

FIRST CASE OF DREAD DISEASE IN TWIN FALLS

Local Hospital Has Patient Who Has Been Asleep for Sixteen Days and Shows No Signs of Waking

MYSTERIOUS MALADY IN WELL DEVELOPED FORM

Sleeping Sickness Known to Physicians Since 1890, Has Baffled Medical Skill of Euro- pe and America

In the Boyd hospital here there is a man who has been asleep for 16 days. Since Tuesday it has been possible to rouse him at meal times, notwithstanding prior to that time having been administered through a catheter and is apparently on the road to recovery. After careful tests and elimination of all other possibilities, attending physicians have diagnosed the case as one of idiopathic comatose or sleeping sickness. This is the first case of the kind so far reported in the Intermountain region.

The patient, whose name is withheld by the physicians, is a farmer whose residence is on a farm in the Raf-River country south of Burley. He is 35 years of age, and is apparently a strong and healthy man. It is believed that he has recently recovered from an attack of influenza. Conditions surrounding the case, however, make ascertainment of surrounding circumstances difficult.

The patient was received at the hospital on March 18. Five days before that time he had called at the home of his wife in Burley. He manifested evidences of lethargy and tendency to fall asleep at that time. He left promising to return on the following day to a load of horses from his Raf-River ranch. Four days past and nothing was heard from him. His relatives became alarmed and repaired to his ranch. They found him sitting up in a chair in his ranch home. It is presumed that he had been asleep in that position for three or four days when he was found.

Brain Refuses to Work

For 24 hours after his arrival here, attending physicians studied the case before a diagnosis was determined. The symptoms indicate brain trouble, but the absence of a high temperature precluded the possibility of this being the proper diagnosis. Temperature of the patient has not risen higher than 101.5 degrees and occasionally below normal. The patient when he arrived at the hospital, could be roused, but although he seemed to be conscious he was unable to give answers to questions. At the present time it is stated, he replies intelligently to questions when awakened or brief periods of rousing almost immediately into sleep or lethargy again.

Little is known by the medical profession concerning the treatment of the disease. The Journal of the American Medical Association March 15 says: "No specific method of treatment seems to be available, most authorities agreeing that the patient on no account is to be put to rest, providing him with quiet nursing, and perhaps with transient relief through the withdrawing of serous fluids. Warmth applied to the limbs is a remedy for pain, numbness and tingling. It is recommended that no opiates be given."

Good Chance for Recovery

The chance for recovery is usually better than is suggested by the alarming state of the patient. In a British report it is stated that out of 168 cases, 37 deaths were recorded.

The duration of the stupor is variable, lasting from two to three weeks, and more often from two to five weeks, and in one case in which the patient was an alteration in the mental condition. Certain manifestations have persisted after the expiration of three months from the date of the onset. These were an alteration in the mental condition, persistent cranial nerve palsy, and the appearance of paralysis. No recognizable bacteriological organism has been detected in the tissues on microscopic examination.

Eas Brief History

The name "encephalitis lethargica," or inflammation of the inner cover of the brain characterized by lethargy, was coined by Economo, who described a group of cases of this disease occurring in epidemic form in Vienna in 1915. It has been pointed out that this disease, although new to present observers, on two occasions previously manifested itself in epidemic form, following the influenza epidemic of 1890 in northern Italy and in Hungary, and appearing in the United States and practically all of Europe in 1903.

SHIPBUILDERS DISCUSS WAGES

Representatives From Pacific Coast Yards Meet in At- tempt to Solve Problems

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Representatives of the shipbuilders on the Pacific coast and their employes today began a "family discussion" of their wage controversies. Director Pies of the emergency fleet corporation was not present.

At his office it was stated that the builders and laborers would attempt to reach an amicable settlement of the controversy "between themselves."

None of the men attending the session would discuss what was going on behind the locked doors. It was intimated, however, that there would be a statement on the case between noon and Saturday.

Officials here explained that the fleet corporation was only indirectly interested in the differences existing between the west coast men. Pies announced recently that after March 31 the Navy wage adjustment board which has handled all labor demands for the fleet corporation, will go out of existence. The shipbuilders at that time will have to meet the labor leaders and work out their own solution, he said.

NEW COVENANT WILL INCLUDE FEW CHANGES

Work of Redrafting League Constitution Is Nearly Com- plete With Addition of Sev- eral Amendments to Original

PARIS, March 27.—The question of whether an amendment covering the Monroe Doctrine will be included in the league of nations covenant will be decided by the drafting committee, it was announced today.

The committee, to which the constitution was referred after the league commission had completed reviewing it last night, includes Colonel House, Premier Venizelos of Greece, and Professor Ferdinand Larnaude of France, and Lord Cecil of Great Britain.

It is expected to complete the re-drafting quickly, as aside from possible inclusion of a Monroe Doctrine amend-ment, its work will consist principally of couching the covenant in technical language.

By the same token, despite advance information, failed to present any amendment providing for racial equality.

The commission inserted an amendment establishing the right of member nations to withdraw from the league. President Wilson in a brief speech said the United States would not withdraw except for some reason that all the world would approve.

The remainder was quickly subscribed by representatives of commercial and business organizations of the larger towns of this section.

RADICALS TAKE LABOR UNIONS

I. W. W. Are Reported as Making Serious Inroads on Ta- coma Organizations

TACOMA, Wash., March 27.—With reports before it that the I. W. W. have been making serious inroads on labor unions of this city, the Tacoma Central Labor Council last night took up the question of re-organization of the American Federation of Labor along the lines of industrial unionism.

Discussion of the subject was made in a special order of business for the meeting of the council next Wednesday night.

A plan for American federation of labor re-organization, submitted by the Seattle labor council, brought up the question here. It was reported that the demand for a change from craft unionism has been growing rapidly on the coast.

Exploiting Laborer's Banks

Secretary A. L. Dickson of the council reported that the I. W. W. are taking in labor union men at the rate of a day on an average and sometimes 100 a day.

C. R. Barrett, secretary of the metal trades council, in a telegram sent to metal trades representatives in Washington, D. C., yesterday also stated that "the I. W. W. are taking our membership fast and unless something in the shape of satisfactory conditions are presented they will destroy the control of this section. This is not guessing but facts."

ROOSEVELT REPLIES TO SEATTLE REQUEST

Appreciates Honor But Wishes No Or- ganization to Further His Candidacy

SEATTLE, Wash., March 27.—Theodore Roosevelt, asked by Seattle parents of soldiers and sailors to become a candidate for vice-president on the republican ticket today sent the following reply: "I am deeply appreciative of honor which has been put upon me. It will be my endeavor to live up to the high standard set by my father in public service to justify your opinions of me. I request, however, that no organization be formed advocating my candidacy for vice-president."

NEW REPUBLIC IS FORMED IN QUIET MANNER

Hungarian Soviet Is Establish- ed in an Orderly Way and Without Bloodshed—Every- thing is Socialized

BUDAPEST, March 25.—(Delayed).—The Hungarian soviet republic was firmly established today, without disorder or bloodshed, and with amicable relations continuing with allied representatives. All alien and allied officers are at complete liberty. The popularity of British and American officers has not diminished.

Everything is Socialized

Everything in the country has been socialized from the army down to baths. This reorganization has been accomplished with approval of the worker and aristocrat as well as the poor and humble.

A red army is being organized on a purely voluntary basis, conscription being abolished as soon as the communist government took office. Soldiers are paid $90 a month. They are clothed, fed and equipped without charge, and in addition they receive extra pay for support of their families.

Army commanders who are named by the commissary of war, all ranks being eligible. Officers are picked purely on their merits after a careful examination of their records. Indications point to formation of the largest, most contented army in the history of the country. Law courts have been abolished and supplanted by revolutionary tribunals, composed of a chairman and two members. They are virtually in constant session and justice is meted out rapidly and effectively, with more consideration for the individual than mere law. Punishment is carried out immediately after sentence is pronounced. The death penalty can be pronounced by unanimous vote of the tribunal.

Complete Reorganization

All industries have been ordered to continue at work. Special committees are being formed to insure fair distribution of the scanty supplies of raw materials. Requisitions from private families are forbidden. Spreading of false news is severely punished.

All titles and ranks are abolished. Shopkeepers have been ordered to prepare a list of their stocks and back their goods with the government seal. Information of the government and no attempt will be made to seize either. There have been taken to substitute cash for checks wherever possible.

Hungarian workmen, meeting in various parts of the country, have declared their unanimous approval of the reforms instituted by the communist government.

WILSON WORKS ON AMENDMENTS FOR NEW DRAFT

Taft Is Asked to Outline Changes Desired by Repub- licans That They May Be Presented at Conference

SAFEGUARD UNITED STATES IN HOME ADMINISTRATION

Four Revisions Are Now Be- fore Paris Gathering for Consideration But No Official Report Is Available

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Ex-President Taft is working by cable with President Wilson in an effort to so amend the league of nations covenant as to make it acceptable to opposition of the republicans.

This was officially disclosed today when the White House let it be known that the peace conference in Paris is now working on four amendments to the Wilson's request.

Safeguard America

The amendments are to do largely. It is said, with safeguarding the Monroe Doctrine, one of the foremost points of contention between the president and republicans.

Taft drafted his proposed amendment shortly after President Wilson's return to France. Before dispatching them, however, he asked Secretary Tamm to invite the president whether suggestions were in order. The president responded that he would be very glad to hear the proposals.

The amendments were then called the president through official channels and the president personally acknowledged receipt of them in a later message for Taft.

Working on Amendments

He did not indicate, however, what was being done about the amendments. A further message today to the White House disclosed, however, that Taft is now working on four amendments to the Wilson's request.

Admiral Grayson, in a private cabi- n today, said that the president is work- ing night and day, but is "hearing up" well under the strain.

President Wilson is understood to be in cabinet today regarding league suggestions he urged haste in their dispatch.

The administration quarters today the new was expressed to be in the high tide of the opposition to the league of nations has been passed and that both in congress and in the public mind, the country is a through-out in favor of a league. Complete confidence is voiced that the league covenant, as re-drafted in accordance with republican suggestions, will be approved by the opponents of the original draft. Already some opposition senators have shown a tendency to be far more lenient toward the plan than at first.

This change in sentiment is noted both in republican and democratic ranks. However, there are a few senators, Reed and Poincaré and possibly also Borah, who will fight any league proposition to the last.

AUSTRIA WAITS OPPORTUNITY TO JOIN STRUGGLE

Bolshevists in Czecho-Slovakia and Other Neighbors to Hungary Are Ready to Enter Fray at First Chance

By RUDOLPH KOMMER
BERNE, March 27.—Bolshevist uprisings in Austria and Czecho-Slovakia are imminent, according to advice received here today. Any move in those two countries against the Hungarian soviet government is expected to precipitate the trouble.

The British military mission in Vienna, it was reported, has notified the government the allies are ready to increase Austria's food supply if order is maintained.

Creates Excitement
The Austrian population is greatly excited over events in Hungary, especially in view of their own economic situation. All restaurants in Vienna are closed, there is no gas or coal and the meat ration has been reduced to an infinitely small quantity. Bolshevism apparently is proving an increasing attraction to substantial portions of the population. Fritz Adler, according to reliable information, is preparing to lead a Bolshevist uprising against the present Austrian government.

In Prague radical socialists are demanding immediately general nationalization. The entire social party is now threatening a general strike if an effort is made to mobilize against Hungary.

Begins Invasion
(Unconfirmed reports have been received that a formidable Czecho-Slovak army already has begun invasion of Hungary, occupying the important city of Raab, about midway between Vienna and Budapest.)

The latest advices received here indicate Hungarian communism is making the Russian soviet republic appear almost conservative. Everything is being nationalized and most soviet specialties are provided for any form of resistance.

Still Hopes for Change
Bela Kun, the new foreign minister, is said to have been in Vienna when Count Karolyi decided to turn the government over to him.

Friends of former Emperor Carl, in Switzerland declare he will recognize the national assembly and legalization of his dethronement without giving up hope that the Austrian people will eventually change their mind. In the meantime he will settle down to seclusion life at Parma castle. His brother, Archduke Max, is remaining in Vienna but is prepared to renounce all claims to the throne.

WINS NOMINATION
BUTTE, Mont., March 27.—William Cutts, ex-army officer, won the democratic nomination for mayor by 100 votes, it is announced today after a recheck of the poll books. William F. Dunn opposed Cutts.

EXPLAINS GENESIS OF HORROR STORIES

PARIS, March 10. (By Mail).—Judging from reports drifting back to Europe, America is now getting all the best of the old "blood-curdling" stories that have been drifting around France for months—and some of them for years—through returning soldiers. The tales are probably true, for the greatest rumor factories the world ever saw—the allied armies.

The stories of the "horrible" conditions at Brest, and of many men dying there, are probably true, for the curious feature of army life. Most of the stories which were so glibly spun to New York reporters probably originated on the front on some of the allied armies. One man heard another tell someone of what someone else had told him, and by the time the boat docked everyone on board was probably convinced that men were "dying like flies" at Brest.

The record of the Brest camp, as described by a United Press correspondent recently, after visiting Brest, disproved some of the stories. But "horror" stories will continue to reach America. The best off-hand explanation is probably found in the lack of communication for individuals in the army.

"As an example, imagine what would happen in your town if there were no newspapers; if conditions of threatened death constantly prevailed; if there was a big fire, or an explosion every night; if you had no responsibility other than that of doing some particular job assigned to you, while someone else saw that you were fed and had a place to sleep. There being no newspapers, the only way you would have of learning what happened at these times and conditions would be through what someone told you.

By reason of the conditions under which the private soldier lives and fights, he is the most unreliable authority to be found when it comes to learning what happened. Rumors fly so thick and so fast that a majority of the soldiers are apparently soon become confused in what they saw and did. Of the hundreds of soldiers I have talked with very few who have had anything to say, while someone else said it. It was always what someone else did.

Another unusual thing in this connection is how quickly a soldier picks up and repeats fiction phrases when he gets in the zone of action at the front. For the past four years America has been fed on the greatest line of lies and fogwars in the way of war fiction that the world has ever seen. It may then be assumed, that under the strained conditions under which the soldier lives and fights, his mind turned to the fiction phrases he had learned as a civilian. There are thousands of exceptions to this, of course, and together in the most frequent expressions: "wiped out;" "blood flowed like water;" "air was full of lead;" "fast paced shoulder to shoulder;" "living hell;" and so on, and it isn't only soldiers that fall in to this.

Optimistic Thought.

FINNISH CHILDREN ARE STARVING BY HUNDREDS

Representatives of American Food Commission Study Conditions.

(Finnish Government Information Service.)

Representatives of the American food commission have arrived in Finland to investigate conditions growing out of the acute food shortage there prevailing, and to ascertain the amount of foodstuffs needed to relieve the distress of this unhappy country.

The chairman of this commission of American representatives, Capt. August A. Kraut, United States army, has made a fifteen days' trip through southern, eastern and interior Finland. Upon his return he made a detailed report of the things he saw, of the misery which is to be found in nearly all parts of the country. The following statement was made by Captain Kraut to Mr. Frazier Hunt, special correspondent of the Chicago Tribune:

"No one can picture the terrible food conditions in the greater part of the country. Money means nothing, the government food cards nothing—there's simply no food to be had. Children are dying by hundreds of awful sickness caused by malnutrition. Bread Made of Rotting Oats. "In thousands of homes there is nothing to eat except possibly black soggy bread made from a 25 per cent mixture of rotting oats or rye flour milled whole with 75 per cent birch bark sawdust and ground barley straw. It's impossible to get food. One man near the eastern border handed me a purse containing 40,000 Finnish marks ($4000) and pointing to his starving children, cried, "For God's sake buy some food for them."

These characteristics have given birth to a new idea in the minds of members of the Audubon park commission here, with the result that a monkey island will be established in the center of the lake at Audubon park. The island will be provided with trees and a jungle, deer to the monkey heart, and the tribe of monkeys, imported from the Central and South American forests will be able to swing from limb to limb and deport themselves with as much freedom as they did in the days when they were "home" in their native jungles.

FIXING IT

In his public utterances and in conversations with senators and other officials on the occasion of his last visit to America President Wilson laid special stress upon the fact that the constitution of the League of Nations as presented by himself was unchangeable. The draft offered to America was the draft which would be accepted and ratified by the Conference, or, failing that, the public was left to infer that there wouldn't be any League of Nations.

PERSHING LAUDS 41ST DIVISION

Organization in Which the Idaho Men Served.

Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary forces, in a letter to the members of the 41st division which includes two battalions of the Second Idaho national guard regiment, the 9th and 10th regiments, and the 41st division hospital, commends them for their excellent appearance and leading at inspection in the embarkation camp at Brest on January 31, just previous to your departure for the United States.

Had Exciting Career. The 41st division has had the longest and hardest career of service in the American expeditionary forces. One of the first five divisions to arrive in France, organized and trained as a combat unit, it was immediately sent to the front in the battle of the Marne and was sent to combat units, and the part those men played is a matter of history of the 1st, 2nd, 26th and 42nd divisions with which they were assigned.

"Those who remained with the 41st division to handle and prepare replacements for battle have had a hard and exacting part to play. Yet the division's accomplishment has been as important as the work of any of those units who had the better fortune to remain as combat divisions and win glory at the front."

"The officers and men may return home with the knowledge of duty well performed and the assurance that they have won the confidence and respect of their fellows in the American expeditionary forces."
"Sincerely yours,
"JOHN J. PERSHING."

WIRE OPERATORS VOTE ON STRIKE

Nation-Wide Suspension of Telegraph and Telephone Service Is Pending.

CHICAGO, March 27.—Balloting on a nation-wide telegraph and telephone strike was under way today. Opposition to the Administration's refusal to be responsible for the polling of union telegraph operators. President S. J. Koenekamp of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America said four hundred thousand ballots had been mailed. With some locals now in favor of a strike, Mr. Koenekamp said a decision will be reached quickly. If a strike is decided upon it probably will occur within a month.

Workers' Demands. Right to belong to a union. Right of collective bargaining. Retestament of all union men discharged because of union affiliation and compensation for time lost. An increase in pay to meet advanced living conditions. Standardization of wages. Koenekamp said 1,000 telegraphers had been discharged in the last year because of union activities. Koenekamp said he sent out 25,000 ballots and the rest were mailed out by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers at Springfield, Illinois. The two organizations made the similar demands and presented similar grievances. The electrical workers' union includes telephone linemen, repairmen, telemechanical and electrical workers.

EPIDEMIC LOSSES CAUSE INCREASE

Influenza Victims Make Heavy Drain on Treasury of Woodmen Lodge

CHICAGO, March 27.—Enormous losses due to the influenza epidemic were given today as the reason for the fifty per cent increase in insurance rates voted yesterday for the more than one million members of the Modern Woodmen of America. The new rates, voted at a meeting of the head camp of the order, are not adequate, officials declared, but are if all the membership can be persuaded to pay at this time.

CAMPAIGN IS ON HERE TO RAISE COLLEGE FUNDS

Methodist Ministers in Charge of Teams to Duplicate Success Registered in Drive in Burley

Burley went over the top for Gooding College yesterday and today Twin Falls is invaded by a bunch of Methodist preachers, who, when it comes to boosting for the Methodist school for the young men and the young women of the inter-mountain empire are irrefragable. As Burley the Methodist people promised to raise $3,540 at a time when they had but few members in order that Gooding college, might be located in the Twin Falls area instead of in the western part of the state. The pledge became due this year and though they were still burdened with a $14,000 church debt both Pastor Galloway and his official bargaining. They pledged to cooperate with Field Secretary J. Wesley Miller and his corps of workers until the last dollar had been raised. Both Sunday morning and Sunday evening the drive went over to President Charles Wesley Tenney and Field Secretary Miller. Monday, pastor, laymen and automobiles were on hand to pick up the drive over and on Tuesday night the women served a banquet to complete and celebrate the task.

Non-Sectarian Responses. The enthusiasm of the campaign and the willingness to help was shown by the fact that within the hour a list of what Gooding college means to the people of this part of Idaho. Two of the workers were taken by a Burley man to the city and returned to his country. As they were returning, an automobile was met. Hailing it, the two Methodist preachers went on the side boards in a moment. "What can we do for you?" asked the occupants of the car, two Baptists, and Presbyterian and one man of Methodist proclivities. "We are helping you up for Gooding college," answered Clyde L. Walker of Union, Oregon, and John Bees of Kuna, Idaho, who are giving their time to this campaign. "We cannot turn down a good thing like that," said one of the men. "That's right," chimed in another. And within three minutes, four pledges of $50 each had been recorded. Similar Situation Here.

At Twin Falls, the situation is much the same. Three years ago, the Methodist people here were in the midst of their church building plan. They wanted the college located in this part of the state so voted to raise their share this year instead of next. The plan was as a bona fide note and was recognized by the board of education as such, so the campaign that is now being made is to secure for this pledge, most of it being subscribed on the five-year payment plan.

Campaign Is On. The outside feeling is the same as that used by Burley with the exception of Superintendent J. E. Baker, who was compelled to return to Gooding. His place was filled by Secretary J. E. Cuthbert of H. E. Ewing, superintendent of the Boise district, who will arrive on the evening train. Last night, a conference was held at which a number of the local members and friends of the school. This morning the assignments were made and the active canvases is now being undertaken by Secretary Miller, C. H. Ewing, superintendent of the Boise district, and a number of the local members and friends of the school.

WILLIAMS IS ACCUSED OF OWNING BOTTLE FOUND IN BALL PARK

CHICAGO, March 27.—In addition to $750 cash bond which has been posted in the district court pending the ruling of the court on a charge of possession of a charge of illegal sale of intoxicating liquor, C. H. (Curly) Williams Wednesday afternoon furnished a $500 cash bond to secure his appearance in the probate court here on a preliminary examination on a charge of possession of one pint of whiskey on which he was arrested that day. Williams' arrest on the possession charge resulted after reports had come to the sheriff's office to the effect that Williams had been observed cashing the notes of a check which he had at the ball park in the south quarter of the city. Deputies from the sheriff's office maintain a guard around the bottle which the sheriff revealed on the premises until a late hour Tuesday night but no claimant for it put in an appearance.

Williams was convicted on the charge of illegal sale of whiskey during the February term of district court here. He filed a motion for a new trial based on several of the facts in the case. BRINGS IN BIG WELL IN BLOK 41, BURKBURNETT

The bringing in of the Friends Oil Well in Block 41, Burkburnett, is one of the greatest events in the Burkburnett Field that has occurred in the past few weeks, and is exceedingly promising for the Muckelstone Oil Company, Big Lime Oil Company and other local companies now actively undertaking and pushing drilling operations.

A clipping from the Texas Oil News showing acreage almost adjoining Muckelstone Oil Company holdings which sold last week at $20,000.00 per acre:

"RECORD PRICE PAID FOR WICHITA ACRES."

"F. W. Evans, a sine mill and mine operator of Joplin, Mo., Tuesday paid E. D. Davenport, $50,000 cash for two and one-half acres east west of the Burkburnett townsite, making the record price of $20,000 an acre. The tract is in the extreme northwest corner of the Harmon 160-acre block 58, about 1,800 northwest of the Humble Oil and Refining Company's 3,000-barrel well, completed at 1,890 feet, with fifty-one feet of good sand. Mr. Evans is building a derrick and will start a well as soon as possible."

A FEW CLIPPINGS FROM THE STAR-TELEGRAM, SUNDAY, MARCH 16TH, 1919.

MID-CONTINENT FIELD BREAKS ALL PRECEDENTS IN ASSUMING LEAD IN COUNTRY'S PRODUCTION

(Special to The Star-Telegram.) WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Mid-Continent oil fields led the country in production in January by a greater margin of production than ever before in history, reports just prepared by the United States Geological Survey today show. This great jump is accounted for by the fact that the north Texas fields, instead of being grouped separately in the Mid-Continent field, where geologists say they belong. The figures for the Mid-Continent field in January are 1,438,257,000 barrels, a daily average of 476,120, as against 12,597,000 or a daily average of 396,077 in January 1918.

"Credit for the increase in output in the United States in January, 1919, is due to a steadily growing demand for petroleum, reflected in increasing prices for crude oil, which have been maintained at the level of the preceding months," said C. C. Osborn, who prepared the report. "The most pronounced response to the stimulus of the increasing demand for petroleum was in the Wichita Texas area of the Mid-Continent field, notably in the Ranger and Burkburnett pools."

The comparative preliminary estimate by the Geological Survey of the quantity of crude petroleum produced and marketed, consumed and held in storage in the United States in January 1919, and preceding months, is based upon reports filed by about 200 pipe line, marketing and refining companies that receive crude oil directly from the productive fields east of

ERATH TESTS NOW NEAR CLIMAX; NEW WELLS EXPECTED

STEPIENSVILLE, Texas, March 15.—The past few days has offered much excitement throughout Erath county in the matter of oil development and prospects. Wells in Dublin territory are either straining oil, gas, or drilling in black line. It is the opinion of oil experts that the Dublin is the next Eldorado for oil.

The outstanding feature of the week has been the prospects for the Phoenix test being a sure gusher.

Prospects in the southern part of the county were never better. The Laney continues to gush heavily. The Davis is threatened to blow in any time and the behavior of the Fouts is more than encouraging. The Conley, in the Lane zone, was recently spudded in, and the drill is now being run from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Sunday, March 16, 1919, mentions five different properties in whose development Muckelstone Oil Company is vitally interested on account of their holdings located close to the active mentioned wells. See Map.

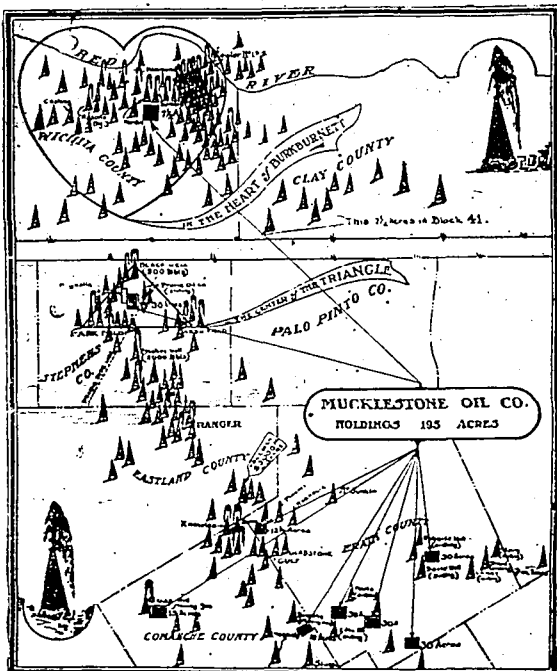

making rapid progress. Three new locations have been made and heavy derrick material, boilers, engine and tools are being hauled out. Men of capital are determined to thoroughly exploit the southern part of the county.

HUMBLE SEEMS TO BE CONFIDENT THAT GOSS IS GOOD ONE

(Special to The Star-Telegram.)

RIISING STAR, Texas, March 15.—The Goss No. 1, six miles east of Rising Star, in the northwest corner of Comanche county, has created quite a bit of excitement, comment and activity. The Humble Oil and Refining Company evidently has implicit confidence in the Goss No. 1, when finally drilled in, being a large producer. The company has purchased considerable acreage on an adjoining tract, which is an offset to the well, and is laying the foundation for large storage tanks, siding and trackage to care for the producing and shipping of same.

This one clipping from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Sunday, March 16, 1919, mentions five different properties in whose development Muckelstone Oil Company is vitally interested on account of their holdings located close to the active mentioned wells. See Map.

A brief study of the above map will illustrate the basis of the Muckelstone Oil Company's holdings in the three fields in which they are located. We have defined them as the Heart, the Triangle and the Checkerboard. We respectfully invite you to compare the merits of what they offer with any other company's offerings that have been on the market, or are on the market. We make these in no other company in Texas offering, or which has offered, as many chances for success as are now offered the stockholders of the Muckelstone Oil Company.

We believe the Oil Brokerage, Stock and Promoting business should be conducted with the same honor as any other high-class business. We attribute our success to the application of this principle.

IT IS IN THIS SPIRIT

We offer for public subscription the stock of the MUCKELSTONE OIL COMPANY, capitalization $150,000, par value $5.00 per share.

HOLDINGS

The holdings of the Muckelstone Oil Company consist of 193 acres located as follows: Seven and one-half acres Block 41, west of Burkburnett about 800 yards from the Humble Well, located in adjoining Block 58, said to be producing between 2,300 and 2,500 barrels per day, and only 200 yards from the Friends' Oil Company Well, also located in Block 41, reported in as a big producer March 18th, 1919, at an estimated capacity of 2,000 barrels per day. Valued at $15,000 per acre, or $112,500, as acreage in adjoining block sold during the past week for $20,000 per acre. (Read clipping.)

$40,000 being set aside for drilling, the derrick is now erected and active drilling operations will be under way within ten days.

12 1/2 acres A. F. Barnett Survey, Erath County, one mile and a quarter southeast of the Phoenix Well. This property, since the Phoenix has been reported in with such big production, has advanced in valuation at least 500 per cent during the past ten days. (Read clipping.)

15 acres Block 5, T. H. West Subdivision of Block 20, E. B. Dewey Tract, Erath County. This tract has also greatly increased in value during the past ten days.

30 acres T. E. & L. County Survey No. 1360, Stewart Farm, Stevens County. Adjoining the Magnolia Oil Company's holdings and almost adjoining the Cooden Oil Company's holdings, three-quarters of a mile from the Prairie Oil Company now drilling. This property has likewise increased in valuation through the recent Stevens County developments, including the bringing in of the Garry Well last week with a measured flow of 15,000 barrels per day.

320 acres in four tracts of thirty acres each, in Erath and Comanche Counties, close to and checkerboarding the drilling developments of the Davis, Edna-Hill, Fouts, Roberts, Stroud, Stavey and Laney Wells. These holdings have all shared in increased valuation from the surrounding operations. (Read clipping.)

A RECORD OF WHICH WE ARE PROUD

February 12th, 1919, some thirty odd working days ago, the books were opened to the public for subscriptions in the Muckelstone Oil Company. Since the above date, over 1,000 stockholders have subscribed and paid for more than $90,000 worth of Muckelstone Oil Company Stock, possibly 90 per cent of subscribers being Texas sheep, cattle and oil men, familiar with the Company's holdings.

As above stated, the derrick is now erected and will commence drilling operations on Block 41, Burkburnett, within 10 days. This has been accomplished about thirty days ahead of the time we believed capable of the accomplishment and was only made possible through the public's appreciation of the merit of the Muckelstone Oil Company's holdings, as shown by their ready response in buying.

We sincerely believe, and our belief is founded on logical deduction and our knowledge of the Texas Oil Fields, together with Market Conditions, that Muckelstone Oil Company's Stock should sell within ninety days at three hundred to five hundred per cent increase.

We assure our clients of one thing, THE TRUTH AS WE KNOW IT. If you appreciate this quality, we solicit your business.

Expecting this offer to be entirely sold by April 15th, 1919, we respectfully suggest, if you are interested in this issue, to remit for the amount of stock desired at once.

Buy Muckelstone Stock while it is selling at par. If you are interested in this proposition it will pay you to act now and see our local representative, W. T. Seal, at the Bogerson Hotel, Twin Falls.
