REPARATIONS GRAVE SUBJECT

American Finance Commission Is Informed of Wilson's Views of Situation

BY CARL D. GROAT

PARIS, March 29.—American finance commissioners have been fully informed regarding President Wilson's views on the financial situation, preparatory to the allied economic council meeting with the Germans at Compiegne early next week.

The president discussed the situation with the American representatives at length yesterday. While no official statement was issued on the conference, it is admitted the Americans were apprised of the details of the decision on the "big four" regarding reparations, during the last few days.

To Pay for Food

While the matter of reparations will not be brought up at the Compiegne meeting, it will have an important bearing on any action taken by the economic commissioners. Their conversations with the Germans will deal with the amount and location of German assets to be used for payment of food before peace is signed. It is expected the Germans will renew the suggestion they made at Brussels, that they be permitted to sell their goods to Germany so as to permit work to be renewed, placing the Germans in a better position to pay for food. The Americans are inclined to accede in part to this request, but the French continue to remain that the enemy should not be given any commercial advantage before France is in a position to resume manufacturing on a normal scale.

The economic commissioners also will be able to obtain valuable information regarding Germany's present financial status, which can be used in connection with determination of indemnities.

CONFERENCE CONSIDERS NECESSARY ACTION IF HUNS REFUSE TO SIGN

Indications of Possible Refusal by Germany to Assent to Forthcoming Treaty Give Rise to Informal Discussion of Steps to Compel Acceptance

SECOND UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER MAY BE DEMANDED BY MILITARY ARM

BY WILLIAM PHILLIP SIMMS

PARIS, March 29.—The peace conference has begun to consider in an informal way what shall be done in the event Germany refuses to sign the forthcoming treaty.

Should Germany thus turn out, it is gathered from unofficial conversations that the principles laid down in the covenant of the league of nations will be brought into play to force her into a second unconditional surrender.

Plunge Europe Into War

Official information reaching the allied governments tends more and more to indicate that the Germans are bent on wringing out of the consequences of the war they made. Enemy leaders are boldly declaring they will sign no peace that is not wholly acceptable to them, and at the same time are threatening to plunge not only their own nation, but all of Europe into anarchy.

Economic Pressure Planned

Should the diplomatic post parleys at Versailles lead to no result, it is understood that economic pressure on Germany will again be exerted to the fullest extent. In case this fails, military measures will be taken to bring the Germans to reason.

The allies, it is pointed out, already occupy the line of the Rhine. A similar cordon could be immediately established from the Baltic to the Black Sea by Poland (including Galicia), Czechoslovakia and Rumania. These countries already are forming what is virtually a safety zone between the Russian Bolsheviks and the Bolsheviks of central Europe.

Drastic Steps Possible

The allies, without active military operations, would be able to maintain the enemy within a sort of concentration camp, at the same time enforcing economic control on Germany, Austria, Bulgaria, Turkey and if necessary, Russia, until the enemy's diplomatic trickery were disavowed and the allies' terms agreed to.

Minimum Outlay Required

In case actual military occupation of strategic centers of the enemy countries became advisable this could be accomplished at a minimum outlay.

Meanwhile, the impression is growing that the allies who won on the battle fields, will be defeated at the peace table, unless the situation is handled with more vigor and less delay.

Efforts to Show Guilt of Governor in Case of Social Convict Are Not Relaxed by Investigation Committee

DES MOINES, Ia., March 29.—That Attorney General Horace M. Haver compromised five felons to "get" Governor Harding's pardon of Ernest Rathbun, the country social criminal, was set to the probe of the pardon during the session yesterday and last night.

W. Byers, counsel for the house judiciary committee which is conducting the investigation "burned" Bert Johnson, who started the prosecution against young Rathbun.

Some committee members admitted they knew of the deal whereby Ernest went to the penitentiary to save his father, brother and George Clark, his attorney, from being sentenced for perjury in getting the pardon.

According to Johnson's testimony, Haver would not quash the indictment against Rathbun, but would "get friends" in Des Moines. The intimation was that members of the committee might have been these "legal friends."

One of the members admitted that he knew of Haver's part in the deal or it was made.

ARMIES POUR INTO EUROPE ON ALL SIDES

Military Struggle Now Going on Is Most Gigantic in Number of Men Under Arms With Bolshevik Sweeping Onward

LONDON, March 29.—The most gigantic military struggle in the history of the world apparently is being staged in and around Hungary.

Dispatches from various sources show armies of several allied nationalities scurrying this way and that, occasionally clashing but just as frequently passing each other.

The following situation: Both railway lines between Budapest and Vienna have been cut off by allied forces—Italians occupying the southern end of the line, and Czechoslovakia holding Raab on the southern route.

Bolshevik Advances

Russian Bolsheviks are sweeping westward across eastern Galicia overrunning the rival oil lands and threatening invasion of Austria.

A Rumanian army is entering Galicia along the same route as traveled by the Russian Bolsheviks.

Another Rumanian army is marching northwestward toward Budapest, near the Maros river.

Still another Rumanian army is marching eastward into the Carpathian mountains, near the Danube, and co-operating with the French along the Danube west of Odessa.

A fourth Rumanian army is retreating westward across the Pruth river in the face of the forces of the newly-constituted republic of Bessarabia, which was formed in alliance with the Russian Bolsheviks.

Bulgarians are mobilizing along the eastern frontier of Serbia.

Polish troops, occupying Lemberg recently recaptured from the Ukrainians—have gone on strike in sympathy with the Hungarian soldiers.

Ukrainians will hold the Poles, who seized from the Poles.

Ukrainians and Bolsheviks' revolutionary forces are joining for an attack on the allies' position.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 29.—Four workers were killed and seven others were seriously injured when an explosion in the bottom of an uncompleted hull at the plant of the Columbia River Ship Building corporation.

The explosion was caused by a worker who flooded the bottom of the vessel with illuminating gas.

The gas was ignited by hot rivets. James Forester was the most seriously injured and there is a possibility he may not recover. E. D. Greig, Fred Palmer and Solomon Parker are in the hospital. All will recover. The other seven were only slightly hurt, most of them coming out of the hospital.

The explosion did not injure the hull.

Johnson's boy to the penitentiary after he had been reared in "rotten surroundings, didn't you, just to save your friend or yours?" Byers asked Johnson. The latter did not answer directly.

There will be no further sessions of the committee until Tuesday. According to members of the probing body, Judge Albert before whom Ernest Rathbun made his stipulation that set aside the pardon will be the last important witness.

Japan and United States Are Each Endeavoring to Further Demands

WASHINGTON, March 29.—An important diplomatic duel between the United States and Japan at the peace conference appears to be under way behind a curtain of secrecy and silence.

Australia Fears

This is the only explanation available here today for the failure to date of the American proposal for an agreement to the league of nations covenant insuring the preservation of the Monroe Doctrine. It is noted that while the allies are in agreement on the principle, they are not in agreement on the details.

Also Australia, worried over the strange silence of the Japanese, is becoming fearful lest special sanction of the Monroe Doctrine in the covenant will result in Japan pressing for special interest and control in the orient, an attitude recently advanced by Japan.

GERMANY READY FOR UPSISING

Allies Feel Uncertain as to Method of Handling Indemnity Questions

PARIS, March 29.—Official reports are bearing out recent unofficial dispatches from Germany and Austria, indicating those countries increasing opposition to the peace treaty, as heard today. In fact, these advices are understood to have impressed the peace delegates to such an extent that there is a pronounced spirit of hesitancy toward Germany developing in unexpected quarters.

For instance the British viewpoint on the questions of reparations and indemnities is a "Pilsen corridor" from the Posen region to Danzig solution of which has been among the principal stumbling blocks to speedy completion of a peace treaty, has been considerably modified.

A high British authority today said it would be unwise now to attempt to exact more from Germany than the treaty conveniently pay within the next twenty or thirty years. An excessive bill, he said, would simply fertilize the field already sown to Bolshevism.

GERMANS UP TO OLD TRICKS IN PEACE DEALING

Threat to Throw Country Into Hands of Bolsheviks if Terms Are Too Strenuous Is Declared to Be Camouflage

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
BERLIN, March 28.—(Delayed).—Radical leaders declared today that the bugaboo of Bolshevism in Germany is a trick by which Foreign Minister Brockdorff-Rantzau and Count Bernstorff hope to score a diplomatic victory, in spite of military draft.

According to the radicals, the threat to refuse the peace terms and throw Germany into Bolshevism—which is being talked broadcast in Berlin, especially within hearing of members of the allied mission—is an effort to impede the peace conference with the seriousness of the situation here. It is charged that the German foreign office hopes this may lead to a split between the allied nations regarding the procedure if the Germans refuse to sign the pact. Certain entente nations, it is claimed, will oppose continuing the peace terms and fear the spread of Bolshevism, while others probably will insist on enforcing conditions demanded of the Germans.

Demand Peace Makers

The most sincere opponents of Bolshevism as well as the independent socialists demand that a group of real pacifists be sent to Paris in place of the commission already announced to deal openly with the allies in an effort to establish Germany's future relations with the world honestly and without trick.

A supposedly secret organization of the officers of the old regime had prepared previously by the allies, who claim it is the work of the reactionary movement of General Ludendorff.

The radical demonstration during the night, he says, is a cover for the crowds worshipping the pacifists who also are concerned at the rapid enlistment in the next military units under old leaders.

Preparing for Struggle

Officers assume the preparation that these are merely efforts to prop up the struggle with Bolshevism. The militarists claim their new organization is not political though they admit they will demand that the government develop toward reaction in case there is another uprising of the radicals.

Labors in the Rhineland are now threatening to demand a 25 per cent wage increase and a six-hour day. Spartacists are seizing the opportunity to prepare for a general political strike which they declare will result in commutation of Escher, Dusseldorf and other industrial centers.

NEW SITUATION IS ENGROSSING ATTENTION

Definite Decision Is Expected by Conference as to Handing Question

PARIS, March 29.—The Polish situation which has become highly important through Germany's apparent defiance regarding Danzig was to be discussed by the allied leaders today.

Information has been received by the French government that following Germany's refusal to allow Polish divisions to enter France to help fight the Germans have begun to move new troops and heavy guns into that region.

The "big four" was expected to arrive at some definite decision as to how this new crisis will be met. It was believed the delegates feel that the situation demands immediate and firm pressure be brought to bear on the Germans.

MILITARY POLICY GROWS DEFINITE

PARIS, March 29.—The "Big Four" and the foreign ministers, in their present conferences, are covering the vast territory extending from the Baltic to the Atlantic, and from the Adriatic to the Black Sea to the Baltic to hold back the tide of Bolshevism. Whether such a plan will remain defensive or would mean the offensive as the best means of defense, naturally is problematical.

It is now revealed that William Bullitt, special investigator for the American delegation, saw Premier Lenin while in Petrograd. When his report is made public it is expected to reveal much interesting information covering points that hitherto have been hazy.

FINAL SESSION BEGINS TODAY

Women Hold Last Day of Convention of National Suffrage Association

ST. LOUIS, March 29.—The National Women Suffrage association today opened what probably will be the final session of its convention here.

Transfusion of its life blood into the Women Voters' League will be complete before the date set for the next annual convention, national leaders predicted today.

The National association today was still jubilant over its latest victory—presidential suffrage for Missouri women. Convention sessions last night were in the form of a mass meeting of celebrants. Expectation of obtaining passage of the federal amendment at the next session of congress was increased by the action of the Missouri senate.

Final business of the convention will be concluded today. The women voters' conference in session this morning sought to complete its organization, elect officers and adopt by-laws. The national convention will be in session at the same time completing its unfinished business.

The national association was on record today as favoring a league of nations. Resolutions passed by the convention also called upon the next congress to submit suffrage to the states and urged establishment of a national department of education with a secretary as a member of the cabinet.

Countries Far From the Battle Zone Draw Largely From American Supplies

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Nations far removed from the European war zone are spending $10,000,000 daily on American goods. This is half of the $20,000,000 daily export trade which the United States has built up since 1914, commerce department figures show.

Officials say this refutes charges that American export trade, born of the war, is composed mainly of munitions and must vanish as soon as normal peace time conditions are resumed. Exports out of Europe, trade which reported American manufacturers and raw material have increased approximately 150 per cent to North American countries, 160 per cent to South American countries, 140 per cent to Africa, nearly 150 per cent to Oceania, including Australia and 300 per cent to Asia.

RUMANIANS DEFEAT FORCES OF THE BOLSHEVIKI ARMIES

Entire Southern Portion of Bessarabia Still in Hands of Old Authority

BERNE, March 29.—Rumanian troops inflicted a crushing defeat on Bolshevik forces along the left bank of the Dniester, near Javilaska (Bessarabia), it was announced in an official dispatch from Bucharest today. Near Tiraspol (60 miles northwest of Odessa) the Rumanians have established contact with the French.

Recent dispatches reported Bessarabia had declared its independence, had formed an alliance with the Russian Bolsheviks and attacked the Rumanians, driving them across the Pruth river. The above dispatch indicates the Rumanians still hold the entire southern portion of Bessarabia.

LONDON, March 29.—The Paris correspondent of the Mail reported today that the French foreign office had received information from the allied mission and Polish officers in Danzig that the Germans are sending fresh troops to that city and are mounting guns along the coast.

The Germans are bitterly opposed to the allied plan for awarding Danzig to Poland. If the dispatch is true, they apparently are preparing to hold Danzig by force, or at least prevent Polish troops from landing there.

ASKS OPINION OF PEOPLE ON CONTROL PLAN

Government Would Have National Views of Ownership of Public Utilities by Private Concerns With Federal Aid

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The government has launched its "feeler" to the country on the question of the private ownership, with limited federal supervision, of major utilities.

Chairman Hurley's recommendations in New York last night along this line as applied to the war born merchant marines, were regarded here today as a move to sound out public opinion. It may be stated that Hurley's views are personal, however, not the announcement of a fixed government policy.

Turn Over Marine. The government believes the merchant marine, built up to private concerns at prices determined by the world tonnage market with part of the payment deferred and with half of the ships' earnings in excess of six per cent to go into a public fund.

Ship purchasers would give a mortgage for the unpaid balance, the mortgage to pay five per cent, one per cent of which would be turned by the government into a merchant marine development fund.

Government regulation would be designed to prevent water stock and assure the use of vessels on trade routes designed to promote the welfare of the United States.

Answer to Discussion. "I believe this is the answer to the government ownership-private ownership discussion," Hurley said recently while discussing the plan. "I believe it will appeal both to democrats and republicans. The time has come when such questions as this must be decided from the viewpoint of the greatest number. This plan rebounds to the benefit of the American people, at the same time it leaves its developments to the initiative and skill of American ship operators and still absolutely prevents the watering of stocks."

Despite some evidence that there may be strong opposition in the country to selling the merchant marine, Hurley is planning to go ahead with his work of preparing the vessel for sale along the line he has suggested.

Working on Costs. Experts are now at work in the shipping board compiling data on tonnage costs all over the world to determine what would be the cost of building the American vessels. Simultaneously other experts are at work developing the most advantageous trade routes for the ships.

The idea, Hurley says, "is to get all of these matters in completed form so that when the program is set for the vessels over to private concerns, estimates, we can put the ships on the ways, as it were, and let them slide easily into the channels of foreign trade."

Revised Covenant Is Nearly Complete With Three Important Questions Yet Remaining to Be Considered

ED L. KEEN
PARIS, March 29.—The revised covenant of the league of nations will be presented to the league commission with three important amendments still in suspense, it developed today.

These amendments cover the Monroe Doctrine, Japan's claims for racial equality and France's recommendation for greater guarantees of military security.

To Be Completed Soon. The constitution is now in the hands of a special drafting committee, is expected to be completed shortly. This committee's powers are restricted to framing the form of the covenant. It can change the verbiage but cannot add to or take away from the substance.

President Wilson, it was stated, is free to bring up his Monroe Doctrine amendment when the league committee meets again to revise the draft. The same situation covers the French amendment for establishment of an international general staff and the Japanese amendment. At the latter two reservations were made in a plenary session of the peace conference, it was pointed out that they might not be presented until the next full meeting.

At the last session of the league committee, it was learned, a phrase was inserted in the mandatory clause, making clear that acceptance of mandates must be voluntarily. Provision was also made for opening all offices on the league to women as well as men. In regard to withdrawals from the league, it was made necessary for any nation to give two years' notice.

The form of the covenant was changed somewhat in that provisions making clear that acceptance of mandates must be voluntarily. Provision was also made for opening all offices on the league to women as well as men. In regard to withdrawals from the league, it was made necessary for any nation to give two years' notice.

Several changes were made in the wording, including the elimination of superfluous phrases for the purpose of clarification.

Equal Rights. Conventions which have just been completed include provisions for an international labor constitution must be ratified, separately from the covenant.

GET THE FACTS

From recent information leaking out in various ways, it appears to be entirely possible that conditions in Russia today are not as black as they are painted. Statements by a qualified, if superficial, investigator of trains running on time between Petrograd and Moscow do not in any manner square with recent tales of murder and rapine on a wholesale scale in these two cities.

One fact which must be kept constantly in mind in connection with the Russian situation is that events move rapidly and changes take place overnight. That the Russian Bolsheviks are responsible for the death of thousands, for suffering and want on an almost national scale and for an example to the world of the horrors of internecine strife perhaps never equalled in the history of man, will hardly be denied, but that any change for the better is an absolute impossibility cannot be accepted as a flat proposition.

What the Allied governments need most in connection with the Russian situation is information. Not a compilation of scattered data from this, that or the other source but a full and complete report of the entire course of Bolshevism from the day of the fall of the Czar to the present.

Russia today appears to be in much the same condition as Mexico, and a day of reckoning must eventually become as necessary in the one case as in the other. Vacillation and delay have not proved to be a cure in Mexico, neither will they in Russia, but it is idle to attempt to outline a course of action until the real facts are available to those whose business it is to act.

WAR RECORD OF 146TH ARTILLERY REGIMENT WRITTEN BY ADJUTANT

History of Military Organization Including Twin Falls Unit of Idaho Regiment Appears in Program for Musical Melange Given by Players From Its Members at Dedication of Festhalle in Germany

The history of the One Hundred Forty-sixth field artillery regiment, composed of national guardsmen from Idaho, Washington and New Mexico, and including the Twin Falls, Mandan, Nampa and Coeur d'Alene units of the Second Idaho regiment, was written by Capt. Frank B. Jeffrey, adjutant of the regiment.

A copy of the program and history of the regiment has been received here from P. H. (Friday) Stowell, sergeant major of the regiment. The program includes the names of two members of the regiment, Capt. Alexander Theodore B. Holderman, a member of the regimental band, who played the brass violin in the orchestra, and Sgt. Alexander Lee, who appeared as Oh Joy, one of the two servants of Ohing Ohong.

The 146th field artillery is composed of national guard troops from the states of Idaho, Washington and New Mexico. The different units composing the regiment were assembled at Camp Meaux, near Meaux, France, where it was formed pursuant to general order No. 2, 4th division, dated September 19, 1917.

The Second Idaho infantry left the Boise barracks, Boise, Idaho, on September 24, 1917, arriving at Camp Green, on October 1. The headquarters and supply companies, and B, B, C, D companies, left Boise on October 1. The other units of the Idaho infantry were put into an engineering regiment and a machine gun battalion.

The various units of the 146th field artillery were formed as follows: Headquarters Company, Headquarters Company and Company D, Second Idaho Infantry.

Battery A—Battery A, New Mexico field artillery. Battery B—Companies B and C, Second Idaho Infantry. Battery C—Companies A and C, Second Idaho Infantry. Battery D—Battery A, Washington field artillery. Battery E—Battery B, Washington field artillery. Battery F—Battery C, Washington field artillery.

The regiment left Camp Greene on October 23 for Camp Mills, L. I., New York, arriving on October 25. At this time it became a part of the 66th field artillery brigade, 4th division. The other regiment forming this brigade was the 148th field artillery, which is a national guard unit from the states of Wyoming, Colorado and Oregon.

As soon as the troops could be landed they were taken by train to Camp Morn Hill, Winchester, England. They landed at the ferry of January 10 when they were carried by rail to Southampton and transported across the English channel on a steamer during the night, arriving at La Havre the following morning.

The regiment is a motorized unit, the guns being drawn during the service at the front by a large French four-wheel-drive tractor, which weighs six tons. Recently, the regiment has been equipped with the ten-ton Holt caterpillar tractor. The personnel and material are transported by motor trucks, automobiles and motorcycles. It takes two and one-half hours for the brigade to pass a given point traveling at a normal speed of ten kilometers an hour. The distance between the front and rear of the regiment when in column on the march is approximately 10 kilometers.

On July 4 orders were received for the regiment to move from Camp Meaux on July 6 it left Clermont-Ferrand for the city of Meaux in the zone of advance, arriving there the following day. At this time the 66th field artillery brigade became an artillery, First army corps, First army.

From Meaux the various battalions marched to advanced positions along the Meuse river. The first shot was fired by the regiment on the Chateau Thierry sector on July 11. From this time the regiment actively participated in the various operations of the two major offensives.

The operations on the Saint Mihiel salient were commenced by the regiment on September 12. Upon completion of the Saint Mihiel offensive, the regiment marched on September 19, to Clermont-Ferrand. From there, on September 21, the battalions being stationed in the Bois de Sivry. From these woods the batteries took up advanced positions and commenced firing in the artillery preparation for the Meuse-Argonne offensive at 11 p. m. on September 25. The regiment was in continuation from this time until the armistice on November 11, advancing with our lines, the last firing positions being in the vicinity of Montigny, from which positions much firing was done on October 15 and other points on the east bank of the Meuse.

The march to the Rhine was commenced on December 11, and after passing through the Duchy of Luxembourg, reached Rubezahl, near Coblenz, Germany, on December 22. The regiment was the last of the Rhine river on December 31, occupying the towns of Grenchhausen, Aaurt, Stromberg, Kann, Alsbach, Wirschoeld and Besenbach and positions were selected in the event of further hostilities. On January 4, the 66th brigade was attached to the Third army corps, Third army, for administrative purposes.

Describes Equipment. The 165 millimeter G. P. F. (Grande Portee Pillbox) gun, is a French long-range rifle of comparatively recent invention, the first one being manufactured in July, 1917. The gun in its traveling position weighs 14 tons, and fires a projectile a little more than six inches in diameter which weighs ninety pounds. Each gun costs approximately $40,000 and each round of ammunition about 40¢. The cost of the regimental equipment is estimated at $2,000,000. While at the front the regiment fired approximately 70,000 rounds of ammunition, the cost of which is about $5,000,000.

The regiment is a motorized unit, the guns being drawn during the service at the front by a large French four-wheel-drive tractor, which weighs six tons. Recently, the regiment has been equipped with the ten-ton Holt caterpillar tractor. The personnel and material are transported by motor trucks, automobiles and motorcycles.

THE COMING OF THE ROBIN

Was ever the song of the robin sweeter than it is now? It is the song that is in our hearts. We have heard it often enough before. Every spring we run to the window to see the first warbler that favors us with a call. But have we ever stopped to listen as long as we do now? It is a new world he writes us to this time, as well as a new spring. We have seen this new world coming, but we have seen it as through a glass darkly. In our conversations of these latter months we have understood that something epochal was happening, but we spoke under a shadow.

Peace is almost here—a more promising peace, we have reason to believe, than any mankind has known hitherto. Prosperity is beckoning to us. The tedious period of readjustment nears its end. In Detroit there is practically no unemployment beyond the usual number of those who for reasons largely their own are out of work in a city of its size, and the soldiers who went to enjoy a bit of holiday-making, are passing prosperity around as has become the fashion. Even the churches are helping to make it the fashion in a real revival of applied Christianity. We begin to see social unrest in its true perspective. An American writer in Dearborn writes The Eco Press that the only social threat is to be found "among the million odd Russians" who are sojourning in different parts of the country. They have no use for the United States, he says, and he wants them all sent home if they do not apply for citizenship. That is what most Americans seem to want, and what most Americans want they will get. Nevertheless, we will always have social unrest as long as we have social inequalities, and so getting rid of social inequalities is the best program of all.

SEARCHING FOR MURTAUGH FOR JAIL BREAKERS

Two of Five Prisoners Escaped From Lincoln County Jail Believed to Have Been Seen at Farmer's Cellar

Two of the five prisoners who escaped Thursday night from the Lincoln county jail at Shoshone are believed to be in the vicinity of Murtaugh, Deputy Sheriff P. O. Herriman and Geo. F. Huffman since early this morning have been searching the country in pursuit of two men suspected of being escaped Lincoln county prisoners, who were discovered at about 5 o'clock this morning possessing a cellar evidently in search of provisions.

Pick Up Automobile

The suspects had appropriated for their own use an automobile owned by Lew Rawlings of Murtaugh, which they left standing at the roadside when they went into the cellar at some distance from a farm house about one-half mile south of Murtaugh. The man who discovered them at the cellar stood between them and the car. They fled without attempting to take the car.

Members of Bad Crew

The prisoners who escaped are supposed to be members of the boldest and most successful gang of burglars operating in this section in several years. They were arrested last September at Jerome by Sheriff Clarence Wheeler of Lincoln county. During the eight months preceding their arrest they are believed to have stolen property aggregating $65,000 in value in the states of Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming. They are believed to have been associated with George Dunniff and William Miner, now serving time in the state prison, upon conviction of robbery in June, 1914, of the H. M. Durst clothing store at Wendell, and who fled also to the robbery of the clothing store here to be staged at about that time.

Descriptions Given

Descriptions and criminal records of the escaped prisoners have been received here from Sheriff Wheeler, showing that the jailbreakers all have seen the inside of many of the jails and prisons of the western states. Each has an elaborate string of names which he used at his convenience.

The following are the descriptions of the quintet as given by Sheriff Wheeler:

Frank Sullivan—Age 36, height 5 feet 9 inches, weight 165 pounds, medium build, gray hair, blue eyes, light complexion.

Frank Walsh—Age 42, height 6 feet, weight 165 pounds, medium build, slightly gray hair, blue eyes, light complexion, scar running from right side of mouth to forehead.

Joseph Hogan—Age 35, height 5 feet 5 1/2 inches, weight 160 pounds, medium build, black hair, brown eyes, dark complexion.

Edward Miller—Age 30, height 5 feet 10 1/2 inches, weight 170 pounds, well built, brown hair, brown eyes, fair complexion, part of left nostril gone.

L. W. Darcy—Age 50, height 5 feet 5 1/2 inches, weight 150 pounds, stocky build, black hair, brown eyes, dark complexion.

A reward of $50 for the apprehension of each man is offered.

EXPLAINS EFFECT OF NEW M. W. A. SCHEDULE

Presiding Officer of Local Camp Says Monthly Payments Slightly Raised

The effect of the 50 per cent increase in the insurance rates of the Modern Woodmen of America is quite generally misunderstood according to Geo. Bonfield, presiding officer of the Twin Falls camp.

Prior to the going into effect of the new schedule, he says, members of the Twin Falls camp initiated at the age of 21, paid monthly insurance premium of $1.00 plus dues totalling $1.10, which was as follows: insurance 75 cents, patriotic fund 40 cents, local dues 40 cents.

Under the new schedule the payments to the patriotic fund will be discontinued, and this member will pay premium and dues amounting to $1.35 each month, or an increase of 5 cent per month. The new division of payments will be as follows: insurance 75 cents, local dues 40 cents.

The war and influenza have reduced the surplus of the order the same as they have the surplus of other fraternal and "old line" companies, Mr. Bonfield says. The order has now 1,100,000 members. The Twin Falls camp has 40 members.

LEADER OF THE HARNESS THIEVES ELUDES ARREST

Emilio Martinez, Located in Mexican Rooming House Here, Makes Successful Break for Liberty

Emilio Martinez, a Mexican, believed to be the leader of a gang of harness thieves operating in Twin Falls county for several weeks past, broke through a net spread for him by the officers at 2:30 o'clock this morning when he was located in a Mexican rooming house on Main avenue east. While Sheriff A. N. Sprague left the room to advise other officers of the capture of Martinez, leaving Deputy Sheriff P. O. Herriman on guard, Martinez suddenly turned and leaped through a door at the back of the house. He was closely pursued by the deputy who fired a shot in his direction in an attempt to frighten him into stopping, but made good his escape.

Mexican Aids Pursuit

Deputy Sheriff Harry Dietrich, in company with Anro Luna, a Mexican known as "White" or "Well," who reports on the operations and whereabouts of Martinez in the vicinity of Filer today in pursuit of the fugitive.

An expensive saddle identified by F. J. Day of Filer as his property which had been stolen was found in possession of Luna yesterday at Buhl. Luna said that he had bought the saddle from Martinez on Friday morning and offered to tell the officers all he knew concerning Martinez. Search which was instituted for Martinez resulted in his being discovered at the rooming house here. During the day Friday the sheriff's office prosecuted its search for members of the harness stealing gang. Last night's arrest was made of A. H. Crist and Jose Martinez, who were believed to be accomplices of the gang. Jose Martinez, however, satisfied the officers of his innocence and was released from custody. There are now in the county jail four Mexicans who are accused to having had some part in recent thefts of harness in this district.

USES POISON TO CLEAR OUT SQUIRRELS ON FARM

A. W. Nelson, One of County Farmers Reporting Successful Campaign

A. W. Nelson of Murtaugh, was in the farm bureau office to get an additional supply of strychnine and so-called to be used in squirrel poisoning. Mr. Nelson, together with eight or ten of his neighbors have been working since March 17 in the region east of Murtaugh on squirrel poisoning.

Mr. Nelson reports having destroyed at least 90 per cent of the squirrels on 120 acres of land which was badly infested with these rodents. He states that he prepared the poisoned oats according to the directions furnished by the farm bureau and thoroughly covered his ground every other day for three weeks. At each place where there was evidence of work he placed about a spoonful of oats by the use of a wooden paddle, carrying the oats in a sack on his back. He says the best time to put the poison out is early in the morning, between 6 or 7 o'clock. He says that after the third time over he could hardly find a squirrel. This is a splendid report and the farm bureau will be glad to cooperate with any farmer in this county and will furnish strychnine and saccharin for use on these pests.

Squirrel poison was taken out for the Filer district on March 24 by F. J. Anderson, to be distributed among neighbors of this district. Poison has been sent out to one district near Rog the House through James B. Avery, and in the House district through H. M. Hamm. J. H. Egbert, of Murtaugh also took out strychnine and saccharin for himself and neighbors.

BASEBALL PLAYERS HAVE HAD CASE OF GOOD FORTUNE

The baseball game between the News and Times players scheduled to be played tomorrow has been indefinitely postponed at the last moment request of the latter's Captain it became known last night.

It is understood some of the Times men have seen the News players working on the last few evenings and the request for more time is to enable the Times to import an in-field and to better train their present players. Therefore, the Times outfit recently suffered two defeats at the hands of the News, one in bowling, the other at billiards, and a third defeat would be humiliating in the extreme.

The ball game has been given much publicity by the Times and doubtless many of the local baseball fans will be greatly disappointed at this announcement.

YOUNG COUPLE STEALS MARCH ON COMMUNITY

Marriage of Miss Wanda Brose and Elwood Moffatt causes surprise.

(Special to The News.) ROCK CREEK—The marriage at Burley Wednesday of Miss Wanda Brose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brose, and Elwood Moffatt, formerly foreman for the Shooslee ranch and now employed by the Rubottom Cattle company, came as a surprise not only to the guests of honor but to their relatives who were informed of their intentions only a short time before they took their departure for Burley. The young couple were guests of honor upon their return Thursday at a dance arranged for by employees of the Shooslee ranch, which was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt expect to leave soon to make their home at Camas, Idaho.

SILCO EXCURSION IS REGARDED PROFITABLE

Mindoka County Dairymen and Feeders Study Types and Methods Here.

The Mindoka county silo excursion, joined here by several dairymen and feeders of this district, proceeded Friday from the farm bureau office here to Buhl inspecting 14 silos of various types and making inquiry into the various methods of preparing ensilage and its feeding value. The farms visited were those of W. F. Alworth, H. S. Frame, Dr. B. H. Adams, J. M. Maxwell, E. T. Sandmyer and H. O. Miller.

The Sandmyer property was formerly owned by Gustav Krueze, president of the Idaho State Dairymen's association, who accompanied the excursionists, and who acted as guide at the cheese factory there served cheese sandwiches to the visitors. Luncheon was served to the excursionists in Buhl.

One of the most interesting experiments in the preparation of ensilage inspected by the excursionists was the beet top silage pits on the Alworth farm. The silage was packed in a deep and 80 feet in length. It was lined with about 6 inches of straw and the tops placed in it in alternate layers. The silage was packed by driving a tractor over it. By this means not only the tops but the straw was converted into ensilage. It was pointed out the silage in this manner might be substituted for grain straw in this process to make up a better balanced ration, the bean straw furnishing the proteins and the tops the carbohydrates. This method was employed in any type of silo, it was advised.

RECOUNT COSTS CASSIA COUNTY JUDGE'S OFFICE

T. E. Harper Wins Election Contest in Court Against F. B. Dotson, Sworn in as Probate Judge in January.

BURLEY—T. E. Harper again holds down the job as probate judge in Cassia county. He won in the election contest against F. B. Dotson by 11 votes, says the Burley Bulletin.

This has been the hottest fought battle ever waged in Cassia county over a public office. Both men were candidates on the republican ticket at the primaries. On first count Dotson was declared nominated, but Harper contested and was declared the regular republican nominee. Dotson was regularly nominated on the democratic ticket, so the two were pitted against each other at the general election. The board of canvassers declared Dotson elected and he was sworn into office. Harper again contested, and has won.

Judge Babcock's decision to allow the vote at the Albion station normal to stand destroyed Dotson's last hopes of winning.

Kindness Makes for Service. It was once commented upon by Joseph F. Smith that, wherever men are kindest to their animals, there do those animals give the best service to men. As example, the writer cited Holland and Denmark, where the utmost affection and care are bestowed upon the cows, which there give freedom of their milk, and the dairying industry flourishes.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR FUTURE OF STANDING ARMY

General March Is Finishing Arrangements for Quarters and Size of Military Body for United States

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Plans for re-organization of the American army into a force of 500,000 men—five corps with a total of 15 divisions—have been completed, Chief of Staff March announced today.

Informing these divisions, men will be drawn from the 21 divisions existing and their present divisional organizations will be used but an entirely new personnel will be permitted. This army is being formed under authority granted by congress but the details of it; if necessary to conform with future legislation.

Divisions and Camps

The divisions and their permanent headquarters were announced by March as follows:

- First infantry, Camp Pike; second infantry, Camp Dodge; third infantry, Camp Lee; fourth infantry, Camp Rosemead; fifth infantry, Panama;
- sixth infantry, Honolulu; seventh infantry, divided between the Philippines, Alaska, and the Mexican border.
- Twenty-sixth infantry, Camp Devens; twenty-seventh infantry, Camp Upton; twenty-eighth infantry, Camp Dix; twenty-ninth infantry, Camp Meade; thirtieth infantry, Camp Jackson, S. C.; thirty-first infantry, Camp Custer; thirty-second infantry, Camp Gordon; thirty-third infantry, Camp Travis; thirty-fourth infantry, Camp Sherman; thirty-fifth infantry, Camp Taylor; thirty-sixth infantry, Camp Gordon; thirty-seventh infantry, Camp Funston; thirty-eighth infantry, Camp Lewis; thirty-ninth infantry, headquarters with the southern department.

The last division is to be drawn from all states, it was explained.

The numerical designations of various divisions which have been severed by the war have been maintained for the new army largely for historical and sentimental reasons.

It is hoped, March said, that this will preserve the morale developed by many of the famous fighting units of the A. E. F.

The new army plan will not interfere with organization of a national guard March explained.

Announcement was made that the war department had approved a call for fifty-thousand volunteers to be enlisted for a three-year term, on the basis of a foreign duty.

March officially that it was planned to send a detachment of 10,000 men to the new recruiting campaign first announced several weeks ago.

2,783 men have enlisted at the various recruiting offices located at Camps, March disclosed. These men are about evenly divided between one and three year enlistments, he said.

March referred to the enlistments as a "small number" and explained that the new promise of foreign duty would probably appeal to many men who did not see service abroad during the war.

Engineers Arrive

Arrival of the 140th engineer company at Murmanak, March 25 was announced by March. It carried 133 men and 16 officers. Another engineer company, the 107th, is en route and will arrive soon, it was said.

The total officers and men discharged from the army to date is 1,549,290, including 1,450,641 men and 838,049 fliers. Officers, men, nurses, marines and navy personnel returned from Europe since November 7, number 599,338.

During March, 24,186 officers and men have been returned from Europe, exceeding the original estimate of 203,000 for the month of March. April figures are expected to go above 250,000.

Standardize Demobilization

Orders have been issued designed to standardize the demobilization personnel to the minimum. These orders are considered the standard force for average demobilization camps, March said.

International conditions in Europe have caused no change in plans for returning troops to America, so far as the war department here has been advised, March said.

GOVERNMENT WARPS ALL ASSURANCE OF FAIRNESS

Germans Are March Safe in Allowing Polish Troops to Land in Danzig

BERLIN, March 28.—(Delayed)—Replying to the allied demand that permission be granted Polish troops to land at Danzig, Matthias Erzberger, speaking for the government, insisted today that the allies give assurance that General Haller's army will not occupy Danzig, operate against the Germans or join the Bolsheviks. He also asked for details of the army's strength and its objectives, the time of its arrival and the route it expected to follow. If these conditions are not met, Erzberger said, the Germans could not give their consent to the Poles' landing, since Prepiar Paderewski is alleged to have promised his people they could have West Prussia as soon as they were reinforced by General Haller's army.

GUARANTEES WAGES AND HOURS FOR SHIPBUILDERS

Director of Emergency Corporation Protects Employees Until October

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Existing hours and wages of the country's shipbuilders will be guaranteed until October 1, 1919, Charles E. Pizer, director general of the emergency fleet corporation, announced today.

At a conference with representatives of the labor unions, and private yard owners, arrangements were perfected for the new wage schedule which ceases operations Monday.

These district wage adjusting boards will be formed in each shipbuilding district and all wage controversies will be referred to these bodies for settlement.

TO ATTEMPT FLOATH

AKRON, O., March 29.—Sixteen members of the United States naval training station at Kingsroot Lake near here, have been maintained for the new army largely for historical and sentimental reasons.

It is hoped, March said, that this will preserve the morale developed by many of the famous fighting units of the A. E. F.
