Only one game yesterday in National League—Rain.

"Tub" Spence got in the game for the Bees yesterday after a long vacation during which he nursed a strained tendon, or something, in his neck.

The Bees defeated the Beavers 4 to 3, thus giving the Lakers a one-game lead on the present series.

"Lefty" Williams, once a star with the Salt Lake club of the Coast league, yesterday checked the mid flight of the Washington club. "Lefty," who draws stipend from the White Sox treasury, led the Senators down with only four hits, while the White Sox were garnering 11 off the Washington twirlers. The score was 3-0.

"Babe" Ruth might be termed a "ruthless" chap. Yesterday after Cleveland had pushed ahead in a game against the Red Sox Babe came along with his slugging arm, and ruminated a homer while the bases were jammed. This was the second the pitcher-outfielder had made during the game, and it won for the Sox 8 to 7.

Ya kahn't beat a guy like that; ya kahn't even tie him.

In the death of James A. Hart, recorded in press dispatches yesterday, one of the former bright lights of baseball has been snuffed. Hart was president of the Chicago Nationals when Cap A. C. Anson was leader of the club.

Charlie White of Chicago, and Benjie Leonard, lightweight champion, may meet in fistie encounter at Thonks Harbor Labor day. If Charlie thinks Benjie will be too tough Joe Welling may be substituted.

Nin Smiley, sagebrush sage and base ball flycatcher says, "I thought a good baseball club ain't no town 'till white."

Also Slim says "That that witness chair Hank Ford is nestin' so quiet, just now ain't half as easy ridin' as some other scum Hank provides for his regular customers."

Londoners who say Joe Beckett whip-pet Frank Goddard in their billiwick a few weeks, like that man to what they have heard of the Dempsey-Willard tilt. Beckett battered his own to bits and then made him quit the fight.

Beckett has been riding along at a rapid gait lately, knocking them out right and left. It is not asserted even by his greatest admirers that he is a wonderful boxer, but he is regarded as a corner, and certainly packs a punch.

Time may come when Beckett and Dempsey will be matched for the championship. The British is said to be the best man England has produced in a couple of decades.

Snow Baker, Australian fight promoter, has offered $100,000 for Dempsey's next bout, according to Press Agent Jack Kuzans, who is also the champ's manager. Snowy Baker wants to stage the next combat the champ engages in at Sydney, N. S. W.

Reports from "over there" indicate, as has been suggested in this column, that Georges Carpentier cannot get into championship shape for a bout for the title. The war, and some "high lights," are said to have done for the French fistie idol.

Development of Net Game Depends Upon Intelligent Publicity, Claim Mado.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The appointment of Paul B. Williams as field secretary for the National Lawn Tennis association was greeted about by the discovery that the development of the game could be significantly accelerated by an intelligent distribution of tennis news, according to a sport writer, and advice from various sources indicates that the innovation has resulted in some real co-operation with the daily papers in the dissemination of the results of tournaments to readers who are tennis enthusiasts.

This writer, commenting on the matter says: "The daylight saving law, while unquestionably a boon to every form of activity, has added another important problem to the troubles of the editor, who must have his sporting page ready for the morning editions by 11 o'clock. With half a dozen tournaments going on simultaneously it is impossible to gather the news except by telephone as the regular reporter can be present at only one or two events in the course of a day."

In order to secure adequate representation in the daily tennis news the clubs themselves must take the initiative and assist the papers in every way possible to secure reliable information. If a tennis club wants a readership and prestige it can secure both through publicity for the tournaments given under its auspices and at the same time add considerably in the spread of tennis enthusiasm.

The best results can be obtained only if a member of every tournament committee is given the definite responsibility of supplying the newspapers with all necessary information, both before and during the event.

That the same practice should work to the advantage of golf clubs and other athletic organizations staging events also is suggested by sports writers.

PRISONERS SAY VILLA COERCED ARMY RECRUITS

Threats of Bandit Chief to Kill Wives and Children Efficacious Arguments for Enlistments, Raiders Claim.

JUAREZ, Mexico, (AP)—It will be eight months, approximately, before the trial of the man captured when Villa forces made an incursion into this town June 14 and 15 is completed. This apparent delay is due in part to the demand for communication in Mexico and in part to the tangle of formality that must be unraveled before all the facts the prisoners want to get before the court can be presented.

Execution Not Penalty.

There were 43 of those men captured, but one was released soon afterward, having shown to the satisfaction of the court that he was not participant in the fighting here. The men all are charged with banditry, and, according to Judge Jesus M. Cuen, before whom they are on trial, even if found guilty none will be executed. The law does not provide for execution of persons convicted of this offense, the judge said, adding, however, that all who were convicted would be hanged.

Every opportunity will be given the accused men to establish their various defenses, it was stated at the federal court where they are on trial. Many of them come from Sonora, Chihuahua, Sonora, Coahuila, Binalda, Zacatecas, and some from this state, Chihuahua. Most of them contend that they were impressed in Villa's following. Some of them tell of threats made by Villa to return and kill their wives and children if they failed to join him while others, younger, said threats were made to other members of their families. Depositions in support of their contentions are being taken by court order in the men's home towns and this is causing much of the delay.

Children Are Victims.

One man recounted the return of a party of Villa men to a town where one man refused to serve under Villa's standard. The wife and two children of this man, the prisoner declared, were deluged with kerosene and a gun fired to them.

Some of the prisoners are hardly more than boys, and their dress is an apparent indicative of hardship; their clothing is ragged and worn and they are emaciated. Officials at the court say the condition of the prisoners is much sicker than it was when they were arrested, as charitable persons in Juarez have donated clothing to them or funds wherewith to purchase it, while the government has provided them with regular food during their incarceration.

SUGAR SHORTAGE IS NOW INTERNATIONAL PROBLEM

Americans Must Give Up Sweet Drinks or French Cakes Is View Taken in Paris.

PARIS, (AP)—American officials attempting to solve the food question, combined with a sugar shortage in France that is said to call either for Americans to sacrifice some of their sweet drinks or for the French to give up their sweet cakes, is being discussed here.

The American officials, it is understood, are decidedly in favor of allowing Americans to continue the use of sugar for their sweet drinks. The French authorities, however, are anxious to obtain sugar from the United States but exportation from the American market now is prohibited to protect American consumers.

French food officials, it is explained, were given an option last fall on an large a proportion of the Cuban sugar crop as they wished. The French have, over, took only about 10 per cent of the crop, although American officials warned them of an impending world sugar shortage. Now that the French face a serious sugar deficit which prices are lower than elsewhere.

Investigators Hear Doctrines of I. W. W.

Foreign Language Papers Are Taken in Raid Read to Committee.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Open advocacy of the Red revolution, the destruction of the American government and the forcible seizure of power by the workers was contained in magazines and leaflets in Russian and Finnish by the I. W. W., which were offered in testimony at Friday's session of the joint legislative committee which is investigating radical and seditious activities in this state. Some of the magazines were published in New York and others in Chicago.

Extracts from the magazines which were read by translators, included such sentences as:

"Burn the codes of law; take all the riches; death to the bourgeoisie."

"One of the most effective weapons in sabotage; let us attack with the ferocity of tigers."

Infant Prodigies Becoming Common in Great Britain

Baby Artist, Musician and Clairvoyant Are Introduced to Public.

LONDON (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Infant prodigies are being discovered in England almost daily. Some connect this with the psychology of war. One of the youthful marvels is Pamela Bianco, a 13-year-old girl artist, whose drawings were given the place of honor in an exhibition at one of the principal London galleries. Critics dealt with them quite seriously, and said that the work was suggestive of Botticelli and some of the other old masters. Pamela is an Italian girl who was born in England, and never had taken any drawing lessons.

Bonnie Routledge, 4 years old, little more than a baby, whose parents know nothing of music, has enjoyed six months of tuition on the violin. At the Grimsby college of violinists recently he outranked 43 competitors, most of them in the twenties and scored 110 points in a possible 120. Professor Danton describes him as a miracle.

Little Bobbie Day, aged 7, of Brighton, son of a motor mechanic, has wonderful powers of clairvoyance, according to the Weekly Dispatch. He identified or described a number of articles. These included a treasury note (giving its color, numbers and writing on the back) the color and texture of a piece of fabric he had never seen, the correct answer to a complicated sum in mental arithmetic, and figures written down at random.

After five minutes test he complained of feeling ill. "I just see little pictures, and I just say them," is Bobbie's explanation.

TO TEACH RESPONSIBILITIES

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An elaborate campaign of education has been undertaken by the government of Ecuador to impress on the newly freed peons the responsibilities that go with freedom. It was announced today by Dr. Rafael H. Elizalde, Ecuadorian minister. About 5,000 workmen were given their liberty when the law abolishing peonage recently became effective and the social structure of the state is somewhat disorganized as a result.

NIPPON CLAIMS GUARDIANSHIP OVER CHINESE

Denies Occasion for Alarm Over Return of Kiachow as Soon as Guarantee Against Third Party Is Forthcoming.

TOKIO (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Japan does not pretend to be wholly unselfish in her policy toward China," says the Herald of Asia, a conservative journal of Japanese thought. "Japan is protecting China this way for the sake of her own security," the paper continued.

Prevents Birthright Barter.

"Japan cannot allow China to barter away her birthright even if she is simple enough to engage in such folly. If China wants to lose Japan's protection, let her refuse all further concessions to occidental nations and secure for all time the installation of her territory, and Japan's task in regard to China will be finished."

"It is a question, however, whether China is yet able to do without the assistance of Japan in keeping foreign nations at bay; and this help, strange to say, is just what China does not want. Is it that China would rather be a slave of the white races than the equal of Japan? We can hardly credit this."

No Need for Anxiety.

"There is no need for China to be anxious about the return of Kiachow. Japan has promised to restore the territory to China just as soon as China is able to guarantee that it will not again fall into the hands of a third party. What more can China desire? And does justice require more? China talks as if she were an absolutely independent nation, granting concessions to no country. If she will take this attitude toward all western countries, Japan will be ready to concede China her own status. But to show a desire to cast out Japan while leaving the others in place, is something no one can expect Japan to approve."

Los Angeles Demand for Little Ones for Adoption Continues

"Child Market" Finds Homes for Many Orphans; Employ Advertising.

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The "child market," as some persons satirically refer to the demand in Los Angeles for children for adoption, continues active. Handly a day passes that the Child's Home society, which cares for orphans until it can find suitable foster parents, does not have a number of requests for children.

This demand is strengthened by regular advertisements in the want ad columns of the Los Angeles newspapers. These want ads are interesting. A sample follows:

"Wanted—A home for Viola, quiet American girl, aged 11; Irene, bright, Spanish, 11; Mary, pretty, Italian, 7; Charlotte, colored, 6; Marjorie, 6; Vera, very bright, 9; Russel, boy aged 10; American, smart, very nice appearance; John, 9, fair complexion, American; Stanley, 6, fair, small in size; Morris, 8, part Japanese, unusually quick; Jake, 8 and his brother Sam, 6, Jewish, obedient, nice boys; Sonovio, 10, Mexican, very bright and willing."

Sergeant Friedman Gets Aboard Transport with Wrong Gang and Is Adopted.

QUANTICO, Va.—How a doughboy unwittingly became a marine and the difficulties he experienced in getting away from the soldiers of the sea has just been revealed here.

Sergeant Friedman, dental corps, U. S. A., after service in France, boarded a transport home that was loaded with marines. On arrival in the United States he went with the marines to their camp at Quantico. There he found himself a full-fledged greynose with no chance of getting back to the army. No one at Quantico had authority to transfer him and it looked like Friedman was to remain a marine.

Finally however he was alleged liberty to go to Washington and present his case to army officers. Last week he was transferred to the doughboy camp at Camp Meade, Md.

July Clearance Sales

THIS time every year we start weeding our store of all Spring Goods. It is part of our policy that none are to be carried over from season to season, and we always aim to live up to it to the letter. Now we know these goods will step along lively; the reductions they cite will make them find ready owners in a hurry. So we would advise all who wish to patronize them not to wait too long before deciding to buy, for the cream of the lot is liable to be all gone, while you are thinking it over.

SAVING OR PRODUCING.

Americans must sacrifice some of their sweet drinks or the French must give up their sweet pastries.

The American officials, it is understood, are decidedly in favor of allowing Americans to continue the use of sugar for their sweet drinks.

By no large there seems to be only one solution to the problem that will be satisfactory to everybody concerned.

The United States never has produced enough sugar to supply domestic demands.

But there is no good reason why the United States should not produce enough sugar to supply home consumption and contribute in large measure to the world's supply also.

A materially advanced price of sugar that is likely to be announced before long probably is the best argument that can be put forward for increasing sugar beet acreages in the Twin Falls district.

BLIND INGRATITUDE.

Investigation made by army intelligence officers in the northeastern department comprising the New England States substantiates the complaints that enlisted men wearing the uniform are openly sneered at, and, in consequence, a request has been made to the war department to permit soldiers to wear civilian clothes while on pass or furlough.

It is a sad commentary coming as it does, in an echo to the welcoming cheers with which the home-coming service men from European fronts are greeted.

Evidently security breeds in some quarters a contempt for the forces that made and guaranteed that security, and the cult of a certain automobile maker who seems to have acquired wealth and little else in his lifetime branding all soldiers as murderers—in peacetime—seems to find more generous inaction of favor when danger is removed than before or after the menace has been removed by those agencies it affects to despise.

In respect to the armed forces of the nation there is in some quarters an evident exemplification of the truth of the old saw.

"When the devil was sick, the devil a monk would be; When the devil was well, the devil a monk was he."

The condition is one to be discouraged by whatever means that may be necessary. It not only wounds the sensibilities of a class of men upon whom the security of the nation rests no less now than in the past, but it strikes covertly at the forces of government which permit of the development of the softer forms of civilization.

The reason why you classified as will rank the right people is found in the fact that self-interest draws people to the classified.

The Magnificent Ambersons Booth Tarkington

CHAPTER I—Major Amberson had made a fortune in land when other people were losing fortunes, and the magnificence of the Ambersons began then.

Except upon the surface (which was not his own work but his mother's) George bore no vivid resemblance to the fabulous little Cedric.

"Your sister stole it for me!" George instantly replied, checking the pony. "She stole it off our chaise-lain' and gave it to me."

"You go get your hair cut!" said the stranger hotly. "Yah! I haven't got any sister!"

George jumped to the ground, and the other boy descended from the Rev. Mr. Smith's gatepost—both he outside inside the gate.

"You stop that that!" George cried fiercely, and wrenching himself away. "I guess you don't know me!"

"You pull down your vest, you ole Billy-goat!" he shouted, distinctly. "Pull down your vest wipe off your chub-aw' go to—"

"Dear Madam: Your son has caused a painful distress in my household. He made mine who is visiting in his household, insulted him by calling him 'ole Billy-goat'."

coiled under his breath: "Unless I got mad at somebody!" This satisfied a good account to which, in his own sincere belief, he never told.

As an Amberson he was already a public character, and the story of his adventure in the Rev. Malloch Smith's stable yard became a town topic.

"There were people—grown people they were—who expressed themselves longingly: they did love to live to see the day, they said, when that boy would get his come-panee!"

"Pull Down Your Vest, You Ole Billy-goat!"

CHAPTER III.

Until he reached the age of twelve George's education was a domestic process: tutors came to the house, and those citizens who yearned for his taking down often said: "Just wait till he has to go to public school; then he'll get it!"

The youngsters were still yearning when George, at sixteen, was sent away to a great "prep school."

When Mr. George Amberson Minister came home for the holidays at Christmastide in his sophomore year, probably no great change had taken place in him, but his exterior was visibly altered.

George, well-gloved, with a gardenia in his buttonhole, stood with his mother and the Major, embowered in the big red-and-gold drawing room downstairs.

faintly amused condescension. There was a difference, however. The grandson's unlined young face had nothing to offer except this condescension; the grandfather's had other things to say.

Isabel, standing between her father and her son, was a huge amazement in the mind of the latter.

Young cannot imagine romance apart from youth. That is why the roles of the heroes and heroines of plays are given by the managers to the most youthful actors they can find among the competitors.

Therefore, to bring both the middle-aged people and the young people into the same scene, she makes his romance as young as possible.

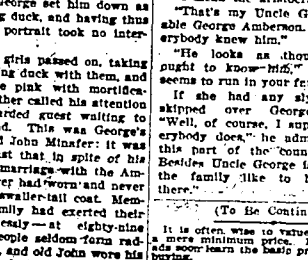

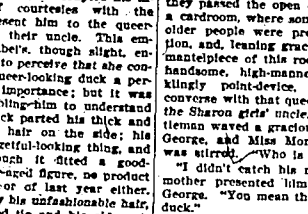

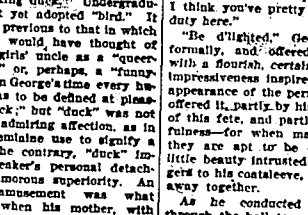

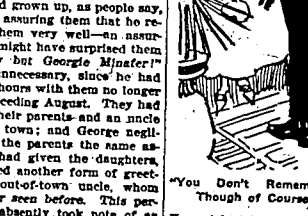

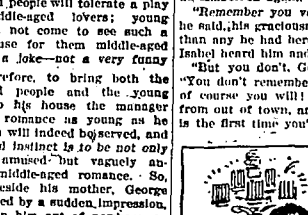

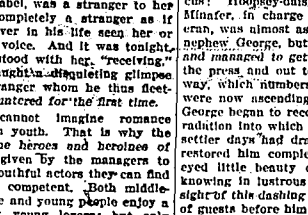

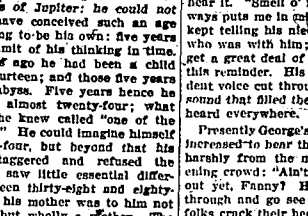

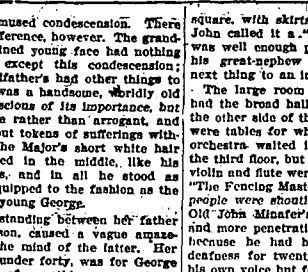

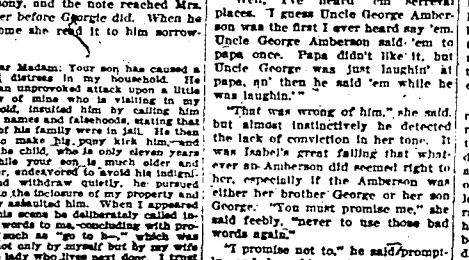

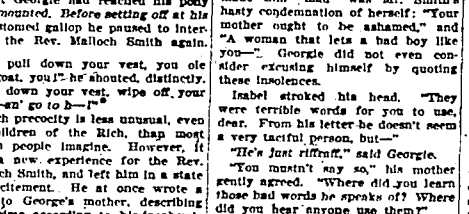

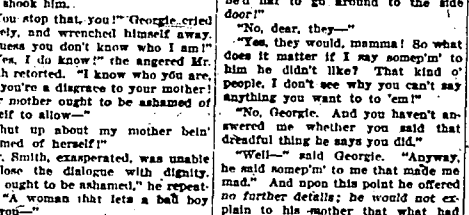

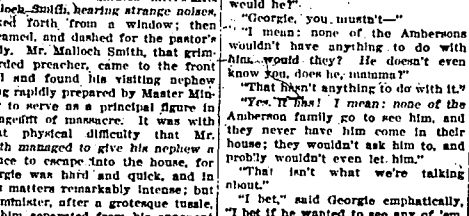

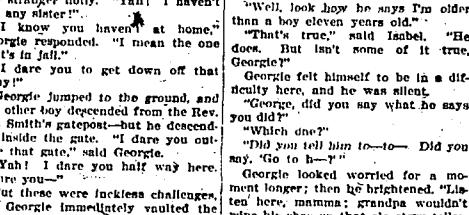

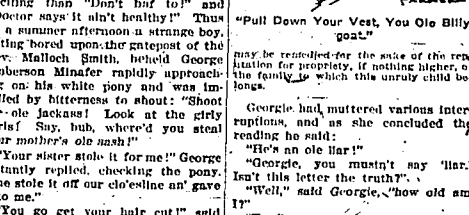

The fantastic moment passed; and even while it lasted he was doing his duty, greeting two pretty girls with whom he had arranged to meet, and warmly answering each as he remembered them very well.

"You Don't Remember Her Yet, Though of Course You Will!"

"You might take her up to the dancing; I think you've pretty well done your duty here."

"Be dighted!" George responded formally, and offered his arm, not with a flourish, certainly, but with an impressive and inspired bearing.

As he conducted Miss Moran through the hall toward the doorway they passed the open double doors of a cardroom, where some squadrons of older people were preparing for action.

PLUMBING ORDINANCE AMENDMENT PREPARED

New Municipal Law to Secure Sanitation Protection Will Be Offered Monday.

One of the matters of prime importance to be discussed at council meeting Monday night will have to do with the revised plumbing ordinance.

The old plumbing ordinance was found to be quite effective as far as it went, but the ground covered was limited and in many instances little protection was afforded property owners or tenants in the methods employed in installation of pipes and sanitary appliances and fixtures.

Electrical Currents.

Different methods are in use for keeping the supply of electricity steady in spite of the varying demands made on it. In some systems of distribution, instead of the two main conductors being one positive, and the other negative, each is positive and negative alternately, the reversals, taking place some hundreds of times a second. The current is then sold to be alternating. When such reversals do not take place, the current is said to be direct.

Coffee to Relieve Hernia.

An ancient remedy for strangulated hernia is black coffee. There seems no scientific explanation for it, but the Medical Record quotes records of three cases relieved after the administration of a cupful of black coffee, with very little sugar, every quarter of an hour. In one case the hernia reduced spontaneously after two cupfuls, another case needed four and the third needed six cupfuls.

Compressed Atmosphere.

If the atmosphere of the earth were compressed to the density of water it would occupy a space of 1,293,000 cubic miles. The idea may be expressed more vividly when it is said that the whole gaseous envelope of the earth, if compressed to this degree, would fill a tank 100 miles high, 100 miles wide and 100 miles long.

PACIFIC FLEET ON ITS WAY TO WEST SEABOARD

One-half of American Naval Power on Eventful Voyage to Test Strategic Value of Panama Canal.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va. (AP)—The vanguard of the Pacific fleet sailed from its anchorage here at 8:30 o'clock this morning bound for the westward on the Panama canal.

Through the night the great fleet lay blinking and winking its countless lights as the stars came out in the sky. The big, dim battle craft and the dim destroyers, vague shapes with brilliant eyes of light under a cloud-streaked sky, seemed to be talking among themselves about the deck.

At 8 o'clock the bugles called softly from the fleet. The hurrying white figures on each wide deck were suddenly still. It was "colors" and as the strains of the detachment march music fell on the breeze, the crew of the ship at sea in the white of the navy or in army khaki stood rigidly at attention facing the bright flags—flung from every staff in the gray fleet.

Prompts at 8:30 a. m. a destroyer steamed slowly out from the place in line behind the battleships. A double column of signal flags on the New Mexico, which Admiral Rodman's four destroyers followed, began to flash above the hulls in the order of the shore.

Once at sea, the destroyers will form a triangle about the flagship. Divisions which will steam in double columns inside this protection at a 12 knot gait. At sea, also, somewhere along the line the great dreadnaughts Illinois and Arizona will lead the scout cruiser, Birmingham, flagship of the active Pacific destroyer force.

Formidable as the fleet looked steaming out on the voyage that will end for some of the ships only after a call at Honolulu in mid-Pacific, it represented only part of Admiral Rodman's force. The destroyers he took out with him were but a quarter of those he commanded. In the rest of the Atlantic yards the others await crews to man them.

The main base of the Pacific fleet will be Puget Sound, Wash. There is the location of a work yard where the craft that sailed today and also of ships of the supply and fuel train, of the submarines, repair and mother ships, of the six big practice destroyers, four big armored cruisers and seven

Women Call for Law Not Investigations

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The housewives are "wobbling up" with congressional investigations of the high cost of living and would prefer remedial legislation, Miss Josie Hayes, legislative representative of the national consumers league, wrote today to Representative Finkham of Massachusetts.

The sailing of the great fleet today marks a complete change in naval policy, a change growing out of the domestic situation of the great war, while the German fleet existed north of Germany eyes were leveled covetously at the rich and undeveloped resources of South and Central America.

The composition of the Pacific fleet tells its own story. The three most modern ships of the fleet are the New Mexico, Idaho and Mississippi, all headed west. The people of the western coast are to see for the first time ships of this type and size, and to witness the way in which the Atlantic fleet to girdle the globe have the people of California, Oregon and Washington seen in their harbors.

Construction work, already badly crippled, will be at a standstill by the time the bulk of the new buildings of the Building Construction Employers' association, which became effective at 10 o'clock.

NEW YORK, (AP)—A slight increase in the number of vessels tied in New York harbor by the strike of firemen, pilots and watermen was reported today. Similar reports were received from other Atlantic ports.

RHODE ISLAND CAR LINES IDEAL STRIKE RESULT HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL. All street car lines of the Rhode Island company, which cover virtually the entire state, were idle today as a result of the strike of 25,000 carmen.

PHOENIX, (AP)—A fire broke out in the city of Phoenix at 11 o'clock today, destroying a large building. The fire was caused by a gas stove in a kitchen.

RIPON, (AP)—The strike on the Boston Elevated railway system entered its third day today and although there were somewhat better facilities for entering and leaving the city by train and auto buses, methods of transportation within the business districts were still entirely inadequate.

HOUSTON, (AP)—The strike on the Boston Elevated railway system entered its third day today and although there were somewhat better facilities for entering and leaving the city by train and auto buses, methods of transportation within the business districts were still entirely inadequate.

TRADING WITH GERMANY WAITS PACT APPROVAL

British and French Consuls Enter Late Enemy Country to Re-establish Trade Relations While Americans Tarry.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Though British and French consuls already have entered Germany for the purpose of re-establishing trade relations with that country, the state department here has been unable to do more than organize its own consular service for similar functions pending authority to send them into Germany. This authority cannot be secured in the opinion of the department until the present treaty has been finally ratified.

There was a recess today in senate debate on the peace treaty as well as in the conference of the foreign representatives of other powers who may undertake such certification as a matter of courtesy, it is believed.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congress will re-evaluate the permanent rank of general in the army and leave the designation of the officers to have that rank to President Wilson, subject to senate approval, Chairman Kahn of the house committee said today in discussing the president's recommendation that General Pershing be given that rank.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—All the officers of the Sovereign Camp were re-elected today in the session of the sovereign camp of the Woodmen of the World and the supreme woodmen circle meeting here.
