RESERVATION IS GIVEN VIRTUALLY UNANIMOUS VOTE

Senate Re-adopts Republican Peace Treaty Qualification Relating to American Acceptance of Mandate

HITCHCOCK ANNOUNCES ADMINISTRATION VIEW

Democratic Leaders Acquiesce for First Time in Endorsement of Any Lodge Program Provision

WASHINGTON, (AP)—By virtually unanimous vote the senate today rejected the republican peace treaty reservation relating to mandates, after Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the democratic leader, had announced on the floor that the administration forces would not oppose it.

The reservation, under which no mandate could be accepted by this country without action of the senate, was proposed on the democratic side, Senator Hitchcock said, because it "merely recites the clear meaning of the treaty." It is the first time that a reservation had been adopted with acquiescence of the democratic leaders.

The vote was 68 to 4. Senator Jones of New Mexico; Kendrick of Wyoming; Walsh of Montana and Williams of Mississippi, all democrats, voting against the reservation.

WOMEN FIGURE IN CONVENTION

New York Bourbon Leaders Have Experience in Dealing with New Factions

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—Democrats of New York state held an unofficial convention today to select delegates to a national conference on prohibition. A plank providing for reconsideration of the legislature's action in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment and for submission of the question to the voters was considered by the committee on resolutions.

Disputes Delay Opening

Dispute over the personal of the "big four" delegation to the national convention at Albany, N. Y., and over certain planks in the party platform delayed the opening of the convention.

The conference room was crowded with women, each of them advising the candidacy of her favorites for "big four" honors. The leaders, accustomed to dealing with men in politics, were given a new experience in endeavoring to please the various factions of the women.

The slate for the "big four" which was said to have received the final endorsement of the party leaders, this morning included Miss Elizabeth Marbury of New York; Miss Harriet May Mills, of Syracuse, and Louis J. Desbecker, of Buffalo.

Separate Women

State Chairman W. W. Farley, before calling the unofficial state convention to order, requested the women delegates to meet separately. It was believed, to give the women a chance to decide upon their delegates at large, the vote of the women's committee yesterday evening protested by the New York members.

Platform Provisions

The platform submitted demanded immediate ratification of the peace treaty without a reservation. It was to be an executive session and the action that would reduce tax burdens; commended administration of Governor Smith; opposed national prohibition and declared for the speedy repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

What Record Keynote

Francis E. Cullen of Oswego was selected as temporary and permanent chairman. Cullen greeted Mr. Farley as his keynote address:

"The democratic party has successfully guided the nation in the greatest war the world has ever known. It has not but give credit to the ruling hand at the White House, the statesman who guided the country not only during the war but also in the reconstruction period."

Peace Pact Comes Back to the Floor of Senate to Be Given Right of Way Until Disposed of Ultimately

FINAL VOTE PREDICTED WITHIN THREE WEEKS

Majority and Minority Join in a Move Against Demand of Irreconcilables for Lengthy Discussion; Result in Doubt

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The peace treaty came back to the floor of the senate today to be given the right of way until disposed of.

Cited for Strategic

Frankly declaring that nobody could tell what would happen, republican and democratic leaders went back into the fight prepared to use every parliamentary weapon to strengthen their sides.

Loose Denunciation

Another broadside of denunciation was loosed by irreconcilable opponents when debate began.

Senator France, republican, Maryland and Reed, democrat, Missouri, led off for the irreconcilables, the former characterizing the treaty as an instrument of "hate and destruction" and the latter calling it a "serpent of treason."

Senator France, protesting "normally" the resolution offered several days ago for a declaration of peace, declared the reservation measure had descended to "sophistry" and "mere quibbling over language." Neither the republican nor democratic reservations proposed, he said, would materially modify the league article.

The France resolution also provides for an international conference to consider a concert for peace, but provides that this authorization shall be ineffective if a president pledged for the

FARMERS' COUNCIL JOINS BROTHERHOODS IN PLEAS FOR VETO OF RAIL BILL

Memorial to President Received by Tumulty Sets-Forth Argument for Defeat of Compromise Legislation; Takes Exception to Guaranteed Right to Charge Certain Rate and Vigorously Opposes Provision for Tribunal in Labor Disputes

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Representatives of the railroad brotherhoods called at the White House today to present a memorial to President Wilson urging that he veto the compromise railroad bill. They were joined by representatives of the Farmers' National Council who supplemented a previous request for veto with written argument.

The victors did not see the president but were received by Secretary Tumulty, who promised to lay the memorial and all other documents before the executive.

Argues For Veto

The brotherhood memorial set forth "the reasons why the more than 2,500,000 railroad employees believe the president should veto the railroad bill and return it to congress."

The memorial said the bill violated the fundamental principles of the American government by guaranteeing to the owners of railroad securities a right to charge rates that would reduce a minimum net return of five and one half per cent on "that uncertain and intangible" investment.

"This is a grant of a 'particular' exclusive and special privilege" not enjoyed by investors in other kinds of securities, the memorial said.

The memorial also expressed opposition to the provision of the bill and being a tribunal for settlement of labor disputes, the memorial saying this was an attempt to deprive citizens of their property without compensation.

Operation of the measure, it was said, would mean an increase in the cost of settling the present wage demands, because the unions would have to present their demands anew to each of the 2,000 privately owned railroads.

"The bill set forth that the 'iniquities, uncertainties, delays and ambiguities' of the bill would promote unrest and intensify existing causes of discontent among the people."

States Organization's Objections

George P. Hampton, managing director of the farmers' national council, presented an argument for the organization. He said the bill contained "vicious provisions, antagonistic to American principles."

Permitting the roads would increase the return on false capitalization," he declared. The instructions to the interstate commerce commission to fix rates to yield a net income of 5 to 6 per cent, he said, gives carriers a "good basis for demanding very high rates, since the actual effect of increasing rates in reducing the volume of traffic cannot be forecast."

Other objections outlined were that the rights granted the railroads under the bill created for them a new property right estimated at $100,000,000,000 in extreme waste and inefficiency, entailing a cost to the people of nearly $2,000,000,000 a day.

"The bill if enacted would check progress of the country against agriculture and all other legitimate industry in America."

H. L. Bissonette, president of the Iowa state branch of the American society of equity, accompanied Mr. Hampton.

"Farmers have to take risks of their crop failing every year in order to feed the nation," he said. "The outstanding debt against farm values is between six and seven billion dollars and the average rate of interest is eight per cent. The government does not guarantee interest charges of about $500,000,000 a year to farmers. Why should the government underwrite the whole investment of the railroads?"

BITTER CLASH COMES IN TRIAL OF SOCIALISTS

Counsel for Suspended New York Assemblymen Claims Misrepresentation in Presentation of Report on Russia

SAYS FOE TO MARXISMS DISCOURSE SUBSTITUTED

Demand for Courtesy Due from One American to Another is Made in Resultant Interchange of Compliments

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—The sharpest clash between opposing counsel which yet has taken place in a trial before a senate judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty occurred at the opening of testimony in Albany when Assemblyman Louis Waldman, defendant, was called for cross-examination.

Morris Hillquit and Seymour Steinhilber of defense counsel claimed that Martin Conboy, conducting the cross-examination, had conveyed the impression that he was reading from a report on conditions in Russia by James O'Neil, associate editor of the New York Call, whereas he was in fact reading from an article concerning the alleged report, written for the New York Times by William English Walling, who the defense claims, was an acknowledged foe of the socialist movement.

The socialists claim no such report was made by O'Neil and that it was not considered at the Chicago convention last year.

Springs to Colleague's Defense

Judge Arthur S.utherland sprang up when the defense counsel although he declared Mr. Conboy needed no defense and that the matter was plain to anyone who wished to see it in its true light.

When Mr. Steinhilber interrupted him, Judge Sutherland declared that he "knew still for a moment" and that he desired "only the courtesy" of an American about "extra-territorial" in the United States was questioned yesterday about his attendance at a meeting of the Russian socialist federation at Detroit last year and about messages exchanged with the federation.

It was the activity of this and other Russian organizations in the United States which led the department of justice to make recently the greatest radical raid ever undertaken here.

Martens admitted attending the meeting and identified the following telegram to the conference:

"Comrades, I greet you and wish you success in your efforts in the name of the Russian federated socialist republic of workers and peasants."

Martens concluded that this meant he "wished for success of communism in the United States."

SYNDICALISM THREATENS IN FRENCH RAIL STRIKE

Authorities View Movement as Revolutionary Instead of Professional

PARIS, (AP)—Syndicalism threatens to appear in the French railway strike situation, which is grave today. Demands that all railroads be nationalized are being made by strike leaders, who contend that the railway workers in the country to strike, which began with the walkout of employes of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean system, in the province authorities view the movement as revolutionary instead of professional, according to the Echo de Paris.

Arrangements to ensure the delivery of food supplies to the city have been made by the government and municipal officials have taken similar steps.

Military measures to deal with the railway strike on the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean railroads, which has broken in the strike is imminent, but official announcement was made last night that laborers would be imported to carry on certain operations if the men refuse to return to their posts.

INABILITY OF PRESIDENT THEME FOR HOUSE COMMITTEE HEARINGS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—What constitutes "inability" of a president of the United States to perform the duties of his office and how this question may be determined was discussed today by the only witness called to testify naturally in harmony and sympathy with a president, would not be held to be a violation with his rights.

"Why does your bill set March 4 as the date it is to take effect?" asked Oklahoma.

"Simply to take the president out of the discussion," Mr. Madden replied.

ANNOUNCES CUT IN LUMBER COST

Weyerhaeuser Agent Says Drastic Action is Taken to Stabilize Market

SPOKANE, Wash., (P)—As a measure looking toward stabilization of the lumber market, price reductions which it was declared would amount to ten to thirty per cent under present prices were announced here today by the Weyerhaeuser company, distributing agency for eleven lumber mills controlled by the Weyerhaeuser interests. The reduced prices, it was declared, would remain effective at least until June 1.

An announcement of the reduction of prices to the January level, effective immediately, declared that the demand for lumber exceeds the supply, and shortage and other transportation difficulties have restricted deliveries, price advances have been frequent and regular, and buyers have bidden against each other until the demoralized condition of the lumber market threatens to discourage all construction.

Lumber prices are $5 to $25 per thousand above the January prices and further advances are in prospect, it is declared. The output of the company's mills, which will be run on full capacity, will be turned to the retailer and the consumer, with the elimination of the speculator to the fullest extent possible, it is stated.

Six of the mills controlled by the company are located in Idaho, two in Washington and three at Clifton, Minn.

Foreign Exchange Situation Falls to Affect Continuance of Heavy Export

Both exports and imports showed an advance, the value of goods sent out of the country being $474,000,000 and that of those received $446,300,000.

The exports compared with $682,000,000 in December and $623,000,000 in January a year ago. Imports compared with $381,000,000 in December and $313,000,000 in January, 1919.

For the seven months of the fiscal year beginning July 1 exports totaled $2,644,000,000 and imports $2,769,000,000, showing a net gain of $185,000,000. The trade balance for the corresponding seven months of the year before was $2,099,000,000.

INTERNATIONAL ROMANCE LEADS TO REVELATIONS

Y. M. O. A. Secretary Figures in Another Triangular Affair Growing Out of War

KANABAS CITY, (P)—An international romance coupled with an American domestic drama were revealed yesterday in proceedings brought before the Kanab City court by the authorities to deport Miss Madeline Bablin, daughter of a Paris merchant. Other principals in the triangle are Leo Shipley, poet, author, editor and Chautauqua lecturer, and Mark Mary Woodson Shipley, his wife, a magazine writer.

Shipley went to France as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, where according to evidence he fell in love with the French girl. Last November Miss Bablin arrived here and explained that she was to become a nun. Shipley asked his wife to obtain a divorce in order that she might give the child a legitimate name. Mrs. Shipley refused, but offered to care for the child as her own. Mrs. Shipley would not agree and left for Kanab City at liberty here.

MOSELE ENTERS GERMAN CABINET

Succeeds Mathias Erzberger who Resigns as Minister of Finance

BERLIN, (P)—Under-Secretary of State Mosele has been selected to succeed Mathias Erzberger, who resigned Tuesday as minister of finance. Mosele was appointed a deputy to Erzberger on January 27.

The retirement of Erzberger from the cabinet is only temporary, declares the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung.

Newspapers whose sympathies are with the elements of the Right say his retirement is the first step in his fall.

Mathias Erzberger, in tendering his resignation as minister of finance, based his action, it is said, upon a desire to have the investigation of his allegedly falsified tax returns proceed without prejudice or consideration for his official position. The minister's retirement and his alleged motive were completely eclipsed by the character of evidence which Dr. Karl Helfferich, former vice chancellor, succeeded in piling up against Erzberger during the last two days of the latter's libel suit against him.

Twenty years ago a rural schoolmaster and since 1905 a storm petrel of German parliamentary life, Herr Erzberger has for 15 months been the most conspicuous figure in Germany's post-revolutionary era.

WOMAN EDUCATOR KILLED BY UNKNOWN ASSAILANT

Body of Owner of School for Girls in South Pasadena is Discovered by Agent

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (P)—Miss Florence Housel, 59, owner of the Huntington Hall school for girls in South Pasadena, was shot here, was killed in her room last night by an unknown assailant, who then piled excelsior in the kitchen and set fire to the building. The fire was discovered by Miss Housel's father, aged 80, who extinguished the flames.

The father then attempted to call Miss Housel, but repeated rappings brought no response and when her room door was forced she was found dead.

Examination showed that the slayer had entered the house through a grand window by forcing the locks.

The body of W. M. Bowen, husband of the school housekeeper, was found later in a school room with a bullet through the heart. Mrs. Bowen said she and her husband had been separated and that he had threatened her.

USE FARM BUILDINGS FOR STORING PRODUCE

Agriculture Department Urges Adaptation of Spaces for Canning Food Products

Farm buildings usually offer ample space for the storage of food products raised on the farm. The cellar of the house should hold a winter's supply of potatoes, legume carrots, onions and canned fruits and vegetables, as well as such articles as a barrel of salt pork, keg of kumut, and jars of eggs in water glass, says the United States department of agriculture. The thrifty farmer faces the winter season with a well-stocked cellar and with a store of dried fruit and vegetables and possibly some jars of apple butter in his attic.

Specially constructed root cellars or "caves" may be found on some farms. Potatoes and other vegetables are sometimes carried over the winter in earth pits or "tumps." The barn may also serve as a storage place for vegetables.

CHICAGO, (P)—Everett's no limit is to be enforced against the amount which any individual interest may buy or sell future deliveries in the corn market in Chicago or at other leading markets. ASQUITH WINS BRITISH VOTE

Former Premier is Elected to Parliament from Paisley Constituency

LONDON, (AP)—Former Premier Herbert H. Asquith was elected to parliament from the Paisley constituency in the recent by-election. Announcement of the result was made by the secretary, Mr. Asquith, the Liberal nominee, polled 14,786 votes against 11,902 for J. M. Biggar, the labor candidate, and 3,775 for J. A. D. MacKean, Conservative.

Women played a prominent part in the campaign, the most prominent being his daughter, Lady Bona. She, who took up the cudgels in behalf of her father, and made many striking speeches.

Mr. Asquith early in the canvass issued a message to all Liberals in which he said: "Do not let your liberalism be either watered with Toryism or fortified by labor." He advocated full and free commercial, financial and industrial intercourse, to be reopened without delay and declared his belief that the Baltic states, with Poland, should be admitted to make peace on reasonable and advantageous terms with Russia. The latter, he thought, should do the same thing for Russia, he concluded, "which ought to appear to our consciences as well as our judgment."

Announcement of the result met with a mixed reception from a crowd of 10,000 persons assembled about the county building at Paisley; there being both cheering and hooting. Mr. Asquith appeared on a balcony of the building but did not attempt to speak because of the great din. When he left he was pelted with mud and an attempt was made to halt his motor car with a rope. Ultimately he burst through the obstruction amid a babel of cheers and hisses.

NOGALES HAS LURE FOR CITIZENRY WITH THIRST

Street Marking Border Line Has Only to Be Crossed to Secure Drink

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP)—Bootleggers have little patience in this border town. A Nogaless resident who developed a thirst, having permission of the federal authorities to cross the border, merely steps across the street, enters a grating door and purchases his liquor. It is as simple as going down to the corner saloon in the old days.

If he names whiskey, he does not get it. Barchegone in Nogales, Sonora, just across a narrow street from Nogales, Arizona, are not allowed to sell whiskey, for Sonora is partly dry. But he can get beer, wine and tequila, and many other American liquors, such as whiskey, is now on terms of intimacy with the fiery liquor of Mexico.

Some of the bars on the Mexican side are elaborately equipped and operate handsome dining rooms in conjunction. Americans who like beer with their luncheon or wine with their dinners cross the border at mealtime. Many Americans, unable to secure liquor in Nogales, Sonora, but must carry it, invade of him when he returns to Arizona. Federal inspectors scrutinize the gate in the high wire fence in the international street.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C. (AP)—Elimination of all fish hatcheries maintained by the dominion department of fisheries will be urged at Ottawa in a resolution passed recently by the British Columbia Fishermen's Protective Association at a meeting here.

Hatcheries tend to make the fish smaller in size, it was contended. Furthermore, it was said, fish would be more plentiful if the spawning streams were cleared and free access to them given the salmon each year. Fishermen who had observed hatcheries declared these fish, as they were washed ashore and became prey of gulls.

Whiskey Was Cheap Eighty Years Ago

AMARILLO, Texas. (AP)—A storekeeper's ledger, dating back to 1840, is in the possession of H. M. Osborne, of Amarillo, showing the prices that obtained in Westburg, Miss., at that time. An entry shows that five quarts of whiskey were sold at that time for 70 cents—and the purchaser was given credit on the deal; 25c.

SMOKE SCREENS SECRET DEFINITELY DISCLOSED

Explanation Given for Factor in Success of British Navy in Orford and Zebrugga

LONDON, (AP)—The secret of the smoke screens used with such great success by the British navy in the raids on Orford and Zebrugga is definitely disclosed. They were produced from an acid, which has to be burned in the presence of a sufficient amount of water vapor, otherwise the smoke produced, even over the sea, is liable to be somewhat thin on a dry day.

Commander Brock, who sacrificed his life in the assault on the German defenses at the Belgian ports devised the plan to feed the acid in a fine spray into the funnels of a destroyer, where the temperature was sufficient to vaporize the acid, and the water vapor present completed the formation of the cloud.

Clidney Lyle, the piano tuner, is at the Perrine hotel today.—Adv.

LEGION WILL ADMIT WOMEN

Many Female Servants in the World War Have Rights in Vet Organization

Franklin D'Oiler, national commander of the American Legion, has issued the following statement with regard to women eligible to membership in the American Legion:

"All women nurses who served in the nursing corps of the United States Army or navy are eligible to membership in the American Legion. The American Red Cross, before and during the war recruited thousands of trained nurses, most of whom were later enlisted in the nursing corps of the army or navy, upon request made to the Red Cross nursing service. There were, however, many who went abroad under the direction and on the pay of the American Red Cross, who are not eligible to membership.

"All female members of the navy and marine corps who were regularly enlisted upon the same terms as the men in those branches of the service are eligible to membership in the Legion. "Citizens who were simply civilian attaches of the military service and were not regularly enlisted personnel under commission or enlistment contracts are not eligible to membership. "The above applies to regular membership in the American Legion and should not be confused with the women's auxiliary of the American Legion, which was provided for in the constitution adopted at the Minneapolis convention and which makes provision for membership therein as follows: "Membership in the auxiliary shall be limited to the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of the members of the American Legion, and to the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of all men and women who were in the military or naval service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and died in the line of duty or after honorable discharge and prior to November 11, 1920."

EXCEPTIONS TO EIGHT HOUR DAY

MADRID, (AP)—By royal decree the Spanish government has excepted from the eight hour day law certain callings. Among those who are now permitted to work longer than the legal hour are domestic servants, waiters and other hotel employes who live on the premises, and druggists.

A "sassy-looking" man may be an excellent man of fine standing among those who really know him—but the appearances count for much—in dress and in PRINTING. A poor piece of printing has little value at all its own. It knocks, silently, condemnations.

CATCHES OLDEST OF WOMEN AFTER 90 YEARS ABSENCE

DALLAS, Texas. (AP)—After 90 years' separation, Mrs. L. R. Dawson of Dallas saw her son in a crowd on downtown street here just as he boarded a street car. She called, but rumbling traffic drowned out her voice, and now she has asked the police to help her locate him. He left home when 10 years old, and his mother had never heard from him since.

URGES RAISE IN TEACHERS' PAY

Topoka Carpenters' Union Acts in Behalf of University Instructors

TOPEKA, Kan., (AP)—A plea for an increase in the salaries of the professors of the University of Kansas, issued by the local carpenters' union at Lawrence, is included in a letter addressed by the union to the state board of administration. At the same time, the union asks that the state board increase the wages paid carpenters at the university from 52 cents to 75 cents an hour—the local scale.

A unique situation is brought up by the Lawrence union in that it threatens to take before the new industrial relations court its petition to compel the state board of administration to pay higher wages to the university carpenters. If such a move were made it would be the first instance before the court of employees of the state seeking to obtain higher wages from the state through the state court.

The letter was signed by F. J. Dunham, secretary of the union. The carpenters employed at the university are "full-time" workers. The 75 cent rate sought is said to be considerably more than is received by many of the instructors at the university.

CONGRESS WOULD HASTEN VETERANS RELIEF BILLS

House Republicans and Democrats Vie with One Another in Seeking to Expedite Measures

WASHINGTON, (AP)—House republicans and democrats vie with each other today in seeking to expedite additional legislation benefiting the world war veterans, the republican program centralizing all bills of that nature with the ways and means committee finally being adopted. The democrats urged creation of a special committee and declared republican leaders planned to send the legislation to a graveyard. They were answered by the statement that the majority plan was acceptable to the American legion officers.

The little girl was anxious to do her sister credit, but after sampling a piece of cake which she had taken upon her plate was unable to eat it because she did not like it. Paderevski Through with Politics and Concert Platforms

Former Polish Premier Hopes to Devote Rest of Life to Composing Music

LONDON, (AP)—Ignace Jan Paderevski, former Polish premier, will never again appear on the concert platform, nor is he likely to re-enter politics, according to the Vevey, Switzerland, correspondent of the Daily Mail. During an interview with M. Paderevski, the correspondent asked him if it were true he would accept the nomination as president of Poland.

"I don't think I shall be invited to become president," he the great pianist replied. "I hope to devote the rest of my life to composing music. I am convinced an era of peace and prosperity for Poland is begun and feel my political mission is finished."

GENEVA (Hayas (AP)—Ignace Jan Paderevski, former Polish premier, who arrived recently in Switzerland, has gone to London for the purpose of laying before the supreme allied council Polish views concerning peace negotiations with the Russian soviet government.

LONDON HOTEL KEEPERS GIVE TOURISTS WARNING

Advise Americans to Be Assurance of Accommodations Before Sailing

LONDON, (AP)—Americans who contemplate coming to England this spring of summer, and Londoners expect there will be thousands of them, should be definitely assured before leaving that hotel accommodations have been arranged, say the hotel managers. Otherwise it is probable they may be unable to find a place to stay particularly in London.

It will be difficult for London to handle a great influx of people this summer, say the managers, and they expect many disappointments among Americans who even attempt to arrange accommodations some time ahead of arrival. The better hotels of the city can not find room for more than 4000 at one time, they are full now and many people have engaged rooms months ahead.

Some Englishmen who have just returned from the United States estimate that 1,000,000 Americans will attempt to see England en route to the battlefields of France this summer. More conservative observers, however, place the number far below that.

Today's Markets

NEW YORK, (AP)—The stock market reversed its recent course today, making many material gains. Short covering was a pronounced factor in the rally which ranged from 2 to 12 points. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares. Resumption of the recent demand for rails, especially low priced issues at gains of 1 to 4 points calmed the financial markets, but also improving. The closing was strong.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Prices of Liberty bonds at 2:55 p. m. today were: 3 1/2's $94.25; first 4's $90.50; second 4's $89.70; first 4 1/4's $92.40; fourth 4 1/4's $90.25; Victory 3 5/8's $97.50; Victory 4 3/4's $97.50.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Although lightness of receipts brought about some display of strength in the corn market today, prices soon underwent a sag. The bears put emphasis chiefly on difficulties of the financial situation. Besides, trade was light, and commission houses were inclined to sell on bulges. Opening quotations, which varied from 1 1/4 lower to 7 1/2 advance, with May $1.35 5/8 to 1.35 1/8 and July $1.30 3/4 to 1.31 1/4, were followed by moderate general gains and then by a setback almost equal to the general upward swing.

Subsequently, reports of serious damage to the wheat crop in Kansas led to a sharp advance in the corn market, and so, too, did wheat export purchases at the Gulf of Mexico by the British government. The close was firm, 5/8 to 2c net higher, with May $1.37 1/2 to 1.37 5/8 and July $1.31 5/8 to 1.31 3/4.

Data duplicated the action of corn. After opening a shade off to 1-8c advance, including May at 80 1/4 to 80 1/2, the market hardened a little, and then declined.

Provisions were dull and weak, influenced by reports of decreases in employment at the packing houses. High quotations on hogs were ignored.

Theatres

Earl Williams, Viagraph star, surprised many of his professional friends recently on the occasion of his appearance in the role of a rough, un-south character. Mr. Williams previously has been regarded as distinctly a drawing-room gentleman type, though at times he has had more vigorous roles. In "The Wolf", his latest picture, which will be shown at the Gem theatre today, Mr. Williams is cast as Jules Beaudin, a rugged French-Canadian trapper. He plays the part with a realism and fidelity to the type that is said to have amazed the film authorities.

Theda Bara has achieved a strange and wonderful feat: She has stepped out of herself and stood face to face with her other self. In "La Belle Russe", the William Fox photoplay which will open today at the Idaho theatre, Theda Bara No. I may be seen talking to Theda Bara No. II. The great star plays a dual role in this thrilling picture. "La Belle Russe" is a film version of the great Dostoevsky play. She is seen as a beautiful ballerina who, driven to poverty by her husband's recklessness, also plays the part of the "La Belle Russe" and a magnificent but utterly wicked woman. In one starting scene the poor ballerina and her selfish sister confront each other.

NINE BARRELS CASUALTIES IN BOOZE REVOLT

Armed Forces Federal Agents Under Dalrymple Withdraw While Revolt in Michigan Flickers Out

IRON RIVER, Mich., (AP)—The armed forces of federal agents under command of Major A. V. Dalrymple, who came here from Chicago to put down a "booze rebellion" in the upper Michigan peninsula, and the "revolt" itself has flickered out. The only casualties were nine barrels of home-made wine taken by revenue agents from a parish priest's house, the state had stored it for safe keeping, and poured into the snow.

Abandons Arrests Program

Major Dalrymple's announced intention to arrest Ely and Iron River officials as parties to the "rebellion" was abandoned under orders from O. F. Kramer, national prohibition commissioner, directing withdrawal of the "invaders."

H. B. Gaylord, assistant chief of prohibition enforcement, was on route from Washington to Iron River to make an investigation, directed by telegrams from McDonough, who insisted that there was no "revolt," and charged that his constituency had been libeled by Dalrymple's reports.

McDonough and Dalrymple held a conference in a lobby of a hotel here yesterday. Mutual accusations of "grandstanding" and "publicity seeking" were made, and McDonough threatened to arrest the major and put him in jail if he made a move to "start something." The conference was carried on in anger, but at its conclusion McDonough and Dalrymple posed, side by side, for the cameras men.

Later the federal agents boarded a train for Chicago, and the state constabulary, detached to assist the revenue men, were sent on their duties.

To Report to Washington

Major Dalrymple announced he would go to Washington to "lay all the facts before Commissioner Kramer."

Law of support from Washington, Major Dalrymple said, had been the failure of the "expedition," but he declared he would not quit his office unless Commissioner Kramer requested it. A large portion of the population of Iron County is foreign-born and these, the state's attorney explained, have been accustomed to make their own wines. When exaggerated reports were sent about a "federal invasion," a number of the natives brewed their wine. They declared they were going home to dig it up today.

The dialogue between McDonough and Dalrymple, which was their only conference, took place in the big room of the hotel which served as its lobby. In the room were crowded a hundred or more citizens and several members of the federal agent's party.

Wants Dalrymple

"When Major Dalrymple had emerged from the dining room, McDonough's request, and the preliminary hand shaking had been accomplished, the prosecuting attorney plunged right into his subject.

"I have come here to issue a warrant to you, Mr. Dalrymple," he said. "I have read about the various things you plan to do to quell the whiskey revolt, as you call it. What I want to tell you is this: 'If you or any of your men attempt to arrest me or my aide without due process of law, I will take you and your entire party into custody immediately, and I am prepared to do it. Now get this right at all times you and your men and lock you up, and you where you belong, Mr. Dalrymple.'"

The major retorted: "I don't want to get a lecture from you, and this seems entirely unnecessary. I have come here for the purpose of enforcing the law. And I think this is a high-handed, grandstand play." "You are a natural born grandstander or yours," McDonough countered. "You have been playing to the public press, and have said things which have been an outrageous affront to this community. When you declare there has been a whiskey revolt, were you lying?"

"Now that you are here, if you have any arrests to make, just start something. You haven't scared or cowed anyone here."

"I do not care to discuss the matter with you. I will continue my course of action and see it through. I will enforce the law."

Pose for Pictures

At this point a motion picture operator interrupted to say:

"Just a moment, Major; stand up a little closer to Mr. McDonough and pose for a picture, please."

"Of course he will," declared McDonough. "He likes that."

"Keep still," requested the camera man.

High School News

The high school orchestra yesterday played at several sections for the location of the student body at the regular weekly assembly. The program was as follows:

- "The War Eagle."
- "Ode to the Mountains."
- "I Am Climbing Mountains."
- "Hand in Hand."
- "Heroes of War."
- "I'll Abandon Nothing Yet."

In addition to the musical program, Nat Williamson gave a humorous selection, "The One-Legged Goose."

Because of a new seating arrangement in the school auditorium it is now possible to accommodate visitors at the regular assemblies on Wednesday mornings at 5:40. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Twelve high school students participated in the essay contest last Friday, the subject of which was "Benefits of an Enlistment in the United States Army." The essay papers will be judged by a committee from the faculty, probably tomorrow.

The local declamatory contest will be held in the high school auditorium on the evening of March 9, it was announced today. About fifteen students will compete in all three classes of the contest. One winner from each of the oratorical, dramatic and humorous departments will then be named to represent Twin Falls at the district meet, which will probably be held some time in April.

"You're a better actor than I," retorted Dalrymple.

"Yes," agreed the attorney, "and you'll find I'm a bad actor. As for you, you are naturally a movie poster. As a matter of fact, Mr. Dalrymple, I don't believe you've quite as much guts as when you got off the train last night. Press reports quoted you as saying in a telegram to superior officers that the community was in rebellion against the government. If you did say that, it is a lie."

And about five hundred more words of similar conversation accompanied the click of the movie camera, and then the two officers parted—one to return to his office, followed by a huge knot of citizens; and the other back to his interrupted meal, accompanied by a dozen members of his official party.

league with or without reservations should be elected again.

Senator Reed in the course of his address made the first public reference in the senate to the appointment of Bainbridge Colby as secretary of state.

If he doesn't know anything more about the league of nations covenant now than he did when he was making speeches in Missouri," the senator said, he has a long and painful course of education before him in assuming the duties of his office, unless he can change his party."

"I'd like to furnish an antidote for the poison the senator from Missouri, a master of sarcasm, is injecting into the record," interrupted Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona. "I think a mistake was made in not appointing a democrat to this post, but it would be difficult to find a man of more wonderful courage and statesmanship than Mr. Colby has demonstrated."

"The holy oil of presidential approval, Mr. President, gives no immunity to public men from criticism in this senate," retorted Senator Reed.

Argues Exterior Purpose

"It is the purpose of the senator," Senator Ashurst said, "with the giant fist of his sarcasm, to drive democrats now willing to accept the Lodge reservations away from them, so that this treaty may never be ratified. I con-

"Now since the ordinary senators have been so undecided," Senator Reed replied, "I do want to say there are indications that the Dead Sea has begun to move. That part of the senate which has been accustomed to send queries to the White House to find out what they should think are beginning to reassume the functions they abandoned. This government cannot endure if the men in this chamber consider themselves the representative of the executive and not the representatives of the people."

SEVEN YEARS EXILE ENOUGH FOR JOHNSON

"Black Jack" Longs to Return to the Country that Gave Him Birth and Honors

NEW YORK, (AP)—If Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, lives up to his expressed determination to return to this country and surrender himself to the authorities within the next few weeks, his action will terminate a long period of wandering through foreign climes. Johnson, who had been convicted of violating the Mann act, was shipped out of the United States nearly seven years ago. He had been sentenced at Chicago to serve one year and one day in prison and to pay a fine of $100,000, but he fled his jail and after evading federal authorities landed in Canada in June, 1913.

When Johnson left Chicago he started on a journey which brought him through most of the European and Latin-American countries. During his period of wandering Johnson introduced Russians to the practice of wrestling and boxing, appeared in vaudeville, exhibited muscle, lost his championship title to Jess Willard at Havana, Cuba, and took part in a 100 ring fight in several parts of the two hemispheres.

When the war broke out in Europe Johnson and his white wife were in Moscow, Russia. Aided by some military friends the pair secured passage aboard the last train leaving Moscow for the west. They passed through Poland and Germany and crossed the Belgian frontier, finally reaching Paris. Later Johnson went to England and thence to South America. From Buenos Aires he returned to Spain, where he lived for some two years. Last summer Johnson, while in Mexico via Cuba and up to a few weeks ago was a resident of Mexico City.

His gamut of experiences as a fugitive will soon conclude, according to his own statement, with return to the United States, as he desires to live at home again, no matter what punishment the courts of justice may inflict on him. In this object he views Johnson is expected to arrive here within a short time from Vera Cruz with the intention of surrendering to the federal officials at Chicago.

BOY DESPERADO ROBS EMPLOYERS

Herman Carter, Aged 13, Using Revolver, Waylays Shoe Shine Stand Operators

Herman Carter, 13 years of age, is in the custody of the county sheriff and several officers today. He was arrested for, and has confessed, to highway robbery. The boy, masked and using a pistol, last night at about 11 o'clock, waylaid Gus and Joe Karulka, operators of the Perrino shoe shine stand. He robbed them of $50.00. The holdup was staged on Second avenue north. The lad was arrested at his home at 11 o'clock this morning by Policemen Egan and Austin. Carter has been employed at the shoe stand at various times and was well aware of the habits of the proprietors of the place after they closed for the night. He lay in wait for them in a particularly dark spot on Second avenue and as they passed into a shadow he stepped in front of them and ordered hands up. The boy wore a white handkerchief over his face and a slouch hat pulled well down over his eyes. Arrest was effected at the home of the boy's parents on Blaine and Cedar boulevard. The boy said he did not know what prompted the deed except that he felt the need of some money. Today he expressed penitence and stated that he had never before committed or had been implicated in similar misdemeanors. The case will be cared for by the juvenile department.

DISCUSSES CHURCHILL AS CENSOR DURING WAR

British Admiral Gives Intimate Details of Dardanelles Expedition

LONDON, (AP) — Winston Churchill who was first lord of the admiralty at the time of the Dardanelles expedition, used to act as censor of the official communications given out concerning that ill-fated campaign. He was Admiral Sir Douglas Bowering. Sir Douglas was chief censor during the war and has written his experiences in a book entitled "Reflections of the Naval Censor." One day Mr. Churchill said to the admiral, "for this business, I am chief censor, not you." "Mr. Churchill had a knack for the framing of communications," the admiral stated. "He was a bit of a gambler, that is he would hold on to a bit of bad news for a time on the chance of getting a bit of good news to publish as an offset, and I must say that it is not infrequently done." Admiral Bowering used to visit the first lord in his bedroom at 9:15 a. m., and show him the cables and cables that had been received during the night. Mr. Churchill, he said, represented a most extraordinary spectacle, perched up in a huge bed with the whole of the counterpane littered with dispatch boxes, red and all colors, and a stenographer sitting beside him. Churchill himself with an enormous cigar in his mouth, a glass of warm water on the table by his side, and a writing pad on his knee. On one occasion he had a badly swollen face, and with two turns of a flannel bandage round it and a sandy lock oozing here and there, presented a truly extraordinary picture. The cigar, however, was still there.

AMALGAMATED SUGAR COMPANY TO MODERNIZE ALL FACTORIES

Improvement Plan Includes Extensive Alterations of Twin Falls Plant with Work on Large Office Building to Be Started Immediately—Scheme Contemplates Outlay of $500,000

The Twin Falls plant of the Amalgamated Sugar Company is to be included in extensive plans for modernizing the company's string of sugarcane refineries in this area, reaching this city from general headquarters in Ogden. Included in this general modernizing program is a large office building in connection with the Twin Falls plant, work on which, it is explained, is to be started without delay. The sugar institution here is to undergo extensive alterations, all looking toward the establishing of the institution as the last word in factories of this nature.

While nothing is given out at local administrative offices of the Amalgamated Sugar Company in detail, the plans of the company in detail are revealed in the following contained in a recent issue of the Ogden Examiner: "An improvement program for the Ogden plant of the Amalgamated Sugar company, which will entail the expenditure of slightly over a half million dollars in the Ogden district, and which is being set to motion as the company anticipates that the most economical production of sugar by modern methods, was announced yesterday by Vice President B. M. Edgell, who regarding the Ogden plant, is going after a trip to New York and industrial centers of the east. The program includes installation of heavy machinery and many changes and extensions of the building.

"The Ogden district offices will be moved to West Ogden and a two-story brick building erected to serve as a headquarters for the Twin Falls sugar plant, District Superintendent H. H. Hogg, the agricultural and cashier departments, so that growers may transact business on the grounds. Old buildings near the entrance will be razed and the grounds occupied will be laid out with lawns and shrubbery. It is planned to make the present factory capacity of from 2,000 to 2,500 tons to make it a model of the efficient refining of sugar. Other changes include the removal of two diffusion batteries and replacement with a modern battery, discharging the treated sugar. These are modern ones, rebuilding of two line-kilns, a 40-foot extension onto the main building, installation of an electric generating outfit, erecting a gasifier for twenty cars and remodeling the oil garage as a boot laboratory. In furtherance of a policy of promoting the consumption of sugar and his products, the Ogden plant of the Amalgamated Sugar Company district include those at McFarland; Marriott, Angus, Hansen, Uintah, Stoddard and Kanawha.

Besides the Ogden plant, two others known as the Stephens factories, those at Lewiston and Twin Falls, will also undergo extensive improvements. "The Twin Falls, Burley and Paul factories in Idaho will be included in a recently formed district with the appointment of H. A. Bonning as district manager and James Scilly as agricultural superintendent. Mr. Bonning turned in the Holly Sugar company plant at Huntington Beach, Cal. Mr. Scilly has been managing a ten-thousand acre ranch in Canada. Both men have had long experience with the Great Western Sugar company, and Mr. Scilly formerly directed the Great Western factory at Billings, Mont. Work on a new office building at Twin Falls will be started soon.

"The offices maintained in the city of Logan will be moved to the Logan factory and a new building erected for the purpose."

CHECK DONATED ON SCHOLARSHIP

Kimberly Club Sends Contribution to President of Idaho Federated Societies

Mrs. M. J. Sweeley, president of the Idaho Federation of women's clubs, is in receipt of a check for $100 given by the Kimberly club in memory of the late Charles DosRoussieux. This is the second check received from this source, the first being in honor of Kenneth Brown who also lost his life in overseas service.

The Twentieth Century club of Twin Falls has already provided three such scholarships, the first being in memory of all the boys of Twin Falls who died in the war, the second in honor of Captain Homer Youngs, whose mother is a charter member of the club, and the third to the memory of Galen McMaster, whose aunt, Mrs. Bear, is also a charter member of this body. Mrs. Sweeley states that it is the intention to so honor the memory of each Twin Falls man who gave his life in the great war, as funds may become available for this purpose.

Cantankerous Weather Man Is All Het Up

THE weather man is trying to doze off. The id of this indispensable department of the indispensable News yesterday, remarking cursorily on the "contumacious" ways of the "proud" prognosticator, said he had got back to the old and almost unvarying system of "fair tonight and tomorrow."

But today he kicks in with something else; a sort of endeavor to show up our weaknesses. Listen!

"Tonight and Friday Snow." Not a cloud in the sky, and not a symptom or indication that for days to come there will be anything but spring conditions, yet just because we said that, he predicts bad weather.

Ah, well! Yesterday the top mark was 41 with 14 last night. Regardless of what the hired man says we predict "Fair tonight and Friday."

One of the most important, interesting and entertaining meetings ever held by a lodge in Twin Falls was yesterday's session of Twin Falls Commandery, Knights Templar. Lodge was opened at 8:00 o'clock, work continuing until after 10. Three candidates were presented for the Templar degree.

Punctuating the program dinner was served at 7 o'clock, immediately following which the question of instituting a Shrine club was discussed. Short talks all favored this purpose, and a committee composed of V. H. Decker, E. E. Chamberlain, Harry Barratt, Dr. W. A. Parrott and Frank Mangel was appointed by eminent Commander E. A. Bond to have charge of plans. Announcement was also made at this meeting of plans already under way for a Masonic club which will provide light recreation and a library for members of the order.

The dinner was elaborate and well served to a degree, and was enjoyed by about 50 members of the Commandery. Arrangements were made for a big representation of Twin Falls Shriner at the coming coronation of Burley next Saturday night. A fullness of spirit was announced, has been chartered for the trip to and from Burley, while many Shriner will go by automobile Saturday morning and afternoon.

SEEKS EJECTMENT OF HOTEL HOUSEKEEPER

T. M. Alkin Charges Kate Weston Refuses to Deliver Outfit of Corcoran Rooms

T. M. Alkin, proprietor and operator of the Corcoran Rooming house, 205 1-2 Shoshone street south, has appealed to the district court for an injunction restraining Kate Weston from interfering with the operation of the place, and demanding also that she be ousted and make an accounting to the court.

In the complaint filed by Attorney E. M. Wolfe and J. F. Martin statement is made that on January 10, the plaintiff sustained injuries that incapacitated him from carrying on personal management of the rooms. His condition, it is stated, was of such a nature that it became necessary to vest in some person responsibility for the operation of the place. Frank Bower was given power of attorney to act in the stead of Alkin but, according to allegations, Bower was prevented from functioning by the defendant whom, it is alleged, refused to give up the keys or to permit Bower to enter the place to take over the management.

Plaintiff avers that the monthly income from the rooms is $200, and he asks an accounting of all moneys received by the defendant from January 10 to the present moment, and also to deliver custody of the place to Bower. Kate Weston has been employed by the plaintiff as a housekeeper.
