

LABOR RIGHTS PROTECTED BY PEACE TREATY

Clemenceau in Declining Suggestion of Germany Shows Pact Provides Better Protection Than Berne Meet.

PARIS, (AP)—The council of four has declined to consider the note from Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, chief of the German peace mission, relative to international labor legislation. In a note sent to the German delegation, M. Clemenceau says:

"Sir: I have honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of May 10 in regard to international labor legislation, together with a draft of an international agreement on labor law. The reply of the allied and associated governments is as follows:

Have Taken Note
"They take note of the declaration made by the German delegates that domestic peace and the advancement of mankind depend upon the adjustment of labor questions and they are convinced that such adjustment will be rendered easier in the future than in the past, as men's minds are freed from the burden of war and the relief of the burden of armaments which German militarism had imposed upon it."

"Part XIII of the draft of the conditions of peace provides a means by which such adjustments can be made, and section II of this part of the draft lays down the principles which will progressively guide the labor movement and the league of nations. Article 487 indicates clearly that the enumeration of the principles set forth is not exhaustive. The purpose of the labor organization is that it should promote the constant development of the international labor regime."

Interested in Treaty
"The labor convention has been inserted in the treaty of peace and Germany will therefore be called upon to sign it. In the future the rights of your country to participate in the labor organizations will be secured, so soon as she is admitted into the league of nations in accordance with article I of the treaty."

"It has not been thought necessary to summon a labor conference at Versailles. The conclusions of a syndical conference at Berne, which are reproduced in the draft of the international agreement on labor law referred to in the first paragraph of your letter of the 10th instant, had already been studied with the closest attention. Representatives of the trade unions had taken part in the preparation of the articles relating to labor."

Offer in Washington
"As appears, moreover, from the annex to section II of part XIII, page 22, the program of the first session of the international labor conference to be held at Washington next October comprises the most important of the questions raised at the syndical conference at Berne. The delegates are invited to take part in that conference and it will be held under direct rules which provide for the effect being given to conclusions subject only to the assent of the competent authorities in the countries represented."

German Plan Poor
"The draft of the international agreement on labor law, prepared by the German government, is so deficient in that it makes no provision for the representation of labor at the international conference which is proposed. It is also inferior to the provisions contained in part XIII of the peace conditions in the following respects:

Better Provisions
(A) Five years is suggested as a maximum interval between conferences (Article VII). The peace conditions provide for one year.
(B) Each country has one vote (Article VII). The peace conditions give a vote to each delegate, whether representing a government, employers or workers (Article 300).
(C) Resolutions are only binding if carried by a majority of four-fifths of the voting countries (Article VII). The peace conditions provide that a majority of two-thirds only of the votes cast shall be necessary on the final vote for the adoption of a resolution. It is not the draft of a convention by the conference (Article 405)."

Must Decline
"The allied and associated governments are therefore of the opinion that their decisions give satisfaction to the anxiety which the German delegate professes for social justice, and insure the

NICKEL DANCE INVADES LONDON

Under Name of Three Penny Jazz It Attains Much Popularity.

LONDON, (AP)—The American "Nickel Dance" is to be introduced here for the first time. If the name the London newspapers give it, it may be known as the "Threepenny Jazz."

The old American Roller Skating rink in Hammermith has been acquired as the home of the new dance temple where the "Pay As You Rag" innovation as it is called is to be tried out. When completed the pavilion will be one of the largest in Europe. In its roof and rear balcony, 5,000 persons will be able to dance, simultaneously with comfort.

Seating accommodations will be provided for 1,000. The staff will number 250.

Many Masters
There will be six masters of ceremony. If a woman has ever met, he may secure an introduction by one of the six. There will also be half a dozen attendants in the most elegant of uniforms. All employees are to be former British or American soldiers and sailors.

FRENCH FACTORIES ON A PEACE BASIS

Alterations Going on While a Small Force Is Kept at Work

PARIS, (AP)—Nearly all the French manufacturing establishments which were converted to plants for the making of war materials at the outbreak of hostilities have already returned to peace-time work. Many others which were created especially for war industries have either been transformed or are in the process of being transformed for employment in peace pursuits.

Reduced Personnel
Generally speaking, there has been a reduction in the personnel employed in all these plants, pending the completion of the alterations necessary in the equipment. Some of the peace time machinery which was adapted to war work will need comparatively few changes, but those establishments which were born of the war, such as aviation works, will have to make important alterations. Throughout the latter class of manufacturing there has been a reduction in the number of employees. Some of the war plants whose contracts have not yet expired, have kept part of their personnel busy by reducing the working day to nine, eight and seven hours.

Effect on Labor
The effect on labor of the cessation of hostilities may be seen from the figures of employment in some of the great French industries. In the case of these districts from which reports have been received the total number of the plants engaged in war work was 932. They employed before the war 261,924 men and 109,775 women. The total number of employees has been reduced now to 194,648 men and 48,763 women.

CAVELL SERVICE STIRS BRITISH PEOPLE DEEPLY

Public Funeral Held at Which Populace Showed Profound Homage to a Martyr Who Died for Humanity.

LONDON, (AP)—England paid tribute to Edith Cavell, the English nurse executed by the Germans at Brussels, October 12, 1915, today when her body, exhumed from Brussels to her native city of Norwich, was taken to Westminster Abbey for an impressive memorial service.

Multitude Packed
It was a public funeral, in which it seemed every resident of the great metropolis endeavored to participate. The streets through which the cortege moved were congested with crowds and every inch of standing room in the neighborhood of the abbey was occupied by a densely massed multitude which was eager to do fervent homage to "that brave woman," as the bishop of London described her, "who deserves a great deal from the British empire."

High Officials There
The congregation at the abbey included high officials of the government, representatives of foreign countries and men prominent in many walks of life. King George was represented by the Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mary.

The service was conducted by the dean of Westminster. No address was delivered. The opening sentences of the burial service were sung by the choir, which then sang the twenty-third psalm and a short lesson from the Revelations of St. John. Then came Sullivan's anthem, "Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death," and "I heard a voice from Heaven."

Litany Recited
The Litany, the Lord's Prayer, and two Collects were then repeated, followed by the hymn "Abide With Me." The benediction was then pronounced and the last post and reveille were sounded.

The service which began at noon lasted half an hour. The procession left the abbey to the strains of Chopin's funeral march and proceeded to the station where the coffin of plain oak was placed on a train for Norwich.

On the coffin was the simple inscription, "Edith Cavell,
"Born December 4, 1865,
"Died October 12, 1915."

Place in Carriage
At Norwich it was placed on a gun carriage and was taken to Norwich cathedral. The service which was officiated by the Rev. Canon Deuchar, was followed by the reading of the lesson I Peter II, 19, by Canon Deuchar. Then came the anthem, "I know that my Redeemer liveth," and Chopin's funeral march.

Profession Formed
While the hymn "Brief life is here our portion" was being sung, the procession formed for the march to the graveyard. There the latter portion of the burial service was conducted by the bishop, and the hymn "Abide With

AEROPLANES PROVE BEST MINE SWEEPERS

Great Danger to Ships Eliminated by Birdmen Sailing Above Danger.

LONDON, (AP)—Sweeping up the thousands of mines which strew the sea in the neighborhood of the British Isles has proved such a costly and dangerous job when carried on by the ordinary methods, that the admiralty has turned to the airship for relief. Experiments conducted in the North sea, it is announced, have been successful, mines being located and exploded much quicker than when the usual mine-sweeping ship is used.

While the airship has the advantage of height in locating mines, the more fact that an airship cannot hit a mine adds so much to the element of safety that it is expected that much of the 6,000 square miles of mine strewed waters which remain will be cleared without loss of life.

Six Drown as a Coal Barge Sinks in River

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., (AP)—Six persons, including the captain's wife and four children, and the engineer, were drowned when the coal laden barge "Santonic," owned by the Potter Transportation company of New York sank off the Isles of Shoals early today.

Captain Wm. Gray and Allen McDougall, a deck hand, were picked up by the coast guard at Eys beach after they had drifted about in a small boat for several hours. They are the only survivors.

"Me," which Miss Cavell repeated shortly before her execution by the Germans, was sung. The benediction was then pronounced and the bugle sounded the Last Post.

The funeral party which accompanied the body from Brussels to Norwich included eight members of Miss Cavell's family and prominent British and Belgian officials.

NOTES VOICED LOUD PROTEST TO CONFERENCE

Claim Put Forth That Proposed Treaty Would Lead to Starvation of Millions in German Nation.

BERLIN, (AP)—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace mission at Versailles, handed to M. Clemenceau, president of the peace conference yesterday, three notes, one of which dealt with the economic aspect of the peace terms and the effect they will have on Germany. It is pointed out in this note that Germany is no longer an agrarian state and cannot feed more than forty million people. The economic terms of the peace treaty with their restrictions of trade and other factors which are involved means, the note says, that "many millions of people in Germany will perish all the more quickly as the nation's health is already broken by the blockade."

Industrial State
The note points out that Germany in two generations has passed from an agrarian to an industrial state. As an agrarian state it could feed forty million persons and as an industrial country it was able to provide food for 57,000,000, the note declares. Before the war it is said fifty million Germans were dependent for their living upon foreign trade, shipping and foreign raw materials. The note proceeds to indicate in detail how the peace conditions would produce economic paralysis, destroy German industry and make it impossible to provide work and food for millions of people "who would be obliged to emigrate or perish."

No relief work, however large its scale or however long in duration could prevent wholesale loss of life, the note says.

"The peace terms," the note continues, "would demand of Germany several times as many victims as did the war. There have already been a million victims of the blockade."

Considers Duty
Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau concludes by stating that he considers it his duty before the peace conference, to bring these general remarks to the knowledge of the allied and associated delegates and promises to furnish statistical evidence if it is required.

UKRAINIANS FEEL THEY ARE MISJUDGED

Nobody Knows or Cares About Us, is Complaint of Leader to Correspondent.

VIENNA.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Political and military leaders of Russian or Greater Ukraine feel that they are not understood by the allied governments or the people of the allied countries.

"It is suspected by the allies that we will soon join with Russia," said Premier Ostapenko in a talk with the Associated Press correspondent at Prokurov. "This we will never do," he continued. "We have got sense enough to understand that the Russians including the Tatars are all others are fools. Nothing good politically or socially ever came out of Russia or over will. The Bolsheviks are fools, too, whereas we are not."

War Minister Talks
Speaking along similar lines, War Minister Schapoval, with whom the correspondent traveled for several days, said: "Nobody knows anything about us nor seems to care. Please tell the people that we are just like other people who live in the west. Tell the Americans that in them lie our hopes to found a new, prosperous and free nation."

Hanged Bolsheviks
Colonel Stalinev, who hanged several Bolsheviks at Tarasov, told the Associated Press correspondent that he had fought in the Ukraine for years and was willing to fight for the rest of his life to obtain independence for his country.

"We have been depleted as Bolsheviks and as anything you like to call us," he said. "But we are simple country people who are determined to make our way in the world. If the world refused us liberty now it will have to give it to us later."

Abounds in Wealth
Premier Ostapenko painted in glowing terms the present wealth of the country which abounds in coal, iron and agricultural production, but needs the production of factories.

"We are able to buy more and to export more than the whole Russian Empire," he said.

FIZZ WATER CONSCRIPT TO THE SOLDIER BOYS

Assessment Levied to Pay for Champagne Confiscated from Toul Train.

COBLENZ, (AP)—Nine hundred and thirty-one of the enlisted men of the Third United States army have been assessed approximately 27,000 francs to reimburse a French railway company for the loss of 175 bottles of champagne which disappeared near Toul last December by an army board.

The officers and men, all from the army of occupation, were on their way to an army school at Chantillon-Sur-Sein traveling by special train and according to the testimony the champagne disappeared one night soon after the Americans arrived in Toul. While a number of French soldiers were involved, testimony at the hearing did not bring out just who discovered the freight car loaded with wine nor who were the first individuals to start handling out the bottles.

The contention of the railway officials was that the wine had been drunk by the soldiers and that the Americans had had a hand in the affair and so the board decided to pro-rate the cost of the champagne among all the Americans on the train, according to their pay allowances.

Three majors, fifteen captains, nine lieutenant majors and one hundred and seventy-four second lieutenants and 647 enlisted men were involved. The railroad employees reported that the morning after the raid on the car of champagne there was nothing left of the bottles, many of which had been broken.

WIRE CHOKED MAN OF SIAM

Body of Cavalry Trooper Found Senseless After Boxing Bout in Arena.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The unconscious form of Leo Dolivigio, a Siamese member of a cavalry troop, with his throat tightly bound with strands of wire, was found in a tent at the presidio military reservation here tonight when he had failed to appear in the main bout of a boxing contest which was being held at the army post. Surgeons said his recovery was doubtful. He was in his ring costume when found.

Taken by Negroes
According to the presidio authorities Dolivigio said he had been taken from the dressing room of the fighting arena by four negroes, carried to the tent and that they then had endeavored to strangle him by wrapping wire around his throat.

Recently Reassigned
Dolivigio, the authorities said, had been assigned to a negro contingent and later upon his request had reassigned him to a white cavalry troop. Soldiers at the post said there had been evidences of race feeling between certain members of white and colored troops and that an attempt recently was made by negroes to compel Dolivigio to say he was a negro and to return to the company to which he originally had been assigned.

BIG DIRIGIBLE READY TO FLY

Crew Feel Fine After First Voyage and Would Cross the Atlantic Ocean.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., (AP)—The C-5 was ready for a flight across the Atlantic her commander, Lieut. Commander Coll, declared as he stepped out of the dirigible's basket. Both the crew and the machine stood the trip well, he said. As yet, he added, no orders had been issued for future movements.

Made Fine Landing
Yth Lieutenant D. P. Campbell at the wheel, the big bag made a perfect landing within the narrow confines of the old cricked field used as an anchorage. It had been seeking St. Johns for several hours, its radio having been out of commission for a time. Lieutenant Commander Coll said, and the last few miles of the journey was made by following the railroad track to this city.

Had Its Troubles
The "blimp's" troubles began shortly after midnight, the commander said, when the sky became overcast. Before that time the dirigible had operated under a full moon, flying at an altitude of 1,000 feet. The big craft lost its bearing when approaching Little Miquelino island, off the south coast of New Foundland and about 170 miles from St. Johns.

England in Forty Hours
Officers working on plans for the C-5's possible ocean cruise estimated that with favorable conditions a flight to England could be made in forty hours. This would tax the dirigible's fuel capacity almost to the maximum and if head winds developed it might prove necessary to shape the course to the Azores where fuel ships already are awaiting the several crews of trans-oceanic seaplanes.

Trip Bought Ever
Lieutenant Commander Coll described the trip as the roughest he had ever made. He gave credit for completion of the voyage largely to Lieutenant Campbell and Lieutenant J. V. Lawrence, both of whom, he said, were weary "and almost seasick," but stuck to their posts.

Made Wrong Landing
"We made a 'land fall' at St. Pierre, but found ourselves on the west instead of the east shore of Placentia bay," said the commander. "From this point we attempted to follow the Chicago's radio directions, but they did not work. For the moment we were lost. We started 'cross land' and saw about all of New Foundland, and I must say this is the 'doggonest' island to find anything on I ever struck. Eventually, we hit the railroad track and followed it to Top Sails, which we identified and continued on to St. Johns. There was considerable fog, but it did not trouble us."

Bear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, in command of the aviation base, greeted the C-5's commander, who with his brother fliers, was bundled into an automobile and hurried to the Chicago for a late breakfast. After making a report to Washington which was expected to prompt a decision as to whether the balloon would return to the United States or attempt the flight to England, the aviators turned into berths prepared for them on the cruiser.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

The statement of Premier Clemenceau in reply to the German protests against peace pact plans for the solution of the labor problem will tend to allay some apprehension in regard to the steps taken by the conference to secure the rights of workers.

The French prime minister calls attention to the fact that the labor provisions incorporated into the treaty were placed there at the suggestion of representatives of organized labor and that they are largely based on recommendations of the Bern conference and are superior to the plans proposed by the Germans.

Granting the good intentions of those who drafted the treaty including the league of nations covenant in which is incorporated the labor program, the sole question now is whether this plan will work in actual practice in such a way as to result in a substantial advance toward the goal sought.

That it will go the whole distance at once, like the genie in the Arabian Nights, is unthinkable. There is a world of wisdom in the following comment from the New York Evening Post on this matter:

A large measure of disappointment is obviously the portion of those who expected the league of nations to rise in complete and harmonious beauty on a perfectly levelled ground of pure principle, on a site cleared of all local and selfish pre-occupations. No such disappointment awaits those who looked forward, not to the rise of a beautiful architectural monument, but to the birth of a living thing, and like most new-born things, hot at all a thing of beauty, the features yet to take perfect form, the eyes a little weak to the sun, awkward, red-faced, squalling a good deal—but alive. Much more desirable than a lovely and completed monument for people to look at and leave out of the common reckoning is a living organism qualified to function.

Corn Opening Stronger CHICAGO, (AP)—Although some weakness was shown in the corn market today, prices later developed considerable strength. At first, the chief influence was the announcement that beginning May 20, the government would have moderate quantities of wheat for sale. Opinion gained ground, however, that the effect of such sales would be slight and transient. Corn prices, which opened unchanged to 1-2c lower, with July $1.61 3-4 to 1.63 and September $1.54 to 1.55, were followed by an additional sag and then by an upturn all around to well above yesterday's finish.

Oats displayed firmness from the outset. Improved eastern demand was the reason assigned. After opening 1-8c off to 1-2c up, with July 66 to 68 7-8, the market continued to ascend.

Trading in provisions was nearly at standstill. Quotations were without important change.

OUR THREE BIG ARGUMENTS WHY YOU SHOULD SEE THIS PRODUCTION:

- 1 It invades a new field of story. It uses the old South for its background, and it deals with people who actually existed and have left their imprint on the history of the nation. It explores a new domain of drama, and it brings forth a story with the highest power of entertainment and interest.
2 It represents a combination of great star, great director, and great cast. William Farnum's name is enough. E. A. Walsh, the director, is today the greatest man in his line of work. Also, Jewell Carmen and Charles Clary are names to conjure with.
3 In time and expense, nothing was spared to make "The Conqueror" the greatest motion picture ever conceived. Eight months were consumed in filming this masterpiece of cinematography. Almost half a million dollars were expended in the production. Two thousand people figure in many of the scenes, and some of the incidents require the use of 600 horses.

TALKS ON TASK AHEAD OF THE NEW PIONEERS

Dr. Ernest H. Lindley Delivers Inspiring Address to Members of Graduating Class and Audience at Commencement

"We should take off our hats to the past, but we must take off our coats and roll up our sleeves to the present," said Dr. Ernest H. Lindley, president of the University of Idaho, concluding his address on "The New Pioneers" to the members of the graduating class and an audience filling the Lavender theatre to capacity Wednesday evening on the occasion of the twelfth annual commencement exercises of the Twin Falls high school.

Based on the stage with the members of the graduating class on this occasion were Dr. Lindley, Supt. Hal O. Blue, Principal M. C. Mitchell, V. H. Decker, president of the board of education, and Rev. Conrad L. Owen, pastor of the Baptist church, who delivered the benediction and, in the absence of Rev. Elmer Grant Keith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, kept home on account of illness, offered also the invocation.

Graduating Class.
There were 68 members of the graduating class, 25 of whom were young men and 43 young women. Five young men who would have graduated with the class of '19 are now in the military service.

The stage was effectively decorated with gold and black, the colors of the graduating class, festooned from a large American flag forming a canopy over the center, and at the rear the figures 1918 in gold shone out from a black background.

Instrumental music was furnished by the high school orchestra directed by Miss Jessie C. Simpson, and Miss Marie Roberts sang a group of songs with Miss Zelma Larmore at the piano.

Defines Pioneer Spirit.
Dr. Lindley was introduced by Superintendent Blue.

Defining the pioneer as one who faces danger and darkness to open new zones of safety and opportunity, Dr. Lindley said that the new pioneer is equipped with test tubes, the microscope and a head full of statistics instead of the gun and ax with which the old pioneer accomplished his purpose, but at heart both the old and new pioneers are distinguished by the same qualities, courage, presence of mind and the passion to solve one's problems.

Change is inevitable with progress, Dr. Lindley declared. "The faint-hearted and the weak must go to the wall, while the courageous, the unconquerable and intelligent, who are the pioneers, meet the new conditions fairly," he said.

Gives Realm of Action.
Dr. Lindley indicated three fronts along which the new pioneer is at work, designating them as the realm of external nature, of mind and of a social order.

The possibilities of external nature have been scarcely touched he said. In the realm of mind, he declared, the pioneers have made the revolutionary discovery that the laws which will enable men to control the mind and utilize it fully instead of to the extent of about 10 per cent are about to be revealed.

"The new social order," Dr. Lindley stated, "is replete with opportunities for individual advancement. It also affords a wonderful opportunity for consideration and work to give each his turn at the feast of life. The law of combination, as it is being discovered and applied to existing social relations is opening up new and wonderful possibilities for human achievement and happiness."

Dr. Lindley illustrated this point by relating the statement of a man who was installing a chimes of six bells to the effect that if he had one more bell he could play 200 more tunes.

Trend Toward Team Work.
"The churches and the fraternal orders," Dr. Lindley said, "are apprentice groups in the new social order. Sometime they are going to flow together and stay together, giving more attention to the 85 per cent of things they have in common with those outside the organizations and less to the 15 per cent in which they differ."

The neglect of recreation, Dr. Lindley declared, is the most tragic waste in this country. Organized recreation, he said, will release latent power, develop physical strength and bring about a mental rejuvenation of the race.

In respect to the present status of international, economic and industrial relationships, Dr. Lindley asserted, we are "over lava," but, he predicted, we will "muddle" through to higher and safer ground.

"Who will possess the world within the next ten years?" Dr. Lindley asked and answered the question with a tribute to the "problem solvers" the pioneers of the new order.

Recently Formed Organisation in Twin Falls County Invites All Eligible as Members to Be Guests.

The American War Mothers will hold an open meeting at the Presbyterian church basement, Monday afternoon, May 19, at 2:30 o'clock, at which time they will entertain as guests all mothers of sons and daughters who served in the late war. There will be a short business session followed by a program, after which there will be an informal general reception at which light refreshments will be served. In announcing this meeting, the officers, Mrs. T. H. Irwin, as war mother, and Mrs. David Brown, as secretary, stated that they need all war mothers and that all war mothers need them.

Elks' Committee Considering Plans

Selection of Architect and Finance Arrangements Come Before Meeting.

The Twin Falls Elks' lodge building committee is meeting this afternoon to select an architect and to make detailed plans for the organization of a building association to finance the erection of a five story building involving an estimated expenditure of $225,000, and to be situated on four lots at the corner of Shoabone street and Second avenue north recently purchased at a cost of $35,000 by the lodge.

Tentative plans for the building provide for leasing of the first floor to a business house, use of the second and third floors and club and lodge rooms, and the providing of apartments for Elks in the fourth and fifth stories.

Toward the building fund about $75,000 already has been raised by subscriptions of members of the order, and the committee has set $100,000 as the mark for subscriptions to be secured. Bonds or stock returning 5 per cent on the investment are to be issued to the subscribers.

Members of the building committee are Acher B. Wilson, C. J. Hahn, V. H. Ormsby, J. E. Sallaway, J. S. Keel and H. E. Deiss.

STOCKMEN HOLD MEETING TODAY

Organize System for Bringing Growers Closer to the Packing Interests.

CHICAGO, (AP)—A committee of fifteen, representing various livestock producing interests, met here today to organize a system for bringing the growers into closer touch with packing and shipping interests. The meeting was an outgrowth of a conference held here about two months ago when the producers rejected a packers proposal for a joint committee to supervise relations between the chief livestock interests. The producers chose instead to organize a committee of their own which would handle their general problems but not be bound by joint action.

ALCOHOL CONTENT OF BEER HELD TOO HIGH
Attorney General Says Two and Three-fourths per Cent Intoxicating.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An opinion to the effect that the brewing of beer containing 2 3/4 per cent alcohol is illegal was given by Attorney General Palmer to Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper, but officials explained that it would not operate to stop the manufacture of this beer pending a decision by the federal district court of New York in a case now under consideration.

Ask Further Information
The internal revenue bureau asked for an opinion as to the sale of revenue stamps for beer containing one-half of one per cent of alcohol and more, making of which the internal revenue bureau has held to be prohibited.

He declined to make any statement as to the course he would pursue to obtain title to his seat, pending appeal of his case to the United States supreme court.

CARNEGIE STEEL REQUISITIONED FOR THE NAVY
Order Which Amounts to Taking Under Emergency War Legislation Placed with Famous Steel Works.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Acting under authority conferred by war emergency legislation, the navy department last evening placed an order, or what amounts to a requisition, for 14,000 tons of steel with the Carnegie Steel company. The steel is to be used in starting construction of four battleships, the work on which must be begun before July 1.

Decision Reached
Decision to requisition the steel was reached yesterday at a navy department conference at which it was found that the bids submitted yesterday for the 14,000 tons were the same as bids which previously had been submitted and which were based on prices agreed upon between the steel manufacturers and the now abandoned industrial board of the department of commerce. The previously submitted bids were rejected on the grounds that they showed no indications of competition.
