

AMERICAN WILL DOUBLE UP ITS PRE-WAR FLEET

Admiral Taylor, Chief of Naval Construction, Gives Details of Program to House Committee—700 Vessels

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—By July, 1920, America navy will have more than twice the number of ships it had before the outbreak of the war. Admiral Taylor, chief of naval construction told the house naval affairs committee today.

Destroyers Big Item
Destroyers represent the backbone of the fleet, Taylor said. There are now 100 of these in commission and 200 more will be added in the next eighteen months.

Revelation Astonishing
Twenty-nine more submarines will be completed before the middle of 1920, giving this country 35 to 40 more underwater craft than in 1918, Taylor said.

Flourish Air Craft
Admiral Taylor brought out that the navy had so many air craft that it had been forced to store some. This condition, he said had prevailed for the last six months when the navy air program more than came up to requirements.

OUTLINES PLAN FOR ACTIVITIES AFTER THE WAR

National Security League Announces Revision of Bureau for Participation in Post-Bellum Reconstruction

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The entire reorganization of the National Security League for its participation in post-war reconstruction is announced today. The League, which is the outgrowth of a small group of men in this city who banded together in 1914 to promote preparedness, is today the largest and most powerful unofficial patriotic organization in the country, with a membership of nearly 100,000, including many of America's leading men and women.

The executive committee of the League has assigned all of its existing bureaus and committees under a comprehensive series of new divisions, which, headed by the prominent men and women who have become identified with the League in the past four years, will carry on its future work. These new committees, covering all of the phases of the immediate problems of the nation, are—

- National Officers
- Committee on organized education.
- Committee on world peace.
- Committee on demobilized army activities.
- Committee on child welfare.
- Committee on nationalization and citizenship.
- Committee on constitution and national integrity.
- Committee on national legislators.
- Committee on the state of the union.
- Committee on universal military instruction.
- The Security League's reorganization announcement points out that the objective of all the new bureaus is the contribution of the League to reconstruction, revision and readjustment in the social and economic life of the nation demanded by the war. The League emphasizes the fact that, while the Secretary for its previous year pointed to which the propaganda agitation gave way when the United States entered the war—has now passed, the immediate problems of reconstruction must become "the task of men of thought, ability and influence."

National Officers
Ellis Root, former secretary of the organization to his death. Alton B. Taylor, former chief judge of the court of appeals of New York state and democratic candidate for the presidency in 1904, is the League's honorary vice-president. The active president of the League is Col. Charles E. Leckler, well known New York lawyer, veteran, national commander and authority on military and educational matters. The League numbers among its active vice-presidents James W. Gerard, former U. S. ambassador to Germany; Luke B. Wright of Memphis, Tenn., ex-secretary of war; and Myron T. Herrick, ex-governor of Ohio and former U. S. ambassador to France. Lawrence F. Abbott, son of Dr. Francis Abbott, the famous publicist, and himself one of the editors of the "Outlook," is the secretary of the League. The executive committee of the League is headed by its president, former commander of the 2nd District of Columbia and former U. S. senator, Dr. H. H. Henshaw, director of the American Red Cross bureau.

Prominent Educators
In the reorganization which the League has undergone, all these offices continue, together with the leading educators of the country, who have been active in the Security League's "Bureau of Education Through Education," includes Dr. Hollander P. Claxton, U. S. commissioner of education; Dr. John H. Finley, commissioner of education of the state of New York; and Prof. Albert D. Dunham Hall, of Harvard. This bureau now becomes the "Committee on Organized Education" and will remain under the direction of Dr. Robert M. McBryde, head of the department of history and politics in Princeton university, who has been released to the Security League on leave of absence by the trustees of the University.

The "Committee on National Legislation" will continue the work for the congressional reforms inaugurated by the Security League's congressional committee, which conducted an intensive campaign throughout the country previous to the recent election for the seating in congress only of men of demonstrated loyalty and ability.

The couple were espoused decorated for the occasion with red and white carnations, which also formed the centerpiece for the table at which the wedding guests were seated in the Bogert hotel immediately following the ceremony. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Haug, of Shoshone; L. B. Kroff, J. A. Keefe, S. P. Neuman, A. J. Neuman and J. W. Neuman.

PLAN BOTH TO BUILD AND MAKE USE OF ROADS

Highways Transport Committee Announces Purpose to Direct Establishment of Rapid Motor Service to Move Food

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 22.—The highways transport committee of the national defense council is now well organized to encourage and assist an endeavor to utilize the highways to their full modern extent, and to direct the rapid motor service. This is not necessarily a product of the war, but a delayed work that would have been successful if formulated before this because of the facilities available through the use of modern trucks, and this conclusion has been proven sound by the satisfactory results obtained by motor transportation in support of the war.

Julius L. Meier, regional director of the highway transport committee, has begun a vigorous campaign to establish responsible motor truck transportation based in many respects upon present governmental parcel post delivery methods of the post office department, is checking up localities that have for truck lines and those which the United States shipping board, in which he urges renewal action an divisor in all movements that pertain to motor truck transportation. He says: "Food must begin to move soon from every mill through every valley of the great country behind our shores down to the shipping points where we can start our ships from the ports and fulfill our duty, and with the premises of the war's end before us the highway transport committee throughout the land could and should render a peace-time service by stimulating highway transport of nourishment and supplies so badly needed. Routes and channels from shipping points must be opened up and efficiently maintained, and our merchant marine must be built up to meet the demands for distribution overseas."

Advantage to Farmers
With the establishment of the rural motor express of regular routes and over fixed routes, with definite schedules of stops and charges, starting in the country and gathering farm products and delivering them to the city, and the return trip carrying merchandise, supplies, etc. back along the route, the farmer will be as advantageously situated in every respect as if directly located within the city. The co-operation of the federal railroad administration has been assured and where financially sound terminals and shoring of equipment caused great delay and wastage, there will now be put forth every effort to avoid any such recurrence by the rural motor express and motor short hauls in the cities.

Need for Co-operation
The great need here is for the early encouragement of enterprises seeking to pioneer. If the farmers and merchants will understand and utilize the service as soon as it becomes available they will be the great gainers from this. All those organized at this time and those that contemplated organization should send in their names and routes to the highways transport committee, addressing same in the state of Idaho to the state chairman, W. H. Turner, of Kimberly.

REPUBLICANS IN FULL CONTROL OF NEXT SESSION

G. O. P. Captures All State Offices and Majorities in Both Houses—Personnel of Legislators Given

BOISE.—The passing of the general election has brought into prominence the new administration that will come into power and the inauguration of the next legislature. Two years ago the democratic went into power with control of all important elective offices and the legislature, and the republicans will do the same thing January 1, 1920. Their victory is even more complete than was that of the democratic, for they have captured every state office. The incoming administration will be able to enact into law such policies as it desires to adopt, for the legislature will be under republican control. As there is a great period of reconstruction coming it is likely that much beneficial legislation will be proposed to bring about interior development. Gov. and Mrs. W. Davis is said to be in hearty sympathy with this class of legislation.

The platform of the republican party pledges it to the enactment of legislation beneficial to the farmer and so-called ruralist. It pledges the party to pass laws that will help and strengthen the farmer in a great period of reconstruction. At the same time it pledges to the people to get straightened out. I want to see the people of Idaho get straightened out. I want to see the people of Idaho get straightened out. I want to see the people of Idaho get straightened out.

Head Salesman Spent Hundreds
Burton Suffered Twenty Years Before Finding the Right Medicine

In speaking of the marvelous way in which Tanala has relieved him of long standing case of rheumatism, B. E. Burton, head salesman in the wholesale fruit and vegetable department at Taylor Bros. Retail Store, 405 South Main street, recently said: "It is simply astonishing that just a few bottles of Tanala should fix me up in no time; after I had spent one hundred dollar I came out the last twenty years trying to get relief from that awful rheumatism."

Before coming to B. E. Burton lived for ten years in Spokane, Wash., where he was salesman for the Imperial Trading company of that city.

"I tell you what," he continued, "I have gone through all stages of rheumatism, and the agonies I have had to endure simply cannot be described. The trouble first came on me about twenty years ago. My shoulders, knees and ankles gave me the most worry and ached so at times that I hardly had any use for myself. About three years ago it got so bad that I was laid up in bed for six long months, and when I got up again I had to go on crutches for three months, and still recently I never did get out of my system, although I have spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get straightened out. I went to Hot Springs, Arkansas, but without result, and then I tried mud baths near home, but got no benefit from that treatment either. A little while ago I felt it coming off pretty bad again. My appetite just about faded right away. I was constipated and suffered from awful headaches every few days. The pain in my shoulders and knees was so agonizing that I could hardly sleep, and I would wake up six or seven times during the night waked with pain. Why, at the time I started taking Tanala I couldn't raise my arms as high as my shoulders to save my life and was unable to put on my coat without some body helping me, and my trousers were so stiff and hurt so bad I could hardly walk."

"After reading so much about Tanala I decided to try it and I hadn't finished my first bottle before the stiffness began to leave my joints, and now I never suffer a bit of pain or inconvenience. My second bottle gave me a

How Many Rhinoplasties?
To figure the number of rhinoplasties a brass will require proceed as follows: Measure the length of the roof to be covered. Measure the distance from one eye over the peak to the other eye. These dimensions necessarily are in feet. Multiply the dimensions together. Divide by 100. The quotient will be the number of thousand rhinoplasties required. To determine the number of bundles, multiply this number by four.—Form Life.

Just to Ourselves
It is hard to be really just to ourselves. A great many of us are more tolerant with our own faults than with those of other people, while not a few consider themselves far more happily for a fault upon them they would think of committing another. What we should strive for is to be neither too exacting nor too tolerant where our shortcomings are concerned, but to give ourselves the benefit of simple justice.

Food in the Far North
Believe it or not, our most northern frontier unit of a winter store are none other than dried apples, cranberries, green beans and prunes. In fact a taste may be required for these things if they are frozen in long enough to be of a satisfactory quality. Consider the quality of codfish, cranberry jam or a plowboy (dried) cake may help matters along.

Sublime Confidence
Chair, like most small boys, was much interested in anything that took place. At the particular time his grandfather happened to be tending his bees. After being repeatedly told that he would get stung if he didn't mind his own business, one of the bees said: "Don't you know you'll get stung if you are not careful?" He said: "Ah, I ain't afraid. They sting me."

IDAHOANS HEAR URGENT APPEAL TO SAVE FOOD

County Administrators Receive From Washington Representative Story of Intense Suffering and Starvation

Just how and why Idaho people must continue their adherence to the food conservation program, were subjected to at a conference in Boise this week of the several Idaho county food administrators with Mr. Mills of Washington, D. C., a representative of the national food administration, authorized at this meeting to speak for Herbert Hoover, national food administrator. This conference was convened by H. F. Bicknell, federal food administrator for Idaho.

In respect to the discussions at the conference, C. E. Munson, Twin Falls county food administrator, makes the following statement:

Situation Still Serious
Mr. Hoover sent Mr. Mills of the Washington, D. C. division, to tell the people of Idaho through their representatives just what must be done by the country this year in saving food of all kinds. The conditions will be much more distressing than have been.

10,000,000 Hungry Starving
In Russia there is nothing left and what is more, there is no way of getting food to any save those in the southern part. Some ten millions of people have been abandoned by the food directors in this territory devastated last year by the Germans, owing to the lack of water or land; means of travel and transportation.

Children Are Victims
Mr. Hoover stated that during six weeks' travel through Russia he saw only one child commonly where there were a number of children. The same condition prevails throughout the Balkan states. The children have died in most cases from starvation. In Belgium the children are very seldom seen and that have lived are pitiful little things that scarcely survive the winter. To help these children the boys and girls of the United States are asked to follow the gospel of the clean plate. Do not leave a crumb on your plate and eat what you have prepared.

Germany Laid in Plans
Germany will be allowed to take some of her merchant vessels for trading with those countries which have not been engaged in war. The Allies will make no effort to help feed the starving Hun until they have starved one people. The Germans will secure what they can get in grain from Argentina. The Argentine crop is being harvested now.

Severe Situation Better
Mr. Mills says the sugar situation is most encouraging. The world will soon have all the sugar it needs for food and the stores of the world. The world can be supplied for the market. In this country four pounds will be the ration until at least the middle of December. Before Christmas the market so tight that every boy and girl in America that has done something to win the war can have his or her candy in reasonable amounts.

Seeking Stock for Europe
The grain shipped to Europe will be used in the kernel to provide some food for the cattle of the lands. At present time from Belgium and France are in the northwest looking for purchasable stock, especially cows and horses, to rehabilitate the farms. These must be that there are positively no farm animals left in France, Belgium and Russia.

Use Transport Boats
The food administration will send the ships going for soldiers loaded with food. At present there is enough food for two weeks stored in countries near the sea. The only thing that happens to the commerce for that period the people of Europe would have to starve.

Paper Short
It is always a problem to keep old papers and magazines looking neat in the home. The only thing that happens to the commerce for that period the people of Europe would have to starve.

Edgar H. Warrington, With Canadians, Describes Reception in Blighly

In a letter which Mrs. Frank Mattison recently received from her sister, Miss Louise Warrington, who is in England temporarily on special war work, was enclosed the following interesting letter. Edgar H. Warrington, with the Canadians, which was written a few weeks before the signing of the Armistice.

"Dear Sister:
"It has been some time since I heard from you and have been wondering whether you were no year any over here or not.
"I have not had much in England after more than two years in France. I have not been outside the hospital since I am laid up and cannot realize yet that I am in Blighly.
"Am pretty well done up. In France to have been operated on in France but they had no more, so I was sent here. I was so run down in general that it was not advisable to operate. I was then transferred to this place and it is about the same here.

Ambulance Ordered
"We had a very rough trip across the channel as there was quite a gale blowing. It was pretty late when we did not get landed, then a few hours on the train and was pretty tired when we were put into ambulances. We had quite a distance to go and the engine was not working very good so that we had to stop every little bit. Every time we stopped, the people would gather around the ambulance and cheer me. An officer of the R. A. F. fixed the motor at one stop and gave us a large box of smokes. Another time someone brought me tea and cakes, bread and butter with homemade jelly and cigarettes. (Go, girl after all the hell I have been through I did not think there was a soft spot in me, but the way we were treated when we arrived here just about faded me. My lower lip started to tremble and I thought I was going to squaw like a kid.
"We were sure a sight for sore eyes. My uniform was mud and stained (those dark stains that will not wash off) and how to 'tilt. Most of the fellows with me were hit in the arm (left arm mostly) and we were sure a happy bunch.
"This is a very nice hospital and only a few minutes on the street car to the station.
"Things were looking pretty good for the allies when we left France. There is bound to be some hard fighting yet but it can end only one way.
"I came over expecting to make the supreme sacrifice and was not given my life gladly but it seems to have been willed different. I am a wreck physically but I am glad I was doing my bit for my country. The mothers are called upon to undergo far greater sacrifices than we are but

A strong effort will be made to repeat the direct primary law, or at least so as to provide a primary for the election of delegates to county and state conventions which will nominate the candidates of the respective parties instead of nominating them by direct vote. Neither party is pledged to the repeal of the law, but many leaders in the parties believe that it should be so changed as to prevent capture of one party's organization by nominating candidates of the other, as was done by the non-partisans this fall.

It will remain with the republican majority, however, as to what action will be taken along any of these lines. The election returns show that they have secured 42 representatives to 18 democrats and non-partisans when but 38 are necessary to control. In the senate they have 30 out of the 41, when only 21 are necessary to control.

CUSTER COUNTY MESS NOW STRAIGHTENED OUT

Visitors From Abroad Will Be Permitted to Pass Under Special Regulations

BOISE—Quarantine regulations satisfactory to all persons engaged in the recent controversy in Custer county, have been agreed to and the quarantines between Challis citizens and residents of Mackay over the shutting out of Mackayites or others from the quarantine section has been virtually dropped. T. E. Madden, the governor's private secretary, reported Tuesday to Governor Alexander upon his return from a trip of investigation.

Under the new quarantine regulations travelers having business are permitted to enter the quarantined district under certain restrictions regarding their permission to move about while in the district, says the Idaho Statestman. Yellow tags to be given visitors by the guard on Willow creek summit will be placed on vehicles so that residents in the district will be able to distinguish those lately arrived from possible influenza infected sections from citizens who have been living in the quarantine district since the epidemic broke out.

John F. J. Green, whose orders to the Custer health officials to release persons arrested beyond the quarantine line, caused some dispute between himself and the officials, was in the city Tuesday, after with state officials regarding the matter.

DEATH CLAIMS FILER GIRL AFTER PROTRACTED ILLNESS

Mortal Remains of Miss Bertha Burns, Victim of Typhoid, Are Laid to Rest

(Special to The News)
FILER—Miss Bertha Burns, after long illness from typhoid fever, passed away at her home south of town Friday and was laid to rest Sunday in the Filer cemetery.

Mrs. Joe Otto of Homestead, Oregon, is visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox.
Twin daughters arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Wilcox on Saturday, November 16.

M. J. Macan and son Sewal have returned from a hunting trip in Nevada. Wm. Mackay, reported seriously ill with the "flu", is now greatly improved. All cases are getting along nicely.
Mrs. Martin Filer and daughter Charlotte, of Twin Falls, were visiting relatives here the first of the week.

Miss Mildred Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilcox, was married Saturday, November 16, to Joseph Terzosa of Twin Falls. For the present they are stopping in Twin Falls.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese spent Monday in Twin Falls where they witnessed the marriage of their son Jack to Ellen Batterice of Darby, Montana. Mr. Reese and wife will spend a short time visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Kendrick at Hazelton, Ida.

J. F. Blakey held an auction sale at his home south of town, Wednesday. Mr. Blakey expects to leave in a short time for the coast for the benefit of Mrs. Blakey's health, which has been very poor for several years.
Mr. and Mrs. Scott Caldwell and daughter of Twin Falls were here on business Monday. They are thinking of moving back to Filer in the near future where Mr. Caldwell will teach the manual training department in a new high school.
Earl Murray was a business caller in Twin Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammarquist are back at the store again, after being confined at home several weeks with the "flu".

BURBIA PRESENTS GRAVE PROBLEM

Although the great war itself has ended, two other wars are continuing in Europe and show no present indication of terminating before the opening of the peace conference.

The hang-over conflicts are between Poland and Ukraine in eastern Galicia and between Russia and the Allies in the Archangel region. These troubles are the outcome of difficulties which the peace conference may be totally unable to settle in any fashion approaching permanency.

The conflicting demands of Poland and Ukraine to the eastern arc of Galicia, including Lemberg, the capital, have made possible the possibility of a settlement by mutual consent. An army of Ukraine has defeated the Polish forces in Galicia, and has established a claim to Lemberg and the fortress Przemyśl by right of conquest.

Both races put forth ethnological reasons why the peace conference should decide in their favor, and the delegates at Versailles will leave open wounds whatever may be their verdict.

The conflict between Russia and the Allies is not a formal condition of belligerency on the part of the entente powers and America, who have never declared war on Russia. Nevertheless, the Bolsheviks, the newly recognized governing authority in Russia, consider an actual state of hostilities exists.

It will be possible also for the Versailles conference to accept the credentials of any Russian delegate it desires. It will also be possible for the conference to admit delegates both from Poland and Ukraine. But the settlement of Europe's eastern problems cannot be guaranteed by a mere nomination of delegates to the peace treaty.

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT TRAINS IN COLLISION

Two Killed and Several Injured in Wreck Near Dexter, Michigan

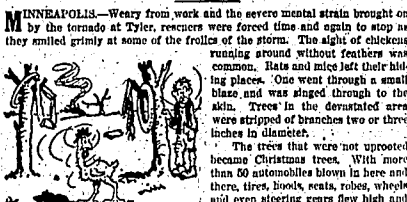

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 22.—Two persons were believed killed and several injured early today in a collision between a passenger train and a freight on the Michigan Central railroad near Dexter, Michigan, 40 miles from Detroit.

Full information is lacking, and the officials, but from news so far obtained they said the engine on the passenger train was killed.

Storm Brought to Mind the Pranks of Halloween

MINNEAPOLIS.—Weary from work and the severe mental strain brought on by the tornado at Tyler, rescuers were forced time and again to stop as they smiled grimly at some of the frolics of the storm.

The trees that were not uprooted became Christmas trees. With more than 50 automobiles blown in here and there, tires, books, seats, robes, wheels and even steering gears flew high and landed in the branches. One car was whirled along the street at a rapid rate and stopped when it struck into a building. Later it was buried in the ruins of the structure.

RECONSTRUCTION OF AMERICAN PUBLIC SCHOOL PEACE PROBLEM

Training of Teachers and Improved Methods of Education Worry Educators—Half of Children Attend Poor Schools, Says National Education Association President

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—One of the greatest reconstruction problems facing the nation, now that peace has come, is the problem of bettering public education, according to leading educators here.

The public schools, as well as most private schools and colleges, have suffered severely on account of the war. Many American cities had just formed plans for improving the educational system, when the United States entered the war, and the plans have been held in abeyance since. Great school construction programs were postponed, and will be resumed with many difficulties.

In New York City several million dollars' worth of construction was planned for the public schools, and the money has been available throughout the war, but the government would not permit labor and materials to be diverted from war work. As a result, many buildings of the construction of new public schools will begin, even though materials still are very high. Thousands of children are unable to attend school for a full day because of lack of space.

Similar conditions exist in most other large cities. But a more serious problem is the reconstruction of public school plants in the rural and American cities. The fairly good plan, in a happy exception.

Other Problem Bigges. But the physical plant is a thing that can be built up with a fair degree of care. The real problem is the training of teachers and the improvement of the facilities and the willingness to vote the money. It is the problem of training teachers and improving methods of instruction that is worrying the educators most of all.

Concerning conditions in the rural and village schools, the commission says: "It is in the little schools of the villages and the rural districts that the greatest need for improvement is to be found. Little schools shy are individually, but large in the aggregate and big with national significance, for in them more than one-half of the nation's children are taught."

Teachers Lack Training. "The national government generally to cooperate with the states, first in meeting the emergency which is now upon us, and then in supporting institutions and agencies for the preparation of competent teachers, would be to raise at once the status of the teaching profession and thereby enhance the efficiency of the schools throughout the land."

GLOOM TO BE LIFTED FROM THE WHITE WAY

Tomorrow Night the Bright Lights Will Twinkle Again as in Olden Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—War's gloom will be lifted from the nation's great white way.

Tomorrow night the "bright lights" of Broadway and every other "night light" section will twinkle with peace-time brilliancy. Fuel Administrator Griffith has lifted the ban on night order, which for a year depressed the Alle and Lochter Palace courts, it was announced today.

DATE OF PEACE CONFERENCE UP TO LLOYD GEORGE

British Elections May Interfere With Premier's Attendance at Conference—Wilson Will Plan Trip Accordingly

DETERMINING ORDER TO CONSIDER QUESTIONS

Trade Problems to Be Among First Considered—Rumanian Jews Want Interests Safeguarded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Convening of the peace conference in France is now virtually up to Lloyd George.

The British election is December 28. If the premier flees he can leave England before that date, the peace conference should get under way by the middle of December, it is held here. If he can't leave, however, until after the elections, the conference probably will begin with the end of December. Lloyd George's return to London will make his sailing arrangements accordingly.

No Newspaper Correspondents. The newspapers' correspondents will not be taken at the president's word, according to plan now. Only the date of the president's departure—which originally was planned for December 3, but which now may be delayed some—and the personnel of the peace delegates remain to be announced.

The president expects to visit England and Italy, as well as France, his friends say.

It is now generally believed that the meeting will make two trips to Europe during the winter, the first for the opening and the second when the peace agreement is ready for final signature. "Determination of the order in which great questions will be handled at the peace table is now the object of discussion preliminary to the conference.

Arrange Order of Problems

It is proposed to clear up first those questions which will enable all belligerents and neutrals to resume as quickly as possible normal trade conditions. Strong pressure from neutrals urging lifting of the Allied blockade is pouring in in the present inter-Allied crisis.

It was held possible today that the great treaty might be divided into two or more sections, the first to cover matters of immediate importance, and the others demanding longer and more deliberate action.

Must Right All Wrongs. In this connection, it was pointed out that the sooner Germany resumes her trade, the quicker she will have money available for paying off the tremendous indemnities she must give for the destruction she wrought in occupied territory.

Freedom of the sea, would be among the first questions to be disposed of. Strength is laid to this belief by the fact that the president will be particularly interested in these points.

Jewish Question Comes Up

Published reports that President Wilson was going to Europe to settle differences which have arisen among the Allies on peace matters, was emphasized by a leading official in the department. The story was looked upon as detrimental propaganda, and the department said positively there was no foundation of truth in the report.

Enmas Will Be Represented. The new Russian government is preparing a list of its desires at the peace table and is planning to send representatives.

However, leaders and armies of the new government are making headway in Russia. The Bolshevik regime has been overthrown in Ukraine, opening up that channel to Allied aid. Reports indicate that the whole Bolshevik government in Russia is rapidly vanishing in power before the conference being established by the new government.

SEVENTY GERMAN WARSHIPS ARE TURNED OVER TO ALLIED FLEET

Losses Fought Up. Simultaneously with the surrender of the German fleet, Admiral Beatty signalled: "The German flag must be hoisted again at 2:17 p. m. and must not be hoisted again without permission."

After the ceremony of surrender, Beatty sent messages to the Allied fleet recommending that a service of Thanksgiving be held at 9 p. m. on every ship, offering homage to God for victory.

The pent-up feelings of the fleet were loosened when Beatty's flag ship passed back through the lines, men and officers wildly cheering. A French cruiser following the Queen Elizabeth was also received with cheers, while French, British, and American sailors joined in singing the Marseillaise.

Admiral Rodman, commander of the American squadron, was aboard the New York, with Admiral Sims as his guest. The other American dreadnaughts, in addition to the Arkansas, were the Florida, the Texas and the Wyoming.

Famous British Vessels

Famous British vessels included in the fleet were the battle cruiser Lion, Tiger and Prince Royal, all of the lines of the Jutland battle. Their crews were probably the happiest participants in today's event, though many of the officers and men avowed they were sorry the final came in such fashion.

The feelings of the Americans apparently were chiefly confined to the most intense curiosity, which increased with a leap when the battle flags were hoisted a top the graceful "battleships" of the American ships, preparatory to reception of the surrendering fleet. This curiously gradually subsided as the long line of German craft steamed monotonously by and nothing happened except that something might have been entertained by them.

King George, reviewing the Grand Fleet yesterday, visited the New York. He expressed to Admiral Rodman the hope that the willing arrangements of the British and American navies could be continued in some manner after the war, possibly through some American ship being attached to the British fleet and vice-versa.

Submarine Loss Higher

It was revealed today, in connection with the classified column and get it for free.

AMERICA WILL DOUBLE UP ITS FINE-WAR FLEET

Have Boats to Sell. Cuba and other small governments have asked to buy submarine chasers, he said.

The number of craft now in the navy total about 1,000, but a large number of these are of the most makeshift character, he added, and will not be retained long.

The figures for 1920, however, represent a substantial permanent increase. Committee Wants Explanation. Admiral Taylor and committee members deferred about the strength of England's destroyer force. Taylor said he understood in a vague way that England had between 300 and 400 of these craft. Chairman Padgett said that he has been told in London that England had 500. Several committee members demanded to know why the United States was building so heavily in peace time.

DEMAND FLAT INCREASE OF 25 CENTS AN HOUR

Increase Will Affect Nearly 50,000 Employees in Chicago and the "Big Five" Packers

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—A demand for a flat increase of 25 cents an hour made by employees of packing houses here was being considered by Judge Samuel Altschuler, arbitrator, today.

The new wage demand, which means increases ranging from 10 to 50 cents per hour, definitely affects nearly all 50,000 employees working here as well as in plants operated by the "Big Five" packers in other cities. It is a direct request for an increase of from $2 to $5.50 a day for each employee and comes on top of the $1.45 per day increase granted when the "war working agreement" was entered into last spring. Francis J. Honey represented the employees in filing the petition.

PROHIBIT DISPLAY OF RED FLAG IN PUBLIC

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Approving the action of Mayor Ryan in prohibiting the display of the red flag in public meetings the American defense society announced today that it is taking steps to bring about similar action throughout the entire country.

U. G. COMPANY TAKES OVER MINE

Plans Extensive Development of Coal Deposits Near Teton, Idaho

The Utah Construction company has taken over the coal mines near Teton, Idaho, and is planning to open them for active production some time before the first of the year. The mines are located about 50 miles from the town of Teton, reached by a branch line from Ashton, Idaho. The company has put in the best type of mining machinery, and is also making the travel and transportation to the mines as easy as possible. For this reason it is building some 50 miles of road out from Teton to the mines.

An Old Property
The mines have been worked for a number of years by other parties, but owing to the lack of transportation facilities and modern machinery little has been heard from them until the Utah Construction company took the concern over.

The coal is practically the same grade as the Rock Springs mines in Colorado produce.

Secures Labor Here
The company is in need of laborers on the road at present. The labor agent who has been in Twin Falls for several days took about twenty men out with him on Thursday evening.

"Mother of Presidents"
Virginia has sometimes been called mother of presidents because she has furnished so many as compared with other states. Since the foundation of the government eight of our presidents have been natives of Virginia and no other state has furnished more than five. Of twenty-seven presidents eight were born in Virginia, six in Ohio, two in New York, two in North Carolina, two in Massachusetts and one each in New Hampshire, New Jersey, Connecticut, Vermont and New Jersey.

House Cleanup in England
In the course of a campaign in England against the swarming and miscellaneous house sparrows the services of children and "sparrow clubs" were solicited. The results were the consequence, since little discrimination was used, and every sort of small bird was mistaken for the proscribed sparrow, and thousands of useful insect-eating birds were destroyed, so that the eggs of what was in fact wiped out as completely.

Drilling Hard Steel
In preparing a drill to be used on hard steel, the drill should be heated to an even heat, the scale removed and the end of the drill is touched to a drop of kerosene; and then be quenched in water. After this treatment the drill will go through the hardest steel without trouble. A simple method of tempering small tools is to heat them red hot and then thrust them into a potato, after which they should be drawn to the correct temper to remove brittleness.

Art and Heredity
The musical instinct is very often hereditary—witness the Jews, who have borne the most musical race in the world since the days of the Old Testament. It does not, however, follow of necessity that if parents are artists the children will follow suit, despite the famous collection of the countryman who remarked that, now Mr. Worthington was dead, he supposed his son would carry on the old man's business.

Use of Orange Oil
Undoubtedly orange oil has a strong aroma and is used in the making of perfumes, essences, soaps and beverage flavors as well as of cakes and confectionery. The principal use for Jamaica orange oil is in the manufacture of fancy biscuits, particularly of a water-biscuit which is used extensively with ices and food drinks—Gas Logic.

No Mistaking His Meaning
Smith was taking his friend out for a drive. The car had the jumps. It balked and bucked and bounced along unsteadily, greatly to the friends' discomfort. They turned into a park boulevard and the friend noted a sign at the edge of the road. "Smith, you better not drive on this road," said the friend. "Why?" asked Smith. "Well, that sign says 'Hazardous cars only.'"

Best Workers Win
"Today it is the man who does the most and best work who wins, whichever he is a professional or business man. The doctor with his horse and buggy was better than walking, but today he offers time and service for a fee. The successful doctor of today has his automobile to arrive on time. He prefers to arrive too soon rather than too late—Exchange.

Perhaps Mother Explained Later
Willie, aged six, upon returning from school, after receiving his mother's report, said, "I was asked his mother report. 'Is B. A. D. good?'"

BAD HORSE DASHES ITS RIDER INTO FENCE POST

Carl Cummings of Murtaugh, Sustains Serious Injuries When Mule Becomes Refractory

(Special to The News)
MURTAUGH—Carl Cummings was the victim of a painful accident on Wednesday when the horse which he was riding became unmanageable and dashed him against a fence post. The muscles of his right leg were seriously lacerated.

The Murtaugh drug store is headquarters here for carious and health giving mailings of Christmas gifts to men in the service in France.

The three younger children of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beers are seriously ill. The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Higgins, who has been quite ill with pneumonia following influenza, is recovering.

Mrs. J. W. Walker and Mrs. Work have returned from a motor trip to Shoreline and adjacent points.

NEURALGIC PAINS

Give Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil
Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective treatment for headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it acts as a tonic to the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief.

Also feeling antiseptic qualities can always be relied upon to prevent infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and cancer sores.

Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back.
Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.

Farm Where You Can Produce Most

Upon the efficiency and efforts of the American farmer depends, to a very vital degree, the success of our country in which America's sons and her allies' sons are shedding their blood.

Europe's grain production this year is about 525,000,000 bushels below normal. Her cattle, sheep and hogs have diminished by over 30,000,000 animals.

Not only therefore, must America maintain her normal exports of grain and animal products to her European allies—she must make up these terrific shortages and add enough to counteract the losses from submarine warfare.

It is therefore incumbent upon the American farmer, handicapped as he is by labor shortage, to farm where he can produce most.

Capay Rancho

offers to American farmers an opportunity for maximum production and consequent larger earning capacity. This great ranch is located in the heart of California's famous Sacramento Valley. The crops that are being produced here right now are almost beyond the conception of the farmer who is unacquainted with this section.

There are no extremes of climate to combat. The land is ready for immediate cultivation and production. Close to markets. Good roads. Splendid neighbors. Excellent schools. Delightful climate. Electricity on every farm. Abundant water supply. Every condition is ideal for profitable, intensive farming. No pioneering.

The last of the land is now being offered. If you are interested we suggest that you investigate at once. Would you like us to send you the names of farmers from your community who have bought at Capay Rancho.

BRINGS WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT ON THE BRUNEAU

Governor-Elect D. W. Davis Confers With Twin Falls County Citizens on Measures Confronting New State Administration

"Prospects were never so favorable for the early completion of the great BrunEAU reclamation project as they are at the present time with the federal government turning its attention toward the problem of providing employment and opportunities for the men returning from the battle fields of Europe. I think we are fortunate in the new state administration and legislation will do whatever is necessary in cooperation with the federal government to bring about the early development of this and other Idaho's great water reclamation projects."

This is the statement made by Governor-Elect D. W. Davis of American Falls, while in conference here Thursday with a representative gathering of Twin Falls county citizens following a luncheon in his honor at the Regency cafe.

Will Attend National Meet

Mr. Davis stated that because of the nature of his being able to advance the claims of the BrunEAU project on that occasion, he had determined to attend the conference of all of the governors and governor-elect throughout the United States, to be held in December at Washington, Annapolis, at which occasion it is likely that plans for the development of natural resources and reclamation projects will be given a generous measure of consideration.

World Seminars Game Rules

The subject of the reclamation of the BrunEAU project was presented at this conference after "capitulate" discussion suggested by Mr. Davis, had resulted in the expression of opinion of the citizens present respecting a plan for the reorganization of the state game department and remodeling of the state game laws.

In this connection, a motion proposed by J. L. Breckenridge of Twin Falls was adopted, declaring it the desire of the citizens present and represented that provision should be made by the next legislature for game commissions to be organized in each county, with plans and assist in the work of the state game commission.

A second motion urged by C. B. Chappel of Twin Falls and others that the game laws should be amended to prohibit the taking of fish under various lengths also was adopted.

Advantages of Fish

It was urged that the state and county commission plan of simplifying the game laws would do away with much of the injustice and inefficiency existing from the operation of the existing laws. The game laws in this state are the most complicated of any of the states in the union, and the plan operative in the state of Washington, where county game commissions, composed of men interested in the preservation of game and serving the public interest, have direct control over the administration of the game laws in each county. This plan has been worked out with a high degree of success, so stated. Counties are permitted to retain a percentage of the proceeds from the sale of any necessary game warden or to conduct and republish the fish and game supplies.

Statement of Governor-Elect

There is a wide difference in the local situations respecting the application of the game laws throughout the state of Idaho, and it is felt that what has been served through the operation of the state and county commissions plan. Mr. Davis suggested the game department is carried on without respect to the state. "Difficulties in the past have consisted in the fact that each successive state game warden had expended large sums of money in useless experiments, and the administration of the game department has been such as to call forth the criticism of the citizenry generally. This should be avoided in the future, if possible," Mr. Davis declared. Discussion in respect to the existing condition whereby, although there is no open season in Twin Falls county, except on ducks, thousands of Chinese are here during the winter months, and the beneficial effect of the operation of the state and county commissions plan was expected to exert in these conditions was participated in by J. D. Edman and N. H. Brown of Breckenridge, C. B. Chappel, George Eastley, G. W. Shrock, B. Claid Stew, A. C. Robinson, S. W. Johnson, M. J. Swedley and Dr. W. A. Sullivan of Twin Falls.

Promises Support of Leader

The governor-elect promised that attention should be given to the problem of the game laws, which he thought should be largely responsible for the diminishing number of fish in the streams of the Sawtooth and Blue River regions. The governor-elect stated that he was familiar with

PAMIE IS REPORTED

LONDON, Nov. 22.—German political circles report to be in a panic over the possibilities of the approaching crisis.

A move to stick the extremists is being in Chancellor Kober's efforts to prove that the richest is still a laborer, with the extremists are among a general workmen and soldiers' congress.

Contributing to the general misapprehension of the present party, composed of centrists, conservatives and pan-Germans.

The situation existing there.

Urges Duty of State

The desirability of cooperation between the state of Idaho and the national government in respect to plans for development of resources was pointed out in a discussion in connection with the BrunEAU project by B. L. Holgin, L. L. Breckenridge and M. J. Swedley. The states of Arizona, Colorado, Utah and others are diligently seeking federal appropriations for their reclamation projects, Mr. Breckenridge stated.

"The development of the BrunEAU project is not a local proposition," he reported. "The state legislature should be interested directly or indirectly of every citizen of the state, and it is time now for the state to act, going down the line to secure the development of the BrunEAU," he added.

Points Out Neglect

Mr. Holgin called attention to what he considered a serious error on the part of the present state administration in its neglect to appropriate funds in conjunction with the federal government for the purpose of securing data on the flow of streams upon which plans for reclamation projects depend.

"The state legislature should be interested in a sufficient amount of money to enable the state engineer to perform his duties in this respect," he urged, adding that all of the other states of the Intermountain region had made such appropriations.

Mr. Davis was accompanied on the trip Thursday to Twin Falls by his father-in-law, S. W. Johnson of Fort Collins, Colorado. Following the conference, they were taken to see Shoshone Falls and other points of scenic interest in this vicinity.

PRESIDENT TO WAGE WAR UPON BOLSHEVISM

Friends Intimate That is Part of His Purpose in Visiting Europe—Would Help Solidify People of Allied Countries

By ROBERT J. BENDER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—That President Wilson will participate actively in the campaign against Bolshevism while in Europe, the intimation of his friends here today.

He is expected to make speeches not only in France but certainly in Italy and probably in Germany, according to the aim of the associated governments to uphold the cause of free peoples and support law and order that the world may rapidly resume its normal course again.

The keynote of his proposed effort is expected to be sounded in a special message to the people of this country before he sails. Or, it may be covered in his message to congress, outlining what he believes to be the fundamentals of this nation's readjustment work.

Statements Busy

Meanwhile, behind the plumes of the president's forthcoming trip, the diplomats of the various nations are busily to compile their data for the peace conference and determine upon the main propositions which must be cleared away promptly that trade may be resumed and employment made available for the millions who have been under arms or at war work for years.

It is pointed out that danger comes with idleness and for that reason diplomats are anxious to have the principal questions of the peace conference disposed of rapidly that men may turn from guns and suspicion to toil with profit.

Russia Wants to Sit In Russia is striving to be represented at the peace conference as a stable nation.

Diplomats here see this angle in Admiral Kholoh's scheme of the Omak government for the purpose of seeking to bring order in Russia to do Bolshevism, to have Russia to do his own policing and thus escape long continued, or increased allied-American policing. If he can succeed in getting a stable government Russian authorities feel that nation will seek a seat at the table.

Leoff Consults Wilson

Prince Leoff is consulting with President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing. Russia wants economic aid and is opposed to increased associated policing.

Another phase of peace speculation here, among diplomats, concerns the Rhineland. Diplomats declared Prussia is willing to sacrifice this territory to avoid some of the heaviest burden Germany is destined to have. As seen here, this sacrifice would have her rid of the military might around the old war spirit by making the martyr-like appeal of "that province."
