APPOINT DRAFTS HUNGARY'S REPLY TO TERMS OF PEACE

BUDAPEST, (AP)—Courant Albert Apponyi is engaged in writing Hungary's answer to the terms of peace submitted at Neuilly by the peace conference. He said today there were many clauses which were impossible to fulfill. "There are sixty absurdities in the proposed treaty. One of these takes away all our wood and iron and while another demands that we give up our territory to the Austrians. What affects our people most is the loss of territory. As for the economic conditions we know we can never fulfill them, for we cannot matter so much as a man who has to pay a thousand dollars a day, but if he demands a billion I know I can't comply and so, should not worry."

SOCIALISTS DENY CLAIM TO PLEDGE OF SUPPORT TO SOVIET AMBASSADOR

Counsel for Defense at Trial of Five Suspended Assemblymen Seeks to Evade Responsibility for Letter Endorsing Plans for Establishing Russian Regime in America Purporting to Express Sentiments of Organization Called in Question

TESTIMONY BEARS ON MEASURES FOR DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS OF PARTY

ALBANY, (AP)—Denial that socialists had pledged support to L. O. A. K. Martens, Russian soviet "ambassador," or had endorsed plans for establishment in America of the soviet system of government, was made today by counsel for the defense at the trial before the assembly judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty.

Seymour Steadman of Chicago renewed his motion to strike out a letter introduced yesterday, addressed to Martens signed "Robert D. Dubay" and purporting to be the sentiments of the socialist organization in the eighth assembly district of New York, represented by Assemblyman Louis Waldman, one of the defendants.

Claims Radical's Exclusion Mr. Steadman said the evidence would show that the letter pledging support to Martens was written by the socialist organization, but by a group which after "an open political rally" had been excluded from the socialist party.

Not only was Waldman not a member of this organization, said Mr. Steadman, but the "outsiders" had nominated a candidate to run against him.

Denies Responsibility At the same time Mr. Steadman renewed a motion to strike out all speeches except those made by the five defendants, on the ground that they were not responsible for what others had said.

Chairman Louis M. Martin of the committee denied Mr. Steadman's motion.

Testimony of O. A. K. Martens "Russia's soviet ambassador to the United States" before the joint legislative committee investigating radicalism was admitted today as evidence in the trial notwithstanding vigorous objection from counsel for the defense.

Testimony to support the allegation that the socialist party required its candidates for public office to sign a card resignation before election was given by Mayor George R. Lunn, of Schnectady.

Read Out of Party Mayor Lunn, who was read out of the party, told the committee that he formerly was a member of the socialist party and in 1911, was the party's candidate for mayor. He received a call at 11 o'clock the night before election from Charles Norman and Russell Hunt party leaders in the city, who told him that he must sign an undated resignation.

"This aroused my ire," he said, "but I signed it."

After serving two years, he was renominated but not elected. He attributed his defeat to the fact that voters learned he had signed the resignation blank card and he was controlled by the socialist leader.

Therefore, said Mr. Lunn, although he had refused to sign the pledge at the time of his second nomination, he decided in 1915, when he was named for the third time, to make a public statement regarding his repudiation of that section in the party constitution.

Creates Furore His public statement, he testified, created such a furore that members of the socialist state committee came to Schnectady "to try to patch up the difference." He said that the affair reached a crisis when he named a republican as city engineer.

Mr. Lunn said that charges were brought against him that he had violated the party constitution and that they disciplined him by firing out the whole Schnectady contingent by withdrawing the local's charter, re-organizing with only those who would support the constitution in full.

He said that he was very much opposed to the present proceeding against the socialists, although his antagonism to the socialist party is very great.

The socialists differed from other political parties in that it asserted its right to dictate and control the distribution of patronage.

The purpose of the signed resignation prior to election was not required by the party so much on account of patronage, he said, as for the carrying out of platform pledges.

Disapproves Anti-War Clause

In reply to a question from Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, a member of the judiciary committee, as to whether he approved the clause in the party's national constitution providing for expulsion of members voting appropriations for military or naval purposes, Mr. Lunn said that he did not.

In reply to questions of defense counsel Mr. Lunn said he knew that Victor Berger and other socialists in Wisconsin had not objected to maintenance of the militia, feeling that "freedom should rest on an armed people but that such action should come from within the state."

Questioned, he said he knew Representative Meyer London had voted against war but also had voted for military and naval appropriations and had not been thrown out of the party.

Mr. Lunn said he thought Mr. London would have "done better if he had not felt he had been bound by party principles."

WILSON DIRECTS ANOTHER APPEAL FOR RELIEF LOAN

Asks Secretary Glass to Renew Request of Congress for Authority to Render Aid in Foreign Food Situation

EARLY ACTION IN HOUSE COMMITTEE ANTICIPATED

President Declares American Refusal to Share Surplus with Stricken People is "Unthinkable"

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today asked Secretary Glass to make another appeal to congress for authority to loan $100,000,000 to Poland, Austria and Armenia to relieve their desperate food situation.

Action by the house ways and means committee on Mr. Glass' request for authority to make the loans is expected in a few days. The secretary and other treasury officials appeared yesterday before the republican steering committee to explain the necessity for the loan and to discuss the American financial situation generally.

Affects Only Surplus

The president wrote the secretary that it was "unthinkable" to him that the United States should withhold from the stricken people of those countries the assistance which could be rendered by "making available on credit a small portion of our exportable surplus of food."

The president's letter follows: "With considerable regret I have no hesitatingly from the press than congress is denying the granting of authority for the extension of prompt and generous relief to the stricken portion of Europe, the urgency and importance of which, especially in respect to Poland, Austria and Armenia, you are fully explained to the white and mean committee. It is unthinkable to me that we should withhold from those people who are in such mental and physical distress the aid which they so urgently need by making available on credit a small portion of our exportable surplus of food which would alleviate the situation. This means that you must have explained fully the way and means committee the appalling situation in those parts of Europe where men, women and children are now dying of starvation and that you must have explained the urgent necessity for prompt assistance. I beg of you that you make another appeal to congress. I am informed that through the published reports of hearings before the ways and means committee, the congress has now been furnished with incontrovertible facts showing the necessity for immediate affirmative action. This proposition should be brought to be any part of the responsibility for the moral and material chaos that must result from an unwillingness on our part to aid those less fortunate than ourselves. I am confident that you will have a small proportion of our surplus, permit the happening of this great catastrophe."

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The plan rejected by the Jugo-Slavs was said to have provided for the erection of Piume into a free city under the jurisdiction of the league of nations, for the maintenance of Italian forms of government and the protection of Italian rights there; for the cession to Italy of a narrow strip of land along the coast between Trieste and Piume; for the exercise of the right of free disposition of themselves upon the citizens of the island of Zara and contiguous territory; and for the cession of Albania to Jugo-Slavia.

WILSON'S PLAN FINDS FAVOR WITH JUGO-SLAV

Reply to Allied Ultimatum on Adriatic Question Regarded as Refusal

PARIS, (AP)—The Jugo-Slav reply to the allied ultimatum regarding the Adriatic question, received in Paris this afternoon, amounts to a virtual refusal of the compromise offered by the Italians. The reply, it is believed, suggests a new compromise along the lines of President Wilson's proposal.

The Jugo-Slav communication will be presented to the council of ambassadors as soon as it is deciphered.

The note, while amounting to a refusal of the alternative contained in the allied ultimatum, is couched in a conciliatory tone and may lead to further discussion of the question.

Jugo-Slavia points out that she is still quite ready to accept a solution of the problem along the lines of President Wilson's 1919 proposal, adding that the Jugo-Slav government has no official cognizance of the treaty of London.

M. J. Sweeley of Twin Falls, at Burley Conference, Strikes Novel Note in Suggestion for Amendment of Constitution to Permit of Participation by Commonwealth in Provision of Homes for Idaho Settlers; Says Federal Appropriation Problematical

COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR TO FURTHER PROPOSITION

BURLEY, Idaho, (Special)—With every seat filled and standing room at a premium something like three hundred people listened to addresses on the subject of reclamation in all its various ramifications at the Methodist church here today. Enthusiasm ran high and the various speakers were accorded the closest attention at every point of the program. It remained for M. J. Sweeley of Twin Falls, however, to introduce the one new and novel note which was developed in the proceedings, in a speech in which he handled the matter of the state's treatment of settlers on those projects which have not been successful without gloves. Senator Sweeley demanded that steps be taken for the submission of a constitutional amendment providing for and permitting of the state of Idaho itself entering into the business of the reclaiming of Idaho's arid lands and the abrupt halting of the present habit on the part of Idaho's people of looking to federal aid and private capital for the means of providing homes for Idaho settlers.

PROFIT AND LOSS SHARING PLAN IS ACCEPTED BY KNITTING MILL MEN

WAKEFIELD, Mass., (AP)—A plan contemplating an equal division of net profits or net losses annually between the company and its 1200 employees, and containing provisions by which the business was announced today by Winthrop, Buit and company, owners of the Harvard knitting mill, engaged in underwear manufacture. The employees who in recent years have received an annual bonus of 15 per cent, agreed to accept the plan.

In a profitable year the company will credit fifty per cent of the net profits to employees. Those of one year standing will receive 20 per cent of their earnings; those employed longer will have one per cent additional for each year of service. Individuals with this "cash" will share in the cash, the other half to remain in the business at six per cent interest. Provision is made for caring for old age pensions, disability insurance and for dependent widows and children of employees.

In a year of unprofitable operations the deficit will be shared equally between proprietors and employees.

OLD FASHIONED DANCE IS RIVAL OF MODERN JAZZ

Nationwide Reform Movement is Launched by American National Association of Dancing Masters

NEW YORK, (AP)—Old fashioned, keep-your-distance dances, are to displace the modern jazz steps, if the nationwide reform movement undertaken by the American National Association of Masters of Dancing proves successful. The dancing masters, it is announced here, count upon the support of mothers, fathers, daughters, sons, dance hall proprietors, dancing teachers and business—any and every necessary police department—extending the "half Nelson," "body hold," "Shimmy lock" and other imported ballroom grips which are practiced by some dancers. Cheap and vulgar music is also to come under the ban and, according to a circular just issued by the association, those in charge of community or public dances are urged to station their opposition to undesirable dances by distributing "You will please leave the hall" cards to those who persist in offending.

The women, it is charged, often as much to blame as their partners and, in some cases, dance hall proprietors are advised to place out ten or a dozen objectionable couples and, if a warning is disregarded, to call the police.

"You will soon see," the circular reads, "that you have raised the standard of your establishment and that the law will be more than made up for by the number of persons who have respect for you and your dances."

Issues Regulations

Some of the rules and regulations which all are urged to obey follow:

"Dance music should be bright and cheerful, properly accented and phrases well divided. Cheap, vulgar music of the extreme 'jazz' type invites cheap vulgar meaningless dancing. It is useless to expect refined dancing when the music lacks all refinement, for, after all, what is dancing but an interpretation of music?"

"The association has adopted the following tempo, it being impossible, the masters say, to regulate fast dancing:

"Two-step 54 measures to minute
 "One-step 66 measures to minute
 "Fox trot 40 measures to minute
 "Dancers should be light, graceful position," say the masters.
 "There should be no jerky half-steps, for these cause undesirable variations. Partners should not dance with cheeks close or touching, nor should the hold be tight. 'Neck holds' are positively reprehensible. The gentleman's arm should encircle his partner's waist, his hand resting lightly just above the right breast. The lady's left arm should not encircle her partner's shoulders or neck."
 "Shimmy" Intolerable
 "Steps or movements that cannot be controlled should not be taught by dancing teachers. Short side step, first right, then left, when done continuously, are inadvisable in refined dancing and should not be permitted. "Shimmy dancing," a shaking or jerking of the upper part of the body while taking short steps or standing still, should not be tolerated.
 "The proper dancing step should be the same as a natural walking one except in exhibition dancing, which properly belongs to the stage, not the ballroom. Exceptionally long or short steps are not in good form.
 "Dancing should be from the waist down, not from the waist up. Copying of the extreme used on the modern stage is in bad taste. Remember that the majority of dancers desire to dance according to the best accepted standards, that is, with the slightest trace of offense to dignity or decorum."

"PUSSYFOOT" JOHNSON PUT AMONG "IMMORTALS"

Wax Figure of American Prohibition Leader is Accorded Place in the Famous Collection

LONDON, (AP)—A wax figure of W. E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the American prohibition worker who recently sacrificed an eye to the "dry" campaign in England, has been placed among the "immortals" in Madame Tussaud's museum of wax figures. The figure representing Mr. Johnson has a patch over the injured eye.

Madame Tussaud's establishment, which has been running for more than half a century, has come to be almost a national institution. In it are to be found the busts and statues of people of all periods who have achieved fame or notoriety.

"FLU" IS RAMPANT THROUGHOUT STATE

Health Official Sends Out Urgent Warning—Prevention Must Be Adopted

Although influenza continues to invade the state, and a need for absolute and rigid care by all persons is necessary, the epidemic thus far has not been as dire as results as was that of last year. This is according to a statistical statement issued by Ernest E. Laubach, chief of the state bureau of public health.

In his statement Dr. Laubach shows a total of 1444 cases of "flu," reported since January 8, with three deaths. From pneumonia there have been five deaths. The statement, which is in the nature of a warning, follows:

"Influenza continues to invade new areas in the state, but the situation is being somewhat improved. A total of 221 new cases with two deaths have been reported to this office January 25, as compared with a total of 325 cases January 24. In those communities in which all organizations are co-operating with the local health authorities the situation is well in hand.

"This office urges that the communities not become alarmed, but calmly view the situation, assist the local health officers by refraining from attending public gatherings, moving picture shows, dance halls, etc., as the foremost authorities on public health agree that these places are breeding spots for the transmission of the contagion.

"For the protection of those members of the family who have not 'flu,' when an inmate of their household is down, it is essential that all dishes and table ware be boiled. Here again the foremost medical men agree in the second chief avenue of the contagion. Keep the home properly ventilated and when coughing or sneezing be sure to cover the mouth and nose with a handkerchief. This is called 'drop infection' and the foremost medical men recognize it as an important avenue for the transmission of contagion.

"The following is a report of cases received January 25:

Localities	New Influenza Cases	Deaths
Bear Lake county.....	66	0
Pootello.....	2	0
Sampa.....	37	1
Shoshone.....	51	0
Minidoka.....	55	0

"Total cases since Jan. 8, 1920, 1444.
 "Total deaths influenza since Jan. 8, 1920, 3.
 "Total deaths pneumonia since Jan. 8, 1920, 5."

DECISION MAKES PERFECT CASES

Deportation of 3,000 Aliens Taken in Recent Roundup is Predicted

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Approximately three thousand of the 3,600 aliens arrested during recent round-ups of radicals are "perfect" cases for deportation as a result of Secretary Wilson's decision that the communist and communist labor parties are revolutionary within the meaning of the deportation law, J. D. Hoover, special assistant to Attorney General Palmer, said yesterday.

Such cases are "perfect," he said, in that it will be necessary only for the department of justice agents to present the alien's membership card in other party to make out proof of deportation. In cases of the other 500 or 600 aliens whose membership cards were not secured, Mr. Hoover said, it was believed their membership could be proved.

Deportation hearings and the shipment of the "reds" will be pushed, Mr. Hoover declared. A second, a third and as many other "soviet arks" as are necessary will be made ready as convictions proceed, he said, and deportations will wait for the conclusion of all cases.

While about three-fourths of the aliens taken were Prussians, many other nationalities were among the number, including Germans, Austrians, Hungarians, Lithuanians, Letts, Finns and Chinese.

The warrant prepared for the arrest of Ludwig Marique, "ambassador" of the Russian soviet government, Mr.

Samuel Hill, of Seattle, president of the Pacific highway association, is leading the movement for the arch. Recently Mr. Hill and several Washington and British Columbia good roads men of the arch in a big park to be erected on the Pacific highway on both sides of the boundary. The city of Blaine is willing to purchase the American share of the park if the British Columbia parliament will buy the Canadian side.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., (AP)—At the suggestion of County Judge Leroy Brandon, who declared, "books have gone and there will probably be no more convicts," the board of commissioners of Pinellas county, one of the most populous counties in Florida, has closed the county convict camp and has under consideration a proposal to lease it for farming purposes. This action was prompted when it was discovered that a convict was in the camp January 1. The prisoners in the past have been employed in repairing county highways.

SEED GROWERS MAKING PLANS

Definite Program is Outlined to Make Results in 1921 Better Than Ever

BOISE, (Special).—An active and definite program for the Idaho Seed Growers' association for this year already is under way, which, it is expected, will make the seed show in Nampa in 1921 even more successful than any that yet has been held.

Four specific lines of work growing out of the interest shown in the pure seed movement throughout the state, and from discussions held at Pocatello, have been announced by B. F. Sheehan, field agronomist of the University of Idaho extension division, who is secretary and treasurer of the Idaho Seed Growers' association. The objects are: to compile and publish the discussions, minutes and resolutions of the joint conference; to increase inspection and certification work; to list the certified seed growers in a pure seed catalog; and to market certified seed as Idaho seed.

Each speaker has furnished a type-written copy of his speech delivered at the seed show. These discussions cover the best seed industry, seed potatoes in Idaho, seed certification and inspection, federal grade standards on the Pacific coast, the small seed situation in Idaho and other information of interest to the seed growers of the state. The compilation of these, with the minutes and resolutions, will be sent to all members of the Idaho Seed Growers' association immediately upon publication.

Field inspection for certification is to be carried on through the county farm bureaus. Farmers who are interested in growing certified seed will take the work up as a project. When the county agent comes, the county agent is to be notified. The field agronomist or his assistants will then make the inspection and suggest plans for improving, if necessary, and give such other information as may be necessary to assist in securing certified seed.

The association plans to publish the list of certified seed growers as a means of furthering the dissemination of pure seed of the varieties which have proven most successful for the various sections of Idaho. By this means it is expected pure seed can be easily located and orders can be readily filled.

The Idaho Seed Growers' association plans to acquire the Idaho certified seed on the market as an Idaho product.

"There is every reason to believe that there will always be a heavy demand for pure seed," says a statement from Mr. Sheehan's office. "Not every section of this country can produce the small seeds, so must rely on the Idaho certified seed for their supply. The soil and climatic conditions make Idaho supreme in the production of light-colored, high-quality seed. This live seed has heretofore been mixed with eastern dull-colored seed and consequently not recognized and sold as an Idaho product. The hotels in the east place on the menu, Idaho baked potatoes—20 cents. This speaks well for the Idaho potato. We also have the unexcelled seed here, and a concentrated effort is necessary to secure clean lots, plant in clean fields and reap the clean product, and the result will be a natural boost for the pure seed industry in Idaho."

PLAN USE OF GAS MASK IN FIGHTING MINE FIRE

Arizona Corporation Develops New Tactics in Attempt to Extinguish 20 Years' Old Blaze

PHOENIX, Ariz., (P).—Gas masks, such as were used by the American army in France, are to be supplied men of the United Verde Mining company at Jerome, Ariz., to overcome sulphur fumes while they make the last dash to put out the fire which has been raging in the mine, far underground, for the past 20 years, according to Commissioner Johnson, of the Arizona Corporation commission.

To reach the fire and attack it from a new angle, a new opening is to be made, the commissioner said. To do that, it has been found necessary to remove an old slag dump which is a veritable mountain. A gigantic steam shovel, said to be one of the largest in existence, is to move the slag mountain. Six bites and it fills a car with slag; 200 bites and a train is ready to move.

HERRING INDUSTRY GROWS

Officials in Alaska Anticipate Formidable Rival to Salmon Fishing

CORDOVA, Alaska, (P).—The herring industry, centering at Latouche, on Prince William Sound, is rapidly developing and may eventually rival the salmon industry in importance, according to local officials of the United States forest service. During 1919, 11,843 barrels of cured herring were shipped out.

Figures compiled by the forest service show that in addition to the herring pack, 286,000 cases of salmon and 30,265 cases of clams were handled during the year at Prince William Sound, the entire product being valued at nearly $6,500,000.

POULTNEY GETS ORNAMENTAL JOB

King George Appoints Army Officer as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod

LONDON, (P).—King George has appointed Lieutenant General Sir W. P. Pulteney as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod in succession to the late Admiral Sir Henry F. Stephenson. The office is one of those purely ornamental ones which are rather numerous in this country. "Black Rod," as he is called for sport, has next to nothing to do and gets $1,000 a year for doing it, and a suite of apartments, rent free, in the House of Lords.

He is a glorified messenger of heraldic legends. When on duty he is gorgeously attired in court costume with knee breeches and a plumed cocked hat and a dandy little sword by his side. The emblem of his authority is an ebony wand, but he never does anything with it. When members of the House of Commons are summoned to the House of Lords to hear speeches from the throne or the royal assent given to acts that have been passed, Black Rod enters the Upper House and makes his way to the "woolpack" on which sits the robed and wigged Lord Chancellor. He is told to inform the members of the House of Commons that they are wanted. Then he has to walk half way to the door backwards, making a bow at every few steps and looking very solemn.

When he arrives within a few yards of the door of the House of Commons the sergeant-at-arms of that body, who is on the lookout for him, shuts the door in his face. Black Rod has to suppress his feelings and knock humbly at the door.

Then the sergeant-at-arms opens a little panel in the door and asks him what he wants, or something to that effect, and Black Rod tells him what he already knows. Then Black Rod is admitted. This little bit of comedy is supposed to indicate that the House of Commons does not take any orders from the House of Lords. Then Black Rod, with chastened mien, advances to where the speaker sits in state and in Norman French delivers his message. This is the performance he will have to go through for the first time when Parliament opens on February 16.

General Pulteney has served in many campaigns, having joined the Scots Guards in 1881, and has been the recipient of a large number of honors. During the great war he commanded the Third Corps in France. He has taken a keen interest in the development of military recreation and has been a prime favorite with his men. He was born in 1861.

DECLARES FOR ENGLISH AS BEST WORLD TONGUE

Belgian Professor Gives Reasons for Choice of Language Most Suitable for Universal Use

STOCKHOLM, (P).—English would undoubtedly be the most suitable as a world language, in the opinion of Professor Carnoy, of Louvain university, Belgium. He made this statement in the form of a reply to the question addressed by the Northern Peace society to prominent linguists in various countries as to which language would be best adapted to universal use. After declaring in favor of English, Mr. Carnoy wrote:

"The German and French languages have lost their place through the war. The English language is a hospitable one, being a kind of compromise between the Latin and Germanic tongues; also it is simple and is spoken by most progressive nations of the world, and has one of the most beautiful literatures of modern times."

FINANCES OF EUROPEANS ARE IN SAD STATE

Demoralized Foreign Exchange Resulting from Accumulation of Debt to America Tends toward Chaotic Conditions

LONDON, (AP)—Foreign exchange was demoralized today under the load of New York, which slumped to $3.53 to the pound, representing a decline of about 35 per cent from normal. Paris checked at 27 francs to the dollar and Belgium at 40 francs to the dollar, the demoralization, while business with Italy was almost impossible.

The reasons for the decline of the New York rate were the same as those previously held responsible—the huge accumulation of the debt of Europe to America, with the additional factor that recently France and Belgium have been buying dollars through London. Lombard street does not consider the decline unusual, in view of this debt, which will reach a big figure by the time the resumption of the payment of interest on the American loans, and it would not be surprised to see the rate go below $3.50, especially if the demand for dollars continues.

So fearful to business are these conditions that it is considered in the Street that the whole European financial position has reached a serious stage and that unless something is done the result will be chaos. Nothing can be planned in official quarters regarding action to remedy the economic position, and while some people believe it will be best to let matters adjust themselves in the natural way, others advocate official action. A prominent member of one bank described the situation thus: "Financial Europe is in a state of a sick man. The patient needs a stimulant. The question is as to when the stimulant is going to be applied."

One of the immediate results of the action of American exchange was the further rise in the price of bar gold to 117 shillings, six pence per ounce, at the figure of South America and the Straits Settlement are keen buyers. Silver also jumped two pence to 84 1/2, owing to the small American offerings and Chinese buying.

ENGLISH EXCHANGE RATES DESCEND TO NEW LOW LEVEL

NEW YORK, (AP)—English exchange rates dropped to another low level today when demand bills on the pound sterling dropped to $3.53 1/4 or 1 3/4 cents below yesterday's record low.

In the first half hour demand sterling dropped to $3.52 1/2. Franc checks opened at the new low rate of 13.12 for the dollar, off 20 centimes from yesterday's close. Lire checks were quoted at 15.32, 18 centimes below yesterday's record low.

German marks were quoted at 1.05 cents and Austrian crowns at 31-100 of one cent.

Heavy selling later depressed sterling to $3.50 3/4; francs to 15.32 and lire to 15.42.

BERLIN, (AP)—The condition of Matthias Erzberger, vice premier and minister of finance, who was shot Monday by Oltwig von Hirschfeld, a former cadet officer, was somewhat worse today. An X-ray examination of the wound yesterday showed the bullet firmly lodged in the shoulder blade. Another consultation over his case will be held tomorrow.

CITRUS FRUIT LANDS ARE SOLD IN ARIZONA

The recent public sale of lands on the Yuma Mesa, Arizona, which are described as particularly adapted to the growing of citrus and other semi-tropical fruits, was a decided success. The total of the sales amounted approximately to $1,200,000, and buyers were present from all parts of the country.

One tract of 60 acres was purchased and will be developed by army officers from Washington, D. C.

About 1700 acres of the first unit remained unsold at the close of the auction, and Secretary Lane has authorized the reclamation service at Yuma, Ariz., to receive bids for these farms until June 10, 1920, unless sooner disposed of.

SELECTION OF JURY IN NEWBERRY CASE BEGINS

Arrival of Defendants and Viewmen Delayed by Snow Storms Signal for Start of Trial

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., (AP)—The work of selecting a jury to sit in the trial of Truman H. Newberry and 123 of his associates charged with violation of the election laws was begun today, with the arrival here of a score of defendants and viewmen whose absence yesterday, due to snowbound trains, had halted the proceedings.

Examination of the prospective jurors was generally expected to occupy the first week of the trial and there were some who predicted that the taking of testimony would be delayed at least ten days.

ELBROTROUCTION WAITS ON SEIZURE OF EXECUTIONER

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP)—Because of the state's inability to secure the services of an executioner in next Friday, Governor Samuel R. Meantime an investigation by a state prison board will be conducted to determine if the men are sane.

FINE WOOL GRADES FIGURE IN LARGER CONSUMPTION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Consumption of wool in December increased 20,000, 000 pounds to 64,000,000 pounds, the report today of the bureau of commerce showed. There was continued demand for fabrics made from the finer grades of wool, 34 per cent of the total consumption being of the fine grades.

WOULD INVEST STATE

Reclamation association as a vehicle for the furtherance of reclamation were dealt upon at length.

Barry Dibble, project manager of the Mulelake project described the Snake river watershed with the aid of a huge specially prepared map and told his hearers that another million acres of land was probably susceptible of irrigation through Snake river water alone. He declared that American Falls was the natural and best reservoir site for the project and declared that if necessary demanded present power sites at American Falls must be abandoned in favor of some other location.

Sites Success as Argument

O. H. Barber, state immigration commissioner reviewed the early history of Burley and the land adjacent and offered farms of Cassia county as the best of all arguments in favor of reclamation. S. E. Brady of Pocatello, president of the association gave a general review of the project of reclamation in the west from the days of the early Mormon settlements and Will H. Gibson of Mountain Home drew a hearty laugh by declaring that having worked for years to make Idaho "dry" he was now engaged in doing his best to make most of it wet. T. Bailey Lee, of Burley, reviewed the action of congress during this and past sessions in the matter of reclamation and sharply criticized the present congress.

Point Out Benefits

E. R. Dampier, of Rupert Maurice M. Myers of American Falls, I. A. McLaughlin of American Falls, spoke at length along general lines with respect to reclamation and the benefits to be derived from an intensive application of a program of land development. Joseph Tanners, secretary of the Bull commercial club, praised high accomplishment to the farmers of southern Idaho in a repeated speech which was well received. J. A. Cron, of Twin Falls, made a few impromptu remarks on the necessity for action rather than words if anything definite was to be accomplished along the lines of reclamation in Idaho or anywhere else.

A number of resolutions were passed but were still in the hands of the secretary when the session adjourned nine o'clock at about 5 p. m.

M. J. Sweeley, Will H. Gibson of Mountain Home, E. Baldridge of Parma, Mark Austin of Sugar City and L. A. Evans of American Falls were named as a committee to wait upon the governor in an effort to devise some means whereby the matter of securing the passage of a resolution at the forthcoming special session of the legislature for the submission of a constitutional amendment permitting the state to engage in the work of reclamation of Idaho lands.

Today's Markets

New York Exchange

NEW YORK, (AP)—Industrial stocks were strong during the better part of today's stock market session but demoralization in foreign exchange and lighter money imposed occasional restraint. Sales approximated 700,000 shares. Many gains were canceled when call loans rose to 15 per cent but partial rallies followed the decline of money to 12 per cent in the final dealings. The closing was steady.

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Indications that the railroads' difficulty out of Chicago had grown worse tended today to weaken the corn market. It was said that temporarily no new permits for grain shipment would be issued. Lower quotations on beans had a further depressing effect and no likewise did continued downturns in foreign exchange. The opening, which varied from the same as yesterday's, closed 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 higher, with May $1.35 1-8 to 1.35 3-8 and July $1.32 1-2 to 1.32 5-8, were followed by a slight rally but then by a fresh setback.

Trade dwindled to small proportions, and there was no important rally in prices. The market closed steadily at the same as yesterday's finish to 3-4 lower, with May $1.35 to 1.35 1-8 and July $1.32 to 1.32 1-4.

Cats descended with corn. After opening unchanged to a shade higher, including May at $3 to $3 1-2, the market eased off.

HOMERUN BAKER QUILTS BASEBALL SO MENTOR SAYS

Yankees' Manager Declares Attempts to Get Infielder Back Definitely Failed

NEW YORK, (AP)—Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, announced yesterday that J. Franklin Baker, the star of the Yankees, has probably played his last big league ball. Huggins returned here yesterday from a visit to Baker's farm at Trappe, Maryland, where he tried to induce Baker to play one more year with the club.

Baker told Huggins his business interests in Maryland require him to stay there.

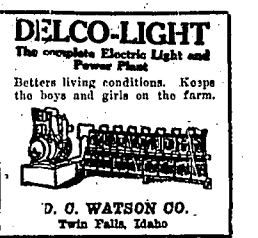

"Though Baker will be very welcome if he should change his mind, I shall make plans for the coming season without considering him for third base," Huggins said. "I shall play Wilson Fowler at third base and hope to get another man for the outfield."

Finding a position is sometimes a most disheartening task, just to rely upon friends, or upon going about and making personal applications, often leads to utter discouragement. The quick road to a position is through the classified. Studying this road requires more than one day to travel—but it leads inevitably to the desired goal if followed.

BAKER DELAYS SALE OF FLEET

Cites Administration Policy of Reserving Ships for Army Transports

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Protest by Secretary Baker against the sale of certain of the former German passenger liners will delay final action by the shipping board, which today was considering bids submitted for the fleet of approximately thirty vessels.

In a letter to Chairman Payne of the board, Secretary Baker has called attention to an agreement reached by the war department and the department of commerce and the shipping board and approved by President Wilson that certain of the vessels turned over to the board by the transport service should form an army transport reserve, subject to immediate withdrawal in case of emergency calling for use as transports.

In view of the approved agreement above referred to and the fact that the war department has expended millions of dollars for repair and outfitting of these vessels," wrote the secretary, "and has available at this time complete plans for utilizing these vessels in case of an emergency, I request that no action be taken toward the sale of any of the vessels forming a part of the army transport reserve until the matter has been presented to the president."

Chairman Payne replied that the board would not accept the bid until the matter had been taken up with the war department.

Twelve bids for the liners have been received and it is understood that one of them is for the entire fleet.

BEET GROWERS VOTE TO RAISE PRODUCT PRICE

Denver Convention Adopts the Sliding Scale Based on Seasonal Quotation

DENVER, Col., (AP)—Sugar beet growers, members of the National Sugar Beet Growers' association, in convention here, yesterday voted to demand more money for their product. A sliding scale, based on the seasonal price of refined sugar, was adopted. The association voted to demand contracts calling for prices ranging from $12 to $21 a ton, based on a minimum of nine cents a pound for sugar. The advance of one cent in sugar prices would bring $150 additional per ton to the growers. Refiners have offered the flat contract of $12 a ton, which growers rejected. Each state organization, however, was left free to accept a compromise with refiners from the national organization's schedule. Wages of farm labor in caring for the beet crop will be advanced this summer, the convention agreeing to a 15 per cent increase. This was said to mean an increased cost of $4 an acre for cultivation. A five per cent increase in wages for labor in thinning and ten per cent in pulling and topping was adopted. A proposal for $1 a ton above the average yield of ten tons to the acre was rejected.

HAY NOT SCARCE ON MINIDOKA PROJECT

County Agricultural Agent Says Unsold Stacks Contain Thousands of Tons

Many stockmen throughout the intermountain country are under the impression that hay is very scarce, while reports are to the effect that on the Minidoka project there are in the neighborhood of from five to ten thousand tons of hay unsold, according to Grover W. Bennett, county agricultural agent. Hay has been selling at $20 on track but the market price declined last week.

At the present time considerable hay can be bought at $20 in the stack. The distance from shipping points makes about $6 to $8 for baling and shipping in addition to the above price. The farm bureau office, at Rupert, offers to cooperate with anyone wishing hay at this figure.

DEMPSEY'S FORMER WIFE MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST HIM

Woman in Wells, Nevada, Declares She Was Compelled by Threats to Sign Statement that Champion was Supporting Her During the War—Adds She Will Supply Evidence when Time Comes

By F. E. Becker
SALT LAKE CITY, (Special).—There is a black little railroad town in a forlorn part of northern Nevada which is now the pugilistic center of the world. There are 300 souls there and a two birth roundhouse. There is also a senator, dark-haired, woman with flashing eyes who is the real champion of the universe, heavy, light and flourishing wields.

Olympus was the mount from which all the news came in the old days, but right now this entire sphere and some 67 the planets are waiting word from Wells, Nev.
The woman in the case is Mrs. Maxine Dempsey, the divorced wife of Jack Dempsey. The question is, will the present holder of the world's heavy weight title fight another battle for the crown in America or anywhere else?
Mrs. Dempsey says she won't. And she says she is going to settle it.

Mrs. Dempsey says that Jack Dempsey, who knocked out Jess Willard and now wants to knock out a soldier of France, is a slacker.
She says she not only knew it, but he told her so in letters, which she has carefully preserved. She is about to offer these letters to the public, and in the meantime the nation stands agape. She says that it is easier to stop around nimbly in a squared circle with boxing gloves than to meet Germans in trench coats and she is to tell the world.

She met the young woman at Wells on Sunday. She told me that her letters were securely locked in a vault, with a time lock on them, and that I could not see them until the moment she declared that she wished to hold them for one or two days more to give Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, a chance to see them and dare. She said that would be released for the whole world at once, and then there would remain no doubt in anyone's mind that Jack Dempsey, world's champion pugilist, was a slacker and no patriot of his country. She even declared her letters would bring unavailing things upon others connected with Jack Dempsey's antidraft negotiations.

She declared that, to the best of her knowledge, Jack Dempsey had not worked in a shipyard. He did put on overalls long enough to have a picture taken, she said. She asserted that he had compelled her by threats to sign an affidavit that he was her supporter when, in fact, he was not. And later, she declared, he compelled her by threats to sign the necessary papers that he might secure a divorce.

I casually inquired why, if she had known all these things all this time, she had not lifted up her voice before, and this is what she said:
"I didn't pay much attention to all the fight talk until the American Legion took up the slacker charge. Then I thought I would help them out, because he was a slacker and I can prove it. I am not just a simply angry. In fact, there is no regard left, after the way he treated me. I only wish to show him to the world as what he is when his country needed him.
"I don't want any money, not even from newspapers which want my story. I don't want a dime. My real motive is to show him in his own colors—not true colors."
"He did engage in boxing and some of the proceeds were turned over to war purposes, but boxing was vastly different from taking a chance with a bullet. Supposing every American had been like him, the Germans might have won over here. He and his manager, Jack Kearns, are trying to put a big bluff on the public, and I am going to call their bluff."

I made an old newspaper friend of mine, the by the name of Phil S. Tuplett, postmaster, owner and publisher of the Wells Herald, lawyer and notary public. In the capacity of legal adviser for Maxine Dempsey, he has made a certified copy of the most important letter of her collection. Professional confidences automatically sealed his lips as to the contents of the letter, but he did say this:
"If that letter is ever published, it will sound the pugilistic knell of Jack Dempsey, you can take it from me. So I said all right and came away."

NEW YORK, (Special).—"Things are not the same nowadays," moaned Kid McCoy recently, during a discussion of the ring success of Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight.
In the old days fighters used to like to have their opponent rush at them, as Dempsey does, and they were prepared to handle the rush in fine shape, but the present day crowd seem to be helpless when they meet a wild rusher and swinger," said the Kid.

McCoy was naming Dempsey. He likes Dempsey and he admires the champion for the success he has had, but he has long since lost his patience with the modern crop of battlers over whom Dempsey crawled to the highest honors in the ring sport. He finds fault with the methods in vogue now that do not equip a boxer to meet situations such as Dempsey always makes when the bell sends him into action.

"I can't understand it," he said with a nod of his head, "the pugs of today seem to lose their noodle when an opponent makes a wild rush at them. Apparently they have no defense and they don't know what in the world to do. Can you fancy a guy rushing at Jim Corbett, Kid Lavigne, Stanley Ketchel, Billy Papke, But Nelson or any of the others whom we like to term as old timers? Say, they would have pocket just such emergencies and they would win in a round."

Of all the past masters in the ring game, McCoy was probably the best at stopping rushers, although the Kid probably did not care to boast his own stuff. Several times he tried to rush him in the first round, McCoy simply sidestepped La Blanche and hit him at will with his most solid punches, while La Blanche was rushing and was unable to stop and get turned around. "I was surprised that Willard fell for it," said McCoy, "but I suppose he was without a defense and was puzzled when Jack started his rush. It's a new stunt, but it would not work against a boxer who had been properly drilled," said McCoy.

Young Bob Fitzsimmons Makes Opponent Quit Before Speed and Many Blows

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Young Bob Fitzsimmons, son of the former world's heavyweight champion, scored a decisive victory last night in his second appearance in the ring. His opponent, Eddie Wood of Newark, quit in the seventh round of an eight round match after receiving a rain of blows.

Young Bob engaged in his first real contest almost 30 years after his famous father won the middleweight title from Jack Dempsey. The young fighter resembled the former champion in the face and by his clever footwork, but the similarity did not go as far as his punches, which lacked force.

Fitzsimmons, who was in splendid condition, forced the fighting at a terrific pace and sent in blows so quickly that Wood did not get a chance to start a good punch, relying mainly on wild swings. These were easily blocked or dodged.

Salvation Army Organizer Finds Favor for Institution of Corps Here

Telling of the need in every community of a Salvation Army organization, Lt. Col. Thomas W. Scott, northwest organizer of Salvation Army work, last night addressed a large gathering of local people in the Elks club rooms. The address, a detailed resume of the functions of the General Booth uplift institution, was listened to in rapt attention. It contained enlightening features and was clearly and understandingly presented in language not to be mistaken. During the presentation of his story Col. Scott painted a vivid and graphic picture of the achievements of the Salvation Army in war-torn areas during the strife ended in France a year ago. He illustrated the humanitarian work of the Salvation Lancers among the soldiery of all the allied striving nations, explaining the vicissitudes suffered and privations endured by the Salvation workers during the entire period of strife.

Col. Scott dwelt at considerable length upon the elementary feature upon which the Booth institution has its basis. He told of the extraordinary efforts of the Army in seeking out the needy and endeavoring to their pants; of the uplift endeavors among the distressed and of the reclamation of the derelicts of humanity.

"The motto of the Salvation Army is 'A Man May Be Down, but Never Out'," Col. Scott announced, declaring that there is always a "Tree Be Cut Down It Shall Sprout and Live Again."

Col. Scott gave his hearers a clear vision of the accomplishments of the Army's industrial department, showing by figures and facts what can be done by workers with discarded garments, implements and articles. He told of housing facilities throughout the world where the Army exists and of the rescue work made possible through the hotel plans carried out by Salvation workers.

At the address carried conviction to the hearts of those assembled was made amply manifest in the enthusiastic response accorded. This evening in the chamber of commerce rooms the advisory board will meet with Col. Scott and Maj. George D. Beaumont of the U. S. Army to arrange the details of placing an operative Salvation Army corps in Twin Falls. Arrangements will be made, also, for a barracks where meetings will be held.

BANK BACKS BOYS IN STOCK IMPROVEMENT

Idaho State Financial Institution Helps Club Lads Procure Registered Cows

Next Saturday the Idaho State bank will distribute 12 registered Shorthorn cows and heifers, purchased at a recent sale held here, among 12 boys from the ranks of the Farm Bureau Junior clubs. During the Shorthorn sale the bank instructed the county club leader, A. J. O'Reilly, to purchase 12 head of pure bred Shorthorn animals for the boys.

The plan of the bank is to sell one animal to each boy at the price for which it was bought at the public sale, taking the lad's note in settlement. The bank does not propose to make this a hard and fast business proposition between itself and the purchaser, but will not require any guarantors from parents of the boy or other person.

Every animal is purebred Shorthorn, guaranteed to be in healthy condition and to early produce progeny. They have all been subjected to tuberculin test, and are sold subject to a 60-day retreat without charge. As soon as purchasing lad selects his cow the Shorthorn breeders' negotiation.

All club boys who are to receive a cow have been asked to meet at the Twin Falls County Farm Bureau office at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, when they will be taken to the C. A. McManister sales pavilion to make their selections and have a picture of the group taken with their new possession. From the barn they will go to the Idaho State bank quarters to make official signature of the pledges they engage in with the bank.

The club slogan is "I pledge my head to courage thinking; my health to better living; my heart to greater loyalty and my hands to bigger service for my country, my community and my club."

AUTOMOBILE ELECTION BET CASE BEFORE COURT

Litigation to Decide Question of Ownership of Motor Made Stake in Wager

In the district court this afternoon is being heard evidence in the action brought by Minnie L. Hoy against C. A. Robinson, seeking to recover possession of an automobile held by the defendant. The car came to Robinson as the result of an election bet made with J. W. Hays, husband of plaintiff in this issue.

In the complaint lodged Mrs. Hays makes the claim that the automobile was her personal property at the time it was pledged in the betting, and that her husband, J. W. Hays, had neither title to the car nor right to its possession.

The defendant, C. A. Robinson, is a former state senator, and the republican state committee man from this county.

Shortly before noon today the case of S. C. Clane against the Twin Falls Cma company was given to the jury. The case involves damages amounting to $1500 claimed by the plaintiff to have been incurred when a ditch he was digging to the company broke and flooded his land.

Populace and Prophet Have Bum Hunches

A wide spread community hunch enjoyed this morning, that it was going to either rain or snow immediately came to naught. It did neither, and, in fact, conditions seem to preage nothing of the sort for early transmutation.

Even the romancer in Boise thought the same, and he was wrong, as usual, the Grand Vizier of the weatherworkers apostating from the stand taken persistently recently to a degree of vaticinating "fair in the south."

Fifty-three was the temperature yesterday, and 27 low last night.
