National Editorial Association Members at Convention to Include All Pacific Northwest As Meeting Place

SEATTLE—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—American editors and publishers, members of the National Editorial Association, are coming to the Pacific northwest next month for their 1916 convention.

Seattle has completed plans for the entertainment of the visitors. They will arrive here Thursday, August 14, and remain four days.

A special train for excursion will carry the editors from city to city. Eastern and middle western delegates will journey west from Winnipeg, Canada, on a special train of the Canadian Pacific railway.

A trip to Mount Rainier will be one of the features of the entertainment planned by Seattle and Tacoma. A banquet is to be given by the Seattle newspapers and a tour of the Puget Sound and Lake Washington has been arranged.

Senator Smoot Says National Wholesale Grocers Association Supports Meat Control Against Packers

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Renewed charges that the meat packers were engaged in propaganda for defeat of the pending legislation for the regulation and licensing of their industry, caused a lively debate Wednesday in the senate.

Senator Canyon, republican, of Iowa, author of the legislation, asserted that the packers were floundering propaganda against his bill, while Senator Smoot, republican, of Utah, denounced the National Wholesale Grocers association as just as active in propaganda in its support.

Senator Sherman, republican, of Illinois, said advocates of the bill were engaged in propaganda and that he would like to see Senator Canyon "take some of his own medicine."

Chairman Gronna of the agriculture committee, told the senate by drastic legislation would be reported until all interests were accorded hearings.

Brief Sport Bits

Only one contest in the American league yesterday. The Boston Red Sox won that against Detroit.

Just for what they did to Portland last week, and to Oakland Monday (the Reds took an awful flogging at the hands of the Oaks yesterday.

There were 31 hits registered in that game.

If Chinese peasants are becoming a nuisance on farms hereabouts we know of an old muzzie leader, scattagony, that will help eliminate the pest source.

Some days ago a story was sent out from San Francisco virtually conceding the coast league flag to Los Angeles.

Evidently the writer failed to observe the time-honored custom of knocking wood. The Angels have lost the majority of games played since that optimistic yarn appeared. Yesterday Sacramento beat them, while Yesterdays, non-stop, was hitting Seattle. This will bring the Tigers within nine points of a tie with the leaders.

The Cubs gained a bit in the National league yesterday, whipping the Robins twice. But the Giants gained, too. McGraw's husters licked the

The National league clubs yesterday tried to make up for some of the time lost honoring Jupp Fluvius during the present week. Doubleheaders were staged in several of the metropolitan communities on the other side of the other of waters.

"I'm pinning all my hopes and staking my ambition on Pitcher Lindstrom for Sunday's game," says Manager Metz, of the Grays.

If the manager loses he will be in desperate straits.

It is most likely "Blim" Neuman will traipse around first base against the Philor bunch Sunday, with Hart and Bell in the outfield. Who the other enactor in the further end of the ball yard will be even the manager of the club knoweth not.

These are right happy days for Jack Dempsey. He gets his picture in all the papers in any old kind of pose, and sits in with the old gang at Salt Lake, and tells 'em how he "tote it."

By the way, Jack says he has signed no vaudeville contract. We repeat this in his favor.

According to the latest statistics of "striking" in the Pacific Coast league Wahoo Sam Crawford is not at the top of the list, but the oldest wonder of all baseball is mighty close there. The former sidekick of Ty Cobb on the Detroit team is batting .369 for the Los Angeles club.

FORMER PRINCETON STAR TO BE COACH

Ralph Hutchinson Signed as the Mentor in Athletics at the State University

MOONCOCK—(Special)—The appointment of Ralph F. Hutchinson, former Princeton star and mentor, as assistant coach for the University of Idaho, is the first step in starting the university teams on another championship series.

According to W. C. Blannester, physical director of the University, Hutchinson will begin work with the University squads about September 15, when the fall quarter opens.

Hutchinson, well known to easterner as one of the greatest quarter backs in Princeton's football history, and who has a wide experience as coach, has been located at Washington and Jefferson College during the last year.

Although Hutchinson did not graduate from Princeton, he was a member of the class of 1902 and played on two championship teams. In 1899 he won a member of the Princeton eleven that won the national championship over Yale and is said to have been largely responsible for the victory.

After coaching at Texas, Carlyle, New Mexico and turning out excellent crowds of candy scrappers, he took the job at Washington and Jefferson where he has been working ever since. He will take charge of the football and track work here this winter.

Coach Hutchinson is said to use the canny style of football. He was brought up under the old rough and tumble rules, but is said to have been able to get onto the new style very well and to have developed his best teams under the new rules.

THREE INNINGS MUST BE PLAYED

Last Rounds of Protested Ball Game to Be Staged to Reach Decision

NEW YORK, (AP)—President John A. Heyder of the National League announced Wednesday a revised finding of the protested Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game of July 6, whereby only the uncompleted three innings of the contest will be played.

Under this ruling it will not be necessary to replay the entire game as was originally ordered.

"They will start with the seventh inning with the score of 2 to 0 in favor of Cincinnati and will play out the game to its legal termination," said Mr. Heyder's statement.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Besides Lieut. Frank H. Smith, known in the army as "Hard-boiled" Smith, two other officers and one enlisted man were convicted by court martial of cruelties to American army prisoners at prison farm No. 2, in France.

This information was contained in a report to the war department from General Pershing, which was read to a special house by investigating committee Wednesday by General Marr, chief of staff.

Smith was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment; Lieutenant Charles Joseph Mason and Helfenstein to dismissal from the service; and Sergeant Clarence E. Ball to six months imprisonment.

Were you ever disappointed with your Home-made Preserves?

Even the best recipe can't make allowances for the way sugar will harden into candy—or for the failure of a jelly to "jell".

Thousands of women are finding the ideal preserving syrup is a blend of 1/2 Karo (Red Label) with 1/2 sugar—instead of all sugar. Preserving done this way is always uniform—jelly that really "jells"—jam that is neither too syrupy nor too thick.

It gives you preserves with the natural fresh fruit flavor.

This fine, clear Karo Syrup has a natural affinity for the juices of the fruit. It blends the fruit with the sugar—makes your syrup rich and heavy, and holds jams and jellies firm and mellow, with not the slightest tendency to "candy" in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

RAIL BUILDING DELAY ALASKA'S WAR SACRIFICE

Territory Hopes to See Completion of Projected Line with Cessation of Hostilities; 150 Mile Gap Remains

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Proceeding government construction crews, laying the 471 mile railroad from Seward, in the coast, north across the continental divide to connect with the great interior river highway system, made no attempt early this summer to close the 150 mile gap across Broad Pass between the ends of the King north and south of the terminals of the road. Recent failures of congress to appropriate $10,000,000 requested to complete the road, made it impossible for the Alaska Engineering Commission which is directing the work, to plan of laying any new line. Hope has not been abandoned, however that the necessary money will be voted on July 15, Representative Curry, California, introduced a measure providing for the appropriation of $17,000,000 for the road.

One of Alaska's big war sacrifices was the delay in the work on the government railroad. During the war men were hard to get as they were needed in France, ships were needed to carry troops overseas instead of railroad supplies to Alaska and railroad materials were sent from the states to the battle fields instead of to the north.

Hope to See Work Pushed.

But now that the war is over, Alaska hopes to see the work pushed. The road would have been completed in 1917 if Congress had appropriated the $10,000,000. Manager J. L. McPherson of the Alaska bureau of the Seattle chamber of commerce recently told the senate appropriations committee. McPherson, a railroad engineer himself is in Washington on assisting in the fight for the funds.

Construction crews started this summer to connect the lake between Seward and Fairbanks, on the interior end of the road, and to build snowsheds and repair the trestles, bridges and tunnel on the line between Seward and Anchorage, on the southern end. Last year the road was opened between Seward and Anchorage and trains were operated regularly until snowsheds stopped travel. The winter, it is hoped, snowsheds will permit trains to operate at all times.

Coal already is being moved over the road, and in the railroad from the Matanuska fields to Seward and Anchorage and nearby points and it is believed the Nenana-Fairbanks road will be completed this fall so coal can be handled from the Nenana fields to Fairbanks. The Matanuska coal is moved over a thirty eight mile branch running into the coal fields from the Seward Anchorage end of the line.

Absorb Private Lines. Main line track has been laid on the road north from Seward 224 miles to Talkeetna. On the northern end the line has been built 21 miles north from Nenana and seven miles south from Fairbanks. All of the road is not being built by the government. On the Seward and the Copper River end the starting work, took over the old Alaska Northern Railway, running north from Seward. On the interior end the Tanana Valley railway, which ran out from Fairbanks was purchased. Government engineers have put both these lines in first class shape.

Some of the work on the interior end is being held up until the road from the coast is finished so materials can be brought over it from the seaports of Seward and Anchorage. At present prohibitive costs make it impossible to transport a large amount of material to Fairbanks and Nenana as supplies must be sent thousands of miles around by St. Michaels and up the Yukon River or to Skagway and over the mountains and then down the Yukon. One big piece of work being delayed until the line reaches the interior is the construction of a bridge across the Tanana River at Nenana. Last winter a track was laid on the ice of the frozen river for work trains.

SMITH IN CHARGE OF CHURCH AT HONOLULU

Son of Late Mormon President Takes Up Work at Head of Mission in Hawaii, Where He Was Born.

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP)—E. Wesley Smith, new president of the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons) in Hawaii, has arrived here to take up his work. Mr. Smith is the son of the late president of the church, Joseph F. Smith, and is a native of Hawaii, having been born here in 1886. His father made a number of visits to Hawaii as a church missionary.

The Mormon church, since the mission was established here in 1850 by President George Q. Cannon, has acquired about 9,000 members in the islands, and operates a large sugar plantation in Lailo, on this island, Oahu. A large temple recently was completed at Lailo but it will not be formally dedicated until next year. President Grant and other high church officials can make arrangements to come here from Salt Lake City for the ceremonies. It is understood the party will come as soon as steamship accommodations can be obtained.

STATE DEPARTMENT SENDS OUT WARNING

Sanitary Conditions Must Be Maintained in All Towns in Idaho

BOISE (Special)—"Prosecutions result from insanitary conditions, food purveyors in towns that are clean have nothing to fear from our inspectors."

This is the dictum contained in a communication mailed recently to municipal officers throughout the state from the office of J. K. White, public welfare commissioner. "With city health officials ready in duty of enforcing sanitary regulations in their particular communities," declared Mr. White, "inspectors representing this department never should have thrust upon them the task of educating a town to an appreciation of sanitary values. In several towns it has been necessary to institute more than the usual number of prosecutions. Inspectors were forced to take conditions as they found them and legal action was inevitable."

"My experience has been that if city health officers do their duty fully, it seldom is necessary to have recourse to legal machinery. Prosecutions almost always may be traced directly to an unfortunate laxness changeable to the derelictions of a municipal official. "In Boise inspectors A. H. Wilson and Bert T. Barr prosecuted five individuals on charges of milk adulteration, and three merchants were required to pay substantial fines when their places of business were found to be in an insanitary condition. The inference is obvious enough. Such conditions can result only from a lack of vigilance on the part of local authorities."

BRITISH MOTOR MAKERS ADOPT AMERICAN METHOD

LONDON, (AP)—A large British engineering company has announced its entry into the field of motor car production with a model which is openly regarded as an attempt to meet American competition by adopting the American methods of mass production. The company hopes to put 20,000 cars on the market in the first year. This car, says the American chamber of commerce in London, is to be of 19 to 24 horse power to carry five passengers and sell at approximately $14,000. Thus far only one car has been built and this was for testing purposes.

GERMANY PLANS TO CAPTURE THE MEXICAN TRADE

Teutons Form Societies for the Bringing About Teaching of German Language and Kultur in Schools of Republic

COBLENZ, (Correspondence) (AP)—The eyes of the commercial world of America are directed toward Mexico, according to German newspapers of recent date.

With reference to Germany's prospective trade with Mexico the German American which is devoted to the chemical industry says: "In Munich there was formed in 1918 a German Mexican society composed of educated people. The purpose of this society is to disseminate information about Mexico, lead impetus to the study of Spanish; bring about the teaching of the German language and German kultur in Mexican schools; induce Mexican salesmen to visit Germany; and induce Mexican youths to attend German universities. In March, 1919, a similar society was organized in Havana with a charter membership of 200 persons. "In Bennington there has been incorporated the 'Almece' founded by industrial firms, the purpose of the organization being to facilitate exchange of raw products and other commodities between the two countries.

"Seventy five per cent of Mexico's exports found their way to the United States which regards Mexico as its warehouse. Of course these exports will now go to Germany. Our first duty is to secure from Mexico large quantities of raw materials and not regard it as a dumping ground for German goods."

COMMERCE COMMISSION DISMISSES RATE COMPLAINT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A government complaint on behalf of the forestry service against the Sumpter valley railway company, attacking lumber rates from Oregon points to the east, was dismissed Wednesday by the interstate commerce commission which held a showing had been made of unreasonable or prejudicial rates. The government owns vast quantities of timber along the railroad and has sold three billion feet, leading to the complaint.

WOULD DECIDE AS AMERICANS ON PEACE PACT

Lenroft Says if Democrats Would Forget Wilson as Party Leader Agreement on Reservations Would Result

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Acceptance of the league of nations with reservations to protect independence of American action, was advocated in the senate today by Senator Lenroft, republican, Wisconsin. The right to determine domestic questions, to administer the Monroe doctrine and to decide upon its course in any case arising under article 10, he asserted, should be fully protected by reservations.

By President Wilson's fourteen points the speaker said, only six had been complied with in the treaty, while four had been "clearly violated" and four "not included at all." Among those violated he mentioned the stipulations relating to open covenants, impartial adjustment of colonial claims, the expression of the opinion that the league provisions were not to be effective in forcing disarmament. "The country ought to know," said Senator Lenroft, "that with very few exceptions the members of this body, irrespective of party, are in favor of a league of nations. And the country ought to know that with very few exceptions the republican members are in favor of the league now proposed, provided reservations are made protecting the rights and interests of the United States."

"I believe the United States can and should be protected by proper reservations, and with such reservations the league may be of great value in preventing future wars and securing a better understanding between nations."

Regarding article 10, Senator Lenroft said he considered that "neither President Wilson nor the senate had any moral right to obligate the United States to go to war to preserve the territorial integrity of and existing political independence of members of the league." The people should, he left from in the future, he said, "to refrain from engaging in war against their will."

"Partisanship is being charged against republicans in the consideration of this treaty," said the Wisconsin senator, "a charge which I know, at least as to the overwhelming majority of republican senators is utterly without foundation. But I do say that if senators across the aisle would only forget that President Wilson is the leader of the democratic party and remember that this is an American question, I am confident we could come to an almost unanimous agreement as to reservations for the protection of the United States."

WORKS OF BUREAUCRACY

Press dispatches say that farmers want wheat price-fixing stopped by repeal of the law. They aver that the wheat purchasing bureau has made some $23,000,000 on its deals, and they do not seem to regard this as a proper method of levying an income tax, especially when they are called upon to pay the same income tax that other people pay.

It is to be hoped that the farmers may manifest as strong an opposition to other forms of bureaucracy as they have to price fixing.

Conspicuous among the works of bureaucracy in this country during the past ten years are the legislation-locked natural resources of the west.

Well-meaning Pinchotism and long-winded LaFollettism have blocked needed legislation to allow the opening up of natural resources. The coal, oil and mineral lands, the forests, and wasting waterpowers were all to be placed under government stewardship for future generations. These theories were endorsed by the American people. They emanated from bureaucrats and department dictation.

In consequence the raw materials of the west, grain, wool, hides, lumber and minerals are shipped east to be manufactured and sent back to be sold.

A policy of return to fundamental principles of supply and demand, for instance, and a little closer adherence to the policies under which the nation has grown great would help inferentially in the solution of some existing problems.

Work With Others.
No matter how much enthusiasm, how much ardor, how much brilliancy you may have, if it is undirected it can do little or no good. Learn to work with people, not against them. Stand always for what is right and against that which is wrong, but do not throw your energy into constant striving against theories and opinions, and even against of others. Let your ardor and enthusiasm and your love of life be constructive. Strive to build up and not to tear down, for that is the way to help on in the scheme of living.

The Magnificent Ambersons BOOTH TARKINGTON

SYNOPSIS.
CHAPTER I.—Major Amberson had made a fortune in his day when other people were losing fortunes, and the man who had made a fortune in his day when other people were losing fortunes, and the man who had made a fortune in his day when other people were losing fortunes...

CHAPTER II.—By the time George went away to college he did not attempt to carry his belief that the Ambersons were about the most important family in the world. At a ball given in his honor when he was a student at the college...

CHAPTER III.—Eugene was an old admirer of Isabel and she had been anxious for some time to see him again because of some youthful indiscretion and married Wilbur Minsler.

CHAPTER IV.—George makes rapid progress in his courtship of Lucy.

CHAPTER V.—While driving with Lucy next day, George allows the horse to get beyond control and accidentally injures her, and she is apparently unhurt, for she sits up, hatless, her hair down, and smiles mildly.

CHAPTER VI.—When George suggested some measure of his presence in Miss Lucy Morgan's check, money and gold, was pressing his nose slightly to one side; and a monstrous amount of her fur had seemed to mingle with an equally unpalatable quantity of snow in his mouth.

CHAPTER VII.—Isabel watched George and Lucy dance as together they danced away the holidays of that year into the past.

CHAPTER VIII.—They seem to get along better than they did at first, those two children, Fanny Minsler said, sitting beside her at the Shamans dance a week after the Assembly.

CHAPTER IX.—Isabel laughed. "What a word to use about George! I think I know a mother who has a son home from college, except another mother with a son home from college. Yet they give up their sons to the daughters of other mothers, and find it proud rapture over them to be allowed to sit and watch."

CHAPTER X.—"Isn't he worth worshipping? Just look at him!"

CHAPTER XI.—"Oh, I'm not going to argue with you about George!" said Miss Fanny.

CHAPTER XII.—"Indeed I did, my dear!" said Isabel heartily. "I only meant that unless you had proposed it perhaps I wouldn't."

CHAPTER XIII.—"Rough on New Jersey. Oliver Wendell Holmes' idea of New Jersey, New York's next-door neighbor, was that it was a double-headed suburb, rather than a state."

CHAPTER XIV.—"I found you!" she laughed.

"For whom?"

"For whom? George! For Mr. Morgan and his daughter."

"Look here!" George said quickly.

"Don't do that!—Mother mustn't do that. It wouldn't look well."

"Wouldn't look well?" Fanny mocked him; and her suppressed vehemence betrayed a surprising acerbity.

"See here, George! Minsler, I suggest that you just march straight on into your room and finish your dressing! Sometimes you say things that show you have a pretty mean little mind!"

George was so astounded by this outburst that his indignation was delayed by his curiosity.

SUSPICION OF JAPAN UNJUST SAYS ROBINSON

Arkansas Senator Justifies the Shantung Settlement as Policy Warranted by War Exigency; No Benefit to Reject

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Declaring the treaty provision giving Japan control in Shantung had been "repeatedly misapprehended and generally misunderstood," Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, told the senate today it was unjust to suspect Japan's motives or to question the declaration of her statements that her interests eventually would be restored. "It has been stated by one senator," said Mr. Robinson, "that by the treaty Shantung with its 40,000 inhabitants is wrested from China and presented to Japan. The territory involved in this controversy is limited to a small land area of approximately 300 square miles and an equal water area. The total population of the leased area is approximately 165,000.

Germany Anticipate Seizure.

"Little dispute arises as to the origin of Germany's claims in this area. As a part of the government of the nations to secure concession in China, Germany in 1906 undertook negotiations for rights and privileges in the Kiaochow region. These negotiations were successful. March 6, 1918, Germany concluded a treaty with China by which she acquired a lease of 99 years on both sides of the bay of Kiaochow.

"That Germany regarded her rights in Shantung as subject to seizure by the allied nations at war with her is disclosed by her efforts to anticipate their occupation of the leased territory. Japan obtained possession by act of war and while in possession secured the agreement of China to recognize any settlement that she might make with Germany upon the restoration of peace. "Japanese statements have repeatedly reaffirmed the purpose to return the ceded territory to China as soon as it can be accomplished in accordance with the agreement between China and Japan. No honest man would doubt that we assume that Japan is acting in bad faith.

Japan Needed Encouragement.

"Senators have expressed indignation of Great Britain and America during the war to support Japan in her demands at the peace conference. Perhaps the same criticisms apply equally to the action of the United States following these agreements in recognizing the special interests of Japan in China. It is said they were all made primarily to encourage Japan to prosecute activities in the Far East. The crisis of the war was approaching if not at hand. The allies were straining every resource to beat back the ever-increasing forces of the enemy. "I believed then and I still believe that the policy by which Japan was commoted to the allies was both just and wise. The interest at work to ensure China to hold out do not appear calculated to result in benefit to either China or this country."

INFORMATION ON PACKERS' TRADE TO BE GIVEN OUT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Information obtained by the federal trade commission in its investigation of the meat packing industry has been under consideration for several months by the department of justice. Attorney General Palmer, it is said, expects a report about August 1.

The information, including hundreds of documents taken from the files of Armour, Swift and other packing companies, was submitted by the federal trade commission, it was announced at the time of the investigation for the purpose of deciding whether prosecution should be brought.

The "meat audit" is crowded with travelers who are on the road to market.

A TOUCH OF ANGORA FOR COOL WINDS

The pattern of gray angora at Henry's Sport gives their green triclotile a rakish fall appeal which will travel on into the first chilly days of Indian summer. The big hat—modified a bit in size but decked in sharp angles of airy plumes still rules in midday's hot world. Perhaps the velvet and beaver muffs will later arrive but for early wear lighter materials prevail.

STATE ADJUTANT WARNS CITIZENS

La Verne E. Collier, of American Legion, Tells of Fraudulent Money Soliciting

"It has been brought to my attention that efforts are being made to organize branches of the Private Soldiers and Sailors Legion in certain localities in the State and that money is being collected from former service men by local organizers, said La Verne E. Collier, State Adjutant of the Idaho American Legion today. "Since troops first began to return from camps and overseas attempts have been made from time to time to effect various organizations. Some purely local organizations were formed, which were later merged into The American Legion, the recognized and official national association of all ranks of former service men. "It appears the Private Soldiers and Sailors Legion has for its objective the obtaining of bogus money for former soldiers and sailors through the act of 'concessions' and is collecting membership fees largely for the purpose of aiding in this enterprise. This organization has no connection whatsoever with The American Legion, and it is hoped that the former service men will fully understand The American Legion is not responsible for any money that may be collected by the agents of the Private Soldiers and Sailors Legion. The American Legion has applied to Congress for incorporation papers and for national charter. It has had two official conventions, one in Paris and one in St. Louis. The convention for the formal ratification of the constitution and for the election of permanent officers will be held in Minneapolis, November 10, 11, 12th next, to which delegates from this and other states have already been elected by the state conventions.

An Open Letter From Dr. Parker

The Dental Office using the E. R. Parker System, which has been established in this city, is the outgrowth of an idea that came to me over a quarter of a century ago.

I was a dentist, with only two hands, and my professional ability was limited to what those two hands could do.

I saw that I could do no more with those two hands in a dental way than Rockefeller could do with his two hands in an oil way.

And so I began to use my head.

DR. PARKER
Founder and Executive Head of the E. R. Parker System

It was as plain as the figure 1 that by training one man to extract teeth, another to fill teeth, another to make artificial teeth, and so on, and then associating these men in one office and having them work together, there was no limit to what might be accomplished; almost no limit to the reasonable prices at which fine dentistry might be done.

It meant that materials and supplies could be bought in great quantities at wholesale, and the saving could be taken off the bills which the patient pays.

It meant that no time would be lost in operating, and a saving of time is always a saving of money.

I carried out this idea in one office and it worked—worked better than I had ever hoped.

If one office was a success, why not two or ten or twenty or any number?

So I began establishing offices using the E. R. Parker System as fast as I could find competent dentists to conduct them, with the result that there is a Parker System office in this city.

This briefly describes the E. R. Parker System, based on the idea of lowering the price of dentistry by doing more of it and doing it better.

No charge is made for examinations of teeth, counsel or advice.

You are invited to visit this office, where you can see what modern dentistry has grown to be, and how little the price will be for having such work done as your teeth require.

DEPORTATION OF ENEMY ALIEN SET ON CALENDAR

Legislative Slate to Be Disposed of Before recess of Congress in Framing in Caucus. WASHINGTON, (AP)—Included in legislation which the house expects to dispose of before the proposed recess to begin next month will be a bill for the deportation of 500 enemy aliens, now at internment camps, and a measure to prevent foreign ships from engaging in coastwise trade. A tentative legislative slate was agreed on at a party conference of Republicans last night, but framing of a definite program was left to the steering committee for a report at another conference next week. Efforts of some of the house Republicans last night to increase the steering committee from five to seven or nine, were voted down. A recess of a month to begin in August practically was agreed on. The conference was reported to have been harmonious.

The Camel's Swiftness. Everyone has heard of the swiftness of the dromedary, that on his native sands he can travel faster than an Arab horse. There is a picturesque Eastern proverb which declares: "When thou shalt meet a camel and say to the rider, good morning, before he shall have answered, he will be far off and out of sight, for the camel's swiftness is like the wind."

Draw Many to Worship. Describing the three fair daughters of an aristocratic New Yorker a century or so ago a writer of the period says: "The father used to take his daughters to the church of Doctor Matthews, that stood in Garden street. Such a lovely trio were rarely seen. They took all the young gallants from the other downtown church and drew a full house."

Safes Proved Their Value. In the great fire at Chicago, October 8 to 11, 1871, the buildings of 18 national banks were destroyed. It was feared that the banks would suffer in many cases an almost total loss, but after the safes recovered from the flames were opened it was found that the books, papers, etc. were in a condition to permit the recovery of debts, and the banks suffered no loss on that ground.

Smoking in Church. Sir Walter Scott records how farmers in the country districts of Scotland were accustomed to light up an pipe as the minister announced the text. Isaac Barrow called tobacco parpharmicon, or curull. Bishop Burnet was so loath to part with his pipe that he cut a hole in his hat to support it. Doctor Parr used regularly to smoke in the vestry before his sermons. When the congregation was singing "My people like long years," he said, "but I prefer long days."

Delicate Mechanism
Despite its scope Swift & Company is a business of infinite details, requiring infinite attention.
Experienced men must know livestock buying with a knowledge of weight, price, the amount and quality of meat the live animals will yield.
Each manufacturing operation must be done with expert skill and scientific precision. A highly perishable product must be handled with speed and care to avoid loss.
Chemists, engineers, accountants, and other specialists are required to take care of our intricate problems.
Alert wisdom and judgment must be used in getting stocks of goods into the open channels of demand through our four hundred branch houses.
Branch house organizations must show activity and energy to sell at the market in the face of acute competition from other large packers, and hundreds of small ones.
All these requirements of intelligence, loyalty, devotion to the task, are met in the personnel of Swift & Company. Yet the profit is only a fraction of a cent per pound with costs at minimum.
How can the workings of this delicate human mechanism be improved upon?
Do you believe that Government direction would add to our efficiency or improve the service rendered the producer and consumer?
Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you.
