

LEAGUE DEFEAT SEEMS CERTAIN IN THE SENATE

President Wilson Returns to France With the Knowledge that Many Oppose the Present Form of Draft

REPUBLICAN LEADERS AGAINST THE MEASURE

Thirty-Seven Senators Pledge Themselves to Defeat League Constitution in Present Form

BY L. C. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson will carry back to France with him the knowledge that thirty-seven members of the next senate are pledged to his league of nations plan in its present form.

This number is four more than the 33 votes necessary to prevent ratification of a treaty.

Senators Pledge
Following a night of bitter discussion which was still raging against the president at 8 o'clock this morning, a review of the situation disclosed that thirty-seven senators, of whom some will come in at the next congress, have pledged that the league constitution in its present form should not be accepted by the United States.

The peace treaty concluding the war should be postponed until after the treaty is finished.

Wants It On Records
This was the substance of a resolution presented by Senator Lodge, Massachusetts around midnight. In presenting the resolution he was careful to point out it would be spread on the record. He sent it to the desk with the request for unanimous consent for immediate consideration.

Like a flash, Senator Swanson, Virginia, objected, Lodge, anticipating this, was quick to reply.

"I wish to read, in explanation of the following names of members of the sixty-fifth congress, and members-elect of the sixty-sixth who if they had been given the opportunity would have voted for this resolution."

Amid silence from the democrats and the packed galleries, Lodge read the names of the 37.

Democrats Are Silent
There was a hush for a moment after he had finished. Everyone turned to the democratic side, expecting a storm of protest and condemnation from democrats—but not a word came. In a moment Senator Trammell, Florida, began speaking warmly on the general defensive of the league.

The senators and senators-elect who signed are all republicans. The resolution was shown to a number of democrats, but none of them was asked to sign. Those who did sign are:

Senators Lodge, Knox, Sherman, New Mexico, Wadsworth, Fernald, Cummins, Warren, Watson, Bierling, Harding, Frothingham, Page, Hale, Borah, Brandegee, Calder, Pease, McLean, France, Curtis, Spencer, Townsend, Hiram Johnson, Dillingham, Lenroot, Poland, and Butler.

Senators-elect Edge, New Jersey; Keys, New Hampshire; McCormick, Illinois; Phipps, Colorado; Newberry, Michigan; and Hall, Delaware.

Those who did not sign are:

Four or five others, absent a great distance from Washington had not been reached, Senator Lodge told the senate. He would be reached, he said, and those who agreed with the 37 would be added to the list. Republicans who did not sign were:

Cott, Kellogg, La Follette, McCumber, McPherson, Nelson, Norris, Kenyon, Jones and Fall in the present senate, and Capner, senator-elect from Kansas; and Elkins, senator-elect from West Virginia.

Of these, opponents of the league claim Kellogg, La Follette, Jones, Fall and Elkins and possibly Nelson are opposed to the present draft of the constitution. The others would be reached definitely with the administration. Kenyon said today he had constituted hundreds of letters from hills answered by having his share an answer and will return to Iowa to discuss the matter.

FOUR CONVICTED MEN ARE PARDONED BY PRESIDENT

Mr. Wilson Winds Up Cases of Men Found Guilty in California Grant Cases

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—The four principal government witnesses who were also defendants in a series of cases growing out of the graft at the Angel Island immigration station were pardoned by President Wilson today according to a telegram received by United States Attorney General J. Edgar Hoover from John W. Donahoe, former solicitor general of the department of labor.

The following pardoned had been sentenced to one year imprisonment each following plea of guilty: Preceley A. McFarland, Robert T. Ferguson, Harry A. Akers, Robt. R. Hendricks.

German National Assembly Will Be Dissolved at Once

Central Police Station of Berlin in Hands of Armed Mob—Bioting General

COPENHAGEN, March 4.—The German national assembly will dissolve today, according to dispatches received from Weimar. It is not expected to reconvene.

Bioting preceded the declaration of martial law in Berlin yesterday. It was reported in other dispatches. Notwithstanding the police succeeded in capturing the central police station.

Military Governor Noske has ordered that everybody seen on the streets after six o'clock in the evening shall be shot without warning.

The above dispatch, unconfirmed from another source, would indicate that the revolutionists have succeeded in forcing dissolution of the national assembly which constitutes the legislative branch of the present government.

The rioting in Berlin shows the independent socialists were unable to carry out their declaration that no violence would accompany the general strike called late yesterday.

Declares China Apt to Become a Nation of Fiends

Drug Habit Rapidly Gaining Ground—Japanese Blamed for Much of Trouble

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Japan is behind an attempt to undermine the Republic of China with drugs, according to W. B. Hart, United States commissioner to China for the common public information, who arrived here today from his post in the latter China.

Hart said organized Japanese smugglers are taking opium and morphine into China disguised as food and war munitions, and then selling the drugs to the Chinese.

"As a result the drug habit is again gaining ground," said Hart. "When I left things were in a deplorable state. Men and women were dying from the drug joints. China will soon become a nation of drug fiends unless the smuggling is stopped."

BOLSHEVIKS LOOT HOUSE OF HARVESTER COMPANY

Famous International Machine Company Is Subjected to Errors of Radicals

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Bolshevik troops damaged and looted the branch house of the International Harvester company at Artztel, Russia, according to state department advice received from an American official in Russia today. The looting was done with the express approval of the soviet government, the state department said. Damages amounted to 800,000 rubles, in normal times $400,000, the announcement stated.

Swedish press reports were quoted by the state department as stating that the Russian soviet government had appropriated 5,000,000 rubles a month for propaganda purposes.

JOHNSON FOR PRESIDENT

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 4.—"See our next president" is the speech of presentation going with the distribution today at the capital of campaign buttons bearing the likeness of Hiram Johnson.

CHRISTIANIA, March 4.

Representatives of fifty thousand workmen passed resolutions today threatening a general strike unless a new election is held at once. A proposal to establish workmen's and soldiers' councils was rejected by the closed vote of 63 to 64.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

Secretary of War Baker today said he would tour the camps of the United States next week to inspect demobilization work. He leaves Sunday for Camp Custer and goes to Dodge and thence to the Pacific coast.

WARSAW, March 3 (Delayed).

Germanians in Grodno attempted to pass off some of their fellow country men as Lithuanians when an American officer went to that city recently to confer with the municipal authorities, it was learned today. Following his request for presentation to the city officials, the German commandant brought a delegation before him which the American discovered to consist of German soldiers in civilian clothing. It was believed the Germans intend to misrepresent Lithuanian opposition.

PLAIN SPEECH CONSPICUOUS AT GATHERING

Delegates in Attendance Upon White House Conference on Internal Problems Told to Go Home

EXECUTIVES IGNORANT ON THE ENTIRE SUBJECT

Oox of Ohio Only Man With an Adequate Understanding of the Real Extent of the Trouble

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Governors and mayors attending the White House conference were told today they had better go back home and find out what their problems were," by George S. Baker, Oregon. Baker did not mind words. He declared that with the exception of Governor Cox, Ohio, apparently none of the members of the conference realized they were confronted with a real menace and that their states and cities were vitally concerned.

Baker declared that none of the speakers has had the "old news" to say what they felt. He charged that "an insidious underground propaganda campaign" was in operation and that the only government official who had admitted it was Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Governor Sprout, Pennsylvania, bitterly assailed the administration for what he termed "too over-loving government care and supervision." Sprout directed his attack particularly at "rails, mails, express and telegraph service, such as this country never knew before."

Criticism Mail Deliveries

Sprout cited mail delays as a "fine example of the methods now in use," mail deliveries now average three to five times as long as formerly, he asserted.

Governor Cox, Ohio, advocated as one aid to stimulating resumption of work a "sweeping reduction in freight rates on road materials."

Cox said the freight rates reduction might be extended to all classes of building material.

This plan, Cox argued, naturally would result in losses to the railroads, but the government has the railroads and the government has the money. He pointed out that it was not more unreasonable for the government to take a loss in this form than to pay the losses occasioned by the wheat price law.

NEW BAVARIAN CABINET MEMBERS ARE CHOSEN

BASLE, March 4.—Herr Seitz was chosen president of the new Bavarian cabinet at the recent congress of state, dispatches from Munich today concluded. The other cabinet members and their portfolios are:

Finance, commerce; Niekisch, warship; Endres, justice; Jaffe, finance; Durr, agriculture; Schreiff, military administration.

PRINCE LEOPOLD FLEES LONDON, March 4.

Prince Leopold of Bavaria is reported to have fled from Munich late the night, joining former King Ludwig. The socialist press of Tyrol is said to be demanding their expulsion.

Burglar's Enter Home of Twin Falls Mayor

Theft of Diamond Rings and Other Articles of Value at Residence of A. L. Swim

Burglars who entered the residence of Mayor Arthur L. Swim, 160 Ninth avenue north, Saturday evening possessed themselves of several articles of value including two diamond rings, diamond earrings, a gold watch and a revolver, but overlooked other articles which would have been taken had the job been a thorough one, according to the mayor. The burglar was caught by the mayor upon his discovery of the theft. Entrance was gained through the rear entrance of the dwelling by cutting through the screen door. The members of the police force expressed confidence that the persons guilty of the theft would be apprehended shortly.

FAILURE OF ARMY BILL MEANS RETAINING TROOPS

Soldiers Who Were to Be Returned Home Soon May Have to Be Kept in Camps

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Failure of the army bill to pass congress means retention of a great many soldiers much longer than had been planned. Secretary of War Baker announced today. He characterized the situation as difficult, but said the department would not be seriously embarrassed as to finances.

The bill provided for a regular army of 500,000 men, which Baker said was to have been enlisted at once to replace men who enlisted or were drafted for the war. The number of soldiers who will be held in the army by failure of the present bill, Baker stated, although he said only 40,000 soldiers are enlisted for longer than the emergency.

Men affected include those in the A. E. F. and those at home camps.

PRESIDENT TO STAND PAT ON LEAGUE PLANS

Will Carry His Case to People as a Whole in Fight With Republican Senate Leaders

WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson left Washington at 2 o'clock this afternoon, prepared for a "show-down" before the people on his fight with senate republicans.

There will be no change in his plans to return to France on schedule and he has not relaxed his determination to call no extra sessions of congress now, it was stated by his advisers.

Thinks People Firm

The challenge set up by senate republicans on his league of nations covenant, the president is confident, will be accepted "back home," and the people, he believes, will demand its ratification when the time comes.

The president regards the issue on the league of nations as clearly drawn along this line.

League—and peace, or no league—and inevitable war resulting from competitive nations.

Must Be of Some Use

He remarked not long ago to some friends that when great competitive navies and armies are maintained, they cannot be kept idle forever.

And the immediate result of such armies and navies, his advisers point out, is a heavy and constantly maintained tax burden, of which the people now are getting a taste as a result of the gas tax.

The president will pursue this thought in his final appeal to the people in New York tonight, was intimated by his advisers today.

The president stepped aboard a special train at 11:30 p. m. and left for New York two minutes later.

Issue Is Clear Out

The issue is clear out, every Republican senator who has been especially spoken of as a presidential possibility today, but cannot be expected to support the president's league plan. Borah came out early against the covenant and Hiram Johnson, Lodge, Harding and Watson, all of whom have been named as favoring the Republican presidential nomination have pledged themselves against it.

The fate of the league rests now in the hands of the rank and file of the American people. It is their decision, when it is finally taken up, will depend also whether William Howard Taft and those republicans out of congress who favor the league will control the republican party in 1920 or whether Lodge and his colleagues in the senate will be in the saddle when campaign time rolls around.

STRANGLING PROCESS IN FORGE TO BITTER END AT CLOSING HOUR

Sixty-fifth Congress Brought to Close With Sherman of Illinois in Midst of Speech Begun at Early Hour—Wilson Signs Last Minute Bills and Cleans Up Session

FILIBUSTER RAGES ALL NIGHT LONG CEASES WITH ADJOURNMENT

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The sixty-fifth congress died at noon today, strangled by a filibuster. As the final gavel fell in the senate on the stroke of noon, it cut short a speech begun at 7:30 a. m. today by Senator Sherman, Illinois, which blocked the transaction of all business. All roads led to the senate end of the capitol, for it was there that the filibuster raged all night long, and through the final hours of what has been one of the most tumultuous sessions of the American congress. It was there also that President Wilson, with a trace of anger in his eye and a set to his jaw—but wearing his usual smile at times—signed the last minute bills and cleaned up the business of the session.

GREAT HARBOR IS TIED UP BY MARINE STRIKE

New York City Is Experiencing a Walkout Which Affects Many Employes Throughout City

NEW YORK, March 4.—New York harbor was completely tied up today by a strike of the marine workers' employes, affecting practically all men employed on the Hudson and river front around this city. It was estimated that 16,000 quit work at 6 a. m.

Government Craft Exempt

Government craft were exempt from the strike order. The rivers and bay fronted by the Hudson and river front boats visible this morning. Ferries were halted and service on tubes under the Hudson river crippled when employes there quit in sympathy with the boatmen. Partial service was being maintained under the river, railroad officials said. Many Jersey commuters, however, were forced to cross the Hudson on foot.

The strikers have refused to accept the employers' offer of a compromise and demand an eight-hour day, increase of 30 cents in the wage scale and time and a half for overtime. Leaders of the men declare they cannot accept the war labor board's award of an eight-hour without a wage increase.

TRANSPORTS CARRY MANY RETURNING WAR VETERANS

Two Ships Arrive Today Bringing Home Troops from Battlefields of France

NEW YORK, March 4.—The transport Hochstetler arrived here today with 370 officers and men from Brest. The organization aboard were units from the 10th of states, including four officers and 133 enlisted men; mobile hospital 100 and casual company 124.

The Siboney arrived with the following organization: convalescent detachments from Bordeaux, 45 officers and 1,887 men; detachment of the 348 infantry; detachment of headquarters, 4th division; sanitary detachment 348th infantry and 36 casual officers. The men were disembarked today.

GOVERNOR OF OREGON CROSSES DARK RIVER

James Withycombe Dies Suddenly from an Attack of Heart Failure

SALEM, Ore., March 4.—James Withycombe, governor of Oregon, died unexpectedly in his home here last night. Death came without warning, due to heart failure.

The governor gave his life to the state. He had been in poor health for several months, but continued his executive duties though he was confined to his home near here the last two weeks. He was very optimistic about his health, however, yesterday, saying he felt better than he had for some time.

The secretary of state, Bev W. O'cott, automatically became governor with the death of the chief executive last night and will also serve as secretary of state.

Governor Withycombe was 64 years old. He was born in Devonshire county, England, and lived there on a tenant farm until 17 years of age. He had been a resident of Oregon since 1871.

PRESIDENT WILL SIGN REGRESS APPOINTMENTS

It Is Officially Announced that These Will Be Made Just Before Wilson's Departure

WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson will sign the recess appointments of A. Mitchell Palmer as attorney-general and John Skelton Williams as comptroller of the currency as they were made last November, but he goes aboard the George Washington, it was officially announced at the White House today. This action is necessary because the senate failed to consider the appointments of these two before adjournment. They will take office immediately after signature of the appointments by the president.

When other recess appointments are made, it will be by the recess appointment method, it was stated.

Fair tonight and Wednesday.

SENATE STAYS IN ATTENDANCE ENTIRE NIGHT

Republicans Keep Up the Filibuster Through the Day and Night to Keep Appropriation Down

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The sixty-fifth congress is giving a filibustering death.

Shortly after 10 o'clock today, democratic senate leaders, Martin, Simmons and Underwood declared they would make no further effort to prevent the republicans talking until the session ends at noon.

Dooms Measures

This definitely dooms the following measures until an extra session is called:

The army, navy, Indian, agriculture, sundry civil and general deficiency appropriation bills, the $100,000,000 bill to provide farm houses for soldiers and sailors, the oil leasing and water power bill.

This was the situation laid before President Wilson today but he is not to be known he would call no extra session now.

There was no indication at 10:50 o'clock that the republicans would relax their filibuster.

President Wilson arrived at the capitol at 10:55 a. m. and went at once to his room to sign necessary bills.

After an all night filibuster, Senator Sherman announced shortly after 8 o'clock that unless he dropped dead the general deficiency bill carrying $750,000,000 for the military would not pass. If Sherman and other republicans carrying out this threat it means that not only will all pending appropriation bills now fail, but several important nominations must go unacted.

Nominations Still Pending

These include A. Mitchell Palmer, for attorney general; John Skelton Williams as comptroller of the currency, and General Robert E. Noble as a brigadier general in the United States Army.

Democratic leaders mustered their weary forces just after dawn to discuss means of breaking the filibuster so that the railroad administration's insistent plea for money might be answered. Director-General Hines has informed congress that much of the $750,000,000 will be urgently needed no later than May.

World Force Change

The all night filibuster was a final republican attempt to force President Wilson to change his mind about delaying the extra session until after his return from France. Senator Martin, appropriation committee chairman, was emphatic in his demand that the republicans let the deficiency bill pass that the republicans decided this measure must prove a better means of forcing the extra session immediately than the victory loan bill.

When Senator Champ Clark of the house learned of the senate situation he declared that unless the extra appropriation is approved today an extra session must be called tomorrow. This is imperative, Clark declared, if financial disaster is to be averted.

House Late Unpassed

At this hour (9 a. m.) it seems a practical certainty that every measure excepting the loan bill asked by President Wilson—will be left unpassed when the session ends at noon. These measures are:

The army, navy and other departmental appropriation bills.

The oil leasing and water power measure.

The sundry civil bill providing for retention of the federal employment service.

The Lane $100,000,000 homestead bill. While the senate watched the filibuster, the house passed a resolution urging the peace conference to act favorably on Irish independence. The vote was 216 to 41.

The rest of the night was spent in listening to Representative Walsh's minority report on the national security league investigation and in calling the roll.

To Sign Bills Today

President Wilson is expected to spend an hour or two in his room in the senate building today.

SOCIALISTS CALL GENERAL STRIKE

Independent Group Announce a Political Affair Against the Present Government

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

BERLIN, March 3 (Delayed).—Following a split caucus late today independent socialists announced the general political strike against the present government will be called at 8 o'clock tonight instead of Wednesday morning.

The independents demand political recognition of the soviets and overthrow of the Scheidemann cabinet.

The government announced "there will be no compromise with terrorism." There was every indication that the struggle between parliament and the bourgeoisie will not go to a finish. The hero here this evening appeared unperturbed by the latest turn in the political situation.

Keep Criticism to Yourself.

When you feel an inclination to criticize, remember that you weren't born to set the world right. Just murmur to yourself that, after all, it's a pretty nice little old world, and that perhaps it would be even more difficult to get along with people if they were all quite perfect, which they certainly aren't. Just keep your critical faculty to yourself; it will have all the exercise it needs.—Exchange.

Speed on the Plane.

When a well-known pianist was playing a precto by Mendelssohn a man who was present set himself to counting the notes and the time occupied. She played 5,500 notes in four minutes and three seconds. Every one of these notes involved three movements of a finger, elbow or arm. At 24 notes per second that amounted to 72 movements a second.

To Mend Marble Ornaments.

To mend marble ornaments, plaster of Paris, finely powdered, is worked in as much saturated solution of alum as will absorb it. The mixture is baked in a slow oven, and when hard it is ground in a powder. This powder, mixed in water and applied like plaster, sets very hard, will take a very good polish, and, if properly colored, makes a capital imitation of any kind of marble.

ate wing today signing bills acted on in the closing Senate.

The last night of the session drew to the capitol the greatest crowd in its history, according to attaches. Every corner and wireway on the three floors of the senate wing was jammed until nearly midnight while galleries remained full until daylight.

Republicans Still Talk

While haggard, sleepy democrats planned their strategy to plan the final battle, republicans talked on. The filibuster began at 1:15 a. m. with a speech by Senator Sherman. The night was marked by bitter assaults on President Wilson. Charges of gross mismanagement of the country's affairs were made by La Follette and Sherman. Lenroot declared the president refused to call an extra session at once because he fears debate on the league of nations may turn public opinion against his league plan.

Personal Bitterness

The republican attacks were strongly tinged with personal bitterness against the president. His reported criticism of his opponents as men of "pigmy minds" whose heads are "knuts to keep their bodies from unraveling" added to his unpopularity. Sherman took this up in a sarcastic speech shortly after midnight in which he referred to Wilson and Taft as "luncheon statesmen."

"These distinguished men are always heroes at such luncheon or pink tea," said Sherman, "they will soon be a distinct class, known as the male luncheon-ettes."

DES MOINES, Ia., March 4.—The state authorities of California were flayed because of their conviction of Thomas Moore in a speech by George Stuart of Springfield, Illinois, before members of district 13, United Mine Workers of America.

The Mooney conviction is only one phase of the war between capital and labor on the coast," said Stuart. "Gross irregularities are responsible for the conviction and imprisonment of Mooney."

The miners' delegates, about 150 from Iowa and northern Missouri, which comprises the district, are discussing wage problems this afternoon.

BOXING BILL IS ASSURED IN NEVADA IS REPORT

Assembly Passed It Over Governor's Veto and Senate Is Expected to Do Likewise

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 4.—Twenty-five round boxing contests for Nevada were assured today.

The assembly late yesterday passed the boxing bill over the veto of Governor Boyle. Similar action in the senate is certain. Possibly today the bill was given one more than the necessary two-thirds in the assembly, despite the fact that two members favoring it were absent. The plan earlier in the day had been to await the return of these two members before calling up the bill.

Recent fight promoters were jubilant. They will at once get in touch with Tex Rickard, who is promoting the Willard-Dempsey champion affair; and try to persuade him to stage it in Reno.

MEXICO WOULD PAY ALL DEBTS

Government Favors Making Atonement for Damages Done by Revolutionists

MEXICO CITY, March 3.—(Delayed).—The Mexican government went on record tonight as favoring payment of all its just damages resulting from the revolution. Liquidation of all foreign debts and amendment of the confiscatory oil law.

The announcement was made at a banquet to American newspapermen.

Robert Pequera said he had been authorized by Luis Cabrera, who will accept the ministry of Hacienda next week, to state that the Mexican government will pass a new oil law recognizing the right of ownership of the sub-soil in all properties purchased before promulgation of the new constitution. Properties purchased after that date, he said, will be subject to the Mexican law which gives the sub-soil to the nation. He said it is the intention of the government to create a federal oil reserve.

President Carranza declared that Pequera that all just damages incurred as a result of the revolution will be paid in full, and that the government will not repudiate any foreign debts. No foreign loan is needed, the president said, as the present revenues amount to $150,000,000 a year and are expected to reach $200,000,000. The surplus, he said, will be devoted to paying the interest on foreign debts.

How to Apply Gum.

By means of a printed notice attached to each tin of gum, E. M. stationary office thus instructs the government officials in the use of that substance: "In ordinary use, the best and most nearly immediate result is obtained by using only such an amount of gum as will just uniformly moisten the surface without leaving any obvious excess to delay drying. The condition to be aimed at being that of a gummed postage stamp just moistened as ordinarily applied to a letter." Which is just another way of saying, "Apply lightly."—London Tit-Bits.

"The American Addition."

"The American Addition" was a complimentary nickname conferred on Joseph Denton, a newspaper man born at Boston in 1798, who won reputation as "Oliver Oldachobol." Under that pseudonym he established and for several years conducted a periodical called "The American Addition" from all accounts, was popular in its day. He died at Philadelphia in 1812.

Heel Not to Bear Weight.

The weight of the body must never be borne on the heels. In walking, the leg is thrown forward from the hip, knee acting in harmony, heel touching the ground first; but the weight should be so quickly transferred to the ball of the foot that the heel makes no noise. One who walks noisily is always walking incorrectly and of course cannot be graceful.

65TH CONGRESS SPENT HUGE SUM

This Session of Legislative Body of Our Government Creates Record for Law Making

By L. C. MARTIN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The Sixty-fifth congress dies today. It leaves to history a record of three sessions, two of them remarkable for their legislative accomplishment, and the third for its lack of accomplishment.

The sixty-fifth will be known in American history as the $60,000,000,000 congress. Its three sessions appropriated approximately that amount. This broke all American records and probably all world records for a single congress.

The congress was divided into three sessions, and these marked three distinct phases of activity.

The first was the war-making session. It began April 2, 1917, and ended 188 days later, October 6.

The second was the war winning session. It was the longest single session of the American congress ever held, lasting 354 days, from December 3, 1917, to November 21, 1918.

The third was the readjustment session, lasting from December 2, 1918, until today.

The war-making session opened with a declaration of war on Germany, passed by the senate April 4, and by the house April 6, and immediately signed by President Wilson.

There quickly followed a bill providing for $7,000,000,000 bonds to finance the war and help our allies; a bill appropriating money for the army, the draft bill, subjecting men between 21 and 31 to military service, which became law on May 18, and the law increasing the navy and marine corps to 500,000.

To prevent alien foes interfering with America, the first espionage law was passed in June; to safeguard food supplies and fuel the food and fuel act was made law August 10.

Heeding Europe's call for aircraft, congress created the aircraft board October 1. On October 6 came final enactment of the law prohibiting trade with the enemy.

During the session congress appropriated directly and authorized contracts for a total of $1,891,966,814.

Of this, nearly $8,000,000,000 went to the army and navy; $640,000,000 was for military equipment, and $1,000,000,000 for the allies; food and fuel control took $162,000,000, while miscellaneous war activities absorbed the remainder.

The whole purpose of this first session was to change peaceful America into a warring America. Carrying out its pledge of all the country's resources congress appropriated whatever was asked.

The second or war winning session was occupied chiefly with increasing the effectiveness of the war machine, and providing the purse to beat the Kaiser. Six appropriations totaling over more prodigal and his delegation of power even more sweeping than in the first session.

It added Austria officially to the list of our enemies by a declaration of war on December 7, 1917.

It then passed in rapid succession such measures as the $50,000,000 housing bill, followed by $10,000,000 housing bill, provided quarters for munitions and shipyard workers; the bill protecting civil rights of soldiers and sailors; created the war finance corporation to help the war effort; gave the government control over the railroads, the daylight saving law; the Overman act, giving the president sweeping power to speed up and coordinate all military activities; the third and fourth Liberty loan acts, the wire control act, under which the telegraphs and telephones were taken, and the law extending the draft age.

It appropriated the vast sum of $85,288,405,000. Practically all went to war work at home, maintaining our army abroad, and helping the allies with loans.

On November 11, President Wilson announced to the second session that his work had been done—the war was won, and on November 21 the war winning session closed.

The readjustment session had been looked to by many in and out of congress to buckle down at once to solving reconstruction problems some of which were thrust upon the nation before the crushing and unexpectedly early defeat of the central powers.

By congressional action suffered from the reconstruction that affected business and, to a degree, labor. It relaxed after the war, and the readjustment session was a session of readjusting congress to the new situation in criticism, both by democrats and republicans, of war mistakes and blunders, and in discussion of President Wilson's mission abroad and of his peace terms.

The session did manage a few accomplishments, however, including the final enactment of the $6,000,000,000 war tax bill; appropriation of nearly $100,000,000 to clean up war business, feed starving Europeans, care for the railroads, and run the vastly expanded activities of the government.

Nearly close, the senate relegated to the sixty-sixth congress the question of woman suffrage, by defeating the Susan B. Anthony amendment, which the house had passed. Twice during the sixty-fifth congress the senate neglected woman suffrage. It was spent in criticism, both by democrats and republicans, of war mistakes and blunders, and in discussion of President Wilson's mission abroad and of his peace terms.

The session did manage a few accomplishments, however, including the final enactment of the $6,000,000,000 war tax bill; appropriation of nearly $100,000,000 to clean up war business, feed starving Europeans, care for the railroads, and run the vastly expanded activities of the government.

Nearly close, the senate relegated to the sixty-sixth congress the question of woman suffrage, by defeating the Susan B. Anthony amendment, which the house had passed. # WORLD VIEWS EXPRESSED IN NATION LEAGUE

Basic Principles are Expected to Remain Much as They are While Many Details May Be Changed

By FRED S. FERGUSON

PARIS, March 4.—The league of nations, according to the opinion prevailing in official circles here today, will start functioning soon after the general peace settlement is effected, certainly not later than early fall.

The great majority of the peace delegates apparently are agreed that the present covenant represents the composite world view, as nearly as possible and that it will be adopted practically as it stands. While there is still intense interest in the attitude of Washington, attacks on the league constitution—such as those of Senator Lodge and Senator Knox—do not credit the impression that was expected among the foreign conferees. The latter feel the American opposition has touched only on plans that were thoroughly thrashed out and agreed to in discussions by the league committee.

Details May Be Changed

While the basic principles of the league are expected to remain as outlined at present, there seems to be no doubt that many of the details will undergo some changes when the constitution comes up for open debate before the general peace conference. Numerous amendments have already been received from neutral countries and others will be asked to offer ideas.

Discussion of military, naval and air terms of the preliminary peace with Germany was not completed yesterday and it will be taken up again. Thursday by the supreme war council. It was reported that the aerial provisions, as recommended by allied military officials, contemplate reduction of Germany's air force to a few hydroplanes, which would be used in searching for mines still floating in northern waters.

Reduce Blockade

In the face of reports of increasing serious conditions in Germany, plans for partial reduction of the economic blockade are being held up by the British continuing to refuse permission for Germany to pay for food with money and to buy many of the goods which will undergo some changes when the constitution comes up for open debate before the general peace conference. Numerous amendments have already been received from neutral countries and others will be asked to offer ideas.

It is the horse that has fought the war of the world and won our human liberty. Besides this, he has won our priorities, sown and harvested our grain, and delivered it to the markets of the world. vious one having been declared unconstitutional. By taxing profits from the sale of bonds, the revenue bill, advocates of this legislation declared they have gotten around the constitutional objection. A test is being made.

Practically the reconstruction legislation was passed. The third session failed to settle the permanent policy on railroads or telegraphs, and was unable to agree on a plan of communication legislative branch of the government should supervise general reconstruction policies.

During the entire congress, but chiefly in the second session, there was conflict between congress and the president. In the many clashes, the president was invariably able to impose his will, and on many a measure was upheld by a single vote, or by a narrow margin on woman suffrage.

He failed with the country when in the fall of 1918 he appealed for election of a democratic congress to co-operate with him in reconstruction. Both house and senate will be republican in the sixty-sixth congress.

WILSON LEAVES IN MIDST OF A GREAT QUARREL

The Bitterest Fight of His Political Career is Now Raging on the Day of President's Departure

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson left for Europe today in the midst of the bitterest fight of his political career.

Returning to France to complete his work on a league of nations he leaves behind the definite assurance that a sufficient number of republican senators have pledged themselves to defeat ratification of the league if it is presented to the next senate in its present form.

A Party Issue
It was stated by republicans in the senate today that the idea of approaching the republican senators for signatures on the league ratification was abandoned primarily because the republicans wished to make the league document a party issue and go before the country in an aggressive campaign, attacking everything on the issue.

The president's friends say this is agreeable to him and they believe that if necessary he may even stand for reelection in 1920 with the league covenant as the issue.

Nothing Definite Decided
What he will do now directly in reply to the resolution and signed document presented by Senator Lodge was the subject of much conjecture today. He is reported extremely bitter about the action of the republican leader, believing it may have serious effect abroad.

That the president will counter with a strong reply when he speaks together with former President Taft in New York tonight, is accepted as certain. It will be his last appeal to the Americans from his own shores before his return for the peacemaking conference.

To Speak in New York
The president expected to go to the capitol at 11 o'clock today and remain until the adjournment of congress hours. His special train to New York is scheduled to arrive there at 8:15 to-night. From the train the president goes direct to the Metropolitan opera house to appear in the opera house, the president will join a delegation of Irish leaders who want him to support Irish claims at the peace conference.

From 8:15 to 9:15 o'clock the president will stop at Philadelphia to pay his first visit to his little grandson, Woodrow Wilson, Bayre.

May Leave Tonight
The president party goes aboard the George Washington after the president's address at New York, but the time of sailing depends on the tide. It was announced that the Roosevelt big vessel may slip out of the harbor during the night. It is certain the big ship will "leave off" by early morning.

The president's party will be Mrs. Wilson, former Attorney-General Gregory, who will act as an official counselor to the president, and several other officials. Rear-Admiral Carl Grayson, and his staff of personal stenographers and clerks.

Although the president has been working at speed, not all of the executive business has been cleared up. He will work on the train en route to New York, but on the ocean trip the president expects to rest as much as possible.

"Peat Cotton"
A material known as "peat cotton" is either made into cushions on which the feet are placed, or as filling for handkerchiefs. One difficulty about using peat cotton is that it must be kept moist. When dry it crumbles into dust and becomes useless. A trace of tar in the make-up renders peat cotton a valuable disinfectant.

Who Gets the Kiss?
"Since you worked your examples so nicely," said the pretty teacher, "I shall give you a kiss." "Teacher, I didn't know there was to be a reward," responded the honest urchin. "It's only fair to tell you that my big brother did them same."—Life.

Testing the Taffy
Pat's grandmother was making him some old-fashioned molasses candy. She let him taste it from the cold water cup to see if it was done. Each time she would ask: "Is it hard enough?" and he would answer: "It's pretty easy yet."

The Difference
Everyone who enjoys nature thinks that the principal thing to the tree is its fruit; but in point of fact the principal thing to it is the seedling. Herein lies the difference between them that create and them that enjoy.—Nietsche.

To Repair Frayed Shoelaces
When the rag or end fastening comes off a shoelace, take a little black sealing wax and press it carefully around the end of the lace and shape it to a point. This will last a long time and does away with the annoyance of frayed lace ends.

To "Finance" a "To Let" Advertising Campaign
You need only set aside for perhaps a few days—a part of your pocket money.

Roosevelt Memorial Committee Is Active

State Organizations are Being Formed with Democratic Support

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Roosevelt Permanent Memorial National Committee, of which Col. William Boyce Thompson is chairman, announced yesterday that state branches of the committee are now in process of formation in Vermont, New Jersey, West Virginia, Montana and Delaware. These state committees will consist of one representative from each congressional district in a number of members at large. As soon as the members of the various state committees are appointed by the national chairman, the work of organizing committees in cities, towns and villages will be undertaken.

Support from Democrats
The memorial committee is securing warm support from the ranks of Col. Theodore Roosevelt's erstwhile political opponents. Editors of democratic newspapers have, it is understood, been exceptionally cordial in their support of the movement to create a fitting memorial to the great American. Chairman H. H. Hays, published a letter from Hon. Marting H. Glynn, ex-governor of New York, a democrat of national reputation, heartily endorsing the movement for a Roosevelt memorial.

"Colonel Roosevelt certainly occupied a unique place and warm spot in the heart of America," writes Mr. Glynn, "and his memorial ought to be illustrative of his popularity and magnificence. He was the most versatile man of his time and, probably, had the largest personal following of any man in America. He deserves a monument to his memory." Ex-governor Glynn succeeded to the governorship of New York on the impeachment of Governor Sulzer. He made the keynote speech at the democratic national convention in St. Louis in 1916.

HOW ROOSEVELT SAVED ONE MAN'S REPUTATION

Experience of Guide Touches Sense of Fair Play of Distinguished American

(Contributed by G. B. Wellington, Troy, N. Y.)

"After it became known that Roosevelt intended to make a trip through Africa, a friend of his, a well known American apartment, who had been in a part of the territory that Roosevelt was intending to visit, and who may be called Carey, though that was not his name, wrote him making various suggestions. Among them he warned him particularly against hiring a certain guide at Nairobi who was capable, but the writer said, 'an untrustworthy'."

"Possibly most hunters would have made a mental note of the guide's name for the purpose of surely avoiding him. Not so, however, with Roosevelt."

"When he reached Nairobi he inquired of his host if he had ever heard of this guide, naming him."

"I have heard of him," was the answer, "but I don't know anything about him except that Mr. Carey said publicly that he was untrustworthy and no one has been willing to employ him since."

Roosevelt's sense of fair play was aroused. It struck him that ruin a man's reputation and livelihood with a shrug of the shoulders on the basis of mere evidence of wrongdoing was unjust. He immediately sent for the repudiated guide and inquired with his inclusiveness into all the facts and circumstances of his case. The conclusion he reached after careful investigation was that the guide had been unfairly treated."

Roosevelt thereupon arranged a ten days' expedition that was not on his itinerary. He hired the unrepudiated guide and putting him in charge of the expedition. When Roosevelt returned he announced publicly that the guide was an intelligent, most industrious and most satisfactory guide he had ever seen. This was spread abroad. It resulted in the re-establishment of the guide in his native country. He became, again, sought after by hunters and was able again to make a living and support his family."

To Roosevelt, it was all only an incident in an eventful year. To the guide, it was salvation.

SPEEDING CAR CRASHES INTO BRIDGE GIRDER

Three Persons are Killed and Two Fatally Injured By an Automobile Missing Bridge

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., March 4.—Three persons were killed and two more probably fatally injured shortly after midnight today when a speeding automobile crashed into a center girder of a bridge over Indian Creek here.

The dead are, Mrs. J. C. Brock, Edgar A. Hutchins and James Allen. The injured are J. C. Brock and J. E. Shank.

All the victims reside here. Witnesses of the accident declared the car was going fifty miles an hour. The car struck the girder, spun around the edge of the bridge and turned over twice, finally pinning the occupants underneath.

A sailor with a sore throat went to a physician who inquired if he ever tried gargling with salt water.

"Indeed, I have," responded the sailor. "I've been 'topped' six times."—Boys' Life for February.

When It's a City Institution

In every town and city there is always one newspaper that is characteristic of the City—an institution of the City and the surrounding country. It has grown up with the City, developed with it, shared in its prosperity and its reverses.

It has both led and followed—led its multitude of readers because they believed in its honesty and its sincerity; followed when others were quicker to see paths of advancement. It has fathered projects for the development of the City and the good of the people and has put them through, many times in spite of opposition.

And because this one representative newspaper has done these things and continues to do them, it has retained its readers-year after year—and will continue to retain them.

German Leader Tells Policies

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
BERLIN, Feb. 1 (By Mail).—Germany will convince the world by the peace conference that she is a changed nation, and can be dealt with as such, according to Philipp Scheidemann, widely known German statesman.

"The delegation to the peace conference will be truly representative of the new Germany," says Scheidemann. "It will include some of the men who are responsible for the frightful calamity of the last four years, nor any who were otherwise contaminated by the practices of the old system."

"It is necessary for us to purge the atmosphere of our own house, having suffered enough from the old system which brought us to the very edge of perdition, we hope that notwithstanding the heavy burdens which peace will lay upon our shoulders, we shall come out of this war as purified and better men and enter the society of free nations on a footing of equality."

The foreign policy which we are resolved to pursue will be based exclusively upon pacifism and the League of Nations. We social democrats have always been champions of these ideals, during the long years when we were suppressed. We are glad that we have a chance to put them into practice.

"We are today the only people in the world that has almost entirely demobilized and disbanded its standing army. The German people has put the idea of reduction of armaments into practice. Though fully conscious that this may tempt many enemy politicians to do us violence, we confidently believe that the spirit of the League of Nations and international brotherhood will convince the world that it faces a new and entirely changed Germany."

"We hope that the ideals of humanity may have retaken their rightful place also in the minds of our enemies. We understand why the blockade of starvation, enacted against the German people for the last four years, is still maintained, and we learn with much gratification that America is endeavoring to have it lifted."

"Another thing so far our hearts is the return of prisoners of war. German troops formerly in Turkey are a particularly pitiful case. Strong Bolshevik hands prevent them from returning to Germany, and they are systematically robbing them and trying to get possession of their arms and ammunitions. We still hope the entente will permit these soldiers to return to Germany by sea before they fall victims to the brutality of the Bolsheviks. If not, we are confident British port commanders will not let our men die of starvation."

FRANCE LIKES US, BUT—
PARIS, Feb. 10 (By Mail).—While admitting that the United States put up a record for the most far-reaching diplomatic victories in the history of the world, in showing up at the peace conference with nine votes from North America, Central American and South America, the French press said that Britain's six, and the one vote of each of the other great powers, nevertheless the French press is inclined to be sarcastic about it.

This is the way "L'intransigent" expresses it: "France, which had 1,385,000 killed in the war, has only one vote, the same as Japan, which lost 400,000 men, and which has 600,000 dead, has six votes and America for 36,154 dead has nine votes."

"Does this mean that blood has no price? The blood which was not to be shed for conquering foreign soil has not even been regarded for us the right to talk."

Three Hands.
One of our famous illustrators used to say some people had three hands, a right hand and a left hand and a little behindhand. The fifth wheel to a cart is frequently mentioned as an example of uselessness, but the third hand is worse than useless. It is a serious handicap, observes a writer. All of us need to keep our right hand busy, and most need to teach the left hand to do its share, but a little behindhand should be promptly amputated.

Porcelain, Feather, Fur Money.
Porcelain money is used in Burma and Siam; and feather money, manufactured from the short red feathers from beneath the wings of a species of porcupine, is used in the Loyalty Islands, which lie in the Pacific to the east of Australia, are famous for their fur money. The fur, which is taken from behind the ears of the so-called "wing fox," is really a large fruit-eating bat. It is woven into cords of various lengths, and these constitute the ordinary currency of the Islanders.

WOULD DEPORT ALIENS ASKING FOR EXEMPTION

Foreigners Who Were Convicted Under the Espionage Act May Be Returned to Former Homes

(Special to The News)
BOISE, Ida., March 4.—Deportation of aliens convicted under the espionage act is urged in a house memorial passed by the senate Monday afternoon after the foregoing provision was placed in the memorial by senate action. The original document referred only to the deportation of aliens who pass by the senate Monday afternoon after the foregoing provision was placed in the memorial by senate action.

Belief on the part of lawyers that the provision on the espionage act passed Monday morning session was unconstitutional, prompted the introduction of a second bill by the same author during the afternoon.

Would Change Salary Law
Having the compensation to county commissioners on the assessed valuation of counties and fixing salaries for county commissioners from $500 to $1900 and placing counties in eight classes, a senate bill by Christian of Bonanza passed. The measure makes it necessary for the legislature to name the salaries to be drawn by county commissioners and there is an extreme lack of uniformity throughout the state.

Removes Will Obstruction
Under the present state statutes it is impossible for either husband or wife to will property to charitable institutions or to any person except children of the person, the estate party to community party. In senate bill 103, which was passed during the afternoon session yesterday, this obstruction would be removed.

The original ruby consists of nearly pure aluminum, a oxide of aluminum—in a crystalline form, containing but 1 per cent of oxide of iron and one-half of 1 per cent of any other substance. The specific gravity of this precious stone is higher than that of many other gems, ranging from 2.9 to 4.2. The refractive index of the metal has a density of 2.65; when forged, 2.67, or only one-third of that of forged steel or a fourth of that of silver. The melting point is about 1800 degrees Fahrenheit.

Ants That Carry Umbrellas.
In Mexico there is a variety of ants that carry little green umbrellas, made from bits of leaves, to protect their heads from the scorching tropical sun. Sometimes they carry a contract to the Youth's Companion, who has lived in the turbulent republic across the Rio Grande. I have seen two ants walking together while one politely carried the umbrella over the two. At other times, she says, I have seen them, when going in opposition to the ants, and salute each other before they passed on.

Teach Feet to Point Straight.
The human foot is wonderful in its formation; the 26 bones and intricate arrangement of muscles make it susceptible of a high degree of training, as one observes in fancy skating and ballet dancing. But it is sadly hampered in its practical activity by being encased in leather and having to support the weight of it as well as to prop the feet forward and to counteract the force of the wind. We should learn to walk with the feet pointing practically straight.

Human Friends.
Do you idealize your friends? Sometimes a person who has worshiped at the shrine of a teacher or schoolmate is shocked to find a weakness in the discovery of a flaw in the one who was fancied perfection embodied. Human nature is faulty, and it is always dangerous to identify the virtues which demand our fealty with any human being. Keep on loving and honoring truth and kindness, even though you detect some acquaintance in a falsehood, or are treated unkindly by a friend.—Exchange.

To Renew Linoleum.
When linoleum becomes worn, polish it with prepared liquid wax. Dampen an old piece of woolen underwear with a solution of the wax and rub the linoleum with it as if you were scrubbing the floor. Polish with a dry woolen cloth until it shines. This renews the faded colors. After the first coat of wax, the linoleum may be polished daily with a waxed cloth. Herein is a good handle, thus saving the housekeeper from scrubbing the floor.

Does Not Reduce the Price.
A pipe has been invented which fills itself as fast as the tobacco in the bowl is consumed. How Mark Twain would have appreciated this modern convenience! While Mr. Chaceaux was a young man, it is said, he constructed a pipe, consisting of a can of tobacco placed on the floor, to which a long rubber tube was attached. Then he would light the whole can and smoke in bed.—Exchange.

BUSINESS BLOCK AT HOLLISTER IS FLAME SWEEP

Early Morning Blaze Destroys Frame Buildings and Merchandise—Stocks Involving Estimated Loss of $30,000

(Special to The News)
HOLLISTER — Fire originating at 1:10 o'clock this morning destroyed a block of three frame buildings occupying almost the entire width of a block on the south side of Main street here, involving an estimated loss of $30,000, about two-thirds of which is believed to be covered by insurance.

The buildings which with their contents were destroyed were the property of J. R. Diebolt, Jacob Cohen and J. B. Burrows. Sections of the buildings owned by Cohen and Burrows were vacant.

J. R. Diebolt lost his two story building on the west corner and a warehouse at the rear containing a stock of hardware and general merchandise.

Jacob Cohen lost his stock of general merchandise and building.

J. B. Burrows lost his building and stock of hardware and furniture.

Buckets Save Situation

The town of Hollister is practically without fire protection. Citizens work with buckets to prevent the spread of the blaze to the building on the east corner occupied with a stock of implements by the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, which several times burst into flame. The distance of two vacant lots separated this building from the blazing block. So intense was the heat that windows in the buildings on the opposite side of the street were broken.

The buildings destroyed were the first erected in Hollister, all of them being built in the years 1908 and 1909. They composed what was for years the center of the town and housed up to the present time the principal business firms of the town.

HOUSE PASSES REVISED BILL ON PRIMARIES

Concerns in Senate Amendments in Record Time—Appropriation Measures are Well Received

(Special to The News)
BOISE, March 4.—Making a record for speedy legislation the house Monday afternoon, four hours after the introduction and passage by the senate of the amendments to the new primary law, passed the bill.

It was not, however, until democratic members had been allowed a twenty-minute recess for an luncheon, that they would allow the consent necessary for the suspension of the rules. This was done by a vote of 51 to 46 and the measure passed by a vote of 46 to 13.

Appropriating $2,017,580, the educational bill providing for the biennial needs of the educational institutions of the state was passed with no changes made from the original bill and with no itemizing of the money to be spent by the state board of education.

A house memorial urging congress to pass the Polidexter bill to prevent discrimination by long and short haul freight rates was passed by a majority of 45 as was the bill creating a forestry board.

Bill Patent Medicine Bill

The attempt in house bill 178 to place certain brands of patent medicine in the class of intoxicating liquors was defeated 44 to 17. Another house bill passed invests the department of finance with the administration of the assessment of property and reviews the state tax commission.

Other measures to go through the house today were one creating a commission to design a badge of honor for militia soldiers, measure requiring public utilities to file an inventory of their physical valuations and a bill authorizing county commissioners to appropriate funds for demonstration work.

After having previously passed the house the measure which provides a revolving or general expense fund for officers of the state successfully passed the house. The measure to be used by each office will be fixed by a state board of examiners. The purpose of the act is to permit the immediate payment of general expense accounts without waiting for claims to be allowed.

World Increase Salaries

Amending senate bill 106 to provide the governor of Idaho with a salary of $7,500 per year, the senate committee of the whole recommended Monday afternoon the passage of the measure. Reduction of the salary of the state treasurer from $4,000 to $3,000 and raising the auditor and secretary of states to $2,000, the bill is intended to make the state officials outside of the governor draw salaries on the same basis as provided for in senate bill 10.

Amendment of the Vanaman measure empowering the department of public works to acquire lands and factories for producing road making materials resulted in adding an appropriation of $75,000 and in a general reconsideration from the committee of the whole.

With Hosts and Hostesses

A most elaborate and beautiful party of the season was that given by the teachers of the Bickel school to the other teachers on Saturday night in the Moose hall. The guests had been summoned several weeks in advance to appear on certain colonial characters. On the colonial ladies and gentlemen entered the rooms a judge servant pointed the way to the dressing rooms, then when the guests entered the hall they were announced by this same servant. Another negro liveried person handed the dance programs to the ladies. The programs were cleverly made with little bouquets for decorations. They had been made out with the old time names and blue streamers draped to the sides and from these tiny bright gold stars hung. The orchestra of four pieces was hidden by a screen of red, white and blue streamers. At one end of the hall there was a large table covered with the reality of the scene. The curtains were shaded in black and white and over this was draped blue and white flowered lambrequins. Dim shaded candlesticks were placed about the room for light.

They were shown in the flowers on the buffet.

The table which was presided over by Miss Perkins and Mrs. Austin Thomas was covered with a lovely white cloth and was lighted by a beautiful chandelier. After a delicious lunch showing a color scheme of red and white these first tea party people danced a rye waltz while the rest of the guests had supper.

Funch of an excellent variety was served throughout the evening.

The final dance was made quite delightful by strings and pieces of varicolored confetti thrown over the scene.

The costumes were beautiful and many of them most elaborate. With such wonderful consideration entertainment and decorations it was easy to imagine one's self to be a true colonial lady or gentleman.

On Saturday evening Mrs. T. J. Woods entertained at an auction bridge for four tables. The guests were served with dainty refreshments at the end of evening. Those present were Miss Jane Maxwell and Madames John Maxwell, E. A. Walters, G. D. Duval, C. O. Loughey, Morgan Hoop, Acher Wilson, Leonard Smith, Richard King, Harry Allen, Emma Warren, Howard Hicks.

On Saturday evening Miss Stella Kirkman gave a party to twelve of her young friends on the occasion of her twelfth birthday. The time was spent in dancing and playing games. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Mildred Holman gave a dancing party at her country home for a number of neighborhood friends on Saturday evening. After the dancing was over the guests enjoyed a dainty supper served by the hostess.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Dwight entertained in honor of her son, Jack, who was 8 years old that day. The children played a number of tag games and later in the afternoon the hostess served a birthday luncheon with a huge birthday cake as its chief attraction to the following guests: Jimmie Bothwell, Pansy Reed, Billy and Miriam Babcock, Frances Murray, Thomas Robertson, Lloyd Harris, Donald Turner, Richard and Harriet Duval, Bob Dale, and Owen Dwight.

Growing of Troubles.

Annoying troubles, noxious weeds that they are, must have the elements of ordinary life or they will fade away and die—a receptive soil in which to grow; the moisture of one's own tears as well as the tears of as many other good people as can be induced to cry, and the gentle sunlight of sympathetic attention.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

WELCOME FROM NEW YORK NOW AWAITS WILSON

Entire-City, from Police to Suffragists; Is on Tiptoe to Greet President on His Arrival

NEW YORK, March 4.—With plans completed, New York, from the police department to the militant suffragists, is waiting to welcome President Wilson when he arrives tonight to make his final appeal in behalf of the league of nations before leaving for France.

The president is assured of a varied reception. His brief hour here is expected to be crowded with action. Abraham I. Elkus, former ambassador to Turkey, and Cleveland H. Dodge with 500 plain clothes police, will meet him at a Pennsylvania station at 8:15 o'clock and escort him to the Metropolitan opera house.

To Appear Simultaneously Here the president and ex-President Taft will meet privately. The reception committee is seeking to have them appear upon the stage arm in arm. It is probable, however, that they will appear simultaneously from the wings.

Taft, following Alfred Smith, will speak at 9 o'clock. The president will begin at 9:45. If he concludes his appeal schedule, then he will receive a representation from the Irish race committee, headed by ex-Justice Goff at 11 o'clock before departing for the George Washington, waiting at a Hibboken pier to carry the presidential party back to France.

Thousands to Hear Speech About 4,000 people will hear the president. Three hundred tickets and 5,000 reports came by telegraph. Elaborate precautionary measures have been taken by the police. Before the hall is opened, every corner will be searched. The same steps will be taken on the ferry boat which will carry the president to Hoboken. Only holders of admission tickets will be admitted.

Under the leadership of Miss Alice Paul the suffragists are all set for a big demonstration. Police declare it will fall.

clustered about Woods, Massachusetts, Lewis, Illinois, and the others to bid their farewell. Representative Mondell, Wyoming, read a tribute to Miss Rankin, declaring it was a great honor to have a woman in the great national assembly, which was not incompatible with public service.

There were two prolonged demonstrations during Mondell's speech and a third one when Miss Rankin rose to reply.

Leaves Great Trust "I am sorry to leave you before the women of this nation are enfranchised," Miss Rankin said. "With you, who are to be members of the sixty-sixth congress, I leave the greatest trust, the enfranchisement of women."

Doorkeepers handed out admission cards as souvenirs and with a grand rush to the senate and house restaurants, on everybody but a few weary members too worn out to eat, forgot all about the sixty-fifth congress.

Among those who called for a few minutes that night with the president before he left the capitol were Chairman Hurley, shipping board; Sherman Whipple, Boston attorney; Justice Brandies; Representatives Heflin and Bond, shown members to worn out to eat, forgot all about the sixty-fifth congress.

The president reached the White House on his return at 12:30 for lunch, soon before going to the train.

A Legal Pun. "A petition for an injunction, based upon a somewhat doubtful assertion of fact," says a New York lawyer, "came before one of the justices of the supreme court of this state. After consideration of the affidavit of the petitioner, the justice remarked: 'In this case an injunction will not lie, even if the relator does.'"—Case and Comment.

It is full of rich vegetation, and its many, glistening minarets show up against the dull green of innumerable olive trees. Wilson Lays Responsibility for the Impaired Efficiency of the Government on the Republicans

WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson today officially blamed senate republicans for the "impaired efficiency" of the government.

Upon adjournment of congress President Wilson issued this statement: "A group of men in the senate have deliberately chosen to embarrass the administration of the government to imperil the financial interests of the country while the country and to make arbitrary use of powers intended to be employed in the interests of the people."

"Duty to Attend Conference." "It is plainly my duty to attend the peace conference in Paris. "If, during my duty, I be in close contact with the public business during a session of congress, I must make my choice between them; two duties and I confidently hope that the people of the country will think that I am making the right choice. It is not in the interest of the right conduct of public affairs that I should call the congress in special session while it is impossible for me to be in Washington because of a more pressing duty elsewhere to cooperate with the house. I take it for granted that the men who have obstructed and prevented the passage of necessary legislation have taken all of this into consideration and are willing to assume the responsibility of the impaired efficiency of the government and the embarrassed finances of the country during the time of my enforced absence."

With the Unusual. It is the unusual event that gives the unusual person a chance. To meet the unexpected with the usual and effectiveness is the sign of the leader. If you can take responsibility when responsibility is suddenly thrust upon you, and do your very best with a clear head, you are the sort of person who will achieve a permanently responsible position. And it is the responsible positions that are well paid and interesting.—Exchange.

The Real Thing. It makes a fellow step higher when some big man says of him: "He is the smartest man in this town!" But that is nothing by the side of having a little thing struggle up to your side and whisper softly, "I like you! You're so good to me!"—Farm Life.

Diseases of Metals. So firmly do some scientists maintain the theory that changes in metals are due to conditions resembling diseases of man that a German navy yard maintained an expert to study the question.

Unfortunate Child. Margaret and Helen are cousins. One day Helen refused to play with "Margie." When asked why, she said: "Margie, I can't play with Margie; she was born too late and don't know how to play games."

Case Annoyed Him. Eugene, who is just beginning to learn he should not eat cake before eating one, was seated at the table when suddenly he saw a cake on the buffet and remarked: "Oh, my! Tover up dat cake till I eat my tatoes!"

Value of Nation's Own History. There is nothing that solidifies and strengthens a nation like reading of the nation's own history, whether that history is recorded in books or embodied in customs, institutions and monuments.—Joseph Anderson.

Being Sure of Heaven. I would rather be a poor beggar's wife and be sure of heaven, than queen of all the world and stand in doubt thereof by reason of my own consent.—Catherine of Aragon.

True Affection. A youngster, fond of visiting museums and very affectionate, started his mother by remarking if she died he would start so that he could sit in her lap all the time.

Marriage Question. Man sometimes wonders whether or not he wants to get married; with a woman her chief concern is whether or not a certain man is the one she wants to marry.

Never Met the Man. "Them newspapers," complained the politician, "are charging me with bowing the knee to Bani, and I never met the man in my life."—Boston Transcript.

Woman Invents Lamp Shade. Artistic lamp shades have been invented by a woman who chemically treats the lining of calves' stomachs to produce a translucent leather.

Fools the Pickpockets. An automatic clamping device prevents a wallet, falling from a man's pocket, from carrying away the contents who do not know how it is operated.

THE application of ink on paper does not make printing, although the product resulting from this sort of operation is frequently marketed under that name.

Printing is of two kinds—NEWS PRINTING and just printing. We don't want you to take the word of anyone for this—ask the man who uses NEWS printing, or, better still, try some of it yourself, at our expense if you do not like what we give you.

We use only the best of inks and the better recognized brands of paper. Added to these, we offer the skill and experience of capable workmen and the newest and most modern type faces.

Our work must be satisfactory to our customers or it is not satisfactory to us. We never disappoint.
