

MAYOR INSISTS THAT CONGRESS BE CALLED BACK

San Francisco Executive Demands that the President Immediately Reconvene the Legislative Body

RECONSTRUCTION PERIOD NEEDS CAREFUL LEADERS

Declares Much Could Be Done to Help Wages, Living Costs, and Unemployment if Politics Were Laid Aside

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A resolution demanding that the president immediately reconvene congress to keep it on the job while the country is facing a serious reconstruction period...

Judge Lewis, Arizona, declared this would be applying a super rule and the one by which an overwhelming vote sustained Rolph.

Rolph also demanded to know why 553 ship contracts of American yards were cancelled and that the shipping board is still allowing Chinese and Japanese yards to build American ships.

Text of Resolution His resolution reads: "Resolved, That we urge the president to immediately reconvene congress and keep it on the job while the country is facing a serious reconstruction period...

Further, that we do condemn as un-American the policy of building ships in public buildings, wharves, docks, piers, basins, and other public buildings, and other public utilities.

Further, that the policy of relieving bargaining in one of the sure methods of preventing social unrest and the spread of Bolshevism."

Out Living Costs The cost of living can be reduced from 10 to 50 per cent without doing what the public officials in our government do with their jobs...

Piggott also arranged the senate to "flounder while Rome burned" and said that in the panic feeling in regard to Bolshevism a "bogey."

Proposed Program Piggott proposed a program to meet the unemployment situation which he declared existed everywhere. He urged that the public officials together with leading merchants and insist in forceful language that they must reduce the cost of living anywhere from 15 to 25 per cent...

His second proposal was that manufacturing should be asked to start repairs and enlargements immediately. "You will find in all your towns jobs for men if this is done," he said.

Call on Shipping Board He next recommended that the shipping board be called upon to announce its policy, pointing out that contracts on numerous steel ships were being held in suspense on the Pacific coast while no work was being done.

The railroad problem must be settled immediately. Piggott said, declaring business is not so much interested in what is done as it is in having something done.

He scored congress for failure to appropriate money to finish the Alaskan road and for not using the secretary Lane's $100,000,000 reclamation project.

WILSON IS BUSY SCANNING REPORTS OF LAST SPEECH

Executive will Rest During the Voyage Back to the Steamship Peace

BY CARL D. GROUT ABOARD U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, March 5.—(10:50 a. m.)—President Wilson spent his first hours aboard ship en route to France today scanning the New York newspaper reports of his speech last night.

The George Washington was saluted by war craft and land batteries as she steamed out to sea. After breakfast the president read and rested, and will continue to rest for several days.

UPHOLDS PURCHASE MADE BY FORD'S SOUND CITY OLYMPIA, Wash., March 5.—The state supreme court today upheld the purchase of the Stone-Webster Traction system by the city of Seattle for $15,000,000.

Friendship suit had been brought by taxpayers against the traction company and the city to determine the legality of the purchase bonds as a first lien on the revenue of the car lines.

PRESIDENTS AGAIN ON WAY TO PEACE MEET

Wilson Given a Rousing Send-off as the Big Transport Starts on the Return Voyage

NEW YORK, March 5.—The transport George Washington, carrying President Wilson back to France, passed Sandy Hook and headed into the open sea at 9:55 a. m. today.

Although the progress of the George Washington from her wharf in Hoboken to the narrow, the entrance into the lower bay, was quiet and unattended by any demonstration, there was a rousing send-off as the transport passed the harbor but on the shore of Fort Hamilton, Wadsworth and Hancock set loose with presidential salutes.

New York seemed to be still asleep as the George Washington passed through the harbor but on the shore of Staten Island and the Narrows were approached, the cheering and whistling continued.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT CALLS GARRISONS IN FROM OUTSIDE POINTS Four Entertainment that Only Fifty Per Cent of Forces in German Capital Are Loyal

PARIS, March 5.—The German government, fearing it can depend on no attack on the police station quartered in Berlin, has ordered additional forces hurried to the city from outside garrisons.

While the mechanics for dealing with the German delegates have not been worked out, it is possible that arrangements would first be called for Versailles to receive the terms which they would submit to their government.

Present laws will have to be applied to enforcement of war time prohibition which becomes effective July 1. Special enforcement legislation failed to get through the senate judiciary committee.

UNEMPLOYMENT This question was presented to congress during hearings before the committee on the committee on which graphic figures were presented showing that the unemployment condition, existing today, will, if conditions are not changed, result in a loss of $100,000,000,000.

ARMY AND NAVY POLICIES The republicans have directed attention to the army and navy bills in the senate. These would have settled the peace-time army and navy policies for a few years at least.

RAILROADS AND POLICE The senate congress also must decide the government's policy with respect to the government controlled railroads, telephones, telegraphs, cables and radio communication.

NO SIGNS FOR COMPROMISE ON THE LEAGUE

President Wilson Declares the American People Favor the World Organization and No Party Shall Hinder It

Nothing in his speech last night indicated the president purposed to amend the covenant or separate it from the main treaty with Germany as demanded by the senate republicans.

On the contrary, the president declared that in the avalanche of criticism launched against his covenant in the senate, there has been "no constructive suggestion" which "has any chance for adoption."

Hence he starts back to France today with no congressional amendment to the covenant in hand and no concrete idea of what the senate will do.

Nevertheless the president has taken on with him the main points of attack on his covenant and is expected to suggest some clarification of articles, the wording of which has left the senators doubtful as to their scope.

The action of senate republicans in recording opposition to the league at this time "amazes" but "does not worry" the president.

The president leaves for France somewhat fatigued from his strenuous week at home.

His wariness was brought into relief last night at the Metropolitan opera house when a spotlight was played on him.

The president, however, is in splendid physical condition, according to Admiral Cary Grayson, the president's physician, and a few days before he boards the boat, he said, will put him in fine fettle for resuming his conferences in Paris.

WILSON PLEASED WITH PROGRESS OF CONFERENCE

President Declares Himself Happy Over the Work of the Peace Delegates Since His Departure from France

NEW YORK, March 5—President Wilson is very well pleased with the situation in the United States and abroad, he told newspapers on board the George Washington just before sailing.

"Every statement that I made in my speech last night and every utterance I have made since, my return to the United States will be understood by the people at large if not by certain politicians," President Wilson said.

"The responsibility for the blocking of certain much needed legislation in Washington is perfectly well known to the public and the responsibility does not need to be shared."

President Wilson added that he was very well pleased with the progress made by the peace conference in Paris since he had left and declared that he probably will return to this country much sooner than he had anticipated as a result.

He was "supremely confident" that the people of the United States will back up his endeavors, he stated.

Unwritten Law Is Cause Given By Accused Man

Daughter of Man Charged with Murder Takes Stand for Her Father

CHICAGO, March 5—Confident and unshaken, pretty Norma Cook, 18, was her father's witness at his trial here today for the slaying of "Billy" Bradley, clubman, last August, because of alleged attentions to Norma.

The father, J. Norman Cook, former private in the 6888th central Postal Directory, was confident of acquittal when he left the court room after yesterday's session.

Bradley had threatened to "choke Cook's tongue out if he ever started anything," Norma declared on the stand. This, she said, was after Cook had come to Chicago from Columbus, Kansas, Norma's home, "to get Bradley."

The girl bore the strain of the trial like an elderly woman. Wearing a simple blue dress and a rough straw hat, she bravely answered questions with her eyes set on the examining attorney.

Her testimony was shaped to refute Cook's statements that the killing was an invocation of the unwritten law.

AUTHORITY OF GOVERNMENT ON A DECLINE

Final Test Now Faces the German Loyal Forces and With Troubles Growing, the Situation Is Grave

COOPENHAGEN, March 5—The German government is facing its greatest and possibly its final test of authority. It was indicated in dispatches received here today.

With disorders growing in Berlin, the general strike was reported to have spread to Leipzig where Spartacists were said to be entrenched to oppose a league of government troops approaching the city.

Armed clashes have occurred in the Tiergarten and Weinstraasse at Berlin, and plundering and looting was said to be going on in all parts of the city.

Several units of government troops were reported to be wavering in their loyalty, and in addition, divisions were being hurried to the city.

Printers Strike
Government troops have occupied the artillery depots and the warehouses at Spandau, pending the workers are on strike. The independent socialists are supporting the strike and decision of the majority socialist trades unionists as to whether they should join the demonstration was expected hourly.

The printers employed on the Tageblatt, Vossische Zeitung, Lokal-Anzeiger, Morgenpost, and other newspapers, had been struck out without waiting for formal approval of their unions. None of these papers was able to publish.

Food was said to be growing scarce owing to the enormous waste resulting from plundering.

Manchurian Footgear
In order to withstand the extreme cold of winter in eastern Manchuria the natives wear a moccasin of cowhide sufficiently large to permit the feet to be inserted in long strips of cloth and then to have a soft, dry grass packed around them. The shoe appears clumsy, but is warm, soft and almost water tight.

Need Energy-Yielding Foods
Persons who are doing heavy physical work and very active children need more energy-yielding foods than those engaged in mental work or light physical labor. Some of the principal energy-yielding foods are cereals, bread and butter, corn bread, white and sweet potatoes, cream, and other wholesome fats, and sweets.

ALLIES HASTEN PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY

The New Revolution is Causing Much Alarm to Associated Powers and Preliminary Terms are Being Prepared

LONDON, March 5—The new revolution in Germany apparently backed by the weight of the greater part of the workers and all radical elements, had resulted today in growing appreciation of the necessity for speeding conclusion of a preliminary peace.

The British press was advocating moral support of the present German government as well as supplying the country with food. The newspapers done, the allies would be unable to expressed fear that unless this were collect any indemnities. A Spartacan victory, they pointed out, might necessitate armed occupation of Germany for an indefinite period.

Reports Conflict
Conflicting reports were received today regarding the progress of the new revolution. The uprising was to have been signalled by a general strike in Berlin. The latest direct reports from that city indicated the strike, called Monday evening, was attended by riots in which the Spartacans were temporarily successful at least.

They are said to have seized the central police station. Later unconfirmed reports said War Minister Noske, by employment of large bodies of troops, had succeeded in restoring order and that the city was still under martial law.

Starts Preliminary Peace
No confirmation had been received of a report yesterday that the national assembly was about to be dissolved. Armed clashes between radicals and government troops were reported in other parts of the country, particularly at Halle, where the Spartacans are said to have put up stiff resistance.

Premier Lloyd George was to return to Paris today and was expected to change immediately into the demure of bringing about immediate partial removal of the economic blockade of Germany, as the first step toward a preliminary peace.

DIKE DOUGHOYS ARE GOING BACK TO FARM

COLUMBIA, Tenn., March 5—Back to the farm is no imaginary movement among the soldiers in the A. E. F., if letters received from many Tennessee boys now overseas are to be taken as accurate indications.

Scores of these soldiers have written to relatives and friends asking that provisions be made for them to farm this year. One officer who was not a farmer before going to war has asked his father to have a farm ready for him when he returns.

Others who shunned farm work before going to France seem to have caught the fever and are asking for land to rent or buy. Practically every man from this section who farmed prior to entering the service has gone back to tilling the soil upon being discharged.

It is thought that the intensive methods of the Europeans will be adopted by the soldiers when they return, thereby increasing the production of Tennessee farms.

UNIQUE RECORD

The situation now existing in the United States as a result of the activities of Congress during the past few weeks and the determination of President Wilson to regard the troubles of Europe as a greater degree of importance to America than the troubles of this country.

President Wilson is now on his way back to France. Congress is scattered to the four corners of the country. And in the meantime a record of work left undone—unique in the annals of history—stares the people in the face.

Notwithstanding the fact that for nearly a year the Lane plan for the reclamation of land for the benefit of returned soldiers has been under way, the bill providing for the necessary appropriation to carry out the project is left untouched.

The right or wrong of the League of Nations plan does not appeal to the average man as a political issue. He regards it as the biggest and most important single question ever put up to the American nation.

Of course, there are technical political reasons involved in the situation which resulted in the action of Congress in declining to do business at the old stand during the closing days of the session, the man LaFollette was one of these, but it is to be regretted that such reasons should have been allowed to weigh against the actual needs of the country in the way of a settlement of so many of the country's most vital problems.

It is becoming apparent that the hearty support of a considerable number of fruit and vegetable growers, dairymen and warehousemen is not to be counted on by the railroad administration in putting over its proposed scheme providing rules, regulations and rates to govern the transportation, under refrigeration, heating or other accessories service rendered in connection with the movement by rail of perishable freight.

It seems that these interests are as incapable of putting themselves in accord with the administration's view-point in this respect as they are in respect to the recent parallel increase of 25 per cent in freight rates, not being convinced in that case of the general desirability of increased differential as against shippers farthest from marketing points, and arguing that while 25 per cent addition to a 20-cent freight rate makes a new rate of 25 cents, when applied to a 10-cent freight rate it makes a new charge of 75 cents or an increase of 70 cents in the differential to the disadvantage of the more remote shipper.

At any rate, a Washington correspondent for the Chicago Packer says that the largest gathering of representatives of these industries assembled recently in the capital city to protest against the proposed refrigeration tariffs. They were endeavoring to point out to representatives of the railroad administration that the six sections of the proposed tariff, whereby the rates are greatly increased, are unreasonable and contrary to common laws of the interstate commerce commission.

It is not unlikely that before the operation of rail systems by the railroad administration, the objecting interests in this matter, paid the charges which they are now protesting against, and, as usual, that the charge was passed on to the Ultimate Consumer.

Except on the grounds of possible inequality of the distribution of the charge, there seems to be, so long as the railroad administration remains in control of the situation, no reasonable grounds for a kick on the part of anybody in respect to the increased charges for service rendered.

Perhaps there is no use for sweet clover that gives such promise and that seems of such wide application as its combination with blue grass for pasture, according to farmers' belief in 1900, recently issued by the United States department of agriculture. Both crops grow together well, even when there is a perfect stand of each. The sweet clover adds nitrogen to the soil, and where the stand of blue grass is poor this helps it to thicken and produce a much better stand than would be possible without sweet clover.

Furthermore, the clover adds greatly to the total amount of pasture produced and gives a longer pasture season. It comes on in the spring two or three weeks earlier than most other grasses and the live stock can be turned out to pasture just that much earlier.

In some instances this combination has more than doubled the carrying capacity of an acre of blue grass alone. A first class pasture of this kind will easily carry two 1000-pound steers on an acre in the spring and early summer.

It is quite generally appreciated that if the patrons of the transportation systems, under government operation, did not contribute more to make up the deficits with which the year is finished, so much more would be charged on the federal tax rolls to balance the account, and in the long run, the people generally pay the bill.

The only question is as to whether they pay more or less under the existing regime and whether they get more or less for what they pay.

What Service Is. The most blessed of human endeavors is service—the service that educates and builds and makes this old world a better and happier place in which to live and work. Service is the spirit of the hour. It blesses him that gives and him that gets; it is the brotherhood of man; it is the help that has extended unceasingly; it is bread cast upon the waters; it is a way of helping ourselves by helping each other. The best that can be said of any man is this: "He served others that they might better serve themselves."—Barker.

Men of Rare Value. "I weigh my words when I say that if the nation could purchase a potential Watt, or Davy, or Faraday, at the cost of a hundred thousand pounds down, he would be dirt-cheap at the money. It is a mere commonplace and everyday place of knowledge that what these men did has produced untold millions of wealth, in the narrowest economical sense of the word."—Huxley.

Cross Children. Don't be cross with children when they are cross. If they are irritable and pouty leave them alone to their blues or try to divert their attention to some interesting book or game or toy. Get them outdoors to play or to walk. Take them for a ride. The common retort to cross children is in being cross yourself, but this only buries the children and makes them moody and later crosswinds.—Exchange.

One-Ten Walrus. The average-sized Alaska walrus is as big as an ox and often weighs more than a ton. A walrus was killed by some whalers near Point Barrow whose head weighed 80 pounds and skin, including flippers, 300 pounds. The walrus has a birth of 14 feet, the skin was from half an inch to three inches in thickness, and the blubber weighed 500 pounds.

Talent, Dexterity, Enterprise. What passes in the world for talent or dexterity or enterprise is often only a want of honest principle. We may succeed whether or not we fail, not from a greater share of invention, but from not being nice in the choice of expedients.—Hazlitt.

Minister a Linguist. Four languages were used last year in the preaching of St. Paul Burgess, Presbyterian missionary in the Quetzaltenango field of Guatemala, according to the Guatemala News. He spoke in Spanish, English, German and Cakchiquel.

Sweet Clover and Blue Grass Make a Good Team in Pasture

It is unnecessary to sow any great amount of seed to keep up the sweet clover in combination with blue grass. In establishing a combination sweet clover and blue grass pasture the problem of getting a stand, as compared with the growth of sweet clover in rotation, is fundamentally different. In some instances the pasture must be plowed, limed, and seeded anew. On old blue grass pastures of long standing, which still have a fairly good lime supply, a stand of sweet clover often can be secured simply by sowing the seed late in March or early in April and allowing live stock to trample the seed into the ground. In other instances, it is more convenient to start such a pasture on a part of a rotation area, a seeding of sweet clover and timothy being made in oats after the necessary application of lime, the blue grass being allowed to come in of its own accord.

Experiments Often Necessary. To determine the method that will succeed in getting a stand of sweet clover and blue grass for pasture, it will generally require some experimenting on local conditions very greatly. In some instances it has been found successful to sow sweet clover with timothy, the blue grass being allowed to come in, so that in a few years there is a perfect stand of sweet clover and blue grass. Pastures of this kind will make luxuriant growth annually, and if care is exercised to permit a part of the sweet clover to produce seed each year, no other attention is necessary.

TRAINING LITTLE CHILDREN Kindergarten Methods as Valuable for Home as for School, but Children Should Be in a Regular Kindergarten if Possible, Under the Guidance of a Skilled Teacher and in the Companionship of Children of Their Own Age and Stage of Development

By MRS. MARIE K. CHAFFEE. About a year and a half ago a number of mothers in a small town petitioned their school board for a public kindergarten. They knew that there were at least 25 children in the community who would attend, and there was a vacant room in one school house which could be used for the purpose. But the school board contended that there were too many other expenses for the coming year and that the town could not afford to establish a kindergarten.

The mothers, however, persisted in their idea that the need for a kindergarten was very great, and after many months of patient work they succeeded in persuading the school committee to give the use of the vacant room. A class of eight children has now been started, and it is in charge of a young pupil kindergarten who is taking this work as her senior practice teaching, charging only a small sum for each child. She is full of enthusiasm and the work has been progressing steadily under her inspiring direction.

The children who attend the kindergarten are nearly all from good families. It impressed me strongly as I canvassed the town in search of pupils, that the very parents who could not afford to give their children every possible advantage were the ones who were quick to realize the opportunities in kindergarten training. Other parents, whose children were "runaway" physically and mentally, so to speak, would say, "We don't think our child needs to go to a kindergarten," or "We cannot afford to pay so much for just having Mary amused."

All mothers should know that the kindergarten is not a place where a child is "just amused," nor is it a school room where facts are drilled into a child's head for hours at a time. A well managed kindergarten is like a well managed home, a place where the children may develop naturally and normally. In the kindergarten they do this in the very best advantage under the careful guidance of a teacher trained for her work and in the companionship of other children. After a kindergarten has been started, mothers should visit it frequently, attend "open house" meetings, which the kindergarten conducts in order to explain to them the purpose of

TWO MILL LEVY PLAN CREATES A DISTURBANCE

Bitter Fight Starts at the Proposal to Lay Another Levy on the People of State for Highway Purpose.

(Special to The News)
BOISE, Ida., March 5.—Definite designation of parts of Idaho and Adams counties as "neutral zones" in the building of a north and south highway and providing that these counties should not have to pay full apportionment as against the highway department for building the road was made by the senate this morning in committee of the whole when Senator Pettifour offered the amendment to the two mill levy road bill.

Fight Over Levy

A fight again developed during the morning session over the amendment by Senator Pettifour which would have permitted the state board of Equalization to levy from one to two mills. As at the afternoon session yesterday, Armstrong of Blaine fought to keep the levy at two mills and was sustained by the body by a vote of 17 to 10 against the adoption of the Adams change. The senate, however, did amend the bill to make the board of equalization responsible for the levying of the tax.

A two mill levy by municipalities for library purposes is allowed in a senate bill passed.

Kills Yeaman Bill

The upper body killed the Yeaman bill empowering the department of immigration and labor to make safety rules and order the placing of devices in all places of employment in the state after Senator Nelson of Kootenai, fighting against the measure said it placed the power in the hands of the department to do anything it pleased to add to the expenses of private business houses employing labor. The vote was 10 to 25.

To Cut Paper.

When you lose your knife or do not have a pair of scissors at hand for cutting the paper a common pin or needle of any kind serves the purpose admirably, says Popular Science Monthly. If it is a single sheet from which the clipping is to be removed, lay the part on another paper, hold the pin slightly so that the point will follow around the clipping, just as if tracing its outline. Pass back over the scratch with the point to the lead and you will be surprised how smoothly the pin cuts the paper.

To Remove Smoke Stains.

This suggestion will be beneficial to housewives who have at the convenience of electricity or the modern gas fixtures. Frequently the ceiling above an old-fashioned gas jet becomes discolored from smoke and heat. The discoloration may be removed if a large piece of starch and water is applied with a piece of flannel. After the mixture has dried it should be brushed lightly with a brush. No stain or mark will remain.

Hardy Tephyary Bush Beans.

The cultivation of tepary beans is something new in the state of California. This legume came up from old Mexico and has been popular in New Mexico and Arizona for years. Because of its hardy habit, it is capable not only of standing extremes of temperature, but doing well under exceptionally arid conditions. It is a hardy bush bean with a high nutritive value.

Name Made No Difference.

A little miss was visiting at a home where two elderly women were stopping. One had a name easily remembered, but the other had an unusual one. Upon being presented to the little girl looked pensively for a moment but she quickly solved her difficulty by saying: "How are you, Drama B and Drama More?"

Ridicule and Rumor.

The chief difference between ridicule and ridicule is that ridicule is cruel and humor is kind. Ridicule shows lack of understanding and consequent lack of tolerance. Humor, by means of understanding, becomes tolerant. The really great humorists are great humanitarians.—Exchange.

Such a Name!

A college professor in California has discovered a mineral hitherto unknown to science, which he has called "crestomolite," because it was found at Crestmore. We are told by way of description, says the Providence Bulletin, that it is "a new hydrous basic of orthosilicate, containing small amounts of other oxides in place of silicon," which leaves us altogether in the dark as to what it is. It can be used as a cretmoreolite as an improved stove material or wearing it as a watch chain.

Tricles of Worms.

Mimicry in animals, "hitherto an unsolved mystery," is explained in the North American Review by Hudson Maxima. When a bird is about to attack a worm he looks at the worm, trying to ascertain whether the worm is a food worm or a puff-adder. The mental process of the bird is transferred to the nervous system of the worm, who, now aware of the fact that the bird would hesitate to attack him, the puff-adder, proceeds to imitate the puff-adder.

COUNCIL NAMES SWIM AS MAYOR OF TWIN FALLS

Arthur L. Swim, member of the city council who has served since the death of late Mayor P. F. Brackton in November as acting mayor, was appointed mayor of Twin Falls, and L. L. Breckenridge, manager of the Twin Falls Milling company, was appointed councilman from the first ward in March Monday evening.

Decision to fill the position of mayor was reached by the council in view of the importance of enterprises such as the paving project, which the city administration is undertaking.

Mr. Breckenridge, the new member of the council, has been a resident of Twin Falls for several years. He took an active part in campaigns for mayor and funds here, being the chairman of the first Red Cross drive in which the county was signal distinction, and spending months in France in Red Cross and U. S. A. work.

Intentional Ordinance Waits No action was taken by the council at its Monday evening session in respect to an intentional ordinance to create an improvement district for the purpose of proceeding with an extensive program for paving in Twin Falls, action in this regard being postponed until the meeting on Monday evening next to permit of further acquisition for inclusion of additional property in the proposed district.

SIGN AND CAR PAINTERS NEED BIGGER QUARTERS

Permits for Construction Involving Expense of $15,200 Issued in February.

The contract will be let today by C. P. Cosgriff for the construction of extensive additions and improvements to the building on Second avenue west occupied since 1915 by the Cosgriff Sign company. The estimated cost of the new building is of brick, 25 by 100 feet. The new building, according to plans drawn by W. C. Wyckoff, will be 40 feet wide, 125 feet deep and two stories high. A basement to accommodate a hot water heating plant for heating the building throughout is to be provided under the addition to the shop. Quarters for the sign painters will be provided on the second floor, while the first floor will be given over to office rooms and the automobile painting department.

Carl Stromberg, formerly associated with the Pierce automobile factory, is to have charge of the automobile painting department, and an expert finisher from Chicago is to be added to the force of workmen in the department upon the completion of the building.

DENIES ANY PURPOSE TO URGE INVESTIGATION

James D. Whelan, former editor of Times, Wants Commissioners and Public to Know His Position. James D. Whelan, formerly editor of the Twin Falls Times, in the capacity only of a news gatherer, according to his statement to the commissioners which he has repeated subsequently, accepted I. A. Cliney, manager of the Times and other members of the delegation which made a demand Monday afternoon of the county commissioners for an investigation of the conduct of Sheriff N. H. Strang. He was not the case of Harold M. Sims. Mr. Whelan declared that he did not urge the proposed investigation, and took part in the discussion before the commissioners on this occasion only to explain his responsibility in connection with the publication of an article in which the sheriff was censured for alleged refusal to give out the names of certain persons held under arrest.

AMERICANS TEAR UP HIGHWAYS IN FRANCE

CAREY-In a recent letter Lon Carey, who enlisted nearly two years ago and has been in France several months, writes that his company, a part of the Twentieth engineers, is now engaged in repair work on roads damaged by American traffic. Nantes is near the mouth of the Loire and not far from St. Nazaire. The latter being one of the three largest French ports now used in the heavy embarkation service of United States troops, traffic is naturally exceedingly heavy on all roads in its vicinity. Excerpts from the letter follow:

We were to be relieved today by General Pershing, but for some reason we not. We left the advance section three weeks ago with the impression that we were to be relieved and with all the enthusiasm due such an occasion, so imagine our disappointment when we arrived within sounding distance of the footing of the steam hoists, to find that the road was being repaired by American traffic. I'm going to think that way. I was given another auto truck and am hauling crushed rock. We are repairing roads damaged by heavy American traffic.

WOULD YOU CONFIDE IN THIS SORT OF STRANGER?

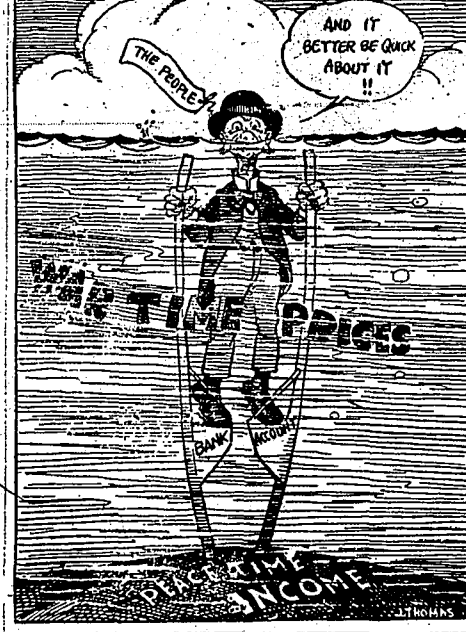

A characteristic example of the stealthy manner in which the German spy system is being conducted with all the enthusiasm due such an occasion, so imagine our disappointment when we arrived within sounding distance of the footing of the steam hoists, to find that the road was being repaired by American traffic. I'm going to think that way. I was given another auto truck and am hauling crushed rock. We are repairing roads damaged by heavy American traffic.

JEFFERSON COUNTY VOTES ROAD BONDS

Citizens Authorize Issuance of $200,000 Securities for Improvement.

RIOBY-Reports on the election held in Jefferson county Saturday for the purpose of voting authority to the county commissioners to issue bonds in the sum of $200,000 for road improvements, indicate that the issue carried by a vote of 19 to 1. In the neighborhood of 2200 voters an over 2000 of these favored the bond issue.

With the bonds assumed it is expected that the commissioners will immediately enter upon plans for an improved system of roads throughout the whole country. These plans are not matured but it is thought that they include grading up the roads, establishing a good road bed and placing of a gravelled surface on all of the principal traveled roads of the county. As the sum put up by the county is to be met by funds from the state and federal government it is figured that Jefferson will have a total of $468,000 to spend on her roads.

It is understood that the tentative plans include possibly a road from Rigby south to the railroad tracks, another from Rigby to Roberts, another road west to Lewisville to join the road to Idaho Falls. A road east to the Birle county and the Yellowstone highway parallel with the railroad tracks. Altogether the roads to be improved will probably total 40 to 50 miles.

ORGANIZING Y. W. C. A. HERE IS PROJECTED

Representative of Organization Meets with Business Women and Discusses Plans and Purposes of Campaign.

The Y. W. C. A. is coming to Twin Falls with a request for contribution of $8,000 to its "Carry-on" campaign and with a plan to form a local organization of the Y. W. C. A. in Twin Falls.

This is a statement made at a meeting Monday evening at the Business Women's association by Mrs. Charles Bascy of Seattle, representative of the northwestern district organization of the Y. W. C. A. She stated that a Y. W. C. A. organizer would be sent to Twin Falls to assist in forming a local organization if one were desired here. The Business Women's association is to consider the subject further at its meeting on Monday evening next.

Mrs. Bascy's talk had to do mainly with the purpose of the "Carry-on" campaign, toward which the contribution of $8,000 has been set as the quota for the state of Idaho.

Built on German Soil. The government turned over to the Y. W. C. A., she said, the problem of hostess homes as incidental to the raising and maintenance of fighting forces. The last hostess home built by the association, she said, had been erected for the American army of occupation on German soil.

The work she said is to be continued by the association throughout the coming year, and in addition it is planned to build hostess houses in Arizona for women afflicted with tuberculosis, houses in California for young women employed in the motion picture industry, and houses throughout the country for foreign born women. She mentioned the Y. W. C. A. house recently erected in Bolinas, Calif., among Spanish women of that community as an example of the plans in this latter respect.

With Hosts and Hostesses

On Monday night the Business Women's association will hold its monthly business meeting and the same evening in the Parish hall they will give a St. Patrick's party in honor of St. Patrick, who was born in County Wexford, Ireland, who has recently returned from Washington, D. C.

The Hoover Luncheon club met at the home of Mrs. E. Cox on Tuesday afternoon. The prize of two thrift stamps for high score at bridge went to Mrs. George Leopold. Mrs. Peter Erickson, who has recently returned from California, was a guest of the club.

On Tuesday afternoon the Wednesday Bridge club met at a luncheon at the Park hotel and a block after luncheon the guests went to the home of Mrs. Ed Larned where they played bridge for the remainder of the time. The prize for high score went to Mrs. L. F. Morse.

Monday afternoon the Thursday Bridge club gave a luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. Cox in honor of Mrs. H. W. Sawyer who leaves for Seattle to be gone for the summer which she will spend in North Dakota with relatives. The luncheon was served at tables marked by clever tally cards. After the delicious three-course luncheon the afternoon was spent in playing bridge, the prize for high score going to Mrs. P. H. B. Moore. The guests were Mesdames Harry Berger, F. B. Cox, Thomas, Rowberry, M. O. Putnam, E. H. Adams, H. S. Sawyer, E. B. Heinicke, J. A. Campbell, F. H. Crow, George Leopold, M. O. Putnam, E. H. Adams, L. F. Morse, Ernest White, E. H. Adams, L. T. Moore and her daughter, Mrs. Harlin, and Miss Cashlin.

went with Glenn Noble, 14-year-old youth convicted of passing spurious checks to St. Anthony, where the boy will spend an indeterminate term at the state industrial school in conformity with judgment pronounced in his case by Probate Judge O. P. Davall.

Opening Print Shop-Wilbur S. Hill, formerly proprietor of the Twin Falls Times, who has been associated for some months past in the real estate business with George H. # HOUSE STARTS ORGANIZATION FOR BUSINESS

Republican Leaders Meet to Form a Working Body for the First Session of the Sixty-Sixth Congress

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Republican leaders met today to organize the new issue of representative for the business of the first session of the sixty-sixth congress.

For the first time in eight years the republican committee on committees met in the morning of the first session of the house office building under leadership of Representative Mann of Illinois.

The first business of the committee on committees which is made up of thirty-six members, one from each republican state delegation, is to choose a floor leader and a steering committee, of which the floor leader will be chairman.

The next thing will be the assignment of members to the various house committees and the setting up of the rough draft of a legislative program which republicans hope to start before the next congress is many days old.

May Continue a Week
The meetings of the committee may continue for a week, Mann said today. The one chosen floor leader will be without any assignment on any executive committee. Under the democratic organization, the chairman of the ways and means committee was floor leader.

No public hearing today would venture a prediction as to who would get the job that ranks in importance with the speaker's office. Representative Mann, present floor leader, said he will not have it. Representative Longworth, Ohio, is known to be the choice of Representative Moore, Pennsylvania; Granham, Pennsylvania; and Mondell, Wyoming.

Use Seniority Rule
Committee chairman in all probability will be chosen under the seniority rule by which the oldest republican on a committee, in point of service, will get the chairman's post. The next thing in the way of committee assigning outside the placing of new members and the determination of the proportion of democratic and republican on each committee.

Tentative republican plans call for the meeting of the more important committees such as the ways and means, appropriations, and military affairs, within the next few weeks to draw up legislation for presentation at the reopening of the session.

The ways and means committee plans to start the framing of a new tariff bill at the earliest possible moment.

WILSON LEAVES FOR PARIS FOR CONFERENCE

For the Second Time, the President of the United States Departs for Peace Meeting in France

NEW YORK, March 5.—President Wilson sailed for France this morning on his second trip to the peace conference. The wild demonstration that attended the president's first departure for Europe was lacking this time. The exact hour of sailing was not generally known and the crowd was not so great. The president was met at the harbor by a massed line of officials who saw him off.

Silence Kept
As the big ship proceeded down the river there was an almost unbroken silence with only an occasional signal from the whistle of a tug. The few people who notified the steamer at that time in the progress toward the narrow evidently did not recognize it as the famous transport George Washington with the president aboard.

Salutes Ship
At the narrow where the steamer entered the lower bay she was met by four destroyers. Two took up positions ahead of her and one on each side.

CHICAGO GRAIN OPENING
CHICAGO, March 5.—Grain opening: Corn—March and July, down 1-1/2; May, up 3-8.
Oats—March, nominal; May, unchanged; July, down 1-8.
Provisions, steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN CLOSING
CHICAGO, March 5.—Closing grain: Corn—March, unchanged; May, down 1-8; July, down 1-8.
Oats—March, down 1-2; May, up 1-2; July, down 1-2.
Provisions, lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW
CHICAGO, March 5.—Prevailing tone of uncertainty caused an irregular trend of prices for the most part higher, on grain futures on the Chicago board of trade today. Trading was light and mostly by locals. Traders waited information on the March hop price. Provisions were unevenly, higher.

March corn down 1-4 at the opening $1.24 3/4, gained 1 cent. May corn up 3-8 at the opening $1.29 1/4, gained 1-4 at that figure. July corn down 1-4 at the opening $1.24, sold at $1.23 1/4. March oats opening up at 5-8 1/4 the opening, up 1-8, later was 7-8 higher. May 1-8, remained unchanged. July oats down 1-8 at 4-8. The opening, subsequently regained 7-8.

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK, March 5.—Leading issues were generally higher at the stock market opening today. All rail-road issues were lower as a result of shelving of the railway bill by congress. U. S. Steel opened at 77 1/2, off 7-8; Atlantic Coast, 101 1/2, off 1-8; Reading, 81 3/4, off 5-8; American Railway, 28 1/4, off 1-8; Southern Railway, 48 1/2, off 1-8; Mexican Petroleum, 177 1/4, up 5-8; Kelly Springfield, 120 1/2, up 5-8.
Reaction ran its course all through the afternoon session and was pronounced in the last hour. Many issues went to new lows. Tobacco stocks led the decline. The market was strong when the rest of the market was soft. United States Steel closed at 82, off 1-8; Kelly Springfield, 118; Kelly Springfield, 120 1/2, up 5-8; Reading, 81, off 1-8; General Motors, $1.51 1/2, off 3-8; Mexican Petroleum, $1.75 1/2, off 1-8; Southern Railway, 50 5/8, off 7-8; Hide and Leather preferred, 93 1/2, off 1-8.
The market closed weak.

MUST GRANT DEMANDS OF MINE EMPLOYEES
LONDON, March 5.—Failure to grant the miners' demands will result in a general strike of the "triple alliance" which would shut down the electric and probably force a change in the government, Robert Williams, general secretary of the transport federation, declared today.

"The triple alliance" is the common term for the transport workers, railwaymen and miners. Williams' organization alone number close to three hundred thousand.

BASERBALL BILL COMES UP TO THE SENATE
ALBANY, N. Y., March 5.—Sunday baseball had its first innings in Albany today when the Walker-Malone bill came up for a joint hearing before the codes committee in the senate chamber.

War vessels were recently returned from France, where he was a K. of C. secretary, was the principal speaker for those favoring the bill.

CALLS ON LABOR MUST LEAD THE TO CLEAN RANKS NEXT CONGRESS

Seattle Mayor Urges the Laborites to Expel the Bolshevists and Anarchists

SEATTLE, Wash., March 5.—Calling on Seattle labor to purge its ranks of Bolshevists and anarchists, Mayor Ole Hanson issued a statement today relative to yesterday's city election.

The statement in part follows: "The defeated candidates need not feel humiliated. Their defeat was not personal, but was brought about by the inane leader of the Anti-Struggle Green soviet crowd. The people of Seattle are not ready to harken to the diabolical utterances of such carpers at the Union Record and the man who edits the same."

"Union labor has repudiated its false leaders. The voters of K. every act of the city officials during the strike."

MUST LEAD THE TO CLEAN RANKS NEXT CONGRESS

Republicans Have Decided that They Must Control Chairmanship of Committees

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The republican committee on committees of the house declined today tentatively that in the next issue the ranking republican members of the ten most important committees will move up to the chairmanship. The meeting did not decide who will be majority leader at the next session.

Representative Mann, chairman of the committee, and scheduled for republican floor leader, indicated that he does not want that position. It was suggested, however, that Mann take the place temporarily. This will be decided later.

Opponents of Speaker Clark declared today they are confident of defeating him for the leadership of the democratic minority in the next house. They are circulating a petition against Clark to which they claim they have already obtained seventy signatures of the 199 democrats in the next congress.

SAYS TREATMENT OF RUSSIA SCANDALOUS
NEW YORK, March 5.—Frank Kellie, a quaker, testifying before the senate investigating Bohemian, today said the allies' treatment of Russia is scandalous.

Miss Jessie Beatty, former San Francisco newspaper woman, told the committee that the reported nationalization of women was a gross misrepresentation. She said all that had been done was the recognition of civil marriages whereas under the czar only church marriages were legal.

BOLSEHEVIKI PLAN MOVE
LONDON, March 5.—War Minister Trotsky, addressing the Pan-Russian soviet congress in Petrograd February 25, announced plans for a general Bolshevik offensive on all fronts, according to a dispatch received from Helsingfors today.

WILL NOT COMMIT HIMSELF
NEW YORK, March 5.—The Irish question at the present time is a domestic issue of the United Kingdom and until the problem of self-determination for Ireland is brought before the peace conference, he cannot commit himself in any way, President Wilson told the Irish war committee which was received by him after the Metropolitan Opera house speech last night.

OPTION EXCHANGE NO OPEN
NEW YORK, March 5.—President Johnson of the New York cotton exchange, announced today that the exchange would not re-open the tomorrow morning. The reason given was that it was necessary to take this action in order to give everybody a chance to become familiar with the amendment to the cotton futures act.

IS GRANTED DIVORCE
NEW YORK, March 5.—Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks today obtained a final decree of divorce from her husband. The suit named an "unknown woman" as the corespondent. Under the terms of the decree the custody of the son, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. is given to the mother, but the father will be permitted to see him frequently.

FIGHT WILL NOT BE HELD IN NEVADA
FORT WORTH, Texas, March 5.—Promoter Tom Rickard today positively stated the "Wildcat" Dempsey fight will not be held in Nevada.

"There are no many available places nearer big centers of population," he explained.

MUST DEPEND ON OUTSIDE HELP
WASHINGTON, March 5.—The railroad administration will have to depend upon "outside help" for the completion of all financial and business interests, the railroads and the war finance corporation to meet the unexpected situation confronting the railroads of the country, Direct General Hines declared today.

He said failure of congress to provide the additional $750,000,000 had left the railroad administration without specific plans.

Hines said he thought it would be policy of the railroads to stop any improvements unless absolutely necessary.

No Increase Contemplated
No increase in rates is contemplated, Hines said, since the financial problem is not one of operating expenses but one of capital expenditures. So far as present plans have developed, no labor will be laid off, and he indicated that any disturbance of the railroad labor would be the last move made.

Hines said he thought it would be imprudent to raise rates to meet the question of relinquishing the railroads. My first purpose is to try to solve the problem in other ways.

IDAHO MAY BE OWNER OF NEW CEMENT MILLS

Senate Passed Measure to Allow the State to Purchase Supplies for the New Road Projects

(Special to The News)
BOISE, Idaho, March 5.—Permitting the state of Idaho to engage in the manufacture of cement and other road materials, an omnibus project and erect manufacturing plants, the senate yesterday passed a bill by the state appropriations committee of that body appropriating $75,000 for the purpose.

This is said to be the first time in the history of the commonwealth that it has made provision to enter activities which have heretofore been confined to private enterprises and should the bill pass the house and be signed by Governor Davis, it would mark an epoch in the state.

Establish Cement Mills
According to Senator Yeaman, chairman of the state affairs committee in his explanation to the senate, the bill would pass the department of public works to establish cement mills where that product would be manufactured for road purposes. There were no dissenting votes in the senate on the measure.

Attempts Amendment
An attempt by Senator Adams, chairman of the finance committee to amend the big two mill levy bill from the house which would accumulate $1,800,000 for road purposes by specifying that the levy be made a sliding one providing that the state board of equalization could set the levy at either one or two mills, failed of passage.

The effort to amend the bill provided for the department of public works to establish cement mills where that product would be manufactured for road purposes. There were no dissenting votes in the senate on the measure.

Must Have Two Mill Levy
Senator Leo of Blingham county said he was certain that if the state carried out the proper road program, the levy must be two mills and asked the question: "Why delegate the authority of setting the rate of mill levy to the board of equalization?"

He added that it was not his understanding that such a request had been made by Governor Davis as stated by Senator Armstrong.

"This bill is the biggest piece of constructive legislation in this session and should not be crippled," said Senator Armstrong.

Direct Benefit
Senator Leo of Blingham county believed that one mill would be sufficient and remarked that his constituents agreed with him "because we are getting a better road program."

He added that it was not his understanding that such a request had been made by Governor Davis as stated by Senator Armstrong.

Bills Acted Upon
Among these were the Whitcomb bill excluding agricultural land from cities and towns; a bill authorizing cities and towns to sell excess electric power outside the corporate limits; the measure appropriating $50,000 for the improvement of the Snake river project providing for consolidation of irrigation districts and appropriation of $10,000 for the construction of a bridge across the Kootenai at Leona.

WILL REPRESENT THEM IN ROAD CASE
OLYMPIA, Wash., March 5.—W. Vaughn Tanner resigned as attorney for the Washington state afterno. He will go to Washington, D. C., to represent Washington, Idaho and Oregon in the case of the three states against the railroad administration, to contest the rate of the regulation of certain rates heretofore under jurisdiction of the state public utility commission. Assistant Attorney General Thompson of Yakima was appointed the new attorney general by acting Governor Hart. This arrangement permits Tanner to accept fees from each of the three states.
