

BRITISH LABOR LEADER COMING

English Representative at the World Industrial Conference Has Interesting Career

LONDON, (AP)—G. H. Stuart-Bunning, one of the most influential English labor leaders, an avowed enemy of "direct action" extremists, will obtain his first impression of trades unionism in the United States as head of the British delegation to the world labor congress which opens in Washington October 29. He is a letter carrier and an internationalist in his political sympathies. Mr. Bunning has retained his leadership in organized labor for a considerably longer period than any other responsible official of the British labor movement. For sixteen years he has been general secretary of the Postmen's Federation, which has a membership today of 67,000.

He is president of the Civil Service Federation, a wage earners' society with membership of perhaps 150,000. For one term he was an executive of the British labor party. For six years he has been a member of the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress.

Opposes Direct Action
It was during the recent turbulent action of the latter organization in Glasgow that Mr. Bunning came most prominently into the limelight. To his courageous opposition there to so-called "direct action," for national strikes advocates, is attributed to a large degree, the peaceful adjustment of industrial ferment which threatened to precipitate serious internal troubles through Britain.

Mr. Bunning was a member of the committee composed of representatives of organized labor from all parts of the empire which wrote a preliminary draft of the labor charter, a document which, with some few alterations, was adopted and made one of the most important works of the Paris peace conference.

Favors Co-operation
Another of Mr. Bunning's activities has been in promoting the extension of co-operative buying and distributing organizations in the United Kingdom. This activity, which is conducted on a much more extensive scale in Great Britain than in the United States. The enterprise has been so successfully conducted that large boot and shoe and textile manufacturers, a number of coal mines, fruit farms and ten gardens are owned by members of these co-operative societies. The products of these establishments being sold to society members on a cost basis.

Through his leadership in British labor circles, Mr. Bunning has a reputation as an expert on the "Gompers and other captains of American labor."

PRUSSIA LEFT BY WAR WITH SURPLUS WOMEN

Vital Statistics Expert Disputes Idea That Matrimonial Prospects Will Suffer

BERLIN, (AP)—The war has left Prussia with a surplus of women over men, there being now, it is estimated, 1,107 females for every 1,000 males. This, it would be generally assumed, correspondingly diminishes women's matrimonial prospects in Prussia.

Dr. Robert Behla, a government expert on vital statistics, expects, however, an increase over the normal percentage of marriages in Germany, estimating that such a result is a natural consequence of all wars. He says that wage earners generally marry more rapidly than do others after the war because of the improvement in their economic condition due to their increased wages.

The number of marriages in Prussia last year was about 100,000 less than took place in the last peace year, when there was a surplus of only five women to every thousand men.

MOUNTAIN CLIMBING IN ALPS CLAIMS LIFE TOLL

Season Just Past in Switzerland Brings Unusually Heavy Crop of Accidents

GENEVA, (AP)—Mountain climbing brought an unusually heavy crop of accidents this season. One of the most sensational occurred on the Pic Col de la Croix, near the Italian-Swiss border, and fell into a crevasse 100 feet deep. Their male companion, unable to help, rushed for guides and, after seven hours imprisonment, the bomb was extricated, one dead and the other unconscious.

On the same day three young couples had just reached the summit of Lavinia peak, above Saas, when a crevasse 21 years old collapsed and fell 500 feet. After an all-night search guides found her body and carried it with great difficulty to the village of Maffligny.

A climber, named Durich died at St. Moritz after a fall on Mount Rosaraj.

CATHEDRAL AT RHEIMS REOPENS FOR SERVICES

World Famed Sanctuary Suffers Less in War than Generally Supposed

PARIS, (AP)—After all, the Rheims cathedral has not suffered from German bombardments and fire so much as was first supposed, Cardinal Luçon has told a representative of the Paris Intransigent. The cardinal announced that divine service would be resumed in the cathedral from November 1, but the holy office will be restricted to the altar of the Virgin and the ambulatory around it. Those who will accommodate only about 1,500 persons.

The interviewer describes how he met the cardinal at Rheims in a simply furnished apartment of the archiepiscopal palace, with a shell hole in the wall. Cardinal Luçon, despite his 77 years, is still hale and alert, and he is an optimist.

"Destroyed, my cathedral? Why not," he said. "The damage is much more easily repairable than is generally believed. A few ancient parts, it is true, cannot be replaced, but the beauty of the cathedral lay, first, in the stained glass, secondly, in its sculptures, and thirdly in its statuary. Of the stained glass, unfortunately has been saved and brought to Paris. The remaining truth can be restored by specialists, with the aid of many photographs and a great number of colored photographs we have. As regards the sculptures, we shall use the numerous originals of the time. Many have had to be restored anew in the course of centuries, such as for instance, the large piece representing the Assumption. That was restored in 1875."

"As for the statuary, we have so many models that it will be easy to reproduce the damaged parts. The pillars, with their ornamental capitals, have suffered little, only the two side doorways have been badly damaged by fire."

"Was there not some talk of leaving the cathedral as it was?" the reporter asked.

"If the evidence of Teutonic barbarity have to be preserved, let them build a private museum," replied the cardinal gravely.

HEADLINER IN PARISIAN THEATRE GETS THE HOOK

Strike of Music Hall and Concert Actors Causes Several Humorous Incidents

PARIS, (AP)—The strike of the music hall and concert actors here caused some humorous incidents. Derville, one of the headliners at the Casino de Paris, one of the most popular singers with the French public, was dragged off the platform by the strikers. "I have not the first time in my career since his amateur days when, at a meeting of the Federation of Theatre Workers, he opposed the strike."

"Will you pay my tariff of 100,000 francs, if I break my contract with the Casino de Paris?" he asked the howling audience. Then the hook seized him. When Voltaire, the manager of the Casino de Paris, met the strikers in his theatre, he was accompanied by Georges Carpentier and Eugene Criqui, who suffered little, only the two side doorways, the English bantam-weight champion.

U. S. MINISTER GIVEN PALACE

American Representative to Czecho-Slovakia Gets the Quarters of Nobleman

PRAGUE, (AP)—When Richard Crane, the newly appointed United States minister to Czecho-Slovakia, formerly secretary to Secretary of State Lansing, took up his post in Prague, the government of the new republic assigned to him the magnificent palace of the Cardinal Archbishop of Prague, on the heights of Hradcany overlooking the city, directly across the way from the national capital.

The palace was vacant because the Cardinal Archbishop had fled to France, on the heels of Hradcany, on October 28, 1918—the Czech Fourth of July—took place, he was invited to leave along with all the rest of the Austro-Hungarian nobility, and complied.

Mr. Crane found around the state dining room pictures of the former cardinal archbishops in all the various shades of their robes. In the audience chamber was a great throne, above which hung a large and splendid portrait of Pope Benedict XV. In the big reception rooms leading off from it, he discovered a lot of North American Indians displaying themselves all over a set of priceless Gobelin tapestries, with here and there an oil-painted negro slave. It seems that the Gobelins had originally been ordered and delivered to the then Empress Maria-Theresa of Austria. They were sent to Prague, O. C., and the price of the bill staggared even her imperial majesty. Being somewhat short of funds, she was about to send them back, when the then Cardinal Archbishop, being a noble of ample private means, offered to take them off her hands. The empress gladly assented and the Gobelins have remained a part of the furnishings of the handsome old house.

So the United States minister receives his guests and gives his interviews in the eighteenth century French conception of the "original Americans" looking down upon him from the walls.

So long as there's sickness, suffering, disaster, the Red Cross must stand by.

SUNDAY COMES THRICE WEEKLY IN SARAJEVO

Day of Rest Observed Separately by Three Different Sects in Bosnia.

SARAJEVO, Bosnia, (AP)—Sunday is observed three times a week here. Because there are 35,000 Turks in the city, Friday is the first Sunday. Then all the Turkish stores close and one goes twice a day to some of the hundred mosques whose slender minarets gleam white against the green background of the hills.

Because two hundred years ago a group of Spanish Jews settled in Bosnia, Saturday is Sunday for many Sarajevans. Then all the Jewish stores are closed and the Jews of the city crowd the big yellow synagogue of the main street.

Because all the rest of the 64,000 inhabitants of Sarajevo and hundreds of peasants from the hills around are Serbs and Bosnians, following both the Roman Catholic and the Greek Orthodox beliefs, the Sunday Sabbath is the biggest holy day of all in Sarajevo. All the stores except the Turkish are closed. The churches are crowded with people dressed in every style, from the latest Belgrade fashions to homespun trousers for both men and women, with huge beaded shoes and woolen turbans. After that modern Sarajevo walks about the modern quarters and old-fashioned Sarajevo dances the "Kolo" in the big square of the crowded Turkish bazaar.

"The results of three Sundays of work for the people here is no Sundays at all for the Americans, who find no day without some school or hospital that must be provided for," said Lieutenant John D. Hartung of Bay Shore, L. I. Lieutenant Hartung is in charge of the medical supplies from America which have made the Bosnian hospitals possible.

COSSACKS FAIL TO APOLOGIZE

American Authorities in Siberia Know Nothing of Expression of Regret

VLADIVOSTOK, (AP)—General Rozanoff, the Russian commander in the Far East, has not apologized for the American flagging of an American soldier at Irkutsk, September 4, according to the American army authorities here. The American command declares it knows nothing of the apology, which according to press reports from the United States, Ambassador Bakunoff in Washington said that General Rozanoff has submitted to Major General Graves, commanding the American forces in Siberia for the Irkutsk incident, involving the arrest by Cossacks of an American officer and enlisted man and the flagging of the latter.

Answering General Graves' demand for an explanation of the actions of a Japanese officer at Irkutsk in connection with the incident, Japanese headquarters replied that the Japanese major involved stated that the American major misrepresented the facts. (The original reports of the incident stated that a Japanese major declared to the Cossacks and declined the Japanese would side with the latter should hostilities develop.)

HEARING IS HELD ON GOLDMAN DEPORTATION

Status of Woman Anarchist to Be Determined by Decision Upon Examination Findings

NEW YORK, (AP)—Emma Goldman, anarchist, was given a hearing by the department of Immigration on Ellis Island Monday p.m. whether she should be deported as an undesirable alien. The examination, conducted by order of Secretary Wilson, was short and the findings will be forwarded to the secretary for approval or rejection.

Miss Goldman, who was recently released from the Jefferson City, Mo., penitentiary where she served two years for violation of the espionage act, claimed American citizenship but refused to submit any evidence, insisting the burden of proof was on the government.

It is known, however, that she claims to have been married to Jacob Kerner in Rochester in 1887 and that she had been naturalized at that time. She also claims that her father was a naturalized citizen before she became of age.

300,000 Maxwell Owners Will O.K. This Car

FOR this Post-War Maxwell contains all those fine traits of its 300,000 predecessors.

And in addition the great developments in engine, axle and chassis which the war brought.

But these 300,000 will vouch for its ability, for they have seen their own cars pile up endless mileage, outrun a guarantee on a tire, shy at the repair shop, and go where most other cars wouldn't follow.

They know, too, how thrifty it will prove on gas, how it will please both Son and Grandma in performance and comfort.

To say that they will O. K. this car is wasting words, for it is of the very same chassis model as the 300,000 others.

It's worth an hour of any man's time to look over the Post-War features, note what fine engineering has accomplished, and observe what big improvements have been made in appearance.

The price, however, is still $985. The extra values are yours.

BUDAPEST TRULY OCCUPIED CITY

Rumanian Officials and Soldiers are Ubiquitous in Hungarian Capital

BERLIN, (AP)—Hardly has the train reached the east station than one hears the cry that Budapest is occupied city, writes the Tagblatt's special Budapest correspondent.

Baggage Mysteriously Searched The baggage is minutely searched and it is more than an hour before it is possible to leave the station. It is almost impossible to get a cab, and if one does find one the taximan immediately asks one if he has "blue money," the old Austro-Hungarian bills in contradiction to the "white" money of the present.

Rumanian Patrols Everywhere Everywhere there are Rumanian patrols, including the cavalry with lances and the Rumanian flag. The streets at night are absolutely empty since no one without a special pass may be abroad after 11 o'clock.

In the daytime automobiles tear through the streets of the English, American, Italian and Rumanian officers. From the official buildings float the blue-yellow-red Rumanian flags. In front of the hotels where the Rumanian live stand autos under military guard.

Anti-Semitic Agitation An official declaration regarding the pogroms gives twelve dead and 400 wounded, one-third of whom, however, are not Jewish.

FAMOUS TAPESTRY IS RESTORED TO HAMPTON COURT LONDON, (AP)—A tapestry woven in Brussels early in the sixteenth century, one of a set of seven pieces symbolically representing the story of the seven deadly sins and believed to have been loaned originally by Cardinal Wolsey and hung in a chamber of the royal palace at Hampton court, has been restored to the palace after an absence of 270 years.

REPORT SHOWS RECORD AMOUNT OF SHIPBUILDING LONDON, (AP)—Lloyd's shipping report says that at the end of June, 1919, a record amount of shipbuilding was going on throughout the world, namely 4,300,000 tons, of which 2,000,000 tons were building in the United Kingdom.

MEXICAN PRESS ATTACKS RECKLESS AUTO DRIVING MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Newspapers here apparently have started a campaign against the reckless automobile driving which claims victims daily and makes riding or walking a perilous occupation. The chief offenders are said to be the camions or small omnibuses. They rush through the streets heedless of life or limb. The hospitals treat at least twenty persons daily as the result of automobile smashes.

RADICALISM IN BELGIUM BRUSSELS, (AP)—The tendency toward radicalism in Belgium is increasing, legislation is making itself manifest here as well as in England. HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN IS CREDITED WITH IMPROVEMENT IN FORTNIGHT

Rapid Betterment in Team Play is Noted by the School Officials, Who Also Look for Vast Betterment as Season Ages—School is Lacking in Men of Football Experience

Comparative scores of the high school football teams of this section during the last two weeks show that Twin Falls has improved much more rapidly than any other team. Buhl defeated Gooding 30-0 two weeks ago. Gooding defeated Twin Falls 14-0 a few days later. This gives Buhl a 20 point advantage over Twin Falls.

Buryel defeated Twin Falls 27-0 two weeks ago. Gooding defeated Twin Falls 14-0 a few days later. This should give Gooding a 47 point advantage on Twin Falls, but a week ago the Gooding team only could gain an eight point advantage. Twin Falls has had a 12 point advantage from last week's games. This has been accounted for by six days' confinement under the present staff. Dope seems to indicate that Twin Falls will make things much more interesting for its opponents when the second round of games begins with Ripuer, on the local field next Friday.

Twin Falls has but two men of previous high school football experience. These men played as substitutes in the team two years ago. The improvement shown during the last two weeks has been highly satisfactory to the coaches and a strenuous effort will be made to turn the trick and win from Ripuer.

The local line has improved wonderfully and but for an injury to Newman that left him out of the fore part of the last game, Buhl would have had much greater difficulty in scoring the two touchdowns around left end. Captain Owen Watson was out of the game with an injury. Epler in Watson's place at left half did some very good work. Kregel at left half and calling signals, played his first full game of high school football, according to Coach George Deunant. The latter says Kregel managed the team well and mixed his plays in such a way as to keep Buhl guessing at all times.

Kregel mystified his opponents and electrified the crowd in the second quarter by a series of passes, plays and kicks that yielded the Twin Falls touchdown. Another aside kick in the third quarter nearly resulted in a touchdown for Twin Falls. King and Phipps have improved greatly, the former having become the most consistent ground gainer on the team.

Good improvement was displayed in forward passing. Twin Falls completing 10 passes out of 12 attempts. Buhl was successful with only one pass. The local team displayed much better interference. The work of the line was very good, good headwork being noted on both sides. There was very little fumbling.

Brief Bits of Sport

"Babe" Ruth has suddenly found a fondness for money. He wants his wages boosted 100 per cent next year.

And if we could crown the pill as Babe can we would not be half that modest, either.

The Pacific Coast league is now actually without a head. Baum's resignation, pending since last June, has been accepted.

The Salt Lake Telegram sports man says the Louisa Petroff grappling match, conducted in Salt Lake last Friday, was the best seen in that city "in many a day."

Which statement, in view of the fact that Salt Lake has had no big bouts of this nature in a couple of years, is unquestionably quite true.

Football fans are promised a better exemplification of the great American college sport when the game is played here next Friday.

With the big cue tourney over and done, what's next in the line of sport? Gus Kervos, a Greek wrestler in Boise and will tackle Ad Santol tonight.

We don't mention this as a matter of advertising or boosting the grappling game, but merely to let folks know who's getting the money.

With the elimination last Saturday of Michigan, Minnesota and Illinois from the "Big Ten" football championship, the fight has narrowed down to a bitter three-cornered battle between Ohio State, Chicago and Wisconsin. Three undefeated teams thus far this season.

Byron Hancock Johnson is the most restrained man in the world just now. The New York courts have just restrained him from meddling at all with Carl Maya, Hankree twirler, until the courts have finally passed on the case.

Of course this being the off season for baseball Bannie won't have much cause to meddle with Carl the Curious.

TITLED BOXER WINS DES MOINES, Ia., (AP)—Captain Bob Roper of Chicago defeated Hugh Walker of Kansas City in a twelve round bout here last night in the opinion of newspaper men at the ring-side. The men are heavy weights.

NEW REPUBLICAN CLAIMS MANGANESE MONOPOLY

Private Concerns May Hold and Operate Mines but Government Must Sell Product

TIFLIS, (AP)—The constituent assembly of the new republic of Georgia sitting in a parliament, has declared the output of manganese to be a government monopoly. Private concerns may hold and mine the mineral, but the sale shall be made solely through the government treasury. This is declared to be the most important financial step which the republic has made. The assembly has levied new taxes upon small tradesmen which have caused indignation. A porter is to pay 500 rubles; a bootblack 1,500 rubles; a flower booth, 2,500 rubles; a fish market, 240,000 rubles; this will store, 1,000,000 rubles. Merchants declare that the tax is prohibitive and that they will refuse payment.

WAR DEPARTMENT'S MAIL OF SUGAR IS OVERTHROWN

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Action of the war department in selling to France $2,000,000 pounds of sugar sent overseas for the American expeditionary force was criticized in the house on Monday by Representative Bland, republican, Indiana. Bland said that since this sugar was sold the department had called on the sugar equalization board for twelve million pounds of sugar for the army for the present campaign. "Wouldn't General Pershing know something about the disposition of American sugar in France?" asked Representative Bland, democrat, Utah. "If General Pershing didn't know more about disposition of sugar than he did about the front," Bland replied, "it would be useless to ask him."

ONE OF A MAN SAVES JENKINS

American Consular Agent Rescued from Mexican Bandits by His Native Secretary

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—The release of William O. Jenkins, United States consular agent at Puebla, who was held captive by Mexican bandits in the mountains south of that city, and who returned to the city after being rescued by one lone man, Senator Jenkins, the personal attorney of Mr. Jenkins, according to advices received here.

At the beginning of the negotiations for the ransom of Mr. Jenkins, Federico Cordova, the leader of the bandits, stipulated that the ransom be paid in the form of the consular agent's friends to appear in force at the bandit rendezvous would result in the death of Mr. Jenkins. Senator Jenkins, therefore, met cordially with Hacienda Chavama, which is situated about two hours run by automobile south of Puebla. He was then conducted to a room where he found his captives on a bed. After a short parley the ransom money, $500,000 Mexican, was counted out and a receipt was signed by Cordova. Mr. Jenkins and his secretary, together with an arm of Senator Mestre, left the house, being accompanied for some distance by Cordova's two men who acted as guard. The two men finally reached another hacienda and were conveyed to Puebla by automobile.

Few details of incidents which occurred during Mr. Jenkins' week of captivity have not been learned, he is not physically able to tell much of his experiences in the mountains except that his abductors were on the move continually to guard against attacks. They treat their prisoners with every consideration possible, however, it is said.

Suffers from Rheumatism Forced to lie on the wet ground during a week of daily rains, Mr. Jenkins suffered a recurrence of rheumatic attacks, which rendered him almost helpless. He now is in the American hospital at Puebla, only a few investigating officials being admitted to his room.

Secretary Elling Hanna of the American embassy here, who directed negotiations for the release of Mr. Jenkins, on the part of the United States, will not return from Puebla until Wednesday. Upon his arrival he expected an official report will be made.

REPATRIATES 56 POLISH FAMILIES

American Red Cross Officer Rescues Women and Children

WARSAW, (AP)—Suptain Leo J. McGuire of the American Red Cross returned to Warsaw from Odessa recently with 56 repatriated Polish families, having fulfilled his mission to repatriate 56 families of Polish officers, left behind on the evacuation of the city by General Zeligowski and his Polish troops in April last.

Early in September the French military mission at Warsaw learned that the Bolshevik officials at Odessa were holding for ransom wives of Polish officers. The Bolsheviks offered to give up the women for a ransom of the sick of American flour per woman, but stipulated that they would treat only with an officer of the American Red Cross. On the request of the Polish government, the Red Cross commissioner to Poland detailed Captain McGuire to make the trip.

Accompanied only by an interpreter, Captain McGuire attached his two box cars of ransom to a military train leaving Warsaw for Lemberg. From Lemberg, by dint of bluff, bribery and the prestige of the American uniform, he traveled south through the Ukraine and Rumania to Galatz, and thence to Odessa. General Denkinke, the anti-Bolshevik commander of the Central army had captured the city before Captain McGuire arrived.

The captain found the Polish women living in conditions much resembling those of a low class of soldiers. After a attack proceeded by heavy artillery preparation. The Bolsheviks had destroyed whole blocks of houses, first rifling them with ammunitions and then burning them. Terrorist commissions had executed 5,000 persons during the two months of occupation. Eventually the American was able to get his charges out of the city and back through Rumania and the Ukraine.

Captain McGuire comes from Tulsa, Ok. A volunteer in the French army he enlisted in the American army in France during the war and was a distinguished service cross. He is twenty-two years of age.

Silence Means Refusal These Hectic Times

Like the law of supply and demand the theory that silence gives consent is inoperative in these hectic days.

At least silence in the city council last night proved equivalent to a negative vote on a proposition propounded by a co-terminor of labor leaders.

The labor people appeared before the council body with a request for license to carry about the streets, especially in front of certain labor-banned mart.

The request was made with unctuous ease, the municipal ordinance being amply and ably quoted in support of the contention that the request could well be granted without fear of an infraction of the law.

Oh King President took a huml at this juncture, short but pointed talks being made by members of the council against establishing an initiatory antecedent that might hereafter become bothersome.

These cryptic rulings ended, the council as a whole lapses into silence, and thus the request was disposed of.

The same system of silent treatment was operative, too, when Dr. C. C. Wyatt asked to be permitted to erect an electric sign over the walk in front of his sanitarium on Third avenue north, the sign to be partly supported by a post set in the parking strip.

AMERICAN INTERVENTION THE DEcisive FACTOR IN VICTORY, ALBERT AVERS (Continued from Page One) salute the memory of your great predecessors who, during 130 years, have sat in this place and given to the whole world the example of highest civic virtues. This welcome of the senate seals that reception, so warm and so spontaneous I have received every where during my journey across this magnificent country. I am deeply moved by the expressions of sympathy that the name of Belgium evokes from this noble American people.

"Nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy than that friendship which unites the great republic with its one hundred and ten million citizens and the realm of which I am the constitutional head, with its seven and a half million inhabitants. If there is no equality of power and riches between them, there is equality in the love of liberty and in aspiration towards social progress. On both sides of the Atlantic the same ideal inspires us. The exchange of ideals, the commercial relations, the visits to Belgium of eminent American citizens, of whom many sit in this assembly, are so many means of tightening the bonds between the two nations. If you were a merchant you would advertise. Patronize merchants who do.

GERMANY'S PREDICAMENT

German manufacturers are able to make and sell goods in foreign markets at a price less than the cost abroad simply because they are the victors of circumstances, according to an interesting story of affairs, disclosed by recent conclusions of a German expert on foreign trade.

And the German expert does not like this situation, either. He protests against because the effect is to deprive Germany of the opportunity of buying home made goods, and further that Germany receives fifty per cent less money than might be obtained while at the same time the entire industrial world is aroused against Germany because of this "unbeatable combination."

The expert asserts that, owing to the low exchange value of the German mark, Germans can obtain abroad higher prices in marks than they can at home, and that, even at these export prices, Germany is able to underbid the entire world by about fifty per cent. To demonstrate how the low exchange rate for marks produces this result he cites, as an example the case of a German manufactured product sold in Holland. This cost before the war 40 marks, which amounted to about 24 Holland guilden. The same article costs in Germany today perhaps 160 marks, the equivalent of only 20 Holland guilden. Adding profit, freight, etc., the article is sold in Holland at 28 guilden, or a little more than before the war.

Thus says the expert, Germany underbids foreign competitors in their own countries. The question raised goes deep into the economic subjects of real and apparent values. It sheds a new and revealing light on the statement of the representative of the Italian treasury at the international trade conference recently assembled in Atlantic City, that "unless the exchange rate is stabilized, Italy will be forced to make her purchases in Germany and Austria."

The first step toward the solution of the problem would seem to be the adoption of the Italian representative's recommendation for moderation of speculation in foreign exchange through inter-allied understandings.

HAND PAINTING WORK OF MERIT

Mrs. C. L. Longley Offers an Exhibit of Extraordinary Scope and Worth

Unquestionably one of the most extensive as well as the most beautiful exhibits of hand painting on china ever shown in Twin Falls is that belonging to and done by Mrs. C. L. Longley. The collection, comprising many scores of pieces, is on private display at the Longley home, on Third avenue north. What Mrs. Longley is a master in this art is amply exemplified in the artistry displayed in every piece of work. The coloring, as well as the extreme beauty of design, is little short of wonderful, the tone and tints blending in perfect harmony in all settings. The artist, in the work presented, has covered a wide scope of subject and design, from studies of life to floral emblems. Tintings of delicate touch, solid colors of bold stateriousness and soft blending so harmoniously with the white subject as to leave no trace of change in modulation, create the impression that the breath of nature only has been at work there.

There is no department of this work that Mrs. Longley is not conversant with, judging from the extent of the exhibit at her home. That she is a profound student of this art is unquestioned, for the accomplishments themselves are evidence of this. The value of the exhibit is unestimated, but undoubtedly runs into thousands of dollars, and represents many weeks of untiring devotion to the art.

It is the plan of Mrs. Longley to open a studio for instruction in this splendid art about November 1st, her headquarters to be in the Episcopal rectory. The studio will then be open to all who care to view the display. In addition to teaching hand-painting, Mrs. Longley will conduct classes in designing their own pieces. Enamel and soft water will also be made a specialty.

Mrs. Longley took up the study of her art in Chicago, and from there went to Florence, Italy. The most noted masters in that country have been her tutors. She imports most of the colors used in her work. Mrs. Longley recently came here from Helena, Montana, and is now residing on Montana avenue. She has brought some half dozen orders with her.

Get into the Habit of Drinking a Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast

Millions of folks both internally now instead of leading their system with drugs. "What's a matter?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles according to hot water cathartics.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which had not eliminated every day, because of the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood, causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quart of pure limestone phosphate at the drug store. They will not get a little but it is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—adv.

Contributors to Success in Dress

Some clever and charming women, experienced globe trotters among them, insist that no one needs more than two suits, a good-looking frock or two, a separate skirt and a small collection of blouses to dress well enough for almost any occasion. They confide that successful dressing, with a meager outfit, depends upon choosing clothes very carefully to start with and on the possession of smart accessories of dress, more than anything else. A plain, beautifully fitted and faultlessly tailored street suit may be inconspicuous, but it becomes a background for small and exquisite accessories that lift the costume up to the plane of distinction. Old vests, collars and cuffs of lace, chic shoes and bags, just the right collar or fur neck piece and, most important of all, a hat that has the cachet of unusual style, tend a new air to what might be commonplace without them.

In the accompanying picture a collar and vest combination, with a shopping bag of ribbon and a hat to match the bag, challenge any suit to remain unimpaired in their company. The collar and vest are made of embroidered net in a lace edging, bordered with narrow, fine Val lace. Plain net is used as a foundation for this piece. Accessories of this kind make gifts that are sure of enthusiastic appreciation from one's friends. These, and collar and cuff sets, made of durable laces, like cranes, Irish crochet and flax, are not to be omitted when one is reckoning with a satisfactory outfit in mind.

The pretty shopping bag is one of those which entice us to linger at the ribbon counter. It is made of narrow, heavy satin ribbon in two shades sewed together in strips that alternate the colors. It is lined with plain satin and sewed to a metal mounting with bundles made of the ribbon. The rows of ribbon are stitched together with corded edges overlapping, and the bag is bound with the darker shade. In the drama of rich autumnal colors there are deep purples, reds and glowing nutmegs, shades that will make wonderful bags of this kind. The hat to match has a brim and top crown of georgette crepe and the side crown banded by two collars made of satin ribbon like that in the bag.

INVOICES ARE BADLY CUT UP

Local Merchants Tell of Shortage of Goods Through the Eastern Strikes

Because of strikes in the manufacturing districts of the east there is a shortage of production.

Because of a material shortage there is a decided reduction in the stocks of made-up goods. Consequently a famine in many departments of clothing—both for men and women—as well as hardware, is seen by local merchants.

Eastern manufacturers and jobbing houses are unable to fill orders for clothing at more than one-third of the original demands. For instance a merchant in this vicinity who operates a string of houses recently ordered clothing stocks to the value of $35,000. When his order was received the schedule had been cut to $3,500.

System Is General

According to hardware dealers for clothing at more than one-third of the original demands. For instance a merchant in this vicinity who operates a string of houses recently ordered clothing stocks to the value of $35,000. When his order was received the schedule had been cut to $3,500.

Trunks Discarded

There is no longer a scarcity of traveling salesmen with their three to twelve immense sample trunks appealing for trade. The traveler who demands that he be kept in the good graces of his customers will demand a commercial traveler today carried his samples in a personal grip. The big trunks are left at home, thus saving excess baggage charges for his employers and a lot of worry for the traveler.

Higher Prices Must Follow

Asked if the curtailing of invoices meant an increase of prices for shirts, hats, socks, neckties and clothing he said if the law of supply and demand holds today as it formerly did prices are bound to increase.

The fact is, according to this merchant, the price of a dollar shirt has increased more than 200 per cent in the past year. "There once was such an institution as a 'Dollar Shirt', but that is a thing of the past. The old-time 'Dollar Shirt' sells now for $2.50," the merchant said.

And to prove the rightness of his statement he charged a newspaper inquirer $2.50 for a dollar shirt.

Belgian Blast Furnaces Reopened Since War, Delay Operations for Want of Supplies

BRUSSELS, (AP)—The Belgian steel industry is greatly handicapped by lack of transportation. The taking over of 400 American locomotives is being negotiated with a view to relieving the situation.

MINERS' LEADER WOULD LIKE TO BE SHOWN POWER

PITTSBURG, Kans., (AP)—Alexander Howat, district president of the United Mine Workers, said Monday that he would like to see this new power that will compel miners to work whether they receive a living wage or not.

BONILLAS TOO BUSY TO THINK OF BEING CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Despite various efforts reported as under way in Mexico City to persuade Ygnacio Bonillas, ambassador to the United States, to become a candidate for the presidency to succeed Venustiano Carranza, the ambassador refuses to discuss the matter, declaring that he is too busy with his duties here even to think about politics so far in advance of the election which is to be held next August.

City Sanitation Officer Stands Firm on "Best Sewer Pipe" Proposition

I believe the life of one child is worth more than the savings that can be secured by the city through the use of cheap and inferior quality sewer pipe.

Shaking an admonitory finger in the face of E. T. Wright, manager of the Consolidated Wagon and Machine company, A. W. Murray, city sanitation officer, last night before the city council announced in emphatic terms a proposal to substitute a grade of pipe, used in connecting domestic sanitation systems, which he declared to be of an inferior and dangerous quality.

Mr. Wright appeared before the council with a proposal that the city lift a recently imposed embargo on the Utah pipe in favor of a highly glazed and higher priced product, the Consolidated man explaining a present urgent need for pipe of small dimensions in the completion of work now under way and recommending the use of the Utah pipe as a temporary relief expedient. The council, after long consideration, finally decided to stand by its former decision to require only the best of pipe for sewer installation.

The city administration has finally determined to cease negotiations with building contractors for the construction of a residence of the chief engineer at the filtration plant. Bids submitted for the work have been found unreasonably high and the city will proceed now to erect the structure, using its own forces. Two proposals for this work, together with two each for the construction of the Eighth avenue lateral conduit and the Eighth avenue sidewalk, were all rejected last night as too high.

No ordinance will be passed by the council vacating that portion of Seventh street east between Second and Third avenues for school playground purposes, until the proposition has been thoroughly investigated by members of the sidewalk committee and the city's legal counsel. The ordinance was submitted last night but was ordered held up temporarily, at least.

Representing the local part of American Legion D. Harold McNeil appeared before the aldermen with a request that the mayor take such action as he deemed advisable toward procuring the November election to be a holiday in this district. The council concurred.

CORNER LOT OWNERS MAKE MERRY WITH THREATS OF COURT ACTION

City Council Hears All About What Will Happen in Case Stand Upon Plan of Assessment for Street Improvement is Not Changed—Forsenic Fight is Long and Resultless

In one of his poetic achievements certain bard called William Shakespeare told a yarn of a kindly, contented man, but still Forsenic so much that he offered to bury his court, crown and kingdom for the necker.

The Twin Falls municipal board is not in dire need of a horse, unless it be to ride away from pestiferous lawyers who juggle Webster's words until they mean anything, everything and nothing. Not the center of town, selection need a Moses to lead through a wilderness and across the wet sands of the Red Sea to a haven secured from the evil machinations of a Pharaoh or the pernicious activities of a bunch of locusts and grasshoppers.

Either the city council has need of, catiums and best wishes the "Lady from Philadelphia," mentioned so oft and favorably in the Peterkin papers and writings, as a person of acumen and tact, or the city needs an unconstruable myriester into logic and commonsense.

Words, Idle Words

In other words the city administration is not in dire need of a horse, unless it be to ride away from pestiferous lawyers who juggle Webster's words until they mean anything, everything and nothing. Not the center of town, selection need a Moses to lead through a wilderness and across the wet sands of the Red Sea to a haven secured from the evil machinations of a Pharaoh or the pernicious activities of a bunch of locusts and grasshoppers.

Getting down to brass tacks the city administration has again met up with its old bugaboo, the property improvement assessment ordinance, with its complex phrasing and meaningless wordings, each meaning something, according to Webster, Johnson and certain other lexicographers of note, but which when used collectively, and tangled by law lights, are vague, ambiguous, intangible and meaningless.

If somebody will stop forward and tell the city administrators what abutting, tributary and contiguous, and what "according to the benefits derived," mean, so that the construction and definitions will hold water in legal procedure that person will forthwith be treated to milk and honey and crowned with many crowns.

For two mortal hours last night the councilors, forerunners junior member of the body argued the most matter to a finish—or was it a finish!

On second thought the conclusion is that it was an inglorious ending, but not a finish, or termination.

Breckenridge Leads Fight

Alderman L. L. Breckenridge led the forensic foray, being in horned combat with both city Attorney J. E. Davison, Attorney Andrew E. Wilson and T. J. Woods, the latter a reader and underwriter. Be it said here and now that Alderman Breckenridge supports the theory that corner property is more valuable than inside property and that the corner owners should be willing to pay assessments for improvements not only on the front but also on the alley on the lateral arteries. In fact "Breck" has championed this plan from the initiation of the ordinance, and on more than two occasions has been at loggerheads with the legal adviser of the city, the latter maintaining that inside property should be taxed pro-rata for the improvements of side streets to the alley, to help out the owner of the corner lot.

Butting into the argument right here another member of the council declared any man willing to assume the responsibilities of corner property—did not say it just that way, merely alluding to "chumps"—should be able to develop enough stamina to take his medicine when it came to a question of improvement expense.

Drawn Battle

Along these lines the foray proceeded, Breckenridge arguing until their ears lobes became purple.

Then Davies borrowed Breckenridge's real tobacco chew, spat thrice in the coal bed and then announced that the law really was directory and not mandatory, whereupon the council decided to adjourn the forensic fight until another occasion, that occasion being when the city legal light has looked further into the law as to assessments of property to cover improvements.

Alderman Breckenridge, contending all along that his theory of assessment is based upon right and equity, stated he was prepared to stand on the ground he had selected for the fight.

Light Clothes but Waterproof Will Be Needed

The cravenette will be the thing for tonight and tomorrow, according to the jester of the weatherworks.

Also he submits a guess that warmer weather will come Wednesday; all of which will make entertaining reading for folks whose coal bins are at present containing full piles of meager proportions, and who have been scanning the weather reports for a crumb of comfort—meaning predictions of warmer weather, when the full coal had won't be quite so much in evidence between the shirt and the stove.

The high mark of the temperature yesterday was 37, according to O. C. Koch, local observer. Last night, people in town say, the mercury traipsed to a point perilously near zero.

HOME BEHAVIOR FOR ALL

So long as Red Cross responsibility for soldiers and sailors and their families continues, no distinction should be made between men who enlisted prior to November 11, 1918, and men who enlist after that date.

SUES ON NOTE

Claiming the sum of $665 is due him on a promissory note, E. B. Damper has appealed to the district court for judgment against Elijah and Bertha Frost, man and wife. In the complaint filed this morning, figured from various dates, with attorney fees and other costs, are asked in the judgment.

Mexican Accused of Stealing Suit

Said to Have Hidden Clothing About Him While Companion Shopped

A Mexican, whose name is not recorded at the county jail where he is at present lodged, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the Alce Clothes Shop. He stands accused of theft.

The Mexican with a companion, visited the clothes shop ostensibly for the purpose of making minor purchases. While one examined some canvas gloves the other it is alleged, picked up a suit of clothes from a hanger, thrusting the suit inside the bib of his overalls. The act was detected by Frank Bronough, who caused the arrest of the offender. It is expected there will be preliminary hearing this afternoon.

Gauvassers Working Hard Today for Chamber of Commerce Enrollment

Every square yard of the business district of Twin Falls city is today being combed by members of commerce organization committees. These committees are gathering memberships to bring the club's enrollment to the needed 500.

"One day's intensive operations and the job will be done," said General Chairman W. B. Friebo this morning. Mr. Friebo started out committees approximately 40 men, divided into groups of five, over every section of the city, getting his forces away early. At noon there was a tentative report made of progress indicating that the required number of members would be regularly enlisted before night.

"Many-business men are so anxious to see the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce established on a solid basis as an operative booster body that they are signing for a plural number of memberships," Mr. Friebo announces. A final report of the day's returns will be made tonight.
