WASHINGTON, (AP)—Arrival in London today of President Wilson's reply to the allied premier's note on the Adriatic question will furnish the European chancelleries with an unequivocal statement of this country's position as to the forming of agreements for disposal of territory without the participation of the United States.

Modifies Position—President Wilson has refused, according to well informed circles, to agree to the settlement offered to Yugoslavia an ultimatum, but he has insisted on carrying out precisely the Adriatic settlement reached December 9 with the consent of the United States.

WOOD AT SIOUX FALLS

OIL LAND LEASE BILL IS SIGNED BY PRESIDENT

Measure which Opens Up Millions of Acres in West for Development Becomes Law after Ten Years

PROVIDES FOR BIDDING TO DETERMINE ROYALTY

Estimates Fix 44,000,000 Acres of Coal and 8,000,000 Acres of Petroleum Fields Affected by Act

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today signed the oil land leasing bill, which opens for development millions of acres of land in the west.

The oil land leasing bill was agreed to by the house and senate congresses February 2 and after being passed by the house and senate was sent to the president February 11. The bill is expected to open for development approximately 75,000,000 acres of public domain in western states.

Affects Great Areas—The bill affects oil, coal, gas, phosphate, sodium and oil shale lands and is strictly a leasing measure, all provisions for outright sale having been eliminated. Under the measure approximately 44,000,000 acres of government coal land alone would be opened for development as well as about 8,000,000 acres of oil.

The bill specifies only a minimum royalty. In contracted claims on oil, 70 per cent of the royalty received on past production is to go to the reclamation fund, 80 per cent to the states in which the oil was produced, and 10 per cent to the government.

All royalties derived from oil, gas, coal, phosphate and sodium produced in the future will be distributed 55 1/2 per cent to the reclamation fund, 37 1/2 per cent to the states and 10 per cent to the government.

Bidding Provided For—The measure provides royalties to be paid shall be determined by competitive bidding or by methods to be prescribed by the secretary of the interior. For oil-lands a maximum of 3,500 acres may be leased on a minimum royalty of 12 1/2 per cent. The maximum coal lands is 2500 acres with a minimum royalty of five cents per ton. The same acreage is prescribed for phosphate and sodium on 1000 acres of oil shale lands can be leased.

Rumors of Trouble Impending at Montezano Result In Order for Dispatch of Camp Lewis Veterans.

PRESERVATION OF ORDER AND FAIR TRIAL ASSURANCE PURPOSE OF MOVE

TACOMA, Wash., (AP)—A detachment of Camp Lewis troops departed on a special train today for Montezano where troops alleged I. W. W. are on trial for the murder of Warren O. Grimm, Centralia Armistice Day victim. Every man of the detachment, the size of which officers refused to state, was equipped with ball ammunition.

The detachment was commanded by Major Arthur Casey. A medical detachment with special supplies accompanied the troops. It was said at Camp Lewis that veteran troops, many of whom have had riot experience, were selected to make the trip.

Prosecuting Attorney Herman Allen, conducting the trial at Montezano, asked Governor Hart yesterday to arrange for troops to be in Montezano. He declared there had been rumors of trouble and he wished the troops in Montezano as a possible aid in preserving the peace and assuring a fair trial.

The prosecuting attorney in his request said radicals had been drifting into Montezano. Governor Hart forwarded a request for troops to Lieutenant General Hunter Liggett at San Francisco with a statement that it was feared the situation at Montezano might pass beyond control of local and state authorities.

MICHIGAN OFFICIAL EVADES PROHIBITION COMMISSIONER

State's Attorney McDonough, whose Alleged Attempt to Defeat Dry Law Brings on Penninsular "Whiskey Rebellion," is Not to Be Found when Major Dalrymple Arrives at Iron River; Captured Wine is Recovered and Destroyed

IRON RIVER, Mich., (AP)—State's Attorney M. S. McDonough of Iron River county could not be located today by Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition director for the central states, but the wine which was taken from the federal authorities last week was found and destroyed.

When the federal prohibition director and his agents attempted to get into communication with McDonough, their attempts were fruitless and they immediately set about to locate the wine, which had been taken from Leo J. Grove, the prohibition agent, who last week reported to his superior that it had been taken from him by the state attorney.

Five barrels of wine were located in the cellar of a priest's house, where it had been placed for safekeeping and rolled into the street where the agents found it. The wine was taken from the liquor run into the gutter.

The conference which was to have taken place between Major Dalrymple and the state officials has been postponed until such time as the officials are found.

Major Dalrymple and his agents expected to leave here immediately for the Virgin mine where another raid will be made.

COMPLETE INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE, SAYS ROEPER

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A complete investigation of the prohibition controversy in Iron county, Michigan, will be made by the bureau of internal revenue, Commissioner Reor announced today.

H. M. Gaylord, deputy prohibition commissioner, will leave tonight for Grand Rapids and Iron River City to take up with the authorities there the controversy which led district Prohibition Commissioner Dalrymple at Chicago to declare the county in "open revolt."

TEXTS OF THREE MEXICAN NOTES ARE DISCLOSED

Carranza Government Sets Forth Its Reasons for Refusal to Admit Witness Before Senate Committee

LANSING'S REFUSAL TO LET ARMS PASS GIVEN

Includes List of Communications from Ambassador Bonillas and Declares Approval Impossible

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Texts of three notes which have recently passed between the Carranza government and the state department at Washington, were made public at the foreign office here last night. The first was a request from former Secretary Lansing that the Carranza government "retract" the reports of Henry Forres, an American witness before the Fall sub-committee which recently sat at El Paso, Texas, inquiring into Mexican conditions.

The second was the Carranza refusal to accede to this request and the third was Mr. Lansing's refusal to allow the issuance of permits for the shipment of arms and ammunition to Mexico from the United States.

Witnesses—The state department's attention was directed to the Carranza government's refusal to accede to this request and the third was Mr. Lansing's refusal to allow the issuance of permits for the shipment of arms and ammunition to Mexico from the United States.

OFFICIAL TURNS UPON PROHIBITION AGENTS

IRON RIVER, Mich., (AP)—Warning that he was prepared to arrest every United States prohibition agent in the county was issued today by State Attorney M. S. McDonough in the Iron county prohibition dispute. He said he has arranged for one hundred pickets to carry out his orders.

McDonough called on Dalrymple to tell him that if any attempt was made to arrest any one in Iron county or to enter any private home he would arrest the federal agents.

His statement about the 100 picked men was made to newspaper men. He said a warrant had been issued for the arrest of Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition director for the United States, who arrived last night to press the prohibition raids.

This warrant, he said, was in the hands of Chief Police Senziba, Iron River, to whom he has given orders to delay serving the warrants until further developments.

80 PER CENT OF RED ARMY IS NEUTRAL

Dutch Investigator Reports on Observations Made on Tour Through Russia; Many of Fighters Czarists

AMSTERDAM, (AP)—About 80 per cent of the red army in Russia is "red" at all, but is neutral, according to the staff correspondent of the Haagblad, B. van der Vliet, who has just returned from an extended tour through soviet Russia. He says about 60 per cent of the officers, who are largely drawn from the trained military men of the old upper class, are "czarists" in inclination. This leaves only about 20 per cent of the soldiers and 40 per cent of the officers thoroughly attached to the soviet regime, the rest being neutral or czarist.

Treated Courteously
Nypels, one of the few neutral observers who was permitted to visit soviet cities recently, writes in a series of articles that he was more courteously treated by the Bolshevik than by the Poles, through whose country he passed. In general he observes that "there are two kinds of Bolsheviks." The first class, he says, are cranks with a lot of adventures and rascals following them. These people, he says, are very vain, but if one knows how to treat them they are of use in one's hands. The second class are the true theorists, the adherents of Marx's principles, who are serious, well-meaning people and invariably treat one fairly.

"They either admit you into their country and receive you very well or don't admit you at all," he declares. Roads Unsafe at Crucial Points
The soviet peasants and soldiers were greatly amused over the stories told abroad of their cruelty, says the staff correspondent of the Haagblad, G. Nypels, in continuing his description of conditions in soviet Russia.

In the course of a trip aboard an armored train with Bolshevik officers, the correspondent was asked many questions.
"They asked if it was true that mothers frightened their children with the name of Bolshevik," they made me answer that their alleged cruelty was only an alleged one.
"These men get into print and give the wrong sort of publicity. On the other hand, those who are benefited by our activities often do not know whence the help comes."
"I am going to work as advertising manager of the department and if I can give the people of this country some idea of the honest work done in the department and the benefits which this country has derived from them I will do it."

Labor Leader Advises Caution Upon Workers

GARDIFF, Wales, (AP)—In view of the agitation among certain elements of the miners to use direct action to enforce their demands, much prominence is given to a speech by Thomas Richards, member of the house of commons and general secretary of the Welsh miners' union, in which he declared that the working class need not be talking to.
The workers, Mr. Richards said, were beginning to "boss the shop" and boss every one. He appealed to them to be careful how they used their power.

MEREDITH FLAYS PENNYWISE MOVE

Declares Department of Agriculture is Handicapped in Help for Farmers

CHICAGO, (AP)—Pennywise policies seriously handicap the department of agriculture in its work of helping the farmer, E. T. Meredith, secretary of the National Association of Commerce here yesterday.
"We want to tell the farmers how to kill the boll weevil," he said, "and then we can't afford to print the necessary literature. Four-fifths of the budget is printed go to the congressmen and when farmers ask us for them we haven't got them."

Not All Craft and Politics
"Not all is graft and politics down in Washington," he said, and told about men who could command double their present salaries in commercial life who stay with the department because of loyalty.
"They have cut down our appropriations to 31 million dollars a year," he declared, "and after the bureau of weather and forestry have their portions there is only ten million left with which to conduct the business of protecting agriculture."
He named many activities of the department, "in promoting and increasing agricultural production or protecting the life of the people and asked "What does this mean to you?"

Boasis of Shumies

"The short-weight artist and the man who mixes cedar sawdust with red pepper do not like the department because it interferes with his profits," he said.

PROPOSES USE OF SMOKE IN SIGNALLING TO MARS

Instructor in Chemistry at Bryn Mawr Advances Novel Idea for Disposition of War Materials
BRYN MAWR, Pa., (AP)—Use of the government's surplus of smoke-making material left over from the war in signalling Mars was suggested today by James J. Crenshaw, associate professor of chemistry at Bryn Mawr college, who served in the chemical warfare section of the American expeditionary forces. Smoke screens hundreds of miles in length, he believes, would be more likely to be discerned by possible Martians than the geometrical design Sir Oliver Lodge suggested be laid out on the Sahara desert.

The government has enough smoke-making material to create a tremendous screen of spot on the earth and this material can be used for no other purpose, Professor Crenshaw said. He advocated covering an area as big as the state of Pennsylvania with either black or white smoke.
Professor Crenshaw believes it would be possible to make the spot appear and disappear by regulating the flow of smoke.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Thursday Evening, Feb. 26th, at 8 o'clock

Every one who really desires to reduce the high cost of living is cordially invited to attend, especially TWIN FALLS HOUSEWIVES

The Open Shop will not lengthen hours of labor or reduce wages, but it will enable employers to hire the men necessary to do the work so that the public will not suffer.

BE NOT MISLED!

The industrial situation has reached a stage where the masses of the people are determined that would-be strikers shall show some consideration for the public. The masses of the American people do not intend to stand for an autocracy of a class of workers any more than they intend to stand for an autocracy of capital. They intend to see that both Labor and Capital get a square deal, but that both shall keep in mind the interests of the general public.—Everett W. Hill.

The "Open Shop" Policy in the Building Trades Is Not Antagonistic to Organized Labor.

Advocates of the "Closed Shop" endeavor to draw a line of demarcation between the "Fair" and the "Unfair," where in reality none exists, at the same time branding as "Union haters," those who believe in the Open Shop.

A close study of the policy and platform outlined by this Association should banish the thought that there is even the slightest intent to hinder the organization of Unions, or to interfere with the activities of members of labor organizations or to curtail their activities, only insofar as to prevent the interference of one craft or individual with another. The Building Trades card system would prevent members of any craft from working on any job upon which non-union labor was employed to any extent whatsoever.

This card system has opened up avenues of industrial strife and dissension, which has resulted in the lessening of production and delaying of building activities, if not in actually bringing about strikes and boycotts. IT IS THIS CARD SYSTEM THAT THE "OPEN SHOP" ADVOCATES OPPOSE, BECAUSE IT IS DETRIMENTAL TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF OUR CITY.

The Association is open to reason at all times, for it has only the good of the community at heart, and if anyone can show how the card system in the Building Trades will benefit the public at large, it will immediately advocate Closed Shop.

In taking this stand for the "Open Shop," Twin Falls is but taking the same initiative for industrial freedom that has been taken by almost 90 per cent of American communities.

STAND FIRMLY for INDUSTRIAL FREEDOM and the "OPEN SHOP"

The purpose of the Southern Idaho Employers' Association, Twin Falls Division, is to promote and safeguard the interests of our citizenship, including both employes and employers and their families—by insuring, through the principles of the open shop, and by other means, equal opportunity to all, and by preventing all unjust discriminations, whether against employes, employers or the general public. It is not the purpose of the committee to combat organized labor, as such, or to prevent the formation of labor unions; but rather to protect personal liberty and property rights by seeing that non-union workers have an equal chance in Twin Falls with workers who belong to the unions.

ANOTHER PROBE OF MEAT PACKER IS INAUGURATED

House Agricultural Committee Arranges to Hear Advocates and Opponents of Federal Regulation of Industry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Another congressional inquiry into the meat packing industry began yesterday before the house agriculture committee. Representative Tischer, republican, Kansas, declaring that the "stock producers are going bankrupt, the packers are rolling in wealth, and the consumer is facing want."

30 Hours Time Limit
It was decided to allow advocates and opponents of federal regulation of the industry 30 hours each. Attorney General Palmer then will be asked to explain the recent decision accepted by the "big five" Chicago packers, excluding them from handling other commodities than meats and allied products. After that the committee will decide as to further investigation.

Representative Anderson, republican, Minnesota, opened the inquiry by explaining his measure similar to the Keating bill introduced last year, proposing a federal livestock commission, the divorcing of the packer-owned refrigerator cars, and federal licensing of the packers.

Charges Collision
Mr. Anderson charged that the stock yards at Kansas City, Omaha, Chicago, and elsewhere were owned or controlled by Armour, Swift, Cudahy, or others of the "big five" firms. It was this control "to which the producers of the west object," as it was used, he said, to destroy competition and to keep prices down.

FAGEOL TRUCK WILL BE DISPLAYED HERE

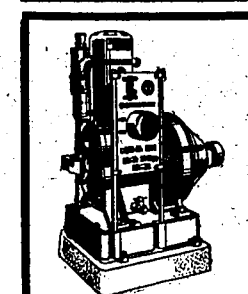

Twin Falls motor truck enthusiasts will have an opportunity through the Gordon-Davis Auto company exhibit to become better acquainted with a new type of truck which has been building history in the motor transport world for several years and that has just recently scored one of the greatest victories of the motor season when the Fageol 3 1/2-ton truck established the first official road record between San Francisco and Los Angeles and return, averaging better than 20 miles per hour for the whole trip of 372 miles and making better than eight miles on each gallon of gasoline, this with a truck which weighed 8000 pounds without driver and load, or 10,700 tons including its load.

Mr. Davis of the Gordon-Davis Auto company states that the wonderful showing on this run was largely due to the Fageol seven speed compound transmission and the Fageol automatic spring oiling system, exclusive Fageol features, though it is no more than able to give the credit to the Goodyear giant pneumatics with which the truck was equipped.

The Fageol truck should prove a great drawing card to contractors and truck users interested in highway construction, for the Fageol has been doing great work all through the northwest in helping to carry out our great road-building programs. Here in southeastern Idaho, namely, at Rupert, Fageol equipment has been used by the highway district in the construction service since last August and was given preference over all other high grade trucks. Mr. Davis states the commission investigated trucks in operation all through the Intermountain and North Pacific coast territories before buying, and the dominant service rendered by the Fageol, together with the excellent reputation of the organization behind the Fageol, were the factors that made them determined to use Fageol equipment. Fageols have been doing excellent work not only in our own state but all through the northwest and Mr. Davis states that from the California state supervisors' review he gathers information to the effect that nine counties in California chose Fageol equipment this year. Only recently the factory received an order for 25 3 1/2-ton jobs equipped with dump bodies and hoists to be delivered to one contractor in the state of Washington.

STATUS OF TURK IS MOOT ISSUE

Agitation for Expelling Sultan from Constantinople Sways Great Britain

LONDON (AP)—Agitation in favor of expelling the Turk from Constantinople, which has been a conspicuous feature in one section of the press during the last few days and which has had the support of religious and philanthropic bodies, met a counter blast from another section of the London newspaper world yesterday, which contended the question was one of such importance that it could not be settled on sentimental considerations but must be left to the matured deliberation of the supreme allied council.

Denies National Duty
In a lengthy argument the Telegraph asserted that British statesmanship is "neither the duty nor interest to expel the sultan from Constantinople," and expressed the opinion that agitation to this end was "ill inspired and ill considered."

The Daily News, which has always been a staunch champion of the Armenians and a supporter of Gladstone's demand to "sweep the Turks out of Europe," says the real question is the weight to be attached to warnings of Moslem unrest as a result of the expulsion of the Turks from their spiritual capital.

Under the caption "A Too Successful Agitation" the Morning Post expressed the opinion that agitation to this end was "ill inspired and ill considered."

Argues Move a Concession
The newspaper seeks to show the decision was merely a concession to political agitators in Hindustan who may not be temporarily modified by it. "The recent campaign in favor of the expulsion of the Turks is said by the Express to be based on a 'perverish sentiment' and the newspaper argues there is not a single advantage to be obtained in drawing the sultan away from Constantinople."

The Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias will have an entertainment at the Masonic temple on Friday night next, consisting of music, dancing, speeches and a banquet.

All members of both orders, all applicants for admission into either order, and visiting members are cordially invited to be present.—By Order of Committee.—Adv.

Discovery of Asphalt.
Asphalt, with which so many roads are paved, was found by accident. For a century in Switzerland natural rock asphalt was used to extract the rich stores of bitumen it contained. It was noticed that pieces which fell from the wagons and were crushed by the wheels formed a marvelously fine road and this led to its adoption as a road material.

WOOL CONSUMPTION HITS HIGH MARK IN DECEMBER

A total of 64,000,000 pounds of wool, the equivalent of 25,000,000 bales, was used by manufacturers in December, 1919, of 38,000,000 pounds more than in December, 1918, according to the bureau of markets' monthly report just issued by the department of agriculture.

The continued demand for garments made from the finer grades of wool is reflected by the percentage given in the report. Of the total wool consumed in December, 34 per cent was fine, 18 per cent one-half blood, 17 per cent three-eighths blood, 15 per cent one-quarter blood, 8 per cent low, and 11 per cent carpet wool.

Massachusetts continued to hold the lead in the amount consumed with 23,420,247 pounds of all grades, classes, and conditions, followed by Pennsylvania with 8,904,337 pounds; Rhode Island, 6,548,110; New Jersey, 5,012,085; and New York, 4,932,969. Connecticut, New Hampshire, Ohio, and Maine used between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 pounds, while in the Pacific coast states 325,976 pounds were used.

The total amount consumed, according to condition, were grease, 46,165,984 pounds; scoured, 7,681,848 pounds; and pulled, 1,718,627 pounds.

FAGEOL

Dominant Motor Trucks

FAGEOL TRUCKS are built to conquer transportation difficulties. They are manufactured on the Pacific Coast, where there is to be found almost every climate existing on earth, every road condition and every altitude from one hundred feet below sea level to eight thousand feet above sea level. A truck must be able to climb, with full load, a twenty-five or thirty per cent grade in torrid weather over poor roads, and a fifteen per cent grade for miles. To compensate for lowered efficiency due to high altitudes which amounts to 25 per cent at 7000 feet, it must have reserve power beyond sea level requirements. An ordinary truck can operate with fair success in a country where a five or six hundred mile journey is required to find a hill five hundred feet high. To be a success under Pacific Coast and Intermountain conditions a truck must dominate.

FEDERATION OF CENTRAL AMERICANS IS PROPOSED

Plan for Union Under One Government Nurtured by Great Party

EL PASO, Texas, (AP)—The republics of Central America have formed plans to unite themselves under one government, beginning September 15, 1921. The movement was initiated in the republic of Salvador, and has been nurtured by the great unionist party, according to the same newspaper. The chief opposition to the plan is said to come from President Estrada Cabrera, of Guatemala, who is reported to have contended that the party is composed entirely of reactionaries. A number of arrests have been made in this connection, and as a result the political situation in Guatemala is in a ferment, Excelsior says.

Cholera is Stamped Out by the Quick Application of Preventive Measures

Out of a herd of 198 high-grade swine W. O. Wann, whose place is on the edge of town, lost in the past week 52 animals from cholera. There are still symptoms of the disease in a few of the hogs, but further fatalities are not expected.

According to a report made by Veterinarian W. A. Sullivan, in charge of the state's swine protection department in this section, 23 hogs of the Wann herd were so badly afflicted when the disease was finally discovered that they died before treatment could be administered. Forty-five others, affected in a more or less minor way, were subjected to a serum-simultaneous prophylactic treatment, sixteen being saved. All of the others were isolated and are in a good state of health, Dr. Sullivan says. The preventive treatment was administered by Dr. E. H. Groome, local veterinarian, under the supervision of Dr. Sullivan. The latter reports no serious cases of hog cholera in this section.

Today's Markets

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Removal of the 500,000 bushel limit of individual trading in corn failed today to have the beneficial effect which in some quarters had been predicted. The market opened only a little easier, and then made a sharp advance, after which commission house selling broadened out somewhat and the market underwent a decided sag, but soon recovered to near yesterday's finish. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 7-8c lower, with May $1.35 5-8 to 1.34 and July $1.29 1-2 to 1.30, were followed by rapid changes, none of a lasting character.

Continued sententiousness of receipts together with simultaneous liberal buying of May and selling of July resulting later in an increase of the premium for May over July. The close was firm, at the same as yesterday's finish to 2c higher, with May $1.35 7-8 to 1.36 and July $1.30 7-8 to 1.31. Oats averaged a trifle easier with corn. After opening 8-5c off to 1-3c advance, including May at 70 3-4 to 80 1-2c, the market kept within a moderate range, reflecting the action of corn. Provisions were firm with hogs. Business, though, lacked volume. Subsequently, fair sized purchases of lard were made for packers. Additional hardening of prices ensued.

Apple Picking is Accused of "Plucking" Business Men
Through Bad Checks

Picking apples proved too slow a road to fortune and, according to Sheriff A. N. Sprague, G. W. Lewis, engaged in the quicker, though more hazardous, method of plucking business men. He is in custody at Vancouver, Washington. E. F. Redmond, deputy sheriff, has gone to bring him here for trial.

Lewis, according to Sheriff Sprague and other county authorities, came to this vicinity last fall and was employed in various laboring pursuits, chiefly picking fruit. He is said to have tired of arduous outside work and quit the country's sectors for the finer life of the city of Twin Falls. It is asserted he has a "way with women," and won the hearts of several. But there is no charge against him on that account.

One day, according to accounts, Lewis found himself in need of fancier and better apparel than he possessed, so, the complaint says, he passed a number of bad checks on various merchants for their wares.

When he was discharged, he took goods in his possession he decamped. Sheriff Sprague, following a dim trail that led to the west from Shoshone, picked up a wanted trail in western Washington and finally located him near Lacote, where Lewis was arrested.

All told, Lewis' alleged bad check operations netted him jewelry and wearing apparel valued at $375. His victims were: The Toggery-Schladler's, H. O. Willson, W. H. Eldridge, W. E. Priebe, L. Samsussen and A. Erickson. Erickson is a taxi driver and it is said he carried Lewis to Shoshone, where the taxi bill was discharged with a check for something more than the actual hauling bill. This overdue charge was paid as change by Erickson, who discovered upon return to Twin Falls that he had not only made a short trip to Shoshone but had been victimized for some ready money.

Citizens have every right to co-operate and enter any line of business they see fit with their own money, whether it is running banks, elevators, mills or packing plants, newspapers or stores.

It is only when co-operation receives itself into state ownership that legitimate business has a right to protest. State ownership isn't co-operation but conscription.

Your capital and credit are conscripted to engage in a business in which you may not care to enter, and which may even compete with your own business. Moreover, it is unfair competition, for the state enterprise is relieved of the tax burden which private business must shoulder. The private business not only pays its own taxes but also a share of the taxes the state enterprise escapes.

At the conference being held in Chicago between representatives of various farm organizations and labor bodies, some elaborate co-operative plans are being advanced. Chains of co-operative stores are being advocated. The idea is not new. The co-operative store plan has been tried literally hundreds of times. The history of the movement is filled with some conspicuous successes and some conspicuous failures. Co-operative ventures like any other business, are successful in direct proportion to the intelligence of their management.

Our present plan of distribution is the result of centuries of experimenting. Doubtless it has its faults and its useless appendages, but in all lines of merchandising, the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the retailer are essential. You may call them by some other name but you must have some organization fulfilling their purposes. The chain of the retail co-operative stores immediately finds it necessary to add "a central purchasing and distributing" house. That is a wholesale house under another name. Its employees must be paid and it must show a profit on the capital invested. The mere name "co-operative" doesn't give it some mysterious advantage.

Co-operation isn't a magic wand which will solve all problems of distribution. Conservatively and efficiently managed, co-operative enterprises may either prove profitable as privately owned enterprises are profitable, or they may "break even" and return their profits in the form of reduced prices to their patrons.

And if legitimate business cannot survive the competition of genuine co-operation then it has no right to survive. But legitimate business always has survived co-operative movements, while the percentage of successful co-operative ventures is small for the one very potent reason that the element of personal interest in the success of the venture is not concentrated in one managing head, but is diluted through a large membership.

LANK HANK GOWDY HANKERS FOR N.Y. SO REPORTS AVER

Braves' Premier Catcher Longs for Pastures New Gotham's Bright Lights Lure

It used to be the hicks who longed to see New York. Now, it would seem it is the ball players.

One of the latest big league stars to express a longing for the big town is Hank Gowdy. Hank has announced that he is dissatisfied in Boston—a salary cut having something to do with the feeling—and that he wants to play with the Giants.

Word from Gowdy's home town has it that Grant did not Hank's pay for the coming campaign. Last year, when Gowdy returned from the war, Grant treated him royally in the matter of salary, to show his appreciation, and that of the U. S. in general, for Hank's patriotic move in enlisting. He was the first big league player to enlist.

because of this and the popularity he gained in the winter of 1914 and his own personality, Hank was expected to be a mighty big drawing card. But Hank was one of the last players to return. The edge was left the country's reception to its heroes. Hank didn't hit his old-time form. The Braves were in a rut. Consequently, Grant realized Hank on the big catcher, and the result doesn't feel like anything last year's figure, naturally.

Hank has been with the Braves since July 23, 1911. He was born in Columbus, Ga. in 1882. He started with the Leinster club in 1908. Dallas in the Texas league obtained him in 1910. The Giants grabbed him in 1911, and traded him to the Braves with Reidwell for Charley Hester. In 1918 he was farmed out under option to Buffalo in the International and spent the next season there.

Some News Learn That Young Mrs. Tomkins says that if experience were as good a teacher as advertised, Chirney would by this time have learned something about which horse to bet on.

FEATHERS (Continued) NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The New York Americans last night announced the release of their pitcher, J. Carlisle Smith to the Washington American league club. Outfielder Albert Whitland to the Toledo club of the American association, and Outfielder George Elias to the St. Paul club, also of the American association.

an a friendly natural tobacco. Keep yo' put-on-airs an' "sauce-up" tobaccos for the fellow that likes nut sundaes better than home made pie—

So says a friend of ours named Velvet Joe. And he just about hits the nail on the head.

Velvet is made for men who think there's no smoke like real tobacco. If you are that sort of man, listen:

Velvet was born in old Kentucky, where more than one good thing comes from. It was raised as carefully as any other Kentucky thoroughbred. But the real secret of Velvet's friendly qualities is its slow natural ageing in wooden hogsheads. Ageing in the wood never hurt anything—and least of all, tobacco.

And so we say, Velvet is good tobacco—nothing more or less. It runs second to none.

The picture of the pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

Curator canvasses of the baseball situation reveals no sufficient interest in the game to warrant optimism that Twin Falls will have a club in any old kind of a league.

A western sports editor thus heads a sports squib about John McCuskey: 'McCuskey League the Cardinals.'

Quite correct, old chap, but John has served in many leagues and climates since that time.

What the squib really intimated was that John, formerly manager of the Cardinals, had signed to manage the Memphis club.

STROBER FLOPS TURK PITTSBURGH, Pa., (P)—Joe Stecher, world's catch-as-catch-can wrestling champion, threw Yusuf Hussano of Detroit in 56 minutes here tonight with a double wrist lock. Hussano was tangled in a body scissor. Stecher tried frequently to apply his own body scissor, but found Hussano had perfected a good defense against it. Hussano protested the referee's decision, but ringholders held that the verdict of the referee, William Pol, a local sporting editor, was correct.

FAVORS BOXING ALBANY, (P)—The Walker boxing bill, designed to permit 16 rounds in New York state, will be reported favorably by the senate judiciary committee, Senator J. J. Walker announced yesterday. Governor Walker amended the bill by increasing from seventeen to eighteen years the age at which boys can engage in public exhibitions and permitting exhibitions in state armories.

SEATTLE (Special)—Last winter the Seattle baseball club was made up one month's time from what ball players in the city of Olympia could gather on short notice.

Major league baseball managers know Olymer but they did not know the basis of the Seattle club—that was one of the reasons why Seattle was unable to get ball-players. In baseball, a club's reputation goes far with the major league managers.

The situation is decidedly different this year. The Seattle club, on a solid basis, has been established. The major clubs are concerned, has gone into the market and made its purchases. Today the Seattle club looks like a first class ball team.

The directors have brought along with them the experience and by Manager Wares' friendships among major league managers, who are willing to risk development of young ball players to him, something many of them would not do to Bill Olymer.

Seattle will go into the field with one of the hardest hitting lineups, an outfield that can not only run, but field and hit, and it will have a pitching staff that should be able to win with the run. It will be gotten for it. It is hardly likely that Secretary Brewster and Manager Wares left Chicago without the promise of some ball players from the major league spring training camps, and the present list falls down next April.

As now arranged, the club consists of the following experienced players: Pitchers—Tub Spencer and Denny Roberts.

Pitchers—Harry Gardner, Lynn Bradley, Paul Musser, Al Demarco and Ernie Schorr. (It is understood the sale of Musser to Seattle was cancelled by St. Louis.)

Infielders—Ray Bates, Kopecks Kenworthy, Sammy Bohne, Red Murphy, Bruce Hartford, Win French and Manager Wares.

Outfielders—Merlin Kopp, Harry Weller, Bill Cunningham and Manuel Gueto.

Seattle Has Good Hitters For a club that started with nothing and has been built up in one year, the foregoing lineup looks pretty formidable.

Of 300 hitters the club has Tub Spencer and Harry Weller. Of better than 275 hitters there are Bates, Murphy, Bohne, Cunningham and Hartford.

Of less than 275 hitters, but with a likelihood of hitting much better next year, are Kenworthy, Kopp and Gueto. Kenworthy will lead and always has been a 300 hitter or in proximity to that figure, and none of the oldtimers in the league will believe that he cannot get into the hit strag.

About the only hitters expected to fall below the 250 mark are Manager Wares himself, Rohrer, French and some of the pitchers.

If the catch is up to what it should do in a hitting way, the life of a pitcher in the Pacific Coast league will be made miserable next summer.

Last season the Rainiers lacked ability to hit the ball, other than Seattle's team. It begins to look now as if Wares' worries will not be over his hitting strength, but over his pitchers' ability.

Harry Gardner has written in to the effect that he has entirely recovered from his attack of malaria fever, and that he is better than a winner. Al Demarco should go like an Otis Crandall or an Art Egan in this league.

Bill Rose, the Seattle pitcher who worked in the Western league with Paul Musser last year, is said to be a greatly improved pitcher and that nothing is going to keep him from winning in the Coast League.

The three are well known to Seattle fans. Improvement is looked for in the case of Schorr. Brenton will probably be about the same kind of a pitcher he was last season.

Some one of the youngsters may do well, but it looks as if the club should have another good pitcher, right or left handed, to make sure of a place in the first division.

LOS ANGELES, (P)—The Los Angeles baseball club, which was left here last night for San Francisco on the way to Atlanta, Ga., where the national baseball championships will be held March 10, 11, 12 and 13. On the way to Atlanta, the club was to be played at San Francisco, Oakland, Reno, St. Joseph, Mo., and Kansas City, Mo.

TO TACKLE BIG MAN YOUNGSTOWN, O., (P)—Joe Stecher, world's catch-as-catch-can wrestling champ, and Ivan Leno, the Russian, will meet here tonight with the championship at stake. Leno weighed 240 pounds and Stecher weighed 240 pounds.

SALE OF FURTHER STOCK ORDERED TO BUILD UP DEHYDRATING PLANT

Shares Amounting to $32,200. Bringing Sales to Full Capitalization of $75,000, to Be Disposed of for Purpose of Establishing Commercial Institution on Solid Operating Basis

Stock to the amount of $32,200 in the Twin Falls Dehydrating company is to be sold immediately. Of this amount $10,000 is to be subscribed by present stockholders as an evidence of good faith in this institution. The remainder will be taken by whosoever will invest.

Sale of the $32,200 will bring the amount of stock in the hands of investors to $75,000, the total of the company's capitalization. The institution was started on sold stock amounting to $42,800.

This plan was agreed to at a stockholders' meeting held last night, when a new board of directors was named for the company. This afternoon this board meets to organize for the coming year. Of the $10,000 stock required to be taken by old subscribers $5,000 was pledged last night. The entire amount will be held in escrow pending the sale of the remainder of the $32,200.

A general report of plant operations submitted to the stockholders at the general reorganization meeting showed $31,000 value of finished goods produced during the past year. The institution is first, and of this total amount there remain in the factory goods valued at $16,000. It is the purpose of the company to immediately start an advertising campaign and dispose of the products to dealers, thus bringing back to the company the amount of cash tied up in stock. In addition a sales force is to be employed to dispose of next year's output on contract basis, to arrange for deliveries of raw materials at the factory on producers' contracts during the 1920 season.

It is understood that there will be a good working cash balance left from the sale of 1919 finished products and the remaining stock to put the institution on a satisfactory financial and operating basis after all outstanding indebtedness incurred in the past season is liquidated.

The new board of directors is composed of: W. F. Alworth, J. E. White, O. J. Hahn, W. S. Decker, W. W. Parish, O. E. Eldred, W. B. ...

Sale of the Vincent Furniture company business to R. N. Snedden of Montpelier, Idaho, and L. M. Baggs, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, was announced yesterday. Transfer will be made so that the new owners can take possession March 1.

Vincent, who has conducted this enterprise since purchasing from E. O. Lovering about three years ago. Such advantages as are warranted by the business will be made from time to time, always with a view to the best of service, Mr. Baggs says.
