

MILITARY GUARD WALKS STREETS OF METROPOLIS

Anti-Bolsheviki Riots Again Break Out in New York—Several Severely Mauling By Rioting Soldiers and Sailors

INNOCENT-BYSTANDERS CUT, BRUISED AND BEATEN

Meeting of Red Flag Sympathizers at Palm Garden Attended by Scenes of Wild Hostility—Many Are Injured

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Military police patrolled the streets here today to guard against new outbreaks of soldiers and sailors against "Bolshevik" meetings. Major P. L. Thomas is in command. It is understood that the provost guard is to be reinforced and that the navy will establish its own police.

Two soldiers were arrested and six civilians were injured last night in another "anti-Bolshevik" riot. The soldiers and sailors attempted to break into the Palm Garden, where a mass meeting of well-to-do "parlor Bolsheviks" was in progress. The city police repulsed several rushes against the main entrance, then drove the assailants from the street. Later, the provost guard arrived on the scene and dispersed the soldiers, after a scuffle in which clubs were used.

Assaults Develop Rapidly. When the crowd was coming out of the Palm Garden, a number of men were assaulted by soldiers and by civilians who sympathized with them.

Several men who had nothing to do with the meeting, but were merely bystanders, were also maulled. The most severely injured was Walter Wright, a broker. He was passing by the Palm Garden, accompanied by a young woman and stopped to ask a sailor the cause of the riot. He was hit as a Bolshevik and attacked. Wright fought hard, but finally succumbed to the blows of a dozen men. He was cut, bruised and battered.

One Red Flag Captured

Only one red flag was captured. This was carried by a woman. The soldiers grabbed and burned it, hanging the Star Spangled banner.

A woman who recently returned from overseas was seen in last night's excitement. He was also prominent the previous night in Madison Garden. The police have been informed that he will lead another demonstration.

ARTILLERY FOR COAST DEFENSE

Adequate Supply Will Soon Be Here From European Battlegrounds

By CARL D. GROOT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—American artillery, soon to arrive home, will be used for the defense of the coast at such points as New York, Boston and San Francisco and will be available also for border service.

This was stated on high authority today at the war department, where it was also made known, without essential restrictions, that some of this artillery had been obtained as a result of stripping coast defenses.

Such of the coast defense guns as were taken, however, were of calibers not especially valuable for coast work. As a result of these removals and because of the concentration of the various armies with respect to large caliber guns, it was said that it would undoubtedly be necessary to obtain some larger caliber guns to use in the coast fortifications.

As to the situation of railway artillery, it was pointed out that America's coast lines are so great that it is scarcely possible to place a gun on each of them. The coast line of the United States is so long that it is not possible to place a gun on every point.

Anti-Bolshevists in Germany Turn for Help to Kurt Eisner

President of Bavarian Republic Regarded as Strongest Man in Central Empires—Situation Calm But Country Not Yet Safe

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The situation in Germany appears to be more calm although the country is not safe from Bolshevism. The decisive attitude of Kurt Eisner, president of the Bavarian republic, is uniting the anti-Bolshevik sentiment throughout Germany. Right now it is probably the strongest man in the whole country. His adherents have made it plain they will not stand any nonsense, and have issued a warning, notifying Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to keep out of politics. On the other hand, it is reported there are 70,000 armed soldiers in Bavaria when Paul von Lettow, anti-Bolshevik, is trying to get control in order to start a counter-revolution. Posters have been distributed in Cologne offering $25 reward for the Kaiser and crown prince, "dead or alive."

CROWN PRINCE HOPES TO KEEP HIS FIGURE

Trusts That When Peace Is Declared America Will Remember That She and Germany Were Once Friendly—Says He Cannot Afford to Get Fat

PIANO AND BILLIARD TABLE TO HELP PASS TIME FOR FORMER HUN LEADER

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 21 (Delayed).—"I hope that when peace is signed, America will remember that she and Germany were once friendly," Friedrich Wilhelm, former German crown prince, declared in an interview with the United Press today. The correspondent traveled with the former crown prince from Swaziland to Wieringen, where he was interned. He appeared in good health, smiled frequently and was well dressed in a sporting suit of brown tweed. He was accompanied by Major Von Muffel and Major Von Szentl. They rode in a first-class compartment, but it was unostentatious.

Says He Cannot Talk

Friedrich Wilhelm was discovered by a correspondent at a time when the former crown prince was temporarily alone. "I am unable to make any formal statement, my mouth has been closed by orders," the former crown prince said. "I do not know how long I will stay in Holland, where I have been accorded nice treatment. My future depends on the revolution. I hope to see Germany again, but I must be patient."

"My only knowledge of events is through the newspapers. I have not seen my family for weeks—except my father, who, I am told, also lives in Holland. I have not heard anything regarding my wife, my children or my friends—but have I friends left?"

Years For His Life

"I hope that when peace is signed, America will remember that she and Germany were once friendly."

HE COMMENDS A CONTINUANCE OF PRESENT STATUS

Permanent Federal Supervision of Stockyards Should Be Extended to Include Kindred Lines

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Permanent federal supervision of the stockyards is recommended by Secretary of Agriculture Houston in a statement made public today. Houston said that the system has succeeded so well that, in his opinion, it should be extended to include related interests and urges prompt congressional action to make the plan possible.

His statement is contained in a lengthy review of the agricultural and food situation in the country. "As you know, the department at the direction of the president, is now administering under license, the control of the stockyards and related interests," Houston said. "The important results already accomplished under this authority clearly demonstrate its usefulness and emphasizes the desirability of continuing it in some other adequate form of supervision."

"The question also of exercising similar authority over the slaughtering, meat packing and related interests, is one for serious consideration. The food administration has placed limitations on profits on meat and by-products handled by the establishments and required the installation of uniform counting systems.

Packers Materially Checked. "In this way, the centralization of control by a small group of packers has been materially checked. The economic welfare of most production in some form of supervision over the packing industry. Such control, of course, should be closely coordinated with that of the livestock markets, and there should also be established a central office to which packing concerns should be required to report currently in such form and detail that it would be constantly informed concerning their operations. The necessary legislation should be enacted at the earliest possible moment."

NOTICE. Tomorrow (Thursday) Thanksgiving Day, there will be no issue of the Twin Falls Daily News.

PRESIDENT WILL HOLD TO REINS DURING ABSENCE

Expected to Keep in Close Touch With American Events Through the Medium of Secretary Tumulty

DEFINITE STATEMENT IS HOURLY EXPECTED

Four of Peace Commissioners Already Selected, Balance to Be Chosen Within Day or Two

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Before leaving for France, President Wilson will make a full statement to the country as to his purposes in going and outline the work of the administration while he is away. It was learned today the president's statement will designate the delegates comprising the American peace commission, what this nation hopes to do at the conference and who will direct the administrative work while the president and other members of his cabinet are away.

It was learned today that intimate friends of the president had strongly recommended Chairman Clegg of the war industries board for the post of secretary of the treasury and Chairman Clegg of the war trade board for director general of railroads. It was stated, however, that the president would not act on any recommendations for the two posts before he had conferred with Mr. Adobo.

Four Definitely Decided On

Four of the peace commissioners have been definitely designated, it was authoritatively stated today. These are the president, Colonel House, Secretary of State Lansing and ex-Senator Henry White, the republican representative. Three probably will be another cabinet member.

President Wilson, it was stated positively today, will exercise all his executive functions generally during his absence leaving Secretary Tumulty on the side to assist him in keeping in touch with developments.

Either simultaneously with his main announcement or at approximately the same time, the president will name the

Kaiser's Status In Holland Cause Of Much Uneasiness

Dutch Government Believes He Can Be Extradited Only By German Action

By LOWELL MELLETT

LONDON, Nov. 27.—While legal authorities of the British government have decided that the Allies are entitled to demand extradition of the former Kaiser, it is believed that Holland is not yet persuaded on that point.

The Dutch government is understood to maintain that Wilhelm can only be extradited by Germany, or, if his life is deemed at the peace conference, he will then be given up in accordance with such decision, inasmuch as Germany will be represented.

The reason the unwelcome guest is on his head in the Dutch cap, is only that Holland is the nearest neutral point to Spa, from which his flight began. Otherwise, he might have gone to Scandinavia or Switzerland.

Takes Extreme Precautions. Holland's precautions against any plotting are known to include a cordon of troops around Amersfoort. The former emperor is not permitted to cross the coast. The country around the castle is low and generally unattractive.

Wilhelm, it is reported, constantly displays irritation and impatience, while the Dutch merely are frankly contemptuous because he failed to face the music.

The crown prince's abode is on a barren island where the only habitations is that rectory's house where Frederick Wilhelm is quartered. The Dutch say the Allies would be unable to provide a more unpleasant prison.

CONGRESSIONAL KNIFE WILL MAKE DEEP CUTS

Financial Reconstruction to Begin at Once—Program Provides for Thorough Paring of Existing Appropriations and Prompt Return to Peace-Time Economy—Unexpended Moneys in Hands of Departments to Be Returned

COMMITTEE WILL TURN DEAF EAR TO ALL REQUESTS FOR INCREASED PAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Congress has determined to take full command of financial reconstruction. Executive heads are to be asked to co-operate toward a program of drastic peace-time economy, but whether or not they comply, they will be made aware that congress holds the final authority in money matters.

Developments, expected soon, will serve as a warning to cabinet officials and others who spend money.

Excerpted At Once

1. That any unexpended war appropriations in the hands of departments, will be revoked by congress at once. 2. That expenditures on contracts of other war work must stop immediately and any excess supplies on hand must be liquidated and the money returned to the treasury. 3. That all departmental estimates for the fiscal year of 1919-20 must be recast by departments and checked to the last cent.

While economy talk has flown thick and fast about congress since the end of the war, Chairman Swager Shirley, of the house appropriations committee, has taken the most drastic action.

To Appropriators Funds

The program Shirley has outlined practically contemplates taking all the funds out of the hands of executive departments and re-appropriating on a peace basis for the rest of the fiscal year which does not end until July 1, 1919.

For that time congress, working upon the theory that the war would continue, had authorized approximately $30,000,000,000.

How much of this she has recovered, Shirley will determine in the next few days after a series of conferences with executive heads.

Sharp Change in Status

When the war was on, Shirley insisted on giving every dollar asked to present it successfully. Now he feels the time has arrived for his committee to take full charge of appropriations and decide what shall be spent and what shall not.

The determination to demand a thorough revision of all departmental estimates was reached because there is a feeling that the war will continue with little reduction in comparison with war.

ELABORATE PLAN IN DEVELOPMENT OF AIR SERVICE

House Naval Affairs Committee Receives Report of Program of Naval Aviation Officials

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Naval plans for the permanent establishment of the construction of twenty-one ocean air stations, building of war planes, including a new type of triplanes which in experiments made 150 miles an hour and the purchase of hundreds of dirigibles and other lighter than air craft were laid before the committee today.

Special revealed that the navy has been experimenting since August with the new triplane which is known as the fastest in the world and is a product of the Curtiss plant.

Taylor and Stiebel also defended the use of dirigibles for coast defense. Taylor said he had heard on reliable authority that a German dirigible had made a trip from Philadelphia to German East Africa and back. It also displayed that dirigibles war an indispensable arm of coastal air craft.

Coastal air stations, according to Stiebel, will be located at the following places: Boston, New York, Charleston, Massachusetts, Bay, Becharof, Alaska, Nagsayak, Alaska.

DISASTER IS LOOMING BIG ON HORIZON

Germany Faced With Veritable Chaos When Soldiers Return to Country — Government Weak and Vaccillating

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The eyes of the world today are on German soldiers returning home.

Whether they aid in restoring an orderly regime or yield to the anarchistic pleadings of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Germany's future, will determine if the empire is to gain its feet or join with Russia in chaos and crime.

Fear is expressed here that the German troops, returning to barren cupboard in war-torn homes, will fall prey to the doctrines of Liebknecht. He, like Lenin, has taken a stand against not only the imperialism of Germany but has threatened the democratic peace of the Allied world as well.

Anarchy is Feared

With Germany in control of the Bolsheviks, a great portion of Europe would be in the hands of anarchists. The problem is one giving civilized governments today the most solemn thought and worry.

There still is uncertainty as to whether the chaos in Germany has its inception in those desiring return of a monarchy as the sole means of restoring order.

The latest appeal of the German government protesting against demobilization of the German armies is held to indicate that the government is counting on these troops to assist in establishing a new order of government which might squelch the present upheaval.

No Definite Conclusions

As to Allied aid, no definite conclusions have been reached. It is certain, however, if Bolshevism gains the ascendancy in Germany, the Allied armies will be the last to see the end of combating its spread into other countries.

The Allies might throw an armed cordon around Germany or occupy her leading cities to assist in bringing order.

It was pointed out that President Wilson has always taken the stand that countries should be allowed to settle their own internal differences—as for instance, Mexico and Russia.

Dutch Have Little Love For Wilhelm

Former Kaiser Finds Himself Unwelcome Guest of Hol-

land, Bay Passengers

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The Dutch have no love for Kaiser Wilhelm. The former German Kaiser found himself a very unwelcome guest in Holland, according to passengers arriving here from Amsterdam aboard the Rotterdam Mail here this morning.

When the Hollanders decked the passengers and members of the crew were hanging over the rails eager to know if the Kaiser and his family were still in Holland. They were very much disappointed and disgraced when informed that he was.

The Dutch blame the Kaiser and his followers for the starting of the war, which has caused Holland to suffer many hardships.

C. C. Cramer, the Dutch minister to the United States, who arrived on the vessel, left immediately for Washington.

The vessel will return to Holland in mid-afternoon with a cargo of foodstuffs, it was stated.

FREQUENT ADDRESS PLEASED!

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(By mail)—An American soldier in a hospital, saw that an account of his death from influenza had been published in the newspaper.

In order to prevent the false news reaching his folks at home, he hurriedly rang up a friend.

"Say, do you know that my death from 'flu' has appeared in print?" he asked over the telephone.

"Oh!" came back over the wire. "Where are you speaking from?"

HEARD OF MUSTERING OUT
CAMP DODGE, Ia., Nov. 27.—The muster-out of men in the 13th division here was speeded up and it was expected that 600 will have been paid off before tonight.

It is hoped to keep this average daily until 5,000 have been mustered out.

Sergeant Listed as Killed in Action Returns With Decorations to Family

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Sergeant Harry Obelato, Company B, 28th Infantry, was "killed in action at Cantigny on May 28," at least so his relatives here were notified. Today he strode eagerly down the street on which his home is located, springing up five steps, two at a time and dumfounded his family.

"I don't blame them for thinking I was dead," he said. "I was unconscious for ten days and awoke to find these decorations."

He bore a French war cross and a British decoration.

FEAR GERMANY IN BAD PLIGHT

Grave Danger of Landslide in Direction of Bolshevik Control

BY ROBERT J. BENDER.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Germany's internal troubles may be a camouflage for a bid to seize power by hiding in an attempt to escape paying for its crimes, in the opinion of some officials here. Other expert observers, however, believe the revolutionary movement to be genuine and fear that Germany may slip into control of the Bolsheviks.

Dispatches received here from Berlin indicate that Germany is splitting into states and that the Spartacist group—Bolsheviks—is in the saddle at some points while the Ebert-Scheidtman clique—moderates—still holds the reins in others.

As this disintegration proceeds, it is thought the next white from the German people will be to the effect that they didn't start the war, the old empire that was so foolish dead, so why should the people be forced to pay the war bill?

Admittedly the task of collecting indemnities from a scattering of independent German states will be most difficult.

CARRANZISTAS DISPELL FEARS OF BANDIT RAID

Reinforcement of Juarez Garrison Considered Adequate Defense Against Outlaw Depredation

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 27.—The presence of a fresh regiment of Carranzistas troops in Juarez relieved American officers in fear of a raid across the river by the Holguin band of Villistas reported to have sacked Villa Ahumada. The reinforcement of the Juarez garrison provides adequate defense, according to Carranzista officials.

Holguin is the bandit leader who recently held three Americans captive for ransom. His followers are reported to have burned railroad bridges and dynamited a freight train on the Mexican Central railroad Sunday morning. No official advice of the Villa Ahumada engagement has been received and the communication, south of Juarez is cut today. Train service is suspended.

Holguin has ranged undisturbed in this area for the last year dynamiting trains, robbing ranges and looting mine offices.

The price argument in selling merchandise, has not lost its force. You'll find it in the ads now, as always.

TOTAL DEATHS COMPARATIVELY SMALL FOR WAR

Navy Department Reports Only Little Over 1200 Fatalities Since Outbreak of Hostilities

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Total deaths in the navy from all "war causes" were 1,212, Surgeon General Braisted told the house naval affairs committee today.

This figure does not include the men who died from disease, a number which Admiral Braisted did not give.

The bodies of most naval men who died almost have already been brought home at naval expense, and sent to relatives. All bodies will be brought home finally in the same way.

Discussion between committee members who have recently been in conference with the adjutant general of the army developed that the army dead will also be brought to this country when relatives desire. This will be done just as soon as shipping space is available, probably about mid-winter.

Many in Naval Hospitals

Admiral Braisted placed the number of patients in naval hospitals at 15,000, many of whom, he said, are influenza victims. General health conditions in the navy, he declared, are excellent.

Disease due to immobility have been cut in half since the war started due to intensive work, Braisted stated. The fight against tuberculosis in the navy has also shown good results.

Braisted declared that it would be necessary to appropriate about nine and a half million dollars to operate his department during the fiscal year, 1919-20. This estimate is placed on a personnel of 455,425 which included 6,000 marines, the number Secretary Daniels believes to be necessary in 1920, Braisted said.

Germans Depressed Before Surrender

Attache of Chilean Legation Tells of Closing Hours of War in Berlin

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The people in Berlin were "dazed and depressed" in the last days of the war, according to Frederick G. Albert, attaché of the Chilean legation at Berlin, who arrived here today aboard the steamship Hokkaido.

Albert left Berlin November 6. With starvation staring them in the face and news of defeat reaching them hourly, he said, the German people were unable to comprehend the situation and were crying for peace.

REINSTATE AS PRESIDENT

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 27.—E. M. Pelton released from his duties as director general of military railways during the war has been reinstated as president of the Chicago and Great Western railways. Pelton also succeeds Vice President W. L. Park as director of the St. Paul Union Depot company.

London Belles to Wear Alarm Bells

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The darkest place on earth is London at night.

With tightening of the fuel restrictions it is going to be darker this winter than ever. Londoners are advised to wear something white and glistening at night so motor drivers will see them more easily.

Pedestrians on the sidewalks, collide every five minutes or so on the homeward journey, and the women of London are beginning to get hoarse in an endeavor to force a cough at regular periods by way of warning of their approach. But now it is suggested that they shall wear little silver bell pendants so that each woman will carry her own alarm.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 27.—Southern California's football world turned its attention today to plans for a big inter-sectional game to be played Nov. 29 at Pasadena, when one of the five undefeated service teams of this coast will meet the champion Great Lakes navy team from Chicago.

The team which is to represent the west will be selected by means of a series of elimination contests to end December 31.

PRESS PUBLICATION OF CASUALTIES WEEK BEHIND

War Department Says Lists of Nearly 150,000 Killed and Wounded Yet to Be Given

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Publication of nearly 150,000 casualties of various kinds, remains to be made. Total publication to date amounts to about 85,000.

Many of the remaining list will be military minor wound cases.

With the war department gave no figure today as to the number of telegraph notices sent to relatives it was said that the press publication now runs about a week behind the telegraphic notification.

It is uncertain how soon General Pershing will be able to furnish the government the complete list of names on the casualty lists.

Twelve People are Injured When Bank Outside of Yokohama 'Bomb' Protests Against Affair

TOKIO, Nov. 27.—An all-night festival dance, celebrated annually in the grounds of the Shozanji temple, Kamakura, was broken up at 1 1/2 m. by a bank outsider who threw a bomb into the midst of the dancers.

Whether the bombthrower had some grievance against the god, or just disapproved of dancing in general, was not learned. A dozen persons were injured, and a stranger who happened to be in the neighborhood was arrested on suspicion.

SEE INTERVIEW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—President Wilson's intervention in behalf of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg was brought today in a telegram from the grand duchess. She asked that she be the Duchy from the passage of German troops (probably meaning destruction committed by them) and that he protect the peace negotiations the rights of Luxembourg as a small, independent, free nation.

PREDICTS BRIGHT FUTURE IN LATIN AMERICAN TRADE

Dodge Brothers' Traveling Representative Returns With Encouraging Message After Long Sojourn Abroad

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 27.—Having called the "seven seas" almost continually since 1914, without sign or sight of him earlier or otherwise, E. G. Willard, Dodge Brothers' traveling representative, has just finished a detour from South America. Mr. Willard brings word that the greatest obstacle to world business today are lack of freight facilities and gasoline, and fuel, or partial embargoes in all parts of the world.

He predicts a vast enlargement of American world business after the war, but in the face of keen and highly-organized competition from several quarters.

Branch Banks Great Aid

He says that American business has made considerable progress in South America during the period of the war, and that the establishment of branch banks has done a great deal to promote North American interests in the nations to the south of us. As he sees the situation, manufacturers in the United States have now the best opportunity in their existence to take legitimate advantage of the South American needs.

Should Know Spanish

"North American business men should understand," Mr. Willard says,

Repair of Lens Coal Fields Year's Work

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Anywhere from eight months to three years will be required to put the Lens coal fields in shape for normal production, Walter E. Hope, of the fuel administration, cabled Fuel Administrator Garfield from France today.

Hope has just completed a three day survey of the Lens damage to the coal fields around Lens.

"that the representatives they send to South American business houses should be equipped with a good working knowledge and command of Spanish. A French scholar is at an advantage in South America, because nearly everybody of the intellectual class also speaks French. Representatives should have a clear conception of the Latin temperament, and defer to Latin custom, so far as necessary."

GRAPHIC STORY OF ENGAGEMENT AT FAMOUS MOLE

Commander of S. S. Vindictive Gives First Hand Account of Events Surrounding Great Naval Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A close-up of the heroic story of the British blockade of the German submarine base at Zeebrugge was told here by Captain Fred Carpenter, who commanded the Vindictive in the raid.

Captain Carpenter arrived on the British steamer Bismarck Castle, on a mission for the admiralty. The Bismarck Castle also brought a number of Canadian and Australian officers home and bound several Red Cross nurses.

The attack on Zeebrugge was carried out according to schedule, Carpenter said. Two previous attempts were frustrated by unfavorable winds, that blew away smoke screens. In the successful enterprise the Vindictive arrived alongside the mole just one minute late. Her mission was to create a diversion while three other warships were blocking the channel.

Only Small Crew Left

Fifteen miles from the mole, the little fleet halted and all the men were taken from the blocking vessel except just enough to navigate them. So serious were the chances for criticism, however, that some of them hid in the holds of ships which were to be sunk in the channel. The fighters on the Vindictive were young, picked men, Carpenter said. The cruiser came on a heavy fire when it hit the pier, but a party of 400 leaped to the pier and there stood a German battery of seven large and three small guns. They fought for twenty minutes before the British shells began to take effect.

They remained there, fighting until the last. Captain Carpenter was wounded in the left arm.

Carpenter is a tall, gaunt man. He looks sixty years old but said he was "on the right side of forty". His decorations include the Victoria cross, war cross with palm, legion of honor and the star of 1914.

PRESIDENT'S ABSENCE WILL TAKE SIX WEEKS

Invitations to Chief Executive Continue to Pour in From All Over Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The president's absence from the highest office in the country, now at least six weeks on his trip to France, including the time required for sailing to and from Europe. Messages from every nook and corner of France, Belgium, Italy and the British Isles are pouring into the White House urging the president to include those points in his itinerary.

One from Lord Northcliffe, publisher of the London Times, declares he "will take the opportunity of the coming week" by the great effort of aviation over, secured a citizen or statesman.

Thanksgiving Dinner to Include All "the Trimmings" Just as at Home

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Permanent dining room for the men in service, and boys will include Turkey and "the trimmings" just as at home. On both the particulars, the men will make a hotel card look like.

The food administration today made suggestions as follows for a menu on the holiday for the folks at home: Turkey, chicken, duck; goose or game, with dried bread, cranberry dressing, mashed potatoes, mashed turnips, baked tomato, cranberry sauce, lettuce or fruit salad, pumpkin pie or steamed pudding. Receipts of the administration calls for use of potatoes or sweet corn in the sweet potatoes of the above. The turkey market is reported well stocked.

PERSHING LEAGUE MAY FALL OF OWN WEIGHT

Laws of Ohio Appear to Form an Impassable Barrier to Carrying Out Plan

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 27.—It appeared unlikely today that the Pershing Republican league, incorporation papers for which were filed yesterday with the secretary of state, would be permitted to become an Ohio corporation. Secretary Fulton today submitted the question to Attorney General McChes. While the law does not specifically deny incorporation for a political party, it does prohibit the participation of any incorporation in politics.

SAYS JUSTICE IMPOSSIBLE IN SAN FRANCISCO

SEATTLE, Nov. 27.—Gang rule and corruption in San Francisco make justice remote and conditions are not understood throughout the country, declared John B. Deans, director general of the U. S. employment service, on his arrival in Seattle.

Since last June, Deans said, he had been conducting an investigation in San Francisco on behalf of the federal government. It was in the course of this general investigation he said, that he came across convincing evidence of "great corruption in the prosecution of the Mooney case."

"Prosecuting Attorney Fickert, who is the tool of interests higher up, has a body guard of bully boys and is surrounded by a lot of corruptible men who, we charge, six jurists to convict innocent men and free deep-dyed criminals."

"The jury that freed Ozman from the charge of perjury in the Mooney case, for instance, was fixed, absolutely. We have specific evidence of an attempt to frame up a witness against Mrs. Mooney. If our investigation had been started at the time the Tom Moon trial was on we would have made some interesting disclosures," concluded Deans.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF RADIO STATIONS

Initial Move for Permanent Control of Telegraph, Telephone and Cable Lines Proposed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Thanksgiving government control of commercial radio stations is proposed in a bill upon which congressional hearings will start December 12.

The move to put the wireless under permanent government ownership is regarded as the initial move in a broader program of permanent government control of telegraph, telephone and cable lines. Should the wireless measure succeed it is likely broader steps will soon be taken with respect to the phones and wires.

Postmaster General Burleson's annual report may be the foundation of his plan for government control of all the wires. He has the support of Secretaries Daniels and Baker.

STATISTICS SHOW CREDIT DUE WOMEN WAR WORKERS

Italian Parliament Is Asked to Establish New Order of Knighthood in Appreciation

ROME, Nov. 27.—Statistics just completed by the Italian government show the remarkable part that was played by the women of Italy in the conduct of the war.

Against 900,000 men employed in all of the Italian establishments engaged in the manufacture of war material, there was a total of 200,000 women and children. The contribution of the Italian women towards the war, not only in the matter of manual labor, but in every other branch, was so great that the Italian parliament has been asked to establish a new order of knighthood which will be conferred exclusively on women for services rendered during the war.

A THANKSGIVING REVIVAL

Back to the days when the Pilgrims celebrated the harvesting of their first crops;

Back to the days when the Revolutionary Fathers gave thanks for the successful termination of their long struggle;

Back to the days of Lincoln, who first proclaimed an annual National Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving now, as in those years, has a deeper meaning.

Let us dedicate ourselves to service and more service—to saving, giving and doing; working all together for the success of a Great Cause.

THE PROSPECT FLEARES.

There has been a good deal of conversation lately among all parties at interest in this war—facing practically every person in the civilized world—over the possibility that Germany, through dissolution into a number of small states, might escape the payment of indemnities that will be levied against her, to be collected as restitution, in part, for the incalculable measure of destruction she is responsible for.

This concern is relieved somewhat by the statement Tuesday of the state department of its opinion that the debt can and will be collected. The indemnity problem will be considered as a whole, the department advises, and assessments probably will be made among the various states into which we have divided.

CHILDREN STILL

Childhood has not changed much since the day King Solomon delivered himself of his famous statement, 'Spare the rod and spoil the child.'

England's 'young hopefuls' are making adults turn pessimistic, we are told, and in consequence, there has come to be a change in the Corporal Correction league, in which mothers of all classes and creeds are invited to apply for a free membership card bearing the stimulating motto, 'Whipping is to be effective, should be a science, not a slogan display,' and 'A work of national importance: making naughty children good.'

Since there is the object of this movement, good or bad, as it may be, is certain to arouse certain fearful opposition, a fuller consideration of its side for the case as given in a leaflet recently distributed by the league, is entirely desirable. The founder and director evidently thinks the child's life should be spared, for he says:

Do not hit your children on the head, which is dangerous, but (with your hand only) whip them, over your knee as our grandmothers did, where and in the same hambling way that they will feel shame. And show no temper over any of your actions, stopping in the middle of the chastisement to tell the child again—having told it before—why it is being punished.

Our friends are reasonable. This mode of punishment is to be continued until the child attains 15 years of age, and the founder of the league asserts that 'these whippings are sure to bring increased peace into the home, and so keep down worries.'

Sometimes a Royal Seal Seems to Square Things Up

HE was a 'red seal' young woman, from bronze tints to a plume that was as royally superior to the feather of commerce as, say, a princess on her throne—provided a princess has one—above the poor girl who gathers faggots in the wood (see movie). But she was not pretty. And she was so thin that even her gimp failed to hide her that she was not self-respecting crowd would care to pick.

On the opposite side of the car sat the faggot girl who had thrown the woods long enough to make a date with a flamboyant woman who also was called 'the faggot.' She was leaning over her shoulder and was pouncing out with chewing gum. The cord that strung the radiant pearls around her neck was dirty-gray, and her koudles were grimy. But her cheek, when it got a show, was the oval that Greek Phidias put on his skin. Her neck was like the snow drift that distinguished Annie Laurie. Her hair was of the velvet pluck of roses that grow in memory's garden. Her teeth were white as snow. And her eyes were midnight seas. All that and some more.

The New Watch On The Rhine

BY CHARLES B. DRISCOLL. There sounds a voice, like trumpet call, Above the noise of thrones that fall, 'The Rhine, the Rhine, the noble Rhine! Who guards today that silver line?' 'GODS! Humility, no longer thine, Humility, no danger thine; The Yankee now keep the watch, The watch on Rhine! The Yankee now keep the watch, The watch on Rhine! The tyrant that you did dwell Beside the Rhine has gone to hell; Now Yankee hands, so firm and true, Plant there the old Red White and Blue. The Yankee soldier, head held high, Swears here an oath that will not die; While his wife waters to the sea, Thy hanks of tyrants shall be free!

GETTING A START

Mrs. Newlywed—Why not buy a car, dear? Mr. Newlywed—What makes you think that? Mrs. Newlywed—Oh, my old thing. Then we'll turn it in for something better.

World Heavy With Sorrow. The world in which we are living our lives, and in which we will continue to live, is a world heavy with sorrow and sadness. The war has brought a pain which will take many years to repair. Those of us who survive will never see the end of this great task. So there is a clear task before us. We must help those who have been hurt and broken, and comfort those who have been made sorrowful. Just because the task is so big it challenges us to do our best to stop playing at being Christians, and to strive with all our might and power to do our best.

Garbage Utilization. It can be made to utilize much valuable material which would otherwise be wasted, according to a statement issued by the Connecticut Agricultural College. The report calls attention to the saving accomplished in Minneapolis, where about $500,000, or $60,000 is saved annually by using swine to consume the garbage of the city instead of burning it. Whereas Minneapolis formerly operated its garbage disposal at a loss, the city now gains $120 per ton for its garbage as hog food.

Frank Newspapers. Frank newspapers have afforded a good deal of entertainment in their day. One of the most remarkable was the Lumina, published some years ago in Madison. It was printed with ink containing phosphorus, so that the paper could be read in the dark. An equally unique production was the 'Regal.' This journal was printed with non-phosphorus ink on sheets of dough, which, after being carefully prepared, could be eaten, thus furnishing nourishment for body as well as mind.

The Girl of God. Sleep is the gift of God. We think we lay our heads upon our pillows and compose our bodies in a peaceful posture, and that therefore we naturally and necessarily fall asleep. But it is usually sleep in the sleep of God, and not a man would close his eyes and not God put his fingers on his eyelids; did not the Almighty send a soft and baneful influence over his frame which lulled his thoughts into quiescence, making him fast asleep, that his hunger state of rest-which we call sleep—Charles H. Spurgeon.

A Contending Invitation. A man named Dodgin had been appointed foreman in a brickyard, but his name was not known to all of the employees. One day while on his round he came across two men sitting in a corner smoking, and stopped near them. 'Who are you?' asked one of them. 'I'm Dodgin, the new foreman making the brick here,' replied the other workers. 'Sit down and have a smoke.'

Bear a Destroyer of Salmon. The bear is a great destroyer of salmon. He is so fond of them that he will eat only the salmon cheeks and will consume one-third of his weight in this delicate fish each day. When his hunger is satisfied he abuses himself by tossing the fish out on the banks. The fish are in the stream to spawn, and the egg destruction is by no means insignificant.

To See is to Believe. 'If I come in your yard will you dog bite me?' asked Jerry Willis. 'No, not unless, mister,' replied the woman of the house, 'but the man who sold him to us says that he'll chase a tramp 10 miles without stopping. But I'm not going to believe it till I see it done.'—Tropic's Home Journal.

DRASTIC RULES TO REGULATE FLU EPIDEMIC

County Board of Health Requires Strict Quarantine of Patient and Building in Which He is Housed

Regulations adopted by the county board of health at a meeting here last Saturday for the purpose of preventing the spread of influenza and protecting the health of the citizens of the county, consist of ten separate orders providing for "stringent quarantine" against individuals suffering from the disease, their attendants and members of their families, and also providing for precautions to be taken in respect to sanitation and disinfection of articles of public use.

The orders, signed by Dr. C. C. McGinnis, secretary, and attested to by O. E. Carlton, chairman of the county board of health on Monday, are, in full as follows:

Gives Physician Discretion
It is hereby ordered that every person having influenza or other contagious or infectious disease be quarantined, and that the building in which such person may be located be quarantined and placarded, provided, that at the discretion of the county physician a quarantine of hotels or rooming houses may be lifted at the discretion of the county physician under sufficient sanitary precautionary arrangements after the removal of such patients.

That each and every physician and surgeon within Twin Falls county be designated a representative of the board of health and that he be ordered to report immediately to the county physician the name and address of every person affected with influenza of which they have knowledge. This to be done under penalty of the law.

That any person knowing himself to have been exposed to the disease of influenza or other person having the influenza, whether in congregation or consult a practicing physician and then submit to the order of such physician.

Bans on Lodging
That public meetings, religious, political, or otherwise, and congregating and lodging in public places be deferred and discontinued until the further

GEO. F. ALLEN IS DEATH'S VICTIM

Prominent Citizen of Filer Succumbs After Brief Illness From Influenza

George F. Allen, secretary and treasurer of the Reynolds Brothers Hardware and Implement company, died at his home in Filer after an illness of a week's duration from influenza and pneumonia. Death came unexpectedly, it being reported Saturday when he seemed to have improved considerably, that Mr. Allen probably would return to his work Tuesday or Wednesday.

The death of Mr. Allen is a serious loss to the community in which he lived, and where he held large property interests. Mr. Allen came to Idaho about 12 years ago from Chicago. He invested in town lots in the Jerome townsite. He was for some time manager of various yards of the Gem State of the Nibley-Chamuel Lumber company yard at Filer, leaving this position to become associated with the Reynolds Brothers company about two years ago.

Mr. Allen is survived by his widow, who was Miss Bess M. Sommer, daughter of G. Sommer of Filer, and two children.

The first step was the delivery to the several district colonels of blank receipts and other supplies which will be distributed by them among their several captains. This work was completed Tuesday, at Collier, county director of War Savings Stamps, announced today.

Original quota for the county exclusive of the Bull district, was $335,000. Investments up to date leave the amount to be raised in the honor drive yet to be paid.

Only cash or agreements to pay the subscription on or before Christmas day will be accepted by the subscription committee.

Following is an official statement of the quota for each of the several districts in the coming honor drive, as set forth by Director Gilbert:

- Quotas for Districts
- Twins Falls 455,000
 - Filer 26,000
 - Kimberly 12,000
 - Hansen 10,500
 - Mortuague 6,000
 - Hillsdale 5,000
 - Rogerson 3,000
 - Nikest 3,000
 - Milner 2,000

- War Leaders
- Director Gilbert to be assisted in this campaign by Stewart H. Taylor, E. L. Macvivor and W. R. Price.
 - In Twin Falls the colonels are H. J. Klugberg, O. S. McCormick, W. V. Jensen and C. S. McHenry.

Telegram Telling of Illness at Home Reached Son in Hospital at Fort Douglas
(Special to The News)
HOOK CREEK—Mrs. Susan Gray is a victim of the influenza, having been confined to her bed for several days. She was alone at the time she was stricken a telegram was sent to her youngest son, Jack, at Fort Douglas but he was under quarantine and unable to come. Mrs. Fritz who is caring for the mother of Mrs. Gray, gave all possible attention until Mrs. Jones who was nursing at the home of Perry Jones could be released to attend her.

FARM BUREAU URGES PASSAGE OF NEW LEGISLATION

County Organization Names Committee to Draft and Submit Proposed Measures for Approval of Membership

A committee to draft proposed measures of legislation enactment of which is sought by the farm bureau at the next session of the Idaho legislature has been named by the executive and advisory committees of the Twin Falls county organization to consist of the following: W. F. Alford, Twin Falls, president of the state and county farm bureau organizations; Frank DeKlotz, Filer, member of the county executive committee, and Conny Agard, Donald McLean, Ellettsville, Pa., members.

Among the measures likely to be recommended by this committee are proposed legislation for regulating the relations between farm laborers and employers, improvement of marketing conditions and further provision for controlling rodent pests and other crop pests.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

"Wizards Will Be a Relief, Antiseptic Preservative"
During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "flu germs."
Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Grip then leads to influenza. Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza. Get it from druggists for 30c. It has been returned to the bottle and get your money back. Ever congested or have sick headaches? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at drug stores. Guaranteed.

Things [in]furious to Fish.
The mutant skeletons of trees which are so conspicuous in the "red" regions show the effects of sulphur gases on vegetation, and the influence of mine water on fish life may be readily imagined. The heavy bedrock covers over the gravelly spawning beds, and suffocates the eggs, thus inflicting injury on the fishes at the lowest vulnerable point. The gravel is the "concrete" of nature. In its insatiable hunger has well-nigh devoured our forests, and not content with the decision it has proffered in this way on land, it is ruining our lakes and rivers by sandbars.

How Mosquitoes Hatch.

We have all heard about the mosquito's habit of laying its eggs on the surface of still water in the form of a raft, which floats about until hatching time arrives. But it is only some species that do that. In the Catskill region, and elsewhere among the mountains of the North and East, there is a kind of mosquito that deposits its eggs during July in dry hollows in the ground. Then the following spring arrives the snow melting from the hills fills the hollows with water, and in May the eggs hatch out.

Natural Sequences.

In one of his essays Aristotle says this: "It has been noticed that land that produces beautiful flowers and succulent fruits also produces a very excellent, intelligent and able class of men." Aristotle's "noticed" seemed to look upon this as a sort of coincidence, but later in life he discovered that in stead of being a coincidence it was a sequence.

Canals in Sponges.

Most sponges have a canal system, and there is a continual current of sea water passing through it always flowing in the same direction. The water is made to flow in that way by a series of peculiar cells, the like of which has not been found in any of the higher animals. The sponges depend entirely for their life on this water current.

Toacco Raising in Scotland.

During the American Civil war tobacco became an item that several unsuccessful attempts were made in Scotland for its cultivation. The chief agent of the new culture was in the neighborhood of Kyles, where it succeeded so well that sixteen and one-half statute acres brought $320 per acre.

Produce Markets

Below are given prevailing prices paid by Twin Falls dealers for hay, grain and other produce. Quotations are expressed fully and are as accurate as it is humanly possible to make them:

Table listing prices for various commodities: Grains (Alfalfa, Wheat, Barley, Oats), Stock (Hog, Calf, Cow, Lamb, Spring chickens, Hens), Produce (Butter, Eggs, Potatoes, Carrots, Onions, Cauliflower, Beets), Livestock (Hogs, Heifers, Cows, Mutton, Lamb).

First Called Sleuthhounds Bloodhounds were first known as sleuthhounds, owing to their ability to track the deer, wild boar or the wolf. When the wounded game broke away and was dead, these good-nosed dogs went in to trail the quarry by the blood trail, and hence they were finally called bloodhounds.

Interesting Discovery The "Roman occupation" of England was recalled by a discovery made a few days ago at Stalbridge, Dorset. Working in his garden, a man dug up a skeleton. Examining it he found it to be in a perfect state of preservation, the teeth being quite sound. In the month was a coin bearing the inscription of Caesar Augustus.

Women Soldiers in China China had women soldiers long before they were known in Russia. During the Tsa Ping rebellion, 1850, women as well as men served in the ranks. Working in an army of 50,000 women were recruited. They were divided into squads of 15,000 each and were commanded by women officers.

What They Left Behind. We know of a lot of men who didn't leave much behind them in the way of actual cash accumulated but they did leave families rich in the memories of the happiness they had while they were alive.

Memories of the Crowded City. "This ark is terribly crowded with all these animals about," remarked Joseph to the Shem. "And it's lonely at that. It makes me think of one of those apartment houses where they let people have all kinds of pets and won't admit children."

Method. "How did you get the reputation at being so wise?" "I talk with a man till I discover something he doesn't know anything about. Then I pretend to explain it to him."—Washington Star.

A Fantastic Terror. "It's curious how soldier uniforms always show an influence on female fastidiousness." "Yes," replied Miss Coyne. "But I hope we won't keep on shortening skirts until we begin to imitate the Scottish Highlanders."

Would Puzzle Societas. Were Societas to come across a man now he would probably want to know why Mexican potatoes have no milk stains on their tails, and neither do peaches.

Hoover's Job to Supply World Food

France and Belgium to Be Taken Care of First, Rest of Europe Afterwards

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Herbert Hoover's arrival here is believed to hold possibilities of the first step in application of the community of nations idea, through providing the world with food.

The first "world food administration" has been in almost continual conference with various allied officials since reaching Paris. It is believed he will first find in solving the problems of feeding the people in the devastated regions of France and Belgium, and will then take up the broader phases of the central empire.
