FRANCE WILDLY ENTHUSIASTIC OVER SIGNING

Clemenceau Voicing Sentiments of Nation. Declares Time for Which Country Waited Years is Here.

QUOTES WILLIAM TO SHOW GERMAN INTENT

Carnival Reigns; Supreme in Paris; Buildings of Cities Illuminated but British Press is Colder Skeptical.

PARIS, (AP)—“We have waited 40 years for this moment,” exclaimed Premier Clemenceau as he opened the dispatch announcing that Germany would sign the treaty. At the meeting of the council of three this afternoon, “For forty-nine years,” he continued, “the mailed fist of retired (German troops) who was governing Germany has oppressed the world. Whether the man's name was Bismarck or William II it was still the same retire of the middle ages surrounded by soldiery and drunk with wine.”

“Do careful, keep your powder dry. Be careful. Remind the world that it is living on a barrel of that powder.”

“This retire's dogma, that might is right, that a state's only obligation is to its own interest, that treaties do not exist when they clash with the interest of state and get rich by any means. We know from witnesses who were at the side of William II that when he learned of the Sarajevo tragedy, he did not keep a keener of the powder, cried: ‘The hour has struck. Now we shall see what an army is.’”

PARIS, (AP)—Celebrations over the German decision sign the treaty of peace without reservations were nowhere more enthusiastic than at Lille and other cities and towns in territory won back to Germany.

Newspapers printed special editions, cheering crowds paraded the streets and the houses were decked with allied flags. At Lille the latest instance being the sinking of their interned fleet in Scapa Flow, and therefore it would be premature to celebrate peace until the treaty is actually signed. Even afterward, it is said, allies must be continually on guard until the last penny is paid.

British Distrustful

LONDON, (AP)—Profound distrust of Germany was the predominant note in London press comments on the German government's decision to sign the treaty of peace. It is contended that the Germans proved themselves treacherous throughout the war, the latest instance being the sinking of their interned fleet in Scapa Flow, and therefore it would be premature to celebrate peace until the treaty is actually signed. Even afterward, it is said, allies must be continually on guard until the last penny is paid.

SALVAGING IS POSSIBLE FOR SUNKEN SHIPS

Several Can Be Easily Raised Unless Storm Should Come; French Press Censures Britons for Affair.

LONDON, (AP)—Three of the German warships which their crews attempted to sink at Scapa Flow Saturday have been beached and the Baden is moored in readiness for beaching. It was announced officially today. There is every prospect of salvaging the ships in good condition if the necessary apparatus arrives before the storm sets in. The ships beached are the cruisers Emden, Frankfurt and Nürnberg.

Two destroyers are affixed and eighteen have been beached. It is added that there is no prospect of salvaging the other destroyers without elaborate operations.

French Press Sees England Some criticism is directed at the British admiralty, the Journal saying: “No article in the armistice forbids the maintenance of British guards aboard the German ships.” “Germany,” says the L'Action Francaise, “may one day, if it were no longer a carnal, settle the league of nations as she settled the fleet. Premier Lloyd-George and Sir Robert Cecil will be just as much responsible that day as are now the authorities at Scapa Flow.”

Fiance Sees Lover Fall to Death in Mantle of Flames

Sweetheart of Texas Aviator Going to Meet Him Witnesses His Doom.

RYE BEACH, N. Y., (AP)—Lieutenant Shelby Watson of Rogers, Texas, and his civilian mechanic, M. Ireland of Westbury, were killed today when an airplane in which they were flying crashed to the ground here and caught fire. Watson, who recently returned from 15 months service overseas, had flown here every morning from the aviation field in Mineola to circle the house in which his fiancee was spending the summer. He was at a height of about 200 feet this morning when his motor stopped, and the plane fell to the ground. The accident was witnessed by his fiancee.

French Ministry Has Warning Relative to Guarding Hun Fleet

Member of Naval Committee Gave Notice Guard Was Insufficient.

PARIS, (AP)—Viscount Gustave De Kerguelen, member of the naval committee of the chamber of deputies, told the budget committee of the chamber yesterday that he had warned the French ministry of marine previously, that the German fleet in Scapa Flow was not being watched with sufficient care.

The budget committee then decided to ask Premier Clemenceau for further information on the subject.

REPORTS THEFT OF $1700 CASH

Independent Market Sale is Riffled During Noon Hour; Suspect in Custody.

Theft at noon Monday of $1,700 from the safe at the Independent Meat Market, Main avenue west, was reported to the sheriff's office at about four o'clock Monday afternoon. E. R. Baldwin, a well-known employe by the Grill cafe, suspected of committing the theft, was placed under arrest and Sidney Merish is held as a possible witness.

The safe was rifled during the momentary absence of the meat cutter from the counter.

The money taken included the receipts for all of Saturday's business which would not have been banked until afternoon.

WORLD NEWS EVENTS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Opposition to sale of the government's merchant fleet was expressed in a resolution introduced today by Senator Fletcher, democrat, Florida, who proposes to address the senate on the subject.

PARIS, (AP)—Work on the Austrian peace treaty was resumed by the council of three today. The completion of the document is desired as speedily as possible. Financial experts were called before the council at today's session.

WEIMAR, (AP)—Dr. Haniel von Haimhausen, who was on Sunday designated as the German representative to sign the treaty of peace has telegraphed his resignation from Versailles rather than attach his name to the instrument.

PARIS, (AP)—Premier Clemenceau has expressed his intention to resign from office as soon as the treaty is promulgated, feeling that he has accomplished the task for which he assumed the premiership, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris. It is expected that parliament would ratify the treaty late in July.

SADNESS UNDER SURFACE OF ALL PARIS COMMENT

Press Expresses Relief and Joy But Remains Mindful of Imminent Task Before French Nation.

OVER AND PEOPLE RELAX

Boom Out When Council Announces That It Has Received Assurance of German Submission to Peace Terms.

PARIS, (AP)—In such headlines as “really peace at last,” does the press of Paris express its relief at the formal end of the great war. Editorial writers and columnists, with comments keeping with the principles professed by their respective newspapers, but none of the writers is entirely jubilant. Underlying all the comment is the feeling that the task which lies ahead is almost equal to that of winning the war.

Long Wait Rewarded

PARIS, (AP)—Long months of strain during the peace negotiations and weeks of doubt whether Germany would accept the conditions offered or would invite by her refusal of them a further invasion of her country, ended last yesterday, when a note announcing Germany's unconditional acceptance was delivered to the supreme council, of the conference.

The announcement during the early morning of the council's decision to refuse a further extension of time in which Germany might answer inaugurated the extreme tension. The first light came in a press dispatch from Weimar about noon, stating that Germany had decided to yield but nothing was heard from Versailles until after 10 o'clock when a telephone message announced the arrival of the German reply. The first definite announcement was made to American correspondents at the French press headquarters at Quai D'Orsay at 4:50 o'clock, it being stated that an affirmative reply had been delivered to Colonel Henry, liaison officer, who was bringing it to him by automobile.

Guns Booming

“It was not long after the reply had been received and opened before the supreme council, that guns began to boom from forts around Paris, and rejoicing crowds began to stream through the streets, having been apprised by the sound of cannon that the Germans had accepted the allied terms.”

Plans for the ceremony attending the signature of the treaty were considered by the supreme council today. It is known that President Wilson favors a simple affair, but the German delegate with the nature of the event, and the original plans for the conclusion of “the second peace of Versailles” have been materially modified at his suggestion.

The plenipotentiaries will be seated on a raised dais in the center of the vast Hall of Mirrors in the Chateau de Versailles upon the table upon which the treaty will be signed. The program does not contemplate any set addresses, but it is believed possible that both Premier Clemenceau and the leading German delegate may make short speeches. The delegations will come to the table when called upon by Secretary Paul Dutasta to affix their signatures upon the seals which will, prior to the event, be fixed to the instrument.

German Masses Cheer Old Regime as Curtain Falls on War Drama

Processions March Through Streets of Many Cities; Officers Pledge Themselves to Protect Wilhelm with Their Own Bodies.

LONDON, (AP)—News of the German government's agreement to sign peace terms resulted in patriotic demonstrations throughout Germany, the Exchange Telegraph's Copenhagen correspondent reports: In Berlin, Munich and other large cities, the dispatch says, processions formed and marched along the principal streets, the participants singing war songs and cheering the generals of the old empire. The officers' association, it is added, has asked the Dutch government not to deliver the former German emperor to the allies. In a telegram, officers of the association said, “We can protect the kaiser with our bodies, but we rely upon the generosity of the Dutch people.”

ITALY STANDS BY POSITION ON ADRIATIC

Dissatisfaction Over Orlando Policy; Cause of Change of Ministry; New Delegation Due in Paris Soon.

ROME, (AP)—Francesco Nitti, the new Italian premier, is undoubtedly a statesman who is most friendly to America,” said Guglielmo Marconi today in speaking of the new cabinet. It is known that Signor Nitti wishes to establish close relations with America to bring about reconstruction in Italy. The newspapers favorable to Baron Sonnino, former minister of foreign affairs, and the nationalist press are unfavorable to the cabinet, maintaining it is not particularly keen to uphold Italy's claims. Don Tommaso Tittoni, the new foreign minister, who will be the first Italian delegate to Paris, has declared “a satisfactory peace for Italy must be such as will allow her to conclude equitable treaties, insure raw materials for her industries, protect her ports and safeguard her position in the Adriatic and Mediterranean, besides giving her legitimate colonies.”

Deep Discontent

“Judged political observers agree that the downfall of the Orlando ministry was due to Italy's disapproving of the handling of the nation's affairs at the peace conference. From Orlando it is said, was superseded because of discontent and disgust with the methods of the conference, especially regarding Italian claims, had reached a culmination.”

“The new government must go to Paris with a firmer resolve to secure the ends for which Italy fought,” said Captain Gabriele Annunzio, the Italian poet-aviator today. “We do it if it should return without having accomplished this mission. Italian claims on the Adriatic must be renewed.”

PARIS, (AP)—The Italian delegation said today that it had been informed that a new delegation to the peace conference will arrive in Paris Friday. It will consist of Foreign Minister Tittoni, Senator Guglielmo Marconi and Senator Vittorio Scialoja. It is not known if others will be added to the delegation. The delegation will be headed by Signors Crespi and Ferraris, who are in Paris, will complete the mission.

Delegates Leave Wednesday

PARIS, (AP)—The new Italian delegation to the peace conference, it was announced tonight, will leave here on Wednesday and expects to arrive in Berlin tomorrow. The delegation, equipped of foreign Minister Tittoni and three senators, Vittorio Scialoja, Guglielmo Marconi and Naggio Ferraris, will be headed by Signor Crespi, a member of the chamber of deputies will be secretary of the delegation.

BLOCKADE ISSUE BEFORE COUNCIL FOR SETTLEMENT

Question of Lifting Embargo on Imports Into Germany Causes Some Division Among Conference Members.

TREATY WILL BE SIGNED IN VERSAILLES FRIDAY

Foreign Minister Mueller Will Head the Delegation from Weimar; Flory Speeches Mark Meeting of Assembly.

PARIS, (AP)—The supreme blockade council met today to decide on a date when the blockade of Germany should be lifted. One element it is understood favors the day when the treaty is ratified, but it is believed the council probably will decide to lift the blockade with the signing of the treaty.

Delegates Due Wednesday

PARIS, (AP)—The German delegation to the peace treaty will arrive at Versailles Friday morning, the French foreign office has been informed. It is thought probable in French circles that the signing of the treaty will take place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

French Means News

“The information regarding the time of arrival of the German delegation was given by the French foreign office, which arrived at Versailles Friday morning, the French foreign office has been informed. It is thought probable in French circles that the signing of the treaty will take place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.”

COBLENZ, (AP)—Marshal Foch, the allied commander in chief, heard the news of the vote adopted by the German national assembly on Sunday in favor of accepting the peace terms at his advanced headquarters at Kronenach, in the French area of occupation.

The marshal visited Mayence Sunday and conferred with his generals regarding the plans for the march into Germany. What his impression was is not known as he cancelled an appointment with the correspondents and did not give an interview.

Masses Indifferent

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—Indifference characterized the popular attitude toward the decision of the government to sign the peace treaty, a dispatch to the Danish press from Berlin says. There was no demonstration to usher in the longed-for peace. Strong military and police patrols to suppress any attempt for the march into Germany were in evidence in the German capital.

Mueller Sign Terms

PARIS, (AP)—Hermann Mueller, the new German foreign secretary, will head the delegation to sign the peace treaty, La Liberté says. The Germans probably will arrive at Versailles Wednesday morning.

COURT CALLS TOWNLEY CASE

Skirmish for Jury Begins; Efforts to Delay Trial Prove Unavailing.

JACKSON, Minn., (AP)—Efforts to select a jury were made today in the trial of A. C. Townley, president of the nonpartisan league, and Joseph Gilbert, organizer, charged with violating the state disloyalty law. The defense failed yesterday in preliminary skirmishing to delay the trial until Townley could complete the campaigning tour in North Dakota, preliminary to the referendum election there Thursday.

Judge E. G. Dean ordered Townley's attorneys to have him in court Wednesday noon, saying an election campaign was no excuse. The defense also failed to secure a separate trial for Townley, Judge Dean ruling that in a conspiracy trial, the two men indicated must be tried at the same time.

INVASION OF SERBIA FROM TEUTONS BEGINS

Peaceful Impenetration of the Country to Capture Markets Under Way.

BELGRADE, (AP)—The German and Austrian peaceful infiltration of Serbia has begun. The hotels of this city harbor guests whose identity is revealed by their heavy Teutonic cast of features. They talk in German and laugh loudly over their beer. In good if one does not speak German in Belgrade one sometimes finds himself misunderstood. The waiters do not know English or French in the majority of cases.

"My friends in Basie told me I would be mobbed in Belgrade if I spoke German there," declared a self-styled Swiss salesman. "However, I found that when I spoke Italian I was treated with disrespect, that when I spoke French I was ignored and when I spoke English I was smilingly but politely told, in German, that I could be best served by speaking the tongue I know best."

Flood of Goods.

Serbia from one end of the country to the other has been flooded with cheap Austrian and German goods. How they got in one cannot learn but every shop window in the villages from Ukub to Semendria contains cheap mirrors, toilet articles, knives and cutlery of every description. "Made in Austria." Many of the articles are backed with colored pictures under celluloid of the Kaiser, Austrian and German emperors in all their regalia. The pictures are little prejudices against German and Austrian goods among the peasants and village dwellers of Serbia.

The Serbian hates a Bulgarian as venomously as ever but does not sing a morning hymn of hate against Germany or Austria. The country is flooded with pictures of atrocities committed by Bulgarians in Macedonia. The former Emperor Charles' picture still adorns the local police headquarters.

Hate the Austrians.

In Belgrade there is bitterness against the Austrians, especially among the better class of people whose homes were systematically despoiled by Austrian officers who shipped sixty trains of household goods from Belgrade across the Danube into Austria. Each train was composed of approximately thirty cars. Three hundred pianos were included in the load. Belgrade and northern Serbia are flooded with the depreciated Austrian currency, in fact there apparently is more Austrian money in circulation than Serbian.

The American Red Cross employs a number of German prisoners in transporting its supplies. They are better clothed than many Serb soldiers and go about the streets laughing and joking in a general quiet at home.

The American Red Cross has for its warehouse the Palace hotel which, just finished before the war, was intended to be the best hotel in Belgrade. When the Austrians entered the town, however, they deliberately smashed the plate glass windows, marbled the walls and stabled their horses in the dining room and dining saloon. The woodwork was torn out for firewood and the mahogany furniture was only hacked with axes.

Major G. H. Edwards, of Orlando, Fla., who has been in charge of the American Red Cross work in northern Serbia distributed help to local orphanages and hospitals, started workrooms for needy women, gave out supplies to hospitals and has equipped medical staffs which travel through northern Serbia.

GIRL PRODIGY ASTOUNDS LONDON ART CRITICS

LONDON, (AP)—London art critics express astonishment over the drawings now being exhibited at the Leicester galleries by a 13-year-old girl, Pamela Bianco. She was born in England and now lives in Italy.

Minor child prodigies, it is pointed out, are not uncommon, but it is doubtful whether other instances of such precocity in drawing as Miss Bianco's are on record. Already, the critics say, she has a bronze market for her drawings which is revealed in all her work. A large Zeiss and two large decorative female heads are among her pictures on exhibit. Another picture is a study of a child's peace celebration, and the expression of the children's faces is so good that the experts are amazed.

ITALIAN CLAIM FOR ART WORK STIRS AUSTRIA

Many Issues Enter Into Effort of Latin Country to Secure Return of Famous Painting from Vienna.

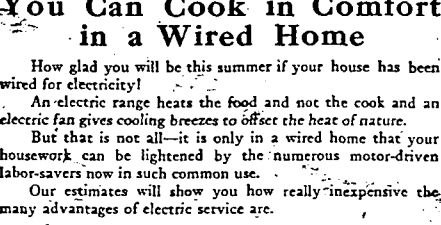

VIENNA, (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Italian claims to ownership and restoration to Italy of paintings and jewels in the Vienna art collection seem to be disturbing the Viennese quite as much as any other probable clause of the peace treaty of St. Germain.

It is understood that promises have been made by the Austrian delegates to the peace conference that the collection shall be left intact, and the claims of Czechs and Jug-Slavs not granted. This position is said to have been taken partly because if the principle of restitution were once allowed it would apply also to American and English collections the origins of which are shadowy, especially the Greek treasures in London.

Based on Treaty.

As some Italian claims to paintings are based on the treaty between Italy and Austria of 1860, it is stated that Austria will demand payment of two billion lire unpaid by the Italians, although owed under that treaty. It is said also that Italy would welcome any "neutral" readjustment of collections of sculptures and paintings, wherever owned, and that Greece also favors this attitude.

Some of Italy's claims date back to the middle ages or earlier, as in the case of the so-called Crown of Charlemagne made by Italian goldsmiths also the imperial cap made by Saracens for the Norman kings of Sicily and Cel-

CHURCH MONUMENT TO NOTED MISSIONARY

Presbyterian Pastor Who Did Great Work Among Indians Is Honored.

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—There was dedicated today at Sacaton, 40 miles from here, a Presbyterian institutional church, a monument to Dr. Charles H. Cook, pioneer missionary to the Pima Indians, who started his labor among the members of the tribe in 1870, retired in 1911, and died at Nowataway, Iowa, May 14, 1917. The structure, which includes a church room, commodious library and other quarters, was built under the direction of an Indian committee, headed by Hugh Patton, a full blooded Pima, and the greater part of the work was done by the Indians themselves.

The cost of the building, $25,000, was contributed by a number of persons among them Mrs. M. C. Thaw, of Pittsburgh, widow of William Thaw, the great iron master. The plans, at the request of Mrs. Thaw, were prepared by a prominent Pittsburgh architect. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Freeman of Pasadena, who was assisted in the services by Rev. Dirk A. Lay, formerly Rev. Dr. Cook's assistant and later his successor.

Results Great Monument A greater and more enduring monument to Dr. Cook than the church structure, according to those who followed the course of his work among the Pimas, is the changed lives of hundreds of the Indians, who, during forty years were brought under the pioneer missionary's influence.

Dr. Cook went to the Pimas in 1870. He has served through the civil war and at its close went to Chicago where he engaged in evangelistic work with Dwight L. Moody. In some obscure way Dr. Cook learned of the needs of the Pimas who then roamed the wastes of Arizona a tribe of painted savages. The intrepid minister started for the home of the tribe traveling much of the way from Chicago on foot. On his arrival he set about learning the Pima language and was the first white man to help the Indians in every possible way.

But religious progress was slow. In four years he had made but one convert, and at the end of 50 years of service there were but 16 converts. Thereafter, however, results multiplied and scores of the Pimas embraced Christianity.

In the meantime Dr. Cook had married his wife and a son died on the reservation where they were buried. Mrs. Cook's death was caused by exposure during the rainy season, when the adobe house in which the missionary's family lived grew way during a confluence of waters.

After the missionary's death an Indian was sent from the Sacaton reservation to lay a wreath upon the grave of the Pima chief. The Indian carried the flowers at the nearest town and presented himself at the home of Dr. Cook's relatives. It was raining hard and the Pima was told to leave for the cemetery; if he would leave the wreath it would be placed on the grave.

"No," replied the Indian. "I have bent all the way from Arizona to see the grave, and I will put the flowers on it."

NEW DEVICES FOR AIRPLANE NEEDED

Experiments Being Carried on to Help Solve Problems of the Air.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Indestructible gasoline tanks, automatic cranks and variable hangars are a few of the airplane equipment devices which the army air service's engineering section is seeking to perfect. American inventors have been asked to assist.

The gasoline tank desired would withstand a salvo of 10 shots fired at a range of 30 yards, the ammunition penetrating of service, tracer, incendiary and armor piercing bullets, without any first resulting. A maximum weight limit of 75 per cent more than the ordinary tank has been fixed.

An automatic cranker, mounted on a truck and electrically driven, is under experiment. This instrument is designed to offset the great difficulties now experienced in starting the big bombing planes which are expected to be the type adopted in aerial commerce. A flexible arm is attached to the propeller, giving the twist necessary to start the cylinders to firing and is then automatically disconnected.

PRICES DOWN MILEAGE UP

Goodrich's New Adjustment

Having, on May 12, marked down tire prices, Goodrich next promptly marked up its adjustment mileage figures. It lifted adjustments to 6,000 miles for Safety Treads, and 8,000 for Silvertown Cords, instead of 3,500 and 5,000 miles, respectively heretofore in force. Goodrich marked down prices in strict accordance with the Goodrich policy always to give the user the benefit of Goodrich economies of manufacture.

Goodrich marked up its adjustment mileage because the wonderful endurance and service Goodrich Tires are showing in actual service demanded adjustment that squared with performance.

Remember it's a Goodrich Adjustment—always safe and conservative based on a greater mileage consistently given by Goodrich Tires.

Goodrich knows its tires are brimful of mileage, and it wants every automobile driver to have a generous share of it.

"BEST IN THE LONG RUN"

BERLIN UNION LEADERS RESIGN

Large Proportion of Officers Tried to Avert Disastrous Strikes in Germany.

BERLIN, (AP)—No longer willing to take the responsibility for the "economic need and increasing suffering" caused by repeated strikes, leaders of the older Miners' Union Associations in the Ruhr district have tendered their resignations. These men, most of whom are majority socialists, have bitterly opposed the strikes which for weeks have been disrupting the coal fields.

"Strikes begin over the heads of responsible leaders," said one of the resigning officials, "the striking officials say in a statement accompanying their resignations, "and are not answerable to our comrades."

"A large portion of our members and officials are prevented from attending miners' meetings and are shunted down, cursed and threatened, while irresponsible 'wild heroes' work in this senseless manner for the destruction of our association in order to attain their political purposes, which lead to economic and political anarchy and prepare the ground for counter-revolutionary opposition. They see in the Spartacists their ally and peace-maker."

Double Number of Idle
"By strikes the number of workless Germans has been doubled, industry halted, hunger lengthened, food importation prevented, the economic, financial and political breakdown of the German republic brought into the near future, and unbridled discipline destroyed."

"We decline responsibility for all that. Our conscience, our honor, our past filled with sacrifice, and our love of our comrades forbid us to do anything definitely a path which many of our members appear to be taking."

STRONGLY URGES WAGE INCREASE

Determination to Prevent Unemployment Purpose of A. F. of L.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., (AP)—The American Federation of Labor at the closing session yesterday of its annual convention, pledged itself to obtain a general 44-hour week throughout the United States and for employees in the government service. The demand was based on a determination to prevent unemployment, which the federation declares is one of the two primary causes of industrial unrest. The other cause is the decreased purchasing power of the dollar.

Manufacturers and employers were urged to "bridge the gap" and increase wages "without any controversy." Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, was greeted with a roar of cheers late today when he announced three of the four great brotherhoods—the engineers, conductors and trainmen—had applied for charters in the federation. The fourth brotherhood—the firemen—he said, was considering a similar application. If the firemen decide to affiliate the rank of the federation will be increased by 500,000 men.

Join With Brotherhoods
Delegates were of the opinion that with the entry of the brotherhoods the federation will use the summer railway men for government ownership and control of the roads.

The convention also pledged its support to the striking commercial telegraph operators and appointed a committee to confer with Postmaster General Burleson in the hope of obtaining for the telegraphers the same concessions which have been granted to the electrical and telephone workers.

The report of the committee which had been studying the question of the 44-hour week was adopted unanimously, as expressing the convictions of the convention. It said in part:

"It must be realized that during the war five million of the most active young men were taken from industries for war service. Despite this the production of the country during the war was greater than at any other given period in history. Of course, this great production was materially assisted by the introduction of women into the factories, and to a large extent by the elimination of the hour industry and taking over of people previously engaged in that work for war production.

"Labor organizations for many years have been fighting to secure the 8-hour day once known as the shorter working day. This 8-hour day means 48 hours of labor per week. Because of the changed conditions brought about by the war a number of the industries have been able already to introduce the 44-hour week, continuing the 8-hour day with a half holiday on Saturday.

Printers Struggle
"Only 12 years ago the International Typographical union organized more than 84,000,000 in securing for its members the 48-hour week in the printing industry. Now that organization is negotiating for and will probably receive the 44-hour week through conciliation and without the expenditure of money.

"The garment working trades have succeeded in securing the 44-hour week. Other industries have done or are doing likewise. We believe it will be but a short time till the 8-hour day with a half holiday on Saturday, meaning a 44-hour week, will be the universal hours of labor and adopted in all industries.

"While this is most desirable and the executive council has decided to use its power to assist in bringing about a 44-hour week in all crafts this convention should go even further than this.

"There is at the present time a large volume of unrest among the working men on this continent. There can be no doubt that there are two reasons for this unusual condition—first, the high cost of the necessities of life; second, unemployment.

Wage Adjustment.
"Until wages are so adjusted that the earnings of labor will buy the same amount of the necessities of life that could be purchased by the earnings previous to the war, this unrelaxing exhibit by the working people has a foundation for its existence that cannot be set aside. Previous to the war the dollar earned by labor would buy a certain amount of a certain quantity of food and clothing. The dollar earned at the present time will also buy a certain amount of a certain quantity of food and clothing but it will not buy the same amount that the dollar earned previous to the war would buy. Until this gap is bridged and the wages increased so that the same amount of the same quality of goods can be bought with the dollar of today as was possible before the war, the condition of the laborer will be less desirable than in the pre-war period. Manufacturers and employers of labor should recognize this fact and increase the wages to this point without any controversy."

This, it is said, is sufficient only for children and the sick. DE VALERA SOPHIST.

The De Valera interview given out in New York last night is a mixture of truth and error. He makes a good point when he says that should Ireland await complete unanimity before moving to alter her political condition...

On the other hand, it is by no means certain that a majority of the Irish people want independence under a Sinn Fein republic. The hopeless division of the home rule party caused the people of Ireland to turn from it temporarily, at least, and to return a radical majority favoring complete separation from the British empire.

But the great party of Grattan, Parnell, O'Connell, Butt, Redmond and Dillon probably represents the real aspirations of the Irish majority, and it will likely come back shortly, with a large representation, just as the liberal party in the rest of the United Kingdom which suffered an almost complete eclipse in the recent general election, is shining forth again at all the by-elections held within the last two months.

The spring toward Sinn Feinism is due largely to a lack of aggressiveness on the part of the liberals and the home rulers, who tried to secure settlement by negotiation instead of by negotiation plus action...

Passing this phase of the question, however, De Valera is creating a false impression when he intimates that it is the present policy of England, or that it has been the policy of England in the recent past to crush Ireland industrially. Nothing could be further from the truth. There was a time when the statement of Great Britain believed that the proper way to build up their own country was to tear down other nations and destroy their business.

WILHELM IN EXILE GOES IN FOR ARCHEOLOGY

Retired Emperor Desires to Keep Mind Off His Past Experiences.

AMERONGEN, (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—A restoration of his former interest in archeology is one of the means adopted on his position. Professor Duerpfeld, one of the most eminent archeologists of Germany, came to join the Hohenzollern circle a month or so ago and since his arrival has spent several hours almost every afternoon in his former monarch's company.

Every phase of archeological research is discussed during these conversations, in the course of which the professor entertains the exile with details of the discoveries made by him and his companions in Palestine, Syria and other sections of the Near East. The professor is an old companion of Hohenzollern with whom he spent some time on the Island of Corfu, where the one-time German ruler owned the Castell of Achilleion.

Even at the dinner table archeology is now the main subject of conversation, for reference to the war is tacitly taboo when the erstwhile emperor and his consort join the family circle of the Bentincks. On these occasions both Hohenzollern and his immediate suite, including the body physician, Dr. Forster and Prof. Duerpfeld, wear military uniforms. The Bentincks, although some of the members of the family have the right to wear uniform, always appear in civilian dress.

At present the entire suite except the marshal of the court, Von Gontard, reside outside the castle either in the village lanes or in rented cottages. All of them have full liberty of movement about Holland, but their appearance passes entirely unnoticed, as they never travel in uniform.

FIRE IN FOREST IN NORTH IDAHO

Conflagration Threatens Two Big Lumber Camps; Partly Under Control.

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—Two forest fires in northern Idaho were reported partly under control today, according to Supervisor Meyers Wolff of the Forest Service today. He said both blazes, one near the Blackwell Lumber company's camp at Frownwood and the other near the Rutledge Timber company's camp at Katz spur, were in slushings. Extra men are being employed to fight possible fires, the present season so far being the driest for a long time in northern Idaho, he stated.

Score of Other Fires MISSOULA, Mont., (AP)—Forest fires in western Montana and northern Idaho have increased to more than a score, according to reports received today and tonight at forestry headquarters here. High temperatures following a period of drought have made the woods highly inflammable, forestry officials said. Many of the fires were reported to be spreading rapidly despite efforts of large forces of fire fighters and several had assumed serious proportions, though no settled communities have been as yet threatened.

TURK SHUNS MOSQUE IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Believes It Will Soon Revert to Christians; Plans Meets Opposition.

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—The faithful Turk does not visit the great Mosque of St. Sophia as frequently as he used to for he considers a mosque will become a Christian church as it was in the fifth and sixth centuries. One can always have an argument in Constantinople over the question whether the church will revert to the Greek orthodox or Roman Catholic communion.

Christians architects have visited the mosque and are making their plans for the reconstruction of the church when it is taken from the Turks. The faint mosaic of Christ above the Mihrab which has been almost invisible for centuries will be renewed over the question whether the apostles, under the small dome in the north end of the church also will be restored. Turkish inscriptions of all sorts will be torn down and replaced by Christian symbols.

FREE REARMS DE VALERA PLEA

Head of Sinn Fein Charges Systematic Oppression on Part of England.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Edward De Valera, president of the Sinn Fein "Irish republic," is sending back a written statement to the newspapermen here. He desired, he said, to express the aspirations of the Irish people ex-British propagandists had been giving him for the American press. He said he did not purpose "campaigning" the United States in the Irish cause but he would get the Washington. Asked if he had been invited to address the United States senate he said he had not.

"The man who established your republic sought the aid of France," read De Valera from his statement. "We seek the aid of America. It is to seek that aid that I am here and I am confident that I shall not be disappointed. I come here entitled to speak for the Irish nation with an authority democratically as sound and as well based as that which which President Wilson speaks for the United States or Lloyd George for England, or Clemenceau for France."

Came Directly Oppr

"I came directly to the people of Ireland to the people of America, convinced that the American people and consequently the American government which as a government of the people ought to reflect the people's will, would never consciously connive at, or allow itself to be made a party to, the suppression of the natural God-given right of the Irish nation to its liberty."

De Valera said he was the official head of the republic "established by the will of the Irish people," in accordance with the principles of self-determination.

De Valera declared the degree of unanimity obtained in Ireland for the restoration of a republic was "higher than that which the American colonies when they declared their independence," and "higher than that by which your own glorious union and constitution were established."

"Had complete unanimity been insisted on as a precedent to your independence as some people pretend to recognize, it should be insisted upon in the recognition of mine," he declared, "you would not be today the greatest nation on earth, but merely a thirteenth, miserable colony with your people kept in a state of slavery by the intrigues of English statecraft into opposing and contending groups."

Irish Industry Destroyed

America's industries, he said, this country, containing the English rule, De Valera continued would have been destroyed "as they will continue to destroy them if they cannot retain their mastery over us."

"Your population," he continued, "would have been reduced by half, as ours has been—an example unique among nations. In Ireland, under Kaiser, emperor of czar, its population would have been reduced. Our population should have increased from 8,000,000 to 16,000,000. Instead, though, the second race, the lowest race in the world, it has decreased through English rule to 4,000,000."

Charges Artificial Famines

"Bughnigh, he declared, had 'contrived artificial famines, recurring to every decade' in Ireland to keep the population down, driving thousands of Irish from their native land.

"It was surely by a source of pride to you," Dr. Valera concluded, "as it is a source of hope to us, to reflect that never have you undertaken a cause that you did not bring it to triumph. The Latin nations as well as Poland, Hungary and Greece are now free states. Ireland, the one remaining white nation in the slavery of alien rule, will similarly free unless you succeed in making scrap of paper of their principles and prove false to the traditions their fathers have handed down to them."

WATTIS

Direct From the Mines to Your Bins

TO THE PUBLIC:

THE LION COAL COMPANY, the largest independent producer of Rock Springs coal, has acquired the WATTIS COAL COMPANY, one of the largest producers of Utah Coal.

Last year you were asked to store coal for patriotic reasons—THE WAR IS OVER and past experience has taught the consumer that he cannot store coal during the summer months for consumption during the winter months—ECONOMICALLY. The spread between the present price and the possible winter maximum, ^(IN OUR OPINION) is not sufficient to warrant the consumer to store coal.

We own our mines and will always have supply of coal at every season of the year, sufficient to take care of the citizens of this community. We are in the coal business TO SERVE YOU, and can give you either our LION coal ^(NOTED FOR CLEANLINESS) or our WATTIS coal, which is the equal of any coal mined in the state of Utah.

When you want Genuine Rock Springs ask for "Lion". When you want Utah coal of quality ask for "WATTIS."

HEAVY DEMANDS FOR WATER MAY REQUIRE CHANGE

City Officials Face Necessity of Installing New Supply Line and May Inaugurate Meter System of Delivery.

The present rate of consumption of water delivered through the municipal waterworks system, which far exceeds the anticipation of an engineers and city authorities, necessitates immediately the installation of a 24 inch main to replace the present 16 in. main through which the supply is diverted from the canal into the waterworks reservoirs, and ultimately, in the opinion of John J. Pilgerini, superintendent of waterworks, it will necessitate the inauguration of the metered delivery system.

Records of the waterworks department Monday showed, with the filter turning out pure water at the rate of between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 gallons per day, a consumption of 5,000,000 gallons or 500 gallons per capita for a population of 10,000. In the emergency, water was turned through a by-pass into the system with the filtered water.

The newly installed filter plant which is said to be in perfect running order, has a capacity of 6,000,000 gallons per day. The maximum output, however, cannot be delivered while the smaller supply pipe remains in use.

How Sprinklers Drain Demands made on the municipal water system for delivery of water for sprinkling are believed to account for the major share of the consumption. In this connection the city waterworks department quotes figures showing that under 35 pounds pressure, which is the average maintained here, 2,000 sprinklers in operation at the same time will discharge 22,300 gallons per minute.

A law has been passed upon the statute books of Pennsylvania defining the issuance of a worthless check as a misdemeanor. Hereafter, under its provisions, not only will be issuing of a "no account" check, or one of the kind which returns with the inscription "not suff.", be punishable, but the new law says, "the mere fact of making, drawing or endorsing such a check will be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud," unless the drawer makes good the amount of the check with interest within ten days. For the person who draws and utters a worthless check for an amount less than $20 the penalty on conviction is $100 fine or thirty days imprisonment, while the drawer of a check for more than $20 the imprisonment is two years.

CLUBS LEADER MAKING PLANS FOR FESTIVAL

Boys and Girls of County Engaged in Vocational Work May Be Brought Together for Day of Amusement.

With a view to holding during the month of August either at Twin Falls or Filer, where the use of the county fair grounds has been offered by the fair association, a play festival for 450 boys and girls enrolled in the vocational clubs of the county, County Club Leader A. L. O'Reilly is sending out a questionnaire to the 18 local club leaders of the county in which he asks four questions, as follows: "Do you think such a festival would be a good thing? If we should have a festival would you have the time to spend in creating interest, etc. among the club members? Would you take charge of your club and assume responsibility for a good representation therefrom? What would you suggest in the way of entertainment?"

Mr. O'Reilly discussed plans for the proposed festival with W. T. McCall, state club leader, here recently. It was at Mr. McCall's advice that the festival should be made purely a play event without parade, band of floats or similar features characterizing the festival of the club members held here last year. Mr. O'Reilly is in favor of using a small fund to be distributed as prizes for field events such as races and games on this occasion.

Local Events Scheduled

Whether or not decision is reached to hold the county festival, the local organizations of club members at the present time are enjoying local festivals modeled after the plans for the general event. One of the most successful of these local festivals was staged last Saturday where the commercial club furnished 10 gallons of ice cream for 75 boys and girls participating. A schedule for local festivals to be held this week provides for a meeting today of the club members of the Byrdville district at the home of Mrs. G. A. Childs; a festival for Mrs. J. C. Porterfield's club on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Graham on the Kimberly road; a festival for the Maroa club at the Maroa school house on Thursday afternoon; and another on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Blier on Twin Falls; a festival at Filer on Friday.

AMERICAN RED CROSS HELPED BY ITALIANS

Government at Rome Extends Assistance to Workers in Albania.

DURAZZO, Albania, (P)—Nearly a hundred American women physicians, nurses, field workers and social workers are now at work in Albania under the direction of American physicians and Red Cross officers. The Italian authorities have given the American Red Cross and the Army Food Mission representatives in Albania assistance. Twenty-three members of the Red Cross unit are at Tirana. Here an American dispensary has been set up and thousands of sick Albanians have been treated. A "delousing" plant also is in operation and hundreds of gallons of disinfectant have been used in the treatment of sores and skin diseases due to vermin and filth.

A hospital also has been established under American management at Tirana and Italian nurses visit hundreds of sick in their homes in the mountains. The Red Cross also is supporting an orphanage and a sewing room where nurse women are given employment while at the same time making clothing for their families.

Similar Work Elsewhere Red Cross work of a similar nature is being carried on at Durazzo, Elbasan, but another group of workers has been sent into the Argyrocastro district to furnish emergency relief to the Albanian speaking Greeks.

One of the members of the commission to Albania is an American woman dentist, Dr. Mary J. Hyndman, of Philadelphia, who is quite an object of curiosity to the natives. Many Mohammedan women who refused to have their teeth attended by American male doctors bear their tortures without a murmur in Mrs. Hyndman's chair.

Need Much Assistance

Major Robert C. Denison, director of the Albanian unit, reports: "Nowhere in the Balkans is there greater need of medical, dental and clothing supplies and children's aid than in Albania. Albania's tragedy has not been brought to the attention of the American people and of the world in any such vivid way as has that of Serbia. The Albanian people do not beg. They are an American people and stand quietly waiting until their turn comes to receive the doctor's attention."

The honesty of these highlanders of the Balkans is proverbial. A Red Cross man leaving Tirana by motor truck threw away some American newspapers, but an Albanian mountaineer thinking he had dropped the papers by mistake followed him for two days on foot until he had restored them.

ROAD DISTRICT REDUCES FORCE OF ENGINEERS

Commissioners Take Action in View of Near Completion of Preliminary Work and Elimination of Basin Plans.

In view of the near completion of preliminary surveys and of its decision to eliminate proposed roads through the Shoshone basin district, the commissioners of the Twin Falls highway district Saturday authorized a material reduction in the engineering force employed. Carrying into effect of this decision will leave Chief Engineer W. F. Edwards with three engineers besides himself and one field party consisting of one engineer and two assistants. Two field parties, one of which has been employed for some weeks in the Shoshone basin, will be eliminated. Among the engineers leaving the employment of the district, C. V. Sloan, office engineer; J. H. Van Horn, transit man, and A. D. Round, resident engineer, expect to enter the employment this week of the state highway department.

State May Take Charge

An additional reason in the minds of the commissioners for the reduction of the engineering force is the probability that if federal aid is secured through the state highway department for the improvement of post roads in the district, all of the engineering work involved in such improvement will be done by the state engineers.

NEEDS OF FISHERIES
THEME OF LECTURE

Prof. Cobb Addresses Western Naturalists, Notes Need of Accurate Knowledge.

PASADENA, Cal. (AP)—A warning was uttered here today by Professor John N. Cobb, director of the College of Fisheries at the University of Washington, Seattle, with respect to the fishing industry of the North Pacific.
In an address before the Western Society of Naturalists at the convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science he said:
"The paramount need of the Pacific Coast fisheries, and in fact of all other fisheries as well, is an accurate statistical knowledge of the industry. Those published by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries are of the latter type, and they would amply answer the purpose if the Bureau had funds and personnel sufficient to permit of its making a complete statistical investigation every year, instead of at intervals of four or five years as at present. Had we at our command the means of accurate statistical data, we could easily determine whether our fisheries were increasing, and apply the proper remedies, and of groping in the dark as at present.

Word of Caution

"A word of caution should be uttered here. A few of our fisheries are at present in a declining condition, and the cause is not the lack of fish, but fall into the wrong hands and very ambitious scheme is followed the patient may die before the doctors have satisfied themselves that he is really sick. A complete list of the various commercial species would be an excellent thing to have, but knowing so well the difficulty experienced in securing adequate data, the federal and state governments for carrying on the scientific work, we had better be satisfied at first with restricting our enquiries to the most important of the essential and vital facts upon which to base our measures for conserving and protecting the fisheries, rather than dissipate our energies and funds in striving after the unattainable, or for something that would take years to complete.

"The migrations of aquatic animal life and the present connected therewith, which are of transcendent importance to our fisheries, and upon which European investigators have been working for some time with most successful results, so far as the species indigenous to their waters are concerned, form an almost virgin field on the Pacific. Our great runs of salmon, cod, halibut, herring, sardines, tuna, etc., furnish excellent material upon which to work, and I look for much to be done along these lines in the very near future.

Survey Fishing Banks

"A new survey of the known fishing banks of the coast, together with a search for new banks, should be taken up at the earliest possible moment.
Among deep sea fishermen and navigators there have been current for many years rumors of shoals and banks lying off our coast which do not appear on the official charts, and some of these are circumstantial enough to justify a thorough investigation being made to establish their truth or falsity.

"In the North Pacific we have at present the most extensive knowledge and halibut banks in the world, and I believe that the area of such would be found to be vastly greater upon a more thorough survey.

Must Have Charts

"It is especially important for us to have charts showing the areas of bottom which are comparatively level and free from rocks and other obstructions, so that the otter trawl, which will soon supersede the primitive hand and long line methods, may be operated successfully. Several such areas have already been discovered and charted, notably one off the Oregon coast, on which are to be

ASKS WHEAT BONUS TO AVERT TIE-UP

Julius H. Barnes, wheat director of the United States, is urging a wheat bonus to be added to the government's guaranteed price of $2.26 per bushel and which it intends to avert a tie-up of rail roads and elevators in handling the great crop now being harvested. The plan asks that a 2 to 3 cent per bushel be paid farmers for every month the wheat is held in their own granaries. It is estimated that one billion cars will otherwise be necessary in trying to handle the crop as farmers rush their grain to the market, knowing the price will not go higher under the guarantee law.

found immense numbers of the delicious deep sea sole.

"An important thing is to determine the rate of progress of salmon when on their way to the spawning ground. Were this known for each species it would be a comparatively easy matter to ensure a clear passage for a school of fish from the mouth of the river to the spawning beds in the upper reaches by the use of a progressive closed netson."

Mr. Wisler Cured of Indigestion.

"Some time in 1909 when I had an attack of indigestion and everything looked gloomy to me, I received a free sample of Chamberlain's Tablets by mail. I gave them a trial and they were such a help to me that I bought a package, and I can truthfully say that I have not had a similar attack since." writes Wm. B. Wisler, Doug-lassville, Pa.—adv.

LECTURES DEAL WITH LORE OF ANCIENT IRLIN

Hibernians Familiar with Theory of Transmigration of Soul According to investiga-tor.

DUBLIN, (AP)—Dr. Douglas Hyde, professor of Irish in the National University of Ireland, has been delivering series of lectures on Irish folk-lore at Alexandra college. Dublin, which has made many interesting new discoveries.
He said there must have existed in the middle ages in Ireland a whole cycle of literature dedicated to famous animals. He had received some surviving specimens of it and translated them for the first time.

He showed that the ancient Irish were familiar with the transmigration of souls and that even in the last century some traces of the belief remained.
In County Roscommon a poem was written a century or a century and a half ago telling of a pig which, having eaten an Irish man's sheep, was sent and told the owner how it had been a great singer among the Turks, fought at Aulghin against the Irish, and been a hacker in France.

health and lives at the chateau De Bou-choot, near Antwerp, which was unharmed by the Germans. She seems to have remained in ignorance of the happenings of the last five years and only manifested anxiety when the big guns thundered during the siege of Antwerp.
The princess is unaware of the death of her brother, King Leopold of Belgium. "The world she is never men-
