I would be on my way home.

Of course, it is pretty bad to come home without an arm, but I figure that I can get along somehow, and besides, I might have been killed. So I guess I am looking at the best side of things.

It was a great fight while I lasted, and I was in it six days. What I saw was enough. But then we licked them and that is what we came for.

Well, I guess that will be all for the present and I will write again soon.

TRY SINCIAIR'S FIRST IT PAYS

SEEMON BY REV. ASBETH H. BRAND, FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Text, Matthew 6:33, "But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!"

Statistics of suicides for 50 of the largest American cities in recent years show that the number of suicides has more than doubled. The suicide rate per one hundred thousand is as follows: native Americans 6.8; Irish origin 6.1; German origin 10.3; French origin 22.

It is of suicide in another yet equally as true sense that I desire to write. I would write of "The Annihilation of Conscience." The function of the eye is to give light to the whole body. A good eye is a priceless possession. If the eyes distort everything, if they see only the single thing which they fill of light, if they see only the whole that is full of darkness, or if they whole that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness.

Truth is the Illuminator of the soul. The Jews of old changed the truth into a lie. If truth is changed into a lie, how great is the darkness in which the soul is involved.

The world today is writhing under the tragedy of a nation whose "inner light" has been extinguished.

By my throes "The Annihilation of Conscience" it is implied that one has been privileged with having the truth; that it's beauties and power were known and it's teachings practiced, that by experience the content of truth was known, and it's rewards tested by experience. But our throes imply that notwithstanding the fact that one has been privileged with having the truth, he has changed that truth into a lie. "Lutheran expression may be the same but the shell is without a kernel. But he that changed the truth into a lie, John Huss' death at the stake and said Luther, "God helping me, I can take no other stand."

And yet the annihilator of conscience claims to that lie as if it were the truth. "No and God" is flung around as a slogan with apparently as much confidence as the blindest Christian lifts his eye to the Father's face.

How may this perversion of conscience be accounted for?

Well, sin is sweet; perverting the truth; one is allowed to live in sin. So he tells his sin under his tongue as a sweet morsel. Truth often prevents the carrying into effect certain sinful plans. Perverting the truth, one is enabled to further his selfish purposes.

TWIN FALLS LAGS BEHIND DISTRICT IN WAR CAMPAIGN

Reports Show Every Other County in South Idaho District Has Raised or Oversubscribed Quota

Every one of the seven counties to the Southern Idaho district, with the exception of Twin Falls county, has either raised the full amount of its apportionment of the United War Work campaign fund or lacks but little toward fulfillment, according to the statement of E. E. L. M. from the campaign manager, Twin Falls county, with a quota of $45,000, lacks $22,900 of that amount.

Records by Counties

Cassia county has oversubscribed by $3,000, its quota of $15,000. Minidoka county has oversubscribed its quota of $8,000 and $2,000 respectively. Camas county lacks $400 of reaching its quota of $2,000; Gooding county lacks $1,700 of reaching $6,000; and Lincoln county lacks $1,150 of reaching its goal of $4,000.

Progress Slow in State

Out of $150,000, or about one-third of the minimum apportionment of the state of Idaho, subscribed up to Thursday night, the southern Idaho district had reported $68,810, or more than one-third of the amount, according to reports filed by State Campaign Manager R. E. Hall from Denver.

Drives Start Tomorrow

W. R. Priebe, Twin Falls county campaign manager, reported this morning total subscriptions for the county up to Thursday night of $23,116.35, including $6,000 reported by the Bull district.

The figures show that approximately one-half of the county's minimum quota of $45,000, remains to be raised in the drives to be started in Twin Falls tomorrow, and in the other districts on Sunday. Black campaigns in state, he today are beginning with the checking of the persons in their blocks who are expected to subscribe. Tomorrow every person who does not display a button showing that he has subscribed already will have to offer his explanation for his failure to do so to committees who will be put to work in Twin Falls.

Knows Women Who Wired

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Anita Augsbury, Gertrude Baesmer and Alice Galmon, senders of wireless messages to Miss Jane Adams and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, were identified today by Miss Adams.

Miss Adams said she had not received the message addressed to her and made public by the war department last night. The messages asked mitigation of armistice terms.

Phyllis Heilig in Munich, Bavaria, Miss Adams said.

Alice Salomon is secretary of the International council of women, and lives in Berlin.

Franklin Baesmer is president of the German branch of the International council of women. She lives in Berlin.

"I met at the Hague," said Miss Adams. "During peace conference in 1916. They were delegates from Germany."

Miss Augsbury is 50 years old and is the keeper of a model farm out of Munich. She has a very liberal income. I know from conversations with her at the Hague that she is deeply interested in the welfare of women and children of Germany."

Who Reply From Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. Wilson had made no reply to the Germans appeal for peace. The reply will be transmitted by the state department.

The government can take no cognizance of personal messages, so this appeal and others recently would not be taken into consideration in connection with the proposed provisioning scheme.

TO CANCEL ALL CONTRACTS BUT NOT TOO QUICK

Change to Peace Basis to Be Made With Due Regard to Labor and Industrial Situations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The war labor board, one of the agencies created by the war, will be retained, it is said, for a long time.

The government will follow a policy of stabilizing labor and industrial conditions as thoroughly as possible in the cancelling of contracts for munitions and war materiel.

Does Not Make Contracts

The facilities section of the war industries board will supervise this work. Contracts will actually be cancelled by those departments in which the contracts were made.

The facilities section of the war industries board will supervise this work. Contracts will actually be cancelled by those departments in which the contracts were made.

The facilities section will perform the reverse function of the requirements division. Since the war industries board is organized the heads of all the various sections and representatives of the war department, the navy, shipping board, railroad administration, etc., have held conferences each morning in the war industries board building. At such conferences requirements for materials were presented. In this manner, bidding of one department against another was prevented.

The war industries board would then locate material accordingly, shoving the estimated requirements of one division or another to make the best use of available material.

In cancelling contracts, the first endeavor will be to release the work of arranging details for infiltration of remaining soldiers into industry.

Army-Dock Workers Go Out on Strike

Approximately 7000 Employees Give Up Tasks Because of New Ruling

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Approximately 7,000 employees at the army supply base in Brooklyn have walked out as protest against an order issued by the war department stopping overtime work.

The strike of the war workers has almost completely tied up the work of loading supply ships at the army dock, it was stated. Important supplies for American troops abroad are being delayed.
