THE STORM SITUATION IN PORTLAND SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

PORTLAND, Ore., (AP)—Although the coldest weather of the year was experienced last night and early this morning, the reply is being recorded, the storm situation for the state shows some improvement. Snow ceased falling last night, enabling several of the street car lines to be cleared for traffic. Train service throughout the state still was uncertain.

Snowfall Delays Relief

Thousands of empty coal cars today were on sidings at the mines in readiness to be rushed to the most needy sections of the state as relief was available. Relief for some points, however, faced delay because of almost unrelenting snowfall. In the plains states railroad traffic was being delayed by snow. In the far northwest, where nearly 40 hours of uninterrupted snowfall was recorded, conditions were worse.

Throughout the central area the sub-zero temperatures that yesterday in many places established seasonal records today had given way to milder temperatures and lessened the severity of the winter. The mercury was up 60 degrees from 12 below zero to 50 above.

At other places the moderation came as soon as Sunday, and today the thermometer rose from 10 below to even zero at Omaha, Neb., from 16 below to 6 above, and at Chicago from minus 8 to plus 5, with relief from the snowfall and a bright day forecast for tomorrow night.

MINERS AWAIT OFFICIAL NOTICE OF STRIKE END BEFORE RESUMING WORK

Difficulty in Notifying Strikers of Adjustment of Differences Prevents General Resumption of Coal Production; No Union Mines in Operation in Illinois, Iowa and Kansas, while Most Optimistic Reports Come from Indiana Fields

RELIEF FOR SOME NEEDY SECTIONS DELAYED BY UNPRECEDENTED SNOW

CHICAGO, (AP)—Difficulty in officially notifying miners that the coal strike was over prevented general resumption of coal production today. From Indiana came the most optimistic reports with word that coal was being hoisted from several big mines with the expectation that Saturday would see a state wide resumption of mining.

Illinois miners through the strike were among the most insistent for a maximum increase in wages and no union mines were reported in operation through the morning. Optimistic reports obtained in Iowa and Kansas.

Michigan miners at a few points resumed work but doubt was expressed that all the miners would accept the offer to return to work. Volunteer miners' officials were busy notifying the miners and little coal was expected to be mined today. Ohio mines were expected to be in general operation by Monday.

Volunteer miners continued in Montana with prospect that the miners would not return until the soldiers left the fields.

Conservation Continues Relief from the most serious coal shortage was in sight. An immediate relaxation of the rigid fuel conservation measures is in prospect, but the return to the mines of the first of the approximately 400,000 bituminous coal mines, ending a 40 days' strike and shutout, except in the east and far northwest, of the severe weather of the past two days held forth hope for a rapid return to normal conditions. At some of the mines delays in resumption of production after acceptance yesterday at Indianapolis, Indiana, of the proposal of President Wilson for settling the strike were in prospect. Several miners were expected to be few, however, and the more optimistic observers believed that by tomorrow night the mines would be yielding 75 per cent of a normal output.

Snowfall Delays Relief Thousands of empty coal cars today were on sidings at the mines in readiness to be rushed to the most needy sections of the state as relief was available.

Government Officials Pleased Government officials were pleased with the outcome of their efforts for a settlement of the miners controversy and indications today were that a change of front by the state for alleged violation of the federal court injunction against furtherance of the strike, would NOT be pushed against the eighty-four international and district officials who were made defendants in the proceedings.

Investigations to Proceed The federal grand jury investigation of the Ever act and anti-trust laws, scheduled to start Monday but postponed until December 17, will proceed when the jurors appear next Wednesday, according to reports from the state.

Five lives are known to have been lost in the strike and will involve both operators and miners.

WILSON WIRES APPRECIATION OF ACTION TAKEN BY MINERS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today telegraphed acting President Lewis of the miners' union his appreciation of the patriotic action taken by the miners' representatives yesterday at Indianapolis.

OFFICIALS ON BORDER WATCH I. W. W. MOVES

Commissioner General of Immigration Orders Report on the Threatened Invasion from Mexico of Militant Radicals

WILSON CONSIDERS NEW MEMORANDUM IN AFFAIR

Shipping Board Chairman Calls Attention of Executive to Carranza's Interference in Oil Operations

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Immigration officials on the border were instructed today by Anthony Comstock, commissioner general of immigration to forward a report on Carranza's invasion from Mexico of 50 British, 100 American and 150 Mexican I. W. W. Mr. Comstock expressed little concern as to the ability of the immigration officials to cope with the situation in view of the strength of the United States troops on the border.

Reports to Wilson President Wilson had before him another memorandum on the Mexican situation. It related to the interference of the Carranza government in the operation of American owned oil properties in Mexico and was prepared by Chairman Payne, of the shipping board, upon information furnished by representatives of Mexican oil producers.

Payne also sent a letter to Secretary Lansing urging that the state department take action toward protecting the American owned oil properties in Mexico. It has developed that the state department during the last six months dispatched three notes to the Mexican government protesting against the oil decrees but no reply has been received from President Carranza. It was learned today that Mexican soldiers had halted drilling operations of American companies in the state of Coahuila that permits to drill had not been obtained from the Mexican government decrees, foreign oil companies must agree in advance that the new wells shall become property of the Mexican government.

No Difference on Policy

There is no now and never has been any difference of opinion between President Wilson and the state department in the handling of Mexican affairs, Secretary Lansing said today.

Mr. Lansing was discussing published reports that the president's attitude on the Fall resolution requesting a break with Carranza had caused a reversal of the policy adopted by the department.

Calls Lind Propagandist

Some parts of testimony on the Mexican situation given before the Fall committee of the senate by W. E. Buckley, an American lawyer, long resident in Mexico, make rather sensational references to John Lind, once President Wilson's special agent in Mexico.

TWO PREMIERS IN CONFERENCE

Clemenceau and Lloyd-George Discuss Various Troubles of Europe

LONDON, (AP)—Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader, answering several questions in the house of commons today, hinted that the Adriatic trouble was a subject of discussion among Premier Clemenceau of France, Foreign Minister Scialoja of Italy and Premier Lloyd George.

The two prime ministers began their private conferences in Mr. Lloyd George's official residence in Downing street at 10 o'clock. It was generally expected that their discussions would last through today and tomorrow. The British premier abandoned his usual Thursday visit to the house of commons in order to meet his time entirely at the disposal of M. Clemenceau.

The Turkish situation will be put in the forefront at the conference between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau and coupled, therefore with the British request that the peace conference with the Turks shall be held in London.

American officials in London would gladly welcome a decision by the French and British over Turkey as an allied representative here make no attempt to hide their irritation over the delay of the United States in setting out a policy on which to blame most of the Turkish "muddle."

AUSTRALIAN IS WINNER OF AIR RACE OVER SEA

Captain Ross Smith Completes Flight from England to Port Darwin, Winning Prize Offered by Government

PORT DARWIN, Australia. (AP)—Captain Ross Smith, the Australian aviator, arrived Wednesday from England, thus winning a prize of 10,000 pounds sterling, offered for the first aviator to make the voyage.

Under the conditions laid down by the Australian government when it offered a prize for making a flight from England to Australia the distance of 11,500 miles had to be covered within thirty days.

Captain Ross Smith left the Hounlow aviation field near London at nine o'clock Monday afternoon for Australia.

On November 18 he reached Cairo and the next day he continued his flight, reaching Delhi, India, on November 28. From there he continued east until he reached Bangkok, turning southward at that city, making a number of stops along the Malay peninsula and in the islands of Oceania. He arrived at Port Darwin, on Gulf of Carpentaria, near Port Darwin, on Monday night.

Port Darwin is close to the northernmost tip of Australia, being near the town of Palmerston.

An interesting phase of the latter part of the flight was the international contest developed between the British Captain Smith and Lieutenant Eleanore Doute, the French military aviator.

Both left Paris for a flight to Australia October 14, nearly a month before Captain Smith started from London. The Englishman caught up with the Frenchman, however, the aviator meeting in Hongkong November 30 and both leaving for Bangkok Dec. 1. They started off nearly together from Bangkok the day following. No reports have been received since from the French aviator.

WARNS AGAINST FURTHER OUTBREAK OF MAUNA LOA

Volcanologist Points Out Recent Spectacular Eruptions May Recreate Former Activity

HILLO, Island of Hawaii, T. H. (AP)—Warning that the recent spectacular outbreak of the sporadic volcano Mauna Loa may presage further erupting lava flows and eruptions was given by Professor T. A. Jaggar, Jr., volcanologist.

On the heels of Professor Jaggar's warning, the United States Geological Survey, from Kilauea, which, although always more or less active, on this occasion indulged in an exceptional ally brilliant demonstration.

Professor Jaggar said: "The sequence of eruptions on Mauna Loa 1914, 1916 and 1919 points to a period of unusually strong activity, especially in southern areas, at high pressure and increasing overflow."

"Such sequence of former eruptions has led to great crises of lava flows and earthquakes and warning in the present instance should not be disregarded. In view of the menace to plantations, harbors, ranch lands and settlements and the presence of a national park in the midst, the best which can be done is to provide accurate maps of the land."

BATHE FREQUENTLY BUT NEVER LAUNDER CLOTHES

Traveler Describes Interesting Tribes Inhabiting Territory in Southeastern Alaska

CORDOVA, Alaska. (AP)—Natives of the Lower Kuskokwim district, southwest of Sitka, in southeastern Alaska, were described by a traveler, recently returned from that section, as being of a radically different type from those found along the Yukon and Tanana rivers. They are, he said, a short, stocky people, with flat or "dished" faces. During the summer months they live in the open, but during the winter, he said, they live in holes dug in the ground.

The natives were described as being socially inclined, living in large villages, and gathering, during the winter evenings, at a sort of public hall called a "kishim" where their local disputes are settled by the ruling clan.

10,000 LOCOMOTIVES ARE IDLE IN GERMAN SHOPS

Lack of Proper Raw Material Delays Repair Work, Labor Men Declare

COBLENZ, (AP)—Ten thousand locomotives are idle in the repair shops of Germany, according to railroad men who conferred recently in Coblenz with Herrport B. Noyes, the American representative of the Inter-Alleed Railroad High Commission. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the coal shortage in Germany and the fact that the railroads are to play in distributing fuel this winter.

The labor representative, at the conference, contended that the German workmen are not holding back in efforts being made to meet the economic difficulties facing the country.

The chief trouble in repairing the locomotives, the railroad men asserted, was lack of proper raw material which Germany had been unable to secure since the armistice.

The railroad men asserted that the men in the railroad shops realized the responsibilities placed upon them to repair locomotives and that there was no desire on the part of these workmen to slow up on this work.

The average wage in the railroad shops is sixteen marks a day. The mark, at the present rate of exchange at army headquarters in Coblenz, is worth about a fraction less than three and a half cents.

LONDON. (AP)—Jessie Stephens, the former domestic servant who was recently elected to a seat on the borough council of Hammersmith, a London suburb, says that municipal work is her first step in the direction of the house of commons.

In an interview she spoke with quiet confidence of her future in the house of commons, and gave many instances of how work could be saved for women. She told of plans she was making for the benefit of the residents of the district.

"I robbed myself of sleep at nights and rose in the morning to study politics," she said. "There, I believe, lay the secret of my success. My first hand knowledge of household work gave me many ideas to be my political plus upon."

A pamphlet found in Russell's possession describing the organization of the Seattle strike and means used in organizing it was introduced as evidence. Numerous parallels in the two strikes were shown by the pamphlet, according to the prosecution.

FENCE DIVIDES BORDER TOWNS

Government Lets Contract for Barrier Between Calexico and Mexicali

CALEXICO, Cal. (AP)—Contract for a border fence to separate Calexico from Mexicali has been let by the United States government, and the work is expected to be finished before January 1, 1920.

The fence will be 12,000 feet long, 6 feet high, with a barbed wire overhead, and will be of metal mesh attached to metal posts. There will be gates for traffic and for the railroad crossing the international line here, and a turreted at the customs house.

The fence is intended to aid in better regulation of the great flow of international traffic, and to help in avoiding border clashes. Literally thousands of persons pass and repass the line daily here, and without some means of control petty smuggling and evasion of border regulations are difficult to prevent.

GERMAN CORPORATIONS BOOST CAPITALIZATION

Aniline Dye Makers Follow Example of Baden Concern for Expansion

BERLIN, (AP)—The Aniline Dye corporation at a general conference has voted unanimously to increase its capitalization from 34,000,000 marks to 88,000,000 marks.

The administration gave exhaustive reasons for this move, citing among other things that the Baden Aniline Dye corporation had succeeded in perfecting synthetic ammonia and that there had been further development during the war in the creation of an enormous plant for explosives at Merseburg. It was stated that the capital invested in explosives now totals several hundred millions, but that more than a billion marks are needed.

With this capital the corporation expects to be able to produce explosives and fertilizer in sufficient quantities for the German needs for the chemical industry and for agrarian work.

SONG CONTESTS REVIVING

Famous Inter-Island Competitions to Be Resumed After Interruption

HILLO, Island of Hawaii, T. H. (AP)—The famous inter-island singing contests, in all likelihood, will be revived in 1920 and after that held as annual events in Honolulu, according to Ben Brown, Jr., who has been actively identified with the inter-island choristers in the past.

When the centenary of the arrival of the first missionaries is celebrated at Kailua, Kona, next year, there will be a singing competition staged by chorists from the island of Hawaii.

The annual inter-island chorister contests become famous some years ago, but there has been none held since 1916, when the Molokai singer won first place.

FIRST GRADE PUPILS IN MEXICO TACKLE SCIENCES

Geometry, Zoology and Kindred Subjects Figure in Primary Curriculum

JUAREZ, Mex. (AP)—Geometry, zoology, meteorology and botany are taught as one of the first grade in the schools of the state of Chihuahua. The study of these sciences is simplified, of course, in the early stages, but in little attempt at "sugar-coating" the hard facts.

A visitor to a second-grade classroom the other day, found the pupils—none over the age of eight years—glibly discussing rhombuses, rhomboids, trapezoids and parallelograms. Whenever their teacher asked a question, immediately a tangle of little waving arms are flung upward, with the oblique regularity of bristling baronets.

When the history period was called, it was clear that considerable emphasis was to be placed upon the workings that ruled over the Toltecs, the aboriginal inhabitants of this part of Mexico. The children handled the ancient Indian species, names with surprising exactness.

The relation between teacher and pupils was noteworthy. Not once during the entire series of recitations was the child obliged to reprimand any of her charges for delinquency. In addressing her pupils she invariably used the pronoun "children," "children," rather than "pupils," "pupils," "pupils," that one might expect to be used with children.

Considerable importance was attached to the products of the children's manual work. The walls of the large hall of the school were lined with childish drawings, dolls' furniture, cushions and needle work of all kinds.

There were ten grammar schools in Juarez—five for boys and five for girls. The co-educational system is adopted only in the high school, the only one in the state being located at Chihuahua City. Of the ten schools in Juarez, four are of six grades and the other six are of four grades each.

HIGH PRICE OF SILVER MAY CAUSE COIN DEBASEMENT

OTTAWA, (AP)—The high price which silver has been commanding in the metal markets of the world may necessitate a reduction of the fineness of the alloy from which Canadian silver coins are struck, it was affirmatively stated here.

Franklin Baker Tells Good Yarn on Ball Player

J. Franklin Baker, when he is in the mood, is one of the best story tellers on the Yankee team. He related fondly the tale of how the old Athletic lost a game because Frank Manush tried to throw a ball before he had it in his hands.

The rival team had a runner to second when the batter hit the ball down to Manush at second. Manush stopped the ball all right, but tried to throw it too quickly, and the ball rolled in between his feet. While he was fumbling for it the batter was safe and the man on second scored.

When the Athletics came back to the bench Manush said: "What in the world was the matter with you, Manush; why didn't you pick up that ball?" "I tried to, Connie," came the reply, "but I couldn't find the handle on the d—-ing thing."

AMITY MARKS MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR SESSION

National Baseball Circuit Merges Gather and Talk-Things Over

NEW YORK, (AP)—The annual meeting of the board of directors of the National league and the regular meeting of the club owners took place yesterday. President Heydler said much urgent business still remained unfinished and that the meeting might last through the greater part of the week.

The board of directors will meet on Monday at Messrs. Blochman, New York, Grant, Boston; Droyfus, Pittsburgh and Veck, Chicago. It was decided that in future two western and two eastern clubs will be represented on the board and that they would alternate each succeeding year. A rumor that the Brooklyn club had been sold to a syndicate of Brooklyn men was denied by President Ebbetts.

Major B. Ricker, president and manager of the St. Louis club, explained that there was no objection to whether he or some other person would manage the team next season.

The constitution was amended so that any club owner, manager, player or agent desiring to join the league with players belonging to other league clubs would be fined $1,000. Expulsion will be the penalty for second offense.

The league voted in favor of a 154 game schedule for the 1920 season, which will open on Wednesday, April 14, subject to the approval of the American league which will meet today. The training season was extended from four to six weeks prior to the opening of the playing season.

Mr. Heydler unofficially reported that the lengthening of the world series to nine games and the new rules for the division of the receipts seemed to find favor among the club owners.

President Heydler presented his annual report on league affairs during the past year.

Several deals were spoken of, including the rumored purchase of Roger Hornsby, of St. Louis, by the New York club. President Ricker spiked this rumor by saying: "There is not enough money in the league to buy Hornsby from St. Louis." It was said that Manager John J. McGraw had offered a record price for this player, exceeding the amount which was set by the purchase of Carl Mays by the New York Americans.

President Ebbetts of Brooklyn, stated that he had purchased Harold (Howdy) Elliott, a former catcher for the Chicago Cubs, from the Oakland, Cal., club. The Brooklyn club also has signed catcher Ernest Miller again.

President Chapin, of the Rochester club bought Al Baird, an infielder, from the New York nationals.

LEAGUE SCRAP EMBROILED OLD ORGANIZATION

Row in American Baseball Circles Causes Vexation in National

NEW YORK, (AP)—Uncertainty reigns in big league baseball circles here today, following the adjourned annual meeting of the directors of the National leagues last night. Legal complications in the American league have indirectly involved the senior organization and there are several interlocking arrangements which may be held up indefinitely unless the tangle in the junior league can be straightened out before the approach of the playing season.

Although the American league elected a new board of directors favorable to the policies of President B. H. Johnson and refused to elect a new executive in the latter's place by a vote of 5 to 3, the minority, consisting of the New York, Boston and Chicago clubs, are continuing their bitter legal battle to oust Johnson. So many suits and injunctions are piling up that it is almost impossible to follow the legal aspects of the affair. It is understood that strong efforts will be made during the next few days to bring the warring factions in the American league together upon some sort of harmony basis, but the owners of the minority clubs, which are also the wealthiest in the league, declare that there can be no compromise under any circumstances.

If this attitude is maintained the result may have a far-reaching effect upon professional baseball. If the minority faction can bring a court decision that certain actions of the league officers and their supporting clubs are unconstitutional, it may invalidate arrangements and agreements affecting organizations other than the American league. Several moves involving both major leagues await action including the election of a new chairman of the national commission to succeed Garry Herrmann, a drafting agreement with the major leagues and simultaneous opening and closing dates for the 1920 season of 154 games. Both meetings adjourned late yesterday subject to the call of the chairmen, but there was no intimation to-day when or where they would reconvene. President Johnson refused to state what action would be taken in this direction and the National league having cleared up all routine matters probably will await further developments before attempting to hold the joint meeting proposed yesterday. Such efforts as are likely to be made during the next few days to clear the baseball atmosphere probably will be along secret diplomatic and compromise lines.

SCHOOL NAMES IRWIN CAPTAIN OF GRID TEAM

Class of '21 Member Chosen to Honor Position in the High School Football

Jacob Irwin, class of '21, was elected captain of the football team for next year at the annual banquet given the grid men last evening in the high school cafeteria. This is the first instance of the election of a captain in a year in advance at the local school. Irwin was chosen following a three-course banquet served by the domestic science department, at which the work of the past seasons and aims for next year were discussed. Members of the committee variety and second teams of the past season, totaling thirty-two, and five faculty members were in attendance at the affair.

Two and three minute talks were given by several of those present, including members of the faculty. Dwight Kubus spoke on "Our Team Work"; Sterling Newman on "What Made the Team Fight"; Charles Hasenbalg on "What Seniors Have Learned from Football"; Theodore Schwartz on "How Student Loyalty Helps the Team"; Roy King on "How the Student Body Can Help a Player"; Assistant Coach Huber on "What Football Teaches a Man"; Gwen Watson on "The Seniors' Wishes for the Football Future of Twin Falls High School"; Victor Strobel on "What Football Can Do For a Fat Man"; Harold Becker on "What Second Team Experience Teaches a Fellow"; Norris Epler on "Our Wishes for Future Senior Football Men"; Assistant Coach Nafziger on "The Second Team's Value"; Principal Mitchell on "Football Spirit in Business"; and Schools Superintendent Blue on "Our Football Future."

The meeting closed with yells for the coaches and members of the teams.

BAN JOHNSON STILL LEADER OF AMERICAN

Younger Major League Insurgents Fail to Oust Presidential Dictator

NEW YORK, (AP)—The "insurgents" in the American league were ousted from the directorate yesterday by a board favorable to President Ban Johnson was elected.

Frank Nevin of Detroit, Thomas Shibe of Philadelphia, Philip D. Ball of St. Louis and Benjamin Minor of Washington were elected in place of James C. Dunn of Cleveland; Harry Frazee of Boston; Charles Comiskey of Chicago and Jacob Ruppert of New York. The last three named have been conducting warfare against Johnson.

Nevin was elected vice president of the league.

After adopting a 154 game schedule for next year the meeting adjourned subject to the call of President Johnson.

Immediately after the election Johnson was served with papers in three suits brought by Ruppert and Huston. One suit attacked the validity of Johnson's 20 year contract as president of the league. Another seeks damages for his actions as regards the New York club. Johnson's contract was upheld by vote of the board. It has about 10 years to run.

When the board of directors of the American league assembled President Johnson's attorney accompanied him into the meeting room. Colonel Ruppert of New York; C. A. Comiskey, Chicago; H. H. Frazee, Boston, and James Dunn, Cleveland, comprising the full board, were present. Colonel Ruppert said that as the president had brought his lawyer with him, he insisted that Comiskey, Frazee and himself should be legally represented.

Then Colonel Ruppert stepped out of the room to bring in his attorney and while he was out President Johnson and his counsel walked out also. When Ruppert returned the question of who should be chairman arose and Johnson was elected. The president, who was downstairs in the hotel, was sent for and when informed of his election as chairman, said that he was not going back.

Then Comiskey was selected as chairman with the understanding that should Johnson return he would be asked to preside.

The board transacted some routine business and then the other club owners om were called in and the meeting of the league as a whole was begun. President Johnson returned to the room at this juncture and the regular meeting proceeded.

MAKING THE BEST OF A BAD BARGAIN

Press dispatches today bring news from the Dorpat conference of present indications that no peace treaty will be signed as between the several Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Ukraine and White Russia on the one hand and the soviet government of Russia on the other; but that an armistice is possible.

Importance of this news will be better understood by reference to a recent statement of Frank H. Simonds, American historian and war correspondent, than whom, perhaps, there is no one better qualified to speak on this subject.

It is Simonds' idea that recent events have made three things clear: First, that there is no longer any hope that the armies of Kolchak, Denikin and Yudenitch in conjunction, or any one of them separately, can break the military power of the Bolsheviks.

Second, that the border races are not willing to continue the fight and are prepared to make terms with the Bolsheviks.

Third, that peace between soviet Russia and the border states would in-

THE PEACE TREATY BALLOT

Following the armistice, the representatives of 28 nations, including our own, drew up and signed at Paris a peace treaty with Germany, Part I being the league of nations covenant. This was also signed under compulsion by Germany.

During the special session of congress that ended on November 19, a series of 15 reservations to this treaty and covenant was adopted by the senate on recommendation of the foreign relations committee. When the ratifying resolution came to a vote of the senate, however, a two-thirds majority being necessary for adoption, it was defeated; 41 senators voted to ratify with reservations, 39 to ratify without any reservations, while 15 voted against ratification on any conditions whatsoever.

This is a democracy and in the end the will of the people will be acted upon by our representatives in Washington.

To test public sentiment on this most important question of modern times, The Twin Falls News asks its readers to state their attitude by checking that one of the following statements which expresses their views:

- 1. I favor compromise on reservations with immediate ratification of the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations Covenant.
2. I favor ratification, but only with all the Lodge reservations.
3. I favor ratification, but only without any reservations.
4. I am opposed to ratification in any form.

evitably leave the Great Powers no choice but to give up the fight against the Bolsheviks, in their turn, since they would have no avenue of approach by land once the border states have made peace.

Simonds traces the failure of the Russian policies of the nations which were allied and associated in the war against Germany, and draws this significant conclusion:

"In varying degrees, but still unmistakably, the Great Powers with the connivance of the border states which were interposed as a 'cordon sanitaire' or barrier separating the Entente from western Europe, have become hostages for the Bolsheviks. Then if the western allies do not shamelessly desert these border races, they will have either to defend them, which means new wars and the dispatch of new armies to the Russian frontier, a thing still impossible in view of public sentiment, or they will have to buy the Bolsheviks off by recognition."

But it is essential to remember, Simonds continues, that such an arrangement would be for the Bolsheviks only another Brest-Litovsk. "In other words," he says, "they would bow to the force of events but would regard the peace treaty only as a truce and seek to organize Russia for a renewal of the conflict, while they continue their efforts to undermine western political and economic structures by propaganda."

And here Simonds points out a most solemn truth:

"Beyond all else it seems to me that the trap for humbugging people about the Bolshevik situation is about over. The truth is that we have failed in all our half measures; our failure has resulted in the sacrifice of those elements in Russia on which might have been built a hopeful government and, if we persist in our present policy, we must expect, first, the sacrifice of the border states, then the coalition of Russia, and Germany, and presently new wars, bearing something of the same relation to the last that the Napoleonic struggles did to the wars of the French Revolution."

It is evident that the border people entertain no illusions as to any peace that might be made with the Bolsheviks, since press dispatches advise that the Letts, in particular among nationals at the Dorpat conference, do not wish to go beyond an armistice as the signing of peace would involve demobilization and disarmament and they are not inclined to trust the Bolsheviks that far. The Letts, it is declared, prefer to sign an armistice and allow peace conditions to develop while they maintain forces sufficient to protect themselves in the event of aggression.

In the opinion of many of the most capable observers ultimate war against the Bolsheviks is inevitable.

An armistice at this time is perhaps the best possible arrangement under the circumstances.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Carl R. Gray was elected president of the Union Pacific system companies at a meeting of the board of directors here today.

Mr. Gray began his headquarters will be at Omaha, will assume office January 1. He will succeed as president Robert S. Lovett, who will remain with the company as chairman of its executive committee. E. E. Calvin, whose jurisdiction hitherto has been limited to the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line, was elected vice president in charge of operations at the end of federal control.

H. M. Adams was appointed vice president in charge of traffic on the entire system.

A statement by Mr. Lovett said the new organization would effectually nullify the operation of all the proposals in the system.

The plan of unification announced by the Union Pacific directors today involves no disturbance of existing operations. Gray began his railroad career as a telegraph operator and station agent on the Santa Fe in 1883 and served as general manager of the Santa Fe during the war.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Weakness took possession of the corn market today after some show of strength at the outset. Sharp new breaks in foreign exchange together with larger receipts and moderating temperatures had a bearish effect. The settlement of the coal strike was also influential as a motive for selling. Initial prices, which ranged from 1-8 to 1-8 higher, with January $1.38 to 1.38 3/4 and May $1.34 to 1.35, were followed by a setback to well below yesterday's finish.

No important rally took place, and toward the last the depression became more and more pronounced. Prices closed heavy, 1-7-8 to 3-4 net lower, with January $1.35 to 1.35 3/4 and May $1.32 to 1.32 1/4.

The last part of the day witnessed further declines in provisions, and there was much talk of a poor outlook for exports.

Oats declined with corn. After opening unchanged to 1-4 to 3-8c up, including May at $1 1/4 to $1 1/2c, the market underwent a decided sag. Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions. Later, owing to grain weakness the market reacted somewhat.

SHEEPSHEARERS DEEMED GUILTY

Robertson and Nichols Must Pay Penalty but Jury Disagrees as to Clark

W. C. Robertson and B. F. Nichols, sheepshearers were this morning found guilty of grand larceny, a verdict to that effect being found by the jury called to hear testimony in wool-stealing case coming from the Thron Grex district. Frank Clark, a third defendant to the action, was the subject of disagreement by the jury. Robertson and Nichols will be in court Saturday morning to receive sentences.

The verdict in the wool case was brought in soon after the opening of the district court for the day's business this morning. The finding was definite in the case of Robertson and Nichols, but the foreman reported divided opinion as to the guilt of Clark. Testimony introduced against the latter attempted to show him to be the principal conspirator in the crime.

In the case of J. R. Annis, a youth recently found guilty of robbing W. B. Starr, the point of contention, a sentence of penal servitude from five to fifteen years was imposed. Annis forced Starr to drive him down to Blackfoot and there write checks in favor of Annis amounting to $300. The defendant attempted on the stand to show that the checks were voluntary contributions to keep Annis from disclosing information alleged to be in his possession and which involved a moral issue.

SADDLE STEALING CASE IS ON TRIAL

In this connection Arlie Patrick was found guilty in the probate court and served a term in the county jail. He is held up a witness against Jordan.

SOUTH SUFFERS FLOODS

Several Thousand People Made Homeless and Out of Employment

ATLANTA, Ga., (AP)—Several thousand persons were homeless today and many more out of employment as a result of flooded rivers in Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi. Railroad schedules, particularly in lower Alabama and Mississippi were demoralized and the property loss was estimated in millions. Rivers in the three states had reached their highest stages in many years as a result of heavy rains, but generally were receding today.

You can find a position, fitting your capabilities, through the classified. Others are doing it all the time.

STATE LEADERS PLAN CAMPAIGN

Republican Chairmen Consider Organization and Co-ordination Methods

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Organization and co-ordination methods for the coming campaign were discussed today at a meeting here on the national association of republican state chairmen. Will H. Hays, the party's national chairman and other officials of the national organization participated in the consideration of measures to insure harmony among the various state organizations.

Every state was represented. The meeting was executive, and it was said most of the time was taken up in exchanging views without any attempt to fix policies. There was understood to be a general agreement, however, that Chairman Hays' plan to decentralize campaign contributions by limiting the amounts accepted, should be extended as far as practicable into the state campaigns.

While the state leaders were in conference officials of the national committee began laying out the details for the national convention, which the committee decided yesterday is to be held in Chicago on June 8 and 9. The Kentucky committee, chosen chairman of the convention committee, was flooded with applications for tickets and predicted that there would be more than the usual difficulty in making satisfactory arrangements.

Friends of Chairman Hays started a movement today to insure his reelection as head of the national committee through the campaign regardless of who is nominated for president. The usual custom of giving management of the campaign to an active pre-convention supporter of the nominee, they asserted, probably would be disregarded in 1920 in order to insure Mr. Hays to carry on the organization work he has begun.

Chinese Discount United States Gold

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Plans to adjust the pay of the American troops stationed in China to meet the depreciation of American gold there will be taken up tomorrow by the house military committee.

"China is the only place in the world where the exchange rate is so against us," Representative Anthony, republican, Kansas, acting chairman of the committee said today.

The war department informed the committee that American gold was being accepted from the troops only at a rate of 91 cents in Chinese silver on the dollar.

GAME STAGNANT WHEN MAGNATES FUSS AND FUME

Baseball Greatest Sufferer as Owners' Row Prevents Improvements

BY I. E. HANBORN

CHICAGO—(Special)—How much legislation for the improvement of baseball will be possible during the coming winter depends largely on how much the American league will be able to function for the benefit of the sport with its ranks torn by dissension.

The National league stands ready to consider and legislate in favor of several suggested reforms in the game, the most important of which are the elimination of free sliding, the abolition of the out on a foul tip and the compulsory camouflaging of the intentional base on balls to heavy batsmen in the pitcher's box.

All these have been advocated by fans, writers, and by some of the club owners for a number of years. But for quite a spell the majors have been too busily engaged in mending their own fences to take much thought of little things, like improvements in the sport which has stood absolutely still for almost a decade. First the Federal league was then the world was given the "magnates" who control the destinies of commercial baseball, plenty to worry about without taking time to think of what were considered non-essentials.

Now Comes Civil War

Just as the pastime is getting back on its feet the American league has a "civil war" of its own to tangle up its members. Last the pastime has to grasp the significance of it, we will explain that all rule changes must be made with the sanction of the National and American leagues, according to the national agreement, which has been in force since 1903.

Consequently if the two factions of the American league cannot agree on the choice of a trio of its members to form a like committee from the National league on suggested changes in the rules of the game, there will be none this year. Suppose five American league club owners respond to President Johnson's call for the annual meeting of the organization to be held in Chicago Wednesday and three directors meet in New York in response to their own call for the annual meeting to be held there. Each faction may appoint a rules committee to meet with the National league's trio and thereby reduce to a minimum all chance of improvement in the game before another year.

N. L. to Avoid Scrap

It seems to be the policy of the National league to avoid entanglement in the American league's quarrel and if it were put up to the officials of the veteran organization to recognize either a rules committee appointed by Han Johnson nor one selected by the Goggin trio it probably would sidestep the issue.

That is an unfortunate situation because the major leagues now practically legislate so far as players are concerned, for the entire world of baseball, amateur, semi-pro and professional. Since the breach between the majors and minors, one or two of the latter have done some things independently, for instance the abolition of the spit ball in the American association. But in general the rule code sanctioned by the two major leagues governs all baseball games.

May Have Outside Body

If, because of the American league tangle, the majors continue to disregard proposed improvements there will be a strong demand before another year to separate the rule making power from the purely commercial precincts of the major leagues and substitute a body capable of looking beyond self interest and politics in the interests of what Judge Landis characterized as a "national institution."

Merely as a suggestion, a body composed of umpires and baseball writers of experience could safely be entrusted with rule legislation. The former would supply the practical ideas and the latter would furnish the theories and the wishes of the fans, with whom the scribes are in closer contact than the club owners or umpires can be.

Over-rated Boy Knocked Out By Benny Leonard

JERSEY CITY, N. J., (P)—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight boxing champion, knocked out Mel Younger, Brooklyn, in the second round of an eight round match at the Fourth regiment armory last night. Leonard weighed 137 pounds and his opponents 134.

After a round of open sparring, the champion scored two knockdowns in the second session with a right to the jaw, Younger taking a count of eight each time. On the third knockdown he was out.

At New York the New York heavyweight stopped Al Roberts also of New York in the second.

Joe Benjamin of San Francisco, featherweight, scored a technical knockout over Tommy Tuohy of Paterson in the fifth round, the referee stopping the contest.

THE PRINCE OF WALES BECOMES AN ALBERTA RANCHMAN

The Prince of Wales, when leaving Western Canada, said in a speech that he was merely bidding his friends there "au revoir and not good-bye." The Prince sincerely intends to return to Canada, for he has purchased the 600 acre Beadingfield ranch in Alberta, southwest of

House on the Prince of Wales' Ranch

This is a big recognition of the pre-eminence of Alberta as a province adapted for stock raising, for in his tour over Canada on his special Canadian Pacific train he had unusual opportunities to form an opinion as to the best location. His selection was Alberta's sunny foothills.

The Prince's venture will provide a great stimulus for the purchased livestock of Western Canada, as it is reported that he intends to ship over some of the very excellent thoroughbred, Shorthorn and Shropshire breeds which he is bringing with him on his English estate. This will mean some of the best blood of these three excellent breeds will be placed on his Alberta ranch, and by these being available to his neighbors he hopes to raise the standard, not only of those breeds, but also of the many other good breeds in Western Canada.

The Prince is planning to give employment to returned soldiers on his ranch.

ADVISES GIVING LABOR LARGER RESPONSIBILITY

Retiring Head of British Industries Federation Gives Views

LONDON, (P)—Sir Vincent Callard, retiring president of the Federation of British Industries, told the members of the federation the other day that he thought employers did not take their wage earners sufficiently into their confidence. At the same time he believed labor had been in the past unscrupulous and irresponsible. He expressed the belief that the workers should be given a voice in the settlement of the general conditions and should be allowed to make recommendations to the employers concerning rates of pay for piece work and other matters.

Employers, he said, would gain much more by patiently negotiating with their employees than by discontinuing operations. Different standards of wages, he added, were producing unrest all over the world. Therefore, he believed international action in adjustment of labor matters would be beneficial.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN TWIN FALLS

Taken of record from The News files this date in year 1904.

W. T. Seal arrived last week from Paso, Wash., to make this place his home.

On Saturday night the plans were completed for the new opening of lots which lie north and east of Third avenue, and on Sunday morning the lots were thrown on the market. Bids for the property were taken. Twin Falls town property is in great demand and large numbers of lots are being sold each day.

A. N. Sprague, Pocatello's most popular pharmacist was a visitor to Twin Falls this week. He purchased some land here and will return in the spring. Mr. Sprague has disposed of his business interests in Pocatello and is looking for a location.

School will begin in the new school house on Monday, December 19. It is anticipated that at the beginning some 110 scholars will be enrolled. Mr. H. H. Thornton, of Albion will be the instructor.

The temperature up to date has been very mild, the coldest registered being 0 degrees above zero. This is the coldest it gets here during the winter, and then only lasts for a few days at a time.

Eleven land buyers arrived on Wednesday's stage and for a few days thereafter kept the investment company's officials busy.

WAR RESTRICTIONS IN EFFECT FOR ENGLISH AFTER YEAR OF PEACE

Necessities Vitaly Concerning Home Are Still Rationed as Government Finds Continuance of Regulations Desirable in Industrial Emergencies

LONDON, (AP)—The end of one year of peace finds the United Kingdom still working under many of the wartime restrictions affecting ordinary living conditions, although large numbers of the orders have been rescinded and others have been modified. So far as food is concerned, only sugar and butter are now rationed. The regulations regarding the amount of meat which might be purchased were removed only a few days ago, without one year after the close of the war. The consumption of liquor, however, is being held down rigidly under the old rules. Necessities still rationed, which vitally concern the people, include coal, gas and electricity. The shortage of fuel has been causing considerable hardship both to the individual and to industry.

Continues Maximum Prices
The ministry of food has found it advisable to continue the maximum prices, both wholesale and retail, which it fixed for a considerable number of necessities.

Meat Regulation Lifted
Butchers' meat was rationed until a few days ago, each person being allowed forty cents' worth per week. In consequence of the receipt recently of a large supply of mutton and lamb from Australia and New Zealand it was found possible to lift all rationing restrictions, and the food ministry has expressed the hope that people will relieve the food situation by eating more meat, which is welcome advice for England.

Exchange Rate Big Factor
The increase is attributed partly to the more serious restrictions, partly to the augmented demand from the recently belligerent countries, and partly to inflated currency and adverse exchange. The government named have had a pronounced influence on prices and it is the belief of economic experts that food cannot be so much cheaper until there is an increase in production.

The butter ration is placed at one and one-half ounces for each person per week. This refers to the imported product only, there being no restriction on the use of home-made butter. As a matter of fact, virtually no butter is being made in the United Kingdom these days, so that the consumer has to depend upon margarine and foreign butter.

The actual figures are not yet available but it is expected that the profit this year will not exceed $2,500,000. Last year there was a profit of about $35,000,000, the whole of which was expended during the summer in supplying certain articles of food below their cost price. Thus the profit does not enrich the treasury, but goes entirely for the benefit of the consumer.

Coal Ration Five Tons
The maximum coal ration was and still is fixed at five tons for the individual consumer for the year beginning July 1, 1919. Gas and electricity

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and gradually. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

low the pre-war average. As a result, it is said, there has been an increase in sobriety. Whiskey is at present about thirty per cent under par. Alcoholic drinks can only be purchased between noon and 2:30 p. m., and between 6 and 10 o'clock at night. The food ministry still fixes wholesale prices for a number of other commodities and the ministry is the actual purchaser and distributor of cheese, bacon, lard, dried fruits, bread, butter, cocoa-powder, condensed milk and canned fish. The fixing of the maximum price, it must be noted, does not prevent the sale of goods for a sum below that amount, and in many cases foodstuffs are being vendued much below the limit fixed by law. The ministry is believed to be the largest in the world. Its annual expenditure is about $1,000,000. The object of the department is not to make a profit, but in transactions of this magnitude it is impossible to make both sides of the account balance. There's a market for good property. People are able and eager to buy desirable real estate. The home-building problem is growing more serious all the time. You can sell your real estate if you are willing to sell at a fair price—and to advertise it adequately.

WARNS AGAINST DISEASED MEAT

State Official Tells of Tuberculosis in Cattle and Poultry

BOISE (Special)—In a public statement just issued by J. K. White, state commissioner of public welfare, the sale of meat from tubercular carcasses was heartily denounced as a crime against the health of the state and against homes in Idaho.

Mr. White, in his statement, attributes the condition to look upon as a health menace, to be met by the most stringent measures, is the slaughter of tubercular cattle and the sale of this meat. He declares the tuberculosis in meat is a health menace and must be considered from that viewpoint.

"That there are many tubercular cattle in Idaho is a well-known fact and it is nothing short of a crime to maintain this diseased stock and take no steps to prevent spread of the malady," Commissioner White declares.

"I would advise the ignorant and the careless to avoid such meat, and to clean up tubercular meat and to be sure and for all."

Continuing his report Commissioner White tells of the recent discovery of tuberculosis in poultry flocks of the state. This disease has caused the public welfare department to start a thorough investigation. Commissioner White warns all persons against the purchase and use of diseased fowls having in their possession of a crime to report the condition of the liver in a sure index of the health condition of the fowl.

Investigation along this line proves, Mr. White declares, that tuberculosis is transmitted from animals to poultry, therefore the department, which is vitally interested in the prevention of the sale of tubercular meat, is also interested in the distribution of milk from infected cows, has offered its services to other state agencies in an eradication campaign.

"You can be reasonably sure that," says Commissioner White, "that if your cows are tubercular, your eggs and poultry will be affected. Service and experience have proved that this disease can be communicated from animal to man, and if tubercular cattle are maintained on your farm, then you have exposed the members of your family to one of the most serious diseases—one which has baffled the skill of the medical world."

COAL DISTRIBUTOR GETS SLIGHT REST

Warmer Weather Brings Decrease in Demand for Fuel Permits

Promises of improved conditions caused a decided decline in the local demand for coal today. Up to noon less than 30 permits had been issued, although the supply of fuel was far from low.

No consignments of coal reached Twin Falls last night, but Distributor A. A. Minnick has information that several carloads will be left here this evening. There was about 120 tons in stock when distributing operations began this morning, most of this being in the hands of the distributor.

Approach of unusually cold weather on Tuesday caused the biggest rush for coal of the week, there being 312 applications filed all day long. Wednesday business fell off two thirds, there being only 128 cards issued. Today promises to be the lightest of the week thus far.

NOTICE TO CITY WATER USERS

Until further notice the water department will have a trouble man at its office until one o'clock a. m. All persons having trouble with frozen water pipes and water not turned off at the mains should call J. J. PLOBERN, superintendent.

DON LYMAN'S REAL ESTATE BARGAINS

It is my business as a real estate man to hunt up the real bargains. It is your business to take advantage of these bargains.

160 ACRES—Just listed; all in hay; lays well, has splendid improvements. $5,000. Now modern house, large frame barn, sheep house, etc. Price $300 per acre. See us and then the land.

80 ACRES—With about 50 acres in hay; suitable for raising beefs if so desired. Near Twin Falls. Price $300 per acre.

80 ACRES—One of the fine, smooth 80 acres. Power and light on the place which is now being built. Twin Falls district, close in.

40 ACRES—This is in my judgment one of the best hay lands on the tract. It is also in splendid location, having all the modern conveniences, electric power and light, a fine 4 room, modern house, very tightly packed. If you count the improvements that are worth it makes the land very cheap. Price $550 per acre.

These three bargains are on the "Good Old Twin Falls" tract, where you have "cash land" go from a few dollars per acre to the above prices.

Now I have found some bargains in some of the finest land in Idaho today which I can sell you at the old time Twin Falls prices and if you will invest you will have that same splendid opportunity that you could have had on this tract, viz: a rapid advance in price. Only I truly believe these bargains will advance much more rapidly.

I can sell you 50 1/2 acres, all in hay, the best hay land, equally good for anything else, for about $100 per acre.

I can sell you 100 acres fine land, free from rock and smooth land, with 150 acres of this in hay, at $100 per acre. One of our good Twin Falls farmers would make this land pay for itself in one year by putting in 20 acres of potatoes which he could reap in December and have three weeks ahead of this market.

105 ACRES—Good land, well located, small improvements, at $75 per acre.

I have found these splendid bargains and many more that I cannot mention here. Why not take advantage, go and see them and judge for yourself? Do not be thrown off the track by some knocker as some have been. See and judge for yourself. If you are a buyer I pay all expenses.

Until I get located in my down town office I will be home at 609 Main West, nearly opposite the Lucky Store.

My phone number is 1249. Call me up and leave your address.

Precarious is Going in Hard Wind Over Ice

WHILE southing zephyrs sighed sorrowfully through striped shrubs and over sleek sidewalks did you sprawl or just shimmy?

Perpendicular positions were not maintained during the earlier hours, folks not generally being equipped with non-skids.

Two great going, not only because of the weather, but because of a burrowing breeze that tore over the territory in hurricane haste, but because the breeze hit from all directions at once, upsetting calculations designed for the retaining of a perpendicular attitude.

Wonder if the weatherman's a pyromaniac, or if he loves 'em too dearly?—Sure made 'em feel immodest in that lustily laughing and quite lifting cyclone.

Top and bottom of it all yesterday and last night was respectively speaking, 42 and 35. Thawed all night.

An tremendous blizzard in Boise took up of the professor's "top" and he is letting folks do their own guessing today.

The storm broke here shortly before noon.
