Lloyd-George Discusses Bolshevism in Reply to Criticism of Government's Policy Made by Labor Leaders

LONDON, (AP)—Replying to general criticisms of the government's policy made by William Lloyd-George, leader, Sir Donald Maclean and others who demanded especially the revision of the Versailles peace treaty, Premier Lloyd George said tonight that it would be impossible in a single speech, to deal with all the questions raised.

Referring to Ireland, the premier asked whether Mr. Adamson meant by "self-determination" that if the majority of the Irish people demanded a republic he would give it. Unless Mr. Adamson meant that, said the premier, his talk of self-determination was dishonest. He asked whether the majority thought the government would withdraw all its troops "and leave the assassins in charge in Ireland."

Declaring that the majority of the government was to maintain law and order in Ireland, the premier turned to the high cost of living, which he said was attributable to the expenditure of money, and not to profiteering. The only resort was to increase production, he declared.

Replying to Sir Donald Maclean's inquiry, the premier said he would be able to say that the coming budget would more than balance.

For Russian Rehabilitation

Dealing at length with the situation in Russia, Mr. Lloyd George said he agreed with the view that Russia should not be restored without putting Russia, with all her strength and resources, "into circulation."

Bolshevism was possibly efficient, said the premier, but was not democracy, and Russia must be restored under a anti-Bolshevik regime.

"Bolshevism cannot be crushed by force arms," continued the premier. "I had that opinion a year ago, but my advice, tendered on that assumption to the warring factions, was declined."

The premier contended that the suggested "ring of fire" to crush the Bolsheviks was impossible because it would doubtful whether Finland would consent, and the Baltic states, he pointed out, were making peace with Russia, while Rumania was really engaged in watching the Hungarian front, and the Japanese were disinclined toward the idea. Moreover, neither France, the United States, Italy nor Great Britain was willing to provide the funds.

No Peace with Barbarian

"Until they are assured that the Bolsheviks have dropped the methods of barbarism in favor of civilized government," added the premier, "no civilized community in the world is prepared to make peace with them. Further, there is no established government possessing the right to speak for the whole of European Russia." We failed to restore Russia to sanity by force. I believe we can save her by trade.

"Commerce has a sobering influence. There is nothing to fear from a Bolshevik invasion of surrounding countries or the middle east, because the Bolshevik cannot organize a powerful army."

"The dangers are not all in Russia,"

ELOQUENT AUSTRALIAN WILL BE HERE TONIGHT

Tom Skoyhill, Soldier, Orator and Poet, Gives Number on Lyceum Course

There are many war lecturers. There is only one Tom Skoyhill. Of him the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt said: "I am prouder to be in the stage with Tom Skoyhill than any other man I know."

Tom Skoyhill is an Australian. He is a soldier, speaker, poet. He was a member of the Eighth American Infantry battalion and his company, Twin Falls tonight to address a lyceum audience.

New York society paid a million dollars a minute to hear this Australian speak from a public platform in 1918. The New York Tribune designated the gathering as the "greatest demonstration in the history of any war loan in any nation." Tom Skoyhill single-handed raised the unprecedented sum of $23,700,000 in 23 minutes.

When Great Britain declared war against Germany in August, 1914, young Skoyhill was but 18 years old. He threw down his pen and enlisted. With his Anzac comrades he traveled 15,000 miles to battlefields in Europe. He fought through many of the bloodiest, most perilous and most desperate struggles of the war, was twice dangerously wounded and was invalided home, bayoneted, blind and helpless. He lived for two years in total blindness, came to America in that condition and had his sight miraculously restored by American surgeons.

As a soldier, Tom Skoyhill has had more hairbreadth escapes from death and has undergone more thrilling experiences than the most notorious character in fiction. As a poet he is one of the most promising of the younger school. As a speaker, according to the Cleveland Plaindealer, he is "the most effective war speaker in America." He is a silver-tongued master of eloquence whose vivid powers of description lift an audience to heights of enthusiasm.

Tom Skoyhill will be heard on the Twin Falls lyceum course in Lavington theatre tonight.

REPORT SHOWS RESULTS OF FOSTERING EXPORTS

British Efforts to Fight Exchange Fluctuation Through Boosting Foreign Trade Gaining Ground

LONDON, (AP)—Recent efforts to stimulate the export trade of Great Britain to assist in righting the exchange position are indicated in the board of trade figures for January. They show that exports, for the first time on record, totaled more than 100,000,000 pounds or exact figure, 105,879,000 pounds, an increase of 68,000,000 pounds over January of last year.

Exports of manufactured articles increased 100 per cent, including an advance of 15,000,000 pounds in cotton textiles, 6,000,000 pounds in woolens and 3,000,000 pounds in iron and steel products.

While imports were still large, totaling 185,000,000 pounds, or 48,000,000 pounds over January of last year, they were largely essential products, food imports showing an increase of 18,000,000 pounds and raw cotton of 22,000,000 pounds.

LONDON, (AP)—Announcement of the death of Fedor Ivanovitch Kallin, one of the most prominent organizers of the soviet government, commissioner of education and president of the central committee of proletarian culture, is made in a wireless dispatch from Moscow. He had an adventurous career, suffering exile and imprisonment at various times.

Rough Oldtime "Sports"

Pugilistic encounters, dog fights, cock fights and similar performances were the ordinary forms of popular pastimes in the early part of the last century. Bull baiting was common and even this did not afford sufficient amusement to the people in some of the northern towns, and Blackburn and Oldham exhibited a strange depravity by compelling old women to race in sacks!—Baileys Magazine.

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it? "You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over: We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet:

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

DEBTS VS WORDS

The heart of America was touched with sympathy and admiration last November when word came from Contralla that American Legion members, looking upon their dead shot down as they paraded in celebration of Armistice Day, suppressed a natural inclination to exact revenge upon their murderers and themselves upheld the arm of the law and withstood the attempts of others at summary retribution.

Today in court at Monticane, the attorney for the men whom he admits guilty of the death of the former service men slain last November at Contralla, is attempting to justify the murders on the plea that the dead men had entered into a conspiracy to attack the Industrial Workers of the World, and that in order to "protect their hall" at Contralla from unlawful assault at the hands of Legion men on that occasion, these bloody-handed clients of his were "forced" to shoot down the unarmed men of whose murder they stand charged.

It will be difficult indeed for the American spirit of justice to recognize and harmonize the imputation of lawlessness now laid at the door of their dead companions with the actual deeds of the Legion men at Contralla last November in upholding the law at a time when natural inclination so strongly urged law evasion on their part, and the attempt of the slayers' attorney to curry popular favor for his cause by play at exonerating the American Legion as a whole from complicity in the Armistice Day outrage must fall pretty generally upon deaf ears.

It is extremely unlikely that the Legion posts in Twin Falls and elsewhere who so promptly expressed their sympathy with their companions after the blow fell in Contralla will be moved at all toward acceptance of any such exoneration, or that America as a whole will find any adequate apology for the Contralla murders in the excuse put forward by the attorney for the slayers.

POOR TIME TO QUIT

Democratic congressmen who overrode President Wilson's appeal and declared their opposition to universal military training explain their action at the caucus on the grounds that "they know the sentiment of the country on military training better than either the president or their leaders."

It is to be admitted that Mr. Wilson has erred very seriously at times in his estimation of American sentiment, but American military policy at the present juncture is a matter hardly to be determined upon domestic sentiment alone. American relationships with the other nations of the earth are and ought to be the deciding factor in the disposition of this issue, and upon international relations...

relationships at the present time, there are few better qualified to speak than Mr. Wilson, who has spent the bulk of his time during the past two years on foreign soil. The party might better have repudiated Mr. Wilson's advice on other questions than this.

DENVER WOMAN HOLDS INTENDERS AT GUN POINT DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Armed by a guest who said gobblers were trying to enter his room, Mrs. Beana Lamborn, proprietress of a downtown hotel, today held two alleged burglars at the point of a revolver and made one of them telephone the police. A third man escaped.

Famous Hymn. The words of the hymn "I Hear Thy Welcome Voice" were written by Lewis Hartough, and for that matter the music, too, was written by that composer. Both words and music were first published in a monthly, a Guide to Holiness, a copy of which was sent to Ira D. Sankey while he was in England in 1875. He immediately adopted it and had it published in "Sacred Songs and Solos."

Salt Lake City Rogues' Gallery Likely to Be Changed Into Cinematograph Studio

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—The local police department rogues' gallery may be changed into a moving picture studio as the result of inquiries sent to various Pacific coast cities concerning the filming of law breakers instead of taking still photographs. Chief of Police D. A. White of San Francisco has informed the local department the new system has been tried out there and was found to produce wonderful results. Every motion and characteristic act of the criminal is recorded by the new method and it is said to make it much easier for detectives to recognize offenders. In the past it has been possible for a criminal to so alter his natural expression in a still picture that recognition by the photograph in real life was almost impossible. The apparatus originated by Thos. H. Ince, famous Culver City, Calif., producer, is said to be inexpensive and not complicated.

You can find a tenant for that furnished room—the right one, willing to pay a right price—through the classified.

LOGAN DIAMOND ENTHUSIASTS FOR UTAH-IDAHO LEAGUE

OGDEN, Utah, (AP)—Steps for the formation of a Utah-Idaho baseball league to include Ogden, Logan and Brigham City, Utah, and three Idaho towns are being fostered by local diamond enthusiasts. Logan now is in the Cache Valley league and won the 1919 pennant in that organization, but is said to be desirous of entering the proposed Utah-Idaho league. Mayor Frank Francis, of Ogden, is an ardent booster for the proposed league and expresses belief that if established it will prove a success.

Earthquake of 1955. In 1955, on the 18th of November, an earthquake shook the North American coast, damaging houses all along the shore from New England to the West Indies. In the harbor of St. Martin's the sea withdrew entirely, leaving vessels and fish on the dry harbor bottom. When the waters returned they overflowed the lowlands for miles.

BRYAN SPEECHES BOUDBON DISAPPROVAL OF TRAINING

MIAMI, Fla., (AP)—Disapproval by house democrats of enactment of universal military training legislation by this congress was viewed with "great satisfaction" here yesterday by William J. Bryan, who said it meant that "no professional soldier will be appointed" for president by either party." Mr. Bryan, however, made no reference to President Wilson's letter read to the caucus, opposing any party action on the subject at this time.

DRIVE IS LAUNCHED TO RECRUIT TRAINED NURSES

NEW YORK, (AP)—A shortage of 40,000 trained nurses exists in the United States according to the national organization for public health nursing. The organization yesterday started a campaign in the hope of enrolling 60,000 young women workers.

Mr. Growcher Speaks. "Some of these problems, they keep putting up to us," said Mr. Growcher, "make me think of old-fashioned conundrums. You're supposed to keep guessing, 'What's the difference?' when it doesn't make much real difference whether there's any difference or not."

The Chance that the Army Offers

YOU "As a corporal I was drawing down $38.10 a month every time the bugles blew 'Pay Day' "And when I read in the papers about the big civilian pay envelopes, civil life opportunities looked pretty good to me! "I took up my old job when I got back and when then they raised my pay to $35.00 a week—almost as much as I got every month in the Army—well, I thought I was sitting on the world. "But times have certainly changed! Thirty-five a week today goes like a breeze. Food has advanced, shoes cost more, and every time I buy a suit I think I'm paying for the war as well as fighting it. "I'm classed, I guess, as just an unskilled worker, I left school too early and I'm sorry for it now. "And where'll I be ten years from now? Answer me that Working for day wages, making a living and nothing more? I guess not—for I'm going back to join the Army! "I'm going to take a job that will give me more free cash than I get today—a job that'll mean all my expenses paid—a training that will make me the kind of man who succeeds and a life that'll keep me feeling fit and fine."

Health, Travel and Training

Congress has appropriated $2,000,000.00 to be used in the Army Schools. In many schools and posts you will have the opportunity of being trained in the skilled trades and at practically all Army stations, schools are in operation in which you can improve your education. You'll have enough out-door work to keep you in perfect trim. You'll learn the sort of discipline that makes a man able to handle other men. You'll have a fine crowd of buddies. You'll live a fine life—no soft snap about it, but it will be a life that will make you a regular man. You'll learn how to hold up your end in any company. You'll have an increased ability—a sure self-confidence on your return.

You'll be a part of America—one of its fighting men—its bulwarks of defense. If there's any trouble that the Army has to settle you'll have a red-blooded man's chance to do your share of the settling. And three years from now, when the men who are working besides you now are still working for day wages, you will step out with a training that will command real money. Think it over. The next three years at home; and no further along at the end. Or the next three years in the Army, and a training that you can cash in on for the rest of your life. It's worth investigating, isn't it? Worth stopping in at the recruiting office to talk to the man in charge.

Brief Bits of Sport

That Jimmy Wilder, flyweight champion of Europe, is a better fighter than was demonstrated in the bout with Sharkey is being pretty generally conceded by eastern experts.

Jimmy's showing against Babe Ashor and then against Mike Eric, whom he knocked out in short order, has caused a decided reversal of opinion among experts, apparently.

"Chubby" Charles Webb Murphy, once president of the Chicago Cubs and renowned as the champion clown, is back in the trouble business again. He has brought suit against the National league and is trying to stop putting into effect that organization's 1920 playing schedule.

So the American league is not the only disturbed baseball organization in the country.

Baseball rules-makers seem to have hit upon the proper idea in killing off the intentional pass for hard batters. They have restricted the area in which the catcher of wild pitches, shot far over for the prevention of base hits, shall function.

Should prove a big hit with the fans who like to see the mighty club man "hit 'em out."

Jimmy Darcy, brother of the late Los Darcy, of Australia, has had his first try in an American ring. He halloped Ed Warner of St. Louis good in eight rounds, having a wide margin in every one.

Darcy is a middleweight while Warner is a light heavyweight.

A young lady operating a woman's ready-to-wear shop in a Montana town is reported to have submitted to a "Come in and see my new waist line."

Benny Leonard planned to put out Johnny Dundee Monday night to end an old feud, but the best the champ could manage was to give the New Orleans "hopper-jumper" a trimming.

Johnny proved too tough to be knocked out, but he surely was handed an artistic and hurtful beating.

AWARD REDUCED IN CONDEMNATION CASE

Jury Gives Brackett and Clark $52,917; Appraisers' Award was $59,000

Judgment in total sum of $52,917 was yesterday evening awarded Ira Brackett and Frank Clark against the Idaho Farm Development company by a jury in the district court. The sum is $6,083 less than the award of the appraisal commission.

The action was brought as an appeal from the judgment of the commission, the verdict constituting victory for the plaintiff company. The latter sought condemnation of farming property owned by Brackett and Clark for reservoir purposes in the construction of an irrigation system. Brackett was awarded $35,485, as against a commission's award of $32,918; Clark received $17,999 as against the appraisers' award of $25,682.

This morning a similar case in which the development company was plaintiff against Fred Walters for condemnation of land for reservoir purposes was settled without being brought to trial. A jury was in process of calling when announcement of settlement out of court was made. It is understood Walters is to receive the sum of $40,000 for his holdings. The appraisers awarded him $41,000.

IDAHO LEGISLATURE IN SESSION FOR SUFFRAGE

Adoption of Constitutional Amendment Expected without Delay

BOISE, Idaho, (AP)—The Idaho legislature convened as noon today in special session for the purpose of ratifying the national suffrage amendment. The legislative members are overwhelmingly in favor of woman suffrage and as this is the only business before the session adjournment is expected late today.

Before deciding to call a special session, Governor D. W. Davis wrote to every member of the house and senate, asking their views on the subject. The tenor of those replies indicated that ratification will be by an overwhelming vote.

The session is called for the sole purpose of dealing with the suffrage question, and under Idaho's laws no other matter can be taken up. The legislature met in one of the local theaters, because the old buildings which housed the senate and house have been torn down to make way for the construction of the east and west wings of the new capitol building, at a cost of $900,000.

The meeting of the special session of the legislature, which under the call will last but one day, coincides with the opening of the campaign in this state for the Republican party. The Republican state central committee is meeting here at the same time as the Idaho Republican editors' association, and the Lincoln Day banquet, always the big Republican gathering of the year, will be held at Boise tomorrow.

SUES HINDU
Alleging there is due on a promissory note the sum of $1,017.26, and interest on certain other amounts, Max Gambale, through Attorney Homer O. Mills, has filed suit in the district court against B. Alt, a Hindu, for judgment. An additional $200, with court costs, is asked.

Weather Editor and Judge Meet Up With "Dead"

WE strolled (yes, "strolled") 'tis right, as neither ran nor ambled, hopped or gamboled) adown the street with Judge Davies, listing to words of wisdom that fell from limpid lips.

"Judge," says we with that peculiar intimacy that comes of reverence and respect for the crucible, "Judge," we said, "what's doing?"

The lawyer bent his head toward the ground slightly as though in dignified attention of our question. Then he raised it and looked us straight in the face.

"Nothing," quoth he, just like that.

We passed on, still strolling and wisdoming, the judge filling our vapid mind with Solomonic sagacity, until we reached the doorway where our way parted.

Suddenly, transpiration came to a full stop (period, you might say).

His right hand shot forth and, as we observed, a right index digit pointed to a DEAD thing on the stairway.

"Who could have done that," tremulously inquired the judge of us.

"Durned if I know," responded we; and that was right.

Drawing the folds of his clothing close about his ample frame the judge transcended the stairs, solemnizing the DEAD bury its dead.

We passed on reflecting contentedly upon the dear dead days beyond recall that were yesterday where our ways parted.

"Fair to middlin'," or words to that effect, says the commander in chief of the weather information bureau.

"Let the winds blow up for the weather yesterday, and 15 low last night, rather snug, we'd aver.

Health Officer Has Novel Plan for Handling Milk Examination Problem

There are 200 vendors and dealers in milk in and around Twin Falls. All are interested in the milk industry, in some form at least, in this city.

This is according to report prepared by City Health Officer Alex W. Murray, who is preparing plans for a general inspection of milk and dairy products of all sorts.

Having compiled a list of all milkmen, and all persons and institutions interested in any way in distribution of milk and dairy products, Mr. Murray has devised a lottery scheme to decide whose product or place shall first be inspected. To reach an equitable conclusion in this respect, that they may be no subsequent change of favoritism, Mr. Murray has listed the name of every individual or corporation handling milk or dairy goods, either at the dairy, creamery, restaurant or hotel, or peddling about town, on a separate card which will be sealed in a container which must be torn to be opened. A drawing will be held and a certain number of cards taken from a box. As these names are revealed the inspection will proceed.

SCARCITY OF SEED IS AFFIRMED BY SHEEHAN

State Agronomist Tells of the Shortage; Devises Scheme for Distribution

Good seed will be scarce this year, and Idaho growers will find themselves confronted with a big shortage at planting time, according to B. E. Sheehan, field agronomist of the Idaho University extension division.

To facilitate the distribution of what ever supply of seed there may be, Mr. Sheehan has devised a scheme of farm bureau cooperation by which seed will be listed for sale, the information to be made public through the newspapers, the weekly markets bulletin of the state department of agriculture, and the farm bureaus. Data is to be collected by the county agricultural agents and is to include the following information: Kind of seed, variety, price, amount, and addresses of persons having the seed for sale.

Names of persons wishing to buy seed also will be taken, together with the kind of seed wanted, the variety, the amount and the address of the applicant.

Checks in the hands of various firms also are to be listed.

Gardeners Must Pay for Wasted Water This Year

Irrigation for Vacant Lots Will Not Be Provided Except Through Meter

Remembering the seriousness of last year's shortage of water for public service, municipal officials have taken the first decisive step toward checking waste in this city the coming season.

Every vacant lot garden must be provided with a water meter.

"We will not supply a drop of water to a vacant lot garden this year unless a measuring device has been installed," said Waterworks Superintendent John J. Pilgerim declared there must be no flooding of alleys and street areas this season.

"The city is willing to provide every person who wants to cultivate a vacant lot with all the water necessary to guarantee good yields, but the city has seen too much water waste of water in the past. Persons who want this service will be compelled to economize or pay for waste," Mr. Pilgerim added.

Rates, according to water department officials, will be made reasonable to city lot gardeners, but will be sufficiently high to compel a measure of economy.

Refreshments served at the close of the meeting were tannales and coffee. At the club meeting next month about fifty new members are expected. Refreshments will be added to the club's roll.

The senior class has adopted as its class motto the phrase, "To be rarer than to seem to be," and the red rose has been chosen by the class as the class flower. From several proposed mottoes this one was selected, though it did not receive a majority of votes. A committee is engaged in selecting a suitable drama for class presentation this year and active preparations will be begun as soon as a play has been chosen.

BANKS WILL CLOSE
Banks will observe tomorrow as a holiday. There will be special Lincoln Day exercises in all of the schools.

SEEKING JUDGMENT
The Consolidated Wagon and Machine company, through Attorney James H. Wise, has filed an action in the district court against Milton L. Scott for judgment on a promissory note. The amount asked is $127.90. Fees of $50, too, are asked.
