Ten Thousand Members of Opposing Forces Leave Lines to Go to Army of Ukrainian Leader

Executes Many Peasants

It would appear that Petlura's plan of cutting behind the Bolsheviks and advancing into Deserabala and toward Odessa is succeeding. It is stated that he brought about the defection of the Bolshevik soldiers partly by fighting, and partly by persuasion. This was made more easy, it is reported, since the Bolsheviks executed 600 peasants during their brief occupation of Zhitomir.

Wants Allied Aid

Petlura is still hoping the allies will realize the advantage of assisting him. It is asserted that the French admitted they had been misled regarding the Ukrainian government and that they were preparing to extend organization and technical aid to the Ukrainian troops.

VICTORY LOAN STARTS ACTION

New York City Began Early to Celebrate Great Day of Peace and Home Coming

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK.—The Victory loan that got under way shortly after midnight with popular enthusiasm, raising more than $100,000, gained impetus as the day advanced and crowds thronged the many patriotic celebrations. Gov. Alfred E. Smith purchased the first note of the issue sold in the city and William O. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, took the second and then other thousands began to roll in. The midnight celebration was preliminary to the actual opening of the campaign throughout the city today at speech-making centers at the end of parade routes. Chief among the performers today were the one hundred odd members of General Pershing's own band that were sent home especially to aid in the fifth loan. The band made its first appearance in a concert at the sub-treasury in Wall street and later marched up town to Christian Victory way, where the loan activities will center during the campaign.

Difference of Opinion Is Explained by Leader With Outline of Program Which Will Be Attempted in Germany

(By Associated Press) COPENHAGEN.—"When we secure power and are able to realize our ideals, the Spartacists will abandon their methods of terrorism, recognizing that those methods may suit Russia but that they do not suit Germany," Hugo Haase, German independent socialist leader, is quoted by the Berlin correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company as declaring in an interview.

The correspondent, who has just returned here from Berlin, says Haase told him that the independent socialist party asked for the socialization of all the great services of the country such as the coal mines, the iron mines and steel works, etc., "and so also with all the farms on great estates," he continues, "these to be worked and managed by workmen and peasants' councils."

"With regard to the soviet system," Hugo Haase went on, "there is some difference of opinion, but the main thing we want is realized in the following manner: Every factory or similar institution to select a special small committee of justice and so on, together with the right to place bills before the parliament. If reforms proposed were rejected the councils would arrange to take a popular vote."

Haase informed the correspondent that he did not consider a reactionary coup impossible in Berlin, but that he was sure of one thing: If it were acquired, could not last more than a couple of months if indeed it endured as long as that.

CLEANLINESS

Does anyone really believe that Twin Falls is not a clean town? Are there any citizens of Twin Falls who can honestly say that they have lived in any cleaner community?

Many stories of various sorts come to The News office of cases requiring police investigation, and where the stories seem to have any foundation in actual facts, investigations have been made both by The News and by the City police department upon the orders of Mayor Swin.

It is to be deplored that humanity is so constituted that a perfectly good citizen will frequently repeat and vouch for as fact, a yarn which would bring a blush of shame to the cheek of even a hardened criminal.

At the time of the recent meeting, Geo. E. Ruppert, was elected president; A. F. Perkins, treasurer. All three are officers of the Poughkeepsie Chamber of Commerce, and the body has voted its support to the harness association.

WELCOMES ENTRANCE OF WOMEN TO PROFESSIONS

England Supports Measure Granting Equal Rights in Fields of Business

(By Associated Press)
LONDON.—The house of lords has passed the second reading of Lord Buckmaster's bill letting down the legal profession to women.

Now does anyone know of a case where information of any kind of criminal activity in Twin Falls was turned over to the legal authorities and the matter hushed up or sidetracked or otherwise not acted upon?

The News knows of plenty of cases where such information has been filed, and an investigation rendered impossible because there were no facts to investigate.

We believe the present City administration to be just as anxious to keep Twin Falls clean as any man or woman in the City, in addition to which we further believe that the facts show that they have attained a greater degree of success in their efforts to do this than has been reached by nine out of every ten towns and cities in the whole country.

MORAL LEPROSY

It is impossible to impute to any one man or set of men the authorship of the little paper slip, liberally sprinkled over the city on Saturday evening in the interests of the Crom candidacy for mayor.

REPORTS NEW RIOT

TOKIO.—Special dispatches from Korea state that members of the Christian mission at Seoul, in the near vicinity, clashed with demonstrators during a riot there, the officers firing upon the mob, killing twenty and wounding many of those engaged in the demonstration.

few would utter. A silly little group of questions, dealing with subjects of no primary interest, with something of the spirit of the blackmailers to be discerned in the disposition to go back some ten or twelve years to an alleged vote on the wet or dry question. All thoroughly low and sordid and disgusting.

Mr. Eldridge has seen fit to reply to the attack. His reply should settle any question as to the public choice of a Mayor, if indeed, any question ever existed among a majority of the people of this City.

A number of persons among the Crom supporters have disclaimed all connection with the effort of Saturday evening, including Mr. Crom. The two circumlocutory candidates named upon both tickets, Messrs. Brocknbridge and McMartin, have definitely announced their adherence to the Eldridge standards.

A. Mianick stops gingerly between the high ground and the mud with a statement to the effect that he is an independent candidate. But Mr. Crom should not be permitted to escape responsibility for the efforts of his friends merely on the ground that he was not actually connected with the incident referred to.

There is more than the mere outcome of a City election involved in the resort to the tactics exemplified by the Crom supporters. There is the matter of the effect of such work upon the whole question of politics.

Does anyone really believe that Twin Falls is not a clean town? Are there any citizens of Twin Falls who can honestly say that they have lived in any cleaner community?

CROM CUT SALARIES OF CANAL COMPANY EMPLOYEES WOULD HE NOT DO THE SAME WITH OTHER LABOR?

As a member of the Canal Company Board, Crom insisted upon and brought about a reduction in the salary of a poor janitor, cutting the salary from $30 per month to $20 per month. He fought to have the salaries cut for all the ditch riders to $85 per month.

How is this for a record for a friend of labor? Is that the kind of man to pose as a friend of the laboring man?

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Clarence Rowland and his partner Hugh Brennan, the owners of the Milwaukee club of the American association, have a roster of approximately 20 players in spring training at Evansville, Ind.

President Rowland has been busy for several weeks in an attempt to gather together a winning team, and he expects to whip his athletes into shape within the next two weeks in making ready for the opening game in Louisville.

The tentative list of players follows: Catchers—Huhn, Murphy, Benton. Pitchers—Faith, Marchion, Kotelnick, Granton, Hess, Williams, Cook, North, Wald, Howard, Smith, Healey, Darringer, Bohno.

Outfielders—Anderson, Pickup. Baseball critics believe that Rowland will obtain at least one more high class pitcher, two outfielders and another infielder before the start of the season in this city.

HERE TO BOOST BIGGER OUTPUT OF BEET SUGAR

Oswald Wilson of Salt Lake, Head of Development Board, Investigates Possibilities of Industry Here.

DISCERNs FIELD FOR ADDITIONAL FACTORIES

Favors Joint Ownership by Farmers of Refineries and Is Ready to Assist in Promotion and Finance.

The beet sugar production of the Twin Falls district will be increased in value by $18,000,000 to $20,000,000 annually and three or four additional factories that will be required to produce the sugar from additional beets will be co-operatively owned and operated by the growers if Oswald Wilson of Salt Lake, president of the United States beet development board, is successful in carrying out the project which brings him to Twin Falls this week.

Investigates Possibilities.
Mr. Wilson addressed a meeting here March 22 at which organization of a beet growers association was effected, E. N. Pittino being elected president, and J. A. Cron, secretary. At that time he advanced his ideas relative to the possibilities of increased beet sugar production in the Twin Falls district now, estimating that the development here of the industry to its full capacity should mean an annual income of nearly $25,000,000.

He is in Twin Falls now with the expectation of remaining here for several days making a tour of the several districts in the area to investigate the possibilities of beet sugar production in its relation to the Twin Falls district.

Prohibition a Factor.
"It is not so much as we were attempting to build up an industry that would have difficulty in finding a market for its product," Mr. Wilson said today. "The sugar production of the United States falls far below the consumption in this country. As a matter of fact it is stated on good authority that the entire present beet sugar production of the country will be consumed in increased production of products for which demand is increased as a result of prohibition."

A German Venture.
"It is a further significant fact," Mr. Wilson added, "that the sugar of none of the elements of the fertility of our soil, which is the case in practically no other farm products." Mr. Wilson quoted in support of this assertion a statement made some 20 years ago by a professor of the University of Göttingen, Germany, to this effect: "In every million bushels of wheat purchased from America, there are 1,576, 000 pounds of plant food (nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash), which is worth 25 per cent of the value we pay for the wheat. In the 20,000,000 pounds of sugar that we sell for this wheat, there is not one pennyworth worth of plant food. The government therefore is justified in paying a bounty on all sugar exported, because in fostering and increasing the sugar industry more than one purpose is accomplished. Not only are the agricultural resources of Germany built up and the development of the beet sugar industry in the United States discouraged, but if the time comes when Germany will be compelled to produce her own breadstuffs, our rich sugar beet lands will be ready."

Commands Capital.
In respect to the possible establishment here of co-operative sugar factories Mr. Wilson said that the board of which he was the executive head, was in position to assist in the promotion and financing of such factories. It was better, he stated, that local money should be invested in such factories so far as possible.

Mr. Wilson served as a dollar a year man with the national food administration during the war and his work in that capacity related especially to sugar production. It was the purpose of the food administration to have the government declare that "co-operative sugar factories jointly owned by the farmers constitute the only method of operation that will insure a domestic sugar industry for our nation and that it will insure the immense profits in sugar production to those who are most entitled to them."

Not Looking for Fight.
"It is not Mr. Wilson's purpose, he declared, to antagonize the sugar factory operators now in the field. The demand for sugar is so great and the possibilities here for production so large that there is room for all of the factories here and several more. Mr. Wilson is associated with his son, Frank O. Wilson in the publication of "The Sugar Bowl," which in its current issue declares that "co-operative sugar factories jointly owned by the farmers constitute the only method of operation that will insure a domestic sugar industry for our nation and that it will insure the immense profits in sugar production to those who are most entitled to them."

MAKES REPLY TO ANONYMOUS INTERROGATION

William H. Eldridge Asks Voters to Study His Record as Citizen and Official in Considering Candidacy

William H. Eldridge, a member of the present city council who is candidate for mayor of Twin Falls, has replied to an anonymous communication circulated Saturday evening in the form of handbills purporting to be a set of questions touching upon his candidacy which are answered in this statement:

Question: Have you any scandalous articles, but for the information of some who are strangers to me I wish to make this statement:
Answer: Council to Have Voice

If elected mayor, all appointive offices shall be filled with the aid and consent of the members of the council. I stand on a condition of accepting the nomination, and I will use my influence with the other members for the appointment of the best men for the places.

As chairman of the finance committee of the present council, I demanded interest on daily balances in the water works improvement fund and required each one of the banks to furnish a bond.

About ten years ago I was one of a large number of business men to sign a petition against the town going dry. In common with those others, had the mistaken idea that it was better to regulate the liquor traffic by official control. It was soon demonstrated, however, that the town was better off with the present license system. I would deplore their return as much as anyone.

Representative Body.
L. F. Selleny, L. T. Wright, C. A. Robinson, T. M. Robertson and C. D. Thomas were selected by me as a representative body of men to act as managers of the campaign for the ticket that I had.

I have no interest directly or indirectly in the so-called "power interests." I am for municipal ownership of light and power wherever it can be obtained in a way that will benefit the people of Twin Falls, and will give careful examination of any plan which may be suggested as feasible. My record in the water works committee on the splendid municipal water system we now have is the best evidence of my stand on such questions.

All Distresses Here.
My entire interests are in this city and I challenge anyone to pick a flatter in my constant efforts of thirteen years.

I was nominated by a general gathering of representative people and my petition was generally circulated and signed.

I have been constantly before the people of this city for thirteen years and I defy any one to point to one immoral act in any direction.

W. H. ELDRIDGE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.
Marriage licenses were issued Saturday in Twin Falls to the following: Roy Charles Leedom and Velma Bassford, both of Twin Falls.

ORATORS MAKE ADDRESS FROM ABOVE CLOUDS

Speakers for Loan Go Up in Airplanes and Talk to Throngs by Means of Wireless Telephonic Apparatus

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON.—From an airplane flying 2,000 feet overhead an army of orators today reached President Wilson's Victory Liberty loan message to a throng of 15,000 persons, assembled at the south steps of the treasury, by the use of the wireless telephonic and a newly invented sound amplifier. A few minutes later Admiral Sims from the platform addressed the same audience through the amplifier.

Capital Takes Holiday.

The throng of government employees dismissed for the capital's opening demonstration for the loan, cheered the president's message through the air and unannounced distinctly to them by Lieut. H. E. Metcalf, a radio officer in the airplane. They craned their necks to see the plane soaring far above their heads, the words which came to them so distinctly.

"Hello, hello treasury," cried the aviator. "I am now 2,000 feet over you in plane 20070 from Bolling field. It is then read the message and concluded by bidding good-bye to the crowd good naturedly.

WASHINGTON.—Not a ripple of excitement was apparent today at the treasury on the opening of the Victory Liberty Loan selling campaign. The big nation-wide machine for the marketing of $4,500,000,000 of notes as the last big war loan had been so completely adjusted and oiled in advance that it went into operation almost automatically.

Washington had its opening celebration on the south steps of the treasury where arrangements had been made for trial of a wireless telephonic apparatus by which an orator flying in an airplane 2,000 feet above the city could deliver a speech to the crowd on the spot. Airplanes and dirigible balloons were sent up. Admiral Sims was the principal speaker in the program.

CARS COLLIDE ON ROAD NEAR CULVERT CROSSING

Book Creek Man Pinned Under Machine, Suffers Laceration of Foot

A collision on Addison avenue about three miles east of Twin Falls at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in which a Ford car driven by a young woman accompanied by a Book Creek man crashed into a Chevrolet driven by T. A. Hanson of Twin Falls, resulted in overturning the Book Creek car, pinning the man under it and lacerating his foot, and the damaging of both cars. The young woman, Hanson was thrown forward by the impact and in protecting the baby, Mary, was struck by a rail in the face.

The accident is said to have taken place as both cars approached a culvert which narrowed the roadway. The names of the Book Creek couple have not been ascertained. The man was taken to a local drug store where his injuries were dressed that he was a relative of Howard Larsen of Book Creek.

Dismisses Suit of Railways Company

May Institute Damage Proceedings Against City for Operation of Street Cars

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON.—Federal court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought by the United Railways of San Francisco to prevent the city from constructing and operating a municipal owned street car system on streets where the company's lines were upheld today by the supreme court.

In dismissing the company's appeal, Justice Holmes, who rendered the opinion, said this action was taken by the court without prejudice so that the street railway company could institute damage proceedings if it desired.

Swede Mops Up Trio of Show Performers

Charley Olson, "the terrible Swede," made a clean sweep Saturday evening of the three performers of the athletic show operating with the Bernardi Shows, including the manager of the attraction, requiring but a few minutes in each instance to pin the shoulders of the trio one after another to the mat in flash wrestling matches and claiming as his reward about $65 from the gate receipts. Olson first took on the "masked warrior," who is reported to be Art Henry of Porterville. Then he threw Ajax or Jack Burns and finally the manager himself, requiring for each a trip may be highly desirable—a little thrifty journey. See the ads.

POSTPONES OPENING OF PRICE FIXING CONGRESS

Illness of One Member Is Given as Reason for Delay in Convening Meeting

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON.—Resumption of negotiations between the department of commerce's industrial board and the railroad administration over the standardization of steel prices was planned for today, but was postponed because of the illness of Robert S. Lovett, one of the representatives of Director General Hines. The conference probably will be held within a few days.

A message from President Wilson to Director General Hines relating to the controversy was forwarded today at the White House. It was received by Mr. Hines at Seattle without being made public.

The president cabled to Secretary Redfield last week directing that the industrial board proceed with negotiations with the railroad administration.

MOTOR COMPANY SHARES PROFIT WITH WORKERS

Four Millions Are Distributed Among Employees Under Plan Announced at Beginning of Year by Heads of Concern

(By Associated Press) TOLEDO.—More than 15,000 Willys-Overland company employees today received $4,000,000 in checks in the company's first distribution of the profits under the 60-50 profit sharing plan announced last January.

The profit sharing is limited to employees who have been six months in continuous service. The employees sharing today represent 9,843 at the Toledo plant and the others are scattered throughout the United States.

The $4,000,000 represents 8 per cent of the wages paid during the first quarter of the year. There will be five profit sharing distributions during the year. The last will include any excess left over from previous profit sharing periods and the difference between book and actual inventories and other adjustments. The firm also will include a reward for length of service.

MEXICAN BORDER BECOMES ALIVE WITH NEW SALOONS

Liquor Interests Move Across River and Set Up at Old Trade in Other Quarters

(By Associated Press) EL PASO, Tex.—Juarez, the Mexican metropolis of border towns, has become a hot spot in the great American prohibition desert.

On Calle Comercio, the number of saloons has increased since the operation of the Texas ten-mile military zone law until every other door opens into a liquor room. Bars of American whiskey and wine are offered to persons permitted to cross the border under prevailing passport regulations.

Many El Paso saloon keepers who were familiar figures at famous and notorious places here have donned white aprons in Juarez. Bars and fixtures from El Paso have been set up in Juarez, slot machines have been installed and, except for the preponderance of Mexican idlers, a visitor would think he is in an El Paso bar of former times.

Boys Spread Paint With Sad Results

Probation Officer Debates Proper Penalty to Be Imposed

Probation Officer John A. Ault today is debating a fitting penalty to be imposed upon five small boys ranging from 5 to 12 years who have confessed to breaking into a residence in South Park addition in the absence of the owner and decorating in the style of the canal engineer, the interior of the dwelling, its windows and even a sewing machine inside it. Various colors of paint were used by the boys in carrying out their decorative scheme and when they left they took with them the paint brushes. It is not unlikely that the offenders will be held to defray the expense of restoring the dwelling to its original condition.
