COUNCIL PUTS ITS BAN UPON RESERVATIONS

Peace Conference Tells Rumania She Must Forego Qualifications or Abstain from Signing Austrian Treaty

FIRM REPLY TO GERMAN NOTE BEING CONSIDERED

Position is Taken that Teutons are Violating Treaty Before it Becomes Effective, Precluding Ratification

PARIS, (AP)—The supreme council of the peace conference today informed Rumania that she must sign the peace treaty with Austria without reservation or abstain altogether from signing the Rumanian peace delegation has not yet reached a decision in the matter.

The Rumanian delegation has sent a note to the peace conference declaring that its intention was to sign the Austrian treaty with reservations. The supreme council this morning took the Rumanian note under consideration. It appears unlikely that such a signature will be permitted.

German Note Considered Premier Clemenceau presided at the council meeting which also discussed the German reply to the allied demand for suppression of article 61 of the German constitution providing for Austrian representation in the German parliament. The discussion of this subject was not completed today. The council will take it up again tomorrow.

While the council probably will spend several days on the reply to the German note before completing it, it is considered certain that the answer will be extremely firm in tone, taking the position that Germany is violating the treaty before it becomes effective, thereby rendering it impossible for the allies to ratify it.

PERSHING RETURNS HOME WORLD FAMED AND HONORED AS A CONQUEROR HERO

Big Guns Boom General's Salute and Cheering Crowds Greet Commander of Largest Host Ever Assembled Under Stars and Stripes; Dignitaries of Nation, State and City Extend Welcome at New York Pier

FIRST DAY AT HOME IS FILLED WITH RECEPTIONS AND OTHER FESTIVITIES

NEW YORK, (AP)—Pershing is home again. Standing on the bridge of the huge Leviathan, itself symbolic of victory over Germany, the commander of the greatest host ever gathered under the Stars and Stripes, came slowly up the bay today, world famed and hailed as a conquering hero should be.

Splendid Figure of Soldier Sad of face stern and impressive, a splendid figure of a soldier, he might have been thinking, as the familiar landmarks of New York opened up to him, it remained for New York to show the first American to lead an army across the Atlantic that "home, sweet home" has a meaning deeper than "Hail to the Chief."

No foreign hearts could voice the cheers, no alien throats could pulse the greeting that was General Pershing's here today. There was a hint of tears in the welcome for those who gave it knew that not even the plaudits of a grateful people could banish from the great soldier's mind the memory of his own life's tragedy.

Gun Boom Salute Dawn barely had broken when the Leviathan loomed through the mists off Ambrose channel lightship. Steaming slowly through the narrow passageway, the great steamship was greeted by a salvo of six destroyers while seaplanes circled overhead. The forts which guard the harbor boomed a general salute as the ship which once was the pride of Germany swept past quarantine and nosed through the narrow into the harbor under the shadow of the Statue of Liberty. While the guns still echoed, the whistles of merchant vessels from the seven seas, sturdy tugs, gaily decorated ferry boats, or excursion craft of every kind, and the sirens of factories on shore joined in a discordant salutation.

The shores of Staten Island, Brooklyn, New Jersey and Manhattan were lined with thousands whose shouts of greeting came faintly across the waters of the bay to the familiar figure on the Leviathan.

THREE KILLED AND FORTY INJURED IN FIRE ABOARD PACIFIC FLEET FLAGSHIP

Flames, Believed to Have Originated from Cigarette, Spread from Rheostat Room to Ice Machine Compartment where Two of Victims are Caught; Engine Man Attempting Rescue is Third to Lose Life in Fatal Accident

ONE THOUSAND VISITORS ON BOARD QUICKLY CLEARED FROM BOAT SIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Reports of the death of three members of the crew of the U. S. S. New Mexico, flagship of Admiral Hugh Rodman, and the injury of forty others in a fire aboard the vessel here last night, were confirmed today by officers who directed the fire fighting.

According to P. Billy, chief gunner's mate, the dead are: William M. Savage, engine man, second class.

Ellis, George Dixon, mess attendants, third class. The most seriously injured were Lieutenant Commanders P. I. Carroll and C. M. Williams, Assistant Surgeons G. G. Halpin, Norton, Havassy, E. B. Brown, and J. G. Mills, ensigns B. W. Albert, C. T. Wooten, Barron, and Miller, Gunners Mate.

All were victims of suffocation with the exception of Savage, who was drowned in the ice machine room, according to Billy.

Official confirmation of the fire and deaths and injuries resulting therefrom was lacking. Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, who was ashore at the time of the fire, said he was unable to confirm any details of the occurrence.

A board of investigation was named at once and the scheduled departure of the vessel for Seattle tonight was cancelled. The estimated damage to the ship was $100,000.

The fire started in the rheostat room, presumably from a cigarette, spreading to the ice machine room where the ice machine was getting ice. Savage went to their rescue and after sending them out of the room was caught in a rush of water with which the compartment was being flooded.

He abandoned his life if the water was too deep, according to Billy. He estimated the damage at $100,000.

Drill Mask: Make Trouble Billy said he had charge of the distribution of gas masks but in the excitement some of the men suffocated. Billy said he had drill purposes only to keep out the smoke and fumes.

The principal damage was done to the rheostat, dynamo and ice machine rooms. Approximately 1,000 visitors on board when the fire broke out were cleared from the vessel's side in half an hour and there was no confusion. Billy said.

Admiral Rodman was said to have announced that the board of inquiry would be assembled at once, but details of the fire and the resulting damage to the vessel were not available here today.

An increase of 25 cents an hour for employes who received between 40 and 50 cents an hour prior to the award of February 15, 1919. RAILWAY STRIKE DECISION LEFT TO CONVENTION

Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes and Shop Employes Convenes in Detroit to Determine Policy

DETROIT, Mich., (AP)—Whether there will be declared a strike there it is claimed would tie up all rail transportation in this country and Canada, will be decided at the convention of the international union of brotherhood of maintenance of way employes and shop laborers, which was to open here today.

With from 2,000 to 3,000 delegates representing it is stated, 6,000 maintenance of way and shop workers, the convention is ready to consider action on the strike vote canvassed last week which stood 325,000 for and 5,000 against the proposed strike, should wage demands of the brotherhood be denied. Director General of Railroads Walker said he is expected to address the convention during the "conventioning."

The brotherhood also asks a new working agreement which, with the wage demands, has been laid before the director general. Officials of the organization have expressed the view an agreement satisfactory to the union may be reached.

It is claimed 25 per cent of the maintenance of way and shop workers represented receive less than $2.50 a day. An increase in wages of 10 per cent, per man, is demanded.

MINERS' ARMY PUTS OFF RAID

West Virginia Governor Induces Militant Mine Workers to Return Home

CHARLESTON, W. VA., (AP)—The several thousand miners who took up a march across country Saturday with the avowed purpose of forcing non-union miners in Logan County to join their organization, were prevailed upon Sunday to desist in their efforts after almost hourly telephone conferences throughout the greater part of the day between Governor Corwell in this city, and Frank Kenny, president of district No. 17, United Mine Workers. The men started back to their homes last night, according to reports from Corwell and Clotier, at which points they had camped over night.

In announcing that he would make a statement Monday, Governor Corwell said that there had been some mysterious radical influences working about this part of the state. False reports were spread to radical newspapers, and these were mailed to every mine within reach in this part of the state. The governor said he would call upon the mine officials of this district, and also the officers of the national organization of mine workers to investigate the element that is responsible for the false reports, and that they must be dealt with rigorously.

An eight hour day and a six-day week for special policemen and watchmen. Double pay for overtime. Wage increases to be retroactive from July 15, 1919.

The wage increases demanded apply to every class of labor employed by the packers. Under the proposed scale hammermiths would receive $1.50 an hour, blacksmiths $1.00 an hour, and other classes of skilled labor would receive $1 an hour.

Judge Alschuler, who has handled a number of strikes, has been asked to increase the wage demands of the packers.

PURCHASE OF PHILIPPINES IS PROPOSED

Japanese Newspaper Writer Suggests Possible Solution of Nippon's Problem of the Growing Population

TOKIO. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The suggestion that Japan purchase the Philippine islands from the United States and the Dutch East Indies from Holland as a means of solving the problem of Japan's ever-growing population is made by a writer in the Herald of Asia, a conservative Japanese weekly journal. The writer contends Japan is bound to expand territorially as she is expanding her population. Pointing out that the population has more than doubled in the last fifty years, being now over 57,000,000, he estimates that at the rate of increase the population will in the other fifty years have reached 114,000,000.

Has Bye on All Islands

It is not too much to hope, he argues, that "some day justice and destiny will decide that the islands on this side of the Pacific, north of the equator, will come under the jurisdiction of Japan." He asks the question whether America intends to keep out Japanese emigrants and will hold the Philippines permanently. If not, why should she not some day sell them to Japan? He adds: "Having closed her eyes to the American and Christian altruism, as a gracious act on her part and one that would be but naturally expected from a country boasting of so much philanthropy and Christian altruism."

As for the Dutch East Indies the article contends the inhabitants are more akin to the Japanese than to Holland and that Japan could administer the islands with greater benefit to the whole to the people and to herself than could Holland which, moreover, is a small country untroubled with surplus population.

Form Line of Defense

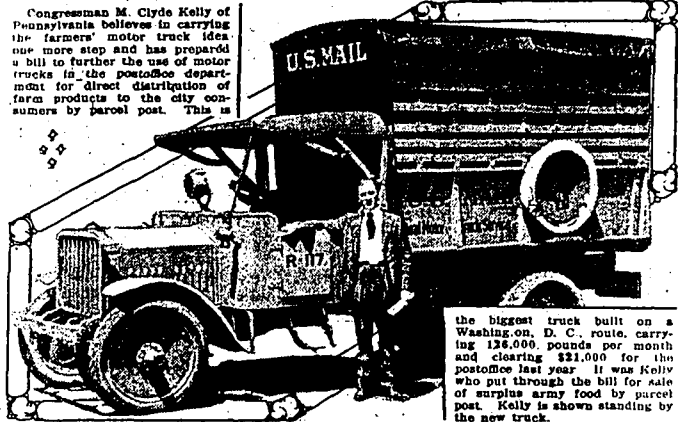

It is pointed out also that the Dutch East Indies form the southern line of Japan's defenses and that more than once the independence of these islands has made them a menace to her safety.

After remarking that the Japanese do not like to settle in cold climates like Hokkaido or Siberia, the writer concludes: "Certainly it would be better to let Japan have them than to let them pass into other hands, a contingency that Japan could not contemplate. There was no surprise when America purchased the Danish West Indies. There should be no surprise if Japan should purchase the Dutch East Indies. Were Japan one in command of the Banda straits she could block her naval programs and feel at ease both as to defenses and population for all time to come."

Buying opportunities are not for the select few. The stores advertise their offerings.

Venerated Relic Lost.

The Black Rod was a relic brought to Scotland by the wife of Malcolm Canmore, and long held in extreme veneration by the Scots. It consisted of a cross of gold, inclosing a piece of the true cross, set in an ebony figure of Christ. It was deposited with the regalia in Edinburgh castle, and carried with them to England by Edward I, and used by him to give increased solemnity to the oaths he exacted from the Scottish magnates. All trace of it is now lost.

Camouflage Would Save Ship.

A submarine can spot a ship five miles away, estimate its course, submerge and later intercept it. But this ship might have a keel painted fifty feet down its side and the actual keel blocked out. This would give it the appearance of traveling in a course that was quite off the actual course. The calculations of the submarine would be quite wrong and the ship would not be intercepted at all. It would be saved by the deception of its camouflage.

Hall of the Mariners.

It is said that it is customary for every English Christian sailor to hail any companion English vessel with the words, "494, sir." Immediately the reply is received, "O farther on." NATURE BLOTS OUT WAR SCARS

No Man's Land is Covered with Mass of Red Poppies. Officer Says

DOVER, ENG. (AP)—Former British officers returning from France and Belgium where they have been going over the ground where a year ago they were still fighting, express astonishment at a manner in which nature is blotting out the scars of the war.

"No Man's Land everywhere is covered with a mass of scarlet poppies," said one officer, "and the disappearance of the rusty barbed wire makes one almost forget the place was ever the most desolate prospect a man ever saw. But the trenches are still there and so is much of the timber, both startling reminders of the days when we did not know just what was going to happen next."

Good Health and Good Teeth Go Together

By DR. PARKER

Founder and Executive Head of the E. R. Parker System

THE Government, States, counties, cities, towns, schools, churches and welfare workers everywhere are beginning to tell people how necessary it is to keep the teeth clean, for if the teeth be bad, good health is impossible.

The medical profession itself is learning that many diseases begin in the mouth, and that obscure troubles which defy all medicine are often due to tooth decay that a competent dentist only can overcome.

Theodore Roosevelt's death, it is reported, was hastened because of bad teeth. A little more attention to his teeth and a little less to public matters, and the great American might be with us yet.

Registered Dentists using the E. R. Parker System are working in close harmony with this move for better health through better teeth.

Every reader of this paper is invited to visit the office using this System and have thorough tooth examinations made, there being no charge of any nature for counsel and advice.

You can thus learn if your teeth are decaying, or if your system is being poisoned by unseen ulcers or abscesses at the tooth roots.

DELIBERATE DICK DAVIS DOWNS BUHL'S BALL BUSTING BEAUTIES

Imported Flinger Displays Championship Wares for the Greys in Sabbath Exposition of the National Game—Domestics Win 4, to 2, Thus Going into Tie for Last Place

At last! Yesterday, Sunday, September 7, 1919, the Greys baseball pride of our ball park after many weary weeks, won a ball game. Let the record be borne in mind, for the thing may never occur again.

The Greys, aided and abetted by Daring Deliberate Dick Davis defeated the Buhl bunch 4 to 2. The game was tame and, except for the fact that the domestics carried off the honors of the day, uninteresting.

Should Live Long Albeit the home contingent played its best game of the season, probably because for the most part Daring Dick did most of the doing. The imported flinger, though displaying no extraordinary measure of ambition, held the vulgar opposition well in hand most of the time, uniting distance, Dick served nothing of a particularly amazing or puzzling character, except when danger loomed, and he was compelled to work himself out of bad places.

Hostile Hurlers Buhl failed to measure Davis for anything like a week. The sixth inning Paul picked one of Dubious Dick's groovers for three bases, Peet just reached over and caught the ball on the trademark, the hit going straight against the palliade back of Joe La Chance' in right field. The hostile marked up the first score on a slow waltz of Shields from Hart to Neumann, after Hart has mowed the play in an over-anxious attempt to nip Peet at the plate.

A three-bagger in the ninth, followed by single, with two men out, gave the invaders their fourth run. Taken as a whole the domestics played a greatly improved game in the field over transacting a "double-play" on critical stage. The twin-killing, however, was more or less gratuitous on part of the tunnel hostiles, who declined to waste effort running out hits unless they seemed a reasonable probability of heating out the throw. Loafiness was one of the prime characteristics of his invaders' play.

Paul is Winner Over the "State Champs" Oansing Three-Team Tie-up in League
BURLLEY (Special)—Paul bested Burlley yesterday in one of the most interesting ball contests of the season. The game was played at Paul and resulted in a count of 3 to 2 for Paul. A home run hit by Rogge of Burlley, was the outstanding feature of the tilt. Umpiring was subject to much criticism by both sides.

CURSORY COMMENT CONCERNING CONTEST

The outstanding feature of yesterday's game was the unwillingness of the Buhl batters to make attempts to reach first base on doubtful plays.

Half a dozen times at least visiting batters gently, but firmly declined to run down after making hits to the infield, losing many chances to get on by this action.

In the sixth inning Hart might have prevented Peet's score had he not been over-anxious to make the play at the plate. The foreign twister had riddled third on a three-play smash with one out, and when Shields punched a short infield blow toward second Hart fumbled, losing the chance at home. He got Shields at first base, but Peet had scored.

Umpiring was bad clean through, Whitel being as miserable as, if not worse at times than Moore, whose favoritism toward the Buhl team was palpable in the extreme. Whitel made matters a lot worse for himself when he argued with the crowd over decisions.

When Moore renders a decision he uses his hands much after the manner of a professional gunman in a "tag" holdup.

Sim Smiley, angebrush sage, says: "If the sanitation commission of this city would know about a full-fledged, 100 per cent pestiferous place we kin refer him to 'the' cesspool maintained at the east end of 'th' ball park grandstand.'"

The files at the game displayed a lot more "pep" all through the proceedings than was shown by the players.

Beck, the visiting shortstopper, made an aerobic play on Neumann's out in the first frame. The hit was lifted just back of the midway field of short and third, Beck racing over sideways to take the catch, fell on his right ear and momentarily stood in that position. He made the out cleverly.

Fans were sadly disappointed because there was little opportunity to start something. The Buhl players were evidently under restraint, fearing reprisals in payment of what happened to Twin Falls in Buhl recently.

Start of the tilt was delayed 15 minutes on account of lateness of the Buhl pug to reach the playing field.

Ray Eubanks caught a beautiful game, and pegged well to base. This youngster, however, seems to be developing a dilatory disposition. He invariably arrives at the playing lot late to start play, and never in a hurry to work out with his mates. A fun and irritating system.

ALL TEAMS TIED IN THIS LEAGUE

Three Clubs in Draw for Top Position, Two Others Stuck for Fifth Place

Three teams are tied for first place in the Southern Idaho league, and two teams are tied for fifth position.

Now would that be regarded an anomalous situation, or just plain queer? Yesterday Paul bested Burlley and Rupert takes credit for a game forfeited by Filer, thus giving each of the three leading clubs seven games won and two lost, for a mark of 778.

Whether a deciding series shall be played, with three runners on the championship set, and two for the lowly position, or just flip a coin and let heads or tails decide. The problem is up to the directors of the league to decide.

And Burlley has gone and played a "championship series" with Boise for the state mantle—and won it 6-3.

Now it's got to be done all over.

But how? Aye, there's the rub, for not one of the three leading teams unless it be Paul, is able now to fling its full strength against the foe. Burlley is in the hospital, and the services of Filer, immediately, and Burlley has lost the sturdy help it has been deriving from Catcher Perkins and Outfielder Cortz, both of who are in an infirmary for surgical treatment, resulting from trouble occurred during the Reburg series. Both these eminent gents of the national game were spilled during the rough play at Reburg, and may not recede the hits for service again this season.

With Babe Evans gone from Rupert that team could not hope to be a winner, unless a pitcher of such sterling qualities as the ruber postures, can be had, and such an one cannot be found outside the regular lineup of a Pacific Coast league club, and the race is open for surgical treatment, resulting from trouble occurred during the Reburg series. Both these eminent gents of the national game were spilled during the rough play at Reburg, and may not recede the hits for service again this season.

At present, however, the whole league is a tie-up.

Delaying Ratification: The threat of bolshevism seems to have a close affinity with the peace treaty lately negotiated at Versailles...

Speaking Saturday in the cause of unqualified American ratification of this treaty, President Wilson soberly suggested the possibility that bolshevism might spread in threatening proportions to the United States unless the treaty were ratified promptly...

Previously Mr. Wilson has said that nothing can be done toward the settlement of the railroad problem, the high cost of living problem or any of the other great problems now confronting the nation until the treaty were ratified...

Mr. Wilson is putting forth these extreme appeals for the acceptance of the treaty at what, it is to be hoped, is the close of a most elaborate campaign of propaganda that has been waged for months through chautauque systems, through donations of stereotyped plate matter to the press, and through every other means susceptible to use of propagandists in the interests of ratification of the treaty...

There is one certain course in pursuance of which the treaty might be ratified quickly. That is by compromise on terms of reservations proposed by those senators whose acquiescence must be gained...

Disposition to compromise is not acting on one side, but that side is not the side of which the president is the chief exponent. The president just now is not in a compromising frame of mind, if his public utterances are to be accepted as fully; although prior to this time, during his activities in Paris, he was very largely amenable to compromise and in that situation accepted some compromises of which the Shantung deal may serve as an example...

It is not to be doubted that a great majority of the senators whose objections to the peace treaty in its present form hold up ratification are actuated by pure and honest motives. Nor is the hope to be entertained that they will recede from this position under duress...

Unless something very different develops than has heretofore been made apparent, ratification of the peace treaty can be accomplished only when a basis of compromise is agreed upon, and present tactics are not heading in that direction.

POLITICS BARRED IN EXAMINATION

Postmaster at Rogerson to Be Chosen According to Merit Alone

Politic consideration is barred altogether from the examination for postmaster at Rogerson, Idaho, according to an announcement just received from the New York office of the National Civil Service Reform League. According to the order of President Wilson taking first, second and third class postmasters out of politics, the appointment must be given to the applicant receiving the highest rating in the competitive examination.

In many localities where examinations have already been held, the league's statement says, there has been an attempt by politicians to create the impression that the examination was only a screen for political manipulation. So successful has this propaganda been in certain cases that many qualified persons who would otherwise have applied have refrained from doing so, believing that without political "pull" it would be useless.

The league urges that no attention be paid to such reports, but that all citizens residing within the delivery of the post office, both men and women, apply for the position if they believe they are qualified to fill it. In this way the community will be assured of securing the best person available for the position.

The examination in question will be held on September 24, 1919 at Twin Falls.

WILSON REPLIES TO RESERVATIONISTS EXPLANATIONS OF TREATY

ly didn't want to come in now but wanted to be "late joiners."

Any reservation regarding the Monroe doctrine, he added, was unnecessary, because the doctrine had been "swallowed, hook, line and sinker" by the peace conference and should be authenticated by the big powers of the world for their signature. There was no trick about it, he asserted, for the document was the "work of honest men."

Work of Superrogation

So far as reservations about domestic were concerned, he declared, it would be a work of superrogation.

"We didn't ask Germany's consent about the meaning of any one of those terms when we were in Paris," he said. "We told the world they mean and said 'sign here.' Does any patriotic American want that method changed?"

There were cries of "no, no" from the crowd.

If reservations were put in, Mr. Wilson told them, all that the senate had written in would have to go back for the consent of Germany. He added that there were indications that those on the other side of the water are not in as good a humor as they had been.

The only way we wanted the provision to be bettered, Mr. Wilson declared, would be to go to war with Japan, England and France. He told the crowd the nation could not "sign all but a part of a treaty."

"We cannot rewrite this treaty," he said. "We must take it or leave it."

He said he believed the treaty should be accepted soon, but added:

"But no man can tell how long it will take the United States senate to do anything." The president said he had had some men who wanted the United States to stand alone for an "armed Pan-Americanism," but he did not believe the people would accept it.

He paid a tribute to Senator Hitchcock, the democratic leader, for the treaty fight, whose home is in Omaha. He had "been proud to stand by Senator Hitchcock," he said, in the fight.

On the article in the league covenant, Mr. Wilson said anyone who understands the English language must admit that when it is said the league could "have its members" and "not compel" it. He characterized the league as "the only possible guarantee against war," and said he would feel reluctant to those who fought the war if he did not secure its adoption.

Audience Fills Hall

Mr. Wilson spoke to a crowd of Nebrawkans and Iowans which filled every corner of the auditorium, said to seat 7,500 persons. He was taken for an eight-mile automobile ride on the way to the hall, women of the Red Cross motor corps driving the party.

On the downtown portions of the ride there were crowds which cheered the president and in the residential sections small crowds had gathered here and there.

Although the presidential special had left Des Moines, where the president and Mrs. Wilson had rested over Sunday, at midnight, it was sidetracked for several hours among the Iowa cornfields near Underwood, so that those on board could complete a full night's rest. It was about 9 o'clock before the train rolled into Omaha. Leaving immediately after his address, the president was to speak tonight at Sioux Falls.

The president was introduced by G. W. Wattles, state president and secretary of the league to enforce the treaty. There were dozens of Mr. Wilson rose to speak. Mrs. Wilson was on the platform.

Representative of People

Mr. Wilson said he was happy to appear for ratification of the treaty, not as the representative of a party, but as the representative of the whole people, saying he believed the people had been led to think there were only four or five clauses in the peace treaty.

He said he was proud to be chosen to a bulky volume, containing the treaty text. Those who picked little flaws in it, he declared, had no conception of the majesty of the document.

Everyone who had read the treaty, declared the president, agreed "at it contained" a complete settlement of the matters that led to this war, and that it contained the machinery by which they shall stay settled.

The disputed land titles of Europe had been settled by the treaty, Mr. Wilson continued, on the basis that in each case the land belonged to the people that lived on it.

The "charter of liberty for the warring men of the world," Mr. Wilson said, never had been dreamed of before. He added that there was only one way to see to the enforcement of such provisions and that was through a league of nations.

Germany Must Pay

Declaring the league would include the great peoples except Germany, the president said Germany would be admitted "after a period of probation." He referred to charges that the treaty was too harsh, and said it provided only that Germany pay what she was able. She had committed a "criminal act," he said, and must suffer and pay.

Confidence that the United States would enter the league at its formation was expressed by Mr. Wilson, who said the only alternative would be to stay out and then come in later along with Germany.

Emphasizing the arbitration features of the league, he said in case those processes failed the result would be war, but an economic boycott and isolation under which the strongest nation in Europe could not stand for six months. After that, he predicted, "they will have no stomach for war."

WANTED LOT OF KEYS: STOLE 'EM FROM CARS

Six Year Old Shaver Strips Nine Autos of Starter Box Openers—Caught

The boy wanted a bunch of keys "just like daddy," so he stole them from automobiles standing on Main street Saturday night.

If long as the purpose of the keys will be properly preserved through this story the name of the boy and "daddy" will be withheld. The purpose is to draw attention to auto owners to the necessity of carrying their starter-box keys with them when they leave machines parked anywhere, and also to let those who have lost such keys know where the best keys can be found.

"Sammy" is but six years of age. Daddy wears a big bunch of keys attached to his belt. The boy wanted a bunch just like that, and he discovered a way to get his wish filled.

Saturday night a machine owner, who resides in Twin Falls, watched the shaver passing from one car to another on Main street, and decided to investigate. He took the lad in custody and succeeded in getting delivery of nine starter-box keys. The boy was turned loose when the keys were delivered into the keeping of Frank Haun, night policeman. They are now at the sheriff's office for delivery to the owners.

Swan Song

According to Piny ("Natural History") "Swans, a little before their death, sing most sweetly," and it is from this that the "swan-song" has acquired a figurative use—the last work of a poet or musician, composed shortly before his death. To the English people of Transylvania's declining days, "Crossing the Bar" was that poet's swan-song, even as the music of Schubert was the swan-song of Karl von Weber.

The Swan of Cambrail was Fenelon, archbishop of Cambrail, born in 1651 and died in 1715. GODSEY MINORS WILL BECOME STATE WARDS

Juvenile Officer John Ault Called to Buhl to Take Charge of Destitute Children

The A. J. Godsey family is again attracting the attention of juvenile authorities.
 This morning Juvenile Officer John R. Ault was called to Buhl to straighten out the tangled domestic affairs of the much "courtied" family. This time the job is to be done so thoroughly that the children, the minor members of the household at least, will be permanently cared for.
 A. J. Godsey and one of his sons, aged 15, first brought the household into the calcium when they became embroiled in an affray at a dance near Buhl in July, the elder man cutting a dance hall proprietor with a knife, and the boy doing something with a .22 rifle. This affray ended in the boy's being sent to the state industrial institution, while the parent was held in the district court for trial, later being released on small bond to permit him to be of assistance in maintaining his family.
 Local authorities have been advised that Godsey failed to provide any help for his wife and offspring after being released, and a son, 18 years of age, also declined to contribute to their support. After being notified with Godsey, however, are said to have utterly failed, the man either being in hiding or having left the country, officials believe. He is now wanted on behalf charges.
 In the past week Mrs. Godsey became a patient at a hospital and the family has been thrown entirely upon the mercy and charity of their neighbors. There is a son about 14 years of age, the rest of the children, except one girl, being younger. It is the plan of the juvenile authorities to place the younger children and give them in custody of the state for bringing up and educating.
 Charged with the duty of finally bringing about a satisfactory solution of the Godsey domestic problem, Mr. Ault has gone to Buhl today.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN REAL FILM, 'MARRIED'

Marguerite Clark can "register" more happiness in a "real" film than a reel film. She proves it here, leaning on the arm of her husband, Lieut. H. Palmerson Williams of the U. S. Engineers. The dainty movie star married more than a year ago as her husband was starting overseas. Williams is a prominent business man associated with his father at New Orleans.

RAILROAD'S TARDINESS DELAYS CRUSHER PLANT INSTALLATION

Failure to Build Spur Track to Highway District Quarry Holds Heavy Machinery on Cars in Yard 10 Days—Other Work Proceeding Apace—Road Dragging is General Today

Although somewhat delayed by causes over which the district office has no control, the limestone crusher plant, being installed for the Twin Falls Highway district on Rock Creek, should be in operation immediately after October 1, according to an announcement made by officials of the district today. Preliminary operations for the reception of heavy machinery, are completed and the plant parts are already here.
 The retarding factor in the work is the failure of the railroad company to complete the spur line from the company's main stem to the crusher plant site, a line necessary to the completion of the installations as over these rails all the heavy machinery for the plant must be moved. All of this material has been in the yards 10 days or more.
 The railroad company gives assurance that the track to the quarry will be completed in three days.

Immense Derrick Baffled
 In the past week there was erected at the quarry the largest lifting derrick ever seen in this section of the country. The derrick is the property of the Lynch-Cannon Construction company and is said to be used in connection with building of the plant. A big warehouse and shop building, too, has been constructed at the crusher site and the pointing, so nearly the foundation of the mill is in progress.
 As an aid to hastening of other necessary building operations at the plant a force of four carpenters was set to work this morning. This makes six of this class of artisans now employed by the highway company. Work on all proposed buildings will be hurried to completion. It is expected that the crusher will be in operation not later than the beginning of the second week in October.
 The district has completed work on the Lily grade north of Buhl, on the road to Roseworth, crossing the Salmon river. This stretch, 107 highway is one mile and a half, and joins with a similar stretch finished by the Buhl highway district on the north side.

Working Roads

This morning reports were received at headquarters of the highway district of a score or more roadworking outfits in this section of the Twin Falls district, making conditions excellent for road working operations.
 A maintenance gang is finding steady employment repairing bridges in the Salmon country, innumerable culverts and major structures being repaired by thrasher tractor traffic. This damage according to highway authorities, is a source of constant annoyance and expense, but while there is a law against heavy machines passing over country bridges and culverts without those structures first being reinforced with planking, so nearly the method of isolation and very few operators take precaution to strengthen bridges over which they wish to pass, highway officials decline.

TRAFFIC REGULATIONS BADLY BENT ON SUNDAY

Seven Persons Arrested for the Failure to Obey Laws are Duly Arraigned

Weather Man's Job Just Now Is a Sinecure

High temperature marks of Saturday and yesterday were the lowest of the season, if you get what is meant.
 In other words the mercury in its ascendancy attempts, reached to only 67 degrees on Saturday and Sunday, thus establishing a low-high record, which is another somewhat obscure and ambiguous way of putting it. But that is the fact, nevertheless.
 Up to Sunday night the minimum temperature for the preceding 24 hours was 45, just one degree higher than in the report for the 24 hours ending Saturday at sundown.
 The rain of Saturday night and Sunday morning netted 31-30 inch for the district immediately tributary to Twin Falls.
 Clouds and more or less threatening weather are predicted for tonight and tomorrow, the paid prognosticator at state headquarters making the guess. Anybody can establish a weather guarantee bureau now, picking cloudy or wet for every day and not miss it once in a month.

Elevator Operating; Trusty is in Charge

Buhl Furnishes Help in Existing Dilemma at the County Court House

The elevator at the court house is once more in operation. H. Latham, of Buhl is in charge.
 As has heretofore been remarked, the operator in charge of the county lift is not a paid servant. He just works at the job instead of languishing in the county donjon keep, gets that much free air and exercise and, at the same time, saves the commissioners and taxpayers that much money for operator hire.
 The county operates the court house elevator by the assistance of non-paid help of the "trusty" sort. A fortnight ago the court turned down the last trusty in the keeping of the sheriff, and since then the lift has stood in repose. This morning Latham, who was recently found guilty in a Buhl court of stealing auto accessories and selling them, was delivered into the custody of the sheriff and has been given the position of elevator operator. He is in for 140 days.

JOHNSON WILL ENTER BURGLARY PLEA TODAY

Man Held for Filer Robbery to Be Heard Today—Partner Denies Guilt

Earl Johnson, accused of robbery of the Filer post office last week, is to be arraigned this afternoon in the probate court. He was taken before Judge D. P. Duvall last Saturday but withheld his plea until later. Johnson, who is 22 years of age, is said to have made a confession of part in the robbery, and has implicated Frank Buhl, alias H. H. Wilson, who also is under arrest.
 Both Johnson and Buhl were taken before Judge Duvall Saturday afternoon, Buhl denying the charge lodged against him. He is to have a preliminary trial next Saturday in the probate court. The men were arrested Friday by officers of the sheriff's office, and are said to have had in their possession goods stolen from the Snyder hardware store at Filer early in the week.
