Borah Sees No Room for Censure of Secretary or Admiral in Admonition as to Policy Toward Britain

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A resolution declaring that the action of Rear Admiral Sims in making public the confidential character of the official instructions of the most confidential character affecting international relations deserved the condemnation of all Americans was introduced in the senate today by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana. His request for immediate consideration was denied on objection of Republican Leader Lodge.

Calls for Disapproval

The resolution quoted from the letter sent by Admiral Sims last Saturday before the senate committee investigating naval decorations in which the admiral said that before he had the authority to make a decision on the award of a decoration he had to consult with the British and the French. "I am not," he said, "let the British pull the wool over my eyes; it is none of our business pulling their chestnuts out of the fire; we would as soon fight the British as the Germans." Admiral Sims must have and did consider these instructions, if they were given, as the most confidential character, the resolution said, adding that his action in making them public deserved universal and unqualified disapproval.

"I cannot," he believed that whether the above admonition was or was not given to Admiral Sims the disclosure under almost any circumstances must receive the disapproval of every American," said Senator Walsh.

BAKER PRAISES
SENATE MEASURE

Declares Army Reorganization Bill Statesmanlike Legislative Proposal

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The army reorganization bill drafted by the senate military sub-committee was endorsed today by Secretary Baker, who appeared before the full committee. "This is the most statesmanlike attempt to reorganize the army," he said, "and it is an exceedingly able and effective piece of legislation," he said.

Makes Training Compulsory

The measure provides for compulsory military training and the formation of one big army to be divided into a citizens' reserve army, a regular army consisting of 280,000 men, and the national guard.

While disclaiming any "personal interest or almost none," Secretary Baker, who is in the department as long as General Pershing was on the active list, said, adding that the president's retention of the bill should be in view of the fact that he is the military adviser and the man upon whom the policy for carrying out the military duty.

Discusses Place for Pershing

Senator Frelinghuysen, republican, New Jersey, suggested that the purpose was to provide a place for General Pershing.

"We can't afford to make a military vacancy in America in order to find a place for an officer," the secretary said. "I think when you place a military man in a place created by law and you can't replace him, you're doing something that I believe the constitution prohibits. It is impolitic and constitutionally infirm."

Declaring he had discussed the matter with General Pershing, Mr. Baker said he did not think the general would ever leave the place.

General Pershing's future relations to the army organization from a problem, Secretary Baker said, in finding an assignment for him of importance and dignity corresponding to his high rank.

Senator Frelinghuysen said that in supporting the president's action in "holding a chief of staff he did not intend to cast any reflection upon the work during the war of General March, the present chief."

NEW YORK ASSEMBLY HEARS SOCIALISTS' ATTORNEY IN RUSSIAN SOVIETS' DEFENSE

Counsel for Suspended Assemblymen Declares Adherence to the Platform for Solidarity with Bolsheviks Not Criminal; Claims Educational Institutions are Developed in Russia Despite the Fighting and that Feeling Toward Red Regime is Changing

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF TRIAL
DENIES MOTION FOR DISMISSAL

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—A defense of soviet Russia was made today on the floor of the New York assembly chamber by Seymour Stedman of Chicago, an attorney for the defense in the trial of the five suspended socialist assemblymen before the assembly judiciary committee on charges of disloyalty.

Asserting in connection with the charge that the socialist party at its convention in Chicago last summer had expressed solidarity with the Russian and Chinese governments, Mr. Stedman declared that such a statement was not an offense in England, Germany, Italy or Norway, where it had become an issue, and that in this country it was not a crime for which a man could be tried and sent to the penitentiary nor did it even afford the basis for a civil libel suit.

Not at War with Russia "We are not at war with Russia," he said. "It is true that some of our troops are over there and some of the troops of our associates. It was rather unfortunate for some of our associate troops, for the Russians shot some of them into their regiments."

Mr. Stedman, who said educational institutions were being developed in Russia despite the fighting that was going on there, asserted feeling toward that country was changing and cited dispatches to the effect that the allied governments were preparing to resume trade relations. This, he claimed, was commercial recognition of the Russian political and economic structure.

Argues No Justification

Arguing that it is impossible to charge because they do not include charges for exclusion of the socialist members, Mr. Stedman declared that "you specify no act that would justify the exclusion of these men."

"Can you say that if I plead guilty to the first cause (adherence to the Chicago platform) it justified our exclusion?" he asked.

Mr. Stedman declared the first charge was made on the assumption that conditions in Russia were "responsible," but he declared that information received from that country was most in the line of the Chicago platform. "What was 'fully known' to the assembly," he said, "was 'fully known' to the socialists and vice versa."

He declared that "it is never to us" that the socialist party, as charged, had endorsed the communist international in Moscow, which demands overthrow of organized government.

The Over Word Yes A tilt occurred today in the assembly when Mr. Stedman objected to the use of the word "indictment."

Mr. Stedman said "This is an allegation. Strict criminal law cannot apply here. We are not claiming these people are criminals."

Mr. Stedman said "It is important to know" said Morris Hillquit, attorney for the defense, "if they are not charged with crime, if they are not charged with anything else, what are we here for?"

Mr. Stedman declared that this investigation will not be "a tempest in a teapot," but that before it ends the question will be whether the socialists can continue to be "masqueraded" as political parties.

He added that what the charges against the defendants meant was that they were here "for Trotsky and Lenin" to erect an autocracy on the ruins of a republic "to whose constitution we all subscribe."

Scores Hillquit Assertion

An outburst of applause occurred when Mr. Littleton denounced the attitude of the assembly judiciary committee and then said: "Mr. Hillquit said yesterday that 'what may be treason to-day may be the law of the land to-morrow.' It will be the law to-morrow if you let the assembly judiciary committee rule."

Mr. Littleton predicted "not as a threat," that "before the investigation ends this country will understand that this so-called political party, masquerading as a political party, is agent and co-conspirator of an invisible empire whose object is the forcible overthrow of constitutional liberty in America."

Dismissal Is Denied

The second day of the trial of the five suspended socialist assemblymen before the assembly judiciary committee opened this morning with an announcement by Louis R. Martin, committee chairman, that a motion for dismissal of the proceedings as "unwar-ranted" had been denied by the assembly judiciary committee.

Questioned by Morris Hillquit, who made the motion, Mr. Martin said the decision had been made by the chair after conference with the committee.

JAPAN DECIDES

OUT OF SIBERIA

Declares Object, of Agreement to Co-operate with United States in Supporting Czech-Slavs Accomplished

DENIES TERRITORIAL
AMBITIONS IN RUSSIA

Decision is Considered Result of Aversion of Japanese Majority to Enter Single Hand into Invasion Campaign

TOKIO, (AP)—Japan's object in agreeing to co-operate with the United States in supporting Czech-Slovak troops in Siberia has been attained and the withdrawal of Japanese troops from Siberia will follow, it was decided at a meeting of the advisory diplomatic council yesterday, according to newspapers here.

It was asserted at the meeting, it is said, that Japan has no territorial ambitions in Siberia and that troops being sent to that country are merely to replace losses. It was declared that fundamental policies will not be affected by this step. The council is reported to have endorsed the cabinet's decision not to interfere further in the internal affairs of Siberia and to adhere strictly to the government's declaration when it entered into its agreement with America in 1918.

OFFICIAL ADVICES POINT TO
PURPOSE OF WITTEDRAWAL

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Official advice from Tokio received here have indicated the purpose of the Japanese government to follow the example of the United States in withdrawing its military forces from Siberia.

Discussions in the Japanese press and utterances by political leaders have developed that probably a large majority of the Japanese people are averse to entering a quarrel intended to remove all of the Czech-Slovak troops from Siberia.

All of the other foreign elements having been withdrawn from Siberia, the Japanese government is expected to announce that it has decided to withdraw its troops. In addition to the Czech-Slovak troops whose number has been vaguely placed at somewhere between 20,000 and 30,000, it is planned to remove all of these Czech-Slovak troops by February 10 and the American troops should have quit by March 1.

Although their lines extend much further than those of the Czechs and the Americans, the Japanese have only a short voyage from Vladivostok to their own country so that their evacuation of Siberia may be completed very early in the spring.

General Semenoff, with his 14,000 Cossack irregulars would be left to face the steady eastward advance of the Bolshevik forces. At present he holds the southern portion of the line of the Siberian railway, but it is expected unless he is prepared to make terms with the Bolsheviks, he will be obliged to withdraw his forces to the steppes of Siberia and conduct a desultory warfare, his army living on the country as far as possible.

PARIS, (AP)—Northern and Central Italy are in the grip of a general railway strike but southern Italy is not so seriously affected according to the Turin correspondent of the Petit Parisien. DECLARES WAR ON PROHIBITION

New Jersey Governor Urges Defeat of Dry Amendment in Inaugural Speech

TRENTON, (AP)—Edward J. Edwards, former state senator, was inaugurated at noon Tuesday as the first democratic governor of New Jersey since Woodrow Wilson retired as president. Mr. Edwards, who was elected on a wet platform, succeeded Clarence E. Case, state senate president, who had been acting governor since last Tuesday, when William N. Runyon retired as acting governor to resume his seat in the state senate.

Mr. Edwards in his inaugural address urged the public to resist the prohibition amendment. He declared that the amendment was not to ratify the federal prohibition amendment. He declared that the amendment was not to ratify the federal prohibition amendment. He declared that the amendment was not to ratify the federal prohibition amendment.

Soon after the inaugural ceremonies a prohibition enforcement bill designed to conform with General Edwards' contention that the several states have concurrent power to legislate upon the enforcement of the federal prohibition amendment was introduced in the assembly. The measure defines "intoxicating liquors" as those in excess of four per cent alcoholic content.

Refutation of the federal woman suffrage amendment, which Governor Edwards recommended to the state legislature, received a setback when the assembly by a viva voce vote adopted a resolution declaring it to be the settled policy of the assembly that in the future all proposed constitutional changes should be first submitted to the people for their vote before the legislature acts.

Not a single dissenting vote was registered by either democratic or republican members of the assembly. Political leaders declared that such a declaration by New Jersey at this time apparently is impossible.

LAW OF FORCE RULES MEXICO

Ranchman and Widow of Murdered American Testify Before Probe Body

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, (AP)—Affairs in Mexico are and have been for years conducted under the law of the rifle. J. R. Blocker, head of a large ranch just south of the Rio Grande, told the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation yesterday.

Mr. Blocker and Mrs. F. M. Parmalee, whose husband was killed in a border raid in 1917, were the only witnesses heard in public. Mrs. Parmalee told how Mexicans shot her husband. A posse followed the attacking party to the river, where they escaped into Mexico. Several of the Mexicans were killed.

Members of the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation made no formal comment on the instructions from the Mexican government to its consul in the United States to refuse to see the passport of persons who had testified before the committee, whose testimony was construed by consuls as "slandering the Mexican republic." The order affects witnesses of the nationalities. Attaches of the committee indicated that any action in the matter would properly come before the state department at Washington.

GERMANY NEGOTIATES WITH DUTCH FOR LOAN

Purposes Use of Credit for Purchase of Raw Materials and Foodstuffs

REBLIN, (AP)—Negotiations with Holland for a loan to Germany of 200,000,000 guilders (approximately $80,000,000) will shortly be concluded, according to the Zeitung Am Mittag. Of this amount 140,000,000 guilders will cover purchase of raw products and the remainder will be used to buy foodstuffs. The credit is established for ten years and may be extended proportionately as Germany makes payment on the account.

Germany undertakes to procure the commodities covered by the credit only from Holland, which is also given special economic benefits respecting raw deliveries. This is the first credit accorded Germany since the conclusion of peace.

MAINED MEN ACQUIRE POISE IN DANCING CLASSES

LONDON, (AP)—Dancing is being taught British army officers who have lost an arm or a leg in the war, this instruction being part of a plan intended to give the men poise and confidence in using their artificial limbs. Preliminary work along this line begins at the hospital, and later the officers may continue their lessons without cost if they desire.

LIGGETT MAKES REPLY TO CRITIC

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Answering charges that attacks on American troops on the morning of armistice day resulted in needless loss of life, Lieutenant General Hunter Liggett, commander of the first American army, told a house war investigating committee yesterday that the advance in the Meuse-Argonne sector could not have been stopped, because two divisions were active in the Meuse river.

General Liggett said that the advance in the Meuse-Argonne sector could not have been stopped, because two divisions were active in the Meuse river. He said that the advance in the Meuse-Argonne sector could not have been stopped, because two divisions were active in the Meuse river.

CHINESE DECIDE ON PRICE BOOST

Acute Rise in Value of Silver Brings Serious Problems to the Orientals

SHANGHAI, (AP)—While Americans have been buying British pounds sterling in New York for $3.70 or less, Americans here have been paying $100 in American gold for 75 Mexican dollars which are in current use here.

This unprecedented advance in the rate of exchange in Shanghai has been due to the acute rise in the price of silver. Probably no country in the world has been more sharply affected by the enhanced value of silver than has China.

In consequence of the confused state of exchange, the foreign trade through this city, China's principal commercial center, became more or less disorganized. Exporters ceased to look for new business and confined their activities to filling old contracts from the terms of which they would have been glad to escape.

Shanghai bankers held frequent conferences day and night in an effort to determine what might be done to stabilize the exchange rates. For one day all but one of the leading banks in the city declined to issue drafts in connection with export shipments to America. These exporters who buy their goods in China for silver and sell them abroad for gold suffered most severely. They were obliged to restrict operations or raise prices wherever the goods were sold.

On the other hand importers who buy their goods in America and are paid for them in Mexican dollars have prospered.

One of the difficulties arising from the exchange situation is that much of the business here is done under terms arranged several years ago when an American dollar was worth two Mexican dollars or more. Consequently foreign workers here have suffered. The bankers concluded that one solution of the problem would be to increase the price of China's products throughout the world.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who have in overdoing kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Adv.

GOMPERS DRAWS FIRE IN SENATE

Author of Anti-Sedition Bill Charges Labor Leader with Misrepresentation

WASHINGTON, (P)—Replying in the senate yesterday to the recent criticism of his anti-sedition bill by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, charged Mr. Gompers with misrepresenting the purposes of the measure and with seeking the favor of the extreme radicals in organized labor.

Mr. Gompers was defeated by Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, who defended his loyalty and said his criticism of the bill was justified.

Senator Sterling said it seemed to him that Mr. Gompers "has after business on hand that might capture his attention" at present without "purposely misrepresenting" the bill.

"When Mr. Gompers or any one else says he is opposed to a law which would prevent the advocacy of the overthrow of government by force or violence," said Mr. Sterling, "Mr. Gompers or whosoever it may be, it seems to me, puts himself in a position where his loyalty to the government might well be questioned."

Senator Owen, democrat, Oklahoma, said the house anti-sedition bill contained a "joker" by which any one who advocated the prohibition of woman suffrage amendments would be subject to penalties adding that the house measure was "dangerous in the highest degree."

Senator Norris said he thought it came "with poor grace" for Senator Sterling to question the loyalty of Mr. Gompers. Declaring that he held no brief for the labor leader, Senator Norris said Mr. Gompers was loyal to the last degree, as he had demonstrated during the war.

The Nebraska senator added that the anti-sedition bill gave too much power to government officials and that Mr. Gompers' criticism was justified.

Urges Abandonment of Feminine Notion to Cut High Costs

Speaker Before Arts and Sciences Convention Argues for Plain Dress

NEW YORK, (P)—Women were urged to lower the cost of clothes by abandoning the world-old tradition that they must dress "to capture the fleeting fancy of the male" or to outdo others of their sex, in an address yesterday by Helen Louise Johnson, editor of the general fashion magazine, before the Columbia university institute of arts and sciences. Lower prices could be brought about, she added in her talk on "the problem of the adoption of a standardized costume."

"Man," Miss Johnson said, "can dress properly and becomingly on a limited number of suits. His reasoning seems to be that the greater the expense is adorned the most. His clothes are far from beautiful."

Women would become less conspicuous and more inspired by wearing "standard dress," she declared, for "the native, healthy woman creates a spiritual impression by simplifying her dress and thus enhancing her facial beauty, while her less advanced sister clings to the older dress forms."

SURRENDER PLAN HALTED

Revolution Interrupted, Capitulation on Part of Maximilian Cabinet

BASEL, Switzerland, (P)—The German cabinet, headed by Prince Maximilian of Baden as chancellor, had decided, before the revolutionary overturn of November, 1918, that it would make an offer of surrender to the entente, according to Otto Landsberg, majority socialist leader and secretary for publicity in the present ministry, as quoted in a Cologne dispatch.

Her Landsberg made this statement during a conference of majority socialists, revealing what he had been unable to disclose before peace had been definitely concluded. He declared that on November 5, 1918, four days before the revolution, the cabinet of the empire had proposed to offer the entente the complete capitulation of Germany.

CHILDREN IN ARMENIA SUFFER LACK OF SHOES

NEW YORK, (P)—Thousands of children in Armenia are walking barefooted on the snow because of the paucity of shoes, members of a committee engaged in relief work for the Near East relief committee reported upon their arrival here yesterday. Shoes there cost 1,200 rubles, which is as much as a person could get for working two months and he could find nothing to do, they said.

The dairy committee of the Minidoka Farm Bureau met recently and decided that the silos on the projects were one of the fundamental things in the development of the dairy industry and that more people should become acquainted with feeding of silage, methods of construction and the actual results as seen on the farm. Wednesday, January 28, a silo excursion day has been arranged. This excursion and Cascade county will be covered.

The Adams Produce company, after a thorough search of this country has procured a limited number of certified Netted Gem potatoes for the distribution among the farmers. Work will soon be started on Rupert's $50,000 bridge. Three of the small frame buildings on the lots, on which will be erected the Wilson Theatre were sold this week and will be removed in a few days preparatory to breaking ground for the new building. The bricks for the theatre has been shipped and is expected to arrive here this week. The building will be 185 by 185 by 195 feet.

Many Rupert residents will attend the big irrigation meeting which has been called to be held at Burley Tuesday and Wednesday, January 27 and 28. The meeting will be attended by irrigationist enthusiasts of Cassia, Gooding, Jerome, Lincoln, Power, Twin Falls and Minidoka counties and will be in the form of a "get together" for everybody interested in the subject along these lines.

PREDICTS FORTY PER CENT CURTAILMENT OF PAPER
WASHINGTON, (P)—American newspapers in the middle west apparently will be 40 per cent short on their supply of paper, the state department announced yesterday, as the result of an embargo placed by the Canadian government on all shipments of newsprint paper to the United States from the plant of the Fort Francis company, an American controlled concern in western Ontario.

INCREASED PRODUCTION ONLY REMEDY, SAYS FOSTER

MONTREAL, (P)—Increased production is the only remedy to meet the world shortage of supplies caused by the war, Sir George Foster, acting premier and minister of trade and commerce, is quoted in an address here yesterday. Efforts to meet abnormal conditions by increasing production and overhauling established governments were futile, he said.

A woman will sometimes remark of an acquaintance—not in envy, but in admiration—"How does she manage to always dress so well?" The habit of reading the ads is responsible for much of the good dressing we see.

Y. W. C. A. CALLS BIG CONVENTION

2,000 Women Expected to Gather in Cleveland the Week of April 13-20, 1920, for National Convention.

MEETING POSTPONED TWO YEARS BY WAR

Delegates Will Discuss New Membership Basis for Students and Question of Future Support for Work. Many Other Things.

The Young Women's Christian Association of the United States of America will meet in national convention in Cleveland, O., the week of April 13 to 20, having postponed the convention from the spring of 1918 in order to comply with a government request that expense and travel be reduced to a minimum during the war.

The department on conventions and conferences of the National Y. W. C. A., of which Mrs. Harry Emerson Fosdick is chairman, estimates an attendance of 2,000 women, representing all departments of Y. W. C. A. work—general members, secretaries, students, club girls, Girl Reserves, girls from Industrial Service Centers, women from the International Institutes for foreign born women, members from city, town and country associations.

Each Association in the United States will be entitled to send one voting delegate for every one hundred voting members in the Association.

Two of the most important questions which will come up before the convention will be the membership basis and the question of support. Of old business to be considered the most important question will be the membership basis for student associations, the granting of charter membership privilege to the Chicago Young Women's Christian Association and a recommendation providing an increase in membership of the National Board of the Association will also be presented.

Rev. Charles W. Gilkey, pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church, Chicago, will give a series of morning addresses during the convention week. Dr. Robert E. Speer, secretary to the Foreign Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church, New York, will also give an address. Miss Speer, Miss Mabel Cratty, of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A.

The convention will be in session morning and evening, the afternoon being given over to sectional meetings held in various churches. Attendance at these meetings will be determined by group membership and also by activities.

Mrs. W. P. Harford of Omaha, Neb., will preside at the opening session, having been elected as president at the last convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, held in Los Angeles in 1916.

The committee on business to come before the convention has for its chairwoman Mrs. John French and includes among its members Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Miss Eliza Butler, sister of Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University; Miss Martha M. Cook, Miss Mabel Cratty, general secretary for the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., and Mrs. W. H. Ham Adams Brown, all of New York city.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE DROPS TO NEW LOW LEVEL MARK

Adverse Trade Balance and Uncertainty Regarding Trade Factors

NEW YORK, (AP)—New low records on English, French and Italian exchange were made at the opening of the market here today. Demand bills in the pound sterling, which reached a record low of $164 1/4 on December 12, fell today to $162 3/4, off 2 7/8 from yesterday's close. French exchange which was quoted yesterday at the rate of 117 1/2 francs for the American dollar, a new low, dropped today to 115 7/8, or 17 points below last night's closing quotation. Lire checks dropped from yesterday's new low of 13.87 to a rate of 14.07 for the American dollar.

The adverse trade balance against European countries and the uncertainty regarding foreign trade, are held responsible for the demoralized exchange rates.

Rates of Belgian, German and Austrian exchange also dropped to new low levels. Belgian francs were quoted at the rate of 12.63 for the American dollar, German marks at 1.32 cents, as compared with 1.24 and 24 cents, their value before the war, and Austrian crowns at 0.37 cents.

In the afternoon trading demand sterling broke to 3.80 1/4, a new low record.

ained grave charges against due of the most prominent officers in the American navy without giving him an opportunity to defend himself.

Replying to an inquiry by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, whether Admiral Sims volunteered his letter, Chairman Hale of the decorations subcommittee, said:

"The admiral produced it because he insisted and I am entirely willing to take all responsibility."

The warning given to Admiral Sims against letting the British "pull the wool" over his eyes was approved by Senator Borah, who said the official giving it should be commended.

"I do not find anything to censure either Secretary Daniels or the admiral," said Mr. Borah. "It was a very proper admonition and I regret that the secretary has denied it."

Senator Walsh said the whole question was over disclosure of confidential orders by the admiral and Senator Thomas, democrat, Colorado, said it was a violation of somebody's confidence."

Senator Phelan, democrat, California, inquired whether the committee's investigation proposed to consider charges of Admiral Sims if he acted improperly and Senator Hale replied that the whole field would be covered, including general investigation of the conduct of the war in connection with naval matters.

TOMCAT TAKES EXPENSIVE BREAKFAST AT BIRD SHOW

NEW YORK, (AP)—A stray tomcat projected itself into the annual poultry show in progress today in Madison Square Garden and had a $100 breakfast on two carrier pigeons on exhibition by a Baltimore fancier. The homeless feline squeezed into the garden in some unknown way and foisted his eyes on the 14,000 birds, finally tearing the maulin slips of the craft housing the pigeons. Only a few feathers were left to tell the tale. The cat escaped.

COAL COMMISSION MEETS DELAY CAUSING ADJOURNMENT

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Unfavorable weather led to new upticks today in the price of corn. The outlook in other respects also appeared to be against a quick rebuilding of supplies here, and the strength of the big market tended likewise to give firmness to corn. Buying, however, was of only a scattered sort. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-3/8 to 5-8c higher with May $1.34 7/8 to $1.35 1/4 and July $1.33 1/8 to $1.33 3/4, were followed by a moderate additional advance in some cases. Profit-taking sales brought about something of a setback later, especially in the July delivery. Closing quotations were weak at 3-8c net lower to 1 1/2c advance, with May $1.35 to $1.35 1/8 and July $1.32 5/8 to $1.32 3/4. Oats hardened with corn. After opening unchanged to 1-5/8c higher, including May at $2 7/8 to 3c, the market continued to show a disposition to rise. Provisions were weak, reflecting depression of foreign exchange. There was rather heavy selling of lard by carriers and commission houses.

Office Routine Jolted Through Love for Bovine

WHEN L. L. Breckenridge, flour mill functionary and municipal statesman, during the week became enamored of a cow the demonstration of ardent amor, produced a somewhat sweeping effect.

This cow that Mr. Breckenridge bought and which brought manumission, or sort of surcease and diversion from the cares that infest the day, is an unusual critter. It has two horns that grow out of the top sides of its head, liquid brown eyes, one on each side of her head and a nose that's like feeling a piece of wet soap. This is plastered all over the end of her face. Her nose and nostrils exude copious draughts of liquor (not the sort you are thinking about), which cause streams like limpid rivulets to cascade all about the place.

She is a beautiful bovine with a faculty for eating hay, making from her mouth and swinging her caudal appendage about listless and aimless like.

Mr. Breckenridge on Monday night was so overcome with ardent devotion for his last love that he sat up with her, holding her front hand, and everything, so that his colleagues on the town council had to phone him to come over and help them with the weekly carping on.

Well, sir, this amor for the patient kin became epidemic and the weather editor went over to that cow coral yesterday and forgot all about the climate report. So there was none in The News Tuesday evening.

The cow's the reason. Anyhow yesterday brought a considerable none-dive in temperatures. Iligh was 40 and last night's low was 15.

The official gauger has a hunch that tonight and tomorrow will be "fair," a guess based, apparently, upon the fact that the sky is overcast, a heavy mark muzzes upon the ambient ether and, altogether, everything looks murky.

INFLUENZA IS UNDER CONTROL

Public Health Service Says the State Authorities Have Situation in Hand

WASHINGTON, (AP)—State medical authorities here have the influenza situation so well in hand that no epidemic of the malady is expected, the public health service announced today.

California reported 264 cases last week as compared with 24 cases the week before, but officials pointed out that at this time of the year there is a greater prevalence of colds and grippe than at any other time.

NEW CASES IN CHICAGO AVERAGE FIFTY PER HOUR

CHICAGO, (AP)—More than six thousand persons in Chicago today are ill from influenza, and reports were that the contagion had appeared in cities and towns throughout the middle west. Pneumonia also was reported epidemic, and proportionately had caused a large number of deaths.

During the last twenty-four hours new cases of influenza were reported at the rate of fifty an hour. Of these three hundred could not be given any temporary supervision by trained nurses. Fifteen hundred additional nurses are urgently needed at once, the health commissioner announced.

Deaths from influenza in Chicago during the last twenty-four hours numbered 36, as against 214 during the day the greatest number of cases was reported in last year's epidemic.

DRINK WAS DEMANDED, GETS FINE IN COURT

Frank Gregory Punished for Fighting after Hindoo Refused to Buy Cider

While vigorously protesting innocence, Frank Gregory was this morning found guilty of disturbing the peace by fighting. He was fined $10 and costs, the total being $12.50. The trial was in the municipal court, W. A. Minnick presiding as magistrate. Judge John F. Davies presided.

Gregory, with J. G. Murphy, was arrested following a disturbance in the Mike Cannon pool hall, located in the basement beneath the Big White Store. The disturbance occurred last Saturday night and, according to testimony introduced at the hearing, resulted from the refusal of Bala Singh, a Hindoo, to buy cider on command of Gregory.

Singh was the complaining witness in the case, he explaining that Gregory seized him and assaulted him when he refused to buy the drinks. Singh declared Gregory struck him several times in the face. The case as to Murphy was dismissed.

Judge W. A. Babcock of the district court has handed down a decision denying the demurrer application of Harold M. Sims in the action brought against Sims and others by the Bank of Rochester.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Ordinarily we find in people the qualities we are mostly looking for or the qualities that our prevailing characteristics call forth. The larger the nature the less critical and critical it is, the more it is given to looking for the best in others.—Trine.

CHEESE DISHERS

Cheese naturally suggests itself as a substitute for meat, since it is rich in the same kind of nutrients which meat supplies; it is also a food which is starchy and may be used in a variety of ways.

Stuffed Potatoes.

With Cheese—Split hot baked potatoes lengthwise, remove contents without injuring the skin of the potato. Mash the potato, add seasoning and enough hot milk and butter to season well; beat until light, then refill the skin, piling it up lightly; do not smooth the top. Sprinkle with grated cheese and reheat in oven until cheese is melted and a delicate brown.

Rice Baked With Cheese.—Cook a cupful of rice in a large amount of boiling water, at least three quarts, adding a teaspoonful of salt. When tender drain and cover the bottom of a buttered baking dish with a layer of the rice; sprinkle with grated cheese, a dash of cayenne pepper, and add milk to half fill the dish; cover with crumbs and bake until the milk is absorbed and crumbs brown.

Pittsburgh Potatoes.—Cook one quart of diced potato cubes with a small minced onion until the potatoes are nearly tender; add a teaspoonful of salt and half a cup of minced red peppers and cook until the potatoes are done. Drain and put into a baking dish. Make a sauce of two tablespoonfuls of butter and flour, one tablespoonful of salt and a pint of milk, then add one-half pound of grated cheese. Pour this over the potatoes and bake until a golden brown.

Baked Eggs With Cheese.—Break four eggs into a buttered baking dish and cook in a hot oven until they begin to turn white around the edge. Cover the eggs with a white sauce and over this a cupful of cheese and bread crumbs well mixed. Season and brown the crumbs in a hot oven.

For shells should be carefully scraped out with a teaspoon; someone who has tried it says that the bulk of one egg is saved in the scraping of a dozen shells, and with eggs worth four or five cents apiece, it is worth while.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

In Italy.

at one of the most critical stages of the war, when the Italians were forcing the Italian army back to the Piave, the American Red Cross rushed emergency relief from Paris and revived the drooping spirits of the whole country. In addition to furnishing rations and comforts and medical attention to the fighting men, the American Red Cross instituted 42 soup kitchens, 23 children's hospitals, 10 children's dispensaries, 14 artificial limb factories, five homes for refugee children, 10 rest stations for refugees.

This photograph shows a group of Italian refugee children being fed by the American Red Cross at one of the numerous relief stations.

TRADING WITH RUSSIA

If the wish be father to the thought there must be a pretty general opinion that resumption by the allied nations of commercial relations with the people of Russia means the beginning of the end of the troubled conditions in that country, ramifications of which extend out to civilized nations without exception.

Concerning the immediate results of the lifting of the trade ban there is,
however, as wide a diversity of notions as there are minds of men. Dearth of reliable information from Russia makes fertile field for conjecture, and, with a few outstanding exceptions, prediction seems to be colored with the individual predilection of the forecaster.

On the one hand there is the statement of representatives of the Russian co-operative union, credited with bringing about the reversal of the policy adopted by the allies toward Russia
during the last two years.

"We have in Russia great stocks of wheat, cereals, cattle and flax which are now larger than Russia ever disposed of," they say, arguing their ability to make payment for such goods as they require from the allies. "Our stores are not under the control of the Bolsheviks," they say, and they anticipate no interference on the part of the Bolsheviks in establishing free interchange of manufactured goods and raw materials.

Diametrically opposed to this rosy view is the opinion voiced in a somewhat sombre statement emanating from the American Russian Chamber of Commerce executive committee following its recent meeting in New York.

Chances of relieving distress among the non-combatant population of Russia, of permitting distribution of supplies to non-Bolshevik elements and of weakening the Bolshevik domination
over the masses by lifting of the blockade seem slight, the statement says
and adds:

"It is to be feared that the Bolsh-evist government will point to this action as a concession extorted by the triumph of their arms and will be stimulated to make more strenuous military aggressions. Bolshevik elements will not permit co-operative societies to participate in strengthening their opponents."

Students of the situation for the most part, however, are not disposed to essay dogmatic assertions.

The new policy, by, and large, is hardly to be regarded as either than an experiment—and opinion very largely,
indicates that the experiment is a highly necessary one.

It has been an old plaint of the Bolshevists that the failure of their communist program, which they have chosen to interpret in their political ventures, is due almost entirely to the blockade. Doubtless their arguments have influenced many Russians, who will look forward, now that the ban is lifted, to a vindication of all of the most elaborate claims put forward originally by the Bolshevik propagandists.

Manifestly there can be no realization of these dreams, and the dawning appreciation on the part of those de-fected by the Bolsheviks of the futility of their claims must inevitably lead to the downfall of the communist structure.

Minor objections that might be urged against the policy just adopted by the allies with respect to Russia must be pushed aside in appreciation of the larger benefits that will result if this be its result.

At any rate, the experiment is well worth trying.

fer you definite and valuable information about commodities and prices.

HOLLAND IS LOSING ITS CHARACTERISTIC SCENES

Practical but Ugly Steam or Electric Plant Replaces Picturesque Windmill

AMSTERDAM, (AP)—Holland is slowly
but surely losing the one characteristic of its landscape—picturesque windmills and known to every schoolboy—the squat, fat, lazy looking windmills that for centuries have stood out all over the country's flat surface.

These quaint structures are gradually giving way to highly practical but ugly steam and electric plants. Dutch technical men say this windmill is doomed.

Now and then, a large group of them is replaced by one electric plant, and,
in the course of each year, a number are destroyed by fire—presenting a spectacular blaze with the big burning wings wheeling around like fiery arms.
They are never reconstructed.

The existing type of Dutch windmill was invented about the year 1400. The great disadvantage of the windmill, of course, is its absolute dependence on weather conditions. For this reason, they are being replaced, when possible,
by steam and electric plants.

The Dutch windmill, however much
it may look in pictures to be a toy, is far from that. It is a sturdy structure, as big as a good size house, and the machinery inside is extremely powerful.

PRICE OF FARM PRODUCTS

(Utah Farmer)

What will the price of farm products be next year? is being asked right now. It is always a problem with the farmer. He plants his crop, usually not knowing what he is going to receive for it. The only way we can estimate the price for the future is by past experiences. If the factories and cities continue to pay such high prices for labor, it is going to have a great influence on the cost of farm products. The farmer is learning how to figure costs
and if he can afford it he will not sell for less than it cost to produce. If we can see the future at all there is going to be a greater consumption of food products. The standard of living has changed.

There are many things to consider when we study the problem of price on future production. Other nations may increase production but over production
in this country does not seem possible for the next year or two.

Some people thought the government would have to sustain a loss on the guaranteed price of wheat—but nothing like that so far. Wheat is selling above the guaranteed price in some market
right now.

There may be some prices that will be lowered, others may go higher but this one thing must be considered in making future prices on farm products
—the cost of production and a fair profit to the farmer. Agriculture is the big thing to be considered in this time of adjustment and all that the farmer
wants is a fair deal—he asks no more.
Today he stands a better chance of getting it than ever before.

CITIZENS GIVE VIEWS ON THE ADOPTION OR REJECTION OF TREATY

Answers to Informal Voting on Question of America's Position in Settlement of World War Lead to Interesting Deductions—Bulk of Ballots Favor Ratification with Lodge Amendments or No Ratification at All

In and around Twin Falls the number of those who favor peace treaty ratification with all the Lodge amendments are just about offset by those who are opposed to ratification in any form whatever. A little over half as many persons favor compromise on the proposed ratifications with immediate adoption by America of the treaty and just about the same number favor ratification without any reservations whatever.

This, briefly, is the result of a count of the ballots received at The News office in the informal voting contest on the subject of the League of Nations and the peace treaty inaugurated by this newspaper, replic to which have now ceased to drift in.

The deductions to be drawn from the compilation are remarkably interesting.
The questions put up to News readers
were these:
Number 1—I favor, compromise on reservations with immediate ratification of the peace treaty and the League of Nations Covenant.
Number 2—I favor ratification but
only with all the Lodge reservations.
Number 3—I favor ratification but
only without any reservations.
Number 4—I am opposed to ratification in any form.
Roughly, just about twice as many persons are to be found in groups Number 2 and Number 4 as in groups Number 1 and Number 3. As between groups Number 2 and Number 4 the percentage of difference is so slight as to be negligible. Practically the same situation exists as between groups Number 1 and Number 3, but by combination of groups 1 and 3 and 2 and 4,

it will be seen that about twice as many persons subscribe to the idea of ratification with the Lodge amendments or no ratification at all as to the belief in ratification, with or without compromise.

Some interesting sidelights are shed upon the temper of those to whom we are indebted for ballots—thus attached to his ballot, a Twin Falls business man
offers the following:
"Never in the history of the country has there been assembled such a bunch of craven cowards as the present United States senate.
A powerful nation without the courage to sign up, fearing someone else will do it while we are not, we don't want to do while we are strong enough to maintain our own interpretation, as expressed in plain English. They see nothing but ghosts of what their imagination conjured up and delay the peace that should come to the world following positive action."

Yet another Twin Falls citizen, a professional man this time, votes for ratification with the Lodge amendments, and adds this comment: "No good, but the best way out."
Another man records that he is opposed to ratification in any form and adds, "So are my soldier boys and wife."

Following is the result of the vote
in full:
Question Number 1 54
Question Number 2 88
Question Number 3 56
Question Number 4 89

Total ballots 287

To those who by their courtesy in returning ballots made possible the compilation The News would express its high sense of appreciation. The figures are interesting only in passing as they represent the sentiment of only those who are interested in the entire question. A larger or compulsory vote might show an altogether different result.

Old Friends are True Friends

The man, who loves a dog and a pipe, has two staunch friends that never fail him in good luck or in bad. They give all and ask nothing in return. Day by day they become nearer and dearer to him. The man who has not a dog and a pipe has missed two of the greatest things this good old world can give.

Every man who loves his pipe should know Velvet, the one tobacco that brings out all of a pipe's best and sweetest qualities.
Your pipe takes on an added friendliness from Velvet's choice Kentucky leaf aged in the wood to a mellowness that's rich and smooth as cream.

Your pipe takes on a mild sweetness that is Velvet's natural tobacco sweetness. And around you hovers the real tobacco fragrance that all good pipe smokers love.

Never did Velvet Joe say a wiser, truer thing than this:

"Folks say you can't buy friendship. You can buy a dog and a pipe and good old Velvet—and I reckon no man ever had three better friends."

Lightly rolled pure tobacco

There's a lot of pipe-loads in every big generous tin of Velvet, and every pipe-load
is good tobacco at its best.

BRISTOL FACES DEATH IN DROP

Carpenter at Crusher Plant
Falls 20 Feet on Solid Rock
—Injuries Minor

Although he fell a distance of 20 feet alighting on his face and head on solid rock Mark Bristol, a Lynch-Cannock company employe at the highway district stone crusher plant, sustained no injuries, as far as examinations thus far made have revealed, of a major character. He is expected to be back at work in a few days.

Bristol, who is 22 years of age, the son of George Bristol, resides at 253 Fifth avenue north. He has been employed as carpenter at the crusher plant. This morning about 9:30, while in the performance of his regular duties, according to highway district authorities, he lost his balance, fell from the top of a stone bin at the top of the crusher, striking head foremost on the rock in the bottom of the bin.

At the time of the accident the plant was temporarily shut down for some machinery adjustment. To this is attributed the fact that Bristol was not drawn into the crusher machinery and if not killed at least permanently maimed. His principal injuries are cuts under the right eye and on the right cheek, with contusions and abrasions about the cheek, chin and nose.

Following the accident Bristol was hastened to the Boyd hospital, where he is being cared for. He was unconscious for only a very short period. The young man is single.

CITY HAS NO "FLU" CASES

Reports Filed with County Physician Indicate Healthy Condition Here

At present Twin Falls city is free from "flu" if physicians' reports filed with the county health officer are a true index of the city's health condition. No reports of this malady as existing in the Twin Falls municipality are on file.

"As far as my reports and personal observation are concerned there is no case of the so-called 'Spanish Influenza' in Twin Falls," Dr. C. C. McGinnis, county physician stated this morning. He admitted that reports of one case at Kimberly and another at Ellert had been reported to him. He also stated that a short time ago local physicians reported two cases in town at first believed to be "flu." Later diagnosis is said to have proved them common colds with no virulent symptoms.

"The city and county are particularly free from anything having the appearance of an epidemic of any sort up to the present time," Dr. McGinnis announces. There are eight smallpox instances, none malignant, he says, with one case of chickenpox. Measles and typhoid are non-existent here.

TWIN FALLS CHURCH IS PROMISED RECTOR

Bishop Touret Sends Promise of Early Filling of Ascension Episcopal Pulpit

That a rector for Ascension Episcopal church will be selected in the very near future is the statement made by Archbishop Howard Stoy, who is in Twin Falls this afternoon for a brief call on members of the church. Archbishop Stoy tells the plans made by Bishop Frank Touret for filling the local pulpit without unnecessary delay. "The bishop," Archbishop Stoy says, "has laid plans for providing the Twin Falls Episcopal church with one of the strongest ministers in this missionary diocese. This man will be here before long."

Plans are being made by local Episcopalians brought by the archdeacon in that Bishop Touret, who has just taken up the work in this field, will make his initial visit to the parish on February 21 and 22. He will conduct regular services in the church on Sunday, February 22, these being Eucharistic feast in the early morning, with regular morning prayer, with special features at 10:30 o'clock. On this occasion Bishop Touret will be accompanied by Archbishop Stoy and Dean A. Chamberlain, of St. Michael's, Boise.

Plans are being made by communicants of the parish for the reception of the church dignitaries when they come in February.
