Treaty of Peace is Made Effective as Italian King Signs

Third Ratification Completes Steps Necessary to Make Pact Operative

ROME, (AP)—A royal decree has been issued ratifying the treaty of peace. Ratification of the German treaty by the royal decree of the king of Italy virtually completes the steps necessary for putting into effect the pact between Germany and the allied powers which was signed at Versailles on June 28, and which stipulated it would become operative when ratified by three of the great powers. The British parliament has already ratified the treaty and the document now awaits only ratification by the last of the Great Britain's dominions not to sign it, the Australian commonwealth, it becoming binding on Great Britain. Approval was given the convention by the French chamber of deputies last week, and the senate is expected to take similar action Friday or Saturday. The royal decree of the Italian monarch must receive approval from the next parliament which will meet at Rome on December first but it is considered certain there will be little trouble in securing concurrence.

Italy, by the reported action of ratifying, the first of the powers to ratify the treaty with Austria. The treaties now will become "in force of execution" but the royal decree will be presented to the new parliament for approval.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, administration leader in the treaty controversy, declared that church interests, women's clubs, labor bodies, business and every man's name.

Advices state that American food supplies are to be removed from Spalato. That city has been one of the centers from which relief work in Jugoslavia has been directed and it is possible that it is these stores to which reference is made.

THE GRAND CANYON IN ARIZONA.

THE late George Fitch said "Arizona was made by nature in a frivolous and capricious mood, a few million years ago, just to show man, when he arrived, what she could do when she felt like it."

The Grand Canyon of the Colorado River—the most wonderful geological and spectacular phenomenon known to man—is in Arizona. Discovered by Spanish explorers in 1540, it has been an object of wonder and admiration ever since.

GERMAN USE OF WIRELESS TO BE MORE EXTENSIVE

Press Service Especially to be Favored in Plans of Ministry of Posts and Telegraph

BERLIN.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The use of the wireless is to be widely extended in Germany, in especial for the press. The plans of the ministry of posts and telegraph mature. It is proposed to establish a collection central in Berlin, and wireless masts in various districts into which the empire will be apportioned. For this year the construction of 35 wireless stations and 50 receiving stations situated in important trade centers is planned.

Germany needs such an arrangement for its telegraph service is severely criticized. In addition to greatly increased prices, it is very necessary to telegraph the simplest, shortest message urgent—at three times the ordinary rate. The wireless, will be especially useful in the case of newspapers and business houses to be sure of speed. The German papers that comment on the limitation are hereafter, but all mention to the unreliability of the wireless and raise the objection that anyone may pick up a message, so that a private letter will be made public. Daily well the news of another paper.

Protests Against Royalty Names of Streets in Berlin

Former Prussian Minister of Justice Would Abrogate Some Designations

BERLIN. (P)—Protest is entered by Attorney Rosenfeld, former Prussian Minister of Justice, that despite the months that have passed since the emperor's abdication of the empire and the streets of Berlin still bear names of royalty. He cites a few, such as Kaiser Wilhelm street, a Kaesig, a Friedrich, a Karl, Prince Louis Ferdinand, Prince and Princess street.

The name of former military leaders and generals should go also, he argues, citing such streets as Zieten, Blucher, Guelcken, and Moltke. He objects also to the names of streets after the military, such as the Dragoner, (Dragoons) and the Jagcor (cavalry) in these perilous days of revolution and republic.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Soon after the entrance of the United States in the war the successes of the Central Powers in Roumania had reduced that country to a most tragic condition and in the summer of 1917, the American Red Cross despatched its first Roumanian relief contingent. Two hospitals were at once taken over and operated by the Red Cross, a canteen for the starving refugees established and food and clothing distributed over a large area. Transportation was supplied for the toughest problems with which the Red Cross workers in Roumania had to deal. Here is seen an oxcart used by the Red Cross to carry its relief supplies up into the mountains.

GERMANS ASSUME RELIEF WORK IN RUSSIAN CAMPS

Inter-Allied Commission and Red Cross Turn Over Duties to Tontons

BERLIN. (P)—The work of the American Red Cross in the Russian prison camps of Germany is finished. In response to the orders of Marshal Foch the Inter-Allied Commission and the Red Cross has turned over the work to the German authorities. His accomplishment during the past six months has been mainly the care of the Russian prisoners during the most critical time, between the armistice and the period when the blockade was raised and Germany was able to carry on the work without outside assistance. It distributed clothing, medicine and food to camps and hospitals. What this work has been accentuated by the letter from General Harbord, Chief of the American Military Mission, who wrote thanking the American Red Cross for its "truly great achievements in connection with the Russian and other war prison camps in Germany."

GERMAN'S TAX BORDEN HEAVY

Nearly Everything Except Vest-est Necessities Taxed to the Limit

BERLIN.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—None of the new German tax measures is more stringent and all-inclusive than the turnover tax, especially that part of it relating to luxuries. Virtually every thing tangible beyond the vestest necessities for the household are taxed all the way from 1 to 15 percent at the store where they are bought.

There are nineteen categories of luxuries, eleven of which come under the 15 percent clause. The taxes will vary in severity according to the price of the article purchased, since in this way the government hopes to put the greatest burden on the wealthy. The taxes will be collected in two ways. Where it is possible, the seller will add the tax to the price of the article and turn it in to the government. In the case of articles manufactured in one place and sold by retail everywhere, the retail dealers will collect the tax.

The government reckons that the turnover tax will total 4,500,000 marks. This sum must be reduced, by one-fifth, to four billions, to take account of the territories ceded to the Entente.

The woman who studies the ad knows the right now offerings of the stores. She doesn't have to spend hours in "shopping." She does her buying in a businesslike way.

Money in Blueberries. The average profit from an acre of Maine blueberry land is said to be about $100, and as no fertilizer or cultivation is necessary these berries are one of Washington country's big industries. For instance, the whole section from Farmington practically to the east from Fowlme line is practically all blueberry land. Several factories are devoted to the canning of the berries.

Deception Created Prejudice

"Senators who in private conversation would never dream of attempting to deceive another," said Senator McCumber, "seem anxious to resist the temptation to take advantage of a prejudice created by this deception, and with studied avoidance of the real and full truth, give this prejudice another boost."

As a substitute for the Johnson amendment, Senator McCumber urged his proposed reservation to exclude British colonies from participating in the league in disputes involving the mother country or each other.

"Almost every argument made on the floor of the senate," said Senator McCumber, "and every one without exception made to the public by senators opposed to the reservation, has given the impression to the people of the world that the council or the assembly, as the case might be, is a sort of court or tribunal that decides the disputes between nations, and it is because of these misstatements of the facts and the misapprehension of many of our people, arising therefrom, that the ground is made fertile for the development of about all the animosities towards this league and especially towards the claimed voting power of Great Britain."

Power is Limited. "I wish the public could just once fully understand, first, that no one case of dispute out of a hundred would ever go to the council or tribunal; second, that even if all other efforts provided for the settlement of disputes should fail, the only thing submitted to the council or assembly is the right to investigate and report the facts to the public."

Senator McCumber said the argument of Senator Johnson and other supporters of the Johnson amendment as to Britain's voting power was "too absurd to be true," and asked why France, Italy and other nations did not raise objections to "putting their heads in the lion's mouth."

"The North Dakota senator said 'the real facts,' regarding the league were:

"That neither the council nor assembly is a board of arbitration.

"That neither of them decides international disputes."

"That the only jurisdiction which the council or assembly have over a dispute between nations is the right to investigate and to report the true facts are, and make recommendations.

"That a dispute with a part of a nation or empire is a dispute with the whole."

The standard houses, with alterations where necessary to meet local conditions, will be constructed in all government-aided housing projects. The prospective resident, with a set of these specifications, may follow the construction of his home from the excavation stage through the bricklaying and fitting and painting.

One of the original owners of the Trevelle Bible, historic to the district of Trevelle, has been mentioned on the fly leaf concerning "John, who was born on Friday the 10th of February, 1703, at a quarter after eight at night, was baptized at Crossgate church on March 10 following, by the Reverend Mr. Jones, who died of smallpox, 12th April, 1783, and was buried the next day at Crossgate church, aged eight weeks and five days." Other deaths, marriages and births were dated as far back as 1701-1702.

Take Up Interrupted Campaign for Mountain Palace for Presidents

DENVER, Colo., (P)—The movement to establish a "summer White House" on Mount Falcon, 15 miles from Denver and in the Rocky Mountains, has been resumed by Colorado citizens. The war interrupted the campaign started several years ago with the object of providing a picturesque mountain palace where residents of the United States might find refuge during the warm months.

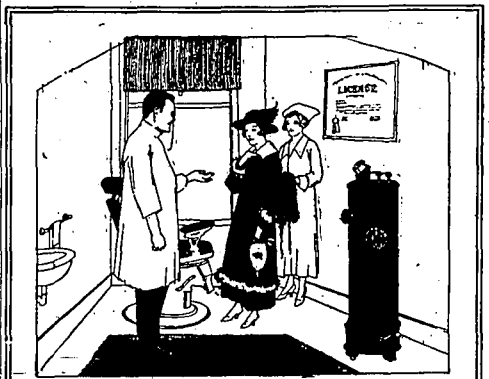

The building, it is estimated, would require an initial outlay of $50,000 and leaders of the campaign plan to raise $250,000 additional to complete the entire structure and put the grounds in shape.

BEAR REPORTS FROM CAMPUS

Idaho Grid Coach Tells of Succession of Calamities to His Eleven

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCO, (Special)—Incapacitated by a rambling succession of minor injuries, the powerful backfield which had begun to inspire unwonted optimism on the University of Idaho campus has been shelved for an indefinite period.

Captain Ralph Breshears of Caldwell, quarterback, is suffering from a badly strained right arm; "Turk" Gerboach, veteran back and former lumbar of the 13th division team, has been crippled by a well developed "charley-horse"; Boy Thompson of Boise, fullback, suffering a wrenched knee, and Neil Irving of Rupert, fourth member of Idaho's offensive quartet, is being kept on the sidelines by a severely bruised hip.

BARTFIELD GOT MAD MINNEAPOLIS, (AP)—After putting up an erratic and indifferent fight for nine rounds, Soldier Bartfield, of Brooklyn, lost to Johnny Tillman in the final round here last night and almost knocked out the Minneapolis welterweight, Tillman tried hard in every round and scored quite a few blows while the customer was missing ferritic awigs.

Brief Bits of Sport

Yesterday's game was honestly won. Got to grant the Reds and the Reds' supporters that much.

Also we are more than ever inclined to believe that the 1919 World's baseball championship belongs in the lap of the Rhineclad folks.

Perhaps the former kaiser will look upon this with a certain degree of satisfaction.

By Cobb finished the season landing all American league batters, and the world's major butters, for that matter. The star Detroit player finished with a mark of 381 for the year.

This is one point below his record of 1918, but it gives him batting leadership for the eleventh time in the last 13 years.

"Cravvy" Cravath, Phillies' leader, was high man in the National league with the club. He batted .340.

CAP BRESHEARS' WING IN SLING

Leader of Idaho Eleven Out of the Game—Has Sprained His Arm

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCO.—Captain "Bunt" Breshears of the University of Idaho eleven is still carrying in a sling the arm he sprained in a recent practice neckle with Bert Diggle's freshmen. Dimly appropriate, in the minds of university enthusiasts is the color of the sling, a deep black.

"My arm is for less painful than it was several days ago," said Breshears today, "but I hesitate to predict when I will be able to play again. My chances of getting into the Oregon game are more than problematical." If Breshears is unable to perform against Oregon, the quarterback position probably will be filled by J. Whitcomb of Lewiston, a sophomore. Whitcomb carries the pigskin capably and he is fast developing into a accurate practice kicker.

A. P. Johnson of Garfield, Wash., a former Culver Military academy star, has become an active candidate for one of the practice knicker with Bert Diggle and the ability to tackle hard. He is quite likely to break into some of the late season games. In recent practices, Coach Bleamaster has been laboring with the line and Assistant Coach Hutchison has been devoting his attention to the backfield men. Aspirants to line and tackle jobs are pounding themselves into condition on a bucking machine.

Too Much Rush In Life. Today, as never before, the world is brimming over, impatient with the fullness. And yet so many of us fall into the trap of a life of a pinprick is but a pinprick, a fallen leaf but a dead thing. In the rush of modern life, with its insistent demands upon our time and attention, driving ourselves from one self-made duty to another, we have missed the glory of the sun, the fragrance of the flowers, the beauty and charm and joy that are all about us.—Exchange.

Man Responsible for Progress The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore, all progress depends on the unreasonable man.—Bernard Shaw.

6th Searching for Atlantis. Phoenician tradition ascribed to the people of Atlantis a high civilization. During the last few years scientific expeditions, in pursuit of natural history specimens, have made explorations of the sea bottom in that region. How interesting it would be if their dragnets brought up from the depths some ancient relics from drowned towns of the lost continent.

Hadn't Thought of That. A man, unable to choose a wife from three girls whom he admired, sent duplicate letters of proposal to all, intending to marry the one who assented first. "The trouble that he did not foresee was that the two-to-one ones would sue for breach of promise."

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

OUR NATIONAL CAPITOL IT IS not fitting that America—the greatest nation in all the world—should have the finest capitol building on earth. The architectural beauty of our national capitol building at Washington is most impressive and, for capital purposes, it is said to surpass every other building in the world. The base of this immense, symmetrically shaped and imposing edifice rests on a level plateau, at an elevation of 97 feet above the historic Potomac River. The building faces the east and is about one mile distant from the White House. The cornerstone of the original structure, which comprises the central portion of the present building and is of Virginia sandstone, was laid by President Washington on September 18, 1793—125 years ago. Later, when it became necessary to enlarge the building, two additions or wings, of Massachusetts marble, were added. President Fillmore laid the corner stone; Daniel Webster was the orator. These wings were burned by the British in 1814, but were restored. The original building was completed in 1827. The present structure is 751 feet long and 350 wide. It covers three and one-half acres. The central portion is surmounted by one of the most graceful, pleasingly shaped and massive domes in the world. This dome is 227 feet high. It was completed in 1845. It weighs more than 8,000,000 pounds and is topped by a statue of Freedom almost 20 feet high. The total value of the building and grounds is estimated at $25,400,000.

TAKE COURAGE

There is nothing in the present industrial and social conditions in the United States, marked as they are by lamentable evidence of dissatisfaction and disorders, to justify the conclusion on the part of one who gives the matter a second thought that those conditions are worse now than they have ever been before...

And, on the other hand, there are manifold instances of improvements and higher attainments gained today over the situation of yesterday.

There is, in this consideration, no justification for giving up of the fight for better things. It is quite certain that without this fight continuing through the ages, things today could not be better in any respect than they were before...

LOCAL BUILDER WINS CONTRACT

O. H. Mull Successful Over Four Bidders for Shoshone Bridge Award

Charles H. Mull, Twin Falls local contractor, has won the bid to span Rock Creek on Shoshone street. A contract for the job was awarded to Mr. Mull last night against four other bidders.

Competition for the work of constructing the Shoshone street crossing of Rock Creek was keen, and all bids were tolerably close as far as total figures are concerned. Mr. Mull's closest competitor was Leslie M. Grier, while the high man of the lot was but little more than $5,000 above the successful bidder.

Those offering proposals are: C. H. Mull, Twin Falls, $8,850; the Midland Bridge Company, Kansas City, $9,675; Security Bridge Company, Lewiston, Idaho, $9,700; James J. Burko Company, Boise, $10,500; Wisconsin Steel Bridge Company, Spokane, Wash., $54,000.

On preparatory work required, and various other and possible phases of the work, Mr. Mull was low bidder, and in the question of lighting lamp posts offered a greater reduction from the total bid than was offered by competing contractors.

According to the terms of the contract the bridge will be completed and ready for acceptance by the city in six months' time.

Doll Up for Teachers
Superintendent Hal G. Blue, of the city schools, appeared before the council with a request that the city do some decorating along a red, white and blue order for the coming teachers convention.

The request was granted without ceremony, and the city is to be decked out in all manner of patriotic color, next week.

The city treasurer presented a monthly report showing a cash balance of $289,385.88 on hand to meet current expenses of the city. This amount is distributed among the banks of the city for deposit.

An ordinance is to be drafted by the city attorney for the purpose of legally closing that part of Seventh street east between Second and Third avenues east. This action is taken at the instance of the school district, which requires the street for playground purposes.

The ordinance, when drafted, will make it incumbent upon the school district managers to vacate the street to the city of Twin Falls should the abutting property ever be disposed of for any purpose whatsoever other than that for which it was originally devoted to the school district. Another requirement is that the present alley through the abutting block shall be widened to 50 feet instead of 20 feet, in order to permit free passage of vehicles.

Alderman E. J. Ostrander, council president and at present acting mayor, gave notice that he will shortly move from his present ward. This will automatically cause the relinquishment of prerogatives and rights as a member of the city's administrative board, and a successor will have to be named. This action may be taken at the discretion of the aldermanic body. Mayor W. H. Eldridge is expected home from the East some time next week.

Street Commissioner Berg was authorized to proceed with the patching holes in the paved street with concrete material so that the work can be completed this fall. He rendered a report on the question of cost of raising the grade in the street before the Elite Millinery shop on West Main street. After making this report the fact was disclosed that the expense of repairs must be borne by the property owners. This is according to an ordinance written on the statute books of the city. The Elite Millinery is to be so advised.

SAFETY OF CITY BEING MENAGED THROUGH CARELESSNESS IS CLAIM

Merchants Indicted in Council Session on the Ground that They Wilfully Endanger Property by Making Alleys a Dump for Refuse and Waste Matter from Their Buildings—Action to Stop Ordered

Declaring that the safety of the city is daily seriously menaced through the carelessness of businessmen, merchants and warehousemen, through failure to regard even fundamental protective rules, the city council last night instructed the commissioner of alleys and streets to order an immediate and general cleanup of city alleys in the business district.

The order is directed chiefly against businessmen who are said to have adopted a careless plan of dumping waste matter, paper and goods packing, in open wooden receptacles in alleys. One week will be allowed to dispose of these wooden receptacles and get rid of all waste and inflammable material from the rear of occupied premises. Failure to comply with the regulations will merely invoke the penalty of the law.

Borg Started It
Attention was directed to the alleged unordinarily filthy condition of alleys and streets to order an immediate complaint lodged by City Engineer E. V. Berg, who declared that the excessive amount of paper being blown from dump receptacles in alleys closes some of the main channels on the principal streets devised and intended for carrying off surface sewage.

Berg said it is almost impossible to get the regular action of surface waste, washed into the gutters by the street flushers, through the storm sewer, in carrying out the terms of the milk ordinance.

Principally the sanitation officer wanted to know what he should do with relation to nuisance abatement and tests of suspect lactic fluid. He explained that the state law provides that no person except a duly authorized chemist shall make such tests and examinations as are required to be made of milk coming into the city of Twin Falls. He also explained, in this connection, that there is no regularly or duly authorized chemist of this class in the state of Idaho, as far as his information, knowledge and belief carries him.

Mr. Murray was instructed to investigate further and report again. He also explained that while the milk product of 19 dairies in the district of Twin Falls is reaching this city to be sold, all of these dairies having inspected and certified herds, only a very few persons are in the business of delivering milk in the city limits. In the matter of collecting licenses from producers of the fluid, the city attorney explained that license fees could only be collected from distributors.

This disposed of the milk bog until the next session of the city administrators.

ors into the main drainage system because of the great amount of paper and similar light material blown from the alleys.

Breakers Edge Finishes
Upon the theory advanced by the city engineer Alderman L. L. Breckenridge established a scathing indictment for the merchants who are at present using the alleys as a dumping ground for waste from their stores and business places. He charged that these merchants are not adopting necessary care and precautions against fire and predicted that one of these mornings the city would wake up to view one of the greatest fire disasters the district has ever known.

Alleys a Fire Trap
"Our alleys are one fire trap after another," said the alderman. He told of wooden boxes being used for waste, no covers being employed to prevent paper blowing away, and declared his present purpose was to get rid of all forms of waste receptacle that was not metallic and provided with a tight cover provided with a lock so that scavengers and alley prowlers could not dump out the contents. His motion in this effect was unanimously adopted authorizing, also, the streets and alleys commissioner to take such steps as he considered necessary to check the present menace immediately and ultimately abolish it entirely.

SWIM'S GIFT STUNS COUNCIL

City Administrators Nonplused at Extent of Receptor's Generosity

A. L. Swim, local realtor, last night presented the city of Twin Falls with something free. The presentation was made at a sitting of the town select board and was so absolutely gratuitous that for moments after the donor seemed scarcely to be a real person. His strings were attached to the contribution board sat there seemingly nonplused, and unable to ejaculate above a gurgle of surprise.

No Strings
The donation proved absolutely free. It was the free-est thing the city council has enjoyed since the night one of the town's citizens offered $25 for a dog and contiguous to the south end of Blue Lakes boulevard, sufficient to form an alley through the blocks involved, and also authorizes an easement of six feet on the street for the purpose of widening the thoroughfare to boulevard proportions.

Substantial Profit
The grant startled some surprised discussion, and only when Mr. Swim

William Parsons Said to Have Robbed King by Means of Forged Checks

On a charge of having embezzled a considerable sum of his brother's money by writing false checks, William Parsons, a former soldier, was yesterday arrested in the hills near Halloy. Information provided the Blaine county authorities by Sheriff A. M. Sprague, of Twin Falls, led to the arrest.

Parsons is alleged to have written checks amounting to $9,450 against the accounts of Walter Parsons, a stockman of the Bogerson district. The smaller amount was taken from a Bogerson bank by a forged check, and the larger from an Ogdens bank by a similar method, it is alleged.

MISHAP RUNS BIRD MACHINE

Aviator Bruce and Passenger Come to Grief in Trip Smashup

The airplane is out of business. What remains of the Bird machine that came here for the fair lies under lock and key in the garage of the Twin Falls Auto company. Pilot and crew have returned to Boise to procure the necessary parts for its repair.

After flying about all over this part of the country daily for the past week, carrying passengers, rick and alighting with the engine in a place of bird and skimming over the country at from 30 to 70 miles an hour without a mishap of any kind, the machine came to grief about noon yesterday in an effort to arise from a field a mile or so west of the city.

Is a Wreck
Both wings are torn off, the propeller is broken and ruined, one wheel wrecked and the machine injures mark the result of the first ill-starred flight. Neither St. John Skinner, a passenger on the trip, nor the aviator were injured in any way. The immediate cause of the probable crash was two or three weeks to repair and the probable cost will likely be around $2,000.

In rising from the ground the wheels encountered a muddy stretch which was the first cause of the trouble. One wing was destroyed against a tree when the machine was just clearing the ground, the propeller broke in two against the ground as the machine landed.

The machine had attracted the keenest attention in Twin Falls, and the greatest disappointment is felt at the unfortunate outcome. Many tickets for rides were sold, the money being refunded to the purchaser. A number of those who had purchased tickets announced their intention of trying it again as soon as the airplane is ready for service.

Skinner in the Fall
St. John Skinner of Twin Falls, the passenger on the ill-fated trip, in discussing the matter this morning said: "I could see that the machine was not going to make the trip before we hit. There was nothing to do. I was strapped into the seat in a manner to preclude any movement and it did not occur to me that there was any particular danger of my being in the way. We were not far from the ground."

"One wing hit the tree and tore it up by the root, breaking the wing completely off. We then slowed clear around, the propeller hitting the ground, breaking off both points. The engine of the machine struck the ground and we came to a standstill leaning at an angle of perhaps 45 degrees, pointed in the direction from which we started. I asked the aviator if he was hurt, he said he wasn't. I was all right myself. We got out and I got my check back. I understand the machine is to be fixed and when it is I am going to hand him the same check and try it again."

"The smash was an accident pure and simple. Nobody was to blame. I have been thinking about the machine and its operator and I hope that it can be fixed up and made ready for action without too much delay."

ALDERMEN ARE AGAIN PESTERED BY MILK LAW

Ordinance Bugbear Council's Regular Place in Council Proceedings

The municipal milk ordinance, that bete noir that has bugboared about the public chambers of the city since its adoption at each biennial council gathering of the last few years, was again a bugbear to the council members last night. The ordinance's delectations were cheerily toll its wanted place in last night's deliberations.

This unwelcome visitor last week wide awake remained for the wide tracking of a question of infinite importance to every resident of Twin Falls, scheduled for presentation by the city next session, was the question of a regular place in the deep before the milk ordinance. Dr. W. A. Falcon, federal veterinarian, being present in full of conditions relating to the Twin Falls milk supply. He got no chance.

Naturally it was A. W. Murray, sanitation officer, and general enforcer of health laws, who introduced the bugbear into the council apartment last night. Mr. Murray wanted some more instructions as to mode of pro-
