

WILSON RETURNS HOME FROM HIS PEACE MISSION

After Spending Several Months Working at the Peace Conference of the World, the President Arrives in America

VISIT TEACHES THE NEED OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The Voyage from France was Exceedingly Stormy but the Day of Arrival Dawns Clear and Beautiful.

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 24.—(By courier from the U. S. George Washington, anchored in President Roads)—President Wilson, returning to American shores today, is confident that congress and the people will approve participation of the United States in a league of free nations.

Failure of America to sanction such a course would, he believes, be a great moral blow to the civilized nations now bending their efforts toward a just and lasting peace.

All Look to America

The president's historic journey through foreign lands and his work at the peace table have convinced him that the European nations look to the United States as the one great power without selfish interests, participating in the conference. For the United States to refuse to join in what he and majority of the nations regard as the fundamental of a lasting peace, he believes, break the heart of the world-movement for a new order of things. Hence the president returns to make a study of the conditions of the world, the vital importance of the league. As the covenant is not in its final form and is therefore, not ready for ratification, the president's work here is now formative. His big fight, if one proves necessary, will come after the Paris conference has finally approved a league and the peace treaty is complete, ready for submission to the United States senate for ratification.

Will Ask Peoples' Views

Then the president will ask the people if they will accept the league. This will be done in a series of public hearings, according to the plan of the president. He will leave for France again March 5 or 6. However, the situation as regards appropriation bills, the possibility of calling an extra session of congress, the condition of Premier Clemenceau (whose death might result in a change of French government and resultant delay in the peace negotiations) all enter into the inconclusiveness of his plans today.

Big Task Complete

The president's return finds what he regards as the biggest part of his job abroad completed—formulation of a league covenant. Good progress has been reported to him by wireless from Paris on all of the conference problems which worked out by committees in his absence.

The greatest work outside formulation of the league is held by the president as a negotiator in the discussion of problems which according to last reports, was still much confused.—En route to the United States on the George Washington, Ambassador Franz von Seldene, secretary of the German peace conference with the house and senate foreign relations committees, said of the Russian situation, with which he has been dealing for three years.

A reign of terror, instituted by the Bolsheviks in order to maintain themselves in power, was prevailing in Great Russia—no central and northern Russia—according to last accounts. The outrage committed by the Bolsheviks are incredible.

Settle Russian Policy

"I think it is impossible to restore peace in Europe with chaos prevailing in Russia. In fact, with Germany unshaken internally and with her army receiving reinforcements on its return to Berlin, I am persuaded that if a peace is negotiated with disorder or Bolshevik rule in Russia that Germany, with her familiarity with the Russian character, which she has been studying and attempting to control for a generation or two will be able to utilize the immeasurable resources of that great country in a few years, or perhaps a decade, will be stronger than at the beginning of the war just ended. If so, Germany, instead of being defeated, will have gained a victory out of the war, which she brought on, in order to realize the hope and expectation of the 'Deutschland über alles' which all the Germans cherished until that great country's military power was compelled to surrender its fleet and to disarm its military forces by America entering the war."

A Stormy Voyage

The president is in excellent health despite the fact that the voyage was extremely rough and there was a prevalence of grippe and colds aboard from which several of his party were confined to their beds for days. During the last lap of the journey, the fastest time was made, even some of the soldiers aboard volunteering for the work to insure no delay in their arrival. The soldiers, comprising the Fifth Engineers and the 146th Machine gun battalion, will disembark tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

For a time yesterday it looked as if the landing today would be delayed. Finally, breaking through a heavy fog and driving snow about 3 o'clock,

CLEMENCEAU IS OUT OF DANGER

Band of Boys Carrying a Red Flag March Along Crying "Down with Clemenceau"

PARIS, Feb. 24.—(Premier Clemenceau, shot by an assassin Wednesday, was believed to be out of danger today.) The official bulletin issued today said:

Premier Clemenceau is continuing to improve. He spent a restless night, however, owing to his enforced inactivity yesterday. His temperature is 36.6 centigrade (97.88 Fahrenheit). It was expected he might be able to carry out his avowed intention of resuming his official duties tomorrow.

A band of boys appeared on the street yesterday morning, carrying a red flag and shouting "Down with Clemenceau!"

The police were alerted by the noise and they seized the boys. They were mildly punished and the boys were released.

The president is sleeping in his study.

SEBASTO, Calif., Feb. 24.—Duffy Lewis told friends he had accepted terms from the New York Yankees and will play left field this season. He has been quoted as saying he would retire. Salary differences, he said, had been adjusted.

ORDER IS RESTORED

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 24.—The Hungarian government has practically been restored in Budapest, where a Bolshevik outbreak occurred last week, according to dispatches from that city today.

One of the destroyer convoy, seeing the great ship's danger, swung around and crossed her bow, signalling the danger. The lookout on the George Washington, then seeing the shore line and breaking waves, reversed his engine. There was an hour's delay before the fog lifted when the sun again broke through the haze and the George Washington, changing her course, resumed her journey toward Boston.

The president, working in his room and noting that the ship had stopped, went out and joined in the merry-making at the temporary halt in progress. The night was spent in President's stateroom.

DENIES REPORT OF RUSSIAN GUN

...of Eleven Have Set up a Soviet Government and Will Resist Interference

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 24.—Reports of a Russian gun in the possession of Premier Eisner and other ministers are denied by the "committee of eleven," according to dispatches received from Munich today.

The committee, which has set up a soviet government, has announced its determination to resist any interference by the Ebert-Scheideman government.

Latest previous advices reported that the Spartacists had completely overthrown the Bavarian government and set up a soviet republic in Munich. Rioting and pillaging was said to be going on Friday and Saturday. Russia, one of the six ministers shot during Friday's session of the diet, was variously reported to have died from his wounds and to have been captured by the Spartacists. It was also reported that Auer and Arco-Valley had died from their wounds. The latter, a monarchist and former captain in the Prussian guards, was wounded by a guard after he had shot Eisner.

WILL TRY TO MATCH WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Jim Coffroth today announced he intended to try for a Willie Ritchie-Ted Lewis match for the welterweight world championship.

But Coffroth's affair could only be of four rounds in this state.

He said he considered Ritchie at the pinnacle of his career after his showing against Benny Leonard. Ritchie cannot make the lightweight limit now.

NO RECOGNITION WILL BE GRANTED THE NEW SOVIETS

The German Government Refuses to Consider the Move the Radical Element Has Made

BY JOHN GRAUENZ
BERLIN, Feb. 23.—(Delayed)—The German Government announced its determination today to refuse recognition of the newly proclaimed soviet republic in Munich. Military action was expected to be deferred, however, until the Bavarians themselves are given an opportunity to overthrow the radicals.

Disorder Continues

Spartan disorders were continuing in the industrial districts of Germany. At Mannheim, prisons were opened and the city was being patrolled by armed cars, manned by radicals. The Spartans demanded establishment of a soviet republic. Authorities of Baden proclaimed a state of siege. Strikers at the Dusseldorf region, Muelheim and Oberhausen decided not to accept the decision of the Essen laborers to return to work.

Discharges Troops

The council of eleven, which is administering the affairs of the soviet republic in Munich, was said to have discharged all regular troops and replaced them with "people's guards." Persons suspected of complicity in the restoration of the soviet republic were arrested.

Among them were the following: Luxemburg, standing about with his hands.

Gun That Struffed Paris Still a Mystery

(By United Press.)

WITH THE THIRD ARMY ON THE MARCH, Feb. 2 (By Mail)—The secret of "Big Bertha," the huge gun that fired upon Paris, still is jealously guarded. From a commission of high German artillery experts sent to confer with the army, Americans were given attempts to elicit some details of the big guns.

The German officers frankly admitted that they knew little about it. They declared that information about the "Big Bertha" was kept secret even from the highest German artillery officers. Only a few specially picked officers knew of the locations or details of the monster, and the crews of the gun were sworn to secrecy and kept isolated from other soldiers.

The crew were under oath to commit suicide to avoid capture or revealing information about the gun. The German officers claimed they did not know what became of the guns after the armistice, but believed they were destroyed.

Dixie Doughboys Are Going Back to Farm

(By United Press.)

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Feb. 24.—Back to the farm is no imaginary movement for the Dixie Doughboys. A. E. P. letters received from many Tennessee boys now overseas are to be taken as accurate indications.

Scores of these soldiers have written their relatives and friends asking that provisions be made for them to farm this year. One officer who was not a farmer before going to war has asked his father to have a farm ready for him when he returns.

Others who shunned farm work before going to France seem to have caught the fever and are asking for land to sell or buy. Practically every soldier from this section who farmed prior to entering the service has gone back to tilling the soil upon being discharged.

It is thought that the intensive methods of the Europeans will be adopted by the soldiers when they return, thereby increasing the production of Tennessee farms.

Peacemakers Must Bring Sea to Many Nations

(By United Press.)

PARIS, Feb. 1 (By Mail)—One of the nice little mathematical problems the peace conference has to solve is how to make a maritime power out of a land-locked one.

The states now facing this problem are Poland, Hungary, Bohemia, Bulgaria and the new Turkish empire of Asiatic Turkey, the two latter being deprived of access to the sea only in case the peace conference accepts the Greek solution of the near-east problem.

Poland is fighting hard for some sort of settlement that will enable her to have a Baltic sea outlet at Danzig. Prussian territory lies in the way, but Prussian territory no longer is considered much of an obstacle.

The Hungarian state that presumably will result from the dismemberment of Austria-Hungary, as well as Czechoslovakia, appears to be thoroughly shut off from the sea.

Greece wants to cut Asiatic Turkey and Bulgaria off from Salt water, and make Constantinople either Greek or international.

Trainer Tex Rickard here for a conference with the champion, said an announcement as to the site of the big row may be possible within three weeks.

"There are a number of big cities offering the fight," he said, "but their offers will have to be considered confidential for the time. There have been no definite developments in the last few days."

Rickard was non-committally interested in the tribulations of Nevada's boxing hall. He will go to New York within a few days. Willard expects to remain in the oil region.

WILL PROVE PLOT

Secret service operatives today said evidence had been secured which will be used to prove some of the prisoners had planned to kill the president by throwing a bomb in Boston. Neither bombs nor explosives were found at the place raided.

The prisoners did not carry any firearms. According to the police who operated in the arrests, the only evidence found was issues of a Spanish weekly under head membership cards for the J. W. W., a small machine that they did not understand and a picture of Carl Liebknecht.

RACE FOR HOME CAN NOT EQUAL BERLIN AFFAIR

Brest Port was One of the Important Points in the Mad Fight to the German Capital

By LOWELL MELLETT (Copyrighted 1919 by The United Press) BREST, Feb. 24.—While every effort is being strained here to get the boys home as fast as possible it is not a race. The reason is that Brest, having outdistanced all other ports in the great "race for Berlin" has no serious competitors in the "race home."

The "race to Berlin" began between Brest, Bordeaux, St. Nazaire, Havre, Marseilles, Boulogne and Calais. It began in November, 1917, and was designated as the world's greatest organization was the most efficient. It accomplished eight weeks' theoretical work in forwarding troops and material in six weeks and two days.

Official Figures When the armistice was signed, 679,40 troops had passed through Brest. The first boat arriving in November, 1917, required seventeen days to discharge its cargo. On May 24, 1918, six weeks after the armistice, troops and material were discharged within twenty-four hours.

The Pleasant Side This is the pleasant side of Brest's activities during the trying months when there was just one hope of seeing the American army and the American people—to get the men to the front. These records were achieved with totally inadequate facilities, insufficient lights, no trucks, no ambulances, and with roads in deplorable shape.

In August, the city of Brest suffered an influenza epidemic. There were many deaths among the French inhabitants but the army's precautions prevented the disease from spreading to the troops working on the docks and at Camp Pontanezen. The men were transported by train from America bringing victims of influenza and pneumonia. The first of these ships were the Van Stueben and the Louisiana, which reached here September 1918, with a hundred dead and hundreds of sick aboard. One unforgettable night was that of October 12, when the Levantian arrived with hundreds of sick men.

Brigadier-General Butler, former commander of the thirteenth marine, had just been given command. That night he sent a thousand marines down to the docks. They carried 500 sick men in their arms four miles to Camp Pontanezen through rain and mud while there were not enough stretchers.

The general himself walked with the men, carrying the packs of three sick men. Today he related how he met two marines in the dark, heard a sob, turned on his flashlight and found both weeping as they carried a limp body. He asked what the trouble was. One replied, "One man died on us."

Storm Flays Havoc A terrible storm blew down many tents the night of January 6, this year, unloading 1,800 men. General Butler ordered all kitchens fired up and dinner served. Bonfires were kindled and blankets placed in the camp. Late in the evening a disagreeable incident was thus turned into a lively midnight picnic while accommodations were being restored.

The spirit displayed in these various situations described is responsible for the present efficient organization, which led Chas. M. Schwab a few days ago to write a personal note of commendation to the conditions in the camp. Late in the year he had dozens of men to volunteer to remain for permanent garrison duty, though they were scheduled to sail for home.

OLD CLOTHES MEN OUT OF LUCK; WAR TAKES WOOL WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—Seven hundred and forty million pounds of wool, grease equivalent, were produced by manufacturers in the United States during 1918. Much of this wool went into clothes for soldiers, while the old clothes man called in vain for the shabby and tattered garments worn by civilians at home.

Military needs kept the monthly consumption of wool to an average of 65,000,000 pounds, grease equivalent, for the first ten months of 1918; but in November it fell to 47,000,000, and in December to 33,000,000 pounds as announced by the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture.

UTAH RENDERS PHONE ORDER INOPERATIVE WOULD AVOID A CLASS WAR HERE Man Who Recently Returned From Russia Says He Upholds the Soviets

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Albert Rhy Williams today told the senate committee probing Bolshevism that his one idea in lauding the soviet was to promote an understanding of what happened in Russia in order that we may avoid the violence and cruelties of a brutal class war here. Contradicting statements of other witnesses, Williams, who recently returned from a tour of duty in the great mass of the people supported the soviet.

Williams charged that the stories of atrocities as told the committee by other witnesses were grossly exaggerated. Assailed Germans "Ninety-nine per cent of all money raised by the soviet was concentrated in an assault on Germany," said Williams. "The whole theory of soviet propaganda has been a relentless war of propaganda against those who wage a patriotic war against it. That is why such a ferocious propaganda campaign was waged against Germany. That is why in a milder form it was carried out against England and France. But because America did not aid the assault against the soviet government it in turn has left America out of the attack."

"The American people want to hear the truth and are willing to pay for it. We who have been fighting for fair play for the soviet, have been absolutely without any funds except those supplied by the good will and graces of the American people. The other side seems to have unlimited funds."

How T. R. Stood By His Subordinates Ex-Governor of Porto Rico Gives Characteristic Incident in His Administration

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—An interesting sidelight on Colonel Roosevelt's trust in his subordinates while he was president, is told in a letter of Regis H. Talk on Ground Squirrels "Accordingly we called to Washington requesting an appointment. I arrived a week later in Washington and to my delight found that I was to lunch with the family early alone and for one hour—no interruptions by other business. When we reached the table, however, I discovered that the president had upon his right an elderly gentleman, whom I took for some foreign ambassador or other person of importance. The president had just returned from a hunting trip in the west, and to my dismay, instead of taking up the family, he started a long discussion with the gentleman on his right in regard to a new species of ground squirrels which he believed he had discovered on his trip. The whole incident was viewed in the manners and customs of ground squirrels.

FLU IS NOT UNKIND (By United Press.) MELBOURNE, Feb. 3 (By Mail)—That the Spanish influenza epidemic which has attacked the antipodes is radically different from the type of the disease prevalent elsewhere in the world, is the belief of Dr. Robertson, chairman of the board of health for Victoria, Australia. Dr. Robertson points out that the rate of mortality in Australia is low. The states of New South Wales and Victoria have declared quarantines against the disease which is characterized as "pneumonic influenza," causing all metropolitan theatres, dance halls, and meeting places to be closed. The New South Wales cabinet has decided the use of masks by anti-influenza masks be made compulsory. Since January 21 only 337 new cases of the disease were reported in Melbourne, with only 27 deaths resulting. They were only 12 cases in Sydney, two of them being considered serious.

SIX BILLIONS IS INCOME TAX YIELD ESTIMATE

Work on Collection of this Amount is Begun By Bureau of Internal Revenue—Nearly All Pocketbooks Affected

Work on the collection of $6,000,000,000 has been begun by the bureau of internal revenue. This is the estimated yield of the new revenue bill. The income tax provisions of the act reach the pocketbook of every single person in the United States whose net income for 1918 was $1000 or more, and nearly every married person whose net income was $2000 or more. Persons whose net income equaled or exceeded these status, must file a return of income with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which they live on or before March 15.

Non-Compliance Penalized. Here is what will happen to them if they don't, for failure to file a return on time, a fine of not more than $1000 and an additional assessment of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due. For "willfully refusing" to make a return on time, a fine of not more than $10,000, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, together with an additional assessment of 50 per cent of the amount of tax evaded.

For failure to pay the tax on time, a fine of not more than $1000 and an additional assessment of 5 per cent of the amount of tax unpaid, plus 1 per cent interest for each full month during which it remains unpaid.

Some Exemptions Allowed. In addition to the $1000 and $2000 personal exemptions, taxpayers are allowed an exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon them for chief support if such person is under 18 years of age and incapable of self-support. Under the 1917 act, this exemption was allowed only for each dependent "child." The head of a family—one who supports one or more persons closely connected with him by blood, relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption—is entitled to all exemptions allowed a married person.

The normal rate of tax under the new law is 6 per cent of the first $4000 of net income above the exemptions, and 12 per cent of the net income in excess of $4000. Incomes in excess of $5000 are subject also to a surtax ranging from 1 per cent of the amount of the net income between $5000 and $6000 to 5 per cent of the net income above $10,000.

Payment of the tax may be made in full or in installments, or on or before March 15, on or before June 15, or on or before September 15, and on or before December 15.

Officers to Assist. Revenue officers will visit every county in the United States to add taxpayers in making out their returns. The date of their arrival and the location of their offices may be ascertained by inquiring at offices of collectors of internal revenue, postoffices and banks. Failure to see these officers, however, does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to file his return—and pay his tax within the time specified by law. In case taxpayers must seek the government, not the government the taxpayer.

MEMORIAL FOR SOLDIERS FROM BUHL IS BEING PLANNED

BUHL—There has been considerable talk on the streets of Buhl during the past week concerning a memorial for the men from the west end who have gone into service, says the Buhl Herald. The sentiment is unanimous for providing a memorial, though there are several opinions concerning the nature of it.

A majority of those with whom we talked favor providing something that is of practical use, instead of ornamental only. However, there were several good suggestions to provide a statue of some sort.

BEANS ARE A GOOD CROP

BUHL—R. C. Bulkeley, who lives southeast of Castleford, raised 25 acres of beans last year which netted him over $100 per acre, says the Buhl Herald. The beans were planted on contract. Mr. Bulkeley expects to plant 50 acres of beans this summer, 25 acres of contract, and 25 acres of white beans.

Mr. Bulkeley used to live near Fillet, and has raised beans for the past several years. He says that beans are a profitable crop if planted by June 15, though added that many farmers do not plant them until in July.

PLANS A NEW FLOUR MILL

Equity at Nampa May Build at Cost of $100,000

NAMPA, Idaho, Feb. 24.—The Farmers' Society of Equity of Nampa is contemplating the building of a 200-barrel flour mill in Nampa, at a cost of approximately $100,000, and to mill wheat grown in this section by members of the organization.

The equity held a meeting, and it is reported $45,000 was subscribed for the mill at this meeting. It is said $30,000 was previously subscribed by members of the organization for the mill.

The new warehouse to be built by the equity on Ninth avenue, opposite its present location, was discussed at the meeting. The building will be 84 by 50 feet in dimensions, and will be two stories high. The second story is to be used as a grain and feed room.

Four new directors were chosen to fill the vacancies on the board of directors of terms which had expired. Those elected were J. P. Foley, F. H. Gandhill, William Wood and Joe Swartz.

The society plans considerable expansion from now on, and intends to enter new lines that have not been handled by it. At the meeting February 11 it was voted to amend the articles of incorporation to allow for increased expenditures and additional buildings, and to develop new lines of work.

The last years of the Equity have been successful in all lines entered into, and vast shipments of grain, poultry, clover seed and other products have been made to the southern and coast states.

For several weeks meetings have been held in rural districts, explaining the Farmers' Society of Equity and selling stock in the enterprise.

PIPE LINE FROM MILNER TO BUHL IS SUGGESTED

BUHL—The latest plan which has been suggested as a possible source for Buhl's water supply is that of building a pipe line from the Milner dam, or from some place this side above the point where waste water empties into the canal, to Buhl, says the Buhl Herald. This pipe line is to be large enough to carry water for each of the cities along the route.

Several ways have been suggested to put in this system. One of them is for the cities interested to go in on the venture and each one pay the percentage of the total cost equivalent to the percentage of water used. This percentage of water should be based on amount delivered through a meter at each city reservoir.

The other plan is for the canal board to build the system and then sell it to the cities, each one paying according to the amount of water taken out. The advantage of such a plan would be that but one organization of the system, and that the canal company could better secure easements to carry the pipe line through farms if necessary. It is thought that there would be little trouble to secure easements inasmuch as the farm houses where the pipe line is carried could be supplied with a water system.

CONTRACTOR FILES SUIT AGAINST CANAL COMPANY

H. G. Gilkerson of Salt Lake Wants Judgment for $24,000 or Alternative Amount

The Twin Falls Canal company is named as the defendant in a suit filed in district court here by H. G. Gilkerson of Salt Lake in which he asks judgment in the sum of $24,000.00 and interest for alleged interference on the part of the canal company with the fulfillment of a contract to which he with the canal company were parties under date of March, 1917, for repair of the high line canal.

As an alternative cause of action, Gilkerson asks for judgment in the sum of $17,527.20 with interest as the value of the work he already has completed under the contract.

He alleges in his complaint that interference with his work resulted from the failure of the canal company to shut water out of the canal at the time he was supposed to be working on it.

He is represented in this action by Attorney Arl B. Sawyer, Jr., of Salt Lake.

Order for 100 Eggs Comes from Moscow

Mrs. E. A. Crawford of Curry to Supply for Hatching on Expert's Recommendation

Mrs. E. A. Crawford of Curry received Saturday an order for 100 Buff Orpington hatching eggs from E. M. Johnson of Moscow.

The order came through Prentiss Moore, poultry husbandman, who called Mrs. Crawford's flock while he was in the county.

Mrs. Crawford stated that she has disposed of every chicken picked out by Mr. Moore as a poor layer, that she has mated up her fowls according to Mr. Moore's advice, and that they are laying splendidly and she expects to have the 100 carefully selected eggs ready for shipment next week.

FINN INTERNATIONALIST WOULD OVERTHROW U. S.

Organizer for I. W. W. in Toils in North Idaho, Voices Disloyalty

PLUMMER, Idaho—Oscar Saari, alias Mr. W. Hill, is a good subject for the psychologist to work on, if Saari be of sound mind and is speaking his convictions, says the Plummer Republican.

Saari, or Hill, is now in jail at St. Maries, awaiting action of the federal authorities, charged with violating the espionage act in that he did unlawfully and wilfully utter profane, disloyal and abusive language against the form of government and the constitution of the United States.

The complaint was made out before U. S. Commissioner McAdams this place and sworn to by Sheriff Prentice Wolfe. Witnesses whom the sheriff says he has reason to believe and does believe are material witnesses to the subject matter of the complaint are W. M. Steele, marshal of St. Maries; W. R. Pierce, logger of Poodo; C. G. Gregg, deputy sheriff; L. E. Harter, county assessor.

"Would you like to see in the place of the president?" "Any of the boys?" "Do you like this government?" "No."

"Would you like to see this country like Russia?" "Yes." "Do you believe in destroying property to accomplish the I. W. W. teaching?" "Yes."

"Did you come here to help overthrow the government?" "Yes." "Do you believe the I. W. W. will get strong enough to overthrow the government?" "Yes."

"Do you think you should have as much right here as a native born citizen?" "Yes." In addition to the above the prisoner indicated that he worked in the saw mill, that he might do some poor work, hoping that as a result the ship would sink when it was loaded with soldiers. He said that he is an I. W. W. organizer but claimed his organizer's certificate had not been sent to him.

Saari claims that he is a native of Finland. REALLY? Hopper—What are you doing with that gun? Flopper—I just shot a dog with it. Hopper—Has he made it? Flopper—Well, he didn't seem very pleased. HOW TRUE? Many people would reform if they were not expected to refund—Life.
