ITALIAN LEADERS ADVANCING UPON ADRIATIC POINTS

D'Annunzio's Dramatic Seizure of Fiume Seems to Serve as Example Followed by Other of His Countrymen

PEACE COUNCIL PLAINLY CONCERNED OVER AFFAIR

Plan to Restore King Nicholas to Montenegrin Throne is New Factor Injected into the Situation

PARIS, (AP)—Apparently in emulation of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio, whose dramatic seizure of Fiume centered the attention of the world on the eastern littoral of the Adriatic, other Italian leaders are reported to be advancing on Spalato, Sebenico and Trau, important towns along the coast which have been under the control of Jugo-Slav forces. Peace conference circles are plainly concerned over the situation which seems to have become quite grave.

Jugo Slavs Overpowered

Bolgrad advisers declare Italian soldiers have overpowered a small Jugo-Slav force at Tezino and have entered the town. Further south there appear also to be disorders, reports from Rome indicating there is a virtual reign of terror at Ragusa, a Dalmatian town close to the frontier of Montenegro.

In addition there are rumors that the Italians plan to restore King Nicholas to the Montenegrin throne, from which he was ousted by action of the national assembly last April. This action by the Italian government has never been recognized by the League of Nations government, which has maintained its headquarters near Paris for several months. King Nicholas is the father of Queen Helena of Italy.

Peace Council Doubt

So far as known definitely no answer to proposals made by Italy relative to Fiume has been received from President Wilson.

PRESIDENT IS LEADING ASTRAY NEW DECLARES

Indiana Senator Takes Issue with Wilson's Assertion that England Could Not Outvote United States

WASHINGTON, (AP)—In asserting that the British empire could not outvote the United States in the league of nations under the covenant as now drawn, President Wilson either through "misunderstanding or misrepresentation" is leading astray the American people, Senator New, republican, of Indiana declared in an address today in the senate.

Senator New criticized many details of the covenant and dwelt at length on the question of the relative vote of Great Britain and this country in the league of nations. "Forget the Details." Details are the cancer of such an important matter as this, the senator declared, and the president is leading astray the senate to forget the details. "The president, he said, would substitute this phrase for the slogan of 'safety first.' What would happen on a ratification of the covenant, if it replaced its 'safety first' slogan with an injunction to its employees to 'forget the details.'"

Being in issue with the president's assertion that Great Britain's six votes in the assembly would be no more powerful than the one vote of this country because the assembly must be by unanimous vote, the Indiana senator declared "Mr. Wilson overlooks the fact that in those disputes in which America is directly concerned we have no vote at all." He also pointed to the provision in article 15 under which any dispute referred to the league may be decided by a majority vote, and to the assembly's power of approval by a majority vote of the four elective members of the council.

As to the right of withdrawal from the league, Senator New declared the United States would not be bound by the terms of the covenant, but discharged its international obligations at any time it might wish to withdraw, but must submit the question to arbitration. In support of this assertion, he contended that under article 13 it is expressly stated the interpretation

LOCAL MEN TAKE INITIATIVE IN ESTABLISHMENT OF CIVIC CLUB

Movement Under Way Looking to Organization of Chamber of Commerce in Twin Falls Meets with Good Reception at Hands of Twin Falls People. Mass Meeting to Be Called when Signers of Petition Become Numerically Sufficient to Guarantee Success of Move

WITH a view to bringing about a serious effort towards the establishment of a chamber of commerce or some similar civic body in Twin Falls, a petition is now being circulated in the city pledging the support of the signer to such a movement and guaranteeing his presence at an organization mass meeting to be held when enough names are secured to insure a representative meeting.

Petitioners are in the hands of W. B. Amshary and C. B. McMartin and copies may be had for voluntary work by any caring to assist in the movement. Already about 25 local business men have attached their names to the petition and no difficulty is anticipated in running this up to several hundred.

The petition reads as follows: "I hereby express myself as being unqualifiedly in favor of the establishment of a Commercial Club or Chamber of Commerce in Twin Falls in the interests of civic progress, desiring the establishment and maintenance of such club as a source of permanent benefit to the city and its people, and further promise to personally attend any meeting which may later be called in the interests of this movement unless prevented by unavoidable cause."

Judging from public expression the movement should meet with a splendid reception everywhere. There appears to be no good reason why Twin Falls should not have a chamber of commerce or commercial club of some sort and many reasons why it should.

In discussing the matter this morning W. B. Amshary said: "I am in this movement purely and only because I think Twin Falls should have such a club. In order to succeed it must be a representative club, with all factions in harmony and every effort made to sink personal matters for the benefit of the city as a whole."

"We want the help of all Twin Falls" in this way a useful permanent organization can be formed which will be of benefit to business and a blessing to the city. It will help Twin Falls grow, it will mean more people and more business, a more prosperous community and a better place to live. My own connection with the matter ends with the work of helping to get the movement started. When enough names are secured a mass meeting will be called to take the next step, namely decide on the general plan for the new organization."

"I believe Twin Falls should have such a club and I hope and believe that Twin Falls as a whole will agree with me."

Further copies of the petition may be had from Mr. Amshary or Mr. McMartin, and those desiring to help in the movement are cordially invited to do so.

SPITZBERGEN TO NORWAY

Peace Council Approves Award of Political Sovereignty Over Archipelago

PARIS, (AP)—The supreme council of the peace conference at this morning's session approved the report of the commission on Spitzbergen granting to Norway political sovereignty over the Spitzbergen archipelago. Norway is called to Spitzbergen than any other country and virtually all the several nations which had put in claims to the territory had waived them before the commission's report was presented. The archipelago is detached from the German colonial possessions, should be given to Portugal.

BERKMAN HEARING ON

Alleged Anarchist Now in Prison Face Deportation Proceedings

ATLANTA, Ga., (AP)—The hearing of deportation proceedings against Alexander Berkman, now serving a sentence at the federal penitentiary here, is under way. The proposed deportation hearing was called again to order before Immigration Inspector Kessler. The hearing was temporarily halted Saturday when Berkman refused to answer questions regarding his early life in Russia and the names of relatives there. Berkman, in declining to reply to questions Saturday, said it was in violation of his "invasion of my conscience." Berkman's term in the penitentiary expires October 5.

STRUGGLE MUST GO TO LIMIT TO MEET DEMANDS

Consent of United States Corporation to Meet Representatives of Men Would Not Stop Strike, Union Head Says

DECENT JUSTICE CALLED PRIME AIM OF STRIKERS

Senate Investigation Committee Hears Views of Organized Labor Leader on Causes of Dissatisfaction

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Chairman Keeler of the senate committee investigating the steel strike announced today that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, would be called before the committee tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Even should the United States Steel corporation announce the nation-wide strike of steel workers could not now be called off, in the opinion of John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the strikers committee, as expressed today at the opening of the senate inquiry committee's investigation of the strike.

"The 350,000 men on strike," Fitzpatrick declared, "are going to demand a meeting of the government, decent justice."

All Strikers Union Men

All of the 340,000 men on strike, Fitzpatrick said in reply to Senator Kenyon, are members of the American Federation of Labor.

Fitzpatrick said the charge that most of the strikers were aliens was "a ludicrous charge" by newspapers, "and that since the war, English speaking workers had manned the mills."

President Wilson tried to get a conference with Judge Gary for the union committee, Fitzpatrick said.

"Did he tell you so in so many words," Senator Kenyon asked.

"We saw him, and he convinced us that he had tried," Fitzpatrick responded, "and that his efforts had been fruitless."

Opposition Unimaginable

"Give this strike an McGovern," Fitzpatrick continued, "the opposition is simply unimaginable. Two men can't talk on the street. In Clarion, Duquesne and Homestead, authorities are denying all rights to the miners. Troopers ride into the houses and trample our men."

At South Chicago, Indiana Harbor, Gary and other western steel mills, turning points, he said, "not a blow has been struck because the men are not harassed by the authorities."

To Sustain President

"We feel that this strike is necessary to sustain the authority of the president of the United States," Fitzpatrick said. He asked for a conference, and the head of a company which was on strike refused to meet with the United States refused. So the men in the mills saw it was necessary to sustain the president's prestige.

"As your story stands the only reason you called this strike was that Mr. Gary refused a conference," Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, said, "and when you called the strike you called it in all bluntly, whether the steel corporation owned them or not."

Fittance of Wages
"You have noted Senator Philips continued, "that the men receive a 'mere pittance' of wages—what a pittance would receive. Do you think it is a fair statement of the situation, from what you have been told?"

STEEL STRIKE SITUATION GENERALL AT STANDSTILL WITH QUIET IN SUPREMACY

Neither Side in Struggle in Pittsburgh Sector Makes Claims of Great Changes in Situation; Announcement of Extensive Resumption of Operations in Chicago District Offset by Symptomatic Walkout of Steam Engineers at Gary

SENATE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATION DRAWS ATTENTION TO WASHINGTON

PITTSBURGH, Pa., (AP)—Neither side in the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburgh district made any claims today of great changes in the situation. The fourth day that the walkout found western Pennsylvania comparatively quiet.

Corporation officials announced that the gradual return of men which set in on the second day of the strike continued today. The return it was said, was not large, but was steady and gratification was expressed by steel officials with the situation.

Secretary Wm. Z. Foster of the senate committee said today he had no reports of further shutdowns but was in receipt of information from different parts of the Pittsburgh field that gains are being made by the strikers.

The senate committee investigation at Washington of the nation-wide strike of steel workers today drew the attention of employers, labor leaders and both interested parties in the Pittsburgh district.

ENGINEERS WALK OUT AS MILL IS TO BE REOPENED

CHICAGO, (AP)—An official announcement that steel and rail mills of the United States Steel corporation at Gary, Ind., would be in operation today, which would be the most extensive resumption of work in the Chicago district since the strike of steel workers was called Monday, was overshadowed by the 185 steam engineers at the Illinois Steel company at Gary being ordered out on a sympathetic strike by their local union.

Chicago labor leaders asserted that action would close the steel mills.

Claims of the industrial and labor leaders still were at variance. Five hundred men at Indiana Harbor, Ind., attended a meeting and demanded protection for their return to work.

Speakers at the meeting stated that 80 per cent of the 12,000 men in the plant at six plants desired to resume work.

At Gary and South Chicago, according to labor leaders, the tendency of the men was to operate the plants. Officials of the Inland Steel company at Indiana Harbor were said to have stated that unless striking employees returned to their places today in sufficient numbers to operate the plants they would be closed down for from three to nine months.

ANOTHER FATALITY REPORTED IN PENNSYLVANIA SECTOR

FAIRFELL, Pa., (AP)—Luke Grogan, a Serbian, was shot and killed by a state trooper here shortly after 11 o'clock today. He was in the house under suspicion of being a sniping post from which shots had been fired at a steel plant.

Mass meetings have been forbidden by proclamation here and in Sharon, Pa., local secretary of the American Association of Iron and Steel Workers is said to have announced that a meeting would be held here on the Ohio line today.

The South Carnegie plant here was in operation today. Officials said more men are returning every day.

MERCHANTS OF YOUNGSTOWN FEELING EFFECTS OF STRIKE

YOUNGSTOWN, O., (AP)—With the closing of the steel mills in the Mahoning valley, merchants of Youngstown are beginning to feel the effects already of the curtailment of ready money heretofore so freely spent by the mill workers, they say.

Almost $1,000,000 was paid in wages to 11,500 employees of the Youngstown sheet and tube company yesterday. Not a single instance of disturbance accompanied the paying of so many men at the company's gates.

PERMITS GOVERN MOVEMENT OF COAL AND IRON ORE DURING STEEL STRIKE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—In an effort to meet the first effects of the steel strike on the transportation systems the railroad administration today issued a system of moving coal and iron ore to the steel mills by permit which will limit the quantities shipped to what the steel mills can consume during the strike.

OBJECTIONS TO PACT DISPOSED OF SAYS WILSON

President Tells Denver Audience Issue in Peace Treaty Discussion is at Last Clearly Drawn

DENVER, COLO., (AP)—Declaring the issue in the peace treaty discussion at last had been "clearly drawn," President Wilson said in an address here today that the question facing the nation was whether the United States would keep its pledge to help guarantee the peace of the world.

All of the minor objections to the treaty had been disposed of, he asserted, and the whole question had now settled down upon the issue of the league of nations covenant—its guarantee of article ten. Adoption of a reservation like that proposed by the senate, he declared, would be equivalent to rejection of the treaty.

Grewed With Cheers
The president's declarations repeatedly were cheered by a crowd which packed the Denver auditorium, said to hold more than 11,000. Previously he had been greeted with uproarious cheers along the line of an automobile parade through the principal streets, the crowds lining the sidewalks for many blocks.

Of all the subject matter in the treaty aside from the league covenant Mr. Wilson said, the Shantung provisions were the only one which had been objected to.

The president touched briefly upon the voting power of the British empire in the league assembly, saying that objections on that score had been cleared away when it became known that the British dominions "have six votes in the assembly but the assembly does not count."

On the final issue, as it had settled down about the question of reservations, said the president, there was no opposition, only one criticism, "except among the people who tried to defeat the purpose of the government in the war."

"I was glad," he said, "to see the crowd cheering, 'are the knives being stuck into this document.'"

"Qualified adoption" of the treaty Mr. Wilson said, was "not adoption but rejection." He declared that to qualify the ratification would mean asking special privileges for the United States, a thing which would be unworthy of the nation. So the issue had been definitely drawn, he added and the only question to be decided was whether the United States would go into the league or not.

Next War More Terrible
It had been one of the purposes of the war, Mr. Wilson said, to set up a permanent peace guarantee. He declared he was "under bond" especially to the children of the country, to make good the promise of such a guaranty. He added that the next world war would be much more terrible than the last.

SENATOR AVERS HOME TROUBLES ARE SUFFICIENT

Frelinghuysen Would Devote National Energies First to Settlement of the Domestic Problems; World Afterward

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The lives of American soldiers are of far more moment "than the sordid, necessary considerations which are being urged by this senate, and by international bankers throughout the land, for the sake of nations," Senator Frelinghuysen, republican, New Jersey declared Wednesday in an address at length on the League covenant and President Wilson.

"The public feels," Senator Frelinghuysen said, "that we should devote our energies to our own troubles of which the Boston police strike and the ominous reception given the president at Seattle are but symptoms."

Referring to the Shantung settlement, Senator Frelinghuysen said the president "not merely tolerates, but approves and asks us to approve a piece of work," "the president's real excuse, he added, is that Japan otherwise would not sign the treaty."

What Is Japan's Price?
"If it costs so much to induce Japan to enter, what price must be paid to keep her in?" he asked.

Senator Frelinghuysen said he would vote for all committee amendments to the treaty and the four committee reservations to the League covenant and that he would hesitate to approve the amendment returning Shantung to China was adopted.

"I resent," he said, "the secret birth of the league; the crafty winning of it with a peace treaty as that, as a rider, the great sentiment for peace America could be capitalized to force it through and circumvent the judgment and understanding of the American people."

Wilson An Autocrat

The senator declared visitors to New Jersey would be told by the vast majority of people, including many democrats, that President Wilson was an autocrat. Few of his constituents, he added, now call the president a democrat; many of them regarding him as an internationalist.

Senator Frelinghuysen said he was well aware that because of his name some people might think he was of German origin.

"It is because," he added, "that neither in me nor in any of my ancestors is or was there any German blood that I had dared demand for origin in this country, irrespective of origin, a square deal."

GOMPERS TAKES ISSUE WITH MYERS' PROPOSAL

Defends Right of Police Men to Affiliate with American Federation of Labor

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senator Myers' proposal to stop the pay of any policeman of the district of Columbia who affiliated with organized labor was characterized Wednesday by Samuel Gompers as "not only unnecessary, but unjust and unwise." He told the senate district of Columbia committee the federation would serve a check on any untoward act of the police.

Inadequate salaries, injustices and mistreatment, Gompers said, had caused the police of the country to affiliate themselves with organized labor. He suggested that the only other organization to which the police might turn was the A. F. W.

Mr. Gompers, under a sharp cross examination by Chairman Sherman declared he did not recognize the right of a police force anywhere to strike.

Regarding the situation in Boston, Gompers said he did not regard it as a strike, but as a lockout due to the action of the police commissioner.

Mr. Gompers refused to express approval or disapproval of the action of the Boston police.

RUMANIA WOULD CONCEDE

Offers to Give Allies All Satisfaction in Regard to Hungarian Claim

PARIS, (Havas)—In the answer given by Premier Bratianu of Rumania to the allied note delivered by Sir George Russell Clark, who went to Bucharest as an emissary of the peace conference, Bratianu offers to give the allies all the satisfaction in her power with regard to actions connected with her occupation of Hungarian territory, according to the Echo de Paris today. Rumania is ready to evacuate Budapest or to co-operate there with the allies in maintaining order, the note declares, and she sets forth that Rumania is prepared to deliver to the allies a list of the war material and rolling stock seized.

Rumania, however, expresses in the note the hope that as she had recovered only what was due her from Hungary the allies would not dispose of her of these acquisitions. One point upon which she insists, according to this version of the note, is the removal of the Hungarian blockade.

ROCKEFELLER GIVES TO INDIGENT MINISTER FUND

NEW YORK, (AP)—John D. Rockefeller today contributed $2,000,000 to the ministers and missionary board of the Northern Baptist convention. No restrictions are made as to the use to be expended to take care of indigent principal and income, which will be distributed to the ministers of the northern states. The announcement of the gift was made in a letter to Rev. E. T. Tomlinson, executive secretary of the board.

Allies Help to Pay Off Liberty Bonds

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Nearly a billion dollars of Liberty bonds have been redeemed in the United States and paid off by the government with loans returned by the allied governments and certain taxes which were paid on bonds themselves. The total of all issues of bonds ran to $7,000,000,000.

Great Britain already has repaid $32,000,000 of the billion it owes the United States and France has also made a small payment. In all the allies owe the United States about ten billion dollars.

LANE GIVES CAUSE FOR INDUSTRIAL TURMOILS

Secretary of Interior Holds Belief in Gold as Rainbow End Responsible

WASHINGTON, (AP)—People who "continue to believe that there is a bag of gold at the end of the rainbow," are largely responsible for industrial and social unrest in America and other countries, Secretary Lane declared Wednesday in an address before the annual convention of the association of American secretaries of state.

"These folks," said Mr. Lane, "won't take the word of experienced men all down the road of history that there is no magical way to happiness. Work alone finds the way. Work is the salvation, materially and spiritual."

"Our war morale has not been maintained. We have lost the unity of purpose that prevailed then. We lack a common purpose, we Americans, though we are just as loyal, just as patriotic."

"We can develop an aggressive, constructive program for America. Let us all work to make this country a better place in which to live, not by selfish enterprise, but by co-operation. That is our ideal. Let us live up to it."

Italian Naval Officer Expresses Admiration for Dictatorship Leader

NEW YORK, (AP)—Admiral Ugo Bonetti of the Italian navy, who is paying an official visit to the United States in behalf of his government, expressed admiration for Gabriele D'Annunzio here today.

"I do not know officially of what has transpired," said the admiral, "but if what I have read in the American papers is correct, all I can say is that I have nothing to say against D'Annunzio."

Although he regarded the situation as serious, Admiral Bonetti said he believed it would be adjusted satisfactorily in the end through Italy's "obedience" to the enlightened opinion of mankind.

WILSON'S SUGGESTION MAY NOT SUIT PREMIER

PARIS (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The report from New York that President Wilson has expressed a desire to have casts of the features of all the principal delegates at the Peace Conference is causing much speculation in the Parisian artistic world as to the probable reception which Premier Clemenceau will make to the request.

Ten years ago when the late Rodin was working on his famous bust of the "Tiger," which Clemenceau says looks as much like him as he looks like Joan of Arc, Rodin asked and obtained permission to make a cast of Clemenceau's features.

Clemenceau submitted to the application of layers of paraffine oil, soap and plaster to his face, fiddled nervously for ten minutes while Rodin was massaging his features, then suddenly asked: "How much longer are you going to manipulate me this way?"

"Another half hour," replied Rodin carelessly. Clemenceau leaped from the chair, rushed to the nearest wash stand and proceeded to erase all traces of the cast from his face. He then gave Rodin his photograph.

PALMER REPORTS ON COSTS SLASH

Attorney General Says Investigations Continue; Waits on Congress

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Reports of excessive profits by manufacturers and wholesale dealers of clothing are being investigated by the department of justice. Attorney General Palmer said Wednesday that prosecutions would be instituted wherever justice is seen as Congress passed the amendments requested by President Wilson making the food control act applicable to clothing and providing a criminal penalty for hoarding and profiteering.

Mr. Palmer will meet a committee representing the association of status attorneys general here October 6 to decide how the law enforcement agencies can operate in pushing hoarders and profiteering.

Despite dissatisfaction said to have been voiced by union leaders on the Pacific coast with the progress which the campaign to reduce the cost of living has made, the attorney general and his associates believed that substantial good has been accomplished. Not only has the upward trend of prices been checked, Mr. Palmer said, but reductions are being effected in many lines of foodstuffs of which the consumer will get the advantage later.

Herbert Hoover has written Mr. Palmer declaring that the campaign already in progress of value and trying that speculation by traders who merely bought to boost the price be stopped.

ITCHING PALMS MET IN ITALY

Perahing's Party Pays Big Tribute During Visit in Rome

ROME (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—"Itching palms" were extended to the enlisted personnel attached to General Perahing's staff during the American commander-in-chief's visit to Rome. Cab drivers, professional guides, professional beggars, novelty vendors and guidebook sellers propped upon the American doughboys with avidity. One soldier paid $5 to be driven from the station to St. Peter's, a trip ordinarily costing 40 cents or, by trolley, four cents.

Professional guides reaped a harvest at the Coliseum and at St. Peter's, where they played the part of "confidence" men by offering to take soldiers to parts of these monuments not ordinarily open to the public. A guide at the Coliseum exacted $4 for taking three privates and a sergeant, and the upper tiers while another guide at St. Peter's demanded $7 for taking two boys through the Vatican museum, both of which are free to the public.

A cab driver agreed to take three privates over the ancient Appian Way for $6. He took them on a trip of the three miles for about an hour, but told them they had seen all and demanded the fare, which they paid.

INDIAN KNEW WHERE TO DIG

Red Man's Action and Finds Have Considerably Myfied Residents of Missouri Town.

The region about Caruthersville, Mo., is rich in lore about hidden gold and silver and mounds rich with pottery. Too, there are great strange caves to be found there, the ending subjects for speculation and wonderment, say the Kansas City Star.

A few years ago an Indian went to Caruthersville with several skin maps and dug up pottery that was worth several thousand dollars. He threatened to be allowed to dig into one mound near the town. However, the owner decided that if the mound was worth so much money for exploration purposes he would do the exploring. He did and found nothing.

Some time later the Indian returned to that section, hired a man with a wagon and team and drove out into the country to a spot where three pecan trees grew in a triangle. He dug down and unearthed two boxes, so heavy that a man could not lift one and of silver and gold. He stowed it away and to this day, their contents is a much discussed mystery of that locality.

DETERMINED TO ENJOY MEAL

Ten-Year-Old Was Going to Eat in Comfort if It Cost Him His Savings.

The Lano family decided to help out the mother by allowing the boy to enjoy the amount of table linen in the weekly washing. Each member who spilled something on the cloth was required to cover it with a piece of money of the exact size of the spot. Twice ten-year-old Fred was compelled to hand in a quarter from his pocket money. Then one day he came home from the store with his pocket jangling full of money.

At the very beginning of the meal he dropped a bit of gravy. Soon afterward a piece of tomato followed the gravy. Still he showed no concern. His older sister reminded him of the agreement. "Oh, I guess I'll wait until I'm through," was his calm rejoinder.

Every one was surprised because on other occasions he had showed much concern over his accidents. But when he produced a pocketful of pennies at the close of the meal and announced that he had come prepared to enjoy a meal once again, everyone understood.—Indianapolis News.

INDEPENDENCE FOR DANZIG

Plan for Government of State Created by Treaty Reaches Commission

PARIS, (AP)—A proposed plan of government for the independent state of Danzig to be created by the treaty with Germany has been received from the municipality of Danzig by the allied commission having the matter in charge. According to this plan the new state would be called the independent state of the Hansa and Danzig.

The senate would be invested with supreme authority, and would comprise twelve members with twelve substitutes, all to be elected by the people. A citizens' council of senators would be elected every four years by universal suffrage. German would be the official language.

BOTH AS BIFF MAN CLASSES ALL ALONE

No Batter in History Ever Displayed Prowess of Red Sox Great Player

"Babe" Ruth, the famous Red Sox slugger, is credited by baseball scribes as being in a class by himself as a hitter. Says Harry Davis, of the Athletics, "Don't mention any other slugger in the same breath with him. He is far the greatest hitter that ever swung a baseball bat. He is in a class by himself. I ought to know, I've seen DeLahanty, Anson, Lajoie and all the rest of them in their prime, but none of them compare with Ruth. He always has been a hitter, even though he was the first time he has attained such great honors. Buck Freeman made more honors than Ruth has made as yet, but Freeman made them when the parks on the big league circuits were far smaller than they are now."

Baseball scribes also point out the fact that Freeman's record of hits is exceeded by that of Ned Williamson. Williamson made his record of 27 circuit clouts in 1884. But conditions were so different in batting at that time that no comparison between the hitting of Ruth and Williamson is possible. Since it is also proven that comparison between the career of Freeman and Ruth is impossible because of varying conditions, it remains that Ruth is without a doubt in a class by himself as a hitter.

Icar, Icar, Icar!

Told you so, didn't we!

A choleric telegraph operator in Sim Smiley's office peevishly says the White Sox had to have help from the outside.

Oh, very well, then.

Anyway the Comakeyites have the flag clinched, and all that now remains is to whip the Reds for the rest of the honor.

Little Dick Kerr, the Clark Griffith of the Chicago Cubs, led the Sox to victory yesterday, and to the American League flag, after "Ace," Cleotis had been rammed.

Dick started yesterday's ninth with a single, which opened da batting rally and led to the downfall of the Browns.

P. T. B. said a sucker is born every minute.

Jack Dempsey is reported to be one of the poorest drawing cards any pugilistic champion ever proved to be. He is not drawing worth a continental.

But the suckers who used to fall over themselves to worship a strong-armed pug idol are beginning to learn that idol worship is all little wish-wash.

Sim Smiley, the "angelbrush" sage, says: "O'long as 'yer mind's been seed fitten to go inter 'th' grocery game th' grocers may consider 'it their duty to go inter th' mill business and give th' folks a better service."

While Garry Hermann is not yet over the "Reds" he has been reported as trying to slip him out of his job as head of the ball commission.

Charley Comiskey says it makes no difference to him where the White Sox lick the Reds first.

Comes now "Fatty" Arbuckle and says he has had about enough strenuously since he has been a part owner in the Vernon club to last him a lifetime. The rough star of the movies says baseball has lost a lot of its lure since it began to eat into his bank pile to maintain a winner.

Frank Chance, former manager of the Cubs, has returned to Los Angeles from the east with a story that in major league ball clubs, with about three exceptions, are on the block for sale.

Chance says Barney Oldfield, truck speed demon, is dickering for the Cubs, and is said to have ample Chicago backing to effect the purchase.

The world's series for the minor league championship, with the Angels and Saints contesting, will start in Los Angeles October 8.

The St. Paul club will make the junket to the coast, playing "conditioning" exhibitions as they pass.

Jack Dempsey, souring on the stage business, says he is about to return to the training camp and get ready to tackle the fight game again. Dempsey says his first "victim" will be "Phat" Willie Meehan of San Francisco. This bout is scheduled for Thanksgiving.

VETERANS FORM SOX BALL CLUB

Comiskey Will Present Nearly Same Lineup as Won Flag in 1917

CHICAGO, (AP)—(World's Series).—When "Kid" Gleason, ex-coach of Clarence Rowland as manager of the Chicago Americans and started the 1919 season with the same lineup that finished sixth in the 1918 pennant race after winning the world's championship in 1917, few baseball experts figured that the White Sox would win the American League flag this season.

But that is what has happened and the "win ones" are offering all sorts of reasons for the startling reversal of form. They say that playing under a new leader was a contributing factor, but all agree that perhaps the main one was that the players themselves entered the game this season with a renewed confidence following the termination of the world war. Last season a majority of the White Sox were expected to be called into military service any day, and this, with the classification of baseball as "non-essential" was a disturbing situation.

The 1918 White Sox was a team grinding over the pennant road minus some of its main cogs. Joe Jackson, the club's leading batter this season went into the shipyards after battling .354 for seven games; Oscar "Happy" Folsch, quit the club after playing in 53 games; Pitcher Urban Fisher enlisted in the navy after winning five of six games, while Pitcher Claude Williams went to work in the shipyards when he had won six and lost four games. The loss of these four players proved a staggering blow.

Aided to this loss, Eddie Cicotte, the veteran right-handed and leading pitcher in 1917, was in a slump during the entire season, winning only twelve games and losing nineteen. But it was a different Cicotte this season. His remarkable comeback has been one of the sensations of the year and his efforts pitching in one of the chief reasons why the White Sox finished out in front.

That the White Sox will have practically a veteran lineup when the club enters the small classic against Cincinnati is shown by the following comparison of the 1917 and 1919 line-ups:

1917	1919
Liebold	1f Liebold
McMullin	3b Weaver
E. Collins	2b E. Collins
Jackson	1f Jackson
Folsch	1f Folsch
Ganfill	1b Ganfill
Weaver	ss Risberg
Schalk	ss Schalk

Risberg was with the club in 1917.

Must Tag Deer or Lose Game; Warden Avers

HUNTERS of deer in Idaho are likely to lose their kills if they do not follow strictly the rules and regulations prescribed by the state game law.

Up to the present time not a huntman in the district who has slain his stag has made proper report to the deputy game warden, J. B. Fitzsimmons.

The law in this respect requires that all carcasses must be tagged with the name of the owner, the license number and the date of the kill.

In a letter from the head of the fish and game department at Boise Mr. Fitzsimmons has been instructed to follow the text of the law in this respect most rigidly. A paragraph of the letter on this point reads: "Seize and confiscate the carcasses of any game found in your territory untagged regardless of by whom killed."

Mr. Fitzsimmons says it is going to be done, too.

WHEN THE BLIND LEAD All of the minor objections to the party have been disposed of, President Wilson asserts today in Denver...

Mr. Wilson includes among these minor objections which so longer give any concern, the voting power of the British empire in the assembly of the league of nations...

It is admitted that some disputes likely to lead to rupture can be transferred from the council of the league, here, as Mr. Wilson properly holds, to the assembly where England controls...

For the report of the assembly to be effective in such cases—to quote from a letter issued by the league proponents—it is necessary that such report should be unanimously agreed to by all states, members of the council and a majority of all others, except, of course, that a party to the dispute cannot act as a judge in its own case.

No clearer explanation of the powers of the assembly in such cases could be given than this, and it is upon this explanation, probably, that Mr. Wilson believes he has satisfied the objection as to the fact that Great Britain is given six votes in the assembly here we have one.

Despite Mr. Wilson's complacent assertion to the contrary this question, at least, among the "minor objections" is not so satisfactorily explained by himself or anyone else, because here has not yet been any attempt at answer to the objection urged lately by Senator Reed on these grounds when he said, "In a controversy between the United States and Great Britain, there neither would be permitted to be in judgment, the latter would have a tremendous advantage through the votes cast, as independent states, by five colonies and dominions."

If there is any answer to be made to this objection urged by Senator Reed, it is owing to the American people that it be made; and until it is made, Mr. Wilson has no basis in fact for his assertion that the "minor objections" have been disposed of.

MADE IN GERMANY Strength of the present German government with emphasis on the strong industrial position of Germany is set in a memorandum presented by the members of a German delegation negotiating for a loan of $100,000,000 by Argentina to Germany.

The only way Germany can hope to recover her economic position is through a large loan arranged by an international conference and supported by the United States, the Tagblatt reports Matthias Erberger, the minister of finance, as declaring in the national assembly during a discussion of tax revision.

It is evident that Germany, no less than hitherto, has one brand of propaganda for home consumption and another for foreign consumption, and that for an accurate conception of actual conditions in Germany other than German sources should be depended upon.

Mr. Wilson's bitterness was plainly evident in his utterances in Utah from which the clear inference is to be gained that eighty per cent of the people are in favor of the league of nations and the other twenty per cent tend toward pro-Germanism.

Bitterness, however, it is to be observed, is rarely the part of a winner and the evidence that Mr. Wilson has given way to bitterness somehow strikes a jarring note in the accounts that seem to be tinged with egotism emanating from sources bound to make it appear that his present progress through the country is one of absolute triumph.

ident Wilson, although it is intimated in an official Italian circle that it has arrived. There is a disposition on the part of the Italians to reject any proposition looking to a compromise, the claim being made that the storm in their country can be calmed only by giving Fiume to Italy.

Blames Great Powers The crisis through which Italy is passing is imputed to the great powers by General Giuseppe (Poppino) Grignani, in an interview printed in the Polit Parisien this morning. He reproached them for not having given Italy all that was promised in the treaty of London and declares it to be the intention of the Italian people to keep Fiume "even at the price of another war."

"It depends on France and England," he says, "whose populations are with Italy in the Fiume affair. Whatever should be President Wilson's answer to Italy's proposals, we will say to him that this dispute between Europeans and must be settled between Europeans. We know the American, French and British people are with us in this matter."

CITES AWARD OF FIUME TO CREATIONS BY FACT ROME (AP)—The responsibility of Baron Sonnino, former foreign minister, for the present Fiume situation, is attacked by the Corriere della Sera of Milan, in retaliation to demand for the head of Premier Nitti by newspapers favorable to Baron Sonnino.

"To ask for the resignation of the cabinet, maintaining that Premier Nitti and Foreign Minister Tittoni betrayed Fiume, is an injustice and a lie," says the newspaper. "Such an attitude is unjustifiable when it is taken by men who adhered to the pact of London in which was included a clause giving Fiume to the Creations."

Better Days

By VICTOR REDCLIFFE (Copyright, 1935, by the Western News-Paper Union)

Cuddled up like a mouse, lying upon a hard bench at the side of an abandoned switch shanty, her hand supporting her head and enmeshed in a mass of loose golden tresses, the girl, face asleep, wore a smile upon her face as though her dreams were pleasant ones.

She could not have been over eight yards from her worn and ragged shoes and crinkled ribbons were not in accord with the general neatness of her attire. A man lurched by, young like herself, paused and stared hard.

"Well, this is a new one!" he muttered. "I say, little one, wake up! This old switch yard is no place for you!"

He had touched one hand lying loosely over the edge of the bench. The girl aroused so magically quick and her big blue eyes opened so wide and challenging, that Myron Trask retreated a step or two.

"That is the 6:15 western dispatch, isn't it—can you tell me?" "I can," nodded Trask, "but what have you to do with the 6:15?"

"To get into an empty car. It goes to Meriden, my home town, and that is the only way, unless I walk."

"I see you have done something in that line already," suggested Trask, glancing at her broken shoes, one heel-sole and the other with a flimsy sole.

"Yes, clear from Chicago. I can't go barefooted as I will soon be if I keep on tramping, so I was going to steal my way."

Myron Trask took a silent survey of the forlorn little figure. He studied himself erect and breathed harshly through compressed lips. "See here, Miss," he said finally, "I had a sister once, and you've set me thinking. Tell me a little about yourself and maybe I can help you on your way."

"Why, yes, I'll tell you all about it," said the girl with ingenuous frankness. "My name is Irma Dzifzil. I have been slipping my way to coast in 'Hearts and Homes.' Good people, they were, from the manager down. I ran away from home to join them. They went to pieces last week and there wasn't enough left to pay car fare."

"I've written father and mother that I am through with them and my dream of becoming a great actress and am on my way back to the dead-end place I'll never leave again, Oh never—never—never!"

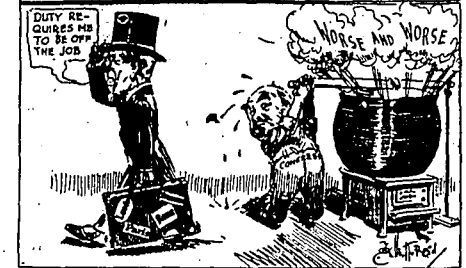

So longing, so intense, so rapturous were the accents, so vivid, so rapturous that they were within the mentality of Myron Trask, that he seemed to court such a paradise of relief and joy, as if for himself, for Trask was on the seat of contrition and repentance at the present time.

"Strange, Miss," he said in an uncertain tone, "but you and I seem to be longed for. I got my dream of relief from service last week for going on a boat with the crowd. The road may or may not take me back, but no more of the reckless and silly for me. I've got no money, but the hotel will give Myron Trask anything he wants, and I'll see that you get a good meal and get a good meal. Then you are going to the depot and wait for the 8:15 passenger. I'll put you in charge of old Boyd Wesley, the conductor. He'll see you onto the branch at Aberdeen. At that terminal you'll have only fifty miles to the Northstar. When you get back to your dear little home, stay there, and once in a while think of the railroad kids, rough and ready, and sometimes reckless, but with hearts as big as pumpkins when they see a woman needing help."

"Why you always say me cry," said Irma sobbingly. "You'd make a star hit on the stage with such a human interest speech as that. I'll never forget you."

"Maybe I'll have made a better record and kept straight if I had been lucky enough to run across a girl like you," said Myron with a slight smile in his voice, as he laid her goodby at the depot. "Show this card to whatever conductor you run across, and he'll hand her a bit of pasteboard upon which he had scrawled a few words. 'I'm not much just now, but my name is Myron Trask, and I'm the president of the road with my true pals.'"

Today's Markets

Provisions were dull and weak. The ruling factor was the downward tendency of grain and hogs.

Grain and Provisions CHICAGO (AP)—Fresh weakness developed in the corn market today as a result of lack of support and owing to continued selling pressure from the commission houses. The sales were said to be largely in the nature of profit-taking on the part of recent buyers.

Subsequently, reports that corn was conditioning rapidly and that the crop would move earlier than usual had a pronounced bearish effect. The close was heavy, 2 3/4 to 5 1/2 net lower, with December $1.23, 1 1/2 to $1.23 3/4 and May $1.23 3/4 to 1 1/2 1/2.

Cash Quotations CHICAGO (AP)—Corn: No. 2 mixed $1.49 1/2 to $1.53; No. 2 yellow $1.50 to $1.54. Oats—No. 2 white 70 to 71c; No. 3 white 67 to 68 1/2c. Rye—No. 3, nominal; No. 3 $1.42 1/2 to $1.44.

Chicago Livestock CHICAGO (AP)—Hog receipts 24,000; unevenly lower; heavy $18.25 to 12.25; light $16.50 to 17.00; heavy packing sows, smooth $15.50 to 16; packing sows, rough $14.75 to 15.50; pigs $16 to 16 1/2.

Cattle receipts 10,000; higher; beef steers, medium and heavy, choice and prime $15.75 to 17.85; common $8.50 to 11; heifers $8.50 to 14.75; cows $8.50 to 13.50; calves $9.25 to 21.50; feeder steers $7 to 12.50; stocker steers $12.25 to 10; western range, steers $8 to 15; cows and heifers $6.50 to 13.

Sheep receipts 34,000; unsettled; lambs $12 to 15.50; culls and common $8 to 12.25; ewes, medium, good and choice $6.25 to 7.50; culls and common $2 to 5.75; breeding $7 to 13.25. One of the leading packers sold lamb on the decline. Despite recent export inquiries, only a small amount of business resulted.

Potatoes CHICAGO (AP)—Potatoes weak; arrivals 61 cars; Minnesota sacked Round Whites $2.25 to 2.35; bulk $2.20 to 2.30; Wisconsin bulk and sacked, Round Whites, U. S. No. 1, $2.25 to 2.35; Idaho sacked Burles No. 1 $2.75 to 2.85.

Liberty Bonds NEW YORK (AP)—Liberty bond firm prices today were: 3 1/2's $100.00; first 4's $95.10; second 4's $94.40; first 4 1/4's $95.30; second 4 1/4's $94.60; third 4 1/4's $90.54; fourth 4 1/4's $90.50; Victory 3 3/4's $99.90; Victory 4 3/4's $99.92.

HINES URGES CO-OPERATION

Director General of Railways Seeks Aid of Public to Relieve Car Shortage

Walker D. Hines, director general of railways, today authorized the following statement: "The further the operation of shippers and receivers of freight in promoting freight car efficiency. During the war, no one was more patriotically helpful than the American shipper. With zeal and efficiency he did his part in the common cause. "The railroad administration had excellent opportunity to observe this attitude during the war and has appreciated heartily the subsequent continued co-operation of the great majority of the shippers."

"The time now comes for renewed efforts by both the railroad administration and the shippers and receivers of freight so that the nation's transportation service may be equipped with the greatest satisfaction possible under the circumstances. "An unusually heavy grain and coal movement, deferred repair and the construction of public highways all sections of the country and the concentrated requirements of suddenly reviving business, combined with the usual transportation requirements at this time of the year, have created a serious lack of transportation facilities unless all parties interested co-operate in securing the greatest possible utility from the existing limited transportation facilities."

"In this connection attention is invited to the following extract from a recent public statement of the president:

"We have now got to do nothing less than bring our industries and our labor of every kind back to a normal level of activity. It is the known fact of history, and the winter just ahead may bring suffering infinitely greater than the war brought upon us if we flounder or fall in the process. An admirable spirit of self-sacrifice, of patriotic devotion and of community action guided and inspired us while the fighting was on. We shall need all this now, and need them in a heightened degree, if we are to accomplish the first tasks of peace."

Ready to Do Part

"The railroad administration will do its full part. The car service section in Washington and the various organizations are striving earnestly to secure a fair and just distribution of the existing equipment as well as to meet the requirements of individual shippers. The 100,000 new freight cars which the railroad administration ordered constructed, 59,409 had been completed on September 13, and are now in service, and this means a better distribution of the rate of over 500 each working day. Instructions have been issued to all regional directors to bend every effort to speed up road and yard movements, to secure a heavier load on each car, to establish and maintain complete and accurate yard checks, to reduce the number of bad order cars, to make prompt delivery to connections, to effect deliveries at freight houses and terminals, to reduce the number of freight cars used in the transportation of company material and to expedite the movement of train materials. The hours of labor of car shop employees have been increased and every effort is being made, both in railroad shops and in the yards, to give priority concerns to whom the work is being let out, to reduce the number of bad order cars."

How It Can Be Done

"Shippers of freight can assist: "1. By loading all cars to full visible or carrying capacity. "2. By prompt loading and release to the carrier. "3. By ordering cars only when actually required. "4. By eliminating the use of railway equipment in trap or transfer service when tonnage can be handled by motor truck or wagon. "5. By reducing the division and reconignment of cars to a minimum. "6. By receiving freight cars as fast as they are needed. "7. By prompt unloading of cars and notice thereof to the carrier. "8. By ordering goods in quantities representing the full safe carrying capacity of cars and disregarding truck units. "9. By ordering from the nearest available source. "10. By pooling orders so as to secure full car load. "11. By reduction of intensive loading will not merely reduce the number of cars under load but will also relieve congested terminals where it is a question of truck room rather than of equipment. "12. With a strong concerted movement on the part of the Railroad Administration and the shippers and receivers of freight, it is hoped that a shortening period of abnormally heavy traffic with which we are now confronted, the nation's transportation needs may be met with reasonable satisfaction to all parties. "13. Earnestly ask the continued and even more effective co-operation of all shippers and receivers of freight."

To Take Unclaimed Deposits.

English banks have $300,000,000 of unclaimed deposits which the government proposes to take over, for use in meeting public expenses, holding itself liable to the owners who may claim the money at any future time. A bill before parliament provides that the bank shall report all deposits and securities that have remained unclaimed for six years.

Railroad Offers Fare and Third to Church Conclave in Salt Lake City

Announcement is made at the railroad offices of arrangements for special excursion rates to Salt Lake for the regular fall conference of the Mormon church.

Rates for this excursion will be one and a third fare, tickets being sold on the certificate plan. Full fare will be paid for the outbound trip, a receipt for the amount paid for the ticket being taken. Upon presentation of this certificate at the railroad office in Salt Lake a return ticket will be issued for one-third the regular rate. Tickets will be placed on sale September 27, and will be good to and including October 5.

DEMAND FOR RYE WAS STIMULATED BY WAR

Department Tells of Need for Greater Production of This Grain

The pressure of war demand for rye has ceased; and it does not seem probable that exports next year will greatly exceed 25,000,000 bushels. Consumption of rye in this country was stimulated by the war to about 50,000,000 bushels, the United States department of agriculture says. If this rate of consumption is maintained, a crop of 76 to 80 million bushels would be necessary to provide 25,000,000 bushels for export, indicating a total acreage of 40,000 to 42,000 acres, in comparison with 4,900,000 acres sown last fall.

"In any consideration of the probable foreign demand for American wheat and rye based on present crop and consumption experience," says the department, "a greatly increased transportation cost and the existing condition of international exchange must be disregarded. It seems clear that if the foreign exchange situation continues as it is or becomes more abnormal it will constitute a powerful stimulus to the production of wheat and rye in countries other than the United States, or to produce it."

COONTZ SUCCEEDS BENSON IN HIGHEST NAVAL OFFICE

WASHINGTON, (AP) Secretary Daniels announced that Wednesday the appointment of Rear Admiral Robert E. Coontz to be chief of naval operations, the highest office in the navy. Rear Admiral Coontz, who will succeed Admiral William S. Benson upon the latter's retirement tomorrow, now is in command of a dreadnaught division of the Pacific fleet.

PINE CREEK DISTRICT IS RICH IN ANTIMONY

Geological Survey Report Indicates Location of Heavy Mineral Deposits

The geology and mines of the Pine Creek district, which lies just south of the well-known Coeur d'Alene lead-silver district, in Idaho, have recently been described by Edward L. Jones, Jr., in a bulletin issued by the United States Geological Survey department of the interior, entitled "A reconnaissance of the Pine Creek district, Idaho."

The occurrence of complex ores of zinc, lead, and antimony, on Pine Creek has long been known, but it was not until about 1914 that active mining of these deposits began. Since then development has gone forward rapidly, and mills have been built at a branch way has been constructed up Pine Creek from the Coeur d'Alene branch of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Co.'s line.

The report states the character of the deposits of the district as a whole, compares them with those of the adjacent Coeur d'Alene district, and describes the lead and antimony. It was obtained by addressing The Director, U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

MORE SMALLPOX IS DISCOVERED

Two Pupils in Bickel Building Found to Be Suffering from Ailment

Suspected of being afflicted with smallpox, three children were removed from the Bickel school yesterday morning. The school was thoroughly disinfected following the finding. The children belong in the Hauso family living about a mile and a half east of Twin Falls. Investigation later in the day proved that two of them are suffering from the malady. The home has been placed under quarantine, and all children associated with these now ill have been treated as a preventive measure.

AMERICA MUST SUPPLY EUROPE DAIRY CATTLE

Foreign Herds Cannot Be Replenished for Some Years, Department Says

It is probable that several years will be required for European countries to get back to their normal cattle population. In order to supply their needs it will be necessary for them to import dairy products, and at the present time this country is supplying large quantities, according to the United States department of agriculture. Last year's exports were so large that about 2,000,000 pounds of milk were required to make the product, or 100 pounds from each cow in the United States.

The department expects that exports will decrease and imports will increase with the exception of condensed milk. It recommends that dairymen give particular attention to economical feeding, through the buying of concentrates in large lots or the co-operative buying of feeds; attention to pastures that have been allowed to run down; attention to the feeding needs of their cows by the use of co-feeding associations.

ROCK CREEK

ROCK CREEK—Paul Jones and a companion, whose name we were unable to learn had a very narrow escape Saturday, when their car ran off the bridge on the road one mile north and a half mile west of Hansen. The car turned completely over, pinning Mr. Jones under the rear seat while his companion was thrown clear. Except for some slight bruises the men were unhurt but the car was damaged to a considerable extent. George Crockett and Viggo Rasmussen left Sunday for Omaha with a load of beef steers owned by Mr. Crockett and Nephi Larsen.

Stockmen of this vicinity met Saturday to consult with Mr. Campbell, forest supervisor, in regard to separating the ranges of the sheep and cattlemen on the forest reserves. The sheep men desire the privilege of pasturing their sheep in any part of the reserve, while the cattlemen want the range divided. Those present were Mr. Campbell, L. P. Larsen, H. P. Larsen, Nephi Larsen, George Crockett, T. O. Jones and Del Hardy. Mr. Elwood Moffett, Mrs. Mary Dommrose and Robert Brose, Sr., left Friday for Coche, Nevada. Mr. Brose will return at once but Miss Dommrose

High School News

For the two-fold purpose of exploiting the Twin Falls tract as an excellent agricultural county and to stimulate interest in the forthcoming county fair, pupils of the public speaking department under the direction of Miss Ida Brown yesterday, as a part of the weekly assembly program, staged a travesty on the typical county fair. The farce was well presented and afforded the audience much amusement.

The Scapegrace

(Copyright, 1914, by the Western News-paper Union.)

They were ordinary homespun people in and around L'hibbeldorf, all but Larry—Larry Mathee. So wild and irrational were some of the freaks of the temperament of this "marabout" with well behaved sons wondered if after all a good deal was not due to Larry in the way of example of warning. He could upset the little settlement over night and appear so docile and penitent the next day that the sufferers were ready to forget the cause to forgive and nearly everybody loved him.

It was when Larry went to the cross roads among a rough crowd that he bottled up vim and biterity with which he overflooded was freely distributed to the men remaining to his watch. He fled with an unconquerable crochety old grandfather, who allowed him to drift unrestrained for the present and neither thought of nor cared for his future.

Larry's freaks were more of the heedless school boy order than in any way of vintage of his. "You'll go just once too often down among that rustering set at the cross roads," was the prophecy of the town marshal.

"Every man there in my particular friend and would lay down his life for me," asserted Larry staunchly.

"If you'd only keep respectable for a whole year at a time, instead of once in a while," sighed Dolly Prentice, the storekeeper's daughter.

"Yes, all right, what then, Dolly?" eagerly questioned Larry. "Say some word of promise and let me try the new trick," but Dolly shook her pretty head dolorously.

So Larry went his way and Dolly mourned, and one Saturday afternoon Larry, with his month's hard earned wages in his pocket, started jaunting in the direction of the crossroads. It was early Sunday morning when Dolly Prentice, as he scribbled, as the first customer of the day entered the store. "Oh, have you heard about Larry Mathee?" she questioned. "He's in, at last!"

"In—where?" asked Dolly, a quick catch in her voice.

"In jail. The marshal locked him up at midnight, for it's robbery, they say—burglary and all that."

"Never!" cried Dolly indignantly. "Larry wouldn't touch a cent not his own."

"He has, this time," persisted the customer. "A cent? Oh, my, not that, but thousands!" Larry had, a stranger to the Waltham place last night and took everything in sight. They found the plunder on him and when he got his head clear this morning all he told the marshal was: "Bring on the trial quick, and get through with it."

That was a bustling day for the town. It fell comprised the office of the marshal with a barred room behind. A group grazed upon Larry, who was smiling, undaunted. The sages came with "I told you so," explanations. Ultra conscientious persons passed the grewsome prison with a shudder. But the children, the petted favorites of this audacious monster of crime, there were tears in the eyes of their hero and champion of the past as pitying faces grazed past the bars, and handed through them this one an apple, that a doughnut, and one tiny urchin a toothsome lunch put by the mother who saved the child's life in the storm of Larry's runaway accident. And just at dusk Dolly tentatively appeared and broke down utterly.

"Don't cry, Dolly," said Larry; "I'm through."

"Yes, I see you are," sobbed Dolly; "all through, indeed!"

"I mean with idleness and the cross roads. I've had my warning. Soon as I'm out I'll prove it to you."

"As soon as you're out—oh, Larry! will you ever be out again?"

"In a jiffy!" declared Larry brightly. "Miss Waltham saw the robber and is coming tomorrow to identify me. Watch her! I wanted a day's time to fix things right for—a friend."

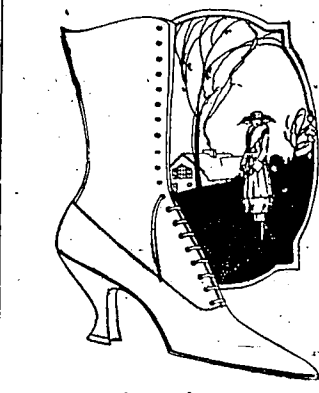

"He's not the man I save through the screen from my law, then," announced the rich old spinster.

"But your money and jewels were found in his possession," observed the marshal.

"If you'll speak with me alone, Miss," said Larry. "I'll explain how that was."

It was the sole auditor of the story—how it was Ross Burdell who had committed the theft—Ross Burdell, who had become half-romanced by the loss of his wife and three children all within the space of a year.

Unhinged by his great sorrow, eager to get away amid new scenes, he had driven to crime. Larry Mathee, but a friend, indeed, had come upon him just after the theft. He had shown him the frightful error he was committing. He had half of his salary left which he gave Burdell to take him a distant point, promising to return the plunder.

GOES EAST TO ENROLL FOR ADVANCED COURSE

Miss Anna Westman Will Study Public Health Service Work in Chicago

To meet a sister, Miss Esther Westman, from the Panama canal zone, Miss Anna K. Westman has gone to Kansas City, Mo. After a short visit with the relative, Miss Anna Westman will proceed to Chicago to take up a course of study in special nursing branches. Miss Esther Westman, who is employed in a surgeon's office in the canal zone, will remain in Kansas City for a further visit, returning south in about six weeks.

Miss Anna Westman has been a resident of Twin Falls about two months. The guests of Mrs. Robert Rogerson, coming here soon after serving a lengthy term in British army nursing service in France, Miss Anna Westman is the first base hospital nurse going from the United States to enlist under the Union Jack of England, with the intention of receiving instruction with the Central Division of the Red Cross Public Health Nurse's School in Chicago, taking a four-months' course in public health nursing and medicine, to return to Twin Falls about January 1. Upon return to this city Miss Westman will probably be associated with the Public Health Nursing service of the Red Cross here.

MANY MILES OF ROAD MENDED SINCE STORM

Highway District Engineer Tells of Splendid Work Done by the Farmers

Several hundred miles of county road have been damaged and put in the best possible condition since the heavy wetting down this district received ten days ago.

The farmers all over the Twin Falls highway district turned out at a most innumerable to work the roads immediately after they had dried sufficiently to warrant successful operation. The highway district chief of engineers, Mr. Johnson, reports that the railroad, car and wagon operating in Washington and the agricultural organizations are actively engaged to secure a fair and best condition of the existing roads as well as to meet the requirements of the new roads.

Mr. Johnson reports that the roads were thoroughly mended and in excellent condition to be worked for nearly a week. Highways are said to be hard and in good shape right now.

BURGLARS AGAIN FIND FILER EASY PICKING

Sheriff Sprague Reports Three Cars Stolen in Two Days—Reward Offered

Burglars have again visited the neighboring town of Filer. Last night the Channel-Nibley lumber office and the Moller Drug store were both entered and robbed.

Reports reaching the sheriff's office this morning tell of the loss of a considerable sum of money from the lumber office, while the Moller drug store cashier has been missed from the drug store. The sum of $200 was overlooked. The thieves broke open doors to gain entrance to both places, and the Channel-Nibley Lumber Company's place the burglars found the safe easy to open, the combination only requiring a short turn to allow the big door to swing free, while the inside door was equipped with the regular key for opening. Here the yeggs got Liberty Bonds valued at $100; currency, $30; silver, $5; stamps $30.

RUSSELL DENIES MANY ALLEGATIONS BY BAKKE

Plaintiff in Farm Sale Suit Explains and Asks that Action Be Set Aside

Denying many of the allegations set forth in the original complaint in the D. H. Bakke action against Elias Russell the latter has asked the district court to dismiss the suit, declaring there is no foundation for its filing.

The Bakke case against Russell emanated from a farm purchase, in which the plaintiff declares he bought a tract represented to be 75 acres. This, on survey, he alleges, has been found to be several acres short of 75.

In the motion to dismiss, Russell states that Bakke purchased a gross and not specified amount of land, together with certain personal property, including horse, cattle, harness, wagons, harness, grain, hay, sheep and hogs, contracting to pay the sum of $20,625 for the entire property.

FORD CAR STEALING BECOMING EPIDEMIC

Lumber Office Safe Yields Handily to Yeggs who Get Rich Haul

The demand for Ford cars by joyriders is growing daily in Twin Falls, according to Sheriff A. N. Sprague. Three of this make of machine have been stolen during the past two days—or nights.

"Everybody seems to be able to operate a Ford, and that makes it easy for joyriders to steal them. They are helped in their nefarious designs by carelessness on part of the owners of the cars, who have not locked that small amount of money spent on a locking device in good insurance," said Sheriff A. N. Sprague, reviewing the new phase of crime this morning.

A reward of $25 has been posted for information leading to the recovery of the missing cars. This also applies to information that will be instrumental in bringing about the arrest of the offenders.

BURLISON DENIES CHARGE OF IRREGULARITY IN OFFICE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Denial that any effort had been made by the post office department to influence the civil service commission in the setting of eligible appointees for postmasters of first, second and third class offices is made by Postmaster General Burlison in a letter to Speaker Clegg.

On the contrary, the department, he asserted, has observed "at all times in letter and in spirit" the presidential order for the certification of the candidate with the highest rating.

COUNTY FAIR EXHIBIT OF CATTLE TOP-NOTCH

Three Carloads of Best Herefords Make Stock Show Near Perfect

Among the exhibits, extraordinary, entered for the Twin Falls county fair, are three carloads of thoroughbred Hereford cattle.

These cattle, according to Secretary J. M. Markel of the County Fair, are in a class by themselves, and represent the peak of perfection both in stock and in dairy. The three carloads swell the general entries considerably and add a lot toward making a perfect average for exhibits of the best livestock in the west.

Secretary Markel also announced that arrangements have been completed with the railroads for special excursion rates during the fair. The rate will apply from Pull, Burley and intermediate points.

Finch, Chairman Twin Falls Chapter American Red Cross, Dear Doctor: You will be in Portland September 29 to explain peace time program and November roll call plans to representatives of chapters, also Miss Fox, national director public health nursing will be there; also nurse available for Twin Falls county, unwilling to engage letter without authority from Twin Falls; interview seems advisable. Come if possible."

Mr. Finch finding it impossible to go, the Twin Falls chapter is sending Mrs. Burton Morse, chairman public health nursing activities and Mrs. Thomas Irvin, vice president of chapter. These members are hoping to bring back complete program for the November drive which will be given to the public at once.

From Portland Mrs. Morse will go to Boise as a delegate to the third national conference held in that city on September 29, 30 and October 1.

"Fair Weather" Standing Order For This State

IDAHO must have a standing order with the weather depot in Boise for "fair tonight and tomorrow."

It has been that way ever since the "flood" about 10 days ago—fair, nothing but fair. It's either a standing order or force of habit.

Of course it is a pretty good scheme at that, considering the State Fair is in full glory at Boise, and the Bigger County Fair is to start at Piler next week. Not so much chance to rant against the weatherworks after all.

The storm of 10 days back appears to have yielded a fairly satisfactory flow in the Snake river. The stream runs now more than one-tenth greater than before the rain, with an over-riding tendency daily.

According to local meteorologist O. C. Koch yesterday's high mercury mark was 83 degrees, with 33 on the night prior.

WARRANT FOR ARREST OF HACH IS ISSUED

Castleford Farmer to Be Apprehended in Alleged Shooting Case

A warrant for the arrest of Frank Hach, a Castleford farmer, has been issued by the county sheriff, upon complaint lodged by the prosecuting attorney.

The complaint upon which the warrant issues, charges Hach with having exhibited a shotgun in a dangerous threatening and altogether unnecessary manner. Arrest has been ordered immediately.

The order for Hach's apprehension grew out of an alleged shooting affray in the Castleford district early this week, when, it is stated, William Mitchell, a ditch rider, was shot at from ambush while removing an obstruction from one of the Twin Falls Canal company's service ditches. The obstruction is said to have been unlawfully placed in the ditch for the purpose of diverting water from its proper channel.
