Heads to Retire—The correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger declares that President Ebert and Premier Scheidemann would rather retire than affix their signatures to the treaty.

The memorial drawn up by the delegates goes into all details of the situation which would result from not signing and comes to the conclusion that these effects would not be as bad as those that would result from yielding.

INJUNCTIONS ARE OPPOSED BY THE LABOR MEETING

Federation Adopts Strong Resolution Denouncing Their Issuance and Advocating a Disregard of Conditions.

CLAIM THEY ARE ONLY JUDICIAL USURPATIONS

Conservatives Carry Resolution in Face of Bitter Opposition for Restricting Immigration of Radical Element.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., (AP)—The American Federation of Labor in a resolution adopted at its convention here today condemning what were declared to be "usurpations by the judiciary" of the government's legislative and executive powers, recommended that organized labor should disregard injunctive decrees of courts on the ground that such decrees violated rights guaranteed under the constitution.

Would Restrict Immigration—The federation also adopted a resolution favoring the restriction of immigration during the reconstruction period.

The radical element bitterly assailed the idea, while the conservatives insisted it was necessary as a means of protecting American labor from "exploitation by vested interests."

Duncan Opposed Resolution—When the question of prohibiting immigration had been introduced, radical delegates all over the hall demanded to be heard.

"If you put this over we will start a counter movement in Seattle. This is in effect, an amendment to the espionage law. It would prevent free communication between the workers of the world. I want to know about this. The newspapers tell me that you understand that immigration to be a

SHORT TALK BY PRESIDENT TO

EFFORT TO END COAST STRIKES IS BEING MADE

Negotiations Under Way with the Telephone Workers and Linemen in California and Nevada to Settle Strike.

CANVASS SHOWS THAT AN ACUTE CONDITION EXISTS

Miss Brewer Empowered to Act for National Organization; Postal Telegraphers Reject Offer of Company.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Negotiations to try to end the strike of the telephone workers and linemen in California and Nevada were begun here today.

A canvass of the situation indicated a more acute strike condition. Miss Julia O'Connor, president of the national organization of women telegraphers from Atlantic City authorizing Miss Lillian Brewer, business agent of the operators in Oakland, should represent her in all strike matters.

Reports from other cities in California showed little if any change in conditions brought about by the strike of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

After conference late last evening union officials stated that the action of the Postal Telegraph company in announcing that striking employees who return to work before June 20 will be reinstated "with continuity of service" will have no bearing on the strike.

Union leaders said conferences in Atlantic City by American Federation of Labor officers probably would result in placing the entire situation before President Wilson.

Charles P. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said the strike of telephone operators and linemen in the Pacific coast district might be extended to other states included in that district unless demands are met.

Secretary Wilson denied that the labor department was being operated solely in the interests of organized labor.

The secretary charged that there had been a systematic and persistent campaign of misrepresentation carried on against the employment service because of its efforts to recruit only union men for shipyards at Seattle, Wash.

Secretary Wilson denied that the labor department was being operated solely in the interests of organized labor.

Secretary Wilson said the service furnished hundreds of thousands of men to yards in other parts of the country operated on an "open shop" basis.

"The policy of the department," said Secretary Wilson, "has been to promote the welfare of labor without doing so at the expense of any other portion of the community."

Some complaints have been received by the secretary he said, that his department had discriminated in favor of organized labor, but when an investigation had shown such to be the case, the person guilty had been reprimanded.

Wants Co-operation—Necessity for co-operation between the federal government and the states in minimizing unemployment was urged by Secretary Wilson and other department of labor officials at a joint hearing of the senate and house labor committees on the bill of Senator Kenyon, republican of Iowa, to establish a permanent United States employment service.

WILSON VISITS RUINED REGION

Presidential Party Taken to Parts of Belgium Devastated by War.

BRUSSELS, (AP)—President Wilson, who reached the Belgian capital last night after a day's trip from the border which took him through the districts devastated by the war, began the second day of his visit to Belgium this morning by motoring to Charleroi with King Albert. The king expected to show the American executive the destruction wrought by the Germans in the wholesale and systematic destruction practiced by the Germans.

A luncheon at the American legation, the appearance of the president before the Belgian chamber of deputies and his reception by Cardinal Mercier at Malines, were a few of the features on today's program.

BRUSSELS, (AP)—President and Mrs. Wilson, with King Albert and Queen Elizabeth as their guides, today saw the devastation visited upon Belgium by the Germans. The first part of their visit deeply affected not only Mr. Wilson, but those accompanying him. The second phase was of an entirely different character.

In the forenoon almost no residents were encountered. In the afternoon the appearance of the president at Ypres, Ostend, Zeebrugge and finally Brussels, was made the occasion of demonstrations that might have been accorded a country here. With the President and Mrs. Wilson were Miss Margaret Wilson, B. M. Baruch, Norman Davis, General W. W. Harts, Herbert Hoover, chairman of the American allied food commission, and Commander Baker.

Breakfast on Train
The night run from Paris ended at Adinkerk, just across the Franco-Belgian frontier, where King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and a party of Belgian officers waited to receive the president. The Americans had breakfasted on their train and stepped out of it prepared for their long drive.

Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, accompanied the king and queen and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson throughout the trip and explained conditions along the way.

Through the little station building, which had been elaborately decorated, the party moved to a long train car and began its trip into the shell town and, as yet, abandoned country.

Made Many Stops
From time to time the cavalcade halted to permit the visitors to study of close range some of the devastation or some piece of destruction that was unusually thorough. Nieuport was the first halt. President Wilson, who was riding with King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Mrs. Wilson, who descended from the next car, and walked through what had been the city of Nieuport to the ruins of the cathedral, the only houses that were intact or even habitable were one or two frame shacks which were recently erected for the entertainment of tourists.

From Nieuport eastward along the old line of trenches to Dixmude where the lines at one time almost touched each other, the party alighted to examine the nature of the trenches. It then went on toward Ypres. All that part of the ride was in an almost deserted country. There were very few refugees and there could be seen little attempt toward reclaiming the soil.

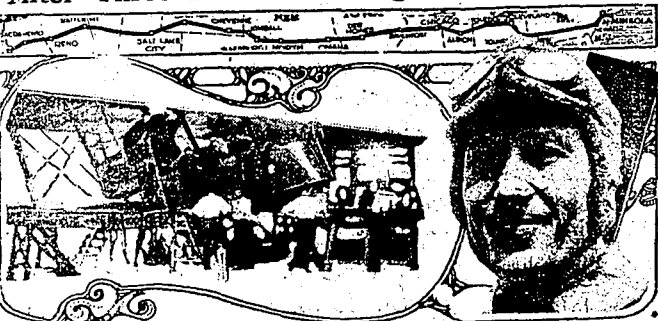

Few People Are Left
It was like a dead country. Here and there a civilian was encountered but always his face expressed seeming hopelessness. Ypres, however, showed a somewhat greater display of animation. Notwithstanding the terrible destruction wrought there, a few former residents have found their way back and a dozen or more frame buildings have been erected to serve as hotels, restaurants, drinking places and small shops. They reflect the only industry in the place, catering to tourists, both official and unofficial.

A semblance of civil government has been restored in this district and the burgomaster appeared before the president, thanking him for what America did for Belgium. The British garrison and a number of British nurses added to the crowd that gathered to welcome the party. The work of salvaging was material on the Ypres battlefield is almost completed but enough remained to add to the depression of the king and his guests. Scores of broken and broken tanks on both sides of Ypres served to justify its characterization as "the tank graveyard."

Lunch in Picnic Style
The party lunched in picnic style in the Houthout forest. This piece of woods, like all others in that zone is but the skeleton of a forest. It was well back of the old German lines. In Menin where the worst destruction was least marked, the people gave the party the first real greeting of the day. The town was decorated and apparently all the inhabitants were in the streets. The word had gone out that the king's guests were President Wilson and his wife, and after this time whenever the party passed through a town it seemed that every man, woman and child was in the streets. Schools were either dismissed or the pupils were brought in a body to join the demonstrations. It seemed there was at least eight children for every adult, and although Mr. Wilson failed to respond to all the cheers, it was only rarely that he failed to answer the cries of "Vive L'Amérique" and "Vive President Wilson" from the youngsters.

Visit to Ostend
The visit at Ostend was most interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were taken out to the Mole, which was broken last April by the British and from there, as the resting place of the had tons of vessels which were sunk in the channel to the sea. At Zeebrugge, Captain Carpenter, former commander of the British battleship Vindicator, which participated in the attack on that U boat base and which was later sunk at Ostend, Captain Roy N. Francis, U. S. Air Service set out after three records in his flight across the continent from Mincola, N. Y., to San Francisco. The long distance non-stop record, world duration record and world record for number of passengers carried on long distance flight. One stop, at North Platte, Neb., a 100-mile hop, was the task set for the Martin bombing machine. Forty hours, including an eight-hour stop, was the scheduled time of the trip.

MONTENEGRO IN BAD CONDITION

Little Clothing Left in Country After Close of the Great Struggle.

NIKSICH, Montenegro, Via Paris, (AP)—Montenegro is in a pitiable state. The inhabitants are destitute. Dwellings are burned or smashed by shell fire. The young men are gone. There is no food left in the country. The city dwellers have no livelihood. Each day the American Red Cross gives everyone a kilo of bread of two quarts of thick, meaty soup. American nurses visit the sick from sun up to sun down, each nurse attending to about 50 sick persons daily.

Before the war most of the clothing worn by the Montenegrois was made by the women at home, either of linen or wool. "Only a small number of officials and tradesmen used imported cloth. During the war everything was made and now the home supply is out off because there is not enough labor to produce food and no one can spare time for spinning or weaving.

Huddle in Huts
As a result Montenegrois men, women and children are clothed in burlap sackings. There is not enough sackings to go around and the mountaineers huddle in their huts during inclement weather. When one of their number, generally a child, is sent after the Red Cross for medicine he or she is supplied by making round-bottom collection with sufficient sackings to keep warm during the journey to the relief station.

Malaria and tuberculosis are common and the children suffer much from it. Due to the general filthiness of conditions in the mountains and the mountain towns. In the former real Prince Mirko, son of King Nicholas, near Podgorica, American doctors and nurses maintain a fifty bed hospital and treat daily about 80 patients. The surgeons' principal work has to do with bullet wounds.

Soup for Multitude
At Danilograd the Red Cross main soup kitchen dispensary. Here in Niksich the Red Cross feeds twelve hundred persons in its soup kitchen, making no distinction between royalists and those who favor the Jugo-Slav state. The Red Cross also cares for three hundred people housed in the six rooms of the local "poor house" whose condition is most wretched.

At Cetinje the Red Cross feeds three hundred people daily in its soup kitchen and maintains a hospital. Owing to the hostility to foreigners shown by Montenegrois almost the only foreign element found in the interior towns are American soldiers and of these and workers in American Red Cross uniforms. The American army trucks and ambulances are driven by chauffeurs largely drawn from the ambulance service in France.

Undoubted Proof.
An eminent pianist was about to give a recital in a large hall. As the audience was filling in a man staggered up to the door and presented a ticket. "You cannot go in," said the official in charge; "you are not in a fit condition." "Didn't I pay for my ticket?" asked the man. "Isn't it in order?" "It's all right," was the reply, "but you—you are all wrong—you are in excellent!" "Intoxicated? Of course I'm intoxicated! If I wasn't do you think I would come to a piano recital?"

Eh? What?
A Wilkes-Barre, Pa., telegram runs as follows: "H. M. Beck says that the odor of a woodcock is very distinctive to many animals and he has known dogs that were splendid retrievers, and other game birds positively refuse to pick up a woodcock."

met the party and with Captain Nevins, senior officer, accompanied Mr. Wilson, at the request of the king, explaining how the attack was made.

Brussels was reached at 9:15 o'clock tonight. Through the cheering crowds in the streets and past buildings bright with the flags of Belgium and the United States, a president was taken to the palace where he was presented to members of the household. He was fired with much driving at necessarily high speed over roads that had been repaired comparatively early. His hosts have planned a program for tomorrow which will take every minute of his time and last at night. Part of the day he will deliver at least three addresses.

CATANIA HOPES TO BE CHICAGO OF EUROPE

Italian City Will Be Great Depot for Trade in Mediterranean Sea.

CATANIA, Sicily, (AP)—Hopes of making Catania, the "Chicago of the Mediterranean," have been established in the hearts of many Sicilians since the stabilization of affairs in Europe seem to be promised by the new peace treaties.

Catania expects to become the warehouse center for the accumulation of the vast commerce beyond the Black sea, a territory extremely fertile and rich in minerals and oils. Situated at the strategic point, just about half way in the Mediterranean and within the easiest access of Marsellos, Barcelona, Genoa, Naples, Venice, Trieste and Fiume, it prides itself on being the most likely gateway between the eastern Mediterranean and the western. Even with commerce coming beyond the Straits of Gibraltar, it is pointed out by Sicilians, Catania can with more ease be utilized as the distributing point for the Spanish, French, Italian, Balkan and African countries.

WOMAN LIVED LONELY LIFE ON HIGH MOON

Mattie Rooney Played Robinson Crusoe Act in California Vale in Hills.

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mrs. Mattie Rooney, 55, left her peaceful home in Swetley, near here, unannounced, and for nearly a month was the object of a state-wide search by her friends, aided by the police of many cities.

Pananga Canyon is a natural path leading from the San Fernando Valley, a narrow but fertile strip of land on the plateau above Los Angeles, to the sea. On a high mountain overlooking this scenic canyon, Mrs. Rooney took up her abode in a lonely cabin.

Had a Garden
Three donkeys, five dogs and a parrot were her only, but constant companions. Mrs. "Robinson Crusoe," as her friends now call her, planted a garden to vary her diet of the wild game she shot and the fish she caught in the sea below.

And so she lived happily for nearly a month. But her friends found her and now Mrs. "Crusoe" is once again Mrs. Mattie Rooney and lives again in her peaceful home at Swetley.

VERMIN SPREAD TYPHUS FEVER

Destitute Masses of Bosnia Die Like Sheep from Spreading Plague.

SPALATO, Bosnia, (AP)—Fifteen percent of the population in Bosnia is absolutely destitute. Typhus is on the increase both in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Although only 800 cases of typhus are officially reported the American medical authorities believe that there are more than 3,000. Great difficulty is experienced by the authorities in inspecting Mohammedan homes where three-quarters of the cases are believed to be concealed.

Mohammedan women refuse to be treated by male doctors no matter how serious their illness. Many of the Christian natives think it unmanly to have the attention of a doctor or nurse.

Not Afraid of Death
"We are not afraid to die," the hardy mountaineers assert when medical aid is offered them. "Why all this fuss? Disease is a curse from God but if He sees fit to send it to us we must like men."

WOOLLEY WANTS ROAD CONTROL PERIOD LONGER

Member of Interstate Commerce Commission Says Vicious Circle Will Be Started by Return of Lines to Owners

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va. (AP)—Return of railroads to private operation during the readjustment period would occasion a necessity for increased freight rates that would mean a rise in prices in this country.

It isn't far sounder economics, said Mr. Woolley, to take care of any deficit from carrier operations out of the national treasury, whose coffers are replenished through taxes levied where they can best be borne, than to force by their return an increase in rates.

Must Raise Rates. In the end, he said, when labor and raw material costs had been raised to a level commensurate with the rate advance consequent upon return to private ownership, the railroads would find themselves in exactly the same position as before the advance and the interstate commerce commission upon a showing of inadequate revenues by the railroads, must again authorize an increase in rates.

YOUTH PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF FORGERY

Probate Court Deals with Case of Two Leads Admitting Guilt of Forging Bad Checks

Murrell Smith, aged 17 years, of Filer, in probate court Tuesday entered a plea of guilty to the charge of forgery and was bound over to the action of the district court. Young Smith is accused of forging the name of his father, Cloyd Smith, to a check drawn in the sum of $25, which he cashed in here some weeks ago. It was recently the complaining witness in a case brought by the prosecuting attorney against another youth who was charged with stealing from Smith $15, in money and a watch bought with the proceeds of the forged check. He has been a prisoner since that time.

Probate Judge O. P. Duvall Tuesday had to deal also with the case of a Buhl boy who admitted writing $25 worth of checks without funds in the bank to cover them. The court gave him three days in which to make the checks good. He promised to do so with the assistance of his father.

STAGE SET FOR D. O. K. K. FEST

Twin Falls to Be Treated to Unique Event Among Visiting Lodgemen.

The stage is set for the D. O. K. K. ceremonial to be held here this evening following a street parade the promises to furnish a novel spectacle to most Twin Falls citizens, and a central feature of the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Idaho grand lodge, Knights of Pythias in session here this week.

A blue fox or two, indicating that wearer was a member of Acca Temple of Pocatello, which is to conduct the ceremonial, appearing on the street last evening, served to yarn the undiluted public of the approaching festival.

The nature of the ceremonial cannot perhaps, be better indicated than by a quotation from the official announcement of the event, as follows:

"Hail votaries! Once more the trumpet sounds calling together the faithful to the faithful gather at the Temple gates on Thursday, June 19, at 8 o'clock. There and at that hour the veiled prophet will utter the mystic words in response to which the Temple gates will swing wide and all will seek enjoyment may enter. Tyros, to seek tempting and tantalizing, have gathered together for the sacrifice of Troyanus, the crying tiger, he been kept without food for some days and roars for Tyro meat. So let he be fed, our Royal Visitor commanded us on Thursday evening that June 18 he shall be fed and it behooves every faithful member of the tribe of Acca to be present. So blow your trumpet, Aralos. Ceremonial conducted by Acca Temple, No. 200 of Pocatello."

OLD SURVEY IS LAWSUIT CASE

Court Issues Injunction Against Claimants of Twin Falls Land.

A late development in the long standing controversy as to the validity of land holdings under the old government survey of the Twin Falls country was recorded Tuesday when District Judge W. A. Babcock issued a temporary injunction in the case of Thomas Cowtoll and John Crocker against Thomas Tyrie and others, restraining the defendants from erecting buildings and molesting the defendant's crops and ditches south of the Snake river rim rock on lands about six miles northwest of Twin Falls claimed by the plaintiffs and described as follows: Lots 2, 3 and 4, section 23, township 9, range 10.

The defendants, it is alleged, have established themselves on a part of the lands covered by the legal description and claim interest on such portion as lies north of the rim rock or Snake river canyon wall traversing the property. The issuance of the restraining order followed the filing of an amended complaint in the case, wherein the plaintiffs seek the expulsion of the defendants from the premises.

Walters & Hodgin are attorneys for the plaintiffs and S. T. Hamilton for the defendants.

LOVELESS BOY RIVER'S VICTIM

Lad Sent to State Institution from Here Meets Death While Swimming.

Harold Loveless, 15, who with his brother, Lynn Loveless 13, was committed from Twin Falls county three years ago to the state industrial school at St. Anthony, after they had confessed their guilt of the murder August 22, 1916, of F. Thomas Hamill, was drowned Wednesday afternoon while swimming in the Snake river, according to telephoned message from J. Fred Williams, superintendent of the institution, received here today by Probate Judge O. P. Duvall.

The boy has been recovered and probably will be brought here for burial. Mrs. J. A. Pennywell, mother of the boy, is a resident of the South Park addition.

According to the statement of Superintendent Williams, Harold Loveless had made an excellent record at the institution and as a reward for his good conduct he was permitted certain liberties. In company with a monitor of the school Wednesday afternoon, he was permitted to go on a fishing trip. After fishing for some time he presented the wish to bath in the stream. Against the advice of the monitor he went into the water and was strangled, apparently by cramps. The monitor endeavored to rescue the boy, but was forced to leave him when the drowning youth clutched his throat and almost strangled him.

Utah Men Arrive to Promote Co-operative Plant Projected for Filer.

F. S. Forman, a member of the faculty of the University of Utah, and F. O. Wilson, assistant editor of the "Beet Inquirer," Salt Lake, arrived here Tuesday to be identified with the campaign for the promotion of the co-operative sugar factory projected by the Twin Falls Co-operative Beet Sugar company to be built in the vicinity of Filer. They expect to open offices here in the near future. Both men possess qualifications with the prospects for the beet sugar industry in general and particularly in their relation to the Twin Falls country. There is on the Twin Falls North and South Side tracts, Mr. Wilson stated, "more proven sugar beet land than there is in the entire state of Utah."

"The BARRIER"

The Smashing, Powerful Drama of the Great Northwest—Alaska the Last Frontier. 1898

REX BEACH'S Most Famous Book—read by millions

Prior to the great gold rush Alaska was a silent and trackless land—a land of vast white and purple distances—

A Land of Mystery and Forgetfulness

Its pioneers asked only to be left alone. Curiosity was a cardinal sin, thievery was unknown. A land where a lock and key was never used. Then followed the Klondyke gold discovery. A tide of strangers set northward—some were good and some were very very bad. Characters portrayed by Rex Beach as no other writer can—everything about "The Barrier" is powerful—characters, plot and incidents. It is bigness spelled with capital letters. The mountain, desert, lake and river scenes are beautiful and picturesque—a wonderful eight-part production. Produced by Rex Beach and his own selected company.

Mrs. Houghton declared that the world war had brought about a culmination of the work which the G. A. R. and its allied organizations had carried on for years, that of establishing one flag for one united country.

"Out of the world war America has gleaned what it never had before, a real United States," said Taylor Cummings. He spoke briefly on the plan of organization of the American Legion and of the St. Louis caucus, and declared that "no man on horseback will ride out of this war into political prominence on the steed of the Legion because its members are more concerned about the welfare of the nation than of any individual."

Douglas Davies related some of his experiences as a member of the Canadian forces. "It is a safe estimate," he said, "that one-third of the members of the Canadian army were born and reared under the Stars and Stripes."

Hold Joint Session

Wednesday's sessions of the G. A. R. and allied organizations were given over for the most part to business meetings in which the election of officers had large place. During the afternoon a joint session was held in the auditorium for the purpose of hearing the address of Mrs. Houghton, and the reception of a committee bearing the greetings of the Idaho grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, in session here this week.

Tribute to Old Soldier

"Wherever and whenever the United States is honored, you are honored," Lt. Col. Patch said, addressing the Grand Army men last evening. "Every old soldier's grave says in simple yet enduring words, 'Love your country.' If we forget you, we are unworthy of our heritage. The greatest and most abiding monument to your heroism is our united country today." This speaker also paid a handsome tribute to the women who have stood bravely behind the American fighting men in all conflicts.

Lt. Col. Patch spoke briefly on the part played in the world war by the men from the northwest and particularly by the Idaho men under his command in the 146th regiment. "No finer body of men ever graced the uniform than the members of the first division made up of men from the northwest," he said. "They were giants morally, mentally and physically." It made no difference, he said, whether a man served in this country or overseas, because in the army a man serves where he is ordered to serve.

First by Guns at Front

The speaker's reference to Idaho officers who had been called upon to fill important posts in overseas service and his mention by name of Captain P. E. Snook of the dental corps, and of Lieutenant J. G. Terry, leader of the 146th regimental band, was received with applause.

"When they wanted the first regiment to fire the heavy guns at the front they came to Idaho — to the 146th," he said. "Going into action on July 14, this regiment for four days and nights maintained a continuous bombardment, and on the fifth day they laid down the barrage for the forward movement. At five o'clock that morning the infantry went over the top and that evening the first division crossed the Rhine."

SENATORS MIX IN DISCUSSION OF KNOX MOTION

Thomas Says It is Uncalled for Effort to Dictate; Spencer Introduces List of Amendments to Pact.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Adoption of the Knox resolution regarding the league of nations and the peace treaty would be interpreted as an uncalled-for effort by the senate to dictate to the peace conference. Senator Thomas, democrat, Colorado, said today in opposing the measure. The Colorado senator to declare itself not an applicant to declare itself not against accepting the league as intertwined with the peace terms was improper and unwise. Before Senator Thomas spoke, Senator Spencer, republican, of Missouri, introduced a resolution proposing that the senate declare that application of the Monroe doctrine must be reserved entirely for national legislation. The resolution went over without action.

World Exempt Many Things
The Spencer resolution would declare that the tariff, immigration and like internal questions are "matters to be determined entirely by the country in which they arise and under no circumstances questions for settlement under the league of nations."
The resolution would declare also that the "United States cannot bind itself in advance to either make war in the future or to send its army and other lands for purposes of control."

Senator Thomas declared the Knox resolution raised fundamental questions regarding the power of the senate in treaty making and also of expediency of an expression by the senate.
Charge Partisanship
Replying to Senator Knox's charges that the democrats had made the league a partisan issue, Senator Thomas chose the round table of the last session against the league, "on which the name of the republican leader led all the rest." Democratic senators Mr. Thomas said, were given no opportunity to sign the document.
"The republicans," he continued, "have recognized this senate. They have thoroughly recognized the committee on foreign relations. It is an open secret that no new senators were eligible to membership on that committee."
Say Committee is Packed
Senator Pomerehne, Ohio, a democratic member of the committee interrupted to remark that the republicans ob-were "not satisfied until they had given three or four more amendments to the committee and Senator Williams, democrat, of Mississippi, challenged any republican senator to deny "that the committee had been stacked against the league."

The challenge started a partisan clash so heated that Vice-President Marshall repeatedly admonished senators against breaking the rules. Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, a new republican member of the committee, said his objection to membership had been "stacked against the president only in the sense that he is a democrat and I am a republican."
"No," shouted Senator Williams, "you have stacked it against the hope of world peace as well as against a democratic president. You have left on it only one republican favoring the league, Mr. CoCumber, of North Dakota, and the reason you left him was because you didn't care to take him off." Charge Peace Delegation Stacked
Senator McCormick, republican, Illinois, declared it might also be said that "the peace commission to Paris was stacked with democrats ready to bow to the will of the chief executive."
Senator Williams replied that the Paris conference at least had done its work while the republican senators through the Knox resolution were "asking for time to think when, if you had any capacity to think at all, you'd have thought of going into this house."
Senator Thomas said he was bound to accept Mr. Knox's disclaimer of partisanship, adding:
"But I insist that actions of his colleagues speak louder than protests made here and indicate a partisanship I regret to see."
Thomas Disapproves
Declaring that he desired to be entirely fair, Senator Thomas said he disapproved the statement of the Democratic chairman of the democratic national committee, declaring the league a partisan issue.
Proceeding with his prepared address, Senator Thomas said the resolution might "serve to stimulate German resistance to the treaty."
Irish Resolution Embarrassing
Pointing out that the Knox resolution was preceded by virtual unanimous adoption by the senate of the Borah resolution requesting a hearing at the peace conference for representatives of the so-called Irish republicans, Thomas said:
"The fact of that resolution alone was embarrassing to our delegation. It is in direct conflict with the principles of the Knox resolution. It is a part of the fight that has gone into this war to secure independence for the Irish Sinn Feiners," he declared, adding that the element for whose representatives a hearing was asked was "composed of Germany and attempted to disrupt the British empire," during the war.
In discussing the constitutional powers of the president and senate, Senator Thomas said the senate had the right to advise the president—and the president had the power to accept or reject any executive branch," said Mr. Thomas.

ADAMS CHOSEN ROTARY CHIEF IN SALT LAKE

Atlanta Man Elected President Without Opposition; Strong Dissent from Plan to Endorse Compulsory Arbitration.

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Albert E. Adams of Atlanta, Ga., first vice-president of the International Association of Rotary clubs in convention here, was today nominated, without opposition, for president of the association. This is the first time in the history of the Rotary association that a presidential candidate has had no opposition.
Arbitration Considered
Opposition was voiced this morning by delegates to the convention to the adoption of a resolution calling for the principle of compulsory arbitration in disputes between capital and labor. It was the sentiment of many delegates that Rotary's attitude be one of conciliation rather than compulsion, and opposing the adoption of a definite program in the face of changing conditions. Arguments on the relation of employer and employ were being continued late today and tomorrow.

PUBLIC UTILITIES IN BAD CONDITION

NEW YORK, (AP)—Testimony that the general situation upon the country's public utility corporations is most discouraging and that wage increases, higher cost of materials and kindred circumstances have greatly decreased the financial strength of the companies, was given here today by William Howard Taft as first witness at the federal railway commission's hearings into the problems of public utility finance and service.
Mr. Taft said he understood the street railways, city and suburban, in the United States represent an investment of $2,000,000,000 and that while he powers of the world was a presumption. "I don't think any encroachment of the executive upon the legislative branch of the government—by Theodore Roosevelt himself—can compare with this encroachment by the legislative upon the executive branch," said Mr. Taft.

thought it not impossible that there was much watered stock none of it had been issued in recent years.

Wages Were Low
Mr. Taft declared that as a member of the war labor board, he and his colleague, Frank P. Walsh reached the conclusion, he said, that in public utility companies generally the rate of wages paid was considerably lower than it should be.
"The war labor board, he said, decided that labor was as much entitled to independent consideration as to employers and so, from the first, he said, it flatly refused to consider the financial condition of companies in adopting what seemed a fair and proper rate of wages. This decision was followed by a recommendation to take up the problem and reach and report adequate findings."

SHANTUNG BASIS OF FUTURE WARS

Professor Jenks Fears Action of Paris Conference Is Trouble Breeder.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Jeremiah J. Jenks, of the University of New York, told the house immigration committee today that the greatest danger of war in the future lay in the action of the Paris peace conference in awarding to Japan "the alleged claims" of Germany in Shantung.
"The award," said Prof. Jenks, "seems contrary to the principles of right and justice, so contrary to the development of democratic principles in the war, so contrary to the principles for which America and the allies fought that unless some factors enter that do not appear, the decision is almost certain to bring about war in the Far East and in that war the United States would almost certainly be involved."
Chinese Democratic
"The Chinese are normally democratic in their ways of thinking and living and they will not readily yield in the long run to military domination such as that award involves. However much the Japanese may attempt to disguise it by explanations, the United States cannot afford to countenance such a setback to democratic principles."
HAVILAND MACHINES LEAVE FOR THE BORDER OF MEXICO

LODGE TALKS OF BOLSHEVİK IDEA

Warns Students Against Visionaries Who Plan Sudden Reformation of Humanity.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., (AP)—Lessons for America in Germany's military aggression and in Russia's Bolshevik rule were emphasized in an address here today by United States Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, at the commencement exercises of Harvard university.
Discussion of Germany's war power, Senator Lodge declared, now is the best guarantee of world peace. Misery wrought by Bolshevism in Russia, he asserted, proved that reforms must come slowly, by education and that present conditions may be endangered "by vainly striving for a glittering impossibility."
In discussing peace efforts and Germany's course, Mr. Lodge said:
Thought Over
"At the close of the last century there was a quite general belief that serious wars would not come again. Some dreamed and for their skepticism were called 'lingoes,' 'war lovers' and 'pessimists.'"
"But almost every one felt sure that if war should again break upon us its horrors would be reduced to the lowest point and that by the convocations of Geneva and The Hague, the sufferings and cruelties of past wars would be largely eliminated."
"Suddenly the great war came. Germany esteemed by all as highly civilized nation, entered deliberately upon a course of savage cruelty worse than any ever imagined. The world had known barbarism before, but never had anything fallen upon men comparable to the scientific, wholesale atrocities carried on by Germany by which not merely individuals but entire communities were subjected to the most hideous sufferings and the most utter ruin which highly trained minds entirely destitute of humanity could devise."
"At for treaties and laws they went in the fierce flames of war as quickly as the dry leaves of autumn when a spark falls among them."
"The beautiful scheme of making mankind suddenly virtuous by a statute or a written convention was once more exhibited in all its weakness."
Destruction of Hun Sole Assurance
"It is a melancholy reflection that the most assurance of the future peace of the world lies in the destruction of the German war power, which is worth all it costs."
"Once again comes the harsh lesson that all the advances of most in morals and in altruism in charity and gentler manners and purer laws, all that really remain with us, come slowly, never in a moment."

"I fervently hope," I said to the Harvard graduates, "that you will have visions and dream dreams, but do not forget that having visions is one thing, while being a visionary, especially a visionary whose visions and ideals are stage properties, is quite another."
"Bolshevism a Warning."
Russian Bolshevism, he said in conclusion, presents a warning to America in its "awful results of a scheme which its authors pretended and their dupes believed would make all men happy in a moment."
"In letters of fire," said Mr. Lodge, "this Russian scene says to us 'This way lies ruin.'"
"Does the United States tell us trumpet-tongued that the country for which this younger generation has died is still the best hope for mankind and that it must be preserved as their fathers preserved and saved it in the days that are gone? Be Americans first, Americans last and Americans always. From that first foundation you can march on. Abandon it and chaos will come as when the civilization of Rome crashed down in irremediable ruin."
"A window placard, 'For Rent,' does not cost much—and a chance to be upon it to find you a tenant may be a very costly matter."
"Forethought—planning ahead—is better than reversal. Read the ads before being misled."
