FIVE STRIKERS MEET DEATH IN STREET BATTLE

Police at Hammond, Indiana, Retaliate with Volleys when Mob Resists Arrest of Leaders

WORKERS RETURN TO JOBS SIGNAL FOR DISORDERS

Crowd of Thousand Foreign Born Strikers Greets Order to Disperse with Jeers and Shots Precipitating Fight

HAMMOND, IND. (AP)—Five strikers were killed and 16 wounded today in a battle between 1,000 former employees of the Standard Steel Car company and the police.

Three months ago 1,300 workmen at the plant went on a strike for increased wages and improved working conditions. Five weeks ago there was a riot in Hammond, Ind., in which a number of persons were injured and as a result of this outbreak Governor Goodrich sent a regiment of the Indiana state militia to Hammond to restore order.

The troops were withdrawn about two weeks ago. Yesterday 200 strikers returned to work and this caused considerable bad feeling among the men who refused to return.

Mob Throgs Streets

Today when the 200 men were on their way to work a crowd of 1,000 foreign born strikers gathered in the street in front of the plant of the Standard Steel Car company and threatened the men who had returned to work.

Police officers and twenty special guards employed by the company were rushed to the scene and the crowd was ordered to disperse. The order was given with jeers and the men refused to obey. Captain Ben Strong, in charge of the police, then ordered the leaders of the mob arrested. When the police attempted to execute the order the crowd attacked the police and special guards with sticks and stones and several of the strikers drew revolvers and fired a number of shots, according to Captain Ben Strong.

The police then retaliated by firing about 15 shots into the crowd, killing five and wounding 15 strikers. Later the strike leaders were taken into custody.

None of the policemen or special guards was wounded in the fight.

According to the police the mob of strikers was led by Lieutenant Thomas Skuba, 21 years old, a Pole, who recently was discharged from the United States army. He wore his uniform and carried a Mexican flag which he waved during the fight. He later was arrested.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES HOLD UP DECISION ON STRIKE

DETROIT (AP)—Although the national committee of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America and Railway shop laborers has been empowered by the referendum strike vote of the membership, to call a continent wide strike if wages are not raised, the committee of the United States railroad administration and Canada are refused, definite action will be decided on the floor of the international convention being held here. The railroad administration submits its answer before the session closes. This was announced by officers of the brotherhood last night.

The men, according to their leaders, are determined not to accept any compromise of their demands but will strike if wage increases of 1 per cent per month and the new working agreement asked are refused.

SCENE IS SET FOR ATTACK ON FIVE PACKERS

Evidence of Alleged Violation of Federal Law and Food Act to Be Presented to Jury

SWIFT & COMPANY OFFER CO-OPERATION TO PALMER

Would Facilitate Investigation with View to Clearing Up Situation and Will Furnish Information

CHICAGO (AP)—Evidence against five packers and independent concerns throughout the country for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law and the food control act will be presented to the federal grand jury in Chicago within two weeks according to a statement made here today by Isador H. Kresel, of New York and John H. Atwood, of Kansas City, special assistants to the attorney general of the United States.

Other Attacks to Follow. Chicago will be the scene of the first attack by the federal government on the packers, Attorney Kresel said, and this will be followed by prosecutions in other cities where the packers have large interests.

The federal trade commission's report on the packing industry will be used by the government as a basis for the prosecutions according to Attorney Kresel although investigators for the department of justice will have additional evidence to submit to the grand jury.

Swift Offer Assistance. Swift and Company today sent a telegram to Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, offering to co-operate in every possible way with the government in its proposed investigation of the large Chicago packers for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"Swift and company desires to facilitate such an investigation in the full confidence that its ultimate result will clear up whatever misunderstanding or suspicion of the packers yet remains in the public mind," the message said.

"The company will be pleased to furnish you with any witnesses you may desire to interrogate, or with witnesses who would be qualified to supply you with the facts about any matter in the knowledge of the company concerning which you may desire information. Likewise the books and papers of the company are open to your inspection or that of your assistants, either at the office of the company, or at such other place as you may desire them produced."

MINE WORKERS' CONVENTION SESSIONS FRAUGHT WITH PERPLEXING PROBLEMS

Events Conspire to Make Convention Most Important in History of Organization; Possibility of Trouble in Almost Certain Demands for Higher Wages and Shorter Hours; British Miners Look for Support of Nationalization Proposals

GENERAL STRIKE TO ENFORCE NEW WAGE SCALE NOVEMBER 1 PROPOSED

CLEVELAND, O. (AP)—With some two thousand delegates from the collieries of the United States and Canada gathered in the armory of the Cleveland Grays, the international convention of the United Mine Workers of America, the twenty-fifth consecutive gathering of that organization was called to order at ten o'clock this morning.

Trouble Prospect Looms. Events have conspired to make it probably the most important in the history of the United Mine Workers since their separation from the possibilities of trouble contained in its almost certain demands for higher wages and shorter hours the miners of Great Britain are looking to it for support and co-operation in the question of the six hour day and thirty hour week and of the nationalization of coal mines. Both articles of the British miners program figure upon that of the Cleveland convention. Favorable action, which is anticipated, is expected to react sympathetically upon the struggle across the Atlantic.

The convention was called to order by H. W. Raikes and a short speech of welcome was delivered by Mayor Harry L. Davis, of Cleveland.

Railway Men on Scene. Of greater significance upon the opening program however, in view of the effort to secure the support of organized labor everywhere for the Plumb plan for the nationalization of the railroads, was the presence upon it of Walter Stone, grand officer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Timothy J. Shea, acting president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen; W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway which is expected to last from two to three weeks.

Demand Ratification Now. Among the resolutions which will cause most discussion are several calling for immediate ratification of the treaty of peace, together with one opposing participation in the league of nations. Other resolutions submitted for consideration furnish abundant material for discussion of practically all pending political questions connected with the war and readjustment to peace conditions.

Talks on High Costs. Acting President John L. Lewis, in his report to the convention of the United Mine Workers of America today, discussed the greatly increased cost of living and the improbability of any sweeping reduction through "bilateral" federal action as a preface to his recommendation for a cancellation of the Washington wage agreement in the bituminous coal mines after November 1, and the negotiation of a new wage scale, to be enforced, in case of failure to reach a satisfactory settlement by that time, by a general national strike throughout the coal fields of the United Mine Workers of America. The basis of the proposed agreement should be that outlined by the national policy meeting held at Indianapolis in July, calling for the six hour day and five day week and

WILSON SAYS WORLD PROBLEMS FIRST DOMESTIC ADJUSTMENTS COME LATER

President Addresses Minnesota Legislature in Speaking Tour for Treaty Ratification—Declares No Resumption of Normal Conditions Possible Until Part America is to Play in Peace is Determined

ST. PAUL, MINN. (AP)—The cost of living, President Wilson said today in largely the "world situation" growing out of the sacrifices and waste of the war.

Back of that, added the president, lay the great world crisis which we learned what the peace status would be.

The world is not going to settle down to the old world order, he said, until the United States is to play in the peace.

He continued that this was the only way in which the world could be brought to the normal state of rehabilitation of the world economically.

Received With Cheers. The legislature, which began yesterday an extraordinary session to consider the big world crisis, and other subjects, received the president with cheers. He was introduced by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, who said Minnesota hoped there would be some arrangement to prevent future wars.

The president congratulated the legislature on its ratification yesterday of the federal war surplus amendment.

First of all, Mr. Wilson said, it was the nation's duty to set the commerce of the world going by the establishment of peace. After that, he continued, there were domestic adjustments that must be made, mentioning among other things that railway fares in this country were not equal to the demand.

Having established a world settlement economically, Mr. Wilson declared, it was about to be made by an arrangement to insure "that nobody monkey with the process 'set up'."

Labor Disaffected. Turning to the subject of labor and capital, the president said that laboring men everywhere were dissatisfied with their relation to their employers, that it was about to be made by measures taken in the United States.

Referring to the treaty provision for an international labor organization, Mr. Wilson said that he was bringing a definite solution to the world to set the standards and lay down the principles.

As a basis for the solution, the president suggested that the interests of labor and capital must be regarded as identical and the two ought to be reasonable enough to get together. When it was realized that

FAILS TO BACK UP CLAIMS OF MEXICAN PLOT

Witness Before Senate Committee Declines to Explain His Charge of Threatened Intervention

FATHER OF VICTIM OF BANDITS MAKES APPEAL

James K. McGill Asks Investigating Body to Make Detailed Inquiry into Death of His Son Immediately

WASHINGTON (AP)—The subcommittee of the senate foreign relations committee investigating the relations between this country and Mexico and the Mexican situation generally, arranged a continuation of its session today with Dr. Samuel G. Inman, a witness yesterday, on the stand. Dr. Inman, who is an officer in the league of nations international association, and who was at one time a neighbor in Mexico of President Carranza, failed yesterday to confirm or give details of charges he made that the organized efforts to force intervention in Mexico and asked to be allowed to testify again today.

Fears Intimidation. When Inman assumed his testimony today he declined to go into his statement that there was an organized campaign to force intervention in Mexico. He said that the senate subcommittee might take steps to compel Inman to go into the subject. Inman complained that attempts had been made to intimidate him and declared the association for protection of American rights in Mexico had branded him as a Carranza propagandist.

Who's putting up the money for the intervention campaign, he asked, carrying on," demanded Senator Fall. Inman said it was based on an old fund of $400, left over from a movement in these years ago, turned over to the league of free nations and supplemented.

Conditions Not Ideal. Further cross examination directed against Inman favorable picture of Carranza brought admissions that Carranza always travels with a military escort; that Inman knew of bandit raids; of fraternization between bandits and government troops and of railroads unable to operate because of bandit attacks. Inman's reply was that he never contacted conditions were all they should be.

AUSTRIAN ENVOY BACK IN FRANCE TO SIGN TREATY

Dr. Carl Renner, the Austrian Chancellor, is to Sign Allied Peace Terms for His Country Tomorrow

ROMANIAN DELEGATION WILL NOT SIGN PACT

Eventual Union of Hungary with Rumania is to Be Discussed by Hungarian Commission Sent to Bucharest

PARIS, (AP)—Dr. Carl Renner, the Austrian chancellor and head of the Austrian peace delegation, who is to sign the peace treaty tomorrow for his nation, arrived in Paris from Vienna this morning.

Before the Rumanian announcement was made it had been indicated by members of the supreme council that Rumania was expected to take the course she has announced in refusing to sign the treaty, because of the council's flat refusal to grant her the privilege of signing it in her own name in connection with the rights of minorities in territories detached from the former Austrian empire, as provided for in the peace treaty.

It is also considered as improbable that the Jugo-Slav delegation will sign the treaty. It will be granted several days delay, however, in communicating with its home government. The Jugo-Slav objections are similar to those of Rumania.

Rumania Won't Sign
The Rumanian delegation to the peace conference announced today that it would not sign the Austrian peace treaty, the signing of which by Austria and various other powers in London is set to take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow in office buildings.

To Talk Union Plans
Dr. Stephan Friederich, premier of Hungary is reported in a Vienna dispatch printed in newspapers here today to have sent a Hungarian delegation to Bucharest, with the object that besides being empowered to negotiate a separate peace with Rumania, the delegation may discuss the eventual union of Hungary and Rumania.

Friederich Generally Supported
Advices reaching the peace conference from Budapest indicate the government headed by Dr. Stephan Friederich probably will remain in office indefinitely. It is said that Friederich's effort to establish a coalition cabinet has been abandoned and that he is apparently in the support of the Friederich government.

NOW OF LITTLE IMPORTANCE

Port Whence Sincbad Sailed on Voyage of Trade and Adventure Has Decayed

In spite of the evidences of modern industry, Basra was the port from which Sincbad set out on his voyages of trade and adventure. Sincbad was not a myth, but a real man with a sailor's love for the sights of foreign lands. Louis A. Burckhardt writes in Asia. It must have been a great adventure when he sailed away with his fleet of dhows and when he returned with treasures of far-off China and the Eastern Islands. The Basra of today is a mean little town in a clearing of palm trees two miles from the river, and at its port, instead of the dhows are rusty tramp steamers with tawdry wares of the West. Farther up the valley, at Kurna, where the Euphrates and Tigris join, is the traditional site of the Garden of Eden; beyond are the ruins of Babylon and on the bank of the Tigris is the romantic city of Bagdad where Harun-al-Rashid, the great caliph, attracted the wits and the wealth of Islam and ruled in lavish splendor. Down the Arabian coast are great ruins, still almost unexplored. Lovat Fraser, a close student of this part of the world, says that some day it will be demonstrated that here was the scene of momentous events that determined the course of the human race while the shores of the Mediterranean were yet in impenetrable darkness and that here the first dim glimmerings of civilization dawned upon the mind of primitive man.

Great Men of Small Stature

Aristotle, who for 2,000 years held sway over the world of thought, was a slender man, with small eyes and a shrill, stammering speech. Alcibiades, who at the council of Nice was the most potent spirit, was a man of very small stature. There is more than a man, but of almost agonizing beauty of face and expression. Gregory VII, perhaps the mightiest of the Roman pontiffs, who dethroned sovereigns, was a diminutive man, and so were Canute and the great Conde. Voltaire, the literary autocrat of the eighteenth century, was one of the thinnest and most spectral of human beings. Robespierre and Marat, leaders of the French revolution, were far below the average stature. Robespierre was only five feet two or three inches, and Marat less than five feet. Napoleon Bonaparte was also a man of small stature.

MERGER OF PATRIOTIC SOCIETIES UNDER WAY

Grand Army Makes Roadway with Plans for Combination with All Soldier Organizations

COLUMBUS, O., (AP)—Plans for combining into one patriotic federation all soldier societies and auxiliaries are under way here, according to a report of Chief Adams, of the Grand Army of the Republic meeting here.

Tentative plans, he said, call for the merging of the G. A. R., the Confederate Veterans, Spanish war veterans and veterans of the world war who are members of the American legion.

President Henry D. Lindsay, Secretary Greenville Clark, and Council Edwin Root of the American Legion, coming to Columbus this week, he said, to talk over plans for the merger. Final details, it was said, would be worked out at a meeting of the American Legion to be held November 23 and 24 at Minneapolis. Marshal Foch is expected to be the principal speaker at that meeting, it was said.

All Wrong, Napoleon

"The dull, drab years of middle age" is the way a Y. M. C. A. worker classifies the period in a man's life from thirty-five to forty-five. He says that most of the frequenters of saloons, that they are mostly married and that they are not as desirable in the way of citizenship as the male individuals of seventeen to twenty-four, who spend much time with their sweethearts, or the male individuals of twenty-five to thirty, who, after passing forty-five and probably surviving the "dull, drab years," a fellow turns his attention to things spiritual, generally to church work and begins to live again. "The truth is," said a pastor of the First Y. M. C. A. who seems to have lost, as a good many are, some students of the saloon, the real solution. No better explanation ever has been made or ever will be made than that men go to the saloon because they have no place to go that gives them the same sort of uncontrolled drinking. They go there not because they are dull and drab, but because the gregarious in their class do."—New York Sun.

Primitive Submarine

In the early part of the seventeenth century a submarine was successfully navigated in England from Westminster to Greenwich. The inventor and navigator—Cornelius Drebel, a Dutchman—enjoyed the patronage of James I, and the English king was only prevented from taking part in a submarine trip by the assurance of some of his courtiers that Drebel was "in league with the devil."

MAY ESTABLISH A BRANCH HERE

Twin Falls Has Excellent Prospects of Getting New Industry from Coast

Prospects for the establishing of a branch office of the Western Soil Bacteriological company of San Francisco, in Twin Falls are quite bright. Such an office is to be established somewhere in Idaho, and Twin Falls has an extremely good chance of getting the branch.

In this connection, and for the purpose of definitely deciding upon a location for the San Francisco concern's department in Idaho, W. G. Mount, director of the company here, is here for a few days. He arrived Sunday and has introduced his project with a number of agriculturists, together with members of the county farm bureau and its executive officers. While here Mr. Mount will make headquarters at the bureau.

Soil fertilization and soil fertility through the inoculation of legume crops with cereals, is the purpose of the company, and it is to further the company's method of agriculture that Mr. Mount is in Idaho now. With regard to the company he represents, and its business, Mr. Mount makes the following explanatory statement:

Tells of Project

"Our business is based upon the planting of inoculated legume crops with cereals with the double purpose of not only returning the nitrogen which the wheat takes from the soil but also giving the farmer a feed along with the straw. This inoculation of legumes is carried on also in connection with watermelons, cantaloupes, by planting with them an inoculated cowpea or soy bean. This results in not only an earlier crop but an improved one. The company is considering the organization of a sister company for planting alfalfa to introduce the Westralone methods of farming. The success of the company in California has warranted these extensions."

"In the Imperial valley of California the company, through its methods, has succeeded in increasing the growth of cotton from a quarter to a half bale per acre by planting cotton on land that was occupied the preceding year by inoculated soy beans."

The experience of the company, Mr. Mount says, is that the inoculation of all legume crops, especially when used in connection with cereals, not only adds to that year's growth and quality, but also adds nitrogen as an additional fertilizer for the succeeding year's crop.

"Legume crops are those which have the power of absorbing nitrogen from the atmosphere and depositing it on the roots in the form of nodules, when properly inoculated with a nitrogen-fixing bacteria," Mr. Mount further explains.

Demonstrations Asked

Since coming to Idaho Mr. Mount has met with a great deal of consideration and has succeeded in placing a number of demonstration orders for the planting of inoculated legumes with cereal crops, as well as a number of alfalfa inoculations. The need of this inoculation, Mr. Mount says, has been recognized by quite a number of Idaho farmers who have agreed to make a comparative demonstration. Some of these will be made in the immediate neighborhood of Twin Falls next spring, the results of which will be noted in the following list.

In further explanation of his project Mr. Mount says:

"The inoculation bears the same relation to plant life as does an injection of serum into the arm of a human being, while the bacteria which fix the nitrogen, the nitrogen-fixing bacteria, is an insecticide to the plant, and strengthens the young plants while growing, enabling them to develop a stronger root

Congressman Proposes Victory Medals; Senate Approves Merit Badges

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Bronze medals for all discharged sailors, soldiers and marines to be known as "victory medals" are proposed in a resolution introduced by Representative Pell, republican, New York. The senate already has passed a bill recommending that the use of exaggerated merit badges for efficient service.

Payments to discharged service men of all money deducted from their pay for allotments and bonuses amounting to $15 a month for all time served exceeding sixty days would be provided in a resolution by Representative McKenzie, republican, Illinois.

Store advertising serves the people who buy. It is not interesting, of itself, to those who rarely buy anything. It is the use of exaggerated but vital to the buyers for the homes. For it is a guide and a service to them.

Optimistic Thought
We have many days for thanksgiving in our pilgrimage.

You may rest assured of this: If a merchant uses a full page of space in which to tell store news which could have been told in a column, he falls either to serve or to profit. If he uses a column when he needed a page, he makes an even greater blunder.

Optimistic Thought
Every one of us is a sinner; we are men, not gods.

Readers of store advertising understand and appreciate the fact that a merchant, in announcing price reductions, assumes a direct and inescapable ethical responsibility. No merchant who values the reputation of his store will permit the use of exaggerated claims. The people are educated as to values.

HOLDS MEXICAN MINE LAW VOID

Official Declares Protest by Foreign Interests Undermined by Decision

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—The mining law of 1884 is unconstitutional and illegally excepts hydrocarbonates in the soil and subsoil from the national domain, according to a letter from Jose Vazquez Schaffino, chief of the petroleum section of the department of industry and commerce, in El Universal.

Protest by foreign oil interests against alleged confiscatory oil decrees is based on rights conferred by this law.

Claims Highest Motives

In framing the oil law initiative, sent by President Carranza to congress last November for developing Article 27 of the constitution, Mr. Schaffino said, his department was impelled by the highest motives and sought to protect vested interests and investments. He asserted that he reading of the transitory provisions of this initiative would show that, in regard to vested interests created by the protection of former laws, only a simple tax was imposed.

Interpretation not Capricious

With regard to the mining law of 1884, his statement said: "This department has not interpreted capriciously in a thousand different ways Article 27; but in only one way, the revindication of the dominion of the nation over the hydrocarbonates of the soil and subsoil and its incorporation into the mining regime which always has been in force in Mexico since the time of the Spanish domination, and from which it was illegally excepted by an unconstitutional law (mining law of 1884)."

GRAND CIRCUIT HAS A BAD DAY

'Pop' Geers Sustains Broken Shoulder; Cherrier Fractured Leg While Racing

SYRACUSE, N. Y., (AP)—"Pop" Geers, veteran driver of the Grand Circuit and "Pat" Cherrier, Canadian driver, will be out of the harness racing game for the season as the result of accidents yesterday.

Geers was thrown when Hoglar fell in the fifth race and the driver suffered a fractured shoulder bone. Cherrier sustained a fractured leg while driving Amardale in the third race, the horse throwing him at the half mile turn.

It was in the third heat when the accident occurred, and the veteran, driving Hoglar, was caught in a post.

In his effort to get clear, one of the other horses broke and threw Hoglar out of his stride. All the horses were close together and Geers was forced against the rail fence. He tried in vain to keep to the track but Hoglar smashed through the railing and out of the enclosure, dragging Geers with him. Spectators rushed in to the field and extricated the veteran from the wreckage of his sulky. Geers was unconscious when picked up.

The day's program was marred by another accident in which Patrick Cherrier, piloting Amardale, suffered a broken leg. It was in the 2:06 pace and on the home stretch which he entered and plunged into Cherrier's sulky. Driverless, Amardale raced to the wire and finished first.

The feature event of the day, the Watson stake for 3 year old trotters, was won by Periscope in straight heats, the best time, 2:04 1/4 being the fastest time of the season for a 3 year old. The winner was caught in a post in the 2:06 trot in straight heats, best time, 2:06 1/4.

The chamber of commerce stake for 2:06 pacers developed a lively battle between Edward P. and Little Butcher, the former taking the first and third heats, turning the mile in each instance in 2:04 1/4.

Grand Circuit Races

Sim Smiley, singularly says, says "But the only result this investigation into the 'high cost of living' will be to boost it higher with the expenses of the 'investigators'."

Boise appears to have fallen hard for the grapple game. Ad Santele and John Ferguson are to meet on the mat there soon.

Of course Paul should win from Twin Falls next Sunday, and Burley should beat Buhl, while it's a cinch for Rupert, which club gets the Clinch game on a forfeit.

That leaves the whole puddle in status quo, as it were, with the top-notchers still hunched for the moment, but Buhl and Twin Falls yet to settle the lower end contention.

According to the regularly devised and officially ordered schedule for the last half of the 1919 season of the Southern Idaho Baseball league Paul is to play in Twin Falls next Sunday.

Just what sort of line-up Manager George Hart will present is a puzzle just now, but it is a cinch he will not be able to get a much stronger defense than that presented last Sunday.

As to batting strength—well that's different again.

Joe La Chance is the steepest batter on the club just now, but is suffering from badly strained ligaments of the throwing arm. His attempts to fling from the field are not only futile but are practically negligible as to results obtained.

Outside of Joe and Oscar Neumann the club has only 13 dependable hitters. Miller, reputed to be a near-300 man, hasn't manifested any prowess with the stick since he has been a Grey.

Nelmer Watson and Whitel can be considered mighty with the bat, and "Red" Bell, though big enough, is nearly as much a failure as was "Pat" Thompson. Fix can neither hit nor run, and cannot be considered in the light of a team fixture.

So, taken as a whole, the team cannot expect to pile up much of an average with the attack against Paul next Sunday.

BUHL COUNCIL DENIES PLEA OF PETITIONERS

Request for Removal of Foreign Labor from City Jobs is Tabled

BUHL (Special)—A petition, addressed to the city council of Buhl, presented at a meeting of that body yesterday and signed by labor union officials, requesting the removal of Mexican labor from city contract jobs, was tabled after brief discussion, no action toward compliance being taken by the city administrative board.

The petition, bearing the names of a majority of labor unions of Buhl, together with some business men, urged the city council to use its influence in procuring the discharge of Mexicans from improvement work now in progress in Buhl, and, further, recommended that foreign laborers be ordered to withdraw from town.

Discussion on the points in question brought out the fact that the work now being done was taken on a contract contemplating the employment of labor at a scale of daily wage in force when the contract was presented. Since that time, it is stated, the wage for day work has been materially increased under union orders. It was pointed out that to discharge the men now at work in favor of higher priced labor would entail serious loss to the contractor.

In the past few days, handbills printed on yellow paper, have appeared in considerable number here announcing Buhl an "American Town," and announcing that Mexicans and other foreigners are not allowed to compete with white labor.

In bold type this warning is addressed to Mexicans and contractors.

Take Notice! There is a train leaving Buhl at 4 p. m. and one at 5 a. m. Don't let the sun set on you in Buhl. The bill is signed "By order Committee Buhl Local No. 363, George Ryan, J. E. Allen."

No change in the employment policy of the contracting firm has been made.

DRIVERS WANT MORE STIPEND

School Board Confronted by Problem Presented by the Wagon Operators

School wagon drivers have demanded more pay and new contract conditions. The demands were presented at last night's meeting of the board of school district No. 1.

The demands amount to approximately 25 per cent raise of pay, which means an increase in the cost of maintenance of the school district of from $7,000 to $10,000, according to W. E. Nixon, treasurer of the school board.

In addition to the increase in wage the drivers have demanded a new contract specifying a monthly stipend, insurance trip, and present the system of salary gives drivers making trips under two miles $60 per month, while others, for longer hauls, are receiving from $85 to $100 per month. The board furnishes wagons, the driver the team and feed. The work occupies about three hours daily, according to Mr. Nixon.

There are 30 drivers employed by the school board to transport students from outlying sections to and from city schools daily except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Of this number, according to Mr. Nixon, only 10 persons to whom contracts were awarded for themselves, the other 20 sign being drivers of the school bus, tractor or high school male students. There are two women and 18 boys who are attending school driving now for these contractors.

The board has taken the matter under advisement, and may call a special meeting with contract holders for a thorough discussion of the proposition.

IGNORE HAYNES; MEETING CALLED

Baseball Managers and Directors to Consider Paul's Protest Against Rupert

Over the veto of President L. C. Haynes, of the Southern Idaho League, a meeting has been called of managers and directors of the league to discuss matters having in view the ultimate good of the league. The meeting will be held in the Rogers hotel tonight with Barley, Paul, Buhl, and Twin Falls represented. It is not expected the Rupert management will be present as the principal question to be considered involves the actions of the Rupert club in recent games.

The Twin Falls meeting results from the refusal of President Haynes to call a session for a discussion of the Paul club's protest against the Rupert club, which might result in the throwing out of the game won by the Rupert club against Paul. The general theme of the meeting tonight will be resolution with the Rupert club members in the spirit. President Haynes is a resident of Rupert.

The playing off of the three-cornered tie for first place may also be considered at this session, and some tentative plans will be given consideration for play next season.

BUILDING CONTRACTORS SCORED DURING COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Charge is made that Violations of Ordinance with Regard to Blocking Sidewalks, Streets and Parkings are Flagrant—Offenders to Be Brought to Justice

"Rigid enforcement of all laws on the city's books is the tocsin sounded at last night's session of the municipal council. Various enforcing authorities are to be immediately notified of their duty in this regard.

Contractors engaged in the erection of structures in Twin Falls are responsible for the new and drastic attack taken by the municipal board, and against these is the first barbed shaft directed.

The aldermanic body was informed last night of certain flagrant violations by contract builders of the most ordinary rules required by municipal codes. These violations deal most directly with the use of sidewalks and portions of the streets for storing building materials to be employed in the erection of edifices in charge of which these contractors are employed.

Must Have Permit

The point was made last night that there is on the local statute books a law requiring all contractors to procure a permit from the city ere any kind of sidewalk parking or storage shall be obstructed by the piling or storing of building material in front of the site on which a structure is to be erected, or which is in course of construction.

That this law is persistently violated by contractors who actually know of its existence was the burden of discussion consistent during the time last night, the discussion revolving in an order to bring before the municipal tribunal all such persons as are now illegally obstructing streets, sidewalks, alleys or parking with building materials. The law is to take its course with the utmost rigor.

Complaint was lodged chiefly against contractors employed in the erection of a garage between Shoshone street and Third avenue east; those employed in the erection of the Cliff-Letch apartment house on Fourth street north, between Second and Third avenues; and contractors working on the high school annex.

School Men Under Fire

While it was the existing condition in front of the garage property on Third avenue east that directed attention to violations of city laws and disregard for the rights of taxpaying residents who require to use the walk and street in front of the premises, it was against the high school contractors that most spleen was vented. All the aldermen took a hand in denouncing these builders for the condition they are said to be creating on the second street north, immediately in front of the scene of operations ever since work started on the annex. It was pointed out that walks on both sides of the street have been impassable all summer, and that the entire street in that block has been practically closed to traffic since work started. The contractors are now operating a large derrick immediately next to the sidewalk for the purpose of hauling the rock taken from the basement excavation, the boom of the hoisting device, it is alleged, swinging so far over the walk as to imperil pedestrians.

A Danger Hole

Statement was made that in front of the garage site on Third avenue north, but a small fraction of the sidewalk is left clear, the rest being occupied by and covered with machinery and material. On the inside of the walk is a deep excavation for foundation concrete left unguarded at night by danger signals.

At the Cliff-Letch apartment site the street is said to be half covered with material for use in construction, the walk having been blocked ever since the excavation was begun. None of the contractors under fire have applied for permit to use any portion of the streets or walks they have conented for storage purposes, according to the city councillors.

The city clerk has been instructed to inform the chief of police to apprehend all persons responsible for the condition now existing before the premises named, the offenders to be held into court and summarily dealt with.

Enforcement Steps

In addition to this the city health inspector was instructed to take all necessary steps to bring to justice all persons violating the health laws of the municipality by maintaining outdoor nuisances. This applies not alone to property owners who have failed to connect their buildings with the public sewer system, but to tenants who permit unsanitary conditions to exist on the premises they occupy.

The council also took cognizance of the fact that in a short time the ordinance passed some weeks ago, regulating the handling of milk in the confines of this city, will soon become effective. Plans are immediately to be taken to enforce all the sections of this law, even to insisting that the source of supply shall be in accordance with the requirements of the ordinance.

Attention was also directed to the practice followed by garage men in using the streets to store crippled cars in their hands for repairs. A condition on Main street, in particular, was taken to enforce all the sections of this law, even to insisting that the source of supply shall be in accordance with the requirements of the ordinance.

Clothiers Predict Price Reductions

CHICAGO. (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the national association of retail clothiers here today predicted a reduction in the price of clothing in the near future.

"It's got to come," said Fred Levy, of Louisville. "Lower prices are on the way and we fellows will sing the loudest when the change comes. Men can't be induced to part with $75 or $80 for a business suit. The principal reason for the present high prices is the cost of labor."

"There really is not much profiting in clothes and what little there is we intend to stop."

Barley Yields Are Enormous on Two Farms

ONE hundred ten bushels of barley to the acre is the record established by E. R. Beatty, of whose crop a sample has been obtained by the farm bureau for exhibit at the State Fair.

The Beatty farm is located about one mile south of Twin Falls city. The barley, common blue variety, was grown on a six-acre tract, 110 bushels to the acre being the average for the entire patch.

Another good record for barley production in the Twin Falls district is that of Eddie Dean, who has grown 80 bushels to the acre this year on his farm two miles southeast of the sugar factory. Mr. Dean had 14 acres of Trebi barley. The average yield is from 50 to 60 bushels to the acre for barley.
