

SECRETARY LANE TO ASK ACTION ON PROGRAM IN THE WEST

Reclamation Plans for Benefit of Returning Soldiers to Be Put Up to Congress in Near Future

FIFTY MILLION WILL BE ASKED FOR THE PROJECT

Men Back From War to Be Given Jobs at $4 Per Day and Allowed to Buy Land With or Without Money

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—A request for immediate action by Congress on Secretary Lane's plan for reclamation of arid, irrigated and cut-over land, including an appropriation of not less than $50,000,000, will be presented soon. It was introduced today at the department of the interior.

If jobs are to be provided in reclamation work for returning soldiers, a definite program must be mapped out at once, it was said.

While it is considered improbable that the present session will result in the necessary appropriations for the reclamation work, interdepartmental officials say that they have been assured that a sufficient number of republicans and democrats are friendly to the proposed measure to see it through at the special session expected to follow.

Do Speed Much Money

Secretary Lane's plan calls for vast government irrigation projects in the west for the clearing of extensive tracts of cut-over-lands in various sections of the country and for the drainage and clearing of large swamp areas. He proposes to put as many soldiers as may desire to go into the work on the job at $4 per day each, the common labor.

ALLIED TROOPS WILL NOT ENTER GERMAN CAPITAL

Action if Taken Will Be After Extended Deliberation—No Present Indication of Anything of Kind

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Allied occupation of Berlin is not contemplated at present, the French press was informed today by a high official, who is very close to French headquarters.

The reports from Berlin that the allies may occupy the city are the result of an attempt to lead the allies into revealing their intentions regarding possible extension of their march into Germany," the official declared. "But entry into Berlin would be dangerous, unless it were undertaken by a hundred thousand men. No suggestion would be taken without the utmost deliberation."

YANKEE HAT IS STILL IN RING

Americans Confident But Will Have to Work Hard to Make Good

By DON O'BAMBERLAIN

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Urelo Sam's hat, though pretty badly mauled and battered, is still in the ring.

His progress entered the second day of the Anglo-American Series Boxing Championships determined to wipe out yesterday's reverse and their unfamiliarity with the British rules, the American morale is at its highest point, and they still had a formidable remnant of their delegation with which to go over the top in today's scrap.

The Italian fighter was met by Harry Greb, Pat Moore, Young Chesny.

Declares America Should Have Navy Equal to the Best

Admiral Badger Endorses Program of Enormous Expenditure for Ships

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—America should have a navy equal to that of any other country in the world, Admiral Badger told the house naval affairs committee.

"The general board recommends that we should have a navy equal to the most powerful maintained by any government in the world," said the Admiral.

Badger, who is a member of the general board, was explaining the naval appropriations bill to the committee. He urged a building program that would "make the American fleet equal to anything afloat by 1925."

"Had the United States been fighting along in the present war, its lack of ships would have been serious and perhaps fatal," explained Badger.

SEES NOTHING ALARMING IN FLU SITUATION

Chairman of County Health Board Expresses Opinion That Epidemic Will Continue in Mild Form Through Winter

In the opinion of O. E. Carlson, the chairman of the county board of health, the influenza epidemic is likely to remain with Twin Falls throughout the winter.

"It cannot be said," Mr. Carlson declared this morning, "that the number of new cases of influenza is diminishing appreciably. It is true, however, that the more recent cases seem to be of a milder form than those at first reported, and the mortality rate is very low. Whether or not this is the result of more extensive vaccination is in question, but the probability is that the effect of the inoculation is beneficial generally."

Closing Order No. Preventative

As a result of study of various reports and of consideration of the advice of physicians, I am of the opinion that an order prohibiting public gatherings would be of little avail in stamping out the epidemic," Mr. Carlson stated. "The influenza germ seems to be in the air, and cases are reported there persons who are far removed from communities have contracted the disease without, apparently, being exposed to it."

"This county is well prepared to care for influenza sufferers, and there is nothing alarming in the present situation," he added.

FIGHT STARTS ON OWNERSHIP OF WIRELESS

Debate Regarded as a Test of Strength Between Those For and Against Federal Control of Public Utilities

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The much discussed government ownership fight started in congress today.

The first skirmish in the battle that is expected to last through the remainder of this congress and the life of the next, comes on a bill to give the government ownership and control of the wireless systems of the country.

While opponents of government ownership undoubtedly make much of trying to kill the bill in committee, they are known to be eager to get it before the house as a "test of strength" on the "whole ownership question."

The wireless was the first means of communication taken over by the government.

WOMEN WORKERS STARVING FOR LACK OF JOB IN BERLIN

Perils of Bolshevism in Germany Augmented by Discharge of Thousands From War-Time Occupations

SPARTACUS GROUP IS ADDING TO TROUBLES

Bid for Support Falls Upon Willing Ears and Distinct Menace to Existing Government Growing Rapidly

BERLIN, Dec. 11 (Delayed).—Thousands of women, facing starvation through the loss of their war jobs, are adding to the perils of Bolshevism in Germany.

"The women munition workers who are rapidly being demobilized, are unable to find employment as their old factories are idle through lack of raw materials. Added to their ranks are other thousands who have been engaged in similar occupations. Some have obtained employment on farms, but the great majority face a serious situation.

The Spartacus group has seized the opportunity to augment their ranks with these women, hoping not only to obtain their political support, but to influence other areas through them. Twenty-one million women are said to be unemployed.

LABOR AGAINST 'HANDOUTS' BY THE EMPLOYERS

Compens Will Be Called For Expert Testimony in Senate Enquiry into Industrial Welfare Problems

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Samuel Compens, president of the American Federation of Labor, will be one of the first experts called by the senate education and labor committee in its investigation of problems of industrial welfare.

"Senator Kenyon, author of the resolution, authorizing the inquiry, said today that he has the backing of the labor union. Kenyon declared Congress must face the fact that 'labor no longer can be satisfied by handouts from employers.'"

"We must face the fact that labor has the right to demand and is demanding its fair and equitable share in the country's property," said Kenyon. "That doesn't mean in dollars alone, but in the sense of work away from thinking of terms of cash alone, when relations of employer and employee are under consideration, the sooner we will be able to settle the problem on its merits."

NEGROES WILL BE REPRESENTED Carefully Selected Lobby to Attend Peace Conference in Their Interests

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The American negro will be represented at the peace conference, "by lobbyists," said Dr. Clayton A. Powell, vice-president of the National Equal Rights league, announced today that a three day meeting will be held at Washington to begin next Monday to select "lobbyists."

Real Bolsheviks To Be Feature of Trial of Berger

Men Who Helped Spread Gospel in Russia to Testify for Congressman-elect

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Bolshevik teachers who spread their doctrine in Russia will testify at the trial of Victor Berger, Socialist congressman-elect, and four other Socialist leaders, now in progress here before Federal Judge Landis, according to Seymour Steadman, counsel for defense, said today in his opening speech.

Some of the defendants, Steadman said, are in sympathy with Bolshevism.

"Steadman accused newspapers of lying about Bolshevism. 'There were no magazines in Russia,' he declared. 'Not more than 500 papers have been published on either side. The Bolsheviks destroyed the press.'"

BIG STEAMSHIP IN HEAVY SEAS CLOSE TO BREST

Presidential Party Learning to Become Good Sailors on Trip to France—Rain and Fog Prevalent Near Shore

By FRED S. FERGUSON

BREST, France, Dec. 11.—(Night)—The George Washington bearing President Wilson and his party, was six hundred miles out from Brest when last reported by wireless at midnight. The big steamer was making only 15 knots, owing to the heavy seas, but was expected to arrive on schedule Friday afternoon, as the result of her short-stroke course.

There was a heavy log and a drizzle of rain off shore.

The present weather is anything but fitted for a celebration but Friday falls on the 13th—the president's lucky number, and Americans are getting it will cheer up.

EVIDENCE WILL MAKE IT CLEAR

Berger Trial Expected to Tell Jurors All About Socialism

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Jurors in the Berger trial today heard a lengthy exposition of socialism. Seymour Steadman, head counsel charging Berger, and four others on charges of violating the espionage act, explained for the first time the differences between socialism and anarchism.

"The meaning of socialism will be made clear in the evidence to be offered," he said. "Now as to Bolshevism and labor conditions in London, France."

The prompt objection that labor was Bolshevism was on trial was sustained. Steadman told jurors very little evidence would be offered for the defense and that probably the defendants would not take the stand. It would depend upon the government, he said, to prove the charges.

SECOND TRIP NOT UNLIKELY

Delay in Signing Treaty Might Result in President Visiting France Again

By ROBERT J. BENDER

ABOARD THE U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—(10:30 a. m.) (By wireless to the United Press via Paris)—If the peace treaty is not signed before March (when the new congress convenes), it will necessarily delay President Wilson to return to the United States and make a second journey to France, was the belief expressed today.

OMAHA CAR STRIKE IS BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

Men Voted to Return to Work Pending Arbitration of Their Difficulties

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 12.—The street car strike which last completely did up traction service here for eight days, came to an end at noon today when striking platform men voted to return to work pending arbitration of their grievances by Federal Labor Board Chairman Felt and Manly four industries of the strikers following requests of Taft and Manly, concurred in by President Mahon of their international organization that they return to work.

ITALY WILL NOT EASILY GIVE IN

Program of Jugo-Slavs on Adriatic Regarded as Menace to Country

By J. W. T. MASON

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Differences are developing between Italy and the Jugo-Slavs, due to Italy's desire to make her own interests paramount in the Adriatic and to spread Italian influence over the Adriatic's eastern shore.

The Jugo-Slavs want to form an independent state along the eastern Adriatic, which might be expanded into a great slave commonwealth through the union of Jugo-Slav with Montenegro and Serbia. Italy does not look with favor on the creation of a Slav neighbor so powerful as this. The Italians have always longed for control of both shores of the Adriatic, and have never taken kindly to any proposal for permitting Serbia to reach the sea any.

PRESIDENT AND LOYD-GEORGE ARE FAR APART

Wilson Declared to Be Strongly Opposed to Punitive Indem- nities While British Premier Favors This

By CARL DE GUDAT
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Germany will not be asked to pay the full Allied war debt as Lloyd George is advocating, provided President Wilson's principles obtain in the peace conference. Officials here privately declare that much of the British talk of making Germany pay this enormous debt—Lloyd George estimates it at $120,000,000,000—is a bluff. The American government's attitude was made plain by a short exchange of statements when she is done with paying merely the restorative indemnities to be asked of her for Belgium and Northern France and elsewhere.

Germany will be working for the Allies a long time ahead and will pay in the sweat of her brow, in lowered living conditions and in taxes on all for her brutality and the suffering her autonomy imposed upon the rest of the world.

President Wilson believes in a stern justice for Germany. Neither he nor any other American official believes Germany should escape such punishment as will go with territorial readjustments and restorative indemnities.

Against Punitive Indemnity
But, President Wilson has declared against "punitive indemnities," and officials here are correctly informed, he will oppose the Lloyd George plan for asking to make Germany pay the Allied war costs.

Lloyd George will have hearty support from the president in seeking to abolish conscription.

Concrete evidence in this support is seen here in the fact that the war department has privately told congressmen, now that at present there is no plan for universal military training in this country.

Germany is soon to face a revision of the armistice terms. The final version probably will vary only slightly from the one previously in effect.

McADOO PLAN COULD END IN ONLY ONE WAY

Proposition for Five-Year Gov- ernment Control of Railroads Taken to Mean Eventual Federal Operation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Eventual government ownership would result from Director General McAdoo's plan for a five-year extension of federal railroad operation, according to belief in the capital today.

McAdoo's plan, revealed in a letter to Senator Smith, South Carolina, and Representative Keene, is endorsed by President Wilson. It contemplates government control for five years after peace is declared. Either this should be done, he says, or the roads should be given back to "private control" as quickly as possible.

McAdoo pointed out financial readjustment and conflicts between state and federal jurisdiction make it difficult to continue the government control for only a brief time, and still do justice to the companies themselves. The five-year period, he holds, would permit of proper financing without the present limitations and would give the nation what he says is entitled to—a full test of such control under normal conditions.

Experts on railroads declare his system, operating in a world now possessed by broader socialized views than ever before, would certainly lead to government ownership. These authorities say government operation was not properly demonstrated in war times, for then, costs went by the board—sacrificed for speed and other considerations.

HOPES PRESIDENT WILL AGREE WITH ENGLAND

BIRMINGHAM, England, Dec. 12.—Premier Lloyd George, in a speech here, expressed the hope that President Wilson would agree to the Allies' demand that the former Kaiser and his accomplices be held responsible for their crimes.

"The navy is a reserve weapon, not offensive," Lloyd George declared. "That is why we don't mean to give it up."

CASUALTY DELAYS ARE BROUGHT FORBIDDERLY HOME

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Deaths in casualty reports, about which the public has long been complaining, came home forcibly to General F. C. Harris, through whose office these lists are handled. In the list was the name of Captain Charles B. Harris, engineer, wounded and made prisoner October 20.

Captain Harris is the general's son and he has long worried about him.

General Harris now faces another period of anxious waiting while the government ascertains in what prison camp the captain is held.

GERMANS HELP YANKEE TROOPS

American Commission Given Hearty Co-operation By Germans

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(British Admiralty Wireless)—Occupation of German towns under the terms of the armistice is nearly completed. A British advance guard has entered Bonn and taken possession of a bridge over the Rhine at this point.

An American commission sent ahead of the troops to outline the bridgehead boundaries reported their astonishment at the heartiness of the Germans' co-operation. Full information was furnished the commission by inhabitants of the occupied territory. This experience of the Americans appears to be fairly general among the allies, who are being welcomed in many instances because the Germans are fearful of their own disorderly elements and glad to have the protection of allied troops.

Packing House Men Present Their Case

Wage Controversy Turns Into Investigation of Cost of Liv- ing of Employes

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Investigation of the cost of living was up today at the wage controversy between six Chicago packing concerns and labor unions representing more than 100,000 packing house employes throughout the country.

The hearing was before Judge Samuel Alschuler, arbitrator. A budget of living costs was to be presented by Professor W. F. Ogburn, of the university of Washington, the economic expert of the war labor board. Living scales comprise three budgets, according to Ogburn—charity, minimum of subsistence and subsistence of health and comfort.

Attorneys for the packers were Carl Meyer and John G. Condon. Frank J. Heeny represented the unions. The heads of ten labor unions were at the hearing. Witnesses are to be called from all parts of the United States.

The packing houses concerned are Swift, Armour, Cudahy, Wilson, Morris and Libby.

OPERATORS ARE SENT BACK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—All telephone operators who are being trained and held in this country for service with the A. E. F. were today ordered dismissed by the war department. The length of service for those still with the A. E. F. has not been determined.

PARIS AWAITS THE ARRIVAL OF PRESIDENT

Tendency Throughout France Is to Mark Time Until Wilson Arrives With His Message to Peace Session

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
Paris, Dec. 12.—The peace machinery is at a standstill, pending arrival of President Wilson.

Even informal preliminary conferences have been abandoned until the American executive can be heard personally.

Newspapers of all shades of political affiliation agree that Wilson's influence will be enormous. Little is being published at present regarding the peace congress itself, but columns are being devoted to President Wilson, his principles and his attitude.

The Temps declares it cannot foresee any friction between Washington, London, Rome and Paris. It says the accord which has existed since America's entry into the war will continue until peace is assured. This unanimity, it holds, will expedite the work of the international conference. There is some rivalry among the various political factions as to which shall take the lead in welcoming Wilson.

Plan Great Welcome

Posters have been circulated by the laborers and socialists, appealing to the people to welcome him as an advocate of their particular brand of principles. The Temps objects to this attitude, on the ground that Wilson is the guest of all France. "His is the guest of no man," the newspapers said. "He is the guest of no party, no faction, no man," the newspapers said. "As a man of great ideals of justice and liberty, who has touched the heart of all humanity, he is the guest of France. It would signify a serious importance of his role and risk comprising influence if he were represented as the champion of any subsidiary cause." "President Wilson's task is superior to any party squabble. It marks a great step in civilized society."

NOTHING TO IT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—"Nothing to it" was the War department's answer to renewed reports from Europe that the Allies were to occupy Berlin.

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO

This Great Christmas

Victory Won--The Boys Coming Home-- The Ban Lifted on Christmas Giving--Peace on Earth!

Make Everybody Happy by Buying to Your Heart's Content. There's More Pleasure in Giving Than in Receiving.

The great drama is ended. The giant cannon no longer can be heard along the line from the channel to the Adriatic; the deadly rattle of the machine gun is stilled. No gas fumes poison the winter air. No clouds of burning cities darken the sun.

Better than all, no life blood flows; the fighting men rest in their lines, the bayonet is sheathed, the bullet sleeps harmless in its clip.

This at last is peace. In the great cities, the towns and hamlets of Europe and America a vast wave of emotion inundates the hearts of men; in the allied lands there is exultation; in Germany there is at least relief, and perhaps the dawning of a new hope.

Only one thing mars this glorious Christmas of 1918—our "boys" can not all be home. But they are coming, these soldiers of the Marne, of Cantigny, of the great German repulse east of Reims, of Chateau Thierry, of St. Mihiel, the Argonne, and Sedan.

With their return there confronts us one of the most serious problems we have ever had to face. American industry must absorb these men, and to make it possible for industry to do this we must each do his share.

All during the war America placed restrictions on the use of platinum and gold for manufacturing purposes other than for actual war needs. Those restrictions have now been lifted and the use of these two precious metals is being encouraged by the government.

The prime reason for this encouragement is to open places for men who are skilled in converting these metals into useful articles. It is therefore, as patriotic to fill your needs for such useful articles now as it was to deny yourself in war time.

Before the armistice was signed the government requested that, during the holidays, all stores refrain from hiring extra help. This was done to conserve man-power. The cry today is to use man-power—to make room for as many workers as possible.

You need not deny yourself longer—every article that you use makes the manufacture of another to take its place necessary; and increased manufacturing makes work for more men.

During the past eighteen months, you have wanted many things—even needed them, yet you have restrained yourself. You need do so no longer—the ban is lifted and we are prepared for the greatest Christmas business in the history of Twin Falls.

THE HALLMARK PLAN AND GUARANTEE

There are about twenty thousand retail jewelers in the United States. At least eight hundred of these jewelers buy and sell on a similar plan, are recognized as being "the best jewelers." They gained this recognition because of truthful representation of their merchandise, dependable and courteous service.

Hallmark merchandise is as near perfect in construction as it is possible to make it. A strict quality standard is maintained; but there is the human element in all things—sometimes mistakes occur. To protect the customer against mistakes, we offer the unqualified Hallmark guarantee of satisfaction. Every Hallmark article must give satisfaction.

Whatever you understand by satisfaction, we contract that you shall have. You alone are to be the judge. Our duty is to give you exactly what you want, and we bind ourselves to leave nothing undone until your purchase meets your every expectation—until you are satisfied in every particular.

Reports of American Relief Worker in Jerusalem Discloses Dreadful Conditions Obtaining in Near East

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The American Committee for Relief in the Near East today to publish the following extracts from the report of Master Stephen Trowbridge, one of the relief workers in Jerusalem.

"A bride, Jennie, Nazal, who had been married only four months when her husband was killed by shrapnel as he was returning from the olive orchard, walked from Ramallah in the hope of our giving her some wheat...

Find Meals in Garbage "Passing near the Damascus Gate one morning I saw an aged gypsy and her grandchildren 'mooching' about a refuse pile...

"I remember especially one group of peasant girls one sunny day stretching in the dust beneath the food bags of the army mules near an ammunition dump...

"Thin, trembling children found their way to the soup kitchen in the Moslem quarter, and stood for hours near the gates of the city in the hope of receiving a bit of bread."

"For months soap and body had been kept together with dry bread and a little soup. Do not imagine that we could put any meat in the soup. Salt, rice, and water were all that on funds permitted in providing for a family of five thousand."

Turks Arrive First "Another mother as she started on the flight carried a bundle of garments and her baby boy wrapped in swaddling clothes. After great exertions she began to feel that her strength would last out if she stopped where she thought was the parcel of garments and clung to the other until she stopped rest at noon."

"One baby, six months old was brought into Bagdad, whose mother had perished on the way and which had been nourished for two months with grass which its father had first chewed and then given to it."

"In Beirut during the months of February and March there were always wretched and starved people on the streets. I have seen a mother lying unconscious of her little child's cries. The streets were full of such people."

HEARINGS START NEXT WEEK WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Full disclosure of the methods of the meat packers and their relations toward the industrial life and consumers of the country will be made at hearings on the Smith-Hill federal control of the meat packers which will be started next week, Representative Sims announced today.

WARRANTS ISSUED NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Warrants charging five Brooklyn Rapid Transit officials with manslaughter in the second degree were issued as the result of a wreck November 1, in which 80 persons were killed and 500 injured. A warrant also was issued for the mortorman of the train.

ADVANCE GUARD NEARING RHINE ON WIDE FRONT

Main Forces of American Army of Occupation Make Steady Progress Into Heart of German Territory

BY WEBB MILLER WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE RHINE, Dec. 10.—By corridor from Coblenz to Nancy—While doughboys are patrolling Coblenz, the advance guards of the main forces of the American army are nearing the Rhine on a front of fifty-five miles. A cavalry detachment already has reached the river near Sinzig (twenty miles northwest of Coblenz). The thirty-second division (Michigan and Wisconsin national guard) is only a few miles away.

The American and German bridgehead commissions are holding conferences, in which details for crossing the Rhine on Friday are being arranged. German activities, bearing white flags and containing German officers with white arm bands, busy about the event. The bridgehead will be occupied by the first, second, third (all regular army) and thirty-second divisions. The fourth (regular army) first, second (Alabama) and thirtieth (Texas and Oklahoma national army) divisions, are marching toward the river. The second army is following through Luxembourg.

WHEAT ACREAGE ENORMOUS CORN SHOWS DECREASE

Statistics Show that American Farmer Did His Part in Helping Feed the World in the Time of War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—American farmers raised a combined wheat and corn crop this year worth $2,039,936, 000 in their efforts to feed the world, government crop experts estimated today.

Under a guaranteed price, wheat acreage increased 14,021,000 while the corn acreage and yield decreased. The wheat crop alone at war prices, showed an increase in value over the five year average of $1,073,255,000. The winter wheat yield for 1918 was estimated at 533,469,000 bushels, a yield of 16.3 bushels per acre compared with 412,901,000 bushels in 1917 and a 1912-1916 average of 533,294,000 bushels.

GERMANS FIGURE THE QUOTA

Fixing of quotas has been such a familiar feature of previous campaigns, whether to sell Liberty Bonds or to raise funds for welfare or relief work...

The reason given by the local Red Cross chapter is logical. The Red Cross is now so widely known and so strongly approved that the goal of the Christmas Red Cross is nothing short of universal membership...

The week of December 16-23 will soothly apparently formidable task accomplished, because there will be an eager spirit of co-operation. More than 25,000,000 present members in the United States will answer "Here," and it is the hope of the Red Cross War Council that triple or quadruple that number will join and so permit a Christmas Eve cable to Europe that the American people are solidly behind the Red Cross spirit.

The Red Cross Christmas Red Cross is not an effort to raise money, and no one in Twin Falls will be asked for contributions. The annual membership dues amount to only one dollar.

Twin Falls undoubtedly has as many dollars for the Red Cross as there are adults in its population.

WILD RUMORS FOLLOW LYNCHING OF NEGRO

The Body of Man Who Insulted White Woman Is Cut Down by the Sheriff

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., Dec. 12.—The tension was noticeable here following the lynching of Joe Woodson, negro, after he killed one man and wounded another Tuesday because Woodson's insult to a white waitress ended in his being furcibly ejected from a restaurant.

Reports that a trainload of negroes was coming here from another Wyoming point followed by another train of whites increased the apprehensions of further trouble. Rumors that crowds gathered along the Union Pacific route had taken negroes from trains pivoted unkindly. Woodson's victim was Albert Miller, a Union Pacific switchman.

The coroner here cut down Woodson's body, early today from the telephone pole in front of the court's house where was strung up by a mob which stormed the county jail. No arrests have been made. Cheyenne reports that Governor Hux has not been appealed to and that he will take no action for the present.

Sheriff Arthur Dixon of Sweetwater county announced that there was no foundation for wild rumors of "red" men in Laramie, Rock Springs and Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mueser were Twin Falls visitors Sunday with relatives. Mrs. Earl Pfister and three children have the influenza.

J. C. Blochus has recovered from an attack of influenza.

Dr. McGinnis of Twin Falls is assisting the doctors here with the vaccine against influenza cases.

James Symond is another victim of pneumonia following influenza. Mr. Symond took the remains of his wife to Carthage, Ill., for burial about six weeks ago and on his return trip here he contracted the influenza. He was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mackey where he was given the best of care and all medical attention was given him but he passed away Saturday evening. He leaves a young child, the only baby who is being cared for at the home of Mrs. Symond's mother in Illinois. The body was shipped Tuesday afternoon to Carthage, Ill., where he will be laid to rest beside his wife.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 12.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of two registered mail pouches valued at $10,000, taken from a mail wagon here December 5, is believed to have been cleared by arrest of Alfred Young, a dismissed mail driver here, was sought by postal and police authorities throughout the country in connection with theft. Post Office Inspector Ralph Smith left Denver today for Oakland to identify Young as the man who cashed some of the missing papers. Liberty bonds, some money, checks, and considerable jewelry were in the stolen pouches. The thief, who is believed to have had a key to the mail wagon, rifled it while the wagon was enroute to the railroad station at night.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The three bridgeheads to be occupied under the terms of the armistice are now in the hands of the allies. French troops entered Mayence yesterday. Previously the Americans had reached Coblenz, the British Cologne. A large proportion of the west bank of the Rhine is now held by the allied armies. The Belgians and British are again practically the whole course of the river, from the Dutch border southward to Bonn. The Americans are on the Rhine in their whole zone of occupation from Rolandseck to Trechtlinghausen (about sixty miles). Their main force, however, still has to move forward about four miles to complete occupation of the sector immediately west of Coblenz. The French have yet to reach the west bank in a wide sector between Karlsruhe and Mayence.

LOCAL DEMANDS SWELL FREIGHT OFFICE RECORD

Reports Show Shipments Forwarded Less This Year Than Last But Volume of Business Handled Greater

An increase of 13,000,000 pounds of freight handled through the Oregon Short Line freight office in Twin Falls this year is shown in the comparative reports of Agent D. E. Ballivan showing a total of 62,000,000 pounds for 1915 as against 70,000,000 for 1914. The increase was in the volume of freight received.

In 1917 the needs of Twin Falls were supplied with 685 carloads of wheat, whereas this year only required 665 carloads, 200 more cars than last year, to supply local demands.

The shipments forwarded, consisted of beans, peas, buckwheat, corn, wheat, flour, livestock, feed, apples, sugar, potatoes and hay, all except the lumber and merchandise being produced here.

Apples Down, Wheat Up

In 1917 there were forwarded through the Twin Falls station 64 carloads of apples as against three carloads this year, reflecting the shortage resulting from late freezing weather.

SELL US YOUR POTATOES

Our object was to have a place where the children could forget their bodies and souls, and incidentally, where the parents could also—where light and heat and water did not come by means of taps and buttons.

We had to do all the work ourselves and the boys, then 5 and 6, were expected from the beginning to do their share.

OLD WORLD AIR VIEWS WITH THE MODERN NOTE IN NEW HOME

UNITED STATES MUST BE ADVISED

Siberia "would be doing in the east exactly what the Germans were doing in the west" and would subject America and Alaska to the same suspicion on the part of the Russian people!

Asks Pertinent Question

"3—Is it true that the Russian soviet government offered a program for making America the most favored foreign nation in trade and commerce, and involving the control by the Allies of all those supplies most desired by the central empires?"

"4—Is it true that representatives of the American Red Cross remained in soviet Russia until October, in perfect safety and reasonable comfort even after we had intervened and American troops were fighting the soldiers of the soviet government and that the last members of the original American Red Cross Mission to Russia left Moscow on the afternoon of October 11 (1919) on the afternoon of October, in the safe conduct and security of the protection of the soviet government?"

"5—Is it true that the department of state has refused to allow the American Red Cross to ship supplies to Moscow and Petrograd for the relief of the returning Russian war prisoners from Germany, 60 per cent of whom are suffering from some form of tuberculosis?"

As to Misinformation

"6—Is it true that the American ambassador and the British high commissioner in Russia recommended cooperation with the soviet government through the American railroad commission, that the soviet government invited this cooperation and promised control of the Siberian railway to be placed in the hands of this mission and that these recommendations were refused by the American government, largely because of misinformation received through the Creel commission, supported by leaders and representatives of the old regime in Russia?"

"7—Is it true that refusal of these recommendations prevented the evacuation of large amounts of munitions and other supplies from the Western front that subsequently were captured by the Germans in their advance after the Brest negotiations had failed?"

"8—Is it true that the British High Commissioner set to Russia after the Bolshevik revolution, because of his knowledge and experience in the Russian situation, after four months in Russia, stated over his signature that the soviet government had cooperated in aiding the Allies, and that he believed intervention in cooperation with the soviet government feasible as late as the 17th of May, 1918?"

Kerensky's Downfall

"9—Is it true that the American government so delayed co-operation with the Kerensky government's plan to support the morale of the army and maintain that provisional government in power, as to contribute largely to the overthrow of Kerensky and the success of the Bolshevik revolution?"

Johnson declared that though "we as a nation have never hesitated to express ourselves concerning Russia, our words are at variance with our acts."

He declared that in spite of disavowals by this government of any intention to intervene in Russia, "press dispatches have recounted battles and skirmishes between American and Russian soldiers, the taking and re-taking of towns and various incidents indicating a state of war."

What is Nation's Policy?

"What is the policy of our nation toward Russia?" asked Johnson. "Are we now engaged in destroying Bolshevism? If we are, what have we decided shall take its place? Are we again to put the Romanoffs upon the throne?"

Do we seek a dictator for this starved and famished nation, is there a single individual we intend to put in power after we have waded through blood to Moscow and Petrograd; when we have buried our dead of cold, of privation and of famine, and those who were slain in battle are we, with the American flag flying in the streets of the Russian capital, to set up one kind of government as against another, one man who comes out of the old regime or the new one, or any other, or no other man who knows our policy?"

less there is an international court which appeal could be taken. The Jugo-Slav question, therefore, will be used at the peace conference as a pressing reason for creation of a league of nations.

ment after the outbreak of the war, and both Secretary Daniels and Secretary Baker have declared there is a greater necessity for government control of these facilities than either inland wires or cables.

With those facts in hand, advocates of government ownership say they may as well quit now if they cannot keep the radio in government hands. If they win out, it will encourage them to try the telegraph, telephone lines and cables and finally the railroads.

Prussian Guard Is for Ebert
COPENHAGEN, Dec. 12.—The Prussian Guard, returning to Berlin, is reported to have sworn allegiance to Chancellor Ebert's government. The famous unit, which numbers thousands of the best German troops, was enthusiastically welcomed by the people.

Definite alignment of the Prussian Guard on this side is believed to play Ebert in a position where he need not fear the growing strength of the Bolshevik element, under Karl Liebknecht. With the formation of his proposed socialist army, this would give the chancellor a great advantage in military strength.

Reform or Revolution
"If the reform my resolution outlines does not come by legislation, it will come by revolution. We must meet it in a faithfulness, intelligent manner, if we want to avoid Bolshevism in this country. Bolshevism is worse than Bolshevism for it is from Bolshevism that Bolshevism springs. Bolshevism, of course, is opposed to my resolution.

Sumptuous Residence of Prince Murat Redecorated and Refurnished as Paris Home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson

By MARGARET RHOB

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Waxed and varnished by the united hands of the pollen and the doughboy, Prince Murat's sumptuous residence at 28 Rue Monceau, is now ready as the first foreign home of a president of the United States.

All of the wonderful paintings and priceless tapestries which were removed during the bombardment of Paris have now been returned. When the first lady of the land becomes the temporary chateleine, she will enjoy the magnificent surroundings of the days of Louis.

The private apartments of President and Mrs. Wilson are on the second floor.—They are reached by an impressive white marble staircase, from a white marble entrance hall. The walls along the hallway are of vari-colored marble except the top landing, which is a vast sheet of mirror.

Presidential Office Quarters
Lying off the central hall comes first a small private study. It contains a charming, inlaid desk, where the president may work—if he can—facing a wonderful painting of cupid and Psyche almost filling the entire wall above the bookcase.

Next comes a large library decorated in crimson damask. In it are many paintings and busts of Napoleon. Adjoining the library is the president's sleeping apartment, which is also filled with innumerable relics, engravings and paintings of the famous emperor. The striking feature of this room is a wonderful empire bed. All the furniture consists of exquisite examples of the empire period, though the charm necessarily is broken by the anachronism of a real American desk telephone, on the empire stand near the bed.

Delightful Private Quarters

Scarcely perceptible panels in the walls of sage green brocade at both ends of the bed reveal the door to the secrecy and charm characteristic of all well-regarded French palaces into Mrs. Wilson's apartment, where Madame La Presidente will make herself at home in the midst of soft, French grey walls, bright satin hangings, brocade cupids and garlands of golden hue.

The colorings throughout are of the gold and grey. The bed has a pane of fairy-like fillet lace as a background to the canopy at the head.

Easy chairs and a chaise longue proceed invite relaxation from social strain. A perfectly appointed writing table stands between two long windows, which overlook the rear of the beautiful park that surrounds the house to the extent of a city block. This is the heart of Paris.

Part Strictly Modern

Off the presidential bed chambers are large dressing rooms and bath rooms. The president's is done in ivory, his wife's in French grey. These, happily, are all in the 1919 period of comfort, incandescence and sanitation.

There are unique collections of porcelains, ivory, prints and paintings in the charming boodoo.

Small family saloon and dining room also on the same floor. The general color scheme is crimson. The walls are of brocade and the carpets are velvet.

Beige Art Decorations

On the ground floor the formal apartments are ornamented with crystal chandeliers, mirrors, tapestries and paintings, among which are many Gobelin. The ballroom grand salon, huge state dining room and kitchens are all of regal proportions.

The third floor is reserved for other members of the family suite. Besides bed chambers, it contains offices and various work rooms.

and Col. Delaney, eligible, while the United States army was represented by K. O. Brown, Eddie Conlon, Claude Bator, Mike O'Dowd and Eddie McGeogh. The latter two had not yet fought.

Canadian Outpointed

In last night's bout, Cheesy outpointed Bingham of Canada; Conlon received a decision over Davis of the British navy and Bator won on points from Mike Cross, American middleweight.

When the elimination contests were resumed this afternoon, the British army and the Royal Air Force were tied for first place. The position of the competing teams and their scores in points was as follows:
British Army 21; Royal Air Force 21; British Navy 19-18; United States Navy 17-15; Australia 17; United States Army 16; Canada 16.

What brought victory?

The Allies were the best men—that's all there was to it. They developed better ways of fighting; better equipment, better guns. They were fighting for the best principles, and the "best" won, as it always does.

The "best" wins in peace time, too—whether it's men or clothes.
