OUTLINES HIS VIEWS ON FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY

Chief Executive in Annual Message Pronounces in Favor of Modified Control of Railroads With Greater Measure of Public Regulation — Explains Peace Trip as Duty to America

RAPID DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS URGED IN INTERESTS OF FIGHTING MEN

PASSAGE OF WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE The chief executive's message to Congress today is a plea for the immediate resumption of development of public works to provide employment for returning soldiers. Immediate determination of terms for 1919, 1920 and 1921 and lifting as much tax burden from business as government needs will permit. Priority of distribution of American raw materials to war-stricken nations. Complete consummation of the three year naval program. Leave determination of railroads' future to congress but recommends against return to pre-war conditions of railroad control unmodified. Urges railroad control question be studied by congress immediately to quickly remove doubts of their future. Declaration of arid, swamp and cut-over land. Peace based upon international justice, not merely domestic safety.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S REASON FOR ATTENDING THE PEACE CONFERENCE

"The greatest men of our armed forces have fought for the ideals which they know to be the ideals of their country. I owe it to them to see to it that no false mistake interpretation is put upon their acts. It was my duty to play my full part, in making good what they offered their life's blood to obtain. I can think of no call to service which would transcend this. Democratic members and large groups in the galleries here and abroad.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Declaring that present governmental agencies can handle the routine problems of readjustment, President Wilson today said the chief need of the country is development of its railroads, waterways, highways and country roads. "The old system of handling railroads," he said, "brought conditions of restraint without development." "Some new element of policy is absolutely necessary," he declared, "for the service rendered of credit and protection of stock holders." "I frankly turn you over for counsel," he said, "which Republican in the joint congress session, hearing him, laughed."

ESTIMATES FOR YEAR TO COME GIVEN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Government expenditures for the next year were officially estimated at $8,089,867,232.07. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo transmitted to the house of representatives the total estimate of appropriations required for various departments of the government during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920.

It includes the sinking fund requirement and postal revenue appropriation. The total is $2,276,760,055.97 less the total estimate of appropriations required for various departments of the government during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920.

Of the estimate the navy department asked $2,650,081,051.16. The list, with the war department a close second, asking $2,650,081,051.16. Secretary of the treasury asked more than double that of the original estimate for the navy for 1919 while the war department's was only about half that of the original estimate for 1919 and about 10 per cent of what was finally actually appropriated for the military establishment for 1919.

CONGRESS INDICATES MUCH DISSATISFACTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Congressional displeasure because President Wilson had to observe the peace negotiations and keep the powers which his treaty ratification powers, in touch with the president, was made manifest by the passage of a resolution to declare the president's handling of the negotiations at the peace conference while President Wilson is in Europe.

ASK PRESIDENTIAL VICES

ZURICH, Dec. 2.—The local American press is asking the German government to ask President Wilson to visit Berlin or some German port while he is in Europe.

DECREE OF ABDICATION QUESTIONED

Berlin Admits Chaotic Conditions, Various Factions Show Complete Lack of Harmony On Every Point

By WILLIAM PHILLIP SIMMS PARIS, Dec. 2.—That Germany is carrying a surprise upon her sleeve in the contention here. A coup d'etat is not regarded as improbable. The Kaiser's decree of abdication is not satisfactory. Many believe it is only a bluff for the benefit of the table. The junkers and workmen and soldiers are fighting among themselves, and Berlin admits there are no masters of the situation.

A German official declared today that the United States must stand by the allies—that Europeans never needed American money now, while anything is left in Japan or Germany. "The role of the United States which was decisive in the war, is equally important in negotiations for peace," declared the German.

Discover Plot to Restore Kaiser

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A plot to restore the Kaiser has been discovered and frustrated in Berlin, the American correspondent of the New York Times writes. Some German army officers were plotting to restore the Kaiser. The conspiracy was exposed through a telephone leak. Knowledge of it came into possession of French Field Marshal Foch.

American Advance Moves Steadily On

Yank Troops Going Forward In Advance to Rhensish Prussia in Accordance With Terms

WITH THE AMERICANS IN PRUSSIA, Dec. 2.—The American advance will be resumed into Rhensish Prussia this morning. The advance is being made considerably to the north and the third army will camp tonight an average of 20 miles inside the German frontier, occupying Bitburg and dozens of smaller towns.

CONGRESS INDICATES MUCH DISSATISFACTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Congressional displeasure because President Wilson had to observe the peace negotiations and keep the powers which his treaty ratification powers, in touch with the president, was made manifest by the passage of a resolution to declare the president's handling of the negotiations at the peace conference while President Wilson is in Europe.

CURIOUS SCENES WITNESSED ON AMERICAN ENTRY INTO HUN CITY

FEAR OF YANKS IS SOON DISPELLED BY EXEMPLARY CONDUCT OF TROOPS

Germans Look on in Silent Wonder, Church Bells Toll and Armed Citizens' Committees Patrol Streets—Enemy Flags Conspicuous By Their Absence—Little Friendliness Exhibited

By WEBB MILLER WITH THE AMERICANS IN PRUSSIA, Dec. 1 (Via Courier to Navy).—The third army today occupied about 400 square miles of German territory, including scores of towns and villages. The Americans encountered little hostility from the inhabitants. Hundreds lined the streets. In Treves there was a notable silence in the great sixth infantry of the fifth division, marched in and occupied the city.

The band was playing and regimental flags flying as the regiment swung through the principal streets, led by Colonel Henry Hunt. The people stood staring curiously, or followed quietly behind the Americans.

Reoccupation of Belgium Complete With Liege Entry

Official Announcement Made of Royal Family's Arrival in Famous City of War

LONDON, Dec. 2.—British Admiralty Wireless.—The Belgian communication of November 26 says: "The royal family made its entry into Liege at the head of the army. The Belgian army, after heroic defense of this city, the king and queen, General Lemane and the troops were enthusiastically acclaimed by cheering crowds."

Reoccupation of Belgium is thus officially completed. Liege, where the first great battle of the war was fought, was the last important city to be reoccupied. The army is in Prussia, at the junction of the Belgian, Dutch and German frontiers.

FIRST LOAD OF YANKEES REACH HOME

Four-Thousand Fighting Men From Battlefields of Europe Arrive at New York on S. S. Mauretania

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Bearing the first load of American troops to come home from Europe since the war ended, the big Cunard liner Mauretania emerged from the chill fogs that shrouded the lower bay today, received a vociferous welcome and docked at her fourteenth street pier. There the 4,000 troops, mostly aviation units, had been waiting in England, were transferred to ferry boats and taken around the lower end of Manhattan to Long Island City, where they awaited for Camp Mills.

There are 326 officers and 3,674 enlisted men aboard including 116 sick and wounded. The troops will be ferried to Long Island City and sent to Camp Mills by train.

The Mauretania passed quarantine and proceeded on its harbor, past the battery and the city, where she was met by the troops. Her deck was crowded with the khaki-clad, home-coming Yankees. A great cheering of whistles greeted her. Many harbor craft showed their horns. Passengers, peering from the deck, lined the rails to cheer the troops. Some people sought vantage points in upper windows of skyscrapers commanding a view of the bay, and a crowd gathered in Battery park to yell their welcome.

Mauretania Wins All The Mauretania, which left Liverpool last Monday, was a friendly although a spirited rivalry for the honor of being the first vessel to bring the returning troops to America in large numbers. Three other large vessels loaded with

KAISER'S GRIP ON GERMANY NOT YET DESTROYED

Men in Charge of Country's Destinies Today Form Nucleus of Group of Royalist Supporters

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Reports from Berlin that the Kaiser has signed a formal document renouncing the throne and abdicating all officials from their oath of allegiance to him, do not mean an end has been made to the conspiracy to return the Hohenzollerns to power.

Having broken his word to civilization, Hohenzollerns would not hesitate to recall his renunciation of the throne if conditions warranted. The fact that German officials have been relieved of their pledge of loyalty to the head of the Hohenzollerns is valueless in view of the inherent antagonism of the German official class to popular rule.

The most favorable factor in the situation for the return of Hohenzollerns to Germany is the continued retention of their positions by the same old reactionary officials who were appointed under the former regime. This part of the German population is not in sympathy with the curious socialist experiment in conservative government now being undertaken by the Berlin plotters. The army itself is commanded by the same ultra-militarists who gave their military oath to Hohenzollern and who have been intractably educated in the doctrine of imperialism.

German Restoration

The real machinery of government therefore, and the chiefs of the army, undoubtedly imbued with a sense of loyalty to Hohenzollerns, are bound together by a community of ideas. Here is a strong nucleus for the growth of the idea of a monarchical restoration. There is little evidence that the Germans blame their plight on their own sins or the sins of the militarists. Rather, the blame is piled upon the rest of the world which leagueed itself against Germany. This feeling of resentment against the plans which grew in Germany, its fondness will be to unite all Germans together. Through that spirit Hohenzollerns may yet find his way back to the throne.

MAKES STRADY ADVANCE

LONDON, Dec. 8.—British troops have advanced into Prussia to the depth of nearly 15 miles on a 30-mile front, joining with the Americans on their left, near the northern extremity of East Prussia.

The advance was made by the Second army, under General Plumer, which crossed the German frontier yesterday between Behm and Eupen. The British reached the general line of the sharp bend, Bullingen and Mooklath.

SHIP AWAITS PLEASURE OF THE PRESIDENT

Transport George Washington in Readiness to Carry Peace Delegates to Scene of Conference

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The transport George Washington is tied up at Pier 4, Hoboken, today, ready to take aboard President Wilson, his guests, and American delegates to the peace conference. The big vessel, under command of Rear Admiral B. C. B. and anchored in the harbor, is being readied for the presidential party. Naval cooks will not be required to cater to them, as a crew of fifty culinary experts, confectioners, bakers, and waiters from a famous hotel, have been put aboard.

The peace delegates and other guests are expected to board the George Washington before 3 o'clock Tuesday, at which hour she is scheduled to steam out to Gravesend Bay and anchor awaiting President Wilson.

The battleship Pennsylvania, flying the flag of Admiral Henry T. Mayo, will proceed from Brooklyn Navy yard to meet the vessel, with an escort of five of the fastest destroyers.

The presidential party is to occupy the suites and cabins on the promenade deck. These have been entirely decked out and refurnished for the trip. They are described as plain, but homelike.

An orchestra will go along playing at dinner and on special occasions. The Brooklyn Navy yard band will give concerts on the deck and will play when the George Washington enters the harbor of Brest, which is expected to be on December 10 or 11.

EUROPEAN IMMIGRANTS WOULD RETURN HOME

Definite Steps to Be Taken to Keep Present Population Intact

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The keep-the-boy-on-the-farm campaign so popular just before the war, is to be applied in a bigger way to preventing emigration of 2,000,000 workmen and their families from this country.

Information is said to have been presented at the last meeting showing that at least 2,000,000 families of former residents of southeastern Europe were going to return to their native countries and take advantage of the new opportunities expected to spring up there.

POPE EXPECTS CONFERENCE TO HELP HIM OUT

Holy See Will Request Session to Take Up Matter of Trouble Between Throne and Vatican

ROME, Dec. 8.—The report that Pope Benedict will request the peace conference to take up the Roman question and effect a settlement between the Vatican and the Quirinal was confirmed today in high Vatican circles.

According to the same authority, the Pope already has personally prepared a plan by which he would have greater freedom of motion to while establishing a station in the Vatican would permit the latter to transmit its official communications to foreign governments and papal nuncios without using the Italian telegraph lines.

Relative to the annually 3,000,000 francs which the government placed at the disposal of the Holy See in 1917, but which the latter never accepted and which had automatically reverted to the government every six years, the Pope proposes that the government shall pay this into a permanent endowment fund, from which the Vatican will accept the interest.

MOVIE ACTOR IS BENEDICT AGAIN

Douglas Fairbanks Divorced. Custody of Child Goes to Wife

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Douglas Fairbanks, the movie actor, has been divorced. Attorney Harry Mahabatt, for Mrs. Betty Fairbanks, announced today that she had won a decree. The decree was signed by Supreme Court Justice J. Adolph Young in his chambers at New York.

The couple were married at Watch Hill, R. I., on July 11, 1907, and they have one child, Douglas, Jr., eight years of age. His custody is given absolutely to his mother.

For individual party line, $3.50; extension station $3.50; for each trunk line connecting a private branch exchange $3.50; and to cover directory, official and switchboard expense $1.50.

Service connecting charges are to be additional to mileage charges. This order goes into effect December 1, and is applicable to all lines under the supervision of the postmaster general.

A charge of $3 will be made for moving a telephone and must in no case exceed the connection charge of any subscriber.

The statement issued August 8, relative to charges for moves and changes is revoked.

HELP RUSSIA IN A MATERIAL WAY

Three Ships Enroute to Vladivostok With Implements and Food

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Russian bureau of the United States war trade board, organized recently at the direction of the president, has opened commercial relations with Russia and Siberia, it was announced today by Vance McCormick, chairman of the board.

Three vessels have left Pacific ports for Vladivostok, carrying supplies of agricultural implements food, clothing and structural equipment. The object of the corporation is to assist Russia in stabilizing her economic situation by carrying American products into channels not touched by regular trade routes and bringing raw material into this country.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS REACH NEWPORT NEWS

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 8.—Seven hundred wounded soldiers arrived here on a hospital train Saturday afternoon from Newport News.

The men were taken immediately to the government base hospital at West Hampton, where they will be stationed pending further disposition.

It has not been determined whether the soldiers will be allowed to remain here until they are entirely recovered or be distributed among other hospitals.

This is the largest contingent yet received at the hospital.

WILL GIVE HIM CHANCE TO ANSWER FOR CRIMES

Former Kaiser to Have Full Opportunity to Explain His Motives

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Count William Hohenkollern will be given full opportunity to answer the charges against him; Attorney General F. E. Smith declared in a campaign speech.

"If he is returned to Germany or is held in detention, the coalition governments will insist upon the personal responsibility of the former Kaiser for the crimes for which he is chiefly and personally responsible," said Smith.

"The coalition is determined to give him an opportunity to answer the charges."

Smith intimated that no attempt would be made to punish the former Kaiser until after the British elections.

HELPING HAND IS EXTENDED TO FOREIGN BORN

Government Inspires Work of Cementing Many Races and Peoples into One Homogeneous Nation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—With the coming of peace, the bureau of naturalization of the United States department of labor is charged with continuing the work which has been shown to have been already well established, of cementing the many races and peoples represented in this country's population into one homogeneous nation. This achievement of national unity involving the assimilation of 17,500,000 alien born residents of this country, is the peculiar task of this bureau, which is beginning this season the greatest campaign in its history to effect its aims.

Realization of the ideal of America as the melting pot in which the peoples of many lands are fused into a new and characteristic national type is the purpose of this bureau's Americanization work. Last May, congress passed a law to Americanize every man and woman of foreign birth in this country, and it chose the bureau of naturalization to have charge of the citizenship training which will be carried on through the public schools.

War Wields Nationality

Foreigners are becoming citizens by hundreds of thousands every year, and the war has done much to promote interest in America among the aliens living here. There are still, however, many difficulties in the way of a successful accomplishment of the great task to make every inhabitant of this country American in thought, word and action.

For example, there are 500,000 foreigners in New York city who cannot read, write, or speak English. Probably 150 languages are spoken in this city. There are between ten and twelve million persons in this country who owe allegiance to other nations. In no other country in the world is there so great a percentage of aliens.

The bureau of naturalization is closely in touch with the foreign-born, through its own government organization. Through its naturalization ex-saminers, it has gained acquaintance with about three million immigrants, and during the last four years, the schools have been their great work of instructing the millions of others to the essentials of American citizenship.

Learn Language First

The first thing taught is the English language—conversation, reading, and writing. Every foreigner is admitted to be told that he speaks English like an American. The appeal of every applicant for citizenship, asking him to go to an evening class in the public schools of his city. It also furnishes free textbooks to these men and women, and will recognize the value of the public schools as a certificate of graduation, presented jointly by the government and the schools to foreigners when they come into American citizenship.

First Museum

The first museum was part of the Palace of Alexandria, where leopards were maintained at the public court, just as eminent public servants were in the Pyramids at Athens. Its foundation is attributed to Proxenus Philadelphia about 280 B. C.

It costs more to live—so you must increase your earning power. Why not advertise for a better position?

Employers of aliens can aid in the work by having their workmen, particularly those who are deficient in the knowledge of English or of American institutions, enter the evening citizenship classes at once. Those who have foreign-born friends or acquaintances who are not thoroughly naturalized can see to it that they throw off the foreign influence by urging them, in a friendly manner, to enroll in one of the classes.

Villa Abandons His Attack on Juarez

Bandit Leader Retreats to foothills in Face of Superior Forces

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 30.—Villa has abandoned plans for attacking Juarez, according to Carranza officials today. Reported arrival of Federal General Francisco Murrula with 3,000 Carranza soldiers at Villa Ahumada, in the rear of the bandit, caused Villa to retire west to the foothills. Doubling the number of Carranza reinforcements, women and children continued to desert Juarez for safety in El Paso.

Two Americans, A. M. Tinney and Donald Best, are believed to have been cut off at Villa Ahumada by the presence of hostile north of that town. Railway communications are still interrupted.

CONGRESSMEN MANY IMPROVING

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Representative James R. Mann of Chicago, who is under the care of Dr. Baker at John Hopkins' hospital for the strengthening of his nervous system, which has been broken up by the steady grind in congress, has improved since being admitted to Hopkins. He will probably leave for Washington the early part of next week, where he will resume his duties in congress.

EVERYBODY WEARS MASKS

DES MOINES, Dec. 4.—Des Moines was going about masked this afternoon. The city health board ordered all citizens to wear the masks as an influenza preventive and announced all masks unmasked after 8 o'clock tomorrow evening would be arrested.

The masks must be worn all time except in private homes, when only members of the household are present.

PRISONERS COMING BACK

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Two hundred and fifty American officers and soldiers, were due to arrive in Lyons today. A fifth of the motor trucks Germany is required to deliver to the allies under the armistice terms arrived at the frontier yesterday.

RUSSIAN BLACK SEA FLEET NOW IN HANDS OF ALLIES

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Russian ships in German hands, and all German submarines, have been surrendered to the allies in the Black Sea, the admiral publicly announced this evening.

The first museum was part of the Palace of Alexandria, where leopards were maintained at the public court, just as eminent public servants were in the Pyramids at Athens. Its foundation is attributed to Proxenus Philadelphia about 280 B. C.

It costs more to live—so you must increase your earning power. Why not advertise for a better position?

of naturalization, and in co-operation with the public schools, is extending a helping hand to every alien who comes here. If they realize their opportunity they will embrace it gladly.

The courts are showing through appreciation of what the bureau and the schools are doing, for they have in the last two years recommended that 75,000 aliens take the citizenship courses—more than the total number of aliens admitted to citizenship in three years of the last decade.

Natives Show Pathetic Interest in Shoes and Clothing of American Soldiers During Advance

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Nov. 25—(delayed)—“They regarded us like beings from another planet” is the way an American soldier describes the reception of the Americans in towns behind the German lines.

Private Richardson, of Worcester, Mass., was among the first to penetrate as far as the Rhine. In every town great crowds gathered and stared at the party with unusual interest. They displayed no hostility only a remarkable curiosity.

Richardson said the people were astounded by an officer's huge automobile and examined its rubber tires. The people took the texture of his clothes and asked to examine his shoes. Shoes apparently were very scarce.

Richardson saw well dressed women wearing men's second-hand shoes. And whenever an automobile halted it was surrounded by crowds gazing helplessly and wonderingly. Women held up babies to look at the Americans.

Soldiers seeing Richardson smoking American cigarettes offered to trade an entire package of theirs for one cigarette.

WANTS KAIJERS BACK

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 2.—General Von Sits has announced that the German army will never countenance a socialist republic, and wants the Kaiser back, according to a dispatch from Brunswick received today.

Don't you want it? Advertise it in the Classified Column and get rid of it.

“Foreigners have no right to take part in the politics of their countries. That the president of the United States would attend the peace conference, has always been regarded here as a matter of politics, but as an essential factor in the situation. It would be unthinkable to us, for example, that Premier Lloyd-George should not be at the peace conference.”

“I am not in a position to speak for France, but cannot conceive it possible that the peace conference should take place without Premier Clemenceau as one of the French representatives.”

“The whole discussion shows the danger that, always existing on international negotiations, is that it is generally evident from cables we are now getting that many citizens of the United States, Democrats as well as Republicans object to the president's voyage. I can only say that we cannot comprehend that situation.”

Suffering Gives Right

“Britain and her four sister nations, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, have had nearly 900,000 men killed. People of all shades of opinion here realize that our head, Premier Lloyd-George, must be at the peace conference to look after the interests of a nation like ours that has suffered so terribly.”

“The United States has played a great part in the war, and the Germans have consistently addressed the president.”

“As a foreigner, although a warm friend of the United States, an expert on the view of American politicians, though I have, of course, many views—but I may be allowed to say, as an expression of personal opinion, that if these conferences were held without President Wilson the whole European world would think that there was something very wrong indeed with these conferences.”

On German Frontier

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(night)—“Our advanced troops reached the German frontier on the whole front, from just north of the Duchy of Luxemburg to the neighborhood of Epos (a front of about 40 miles)”, Field Marshal Haig announced tonight.

Report, Mourns Two Young Men Who Have Made Supreme Sacrifice in War for Humanity

(Special to The News)

BUDET.—Death in action. In France of two young men of this community who had been Boyhood friends, Bugler Robert E. Helm and Private Robert J. Hillman, is announced in the recent casualty lists.

The death of Bugler Helm October 21, was officially reported Friday to his mother, Mrs. Susan Helm. He entered the military service in July, 1917, at Camp Lewis. The last letter received from him by his mother, under date of September 25, stated that he had not yet been to the front. It is assumed that he sacrificed his life in the final drive that caused the German surrender. He was a member of B company, 351st Infantry. He was 23 years of age and had lived for ten years at the family home near here.

He was called home January 31, 1917, from Camp Lewis to attend his father's funeral. He leaves, besides his mother, two brothers, William and Roy, and a sister, Grace, all residing here.

Private Hillman was killed between August 3 and 12, according to word received Saturday by his mother, Mrs. E. N. Lewis. “Bob” Hillman, as he was known best to his friends, was well known here, having made his home in Baret for ten years. He was connected with the reclamation service for a number of years and helped to build the Maladota dam. He went to the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming where he was employed. For a few months in the reclamation service before he enlisted on February 23, 1918, in Montana. He enjoyed training in North Carolina and called May 3 for France. The last letter received from him by his mother was dated June 18.

PRICE OF BREAD JUMPS A NOTCH

Two Local Bakeries Say Food Administration Maximum Is Too Low

The price of bread delivered in Twin Falls was raised today from 10 cents to 12 1/2 cents a loaf, announcements to this effect being made by the Royal and Home Lake shops. In consideration of the increased price, the consumer gets his bread wrapped in a sealed wrapper. It is possible, however, still to secure a 10 cent loaf made by the First Premium bakery, but, it is stated this loaf is not delivered at this price.

Buy Figures Outlines

Both bakeries which jointly announce the raise in the price of bread state that it is impossible to make and deliver a loaf of bread for 10 cents. They declare that the requirements of the national food administration for a maximum price of 10 cents a loaf for bread is unjust and is based upon inaccurate cost figures furnished by smaller shops which do not have cost systems and by larger establishments where the cost per loaf in consideration of the large volume of product, is relatively low.

W. Stenz Smith of the Royal bakery, declares his investigation shows that the average actual cost of producing bread in Northern Idaho bakeries is 93 cents per loaf.

Under the new scale of prices, the bakeries making in the ratio agree to deliver to the dealer wrapped bread for 11 cents a loaf. Hereafter they have been furnishing an unwrapped loaf to the dealer for 10 cents. The cost of wrapping is given at 1.18 cents per loaf.

Addition T. Smith Furnishes Information Regarding Artillerymen

The Twin Falls unit of the Second Idaho regiment, reported last week headquarters company—the One Hundred Forty-sixth field artillery regiment, was reported November 7, with that organization at Montefiore, France, and has not yet been listed to return, according to telegraphic advice, received Saturday from Representative Addison T. Smith by E. J. Ostrander at Twin Falls.

The Nose Dive

"The nose dive" is a dangerous maneuver, says an aviation teacher. The nose dive is not only dangerous in aviation, but in judgment as well. A nose dive into a juicy proposition, but it isn't in the long run like a premium strawberry.—Houston Post.

IF THEY'RE HIGH, THEY'RE HIGH, BUT WHEN LOW, WHEW!!!

Colleen—These always happen at occasions. They're high—see very low. First two models from the big city shops prove this. At the top, a glimpse of halter and that new low a high neck collar. Next lower, an interesting Buster Brown style. Then into the low ones. At a big party, that charming set seen earlier ornamented with white organdy braid and French lace, twelve bows at the bottom is a soft touch with the postmodern in every line.

Sugar Restrictions Dropped For Good

Official Announcement of Removal of Limit Received by County Administrator

The food conservation program no longer contains any restrictions as to the purchase and consumption of sugar. Official announcement of this fact is made in the following advice received Saturday by County Food Administrator C. E. Munson from the national food administration:

"Effective December 1, the warehousing of sugar will be permitted, and the distribution of sugar on the certificate plan is eliminated.

See the world's only record of the crime that shocked humanity

THE SINKING OF THE LUSITANIA

Fortunately or unfortunately, the world has a visible record of the sinking of the Lusitania, the greatest tragedy of the war, and the final impetus which drove us into it. True, we have had word pictures, but they draw largely upon the imagination. It has remained for Lord to give to the world through the famous artist, Winsor McCay, a living picture of the sinking of the Lusitania, and in a way, this is more effective than an actual moving picture of the sinking could possibly be. It is a remarkable piece of work. It is the only record of the world will ever have of its most momentous catastrophe. In every way it is as authentic as possible.

Winsor McCay obtained his first idea of the actual sinking from the noted war correspondent, August F. B. Case, who was the first newspaperman to obtain the detailed stories of the survivors who reached land. It is impossible to over-estimate the importance of Mr. Bosch's analytical report, the mechanical problems of which were worked out by Lieutenant-Commander J. H. Bennett, U. S. N. Twenty-two months of work and twenty-five thousand separate drawings entered into this production.

MILESTONE IN HISTORY

Of the two hundred Americans who died on the Lusitania on May 1, 1915, the Jewel Production, "The Sinking of the Lusitania," shows four whose names are familiar to every man, woman and child in the English world. They are Elbert Hubbard, modern philosopher and author; Charles Kiffin, distinguished American playwright; Alfred G. Vanderbilt, multi-millionaire philanthropist; and Charles Frohman, the world's foremost theatrical manager. Each met death in his own way on the ill-fated ship, the sinking of which by a German submarine thrust us into the last world war.

This is a one-part Motion Picture made from 25,000 separate drawings by the famous artist, Winsor McCay. It required 22 months of work. A most dramatic and thrilling sea picture of the crime that shocked the entire civilized world.

SURVEY SHOWS SAVING EXTENT THROUGH COUNTY

Average Consumption of Substitutes is Better Than Fifty Per Cent During Period of Food Control Regulation

Nine hundred forty-four families in Twin Falls county averaging four persons to each family, consumed an average of two and three-fourths pounds of sugar per person per month during the months of July, August and September...

How Wheat Was Saved The average monthly consumption of wheat flour per family was 21 pounds as against an average monthly consumption per person of 24 pounds of wheat flour substitute.

Six hundred thirty-three families reported gardens grown by them, 154 reporting surplus supplies of vegetables. Three hundred ninety-one families reported that they will be supplied for the entire year with stored, canned and dried fruits and vegetables and 355 families are supplied in this way for a part of the year.

Conservation Suggestions Here are some of the conservation suggestions received: Dry cherries to use in place of raisins. Banish desserts. Use more vegetables and fruit. Kill off all wood rotters. Employ someone to inspect all poultry yards. Preserve what you raise.

On farms use butter and cream very small amounts (if those of land or other land substitutes). Use honey for a delicious taste and cheap. Take 1 pt. strained honey and 1 cup water. Mix and let simmer a few minutes. We like it better this way and it goes farther.

Use salt in preserving and jelly making: Where you have a juice that will jelly, several cups less of sugar than usual may be used. If you have a quart of juice, mix it back where it will jelly very slowly. Stir in 1/2 teaspoonful soda. Stir—Keep skimming until no more scum rises and the strong sour taste is destroyed. Then use a smaller amount of sugar than usual. You will have a nice, mild jam, jelly or preserve.

Waste nothing: Learn to combine left-over foods so that they are tasty and nourishing. Keep a small bag of salt sack for soap scraps—both laundry and toilet soap, and use bag and all for toilet washing. Discontinue the production of all luxuries. Save sugar by the cold pack method in canning. Use the cheaper cuts of meat for making meat stews. This will tend to lower the cost of meat and will also conserve meat.

Limit candy to children only and have that stick candy. Can all fruit juices without sugar. Close candy business and kitchens. Dry all vegetables, berries and other fruits one cannot find immediate sales for. Keep enough chickens to supply your own family with eggs.

OUTLINES VIEWS ON FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY

Chief Executive in Annual Message sage. Pronounces in Favor of Modified Control of American Railroads

1,050,613, an average of 102,542 each month, the number in fact rising in May last, to 245,051, in June to 278,760, in July to 307,182, and continuing to reach similar figures in August and September. In August, 993,780 and in September, 257,438. No such movement of troops ever before took place across three thousand miles of sea. Followed by "Admiral" and supplies and cartridges safely through extraordinary dangers of attack, dangers which were like strange and definitely difficult to guard against.

Few Men Lost

In all of this movement, only 785 men were lost by enemy attack—200 of whom were killed and 585 captured. Transport which was sunk near the Orkney Islands.

I need not tell you what my lack of this great movement of men and material. It is difficult to say that he had a lot of men and material of the industry of the country and of all its production, activities more complete, more thorough in method and effectiveness in purpose and effort than any other more intelligent had been able to effect. We profited greatly by the experience of the nations which had already been engaged for nearly three years in the struggle and "scolding" because they were weary of the struggle and they were taxed to the limit. We were their pupils. But we learned quickly and acted with a swiftness and a "dash" that justify our great pride that we have not only won the war with unparalleled energy and quick accomplishment.

Where Quality Counts

But it is not only the quantity and quality of the preparation, supply, equipment and discipline that I would dwell upon but the method and quality of the effort and men. We went over and over the things that kept that stock, holding, in. Soldiers or sailors were prepared themselves more quickly ready for the heat of battle or admitted themselves with more splendid courage and achievement when put to the test.

As to Domestic Problems

So far as our domestic affairs are concerned, the problem of our return to peace is a problem of economic and ultra-readjustment. The problem is not that we have a surplus of goods, but that we have a surplus of goods which we cannot sell. The problem is not that we have a surplus of goods, but that we have a surplus of goods which we cannot sell. The problem is not that we have a surplus of goods, but that we have a surplus of goods which we cannot sell.

As to Taxation

If the war had continued it would have been necessary to raise at least $100,000,000,000 more in the year 1919; but the war had ended and I agree with the secretary of the treasury that it will be safe to reduce the amount to $10,000,000,000. Contracts made for war purposes will be paid by the government. The government will be able to pay its bills. The government will be able to pay its bills. The government will be able to pay its bills.

As to the Future of the Country

What we all think of for with deeper gratitude is that our men went to France to the line of battle just at the critical moment when the whole fate of the world was hanging in the balance, and that they were fresh strength into the ranks of freedom in time to turn the whole tide and sweep of the Italian struggle—turn it back for us, so that America's role was secure for their country. America's role was secure for their country. America's role was secure for their country.

BISHOP FUNSTON DEATH'S VICTIM

Bishop James B. Funston, who recently celebrated his thirtieth anniversary as bishop of the Episcopal church in Idaho, died suddenly Sunday evening at his home in Boise.

Funston was born in New York and came to Idaho in 1887. He was a member of the Episcopal church and was a prominent member of the community. He was a man of high character and was respected by all who knew him. He was a devoted husband and father and was loved by all who knew him.

Funeral Services

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from St. Michael's cathedral in Boise.

Funeral Home

Funeral services will be held at the funeral home in Boise.

of the treasury in recommending that the two billions needed in addition to the four billions provided by existing law be obtained from a profit, which have occurred and shall accrue from war contracts, and distinct year business but that these taxes be confined to the war profits accruing in 1919, or 1919 from business originating in war contracts.

Carry Out Naval Program

I take it for granted that the congress will carry out the naval program which was undertaken before we entered the war. The secretary of the navy has submitted to your committee for authorization that part of the program which covers the building plans of the next three years. I am sure that the congress will carry out the naval program which was undertaken before we entered the war.

All Do Good Work

Never before have there been agencies in our country which know so much of the field of supplies, labor, and industry as the war industries board, the war trade board, the labor department, the food administration and the fuel administration. They have known since the beginning of the war that they have been directed by men which represented the permanent departments of the government and so have been the center of unified and co-ordinated action.

Reclaiming Arid Land

I particularly direct your attention to the very project which has been developed in the annual report and before your committee for the reclamation of arid, swamp and cut-over lands which might be reclaimed. If the states were willing and able to cooperate, reclamation could be made of land for cultivation. There are said to be fifteen or twenty million acres of land in the west, at present arid, for whose reclamation water is available, if properly conserved.

Control of Shipping

I have copies of commercial maps for sale, which, by the use of a compass, will be exercised over shipping lanes of the world. The maps are intended for the use of the shipping industry and will be sold at a price of $1.00 per copy.

BILLIE BURKE

IN
"In Pursuit of Polly"

So Polly informed her two suitors. She was worth pursuing. Both men admitted that. But the pursuit was some show. It led through dice and towns and finally into the Secret Service. And the dark horse won. Billie Burke is charming in this picture.
