COURT DENIES PERMISSION TO TEST DRY LAW

Declares Itself without Jurisdiction in Application of New Jersey Liquor Dealers' Association

HEARS ARGUMENTS UPON RHODE ISLAND MOTION

Solicitor General Urges Same Grounds for Refusal of the State's Contention as Used Against Individuals

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The supreme court today denied permission for the New Jersey Retail Liquor Dealers' association to bring original proceedings in the supreme court to test the constitutionality of the national prohibition amendment and enjoin its enforcement in New Jersey.

The court held it had no jurisdiction.

Ignores Contentions

In seeking to bring the original proceedings, the association alleged that the prohibition, as interpreted with the state police power, was a violation of the fifth amendment prohibiting the taking of private property without just compensation. Chief Justice White in disposing of the motion, however, ignored these contentions and devoted himself entirely to the question of jurisdiction.

He said the court held that no right existed by which a citizen of a state could sue that state without its consent. In this instance the state of New Jersey denied that permission.

Hears State's Case

Arguments on the motion of the state of Rhode Island for permission to institute original proceedings to test the constitutionality of the federal prohibition constitutional amendment and enjoin its enforcement in that state were heard today by the supreme court. Attorney General Robert A. Rice, of Rhode Island, attacked the manner in which the amendment was ratified, and contended that it was revolutionary and invalid. Solicitor General King argued that the supreme court was without jurisdiction.

Denies Political Issue

Replying to government contentions that only a political question was involved, Attorney General Rice, in a new brief filed today, said Rhode Island's case was not "judicially the exercise of power assumed, on the ground that its exertion will injuriously affect the rights of complainant." (Rhode Island) because of its complaint to constitutional limitation. "The exercise of political power by congress is by virtue of constitutional authority," he brief said. "The defendant's case is that it is in defiance of existing state power and existing state law. Insofar as they are able to carry out their threats they will effect, in fact, the violation of the state by illegal and unwarranted acts. Under these circumstances it is the right and duty of the state to assert its authority and seek to maintain it in this court. Where, as in this case, the wrongs are threatened by officials of the federal government who are beyond the territorial boundaries of the state this tribunal is not

ENGLAND SENDS ENVOY TO BERLIN

Departure of Kilmarnock Marks Important Step in Re-establishment of Relations

LONDON, (AP)—Lord Kilmarnock left London today to act as British diplomatic representative in Berlin. His departure marks an important step in the re-establishment of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Germany which will be effected almost immediately. Consuls and consuls general will be appointed shortly by the two governments. Germany will be first represented here by charge d'affaires, but it is believed the rank will soon be raised to that of minister, instead of ambassador, as formerly.

FRANCE TAKES ACTION TO RESUME RELATIONSHIP

PARIS, (AP)—The Spanish ambassador at Berlin, who has been representing the interests of France at the German capital, notified the German government yesterday that France had taken action for the resumption of diplomatic relations with Germany. France's charge d'affaires will probably leave Paris for Berlin on January 18.

Germany has not yet given notice of the nomination of German minister, Lersner, head of the German mission in Paris, as the German charge at the French capital, nor of the nomination of any one else. Meanwhile, the German government is in control of the financial situation and is enabling both congress and the country to fix upon the president complete responsibility for any error or delinquency in administration.

Hoover Predicts Lighter Task in Feeding Europe

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Because of the "enormously improved" conditions overseas, the task of feeding Europe until the next harvest on October 1 will not be the burden on the American government that it was last year, the bureau says and means committee was told today by Herbert Hoover.

"From the signing of the armistice until last July 1st the provisioning of Europe cost two and one half billion dollars," he said. "That was a burden on our government and the tax payers. In one form or another, the United States treasury advanced $2,500,000,000 to feed Europe. But this year Europe will be largely able to feed itself by the exchange of goods, and credits of $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 from the United States. In all the situation is that of fronting the echo of the situation we had to front last year."

Boat Brings Last Troops from Brest

NEW YORK, (AP)—The last contingent of troops quartered at the military camp at Brest arrived here today on the transport George Washington. She brought 237 officers, war workers and civilians, and 615 troops.

The George Washington will be turned over to the United States shipping board and will be allocated soon to some steamship company.

Reports Hun's Plot to Scuttle Warcraft

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—A plan to scuttle the German warships not yet turned over to the allies is being considered by officers of the German navy, according to information received by the majority socialist party leaders. A Berlin newspaper quoted them as declaring that a high German officer had so informed the leaders.

GENERAL STRIKE LOOMS IN CITY OF MONTREAL

Labor Unions Urge Cessation of All Work Unless Provincial or Dominion Government Acts

MONTREAL, (AP)—A general strike in Montreal was threatened today as a result of the discharge of employees of the municipal water works, whose strike for higher wages caused a water famine for the city.

A resolution adopted by the Trade and Labor councils urged that organized labor stop all work in the city unless the provincial government cuts the commission which discharged the water works employees and appoints a board to adjust wages and working conditions of all municipal employees, or unless the federal government appoints a commission to investigate the subject.

The water works strike was called New Year's day. After a brief period of hardship due to lack of water, men were hired in place of the strikers and an additional supply was obtained from a private plant.

LAX ADMINISTRATION IS DISSATISFACTION CAUSE

Views on Budget System to the Columbia University President Given Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, told the senate committee considering a national budget system today that lax administration was responsible for much of the present-day public dissatisfaction.

MINERS PROMISE TO ACCEPT RULE OF COMMISSION

Union Executive Bespeaks Willingness of Operatives to Accept Decision Unreservedly in Settlement of Strike

OPERATORS WAITING FOR ANSWER TO QUESTIONS

Operators' Scale Committee Chairman Will Make No Promises in Anticipation of Declaration Demanded

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Bituminous coal miners will accept unreservedly any decision made by the president's coal commission in settlement of the coal strike, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America declared at the opening today of the first public hearings of the commission. Mr. Lewis added that the miners representatives would assist the commission's inquiry.

Mr. Lewis' assurance was given in answer to question by Chairman Henry C. Robinson.

Operators Wait Replies

Thomas T. Brewer, chairman of the scale committee of the operators in the central competitive field, replying to the same question by the chairman, said he could make no promises for the operators until the commission had given answers to ten questions propounded by the operators.

Chairman Robinson said the commission would take up the questions and furnish a statement to the operators. The commission then adjourned until tomorrow.

Among the operators' questions were whether the commission's award would be final and binding on both miners and operators; whether the commission would not upon matters brought up by either side; as to its authority to fix wages up or down; whether it would consider it had power to make retroactive awards concerning wages and prices and whether in fixing prices to sustain its decisions it would consider that the prices so made would hold after the expiration of the Lever food and fuel act.

To Clarify Situation

Mr. Brewer said the questions were submitted "to clarify the situation. "If the answers by the commission were not satisfactory, the operators might some of them be unwilling to abide by the ruling finally made," asked the chairman.

"We'll stand by the decision on any point. We submit to arbitration," Mr. Brewer returned.

"I understand that you will only accept this decision so far as it touches matters you submit," continued the chairman.

"I should like to answer that without a conference with some of my associates here," Mr. Brewer said.

Assume Authority

"Isn't it wise to accept President Wilson's letter of instruction to the commission as outlining its powers fully and assume that its members will be and assume that its members will be

WITHDRAWS AMERICAN TROOPS FROM SIBERIA

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The 3,000 American troops in Siberia will begin their homeward movement soon after the middle of February, leaving to Japan the protection of the Siberian railroad and the loyal Russian forces in the country.

The American railway commission, which has been directing the operation of the Siberian railroad, will come out before that time, it was learned today, and the Czech-Slovak troops will have been repatriated early next month, the reason for the presence of the American military forces will have been removed.

The American troops were sent to Siberia to assist the Czechs who were trying to reach Europe via Vladivostok and in accordance with an agreement reached with Japan and the entente powers. Japan has been notified of the cancellation of that agreement as far as the American forces are concerned.

Japan recently took up with the American government the question of increasing its forces in Siberia so as to check the Bolsheviks, and the negotiations are continuing.

The American forces in Siberia are volunteers recently sent there to replace the original drafts of selective service sent to Japan in the summer of 1918. They are commanded by Major General Graves.

Herrick Recipient of Gift from Japan

CLEVELAND, O., (AP)—Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, has been presented with a set of gold cups by the emperor of Japan in recognition of the services rendered the Japanese government by the former ambassador, who took charge of Japanese affairs in France when the European war began. The gift came through the state department.

QUAKE ENGULFS MEXICAN FAMILY IN GREAT CHASM

Survivors Subsist at Bottom of Abyss on Provisions Low—ered at Risk

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Unique in the annals of the earthquake the capture of the family of Professor Francisco Riveros of Barranca Nueva. The quake opened a great chasm in the earth in which their home was engulfed.

For more than a week members of the family have been living in the bottom of this abyss at least one hundred and forty feet below the surface of the earth. Surviving neighbors have been lowering them food and water at the imminent risk of dislodging rocks which might fall and crush those below.

Belief is expressed that rain or new shocks will mean the deaths of those imprisoned in the abyss.

Reports from the San Miguel district indicate the eruption of the new crater is decreasing in violence. A telegram from the mayor of Chichilcoatl, state of Puebla, however, states that shocks have been numerous there since the first earthquake and that he has received information that the towns of Saltillo, Atlixpa and Chichilcoatl near by have been destroyed.

Investigators report that in Jalapa fifty persons were killed and 200 injured by the earthquake.

DEPORTATION CASES TO REQUIRE MANY JURYMEN

Entire Voting List of Arizona County to Be Called Upon for Service During Court Term

TOMBSTONE, ARIZ., (AP)—That every available man in this, Cochise county, whose name appears upon the voting lists, 7500 in number, will be called upon to serve as a trial juror at the coming term of the superior court is the point of the fact that the county jury commission has drawn the name of every elector and listed them for jury duty. This action was occasioned by the trials of the deportation cases resulting from the wholesale deportations of alleged industrial Workers of the World from Bisbee during the new famous drive from that copper camp on July 12, 1917, the trials of which will commence in this city on February 2.

INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE REASSEMBLES FOR WORK

Begins Consideration of Mass of Suggestions Resulting from Request for Criticism

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson's second industrial conference reassembled today, after a several weeks recess, to consider the mass of suggestions and proposals for stabilization of the nation's industrial situation. These came in response to a request to the public for constructive criticism of the conference's tentative plan made last week.

The plan for settling industrial disputes favored by the conference provided a national conciliation tribunal at Washington and regional boards of inquiry and adjustment. Some of its suggestions have been adversely criticized by officials of the American Federation of Labor and representatives of other union labor organizations.

ADMINISTRATION LEADER HOPEFUL OF COMPROMISE

Hitchcock Optimistic over Prospect for Evolution of Set of Resolutions Acceptable to the Democrats and Wilson

CONFERENCE DEVELOPS SOME MOOT QUESTIONS

Bryan Urges Ratification to Permit of American Participation in First Meeting of League of Nations

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Another week of individual conferences between senators in an effort to break the deadlock on the peace treaty opened today with leaders of several groups hopeful that some definite headway should be made within a few days.

Democratic leaders said democratic senators were not yet "pledged" to support any definite program of compromise reservations. Senator Hitchcock, the administration leader, is hopeful, however, that a set of compromise reservations will be evolved in the next few days. He expects general democratic approval and also he expects to President Wilson and to enough republicans to insure ratification.

Conferences Continued

Democratic senators who attended a conference last night at the home of Senator Owen, Democrat, Oklahoma, at which compromise suggestions were considered, said a number of points still were unsettled and that the conference was continuing. They said this conference was in harmony with the president's view of accepting reservations which were "interpretative but not destructive."

Lodge Seeks Agreement

Senator Lodge, the republican leader, expects to meet to confer with many senators, including leaders of the "mild reservation" republican group and democratic leaders. So far, the conference has been held in the president's view of accepting reservations which were "interpretative but not destructive."

A number of democratic senators received telegrams today from William J. Bryan, urging ratification of the treaty so the United States could enter the league of nations by the time the league council holds its first meeting next March.

"I very earnestly hope that it may be possible to secure an agreement on the reservations and ratification of ratification before next Friday that will enable us to enter the league of nations at the first session on January 10. The joy of the American people, would I am sure, be as universal as it was today."

Mr. Bryan's position on the treaty was discussed briefly in the senate. Senator King, Democrat, Utah, said the proposal for compromise reservations "did not originate with Mr. Bryan," although a large part of the plan was "disseminating the idea that the plan is Mr. Bryan's and that a number of democratic senators are now ready to abandon their previous views and ratify the treaty."

Predict Prompt Action

"My own opinion is that the treaty will be speedily ratified with certain reservations," said Senator King.

I also believe the treaty will be ratified promptly," remarked Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona, "but I think it will be ratified sooner because Mr. Bryan came to town."

BALANCE OF TRADE AT LOW EBB FOR BRITAIN

Exports Show Increase while Strikes Affect the Import Volume

LONDON, (AP)—The adverse balance of trade against Great Britain as shown by comparison of her exports and imports during the month of November is the lowest attained since the armistice. Its total was 36,200,000 pounds.

Britain's exports increased about 9,000,000 pounds in November while in the same period her imports decreased about 10,000,000 pounds. The decline in imports is attributed by the American Chamber of Commerce in London in part to the recent strikes in the United States. It is stated also that decreased production of shipping and the American forcibly reduced British imports but at the same time improved her market for exports in continental Europe which were shut off from their source of supply.

SEAMEN'S UNION SEEKS CHANGES IN LEGISLATION

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Changes in the national seamen's act and anti-union legislation were principal subjects before the twenty-third annual convention of the International Seamen's Union of America, which opened here today with 70 delegates. Andrew Furuseth, president of the international union, presided.

YEAR OF STORMS AHEAD OF UMPS AND MAGNATES

Enforcing Penalties on Frank Pitching Sure to Cause Lots of Trouble

By I. E. Sanborn
CHICAGO, (Special).—For two minor sections of the professional baseball world 1920 holds out little promise of being a "very happy new year." The one the umpires and the club owners. The other the players.

The major leagues are practically unanimous in favor of the abolition of frank pitching this year and their only reason up to date places the burden of proof on the shoulders of the arbitrators. That means a helluva time for the "umps" right from the start.

The players mean to make every pay day a "Merry-Christmas" for themselves and their kin at the expense of the club owner, or the public, they care not which.

Good Where "Cheating" Goes
Elimination of the spitball, spitball, and all their several varieties would be simple enough if the club owners, managers and players were sufficiently good sportsmen to agree to cut out the frank stuff altogether and voluntarily. But they aren't. Base ball is the one big game in which cheating is not only tolerated but applauded. If a guy tried to get away in a poker game with the stuff that is considered legitimate in baseball, he would land in the nearest hospital or morgue.

So the umpire is in for a tough year unless some assistance is given him by the rule-makers in the attempt to abolish frank pitching. Out of scores of suggestions received from baseball men and fans, only a few realized the difficulty of detecting the frank stuff. The others dealt only with penalties sufficiently drastic to discourage it.

Hard to Detect
If an umpire always could tell a frank ball, it would only be necessary to give the batsman his base. That would be sufficient punishment for the pitcher. But it isn't as easy as that, and for a spell next spring there is going to be a heap of wrangling if a determined effort is made to wipe out frank hurling.

The most effective suggestion received was that the ball be changed after every play or after each pitch, if necessary. By the employment of an honest lad as captain of the balls, with instructions to wipe off each ball as it was returned to him, the work of the frank pitcher might be hampered considerably and the troubles of the umpire minimized. If the "cleanser" were supplied with a can of wood alcohol he could remove all foreign substances quickly and make it dangerous to pitch the spitball, at least. The objection, of course, would be the delay caused by switching baseballs at the conclusion of every play made in a game.

To Follow Lead of Ruth
The magnate's lot will be equally unhappy for the next four or five months at least. With Babe Ruth as ballplayer, the players are planning to demand much higher salaries than prevailed last season. A few of them will have to violate existing contracts as Ruth is doing, inspired by the success of Carl Mays in abrogating his contract last summer.

The great majority of the veteran players worked under contracts which terminated last fall. They will be doing so violence to good faith in seeking for higher wages, or a transfer to some club owner who can afford to pay them. Confronted with this problem, the promoters will have two alternatives—to grant the increases to their veteran players, or sell them to clubs whose patronage will justify big salaries. In the latter case Chicago and New York ought not to fare badly.

Another expedient to meet the players' demands is the fashionable one to make the public pay. The freight, by raising the prices of admission to major league games. That already is being considered, as proven by the movement to abolish or curtail the 25 cent seats.

COSTLY BAR FIXTURES
BILL FOR SMALL PRICES

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Eleven years ago J. J. Wilson, proprietor of the once famous Nevada cafe at Kearny and Post streets here, paid $25,000 for the handsome bar and back bar of his establishment. The other day it was sold at auction for $165.

Similarly the bar of the old Rialto, Kearney, Kearny and Market streets, was auctioned recently for $210. It cost $6,000.

Other sales of bars here are reported. The $16,000 mahogany bar of the College Inn bringing $435 and the $4,500 bar of the Odessa cafe bringing $200.

NEWS OF WAR'S CLOSE DELAYED

Pershing Did Not Hear of Armistice Signing for Several Hours

WASHINGTON, (AP)—General Pershing had no knowledge that an armistice had been signed until 6 a. m. November 11, 1918, and all forward movements of American troops were stopped as soon as orders could be transmitted to the unit commanders, the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces declares in a letter to Representative Fuller, republican, Massachusetts, made public Saturday.

The letter, dated last November 21, declares that the forward movement on armistice day was the result of the following telegram of November 8 from Marshal Foch to all the allied commanders:

"The enemy, disorganized by our repeated attacks, is withdrawing along the entire front. It is important to maintain and hasten our action. I appeal to the energy and initiative of the commanders in chief and their armies to secure decisive results."

Representative Fuller explained that he made General Pershing's letter public in answer to recent charges by Brigadier General John H. Sherburne, a Boston national guard officer, that there was an unnecessary loss of American life on armistice day because orders to attack were not promptly withdrawn when it became known the armistice had been signed.

No order was given to cease firing before the actual hour the armistice went into effect, the letter says, because of fear of German trickery. It is added that the 32nd (negro) division, about which much of the armistice day controversy has centered, ceased its attack at 7:18 a. m. armistice day. The total casualties of the division on that day were given in General Pershing's letter as 17 killed and 286 wounded, of whom 99 were gassed.

With reference to statements before a house war investigating committee that American troops were the only ones who attacked on armistice morning, the letter says:

"On November 11 parts of the French, British and Belgian lines, as well as parts of the American line, attacked and advanced. The implication that the American troops were the only troops which advanced or attacked on November 11 is wholly erroneous."

"Neither on November 11 nor at any time were 'American lives needlessly wasted because some of our officers were not as considerate of their men as the French were.' The letter continues, 'nor were American lives needlessly wasted for any other cause unless it be that we had not adequately prepared for war in time of peace.'

PREDICTS REVOLUTION IN PROHIBITION WAKE

London Minister Gives Views on Consequences of Dry Regime in the United States

SYRACUSE, N. Y., (AP)—Revolution is likely to follow in the wake of prohibition, according to the Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, pastor of Westminster chapel, London, now visiting in Syracuse.

"Whenever a great country banishes strong drink it must prepare for a revolution," he declared from the pulpit here. "When a man stops drinking he begins to think. All that happened in Russia in the revolutionary line has occurred since vodka was abolished. Whenever London goes dry her east end will arise."

Commenting on prohibition in the United States Dr. Morgan said: "It will be wonderful when the country is entirely dry and adjusted to it; but it will be some time before you get settled down."

DANIELS WORKS ON PLAN FOR GREAT NAVAL RESERVE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Plans for building a great naval reserve force by the establishment of summer training courses for high school and college youths at the naval training stations will be laid before congress by Secretary Daniels in the near future.

Secretary Daniels said it was proposed to put the plan into effect next summer. The Great Lakes, Hampton Roads and Pacific coast training stations would be used.

Transportation and subsistence would be provided for those who take the training. The tentative plan contemplates shore cruises as part of the course.

SEEK STUDENT RECRUITS FOR GARDENERS' ARMIES

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Ogden and Salt Lake City school children will be asked to join the United States school garden army under plans being considered by L. B. Ball, state director of agricultural education and University of Utah authorities.

Rural communities in Utah have garden clubs but in Salt Lake City and Ogden organizations of this sort have never been fostered, it is pointed out.

LOTTERY FAILS TO MOVE LANDS

Applicants for Acreage in Wyoming Area are Given Chance to Choose

CHEYENNE, Wyo., (AP)—All persons who filed applications for tracts of the 10,000 acres of government land which was to have been disposed of by lottery here on December 23, will be enabled to have just what they wanted instead of "drawing straws" for the desirable portions, this condition being due to the fact that there were not enough applications filed to cause any contests.

With the stockmen busy trying to save their herds from total extermination during the stormy season, and with a lack of understanding on part of many persons as to the procedure to be followed, not as many responses were received as had been expected. Applications were received for approximately 5,000 acres each bidder being held to a maximum of 100 acres. The state land board will meet soon to determine whether the remainder of the tract shall be disposed of by lottery, and it is likely that the plan will be given another trial.

All persons taking this land must agree to pay at the rate of not less than $15 an acre for it. After the land has been thoroughly advertised through the state, it will be assigned by lot. The numbers of all applicants will be placed in a receptacle and the board member will draw one out at a time, the applications being given new numbers as they are drawn. In view of the fact that the price of land scrip is now worth from $17 to $25 an acre, the price fixed by the state seems unusually attractive.

This is the first time in the history of the state that the lottery method has ever been used in disposing of public lands. It is also the first time that the state has fixed the acreage at so small an area.

CONDEMNS BAR AGAINST BEDS

Borah and Thomas Declare in Senate Against Action of New York

WASHINGTON, (P)—Action of the New York assembly in refusing to seat five socialist representatives on the ground that the platform on which they were elected was inimical to the public interests, was condemned in the senate Saturday by Senators Borah, republican, Idaho, and Thomas, democrat, Colorado. They declared such action invited violence and lawlessness.

Senator Borah declared the incident was one of the most remarkable in the history of American politics. It members of a legislative body, he said, be expelled for their political views, republicans or democrats in congress should exclude each other from representation, he declared.

"To deny men the right to effectuate their plans through the ballot," said Senator Borah, "is only to invite them to violence and lawlessness."

"Don't you also force them?" inquired Senator Thomas.

"Yes," the Idaho senator replied. Senator Borah said there was no better way socialist doctrines could be augmented and circulated than through such methods.

"There is no place where a man is so harmless as when he stands alone in a legislative body," Senator Borah said. "That even applies to congress."

Without specifically mentioning the Berger case, Senator Thomas said the will of the public in selecting its representatives should be taken into consideration, adding that the same thing might be said of "incidents at the other end of the capital" as had been said of the New York incident.

Referring to the Non-partisan league in North Dakota, Senator Thomas said that while he opposed the organization and believed its methods were inimical, it had long represented the sentiment of the people in that state, and must be tolerated.

BRYAN CLAIMS TO AGREE WITH WILSON IN PURPOSE

Declares Difference Simply One of Opinion Over Method to Follow

CHICAGO, (P)—William Jennings Bryan told reporters Saturday that he and President Wilson "agree to purpose."

"We both want immediate ratification of the peace treaty and speedy establishment of the league of nations," he said. "It is simply a difference of opinion over a method and not a purpose."

"There is no reason why advocacy of a compromise should be interpreted as opposition to the president," Mr. Wilson is an official and his recommendations stand by their own weight.

"The constitution gives the president the right to make recommendations to congress. It gives congress the right to disregard these recommendations, just as it empowers congress to pass laws and the president to veto them."

Mr. Bryan said 86 senators favor ratification of the treaty but differ as to reservations. He advocated a compromise so as to keep the treaty from becoming a campaign issue, adding:

"If the republicans insist upon reservations that the democrats cannot accept, then the democrats will be in a good position to take it as an issue before the people."

AMERICANS IN ORIENT AWAIT SCHOOL COMPLETION
SHANGHAI, (P)—Americans in China expect soon to send their children to the first American school to be established for American pupils in this country. It will cost about $500,000, the collection of which virtually is completed. The buildings are to be located in Shanghai.

The new school is intended to serve the entire American population in China, which numbers about 6,000. High school grades will be offered so that graduates may be admitted to the leading universities in the United States. Heretofore, American pupils in China have attended British schools.

Possessors of Liquor in Idaho Must Take Collector into Confidence

Preparatory to a strict enforcement of the national prohibition act, which will become effective on January 16, Collector Lewis Williams, for the district of Idaho, has received detailed instructions from the department at Washington, as to the method of procedure.

All persons legally having in their possession liquors of any description, intended for sale, will be required to report this fact to the collector at Boise, not later than January 27. As the law becomes effective on the day after January 16, all such persons having liquors are hereby given ten days in which to make inventory and report to the collector.

Collector Williams will mail to each person of whom he may have knowledge of the possession of liquors for sale, two copies of an inventory form and report. These forms should be made up in duplicate, properly signed and sworn to before sending to the collector, and one copy only mailed to the collector and the other retained by the person making it, for investigation by revenue agents. Persons having liquors and not receiving such forms should request them at once.

In the event any person receiving the forms does not have in his possession any kind of liquors for sale, the forms should be returned immediately to the collector, with the statement written in them that no liquors were in the possession of such persons. This is imperative, as otherwise it will be taken that the person so receiving such form has liquor in his or her possession, and refuses to comply with the law.

The national prohibition act does not require a report of liquor possessed in a private dwelling, while the same is occupied and used as a dwelling only, provided such liquors are for use for the personal consumption of the owner and his family residing in such dwelling, and/or his bona fide guests when entertained by him therein.

Any liquor required to be reported, and which is not included in the inventory forms and sent to the collector, is subject to seizure. Liquors contained in bonded warehouses, and wines in the bonded warehouses are not required to be inventoried and reported under the law.

As severe penalties are imposed under the law, and its enforcement will be pursued rigorously, Collector Williams urges upon all persons within the state of Idaho to comply with the provisions of the law and regulations promptly, and thus avoid the necessity of the imposition of penalties.

UTAH SCHOOL INSTALLS COURSE IN SCOUTCRAFT

College Authorities Act to Assist in Furnishing Needed Trained Men in State

LOGAN, Utah, (P)—A special "two weeks" course in scoutcraft will be held at the Utah Agricultural College here from January 28 to February 7. Dr. George R. Hill, chairman of the college committee on boy scout activities has announced.

The purpose of the course, Dr. Hill said, is to train scoutmasters to lead their troops with the greatest effectiveness. Special instruction in botany, geology and nature study will be held.

Decision to hold the scoutmaster course was reached last fall, according to Dr. Hill, when it was seen by the college authorities that there was a lack of well trained men for this work in Utah.

Salt Lake Police Offer Unique Theory for Increase in Robberies

SALT LAKE CITY, (P)—Increase in the number of house robberies in Salt Lake City during the past few months were attributed to the fact that liquors are kept in many homes, by J. Parley White who retired recently as chief of police here.

"The fact that private stocks are known to exist in many houses has induced men to break the law," the former chief declared. He cited various robberies, saying that in many cases no valuables were taken, the thieves merely ransacking the premises for liquor. Many men arrested, he said, have declared that the original motive of their crime was liquor and insisted they took money and other valuables on second thought.

LEATHER MONEY MAKES APPEARANCE IN AUSTRIA

MATTIGHOFER, Austria, (P)—Residents of this community in Tyrol are using leather money as exchange for paper money. Fractional metal currency disappeared some time ago and the municipality authorized a big leather factory to stamp out little round, 10 heller pieces from scrap leather. This service the local business requirements until the people found it cheaper to use the leather money as selling for their shoes than to buy the leather soles.

Comment on American Non-Participation in Peace Strikes Doleful Note

LONDON, (AP)—Regret that the United States did not participate in ratification of the treaty of Versailles is expressed by today's newspapers. Some editorialize on the strike.

"The omission of America's signature to the ratifying document," says the Telegraph, "stands for the bitter disappointment of the hope that grew up with the peace of the world. It is the true league of nations, by the terms of the treaty but the world knows that until the United States adheres to the league not a title of the usefulness and moral authority it should possess will belong to it."

The Telegraph also cites the absence of Russia from Saturday's ceremony and says:

"Until the sky in the direction grows clearer there can be no world peace nor any hope of it."

Doubts of the reality of peace behind the formal act of ratification are expressed by the Daily News.

"There is not a nation which cannot, if it wishes, manufacture new grievances out of the settlement to trouble the peace of the world," it says. "Occasions of offense are so numerous they obscure the very fact of peace."

The News notes that America "which did so much to make peace," had no part in the final act.

The Chronicle, discussing the league of nations, says it is "much weakened by the action of the American senate." It expresses the hope, nevertheless, that allied governments will immediately go along with the league, but questions whether Great Britain, France and Italy, without the support of America can assume a position to act as dictators to the rest of Europe, adding: "America's concurrence would have made a great moral difference."

Oklahoma Company's First Bore Open Up What Seems to Be Largest Gas Well in State

Something over 30 Twin Falls investors who are financially interested in the fortunes of the Central National Oil Company received welcome news through a telegram delivered Saturday evening to T. E. Hunter, local representative of the corporation, announcing that the No. 1 well sunk on the corporation's property in Okmulgee county, Ok., had opened up what seems to be one of the largest gas wells in the state. The company owns 3,000 acres in this district, Mr. Hunter states, and has finances sufficient to sink 15 wells at a cost of $25,000 each. The No. 2 well, he advises, will be drilled in this week, the bore being already in the top sand.

FOR NATIONAL OBSERVANCE OF ROOSEVELT'S DEATH

NEW YORK, (AP)—A resolution urging that January 6, anniversary of the death of Theodore Roosevelt, be observed nationally for emphasizing the need of forest conservation will be introduced here tomorrow at the annual meeting of the American Forestry association.

P. S. Riddell, secretary of the organization said today.

"We plan to ask schools and civic organizations in every state to include in their exercises statements in regard to our forest for the saving of which, Colonel Roosevelt issued the first call on call."

THE STARTING POINT

Just as soon as a sufficient number of people get the idea firmly fixed in their minds that so long as prices go down wages must go up, too, and that so long as wages go up prices will continue to go down, just that soon will prices of necessaries begin to drop, and wages quit their skyward climbing tendencies.

If there ever was a first class example of a vicious cycle the gyrations of today's prices and today's wages supply it and if there ever was a time when the fundamentals of popular economics were neglected in favor of the advantages of day to day existence, that time is now.

Increased wages are of no use to the man who gets the increase if within the next day or two he is forced to pay out the entire increase and a little more in order to continue to keep better in the market. Of what avail is an increase of a million dollars a year if, at the same time, expenses amount to a million and even a hundred dollars over.
Under such circumstances, money becomes merely a system of counters in the game of feeding and clothing oneself and one's family.

Eventually mankind as a whole will get the message. People will learn that just as high prices force up wages, so do increasing wages force up prices. Labor is undoubtedly the biggest single element entering into the cost of manufacturing and as long as labor costs one hundred per cent more than it did a few years ago, the manufactured product will be sold at an increase of one hundred per cent and a little more.

Finally so long as wages and prices keep reasonably near level, neither the seller nor the buyer suffers. The wage earner has his ground for comfort.
But what shall he do if the other element, living upon the income from his husband's life insurance and engaged in educating her children, who still receives the four, five or six per cent which the bonds or mortgages bring in, the income has not gone up. She still draws the seventy-five, one hundred or one hundred and twenty-five dollars a month which a thrifty husband provided for her in the full days, and for this she is compelled to accept one pint of milk instead of two, one pound of butter instead of three, half a meat loaf instead of one large one.

She is pushed from comfort into privations, in a word, she becomes the victim of the vicious cycle, by no fault of her own, a human sacrifice upon the altar of human greed.

Guller's Weekly suggests a type of man it would like to see president, namely, one who will gather a good crew, map out a definite program of reconstruction and not make speeches.
Such men might accomplish much tant message of all that we have dustries.

The other side are not thus sleeping. They are conducting and spending many thousands of dollars in publicity to convince the consumer of the merit of our goods; but not a cent are we spending to put across the most important message of all that we have

city-line with the people themselves.
As soon as enough people really make up their minds that prices will have to come down, they will.

WHY NOT JOIN THEM?

(Paraphrase)

Just why the reactionaries and Tories should avoid such bitterly opposed the Bolsheviki is hard to see.

They should join hands with them and work together.
For example, the Bolsheviki now advocate strikes by law, something which American workmen are now bitterly fighting; they require a minimum output from each worker on pain of starvation; they prescribe the hours of work and lighten them or curtail them as they wish; they enforce compulsory military service and even industries are organized on this basis.

Such a condition of affairs ought to seem like an earthly paradise to the reactionaries of this country and the hired-hand Tories of Great Britain.

They do not even dare hope for such conditions in an enlightened country.

No, the Tories ought to drop their fight against the Reds and get in on the loot. They are "working the same side of the street."

MURTAUGH

MURTAUGH—Murtaugh Camp 348
W. O. W. has put on a membership campaign with Mr. W. W. Rawlings captain of team No. 1 and Harry Applications, captain of team No. 2. The losing team will treat the winning team to an oyster supper.

ness visitor in Murtaugh last week.

Mrs. Minter Chase was sick several days last week.
Charles Brown, recently of Oakley,

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Sunday school board of the M. E. church was held Tuesday evening at schools. If ever that should be brought about it is "Good night!" to the peace and prosperity of the American people.

And what have the business men been doing all this time? Nothing but have a hundred times more truth on our side than the agitators, and a hundred times more at stake than they, and yet they are doing nothing. We have been letting the case go by default.
Why? Simply because we did not have anything CONSTRUCTIVE to say. But now we have it! Shall we as far removed as the floor incidentally, the standard of living of our people could be raised anywhere from twenty to forty per cent, and prosperity assured for the future? If we can do it, we will do it, for it will be a thousand times cheaper to educate the people by the written and spoken word than it will be to let them get their education for themselves in the school of the Bolsheviki, and of bitter experience.

Let nobody be afraid that it is not possible to do it. It is easy if we but will it. The outstanding lesson of this war is the power of propaganda to mould the thoughts of the people. Germany by her militaristic propaganda completely perverted and made over the easy-going character of the old-fashioned German, and just think what an abhorrent and unnatural hostility she has to preach. The United States government, assisted by the newspapers, press associations and patriotic societies, in a couple of years created a public sentiment which at one time seemed likely to be a serious interference with our war preparations, faded away as if by magic. Pro-German sentiments disappeared overnight. The same methods will accomplish the same results again. WAKE UP and CO-OPERATE.

PRESENT VIEWS
ON PEACE PACT

Lodge and Hitchcock Explain Position Before Student's Vote

CLEVELAND, O., (AP)—Statements of their views on the treaty of peace and the league of nations have been contributed by Senators Lodge and Hitchcock to be placed before the students and faculties of 700 colleges and universities, who will express their opinions in a referendum vote to be taken next Tuesday. Two thousand members of Western Reserve university will vote.

Senator Lodge's statement says in part:
"The United States has asked nothing in the peace settlement and has received and desires nothing except the security and peace of the world.
That peace, a majority of the senate believes, cannot be achieved through the league of nations as agreed to at Versailles. We cannot amend the league as it applies to other nations but we are determined that it shall be made safe for the United States.
Surely we who ask no territory, who wish no spoils of war, are justified in saying under what conditions we shall enter into this world alliance.

Senator Hitchcock's statement says in part:
"The Lodge reservations are destructive because they go much farther and work a number of changes in the meaning of the league covenant. They specifically repudiate the reciprocal obligation to join other nations in preserving the territorial integrity and political independence of members of the league against outside aggression. This obligation is specifically provided in article ten and if agreed to by all nations affords a practical insurance against any war of conquest in the future. If repudiated by us now it is an invitation for Germany to renew attacks, because it leaves in doubt the question whether we must be taken in the future."

The students will vote on six questions, for, against, and compromise, framed after consultation with leaders of both sides, in order to present the case fairly.
As soon as compiled, the results will be telegraphed to the Intercollegiate treaty referendum committee at New York who will record the results of the vote from all parts of the country.

Friday from Shelby where they have been visiting a daughter.

The W. O. W. lodge held its regular meeting at the lodge rooms Monday evening, January 5. New officers were installed. Twenty members were present.

Mrs. R. R. Keadel who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs.

Murtaugh, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Steinbock taught the third

MOORE'S PLAN IS TO SHOW UP THE COCKNEYS

Yankee Bantamweight Intends to Demonstrate Wide Verdict was Wrong

BY AL PEARSON

OHIOAGO, (Special).—It looks as if Pat Moore, the Memphis bantamweight, and his little companion, Johnny Griffith, of Akron were intending their recent invasion of England as a visit of revenge, judging from the way both started to "rough" their foreign opponents in their opening engagements. Moore stopped Eugene Child of France in fourteen rounds and Griffith stopped Francois Charles, also of France, in three rounds.

Moore hasn't forgotten how a British referee earlier in the year shipped him the losing end of a decision in a twenty round contest with Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion. He didn't figure that he lost that contest, and the chances are that if the referee hadn't judged against him he wouldn't be fighting in England now at any future time. There's more than one reason for this belief. In the first place, if he had been given the decision in that bout there wouldn't have been any reason for another trip across the briny.

Keyed by Mal de Mar

But reference to the briny calls to mind another reason why Moore isn't over fond of battling in England. The trip across the Atlantic isn't at all to the liking of the Memphis banty. When he returned to Chicago after his first trip across he didn't make any great show about being declared the loser to Wilde on a referee's decision. But he did have considerable to say about ocean traveling and its hardships. He told of how sick he had been going across and coming back and said it was terrible business.

"When a fellow feels like I felt when I was seasick, he doesn't care whether he ever sees a boxing glove again," said Moore. "Talk about a knock-out, why this seasickness has a crack on the chin backed off the boards. I don't care whether I ever go back to England to box again, but I suppose I'll have to now, even over there that a mistake was made in that decision."

Not Like Great Lakes

But Moore's manager, Nate Lewis, decreed that another trip be made, and accordingly it was made, and Moore, Griffiths, and Manager Lewis are now in London and have started to the start his revengeful antics in London it was necessary for him to undergo another tough voyage, judging by a letter which writer received from Nate Lewis yesterday. Here's what Nate had to say:

"Having a very rough trip, but I am enjoying it just the same. Pat and Mrs. Moore have been very seasick. Griffiths, like myself, seems to be a regular sailor."

Accompanying the letter is a menu card which gives evidence that this bunch must have traveled across in style, for on the bottom of the card is inscribed: "Mr. Nate Lewis and party." Nate didn't forget to underscore the line here. They traveled on the Minsterland.

After French Champion
The last object of Moore's trip to Europe was to engage Charles Ledoux of France, the French bantamweight champion, in battle. He was to have met Ledoux in London, instead of Orquid, who also had been credited with being an excellent boxer, but could not do so because Ledoux became sick. He doubted Moore will remain long enough in Europe to give the French champion an opportunity to recover, so that a meeting will materialize.

What Moore did to Orquid was plenty, and even had there been a predicted referee it is hard to see where it would have gained the Frenchman anything. Orquid never had a chance. Moore evidently forgot all about his susceptibility in his desire to seek revenge by the way he tore in and hammered his foe. A right hand punch to the stomach finished the battle, doubling Orquid up on the floor, where he took the count.

Claim Foul Blows
Then to claim all the world what hard losers those European scoundrels can be, Orquid-claimed he had been fouled by Moore. He claimed that Moore's right to the stomach. His claim received no consideration. But that wasn't all. The man that Orquid stopped, Francois Charles, also pulled the "foul stuff" claim when beaten.

Moore's next bout in London, or possibly in Paris, probably will be with Ledoux.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN TWIN FALLS

Taken at random from The News Here this date in year 1904

The walls of the office building of Dr. Pike are nearly completed and the woodwork will be begun next week.

H. J. Wall of Roswell, N. M., arrived here Tuesday and after looking over the land and making purchases was so favorably impressed that he has decided to remain.

Thomas Costello arrived Tuesday from Marion, Ill. He was accompanied by G. Schenck and O. H. Smith, of the same city, who, after leaving the real estate here, returned to their home Friday.

P. S. A. Bickel, chief engineer in the employ of the Twin Falls Land and Water company, left last Saturday for Helena, Mont., to visit with his family.

Jerry Bonard, who has the contract for cleaning and caring for I. B. Portman's ranch south of town, has been plowing every day since he began in November. The weather has been such that neither heavy rain nor hard freezing interfered with his work. This speaks well for the climate on the Twin Falls tract.

On last Sunday, an advertised, Rev. J. D. Johnson, general missionary of the American Sunday School Union, with headquarters in Salt Lake, arrived here and formed the organization of a union Sunday school. The meeting was held in the school house and about 30 persons were in attendance. After the usual preliminaries Mrs. E. E. Ramsey was elected superintendent and Mrs. J. M. Spackman secretary.

RUPERT

RUPERT—Mrs. S. J. Donaldson sold eight acres of her farm lying just north of her residence, adjoining town, to L. W. Hanson, who resides on a farm three miles south of town. The consideration was $750 per acre. Mr. Jensen will build a residence on it in the spring.

J. P. Hunt, who has been in business for a number of years, sold out recently to Professor D. L. Carlson. Mr. Carlson took charge the first of the year.

The death of Charles Bean came as a great shock to his family and friends. He passed away at 11 a. m. Wednesday, December 31, 1919 at his home just west of the railroad track after suffering over two weeks of blood poisoning. Mr. Bean was acted as janitor at the high school building for the past two years. A short time ago while working at the school house he had the misfortune to scratch one of his fingers on a nail, which later resulted in his death. At first Mr. Bean paid little attention to the scratch. Infection set in and for the past two weeks he has been confined to his home, going to bed on Christmas day. He died one week from that time. Toward the last he suffered intense pain. Mr. Bean was born in Pennsylvania county, Missouri and is about 35 years of age. He was married to Ula Goodman nine years ago. They came to Twin Falls three years ago. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Duella, age 7 and Esther, age four months; two sons, Cleve, age 5, and Raymond, age three years. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday, January 2, 1920 in the Christian church and the remains were laid to rest in the Rupert cemetery.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Bell will be surprised to learn of her marriage recently to Joe Pickett of The Dalles, Oregon. The wedding took place at the home of the groom's sister in Helena. Miss Pickett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bell, who reside on their farm three miles south of town, and has made Rupert her home for number of years. She has many friends who extend congratulations. The groom is a native of The Dalles, Ore., where the couple will make their home.

P. B. Parker of the Rupert Auto and Supply company returned here Wednesday from a ten days' pleasure trip, visiting relatives in Portland, Oregon, Winlock and Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lundquist and wife, parents of Mrs. Dudley Fringle, departed recently for Long Beach, Cal., where they will make their home.

The last of the week, where she joined her husband, Mr. Herman sold his farm one and one half miles south of Rupert recently and purchased a farm near Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hemp left for their home at Spokane, Wash., the last of the week. Mr. Hemp spent his time here with the Mitchell family. Mrs. Hemp was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell three weeks. Mrs. J. L. Benson who has been very ill for the past two months, is slowly improving. They are located on the Dr. Kenagy farm just southwest of town.

Mrs. Ray R. Durant and little daughter, Eva, arrived from Iowa, New Year's day. Mr. Durant, brother of Bert Durant, and son Leo, arrived on Christmas day with a carload of farm machinery and a bunch of thoroughbred durio hogs.

The Scott 40 acre farm from A. Stowell for $18,000, located one mile east of town. Dr. Durant is an expert hog raiser and is planning on supplying the project with thoroughbred stock. He is at work building new barns and sheds and making considerable changes in the place.

A. Stowell, who sold his farm in the east of town recently for $18,000 has purchased the Burli B. Titus farm three and one half miles northeast of town, paying $11,500.

Mrs. Mildred Scholer of Spokane, Wash., who spent ten days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Scholer, has gone to Los Angeles where she will make an extended stay. She was accompanied here by her brother, J. Myron Scholer.

Prettily Expressed.

A young nephew of mine, who addresses his grandmother. He is interested in all things and in school, which is new to him, the little arithmetic taught him appealed to him more than anything else. Last week his grandmother had her seventeenth birthday. He handed her his little gift and, kissing her, said, "Grandmother, I hope that you will like this, and that you will live long to add another cipher to your age."

How About Russian.
Johnny had been home from school with a bad cold, and when he returned to his lessons he took his teacher a note from his mother, saying: "Johnny will like this, and that you will live long to add another cipher to your age."

Common Sense.
Common sense is science exactly so far as it fulfills the ideals of common sense; that is, sense facts as they are, or, at any rate, without distortion of prejudice, and reasons from them in accordance with the dictates of sound judgment. Huxley.

Perfumes Without Grease.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks straggled, but a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready to use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustreous, and you appear years younger.

FARM BUREAU SEEKS FUND

Request for Budgets Totalling $9,018 is Laid Before County Commissioners

Request for appropriations from the county funds totalling $9,018 for financing the work of the county farm bureau and its employment agency during the coming year were laid today before the county commissioners by a delegation composed of local leaders in the farm bureau work.

The requested appropriations would provide $9,018 for the work of the county agricultural agent, county home demonstration agent and county boys' and girls' vocational clubs leader, all grouped under the farm bureau organization, and $2,100 for the employment agency operated in connection with it.

The amount asked for work of the farm bureau is less by $257 than the amount appropriated to the county to the farm bureau last year, but expenses of the employment agency in 1919 were paid out of the appropriation for the farm bureau work.

This year the commissioners asked for submission of a separate budget for the employment agency. Appropriation for the employment agency this year would be divided to give $900 to Buhl and $1,200 to Twin Falls.

In addition to the county appropriation the farm bureau receives an appropriation of $4,080 from state and federal funds.

Inclusion in the delegation which today waited upon the county commissioners were W. F. Alworth, president of the farm bureau; Lloyd W. Colman, county agent; A. L. O'Reilly, county club leader; Miss Edna Leavitt, home demonstration agent; J. C. Whelan, M. A. Thometz, Carl D. Irwin, Frank DeKlotz, P. W. Fisher, Mrs. J. C. Porterfield.

FARM CONGRESS DRAWS MANY FROM TWIN FALLS

County is Well Represented at State Seed Show and Reclamation Congress in Pocatello

Twin Falls county will be well represented at the annual state seed show, meeting of the state engineers association and reclamation congress at Pocatello this week.

J. C. Whelan, J. C. Porterfield, M. A. Thometz, members of the farm bureau, and farm junior champions will be there to attend the meetings and the contests to be held this week.

Twin Falls county will enter several exhibits in the seed show. Many of these exhibits have been considered exceptionally good and it is anticipated that Twin Falls county will carry off many of the awards.

The county champions in club work will be given a week at the Idaho Technical Institute, where they will be given an opportunity to learn many new and useful things concerning their work. A. L. O'Reilly, county club leader, and Miss Mary Graybill will represent the Twin Falls contingent. They will leave tomorrow morning for Pocatello on the early train. Miss Z. Fay Fowler, assistant state club leader, will be in general charge of the youngsters while there. Messrs. Whelan and Porterfield will deliver addresses to the irrigation congress.

ODD FELLOWS PLAN FOR BIGGEST ORGANIZATION

Twin Falls Lodge Enters Upon New Year with High Hopes for Attaining Record

With a membership of 220, constituting the second largest in the state and following close on the heels of the Caldwell lodge, Twin Falls lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, enters upon the new year with the purpose of becoming the largest in the state before its close.

Administration of the lodge's affairs has been put in the hands of the following officers who were installed last Thursday: Noble grand, R. T. Jester; vice grand, H. C. Alexander; chaplain, C. E. Bowditch; foreman, W. G. Gerrie; conductor, Charles Brackley; recording secretary, B. W. McKinnis; financial secretary, S. G. McAuley; treasurer, R. R. Weaver.

CALL TO KENTUCKY WORK
George Simons, who has been with the Christian church as superintendent of young peoples' work since August 30, has received a call to the superintendency of young peoples' work with territory covering the entire state of Kentucky. In reply to whether he will accept the call Mr. Simons said: "The opportunity for a larger service than is offered in a single community appeals to me and I feel that I ought to accept." A meeting has been called at the Christian church tonight at 7:30 to consider the matter.

LAST SAD RITES FOR CHILD FIRE VICTIMS

Community Sympathizes with Parents Prostrated by Grief in Hour of Sorrow

Funeral services for Bernice Rainey, aged 4 years, and Ada Rainey, aged 3 years, only children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rainey, Second avenue south, whose lives were snuffed out by fire Saturday afternoon, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the J. E. DeWitt chapel and were conducted by Dr. A. G. Bennett of the First Methodist Episcopal church. In-casket was in the Twin Falls cemetery.

The fatal accident occurred in a tent at the rear of the family home, used for storing potatoes and heated by a stove. The manner in which the fire started is unknown. The tent was in flames and all chance for the children's escape cut off when their plight was noticed.

The mother was painfully burned in attempting to rescue the children. She succeeded in bringing out both bodies. The parents are prostrated with grief.

MESS CALL TO SOUND FOR VETERANS OF WAR

Twin Falls American Legion Men Conclude Membership Campaign with Elaborate Dinner

Members of the Twin Falls Post American legion will enjoy a dinner at the parish hall this evening at six o'clock. The dinner is the last event of the legion membership drive that was started some time ago. Much effort has been put forth by the present members securing new ones in order to wig and avoid paying for the feed.

The dinner promised is an excellent one according to Post Commander Bergrington, the menu consists of: roast beef, mashed potatoes, creamed peas, Waldorf salad, and waffles, cheese, jelly, pickles and relishes, milk and coffee, ice cream and cake.

Following the feed all members will go to the Elks hall where the business of the evening will be transacted, also the winning side in the contest will be given out.

A proposal is to be made that the by-laws be amended to provide for a new election of officers to take place Monday evening, for the holding of two regular meetings each month and for the trial of members who violate the rules of the legion.

Keen competition is anticipated in the new election of officers as several have already been mentioned to fill the various offices.

BURGLARS ENTER GARAGE

Waste Efforts in Breaking Open Cash Register Devoid of Cash

Burglars Saturday night entered the Idaho garage on Second avenue south but took nothing away, according to report made Sunday to the sheriff's office. A cash register from which all of the money had been taken by the manager before leaving the establishment Saturday night was carried into a back room and forced open and the back door was left standing open. Nothing else seems to have been disturbed. The officers have discovered no clues.

COURT HEARS ARGUMENT ON ELECTION CONTEST

Canal Company Attorney Interposes Demurrer to Claims of Petitioners

In district court, convened for the first regular term of 1920 here this morning, Judge W. A. Babcock is hearing arguments on a demurrer interposed by James R. Bothwell as attorney for the Twin Falls Canal company in the case of Frank DeKlotz and others against the Canal company and members of its directorate declared elected as a result of the ballot taken at the annual meeting of stockholders in December.

In this action DeKlotz and his associates seek an order from the court declaring the election invalid on the grounds that those voters who are not counted for were counted by the tellers.

Attorney for the Canal company bases the demurrer on the contention that there is a misjoinder of parties plaintiff and that it cannot be determined by the petition "who the petitioners claim cast illegal votes or for whom they were cast, nor whether or not those voters were bona fide stockholders who held stock in their own name or on the stockbooks of the corporation ten days prior to the election.

In his argument this morning Mr. Bothwell took the position that D. F. DeWitt, defeated candidate for reelection as director, should be made a party to the suit, and pointed out alleged discrepancy in that Charles W. Colner, who received the lowest number of votes cast for a successful candidate, was not mentioned in the petition.

T. K. Hackman appears as attorney for the plaintiffs.

HARDY IS ACCIDENT VICTIM

Well Known Stockman Thrown with Horse in Attempt to Rope Steer

In an attempt to rope a fractious steer in order that he might examine his brand, Del Hardy, well known stockman, on the John Kirkman ranch, five miles southwest of Twin Falls, last Friday was thrown with his horse which occupied an ice covered place of ground and dragged between 75 and 100 feet. His left leg was broken below the knee. He is being cared for at a local hospital.

HEAVILY LOADED WAGON CATAPULTS OFF OF GRADE

In an unsuccessful attempt to drive a wagon heavily loaded with beet pulp over an ice covered stretch of road south of the sugar factory Sunday afternoon, Dowling Singh, Indian beekeeper, narrowly escaped serious injury when he dismounted himself from the load just as it catapulted over a grade between 12 and 15 feet high. The horses were dragged down with the wagon and one received severe wire cuts in a fence at the foot of the grade. The wagon was considerably damaged.

ILLINOIS NIGHT BREAKS RECORD

Last night was "Illinois" night at the Christian church. One hundred four Illinois people were present. Last year

Illinois was defeated in attendance by Indiana by one, and it appears that Illinois has been waiting to hand one back to their near neighbor. Next Sunday night is "Indiana" night. C. M. Hecker, editor of the Twin Falls Times, will deliver the Indiana address. The following Sunday night is "Ohio" night and Robert E. Stevenson, editor of the Twin Falls Chronicle, will deliver the state address.
