

FINANCES FOR RAILROADS ARE BEING PLANNED

Director General and the Officials of the Roads Meet to Attempt a Solution of the Great Problems

EXPENDITURES MUST BE LARGE DURING THIS YEAR

Present Dilemma Is Causing Worry to the Executives of the Systems and Must Have Immediate Relief

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Financing of the railroads by government warrants which might be used as collateral for loans was considered as one of the means of extracting the lines from the present financial straits.

To Stave Off Crisis — The warrants which Illinois officials are being considered could be used as a means to stave off any financial crisis until an appropriation can be had from congress, it was officially stated.

It was made clear to the railroad executives, Hines said, that their financial needs must be met by the railroad corporations. That being true, the resources of the war finance corporation will be reserved to protect special cases.

To Meet Needs at Once — Hines and the conference generally proceeded in this manner, according to the view that it was highly desirable to provide ways for payment of bills immediately and have this situation met through financial effort rather than by general expenditures.

This alternative was selected, it was said, because of the deterrent effect upon business of the other plan. In order to get the problem before the conference Hines set forth the necessities as affects expenditures to June 30 as follows:

To meet the amounts due equipment companies by the railroad administration, $18,000,000.

To pay for indispensable additional and betterments, including equipment ordered, $110,000,000.

To pay current vouchers over probable receipts to March 31, $101,000,000.

To receive cash balance in hands of federal treasuries of the roads up to $200,000,000 which is the normal monthly requirement, $4,000,000.

VICE PRESIDENT WILL NOT DISCUSS LEAGUE

Wary of Duty of Humanity to Prepare Either for Future War or Peace

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 11.—Vice-President Marshall does not propose to discuss the league of nations, for the Arizona state legislature, he refused to discuss the league, although he asserted his loyalty to the great republic.

Following his address before the Arizona state legislature, he refused to discuss the league, although he asserted his loyalty to the great republic.

Marshall warned that it is humanity's duty to prepare now either for peace or for the next war.

"Plunkett's address," declared, "but sometimes it is better to fight where the integrity or honor of the nation is involved."

Officials Seek Information On Australian Ban

Government Authorities are Trying to Find Explanation of Report Circulated

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Government officials today were seeking an official explanation of the report that Australia had placed a ban on the exportation of all except British products.

Inquiries from American manufacturers who expected to expand their trade in Australia flooded the department of commerce.

In the absence of official information commerce officials were inclined to doubt the accuracy of the report. But they have instituted an investigation through both trade and diplomatic channels to find whether the Australian ban is a mere importation to British manufactured goods.

Creal Announces His Intention to Resign Position

Director of Bureau of Public Information Says He Is Going to Quit

NEW YORK, March 11.—Among the passengers on board the transport Agamemnon arriving here today was Geo. Creel, director of the bureau of public information. Creel was the first person to leave the vessel and entrained immediately for Washington.

"The work of the bureau of public information ended in December," Creel said, "and I am now making arrangements for the discontinuance of the American foreign press work. My own relations with the bureau since March 1 have been purely nominal. I intend to go back to private life as soon as I can clean up a few details requiring attention at Washington."

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Death sentences ordered against three privates at Fort Riley, Kansas, for refusing to wear the uniform or registering orders have been revoked and the men restored to duty by order of President Wilson.

Findings of the court martial in all three cases were modified to twenty-five years imprisonment by Major-general Wood, but both findings and sentences were disapproved by the president.

LAWYERS STUDY THE CABLE LAW

All International Cable Rights are Opened to Investigating Committee

PARIS, March 11.—Creation of a commission of lawyers to determine the status of cables opened during the war was expected today to clear up the question of international law affecting cables.

American dissent to the naval terms of the preliminary treaty which provided merely that the German cables should be returned, leaving ultimate ownership undecided is believed to have resulted in appointment of the commission of which James Brown Scott is the American member.

American Interests are directly affected inasmuch as the two most important of these cables are those which formerly connected New York and Bremen by way of the Azores. These were cut early in the war.

The Azores are Portuguese territory and interference with the cables involved American rights. Two neutrals were affected since the United States was not then a belligerent.

Since, aside from the cable connecting the United States and Bremen system—which has excellent and up-to-date equipment—is the only direct connection between America and the continent, there is no disposition to acquire title to the cables seized during the war.

Another cable between West Africa and Brazil, which also was seized, will come under the findings of the lawyers' commission.

ROAD PROBLEM IS STUDIED BY RAIL OFFICIALS

Financial Questions are Perplexing Heads of the Railways and the Administration

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Directors-general of the railroad administration today are working with railroad officials to the end of adjusting the financial troubles of the roads, resulting from the failure of congress to pass a $750,000,000 appropriation.

Twenty-five men, a majority of them railroad officials and including representatives of the war financial corporation and the financial advisory board of the railroads went into conference with Hines at 10 o'clock this morning.

The meeting was behind closed doors. Hines and members of his staff were prepared to lay before the railroad executives every item of the roads' financial status. Practically every road of consequence is represented here either by an official or by proxy.

Views of the executives apparently are as widely separated as are those of government officials. It was originally planned to call into the conference many well known bankers. But it was decided that the rail executives should first be given an opportunity to offer their suggestions.

Representatives of the financial interests will be invited to Washington later when, it is expected, the railroad administration will have some tangible plan to propose in the way of providing for its fiscal needs.

Hines announced today he had telegraphed all car and equipment companies to send representatives for a conference with him Thursday.

Get the Facts Into the Light!

A story of two men in an automobile who are supposed to have recently procured whiskey at the Twin Falls county courthouse is vouched for by a well known local citizen.

The attention of the County Prosecutor's office having been called to the matter, it is to be expected that a warrant will issue and the facts in the case will be thoroughly investigated.

If the story is found to be true, due punishment should and must be meted out to the official or officials guilty of any such flagrant breach of law and decency.

If the story is hot true, that fact too should and will be, given the widest publicity.

It is the duty of every good citizen to check up on every reported case of law violation; to report all such statements as to purported breaches of law to the County Attorney's office without delay, in the interests of law, order and justice.

There is a two-fold reason. Such acts, if they have been committed, are a disgrace to Twin Falls. If the stories of such acts have no foundation in fact, the sooner they, too, is thoroughly established the better.

ACTION IS BETTER THAN WORDS!

SHIPYARDS OPEN AFTER LONG ENFORCED IDLENESS

Many Thousands of Returning Workers Ask to Be Reinstated this Morning

SEATTLE, Wash., March 11.—Although besieged by approximately 25,000 workers this morning, Seattle's shipyards, which so long have been idle since the calling of the strike January 21, were unable to accommodate more than a few thousand of the applicants.

The employment office men explained that these men would be given the task of getting the yards in order for the full rush of business. Men will be hired every day until the full strength of the yards is filled.

CLEVELAND, O., March 11.—As soon as the supreme court mandate affirming conviction of Eugene V. Debs, expires here, Debs' bondsmen will be ordered to bring him in and then he will be taken to the Moundville, West Virginia, federal penitentiary. Federal District Attorney Edward Wertz said today.

Debs is scheduled to deliver a "farewell address" here tomorrow night. He was tried in Cleveland on a charge of violating the espionage law.

REPUBLICAN IS ELECTED LEADER

Wyoming Man Is to Be the Next Floor Leader in the Coming Sessions

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Representative Frank W. Mondell, of New Castle, Wyoming, today was elected republican floor leader in the next congress.

The vote for Mondell was 160 to 23, the latter number voting merely "present," fifty-three votes were absent from the meeting of the republican committee.

Previous to the nomination of Mondell, Representative Mann, Illinois, the present floor leader, was chosen to again lead republican forces in the house but declining the nomination, the vote for Mann was 154, twelve voting against him and two voting for Representative Longworth, Ohio.

Mondell first came to Washington during the fifty-fourth congress. He was not in the house during the fifty-fifth congress but was elected to the fifty-sixth and all succeeding. He has also been elected to the senate, Wyoming, state senator and assistant commissioner of the general land office. Mondell was born November 6, 1860.

WOMEN CHANGE CONSTITUTION

Representatives of Ten Countries Meet to Consider Amending Draft

LONDON, March 11.—Recommendations for amendment of the world constitution were considered today by the convention of various league of nations societies representing ten countries.

In the morning session numerous proposals by British, French, Italian and American delegates were taken up secretly. The most important of these were connected with the guarantees demanded by the French and the matter of armaments. The Americans are interested in both propositions, especially the latter, which includes fixing the size of international forces. It was expected there would also be some discussion of world wide abolition of conscription.

URGENT OBSCURE LAWS TO DEAL WITH RADICALS

Investigating Committee Presents Recommendation to Congress Aimed at the Control of Agitators

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Draught laws to curb activities of anarchists, I. W. W., social revolutionists and Bolsheviks in the United States are to be recommended to congress by the senate committee which has been investigating Bolshevik activities, members said today.

Hearings are almost at an end. In spite of this, practically the only evidence the committee will have of Bolshevik propaganda in the United States is yet to go into the record. This is now being submitted in the form of newspaper clippings, pamphlets, books and papers sent through the mails.

BLAMES SPIRIT OF UNREST ON THE DOCTRINES SPREAD

Declares That Every I. W. W. in the Country Is a Bolshevik and Is Aiding Their Cause

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Draught laws to curb activities of anarchists, I. W. W., social revolutionists and Bolsheviks in the United States are to be recommended to congress by the senate committee which has been investigating Bolshevik activities, members said today.

Out of the mass of testimony submitted, committee members said today one clear fact has disclosed itself—the I. W. W. in the United States is the most lively influence for the spread of the doctrine of unrest.

For many days the committee has been hearing about Russia and doings of the Bolshevik there, until it seemed, Senator King said, that the investigations' real purpose had been lost sight of. This was to determine how extensive Bolshevik activities in the United States have been and to report on means to curb the radicals seeking overthrow of the American government.

I. W. W. Blamed for Unrest — King then asked Raymond Robins, who was concluding his testimony whether he knew of any organized propaganda movement in the United States. King said that he did not but added that "every I. W. W. in America is an ardent Bolshevik."

The statement was made to the committee by Robins in answer to a question reported declaration of independence of the Korean National Independence Union.

"There is no situation in this regard for discussion at the peace table, Korea was joined to Japan with world approval. Naturally there is a small element there, as everywhere, desiring a change."

BOLSHIEVISM ISSUE AN OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE — LONDON, March 11.—The Bolshevik communique covering last Wednesday's operations, was received by wireless from Moscow today. It said: "Fighting in the shanksville region continued in the direction of Murnansk w. occupied Iaingoseros. In the Arhangel region there were artillery exchanges and scouting operations."

ENGLISH BEGIN CONSTRUCTION

French and British Have Met Their After-the-War Problems With Alacrity

LONDON, March 11.—The Mail announced that the British and French governments have agreed to construct a tunnel under the English channel and that plans also are being considered for building tunnels under the Bosphorus and a Gibraltar straight.

The channel tunnel, which was first officially referred to by Andrew Bonar Law in the house of commons was estimated at $100,000,000 to $125,000,000. Work, according to the Mail will be started as soon as the plans are completed. Great Britain and France will share equally in the financing and all nations will be given equal railway rates.

Sir Ernest Moore, member of the engineering firm which built the East River tunnels near New York, says he believes the channel tunnel will be no more difficult than that project, perhaps easier.

BREAD PRICES DUE TO PROFITEERING BAKERS

Farmer Is Released From Any Responsibility in Connection With High Prices

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 11.—The excessive bread cost is put on after the wheat has passed from the hands of the farmer and the miller. The miller and the baker share the responsibility for the high cost of flour. This is the testimony of O. C. Jarvis, who made an official investigation and related his findings before the legislative food price committee. Local millers, called to testify, said the costs of flour manufacture claimed that it costs about $1.50 a barrel and that the miller made a profit of about 25 cents a barrel in addition.

FORTY-SECOND SEEMS POPULAR

Division Scheduled to Parade for Many Thousands and More Asking Privilege

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The "Fighting 42nd" (Rainbow) division, probably will be back on American shores early in May, war department officials said today.

It is the hope of the divisions scheduled for sailing from France in April. Unless there is a change in plans therefore, it will reach America too late to participate in the victory loan drive.

Nevertheless, owing to its record in some of the bitter fighting on the west front the war department will allow considerable relaxation of the general plans for returned troops and will permit parades of the different regiments in United States which they were drawn. The rainbow division comprising troops of nearly all classes from almost every state in the union.

Following announcement last yesterday that General Pershing had ordered the division to prepare for return home the war department has been flooded with requests from all over the country to see the men on parade. Many of these already have been granted.

PRELIMINARIES OF THE PEACE BEING FRAMED

With the Military Terms Adopted, the Conference Is Now Studying Many Other Phases of Settlement

BY FRED S. PERKINSON
PARIS, March 11.—With the military terms adopted and rapid progress being made toward completion of the peace provisions, it was learned today that the preliminary peace treaty may be ready to present to the Germans by March 20.

From the greatest war undertaken in the world, Germany will be reduced to a military status lower than that of her smallest neighbor. She will be impotent over before Switzerland.

Military Terms

Conscription system will be knuckled out by a twelve year enlistment requirement for the army which it is understood will be followed by a similar system for the navy. Consequently will be purely professional. The danger of Germany having four or five million trained men within the next ten years which would have been possible through conscription will be abolished. All the guns, munitions and equipment in excess of the amount necessary for her reduced army will be surrendered. It is understood also that the notorious general staff will be wiped out.

No Wavering Now

If any attempt is made to carry out the threat to refuse acceptance of the peace treaty and throw the country in chaos if the terms are too harsh, Germany will find the allies representing a firm front.

The choice in such a case probably lies between occupation of Germany and continuation of the blockade, letting the enemy starve until they are ready to sign. Considering the enormous quantities of German goods, the latter course is considered more likely.

Must Consult Government

Under present plans the treaty will be handed to the Germans at Versailles immediately after their arrival there. The enemy delegates will then be followed to return to the country for consultation with their government, afterward coming back to Versailles for the formal signing. That Count Bernstorff will not be a member of the German delegation is understood as the allies have taken action to make clear that he would not be welcome.

The move of the supreme war council in obtaining conscription in Germany was accepted as probably meaning the death blow to that system throughout the world. Under present political conditions in other European countries, it was believed this was the only interpretation which could be applied to the council's action.

Changes

Although other nations, such as France and Italy, may retain conscription for the present, it is considered likely that the future will bring general conscription. The difficulty attending the conscription question in Great Britain was made obvious by the trouble encountered by Premier Lloyd-George since extension of the conscription law. France at present has a three year conscription service term, but with the German menace removed and no big potential army threatening or likely to threaten her, the conscription of the war council was expected to influence her as well as other countries, on the principle that compulsory military service, never being welcome, would be even less attractive with no incentive.

Such a development, it is accepted, will permit rapid scaling down of armies under the league. The conscription law will mean a long step toward international disarmament.

BAKER DENIES COUNTRY WILL SELL AIRPLANES

CHICAGO, March 11.—Secretary Baker has denied knowledge of any plan to sell airplanes as junk. He was in Chicago last night with the staff of Staff France on a tour of army camps. "I have heard of that story," Baker said. "I know nothing about it. General Menner, in charge of the aviation division, has made no recommendations to me."

PROHIBITS DISPLAY OF ALL CIVILIAN WEAPONS

BARLE, March 11.—War Minister Noke issued a proclamation Sunday to the effect that any one seen carrying arms, except government troops, would be shot immediately, according to a Berlin dispatch received today. As a result of this order, it was said, three Spartacists were shot by government troops. In retaliation, the Spartacists shot three loyal soldiers.

NEBRASKA MAN DEFEATED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 11.—Joe Stetehar, Nebraska heavyweight contender, was today eliminated from wrestling for the world's wrestling title here following a hard-fought match last night. Wlalek Zbyzsko, the "terrible Pole," proved too much for Stetehar, who got hit the first of the three falls. The first fall Zbyzsko won after two hours and fifteen minutes of wrestling. The third fall came quickly.

AMERICA LEADS WORLD IN THE GREAT SPORTS

In Spite of the War and Many Material Setbacks, the Art of Racing Horses Is Not Lost in This Country

CHICAGO, March 11.—That more than ten thousand blooded trotting horses in the United States will continue to furnish the sport of kings here on "the same old stands"—on the country's thousand or more tracks. This was the statement today of W. H. Smoother, secretary of the American Trotting Horse Association, who declared America has now firmly re-established itself in first place among horse breeding and training nations, displacing Russia and Austria, who formerly numbered of the world's finest studs.

America Leads

"America will need several years to get back on a proper producing basis in horse flesh," said Smoother, "but at its present standing no other country can do it."
"High cost of feed, leather, labor and training caused the sport a great setback."
"Still you'll find that last year's hard year in every line of business and sport—more people saw trotting and running races in America than ever before. Ten thousand horses took part in 800 races last year."

Discards Stories

Smoother said he discounted stories of blooded horses being deliberately shot by revolutionists in Russia and Austria. Most of the finer stock belonged to the royal, he said, and rarely taken in advance to see that the horse—most loved of all possessions in Russia—was taken out of the country.

NEARLY SIX THOUSAND WAR-VETERANS ARRIVE

Two Transports Race for Home Shore and the Mount Vernon Wins

NEW YORK, March 11.—The transport Mount Vernon carrying 5,784 soldiers and nurses, arrived today from Brest, winning by about eight hours the race with the Agamemnon, which left New York which will dock at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
The Mount Vernon on her first trip since being forced to return to port after the sinking of the last of the two transports on March 4 about ten hours after the Agamemnon had sailed. Thirty-six hours later she was waggled "foreward" and maintained the lead the rest of the trip.

Aboard the Mount Vernon were 2,765 men and 85 officers of the twenty-seventh division, among the last of the New York Army Corps for home.

Aboard the Oliphant which also arrived today were the following organizations: 24th infantry machine gun company, headquarters machine battalion, company G, G. H. K. L. M. and sanitary detachment, 15 officers and 1,216 men; 312 sanitary train detachment, one officer and five men; causal companies 38, 39 and 40.

WOULD-BE FIGHTER FAILS TO WIN CROWD'S CHEERS

One-time American Idol Is All but Wrecked in Battle of Last Night

NEW YORK, March 11.—Johnny Kilbane may be coming back, as he has declared, but if his last night's fight with Frankie Brown in Chicago is any criterion he will be a long time in arriving at his scheduled destination. The Kilbane special was all but wrecked in a ten-minute, out-of-control, American boxing match, one left the ringside with the cheers of the multitude ringing in his ears. Last night he got no cheers. But there were tears in some admirers' eyes.

The Kilbane who faced Frank Brown was not the same Kilbane who made Joe Rivera look like a calling plaster who boxed circles around Al. Atoll and who gave George Chumey the two-year life. The Kilbane of today carries too much excess baggage, and in that baggage there is no punch. Johnny said he had something up his sleeve, but it was not taken. "It's something," was in the sleeve of one Frankie Brown, a hard-fisted youngster from New York.

Entirely Out-Pointed

Brown was not only knocked Kilbane down but almost knocked the crown from the Kilbane dome. More over, he outpointed the would-be "come back." The wise ones were agreed that if Johnny was looking for any prize he had better look for one in the wrong market.

Aside from this, the boxing fans are having some outlandish questions. Has Kilbane really come back? Was he boxing at his best—or trying for a return engagement and stalling his way through a "big" fight to get a "big" fight? Or did Frankie hand him this little surprise party without leave or hindrance? These are some of the things that have come up for consideration since Kilbane's return from New York last night. One thing is certain—if Johnny was going at his best he stands sorely in need of a chin strap to hold his crown in place.

To "finance" a "to let" advertising campaign you need only set aside—for perhaps a few days—a part of your pocket money.

AQUAPLANING POPULAR SPORT AT RESORTS

Aquaplaning is the newest winter sport indulged in at the winter resorts of Florida or California. It has gained in popularity since war time when young America found that cutting up, even in aeroplane possible—therefore the thrills of aquaplaning are much sought after. This slide-like board is fastened by rope to a speedy motor boat. Then the sport starts. Here is Vance Veith and two fair merrymade doing about 40 miles an hour on a narrow board.

COMPANY IS SOON TO BE CONTROLLED BY WORKERS

International Harvester Company Has Decided on New Plan of Operation

CHICAGO, March 11.—The thirty thousand employees of the International Harvester company will have thirty thousand votes in the direction of the company's policy if they accept a plan submitted by company officials today.

Under the plan, employees at the company's twenty American and Canadian plants will decide questions of working conditions, health, safety, hours, wages, recreation and education. The voters will elect a "workers' council" at each plant to confer with representatives named by the company.

But "the time of service, political or religious affiliations will in no way discriminate against any worker, according to the plan.

THINKS AMERICA BEHIND WILSON

Paris Writer Declares that People of This Country Back Their President

PARIS, March 11.—Deputy Maurice Daurou, through the Journal, cautions the people against pessimism regarding President Wilson.

"Some think he is encountering in his own country formidable opposition," he said. "Nothing could be farther from the truth. The fact is the American senators hostile to the league of nations, which, according to them, does not lie in accord with the Monroe doctrine, represent a small minority of their own party. Between Wilson's word and the speeches of men whose action is due to political passion and misplaced nationalism, hesitation is impossible. The man elected by the American people expresses best his country's feeling."

NECESSITY FOR WORK BECOMES MOST VITAL

Construction and Other Employment Must Be Forthcoming Before Disastor

DETROIT, Mich., March 11.—Construction and road building must be got under way immediately in all parts of the country or a "future crammed with dynamite" is predicted by George W. Coleman, director of information for the department of labor.

In an address here, Coleman said the only preventative for anarchy is to provide work for all, leaving no room or time for discontent. Coleman advocated the league of nations, "preventing as it is," as a means of preventing international anarchy.

LEAGUE MAY BE PART OF FINAL TERMS REACHED

Taft Warns Republicans that the Organization is Likely to Be a Part and Parcel With Peace Treaty

BY ROBERT J. BENDEB
WASHINGTON, March 11.—Republican supporters of the league of nations, led by former President William Howard Taft, are warning G. O. P. opponents of the league covenant against a too rigid stand, lest they endanger the peace treaty.

It is now generally admitted that when the peace treaty comes back from France, the league of nations will be part and parcel of it. The whole work of drafting the treaty in Paris has been built on the promise of a league of nations and practically every article in some way is applicable under league rules.

Must Ratify Treaty

Hence, if the treaty when completed failed of ratification in a republican senate because the league of nations was a part of it, the whole work of drafting the treaty would have to be done over again—and in the meantime the treaty would remain ineffective and a state of war would continue as now.

The party responsible for holding up ratification of the treaty would undoubtedly be charged thereafter by the opposing party with having prolonged the war.

It may be that President Wilson had this situation in mind when he stated in New York that the league should not be a party issue and that "no party in the end would dare to oppose it."

Issues Party Warning

At any rate Taft, seeing the danger in a too inelastic stand by G. O. P. opponents of the league, has warned them against making the issue a party one.

Taft's move and the difference of opinion existing in both parties have created the belief here that there is a possibility in 1920, if the peace treaty is not ratified, of the electorate splitting up into a new alignment—head for and those opposed to ratification of the league. The fight would then be with the issue of modern internationalism as opposed to a strict nationalism.

Each Party Strongly Backed

In this connection there are now strong organizations, backing both the elements favoring and opposing the league, each organization determined to carry the fight to the finish.

According to the fact, however, that the leading republicans opposing the Wilson covenant favor some league, the hope is expressed by friends in both the republican and democratic parties that the republicans opposing the clarification of questioned articles so as to remove much of the opposition and assure the league's ratification.

NEXT SESSION MAY DO BETTER

Coming Congress Is Expected to Be More Friendly to Woman Suffrage

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The prohibition and woman suffrage legislation will be in the hands of its friends in the next issue of representatives. This was insured today by the first announcement from Republican Leader Mann that no anti-suffragist would be made chairman of the house woman suffrage committee.

Representative Vandest of Minnesota, a known ally, has already been chosen chairman of the house judiciary committee which will handle the legislation to enforce constitutional prohibition.

The chairman of the suffrage committee will not be chosen until today or tomorrow, but since Mann's wishes as to committee chairmen have prevailed so far, there is little doubt that he will be able to select a suffragist as his chairman.

If ever there has been a time in the history of Twin Falls calling for the laying aside of personal prejudices and grievances and the bending of all shoulders to the wheel in the attainment of necessary common ends it is the present.

United, coordinated action during the war has made possible the attainment of Twin Falls' splendid war record, just as up to the present time, this sort of effort has established for Twin Falls a most enviable position wherever its fame has spread.

It has been necessary during the war emergency, for Twin Falls, along with all other American communities, to divert its attention to war activities at the expense of improvements needed to keep pace with the progress of the community; but no American community has been before Twin Falls in the matter now of turning its attention from war to the neglected activities of peace.

Not only are there material improvements, such as the building of better roads, of paving streets and of bettering schools, demanding the undivided support and cooperation of its citizens, but along lines of spiritual progress as exemplified in the New Era, the Centenary and other kindred movements, Twin Falls is striving toward the attainment of ends that are generally regarded as necessary and proper.

Progress is not made against the handicap of divided council, and constructive work is not to be done in the atmosphere of suspicion.

It was bad enough that the poison of suspicion should arise where there is grounds for it, but where the stirring up of suspicion can serve no good end, can remedy no evil and add nothing to future benefit, it is only to be deplored.

It is not in keeping with the spirit of the new west in which Twin Falls has been founded and built to make inquiry into shortcomings of the past and seek to write the errors and mistakes of our brothers on imperishable tablets unless it is certain that such action is absolutely essential to the future welfare of the community, bringing to it a benefit of such great weight as to counterbalance the effect of a division of the community and its councils and effort such as is certain to result from it.

Twin Falls in the past has not proceeded along such lines, and will not now until full consideration of all elements and possibilities of such action prove beyond doubt that that is the only proper course to pursue.

ACTIVE L. W. ORGANIZATION DISCOVERED IN TEXAS

DALLAS, Texas, March 11.—An active "L. W." organization which has thrived under the noses of police and department of justice officials for weeks, was uncovered here today.

SCHOOL BOARD IS ON RECORD FOR BUILDING

Trustees Act Favorably on Construction Program and Select Architect B. E. Morse as Technical Advisor

The Twin Falls board of school trustees at its meeting Monday evening determined upon a building program and selected Architect Burton E. Morse to assist with technical advice in the formulation of its plans.

Legislation adopted at the last session of the state legislature permits of the issuance of bonds for erection of school buildings in this district in the sum of $10,000.

Several Plans Considered

Plans under consideration contemplate the erection of a junior high school building suggested recently by Superintendent H. G. Gifford.

Superintendent Gifford's recommendation for the junior high school was given on a wide degree of publicity some six weeks ago and has been given considerable consideration by citizens of the district.

FILM TO TELL STORY OF MERCHANT SUCCESS

Illustrated Lecture Coming Under Auspices of Greater Twin Falls Club

The three reel feature film, "Troubles of a Merchant, and How to Stop Them," will be presented for the first time in Twin Falls at the Greater Twin Falls Club, Monday night, March 17, at 8 o'clock.

L. D. Wright, president of the Greater Twin Falls Club, will secure the film and merchandising lecture through the courtesy of the National Cash Register company, Dayton, Ohio.

A prominent place in the lecture will be given to the art of advertising. By means of stereopticon slides Mr. Sulley will tell how to prepare newspaper copy, how to secure best results from direct mail advertising, and how to secure best results from window display, efficiency of clerks, selling methods, credit business, delivery problems, and other topics of interest to merchants.

The three reel film, "Troubles of a Merchant, and How to Stop Them," was prepared for the National Cash Register company by the Essanay company at a cost of $40,000. Months of study was put in on its production, and all the characters are portrayed by expert actors from the Essanay studios.

But finally a change comes in the career of Mr. White. He closes up his store, installs a modern system, and is declared to have a business lesson in every scene.

Many merchants and salespeople in this city are expected to welcome the opportunity offered by this lecture, and a large attendance is looked for.

COMMENT, BY AND LARGE

THE SHOSHONE FALLS PARK

The promoters of the new park have been fully advised of the plan in connection with the proposed soldiers' and sailors' memorial which was so unanimously and enthusiastically agreed upon by the great representative community of some five weeks ago.

Everyone is supposed to know what are the principal features of this plan: the formation of a memorial association, by which, after gaining legal control of the 100 acres of Shoshone Park reservation at the falls, the same should be improved and made the location for the memorial—a fine highway north to the river at or near Blue lakes and along for some miles to the falls being an important feature.

At a meeting of representatives from the same bodies, held in the same place one week later, the project was given somewhat more definite form and to fix upon the location of the memorial a committee to secure the necessary legislation. A bill was at once prepared by ex-Senators Swelley and Stephenson, and on Friday, February 22, 1918, was submitted by Representative J. B. Conover of this county.

This bill, which finally passed the senate last Saturday forenoon and upon the assured signature of the governor will become a law, has been published in three columns and need not now be repeated. Its main purpose and provision is to give, through a park commission, the desired and necessary authority for the planning of the Shoshone Park Memorial association (in Twin Falls county organization), and to make a state appropriation of ten thousand dollars—the latter to be used exclusively for the park improvement.

It was no small achievement to secure the passage of this bill, submitted as it was only twenty days before the close of the session, and bringing a new object for appropriation into an arena already overcrowded with them—a difficulty that was increased by the hostility of the speaker, who promptly referred it to the state affairs committee instead of to that of appropriations, which it was to have done had it been secured. That success finally crowned the efforts of those interested in the measure is wholly due to the able advocacy of the bill by the Twin Falls county legislative delegation, that which no better nor stronger one has ever been sent to Boise.

And now the great project is up to the people of Twin Falls. We are urged to "step up" actively, for the plan agreed upon not only means the raising and expenditure of a very large sum of money, but it means the accomplishment of something of great importance in the future not only of this city and county, but of this section and of the entire state of Idaho. The Great Shoshone Falls, with its wonderful scenery, its water, its waterfalls, its striking and beautiful scenic attraction in the United States, has been up to this time a wasted and unproductive asset of this section and this state.

The legislature of Idaho adjourned its fifteenth session sine die at 5:30 Saturday afternoon after having adopted the memorial bill. The general body of the memorial is a really new and important character to the credit of any similar body. The complete change in the method of administration of state affairs, which is to go into effect at the first of next month, is probably the most important, as it is the most revolutionary; but there are a multitude of other important measures, of which the legislature of Idaho has adopted a number which it became necessary to provide a revenue of almost nine millions of dollars for the biennial period will quite sufficiently show that there has been a "something doing" in Idaho.

Gen. Leonard Wood, upon whose foot rapidly growing military fame, the Secretary of War Baker has done his best to place a quarter, is still "speaking forth the words of truth and soberness." In a late address at the Methodist central, the general gave the most kindly and practical consideration for the ex-soldiers during demobilization. "The most dangerous period of war," he also warned the public not to let "existing labor leagues, of nations, a league tribunal or an international arbitration system, replace a policy of sound, rational preparedness," if the country is to remain in a state of peace.

A new danger signal has been hoisted through the great news agencies in late dispatches that proclaim an emergency in the matter of the oil of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce declares the supply of oil in this country is running very low and warns those to save all such important little adjuncts to civilization. It is to be hoped that this warning will be heeded, as there are few men who will be willing to trust the integrity of their other coverings to the mercy of hooks and eyes.

One of our local clergymen recently took occasion, standing in his pulpit, to compare President Wilson to the great reformers of the world, from which, in his opinion, it is safe to say that "those little creatures in congress" who were criticizing him were doing so because he was "so far in advance of them." The reverend saw fit to ignore the fact, first, that it is not the purpose but the method of the president that is being criticized; and, second, that "those little creatures in congress" are quite the president's equals in intellectual ability, and in patriotism, loyalty and practical knowledge of statecraft and constitutional and international law, some of them stand about one dollar to his thirty cents!

Criminal proceedings have been commenced against Charles Moody, late adjutant general of this state, by alleging the procurement of $17,625 through a false and fraudulent certificate on a voucher. The case was taken to a government of expenses during a trip to Washington—the sworn certificate, alleging the travel was in the service of the state, when it was in fact made on the side and by the means of the United States. This money, which is understood to have been returned to the state treasury since investigation began, seems rather a small sum in connection with the allegations of the report of the legislative committee; but if "not so deep as a well nor so wide as a church door," like Mercurio's words: "his like 'twill serve."

Once more, and in the republican organization of the new house, all the chairmanships of congressional committees have been settled by the old rule of seniority. This is a rule that would be more honored in the breach than in the observance. Once let a man get on a committee, and death and political changes will make him its chairman, no matter how much of a dud he may be provided only he holds on!

Whoever thinks that Germany really understands and appreciates her present position as a conquered and suppliant nation need only note the fact that right now she is demanding the cessation of the American embargo of tons of foodstuffs before she will deliver her shipping in accordance with armistice conditions.

David Jayne Hill, who will at once be recognized as not only a great democratic leader but a great constitutional lawyer in a late address before the New York Bar association, sets up the recognition and enforcement of international law, rather than any league of nations as the panacea for world peace. He says that any "sovereign" authority that can issue commands to sovereign states, and that is a super-state, a new entity, holding formerly sovereign states in general subjection to it—adding the following most significant paragraphs:

"And do not and cannot subordinate themselves without self-extinction to a super-national authority, and must create law and order for themselves, and must conduct toward one another—a law not imposed from above, but created by themselves—in strict and literal expression, a law 'international'."

Admitting the fact that thousands of American soldier boys are marrying French girls, and that an American flag of jealousy thereat, an American party, writing the New York "Sun," says: "I don't see any reason why they should not. His continent: 'These girls are really the best. We understand the art of flirtation better when we are born than the American woman after her fourth divorce. . . . And they make even better wives and mothers than the French ones. They're wonderful housekeepers, although they do run to too much furniture in the parlor and too much garb in the kitchen to suit my plain taste.'"

WATERBOSIAN EPIGRAMS.

The series of papers which "Marzo Henry" Waterston is contributing to the Saturday Evening Post under the title "Looking Forward," are not only full of interesting reminiscences, but are replete with philosophic reflections of most epigrammatic pungency and very applicable to present conditions—no, no, no, they were intended to be. For instance:

"Under the pretense of 'liberalizing' the government politicians are sacrificing 'the organic character' of the American constitution; its checks and balances, wisely designed to promote and protect liberty, are being loosened by schemes of reform more or less visionary, while now the old-fashioned intelligence enlightened by experience, and conviction supported by self-control, interposing to save the representative system of the constitution from the onward march of the proletariat."

"One cynic tells us that a statesman is a politician who is dead, and that a politician is a politician who is not dead. 'Patriotism is God give us men, but the parties say 'Give us votes and offices.' and 'conscience' is a mere word. This responsibility is not shared and places are multiplied.' forms, and even under its present general acceptance by the whole country, he takes a parting fall out of his old enemy:

"In short, the apostle of uplift who, disregarding individual character, would make virtue a matter of statute law and ordain uniformity of conduct by act of convective or assembly is likelier to produce moral chaos than to reach the sublime state he claims to seek."

"The suggestion is full of startling possibilities. Individualism was the discovery of the fathers of the American republic. It is the backbone of the American philosophy. Human slavery was awarded an indefensible institution. But the armed enforcement of freedom did not make a black man a white man. Now will the wave of fanaticism seeking to control the food and drink and dress of the people make men better men—danger is bound to come with the inevitable reaction."

FRANCE'S DISAPPOINTMENT. Mr. Frank H. Simons, the noted American war correspondent who first predicted Russia's permanent collapse and loss as a factor in the struggle, and whose thorough acquaintance with existing conditions, clear judgment and conservative statement made his articles both illuminating and reliable, has recently furnished the following interesting discussion of reasons why President Wilson's prestige is now at low ebb in Europe. After declaring that when the president started for America, a few weeks ago, "he left the conference weaker in influence than at any moment since his arrival," he offers an explanation in part as follows:

"The reasons for this slow but sure decline of the president's prestige, if not power, in Paris, are not far to seek. Mr. Wilson came to France exhausted with four and a half years of strenuous activity against Germany, hardly yet able to believe herself victorious, and bearing wounds still unhealed, still capable of becoming fatal."

"Coming to France, Mr. Wilson was welcomed as he was in England, as he was in Italy, as a symbol, as an assurance, alike of the reconstruction of the world and of present a reputation which prompts a deeply into the French soul had sunk alike the German menace of half a century and German barbarism of the last four and a half years; while now, as we behold him more eagerly in a league of nations as a promise of a new world than France, but no great nation has suffered on its own soil as much as France, and no nation was therefore necessarily so completely committed to take material guarantees against the future, guarantees which would prevent a repetition of the league of nations should become another scrap of paper."

"Yet we have to face the fact that because Mr. Wilson came to Europe, not merely to promise, but almost exclusively, interested in the league of nations; because he had neither time, nor apparently, the necessary interest to go to the ravaged areas; because in all this course he was supported by the British in Paris, there developed not only coldness toward the president in France, but a clear division in the peace conference itself."

POOR LO AT CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The red man is in Washington, visiting the wigwam of his Great White Uncle. He's all dressed up in his tribal best, even to beaded moccasins and blankets in the ancient mode. He fills the corridors of the capitol or stands immobile and keen eyed on Pennsylvania avenue while the petty war workers pass and giggle at him.

He talks much and well, contrary to the university station. Before congressional committees, the Indian can be as fluent and convincing as any high priced lobbyist.

Most of the Indians speak English. Many of them are graduates of Carlisle Indian school. A few of them are millionaires. One or two in each delegation, however, cling to his native speech, which he utters mostly from the throat, with scarcely a movement of the lips, and few gestures. Then an interpreter is called in.

The Indians do not act like men of a conquered and dying race. There is no servility in their salutes, and they are not slow to argue with the white man, when their interests are concerned.

CITIZENS WANT IMPROVEMENT OF 8TH AVENUE

Delegation of Property Owners Meets With Council and Will Present Situation Before Canal Board

Eighth avenue from Blue Lakes boulevard to Addison avenue, through which runs an uncompleted canal company's lateral, will be included in the proposed municipal improvement district for the purpose of paving, if the citizens residing on this thoroughfare, the members of the city administration and the directors of the Canal company are successful in reaching an agreement whereby this can be done equitably.

Several citizens from among those owning property on Eighth avenue, appeared before the council at its meeting Monday evening to advise with the council toward this end, and consideration of this matter occupied practically the entire time of the meeting. This delegation, which included T. E. Warner, A. D. Stafford, Ernest White, M. J. Sweeley and I. E. Joslin, will meet this afternoon with the Canal company directors with a view to securing an extension from the board as to what may be expected from the Canal company in the way of assistance toward carrying the lateral.

Three Petitions on File

Three petitions signed by practically all of the property owners along Eighth avenue, making this thoroughfare to be included in the proposed improvement district, have been filed with the city clerk.

A disposition on the part of all parties interested to reach an agreement in the promise whereby the paving may be extended to the avenue seems to be evidenced.

SETTLERS' NEW DIRECTORS MEET AND ORGANIZE

Guiding Heads of Salmon River Association Discuss Hearing in Case Involving All Points at Issue

Organization of the board of directors of the Salmon River Settlers' association selected at an election held on Friday last was effected at a meeting on Monday evening at the office of Judge J. R. Bothwell, attorney for the association, by the re-election of officers of last year as follows: President, R. A. Carter; vice-president, W. L. Mikesell; secretary, J. E. Pohlman; treasurer, Ray M. Beauchamp, Berger. The directors at this meeting discussed at some length the hearing in federal district court at Boise set for March 24 in the case of A. E. Caldwell and others against the Salmon River Land & Water company and others, an action filed in 1914 by R. A. Carter in the controversy between the settlers and the company who at issue. Several of the settlers including members of the board of directors will be in attendance at this hearing either as spectators or as witnesses. The plaintiffs are represented by Judge Bothwell and Sullivan & Sullivan of Boise.

New Changes in Personnel

On account of the real conditions and inclement weather a tight vote was cast at the election of directors, as a result of which only three new members of the board were named, as follows: J. M. Hertz, Ernest White, W. J. Maltby, who has been removed to California, and J. E. Pohlman of Hollister, a former member of the board, to succeed William Pechboom, and W. J. Maltby of Hays to succeed L. E. Joslin. The directorate as it is now composed consists of the following: Berger—W. F. Mikesell, F. F. Hertz, Ray M. Beauchamp, M. J. Sweeley, J. E. Pohlman, R. A. Carter, A. E. Caldwell, J. E. Pohlman, Rogerson—W. J. Maltby.

CHURCH TO FULFILL ITS PROMISE TO COLLEGE

Drive for Benefit of Methodist Episcopal Church of Twin Falls, Educational Institution Planned

Under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal church of Twin Falls, a financial drive is to be made here March 22 for the benefit of the Gooding college, members of the church here co-operating with representatives of that institution in this undertaking. This is a decision reached at a recent meeting of the members of the official board and Rev. Elmer Grant Keith, pastor of the local church, with President Charles Wesley Tenney and Field Secretary J. Wesley Miller of the Gooding college.

The launching of this drive at this time is in fulfillment of a pledge given by the local church three years ago when a fund was being raised to found the college at a time when the members of the church here were engaged in building a new church home.

BEEF GROWERS TO ASK FOR A SHOW OF CARDS

Initial Steps Toward Organization to Inquire Into Costs and Profits of Industry Taken at Meeting Here

Initial steps toward the organization of a beef growers association were taken at a meeting convened Monday afternoon by J. A. Crom in union hall. Over 20 persons in attendance, 6 applied for membership cards and 10 were elected. Each of the members is to seek out new members and a meeting for the purpose of effecting permanent organization is to be called in the near future by S. N. Pittule, who was elected temporary chairman. J. A. Crom was chosen temporary secretary.

Strong Organization Needed

The formation of an organization of beef growers so strong that it can demand of the sugar factories a statement of the costs and profits of manufacturing sugar, and one which, failing in this demand, can buy and convert the factories into co-operatives, is the purpose, according to J. A. Crom, in the minds of those at whose instance the meeting on Monday was called.

The formation in its inception, Mr. Crom said, would be allied neither with the farm bureau nor the Internomian association of beef growers. It would be independent, he said, co-operating with the farm bureau in its investigations and in the same time the program of the Internomian association with a view to resolving itself into a branch organization of the association if the program were found to be "on the level."

Says Few Can Start

Mr. Crom stated that initial membership of 25 or 30 growers would be sufficient for the purpose of the organization and it was at his suggestion that a membership fee of $5 was adopted by the meeting.

Others who addressed the meeting were Frank D. Johnson, field agricultural agent of the Agricultural Experiment Station, J. W. Hays and W. E. Hanlon.

Invites Investigation

Mr. Johnson was requested by Mr. Crom to address the meeting. The agricultural agent expressed the opinion that criticism of the sugar industry is generally through misunderstanding, and suggested that the proposed organization, with fair men at its head, considering the interests both of the grower and manufacturer might have a beneficial influence. It was unnecessary, Mr. Johnson said, that the organization should work in the dark. The records of the depression on the part of the grower and the facts, he added, would not hurt anybody but would be productive of much benefit.

Argues for Equal Profits

J. W. Hays followed, saying that he had had beets that yield 40 tons per acre and that his net profits from the crop had been $37.50 per acre. He said that he considered beets as a crop and an almost sure crop, but declared that the grower was not getting a fair return and that the manufacturers had not been square in the past. He argued that the depression on the part of the grower is due to the fact that the manufacturer is getting into the production of beets which equal the depreciation on factory and that the profits should be divided between the grower and the manufacturer. He suggested, in view of an act which he discussed here and elsewhere throughout the country, that an organization of growers should call upon the manufacturers to get the goods on the table, and failing in this attempt the organization should say to growers, "Come in with your little mites; we will get to manufacturing this sugar ourselves." He quoted from literature put out by the Internomian association to show that considerable share of the profits of sugar manufacturing should be paid to the grower.

B. N. Pittule stated his opinion that the manufacturers would deal fairly with the growers in this instance because the growers "had been so fair with them." Mr. Pittule stated that he had been for five years in the employ of the American Sugar Refining company.

Less Sight of Motion

F. E. Chamberlain moved the appointment of a committee of three members to include the chairman to make an investigation of the subjects of beet raising, profits of sugar manufacture and other matters properly coming before the committee.

W. E. Hanlon expressed apprehension that the committee might be unable to face with "doctors" records and records of the government investigation of the packing plants as an instance parallel to what he anticipated in respect to a request of the growers for a statement from the manufacturers.

No vote was taken on the Chamberlain motion.

Profit Sharing Not Solution

No beet grower would consent to entering into an agreement with the manufacturer on a profit sharing basis. J. A. Crom stated, because the grower would be unwilling to make his own fair profit. The alternative was a contract basis, he said, and the purpose as he conceived it, of the grower associating themselves with this organization was to ascertain the costs of sugar production in the factory in order that they might determine what was a fair price for beets. He said that he had not grown beets before, but that he expected to grow a field of about 50 acres of beets under contract at $10 a ton this year because, he said, "Although I don't know whether it is skimming me in contracting my beets at that figure, I can make money growing beets for $10 a ton."

OBIONIC CONSTIPATION

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that a healthy realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation.—adv.

FORD PLANS TO GIVE WORK FOR LARGE NUMBER

The New Plant to Be Erected By the Noted Manufacturer Will Employ Around Two Hundred Thousand Laborers

DETROIT, Mich., March 11.—Henry Ford expects to give employment to 200,000 persons in the plant he proposes to erect for the manufacture of automobiles to sell around $300, he said today.

The present Ford Motor company employs about 50,000 men while the new company will offer employment to four or five times that number, Ford said.

"Ford said his plans for the new company will in no way affect the present concern and that the Ford stock was not for sale. The concern will keep on doing business as usual.

A Separate Company
"This will be a separate company entirely," he said. "Edsel Ford will remain as president of the Ford Motor company to protect our interests and the interests of the thousands of employees."

Ford said it was safe to state that the "Old Home Town" would be the headquarters of the new company. Ford is reported to be actually engaged in the design of the new car on his farm at Dearborn.

Edsel Ford said it was impossible to give out exact plans as yet but expressed the hope that the building of plants would be started early next year. Two sites have already been selected, one at Green Island, N. Y., and Hamilton, Ohio. Others all over the country will be purchased later, he said.

Pope Benedict Is Greatly Concerned Over Holy Land

Catholic Head Is Very Anxious Awaiting Decision of the Peace Conference

ROME, March 10 (delayed)—Pope Benedict today issued the following allocation:
"I am anxious regarding the fate of the Holy Land. It is in the hands of Christians, but I am anxious regarding the decisions of the peace conference. I am aware that non-Catholic preachers supplied with money have taken advantage of the war's misery to disseminate their doctrines in Palestine. It is intolerable that so many souls losing the faith should go to perdition from the spot where the Saviour bought eternal salvation."

Italy Favors the Destruction of Austria's Fleet

Steel Is Reported as Very Scarce in Country and Wants This Tonnage

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Italy favors the destruction of the Austrian fleet as soon as Adriatic conditions are stable, some press articles say. The Italian embassy today announced.

The country is in dire need of steel and iron, especially for reconstruction in her invaded regions it was declared, and will favor salvaging the Hapsburg battleships.

Italy also may ask for 100,000 tons of the German fleet for salvage purposes, the allies stated.

MEXICO OBJECTS TO THE PROBE

Declares United States Has No Right to Interfere With Her Affairs

NOGALES, Ariz., March 11.—Mexico four states today expressed their opposition at the coming investigation of Mexican affairs by the "Committee of Foreign Relations" in New York at least as far as western Mexico is concerned.

At the same time it claims the right of such a body probing Mexican affairs.

High Mexican officials in the states of Chihuahua and Sonora expressed this opinion today. They deny there has been any extensive smuggling of munitions, saying that the only munitions smuggling regarding which there is any certainty is by Yaqui Indians and that any arms the Yaquis may have brought into Mexico have been for their own use.

Business, they say, constantly is improving. Many Americans are moving in and out of their states without molestation, while the governments of both states are constantly working to foster peace and stimulate development.

Extend Doctrines
Committee members today declared they feel the investigation has clearly shown that the Russian Bolsheviks mean, if they can, to extend their systems to all the world, even to the extent of helping revolutionists with force if necessary. Urgent legislation must be enacted that will:

1. Keep agitators out of the country.
2. Curb and punish those trying to undermine the government.
3. Keep the teachings of Bolshevism out of the mails and public prints.

Senator Overman, committee chairman, indicated no more witnesses will be called now unless some good reason is shown for calling them. Preparation of a report probably will require several weeks.

Bolshevistic Activities
Major Humes today put into the record of the investigating committee a large number of documents bearing on Bolshevistic activities in the United States. One of them was an anarchist poster which appeared all over New England and which said:

"To see the meaning of the United States we need. Smelling their destruction, they have decided to check the storm by passing the deportation law affecting all foreign radicals. We, the proletariat, have not permitted for it is futile to waste any energy on feeble minded creatures led by His Majesty, Photograph Wilson.

"Deportation will not stop the storm from reaching these shores. Report us. We will dynamite you."

From the "Voice of the Laborer," published in Boston in Chicago by the general executive board of the I. W. W., it appears that Russians in the United States and Canada held meetings to decide whether to proclaim a soviet government here. They decided against it, the newspaper said, because they are against all forms of government.

Another exhibit was a circular addressed to the Hungarian workers in the United States urging them to help "our fighting brothers in other lands."

The documents included scores of newspapers, magazines, pamphlets and circulars, the general tone of all of which was an appeal to the workers of America to revolt against the capitalist classes.

Bankers Hold Convention in an Attempt to Work Out Methods for Campaign

CHICAGO, March 11.—Representatives of banks and trust companies in sixteen states whose institutions control approximately twelve billion dollars of America's wealth were here today to discuss plans for a campaign to win a victory loan.

The central state's conference of bankers was in session.

M. H. Callers, director, Iowa, president of the Iowa Bankers association, declared the loan will be successfully sold, though not easily.

"The country has done it before," said Callerswood, "and I know we can do it again. Iowa has a rich bank. They now hold $475,000,000 worth of liberty bonds, but they will buy more for they know the loan must go over and they will do it for sure."

M. B. Denver, of Wilmington, Ohio, president of the Ohio Bankers association, expressed a similar belief.

START CAMPAIGN AGAINST DISEASE

Activities Legalized By War May Be Furthered Through-out the State

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 11.—Paving the way for state wide campaign against vice diseases, the senate today concurred in house amendments to the Hutchinson bill, which now goes to Acting Governor Hart for his signature.

This act establishes the authority of health officials to examine and treat any case to protect the public health.

War activities of health officials in the big cities who examined and quarantined vice disease carriers, are thus firmly established by law and may be carried on at all times in every community.

The Phypus bill, providing for a state isolation home, will be awaiting action in the house. These state measures are in conformity with the government's policy to clean up the country for returning soldiers and keep it clean for future generations. The legislature has appropriated $25,000, to be matched a like amount from the government, to continue investigation of the problem and carry on the war against vice.

BOHEMIANS DON'T CARE FOR GERMANS

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

PRAGUE, CZECHO-SLOVAKIA, Feb. 5.—(By Mail).—Germans unfortunate enough to have interests that keep them inside the Czecho-Slovak area are in a difficult position. The ill feeling of the Bohemian population for the Germans is strong and manifested openly, though there has been no abuse, except when deliberately provoked by Germans.

Until the present revolution, Germans favored by the Hapsburg government, have had special favor shown them, and have become rich by reason of their privilege. This led to a hatred on the part of the Slav elements. When the revolution destroyed German domination, a large number of Germans hastily left Prague and other cities. Others stayed, and under influence of agitators from the outside tried to provoke trouble with the view of ultimate reaction against the revolution. They were quashed, and the agitation has ceased except along the borders.

The remaining Germans are looked upon with suspicion, though they are not molested.

Along the border the problem is more difficult than in the center of the country and around Prague. Here the population is more mixed and in many cases has a large percentage of Germans, who have come in as industrialists. The Germans object to the Czecho-Slovak having sovereignty over the region, just as the Czechs looked unfavorably upon German domination before.

In German Bohemia, the border region is called, the Czechs are in control. They offer the Germans equal rights, which the latter are dissatisfied with. Long standing ill feeling makes the problem a difficult one.

POLICE TROUBLE IS INVESTIGATED

Clash Between Soldiers and Sailors and London Authorities Is Looked Into

LONDON, March 11.—Investigation of Sunday's riot in the Strand in which American soldiers and sailors and Canadian and Australian soldiers clashed with the London civil police, was continued today. It was expected to clear up such disputed points as whether an American military man attempted to draw a revolver and whether the English policemen were unduly rough.

Action Legally Justified
American army officials admit the police were legally justified in snatching gambling but suggested the trouble would have been averted if the M. T. A. authorities had asked American military police instead of the London police to stop the crap game over which the disturbance originated.

"Unless and until the men involved are condemned by a court of inquiry the public should withhold condemnation," the News stated today. "The affair is distinctly less serious than at first appeared."

WOULD BAR GERMAN
NEW YORK, March 11.—Germany should be barred from the league of nations and the covenant should not interfere with the infliction of justly severe penalties upon that country, Theodore E. Burton, former United States senator from Ohio, and president of the league of nations union, declared in an address before the Canadian club here.

THE application of ink on paper does not make printing, although the product resulting from this sort of operation is frequently marketed under that name.

Printing is of two kinds—NEWS PRINTING and just printing. We don't want you to take the word of anyone for this—ask the man who uses NEWS printing, or, better still, try some of it yourself, at our expense if you do not like what we give you.

We use only the best of inks and the better recognized brands of paper. Added to these, we offer the skill and experience of capable workmen and the newest and most modern type faces.

Our work must be satisfactory to our customers or it is not satisfactory to us. We never disappoint.
