SCHEIDEMANN SAYS HUNS SOUGHT FOR EARLY PEACE

Former German Premier Recounts Efforts to End War in November, 1914

Herr Scheidemann added that the governing board of the party "labored ceaselessly" to get in touch with the socialists of hostile countries but all attempts failed because of the regressive attitude of the English and the French members of the party.

FOOD SUPPLIES OF NEW-NATION ARE SUFFICIENT

Careful Conservation Will Bring Czecho - Slovakia Through Winter, According to American Experts

PRAGUE, (AP)—By tightening national belt a hole and careful conservation and organization of food supplies Czecho-Slovakia can weather the winter safely in the opinion of the American food experts who have been surveying the country. In fact, Czecho-Slovakia, particularly Bohemia, is said to be a good deal better off than most of Eastern Europe. Her crops will run from sixty to seventy per cent of normal and of certain valuable commodities she admittedly has some for export in return for more needed supplies such as raw materials, actually cotton.

Some Products to Spare

She has appreciable quantities of wheat, barley and hops that can be spared, as well as some sugar and coal, and these last two commodities are felt to be about the most precious in Europe. In return she wants wheat flour and cotton. Her spinning industry is at a standstill and experts claim that she needs approximately a hundred thousand bales of cotton to supply her own needs in textiles.

Best Sugar Abundant

The over supply of beet sugar in Czecho-Slovakia's big and valuable asset and gives her a strategic position in Europe. The general situation here is consoling to the American experts and while there will be deprivation, they believe that with a well organized control of foods and close economy there will be no real suffering this winter.

BORAH DECLARES WISH TO WRECK THE LEAGUE

Idaho Senator on Trail of Wilson Addresses Big Audience at Omaha

OMAHA, NEB., (AP)—Senator William F. Borah, frankly declaring his wish not merely to amend, but to wreck the league of nations movement, addressed a large audience here last night. He described President Wilson as a "dogger" and a "pharisee," a "servile tool to whom England need only make suggestions to secure compliance with her wishes."

The senator denounced the transfer of Germany's rights in Shantung to Japan "the turning over of 46,000,000 friendly people to our enemy" and as an act of treachery to an ally unparalelled in history.

The sending of American soldiers to Siberia was declared to be in violation of the Constitution of the United States. First mention of the word "Siberia" brought a roar of cheers from the crowd and when Borah asked "how came ten thousand American boys to be exiled in Russia? Who sent these boys of ours to Russia?" A man near the front rose and said: "I am a pharisee by shouting 'England interests.'" Borah hid the blame to Japan, declaring the American force in Siberia to be victims of the imperial greed of Japan, reinforced by England.

You may rest assured of this: If a merchant uses a full page of space in which to tell store news which could have been told in a column, he fails either to serve or to profit. If he uses a column when he needed a page he makes an even greater blunder.

WORKINGMEN OF BRITAIN AGAINST COALITION RULE

Election of Labor Leader to House of Commons is Regarded as Severe Blow and Evidence of Popular Feeling

LONDON, (AP)—The result of the by-election of Widnes, Lancashire, in which Arthur Henderson, the labor leader, was elected to the house of commons is considered a severe blow to the coalition government and has revived speculation as to the imminence of another general-election. The virtually unanimous vote of the house of commons at Glasgow for the nationalization of mines and today's vote on the subject of withdrawing British troops from Russia are regarded as evidence of a very determined attitude on the part of labor against the government. It is pointed out that there are suspicions as to the government's intentions concerning Russia and conscription with the result that the government is compelled clearly to condemn the policy of direct action but only strategically sidetracked the decision.

Reconstruction Overture
The reconstruction of the cabinet is long overdue and it is expected to be because ministerial changes would involve by-elections which it is said, would almost certainly provide additional evidence that the tide of feeling in the country is running strongly against the government. Added to the difficulties in the field of labor is the Irish question which seems impossible for the coalition government to satisfactorily solve. On the other hand, the consensus of opinion inclines to the view that an appeal to the country cannot be long delayed.

It is understood that as soon as Premier David Lloyd George returns from France he intends to summon the premier cabinet to discuss the whole situation.

Henderson Gives Views
Arthur Henderson here tonight on his success in Widnes said his victory was "an emphatic condemnation of the coalition government's policy and of the cynical political promises upon which the government rests."
"I believe," he continued, "that the origin of the demand for a policy of direct action lies in the fact that the present parliament is said to be wholly unrepresentative of the nation and is dominated by reactionary influences. This has involved the country in proceedings which are the negation of democracy and is shown in developments in Russia, Germany and near home, in Ireland, where the situation is obviously grave. Widnes is a warning the government cannot afford to ignore."

ITALIAN COMMISSION FOR MILITARY EXPENSES CUT

Report to Parliament Expresses Hope League Will Facilitate German Entry

ROME, (AP)—Luigi Luzzatti, former premier, presented Thursday to the chamber of deputies a report of the parliamentary commission entrusted with the examination of the peace treaty with Germany. He urged a maximum diminution of military expenses and expresses the hope that the league of nations will facilitate the admission of the countries responsible for the war, including Germany.

It also says that the coming labor conference at Washington legislation should be framed which prevent any state from permitting workmen to labor under conditions which would be injurious to workers of other nations. Concerning the trial of the former premier William the report says: "Crimes attributed to the former premier were not contemplated in any penal code. Nobody can be called a criminal for acts which were committed and did not constitute a crime contemplated by law."

Pigs and People.
So like is the pig's eye to the human eye that stinging ocellists, learning their trade, practice all sorts of operations upon eyes of freshly killed swine, which are easily obtained from the market.

Even the skillful and highly trained ophthalmologist, when he wants to try out an idea—for instance, a new kind of operation for cataract (which means the removal of the crystalline lens) will get a pig's eye and see how it works. If it succeeds, he tries it on a patient.

All the wonderful muscle-cutting operations by which squint and other irregularities are so successfully remedied, were worked out originally by experiments with pigs' eyes.

Chance for Rich Boys.

A rich man, whose son had been taunted by other boys, who said that the rich boy had no chance to become prominent in industry or science, got an educational expert to send out a letter to 50 rich men, asking them how they started out in business.

Of the 50 men selected as the foremost in business success, 23 were born poor, 17 were born in moderate circumstances, and nine were born rich. When the returns were all in the rich father undertook to encourage his son and relieve him of the idea that he was to become one of "the idle rich," saying that while he did not have as good a chance as a poor boy, he still had a chance, for nine out of the 50 successful men had been born rich.—Omaha World-Herald.

Liberian Hippos.

The Liberian hippos do not live in dense forests; they do not frequent the rivers. A small forest stream attracts them, but they do not enter it, at least by day. They burrow into its banks, wherever there has been a washout, and in these burrows they sleep during the daylight hours. No one is very difficult to track, and the first specimen that was seen could not be caught, because all the native carriers were sick, and the whole country was so flooded by rains that Schomburgk, famous hunter, could not camp therein. After trying various ways to capture the shifty little beasts, Schomburgk succeeded by digging pits whereby they were entrapped on their nightly strolls through the forest.—New York Herald.

About the Diamond.

The diamond is the hardest stone known. Its name (French, diamant) is derived from the Greek adamas—unconquerable. The word was probably attached to the stone because it conveyed the idea of invincible hardness. No acid will scar it; no solvent will dissolve it. Ages may pass without dimming the luster of its adamantine face.

TYPHOID COMING WHITE BELIEVES

Public Welfare Man Expresses Fears—Urges Sterilization of Water

BOISE (Special)—Fears that an epidemic of typhoid fever is due throughout the entire Snake river valley, are expressed by J. K. White, commissioner of public welfare, who says the epidemic will come with rains following the long drought.

"Fifth which has accumulated in the hills during the excessively dry period, is sure to cause typhoid, and I would warn everybody to employ utmost caution in sterilizing the water they use for culinary and drinking purposes," the commissioner warns. Mr. White appeals most especially to such places and homes where water taken direct from streams is used. He says there is no danger of the disease gaining a foothold in towns where the water is filtered or where chlorinating plants are a part of the water distributing system.

No Other Tractor Has So Many Good Mechanical Features

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR It Solves The Farm Help Problem

Every one who knows what a tractor should do agrees that the Moline-Universal has these distinct advantages over other tractors: lighter weight, greater economy and ease of operation; ability to do all farm work, including cultivating and one-man control of both tractor and implement from the seat of the implement.
It is equipped with an electrical starting, lighting, governing and ignition system. The starter saves much time, eliminating back breaking labor. Electric lights enable the tractor to be worked at night.
The perfected four-cylinder engine is the latest in overhead valve construction. With a bore of only 3 1/2 inches, a 2 1/2-inch crankshaft is used. Strength and stiffness of this shaft eliminates all vibration. Oil is forced through hollow crankshaft to all bearings under a pressure of 35 lbs.
Double valve springs give unusually long service with wear. Rockers arms are swivelled on ball and socket joints that may be turned down with a screw driver, placing the valve mechanism in perfect adjustment at all times. This engine develops unusual power and is very economical in operation.
Transmission is completely enclosed, with drop forged, hardened, and cut steel gears running in oil. All gears are mounted on heavy roller bearings, and adjustable ball thrust bearings. Seven splined shafts are used in locking gears to shafts, the strongest construction known and very easy to take apart.
In soft ground, the two drive wheels can be made to revolve as one by means of differential lock, doubling their pulling power. All moving parts are enclosed and protected against friction and wear. All working parts are accessible. All the weight is well balanced on two wheels.
The Moline-Universal Model D will give you longer and better service at less expense than any other tractor.

Spending at Omaha Monday in the interests of unqualified ratification of the peace treaty and covenant of the league of nations, President Wilson said: "If I felt that I personally in any way stood in the way of this settlement, I would be glad to die that it might be consummated because I have a vision, my fellow citizens, that if this thing should by some mishap not be accomplished there would arise from that upon the fair name of this people, a stain which never could be effaced, which would be intolerable to every lover of America, intolerable to every man who knew the beauty of America and was ready with stout heart to uphold it."

Senator Borah of Idaho, also makes claim to a vision originating in the same source, but with a vastly different conclusion. Voicing in the senate the protests against the treaty and covenant of Egypt, India, Ireland, Persia, Korea and China and declaring that half the globe is opposed to the provisions by which empires are bound to maintain their boundaries with the armed assistance of the United States, he said, "Never was a more perilous situation presented for the consideration of a nation. It is the conviction of some of us that if we do what is here proposed, sorrow and suffering are ahead of the American people. It is a greater load than we can carry, and yet there are those who are hastening to enter this uncharted sea. I would not feel justified in discussing these facts if it were not as I view it this covenant makes them of prime concern to us. The task of underwriting the treaty itself with reference to the powers against whom we were at war would be a considerable task, but when we find that the people who were represented either directly or indirectly, the subject nationalities upon the side of the allies constituting nearly one-half of the population of the earth, are in rottest now before the treaty is ratified, it presents, to my mind, the most serious proposition with which we have to deal as a practical fact at this time."

The course of events and the nature of the men have made Wilson and Borah leaders of the opposing extremes presented in the case of the treaty of covenant. The course of events and the unrelenting tenacity of the treaty is bound to bring about a situation where one or the other will occupy the position described by the president in this respect as the plight of the man who has "so badly misinterpreted the American spirit that they eventually would have time to reflect in clarity on the mistake they had made."

There is an increasing and unmistakable manifestation of sentiment on part of the American people that is to the conclusion that the visions neither Wilson or Borah square squarely with the American spirit. It is each prognosticator now who would flit the ratification of the treaty about reservations, and it is a foregone conclusion that the treaty and covenant would be abandoned altogether, would be an equally untenable footing.

It is certain it is that someone is going to have opportunity to "reflect in clarity" on his mistakes, but the identical unqualified assertion that is to be the lot of those who oppose the league cannot be accepted as great a share of confidence as might have been some time ago.

CONSTITUTION DAY

In view of recent events among which the almost incredible disorders in Boston may serve as a most notable example, the purpose of the eight national patriotic associations uniting in an effort to bring about a nation-wide campaign for a better popular understanding of the constitution is one to enlist the moral encouragement and active support of every intelligent, self-respecting American appreciative of the danger and inspired with the sense of opportunity to make our present state and our future certain.

The birthday anniversary of the constitution, September 17, has been celebrated, in this campaign, as a day to be especially dedicated to a constitutional recognition. Governor Davis has issued a proclamation calling the attention of the citizens of Idaho to the necessity of a better understanding of our national constitution and proclaiming September 17 a legal holiday in order that every loyal American residing in the state may take part in such local exercises as may be arranged on that day to promote the diffusion of knowledge concerning in the language of Judge Alfred Bulge, state director of the campaign for southern Idaho, "that sacred document which forms the basis of our government and stands forth today, as never before, as the bulwark of human liberty, defending us from the encroachments of monarchism and from the dangers of anarchy, as well."

That there is necessity for such a campaign cannot be doubted by any loyal American not blinded to the negligence of the situation making possible such disgraceful episodes as have been a part of the New England capital city of late, a situation to be accounted for absolutely on the score that not all residents of America are true Americans and one that plainly indicates that until every factor in our national life is brought into close harmony with our national ideals the shame that is Boston's is not to be confined to her boundaries alone.

Its importance is not doubted by Americans who believe in our institutions. The late Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, in a recent letter regarding immigration and our allied population, wrote: "When Americanism means to these people. They do not even understand our language. They know nothing of our theory of government. We must visualize our declaration and our belief that injustice has no place on American soil."

The need is not confined to our alien-born population. Many of our native-born Americans do not understand the meaning of the institutions under which they live, and are being delib-erately misinformed regarding them. As all means let us observe in Twin Falls and throughout Idaho the constitutional celebration on Wednesday next, and let us so order things that the lessons taught in the one day may be not confined to that day alone but stressed every day of the year to the end that the menace of disloyalty bred of ignorance of our institutions may be wiped out once and for all.

Buffer for Sins of Others. "There is no sort of wrong deed of which a man can bear the punishment alone; you cannot isolate yourself, and say that the evil which is in you shall not spread," says George Elliot in Adam Bede. It is only too true that we cannot bear punishment alone. And usually our mistakes entail worse suffering on those who love us than they do on ourselves. Just as on the other hand our successes and rewards bring more joy to your dear ones than to ourselves. "No man liveth to himself alone."

Mica. Mica, so named from its being usually divided into glistering scales, consists of silica and alumina, associated with magnesia, soda and lime in varying proportions. Thus we have potash mica, consisting of silica, alumina and potash; and magnesia mica, in which the alumina is partially replaced by magnesia, passing—as the proportion of magnesia increases—into soft talc, which is chiefly composed of silica and magnesia.

The Office Boy's Trouble. The office boy had been sitting for hours at a typewriter, gazing vacantly into distance, and the force was becoming worried. "He's sick," suggested the kindly, old, gray-haired bookkeeper, but the blushing stenographer insisted there must have been some tragedy at home. The suspense ended when the lad suddenly turned to the fat, chain-smoking clerk and inquired: "Say, Mr. Jones, how do you spell Theima?"

Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, (AP)—Lowest prices yet for the 1919 crop were reached today in the corn market. There was no support in sight except from profit taking shorts. Decline were attributed to readjustment from a war to a peace basis and from an old to a new crop basis. Opening prices, which ranged from 7 cents off to 1-3c advance with September $1.38 to 1.41 and December $1.22 to 1.23 were followed by a slight rally, but then by a new downturn. The fact that the market was still far above a pre-war level hindered any important rally. September delivery led the decline, but most of the trade was in December and May, neither of which months dropped more than casual for a single day. Prices closed heavy, 2 7/8c to 10c net lower, with September $1.35 to 1.36 1/8 and December $1.19 3/8 to 1.21 5/8. Oats were easier than corn. After opening unchanged to 3-8 lower, with December 60 1/8 to 60 1/4 the market continued to sag. Provisions reflected the weakness of grain. Selling, however, was not aggressive. Some reactions took place later, but mostly failed to last.

Schroter, a German, and Martin, a Frenchman. The first crude pianofortes were made early in the eighteenth century, but for many years they received no serious consideration from musicians. Johannes Zump, a German, established the first piano factory in England, and it was he who built the instrument that was used in Covent Garden.

VULTURE TRAILS DOOMED VESSEL

Crew of Liner Corydon, Sunk in Bahamas Channel, Sees Disaster Omened

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Many hours before the storm which sank the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her bows while a panic-stricken crew believing in the superstitions of the sea were convinced that they were doomed. Such is the story brought here by eight of the crew who were 28 hours adrift on an upturned boat, battered and bruised and without food or water.

All day Sunday as the ship pursued her way in calm seas and light winds, the great bird hovered overhead. Sunday night and Monday the Corydon staggered through the smashing seas. Monday night every member of the crew was engaged in a desperate battle for life. There was no food, no the galley and provision rooms were flooded Tuesday morning. They lost control of the ship, the wireless apparatus short circuited and no S. O. S. calls could be sent out.

When the vessel went under, the Americans in the crew kept the boat and saved the lives of some others of the 70.

LUMBER COMPANY WILL CONSTRUCT RESIDENCES

Plans are Laid for Erection of Homes to Relieve Housing Stress

On a 10-acre tract adjoining the East Lawa addition in Twin Falls residences are to be erected immediately to help relieve the existing housing shortage.

The property was recently acquired by the Keel, Wilkinson, Stronk Lumber company, which concerns propose to construct the dwellings, getting a start this fall so that some of the homes may, if possible, be ready for occupancy this winter. Work will start on foundation excavations as soon as the company can get the land surveyed.

It is the purpose of the lumber concern to build home structures to cost approximately $5,000 each. There will be 38 lots in the addition, each being 30 by 125, with plans laid for widening where the demand requires.

Just how many houses will be started this fall depends entirely upon the procurable working forces. In any event work will be well advanced in spring. R. E. Bohler, a contractor and former member of the city council, has been engaged to superintend and have charge of all construction.

Plans have been completed for connecting the K. W. S. addition with city improvement and sanitation features. Water mains are to be constructed and connection is to be made with the city water main trunk. Later on the addition is to have paved streets.

Nipponese Official Says Opposition to Treaty in Peking, Tokyo is Unreasonable; Wilson Right

NEW YORK, (AP)—Japan will refuse to ratify the peace treaty if the Shantung clause is excluded, in the opinion of Baron Shimezu Goto, member of the Japanese national commission for discussion of foreign policies and former foreign minister, who in his home after a three months' visit to England and France. # ITALY TRIES TO GET COAL FROM SOUTH RUSSIA

Commercial Missions are Sent to Donetz Basin to Negotiate in Effort to Stave Off Winter Without Heat Source

ROME, (AP)—The Italian government is trying to obtain coal from Southern Russia so as to stave off the menace of a winter without a source of heat. Two commercial missions have been sent to the vast basin of the Donetz in Southern Russia where Italian experts estimated there were untouched coal lands that would yield 57,000,000 tons. The experts also say there are billions of tons of coal in Siberia or in parts of European Russia outside of the Donetz basin.

It is calculated that if the coal supply of Southern Russia were properly exploited the territory would furnish all the coal necessary for the Mediterranean countries.

Coal for Italy is now quoted at $5.30 at Norfolk, Va., but it cost $30 a ton to bring to Genoa.

SALVATION ARMY GOT LITTLE MONEY IN WAR

Contributions Were Small for the Extraordinary Charity Effort Exposed

SEATTLE, (Special).—Not a dollar of funds received by Salvation Army gifts to the army, which is to finance its war work, either at home or overseas, has been or can be diverted to the manifold civilian activities of the organization, according to a statement issued from the Salvation Army Home Service Campaign headquarters. It did receive large sums of money through the generosity of Americans. It has administered and is administering that money for the purposes intended by the givers and promised by the Salvation Army. As to the faithfulness of the stewardship, let the soldiers answer—any soldier you know. Ask them. The man who governs the work of the Salvation Army here at home, broadened in scope by the significant changes going on in this country as a result of the war, broadened in the efficiency of the service that can be rendered by the experience of the last few years. It is this Home Service work that now calls for generous support. War service money cannot be used for this purpose.

Discontinue Bulletin—Farm bureau officials have decided to discontinue publication of their weekly bulletin. Lack of funds is given as the principal reason. Use of Drinking Water. Drink whatever water you desire with meals, but do not take ice water, and do not use water merely to wash food down your throat. Water aids digestion by helping to liquefy the food and by bringing the gastric juices into closer contact with the food particles. Water does not dilute the enzymes and weaken them by dilution as some people maintain, because the power of the enzymes depends not on the percentage which is present, but upon their total amount and chemical composition.

Sunrise. She struggled to a certain lilt and was before her the silent hollow of the day. Out of the east it welled and whitened; the darkness trembled into light; and the stars were extinguished like the street lamps of a human city. The whiteness brightened into silver, the silver warmed to gold, the gold kindled into pure and living fire and the face of the east was hatched with elemental scarlet.—R. L. Stevenson.

The Bickel teachers who were here last year are entertaining the new teachers of this school this evening at Blueback's. The evening will be spent with a picnic supper, and a jolly time around a huge camp fire after which the party will motor home by moonlight.

USE GRENADES ON PROFITEERS

Munitions Left Over from War Employed by Enraged Citizens of Prussia

COBLENZ, (AP)—Hand grenades left over from the war were used effectively recently by enraged civilians in Zoppot in West Prussia, who attacked food stores on the ground that the shopkeepers were profiteering. According to information reaching American army headquarters a mob, armed with grenades, revolvers and other weapons, attacked in numbers the stores which were known to have charged high prices.

In the interior of Germany margarine has been quoted recently at 60 marks per pound whereas it formerly cost 2.80 marks per pound. This is attributed to the fact that large quantities have lately been brought abroad at higher prices than formerly owing to the shortage of German exchange. The official rate of exchange for August at army headquarters is two marks, twenty-two pfennig for one franc, giving the mark a value in American money of a fraction more than six cents.

That Loose Shoe String.

Little things often lead to serious consequences. So it is not surprising to learn that recently an employee of a large manufacturing establishment was coming down the stairway from the third floor of the warehouse, when the lacing in one of his shoes became untied, he continued to go down the stairs, and when about five steps from the landing he stepped on the flowing shoe lace, which threw him, and he fell, striking his head and shoulders on the bottom step with such force that he lay in one of his moping. Which teaches us that one cannot afford to be careless, even in such trivial details as loose shoe strings.—Scientific American.

More Men have Little Voice in Government of Esquimaux Inhabited Land

JUNEAU, Alaska, (AP)—More men have little voice in governing affairs of Esquimaux inhabited Little Diomed, one of the Diomedes Islands that are cut in two by the international boundary line across the Bering Sea between Alaska and Siberia. Women and children do most of the ruling, according to reports reaching the Alaska Territorial Bureau of Publicity here. Before a man can make a purchase he must get his wife's consent. If a mother is living with a married son or daughter her consent must be obtained. Wealth is estimated in skins and the rich provide for the poor.

Official suicide is provided for. When one of the natives tires of hunting seals and fishing and trapping and desires to end his existence he makes formal application to the governing body for permission to take his life.

Duck and Deer to Get Theirs Tuesday Morn

Game May Be Shot at Sunrise But Not a Minute Before—Warning Issued

Idaho's open season on ducks and deer begins with sunrise September 16. That is next Tuesday.

That statement is issued by Deputy Game Warden "Joe" Fitzsimmons not so much as information, because, as he says, sportsmen heretofore do not need to be informed concerning opening of hunting dates, but as a warning. "Sunrise means sunrise, and in this part of the country, at this time of year anyway, the sun does not rise at midnight," the sturdy minion of the game law warns.

Also—The limit on ducks is 18; geese two; black-breasted and golden-plover, 6; jack snipe, 12; yellow-legs, 6.

No person may have in his possession at all these varieties—not of a single variety, but of the whole clump.

That is the law. Shooting of deer in Clearwater and Idaho counties does not begin until October 1. The limit for the season is one animal of deer, elk or mountain sheep.

The best duck shooting areas heretofore are Murtagh Lake, Wilson Lake, Deep Creek reservoir on the Salmon tract.

Deaths

Funeral services will be held today for Mr. Barney, who died at the county hospital Thursday. Services will be in charge of the Rev. Conrad L. Owen, of the Baptist church. Burial will be in Twin Falls cemetery.

Male and Female Swimmers

Swimming comes easier to women than men because the specific gravity of their bodies is less than those of men. The proportion of flesh is greater in the body of a woman than in that of a man and the proportion of bone is less. Therefore the woman is lighter in proportion to her size and floats more readily. This gives her an advantage as a swimmer.

The Water in which we do Your Washing

No detail in the washing of clothes is so important as the water used.

Laundresses once imagined they were exceptionally sanitary when they changed the water in tubs and boilers four or five times during a washday. And considering their limited facilities, they really did do very well.

But if you were to visit our laundry, you would find us doing even better. We use new water not once, but from nine to twelve times while your clothes are being cleansed.

Every few minutes while the washing is in progress, we draw off the muddied water and add more that is fresh and pure—water specially filtered and specially softened.

Isn't this an immense improvement over the home laundering methods of by-gone days? And it is a fine guarantee, too, of true clothes health.

Why seek high and low for a laundress? Why straggle and strain over the family washing when we can give you this ideal laundry service? Why not telephone us and turn your washday worries over to our driver when he calls.

INVENTORY WILL COST PHONE FIRM FORTUNE

Communication Company Must Do Work for State and Stand All Expense

At least 150 people are employed in making an appraisal and inventory of property in Idaho, belonging to the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Company. The work is being done on orders from the state government department and is for the purpose of arriving at a fixed figure as to physical valuation of this property.

Of the army of persons employed 60 are engaged in field work, the remainder being engaged at the company's headquarters. Field work should be finished in about a week or 10 days, but inventory compiling will last several weeks longer. The company must defray all cost of gathering statistics and compiling the data. This cost, it is estimated by J. F. Greenwalt, publicity manager of the company, with headquarters in Denver, will be between $50,000 and $60,000.

The desire of the state department is, through actual measurement of all equipment and materials, as well as other property, to arrive at a definite plan for working out an accurate unit cost upon which to fix a reasonable valuation. A similar work is required in Utah, and the company three years ago completed stock-taking in Colorado. The inventory is an exacting job, requiring the measuring of every foot of wire, cable, counting of poles erected and unset, and similar detail.

WILL BUILD HOUSE

Late yesterday a permit to construct a residence in east $1000 was issued by the city clerk of favor of Fred E. Hanson. The house will be erected on lot 2 block 17 and will stand on a basement wall 34 by 53 feet.

FARMER PAYS FINE

In the prolate court this morning, Judge O. P. Davall presiding, Jake Van Ostrom, a district farmer, was found guilty of stealing water from a canal by diverting it to his own use. He was fined $100. The fine was paid.

Climatologist is Ambiguous in Statements

BESIDES being a cautious and pessimistic commander of the Idaho state weather works is an ambiguous climatologist. For instance he says the temperatures for next week will be "nearly normal." Also he talks somewhat loquaciously of showers coming during the next hebdomadal period.

For tomorrow "fair and warmer," a stock and pet phrase with this ruler of the roost at Boise when he is up against it and cannot figure out the coming climatical conditions.

But he did not guess yesterday what we got last night. The temperature in this immediate district got down so that early rime was frozen on frost this morning. As Koch, the observer, quotes figures showing that before sunrise today the mercury slid to the 35 degree mark. In various sections frost was found, but not of damaging character. High yesterday was 77 degrees, with 41 for the 24 hours closing at last sundown.

IMPROVED TELEPHONE SERVICE IS PROMISED FOR TWIN FALLS

J. F. Greenwalt Tells of Program Including Installation of Equipment Here to Serve 20,000 Subscribers—Immediate Relief to Be Given Home Plant

Officials of the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph company are not indifferent to the needs of the public but are seriously handicapped in meeting present requirements by shortage of material, equipment and skilled labor. Immediate needs here are to be supplied.

That crisis statement, according to J. F. Greenwalt, publicity manager of the company, epitomizes the actual condition existing at practically all points of moment on the system of the telephone company both east, west, north and south. It is said to be almost entirely to curtailment of equipment and material manufacture, during the period of the war and to the present shortage of artisans for service in installation work.

Mr. Greenwalt arrived in Twin Falls yesterday from a man's vacation of the state. He spent the morning with C. F. Green, local manager of the telephone company, and this afternoon leaves for Bull. Tomorrow he will be in Boise.

Equipment Ordered
In connection with the Twin Falls telephone plant Mr. Greenwalt explained that betterment of service in the company's plan for a time as early as practicable, compatible with conditions. He stated that equipment had long ago been ordered for the local office, designed to provide No. 1 service.

"This equipment, when installed, will place Twin Falls on an equal service basis with other major cities of the state, including Pocatello and Boise," Mr. Greenwalt explained, adding that the switchboard will have a capacity to provide for the needs of 20,000 subscribers. This material will probably not be laid down here for several months, but is coming.

The present capacity of the Twin Falls telephone plant is 10,000 lines, serving 2000 subscribers. Of these lines, all of which are working at peak capacity, there are 40 surplus, some carrying as high as eight phones.

Demand for new installation files the entire order book at the company headquarters, according to officials, and to meet the immediate needs at least for temporary needs, equipment for 100 additional lines is to be installed. This equipment is in transit and should be received immediately. Placing will require only a short time when all the material is on hand, but that urgent orders should be filled in the course of a month.

Whole Country Affected
"The condition is not peculiar to Twin Falls, the demand for 100 per cent perfect service is met in every important town and city in the United States," Mr. Greenwalt explained in a summary of the general situation as it relates to telephone service. The company, by reason of lack of material and men has not been able to keep pace with the growth of population need. We are well aware that there is a constant overload on the Twin Falls switch board, and the company proposes to relieve the situation with all possible speed. We cannot promise perfect service immediately, though, but the time is not far distant when there will be a noticeable improvement in connection and service. Explaining the shortage of telephone equipment the telephone official said that during almost the entire period of the war manufacturers devoted almost their entire plants and man power to the making of munitions. What telephone equipment and material was put out was sent to France for communication service there. These manufacturers, he declares, are industriously employed now getting back to a pre-war manufacturing basis, but will not have caught up with orders for months.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION MANIFESTS PROSPERITY

Reports at Monthly Meeting Indicate Heavy Business Increase

Over $40,000 worth of stock in the Twin Falls Building & Loan association has been sold during the past two months and a net average earning of two and a half per cent for the past three months upon stock was reported by the secretary to the board of directors at the regular monthly meeting of the association held in the office of Frank G. Lechleiter, secretary, last night.

Up to this time the interest rate on borrowers has been 48.50 per $1,000 borrowed. By action of the directors this was reduced last night upon all new loans to $5.00 per $1,000, or a straight 8 per cent. All loans now in effect will participate in the new rate from October first on.

Since July first the monthly receipts of the institution have practically doubled, the total stock subscription now amounting to $145,000. The management of the concern is in the hands of Frank G. Lechleiter, secretary, who devotes his entire time to the business, the growth of which during Mr. Lechleiter's term of office has exceeded any similar period in the history of the institution.

Peach Picking Makes a Brisk Farm Business

Up to Thursday of this week peaches amounting to 18 tons have been picked at the Twin Falls Heights orchards. Other orchards are yet to be gathered.

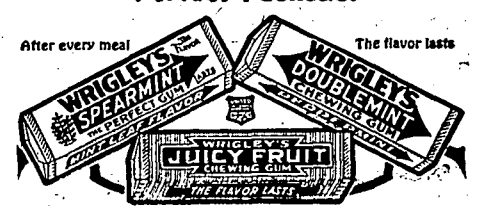

The 1919 crop of peaches comprises one of the biggest fruit yields ever picked in the Twin Falls district. The fruit is of excellent quality throughout. In gathering his peach harvest the orchard company has employed as high as 100 persons a day in the heights of the season. More than half that number were employed in the packing house on the company's grounds Thursday.

The farm just now is a particularly busy place, great peach crops, comprising a bright background to a commercial scene in which auto trucks, motors and groups of workers comprise the central part. Individual purchasers in great number have visited the farm this season to procure household supplies of fruit. The company has almost 400 acres in its tract, forming probably the largest orchard in Southern Idaho. Its apple crop will be greater than was the peach yield. Many of the company's constant stockholders have spent some time on the place this season.

"The Church and the Social Question"

A day of unparalleled opportunity is confronting the church of Jesus Christ. Fifty years ago the world's thought centered in the relation of religion to science. Today it centers in the relation of religion to society.

This message is the first of a series of Sunday evening addresses, presenting some of the basic principles which underlie the relation of the church to the condition of society at the present time.

Make this church hour your Sunday evening appointment. A cordial welcome to the public.
