FIVE BILLIONS ESTIMATED NEED OF GOVERNMENT

Proposed Appropriations Contemplate Largely Increased Cost to Conduct Peace Time Activities

WASHINGTON, (AP).—The record billion-dollar congress of ordinary peace times failed into the past today when Secretary Glass, presenting the annual estimate, proposed appropriations of practically five billion dollars for conducting the peace time activities of the government during the fiscal year 1921.

According to these figures it will cost more than five times as much to conduct the peace time affairs of government in the year immediately preceding the world war.

Defense Makes Big Claim
The greatest individual estimates for expenditures, of course, go to the army and the navy. The yearly interest on the war debt, however, is $1,012,000,000 which sum alone is greater than all the appropriations for all purposes whatsoever of any peace time congress.

The estimated appropriations for the principal government departments were presented as follows:

- Legislative (congress) 9,025,297.25
- Executive (War, Navy, Justice, State, War Dept., Interior, Agriculture, Commerce, Education, Health, Labor, Post Office, Veterans Affairs, etc.) 1,410,111,462.77
- Judicial 1,034,190
- Army 899,578,037.20
- Navy 454,021,301.00
- Pensions 225,030,000
- Public works 233,921,810.17
- Miscellaneous 833,717,037.96
- Foreign interest 1,012,000,000
- Foreign relations 15,000,000

The total of all estimates, including some comparatively minor items not included in the foregoing is $4,865,410,031.02, the greatest sum ever asked of congress in the country was not actually at war.

The billion dollar estimate for the army includes some $85,000,000 for the nation's guard. The total estimate for the army before the war was between 10 and 15 millions. The $42,000,000 estimate for the navy includes provision for the program of increase and is compared to an annual estimate of some fifteen millions before the war.

The estimates for miscellaneous expenditures contain a tremendous sum. For the treasury department more than $27,000,000 is asked, which goes largely to the enforcement of prohibition and the collection of income, corporation and excess profit taxes. For the shipping board nearly $48,000,000 is asked to wind up its program restoring the American flag to the sea.

One item which has appeared peculiarly in estimates without ever becoming actuality is the $200,000,000 a year with promise of being taken seriously. It is an estimate of $287,500,000 toward a sinking fund which ultimately will retire the public debt which includes some thirty billions spent on the war.

For Rivers and Harbors
Estimates for rivers and harbors appropriations included:
-Mississippi river, mouth of Missouri river to Minneapolis $2,750,000; Missouri river, Kansas City to mouth $2,150,000
-San Francisco $4,000; Oakland harbor $231,000; Richmond $200,000; San Pablo bay $103,400; Humboldt harbor and bay $706,000; Sacramento river $75,000; Coos bay $125,000; Yaquina bay and harbor $140,000; Columbia river to Snake river $27,500; Snake river to Columbia $100,000; Willamette $165,000; Columbia and lower Willamette rivers, below Vancouver and Portland $655,000; Willamette river, above Portland and Vancouver $465,000; Lewis river $13,000; Cowlitz river $7,000; Grays Harbor $600,000; Pigot sound $27,000; Nome, Alaska $10,000; Honolulu harbor $150,000; Hilo harbor $150,000; Wailapa river and harbor $200,000.

URGE AMERICAN DELEGATION TO DELAY LEAVING

French Representatives Fear Withdrawal Would Be Misinterpreted in Germany as the Abandonment of Conference

NO HINT GIVEN AS TO PROTOCOL ACCEPTANCE

Paris, (AP).—The French representatives in the peace conference are urging the American delegates to delay their departure for home until the protocol is signed putting into effect the peace treaty with Germany, it was learned today.

GERMANS ARE EXPECTED TO GUARANTEE CARRYING OUT OF ARMISTICE TERMS BUT NO NEWS OF INTENTION AT HAND

Although today was the date set for the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, no definite news was at hand regarding the intention of the Germans as to the signing of the protocol, in which they are expected to guarantee the carrying out of the armistice terms.

The supreme council today adopted the terms of the reply to the recent German note regarding prisoners of war. The contents were not given out. The feeling in French circles, which is shared in by some of the other delegates, is that the departure of the American delegates at this time would be misinterpreted in Germany as a sort of abandonment of the conference, although it is well understood that the United States toward that body.

LONDON, (AP).—The forces of Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, are retreating with such rapidity that they are unable to construct defensive works, of which there is none west of Irkutsk, says a wireless dispatch from the soviet government at Moscow today. Partisan bands continually harass Kolchak, who has formed a body guard of three thousand to protect himself, the dispatch adds.

BELGRADE, (AP).—Great activity prevails at Fiume. A destroyer left there Saturday, presumably for Zara, according to the Serbian press bureau. The merchant vessel Adria followed with one thousand shock troops. Reports from Fiume state that "Admiral" Rizzo, commander of the D'Annunzio fleet, has gone on board a destroyer and purposes occupying Sebenico.

TEXTILE MILLS TIED UP BY STRIKE OF EMPLOYEES

Demand for 25 Per Cent. Increase in Wages Leads to Walkout

FALL RIVER, Mass. (AP).—Virtually all the textile mills in this city, employing 8,000 operatives, were tied up today by a strike for a 25 per cent increase in wages. The demands were made by members of the National Amalgamation of Textile Operatives, numbering approximately 7,000, and their leadership was largely followed by the unorganized workers.

NEW HAMPDEN, Mass. (AP).—Union textile operatives here who threatened last week to strike today to enforce wage demands remained at work pending further negotiations with the cotton manufacturers.

STATE POLICE MOBILIZED FOR STEEL STRIKE DUTY

Striker Killed and Sheriff Seriously Hurt in Riot in West Virginia

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP).—A steel striker was killed, Sheriff W. E. Clayton of Marshall county shot and seriously wounded, and a deputy and another striker suffered gunshot wounds in a riot when a mob of strikers and their sympathizers clashed with a sheriff's posse at the gates of the Riverside mill, National Tube company, at Benwood, near here, this morning.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP).—A detachment of state police is being hurriedly mobilized to strike duty at Benwood, where rioting broke out this morning, according to an announcement by Governor Campbell, who received a call for troops from Sheriff Clayton of Marshall county.

Renews Request for Immediate Release of Imprisoned Consular Agent Without Serving Ultimatum or Indicating Alternative

CHARGES STUDIED EFFORT TO DIVERT ATTENTION FROM BANDIT ACTIVITIES

WASHINGTON, (AP).—The state department means business this time, insisted Secretary Lansing, chairman of the house foreign affairs committee, today after an hour's conference with Secretary Lansing on the Mexican situation.

Chairman Porter declared that for three years he had believed that an amicable intervention in Mexico through the setting of prices of entry in a foreign market would be necessary to cause him to change that opinion.

WASHINGTON, (AP).—Renewing its request for the immediate release of Consular Agent Jenkins, imprisoned at Puebla, the latest American note to Mexico, made public here today, arraigns the Mexican government's conduct in severe terms and characterizes it as a studied attempt to ensnare the American consular agent in the intricacies of legal proceedings.

The note says the only conclusion this government can draw is that Mexico has made a "studied effort to ensnare Jenkins in legal intricacies, divert the attention of the American and Mexican people both from the fact that the second conference in Mexico is being run by bandits, and that the Mexican authorities have been negligent."

PACKERS' WAGE IS GIVEN BOOST

Federal Judge, as Arbitrator, Grants Increases of $12,000,000 a Year

CHICAGO, (AP).—Employees of packing houses were granted increases in wages aggregating $12,000,000 a year in an award made by Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler, arbitrator, today. Members of the packing trade, five thousand stockyard workers in Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Lincoln, Fort Worth, St. Paul, East-St. Louis and Sioux City are affected by the award.

The American note to Mexico in the Jenkins case is being reviewed by the United States department of justice to a judicial decision of "irrelevant or unimportant matters" and says the request for the consular agent's release is founded on "right and justice."

The United States, the note says, is "constrained to the opinion" that Carlinz argument is being reviewed by the judicial process of a state, unless there has been a denial of justice, the American note argues, because, it contends, there already has been a denial of justice in the Mexican situation.

The Mexican government cannot argue that it cannot interfere with the judicial process of a state, unless there has been a denial of justice, the American note argues, because, it contends, there already has been a denial of justice in the Mexican situation.

The United States is not to be driven by "such subtle arguments," says the note "into a retrograde step in the release of Mr. Jenkins. It is for Mexico to show cause for his detention; not for the United States to show cause for his liberation."

Jenkins was imprisoned for "rendering false judicial testimony" in connection with the abduction of which he was the victim, says the note. "In whose interest is the charge of false swearing brought against Mr. Jenkins?"

The great difficulty experienced even under most favorable circumstances in passing upon wages and working conditions is much multiplied under existing public conditions, where extremes are so much the rule.

CHICAGO, (AP).—H. S. Wigle, of Spokane, Wash., head stock salesman for the Pan Motor Company, was ordered held to the grand jury in bonds of $20,000 by Federal Judge Landis today on a charge of perjury.

Wigle is one of the defendants of the company on trial in charges of using the mails to defraud. "I have never seen a more unwarranted exhibition of false swearing," Judge Landis said after the jury had retired for the morning recess.

CONFERENCE IN SESSION SEEKS INDUSTRY GURE

Seventeen Men Representative of People as Whole Assemble in Washington to Consider Situation

Wilson Admonishes Conferencees to Concern Selves with Justice to Employer and Employee and Public

WASHINGTON, (AP).—Seventeen men representing no particular group as such but acting for the people as a whole, assembled here today to confer on the country's industrial situation.

The conference, the appointment of which was announced from the White House November 20, marks the second effort by President Wilson to devise a means for settling the chronic conditions that have prevailed for months in industry. It was designed to accomplish what the recent national industrial conference failed to do.

Wilson's opening session was set for 2:30 o'clock. In the words of President Wilson, the "new representatives should have concern that our industries may be conducted with such regard for justice and that the public will not suffer at the hands of other classes."

Organized labor has expressed dissatisfaction with the personnel of the conference because no labor men were named, although they claim every other interest was represented. The conference, former federal and state officials, business men and economists, are as follows:

- Secretary of Labor Wilson, Thomas W. Gregory, Austin, Texas, former attorney general; George W. Mickelson, New York lawyer, attorney general in Taft cabinet; Oscar B. Sikes, New York, diplomat, lawyer and author, secretary of commerce and labor during the Roosevelt administration; Washington, political economist, former college professor and chairman of the United States tariff commission; Samuel W. McCall, Boston lawyer, former Massachusetts attorney general; Herbert Hoover, mining engineer and former food administrator; Martin H. Glynn, Albany, N. Y., newspaper man involved in the walkout supply the Union Pacific railroad and the city of Cheyenne. If the strike continues, the railroad will be without fuel. The city, supplying the city with coal, has announced today its fuel supply would last only two days.

Coal mines at Hudson, Lander and Co. shut down again today when 500 men struck as a protest against a 1 per cent wage increase, which they deemed insufficient. The fuel situation in Cheyenne and Central Wyoming is becoming acute.

WAR EXPERIENCE SHOWS NEED FOR REMODELED ARMY

WASHINGTON, (AP)—War experience plainly shows the necessity for fundamental reorganization of the army and of the war department itself, Secretary Baker declared in his annual report today. He recommended that the emergency organization be reduced to the peace-time size, be made permanent, and approved the general staff bill for a regular establishment.

Demand Water For Irrigation

State Department Has 175 Applications for Supply to Reclaim Lands

BOISE, (Special).—Reclamation application filed with the state commissioner of reclamation since March 1, 1913, total 725, according to official lists of the reclamation department, completed yesterday. The first of these 725 applications was filed on March 1, 1913, and the last of the list on November 12, when completion was begun.

Totals for an equal period of time during 1913 show something less than 500 applications. The completed record gives in each instance the number of the application, the name of the applicant, the amount of irrigation water claimed, the stream from which it will be taken, any real estate benefited by the diversion and the date of the filing.

The total for the year 1913 was carried out, he said, "the practically continuous battle on the western front from March 1, 1913, to November 12, 1913, had been possible. The saving to the world in this shortening the war is incalculable alike in life and treasure."

Preserves Identity The text of the letter to General Pershing which is quoted, shows he was instructed to keep the American army "a separate and distinct command of the United States."

Imagination Required "But it is the imagination of General Pershing's headquarters during the war that from the beginning there was resolution and a clear-sighted policy."

Opposes Department of Air Mr. Baker opposes creation of a department of the air because of the undeveloped state of the industry, necessitating "federal regulation."

Involves New Army The military policy recommended by the war department, therefore, involves a new army created with a new spirit, having wide civic usefulness, and of such size and organization as to be an adequate force in case of need.

CONGRESS RECONVENES TO TAKE UP WORK ON MANY SUBJECTS OF IMPORTANCE

Enactment of Legislation Expected to Begin Immediately; Cummins Railroad Bill in Senate and Measure to Restrict Immigration and Provide for Deportation of Alien Radicals in House First on Calendar; Politics Likely to Play Large Part

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Many months' work on a great variety of important subjects, international and domestic, were before the 66th congress today, when it met for its second and "regular" session, which was expected to close only with the presidential inauguration next fall.

Already in Harness With the congress already "in harness" and with much legislation ready for immediate consideration, little delay in the beginning of work was expected. Calling of senate and house rolls for quorums, appointment of committees to notify the president and each other that congress again was "on the job" were among the customary opening formalities.

Politics a Factor Politics is due to play a large part in the events of the new session, the last before the expiring conventions of the fall, the summer and the final campaign in the fall.

Long Debate Anticipated Long debate on the railroad bill in the senate was anticipated and leaders had little hope of its enactment before January 1, the date on which the president had said the senate would be returned to private operation.

Other Treaties Coming The peace treaty with Austria also is expected to be ready for transmission by the president soon. A committee also has before it the resolution of Republican Leader Lodge proposing that congress, by concurrent resolution, declare the war with Germany ended.

American Artillery Fire at Juarez Do Demoralizes Villa Forces Beyond Hope of Recovery

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP)—The forces of Francisco Villa were so badly demoralized when they were shelled near Juarez several months ago by United States artillery that the bandit chief-tain never will be able to regain his prestige and "come back," in the opinion of Captain Frank Tiltman, who recently resigned from the army after serving six months at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, with the Thirty-second field artillery. He also served in France.

400 SHORTHORN HERDS IN IDAHO

Ensbaurdy Man Tells of Great Upbuilding of High Grade Cattle in State

BOISE, (Special).—There are now almost 400 herds of Shorthorn cattle in Idaho, according to E. F. Binohar, field animal husbandman of the University of Idaho extension station. "At the present time," says Mr. Binohar, "Shorthorns are by far the most popular kind of cattle in Idaho. Now breeders are constantly starting in. A number of the herds are quite small, consisting of only a few head."

The Shorthorn breeders of the Payette valley have organized the Payette Valley Shorthorn Breeders' association, which is the sixth local association of its kind in the state. There are members, owning approximately 190 head of cattle. The six local associations are united in a statewide organization.

ALBES STRAUD IN ELECTION OF SEN. NEWBERRY

Federal Grand Jury Returns Indictments in Connection with Defeat of Henry Ford for Senate

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., (AP)—Thomas H. Newberry, United States senator from Michigan, was indicted by a United States grand jury Saturday for corruption, fraud and conspiracy in connection with the election by which he obtained his seat in the senate, defeating Henry Ford, his democratic opponent.

With Newberry, 133 other persons were indicted by the grand jury on the same charge. The names of all but twelve most prominent were withheld from publication by Judge W. B. Sessions, presiding, until grand jurors could have been served on them. Among those named were H. A. Hopkins, St. Clair, Mich., principal legislative clerk of the United States senate; John S. Newberry, brother of the senator, Detroit, and Paul H. King of Detroit. King was manager of the Newberry campaign committee.

Scandal Without Precedent
Government officials asserted that the testimony presented to the grand jury had revealed a political scandal that in many respects was without parallel in American history. They said it extended from the most populous wards of Detroit to the Indian reservations on the shores of Lake Superior where aborigines were controlled according to the behest of the Newberry campaign organization.

It was alleged that voters were bribed, election boards corrupted, voters subsidized and moving picture theatres bought up in the endeavor to defeat Henry Ford, first in the primaries of both parties, and for the general election with the democratic nomination, in the election itself.

Officials were a bit secretive as to how the alleged conspiracy was uncovered, but the general outlines of their methods was made available. A corps of investigators were sent into the state under control of Earl A. Houck, who with Frank G. Bailey, special assistant to the attorney general, was a central figure in the election fraud cases of Terra Haute, Indianapolis, Evansville and Frankfort, Ind. Their work, beginning in 1915, resulted in over 200 convictions.

Visit "Small Fry" First
Bailey and Houck came to Michigan last August. Bailey was first to inspect and the visitors' lists of safety deposit vaults gone over. With the tale of these as a starter, the investigators were sent out. They visited "small fry" politicians first, offering them vague hints of what might come from a mythical campaign of a certain Michigan politician. Objections to small returns were followed by confidential comparisons with the Newberry campaign.

Generally, it was said, these lesser political leaders were first to be trapped, telling what they had received and explaining who "ought to handle the money" in given wards of towns. The next stage of political leaders, they said, was to be taken by this method. It was stated, a clear trail was blazed to the "higher ups." When brought into the grand jury room and confronted with accurate accounts of their conversations with the agents, the men generally, it was said, repeated their stories.

Considered Federal Laws
The government's legal experts, headed by Mr. Bailey, Mr. Dale Souther of Grand Rapids, a former assistant district attorney, and Oliver Pagan, a prominent expert for the department of justice, took both state and federal laws as a basis for the indictments. The federal corrupt practices act of 1910 limits the amount of money that candidates for $10,000, and requires that four statements be filed with the secretary of the senate, one preceding and following first the primary and when the election. The secretary of the senate in this case may, therefore, it was argued, spend only $1,875 on the primary and an equal amount on the election campaign.

The second federal corrupt practices act which the indictments alleged was violated was passed in October, 1913. It made bribery of voters a crime after several federal courts had held that an act was not an offense against the laws of the United States. This law came into being after the Michigan primary, but just ahead of the election.

State Laws Brought In
The state laws were brought in because the act of 1913 provides that if a state limit is complied with, it is not to exceed the $10,000 named in that act, then the state law shall apply to campaigns within that commonwealth. As it happens the Michigan statute limit campaign expenditures to a fourth of the yearly salary of the position sought for each primary or election campaign. An applicant for United States senator in this state may, therefore, it was argued, spend only $1,875 on the primary and an equal amount on the election campaign.

The law forbidding use of the mails to defraud was first used in election cases by Mr. Bailey in the Terra Haute indictments. It was applied in the Newberry case as probably covering various letters sent to campaign contributors, which letters, it was charged, were sent out so that the recipients are to the amounts already collected by the Newberry treasury.

Anticipate Defense
To meet a probable defense that Senator Newberry was ignorant of the amount of money and its use in his campaign, the government intends to use a statement issued by the senator's managers shortly after the first rumors of a corruption charge against him. This statement showed receipts

DEATH OF HAASE LEAVES PARTY WITHOUT LEADER

Indications Point to Complete Radicalization of German Independent

BERLIN, (AP)—The death of Hugo Haase, leader of the independent socialist party, leaves that party apparently without a leader of sufficient calibre to prevent it from being engulfed by the Bolshevists. Haase died from wounds he received October 8 when he was shot three times by an Austrian as he was entering the Reichstag building.

Recent events have indicated that Haase had been unable to halt the stampede of the followers to the extreme left of radicalism. The authority he exercised in the independent party had been undermined by radicals, such as Daumig, Ledebour, Richard Mueller, Richlman, Geyer of Saxony and Hinke of Bremen, all key figures in the party. The permanent government without which Haase finally came to believe government in Germany would be impossible.

It is expected that Haase's death will be a split in the independent socialist party and a union of its more moderate elements with the majority socialists, headed by Philip Scheidemann. The independent party's complete radicalization of the major portion of the independent party after the Russian pattern. The independent party has a dozen men who are regarded as expert manipulators of the revolutionary proletariat and these men are expected to control the party's councils.

Their ascendancy marks the elimination from independent councils of Karl Kautsky and other moderating influences which once were led by Haase. The independent party say that "stirring" elements of the independent party must find a domicile in the camp of the majority socialists because the independent party has been virtually gone over, bag and baggage, to the communists.

Honor Not All Gutenbergs

Printing is said to have been introduced to the world Aug. 24, 1437. John Gutenberg stands at the head of the printing art, supported by the genius of Schoeffer and the generous patronage of Faust. Gutenberg used only blocks, and to Schoeffer is due the movable type cast from matrices. Caxton, who introduced the art into England, began life as a trader, but early turned to letters, and his first printed book on record is "The Psalter" which John Faust and Schoeffer published at Metz in 1457.

Snow and Fireflies

The oriental is always and ever picturesque. The student of the East does not "burn the midnight oil." He works by snow and fireflies. There is an ancient legend about a Chinese student who was too poor to buy oil. So in the summer months he studied all night by the light of fireflies caught and imprisoned in a paper lantern, and in the winter by the reflection of the snow. Gertrude Emerson in World Outlook.

Willing to Help the Needy

A famous woman teacher, eighty years old, was sitting on the veranda of a college dormitory in her wheel chair. A student had just brought her some ice water in her silver mug and the teacher had finished drinking it when some tourist came up and was sitting there holding out her cup, and they dropped a half dollar in it. Imagine their feelings when they discovered who the "beggar" was!

"Writ Sarkastic"

In answer to a question as to whether it is better to buy and sell or to sleep together the health department of the Brooklyn Eagle says: "A child of that age is capable of harboring all sorts of microbes, and she might infect the dog with something that isn't very safe for the dog. A dog should have a separate bed with a change of sheets every night."

Jazzering the Buzzer

A newly designed triple tone electric bell yields a clear ring from one push button, a buzz from the second and a combined ring and buzz from the third. BIG INCREASE OF WATERFOWL BY PROTECTION

Federal Game Warden Says the Flocks of Geese and Ducks Building Up Fast

That the federal migratory bird law which forbids spring shooting of migratory birds and also the sale of game birds in the open market, thus putting the market gunner out of business, had brought about a great increase in ducks and geese as well as shore birds throughout the United States, is the statement made by George A. Lawyer, chief game warden of the United States, who makes the following statement:

Referring to the elimination of the market hunter by the terms of the migratory bird treaty act with Great Britain which was consummated in 1916 and made the selling of game birds in Canada and the United States unlawful, Mr. Lawyer said that previous to the passage of this law there were many instances where men shot hundreds of birds for the market in western states.

"There is one authentic record of 700 canvasbacks and redheads being shot by a single man on Carleton sound, N. C., a famous hunting place," he said.

The stopping of spring shooting under the same act was the cause of a great many more ducks breeding throughout the United States, he asserted. "With no early year shooting the ducks are now being bred in practically every lake in the United States, he said.

Mr. Lawyer and United States Game Warden Irving Gentry of Ogden, who has charge of the Utah district which includes parts of Idaho and Nevada, will confer with all wardens during this western junket in regard to the appointment of agents to enforce the law. A number of the state deputy wardens will be deputized by the United States was the statement of Mr. Lawyer.

"We are getting splendid co-operation with western game wardens," says Mr. Lawyer, "and I believe in our conference will be able to formulate plans which will be of benefit to your state."

Mr. Lawyer is on an inspection tour of the entire United States, having left Washington September 8. After visiting the New England states he made a stop at the coast of the northern part of the Pacific coast, then down to the Mexican border.

Fighting Cowboy Finds an "Angel"

Ray Copenberger Taken Up by Buhl Club to Be Taught Boxing Points

The management of the Buhl Athletic association saw something under the rugged exterior of Ray Copenberger, "Battling Buckaroo," when the Buhl lightweight fought Young Harley of Boise the past week. The association has undertaken the development of the strapping cowboy and has sent him to Portland to "wise" him up to the ways of the ring.

Copenberger is said to have displayed much boxing ability. "First New" son did when the Hegewisch wonder started out in preliminaries. He is said to lack science, but packs a mule kick in either mitt, and is a glutton for punishment.

"Carpet-Bagger"
It is said that the term "carpet-bagger" was first applied to political adventurers in America. It was designed to describe a needy political adventurer who wanders over the country pandering to the prejudices of the ignorant in order to try to get into office. He was so called because he was regarded as having only enough property to fill a carpet bag.

COLORADO UNIVERSITY TO STUDY OIL SHALES

State and Federal Governments Co-operate to Install the Laboratories

DENVER, (Colo., AP)—An oil shale laboratory, with an initial expenditure of at least $20,000, is to be established at the University of Colorado at Boulder immediately by the United States bureau of mines and the state of Colorado, announcement in this effort having been made recently by Governor Shoup of Colorado.

The laboratory is to be operated under the department of mechanical engineering and will be under the direction of Prof. John A. Hunter. The department at present maintains an oil laboratory which can be utilized to some extent in the new work. To house the machinery and equipment which will be necessary for the experimental treatment of shales, a separate building will be erected, the definite date for the beginning of the work having not yet been announced.

The federal bureau of mines will send men to the university to look after the government's end of the work, and it is expected that eventually the department will grow to the magnitude of the sodium research laboratory established several years ago at the School of Mines at Golden. This last named work at present requires the services of a dozen men and occupies a three-story building on the Mines campus.

The new department is designed for the research and experimentation considered necessary for the exploitation of the huge deposits of oil shales in western Colorado and Utah on a commercial basis. The state and federal governments will divide the initial expenses incurred.

FOR LIBERTY: So long as an open forum is vouchsafed for free and untrammelled discussion of issues and problems...

Elements of good in any proposal submitted for open discussion will survive and be strengthened by the ordeal.

Denial of such a testing cannot be construed as other than an admission of unsoundness inherent in the proposal whose advocates would preclude open discussion.

Recognized as tenets of socialism, most of the economic policies now urged by the Nonpartisan League have for years claimed the attention of public opinion. Consideration has been, for the most part, put in the open, and socialism has faltered!

It has remained now for the Nonpartisan League to camouflage the socialistic theories and present them for the consideration of a body of popular opinion which has first been made "safe" for its purposes by denial of the right of free and untrammelled discussion.

For no other reason did the Nonpartisan legislature of North Dakota pass laws which resulted in thirty-nine weekly newspapers of that state suspending publication than that presentation of the other side of the question might be precluded.

And for no other reason than that the minds of the future citizenry might be rendered impotent of independent thought has such a situation been brought about in the schools of North Dakota that resolutions were adopted recently at a meeting of a North Dakota teachers' association to this effect:

"Therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Tri-County Educational Association, in convention assembled, do hereby record our emphatic disapproval of the program of any political party insofar as it aims to prohibit our educational system to the promotion of political propaganda."

It is not in its economic policies that the Nonpartisan League chiefly offends. It is in the purpose to enslave mind, and to paralyze independent thought that unmitigated evil inheres in the scheme of the Nonpartisan League as it is now known, and it is upon this ground that unremitting battle must be waged if the most precious heritage of American citizens is to be preserved.

PUBLIC FORUM

A PLEA FOR FAIRNESS

While this article has been printed in another Twin Falls paper, it would appreciate it if you would find space for it in the News as well. May I ask that you publish it in full? Yours truly, THE WRITER.

The matter referred to follows: These union men who buy their clothing from a non-union mail order house, smoke cigarettes made in a non-union factory and refuse to eat food from a restaurant which does not display a union card when its owners are barred by the union from membership, have queer notions of consistency. Those who think it right to stand in front of a man's place of business and turn away his customers with the charge that he is unfair to organized labor when organized labor is as unfair to his as they are to his warped concepts of fairness. People who work twelve or more hours a day have no time for mischief making, interfering with their employer's business or standing on the street corners besmirching the reputation of innocent girls and good women who are working faithfully for their bread. The men who are so busy securing the rights of the laundry girls, which is well and good, should remember that all women have rights which must be respected. The following extract from the Declaration of Independence written in 1776 is still good reading: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Twin Falls has two restaurants owned by German and two owned by Japanese. The city accepted their money for the license to operate and the public is surely entitled to benefit by the service they give free from interference.

Attention of those who believe in the Bible is called to the following words spoken by Paul and Peter, men who were as much a part of the world as we are when they got more light: "God hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth," Acts 17:26. "O man, what art thou? Thou art dust and ashes, and to dust thou shalt return," Titus 2:13-14.

Grains and Provisiols

CHICAGO, (AP)—Corn made a sharp ascent in price today owing chiefly to the fact that offerings were light and the receipts were comparatively small volume. The coal shortage and a decided jump in hog values counted likewise toward strengthening the corn market. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-14 to 2-12c higher, with December 1-17 to 1-37 3-4 and May $1.31 1-2 to 1.32, were followed by a slight reaction but then by a fresh advance. In the last hour, the fact that a big industry had withdrawn from the market led to something of a setback. The close was unsettled, 1-14 to 3-18 net higher, with December $1.38 1-4 to 1.39 3-4 and May $1.23 7-8.

Oats hardened with corn. After opening 1-14 to 3-4c higher, including May at 7 7/16 to 7 1-8c, the market sagged a little before developing new firmness. Provisiols were lifted by strength of hog and grain.

PARLIAMENT OF ITALY LOUDLY CHEERS RULER

Socialists Leave Chamber as King Victor Emmanuel Enters to Deliver Speech from Throne

BOME, (AP)—When King Victor Emmanuel entered the parliament today to deliver the speech from the throne he was received with loud cheers. Premier Nitti requested the audience to be seated. Upon seeing the extreme socialists shouted: "Vivo spalliam!" and left the chamber. Their seats were immediately taken by other deputies.

Enthusiastic Reception

King Emmanuel and Queen Helena were given an enthusiastic reception while proceeding from the quieral to the parliament buildings today to participate in the opening session of parliament. Bella were rung; there were salutes from many guns and cheers from the crowd. Houses along the streets were decorated with flags. The king in his speech from the throne said that the confidence and sympathy of the nation was indispensable to parliament, as was its collaboration in all movements for the good of the people. Italy, he said, after her great victory must direct all her efforts to the works of peace. The king began by greeting the heroes of the army and the navy. The virtues and energies they had displayed during the war would serve to hasten the economic reconstruction, he said.

Denies Imperialism

Italy, through the war, continued the king, had gained her natural frontiers, but not all of her aspirations, the declaration was considered everywhere a spirit of justice. The aspirations of Italy in the Adriatic, he asserted, did not cloak any military design, and for the most part possessed no economic value. They were confined, he said, to the defense of native ideas. The protection of Italian populations was the duty and inalienable right of Italy.

"We have no imperialistic views," he continued, "and intend in no way that the peace of Europe shall be disturbed." Italy regarded with the liveliest sympathy the rise of the popular classes, he said; and the movement should produce in the interior of the country a program of intensive work and production and in connection with foreign politics an increasingly democratic cooperation among nations.

War-torn army uniforms, many of which bore insignia of overseas divisions, the first contingent of the volunteer workers who are to dig coal in the strip pit mines of the Pittsburgh field, arrived here early today. The train continued on its way to Pittsburgh after several hours delay. Thirteen hundred soldiers and volunteer workers arrived this morning. The first detachment of workers will be started for the shovel pits about 10 o'clock.

A train with Kansas national guardsmen and volunteer coal strip pit workers en route here, was derailed at Humboldt last night. Reports indicated that the train ran into an open switch. No one was reported injured.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (AP)—Reports of the derailment of a troop train at Humboldt, Kan., received at the offices of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad here, indicated the possibility, officials said, of a switch being thrown as the train was passing over it. The engine and first two cars of the special had passed the switch, reports said, and the next eight cars were derailed. The last two cars of the train did not leave the rails.

PENNSYLVANIA MINES TO OPEN IN DEFLATE OF UNION

PITTSBURGH, Pa., (AP)—For the first time in more than a generation an attempt was made today to operate as non-union the union coal mines in the Pittsburgh district, where 42,000 miners have been idle. The attempt to resume operations was based on the 11 per cent increase in wages ordered granted the miners by the government. Notices were posted at all mines in the district Saturday informing the idle miners of the increase. Officials of district No. 5, United Mine Workers, are confident the operators will fall with the operators for the most part refrained from prophesies.

LEWIS DECLINES COMMENT: MAY STATE VIEWS LATER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., (AP)—John L. Mr. Lewis upon arriving here yesterday from Washington, said he had nothing to say regarding the usual conference at Washington. He said he was home to rest. He indicated he was considering giving out a statement this afternoon.

STRIKE IN KANSAS CITY COMES TO SUDDEN CLOSE

Switching Crews Return to the Yards in Compliance with Secret Meeting Vote

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (AP)—As suddenly and unexpectedly as it began Saturday, the strike of 1,200 switchmen in the local yards was called off early today.

Switching crews began returning to the yards on schedule this morning and it was expected terminal conditions soon would be normal again.

The decision to return was reached at a secret meeting which began yesterday and lasted into the night, when it was announced a proposition sponsored by more conservative members of the unions, to end the walkout, was put to a vote and carried.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning a delegation of strikers appeared at the office of W. M. Corbett, general manager of the Kansas City terminal railway, and announced the men were ready to return to work.

Reasons for the decision were not forthcoming, but it was understood that an announcement at the meeting by G. W. Anderson of Cleveland, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, that the strike was unauthorized, and that the benefits would be withheld, had considerable to do with the final action.

The two-day walkout paralyzed freight shipping in the local yards. Passenger car switching was not affected, however, the railroads using emergency crews to move the trains.

Curious Collection of Pens. In the prison at Lyons, France, there is a curious collection of pens. They are the pens with which the ex-convicts signed the requisition for their release. The pens handed over to the authorities to be nullified. At each execution a fresh pen is used for the purpose and the ink is left to dry upon it.

RUSS PRISONERS DECLINE LIBERTY

Prefer Life in German Prison Camps to Return to Uncertainty at Home

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—A great many Russians who fought in the army of former Czar Nicholas prefer life in a German military prison camp to an uncertain existence in their own land, according to Capt. G. V. Gill, who recently returned to the United States from Berlin, where he was engaged in special work for the interallied commission. For six months Captain Gill worked among Russian prisoners of war in Germany, examining them for symptoms of tuberculosis and seeing that those affected were given the proper care.

"Six hundred thousand Russians were held as prisoners of war for many when I went there last March," Captain Gill said. "When I left, about 2000 had been repatriated by the interallied commission. The material conditions in German prison camps had been improved greatly. Good food was being served the prisoners when I left in September and the general level of sanitation were being observed."

Captain Gill said many Russians who were repatriated by the interallied commission returned to their native land in preference to affiliating themselves with "free society" under soviet government in their own country.

CITY ATTORNEY EXPLAINS

It is apparent that an erroneous impression has become fixed in the minds of many of the taxpayers of the city relative to the filing of protests in the matter of assessment of the city with the new paving districts, the impression being prevalent that the time fixed is Monday night, December first.

This impression should be corrected. The present situation is as follows: In view of the excess of the bids for paving over the engineer's estimates it became desirable to re-open the contractual paving ordinance, under which intentional ordinance Monday, December first, was fixed as the time for filing protests against any proposed assessment, but against the formation of the improvement districts. "Unless a taxpayer affected desires to protest against the formation of the proposed improvement districts, no protest is due on Monday, December first."

The matter of the making up of the assessment rolls, and the protest against the making up of the rolls by another matter entirely, and will follow after the districts are created. Further notice and opportunity will then be given to file protests against the assessment rolls as then made up. "This date, in due course, will probably be fixed some time after December 15th and prior to January 1st, and notice published accordingly. This is the date in which protesters are interested and which they have financial, preferred to be known first."

ONE HUNDRED AND ONE YEARS OF DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY

Dalhousie University, in Halifax, Nova Scotia, held its centenary celebration last fall. It fell due in 1913, but was postponed until this year on account of the war. Men from all parts of the world returned to honor to their Alma Mater and classes as far back as 1867 were represented. Young men were there, too, most of them having served overseas with the gallant Canadian armies. The reunion had particular significance for them, as since 1914 there has been no time to go back and revive memories of college days. The roll of the younger graduates of Dalhousie has thinned greatly in the last five years, but those left will help her "carry on" all the more devotedly for the sake of those that can help no more.

Dalhousie University was founded in 1818 by the Rt. Hon. George Ramsay, ninth Earl of Dalhousie. For half a century the university struggled along and then began to take its rightful place. Since then it has grown step by step with Halifax. The university is now moving out to an estate of over 40 acres on the north side of the city, near the Northwest Arm, where $300,000, raised among the graduates, is being expended in modern buildings. The cornerstone of the first of these, the Science Building, was laid by the Duke of Connaught in 1912. On the first day of the centennial celebration, stones from the foundations of the original college structure, which was built one hundred years ago on the site of the present

City Hall, were transferred to the grounds of the new college. The stones were in the walls of the physics laboratory, on the third floor of the Carlton Street building and were carried in procession with flags representing various college activities and periods. Another feature was a special ceremony in honor of Dalhousie's dead during the war. In the library is an honor list of those who fell, and a list too, of those who were decorated. The university is "open to all occupations and sects of religion, restricted to such branches only as are applicable to our present state and having the power to expand with the growth and improvement of our society."

BED OF SHRINKING SALTON SEA PRIZE FOR HOMESTEADERS

Largest Area of Date Producing Land in Country Underlies Unique Body of Water in Imperial Valley; Geologists Give Explanation for Fertility of Region

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The Salton Sea in the Imperial valley, one of the natural wonders of the west, is constantly shrinking. At present it is about 18 miles long and nine miles wide at the greatest point. During the last five years, the water is said to have retreated about a mile a year, leaving a salt encrusted abode, which is rapidly seized by homesteaders. Often their location stakes are planted far out in the water.

The sea which lies 162 feet below the level of the ocean abounds in fish, mussels and oysters, which local and Arizona capitalists are planning to utilize by erection of a great cannery.

The United States department of agriculture reports that about the Salton Sea lies the largest area of date producing land in the country.

Geologists say the Salton "Sink," as it once was known, in pre-historic times, had changed from desert to sea and from sea to desert fifty times or more in 29 centuries, the Salton valley would have quietly to the Gulf of California and gradually build up a sandbar across its mouth. Then some spring flood would cause a washout in the river's bank further north and the whole torrent would sweep toward the Salton Sink. The desert would become an inland sea, remaining so for centuries, perhaps, until the great flood would come and a shorter way to the ocean. The sea would be drained and the region relapse into a desert.

Small volcanoes abound near the sea, a short distance inland. They are of all sizes up to great mountains 15 feet in height. They all emit steam, some in a steady stream, others steam and mud alternately. Many of them give out a sulfurous odor, which is their ringing can be heard for miles.

More and more the sea is being visited by tourists and during the heated season, when the temperature is from 90 to 120 degrees, the Salton Sink is a popular resort. The water is so hot that it is frequently held on an old chair, which once served as a landing place for fishing boats but which has been left high and dry by the receding water.

Of special interest to the tourist are the "bubbling mudpots." As the water retreats it is in a state of constant ebullition. Gases from some unknown subterranean source are continually finding escape through unseen vents in the bottom. Layer after layer of red sand pigment is deposited. The retreat of the sea will continue until it finally equal to the dry arena and amber colors, of which so much is imported.

It is thought that the shrinkage of the Salton Sea will continue until it finally, because a salt "sink" with a pool of brackish water in the center, is a fresh outpost of the great Colorado should replenish its waters.

BIKES ARE TIED
NEW YORK, (AP)—All teams entered in the annual six-day bicycle race at Madison square Garden were tied at 8 o'clock. This morning, having covered 182 miles and few laps. The eighth hour record is 183 miles and the last lap, made by Lawson and Drahach in 1914.

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS

JOHANNESBURG, (AP)—The high cost of living is creating irritation here. Butter and sugar are becoming absolute luxuries, while farmers are making fortunes out of wool and skins.

Combinations in Soap.
The principle of soap making is always the same and is based on the combination of fat and an alkali, as in the case of tallow and lye. Variations in soaps are largely due to additions of perfumes, coloring matter and such substances, which have nothing to do with the primary purpose of soap, which is to cleanse.

The Industrious Bee.
The bee has two distinct stomachs. In the first it stores away the honey from the flowers until such time as it is ready to yield it up, while the other stomach is used simply and solely for digestion purposes. When the bee is ready to deposit the honey, it contracts the muscles of the stomach and the honey is ejected through the mouth.

New Idea in Transportation.
A "locomotor" has been developed for use in Africa. The weight of the car and cargo is supported on metal rails, but the vehicles are driven by rubber-shod wheels running on prepared strips of road metal on each side of the tracks. This arrangement is said to be very effective.

ALLEGES FRAUD IN ELECTION OF SENATOR NEWBERRY

of $178,850 and expenditures of $179,508. Of the contributors, John S. Newberry, the senator's brother, was credited with $95,000. A. Victor Haines, of New York, president of the American Book company and a brother of Mrs. Truman Newberry, with $25,000; H. C. Hays, of Detroit, another brother-in-law of the senator, with $25,000, and Mrs. Henry B. Joy, the senator's sister, with $10,000. The government will attempt to show that all these persons conferred with Truman H. Newberry while he was a candidate, thus indicating his knowledge of the campaign. It also has a number of letters which he wrote to politicians while the campaign was on. Frederick Coyle, formerly a Detroit school teacher, but now of New York and connected with the American Book company, was named as one in whom the candidate conferred.

Alleges General Conspiracy
These circumstances were also used as a basis for the allegation of the grand indictment, that there was a general conspiracy to aid the senator to obtain office illegally. There are two counts in this indictment, one relating to the primary election and the other to the election statements.

The second indictment starts with a count which charges expenditures in excess of the legal limit in the primary and election combined; the second count alleges the same charge with relation to the primary alone and the third repeats the same charge with relation to the election alone.

The fourth count charges violation of the state election law in that more than $6,750 was spent in the two campaigns. In this connection, it is pointed out that while the federal law does not forbid advertising in newspapers, the Michigan statute specifically excludes such a practice.

The statement of expenditures listed by the Newberry campaign managers includes items which total $148,900 for newspaper advertising. The count details that with the excess campaign funds, district and county agents and managers and numerous secret propagandists and numerous were hired and their expenses paid; moving picture films were bought and which acts are alleged to be in violation of the Michigan law. The government agents said they had proof that one movie film alone cost $8,000, and that the government would commit thousands of offenses against the federal act of October, 1913, forbidding payment of money to voters.

Exposes Will Accusations
The sixth count alleges willful accusations. It alleges that certain defendants each contributed more than the total amount allowed by law, knowing that such acts were in violation of the statutes and that certain of the defendants induced others to give up falsely representing the amounts actually expended in the campaign.

It alleges further that more than $100,000 of the amounts so contributed were converted to the personal use of certain individuals, and that charges that more than $100,000 of all district newspaper, campaign of all degrees, for office, and hall rent, dinners and other entertainments.

The charge that since H. H. Ford was hired on salary and expenses to run against Ford in the democratic primary, follows and then come accusations that certain individuals for county offices were paid money upon condition that they support the Newberry senatorial aspirations. The count concludes with allegations of wholesale bribery of voters.

Order by Department of Justice

Investigation by grand jury of the election of Truman H. Newberry to the United States senate was ordered by the department of justice and was announced on Monday. It was announced that complaints and "public charge of fraud and corruption" made by the lieutenant governor of Michigan and others. United States District Judge Sessions presided over the inquiry, which was conducted by Frank C. Daffey and H. H. Senter, special assistant to United States Attorney General.

Witnesses were summoned from every part of the state and represented both political parties. They numbered into the hundreds and included both men and women. These S. O. S. officers, former governor of Michigan and one of the republican candidates defeated for nomination by Mr. Newberry in the primary election, was the first witness summoned.

Legislature Changes Laws
Truman H. Newberry, secretary of the navy in the cabinet of Theodore Roosevelt, was declared, elected over Ford, in Detroit automobile manufacturer, the democratic nominee, in Michigan's last senatorial election. Mr. Ford's name appeared on both the primary and the general election, but the nominating primary and this fact, together with the charges that money was freely spent in the election of Mr. Newberry, resulted in the making of radical changes in the Michigan election laws by the last legislature. Mr. Newberry's expense statement for election in excess of $178,850.

The republican nomination was carried by Mr. Newberry after a very hard fight. Mr. Ford received the democratic nomination. The election campaign became bitter, charges and counter charges being preferred by adherents of the two candidates. Mr. Newberry, who it was claimed, spent no time in the state during the campaign because of duties in the New York naval district, was finally declared elected by a majority of 7,567, days after the election. The name was Newberry, 220,054; Ford, 212,487.

Ford Files Content
Mr. Ford filed a petition with the senate at the last session, contesting Senator Newberry's right to a seat. A resolution proposed by Senator Pomereoy, democrat of Ohio, asked a Senate investigation but received no action in the committee on privileges and elections to which it was referred. The resolution was re-introduced in the present session but, at the suggestion of the chief of Mr. Ford's counsel, action was deferred.

STORIES OF AMERICAN CITIES

Judge Sentences Automobile, Speeders to Morgue

CHICAGO—Instead of letting off the five fast drivers who were arraigned before him with customary fines, Judge Stetk ordered them all to report to Warden Michael Zimmer of the county morgue, and afterward to visit the county hospital to look upon the victims of reckless autoists who are stretched on beds of pain in that place. The cases were continued for a week.

"I want you all to have a chance to digest your impressions of the morgue," said the judge. "You won't need to send me," pleaded A. W. Cornell of Western Springs. "I was only going 33 miles an hour on a clear road, straight ahead of me."

"I'm going to show you two widows, one with five children and one with 12, whose husbands were killed by men who were going 33 miles on a clear road," said the judge. "If some one crossed the street ahead of you, you couldn't stop your car in 104 feet. You go out and look at those two men in the county morgue, and interview their families, and then come back a week from today and tell me what you think of it."

Joseph Bittel, 2100 South Halsted street, who was arrested for driving by the side of a street car while passengers were alighting didn't think he ought to go out, either.

"I faced you $25 a week or so ago for speeding, didn't I?" said the judge. "It didn't do much good. I'm going to send you out to see two little children in the morgue and then you can come back and tell me your thoughts on the speed problem."

Louis Konvas, 5754 West Chicago avenue; A. H. Mangold and James John O'Donnell, 1024 Springfield avenue, were the other three sent to the morgue.

EPISCOPALIANS NAME LEADERS FOR BIG DRIVE

"Every Member" Campaign to Be Waged Next Month.

On December 7 the Protestant Episcopal Church throughout America will complete a "drive" that must stand as unique among the many that have been made since the exigencies of war first brought that term to its present definition.

It has been a drive for souls and not for dollars—a "drive" from the shoulder, at the heart, not the pocket. Its principal purpose has been to keep awake and active the spirituality weakened by the world upheaval; to shake into activity and highest efficiency those offices of the church which may have become to a greater or lesser degree dormant and to impress upon the laity that the church stands equipped and eager to supply every spiritual need.

Every city and hamlet in the country has been made so feel the revivification. Locally both clergy and laity have worked as never before to establish their church with its communicants and a pronounced recrudescence of activity already is evident.

The full tide of the drive will be felt during the first week of December. During that period every member of the church will work with redoubled effort to the end desired and to produce the fund which will be required to make the new program effective.

A committee of fifteen of the most distinguished men of the nation has been named to handle the great campaign. Henry P. Davidson, director of the Red Cross during the war, has been named as the organization executive. He will have the active assistance of many notable churchmen and lay readers who have been elected to the committee of fifteen behind them, among them Bishop Charles P. Anderson, of Chicago; Bishop John G. Murray, of Maryland; Bishop Arthur S. Lloyd, Bishop Frederick F. Reese, of Georgia; Bishop Charles Sumner, of New York; Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Struss, of New York; Rev. Dr. Edward S. Rousmanier, of Massachusetts; Rev. Dr. James E. Freeman, of Minnesota; Rev. Dr. William H. Milpott, of East Carolina; Rev. Dr. Frank H. Nelson, of Southern Ohio; Arthur Woods, of New York; George Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia; Rufus C. Burdette, of New Haven, Connecticut, and Oliver J. Sands, of Richmond.

NEW EPISCOPALIAN BISHOP CONSECRATED

San Francisco—What prelates of the Protestant Episcopal Church pronounce the most important and at the same time, beautiful ceremony held in the Diocese of California since the year 1901, was that which attended and through investigation, having in mind proper and responsible distribution of funds throughout the whole church and to the work of the several boards and agencies.

In connection with the nation-wide publicity campaign which is calculated not only to awaken Episcopalianism themselves to the possibilities and needs of their church, but to impress upon the general public the purposes and hopes of the church.

MODERN "MAN ON THE BOX" GUIDES LADY ASTOR'S CAMPAIGN DESTINIES

PLYMOUTH, Eng., (AP)—It was an up-to-date "Man on the Box" who guided the destinies of Lady Astor's campaign to determine whether she would be the first woman commiser of England.

More than a score of newspaper correspondents, who trailed Lady Astor during her campaigning and jockeying about Plymouth, had difficulty for some time in learning in advance where she intended to make her next appeal for votes. The reason developed when it was learned that it was neither Lady Astor nor Lord Astor who was guiding her meanderings, but the ruddy, burly old coachman, Churchwood, who has been serving the Astor family through three political battles. He acknowledged that he had been the confidential agent of Lady Astor's campaign.

Silk-hatted and officious executives of the unionist party held council daily and drafted the candidate's strategic moves, but it was Churchwood—who really determined whether these plans should be executed or vetoed.

Lady Astor would enter her carriage in the morning, Churchwood would whip up the elegant pair of nobs and the candidate would roll away, while the coachman would sit in the boot/hook and if Churchwood from his vantage point saw a street-corner gathering or a lady abode where Lady Astor might get a hearing, he would rein in the horses without making leave, and let her do the rest.

When Lord Astor and the ensuing cross-fire of questions had ended, or when Churchwood sensed a waning in the interest of the audience, he would jerk a pre-emptory thumb in the direction of the back seat, saying "Get in." Whereupon Lady Astor would resume her place in the carriage and it would proceed to the next halt.

When Lord Astor ended the previous campaign, Churchwood delivered his felicitations and went back to his regular occupation as steamburn with one of the Plymouth coachmen. But this time he was ambitious, as he confided to the correspondent of the Associated Press, to journey to London with Lady Astor, should she be successful, and there was no person in Plymouth, not excepting Lady Astor herself, who was more certain of the outcome of the election than Churchwood.

He was hopeful that in a few months he would be driving her from her residence to the house of commons and seating her in the front of the coach house, but was a bit fearful lest she should elect a motor for her London needs. In that event Churchwood intended to reserve his carriage and boot/hook and go back to his busy stable to await the next Astor campaign.

Met Fate of the Weak.

It seems that there can be no doubt that the cliff dwellers were exterminated by their more savage and warlike neighbors, the men being killed and the women being adopted into the tribe of the conquerors, though in some cases migrations may have become necessary as a result of drought or pressure from outside tribes.

The Thoughtless Answer.

A certain Kansas City physician will never know just how near death he was the other day when, after a thorough examination of probably the most delicate and altogether supreme nine-month-old baby in the world, the mother asked, "Well, what do you think of my baby?" and he said, "Oh, it's a normal child!"

Big Man in His Day.

Goliath, the Philistine giant, must have caused a lot of trouble for the army quartermasters of his day. How did the women being adopted into the tribe of the conquerors, though in some cases migrations may have become necessary as a result of drought or pressure from outside tribes.

What "Cenotaph" Means.

The word is derived from the Greek words "kenos," meaning "empty" and "taphos," meaning "tomb." In other words, a cenotaph is a sepulchral monument erected in honor of a person whose body lies elsewhere.

Consider the Centipede.

It is a mistake to suppose that all centipedes have a hundred legs. The name is misleading. The most common variety usually have 34, but there are other species with as many as 100 or 200 legs.

TWIN FALLS OFFERED ANOTHER BIG INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTION

Pittsburgh Concern Wants to Establish Potato Flour Manufacturing Industry in This City—Will Dispose of All Cull Spuds in District—Proposition Up to Growers

Twin Falls has the opportunity to add to its industrial institutions a one or two unit potato flour mill. The institution will be established here if a sufficient potato tonnage can be contracted in this district.

During the past week Adolph Frey, assistant sales manager of the Potato Flour Corporation of Pittsburgh, Pa., spent some days in Twin Falls conferring with potato growers and buyers in this vicinity, as well as with members of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce on the question of procuring support for the enterprise by product contracts. The commercial club will take up the question of potato product to supply material for the mill.

According to Mr. Frey, a single unit potato flour mill will require 10,000,000 pounds of potatoes. The output in finished product for this amount runs from 23 to 33 per cent of the whole. The cost to build would be from $40,000 to $45,000 and the institution's payroll would be in the neighborhood of $20,000 annually. Besides this outlay the mill would consume a considerable quantity of electricity and fuel, adding that to its value as a commercial enterprise in the community.

While Mr. Frey has returned to the east he has left the question of locating the mill project in the hands of members of the chamber of commerce who will investigate further the possibilities of getting the required contracts. S. L. Hodgins will bring this question to the further attention of the chamber of commerce.

The company's proposal contemplates a contract for the payment of 60 cents per hundredweight for all cull potatoes, or will pay that price for the entire crop delivered at the mill. The grower has the option of culling as much as he pleases and selling the rest of his product wherever he sees fit.

The bulk people already have one mill in Idaho, this being located at Idaho Falls. Others are established in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and other central states.

HEAVY ANNUAL TOLL FOR WHITE PLAGUE

Tuberculosis Carries Off 150,000 Americans Each Year, Figures Say

The following proclamation has been issued by Rupert Blue, surgeon-general, United States public health service: "Over 150,000 American die annually from tuberculosis. This is an appalling rate of life and limb, and that tuberculosis is classed as a preventable disease. Moreover, because this loss of life occurs almost entirely in the ranks of the middle population, health authorities the world over have come to consider the control of tuberculosis as still the most pressing public health problem confronting them. Every year the National Tuberculosis association by selling Red Cross Christmas Seals raises a considerable sum of money to be used in a nation-wide campaign to combat tuberculosis. This year a special effort is being made to interest school children in this work and December fifth, sixth, and seventh have been designated as days on which the seals are to be sold in the public schools, synagogues and churches. Because of the seriousness of the situation, I trust that the campaign of this year will be particularly successful."

It is urged that every state and local secretary have copies of this proclamation printed or mimeographed and mailed immediately to every school superintendent, school principal, rabbi and clergyman in the state and county. The general observance of December 5, 6 and 7 will go far toward making this campaign a success. A copy of this proclamation should be sent to every newspaper in the state and every county newspaper. No effort should be spared to give this statement the widest possible publicity.

SELL SWINE STOCK DURING SEED SHOW

New Departure to Be Inaugurated at Pocatello State Gathering This Year

One of the big drawing cards at the Pocatello Seed Show which will be held January 12 to 15, will be the bred sow sale, put on by the State Swine Breeder's association.

This sale will be unique in that there will be no 30 head allowed in this sale. No one individual will be allowed to consign more than two sows to the sale. Otto, the well known breeder from Ellier, is managing the sale, and is anxious to get in touch with the avine breeders in this section, so that Twin Falls may be well represented. Anyone interested is requested to get in touch with the farm bureau, or Mr. Otto direct.

Chances Favor Warmer; Colder Night Prediction

It will be quite safe for folks to leave off their "heavies" for a brief spell, at least. The recommendation is based upon an assumption, which, in turn is founded upon the fact that predictive pronouncements of the weather forecaster are consistently wrong.

He says "Colder." Last night's low temperature was one degree below freezing, according to the kink mark outside the city limits. The low mark touched upon 31 degrees, that being 11 degrees higher than the low on Saturday night. High yesterday was 41, one mark above the high of Saturday.

The rainfall in the month of October was slightly more than one and a half inches. Snow during the past 48 hours fell to a depth of three inches.

BOWEN'S BODY IS BEING HELD

Cuts Found on Head of Sheep Man Lead Authorities to Call for Investigation

Although funeral services were conducted at the Grosman undertaking office this morning for John E. Bowen, burial is held in abeyance until an official investigation has been held into the cause of death.

The body of John E. Bowen, aged 55, was brought to Twin Falls Saturday night from Shoshone, to which place it had been conveyed from the Lemoin sheep camp some six miles out of that place. When received here the body was accompanied by a certificate showing death to have been the result of an epileptic fit. Oral statements, in support of this certificate, were made to the effect that Bowen had fallen in a fit on a stove in the camp, dying from the co-operative effects of injuries thus received and from suffocation from fumes issuing from the overturned stove.

Decedent's head was bound up in cloths when the body was received here. The bandages, it is said, having been adjusted to cover severe burns. On the demand of C. Q. McGinnis, medical advisor for the local Lodge of Modern Woodmen, of which formerly Bowen was a member, the bandages were removed and revealed wounds and marks which led to the suspicion that the victim met with death, perhaps accidentally. According to Dr. McGinnis and Coroner P. J. Grosman there is no evidence of burning. There is said to be a long cut in the back of the head, about an inch from a blow by a blunt instrument. Some of the dead man's teeth are missing and there is said to be other evidence supporting the suspicion that Bowen did not die by accident.

The body was brought to Twin Falls for burial in Twin Falls cemetery, the wife of the dead man and his two children being residents of this place. Bowen is said to have come by his death several days ago, the body being frozen when delivered into the custody of the Grosman undertaking company. Investigation will be conducted by Sheriff A. N. Sprague.

SMALLPOX IN TOWN

There are 25 cases of small pox in Twin Falls county, most of them being located in Twin Falls, according to C. Q. McGinnis, county health officer. The official reporter, declares all the cases are of a mild order, and measures are being taken to stamp out the malady here. There is no diphtheria, but the county has two cases of scarlet fever. One case of "flu" in mild form, was reported at Ellier last week.

MINISTER ASKS PEOPLE TO DEFEAT PETITIONS

Demand for Open Picture Houses on Sunday is Declined in Pulpit Address

Being a portion of his sermon on the fact that a number of lists are being circulated about town seeking the Sunday opening of picture about houses the Rev. A. Q. Bennett, pastor of the First Methodist church, made an urgent plea for a "chance for the churches."

"It is the one day in the week set apart by God almighty for religion and religious observance. Give the churches the right that God bestowed upon them," Dr. Bennett implored during a pulpit address last night. Addressed to the city council, urging the abolition of the "closed Sunday" law, a number of lists have been circulated about town in the past few days. They are to be found in many stores, and when fully subscribed will be presented to the council for consideration. The Twin Falls Ministerial association members yesterday made general appeals against the petitions, read called upon congregations to fight the issue to a finish.

PREDICTS HIGH PRICE FOR HALF BLOOD WOOL

S. W. McClure Expresses Opinion Western Product Will Sell Next Year for 75 Cents a Pound

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (AP)—Prediction that western half blood wool next year will sell for 75 cents a pound was made here recently by S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Woolgrowers' association upon his return from a tour of the northwest.

A strong demand has developed for three-eighths blood wool, the grade most commonly produced in the west," he said. "Fine wools are practically exhausted, and attention is consequently turning to the coarser grades, which is in favor of the intermountain region."

Despite the fact that the present stock of wool in the United States is large, Mr. McClure feels that in his belief, conditions exist that will not make the wool market take a downward trend.

Messages Received Here Say Former Twin Falls Man is Alive and Well

Telegrams received into Saturday toll of the safety in Tampico, Mexico, of William T. Wallace. News reports that week telling of the murder of "Jim" Wallace by Mexicans led to the fear that the former Twin Falls man had been killed.

B. S. Lewis of the Perrine hotel, a brother-in-law of W. T. Wallace, has word from New York telling of the safety of the latter. This is confirmed in a message received at headquarters of the Idaho Power company, which says the Wallace feud is not the former head of the power branch here.

Bargains in Real Estate

Here are some bargains that are real bargains. Our motto is, "Bargain hunter and home finder."

First, for those that wish to get in a little lower altitude with a little longer growing season, we have a splendid listing of farm lands and have taken pains to look up some exceedingly good buys but will name only a few of them here.

We deal in lands at Nampa, Caldwell, Parma, Wilder, Deer Flat, Homedale and the Gem district.

40 ACRES—in Gem district. If there is perfect forty in Idaho it is this forty; 8 1-2 foot fall across 40 and not a flaw in any way. Not elaborate but good, cozy buildings, deep well, etc. Land the most productive in Idaho and will raise more hay to the acre than in any other section I have ever heard of; going as high as eleven tons to the acre. This is no hearsay. Can get a sworn statement. Our price is $200 per acre, about one-half cash.

40 ACRES—A very desirable forty; mostly in hay and lays well. Small house and barn, deep well, etc. Price $150 per acre; about one-half cash. This is also in the Gem district.

105 ACRES—Part of this land is in brush and part in cultivation; lays well and a real bargain at $75 per acre. Will take in a house in Twin Falls in trade on this land.

160 ACRES—150 of this is in hay and a fine piece of and; a real money maker. We have the extremely low price of $100 per acre.

80 ACRES—Fine land and about one-half in hay. Has very fair house, good cellar, deep well; all fenced. Our price is $150 per acre. All of above land is in Gem district and has good water right and is not far from leading station.

We also have many other good buys and will be glad to show you.

80 ACRES—in the Deer Flat section. This is one of the good buys; almost a perfect piece of land; about 35 acres in corn this year and the balance in hay.

80 ACRES—in the Parma district. This eighty has many advantages; is on graveled highway, two miles from main leading station, has electric lights in six room house, electric power for pumping water from a deep well of pure, soft water. One mile from large school. Twelve grades taught. Our price is $225 per acre. $6000 cash.

40 ACRES—About five miles from Caldwell. Electric car line touches corner of place. This is a very fine forty and is all in hay. Has a very good six room house, deep well, etc. We have the very attractive price of $10,500 for this forty with a cash payment of four to five thousand and good terms on the balance.

40 ACRES—Near Nampa in the famed Franklin district. Has a good six room, plastered house and good improvements. Our price is $8,000 for the forty, with a $2,000 cash payment.

80 ACRES—Near Nampa. Has about sixty acres in hay. Place is well fenced and has cattle, making very desirable pasture land. House small but modern, having bath, lavatory and all plumbing fixtures. Deep well with gas engine and pressure tank. We have the low price of $13,000, with a $6,000 cash payment.

BIG BARGAIN IN A 26-ROOM HOTEL

We have secured what we think is one of the very best bargains. 26 outside rooms with steam heat and all furnished complete. Large office, all furnished. Nice, well furnished dining room. Furnished kitchen, very complete. Nice, large, screened porches. You may serve meals or not as you prefer but this is a money maker and a bargain. It would cost $3,000 to put in the heating plant alone. Our price for hotel, furniture and everything complete is $11,000. A cash payment of $4,500, balance easy.

Mr. H. B. Johnson and I have dissolved partnership by mutual consent. Mr. Johnson will continue the business at the old stand and I assure you that you will receive that same fair treatment that the old firm of Johnson & Lyman tried to give you. I will not be able to get into my new office down town until about January 5th, and until then will have my office at my home, 609 Main Avenue West, 3 1-2 blocks above Post Office, and will give you all the information I can.

If you are a land buyer, we are making frequent trips to the above lands and will pay all expenses. It will pay you well to see what others are doing. My Phone number has been changed to 1249.

Yours for the best bargains.
