OPPOSITION TO LEAGUE MAY BE OF SHORT LIFE

French Think that Many Will Relax Their Work Against the Organization When Wilson Resumes Peace Duties

BY JOHN DE GANDL
PARIS, March 7.—A distinct impression prevailed here today that American opposition to the league of nations covenant would show considerable relaxation if President Wilson actually resumes his work in Paris.

His speech in New York just before sailing was the subject of most favorable comment among the French. Some officials here apparently now hope that the desired French amendments to the covenant will be more acceptable to Wilson. They believe the president appreciates that the terms of the peace treaty can only be put into action through the medium of league nations which continued American collaboration.

Comments on Situation
Le Liberty commenting on President Wilson's speeches and the American situation, said:

"The covenant is simply an alliance of free nations which is sufficient if it is provided that France may take the necessary territorial and strategic guarantees to the eastward to prevent new aggression."

"Even if he is unable to win over a majority of the republican opposition," the journal De Liberte said, "Wilson has convinced the masses that it is a necessity, and that it is his duty to establish a league for the purpose of preventing all aggressive enterprises."

MILITARY TERMS MAY BE DRASTIC

No Definite Settlement Is Yet Reached By Council on This Important Phase

PARIS, March 7.—Final military terms to be imposed upon the Germans will probably be even more drastic than those proposed by the allied council.

The council agreed on military terms, "because it seems the unanimous desire, that they should be even more stringent than the supreme war council proposed."

With regard to the question of whether the league of nations covenant shall be included in the peace treaty which Germany will be asked to sign, Tardieu explained that the covenant itself would be first signed by the allies and later when admitted to the league by Germany.

"The French idea now," he said, "is that it is very important to keep the connection between the treaty of peace and the league of nations."

PRESSING ARGUMENTS FOR MATCH AT RENO

Sporting Interests Still Trying to Get Big Fight to Consider Nevada

RENO, Nev., March 7.—Despite the positive statement of Tex Rickard that the Willard-Dempsey bout will not be staged in Nevada, Reno sporting interests are today hammering harder than ever to make this the location for the heavyweight "mix."

Passage of the twenty-five round boxing bill by the legislature over the veto of Governor Boyle, however, proves the state will further the interests of the clean boxing, while attendance at the Jeffries-Johnson fight in 1910 is cited to refute the argument that Nevada is too isolated.

Townley Thinks Entire World Is Sadly Mismanged

President of Non Partisan League Declares that Nebraska Is the One Oasis

LINCOLN, Neb., March 7.—A. C. Townley, president of the non-partisan league who is making a swing through Nebraska, beginning at Lincoln, told a big crowd of farmers and others who came here to hear him, that North Dakota is the one oasis in the desert of mismanged commonwealths; that the state had blazed the way and marked the path for others to follow. Millions of people, Mr. Townley said, have starved when the world produces enough for luxury for all.

The world, he declared, is bleeding to death because of mismangement and this country is not far behind Europe in the deplorable state of affairs. In this country sixty per cent of the people do not own the homes they live in. In North Dakota, we have solved the problem," said Mr. Townley. "We have won. The government is ours and the revolution is over. There is no danger in North Dakota of anarchy or Bolshevism because Bolshevism and the Red flag are the results of oppression."

BOXING MEASURE DELIGHTS FANS

Action of Nevada Legislature in Permitting Twenty-five Rounds Is Favored

NEW YORK, March 7.—Boxing enthusiasts throughout the country were jubilant today as a result of the action of the Nevada legislature yesterday in passing the measure permitting 25 round contests in the western state. The assembly passed the bill over Governor Boyle's veto last week and the senate indorsement clinched the matter.

Many believe that Tex Rickard, promoter of the Willard-Dempsey heavyweight championship bout, will decide to stage the fight in Nevada.

Idaho May Follow

Favorable action on a similar law is also expected in Idaho. According to J. Robb Brady, the most recent bidder for the championship contest. Brady, telegraphing Rickard from Pocatello, has offered $100,000 cash for the privilege of staging the bout. In his dispatch to Rickard Brady stated that the legislature had legalized long bouts and the governor was expected to sign. Rickard, now over here in New York, is expected to pass upon this and other bids at an early date.

Chief Eastern Objection
Although a number of eastern and middlewestern offices are bidding for the match, boxing devotees incline strongly to the belief that the big fight should be held in the west, over the longer route. The chief objection to the eastern and middlewestern offers is the fact that only ten, twelve and fifteen round fights may be staged.

Rickard's contracts with Dempsey obligate the promoter to notify Dempsey sixty days before the contest just when the action will be held. The promoter has the privilege of changing the scene of the fight even after his decision has been made but he must give ten days' notice.

Aged Chaplain Faces Death on Serious Charge

Accused Man's Sole Defense Is to Be Argument of His Counsel, Is Reported

DALLAS, Tex., March 7.—Rev. Francis C. Berry, over sixty years old, gray and haggard, charged with statutory crime against young girls, faced judgment today.

Clad in clerical black, the aged chaplain of a children's home here, heard one of his own flock tell of his alleged offenses against her. Rigorous cross examination failed to shake 34 year old Irene Everett's story. Other little girls were similarly attacked, she said.

Part of an alleged confession said to have been obtained from Berry by W. B. King, was admitted in evidence. Berry offered no witnesses and did not take the stand. His sole defense was to be the argument of his counsel. The state demanded Berry's death.

STARTS ATTACK ON THE LEAGUE

Borah, Reed and Thomas Make Bitter Speeches Against Present Covenant

NEW YORK, March 7.—The campaign of republican and conservative wretches in opposition to the covenant of the league of nations was in full swing today. Senators Borah, Idaho; Reed, Missouri; and Thomas, Colorado, fired the opening guns in vitriolic attacks against the present draft of the league guaranteeing the territorial integrity of league members at the society of arts and sciences dinner here last night.

Borah declared the league scheme should be referred to a plebiscite and a substantial fear of Asiatic domination of the United States would decide to follow the traditional policy of the country as expressed by George Washington.

Reed characterized the league as a "Trojan horse," full of enemies of the United States.

FRANCE TO TRAIN JAPS.

TOKIO, Feb. 6 (By Mail).—Seventeen officers and twenty men of the French air forces, headed by Colonel Paure, have arrived in Japan to supervise the organization of the Japanese air service. The mission comes in fulfillment of a promise made by the French government to the Japanese war ministry during the war that such assistance would be given as soon as possible after the cessation of hostilities.

The French government is sending 100 airplanes to Japan to be used in the reorganization work. It is expected that the first flight of the planes will be here three months. They have been given a very hearty reception by Japanese officials, and French flags are crossed with Rising Suns throughout Tokyo in their honor.

The officers are all veterans of the, and each wears several decorations and ribbons indicating his service for France and for the allies. One of the members of the mission, Lieut. Georges Richardson, fought with the United States marines last year, having been assigned to duty as a liaison officer. Commandant Lefevre, who directed the expedition in its return from a bombing expedition to London, is a member. Some of the officers have seen service on all battle fronts.

PROSPECTS

Sloppy weather underfoot but plenty of water for Spring irrigation.

In a general way the prospects of this section in a purely material sense were never better.

Prior to a month or two ago there were grave misgivings in the minds of a good many as to what might be expected later on in the event that the snowfall was as complete a failure as the early winter seemed to promise.

Signs of the Times

(Vilka Sauvage Owens in N. Y. Times) Be humble, O American! Let not the idle boast, the weak vainglorious blit.

Building prospects for the year are reasonably good, all points considered. The high cost of materials has, up to now, deterred many from going ahead on cherished projects.

All in all, there would seem to be very little to worry about in the prospects of the Twin Falls country for a good long time to come.

"Another Package From Booth's"

CLEAR'S WAY FOR RECLAMATION OF MILNER PROJECT

Officers of Land - Water Company Release All Mortgages Given to Secure Contracts Under First Concern

As a preliminary step toward the organization of a corporation to effect the reclamation of arid lands extending west from Milner to a point east of Hanson, release of all mortgages given by settlers to the Milner Canal company to secure payment for water rights under the first enterprise in this field have been issued by Edgar W. Moorman and D. E. Moorman, president and secretary respectively, of the Milner Land & Water company, to whom the mortgages were assigned by the canal company. A total of 310 of these mortgages, each covering 40 acres of land was issued. Practically all were entered into in 1917. Some were never filed of record. Releases of 238 of these mortgages were filed Thursday in the office of the recorder of Twin Falls county and others were filed in Cassia county. D. E. Moorman stated this morning that every mortgage given had been released.

New Corporation Planned. The new corporation which will undertake to push the reclamation enterprise to a successful conclusion is to be a co-operative non-profit sharing organization. It is probable that it will be known as the Murtaugh Canal company. This corporation is to secure from the Milner Land & Water company a quit claim deed to all its interests in the project. These interests include a considerable amount of construction work already completed and pumps and motors now at Milner for forcing water from Snake river to an area of some 6,000 acres of land extending from Milner west to a point west of Murtaugh, under what is known as the first lift of the proposed irrigation system. Estimates made for the company place the cost of diverting the flood waters of Snake river to these lands at $30 per acre. The flood waters in average years will furnish water up to July 23. Frequently, it is stated, it is possible to secure flood waters throughout the entire irrigation season, and water for fall irrigation will be available every year.

Bank Support Here

With a view to securing support in Twin Falls to the undertaking T. D. Nash, W. C. Hall and E. D. Hunt of Murtaugh met here Thursday evening in the office of Arthur L. Swin with J. M. Maxwell, James McMillan, L. E. Salladay, T. M. Robertson, E. V. Berg and other citizens. The enterprise was discussed at length but no definite proposal was submitted and no action was taken.

Neither of the Moormans were in attendance at this meeting. D. E. Moorman stated this morning that he did not consider it feasible to look to Twin Falls for financial support of the plan, and expressed confidence that the plan would be carried into execution through the efforts of persons most interested.

Health Improvement in Brazil. The famous saying "Brazil is a vast hospital" is in a fair way to being outlawed. Yellow fever is stamped out and the government has made an immense appropriation for supplying quinine to the entire community. To these achievements must be added the labors of the Oswaldo Cruz Institute in the realm of scientific prevention of communicable diseases of all kinds. —Brazil-Medico.

Dear friend, Elizabeth:

No, my Dear, I did not mean that you should plan on sending my little namesake, Finny Lou, out to Idaho just so I can have her photograph made at The Bisbee Studio though I am very glad she loves me well enough to be willing to make the trip.

However, I'll not let your teasing change my assertion that The Bisbee Studio does have the finest collection of children's portraits that I have ever seen. And the photographs sent from that studio to be exhibited at various places, and published—well, if you could see them, Elizabeth, you would agree with all I say about them.

Mrs. Bisbee and I were talking of children's portraiture the other morning when a black-eyed, curly-haired group of little children came in and pushed the plumpest and most cunning child of all toward Mrs. Bisbee; the little maid looked up, confidently smiled and quite frankly said: "I want a feddler." I was puzzled to know her meaning until Mrs. Bisbee pulled out a drawer containing long colored feathers by the thousand which the little folks had great fun in selecting. And on each feather was printed an entirely consistent statement for these were the words: "The Bisbee Studio—The Children's Choice." Furthermore, half a dozen laughing, childish voices, to say nothing of friendly dimples, seemed to emphasize the truth of the slogan.

But the thing that my little namesake would most enjoy around the place is a birthday cake, not just edible, Mrs. Bisbee explained, but so delightful to the eye, month after month as scores of children come in to be photographed on their birthdays. And the candles, one for each year, and all the ceremony of lighting them—is it any wonder that The Bisbee Studio is indeed the children's choice, and quite evidently the choice of a large proportion of grown people as well?

And while we are speaking of photographs, I must remind you that you did not send the flashlights of the Good Time Club made on Washington's Birthday; you said you had them ready to send to me and I wish you would hurry, for I would love to see the pictures of your dear faces; what good friends you have all been to me.

Wisconsin Banker Wants Land Board to Show Cause Why No Patent for His Land

Governor Davis and the other members of the state land board will be asked to show cause why they should not apply for patent to lands outside the area of 5000 acres in the Salmon River project, which was approved by a former state engineer and secretary of the interior as a project to include 75,000 acres, if the prayer is granted in a suit filed in the state supreme court by George F. Becker, a Wisconsin banker who claims that he filed an acre secured for the entire season of 1918. Bad rains have hindered the work, the field men say, and they are confident with all of the week's secure contracts covering 3000 acres. Office here has been secured with the E. J. Finch Realty company, where field men will meet with prospective growers to contract acreage and discuss best culture and feeding value of by-products.

PETITIONERS' VIEWS TO BE AIRED IN CASE

T. K. Hackman Will Avail Self of Permission Given By Court to Propose Solution

T. K. Hackman, attorney for Robert Rayl and other petitioners in intervention in the case of A. E. Caldwell and others against the Twin Falls Salmon River Land & Water company and others, stated today that he would appear in the trial of the case in the federal district court in Boise to present at that time the views of the petitioners in reference to a possible solution of the situation, as he was given permission to do by Judge F. S. Dietrich, after argument on the admission of the petition Wednesday. It is the view of the petitioners that each and all of the parties at interest in the Salmon river cases which have burdened the courts for years, should be convened in a suit in equity for the final disposal of the several and vexing questions at issue between the bondholders, the constructing and operating companies and the settlers.

ABLE TO GO DOWN TOWN FIRST TIME IN MANY MONTHS

Mrs. Cox's Improvement Since Taking Tanlac Proved a Grand Surprise.

"It surely is a Tanlac neighborhood when I live, for most everybody I know is taking it with fine results." Mrs. Cox, wife of F. C. Hill, of 1139 Vernon Ave. N. E., Portland, in telling of her interesting experience with the famous medicine.

"I was in such a bad state of health," continued Mrs. Cox, "that for the last three years I was hardly able to get out of bed at all. Soon after eating anything I would have a stuffy feeling like my stomach was filled with gas, and often during the night my heart would beat so hard and fast I would have to get up for breath, and sometimes when going about the house, I would get so dizzy and feel so faint and weak that I would not dare go out, because I was afraid of falling. My nerves were so upset that I just couldn't stand any noise or excitement, and I would lie awake at night after listening to the ticking of the clock and waiting for I would go to sleep, but I would get some sleep or rest. My joints would swell and ache with rheumatism till I could hardly stand the agony, and I would have such terrible nervous headaches that many a time I felt like I would be better off dead than alive. Medicines did me no good, and I felt so weak that I could not even get up to drag myself around and I had almost given up hope of ever getting well."

"Well, now to show what Tanlac has done for me, I will give you a list of my troubles. I have gotten entirely over those terrible headaches and I sleep all night like a baby. That rheumatism is almost gone, and I am so much stronger now that I do a lot of work that I didn't dare attempt before. Why just last week I went up town to do some shopping, and it was the first time in many months that I had been able to get that far from the house and I was mighty glad to be able to walk around town again. I expected to get a bad cold, but I was not, and I was a grand surprise not only to me but to my friends as well, for I hardly felt the exertion at all. I have gotten all this wonderful improvement from only four bottles of Tanlac, and I am going to keep on taking it as long as it continues to help me like it has. It is all I could do. I just can't afford to miss a single dose."

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy, in Rogerson by Thompson Drug Co., in Murtaugh by Murtaugh Dr. Co., in Wood, in Buhl, in Burley, in C. D. Boring Brothers Co., and in Kimberly by L. H. Stowe—adv.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months—adv.
