

PEACE TABLE RULINGS TO BE UNANIMOUS

Preliminary Conference by the United States, England, France and Italy in Near Future

"FREEDOM OF SEAS" WILL BE DISCUSSED

Republicans May Send "Observer" to the Peace Conference—Keop an Eye of American Delegates

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Decisions of the forthcoming peace conference must be unanimous. There will be no majority rule.

As a result preliminary conferences of the United States, England, France and Italy will be held at which an agreement will be written and signed upon it, then when the full peace table is assembled the ticket will be adopted with perhaps some minor alterations. The "preliminary" will be under way late next month or the first of January. In questions affecting the smaller submerged nations, no voting to place of their own, it is likely that the votes as to this future will be largely considered in dealing with the problems.

Will Discuss "Freedom of Sea"

One of the matters destined to require much time at this "Freedom of the sea." This doctrine is nebulous. Paris peace messages say one phase of this subject will deal with maritime warfare, proper stimulation of "Freedom of All Trade" and passenger ships.

While theoretically there will be no war, this sort of provision, if followed in a war, would tend to shorten the struggle. In the great war, for instance, had Germany refrained from use of the U-boats except against strictly naval craft, the question of supply and transport would have been vastly simplified and the allies would have been in a position to end the conflict sooner than it was finished.

To Send "Observer"

While President Wilson today still pondered the make-up of his peace delegation, it developed that republicans are preparing to send a republican "observer" to the peace conference. This "observer" will go armed with letters from Senator Lodge, E. A. Tamm, Chauncey DePew and other noted republicans, to Arthur Balfour, Earl Gray, John Dillon and other prominent British. His task will be to sit in at the peace conference, if it is possible, or gather from those assembled, if it is known, what is being done. He also will keep an eye on American delegates and will be expected to present a complete report to party leaders upon this subject.

To Establish Conference

A decision to send the observer was officially reached. It was made today, after announcement of the taking over of the cables by the government. Republicans insist, despite official doubts, that a consular will be established both on news from the peace conference and on news from this country, indicating what the American people think of various phases of the proposed peace settlement. The "observer's" function, if he goes, will be purely political. His report will be submitted to senate records.

French Passenger Boat Crosses Atlantic—Light Sums and Passengers Celebrate

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Adrian Breede, chief of the shipping, Neptunus Tribune, arrived here today on the French liner, Hochambau, the first French passenger boat in four years to cross the Atlantic fully lighted and with no anti-airmarine precautions.

Submarine Menace Past

"It was a strange contrast," said Breede, "to the boat drills, life belt drills, lightless nights and camouflaging which all the passengers underwent when we went in England in April on the Lapland. Going over we zigzagged and changed our course from day to day. Returning the jubilation was universal. Lights were going full blast, passengers were celebrating the end of the war and the seamen aboard were enjoying their first freedom from the submarine menace in four years."

Gives Americans Credit

"When Breede arrived in France in May, the Germans were threatening Paris. He witnessed the achievements of the American troops from the first day they began to operate against the Germans in the spring until they swept into Sedan, and Stenay just before the armistice was signed in November. "There is no question in the minds of any Europeans that it was the American soldiers who saved the day and enabled the allies to defeat Germany," he said. Breede declared most of the troops from Norway, his home state, participated in the Argonne fighting in October. (Continued on Page 5)

YANKS EAGER TO FINISH THE JOB OF OCCUPATION

German Troops Continue Good Humored and Orderly Retirement Before American Army in Luxemburg

REVOLUTION SEEMS NOT TO AFFECT ENEMY ARMY

French Hold More Than Quarter of Line to Be Occupied—75 Miles From Mainz—Italians Enter Two Towns

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—German troops are retiring in orderly fashion in good humor before the American army of occupation in Luxemburg. This semi-official dispatches through the committee on public information stated today.

American Troops Eager

The American troops are eager to push ahead and complete the job of occupation. "The retreat of German troops is apparently in good humor," the dispatch said. "The retreating army is leaving little equipment behind and the troops are singing their war songs as they withdraw. Their general impression is that while they have been beaten they have not been conquered and their attitude toward the Americans is good humored."

German Officers in Control

"According to all reports and in spite of rumors," the dispatch says, "the troops are still in control by their officers. There is little evidence of disorder. Food supplies are plentiful among German troops in the area. The Americans are not inclined to make any move into Germany proper, despite the fact that they have the indication that the crowing of the war will result in the turning of the tide in the occupation of German territory will be pacific."

Yanks Receive Gratification

In Luxemburg the Americans are receiving gratification from the smiling display in trying to facilitate the passage of occupying troops. The specific intentions of the American are everywhere recognized. Every individual American soldier entering the city of Luxemburg is hailed as a guest of the inhabitants of whom he has relative in the United States. The general disposition is to make the entrance of the Americans a holiday, according to the dispatch.

According to the latest official reports, the general line of the advance extends as follows: East of Avesand, east of Mill, east of Dietz (occupied by the Belgians); Avenches Hay, Bonn, Grand Metz, Breda (occupied by the British); Luxemburg (occupied by the French); Luxembourg-Frasen, border to Lorvald (occupied by the Americans); Bursendorf, Volkingen, Searbrucken, Burgmann, Bilsch, Reichenhof, Beis, Line of the Rhine to the Swiss border (occupied by the French).

BOLSHEVISTS AIM TO RULE GERMANY

MINISTRY IS PRACTICALLY OF NO WEIGHT

Soviet Rule Hinges on Fate of Decrees Summoning Constituent Assembly on Form of Government

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The first move in a German counter revolution may be the present in the proclamation of the Berlin workmen and soldiers council claiming control over all Germany. There is no doubt that the Ebert ministry exercises little real authority throughout Germany. It is not in a position to speak for the German people as a whole. The spread of the soviet rule government idea is extending rapidly, especially to the German cities. Ebert has shown no inclination to interfere with this movement.

Germany to Follow Russia

Whether or not Germany is on the verge of breaking up, it is certain that its local government affairs, the end of the authority in Berlin has been to let the people do as they liked. The increasing popularity of the soviet is now causing alarm among the Berlin politicians. The Berlin soviet's claim to paramount authority throughout the country is an effort to prevent the disruption of the empire. It may have been prompted by the new ministerial council for this purpose.

Whether the soviet are to rule in Germany or not will be determined by the fate of the decrees summoning a constituent assembly to decide upon Germany's form of government. The soviet oppose the assembly because they fear it means the end of their rule. It is an effort to prevent the right of every local community to do as it pleases, uncontrolled by majority vote in any central congress. If the constituent assembly is indefinitely postponed, the soviet system of government will be maintained through having nothing to replace it.

Must Show Right Spirit

But whether Germany has a counter revolution or not, and whether the soviet or a central government exercise sovereign powers, there can be no safety for the German American. Whether the method of government now to be adopted, Germany's spirit must prove itself before it can be accepted in confidence by the world which the Germans have so gravely wronged.

Internal Situation Reaches Critical Stage—Berlin Workmen's and Soldiers' Council Proclaims Extension of Authority—Liebknecht Hopes Germans Will Follow Russia

The Bolsheviks have undertaken to rule Germany. A Berlin dispatch received by way of Copenhagen today said that the Berlin workmen and soldiers' council had issued a proclamation extending their authority throughout Germany. Karl Liebknecht, leader of the extremists among the workmen and soldiers' councils, declared in a recent meeting in Berlin: "I am an adherent of Bolshevism. I hope the Germans will follow in the Russian's steps."

The proclamation said the council had taken over provisional government of the whole empire to suppress all counter-revolutionary activity. It was stated in a Berlin dispatch that the proclamation had been issued in an agreement with Berlin ministers and soldiers' councils, declared in a recent meeting in Berlin.

Copenhagen dispatches said the socialists have formed an army in Berlin and have massed troops and guns at strategic points. Simultaneously the Bolsheviks are said to have adopted similar methods. This may indicate that each of these factions fear a coup d'etat by the other, or that they are preparing for a counter movement by the Bourgeois and upper classes.

Mass Troops and Machine Guns

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 25.—The Berlin Workmen and Soldiers' Council has issued a proclamation claiming provisional control of the entire country for the purpose of suppressing attempts at a counter revolution, a dispatch from that city announced today. Other dispatches reported that Oldenburg, Bremen, Hamburg, East Prussia and Schleswig-Holstein have formed an independent republic, with Hamburg as its capital.

Plans to Switzerland One

A Geneva dispatch said that all communication between Berlin and Switzerland had been interrupted. The Spartacus group has been warned by the National Zeitung, a German newspaper, to discontinue its activities in a counter-revolution in Berlin, declaring that troops had been brought in to the city to prevent the extremists and their henchmen from taking over.

Socialists Planning Army

Socialists in Berlin are reported to be planning formation of an army. Every soldier is to wear the same kind of uniform only the shoulder straps to designate difference in rank. Other dispatches reported that the army and the authorities are taking every precaution, massing troops and machine guns in buildings overlooking the principal streets.

Liebknecht is Warned

Karl Liebknecht is urged by his supporters to leave the scene, presidential election. He is warned in an interview that socialist groups are united in their desire for peace and that "only a handful of idiots" want to continue the war.

ARMY AVIATORS TO CARRY MAIL

Hundreds of Flyers Make Application for Places in Postal Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Hundreds of army aviators have called recently at the War Department headquarters here, asking assistance in joining the aerial mail service. Alan E. Hawley, president of the club, announced today.

As the result of these requests Hawley telegraphed to Secretary of War Baker as follows:

"Hundreds of army aviators who have been notified they must decide in a few days whether to resign their commissions or to remain in the army have applied to the Aero club of America for positions. Most of them are anxious to join the Aerial Mail Service, therefore we urge that the time in which they must place their resignations with the army be delayed long enough to permit them to connect themselves with the postoffice for the aerial service. Fifty New Lines Planned. The Second Assistant Postmaster General Proctor and Captain E. D. Lippert, superintendent of the Aerial Mail Service are ready to establish 50 aerial mail lines throughout the United States and employ 1,000 mail aviators to carry mail. You can hasten the establishing of these mail service, and the employing of these aviators by turning over to the postal authorities 500 of the aeroplane the army cannot use at present."

ARMED FORCES PRESERVE ORDER IN DUAL EMPIRE

Danger of Uprising Among Magyars Compels French to Occupy Budapest to Prevent Revolutionary Excesses

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Austro-Hungary's restraint during the present transition period in the breaking up of the Hapsburg empire is due to the presence of Allied troops in Austria and Hungary, and to the fact that the small nationalities within the empire are at special pains to preserve order so that they may favorably impress the Allies at the peace conference.

Exert Deterring Influence

Under normal revolutionary conditions there ought now to be a reign of excesses in the dual monarchy. The parliaments at Budapest and Vienna engaged in constitutional discussions during past times and the temperamental southern Europeans can withhold their natural feelings only under great pressure. The Allied army of occupation has already crossed into Austria and its presence is having a deterring effect upon any inclination toward anarchy on the part of the Germans, who are the dominant Austrian race.

The arrival of a strong French military force at Budapest this week has attracted little attention, though the movement has an important significance.

Exceptional Precaution

It is the policy of the Allies not to occupy the enemy capitulated unless under special circumstances, because of the lasting vengeance usually levied by the act of publicly proclaimed captivity. The seizure of Budapest, therefore, is an exceptional measure of precaution. It has been done for the purpose of preventing riotous activities by the Magyars, who are ambitious to become the dominating power in the new constitution of little nationalities, that are destined to be scamped the map of postwar Europe.

Magyars Nurse Resentment

The Magyars long desired to dominate a newly formed Hapsburg empire. Instead of this, their own provinces are being wrested from them to give freedom to oppressed nationalities, and Hungary being reduced to secondary rank, not superior to a little Balkan kingdom. The danger of a new uprising among the Magyars, because of the downfall of their ambitions, has thus forced the French to occupy Budapest, and the army of occupation in its turn is preventing revolutionary excesses.

PLANS LONG RANKS OF TREES TO HONOR DEAD

Nation-wide "Memorial Movement" Is Started By American Forestry Association

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A nationwide movement has been started by the American Forestry Association for the planting of memorial trees for the soldier dead.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association, has written to every governor, asking co-operation. The plan is to have one tree planted in each of the great trans-continental motor-highways.

J. B. Riddell, secretary of the association, says many towns and cities have taken up the idea and the Government of Washington is sponsoring a similar plan for the Lincoln highway to be carried out by the state organizations.

"Nothing could be more appropriate," says Mr. Pack, "than to have each state, through which a motor highway passes, plant victory oaks or victory oaks or other trees for her soldiers who have died in battle. The motor has played a mighty part in winning the war."

"Wood has played a big part in victory too. Our stocks must be replenished. With each state co-operating with the highway authorities, a living age-long lesson could be taught the coming generations as to the beauty and value of forestry."

ARMY OF OCCUPATION TO BE CUT TO 30 DIVISIONS

Secretary of War Baker Confirms Statement That Right of 43 Divisions Is Ordered

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Thirty divisions will be the strength of the American army of occupation for the present, Secretary of War Baker stated today. When withdrawal of divisions down to the point of thirty remaining, consideration will then be given as to whether more demobilization can be attempted, Baker said.

Baker outlined there are 43 divisions in France now and return of eight of these has been ordered as announced by General March.

COMMITTEE CUTS MILLIONS OFF OF REVENUE MEASURE

Elimination of Tax on Mail Order Homes Lops Off $5,000,000—Other Assessments Reduced

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Continuing its reduction of specific tax rates in the revenue bill, the committee today lopped off $5,000,000 by eliminating the tax on mail order houses. Other reductions amounting to millions of dollars already have been made. On perfumes and cosmetics, the committee substituted a manufacturer's sales tax of five percent for a consumer's sales tax. The tax on regular brokers was cut from $100 to $50, and on stock and custom house brokers from $50 to $40. On cruises, the rate was cut from $200 to $100. The tax on theatres was left unchanged. The tax on cigar manufacturers was made to apply at the rate of 42 1/2 cents for the first 200,000 and ten cents a thousand on all above that. The two-cent stamp tax on bank checks was eliminated.

PRIEST THANKS YANKEE TROOPS

Letter From French Padre Treasured Possession of New England Division

WITH THE AMERICANS IN LOBBAINS, Nov. 25.—Your gallant New England troops have just set us free. It is the keynote of a letter of thanks from a French Padre, which will be translated and retained by the famous division from the New England states for years.

The letter was written by Cure A. Leclere, of the Little Villages of Rupt-sur-Woevre, immediately after the battle that drove the Germans from the St. Mihiel salient. Tender in thought for his parishioners, reverent in paying honor to the Americans, the Cure's letter is prized by the New Englanders more than an official document.

Honor Dead With Prayer

"Since September, 1917," wrote the Cure, "the barbarians have held the Heights of the Meuse, have foully murdered three hostages from Rupt, have shelled Rupt, and on July 12, 1918, forced its inhabitants to scatter to the four corners of France. It is my little village that remains the only village left standing on the advice of my bishop, foot certain, sir, that I do not speak for Monsiegnour Glinist, Lord Bishop of Verdun, my parishioners of Rupt, Navy and Verdun, and the people of your vicinity by conveying to you and your associates the heartfelt and unforgettable gratitude of all."

"Several of your comrades lie at rest in our truly Christian and French soil."

"Their ashes shall be cared for as if they were our own. We shall cover their graves with flowers and shall kneel by them as their own families would do, with a prayer to God to reward with eternal glory these heroic fallen of the field of honor, and to bless the Division and generous Americans."

A Village of Sorrow

"The letter was written to the commanding general of the Division just after the New Englanders had made their now famous night advance to Vigneulles, which closed the St. Mihiel salient. Rupt-sur-Woevre was never held by the booby, but the line was only a short distance away. For four years the bell of the little village church was silent. Rupt was a village of sorrow. Then came the Americans. The Germans were hurled back, and with tears streaming down his face, Cure Leclere, who he might again ring the church-bell. The American commander told him, by all means to ring it. Doughboys escorted the Cure back to his church. He grasped the pipe and touched it to his lips. In four years and the bell-ringing of victory and liberation rang out over the valley."

ALSATIANS WELCOME THEIR LIBERATORS

Formal Rating of Tri-Color Features of French Recognition of Colonel

COLMAR, Nov. 25.—General Castellon liberated Colmar this afternoon. Enthusiastic swarms of Alsatian men, women and children in native costume, formed a welcome procession for the French soldiers and reploped their allegiance to the mother country.

The buildings were masses of allied colors. A formal flag raising was held in the public square. I accompanied the French to the Rhine this morning, where solemn entry was made into Neu Breisach, which now will again be known as Neuf-Brisach. In company with the armistice, the married Germans stood the motor or tractor, along over their motor trucks and guns, and the Rhine land fortifications to the French.

FOR SAFEGUARD OF INTEREST OF WOMAN WORKER

Mrs. Rosalie Loew-Whitney, Attorney, Suggests Legislation for Demobilization of Feminine Army

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Legislation or military regulations to safeguard the interest of girls and women who have been engaged in war work and who will be relieved of their duties or supplanted by returning soldiers was advocated today by Mrs. Rosalie Loew-Whitney, one of the leading women attorneys of the United States.

"Now that the soldiers are starting home from the front," said Mrs. Whitney to the United Press, "the first effect that should be made is the demobilization of the army of women who have been doing war work to insure their future either to other work or to domestic life under favorable conditions."

Will Demand in Industry and in the office work of the national capital and other centers. The strict military regulations governing the demobilization of men in the army should govern the demobilization of women's army.

"My opinion is that women who have gone into the army either for patriotic or economic reasons, will remain in industry of some kind. By this I do not mean they will, in retaining their position, exclude the men who have given up those positions for the service of the United States and who will return when peace is established."

No Sex Controversy

"I believe those who have no domestic life, will continue to do the work they are better fitted for, and that the men who formerly filled these positions will find opportunities in outdoor work, farming or in the heavier kinds of labor for which they are best adapted."

Turn to Community Spirit

"The women of industry have been so industrious during the period of the war but, heretofore, had never taken any active part in public life, now will be ready and better fitted to devote their energies to civic welfare. There is no more to do in community betterments in peace time as there was in the larger war work. If as much enthusiasm and energy is expended in the former work during the reconstruction period as there was during the war, great results will be accomplished."

"The most important duty of women during this period is to help in every way to reconstruct the nation, and such legislation as will insure the protection of women, as the great foundation of humanity, is passed and properly administered."

ROMANCE SMOOTHS WAY TO DEATH OF YOUNG HERO

WAS DEAD BY WATER END OF WORK WAS REASONS OF WASTED MORN

LONDON, Nov. 25.—A fair-haired, blue-eyed boy from the North Country, who had been for 6 months in an English hospital, died last night.

He had been brought back from France about through the spine and was a hopeless case from the beginning.

"During those long and dreary six months he never let one word of complaint escape him and he seemed in ways to be smiling. He had one great consolation, he had become acquainted with the 'Waverly' novels, and in his last days he was reading 'Ivanhoe.'"

Gradually he became too weak to read and the nurse would take the book and read aloud to him.

She was reading on the last day of all when the "padre" came and his father and mother were at the bedside, and he had a good-bye kiss from his parents affectionately and listened very attentively to the prayers, but the moment they were over he turned to the nurse and said in a whisper, "Please go on reading, and as fast as you can, for I do so want to know the end."

And so the read him out of the world with the great gift of Bois-Oulbert and Ivanhoe, while the spirit of Walter Scott hovered about the deathbed.

Solomon in All His Glory, Would Go Broke

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Solomon's desire, "Stay me with figs, comfort me with apples," would be quite out of the question if he lived in England today, unless he was prepared to pay war prices.

Flagon of Australian wine which used to be 45 cents are now $1.14, and little apples are bringing 30 cents.

When Peace Comes

Don't jump at conclusions—
Don't think that "the boys in France" will be back on the next boat—
It took two years to get them all there. It will take some time to get them all back, and there will be a lot for them all to do before any one of them comes back.
Don't think that you won't need to save food any more—

Remember there are millions of people who will have to depend upon the United States of America for practically everything they get to eat for a year or more after the war is over. This means we must continue voluntary rationing until Europe and the rest of the world can plant new crops and grow them.

Don't think that man-power will no longer be needed—
Three million men are still out of industry. Government war work will continue at top speed for a long time even after peace has been assured.

Don't think that transportation will be normal at once again—
The railroads all over the country will have more than they can do in transporting Government supplies, raw materials and essentials for a long time to come.

Don't think that the government will stop work on great contracts for armament—
Plans for the Navy alone are not one-third completed, we understand, war or no war, and these are only part of the Government's defense plans.

Don't think that peace will at once stop the march of rising prices—
Many factories will never again produce goods for civilians, many others will not produce such goods for some time to come, none will be able to make their product at lower prices until they can buy the raw materials for less and their present other costs diminish. This won't happen until there's far more raw material than now to draw upon, and until there are enough men released from military service to run the mills with their former speed and output.

Don't think that there will be more goods from which to choose immediately—
There is likely to be less before there is more. First, for the reason above, and second, because in this store now, for instance, are immense stocks of goods purchased at former costs. They are of better qualities in many instances than are being produced today. Much of this merchandise could not be duplicated today at any price, because the kinds and qualities are simply not being manufactured now. Much of this merchandise, if replaced, would now cost much more than it did. Consequently, at this store you need not pay prices based on the present higher costs but you may, while present stocks last, continue to pay prices figured on the former lower costs.

So you see even when peace is absolutely certain, peace conditions for us all will impose many duties no less necessary than those of war.

May we never be guilty of the error of rash hopes or the abandonment of self-restraint. May we never jump at conclusions—but continue to be earnest and of sound, good judgment, that the great wonder of peace may spread its joys and its blessings throughout this land of ours gradually, naturally, wisely as it should, without interruption.

PLAN OF YEAR'S WORK OUTLINED BY FARM BUREAU

Adopt as Program for Coming Year in County, Provisions of Government's Recommendations in Reconstruction

Members of the Twin Falls county farm bureau executive committee and of the advisory committee of that organization, at a meeting here Saturday afternoon, outlined provisions of the program of the county farm bureau for the coming year.

Increasing the membership of the farm bureau to include practically all of the farmers of the county and to form an organization through which the recommendations of the government can be transmitted readily, occupied a prominent place on this program.

Other matters considered at the meeting Saturday were the necessary for additional legislation in respect to the right of adjustment in the case of farm laborers and employers, improvement of marketing conditions in general, and further provision for dealing with the various pests which exact a heavy annual toll from the agricultural industry.

Reference to the importance of unimpairing the farm bureau and extending its sphere of influence, County Agent Donald McLean said. "Authorities tell us that the nation is less prepared for the future of peace than it is for the future of war," he said.

SEEKS TO REGAIN CAR WAGERED AND LOST BY HUSBAND

Mrs. J. W. Hays, Wife of Prominent Nonpartisan League Leader, Says Spouse Bet Her Property Without Consent

Successors to Late Mayor in Office and in Business Named

The death of the late Mayor F. P. Bracken, anticipated generally as a great loss to the community—occasional vacancies both in his official and private relationships, the filling of which is a matter of general interest.

Under the statute the president of the city council, Arthur L. Swin, no doubt will serve as mayor until the next election; an expression of sentiment favoring the election of a successor to Mr. Bracken before his term would have expired, having been manifested.

SAN FRANCISCO MEN ROW OVER MOONEY TRIAL

Newspaper Publisher, in Encounter With Prosecuting Attorney Over Dictagraph Exposure Will Not Institute Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Nov. 25.—Freemont Older, editor of the San Francisco Call and Post, said today he would not institute a charge against District Attorney Charles M. Fickert as a result of the encounter in the lobby of the Palace Hotel last night when Fickert knocked Older down.

The fight followed close on the publication of the Denmore dictagraph expose in which Fickert, who prosecuted the Mooney case, was declared by John Denmore, director-general employment, to have constituted the Hall of Justice and to have "framed" the case against Thomas G. Mooney. Older admitted playing a prominent part in the investigation, assisting Denmore.

Meet in Hotel Lobby

Fickert and Older met in the lobby of the Palace Hotel last night. Older, while Older attempted to defend himself. Finally one of Fickert's blows landed and Older went down. The fight lasted about two minutes.

Fickert is a powerfully built man, weighing over 200 pounds. Older, also strong built, is considerably older than Fickert.

"I struck Older with my left hand—no, my right," said Fickert. "I had heard he threatened to 'get' me—'I would like to see you make a mistake more towards his hip pocket'."

"Fickert took a mean advantage of me," said Older. "He is a comparatively young man. My friends told me he had threatened to 'get' me. After he knocked me down he raised his foot to kick me, but his friends pulled him off."

Upton Sinclair Wires Governor

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 25.—Upton Sinclair, writer and socialist leader, today wired Governor Stephen H. Kistler, half of Thomas Mooney as follows: "If you permit Mooney to die, you accomplish two results: First, you greatly weaken the influence of President Wilson with labor and socialist forces abroad upon which the most depend for the support of his program of international brotherhood; second, you make almost impossible the realization of one of the impending struggle between labor and capital in America."

New York Socialists And Workers Protest

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Two mass meetings will be staged in New York tonight in protesting against the execution of Tom Mooney.

The socialists will meet in Madison Square Garden, while the United Metal Trades and other labor bodies will meet in Cooper Union.

Edible Seaweeds. There are seaweeds which are good foods. The old folk in many British coast districts will recall much that is useful on the subject once their memories are set working. These which lie near the sea will certainly be wise to utilize the food wealth that it contains, though with seaweeds, as with land weeds, some trouble should be taken beforehand to get quite sure about the identification of specimens.

ALSACE AND LORRAINE ARE AGAIN FRENCH

Population Receives the Polls With Great Enthusiasm at Occupation of Their Capital

EMACIATED AMERICANS ARE GIVEN GOOD FOOD

Yanks Were Made to Work in Mines Eleven Hours a Day on Rations That Were Not Sufficient

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
STRAUBOURG, Nov. 25.—The last provinces of Alsace and Lorraine are again wholly French through the formal occupation of their capital today by French troops. The population received the news with great enthusiasm.

"Fattening" Americans
Evidence was obtained today that the Germans are taking American prisoners to the rear to fatten them up on good food before liberating them, as a result of an investigation by a German prisoner commission which is afraid to permit the return of the Yankees to their present emaciated condition. The Americans have been working for months in mines 15 miles from the front, laboring 12 hours a day without sufficient food or clothing, according to officers who escaped rather than wait for their delayed liberation.

According to these officers, the conditions in the emaciated men's camps and their treatment, were atrocious.

Act as Prisoners
Eugene George of Des Moines, an aviator of the "Gingery" squadron, who was wounded and taken prisoner, was liberated from the Karlsruhe prison camp for a day by the Germans; he might act as their plenipotentiary in arranging the possible sending of prisoners directly across the Rhine instead of through Switzerland. He was accompanied by a British colonel and a French major.

These plans are now being developed. Scorgie returned to the Boche guards, working at a Rhine bridge, to keep his parole.

BOARDS ADOPT NEW RULES IN FIGHT ON FLU

City and County Health Officers Unite on Enforcement of Rigid Quarantine and Partial Lifting of Closing Order

Ordering a more extensive and rigid quarantine against individual cases of influenza and influenza lifting of provisions of the closing order as applied to schools, theatres and other public assemblies, were the outstanding features of the decisions reached at a joint meeting Saturday afternoon of the county and city health officers held in the commissioners' room at the court house to consider more effective measures for combating the influenza epidemic.

Some Schools Reopen

Under the terms of resolutions passed at the meeting the schools of the Hollister district and the Gregg Business College in Twin Falls resumed their sessions this morning.

The closing order will be lifted as against theatres at midnight Friday to permit the performance Saturday next. Reopening of the public schools in Twin Falls and elsewhere throughout the county will be resumed on Monday next.

Lifting of the closing order in respect to the schools of the Hollister district was determined upon in consideration of the fact that the district was one of the first in the path of the epidemic which seems to be abating there, only two cases being reported Saturday.

Students re-opening the Gregg business college are required to secure from a physician a certificate showing that they are not suffering from the disease and have not been directly exposed to it.

Local Home Owners

Coincidental with the lifting of the closing order in some respects, the boards of health made more stringent regulations in regard to other measures for dealing with the epidemic.

The boards ruled that no one should be allowed in any one store at one time to more persons in addition to the salesclerk than one customer for each clerk.

The quarantine regulations were amended to apply not only to the person afflicted, but, with certain exceptions and conditions left to the discretion of the health officer, to cover the dwelling in which patients are housed.

Below Minimum Effective

In case the patient were removed from his residence for treatment during his illness, it was decided, the signs and signals should be placed against the house and other members of his family only for three or four days or so long as should be necessary to determine whether they had contracted the disease.

As a result of the stringent quarantine regulations, the boards of health hope that the danger from the epidemic will be passed here within a short time.

Appearing before the joint session Saturday of the boards of health were B. F. Magid, manager of the Idaho theatre and A. B. Anderson, manager of the Orpheum theatre, with their attorney, R. J. Hogan of the firm of Walters & Hogan, to argue their case for removal of the closing order as against their business, or for more stringent quarantine regulations which they felt were necessary to the successful coping with the situation.

Health Officer Advises

M. S. Hoover, supervisor of the Gregg Business College, with its attorney, C. H. Hackman, appeared to argue for the reopening of that institution.

C. D. Thomas presented the desirability of reopening the public schools under revised conditions.

STATEMENT SHOWS INCREASED SURPLUS AND REDUCED LOANS

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The weekly actual bank statement Saturday showed the following changes:

Surplus, increased, $68,811,250.
Loans decreased, $169,407,000.
Cash in own vaults, members of federal reserve bank, increased, $905,000.
Reserve in federal reserve banks or members banks, increased, $99,701,000.
Reserve in own vaults, members of federal reserve banks, decreased, $83,000.
Reserve in deposit state bank and trust companies, increased, $34,000.
Net demand deposits, increased, $8,000.
Net time deposits, increased, $725,000.
Circulation, decreased, $500,000.
Aggregate reserves, $602,750,000.
Excess reserves, $75,061,250.

The price argument, in selling non-convertible, has not lost its force. You'll find it in the old way, as always.

POCKET SPACE AN ESSENTIAL NOW.

Pocket space is an essential now that all America is carrying small packages, instead of having them sent as in pre-war days. The gray coat, with checked lining and trimmings, is so designed that big, roomy pockets are available. The serge, with its chic, straight lines, is very exclusive—but, above all, practical and serviceable.

MAKE BRITAIN FIT FOR HEROES—LOYD GEORGE

Premier Favors Back to Land Movement—Is No Patient with Revolutionary Rhetoric.

WOLVERHAMPTON, England, Nov. 22.—The task is to make Britain a fit country for heroes to live in," Premier Lloyd George declared in a speech here today.

"A systematic effort must be made to bring the population back to the soil. Intelligent agricultural policy is the true basis for a great industrial policy."

"The revolutionary elements do not want reconstruction. We won't stand for that conspiracy, which is the systematic attempt to build up the country. Irish members are being asked to come to Westminster to attack the government, at the time Irishmen are refusing to help save the empire and their own liberties. The government won't stand for that kind of business."

A name to which is attached a wealth of the romance and reputation of traveler and writer is that of Lady Lugard, in the British empire hinders list. She was Miss Flora Shaw for many days, and of her travels there are many humorous incidents to tell. Once, for instance, on arriving at an up-country town in South Africa, the people wished immediately to do her honor. But Miss Shaw noted that the night after she allowed to have a wash. She had to wait a little time before water was brought to her, and then the fact that she was to have for dinner had already been cooked in it!

Hagan Development
Man has been on the earth perhaps some twenty odd thousand years, and it is only the last few thousand that we are much concerned with. To suppose that a modern Englishman must necessarily be a better stage than the ancient Greek is to ignore the fact that a better job than Wordsworth because he came later. If the world, or the brain of man, is developing it is not developing as fast or so steadily as all our "discovery" makes in the Century Magazine.
Germany's Oldest Railroad
The oldest railroad in Germany is one of the shortest in the world. The Ludwigs railway, connecting the Cities of Pilsen and Nuremberg, is but three and three quarters miles long, and has never been extended. It was conceived by Johannes Scharrer, a wealthy hop merchant, the Philadelphia Inquirer to be enlarged. The plan was first published in 1825, and was being actively favored its construction it was named after him. There are about 50 employees. The railroad carries about 4,000,000 passengers a year.
Thrill
Some years ago I was working for a civil engineer. The resident engineer requested the draftman in the London office always to send him tracings, and as large as possible. On visiting the work I discovered the reason. When the tracings were done with his wife bolted them down and made shirts for her little boys—E. Arden Minty, F. R. L. B. A. in London Mail.
And Woman
Who is happy a man seeking wonderful discovery and a woman ready to be a beautiful girl? "Yes," commented Miss Cuyenne, "no woman's stomach of an ostrich and the other wants the fenther."
St. Swithin's Day
St. Swithin's day is July 15. The tradition is that it rains fall then it will rain for 40 days. The official weather bureau, however, do not support the tradition.
Daily Thought
Light is (it rank when many share the full—Hooner.
