

AMERICANS IN ENEMY LAND TO BE PROTECTED

Those Losing Property in Germany Will Get It Back; More Light on Propaganda Given by Attorney General.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Americans temporarily resident in enemy territory during the war will have little difficulty in having their property returned to them under the new conditions following the signing of the armistice, Attorney General Palmer today told the Illinois Bar association, discussing the work of the alien property custodian's office.

"When the enemy character of persons rests solely upon their residence, it will be soon that by change of residence into non-enemy territory, they lose their enemy character. The attorney has adopted a liberal interpretation of the act, which permits such persons when they lost their enemy character to be treated as if they had always been non-enemy persons and to have their property returned upon a proper showing of loyalty."

Better Than Turning Back.

American citizens who lost their property in Germany will be allowed, in the opinion of the attorney general, to present claims to this government, which will see that they are reimbursed from German holdings here. It is stated that would be much better than turning property back to Germans, for he foresees that the Germans would not be welcome as business men upon American soil within the next decade at least.

Much new light on the work of running to earth enemy interests in the United States was given by the attorney general who was also custodian before he entered the cabinet. He recounted how it was discovered that 18 German-owned insurance companies and the big Oranstein-Arthur Koppel company, near Pittsburgh, manufacturing dump cars, cranes and railroads, insisted always that plans of the factories of the firms with which they did business, including United States Steel, Bethlehem, Midvale and Carnegie, should be furnished so that the blueprints might be sent to the home office in Berlin.

Made His Suspicious.

"I am not a suspicious person," Mr. Palmer said, "but when I discovered that our great munition plants were being blown up and that the bonds were always planted in the most vulnerable spot in a mill by somebody who knew every foot of the plans of those mills, I began to wonder whether there was any connection between those circumstances. It is still one of the unsolved riddles of the war."

Mr. Palmer said the Oranstein company asked Ambassador Von Bernstorff to intercede with Berlin to allow them to take a contract from the German government because they could help win the war for Germany by failing to deliver the goods.

GRAVES OF AMERICAN DEAD TO BE DECORATED

Knights of Columbus and Boy Scouts Will Put Flowers on Graves in Europe.

LONDON, (AP)—On Memorial day wreaths will be placed by the Knights of Columbus on the graves of all American soldiers, sailors and marines who were buried in the British Isles during the war. There were nearly 3000 deaths in the American forces at hospitals and camps in England, Scotland and Ireland. There will be a wreath for each grave with the name of the dead soldier or sailor and this inscription: "He died that we might live. In grateful memory from his fellow countrymen. The Knights of Columbus of the United States, May 30, 1919."

American graves in France and Flanders also will be decorated by the Knights on Memorial day.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Graves of the American dead in France will be decorated on Memorial day with wreaths provided by Boy Scouts, Col. I. H. Livingston, their chief, announced today. President Wilson has been asked to arrange for the placing of the wreaths, for which each Boy Scout contributed two cents.

Allies Prepared to Enforce Terms Should Germans Refuse Demands.

LONDON, (AP)—The allied blockade council at Paris has completed all the arrangements for putting the blockade of Germany again into force in case the German delegates refuse to sign the peace treaty, while complete plans have been worked out for the fullest co-operation between the military and economic forces which will be employed in case of necessity.

Immediately following a failure of the Germans to sign the treaty, Germany will be given seventy-two hours notice of the termination of the armistice. On the expiration of this period the British, French and American will advance into Germany. Simultaneously the blockade will be enforced as tightly as possible.

LANE URGES LAND BILL

Goes Into Details in Regard to Measure for Returning Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Early passage of the bill to provide employment and rural homes for those who served with the military and naval forces in the great war was urged today by Secretary Lane before the house public lands committee. Mr. Lane explained in detail features of the measure, which he declared already had been endorsed by forty states.

Secretary Lane said that for 62,000 soldiers had expressed a desire in writing to obtain farm projects under the government plan.

Replying to an inquiry by Representative Baker, democrat, California, as to the provision permitting the withdrawal of public lands suitable for farming projects, Secretary Lane said that while the powers in this respect were rather broad and might do injury, it was the intention to withdraw only such lands as were actually needed for reclamation purposes. He said he had heard no complaints from the west on this score.

Secretary Lane's bill was introduced today in the senate by Senator Smoot, Utah, and referred to the public lands committee.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING FOR FARMERS PERMITTED

KOREANS SUFFER FROM JAPANESE

Conditions of Those Wanting Independence Is Continually Growing Worse.

PEKING, (AP)—Conditions in Korea resulting from the independence movement there where the Koreans are endeavoring to shake off the rule of Japan are becoming worse, according to the Rev. Edward W. Thwing, Oriental secretary of the International Reform Bureau who has just returned from Korea.

"The Koreans began the independence movement with the intention of using only peaceful methods," the Rev. Mr. Thwing told the Associated Press correspondent. "But the Japanese officers have so treated them and killed them up that they are now wild and reckless. No one can tell what will come next. Seeds of hate and future trouble are being widely sown. The Christians suffer the most. I have visited several places in Korea during the uprising and everywhere it is the same kind of cruel, military lawlessness. One Korean Christian pastor said: 'We cannot stand it. They beat us like pigs and cattle; and we are men.'"

Hunt Supposed Plots

"The Japanese are always trying to discover supposed plots and conspiracies," continued the Rev. Mr. Thwing. "They even claim to believe that the missionaries started the revolution. They try to get Korean spies to go into the houses of foreigners. They search the houses of American missionaries, looking for one who knows what. In a town that I recently visited, we were shadowed by a Korean who was believed to be by a missionary as the cleverest spy in town."

"The Koreans hate these men. Of course, being spies, they have to bring information and what they can find none they often manufacture it. Many have been arrested who had no connection with the affair and have been cruelly beaten. At the police station they often beat the men before any trial on the general principle that it is a good thing for every Korean to taste the power of Japan."

Pershing Praises the Jewish Welfare Work

PARIS, (AP)—General Pershing has expressed his appreciation for the splendid services rendered to the American Expeditionary Force by the Jewish Welfare Board. In a letter he has sent to Colonel Harry Cutler, chairman of that board, the American commander said that from the opening of his work in the summer of 1918 the representatives of the Jewish Welfare Board, during the remaining months of hostilities, did valuable work among the soldiers of the Jewish faith and others.

Helped Since Peace

"Since the signing of the armistice," General Pershing wrote, "you have grasped the opportunity for increased recreational facilities and have increased your personnel, opened additional club rooms at important centers and shown a commendable eagerness to cooperate with the army and the other welfare societies, and to bear your full share of the responsibility for keeping up this important work until all the troops can be returned to America."

REINSTATEMENT OF SHIP CONTRACTS IS PLEDGED

Chairman Hurley Admits Individual Injustices Which Will Be Rectified in Short Time

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Reinstatement of contracts with Pacific coast shipyards which may have been unjustly treated in the cancellation of orders for steel ships since the signing of the armistice was promised by Chairman Hurley of the shipping board, at a conference today with west coast shipbuilders and senators and representatives from California, Washington and Oregon.

The builders told the shipping board that they had not been fairly treated and Mr. Hurley conceded that probably some individual injustices had resulted from the suspension of contracts.

Robinson Talks

Harrison Robinson of San Francisco, spokesman for the builders, said 1,745,324 tons of steel vessels had been built by the 18 Pacific coast yards between August 3, 1917, and May 15, 1919, or 55 per cent of the total production in the United States during that time. When it came to cancellations, he said, the board had left the yards with 750,000 tons of contracts, cancelling 785,000 whereas on the Atlantic coast 2,250,000 tons were being built. Pacific coast costs, he said, were $199 a ton, while at Hog Island had averaged $256 per ton on the first 17 ships.

"We'll not know the cost at Hog Island until 25 or 30 ships have been delivered," Chairman Hurley interrupted him. "I think your costs are a little high."

Had to Provide Costs.

Mr. Robinson rejoined that the government was furnishing the plant at Hog Island and had to provide for other costs as well which the Pacific coast builders were taking care of themselves.

Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, demanded to know why the board was continuing at Hog Island, and Mr. Hurley responded that it was because the yards was a silt hand.

WAR PROBE IS NOW PLANNED

Inquiry Will Be Made in Regard to Expenditures of the Administration.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Plans of the republican leaders of the house for investigations of expenditures of the war department took definite form today when Representative Graham of Illinois prepared a resolution providing for appointment of a special committee of 15 members to conduct such an inquiry. Immediate consideration will be asked.

May Extend Field

While the resolution refers only to war department expenditures, republican leaders said the field of inquiry might later be broadened to include disposal of the president's $100,000,000 war fund and the activities of the war risk insurance bureau.

Republican leaders, including Speaker Gillett, Floor Leader Mondell, members of the legislative steering committee, and others are understood to have agreed on Mr. Graham's course of action. They plan to have the committee begin work soon. Mr. Graham is expected to head it.

BUENOS AIRES TRAMWAY LINE HAS A STRIKE

Workers in Argentine Capital Tie Up City Transportation; Conflict Starts Between the Printers and Newspapers.

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—A strike on the city's tramway lines will begin at midnight tonight. It is expected that the drivers of taxicabs and other passenger vehicles will join sympathetically in the strike movement. Meanwhile the newspapers of the city are confronted with serious labor difficulties. One of the daily journals the Diario Espanol, has closed its plant and all the others are considering closing down indefinitely following a refusal by the printers to set the advertisements of a department store which has been boycotted by all the trades unions because it refused to meet the demands of strikers. The directors of fifteen of the newspapers held a meeting last night at which it was decided to give the printers until Wednesday midnight to do the work required of them or face a lockout similar to that recently put into effect for a week by La Prensa against the journalists' union.

Organized Recently.

This union which was organized in April, appears to be disintegrating as a result of the organized lockouts on the part of all the newspaper directors, with the exception of three government organs. It is declared that all the representative newspaper men have resigned from the organization, maintaining that they had been hoodwinked in joining a "Bolshevik agency," masquerading as a newspapermen's union. The union appears to be well supplied with funds from a source unknown to any one, it is said, except the Spaniard who is its titular head.

LONDON, (AP)—As a result of a fire in a building occupied by Americans troops in the Coblenz district and the explosion of a munitions dump yesterday, 80 men are missing, according to a Cologne dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

Ludwigshafen is in the French area of occupation.

DEMOCRATIC EFFORT IN SENATE DEFEATED

Senators Penrose, Pennsylvania; and Warren, Wyoming, as heads of the finance and appropriations committees, respectively.

The vote on the republican committee assignments was 49 to 42, and was reached after three hours of sharp contest between republicans and democrats, the latter failing to secure separate votes on chairmen. After the republican committee slates were approved, the democratic minority assignments also were adopted.

Americans Work on Russ Roads

On Verge of Desert They Struggle to Reorganize a Demoralized System.

TATBIKAR, Manchuria, (AP)—Right at the edge of the great Mongolian desert, Major George T. Tow of Eau Claire, Wis., and eleven other American engineers, have labored throughout a rigorous winter, helping the Russians run their great Trans-Siberian railroad, now disorganized and sorely in need of American assistance. These sturdy men form a section of the corps of workers organized by John F. Stevens, the American engineer, in an attempt to reorganize the railroad.

"We've had it 35 below zero here," said Major Tower to the correspondent of the Associated Press, "but we are used to it. Still, it is cold. You can't deny that and the nights are pretty long."

The major said he and his associates had charge of the railroad section between Tiatkar and Hallar, and that 147 locomotives were assigned to their section. They were always waiting for the time when they would be given a bigger opportunity to help in reorganizing the railroad.

Both Tiatkar and Hallar are great centers for the soy bean industry for which Manchuria is famed. Also, the district abounds in cattle.

REGULATE BY ORDINANCE

There has been a great deal of complaint recently in regard to the taking of autos by boys, who have the habit of driving the machine thus commandeered for a time and then leaving it in some out of the way place where it is usually located later by the officers at considerable expense to the county or city, and inconvenience to the owner.

The trouble in securing legal punishment arises from the fact that such action constitutes felony and is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, and no jury will send anyone to a state prison for the offense.

It would seem that the only way to reach this peculiarly annoying offense is to experiment with city ordinances until some form of punishment for molesting cars belonging to others which would be enforceable and prevent the commission of such offenses has been reached.

AN UNFORTUNATE SLIP

It is unfortunate that a man who has done such a brave thing as Hawker did, and who came so near succeeding, should have shown the degree of jealousy that is manifested in his jealousy that the crossing of the Atlantic by the NC-4 was not a great achievement.

The obvious retort would be that the NC-4 got across the ocean without help and that Hawker failed to get across in his aircraft. As a matter of fact the placing of ships every fifty miles had nothing to do with the success of the American flight. It was a wise precaution. The experiment was a new one. The hydroplane might have failed to get across, as the Hawker machine did, and in that event it would have been a poor consolation to say that they made a brave effort to cross the ocean without taking proper and available precautions to save themselves in case of mishap.

Hawker is quoted as saying that the placing of ships every fifty miles indicated that those in the hydroplane had no confidence in the motor. Again it is easy to retort that Hawker had placed confidence in his motor which it did not deserve.

Water on which he depended for cooling seems to have boiled. His wireless machinery "went dead" and he failed in his frequent not to say frantic, efforts to get in touch with ships that had been instructed to try to get messages from him, and finally the whole flight collapsed, and he and his partner were rescued by a lucky accident from a watery grave.

All these things do not detract from his daring or from the fact that he is a great aviator. Since he was not lost, the weaknesses which developed in his aeroplane will point out what changes shall be proven necessary in order to make flight safe in the future. This, in fact, is the practical value of all the flights over the Atlantic. The same things would have been discovered had there been ships placed along the route.

Reunishment and chagrin under the circumstances are natural and a reasonable degree of tolerance should be extended. Still it is a pity that he displayed the temper that he did. Admiral Peary, returning from the North pole, denounced as fraud the claims of Dr. F. A. Cooke to previous discovery, without having at that time proof that Cooke was perpetrating a fraud, and did it with such virulence that the latter made capital out of it for years afterward, and the whole issue was clouded for a long time.

In this case, however, there is no question about what the American navy did—the ocean was crossed. On the other hand, Hawker unfortunately failed. Under such circumstances it is not surprising that the several hundred British guests at the Daily Mail dinner last night who had applauded the American achievement to the echo greeted with silence the unfortunate slip of the brave Australian who so nearly succeeded in his brilliant attempt.

Chinese Murder Is at Last Avenged

Gulprit Appealed from Lower Court and Found Sentence Changed to Death.

SHANGHAI — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—One of the most remarkable murder cases in the history of China, an outgrowth of the political conflict over the presidency of China in 1913, has just been concluded with the execution at Peking of Hung Chiao-son for the killing of Sun Chiao-ian.

The extraordinary phase of the case was the fact that Hung was first sentenced to life imprisonment but appealed to the supreme court of China with result that death sentence was imposed instead of life imprisonment.

New Machine Growsmore The new garrotting machine for the execution of murderers was used for the first time in Hung's case. Its work was effective but done in so ghastly a fashion that the executioners left the room without ceremony. The murder of Sung Chiao-son was considered a political crime. Sung formerly was minister of agriculture and commerce and, when he was assassinated on the platform of a railway station at Shanghai in 1913, was a candidate for the presidency. He was one of the leaders of the southern party opposed to Yuan Shih-kai, who then was provisional president of China and a candidate for election of president of the permanent government soon to be established. The party of which Sung was a leader was headed by Sun Yat-sen and was strong in the southern provinces. Leaders of the southern party alleged there was a political plot to keep them out of office and that President Yuan Shih-kai (since deceased) knew and approved of the activities of some of the plotters.

Died Suddenly

The premier of Yuan's government, Chao Ping-chun, was alleged to have been one of the instigators of Sung's murder but he died with tragic suddenness. Two others alleged to have actually killed Sung were arrested but died mysteriously before being placed in prison.

This left Hung alone to solve the mystery. For several years he kept away from Shanghai but during the war returned here disguised as a monk and even appeared in court in a dispute over some property. He was recognized by the son of Sung, was arrested and, six years after the crime, has been executed for it.

The Barbary Coast

From all the facts it would seem that Twin Falls is to be treated to a picture of a most unusual and entertaining sort in the presentation of the Fall of the Barbary Coast at the Lavering tonight and Friday night.

The picture is described as treating of a little known and slightly understood topic. The scenes are realistic to a degree and so far as possible only fact happenings have been employed in the making of the film.

The piece has been running for some time now and a peculiar feature of its popularity is to be found in the fact that in a majority of all places where it has been shown, the demand for a return date is insistent. Where a second showing has been given people have been turned away by the hundred. This is true of the city of Spokane and numerous other towns have had the same experience.

A feature of the performance here will be the lecture accompanying the picture by the author, Grace Marbury Sanderson. Miss Sanderson's recital is said to be of rich dramatic interest and the story itself is one of gripping intensity from first to last.

Federal Validation of Rates Requested

President Kingsbury of Bell System Would Prevent Future Financial Embarrassment.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Enactment of permanent legislation validating the present increased telephone toll rates and placing the telephone systems of the country under federal regulation so as to prevent financial embarrassment of the systems when they are returned to private ownership was urged before the senate interstate commerce committee today by N. C. Kingsbury, vice-president of the Bell Telephone and Telegraph company.

Mr. Kingsbury was the first witness before the committee at hearings on legislation looking for the return of the telephone and telegraph properties. Questioned regarding revenues of the Bell properties under government operation, Mr. Kingsbury said the government lost $2,629,477 from August 1, 1918, to last May 1 under the contract made with the Bell company.

During the hearing Senator Kellogg said enactment of legislation affecting the telephone companies before the proclamation of peace was impossible, because of the size of the problem involved.

Return of the telephone properties at once was urged by F. P. McKimmon, the vice-president of the United States independent telephone association. He also recommended that congress make provision for the compensation of the companies while under government control and that some cognizance be taken of their financial conditions at the termination of the period of control.

Temporary situation of the present intrastate rates in effect until their fairness can be determined by the various state commissions also was asked. The witness estimated the government's deficit in the operation of independent telephone companies at $600,000, exclusive of companies with which the government has no contracts.

PARIS, (P)—The play in the first two days of the singles tennis tournament of the inter-allied games, under the auspices of the American army, on the courts of the Racing club of France in Paris resulted in the elimination of all players but two Australians, two Americans, two French, one Canadian and one Czech-Slovak. All the Rumanian and Serbian players were eliminated Tuesday.

Henry C. Breck of America, and R. Lyett of Australia, had a strenuous contest Tuesday which went to five sets. The Australian who holds the English indoor doubles championship and many Australian titles, lost the first two sets to the American, but came back strong in the third and fourth. Lyett lost the fifth set 6-9. One of the biggest aspects of the tourney was the defeat of Nicholas Stenim of Rumania (who defeated the French champions, Andre Gobert and Max Decugre, last winter) by J. Sammezzoli of France.

IN the United States Army tests at Marfa, Tex., the Marmon 34 was driven 5044 miles, heavily loaded, at an average of 157 miles a day. Mountain grades, stony roads, deep mud and blistering sands were traversed with indomitable endurance and reliability. And under these trying conditions the Marmon averaged 12.6 miles per gallon of gasoline, and 1440 miles per gallon of oil.

Having established this incomparable record, the same Marmon car made a sealed run of 2,931 miles additional—from Marfa to Washington, D. C.—on its original tires. This time it averaged 13.26 miles to the gallon of gasoline, and 1302.8 to the gallon of oil.

Due to its light weight, motor efficiency, oilless bearings and automatic lubrication, the Marmon again and again has demonstrated that no car in the world of equal size and power is so economical in operation and maintenance.
