FIRE DESTROYS NAVAL PLANES

Machines Entered for Trans-Atlantic Flight Are Burned in Accidental Blaze.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Fire at the naval air station at Rockaway beach today damaged the naval seaplanes No. 1 and No. 4, which were to start tomorrow morning on the first leg of the trans-Atlantic flight.

The wings of the No. 1 were completely destroyed and this plane may be unable to attempt the ocean cruise. It was believed that the No. 4 could be repaired in time for the "jump off." The blaze, which Commander John H. Towers, in charge of the expedition, declared was accidental, started from an electrical spark which ignited gasoline on the No. 1. The flames enveloped the wings and spread to those of the No. 4, which occupied the same hangar. Air station employees extinguished the fire.

The blaze started when workmen were fitting the gasoline tanks of the No. 1. Both the upper and lower wings, which only recently were transferred to the machine from the No. 2, were burned from their framework, necessitating complete refitting of this part of the big craft.

BELGIANS READY TO SIGN PEACE

Delegates Announce Willingness to Accept Terms as Revised by Council.

BRUSSELS, (AP)—The Belgian government has decided to sign the treaty of peace which was discussed at a council held here last night. It was announced.

The council met at eight o'clock and continued in session until midnight. Paul Hymans, minister of foreign affairs and head of the Belgian delegation at the peace conference, speaking first, announced the result. He expressed the opinion that the treaty as it now stands gave honorable and satisfactory terms to Belgium and recommended that it should be signed.

The council unanimously endorsed M. Hymans' view but was equally unanimous in expressing the opinion that the attention of the powers should be drawn to the financial and economic situation in Belgium and to the necessity that the allies assure Belgium of complete support in the economic and social reformation. The council was further of the opinion that the allies should be asked to support the initiation of negotiations with Holland regarding the reformation of the question of the freedom of the Scheldt and the waterways of the east Belgium.

SOCIALIST PARTY SCORES BIG VICTORY AT ELECTION

Swedish Counties Vote Revised Ticket in View of Recent Changes.

STOCKHOLM — (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Considerable gains made by the socialist party in the county councils elections held in Sweden recently has caused the Swedish press to drop its former prohibition platform and now stands for moderate liberalism in order to appeal to the public. That is also the policy of the conservative party.

Upon a new franchise act passed by the Riksdag last fall, the polls were open to all men and women over 23 years of age. Previously only qualified tax payers had been permitted to vote. The number of votes cast showed an increase over the last election of more than 100 per cent.

The socialist gains were mostly at the expense of the liberal party, which in all the large cities was badly beaten not only in the city but also in the conservative. In Stockholm the socialists elected 55 candidates, the conservatives 35 and the liberals 15.

BOILERMAKERS HOLD MEETING WITH BUILDERS

Convention of Shipyard Workers Discusses Extension of Navy Award Until October and Many Other Questions.

OAKLAND, Cal., (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The recent Washington conference extending the Macy shipbuilding labor award from April 1 to October 1 and vital questions affecting metal trades workers on the Pacific coast were discussed here today at the opening of the convention of the Pacific Coast Council of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders. The metal workers in coast yards from San Diego to Vancouver, British Columbia, were represented, the boilermakers alone representing 40,000 men.

Reports in opposition to the work of the Washington conference were heard by the boilermakers some of whose officers said that the conference, did not extend the desired concessions to the workers. The boilermakers convention had been planned first for Los Angeles, but was changed to Oakland in order that it might meet with the metal trades convention in session here. It was necessary for all boilermakers unions to have a set of delegates at each convention.

Arrangements for the boilermakers' convention were completed recently at a meeting of the executive committee of the council here.

Both conventions were expected to make definite announcements in regard to the Washington plan and also the proposals that the metal workers and the shipyard and contract shop employers form a coast or local conference organizations to handle future labor disputes.

GRIDIRON PROSPECTS APPEARING BRIGHTER

Outlook for Coming Season for Football Teams Looks Better Than for Many Years.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Gridiron prospects at Indiana are bright for 1919 are brighter than they have been in years.

Close followers of football who saw the first spring workouts of Coach Stohm's protégés believe that the luck of the Crimson at last has changed and that the Indiana will make a strong bid for the national championship. The huskies who will make up this year's team are drifting in from the already the bulwark of the Stohm line is in school. This number includes Pierce, a sophomore, who weighs 220 pounds and who will probably play at center or guard. Capt. James Ingles, at tackle, will prove the sensation of the Big Ten this year, according to Coach Stohm.

Risley, who played at right end on the 1917 team and who was responsible for much of Indiana's scoring the last game at Purdue, will return to Indiana next September. He is now an ensign in the navy.

DUCHESS PLANS MODERN TENEMENT FOR LONDON

Houses with All Possible Conveniences to Be Built for England's Poor.

LONDON. (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Flying schemes to replace the slums of London are abundant in these days of reconstruction, but none is attracting more attention than that in the congested district of Southwark where the Duchess of Marlborough recently purchased a tract of land.

The plan is to erect modern tenements with bathrooms and hot water on every floor and a playground on the roof. A perambulator shed in the basement is designed to eliminate the necessity of dragging heavy baby carriages upstairs. A central laundry with mechanical driers is to be located in the lower part of the building. There are now no such tenements with these conveniences in London, and some doubt is expressed as to their future popularity because of the liking of London women for "detached" or "semi-detached" houses, even though they are not modern.

The presence on the streets of a talk should serve as a reminder to the many who have so far failed to do their duty in the matter of subscribing to the Victory Loan that time flies. Already several states have exceeded their quotas and there is a lively dispute as to which is entitled to the honors.

The people of Idaho are just as patriotic as they ever were, but they have not been aroused fully to the importance of acting, now that the war no longer in active existence. They will "come through" handsomely before the end of the week, beyond a doubt if they fully grasp the fact, as they should grasp it, that unless the loan is subscribed within the time set, the credit of the nation will suffer and business and prosperity will feel the effects.

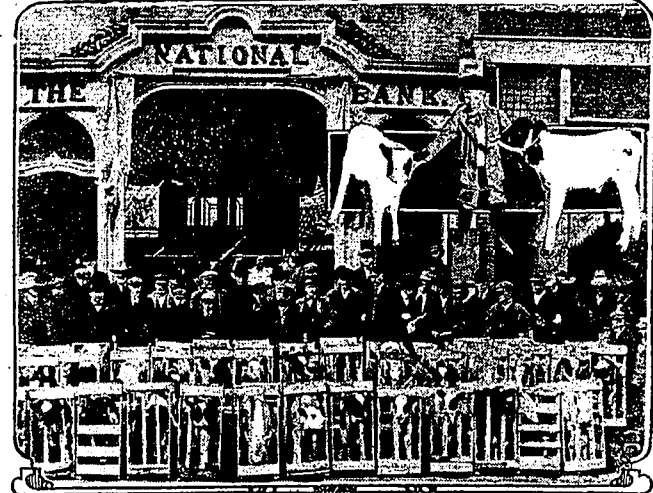

The war is technically still unsettled. The fruits of victory will not be secured until it is settled and until things have adjusted themselves. Therefore, those who subscribe are still subscribing to a very real war fund, necessary to bring back the boys and to end the war in every sense that will be a credit to all.

The charge that the people are slackers cannot be made until the drive ends, but those who fail to respond at once lay themselves liable to "contribute to the delinquency" of others by giving the impression that the people are not subscribing, and thus encouraging the weak and thoughtless, as well as those who are patriotically lukewarm, to assume that there is no great obligation resting upon them to subscribe and that the loan is not popular.

Couldn't Risk It.
A good story is told of General Glascock of Georgia. When the latter was, 70 years ago, elected a representative, a friend asked: "General, may I introduce you to Henry Clay?" "No, sir," was the prompt response; "I am his adversary, and choose not to subject myself to his fascination."

Young America Borrows Calves At Bank Now

Our agricultural forefathers went to the bank—to borrow money. The present generation of boys and girls goes to the bank, too—but their mission is to borrow calves and pigs. It is the new keynote of developing "interest in farm life." Iowa alone this year has placed nearly 1000 high grade dairy heifer calves under the care of boys and girls in the state. The bank buys the calves at reasonable prices and on conditions as they exist at the time inspections are completed, according to a recent announcement made by J. K. White, commissioner of public welfare.

Fifty thousand teachers, it was said, are directing the army of children gardeners.

LARGE SUM FOR ADDITIONS TO INSTITUTIONS

Four Hundred Thousand Dollars Will Be Spent by Idaho During Two-Year Period.
(Special to The News)
BOISE — Approximately $400,000 will be expended in the coming biennium for improvements at the several state institutions now under the jurisdiction of the department of public welfare. This figure includes an estimate of $140,000 for the construction of the northern and southern Idaho tubercule six hospitals.

Definite activity already has been begun at Lava Hot Springs, Commissioner J. A. White announced Saturday. The lava program includes the construction of two substantial public pools, the enlargement of the present state sanitarium and the installation of modern water and sewer systems. J. H. Marshall of Pocatello is supervising this work, which will involve an expenditure of $25,000.

Enlarge Homes
Architects are now preparing plans for the improvements contemplated at the Soldiers' Home and at the state sanitarium at Nampa. Two new wings will be added to the main building of the Nampa institution at a cost of $100,000. Improved refrigeration and water systems plus the installation of a dairy herd will consume a further appropriation of $40,000. The soldiers home appropriation, $16,000, includes a sum for an altered piping system in addition to the $45,000 authorized for the rebuilding of buildings destroyed by fire.

For the state asylum at Blackfoot, an improvement appropriation of $45,000 was made by the legislature. Major items include the construction of a psychiatric hospital and the clearing of 500 additional acres of farm land. The northern Idaho asylum at Orofino received plus-maintenance grant of $9,000. The erection of a new isolation hospital and the construction of several concrete barns and a large silo are improvements contemplated.

Personnel is Complete
With the return from active service of Dr. E. E. Laubach, who held the rank of captain in the medical corps, the personnel of the public welfare department virtually has been completed. Born T. Barr of St. Anthony has been named field deputy for the southern part of the state and the northern Idaho appointment is expected to be announced in the near future. Both inspectors will commence active work not later than May 15.

War Excuses Unavailing
Excuses arising from the war time exigencies having become inacceptable, prosecutions for violations of the state sanitary laws will be based entirely upon conditions as they exist at the time inspections are completed, according to a recent announcement made by J. K. White, commissioner of public welfare. "It has been brought to my attention," said Commissioner White Saturday, "that inspectors of this department are making an unusual number of prosecutions based principally upon the maintenance of public nuisances within city and village limits and upon unsanitary conditions in and about places of business which come under our jurisdiction. "It is not the policy of this department to conduct a campaign of prosecution, but it must be generally understood that these inspectors will take conditions as they find them at the time of the inspection. If conditions are discovered to be in violation of the general principals of decency and the rules of sanitation, legal action necessarily must be taken.

Labor Scarcity is Past
In the recent past, much was overlooked in the hands of the laborer, but this is no longer an excuse and inspectors have instructions to accept no excuse whatever for dirty, filthy, unsanitary conditions in public places. "It is hoped that our city officials and the various newspapers will cause this information to be given to the public that full knowledge may be had of the policy and plan of work of this department that all concerned may protect themselves from prosecutions sure to follow if insanitary conditions are found by inspectors."

WHIPPET TANK TOURS STREETS OF TWIN FALLS

Armored Car Used Effectively by American Soldiers Against Huns Comes Here in Interests of Victory Loan.

Twin Falls people today are seeing for the first time an American tank of the type used by the American fighting men with terrible effectiveness in the closing days of the war. A tank that is brightly camouflaged and one which runs on its own power lumbering through the streets after a fashion surprising the most skeptical. It is broadcast here in the interests of the Victory Liberty Loan drive, arriving in Twin Falls at noon and being met by the high school cadet band which escorted it from the station up Shoshone street to the high school and back to the intersection of Main avenue and Shoshone street where it was put through its paces by Sergeant Batmeyer and Driver Holderman, composing its crew.

On account of delays in train service, the tank will remain here only until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when it is to be loaded on board its car and sent on to Buhl to stay there until late tonight. During the week it is to be shown in Burley, Rupert and Idaho Falls. After demonstrating the number in which the tank is handled by its crew, before a considerable crowd gathered to witness the novel sight, Sergeant Batmeyer at noon today gave a brief explanation of the use of the tank in warfare. The tank of the type shown here was used principally, he said, in clearing out enemy machine gun nests. It is armed with two automatic rifles, each capable of firing 800 shots a minute. The second rifle is carried for use in emergency in case the first gun is put out of action. The course of the tank is directed by the gunner who signals by touching the driver on the shoulder or other shoulder when it is to be brought to a stop or turned to right or left. The average length of the life of a tank crew in action is three minutes, because of the high velocity of the bullets are ineffective against it, but shells, gas and tank traps are the enemies against which the tank crew has to contend.

Mr. Allen was stricken at the Roughneck-Day ranch at Sprague, while stepping into an automobile, death resulting almost instantaneously. He left a wife and a terrible shock to the community. Mr. Allen resigned as state highway engineer about two weeks ago. His resignation was in part because of the high rates until Colonel D. P. Olson, who was named as his successor, has not yet arrived in Idaho, and Mr. Allen was holding over. Mr. Allen left here Saturday, going to Sprague.

Floyd L. Autrey, Aged Five, Victim of Drowning in North Side Canal.

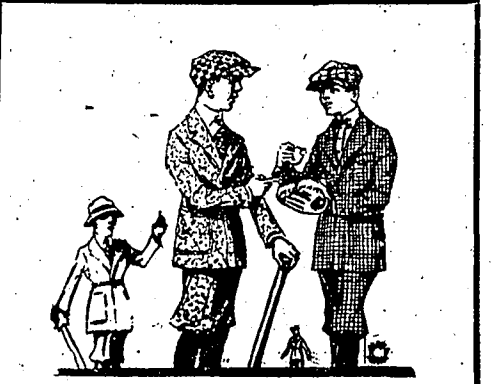

(Special to The News) HAZELTON — Missed at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon from his home three-fourths of a mile west of Hazelton, the body of Floyd A. Autrey, aged five years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Iva L.
