

OXFORD DEGREES GO TO FAMOUS MEN OF WORLD

General Pershing and Food Controller Hoover Head List Given Honorary of Doctor of Civil Law by University.

OXFORD, England, (AP)—General Pershing and Herbert C. Hoover represented the United States today in a distinguished company of noted men from the allied countries who were honored today by Oxford university with degrees of doctor of civil law. The ceremony was the culminating feature of the annual Evencen or commemoration exercises.

The event was rich in ceremonial pomp, featured by the traditions of this famous institution. None of the spectators followed the proceedings with keener interest than a handful of American army students who have been studying here. Among those who witnessed the ceremony was Mrs. Hoover. Earl Curzon presided.

Earl Curzon, chancellor of the university, presided, and solemnly went through the prescribed formula of proposing the degrees to the house. After the house had as solemnly granted the degrees, the recipients were summoned in turn by the public orator.

Those upon the degrees were conferred included General Pershing, Mr. Hoover, Baron Makino, head of the Japanese peace conference delegation; Marshal Joffre of France; Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, Major General Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the British imperial staff, and Vice Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, first son lord. Former Premier Orlando of Italy, and Premier Ignace Jan Paderewski of Poland, received degrees by proxy.

How Acknowledgment
Each of these men, as they were presented with their degrees, bowed their heads and took their seats. No speeches were made by those to whom the degrees were given and the ceremony was concluded quickly.

All the invited persons assembled at Trinity college, where they were received by the chancellor, Earl Curzon; the vice chancellor and other officials of the University. The procession then formed and marched along the street a few hundred yards to the entrance of the yard leading to the Sheldonian theater where the ceremony was held.

Crowd Lamentable
The public, most of whom were unable to gain admission to the building, were packed along both sides of march, keen for a sight of the celebrities. The crowd cheered those whom they recognized.

After leaving the theater, the party proceeded to All Soul's college to attend a luncheon given by officials of the university. Besides those participating in the degree ceremonies, the guests included Mrs. Hoover and Major General John Biddle and Colonel Lloyd C. Wilson, General Pershing's aides. The lunch was informal and there were no speeches.

MANY FEATURES PROMISED WITH CHAUTAUQUA

Site for Big Tent Has Been Obtained and Stage Is Set for Opening Event.

After experiencing difficulty in locating a site upon which to conduct the annual Chautauqua, the committee in charge of the Ellison-White summer entertainment, has obtained permission to erect the big tent on a half block at the corner of Third street west and Main avenue. The tent will be raised in time for the opening of the Chautauqua tomorrow afternoon.

The 1919 Chautauqua is composed, according to officials in direct charge, of some of the best attractions in outdoor dramatic engagements. The performances will start tomorrow afternoon and will close on the night of July 3.

"Private" Feet Coming
One of the prime features of the Chautauqua will be the appearance of "Private" Post, a Canadian, who went through the greater part of the world war and lived to write a series of romances based upon his experiences at the front. His books have had a wide circulation, and have thrilled many thousands of readers. The personal recital of those tragic events, especially in the earlier days of the war, are said to be infinitely more interesting when related by him.

The week's program is sufficiently diversified to suit most tastes for entertainment. Vocal and instrumental music forms a good part of the schedule, while instrumental music will be provided by some of the country's best known artists. Mary Adel Hays, a New York soprano of coloratura quality, will appear in recital, while Jaroslav Cimerka and his Czech-Slovak band, Madam Cafarelli, a European dramatic soprano, will appear.

Attractions Are Many
The attractions as they will appear are:

Lecture, "Worlds in the Making," by Dr. A. D. Carpenter; "Woman's Work in Reconstruction," Miss I. Louise Fitch and Mrs. Robert C. McCredie; recital by Miss Mary Adel Hays, assisted by Miss Marie Chapman, violinist; Lowell Patton, pianist; and Robert E. Millard, flutist. The Fillion Concert Party, including Harbelle, publicist, author and journalist, in addresses on salient topics; The McDonough-Eggleston company, entertainers; lecture by Edwin M. Whitely, "From Left to Right"; Jaroslav Cimerka and band, with Madam Cafarelli, soprano; Lewis Military Male quartet in two concerts; Dr. Joseph Clare, lecturer in "The

A SWIMMING POOL.

A very considerable difference of opinion appears to exist over the City with respect to the proposition of establishing a swimming pool in the new addition of the High School. Not that there is any particular objection to a swimming pool, in the High school or out of it, but there is always a question as to the best way to spend money when it comes down to a matter of choosing the thing which the money is to be used to purchase.

If there is money enough available to build a swimming pool as a part of the new addition, by all means let there be a swimming pool. A swimming pool is one of the things of which Twin Falls stands vitally in need. It is a remarkable thing that in a growing and progressive City of nine or ten thousand inhabitants, practically every moral and physical need of the community should be provided, from manual training in the schools to spiritual guidance at the hands of upwards of a dozen churches, and no provision whatever made to teach children to swim. Shall the mere accident of location be allowed to interfere with the proper development of Twin Falls boys and girls? Because there is no natural river or lake at hand, does it follow that swimming is a useless, an unnecessary, accomplishment during all the days of a Twin Falls boy or girl's life?

As a matter of fact, Twin Falls should be just a little bit ashamed of herself in the matter of this particular branch of community activity. For the past ten years at various intervals earnest little groups of men and women have advocated and worked for a swimming pool. The trouble has been that a majority of these have gone at the matter from the wrong angle. If a steam heated plunge can be added to the local High School, to which everybody shall be admitted at certain hours and under certain restrictions, well and good, but aside altogether from the question of a school swimming plant, Twin Falls should have a place where the boys can get into the water. An open pool of sun-heated water with a hedge around it should be established at some point where proper drainage is possible, and there are plenty such places in or near the City, which could be used for a skating pond in winter as well as for swimming in the summer time. Such a pool would make better, stronger and cleaner young men. It would cost comparatively little.

An elaborate natatorium covered by an ornate structure of gills and scroll work with a heating plant, dressing rooms and all the rest of the things to be found in the tank department of the New York Athletic Club, would be very excellent and exceedingly silly. What Twin Falls needs is a swimming pool; and if the High School Board is unable to provide it as a part of the new wing, it is up to Twin Falls to get it some other way.

CITIZENS HEAR TALKS ON MUTUAL POWER PLAN

D. M. Denton, Promoter, and Others Discuss Scheme for Developing Site.

Plans of the co-operative corporation promoted by D. M. Denton to develop a hydro-electric power site at Clear Lakes or elsewhere on Snake river, were discussed at a public meeting of between 100 and 150 citizens assembled last evening in the Twin Falls city park. W. A. Moore, minister of the First Christian church, presided and prefaced the discussions with the statement that he was interested in any movement in which the people solved their problems by co-operative effort. Other speakers were D. M. Denton, F. K. Hackman, E. A. Luttler, Buhl, Laka Sonney, Buhl; and Peter Ericson, Filer, the last three named being directors of the corporation. A. Anderson, mayor of Jerome, and John D. Nims, editor of the North Side News, Jerome, were called upon, and both responded briefly in general terms stating that the people of the North Side were interested in power development. During his remarks Mr. Denton said that an engineer who would meet with the directors at a meeting Wednesday evening, had offered to install one unit of a power plant to develop 1500 horsepower at a site where 4,500 horse power could be developed, for $75,000. He reported stock subscriptions in the mutual company amounting to $75,000.

THE HEART OF HUMANITY

The Picture That Will Live Forever

Read these testimonials. What prominent Salt Lake City People think of it.

It proved a genuine pleasure to me to be present at a recent trade review of THE HEART OF HUMANITY in Salt Lake City. I am not much of a "movie fan" but this picture will appeal to husband, wife, lover, sweetheart, soldier and sailor alike and in my opinion it is deserving of the patronage of any community wherever it may be shown.
GOVERNOR BAMBERGER.

THE HEART OF HUMANITY in my opinion is one of the biggest pictures that has ever been brought to the notice of the Salt Lake public. I thoroughly enjoyed its review and am so much interested in this picture that I will gladly see it again.
SENATOR FRANK NEWMAN.

I have always regarded moving picture productions as a sort of child's play, but when one sees pictures like THE HEART OF HUMANITY, as I have just seen at a trade review in Salt Lake City, I must confess that I have been disillusioned and now grasp the magnitude and possibilities of Moving pictures. This particular screen production will prove interesting to the most fastidious of theatre-goers.
E. A. SMITH, Supt. Public Schools, Salt Lake City.

THE HEART OF HUMANITY impressed me so much that I am now arranging with the different heads of the local schools to have their pupils witness same.
CARL SCHEID, Com. Public Safety.

A wonderful picture whose moral impressed me so much that I want every one of my men to see it:
J. FARLEY WHITE, Chief of Police, Salt Lake City.

Be sure and see it. Now showing today and tomorrow. Special matinee prices—15c and 25c. A slight advance for evening shows.
