Four Organizations of Steel Workers Claiming Membership of Nearly Five Thousand Men Meet in Cleveland, Ohio, with Indications Pointing to Vote in Favor of Returning to Work, Bringing Three Months' Tie-up of Industry to Early Close

WITNESS TELLS OF MURDER OF U. S. AIRMEN

Discoverer of Bodies of Connolly and Waterhouse Declares American Army Aviators Met with Foul Play

EL PASO, Tex., (AP)—Lieutenants Dick Connolly and Frederick Waterhouse, American aviators who lost their lives after being forced to descend in Lower California, Mexico, were murdered, according to testimony given today by the senate sub-committee investigating Mexican affairs, given here today by Joe Allen Richards.

Richards, an American, discovered the bodies September 21 last on the beach of the Baya de Los Angeles when he went ashore from a little Mexican steamer to fill in replenishing the water supply of the boat.

According to his testimony today Richards was arrested by the Mexican authorities at Santa Rosalia when he arrived there September 25 for his report in reporting to the master of the steamer Providencia, which was in the harbor of Santa Rosalia at the time he said he was kept in the boat for more than a day. Before he was put in the cell, Richards said, he was stripped of all clothing.

Richards testified at a hearing conducted by Major Dan M. Jackson of El Paso, secretary of the senate sub-committee. None of the senate members of the committee was present.

Richards said he first discovered an offensive odor while walking the beach waiting for the Mexican crew of the boat on which he was traveling to return from a spring with water which he said he saw and dug with a shell, uncovered a skull. He continued his exploration and came upon a leather boot. Pulling at the boot he uncovered the body of a man and continued work brought the other body to light.

Richards accompanied the expedition that went to lower California aboard the U. S. destroyer Ward from San Diego to recover the bodies and airplane and said testimony given to military and navy officers aboard the Ward by Mexican residents of the country and by the crew of the Mexican steamer Esperanza was to the effect that the "Americans" were the equipment of the airplane was found aboard the Esperanza when that boat was overhauled and made fast to the Ward, according to Richards.

Animals Attacked Bodies
Wild animals had attacked the bodies of the aviators, according to Richards, who were buried only under six inches of sand when he found them. Flesh from the upper part of their bodies had been eaten away, he said.

UNION MACHINISTS CAST VOTE FOR GENERAL STRIKE IF GUMMINS BILL PASSES

WILSON TO BE ASKED TO EXERCISE VETO AGAINST MEASURE IF ADOPTED

Organization Chief Announces Result of Vote Taken in November; Declares Ninety-eight Per Cent of 125,000 Members in Employment of Railways Favor Walk-out in Protest Against Proposed Anti-Strike Legislation

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Ninety-eight per cent of the 125,000 union railway machinists voted in November to strike with other trades in the event congress enacted the Cummins railroad bill with its anti-strike provision.

In making this announcement today Wm. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, said the vote was taken before the senate interstate commerce committee reported out the Cummins measure, and the result was not officially published because the association did not want to appear in the attitude of attempting to threaten congress.

The machinists' membership is around half a million, but not more than 125,000 of this number are employed on the railroads.

President Johnston explained that the strike vote stipulated that union railway machinists would quit work if the Cummins bill, passed by both branches of congress, not by one.

Denies Necessity
"When the roads were taken over by the government the employees were free," Mr. Johnston said, "and we propose that if actually published because the association did not want to appear in the attitude of attempting to threaten congress."

JAPAN DECIDES ON EMBARGO TO HALT COST RISE

Government Will Prohibit Exportation of Cotton Yarns and Tissues in Hope of Ameliorating Industrial Condition

TOKYO, (AP)—The Japanese government has decided to prohibit the exportation of cotton yarns and cotton tissues in order to check the advance of prices. Owing to the shortage of supply against the ever increasing demand, the price of raw cotton has gone up 197 per cent.

It is alleged that this is in part due also to speculative dealings in cotton yarn brokers, who have taken advantage of the buoyant market and the fast falling supply to deal in futures.

The government has decided also to exempt from customs duty cotton yarn and cotton tissue imported from abroad. Several large spinners in Osaka and elsewhere have ordered cotton yarn from the United States and China and many Japanese cotton mills will augment their manufacturing capacity with spindles and other machines imported from the United States.

FIVE DOLLARS A QUART PRICE OF WHALE MILK

California Export on Leviathan Replies to Request for Lactical Fluid

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP)—Five dollars a quart—not a cent less—would be the price he would ask for whale's milk if he established a whale milkery, according to Captain John B. Loop, a man mammal expert of Long Beach, near here, who recently returned from a whale hunt in Mexican Pacific waters.

Captain Loop has not determined, however, to establish a whale dairy; he merely made that announcement because Arthur de Ell of 607 North 13th street, Omaha, Neb., who is in charge of the sealman's knowledge of whales and a small organ of the lactical fluid of Leviathans that he recently brought to Southern California, sent a request "reserving" a sample of the milk.

Captain Loop said he would send a sample to de Ell.

He permitted members of the B. P. O. Elks lodge to take the whale's milk to Long Beach. They declared it richer and more palatable than that of cows.

The captain, who has contributed much interesting information to the general knowledge of whales, says the first thing to do in order to obtain the milk of one is to catch the whale. He has not made public how he does it.

ADD TO CONSUL'S BURDEN

Texas Women Solicit Aid in Keeping Border-Crossing Relatives at Home

JUAREZ, Mex., (AP)—That Edward A. Dow, American consul here, is his brother's keeper is apparently the notion that is entertained by a number of El Paso wives, mothers and sisters.

Consul Dow receives two or three letters a week from El Paso women asking him to revoke the border cards of some male members of the family, on the ground that the men drink and waste but too well when they get over here.

Mr. Dow is powerless to accede to these requests, unless it can be proven that the male transgressors in question have violated the Mexican law during their "joy trips."

DUTCH WOMEN SEEK CHANGES

Form Organizations for Improvement of Age Old Conditions.

THE HAGUE, (AP)—The ideals and ideas of Dutch women, for centuries confined to children, kitchen and church, have undergone a change and the daughters of the land of windmills and canals are making a strong fight for their rights.

Several great organizations have been formed for improvement of the conditions of women. With the passage of the Dutch constitution last year women obtained full suffrage and the result is that now there are women in nearly every town council.

Realizing, however, that the possession of the vote alone does not decide the lot of women, the promoters of the movement are now seeking to bring about changes in the laws and regulations which discriminate against the sex economically and socially.

"According to the Dutch law," said Mrs. Wijnandts Francken, one of the leaders of the women's movement, "the father has practically all the say about the education of the children—He decides as to their future, consents to their marriage and may even send them wherever he likes. Of course, this is of no importance whatever in a good marriage, where father and mother together debate about such things, but this power of the father may be of great importance in the delicate cases in which the father deliberately took a child away and hid it from his mother, without the latter having any voice in the matter."

"Another thing about the Dutch woman is that she must remain faithful to her husband in the way of marriage. Now, please don't think that these women are adverse to rule and order. They only want to be the equals of their husbands, not their housekeepers."

"As things are now, a Dutch woman has to suffer almost anything from a male adulterer, but if she is guilty of adultery or boodily ill usage can rid her of his despotism."

"One of the greatest obstacles these women leaders have to overcome is the conservatism of the old-fashioned women, who, especially in the rural districts, form a great part of the population. But the women who are fighting for the betterment of their sex hope in the end to succeed in conquering this prejudice."

ALASKANS SEEK CANNERY

Farmers Take Initiative in Undertaking to Extend Markets

JUNEAU, Alaska, (AP)—Farmers of the Chitkat valley, who have successfully raised strawberries, raspberries, cranberries and many varieties of vegetables, will find a better market for their products, it is believed here, when a new canning company, recently incorporated, gets into operation. There are 21 farmers in the valley, each of home-steads varying from 60 to 120 acres in extent. The land is fertile and capable of raising a wide variety of crops, well if an outside market is found, the farmers report.

Prominent Alaskans are named in the incorporation papers.

GERMAN PRISONERS PUT IN CLAIM FOR CROSSES

None Yet Has Admitted that He Gladly Sold His Decoration or Traded It to Americans

BERLIN, (AP)—Many returned German prisoners are applying to the military department for new iron crosses, saying the originals were taken from them by the entente. Not a single prisoner so far as is known has admitted that he often and gladly sold his iron cross to the American soldiers or took a bag of tobacco for it with enthusiasm.

The German government demands proof that the crosses were actually taken.

You can sell that lot or plot of ground with the advertising cost through the classified.

PLANS IMPROVEMENT OF JERUSALEM FOR ZIONIST

Noted Town Planner Aims at Making Changes While Preserving Landmarks

LONDON, (AP)—Professor Patrick Geddes, town planner, who has in hand projects for the improving of Jerusalem for the Zionist organization, aims at making the changes without destroying the historic and romantic aspects of the ancient city, according to a statement which he has given to the Zionist Bulletin.

Professor Geddes states that one of his first tasks will be in connection with the Hebrew university, and he hopes to begin on that next year, utilizing buildings already erected. His research laboratories for chemistry will be at the Hebrew university, and he is the Zionist leader, who has been a leader in chemistry at Owen's college, Manchester, will be in charge of the research work.

Professor Geddes says he hopes to start a Palestine museum and suggest that nothing more of historical and archaeological interest should go out of the country.

EL CENTRO BARBERS' NEW SCALE CAUSES COMPLAINT

EL CENTRO, Cal., (AP)—"Skinned while being shaved," muttered a patron of one of El Centro's barbers, as he followed the shortest route from the shop to the office of an agent of the United States department of justice.

He wanted to complain at paying 65 cents for a haircut, 35 cents for a shave and 25 cents for a shine.

General dissatisfaction at the new scale of prices has caused the male citizens of El Centro not only to tell their stories to federal representatives but to threaten to wear beards and long hair.

Germany Drops Crown from Coat of Arms

BERLIN, (AP)—The German government has chosen a new coat of arms for the republic. It consists of a black eagle on a gold and yellow background without other ornamentation, the crown and other emblems having disappeared.

Any reasonably-priced house or apartment may be rented through an inexpensive classified advertising campaign. Test the matter. The price involved is so small that few people would dignify it by that name.

PLAN GREAT EXCAVATION TO PUT OUT MINE FIRE

Blaze Continuing for More Than 20 Years in Arizona Property to Be Eliminated

JEROME, Ariz., (AP)—The fire, which for more than twenty years has burned in the upper levels of the United Verde copper mine here, is about to be eliminated by a drastic process of lowering the entire surface of the property to a 400-foot level. All attempts to extinguish it have failed.

It is the general opinion that the fire was started by a slip in the rock, producing enough friction heat to ignite the ore rich in sulphur. It has burned its way through veins of copper, gold and sulphur.

The process of suppressing the fire involves the removal of 14,000,000 cubic yards of material. The area to be excavated is roughly estimated at 400 by 800 feet. Monster steam shovels are to be employed in the work.

It is expected that the task of removing the entire top of the mine and to extinguish the fire will occupy several years.

HORSES, ANCIENT AND MODERN

An interesting addition has recently been made to the biological museum of Whitman college. It consists of models of the heads of ancient horses and brings to practical completeness the museum exhibit which traces the development of the horse. People of America, and especially of Oregon, will be interested in such an exhibit, because the remains of ancient horses have been found in large numbers in the western part of the United States, especially in the John Day region.

The first horse, the little Eohippus, was a fox in size and had four toes, and from it the modern horse has developed up to the draft horse of modern times, with a head larger than the entire body of its early ancestor and with only a single toe on each foot.

After the four-toed horse came the three-toed horse, which had a slightly larger head than the three-toed horse of the same size, the middle toe being larger with a small toe on each side. Later the small toes were lifted from the ground, and a head larger than the entire body of its early ancestor and with only a single toe on each foot.

The head of this three-toed horse is larger, the teeth longer, and the horns of the modern horse, though of the size of a Shetland pony. This horse was the immediate ancestor of the modern horse, which shows small spint bones on the legs, remains of the once used extra toes and bones to which they were attached.

When the horse has become an extinct animal, as it threatens to become, driven out by the tractor, it will be possible for the scholar of the future to study its entire historical development. The college museum, in addition to its exhibit of models, possesses a series of lantern slides which show entire skeletons of horses, both ancient and modern, and their near relatives.

LEAGUE NEEDS COOPERATION OF WOMEN TO FUNCTION

LONDON, (AP)—The success of the league of nations idea is dependent upon the intelligent cooperation of the women, says Miss A. Helen Ward in an article in the League, a periodical. The writer suggests the organization of a woman's bureau of the league of nations and that the women should be appointed for their general interest for the purpose of the league, rather than merely as experts in what are known as "woman's interests."

ENLARGED EGO REASON WHITE SOX LOST FLAG

Puncture Proof Defense Showed Great Gaps when the Big Test Came

BY I. E. SANBORN
Any one as closely associated as I was with the White Sox during the last month of their campaign for the American league pennant would have been disappointed but not surprised, or scandalized, by the result of the world's series of 1919.

Headed and Chests Expand
This produced an abnormal development from the waist line up, particularly above the collar line. It was a natural result of the constant over-exertion of the White Sox all over the eastern end of the circuit.

How the System Worked
The former king of keystone cappers sat in the press box frequently and in more than one game told me he never had seen anything to beat Ribberg's work at short. He told the local scribes the same thing, and they published it.

Particular attention was called to the play at the time, but in the general hubbub over the result it was overlooked by the majority of fans. It happened in the fourth inning of the first battle, when Cicotte was hit off the slab.

Then Followed Cicotte's Bout
Noble then hit a grounder, which Ribberg knocked down back of second base.

Then Followed Cicotte's Bout

Brief Bits of Sport

In Philadelphia, a landlord stirred a hubbub by lowering rents.

In Twin Falls landlords do the hubbub stirring by a different route. On January 1, at least one of the local apartment houses will boost rents $10 for each 2-room apartment.

But both ways seem to produce results.

Si Sanborn, Chicago baseball writer, has another theory relating to the recent White Sox loss the world go-falon. He says it was chestiness.

Pride has ridden lots of better people than lamed folks to a hard fall before this.

Headline—Europe Beckons Jack Dempsey For Fight.

Got to becken with the right color of cash before Jack will be tempted much.

According to police records wool alcohol and vanilla steams are more prevalent just now than the other variety.

Sim Smiley, sagebrush sage, says: "Most folks think it so old that the statute of limitations falls like a mantle of charity over 'em—a sort of blanket insurance for their world, though said folks are liable to have to puff like h—l in the next."

The Terra Haute Baseball association of the Terra Haute league proposes to conduct a series of pretty fair boxing matches to help swell the fund in the efforts to start a team on a successful career in the spring.

The tip might be given some consideration by home supporters of baseball, for it is sure the association needs no money.

New boxing material is coming to the fore so rapidly since the war that it is with difficulty the dyed-in-the-wool fan keeps even a cursory line on the fresh talent.

Boise still clings to the theory that wrestling is a sport.

In Tucson the other night Happy Woods lamed Eddy McElrath on the jaw and sent Eddie into dreamland for some minutes. The slam was delivered in the second round of a scheduled 10-round boxing bout. The batters weighed in at the welterweight limit.

Headline—Babe Ruth wants $20,000. Modest, we'll say; most folks want a million.

Oregon Footballers Sacrifice Inclinations to "Art" Refusing Invitations

PASADENA, Cal., (AP)—Members of the Oregon football squad which is to meet the Harvard team here on New Year's day, sacrificed yesterday their inclinations to their art. Declining numerous invitations to Christmas feasts and eschewing festivities of all kinds, they stuck to their plain training fare and their program of two periods of hard practice daily.

Following the announcement today that all tickets for the game had been sold out during the first day's sale here yesterday and that none was left for the proposed sale in Los Angeles Friday and Saturday, the football committee of the Tournament of Roses association has begun preparations to increase the capacity of the tournament park beyond its original capacity of 27,000.

"I'm Through," Says Babe Ruth Just Like That

Of Course, the Mighty Slugger of the Red Sox Means He Quit, Perhaps

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP)—"Babe" Ruth, home run hitter, yesterday confirmed announcement in Boston by his manager, Joe Egan, that he had returned to the Boston American league club his contract, calling for a yearly salary of $10,000 and had made demand that he be paid $20,000 for the coming season's work.

"Unless they meet my terms, I am through with major league baseball," Ruth declared yesterday. "I have several propositions on hand in California, any one of which would pay me more than $10,000 a year and I am not worrying."

Ruth disclaimed any intention of entering the ring, as reported recently, but admitted he might go in for motion pictures.

Joe Welling Gets Shade in the Christmas Fight with Benjamin—Brennan Wins

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Joe Welling, Chicago light weight, won by a shade from Joe Benjamin of California in six rounds at one of the Christmas day matinees here. The bout was slow and uninteresting.

At another club Bill Brennan, Chicago, beat Sailor Petrozky, California, in a hard fought six round bout. In other bouts Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York, defeated Young Joe Borrell, Philadelphia; Artie Book, Cleveland, and Harold Farace, Newark, N. J., fought a draw; Johnny Murray, New York, defeated Joey Fox of England in a fast heat and Joe Borrell won from K. O. Samson.

WHY NOT BUILD ANOTHER?

NEW YORK, (AP)—Drastic changes, virtually amounting to remodeling, will be made on the Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup, according to reports current in well informed yachting circles here today. The most important change, it is said, will be to shorten the challenger's keel by about five feet for the purpose of increasing speed in windward work.

POSSIBLE TO DOUBLE PRODUCTION OF COWS

Success of Dairymen Due Greatly to Quality of Animals.

Farmer Should Eliminate Low Producers From Herd and Feed Remainder According to Production—Add to Profit.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Dairymen in the United States are divided into three classes—those who ultimately fail and abandon the business; those who eke out a limited existence, and those who succeed. Invariably, the success of the progressive dairymen is principally due to the quality of his cows. He climbs to freedom from financial worry on the backs of his producers. It is impossible for the average dairy cow of the United States even to approach the remarkable production record of Duchess Skylark-Ormsby, who produced in a year 1,206.09 pounds of butterfat, equivalent to three-fourths of a ton of butter. But it is possible for dairymen, the country over, to double the present production of their herds. To increase the production of the average dairy cow from 100 to 320 pounds of butterfat a year would not be difficult, according to dairy experts, and would increase net profits out of proportion to production costs.

This should be the aim of every progressive dairy farmer. He should eliminate the low producers from his herd and feed the remainder according to known production. He should improve the foundation stock with the idea of making the daughters yield as much more milk than their dams as possible. This practice in a few generations would greatly increase production, decrease the cost of feed and add much to the profit and pleasures of dairy farming.

MILK KEPT SWEET EIGHTEEN DAYS BY PROPER HANDLING AND COOLING

When a bottle of cream shipped from Los Angeles to the National Dairy Show at Chicago was opened and tested 18 days after it had left the cow, it was pronounced in perfect condition by those who examined it. Other samples of milk and cream entered in the national milk and cream contest and examined 12 to 18 days after production were also found to be sweet. Because of the number of bacteria present, ordinary milk will not remain wholesome for such a long time, even if kept cold. The milk and cream which made such longkeeping records were produced under very sanitary conditions, and every precaution was taken to keep them clean and to keep the bacteria count low. Furthermore, the milk was cooled to a low temperature immediately after it was drawn, and held there. The success attained in producing milk of such longkeeping qualities made such longkeeping records were measured to the educational value of the local milk and cream contests which have been especially popular in cities of the Pacific Coast States.

The bottles of milk, which were placed in boxes, and surrounded with the crushed ice, were kept at a temperature from 32 to 34 degrees Fahrenheit at all times. The boxes were shipped in baggage cars to Chicago, and most of them were not opened along the route. An inspection of the samples on arrival at Chicago showed that of the various methods of packing, the insulated milk filled with crushed ice was the most effective. The bottles of milk in these boxes were entirely surrounded by the ice, which was packed in as tightly as possible. One or two samples which were packed in ice and sawdust arrived in a spoiled condition, due to the fact that a low enough temperature had not been maintained. The ice in the insulated boxes lasted well, and one box from Portland, Ore., which was re-iced at Minneapolis on Tuesday did not arrive in Chicago until the following Saturday, but was still in good condition.

Long Shipment Possible

When milk is produced and handled under the right conditions it can be shipped to almost any point in the United States, or to foreign countries, and arrive in good condition, according to dairy specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. At present considerable quantities are being shipped to Panama, and are used on ocean liners plying between this country and Europe.

CLAIMS MISCONSTRUCTION

War Risk Bureau Director Explains the Statements on Work Done

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Director Chalmers Jones, of the bureau of war risk insurance, said Wednesday that his remarks to the conference of American Legion officials here last week, relative to the bureau's progress in handling disability claims, had been misconstrued. The bureau, Mr. Chalmers-Jones said, had received to December 12 a total of 227,275 claims for compensation as a result of injuries incurred in line of duty. Of those, he reported, 241,822 had been definitely settled. Included in that were both awards and claims which were not allowed.

In nearly every disease known, valuable diagnostic, as well as prognostic aid can be given by careful examination of the blood, urine, sputum, gastric contents, specimens of tissue, such as cancerous and tuberculous glands, bacterial examinations of pus, spinal fluid contents, and inflammatory exudates, such as pus in the lung, etc.

No disease is of such minor importance that the patient is not justified in demanding every means toward an accurate diagnosis.

THE AMERICAN PLAN

There is no such thing as legislation that will suit everybody. If that were possible there would be no need for legislation or for government at all, because with everybody holding the same opinions on every subject, the utopia about which the anarchists and socialists dream would be here and strife and contention of every sort would be at an end.

Everybody knows that everybody cannot be wholly satisfied with any proposal that might be made, and so, it is a wise fundamental principle of the plan of government for the United States that while will of the majority shall be law, the way is left open for legitimate expression of the wish of the minority.

Prohibition is distasteful to a considerable number of American citizens. But prohibition undoubtedly is the will of the majority, and so it has been made law. At the same time the way is open for orderly activities looking toward the repeal of this or any other law, and this course of procedure has been adopted notably by the voters of New Jersey who lately elected a governor who declared that if possible he would make the state "as wet as the Atlantic ocean" and pledged himself to invoke every legitimate means to secure the abrogation of the ban against intoxicants.

The Cummins railroad bill with an anti-trust provision now pending in congress, seems to have stirred the ire of certain elements of organized labor to so great an extent it would seem that they have forgotten the elementary American rights vouchsafed to the minority and, according to Wm. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, ninety-eight per cent of the 125,000 union railway machinists voted in November to strike with other trades in the event the bill was passed by both houses of congress.

Regardless of individual opinion as to the desirability of prohibition, the voters of New Jersey and their governor retain the respect of the nation because in their fight against the legislation they seek to repeal they have not departed from the foundation principles of the American form of government.

Irrespective of the right or wrong of the provisions of the Cummins bill that offend in some quarters, the course laid out for themselves by those who have voted for a general strike in the event of its becoming law merits nothing but the condemnation of every friend of the American form of government.

Prohibition is distasteful to a considerable number of American citizens. But prohibition undoubtedly is the will of the majority, and so it has been made law.

ornment. It falls little short of anarchy and it strikes as the tap root of government of by and for the people. It is indefensible from any viewpoint and the government that is deflected by such tactics cannot endure, nor does it deserve to continue. The way is not closed to legitimate expressions of protest in the case of the Cummins bill any more than it is to any other piece of pending or enacted legislation, but the American plan has no place for dictatorship of the minority nor for a system under which legislation is to be enacted at the behest of a few hearing the club of a general strike or any other instrument for precipitating chaos.

NORTH DAKOTA SECURITY QUESTIONED IN NEBRASKA

State Bank Department Looks Askance at Offer of Institution Under Cloud

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP)—The State Bank of Halsey, under indictment in the grazing region of Nebraska, with a capital stock of $10,000 and deposits of $50,000, has been closed by the state bank department. Secretary Hart ordered the bank closed several days ago, but no publicity was given it, until Mr. Hart received word that the county attorney of Halsey and State Bank Examiner Toulmin were on their way to Minnota to secure the presence of F. M. Ridings, president of the closed bank. Mr. Ridings lives at Minneapolis. For a week or more, Secretary Hart said yesterday, the county attorney and examiner have been trying to obtain from President Ridings enough money or good security to cover $25,000 of certificates of deposit which Mr. Ridings is alleged to have secured from the bank. In return for these securities, President Ridings is alleged to have given the bank $18,000 of North Dakota paper, which the state bank department thinks is of doubtful value. Mr. Hart's attorney in Lincoln, who is alleged to have applied for a writ of injunction to prevent the seizure of the bank, is alleged to have secured the presence of F. M. REAL ESTATE MAN IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Feels Better Now Than in 28 Years "Nothing Beats Tauline," He Says

"There is nothing in the world that can beat Tauline as a medicine," said A. P. Barr, living at 4015 Park Blvd., San Diego, Cal. Mr. Barr is in the real estate, loan and insurance business, and is well known and highly respected. "I am feeling better and stronger than I was in twenty-eight years," he continued. "My back and joints are better now than they were in twenty-eight years. I have lost weight and gained strength. I can sleep at night. The gas on my stomach was something awful, and I would swell up after nearly every meal. It was out of the question for me to eat any solid food, and I became so weak I had to give up my business almost at once. I tried everything I knew to get relief, but nothing did me a particle of good—didn't even give me temporary relief. One day, while talking to my physician, he said: 'Why don't you try Tauline, I believe it will do you good.' I got a bottle immediately, and after before I had finished that first bottle I was surprised at the way I improved, and I kept on getting better until now I'm a well man after suffering for twenty-eight long years. My appetite came right back, and I have gained eleven pounds already. My stomach is in fine condition, and I am never troubled the least bit with gas or with indigestion, or with any nervousness, and the noises and sounds that used to almost drive me frantic don't trouble me one bit. I sleep fine every night, and get up with more energy than I had in a quarter of a century. My neighbors are all remarking how well and energetic I look. My recovery has been remarkable, and Tauline gets the whole credit. If anybody does not believe this tell them to see me or write me."

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE WINS HONORS IN WAR

Alleged Thief Set Free on Probation after Enlistment Receives Croix de Guerre Officially under Right Name

BOSTON, (AP)—How Arthur E. Abbot, long wanted as a fugitive from justice for the theft of $15,000 from the Federal Trust company, of this city, enlisted in the marines and as Sergeant William H. Haskell, was cited for brilliant war service, was disclosed today when it was announced that he had been set free on probation by the district attorney, and that he had received the croix de guerre officially under his right name.

Abbot, who was employed as a bank bookkeeper at $20 a week, disappeared in the fall of 1917 after the bank loss became known and it was learned that he had been living like a man of wealth and leisure away from his family. He evaded a nation-wide search for him and enlisted in the marine corps at New Orleans as Haskell and went overseas with the Sixth regiment. He was one of the forty-four men left of the famous thirteen hundred marines who went through the Argonne.

He was cited for bravery after capturing a machine-gun and nine prisoners near Vierzon on July 19, 1918. After receiving an honorable discharge last January he immediately re-enlisted as Haskell. He was detailed aboard the U. S. S. Dolphin in July and ordered to participate in the N. H. where he was recognized and arrested. District Attorney Pellier, of Boston, on learning of his service record, ordered his release on probation. He was recruited by the navy department, charged with enlisting under a false name, but his commanding officer, Captain John Brady of the submarine Dolphin, effected his release within a short time and a few days later decorated him as Arthur Abbot with the Croix De Guerre before the ship's crew and a marine detail drawn up at attention.

The citation accompanying the decoration was signed by General Pettin and was presented to Abbot by his commanding officer in the presence of an official representative of the French government.

The aim of the new organization, literally translated is "The Heavenly Feet Association."

Early Conferences for Putting Peace Treaty into Effect Announced

PARIS, (AP)—Conferences will begin here early next week between allied and German delegates on measures preparatory to putting the peace treaty into effect, it was announced today.

The sessions will be held under the presidency of General Lerdon, a member of the French delegation.

Here Van Simson will head the German delegation. British and Italian delegates will arrive here Monday to have part in the deliberations.

The supreme council did not hold a session today but announced a meeting for tomorrow.

ALLIED REPLY TO GERMAN NOTE PUBLISHED IN BERLIN

BERLIN, (AP)—The allied reply to the latest German note regarding the peace treaty protocol was published here today.

The first paragraph of the reply expresses satisfaction that the German government shares the point of view of the allies that the dispositions of the treaty of peace are applicable from the moment of the treaty's entry into force, whether ratification by the United States has or has not occurred.

The allies take note that Germany admits in principle that no contracting party can refer to the non-participation of the United States in the first deposit of ratification documents as a ground for questioning any stipulation of the treaty.

The third paragraph expressed the determination of the allies to insist upon demanding the signing of the protocol with the provision regarding compensation for the sinking of the German warships in Scapa Flow.

The fourth paragraph deals with

LADIES' AGREEMENT TO BETTER RELATIONSHIP URGED UPON JAPANESE

General C. H. Sherill of New York at Dinner of America-Japan Club in Tokio, Offers Suggestion for Bringing About Improved Understanding Between Nations

TOKIO, (AP)—The following is full text of the address of General Charles H. Sherill of New York, ex-minister to Argentina, at the dinner of the America-Japan society, when he urged the conclusion of a "ladies' agreement" as a supplement to the "gentlemen's agreement" regulating Japanese emigration to the United States:

"Smile 'Open Season'—I doubt if any other friend of Japan, who after reading of it for years, finally visited your hospitable land, was ever so surprised by what he saw as I. In many respects your country shows the visitor or an entirely different face from its photographs. He who has heard that modern Japan is a place of interest in religion, finds on every hand a sincere devotion manifested at countless temples and shrines. He who believes that art has lost its hold upon you, sees at fewer exhibitions, at displays of flower arrangements, at numerous gardens everywhere, and in the homes of the aristocracy, the 'art' of that land. The fact is, you are an irritable, ungrateful, and selfish people. You are not happy, nor where a smile goes so far. Indeed, a smile is all the open sesame a traveler here requires, provided it is backed by a smile on the face. You Japanese differ much more from me than I expected, but upon this very difference I have great hopes of a better understanding between us, and for this reason.

barers who accept less money and longer hours, than our men. It also recognized that this economic understanding of the American laborer was arousing friction and you wisely undertook to check it. In your million of frugal, industrial laborers lies your greatest power to conquer the market of the world. But a very few live a life of luxury—and your ability to live cheaply and work longer than occidentals is then felt by American labor when your race is transplanted in California. Believe me, gentlemen, the problem surrounding Japanese immigration into America is an economic and not a racial one. Here is a proof.

Oltes Chinese Experience

"When I was in California some years ago so there was the feeling there against the cheaper living Chinese labor, that it was not safe for Chinamen to walk alone at night in certain quarters of San Francisco. They are called it racial antipathy and economic friction, but since Chinese immigration has become suspended, and therefore the economic friction has disappeared, Chinese labor has become popular in California. You meet this Chinese immigration question just as we did, for you do not allow cheaper living Chinese to compete with your people. There is no province of Japan which there are 110,000 Chinese to 25,000 Japanese, as today there are 110,000 Japanese to 25,000 Americans in Hawaii, and you are quite right thus to protect your labor from undercutting. There is no province of Japan where foreign labor is increasing by birth or otherwise in far greater proportion than the Japanese, and yet that is true of Japanese foreign labor in California. Your protection of Japanese labor against Chinese or Korean competition leads me to my promised suggestion. My investigations convince me that beyond the Japanese government, but loyally lived up to both the spirit and the letter of the 'Gentlemen's Agreement'. But that the agreement ought to be supplemented by a 'Ladies' Agreement' because the loyal adherence of your government to the 'Gentlemen's Agreement' is being offset by the numerous 'picture brides' going from Japan to Japanese laborers in America. Their coming imperils our relations more than you realize and for reasons difficult for you to understand.

Menarchy Boat Upon

"Let me close by me to the greatest surprise Japanese immigration. When I left home I had a government for any people, but I learned here that your ancient, but I learned here for you as it is our. Every nation develops tendencies which wait for public opinion to sufficiently educated to correct them, but with you it is necessary for the imperial power, as an order. Edicts of a issue Shogun in 1633 and 1639, and your participation in the 'Ladies' Agreement' in such a manner, a quarter centuries, but I wiser edict corrected this and your edict merely applied spring into existence with the hearts as I cry: 'Just great republic', which I the 'Gentlemen's Agreement' is a wonder of the world, the imperial government of the

PERISHING PRAISE

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP)—J. P. Perhing addressing a luncheon in his honor here today in honor of the American women during war. The general declared that the good morale of due to the work of the women and the splendid influence of women at home.

Gives Japan's Viewpoint

"All you see in this 'picture bride' system is a proper desire of your men abroad to get wives from home. You are accustomed to marriages being arranged by parents or friends and therefore cannot grasp how the 'picture bride' system surprises and jars upon our people. It isn't a question of right or wrong, but an affront to a long prevailing custom of our country, where we are as greatly attached to our matrimonial choice by both parties themselves, as you are to your reverence for our ancestors. Neither of us really understands how strongly the other feels in these regards. Further.

Deplores Altered Sentiment

"It is a great pity that today the American sentiments of 1905 are altered, and he who pretends otherwise is no true champion of a better and lasting friendship between us. I have recently come from a three month's study of these misunderstandings in California, and shall venture a suggestion to ameliorate the situation. The 'Gentlemen's Agreement' was a wise and noble device, which recognized that Japanese immigration to the United States set up a competition between our labor and the Japanese labor.

more you do not realize, perhaps that these 'picture brides' are imported by their husbands, thus becoming laborers themselves and the offspring of the loyalty of your government to the 'Gentlemen's Agreement'. Aid be than do the wives their American neighbors, thus creating a remittance of the increasing proportion of Japanese to American in Hawaii, which brings us right to the economic competition age. A 'Ladies' Agreement' limiting number of laborers' wives coming to America would restore the situation to what was reached by the 'Gentlemen's Agreement'. The lack of a 'Ladies' Agreement, with a certain in us as to contempt

PLAN FOR BUILDING UP SOIL

Acid Phosphate, Limestone, Tile and Manure Form Basis for Increasing Fertility.

The Ohio experiment station has worked out during a series of years a plan for soil building which farmers in any state might study. As a basis of comparison, it is shown that certain fertility standards may be adopted. On a 100-acre farm fertility standards as compared with results secured in experimental work at the Ohio station show that 10 tons of acid phosphate per year, a curd of limestone one ton of the and the production of 400 loads of manure annually would form a profitable basis for increasing soil fertility.

This would also call for the growing of about 40 acres of clover, as the use of legumes in connection with manure, phosphorus and limestone drained land, produces the best results. Such a plan of fertility reconstruction is regarded as necessary because the greater part of the soil in Ohio has been farmed for at least fifty years and the fertility elements must be supplied in reasonable quantities now, or later in very much larger amounts, at an increased cost.

Increase in Number of Breeders in Indiana County Credited Largely to Club Influence.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The increase in the number of breeders of purebred animals in Clay county, Ind., is largely credited to the influence of the local pig club. Two years ago there were less than ten breeders of purebred hogs in the county, but at present registered hogs can be found on more than 100 farms. The boy and girl members of the club are the pillars in the keeping of purebred hogs. Recently a big type Poland China gilt, of excellent quality and valued at $50 each, were issued to the members of the club by the local county agent.

MESSIAH SETS MUSIC RECORD

Oratorio, Given in Episcopal Church, is Eminent Choral Achievement

A new standard for better music in Twin Falls was established by the choir of Ascension Episcopal church in the offering of the Messiah Christmas eve. The oratorio was brilliantly rendered by the ensemble, and instrumental offerings. The musical festival was attended by an audience that thronged the auditorium of the church and filled even the vestibules. Scores remained after the services to offer congratulatory evidence of appreciation to the members of the choir and to the conductor, Harry Barratt.

The festival was unique not only in the splendid magnificence of the production, but in the scheme of the oratorio. The program was formally opened with a grand procession down the main aisle of the church to the church, this coming at 10:15 o'clock. A brief form of evening prayer service, with chanting, brought the schedule to the Messiah program. Director Barratt singing the opening solo, "Comfort Ye."

Throughout the entire performance a finish was manifest, bespeaking close study of the work and a musical culture that can come only of the most intense application to theory of music. Under the influence of the Twin Falls choral attack, modulation and expression was superb. The most difficult passages in the oratorio were taken up with confidence and with feeling and understanding. The soloists were well sung as were the ensemble numbers. Particular credit attaches to Miss Emma Smith for her singing, and interpretation of the contrasting solo "He Was Despised"; to Mrs. J. E. Byers for her excellent rendition of "Behold a Virgin," and "O Thou Prince of Peace"; to Mrs. W. D. Wright and Mrs. F. J. Warden, who respectively sang "He Shall Feed His Flock" and "Come Unto Him"; to Miss Alice Taylor for the able manner in which she sang the difficult soprano solo "There Were Shepherds"; and to the Angel Soloists "And Lo, the Angel Said Unto Them"; and to the Soloists "There Was with the Angel."

Solo performances by the members of the choir were particularly pleasing. Einar Olson, basso, singing with great power and excellent understanding of the contrasted solo "Behold a Virgin," and "O Thou Prince of Peace"; Mrs. W. D. Wright and Mrs. F. J. Warden, who respectively sang "He Shall Feed His Flock" and "Come Unto Him"; to Miss Alice Taylor for the able manner in which she sang the difficult soprano solo "There Were Shepherds"; and to the Angel Soloists "And Lo, the Angel Said Unto Them"; and to the Soloists "There Was with the Angel."

Of the instrumental numbers the Pastoral Symphony played by the organ by Miss Mary Hampton, was the outstanding feature. Miss Hampton played this difficult selection with rare interpretative judgment and with a constantly feeling and character. The selection held the audience spellbound throughout the entire rendition. Miss Hampton accompanied all the soloists. Mrs. E. L. Warren supported the choir numbers on the organ. The performance closed with prayer, the singing of a festival seven-fold Amen, and a recessional hymn. In brief general remarks, Conductor Barratt explained some of his aims and purposes for the improvement of music in Twin Falls, telling of a plan to begin early rehearsals on Gault's "Holy City," one of the most popular of light oratorios, which he plans to give during the early spring. This is to be a community feature, and will not be devoted to any sectarian or denominational. An invitation is extended to all localists of the city. A regular oratorio society will be formed by Mr. Barratt with the aim of giving one oratorio each season in this city.

Social Notes

Society in Twin Falls was given mostly to dinners and Christmas trees during the week ending in Twin Falls. The Wall-Chibron wedding was the only large event of the day.

Miss Emily Wall of Twin Falls and Jack D. Chibron of Kimberly were married at four o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wall, in the city. The officiating was the First Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Mrs. C. G. Miller sang, "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Jerry Siggins sang Christmas plays. A beautiful wedding march. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the bride and groom standing under a large white arch in the center of an arch of green pine. The bride wore a handsome suit of brown cloth with hat, gloves and shoes to match and wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Frances Mangel, one of the bridesmaids wore French blue with a large black lace hat. Miss Ruth Glasgow, also a bridesmaid, wore a black hat. Laurie Wall and Emory Bonitt were groomsmen. COURT RESTS ON LONG DIVORCE CASE HEARING

Adjournment is Taken to Monday When Sampson Action Will Be Taken Up

Judge W. A. Babcock on Wednesday adjourned the district court session to Monday, testimony in the Sampson against Sampson being suspended until that date.

The divorce trial, wherein Willie Sampson is seeking a severance of marital bonds with Emma Sampson, has occupied all of the present week, and promises to be still further prolonged. The plaintiff alleges desertion and cruelty, and the same charges are preferred in a cross-complaint filed by the defendant, in addition to the charge of non-support. Mrs. Sampson also asks a division of property held by the parties and valued at $150,000. She demands $50,000 in settlement.

The pair married in June 1916, the ceremony being marked by a special matrimonial function in the First Methodist church. Sampson is a Twin Falls district farmer.

For the plaintiff M. J. Sweeney and for the defendant, Charles C. Applegate, with J. H. Wilde and A. R. Hicks counsel for the defendant.

Splendid Cough Medicine
I feel that every family should have a splendid medicine for coughing. I am only pleased to relate my experience and only wish that I had known of its merits years ago," writes Mrs. Clay Fry, Ferguson Station, Mo. "I give it to my children when they show the slightest symptoms of being 'croupy,' and when I have a cough or cold in the lungs, a very few doses will relieve me, and by taking it for a few days I soon get rid of the cold."—Adv.

One Snowflake Couldn't Make White Yuletide

Being his level best (pneumonic at the best) to make good Wednesday's prediction for Thursday's weather the weather disburser gave rain and snow yesterday.

True it wasn't much of a Christmas present, but it was a display of the right sort of Christmas spirit—good will to men.

Three rumpuses and a half, according to snow as it flurried to the ground. That's the Boise bureau's contribution to a white Christmas. Perhaps it will serve to bring a jinx on the "green Christmas" jody, who can tell!

Reverting to the old order of things, the bureau said the weather guy announces tonight and Saturday fair in the south portion.

Wednesday's top of the mercury was 44 with 79 low at night. Yesterday's high mark was 40 and 26 last night.
