PALMER OFFERS NEW PLAN FOR SEDITION BILL

Attorney General Disapproves Both Sterling and Graham Drafts and Makes New Suggestion to Deal with Issue

GOMPERS OPENS FIGHT ON HOUSE PROPOSALS

Labor Leader Centers Attack on Provision Prohibiting Circulation of Literature and Periodicals of Radical Nature

WASHINGTON, (P)—Disapproving both the Sterling and Graham seditious bills, Attorney General Palmer, in a letter today to Chairman Campbell of the house rules committee, proposed a new measure which would provide fines not exceeding $10,000 and imprisonment of not more than 10 years for persons convicted of attempting to overthrow the government or of acts of violence against the government or its employees or agents while in the discharge of their official duties.

Illness Delays Author

Attorney General Palmer did not appear today before the house rules committee to present his views on the seditious measures in dispute before the house and senate. Representative Graham, republican, Pennsylvania, author of the house bill, also was unable to appear because of illness. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, opened the hearing in opposition to the bill. Declaring that the Graham measure would make "all free men slaves," Mr. Gompers asked if additional seditious legislation was necessary. "Will it bring sedition," he asked, "welding of our institutions, or will it weld the direct opposite to the desired result?" he asked.

Sees Racism to Change

Centering his attack on the provision of the bill prohibiting the circulation of all literature and periodicals of radical nature, Mr. Gompers said the workers of this United States were seeking industrial changes and the improvement of social and moral conditions and that the bill would prevent the use of moral force.

Strikes and cessation of work

Gompers said, are nothing more or less than an aspiration by working people for better living conditions. "Strikes where there are no strikes are the most backward," he added. "Asserting that fines and imprisonment were provided for over acts, the witness said the bill had one purpose, to make restrictions; to forbid punishment for the most lawless."

Olives Exerting Hypotheses

"Although laborers may be unorganized today," he continued, "they might organize tonight because they want better conditions and better life. Such a movement must be of the people and they could not get into executive session. Under this bill that would be prohibited."

Such meetings would not be unlawful under this bill, said Representative Sael, republican, New York. In reply President Gompers charged the bill might even prevent a plan to

DEMANDS CUT IN SPENDING ORGY

McCumber Calls for Reduced Government Expenditure to Avert Ruin

WASHINGTON, (P)—Immediate reductions in governmental expenditures and appropriations "to avert financial ruin" was urged in the senate today by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota.

Denouncing the government's "wild orgy" of spending, Senator McCumber said the high cost of living was due to governmental extravagance.

"Our country," said the senator, "is longing for a return to something like normal conditions, but the people as a whole cannot possibly return to a normal state so long as the government keeps up this abnormal extravagance."

He predicted that a deficit of more than three billion dollars would exist at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

Immediate disposition of the shipping board was recommended by Senator McCumber who said "the most shameful of all of our crises is the extravagance of the shipping board."

Reductions in appropriations for fortifications, and the navy, elimination of appropriations for public buildings, rivers and harbors improvements and public works together with cuts in the estimates for the various government departments should add, said a saving of $2,500,000,000 could be accomplished in this way.

AMERICAN TROOPS CLASH WITH SEMENOFF FORCES

WASHINGTON, (P)—As a result of the clash between a detachment of American soldiers and Semenov forces on January 10 near Peshchaya, one general, six officers and 45 men of the Russian forces were captured and still are held, the war department was advised today by Major General Graves, commander of the Siberian expedition.

General Graves described the attack as entirely unprovoked.

The American casualties were one man killed, one man died of wounds, and one severely wounded, while five Russians were killed and one severely wounded.

The opposing forces were manning armored trains. General Graves said the Russians attacked 33 Americans, who fought off the Russians and then in turn attacked.

General Graves expressed the opinion that the matter could be adjusted peacefully with General Semenov, who could not have been responsible.

BARES SOCIALISTS' PLAN FOR INSURING LOYALTY TO PARTY'S COMMANDS

Evidence Introduced in Trial of Suspended Members of New York Assembly Includes Constitution and By-Laws of Organization Setting Forth Drastic Requirements Imposed Upon its Members Enlisted in Furtherance of "Class" Struggle

COMMITTEE REFUSES HILLQUIT'S OFFER OF "ADMISSIONS OF FACT"

ALBANY, N. Y., (P)—John L. Gerber, secretary of the New York local of the socialist party, was the first witness called today at the trial before the assembly judicial committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty.

Committee counsel began presentation of evidence after Chairman Louis M. Martin had denied an application by Morris Hillquit, chief counsel for the defense, to introduce certain "admissions of fact," which he said would serve to clear the issue and save calling a large array of witnesses.

Objection was taken by John B. Stansfield, committee counsel, on the ground that his side considered itself able to select what evidence it thought proper to establish its case.

Olives Party Platform

As soon as Gerber had been sworn, Mr. Stansfield obtained from him a copy of the constitutional platform of the socialist party in 1917, which was introduced in evidence without objection by the defense.

Mr. Stansfield also introduced in evidence the state constitution of the socialist party, from which he read excerpts, including one providing that candidates for public office should on receiving nomination file their registrations with the party to insure their fulfilling party commands.

By-laws of the New York county socialist organization were introduced. Mr. Stansfield read extracts from the national constitution of the party to show that any socialist voting for any appropriation for military or naval purposes shall be expelled from the party.

Shows Age of Policy

Cross-examination of Gerber by Mr. Hillquit evidently was for the purpose of bringing out that the constitutional and regulatory excerpts read by Mr. Stansfield had been in force for 12 to 21 years.

Francis M. Hugo, secretary of state, followed Gerber on the stand.

Cross-examined by the defense, Mr. Hugo said the socialist members had shown no hesitation in taking their oaths. He finished his testimony in a few minutes and then the luncheon recess was taken.

UNITED STATES IN 1917 AT WAR WITH MEXICANS

Status of International Affairs Permitted Release of Foreign Murderers; Attorney Tells the Investigating Body

PLAN OF SAN DIEGO IS HEARING CENTER THEME

Witnesses Ascribe Depredations to Object of Carrying Out the Scheme for Separating Six American States

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., (P)—An invitation to Ludwig C. A. K. Marx, representing the Russian Bolsheviks to contribute to the publication of a Bolshevik manifesto was contained in a letter by Linn Gale of Mexico City, introduced as evidence before the senate committee investigating the San Diego situation today. Gale asked $10,000 adding he had done all he could to induce the Mexican government to "bolshavize the country."

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., (P)—It was because a "state of war" existed between the United States and Mexico that Mexicans once convicted of murder and bridge burning on the American side of the border, were restored to their own country as for men. John A. Valls today told the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation.

Valls is the district attorney for the forty-ninth district of Texas. He prosecuted those Mexicans captured after the raid on San Agustin in 1916 who were convicted and sentenced to death. In 1917, decided the lower court had been reversed and the state of Texas at the time of their assault and capture. A state of war existed between the United States and Mexico.

Raid Conforms to Plan

Judge Valls declared the raid was directed under the plan of the "plan of San Diego," which had for one of its objects the separation of six states from the United States. He submitted documents to show the raid was planned and carried out by men of Carranza's army and that a portion of the recruiting was done by Nicoforo Zambrano, of Monterey, then treasurer general of the republic of Mexico.

Federico De La Rosa was stated by Valls to have been the chief commander of the raiding party.

Cites Recruiting Operations

Documentary evidence which was produced in the trial of the captured raiders and re-submitted to the committee was that Zambrano came from Mexico City to Monterey and there openly recruited the raiding parties and afterward publicly and in the midst of applauding crowds, who the recruits followed at the railway station.

The raid on San Ygnacio, in which several American soldiers were killed and bridges were burned was preceded by an interview by journalist Kevin Rucker, of the American army and Frederico Gutierrez Zapata, commander of the Carranza garrison just across the border line.

Zapata promised to send a force to intercept the bandits that were known to be moving toward the border. The evidence, Valls said, showed Zapata furnished the raiders the next night. Other officers with the party, he testified were Colonels Baise and Farion, both officers in the Carranza army.

HINT OF WARFARE IS DISSEMINATED IN NEW DISPOSITION OF BRITISH ARMS

LONDON, (P)—Some of the newspapers give great prominence to the cancelling of the original orders sending British troops into the plebiscite areas in Silesia, East Prussia and Schleswig. Eleven battalions and a brigade of artillery were scheduled for plebiscite duty. It was officially announced yesterday without a reason being given that it was found necessary to modify the arrangement. Under the new plan only one battalion will go to Schleswig, one to Danzig and one to Allenstein. Suppression is said to be the destination of other battalions.

The Daily Herald, which describes the affair as a "mystery," says advance parties of eleven battalions already have arrived at their destinations and have been ordered to return immediately. It refers to the Paris suggestion that troops be sent to protect Georgia and Azerbaijan against the Bolsheviks and the report that French troops will be sent to the Baltic states in the plebiscite areas. It adds that whatever the reason, the decision was made at the recent conference of the allies in Paris and is not an isolated British arrangement.

The Daily Herald ascribes the move to the British "war party's determination to involve the country in new military commitments."

BRYAN DENIES FARMER-LABOR UNITY OF AIMS

Idaho Commissioner of Education Points Out Diversity of Interests in Address Before Grain Growers

PULLMAN, Wash., (P)—The problems and interests of the labor element of the people of this country are entirely different from those of the farmer, Dr. E. A. Bryan, state commissioner of education of Idaho and formerly president of Washington State college here, told a conference of grain growers, dealers and owners from northwestern states gathered here today. Not only are their interests different, said, but in many respects they are opposed to each other.

"Food is the first and most essential necessity of life," Dr. Bryan declared, discussing "The Farmer and the Laborer." "The average cost of the clothing necessary for comfort and decency and the average cost of housing are small compared with the cost of food. The farmer is the great producer of food. Labor is the large consumer of merchantable food. So the interests of these two groups will forever be ranged against each other in the food market."

Strike an Impossibility
"The farmer's work is seasonal; the laborer's is constant; one is outdoors, the other indoors. Labor lives in crowded centers; farmers in the open country. With the one, centralized union action is possible; with the other, impossible. A small and compact labor group can exercise vastly greater political power than a widely scattered agricultural population. The great argument in the hands of labor for enforcing his demands is the strike. The strike is an impossibility for the farmer, and if it were possible, would be disastrous to the general welfare."

"Federation on particular issues between farmer and labor is politically possible, but unity of organization, management and action would like be disastrous to both. These two great groups are the counterparts of each other in the great work of production. A proper balance between them is essential, a sympathetic appreciation for each part which each must play, but no 'entangling alliances' will make for the general welfare."

A system of farming apprenticeship and the development of a class of permanent farmers, either on lease or ownership system, was advocated by Dr. Bryan as the real solution of the farm labor problem. This, he said, was far more feasible than depending upon miners, factory workers and others to perform the extra farm labor during the busy seasons. As a means toward this end, he advocated a system of farming that would insure all year round production. Other requirements of the plan he outlined as follows:

Requirements on Farm
"A decent and comfortable cottage on the farm of the employer (for the 'journeyman farmer') within reasonable distance of school; the use of a small garden; the use of a reasonable fruit supply from the farmer's orchard; the privilege of raising and fattening two or three pigs; provision for a limited milk supply either by assignment of a cow or milk from the farm herd; a wage by the year at a rate that, all things considered, it shall equal the income offered by labor."

Summarizing, Dr. Bryan declared: "No political federation with labor is advisable or indeed possible, except from time to time on special issues, and agrarians are not now in position to negotiate or act on any of these. The supply of farm labor must be developed in the country and apart from the farm itself should consist, as far as possible, of farm boys, journeyman farmers and tenants who spend the entire year upon the farm on terms favorable to them and possible to their employers. The present system is wasteful, improvident annoying and expensive."

DEBATES MEXICAN STATUS BETTER

Witness Tells Investigating Body Only Paid Propagandists Optimistic

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., (P)—Americans in the direct or indirect pay of Carranza are responsible for reports of improved conditions in Mexico, Henry Forrester yesterday told the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation. George Weeks, editor of a weekly newspaper, was especially indicated as one of those prominent in the dissemination of Carranza propaganda. "The fact is," said Forrester, who turned Tuesday from Mexico City where he unsuccessfully tried to have Mexicans stopped from drilling for oil on property he had leased and registered in June 1919, "conditions are growing worse. Carranza controls the larger towns but not the country and he recently visited Cuatro Ciénegas he had collected in that district 2,000 troops. The train on which he made the trip was escorted by a train of armored cars filled with soldiers. I was there and saw it."

Incident to the dissemination of Carranza propaganda, acting as chairman, informed the committee would watch carefully the operation of the Mexican foreign office instructions to consuls to issue passports of those who had testified before the committee. "Additional background for a consideration of the attempt to carry out Carranza's plan of 'San Diego' a plan to begin a revolution in the United States, was fixed by the testimony of two American farmers who were living in the lower Rio Grande valley in the United States were halted only when some sixty thousand American troops were brought into the district and confined for almost a year at average intervals of two weeks."

WOULD BAR JAPS FROM AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

Senator Phelan Proposes Constitutional Amendment to Restrict Naturalization Processes

WASHINGTON, (P)—A constitutional amendment denying citizenship to all Japanese born on American soil was proposed in a resolution introduced yesterday by Senator Phelan, democrat, California, and referred to the judiciary committee.

Under the proposed amendment only persons "whose parents are white, Americans, American Indians, or their descendants" would be eligible for citizenship in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof would be eligible for citizenship. "In a short time," said Senator Phelan, "the Japanese will own all the best lands in California unless restrained. It is necessary, therefore, to deny citizenship to Japanese born on our soil and discourage their presence, thus preventing race conflicts, and the saving of the white population from deterioration."

ARGUES FOR GOVERNMENT CREDIT IN RELIEF WORK

Red Cross Official Tells Congressional Committee Task in Europe Too Big for Private Agencies

WASHINGTON, (P)—"Food relief in Europe can be furnished only through the United States government establishing credits for European countries to buy supplies in this country, the house ways and means committee was told yesterday by Livingston Farrand, chairman of the American Red Cross national committee. Funds of all private relief agencies would be 'inadequate to meet the tremendous need' in Poland, Austria, Hungary and elsewhere in Europe, he said."

For immediate relief in Europe, the Red Cross plans to expend $15,000,000, or half of its available cash, for the year's work, Dr. Farrand said. Red Cross reports, he added, "indicate an increasing danger of the need of food and clothing first in Vienna and Budapest, and second in Poland."

DECLARES PACT KILLS CULTURE OF HUNGARIANS

Count Apponyi Takes Pessimistic View of Effect of Acceptance of Peace Treaty as Drafted by Allied Council

VIENNA, (AP)—Acceptance of the treaty as drafted would mean "cultural downfall" for Hungary, Count Albert Apponyi, the former Hungarian premier and head of the Hungarian peace delegation, who is returning to Budapest from Paris with the allied peace treaty, declared Tuesday. Count Apponyi's assertion followed the expression of his belief that such a peace as was proposed for his nation could not last.

"Concerning internal physical conditions of Hungary," said Count Apponyi, "we have been pillaged of everything. In the first place we had the hardships of war; secondly, we had two communist administrations, when all of our money was spent abroad for propaganda; and thirdly, the Rumanians robbed us of manufacturing machinery, even printing plants and railroad equipment, so that we now have only twenty-seven locomotives."

"Our agricultural interests, which the central European powers ruined by taking away our livestock, is in a condition of general devastation beyond the river Theiss."

"I tried to make Premier Lloyd George and others see that it is in the general interest of humanity to assist us and that cutting us up is an economic crime. As proposed in the treaty we should have no wood, lumber, coal, salt, iron or oil. It is mockery to ask us to live after those are taken away."

"In Friday's sitting it was declared officially that the treaty as proposed would find no signers in Hungary. Such terms mean permanent unrest, among us and also in Europe. Owing to our position on the line between eastern and western Europe, if we are unable to live, the Balkans will be a danger zone."

"The nationality principle is constructed by defiance of geography and economics and also destroys the traditions of the people, who is cut off from home. From generation to generation there will be revolts. It is a transfer of national leadership to races inferior in culture. It is the destruction of our schools and universities, leading the people back to ignorance. It is cultural downfall that mankind cannot witness without abhorrence."

ITALIANS HOLD LONDON TREATY AS ALTERNATIVE

Will Demand Carrying Out of Secret Agreement Only When All Other Means of Settling Adriatic Question Fail

PARIS, (AP)—Italy will demand of France and England the carrying out of the treaty of London only when all other means of settling the Adriatic question have been tried and found futile, according to a statement made by Premier Nitti to a representative of the Echo de Paris. The correspondent accompanied the Italian premier from this city to Nice, and was told by Signor Nitti that his trip to Rome was brought about solely by the railroad strike in Italy.

"The reply of the Jugo-Slav government to the note of the supreme council relative to conflicting claims on the eastern shores of the Adriatic does not satisfy us," the premier is quoted as saying, "but we have come to the extreme limit in making concessions. The world should realize that for the sake of Fiume we renounce Dalmatia which was given to us by the pact of London. We hope that after a few days further reflection the Jugo-Slavs will send an acceptable answer."

Premier Nitti expects to return to Paris soon to resume his work in the peace conference.

GERMANY APPROVES OF HOOVER'S RELIEF PLAN

Government Offers to Remove Customs Requirements to Facilitate Warehouse Operation

BERLIN, (AP)—The German government, in a statement issued last night, expresses unequivocal approval of the proposed plan of Herbert C. Hoover to establish American relief warehouses throughout central Europe. In order to facilitate the warehouse plan the government declares it will not remove all import duties, regulations and needless customs formalities but also will afford the shipments special transportation facilities in Germany.

The statement also asserts that transportation of the relief commodities would take place under the watchfulness of the Hoover organizations, while it is contended would result in the safe delivery to recipients of the goods in a sound condition.

Enactment of the government's statement was intended to counteract an alleged misunderstanding in the United States with respect to the Hoover plan.

BOB MARTIN'S MENTOR TELLS SIDE OF ISSUE

Bronson Says He Has No Telegram from Kearns—Justifies Boost for A. E. F. Man

JOPLIN, Mo., (AP)—James Bronson, manager of Bob Martin, heavyweight boxing champion of the American revolutionary forces, says he has no information other than press reports of the telegram Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, is said to have sent him, attacking his alleged method in "boosting" Martin in opposition to Dempsey.

"Kearns is running in circles," Bronson said. "The letter in which he says only a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Pueblo, Col., post of the American legion and an announcement of a bonafide offer I have received from promoters there is a fight between Martin and Carpentier."

"Kearns' telegram, as reported in press dispatches, evidently takes more exception to the resolutions than to any word or act of either mine or Martin's. Those resolutions were passed without my knowledge or advice. The first word I received from there was the offer of a $75,000 purse for Martin's services in a bout with Carpentier and a copy of the resolutions was attached."

"As a matter of fact Martin was matched with Carpentier before Dempsey won the championship. Martin, the American representative at the inter-allied games, through the system of drawing used, was to have met the French soldier champion, who was representing France at the soldier Olympiad."

plaid. A few days before the bout was scheduled to take place it was announced that Carpentier had injured his hand, so Journeé, a stable mate of Carpentier, was substituted and with Descamps in his corner, Martin knocked him out in three rounds.

"As for Kearns' charges that I have attempted to use my influence with the American legion, or have tried to trade on my own achievements in France, they are absolutely without foundation. I have never attempted to 'boost' Martin's stock with former soldiers in any way. They know him and his record and have followed his every fight and the actions taken by dozens of legion posts came to us as big a surprise as it did to Kearns."

Sir Charles Is Sure Shamrock Will Lift Title

British Peer Comes over with Word of Confidence in Challenger's Prospects

NEW YORK, (AP)—Sir Charles Allou, a leading English yachtsman who arrived in New York yesterday on the Adriatic, said today that Sir Thomas Lipton will send a 22 metre Shamrock to America this spring to meet the cup challenger, Shamrock IV in a series of trial races.

Alfred Draper will be the skipper of the 22 metre boat, Sir Charles said. He expressed the confidence that all British yachtsmen have in the ability of the Shamrock IV to lift the America cup.

MAINTENANCE OF ALLIANCES PREMIER'S AIM

Execution of All Clauses of the Treaty of Versailles to Be Law to New French Cabinet, Miller Announces

PARIS, (AP)—Maintenance of "alliances that have saved the world" will be one of the chief aims of the new cabinet in France, Premier Millerand announced in his ministerial declaration of policy today.

The declaration began with a general reference to Georges Clemenceau, the retiring Premier. M. Millerand pointed out that he had been called "to the formidable honor of succeeding a ministry presided over by a great patriot who in the eyes of the world is the incarnation of victory."

Declares for Firm Policy.

The declaration continued: "The execution of all the clauses of the treaty of Versailles will be law to us. We shall pursue it without violence or feebleness—with unshakable firmness. It includes the close and cordial maintenance of the alliances which have saved the world. Without our allies, those of the first war of the last hour, that trial would not have been in, more for us! What would have been the fate of our allies if France had not served four long years as the cover to civilization?"

Appointments Made. Premier Millerand, M. Francis-Marsal, minister of finance; M. Isaac, minister of commerce and Maurice Paleologue, former ambassador to Russia, have been appointed French plenipotentiaries to the peace conference. The cabinet approved and President Poincaré signed a decree to this effect today. The new appointments replace M. Clemenceau, Pichon, Klotz and Tardieu, who resigned with their retirement from the ministry. Jules Cambon remains the fifth member of the peace delegation.

A similar decree was signed appointing Charles Jonnart as the delegate of France on the reparations commission.

Control General. Manelair was named as assistant delegate.

Face the Truth.

As courage and intelligence are the two qualities best worth a good man's cultivation, so it is the first part of intelligence to recognize our precarious estate in life, and the first part of courage to be not at all abashed before the fact. — Stevenson.

LAVINGTON

In these days of bedroom farces, problem plays and sex dramas, there is a note of hopefulness in the record-breaking success of a clean, wholesome and inspiring play like "Turn to the Right," which John Golden will present at the Lavington theatre tonight, with the original New York-Chicago production. Not since the early days of the "Old Homestead" has the public flocked in such numbers to witness a comedy of American life, peopled with plain, honest-hearted small town folk and speeded with flashes of big city humor.

An erring boy and two of his former prison pals provide most of the action but the main pivot of the story is a little mother with hair of gray, heart of gold and a smile that has a touch of heaven in it. There are three acts and a prodigious lot of love, laughter and heart throbs and each line strikes deep into the heart of every playgoer who has known the beauty and power of a mother's love.

IDAHO

Particular interest attaches to the presentation of "His Majesty, the American," the Douglas Fairbanks picture which is now running at the Idaho theatre, because it is the first offering of United Artists corporation—the so-called "Big Four." Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks and D. W. Griffith, in January of 1919, decided to enter the motion picture field as independent producers and distributors, releasing their pictures direct to the theatres of the country.

Fairbanks was the first to complete a picture on the new basis and thus, what will undoubtedly become the big gest combination of screen artists, was actually in operation less than a year after its inception.

A thrilling tale of the north, in an unparalleled setting of rare natural beauty, makes "The Girl Alaska" a treat that no one will forget.

It will be shown at the Orpheum theatre today and Friday.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or hair brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

BELGIUM POINTS THE WAY

While America for the most part, laboring under the delusion that reconstruction is something closely related to revolution, has dallied and temporized
with solution of after-war problems, Belgium, hard-hit in the world cataclysm, is diligently applying herself to the essential elements of reconstruction and emerges now with a record of achievement paralleled only, perhaps,
by the historic recovery of France after the war of 1870.

According to D. L. Blount, an American who until recently directed the central information office of the Belgian ministry of economic affairs, the record for resumption of Belgian industry for the first ten months of 1919
as compared with those of the corresponding period of 1913, shows these striking figures: coal mines 94 per cent;
refined sugar 100 per cent; cotton spindles in operation 75 per cent; cotton looms 60 per cent; wool products 75 per cent; shoes 70 per cent; window glass 34 per cent; plate glass 36 per cent.
Even the steel mills, which suffered the most, have resumed 30 per cent.

The degree of Belgium's recovery
must be measured by the purposeful and scientific destruction Germany inflicted on her. Her factories were not merely wrecked. The Germans destroyed them in such a way as to make their rebuilding peculiarly difficult,
and to eliminate their competition entirely after the war.

The iron of war struck deep at the heart of Belgium. In comparison America suffered mere surface abrasions.

The recovery of Belgium as contrasted with the situation in America is to be compared as a recovery from a serious dagger thrust as contrasted with a case of politico-economic itch of peculiarly irritating type.

The minor ailment seems to be the most difficult to deal with.

It is not without significance that the following paragraph is included in
Mr. Blount's report:

"Few countries have had less difficulty than Belgium in adjusting their post-war labor problems, first, because the Belgian laborer did not receive the high wages which munition workers obtained in other allied countries during four years, and the passing of the war meant to him an increase in wages rather than a threatened reduction to a scale in keeping with the new conditions. Second, the high cost of living has not affected the laborer in Belgium in the same degree as in other countries, owing to his natural thrift and to the remarkable organization of Belgian co-operative societies."

Here, it would seem, is the key to the whole situation.

In the last analysis, reconstruction
is not something to be conferred upon a nation; it is something to be done by its people for themselves. The sooner this truth is appreciated in America the sooner America will be out of the woods.

A woman will sometimes remark of an acquaintance—not in envy but in admiration—"How does she manage to always dress so well?" The habit of reading The Ada is responsible for much of the good dressing we see.

GREAT FARMERS' MOVE
LAUNCHED IN SPOKANE

Washington Wheat Growers Association Purposes Co-operative Marketing to Secure to the Producers Enormous Sums Now Absorbed by Speculators

(Spokane-Review)

A group of representative and successful inland Empire farmers have organized the Washington Wheat Growers association, a cooperative wheat marketing agency, and similar organizations will be instituted in Idaho, Oregon and Montana. From a regional foundation it is hoped that the organization will expand to national magnitude.

The plan has much merit and has been launched with evident thoughtfulness
and commendable objects, thus explained by President A. A. Elmore:

The whole purpose is to develop a cooperative selling organization that will be able to sell the wheat to better advantage than the individual farmer, and to induce the farmers to hire experts who know the ins and outs of the wheat business and have the information as to the world's markets at their command, so that the farmers may devote all their time and thought to the growing of wheat.

We have not for our object the formation of a monopoly of the wheat business with the idea of advancing wheat prices to the consumer. It is rather with a view to stabilizing prices and eliminating as much unnecessary expense as possible between producers and consumers and to assure the farmers the cost of production plus a reasonable profit.

The main object is to secure to the growers the enormous sums that are now absorbed by mere speculators who thrive by making a shrewd study of the world crop conditions, and thus have the profitable knowledge that enables them to know when to buy and when to sell. A speculator with a dependable organization of domestic and foreign correspondents can anticipate market demands with considerable accuracy. The projected wheat growers' association proposes to organize its own force of domestic and foreign advisers and keep its members supplied with trustworthy reports of crop prospects in the great wheat growing areas of the world—Argentina, Australia, Canada, India and Russia. As the time for seedling in one country is the time for harvest in another, and the industry is being continuously carried forward in its various stages, it becomes feasible for a well-constructed organization to keep its members approximately advised as to world average, world prospects and world production.

It is the purpose of the organization to enlist community support and put their efforts on a higher plane than that of class interest. They say, with much reason, that if their proper objects can be attained the benefits will flow to the entire community—to the merchants, the bankers, the owners of lands and city property.

Their plans have appealed to many conservative bankers and business men
as essentially meritorious and sound.
Half a dozen representative bankers have consented to act as an advisory committee, and the counsel of another group of grain and warehouse men,
has also been enlisted.

The idea seems sound and the organizers are going about their ambitious undertaking with admirable carefulness and good judgment.

HOT SOUPS FOR COOL EVENINGS

The expert soup-maker will obtain delicious flavors by using leftover meats and vegetables. After cooking the soup should be strained and
thickened as usual
with a binding of butter and flour
cooked together.

Corn Chowder—Take about four teaspoonfuls of fat
salt pork cubes and fry them out;
add one sliced onion and cook five minutes, stirring often to keep the onion from burning. Parboil four cupfuls of potato slices in water to cover,
drain and add the potatoes to the fat
and onion, with two cupfuls of boiling water; cook until the potatoes are soft, add a can of corn, a quart of milk, salt, pepper and buttered cracker-
s. Serve with the buttered crackers on top. This recipe will serve six.

Cream Soup—Put thin slices of bread as thin as shavings with a small amount of butter in a saucepan and brown; pour over enough boiling water to make the soup needed, add salt
to taste and let the mixture boil up;
then remove the saucepan and stir
in a large cupful of cream, the thicker the better. Be sure to have it well salted or the soup will taste flat.

Cream of Peanut Soup—Put a cupful of peanut butter into a quart of milk, add salt, cayenne, a tablespoonful of grated onion, a bay leaf, celery salt, and cook ten minutes in a double boiler. Moisten a tablespoonful of cornstarch with cold milk and stir until smooth, add to the soup and cook ten minutes. Strain and serve with cubes of toasted bread.

Quick Egg Soup—Stir a teaspoonful of beef extract into a quart of boiling water, add a grated onion, celery salt, salt and pepper to taste. Pour boiling water into a tureen with four tablespoonfuls of boiled rice and two well beaten eggs.

Split Pea Soup—Pick over, wash
and put to soak in plenty of cold water one cupful of split peas. In the morning cook in two quarts of water, add a two-inch cube of salt pork and one sliced onion. Cook and stir often until the peas are soft, rub through a sieve, thick with two tablespoonfuls of flour and butter, add milk to thin the puree to the desired consistency. Season well, and serve very hot.

ENGLISHMAN IS FINE MARK FOR FULTON'S JABS

Tom Cowler Spends Most of Three Rounds on Canvas From Plasterer's Blows

PHILADELPHIA, (P)—Fred Fulton, the Minnesota brawler, fought to far outclassed Tom Cowler of England in their scheduled six round bout here last night that the referee stopped the fight in the third round to save Cowler from further punishment.

The third round had gone only one minute and twenty seconds and Cowler had been knocked down four times when Referee Lou Graham stopped the fight.

The first hard blow of the bout, a left hook to the stomach, sent Cowler down for the count of nine in the first round and a few seconds later he was again felled with a right hook.

Although apparently weak from punishment, Cowler came up gamely in the second round, but only a few blows were exchanged when he was knocked down for the third time. He was on his feet almost instantly when Fulton sent over a succession of blows that almost felled him. When the round ended Cowler backed into his corner and collapsed.

He was stretched out in his corner during the interval and had to be helped to his feet at the start of the third.

BURLEY COMES FOR BASKETBALL FRIDAY NIGHT

Natsiger's Men Look for Hard Battle But Are Determined to Win Game

Another fast basketball game is promised the public when Twin Falls and Burley high school squads clash on the local floor tomorrow evening.

Reports from Burley indicate that city has a strong team which will put up a hard fight against the locals. Natsiger's men are determined to retrieve debts incurred on their trip last week by defeating Burley this week.

The lineup for Twin Falls will be virtually the same as that of last week: Carter and R. King, centers; Newman, Yachem and P. King, forwards; Taylor, Putner and Bailey, guards.

The high school band will provide a large quantity of "jazz" music, and the girls' teams will stage a preliminary game.

The first game is scheduled with the University of Utah on May 15. Other games follow:

NEW YORK, (P)—Chicago was awarded yesterday the 1920 championship tournament of the Professional Golfers' association, according to an announcement by Alex. Hiers, secretary of the association. No Chicago course was named and no date was set for the holding of the tourney.

CLEANING UP RUSSIA

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (P)—Ed "Starbuck" Lewis, defeated Ivan Krenloff, a Russian wrestler last night in two straight falls, both with the headlock. The first fall took fifty-six minutes, 20 seconds; the second sixteen minutes, 10 seconds.

IF HE DOESN'T SWALLOW THEM IT'S ALL RIGHT

Lefty Tyler is Ready to Pitch Now He Has a New Set of Store Teeth

CHICAGO, (P)—George Tyler, south-paw pitcher for the Chicago Nationals, has had his "wick teeth" pulled and will be able to get into action this season, he announced today.

Because of bad teeth, which produced a lameness in his back and shoulder, Tyler was unable to work since last season. Recently he returned to his home near Boston and had all but three of his teeth pulled.

His lameness was cured. He is wearing a new set of teeth.

MR. LAND SEEKER AND INVESTOR--

Do you know that land on the Twin Falls Tract, the Minidoka and Burley Tracts, the Eden and Hazelton Country, and the Boise Valley, has advanced from 50 to 100 per cent during the past two years?

Do you know that land on the NORTH SIDE TRACT has not advanced anywhere in proportion to these others and that it will undoubtedly do so in the very near future?

Do you know that most of the sales of land on the North Side tract during the past three years have been to the Farmers and Bankers on the tract who know what they are buying?

Do you know that the principal buyers from outside the tract have been Twin Falls Business Men such as J. S. Koel, M. A. Strunk, W. H. Wilkinson, Carl Hahn, John M. Maxwell, J. A. Steele, O. A. Robinson, and others and also many of the Wise Farmers from the Twin Falls Tract. These men are not investing blindly. You can talk to the farmers who have invested here personally when you come over.

YOU WHO HAVE NOT INVESTED here had better get busy and investigate now, before the advance that is sure to come, arrives. We have a good listing and some very attractive buys and we are entirely AT YOUR SERVICE if you want to look them over, and you had better do so now.

culation of Literature and Periodicals of Radical Nature

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Disapproving both the Sterling and Graham session bills, Attorney General Palmer, in a letter today to Chairman Campbell of the house rules committee, expressed his views on the legislation which would provide fines not exceeding $10,000 and imprisonment of not more than 20 years for persons convicted of attempting to overthrow the government, or acts of violence against the government or its employees or agents while in the discharge of their official duties.

Illness Detains Attorney
Attorney General Palmer did not appear today before the house rules committee to present his views on the anti-sedition measure in dispute between the house and senate. Representative Graham, republican, Pennsylvania, author of the house bill, was unable to appear because of illness.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, opened the hearing in opposition to the bill. Declaring that the Graham measure would make "all free men slaves," Mr. Gompers asked if additional legislation was necessary.

"Will it bring sedition, a better word for our institution or will it work the direct opposite to the desired result?" he asked.

"The history of other nations, he said, ought to be a guide in this matter."

Some Bill to Chicago
Centering his attack on the provision of the bill prohibiting the circulation of all literature and periodicals of radical nature, Mr. Gompers said the work of the United States was speaking industrial changes and the improvement of social and moral conditions and that the bill would prevent the use of moral force in labor's campaign.

Strikes and cessation of work
Gompers said more or less than an aspiration by working people for better living conditions. Countries where there are no strikes are the most free and the most prosperous.

Assessing the fine and imprisonment were provided now for overt acts, the witness said the bill had one purpose, to make restrictions; to afford punishment for things now lawful.

Gives Examine Hypotheses
"Although laborers may be unorganized today," he continued, "they might organize tonight because they want better conditions and better life. Such a movement must be of the mass character; they could not go into execution. Under this bill that would be prohibited."

"Such meetings would not be unlawful under this bill," said Representative Graham, republican, New York.

In reply President Gompers charged the bill might even prevent a plan to

McCumber Calls for Reduced Government Expenditure to Avert Ruin

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Immediate reduction in governmental expenditures and appropriation "to avert financial ruin" was urged in the senate today by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota.

Denouncing the government's "wild orgy" of spending, Senator McCumber said the high cost of living was due to governmental extravagance.

"The country is in a state of financial peril," he declared, "and the only way to avert it is to return to something like normal conditions, but the people as a whole cannot possibly return to a normal state so long as the government keeps up this abnormal extravagance."

He predicted that a deficit of more than three billion dollars would exist at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

Immediate dissolution of the shipping board was recommended by Senator McCumber who said "the most shameful of all of our criminal extravagances has been the expenses of building our ships."

Reductions in appropriations for fortifications, and the navy, elimination of appropriations for public buildings, roads and harbors, improvement and public works together with cuts in the estimates for the various government departments should be made, Senator McCumber said, adding that saving of $2,500,000,000 could be accomplished

AMERICAN TROOPS CLASH WITH SEMENOFF FORCES

WASHINGTON, (AP)—As a result of the clash between a detachment of American soldiers and Semenov forces on January 10 near Foshag, one general, six officers and 49 men of the Russian forces were captured and still are held, the war department was advised today by Major General Graves, commander of the Siberian expedition.

General Graves described the attack as entirely unprovoked.

The American casualties were one man killed, one man died of wounds and one severely wounded, while five Russians were killed and six severely wounded.

The opposing forces were manning armored trains. General Graves said the Russians attacked 35 Americans, who fought off the Russians and then turned the attack.

General Graves expressed the opinion that the matter could be "adjusted peacefully with General Semenov, who could not have been responsible."

Evidence Introduced in Trial of Suspended Members of New York Assembly Includes Constitution and By-Laws of Organization Setting Forth Drastic Requirements Imposed Upon its Members Enlisted in Furtherance of "Class" Struggle

COMMITTEE REFUSES HILLQUIST'S
OFFER OF "ADMISSIONS OF FACT"

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—Julius Gabeler, secretary of the New York local of the socialist party, was the first witness called today at the trial before the assembly judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty.

Committee counsel began presentation of evidence after Chairman Louis M. Martin had denied an application by Morris Hillquist, chief counsel for the defense, to introduce certain "admissions of fact," which he said would serve to clear the issues and save calling of a large array of witnesses.

Objection was taken by John R. Stanchfield, committee counsel, on the ground that the admissions were not "admissions of fact," but rather "admissions of opinion."

Mr. Hillquist then offered to select what evidence he thought necessary to establish the desired facts.

Gives Party Platform
As soon as Gabeler had been sworn, Mr. Stanchfield obtained from him a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the socialist party in 1917, which was introduced in evidence without objection by the defense.

Mr. Stanchfield also introduced in evidence the state constitution of the socialist party, from which he read excerpts, including one providing that candidates for public office should not receive nomination leave their resignations with the party to insure their fulfilling party commands.

By-laws of the New York county socialist organization were introduced.

Mr. Stanchfield read extracts from the national constitution of the party to show that any socialist who failed to follow the party in voting for any appropriation for military or naval purposes should be expelled from the party.

The socialist emblem, as well as the declaration by the party that it recognized the necessity of organization in the struggle between the "capitalist class" and the workers.

Shows Age of Policy
Cross-examination of Gabeler by Mr. Hillquist evidently was for the purpose of bringing out that the constitutional and regulatory excerpts read by Mr. Stanchfield had been in force for 12 to 21 years.

Francis M. Hugo, secretary of state, followed Gabeler on the stand.

Cross-examined by the defense, Mr. Hugo said the socialist members had shown no hesitation in taking their oath. He finished his testimony in a few minutes and then the luncheon recess was taken.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., (AP)—An invitation to Ludwig A. K. Martens, representing the Russian Bolsheviks to contribute to the publication of a Bolshevik magazine was made by the attorney for the Mexican government today. The attorney said the magazine was to be published in Mexico City, introduced evidence before the senate committee investigating the Mexican situation today. Gale asked $10,000 adding he had sent all to the Mexican government to "bolshelize the country."

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., (AP)—It was because of "state of war" between the United States and Mexico that Mexicans once convicted of murder and bridge burning on the American side of the border, were restored to their own country, as five men, John A. Valls today told the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation.

Valls is the district attorney for the forty-ninth district in Texas. He said that some Mexicans captured after the raid on San Ygnacio in 1916 who were convicted and sentenced to death, were restored to their own country. On July 10, 1917, decided the lower court had no jurisdiction since at the time of their arrest and capture "a state of war existed between the United States and Mexico."

Refers Confession to Plan
Judge Valls declared the raids were directed under the provisions of the "plan of San Diego," which had for one of its objects the separation of six states from the United States. He submitted documentary evidence to show the raids were planned and carried out by men of the Carranza army.

Documents introduced in evidence showed the recruiting was done by Nicero Zambardo, of Monterey, then treasurer general of the republic of Mexico.

Federico De La Rosa was stated by Valls to have been the chief commander of the raiding forces.

Gives Recruiting Operations
Documents introduced in evidence produced in the trial of the captured raiders and re-submitted to the committee was that Zambardo came from Mexico City to Monterrey and there openly recruited the raiding parties and afterward publicly and in the midst of applauding crowds made the recruits farewell at the railway station.

The raid on San Ygnacio, in which several American soldiers were killed and bridges were burned was preceded by an interview by Lieutenant Kyle Becker, of the American army, with Federico Gutierrez Zenteno, commander of the Carranza garrison just across the border line.

Zapata promised to send a force to intercept the bands that were known to be moving toward the border. The evidence, Valls said, showed Zapata himself led the raiders the next night. Other officers with the party were Colonel Lopez, Colonel Ruiz and Farlon, both were officers in the Carranza army.

HINT OF WARFARE IS DISCERNED IN NEW DISPOSITION OF BRITISH ARMS

LONDON, (AP)—Some of the newspapers give great prominence to the cancellation of the original orders sending British troops into the plebiscite areas in Silesia, East Prussia and Schleswig. Eleven battalions and a brigade of artillery were scheduled for plebiscite duty, but it was officially announced yesterday without a reason being given that it was found necessary to modify the arrangement. Under the new plan only one battalion will go to Schleswig, one to Danzig and one to Allenstein. Speculation is rife as to the destination of the other battalions.

The Daily Mail, which describes the parties of eleven battalions already have arrived at their destinations and have been ordered to return immediately. It refers to the Paris suggestion that troops be sent to protect Georgia and Azerbaijan against the Bolsheviks and the report that French troops will be substituted for the British units in the plebiscite areas. It adds that what over the reason, the decision was made at the recent conference of the allies in Paris and is not an isolated British action.

The Daily Herald ascribes the move to the British "war party's determination to involve the country in new mil-
