

PARIS BECOMES ANGRY AT MANY PEACE MEMBERS

Lloyd George and President are the Present Center of the Storm but the British are Unruffled

MANY BELIEVE WILSON IS FAVORING GERMANY

The French are Enjoying the Luxury of Looking on the Dark Side of the Affair, Say the English

BY LOWELL MELLETT.
PARIS, Feb. 12.—Two months ago Woodrow Wilson could have been elected President of Paris. Today Paris would not elect him justice of the peace. Whether the remainder of France has similarly changed it is impossible to say, but people returning from the interior report that his pictures still fill shop and residence windows and that his name still evokes the loudest cheers. This is not so in Paris, where the open unfriendliness of certain newspapers is echoed in subway, tramway and hotel corridor conversations. The attitude is usually taken that Wilson is unduly lenient toward Germany. Angry debaters allege he is more concerned with saving Germany than saving France.

Suspicious of Many
Resentment in Paris, however, is not confined to the president. The names of Premier Lloyd George and other notable visitors are beginning to be heard whereas after Wilson's arrival scores of prominent names virtually dropped out of circulation. These names are now heard coupled with Wilson's, charged with virtual treachery to France.

British Unruffled
This palpable cooling of friendship is worrying many Americans, but it leaves the British unruffled. They smile and say there has been enough of the "before" that won't last long. France is "enjoying a war scare" and the emotional luxury of looking on the black side of things in order to enjoy greater delight when it is found that the situation is not so bad as anticipated, they say.

Other Factors
Disregarding the allegation that government propaganda is responsible for that attitude of the French newspapers there is another factor alleged to be included in their cries of "Wolf! Wolf!"

Seven Thousand Aliens Will Be Sent Back Home

Anarchists, Bolsheviks, I. W. W. and Other Peace Disturbers are to be Deported

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Anarchists, Bolsheviks, I. W. W.'s, and other undesirable aliens, numbering about 7,500, will be deported by the bureau of immigration within the next few months, Director Caminetti announced today. The undesirables will be sent back as fast as ships can be found to take them. During the war the bureau made many arrests of aliens who attempted to destroy property or advocated the overthrow of the American government. Ample authority for their deportation has been given by congress, the director said.

NEW WORLD RECORD IS NOW ESTABLISHED

DAYTONA, Fla., Feb. 12.—Ralph De Palma established a new world's record for one mile from a flying start here today when he covered the distance on Daytona beach in 59.02 seconds. The old record, 59.40, held by Bob Burman, was made on the same course in April, 1911.

SENATE PASSES A NEW PRIMARY ELECTION BILL

Retains Old System of Selection of Delegates to Conventions; Changing Manner of Naming Candidates

(Special to The News)
BOISE, Ida., Feb. 12.—The new primary law passed the senate this morning. It will bring a far-reaching change in the manner of selection of candidates while retaining the old system of popular selection of delegates to county conventions and the nomination of county candidates. State conventions will be revived under its terms and candidates for state office to be selected by the state gatherings.

Twelve Votes No

Twelve senators voted against the measure. They were: Booth, Doolittle, Davis, Farrell, Gilchrist, Judd, Mason of Shoshone, Pettibone, St. Clair, Simms, Tyler and Wedgwood. The only republican to vote against the bill was Gilchrist.

Consolidation Bill Passes
Adoption of the amendments of the house and a final vote under suspension of the rules, the senate today passed the consolidation measure known as senate bill 19, with four republicans voting against it. The majority members who were opposed were: Lee, McMurtry, Orme and Owens.

PRESIDENT WILL TACKLE EMPLOYMENT PROBLEM ON RETURN TO AMERICA

Conference of Governors to Be Called at Instance of Department of Labor—General Stagnation of Industry Over Country Compels Prompt Attention

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—With President Wilson planning to take personal charge of the employment situation on his return from France, department of labor officials have decided to call a conference of governors early in March, at which the president will preside. Showing the importance he attaches to solving the trouble immediately, the president has called his willingness to delay his return to France a few days in order to attend the conference.

LEAGUE DELAY KEEPS WILSON AT CONFERENCE

President Taries Over Return to United States in Order to Bring Back With Him A Finished Draft

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
PARIS, Feb. 12.—Delay in completion of the league of nations constitution may postpone President Wilson's return to France immediately after adjournment of congress, it was learned today. He is so anxious to carry back with him a finished draft of the constitution, that his departure has been postponed from Friday to Sunday or Monday, which will result in his reaching America about February 25.

To Read Draft
If the constitution is not submitted to the full peacemakers before his departure, however, he will start back March 5 or 6. Unless final agreement is reached by the league committee, submission of the constitution to the plenary session this week is out of the question. The president, too, had been selected to read the draft to the full conference.

Interviews Representative
The president attended a benefit opera performance last night. He will confer tonight with Dr. Bepart, Swiss authority on the league of nations and with Archbishop Toussaint and Professor Livingston, representatives of Armenia, who will report on conditions in their country. He will also receive a delegation from the French association of the society of nations.

All the gifts and souvenirs received by President and Mrs. Wilson have been packed ready for sailing. They fill 25 boxes.

General Stagnation
The general stagnation of industry throughout the country will be the chief topic of discussion it is said. Attention will be given to the prevalence of strikes, but labor officials are confident many of those troubles can be wiped out with a brisk resumption of peace time industry.

Governors Will Meet
During the last week, Roger W. Babson, head of the information and educational service of the labor department has wired all governors asking them whether they would attend the conference, and practically unanimous acceptance has been received. In expressing approval of the plan all urged that immediate action be taken, claiming the situation was fast growing serious.

Explains Purpose
In explaining the conference, Babson wrote: "Representatives of the federal government could explain what can best be done to relieve the immediate situation. The question of resuming private construction and the stimulation of business in general should also be fully discussed, including price tendencies and the attitude of labor."

Makes Building Survey
Believing that building is one of the basic industries of the country, Babson has made a survey of the reasons why it is not being resumed.

Government Obligation
"Don't expect private capital to build merely for the sake of furnishing work," writes a Buffalo authority, "but the government has an obligation. Construction work is impeded by the unreasonable demands of labor," says a Lincoln, Nebraska, letter.

FINAL VICTORY FOR LEAGUE IS BEING BLOCKED

Two New Articles are Added to the Constitution Which Already has an Original Twenty-Two

FRENCH PROPOSE MANY AMENDMENTS TO DRAFT

Political Situation of Germany Must Be Considered by the Allies Before Making the Peace Terms

BY FRED S. FERGUSON
PARIS, Feb. 12.—Whether obstructivists will gain a temporary victory by blocking final adoption of the league of nations constitution, prior to President Wilson's departure for the United States as well as further stirring up Paris with a war scare will be determined within the next thirty-six hours.

Final Action
The league of nations committee is scheduled to take final action tomorrow on the constitution, the draft of which was being put in shape by a sub-committee today. The committee's work will be hampered by the fact that many of the amendments presented at recent meetings—two entirely new articles have been added to the original twenty-two—are not yet entirely agreed on. If the committee cannot reach an agreement tomorrow, submission of the draft to the general peace congress this week will be impossible.

French Want Changes
The amendments to the league constitution are understood to have been introduced largely by the French, who are said to have been developing an actual distrust of President Wilson, who is insinuated to be defending the Germans and Bolsheviks. This feeling not only has been demonstrated in the French press, but is alleged to have developed in various committees. The French attitude has resulted, it is understood, in stances that the constitution provide for establishment of a great international army to be stationed in France, as well as further restriction on German and Russian armaments.

Propose Military Extension
The war scare has incited the French to propose occupation of Essen and other military extensions to the original armistice terms. Well informed military authorities declared that Marshal Foch is far over estimating the situation when he says the Germans are able to put an army of 5,000,000 in the field within two months.

Put Americans in Bad
The French, it is charged, in opposing American suggestions for economic concessions to Germany are trying to make it appear that the Americans are favoring the Germans, whereas, the Americans are merely trying to apply the rule of common sense. For instance, in manufacturing after peace is signed, France and Belgium will be given preference in shipment of raw materials.

Returned Soldiers are Ordered to Take Off Uniforms and Thousands Refuse
BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 12.—It was officially reported here this afternoon that Lieutenant Gerner of who army intelligence bureau ordered all returned soldiers to be stripped of their uniforms tomorrow at noon. Two thousand soldiers at present are under the order. It is presumed such an order would affect only returned soldiers in Butte who are participating with the masses in picketing.

BUTTE TROUBLE GROWS STEADILY

Engineers and mechanics are the only workers at the mills today. The necessary work will need to be done to take a strike vote. The city is quiet and orderly. No federal troops are within the city boundaries.

Pilot of First American City Under a General Strike, this White-Haired Man Stood Firm

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 12.—Ole Hanson, mayor of Seattle, now in the national spotlight as pilot of the first American city in the throes of a general commercial life of the Pacific northwest.

White haired, in his middle forties, breezy, western, he presides today over Seattle in a room fragrant with flowers and hung with a huge poster-like copy of the twenty-third psalm.

Hanson is an inveterate smoker. Nervously active, energetic, he rushes from his office in normal times to the play company of his ten children.

As a young man, an invalid, he came west from Minnesota, walking the entire distance behind the prairie schooler that carried a fatherless brood to Puget Sound.

Hanson was a former state senator of Washington, lost a campaign for United States senator two years ago, and stomped the middle west and east in behalf of President Wilson's candidacy.

During the war, the Seattle-Boeing severed his services as a shipbuilder, working a four-hour daily shift as "holer up" after his day's duties as mayor, in the Seattle shipyards from which the present shipworkers walked out on strike to be supported by the great sympathetic walkout.

Aviator Will Attempt a Sea-plane Flight for the Second Trial Trip

BAYONNE, N. J., Feb. 12.—Captain Hugo Sunstedt, the aviator who intends to cross the Atlantic ocean in a seaplane, planned to make a second attempt at a trial trip late today.

The trial did not take place yesterday because of a broken guide. "I am anxious for these trials," Sunstedt said, "because the sooner I get my bearings the sooner I can make myself proficient for the coming transatlantic flight."

Passengers who will make the proposed trans-Atlantic trip with Sunstedt are Lieutenant Paul McMillan, an army aviator; W. Harpuk and P. Szatz, mechanicians.

GREAT STRIKE SHOWS US OUR HELPLESSNESS

What It Means in Human Terms to be in a Big Industrial Tie-up and What We Learn of Our Dependence

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 12.—Just what, in ordinary human terms, does a general strike mean?

How does a complete industrial tie-up, such as Seattle has weathered, affect the life, comfort and habits of the average city-dweller?

My own experiences during 12 hours of a general strike-day here provided an answer, typical of transients at least.

I was one of those who had made a little provision. I ate my breakfast out of a tin can. I had neither stove nor cook to prepare the coffee.

No barber solicited me for a shave or shampoo. It was a good alibi for my sprouting beard.

In the hotel bath tub, I washed my soiled shirt, since laundry men were so scarce as butchers, bakers and candlestick makers.

I polish my own shoes.

The mere thought that food was not easily procurable made me unnaturally hungry. I ate lunch in one of the many public kitchens maintained by the strikers' commissary department, paying 35 cents for a tin plate full of mulligan, a cup of coffee and bread.

Protected by my police and the strikers' deputies.

Because this was not a local strike, even if general, the steam pipes in my hotel room sizzled. I could use the telephone, the telegraph, take a bath and write by electric light.

Railroads were waiting to take me away, but I didn't want to miss one of the most interesting and thought-producing experiences of a life-time in America.

These twelve hours dramatically brought home to me and to Seattle's four hundred thousand residents how interdependent we are upon one another's activities and what happens when this interdependence is thrown out of gear.

DELEGATES OF BRITISH LABOR HOLD MEETING

A Million English Workers Discuss Wages, Hours and Other Working Conditions at Big Gathering

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Representatives of more than 1,000,000 British workers met today to discuss wages, hours of employment and working conditions.

MANY PROMISES
The transport workers' federation, speaking for 250,000, will receive the employers' answer to their demands for higher wages and a 44-hour week.

Fair Examination
"Labor's fair demands will be examined carefully," he said, "but in case a demand is pressed for the purpose of holding up a community and destroying the government by brute force, I say, on behalf of the government, that we will fight Prussiaism just to the industrial world exactly as we fought it on the continent of Europe with the whole might of the nation."

SAYS JAPANESE ARE PEACEABLE RACE OF PEOPLE

American Commerce Representative Lauds the Nipponese for Their Simplicity of Manner

TOKYO, Jan. 10.—(By Mail.)—Men here who follow closely the trade relations of Japan and the United States declare that a speech which was delivered by W. D. Wheelwright of Portland, Ore., made a distinctly good impression.

Fraught Japannese
Wheelwright was especially generous in his reference to the liberal policies of the Japanese government. A distinctive feature of the Japanese race, he said, was that the government, and not the people, have "instituted the reforms that promote the cause of civilization, and which have therefore been accomplished peacefully instead of by the bloody path of revolution."

Dustin Farnum Vitalizes Zane Grey Character

The color of the Southwest, the intoxicating wine of wide open spaces, dangers of border life, and the lure of woman's beauty. Such is the setting of "The Light of Western Stars," and in it are Zane Grey's greatest characters—vile, fearless and forceful men, courageous and lovable women. Zane Grey's people are out-door people. They thrive in the wide spaces, along the western trails. Sunlight and starlight, the mountain winds and stinging storms, the far horizons, the tremendous scale of things, all these have left their mark on Zane Grey's people, and of his breathing characters none is more virile than his Gene Stewart which Dustin Farnum vitalizes in "The Light of Western Stars."

Famous Star in Smashing Big Story By a Great Author

Dustin Farnum in "The Light of Western Stars" by Zane Grey

Unanimous testimony from press and public has pronounced "The Light of Western Stars" by far the best work the popular and virile Dustin Farnum has thus far contributed to the screen.

The Star

Dustin Farnum is unsurpassed as a delineator of gripping, virile, Western characters. He brings to his picturization a wealth of artistry developed in his screen career, and a ripe experience as a star in stage successes of which "The Virginian" and "The Squaw Man" are typical instances.

The Author

Zane Grey is the master-writer of romances of the Great West. Because he has lived his scenes and knows intimately his characters by actual contact with them in the limitless West, Zane Grey sets them forth as no other can, and to it all he adds the deep sense of the beauty and the wonderful atmosphere of the land he knows so well. His stories are typified by the most powerful and convincing of them all, "The Light of Western Stars."

Action Is Swift

From the very start when Gene Stewart makes a wild wager that he will marry the first girl that comes into the little Western town the action of the picture speeds with breathless swiftness through gripping situations and tense suspense, heightened by the fascinating development of the love story, and reaching a startling climax in Majesty's wild hundred-mile ride to save Gene from a Mexican firing squad.

The Picture

The picture strikes an intelligent as well as popular appeal and is sure to please all classes of patrons: a masterly production remarkable for its happy delineation of characters, its fine exteriors and scenic effects and the high quality of its photography. The Great West has never been more impressively filmed.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

About "The Light of Western Stars"

It is DUSTIN FARNUM'S Big United superpicture. It is A MAGNIFICENT picturization of ZANE GREY'S thrilling romance of the South Western Border. It is ACKNOWLEDGED to be the best and biggest work this great screen favorite has ever filmed.

It is impressive, thrilling, picturesque, rich in human interest. Its grandeur of scenery is a positive delight.

It is directed by Charles Swickard, with screen version by Roy Clements.

It is a story that holds from start to finish. An out-of-the-ordinary big feature with real action in an artistic atmosphere.

It is CLEAN and will please ALL CLASSES of picture patrons.

A STRIKE RESULT

With all due regard for the patent truth of Adam Smith's observation in 1776 on strikes that "the workmen very seldom derive any advantage from the violence of these tumultuous combinations which, partly from the interposition of the civil magistrate, partly from the superior steadiness of the masters and partly from the necessity which the workmen are under of submitting for the sake of present subsistence, generally end in nothing but punishment or ruin of the ringleaders," the brief career of the general strike in Seattle must be taken to indicate that those striking in sympathy with the shipyard workers have not been so far moved by their sympathy as to endure hardships for their convictions. And the early termination of the general strike cannot but strengthen the opinion, for which there was basis in the action of some of the labor organizations in refusing to allow their subordinate unions to take part in the strike, that justice and right in the premises do not abide wholly in the camp of the striking shipyard workers.

Before the bar of public opinion, the shipyard workers generally do not stand with clean hands. It cannot but be recalled, whether in entire justice or not, that while these men were building needed ships they were being paid for their labor a wage that left them something more than the dollar a day the men in uniform were being paid for risking their lives at the fighting front, and that the men in the shipyards generally were not liable to be called into the military service. With entire justice, however, it is recalled also, that these shipyard workers, in contravention of the pledge of American labor not to strike during the continuance of the war, did strike during that period for higher wages. It is not to be expected, then, that with the withdrawal of the active support of other labor organizations, very much is to be expected from public opinion on behalf of the striking shipyard workers.

Weather Conditions Prove Bad for Crop Lack of Moisture Causes Serious Damage to Several Western States

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—Western crops have been unfavorably affected by weather conditions, according to information which was received today from Federal Reserve Agent John Perrin. There has been a marked deficiency in the seasonal rainfall in Oregon, California and Idaho, and cold weather has prevented plowing and seeding, except in California and southern Idaho. The estimated loss has been placed at from 5 to 15 per cent. Grain crops, however, have not suffered materially, and have been greatly benefited by the recent rains along the Pacific coast.

WHAT WE ADVERTISE WE SELL THE BIG STORE WHAT WE SELL ADVERTISES US

PRIORITY AS AMONG SETTLERS UNSOUND

Judge F. S. Dietrich in Federal District Court Makes Important Ruling The theory that there can be priority in respect to water rights among settlers of Carey not irrigation projects was held untenable by Judge F. S. Dietrich in federal district court at Boise Monday in his ruling in the case of C. O. Paulson and others against the motion to dismiss the plaintiffs' Idaho Irrigation company, sustaining complaint for which argument was made by Judge E. A. Walters and Shad L. Hodgins of Twin Falls. In this case the plaintiffs attempted to establish a priority right to the use of water over other settlers because they had entered into a contract with the Idaho Irrigation company for water rights under the original contract with the state before the date August 21, 1917, of the adoption of a supplemental contract to cover a second segregation. The motion to dismiss the complaint was argued on the grounds of jurisdiction and on the basis that all settlers who entered into contracts after the date of the supplemental contract were independent parties to the action. The motion was allowed and the plaintiffs were granted 30 days time in which to amend their complaint. Attorney Harlan D. Heist of Shoshone and Hawley & Hawley of Boise, appeared for the plaintiffs.

SUES FOR DAMAGES FROM AUTO FIXERS

Miss Fannie Thomas Wants $82 for Alleged Non-Fulfillment of Contract

Alleging among other things, that the defendants had refused to complete the work of repairing her car as they had agreed to do, Miss Fannie L. Thomas of Twin Falls, through her attorney, S. T. Hamilton, filed Tuesday in district court here an action against W. E. Aaron; Fred Helfrecht and Frank Wells an action to recover damages in the sum of $82. Helfrecht and Wells, according to the complaint, represented to Miss Thomas last November that they had rented the shop department of the Aaron Motor Car company from the proprietor, W. E. Aaron, and they solicited the work of repairing her car. It was understood, the complaint sets out, that only the two defendants named were to work on the job, but the plaintiff learned later that "numerous others" actually were employed on the work. Miss Thomas was charged $240 for the work done, the complaint recites. She found the work incomplete and also that some of the parts of the car were missing, she says. She repeatedly requested Helfrecht and Wells to complete the work but was met with refusal, she alleges.

GIFT OF SITES FOR CITY PARKS IS CONSUMMATED

Deed Conveying Lots From Land & Water Company to Twin Falls is Made Matter of Record

A deed conveying to the city of Twin Falls for public park purposes, the gift of the late Frank H. Buhl, president of the Twin Falls Land & Water company, consisting of three triangular lots on West Boundary street, was filed Tuesday afternoon in the office of the county recorder by City Clerk W. A. Minnick.

The gift disposes of the last of the holdings of the Land & Water company in the Twin Falls townsite. Previous gifts of the company to municipalities within the empire built up and made possible by the irrigation works of the company, are the blocks in Twin Falls occupied by the court-house, high school and city park, and as a personal gift of Mr. Buhl to the city which bears his name stands the Frank H. Buhl school building.

DELEGATES AT MEETING SHAPE MEMORIAL PLAN

Committees to Assist in Securing State Appropriation for Park and to Draft Association By-Laws Named

The Shoshone Falls Park Memorial association is the name selected for the organization of delegates from the several churches, lodges, clubs, labor unions and schools which is to carry into execution plans for improving the state park at Shoshone Falls and erecting in it a monument in honor of the servicemen from Twin Falls county in the great war.

Decision upon the name and to appoint several committees to attend to details in carrying out the general plan was reached at a meeting Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium here of several delegates. On account of the absence of delegates from communities other than Twin Falls, due, probably to the condition of the roads, Captain C. L. Longley twice moved that the meeting be adjourned to a later date to permit of their participation. The meeting finally adjourned to meet two weeks later at the same place.

In the absence of former Senator M. J. Sweeley, who, with former Senator R. H. Stevenson is now in Boise submitting for the consideration of the legislators a bill appropriating $50,000 on the part of the state for the improvement of the park, C. D. Thomas called the meeting to order. E. M. Wolfe was chosen temporary chairman, and H. R. Grant temporary secretary. A committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for the association was appointed to be composed of Mrs. H. W. Clouchek and C. D. Thomas, with the chairman.

The chairman also was directed to appoint two other committees of three members each, one to go to Boise to assist the committee favored at a prior meeting to secure favorable action on the appropriation bill for improvement of the park, and another to draft the expenses in Boise of the first committee. Mr. Wolfe took until Wednesday to announce the members of these committees and has not yet given out their names.

A joint memorial today from them asks the legislature to condemn his action.

Makes New Rules Regarding Funds

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 12.—Important senate bills to pass yesterday were a measure amending the disposition law to permit the acceptance of state highway bonds for security and one providing for the apportionment of forest reserve funds by county superintendents to the school districts which are short of funds. Among the important bills introduced was a measure appropriating $25,000 to widen and clean Spokane river canal at the outlet at Cour d'Alone lake, a measure providing for an additional tax in highway districts for constructing trunk highways, a bill providing that counties must pay for the care of its residents treated for infectious diseases by another county, another amends the workman's compensation act relating to hospital contracts. That public utilities should be forced to file a complete physical inventory of their plants, lines and all other property is the contention of appropriations committee in recommending them to file this inventory with the public utilities commission, a bill was introduced this morning.

JURY SPENDS LITTLE TIME DELIBERATING

Returns Verdict in Case of Alleged Booze Owner 15 Minutes After Being Instructed

It took a jury in district court here Tuesday afternoon just 15 minutes to arrive at its verdict in the case of Mike Nielson, proprietor of a motion picture theatre and pool hall at Buhl, who was charged with illegal possession of five quart bottles of whiskey unearthed by the officers under the stage of his theatre. The verdict was guilty as charged and Judge W. A. Babcock announced Saturday next as the time for pronouncing judgment in the case.

The trial of Nielson on this charge began immediately after the dismissal of a jury which announced at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning after 16 hours deliberation that it was unable to agree upon a verdict in the case in which Nielson was charged with illegal possession of whiskey found in his pool hall.

It is stated that appeal to the supreme court will be taken by Nielson from the judgment to be pronounced Saturday.

The prosecution was conducted by Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Stephan and J. W. Taylor of Buhl, appeared for Nielson.

PASSES ONE BILL AND SLAUGHTERS ANOTHER

Senate Makes Provision for Buyers of Businesses and Keeps Fees from Court Reporters

BOISE, Feb. 12.—In a long session Monday afternoon the senate passed one bill and defeated another. The bill which passed was an amendment bulk sales law which now includes furniture and fixtures. The present law makes it necessary for the parties selling a stock to give the purchaser the names and addresses of all creditors but it does not include the furniture and fixtures of the store or business.

The bill allowing court reporters to retain all fees was defeated after a long debate. Court reporters now receive $2,500 per year and the contention of the opponents of the bill was that if the compensation was too low that the salaries should be raised rather than to return to any semblance of the fee system. The bill had previously passed the house with only twelve votes against it. On the final passage of the measure in the senate only ten votes were registered for and twenty-nine against.

WANT AMERICAN WORKERS TO BE HOME BUILDERS

Progressive Senators Start Their Second Step in the Industrial Welfare Movement of the Country

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Senator Kenyon today introduced a bill providing for study and a report to congress on a plan to enable every American worker to own his home.

This is the second of progressive senators' "industrial welfare" bills. The first was Kenyon's unemployment bill creating an emergency board to provide work when unemployment is widespread.

The home owners bill, introduced today, creates a commission of six which is directed to study:

1. Existing methods in the United States of financing the building and the buying of homes for persons of modest means.
2. The effect of these methods in stimulating or retarding investment of capital in homes and in controlling the quality, location and cost of them.
3. Methods followed in other countries.

The commission's report to congress is to be made by January 1, 1936, and is to contain recommendations for improvements in present American methods.

Kenyon's idea is that the government should extend aid to workers to the extent of financing them in much the same way as aid is now given farmers under the farm loan act.

A Safeguard
"Such a policy, if inaugurated on a sound basis and wisely administered by the government would erect a bulwark against Bolshevism and unrest," said Kenyon.

"The worker who is paying for his home has more than a money interest in his community and his government. He becomes a soldier citizen and the doctrines of anarchy and Bolshevism make no appeal to him.

"It would not involve a huge outlay of money inasmuch as the funds advanced, by whatever means they might be done, would come back to the government. Government money could be put into no better investment.

"Such a policy would be one step in governmental recognition of the workers' new place in this nation—a place earned through patriotic endeavor in the war."

SCORES POLICY USED BY JAPAN AGAINST CHINA

Noted Authority of Oriental Affairs Strongly Censors the Manner of the Japanese Toward Neighbors

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Japan, with the knowledge that she has everything to gain and nothing to lose territorially and economically, can be expected to force the issue at the peace conference if she finds her anticipated domination of China threatened, Dr. Jeremiah Jenks, noted authority on China, said today.

"Refraining to the pressure that was brought to bear on China both indirectly through financial sources and directly by threats of war in 1915, in order to secure Japan's aims, it does not seem unlikely that Japan will use similar methods now," he said.

Shows Falsification
"Japan denied at that time official many things that she afterward herself published showing deliberate falsification of facts. Japanese statesmen afterwards acknowledged that Japan had forfeited the confidence of the world by this misrepresentation."

Japan's policy of 1915 has never been abandoned, Dr. Jenks said, and despite assurances to the contrary not a step toward restitution has been taken by the Japanese government.

Same Policy Pursued
"Instead she has deliberately pushed that policy forward during the last year as vigorously as ever, he said. People will wonder if she is not following her former methods. It takes more than words to change a reputation.

"The acts of the peace conference will be a settlement of all disputed questions since the outbreak of the war. If Japan loses in Paris, she cannot expect to regain the things lost. Consequently if matters seem to be turning against her she is likely to adopt strong measures if there is hope for success.

Must Insist on Settlement
"On the other hand," Dr. Jenks concluded, "the only sensible as well as just policy is for the other nations to insist upon the disputes between Japan and China being settled openly after the disclosure of secret treaties on the basis of justice to all concerned. We should also bear in mind that China is chiefly concerned and her wishes should be given greater consideration."

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM GROWS MORE ALARMING

Many Thousands are Idle in the Great Western Cities and Number is Rapidly Increasing

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—The unemployment problem is getting more serious, according to figures which were released here today by the Federal Reserve bank.

Labor was fully employed, in industrial centers of the Twelfth Federal Reserve district during the latter part of December, but the subsequent rapid demobilization of service men and the abandonment of wooden shipbuilding have resulted in considerable unemployment which threatens to become serious.

Many Are Idle
The unemployment of soldiers and sailors is noticed especially around demobilization camps, being probably due to the fact the men who are discharged lack funds with which to buy tickets to their homes.

Besides the 45,000 strikers in Seattle and Tacoma shipyards, there are many others who are unemployed. This number is placed at 8,000.

The estimated unemployed in Portland is between 7,000 and 10,000. The majority of these men are wooden shipbuilders and lumber workers.

Little trouble has been met in disposing of the unemployment problem in San Francisco and vicinity. The situation is reported to be more serious in Los Angeles and Salt Lake City. Government reports show that Los Angeles has approximately 6,000 unemployed. Three thousand is Salt Lake City's total.

The situation is changing hourly and predicting future industrial chaos or order is a gamble.

FINAL VICTORY OF LEAGUE IS BEING BLOODED

But the French want German factories to be held impotent until France is thoroughly restored industrially and able to compete on an equal basis. Both the British and Americans appreciate that France is handicapped through the wanton destruction of her plants by the Germans, but the question arises as to how money may be expected to be obtained from Germany for reparation if she is not permitted to go to work and earn it.

Must Consider Opponent
And there is always the possibility that Germany's delicately balanced political situation may be overturned by unjust measures and the whole country thrown into chaos. Another fact contributing to the situation is that early statements regarding indemnity claims were based on the idea of taking territory in lieu of money. Since it has become evident that the old "grabbing policy" will not be tolerated, adjustment of ideas has become necessary.

TEXTILE STRIKE DIES OUT
LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 12.—The strike of textile workers here today appeared to be slowly dying out. There were fewer pickets on the streets and about the mills than any time since the trouble started. The number returning to work today was greater than yesterday. One mill reported that its force was increased by four hundred.

PLANS FOR SIBERIAN ROADS

The following countries have been asked to be represented on the committee:

- "Great Britain, France, Italy and China.

New Management
"The technical and economic management of the railways will be in the hands of a technical board under the presidency of John H. Stevenson (American). The military board will coordinate matters affecting military transportation, arising from the presence in Siberia of military forces of the United States, the allies and Russia."

Aid to Siberians
The statement noted that the plan proposes to aid people of Siberia to regain a normal state of life.

"The United States and Japan," continued the statement, "have expressly voiced their disinterested purpose not to infringe on any existing right either of Russia or where the Chinese eastern is concerned, of China. The associated governments have been unanimous as to the urgency of the situation."

American Help
The plan to aid Siberia was branched some time since and all that was needed was the formality of actual acceptance. With Stevenson at the head of the technical board, it is held here that the operation will be practically American.

SHIPBUILDERS ARE STILL OUT

General Strike Is Ended but Many Unions are Idle Until Adjustment Is Made

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 12.—Thirty thousand shipyard workers are still on strike in Seattle in spite of the efforts of the city's organized labor to bring about a settlement of the shipyard differences by the calling of a general strike.

Although the general strike ended yesterday at noon, union tailors still out of employment until their status is settled at a meeting of the Master Tailors' Association this afternoon. The men went back to their shops yesterday noon but were told that no work had been laid out for them.

The Metal Trades Council met here last night and concurred in the strike conference committee's decision to continue the shipyard strike in spite of the ending of the general walkout.

Seattle's waterfront is being run on the open shop plan in certain sections according to labor men.

Food for Thought
It warns, however, against general use of the open shop plan.

"The immensity of the undertaking has sobered many enthusiasts," it says. "It has shown to many unionists that its use carries a train of responsibilities that are not light and that should not be assumed except under the stress of the gravest industrial crisis.

"The trades union organizations of Seattle are better off because of the clearing of the atmosphere, and we will all be better off because of the close up of the issue about which we have been talking and writing so much."

General Satisfaction
The editorial expresses general satisfaction with the outcome and states that the "anti-illness" of the general strike, due to the return of a number of men before the walkout was officially declared off, was due to confusion that arose at the last.

Official termination of the strike on Tuesday noon, after a five day period, represented a compromise between the strikers and the employers which had a duration of four hours. It was brought to best advantage through reading the ads.
