

MEYXIAN RULE EXILES PRESTS FROM COUNTRY

Roman Catholic Archbishops With Thirty-Six Thousand Parishoners Are Banished From Mexico

APPEAL TO NATIONS TO ACT WITH MODERATION

Trust People But Declaro Government Is Unjust and Unstable—Wait Opportunity to Return to Native Land

CHICAGO, April 4.—Declaring that a small, selfish, but very powerful minority of the United States and Mexico is still seeking to enslave the two republics in war, three Roman Catholic archbishops exiled with thirty-six thousand of their parishoners from Mexico today appeal for moderation in dealings between the two nations.

The clerics who say they were obliged to leave their home land because of indignities heaped upon them by the Carranza government, still insist that their faith in Mexico is absolute. Their statement shows fear that there is danger of a clash between this country and the United States over the slottings of those who would benefit by such a war.

Warns Against Trouble The appeal signed by Francis Orcey Jiminez, archbishop of Guadalajara, Leopold Ruiz, archbishop of Michoacan, and Francis Plancator, archbishop of Tlaxcala, warns the rank and file of the United States and Mexico of the insidious machinations of those who still seek to fan old flames, rekindle old hatreds and obscure the interests of the common people.

Blither Against Government Though in exile and bitter against the Carranza government, which they declare has late confiscated church property valued at one billion dollars in gold, the archbishops believe that Mexico should be allowed to solve her own difficulties.

They appeal to the citizens of the United States and Mexico to have faith in the future of their country, to "forget the amity which has long existed between the two peoples and to forget the evil forces arrayed against it."

Peace and Good Will "We appeal especially to those in the United States who in good faith have made our cause their own. We may be heard in the temple of God as the hosts of His people and that the mission of His church is to create peace and good will among men. The principles which our church has founded will insure a peace of justice, for the capacity of the Mexican people to respond to the mission of the church is limited only by the artificial and temporary barriers which restrict our functions.

Finally, we appeal to the faithful in the United States and in Mexico to join in our prayers for peace. We beseech especially to remove all occasions for misunderstanding between the two great sovereign states so that the American and Mexican peoples, each respecting its own sovereignty, may dwell together in perfect peace, now and forever."

Banished from Country The archbishop of Guadalajara last July was condemned to death by a Carranza tribunal but spared at the request of state department and banished from the country. He will again enter Mexico in a few weeks. The other clerical and 30,000 refugees scattered in refuges at El Paso, Marfa, El Paso, Los Angeles and in California to receive away until a stable government offers them protection and permission to return.

TIME FOR NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS IS AT HAND

Mission Here Seeking Self-Government Accorded Cordial Reception by Secretary Baker and Told of Frank Approval of Step by President Wilson

DELEGATES HIGHLY GRATIFIED—BELIEF IS EXPRESSED EFFORT WILL SUCCEED

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The time for Philippine independence has substantially come, Secretary of War Baker today told the Philippine mission here seeking self-government.

The day is very close at hand when this can be formally accomplished Baker told the mission, describing existing relations as being merely "formalities."

This he added is the view of the president as well. He read a letter from the president to the mission which expressed pride in the support the Filipino people have given to the United States during the war.

The president's letter addressed to Secretary Baker, and read by him to the mission, said: "I have been deeply gratified with the constant support and encouragement received from the Filipino people and from the Philippine legislature in the trying period through which we are passing. The people of the United States have, with reason, taken the deepest interest in the liberty and support of the Filipino people."

Helping Weak Nations "Though unable to meet the commission, the Filipino people shall not be absent from my thoughts. Not the least of my duties is to tell them which now requires my attention is that of making the pathway of the weaker people of the world less perilous a labor which should be, and doubtless will be, their abiding interest to the Filipino people."

"I am sorry that I cannot look into the faces of the gentlemen of this mission from the White House and tell them all that I have in mind and heart as I think of the patient labor, with the end almost in sight, undertaken by the American and Filipino people for their liberation and the freedom of the world. That your sentiments are mine in this regard and that you will translate truly to them my own feelings."

Gails at Capital The mission of Filipino called at Secretary Baker's office this morning where they were received by the secretary, Chief of Staff Marsh, General Frank M. McIntyre who has been in charge of the insular bureau and other distinguished officials, whose presence has brought them in touch with the Filipino people. Governor General Harrison sat at Baker's side through the reception.

Praises People The reading of President Wilson's letter brought applause and Secretary Baker was interrupted several times by the expressions of approval and praise. The conclusion they arose and applauded loudly. The greatest good feeling prevailed among all the Filipinos present and among the military officials and others present at the reception.

Baker took occasion to compliment the representatives of the Philippine people on their noble and patriotic spirit. He also praised the cooperation of the Filipinos during the war and their restraint in abandoning during the period of agitation for independence. He described the steps by which the original military government imposed by the United States has been gradually replaced by a civil government which step by step, has been transferred to the shoulders of the Filipino people and is now substantially conducted by the inhabitants of the islands.

"I beg leave to place in your hands, Mr. Secretary, a document which will recall to all this juncture that the fighting for so high and noble ideals the Filipino people have stood by you during the critical years of the gigantic struggle to free a man, were never so anxious, to shed their blood, side by side with your own soldiers!"

Self-Governing "The Philippine islands are almost independent now; your legislature governs the islands," Secretary Baker said.

FOURTH WIFE OF CONVICT PARSON IS DISCOVERED

Man Who Just Completed Sentence Is Found to Have Series of Spouses

ROCKFORD, Ill., April 4—The fourth marriage of R. M. Parson Darnell, convicted white slave, was uncovered here today with his detention by Rockford officials. Darnell it was alleged, used the name of "Merle St. Clair" for this matrimony. The "Marrying Parson" was wanted in Owatonna, Minn., where he was indicted on charges of child desertion. The child is the son of Ruth Soper, one of the parson's former "wives" who was prominent in Darnell's white slave trial in Milwaukee. The "Parson" said settlement of his present estate is left him $100,000. He blamed this new affluence for his present difficulties.

SOCIETY LEADER MEETS DEATH IN MYSTERIOUS WAY

Body of Woman Is Found on Rifle Range With Bullet Wound Through Roof of Mouth

CHICAGO, April 4—The body of Mrs. Irvin E. Black, society leader, found dead on the Black's private rifle range was taken to Fort Madison, Iowa, for burial today. Mrs. Black died as a result of a shot through the roof of her mouth. Mystery as to the manner in which Mrs. Black died developed with the coroner's hearing which was continued to meet the physicians to examine the wound. Coroner Peter Hoffman said he believed the death was accidental. He wondered, however, why there had been an external wound. Irving G. Black, the husband, told of the discovery of his wife's body in the basement target room. He thought that a cartridge had become jammed in the 22 calibre rifle his wife used and that she had tried loading it by tapping the floor with the stock. That was a rather common practice, he said. Mrs. Black was a leader in affairs at Winnetka, a Chicago suburb. Fort Madison, Iowa, was her former home.

MAKES APPEAL TO WILSON ON PROPOSED BILL

California Legislature Is Putting Off Japanese Measures Until Word Is Received From President on Matter

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 4—With feeling as strong as that developed during the fight over the Webb Anti-Alien bill in 1913, evident throughout both houses, the legislature is today holding in abeyance measures to restrict Japanese immigration until President Wilson states whether such measures will embarrass the peace conference. Until this reply is received, Senator J. N. Inman's measure making more stringent laws regarding Japanese owning property in California will not be introduced.

The cable dispatches to Wilson today by the senate secretary follow: "Request has been made to the senate by California for permission to introduce Japanese law. The absolutely no Japanese to lease agricultural lands in this state. The other is directed against the so-called Japanese mixture marriages. "Will the introduction of the enactment into law of such bills embarrass yourself or other representatives of the United States at the peace conference? The senate will meet in the presence of the United States, is taking an action until an answer is received from you."

CONTROVERSY OF BOARD SERIOUS

Railroad and Industrial Body Openly Quarrel Over Adjustment of Prices

WASHINGTON, April 4—While officials today waited direct word from President Wilson, the railroad administration industrial board controversy developed into one of the most serious inter-departmental breaches of the administration. Secretary Glass is backing Director General Hines unqualifiedly. Secretary Hines' father of the board, is just as vigorously supporting Chairman G. N. Peck.

Reports of conversations between the various parties concerned to tell of words, with many charges and counter-charges. Glass and Hines both claim several other high officials support their position, while Hedges points to the fact that President Wilson approved the plan of the industrial board, as originally drafted. Indications at the White House are that the president, far removed from the dispute may refuse to be drawn into it. A short time ago Hines is understood to have put the matter up to the president, who is said to have made no direct recommendations. Some indication of the presidential attitude is expected today.

Several officials believe the breach has become so serious that, if the board is to continue its price reduction work, radical changes must be made in its policy. It is also probable that, in this event, the board would be reorganized.

"These are necessary to reach an agreement on any question. But Anglo-French entente was never more complete than it is now. "The British did not come to fight beside the French merely that France should enjoy comparative tranquility for a brief time. They insist that France have complete security for the future. WEIMAR, March 10.—(By Mail.)—Due to the demands of Bavaria and the other south German states, the new German republic will undoubtedly be a very decentralised confederation...

Bavaria's position is one of extreme independence now. Leaders do not intend to allow their state to fall under the domination of Prussia...

W. A. Moore, pastor of the Christian church, has received 31 questions which he is to answer at his Sunday evening service. Among them are the following: Did Jesus ever sin? Is America in danger of Balkanization? How can one decide when reforms (I. W. W., Bolshevism, Nonpartisan league, etc.) should have his support? Is a Sunday movie worse than Sunday baseball? What is Alexander thinking about now? Is divorce justified on the ground of incompatibility? Should a man, for the sake of peace, give up to his wife if she is in the wrong? Are other planets than the earth inhabited? Why are so many Twin Falls business men judicious? to church? In order to get rich must a man who has taken financial advantage of others confess the wrong to others than those injured? Would not $100,000 invested in bond for soldiers' homes be a fine Twin Falls memorial? When will prices come down? If John loves Mary and Mary is not sure he does what should he do? Ought young people to have their parents' consent before marriage? Though I confess the Lord and am baptized and partake of the sacraments and stand for profit, rent and money over the poor and a good citizen, much less a Christian how can one become a Christian and does it pay?

INDEPENDENCE OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS IS AT HAND

add the delegation. "The strongest tie between the Philippines and the United States at the present time is the tie of affection, rather than the political. I know that I express my feeling of the president—I certainly express my own feelings—I think I express the prevailing opinion of the people of the United States when I say that we believe the time has substantially come, if not quite come, when the Philippines can be allowed to sever the mere formal political tie remaining and become an independent people."

Favors Independence "I am myself in favor of Philippine independence, I trust that any very wise act on my part when it can be formally accomplished and when it will no longer be necessary for your children in your public schools to write essays and make motions on the aspirations of your people and when all the energy of your people can be devoted to the further development of the fine civilization which is already inaugurated here."

To Tour America Baker expressed the hope that as the Philippine mission toured the United States and as members made addresses there would desire to be in the American people their desire to be free.

The mission, after leaving the war department, called at the White House and was received by Secretary Taft personally. It has left no further communication for the president. "Very satisfactory and very encouraging," was the comment of President Taft on the Philippine senate on the attitude of President Wilson toward independence of the islands as given in the mission by Secretary Baker.

Thought Kept Him Alive.
Murphy was making his first trip across the Atlantic, and he felt unspokenly awful. He failed to connect the fact of his being on the bring ocean for the first time with his agony. The doctor came to him as he tossed about in his berth. "Cheer up, mate," he said heartily. "I know you're feeling rotten, but you're not going to die." Murphy opened horrified eyes. "Not going to die?" he wailed. "Faith, doctor, I thought I was! That was the only thing that kept me alive."

CONGRESS WILL AID SOLDIERS TO FIND WORK

First Duty of Coming Session Will Be to Get Employment for Returning Service Men and Demobilized Workers

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Finding work for the returning soldiers and demobilized war workers should be the first task of the next congress, Champ Clark, retiring speaker of the house, said today. Two methods of opening up more jobs were advocated by Clark with the declaration that he would push action on both when the next house convenes. They are:

The passage of the Secretary of the Interior Lane's bill appropriating $100,000,000 to reclaim swamp and arid lands.

Immediate passage of legislation to increase United States trade in South and Central America.

Clark's ideas will occupy an important place in the program of the house, minor in the sixty-sixth congress, since Clark himself probably will be the democratic leader.

Reclaim Arid Lands

There are thousands of acres of waste lands that could be brought into productivity under the Lane bill," Clark said today. "The very men who were employed in reclaiming these lands could be offered an opportunity to establish themselves on them in homes they would own."

Along the Mississippi alone there are 60,000 square miles—an area equal to the state of Missouri—which could be drained, made into the finest kind of farming land. If cultivated as the land is in Holland, it would support twenty million people.

Clark said he intended to see Secretary Lane in the next few days concerning Lane's bill which was crowded out in the closing days of the last congress.

On the proposition of increasing the South American trade, Clark said he would probably prepare a bill but had not yet decided just what the measure would embody.

SANTEL-OLSON BOUT HERE IS STIRRING FANS

Terrible Swede Wins Match at Buhl Against Tom Parks and Is Lined Up Now to Meet San Francisco Champion

"The Terrible Swede," Charley Olson of Chicago, who has been matched against Ad Santel of San Francisco, light heavyweight champion wrestler of the world for a finish bout to be staged on Tuesday evening next at the Laveing theatre in Twin Falls, will make his match Thursday evening, from Tom Parks, the light wrestler, at Buhl.

Olson clinched his first fall in 21 minutes with a body scissor hold, and the second in 11 minutes with a head scissors and a hammerlock hold.

L. M. Merritt of Elmer, who refereed the bout, said that Olson was one of the cleanest and best wrestlers he had ever had the pleasure of seeing in action; that he was fast on the mat and a top notcher.

Parks weighed in at 158 pounds and Olson at 165 pounds.

The promised appearance here of Santel against Olson who has won a warm place in the hearts of local fans is one that has not sported since this section was founded.

SCENIC ADVANTAGES OF TWIN FALLS COUNTRY MUST NOT BE OVERLOOKED

STUART H. TAYLOR, SECRETARY OF THE TWIN FALLS ROTARY CLUB, OFFERS THIS SECTION IN COMPETITION WITH THE WORLD WHEN IT COMES TO NATURAL BEAUTY SPOTS

Looking over Shoshone Falls, near Twin Falls, Idaho; one of the many wonder spots of the Twin Falls country to attract Rotarians who attend the Salt Lake convention.

Twin Falls on the Snake river, near the city of Twin Falls, Idaho, a place which Twin Falls Rotarians insist should be visited by all Rotarians who attend the 1920 Rotary convention.

To Stuart H. Taylor of Twin Falls belongs the honor of being the instigator of about the first piece of Stimulus pure Twin Falls country advertising to receive national publicity in a long time past.

In the recent issue of the Rotarian, official organ of the Rotary Club of America appears the following, incited, Stuart says, by former Rotarian articles, describing the location of the Garden of the Gods as being about two and one-half miles from the city limits of Salt Lake, that of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado as about the same distance in another direction, and a complete and entire absence of any all reference to either Shoshone and Twin Falls.

This is the way Mr. Taylor tells, in an article in the Rotarian, that the largest body of successfully irrigated land in the American west.

By going out of the direct way from Salt Lake City to Yellowstone Park, say 300 miles, by way of the Twin Falls country, one can see valley, mountain, and plain country which we defy anyone to beat within the same distance, and all on good auto roads. The old geographic showed Southern Idaho as a "rolling plateau" and "Snake River Desert." But times have changed and those geographers are out of date. The Twin Falls Rotary Club will go one hundred percent strong to the convention at Salt Lake City in June, and will be glad to explain to other Rotarians how to see Yellowstone Park and in addition to see some of the richest country and grandest scenery ever laid out before man.
