PETROGRAD IS CAPTURED SAYS OFFICIAL WORD

Notice Posted at Paris Stock Exchange Announces Success of Anti-Bolshevik Forces at Soviet Capital

NEWS OF CAPITULATION NOT RECEIVED IN LONDON Reports Indicate Steady Advance Being Made on All the Fronts with Whole Region Torn by Warfare

PARIS, (AP)—The following notice was posted at the stock exchange this afternoon: "Official: Petrograd has been taken."

LONDON, (AP)—Forces of the soviet government of Russia are, according to latest advices, still desperately defending the city of Petrograd, toward which anti-Bolshevik troops have been advancing since October 11.

Over the whole situation around Petrograd there is considerable obscurity, due to conflicting and contradictory reports. There seems to be little doubt that the army commanded by General Yudenich is within a comparatively short distance of the city...

Yudenich Near Luga Further south the Yudenich army is said to have reached a point in the city of Luga, eighty miles distant from Petrograd.

Along this front severe fighting is believed to be in progress. General Denikin appears to be advancing his left flank along the Dnieper valley, flanking Chernigov and moving northward toward Gomel, where his Cossack and other forces and present a compact front to the soviet armies.

Denikin Troops Cross Don East of Orsk and in the Don region the Bolsheviki are reported to be retreating all along the front. Denikin troops have crossed the Don over a ferry of 200 miles in length.

VOTES AMERICA A HAND IN EUROPEAN AFFAIRS DISREGARDING SENATE

Peace Council Authorizes Participation of Delegates on Various Commissions Created by German Treaty Whether or Not Their Governments Have Ratified Pact; Republican Leaders Register Emphatic Dissent to Proposition

PARIS, (AP)—The supreme council today adopted a resolution that delegates of the great powers may sit on the various commissions created under the German peace treaty and may vote on questions before these commissions, whether or not their governments have ratified the treaty.

Americans May Sit If the United States does not object, it is stated to be probable that American delegates will take the places assigned to the United States on such commissions. Germany is anxious to have the commission in the way fully organized, it is declared, and is particularly desirous of American representation on them.

REPUBLICANS FOR WAITING RATIFICATION AND LAWS WASHINGTON, (AP)—Republican leaders declared emphatically today that they would not consent to participation by American representatives in the league of nations or other international commissions until the peace treaty and laws enacted later by congress authorizing such representatives and providing for their expenses.

Opposition to premature participation of American representatives, these leaders said, is as pronounced that no reservation is being made that appointment of American delegates shall await legislation by congress in under consideration.

Defend President's Powers Administration senate leaders on the other hand, declared the president had full power to appoint American representatives on the commissions, though they expressed doubt that he would do so if the senate made formal objection.

Other causes given by the witness were a rebound from wartime repressions and extravagance due to present prosperity.

MINNEOLA, N. Y., (AP)—Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, victor in the army's air race across the continent and return, the greatest aviation endurance test of history, landed here at 1:50 p. m. Lieutenant Maynard's official landing time was 1:50:05.

Attains High Speed Lieutenant Maynard flew the 142 miles of the last stage in his great flight at a speed of nearly two miles a minute.

Praises Flight Companion The first words uttered by Lieutenant Maynard when he put his foot on the ground again were a generous tribute to Sergeant N. E. Klein, his companion on the flight.

Between Lieutenant Maynard and his wife, however, it was not a question of words. Mrs. Maynard was at the side of the airplane almost before it had come to rest, and her husband leaned from his seat and embraced her silently.

Lieutenant Maynard's second public announcement following his tribute to his companion in the great test was a significant one. "It is all up to the lieutenant," he promptly retorted to the sergeant. "He is the greatest pilot on earth."

D'ANNUNZIO OPPONENT DESTINATION UNKNOWN Leader of Italian Population of Fiume Leaves Under Mysterious Circumstances

FUME, (AP)—Professor Zanella, leader of the Italian population of Fiume, has been reported to have broken with Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio, has left the city for an unknown destination. His business associates were unable to give any information as to the reason for Professor Zanella's departure.

Disturbances are reported throughout Fiume and a large part of the usual news interests are unobscured by the going over to the support of Professor Zanella because of a heavy levy having been laid upon the town by the forces of the Italian premier.

Lieutenant Orlando, son of the former Italian premier, who is in Fiume as a volunteer, has challenged Signor Centurione, leader of the forces of Captain D'Annunzio, to fight a duel because Signor Centurione in addressing an audience in a theatre here made personal attacks upon the elder Orlando.

SAYS AMERICAN AMBASSADOR HELD UP RIFLE SHIPMENT TO CARRANZA

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, today refused to recommend or sanction the shipment of any munitions or rifles to Carranza, according to a letter from R. B. Setton, of the American Durango committee, to the senate committee investigating relations between the United States and Mexico.

Setton wrote about a conference he and a Durango representative had on October 9 with Secretary Lansing and Ambassador Fletcher regarding the shipment of 800 guns from New York to the Carranza government, a license for which had been issued by the war trade board.

After reciting that he had assured the government officials that Carranza had arranged to receive the guns at the border and that there was no danger of their falling into the hands of bandits, Setton wrote that he was most ably supported by the gentlemen accompanying him, and vice versa.

GOTHAM FACES FOOD SHORTAGE

Situation, Most Serious in History as Longshoremen Continue Strike

NEW YORK, (AP)—The most serious food shortage in its history threatened this city today as a result of the unqualified longshoremen's strike, which has paralyzed the harbor.

Foodstuffs are piled high on the piers, and Arthur Williams, federal food administrator, said large quantities of fruit, vegetables and other perishable commodities are being stored.

Coastwise steamers and vessels plying between New York and Central and South American ports are still tied up in the harbor. Thousands of tons of sugar are waiting to be removed to refineries.

Notwithstanding persistent efforts of interior retailers to induce the men to return to work, only five thousand of the 40,000 men involved are working, union leaders admitted. The largest union in the district last night voted to remain on strike.

Disturbances are reported throughout Fiume and a large part of the usual news interests are unobscured by the going over to the support of Professor Zanella because of a heavy levy having been laid upon the town by the forces of the Italian premier.

HUNGARY FIRST CENTRAL POWER TO GET RELIEF

Urgent Need for Medical and Surgical Supplies in Hospitals of Budapest Met by the American Red Cross

PARIS, (AP)—Hungary is the first of the central powers to receive an official commission of the American Red Cross for civilian work. To meet the urgent need for medical and surgical supplies in the hospitals of Budapest, a train of 20 rail cars, containing a total of twelve American officers has been sent from Paris. The supplies carried are valued at $350,000.

In Charge of Unit
The unit is in charge of Major S. A. Moffatt of Brooklyn and Major E. E. Mottahay of Seattle, both of whom have had a long experience in relief work in France. The transportation is under Captain H. H. Klidder of Maryland, Wash., and the personnel is under Captain Howard Armstrong of Buffalo. Other members of the unit are: Lieutenant John A. Langston, of Cleburne, Texas; Lieutenant Major J. M. Mead, of Troy, N. Y.; Lieutenant William Hoole, of Troy, N. Y.; Lieutenant L. E. Walsh, of Amherst, Mass.; Lieutenant V. J. Odehne, of Pittsburgh; and Sergeant B. D. Heinbach, of San Francisco.

The commission was sent to Budapest at the request of the inter-allied commission in Paris. Hospitals in Budapest were crowded to overflowing but without the barest necessities. A report on the situation in Budapest, sent to Paris by one of the advance agents of the American Red Cross, says:
Hungarian Flight Worst
"Hungary today seems the least habitable of any of the defeated nations to right itself and restore the well-being of the people of the world. Budapest, the capital, finds itself face to face with famine, its citizens lacking not only food, coal and clothing, but its sick dying for want of medicine and the means for surgeons to operate.
"The hospitals still have hundreds of wounded men, but most of the patients are civilian sick—men, women and children—whose constitutions have been undermined by war. Sugar, milk, cocoa, chocolate and other delicacies are necessary for the upbuilding of the sick are practically unobtainable."

EPISCOPALIAN WOMEN TO BE DENIED VOTE IN LAW

Present Convention is Unlikely to Authorize Giving Fair Sex Seats in Legislative Bodies

DETROIT, Mich., (AP)—Women are unlikely to be given a voice in the legislative bodies of the Protestant Episcopal church by the present triennial general convention.
In several dioceses women already have been given seats in legislative organizations, but this is not authorized by the general church body, it is declared. Appointment of a commission to make inquiry into the whole status of women in the church has been authorized and is to report at the next general convention.
The house of bishops Friday approved the establishment in France of an "American field of honor" as a consecrated spot and monument to our sacred dead, "where shall be gathered the bodies of those who died in the war."

PENG ANNOUNCES POLICIES

New Chinese Premier to Strive for Peace in Co-operation with President

PEKING, (AP)—The policy of his predecessor in striving for peace in co-operation with the president of the republic will be followed by Chia Yung Peng, the new Chinese premier, he declared in an interview Sunday.
The premier, in speaking of the differences between the north and the south in China, declared that the settlement of these differences would have to be based upon an understanding of spirit; that this was the essential thing rather than conditions or terms regarding new treaties.
The premier said he shared President Wilson's views regarding equality among nations and also upon secret diplomacy, adding that he would not be a party to the making of secret treaties.

CARNEGIE BEQUEST GOES TO BURNS WHO REFUSED TO SHAKE HIS HAND

LONDON, (AP)—John Burns' many friends have been almost as much surprised as gratified that Andrew Carnegie should have left him one thousand pounds a year. For Burns once refused to shake hands with Mr. Carnegie. Moreover, Burns was very proud of having done so and fond of telling about it. It happened in the precincts of the house of commons in the days before "Honest John" had accepted the responsibilities of a ministerial office and was still an uninitiated socialist.
Mr. Carnegie was being shown through the house of commons by some distinguished English friends in the lobby John Burns was encountered and Carnegie's attention was directed to him. As Burns used to tell the story of their meeting, Carnegie stepped up to him smiling and with outstretched hand and said, "Andrew Carnegie offers his hand to John Burns." To which, Burns replied, "John Burns refuses to take the hand of Andrew Carnegie," and turned his back on the multi-millionaire.
Burns had said many violent things about capitalists. There is no doubt that Carnegie had a sincere admiration for Burns as a self-educated and self-made man, and possibly in later years Burns changed his opinions concerning Andrew Carnegie.

ure to get full value for money received is also handed to the employer for payment either in increased demands for wages or in increased dissatisfaction and industrial unrest.
"So," says "employers" learn that, along with plans for stimulating the interest of the worker in his job, there must go hand in hand with an education of employers in fundamental economics and in the use and value of money."

DECALOGUE TO STIFFEN MORALE IN COST FIGHT THRIFT WEEK FEATURE

Ten Commandments for Guidance of Man's Financial Life Part of Program for Education of People in Fundamental Economics and in Use and Value of Money

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Ten commandments for the guidance of a man's financial life have been drawn up by a national committee of bankers and others to aid in the great drive of 1920 against the cohorts of high cost of living.
This decalogue for the frugal man to stiffen his morale in a battle to save something from the profiteers and rent raisers is part of the program for the national thrift week to begin January 17 next.
Plans Widely Approved
Plans for rallying the armies of money-savers for the 1920 drive by holding this thrift week were approved by the American Bankers' association in its recent convention in this city. The idea already had the endorsement of the United States League of Building and Loan associations, National Federation of Construction Industries, Retail Credit Men's association, National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters, National Credit Men's association, the American Life convention, and other national bodies.
Decalogue of Thrift
The ten commandments as recommended by Walter W. Head, of Omaha, secretary of the American Bankers' association, were:
1. Make a budget.
2. Keep an intelligent record of expenditures.
3. Have a bank account.
4. Carry life insurance.
5. Make a will.
6. Own your own home eventually.
7. Pay your bills promptly.
8. Invest in war savings stamps and other government securities.
9. Spend less than you earn.
10. Share with others. Thrift without benevolence is a doubtful blessing.
The eight days of the national thrift week have been named after some points of the financial creed as follows:
Saturday, Jan. 17—"Bank Day"
National Thrift Day," to emphasize the need for individual thrift and the service a bank renders a community. Sunday, Jan. 18—"Thrift Sunday," with sermons in all American pulpits on the relation of economic life to religious well-being and the need of sharing with others.

Monday, Jan. 19—"National Insurance Day," to stress the need of protecting one's family.
Tuesday, Jan. 20—"Own Your Own Home Day," to show why it is desirable and how it is possible to own your own home.
Wednesday, Jan. 21—"Make a Will Day," to urge men to make wills.
Thursday, Jan. 22—"Thrift in Industry Day," to advocate factory thrift and co-operation between capital and labor.
Friday, Jan. 23—"Family Budget Day."
Saturday, Jan. 24—"Pay Your Bills Day."
Inefficiency is Costly
Supporting this movement in address to the bankers in their convention here Arthur M. East of New York, national director of the thrift week movement, said: "Financial and industrial leaders are interested in the increased cost of living because they know that in most cases the bill for the increased cost is handed by the worker to the employer for liquidation. The bill for the increased cost of living is the result of the inefficiency of the average man and housewife in the spending of money and their fail-

YOUNG ENGINEER MAKES BIG INDUSTRIAL COMBINE

Brings Coal Mines and Steel Mills Under One Organization with Large Capital

LONDON, (AP)—D. B. Llewellyn, a young Welsh mining engineer, is the talk of London today because he is completing the most important combination in the coal and steel industry since the beginning of the war. Its capital will be $30,000,000, and it will control coal production of approximately 5,000,000 tons a year.
"Coal is our basic industry," he says. "It is more valuable than gold. I am an optimist. Organization, modern machinery, and labor saving devices in the coal industry will pay as large dividends today as at any time. I think that unless we can get the miners back to a 48-hour week we are going to have difficulty in meeting our export demands. Unless the hours are increased we shall produce only enough for our own requirements."
"The argument that a man can be speeded up to produce the same quantity in a shorter time is rubbish. When the miner was supposed to be working eight hours a day he was really only working six."
FRENCH AVIATOR SUCCEEDS IN FLIGHT ACROSS ALPS
PARIS, (AP)—Lieutenant Poulet, the French aviator who started from Lez-les-Moulineaux Tuesday morning on a flight to Melbourne, Australia, arrived yesterday morning at Rome, landing at the aviation field of Centocelle. He had left the French military airfield at Frejus Wednesday and succeeded in crossing the Alps.

ANTICIPATE DEMAND FOR $5,000,000 APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congress will be asked to appropriate more than five billion dollars for government expenses next year, Chairman Good of the house appropriations committee predicted today when the house began consideration of the bill to establish a national budget system.
The only relief from high taxation, he said, was a reduction of government expenditures.

HARDWARE MANUFACTURERS WARRMEND EMPLOYEES' POLICY

SHOWS PROGRESS MADE IN WAR ON HIGH COST

Attorney General Reports 25 Cases of Seizure of Hoarded Foodstuffs and 23 Other Cases Under Probe

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Attorney General Palmer Friday made public a report of progress in the government's campaign to reduce the cost of living. It showed that 25 cases of actual seizure of hoarded foodstuffs had been made in 18 states and that 23 other cases were being investigated. Numerous prosecutions have been instituted.
The seized foodstuffs, which included eggs, butter, cheese, poultry, lard, flour, sugar, potatoes and pork, were put into the normal channels of trade, 47 cases being disposed of by an agreement to sell under bond at reasonable prices.

RED CROSS TO WAR ON PLAGUE

Relief Organization Opens Stations Along Trans-Siberian Railroad

OMSK, (P)—The American Red Cross has undertaken to establish and administer quarantine stations along Trans-Siberian railroad in an effort to stamp out typhus, which is spreading at an alarming rate. This work was undertaken at the request of Admiral Kolchak.

The visit of Colonel Rudolph Bailling Tschir, in charge of Red Cross work in Siberia, to Omsk, has resulted in a plan of co-operation between the Russian civil and military authorities. The latter will assume the burden of keeping up and operating quarantine stations but hospitals already established.

Conditions may be judged from observations made by Colonel Tschir en route to this city from the east. At Imkhotovskaya, near Irkutsk, he found 300 patients without blankets in barren barracks and covered by straw mats. In Sibirskaya he found 1,000 other patients, among whom there are from twenty to thirty deaths daily. Several other stations in a similar condition were found between Irkutsk and Omsk, all being virtually without attention.

In talking with Colonel Tschir, Admiral Kolchak expressed his praise for the work of the Red Cross in Siberia and asked that formal thanks be transmitted to Washington. Colonel Tschir reports that he has fitted 10,000 beds in Russian hospitals in addition to nine hospitals with 3,999 beds under the management of the Red Cross.

EXPLORER ON CONTINENT RIM

American Works Way on Foot Along Route of Northwest Passage

SEATTLE, (P)—An American explorer, Harold Noice, formerly a member of Vilhjalmar Stefansson's party, is working his way eastward on foot along the route of the northwest passage on the northern coast of the continent, according to word received here. He expects to reach the Hudson Bay country and civilization sometime next summer.

Accompanied by Eskimos Storcker Stefansson, formerly second in command of the Stefansson party, who arrived here recently from the north, said that Noice is proceeding slowly and mapping portions of the coast line as he goes. A stretch of the coast line of Victoria Land, which was unexplored, is being charted by Noice.

Noice may visit the interior of Victoria Land, which, according to all reports, has never been explored by white men. All explorers, traders and trappers who have touched Victoria Land have only journeyed along its shores. Stefansson found the tribe of "blond Eskimos" in the Victoria Land country.

No Ship and Few Supplies Noice has no ship and but few supplies. He depends almost entirely upon his gun for his living. Stefansson, his former chief who is noted among explorers as being able to live off the barren white lands of the north, probably taught Noice how to get about without carrying supplies.

Noice's parents live in Seattle. The explorer is young in years, having graduated from a high school here about eight years ago. He went north in 1912 when Captain Louis Lano on the schooner Polar Bear. When Stefansson purchased the Polar Bear from Lano, Noice shipped as a member of the crew. Later when Stefansson decided to return to the outside world, Noice left the party and remained in the North. His parents expect him to return to Seattle next year.

FEAR EFFECTS OF BETTING CLIQUES ON BASEBALL AS FAVORITE SPORT

Writer Sanborn Declares "Pools" Destroy Interest of Fans and are Rapidly Undermining the Faith of Supporters of the Game—Betting is Dangerous

Thoughtful baseball promoters who have the best interests of their business in view are beginning to worry about the way professional gamblers have been flocking to the national pastime during the last year. There always has been betting on ball games, and always will be, but most of it has been of the promiscuous, haphazard kind in which sentiment was the determining factor. As J. E. Sanborn, Chicago baseball writer and authority, writes:

With the quick resumption of interest of baseball this year there has appeared the menace which so noisily retarded the game back in the dark days of the late '70s, when it was necessary for the national league to bar from its ball parks forever a quarter of a player who were found guilty of having dealings with a gambling clique which was then trying to earn a dishonest living out of baseball. But for that action those probably never would have been the members of an eminent Chicago jurist a few years ago labeled "a national institution."

Up to the Club Owners It is now up to the club owners to protect baseball from the evils which conserve the nation's pastime as a safety valve for the explosion of excess vitality and nerves.

There is little harm, of course, in the sentimental betting where one rooter backs his favorite team for a moderate amount against a similar bunch of coin owned by a friend who likes the other team. Even if a hundred thousand bets of that kind were wagered on one game by two hundred thousand fans, there would be no serious danger, because the bets would be so diversified.

But if those hundred thousand wagers were concentrated into one or into the hands of a syndicate, all the sentimental part of the game disappears and it would become a purely business proposition, with all the chances in the world that unfair methods would be used to make it a successful business proposition. Organized baseball must fight organized gambling or there will be another great sport barred by the laws of many states.

Popularity Now at Crest

Baseball right now is on the flood tide of popularity. It has been elected the favorite sport of the administration both civil and military, as a clean, healthful amusement. Recovery from the effects of the war have been remarkable this year. This has been aided by the action of states like New York, which have legalized Sunday baseball, in spite of the ancient blue laws of the east. The action of the commission which governs Washington in permitting the Sunday games during the war was a prime factor in determining the attitude of some of these states.

This extremely valuable public sentiment must be protected as the greatest asset baseball has. There must be no hesitation in performing any operation for the removal of dangerous members of organized baseball. There are some of them who tolerate gambling inside their own ball parks because it brings dollars through the turnstiles. They must be made to see that means which never was greater than at present.

Brief Bits of Sport

Sim Smiley, sagbrush sage, says: "Sports, like politics, is suspended."

Evidently Sim does not entertain tender passion for football as a regular sport.

But he should not permit feeling resulting from what he has seen on the local field prejudice him.

It took Big Bill Dell to win the final game in the nine-tit series for the minor league championship. Dell, twirling for Vernon yesterday against St. Paul, besides pitching a tight game, slammed a hit to the scoreboard for the final count.

And all this after the Saints had rambled the long twirler on Thursday and sent him to the shower in the first round.

Eddie Herr does not seem inclined to sign up with the Bees for another year's activities at the present salary. Eddie has asked for more money, and there appears a degree of difficulty.

Writer Sanborn Declares "Pools" Destroy Interest of Fans and are Rapidly Undermining the Faith of Supporters of the Game—Betting is Dangerous

Thoughtful baseball promoters who have the best interests of their business in view are beginning to worry about the way professional gamblers have been flocking to the national pastime during the last year. There always has been betting on ball games, and always will be, but most of it has been of the promiscuous, haphazard kind in which sentiment was the determining factor. As J. E. Sanborn, Chicago baseball writer and authority, writes:

With the quick resumption of interest of baseball this year there has appeared the menace which so noisily retarded the game back in the dark days of the late '70s, when it was necessary for the national league to bar from its ball parks forever a quarter of a player who were found guilty of having dealings with a gambling clique which was then trying to earn a dishonest living out of baseball. But for that action those probably never would have been the members of an eminent Chicago jurist a few years ago labeled "a national institution."

Up to the Club Owners It is now up to the club owners to protect baseball from the evils which conserve the nation's pastime as a safety valve for the explosion of excess vitality and nerves.

There is little harm, of course, in the sentimental betting where one rooter backs his favorite team for a moderate amount against a similar bunch of coin owned by a friend who likes the other team. Even if a hundred thousand bets of that kind were wagered on one game by two hundred thousand fans, there would be no serious danger, because the bets would be so diversified.

But if those hundred thousand wagers were concentrated into one or into the hands of a syndicate, all the sentimental part of the game disappears and it would become a purely business proposition, with all the chances in the world that unfair methods would be used to make it a successful business proposition. Organized baseball must fight organized gambling or there will be another great sport barred by the laws of many states.

Popularity Now at Crest

Baseball right now is on the flood tide of popularity. It has been elected the favorite sport of the administration both civil and military, as a clean, healthful amusement. Recovery from the effects of the war have been remarkable this year. This has been aided by the action of states like New York, which have legalized Sunday baseball, in spite of the ancient blue laws of the east. The action of the commission which governs Washington in permitting the Sunday games during the war was a prime factor in determining the attitude of some of these states.

This extremely valuable public sentiment must be protected as the greatest asset baseball has. There must be no hesitation in performing any operation for the removal of dangerous members of organized baseball. There are some of them who tolerate gambling inside their own ball parks because it brings dollars through the turnstiles. They must be made to see that means which never was greater than at present.

between the manager and the club management on this score.

However, Eddie should worry—his contract runs to December 1, and he is said to have an offer to get in on the managerial proposition for Seattle, an option on a block of that club's stock having been tendered him.

One of the troubles between umpires and the Vernon ball club during the past week is said to have arisen out of the fact that "Umpire" Bill Esick insisted upon using Jack Fournier at first base. The player is laboring under suspension, imposed by the national baseball commission for hitting an umpire, and, therefore, is ineligible to participate in organized baseball tilts.

Having declared the "movie" to be an "institution of indecency and tending to promote immorality," Mayor Riordan, of Harrison, N. J., has had passed an ordinance requiring a license fee of $10,000, thus shutting out motion pictures from his town.

Riordan is our idea of the right kind of a sport; a man who believes in young folks and has a mind to their future good.

BILL DELL WINS MINOR PENNANT

Vernon Pitcher Clouts to Score Board for 2-1 Count Over Saints

LOS ANGELES, (P)—The Vernon club of the Pacific coast league won the western minor league baseball championship by defeating St. Paul club of the American association in the last of a 9-game series at Washington park here yesterday. The score was 2 to 1.

Vernon's victory came in the 9th inning after the score had been tied for three frames. Alcock singled and went to second on Beck's sacrifice and scored when "Whizzer" Dell, Tiger pitcher, hit one to the score board. Vernon drew first blood in the fourth inning when Chabourne singled and took second on Meusel's sacrifice; Edgington's hit brought Chabourne home. St. Paul tied the score in the sixth when Bodeo, who had tripled, scored after the catch on Niebuus' sacrifice fly.

The largest crowd of the series witnessed the game.

A BRACON LIGHT

Subscribing to the idea that it is good to remember the good and great, public opinion in general will extend a cordial welcome to the suggestion of the Idaho state board of education that Friday next, designated as "Roosevelt Day," shall be devoted in the public schools to patriotic exercises and instructions with American citizenship as the keynote of the commemoration.

It means the same thing that was meant when those who followed Washington labored to make the idea of love of liberty universal.

It means the same thing that was meant when those who followed Lincoln did all in their power to further national unity.

It means that those who understood and believed the Roosevelt doctrine of progress are now beginning a campaign for the propagation of national purity, honesty and courage.

We look back upon the illustrious statesman of our national history, forgetting party differences, dwelling only on their common love and devotion to the common cause of liberty and the development of the land.

Big Yield of Bone. The largest yield of bone from a single whale was taken in 1883 and amounted to 3,110 pounds.

Two Alternatives. According to Mark Sheldon, who arrived in New York early this week to assume his new duties as Australian commissioner in the United States, the Australian commonwealth is enjoying an era of industrial prosperity before the world as a direct result of its wiping the labor slate clean of I. W. Wism and "sovietism."

The arbitration system as applied in Australia has been particularly effective in settling labor disputes, he said. The "one big union" has entirely collapsed in Australia, Mr. Sheldon declared. He said the I. W. W. had been suppressed by legislation making the organization illegal and by imprisonment and deportation of those convicted of being members.

Because of the similarity of the situation successfully handled in Australia with the present situation in this country, Mr. Sheldon's advice is par-monarily pertinent to American thought at this time.

There are two alternatives in dealing with the post-war manifestations of labor unrest in this country. One is indicated by the arbitration successfully applied in Australia, standing as an example which might well be emulated in the conclusions of President Wilson's industrial conference.

The other was pointed out lately by Secretary of War Baker, addressing the delegates to the convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs at Cleveland, when he declared that the administration in Washington is determined that federal laws be enforced and federal agencies unobstructed and that federal troops will instantly respond to the call of any governor to suppress riots and disorders in any state.

"We have an army of tried soldiers, of true Americans," Secretary Baker said. "They have seen too much disorder in the world to under-value order in their own country. They are not partisans in any dispute except one, and that is the dispute between those who want order and those who try to create disorder in America. As between those two contestants, they are on the side of order."

There can be no question as to which alternative the vast majority of American people would prefer, and selection of the course indicated by adequate facilities for arbitration will be welcomed more sincerely by none than by the men under the direction of the secretary of war.

SO THE PUBLIC MAY KNOW

As the article in yesterday's Times does not state facts, I feel obligated to reply thereto. Most of the article deals with what was said by W. P. French, president of the mechanics' union, and as Mr. French's information was only hearsay it is very easy to see why he did not get the facts in the case.

The following are the facts and can be verified by any of the eighteen men who still remain in our employ and I dare further say it will not be denied by even the men who were discharged.

Last spring among several local unions organized was a union of automobile mechanics. On October second a union agreement was presented to us with the request that we sign the same. Which we refused to do. We also told the committee which called on us that we would deal individually with our men. On Thursday, October 9th, we were given to understand that a strike would be called and permitted to stay. The ballot also called for the number of hours of work per day; twelve of the men voting for a nine hour day and two for an eight hour day, two not voting. On the request of the majority the working hours were changed from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. to 7:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m., just a half an hour later to commence and quit. Our mechanics immediately notified the mechanics of the Magel Garage what had taken place and I have it on good authority that their mechanics unanimously voted to stay. Our mechanics also took steps to inform the union what had taken place and that they would not go out on strike.

We took for granted that this settled the matter and were not aware of anything else until Mr. Lind returned from Boise on Monday, when he was informed that the strike would be called on Monday, Oct. 20, and that our bunch was badly divided, some still saying they would go out in face of all agreements to the contrary. Consequently we decided if an agreement with our mechanics was only going to be binding on us and not on their part that we would discharge any man who thought more of the union's orders than he did of his word given as a man, and consequently informed our mechanics that all who expected to go on strike could pick up their tools and go to the office and get their checks and would thereupon be discharged. Ten men called for their time and six stayed. We are further pleased to say that our best and oldest men in our service stayed.

So the public may know what type of men are at the head of the local mechanics' union we produce herewith a sworn statement of one of our leading citizens, having at one time been the principal of our schools.

This is to certify that while one Mr. W. P. French was in the employ of the Lind Automobile Co. as mechanic during the winter and spring of 1919, I heard him state that he was one of the agitators who were expelled from Bisbee, Arizona, some two years ago.

CALL UPON RUSS TO DISCARD RED

Prominent Americans Publish Appeals to People to Throw Off Bolshevism

NEW YORK, (AP)—Appeals to the people of Russia to throw off the yoke of Bolshevism and turn to a government of "true democracy" written by a group of prominent American statesmen, business men, editors and labor leaders, are to be given wide publicity throughout that country by the magazine "Struggling Russia," it was announced today.

"American labor views with heavy heart the terrible course of Bolshevism forced by gun and bayonet on the people of Russia," said the message written by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. He asserted that American workmen "desire the people of Russia to know that they are anxiously awaiting the certain victory over Bolshevism and sincerely hope that the Russian people will establish democratic government through constituent assembly."

Francis Expresses Sympathy
David B. Francis, American ambassador to Russia said: "I wish to express my sympathy with the true Russian patriots who are struggling against the Bolsheviki who have usurped power in Russia and are maintaining themselves by resort to terror which they have been able to continue through aid of mercenaries, notwithstanding that their following is less than ten per cent of the Russian people."

Declaring that the American people hope for "the liberty and prosperity of the people of Russia," E. W. Hucker, former secretary of state and head of the American mission to Russia, said he was confident that the Russian people would work out their own salvation.

List of Contributors
Other contributions calling upon the Russian people to throw off the rule of Bolshevism were made by Senator King, Utah; Senator Johnson, South Dakota; Senator Thomas, Colorado; John Esch, chairman of the committee on foreign commerce of the house of representatives; Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, and Jacob H. Schiff.

Great Majestic Range Bargain Week

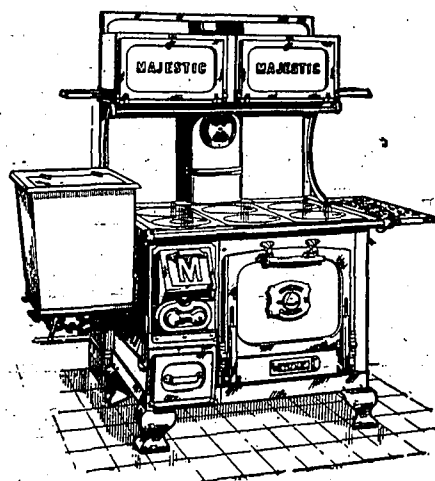

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION AND BARGAIN SALE OF

Majestic Ranges

AT OUR STORE—ONE WEEK ONLY

October 20 to October 25

To Be Truly Economical There Should Be a Majestic in Your Kitchen

—AND IT'S WELL WORTH YOUR WHILE!

Through special arrangements with the manufacturers, and during this Bargain Week only, a beautiful, useful an substantial set of Cooking Ware will be given with every Majestic Range sold. This ware is good ware (not cheap ware)—it's worth a lot to you. Come and see for yourself.

AND REMEMBER—

The price of a Majestic Range this week will not be increased, and there will hardly be a great reduction for years to come, if ever, but there may be an increase soon.

Two New and Important Features

The Wonderful Unseen Riveting—

Yes, it's rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nicked parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And, remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads holding are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

If you haven't a MAJESTIC; avail yourself of this opportunity to get acquainted with this wonderful range—know the inside of ranges.

Oh, You! Top Needs No Blacking

A smooth, highly polished cooking top, burnished blue, not only adds to the beauty of the Majestic, but absolutely eliminates the work, dirt and worry of trying to keep the range looking nice—just an occasional thin coat of paraffine retains its beautiful velvet blue color.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY IS HERE—

At our store—during our Majestic Bargain Week. It's your chance to get acquainted with real facts about ranges. We assure you it will be worth your while to investigate.

REMEMBER THIS:

There is practically nothing the average individual has done—or is doing—that you cannot do.

People with like earning capacity, similar obligations and needs, not only make both ends meet, but make them overlap—in other words, after taking care of all requirements, have a surplus in place of a deficiency.

You can, therefore, do as much.

No surer means will you find to attain this end than a Checking Account here.

NAVY TRAINING IS SPECIALIZED

United States Offers Fine School for Young Men Possessing Skill

Battleships are primarily a complex piece of machinery, and employ a number of skilled men in various trades. A ship must be maintained in a constant state of operating efficiency, and as their machinery, the hull and fittings must be kept in fine order, a great number of skilled men are used. This duty falls to the artificers, and much of the magnificent showing made by the navy during the war may be attributed to the excellent work done by such men.

As the work that these men are called upon to perform is of a special nature, as compared to similar work in civil life, it is necessary to train these men especially for the navy. Since a school has been established at the navy yard, Mare Island, California.

The course is for six months intensive training. Upon completion of the course, an examination is held, and the construction corps and, if found qualified, are given ratings and returned to general detail for service on sea-going vessels.

The dock artificer ratings comprise the following—blacksmiths, molders, patternmakers, carpenter's mates, shipwrights, shipfitters, and painters. The ratings, except the shipwrights, are all petty officers, and their pay ranges from $41.00 to $77.00 per month, with $5 increase for each four year enlistment.

Sit talks are given at intervals by officers of the construction corps on general subjects, such as the pumping, drainage and ventilation systems of modern vessels, ship nomenclature, care and preservation of vessels, and other subjects of like nature. The school is conducted in accordance with general orders issued by the bureau of navigation of the navy department, this bureau having cognizance over all training schools for enlisted men.

SCHOOLS TO OBSERVE DAY FOR ROOSEVELT

Education Officials Urge Commemoration Honoring Former President

Friday, October 24, has been named "Roosevelt Day" by the state board of education, according to a circular letter received by educator officials in Twin Falls this week.

The circular is sent out by Dr. E. A. Bryan, state commissioner of education, and Miss Ethel P. Redfield, state superintendent. Suggestion is made relative to devoting the day to patriotic exercises and instruction in the public schools, with "Americanization" the keynote of the commemoration.

The circular reads as follows:

"The state board of education approves the high purpose of the memorial committee in directing the attention of the youth of the land to the need for the genuine Americanization of our people and to the illustrious example of patriotic devotion to that cause on the part of the late President Roosevelt, one time president of the United States. We look back upon the illustrious statesman of our national history, forgetting party differences, dwelling only on their common love and devotion to the cause of human liberty and the development of national life, and we point to Washington and Jefferson, to Jackson and Lincoln and others alike as examples worthy of admiration and imitation.

"In this spirit, all citizens are asked to celebrate Americanization day and to contribute such small sums as their hearts may dictate to a memorial of one of the great characters of American history."

MURRAY'S GRANDSON GETS OUT OF THE ARMY

Young Man Tells of Traveling Fifty Thousand Miles in Service of U. S.

Telling of travellings connected with service in the United States army during the war, City Health Officer A. W. Murray has a letter from his grandson, Stanley A. Murray, in Helena. The boy covered about 50,000 miles by land and sea, and visited some of the largest cities in the world, including New York, London and Paris.

"I sure have had enough of sight-seeing to last me a long time," the young man remarks. He adds that he received his discharge recently and now wants to get down to business in some sort of commercial employment. The boy is impressed with what he has heard of Twin Falls and hopes to come here to locate.

You've waited in the hope that the price would be lowered. Today's ads may bring you the good things.

Envelope Chemise Ribbioned a Bit

The picture shown on the left is the new and fascinating envelope chemise, finished in a glimpse under a sheer blouse. It is of white crepe de chine and checked blue and white ribbon. On the right the fashion affair is of lace and georgette with bloomers attached to the cambrile of lace.

NEW VICTORY BLUE TAILLEUR SPORTS FUR

The tailleur is what American women have always looked for. It makes "that one best outfit" suitable for most any occasion. This one in the new victory blue drevyn is trimmed with bands of fur. The skirt contrasts pockets in a yoke effect to be different, while a smart furban with many colored flowers and touch of kayety, says "No".

Sugar in India.
The small East Indian sugar grower makes no white sugar, but simply boils down the juice and does not remove the molasses. The dark brown product is called gur or gulk, and is generally sold and consumed without refining, although in some parts of the country a certain amount of modern sugar production is carried on.

You may rest assured of this: If a merchant uses a full page of space in which to tell store news which could have been told in a column, he falls either to serve or to profit. If he uses a column when he needed a page he makes an even greater blunder.

Happ'ness in Appreciation.
Happ'ness comes not from the power of possession, but from the power of appreciation. Above most other things it is wise to cultivate the power of appreciation. The greater the number of steps on an organ the greater its possibilities as an instrument of music.—H. W. Sylvester.

The Knit-tex Coat
WHEN a man leaves home in the morning he wants to be comfortably coated for the whole day, cold or warm.
When it turns mild at noon a heavy overcoat weighs a ton. If a balmy morning turns into a cold bleak afternoon a light topcoat is inadequate.
There is one fabric that will defy any temperature that the Fall months can produce—Knit-tex.
It is the most wonderful combination of style and all-year-round comfort that has ever been seen in an overcoat.
