BACKGROUND OF RAILWAY STRIKE SEEMS BROKEN

Five Leaders in Walkout Arrested on Charge of Interfering with Liberty to Work and Provoking Disobedience

REFUSAL OF EMPLOYEES TO QUIT CONSPICUOUS

Indications Point to Willingness of National Federation of the Railmen to Call Off Strike Under Compromise

PARIS, (AP)—Five railroad strike leaders were arrested today. They were M. Girou, M. Leveque and M. St. Grand, of the Paris union, Secretary-General Charvet of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean unions and M. de la Cour, of the Lyons union. All are charged with interference with the liberty to work and provoking disobedience.

Workers' Meet in Numbers
Railroad men mobilized by the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean system were reporting in increasing numbers last night, and the strike this morning seems to be some better. So far the general strike called on Saturday morning may be said to be a failure, as numbers of railroad men are refusing to quit, particularly in the iron and steel industry.

Refusing to discontinue the so-called "steel trust" the court dismissed the federal government's Sherman law suit for dissolution.

Discusses Without Prejudice
Affirming the New Jersey federal court's dismissal of the government prosecution, the supreme court declined to exclude the restraint of trade charges and also denied an order to break up the super-combination, said to be the world's greatest industrial organization, with assets exceeding $2,000,000,000.

In dismissing the federal suit, however, the court ordered such dismissal "without prejudice," permitting the government to sue again if the corporation actually resorts to illegal, wrongful or repressive practices.

No Law Violation Since 1911
In rendering the decision, Justice McKenna said that since 1911 no act in violation of law can be charged against the steel corporation and that it was the opinion of the court that the practice complained by the government had been abandoned.

Justices Pitney, Clark and Day dissented.
Justice McKenna said that to require the government's request for disruption of the corporation and restore conditions in the industry as they were 20 years ago would be impracticable. It would disrupt

Accept Offer of Mediation Made by British Minister to Panama

PANAMA, (AP)—Leaders of striking canal zone maintenance of way workers last night accepted the offer of mediation made by Andrew Percy Bennett, British minister to Panama, and the men are expected to return to work today. This is in spite of Governor Harding's refusal to grant amnesty to strikers whose arrests have been ordered.

Committee of American workmen will confer with the governor tomorrow and request that American citizens re-quest relief in the Panama canal service. Funding of the strike will be participated in the walkout must accept a rating well below that held at the beginning of the trouble, in accordance with Governor Harding's ultimatum issued last Tuesday.

COURT UPHOLDS FORMATION OF STEEL COMBINE

Refuses to Break Up So-called "Trust" and Dismisses Federal Government's Sherman Law Suit for Dissolution

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The supreme court today upheld formation of the United States Steel corporation and its subsidiary combinations in the iron and steel industry.

Refusing to discontinue the so-called "steel trust" the court dismissed the federal government's Sherman law suit for dissolution.

Discusses Without Prejudice
Affirming the New Jersey federal court's dismissal of the government prosecution, the supreme court declined to exclude the restraint of trade charges and also denied an order to break up the super-combination, said to be the world's greatest industrial organization, with assets exceeding $2,000,000,000.

DEFEAT LOOMS IN COURSE OF RATIFICATION

Renewed Decision of Majority Against Change in Reservation to Article Ten Forecasts Unfavorable Vote

TREATY AS CAMPAIGN ISSUE SEEMS FAVORED

Both Sides Concede Enough of Democratic Senators Will Stand with Wilson to Prevent Acceptance of Pact

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An early and unfavorable vote on ratification of the peace treaty was forecast in the senate today when republican leaders, replying to the demands of the treaty's irrevocable republican opponents, reaffirmed their decision not to accept any change of substance or of language in the republican reservation to article 10.

Both sides concede that enough democratic senators to defeat ratification are determined to stand with President Wilson and vote against the treaty unless the article ten qualification is modified.

The republican decision today was followed by evidence that all the elements in the senate fight would cooperate to end debate and let the treaty issue go undecided into the campaign.

Some of the leaders predicted a final vote by Thursday, but one thought it would not come before the first of next week.

Crux of Tangle
Under the agreement between the republican leaders and the irrevocables, the latter will not carry out the proposed program of prolonged debate. They will support the republican reservation program as they did at the last session, but will vote, as they did then, against ratification.

It is understood information laid before Senator Lodge convinced him that no ratification would be possible either with or without modification of the article 10 reservation. If it were modified, it was intimated, the irrevocables might feel disposed to accept ratification vote. If it were not modified, it was said, a combination of irrevocables and administration senators would vote down ratification.

WEST VIRGINIA REFUSES RATIFICATION OF SUFFRAGE
CHARLESTON, W. Va., (AP)—Ratification of the national suffrage amendment was refused by the West Virginia senate this afternoon, the vote to ratify being 14 to 14. When it was announced, Senator Harvey W. Harmer, who proposed the resolution, said he was disappointed to see that it was not passed, in order that he might move for a reconsideration.

MILAN, (AP)—As a result of a collision between a crowd and the police here yesterday in which the officers fired on the mob and two civilians were mortally wounded, a general strike was declared at midnight.

GOPENHAGEN, (AP)—George Lansbury, former socialist member of the British parliament, who has been in Moscow for some time is expected to reach Helsinki tomorrow after arranging for an exchange of Finnish and Russian prisoners, according to a dispatch from the Finnish capital. It is said he will bring back details of the Russian soviet peace offer to Finland.

LONDON, (AP)—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Cairo announces that Turks and Arabs have occupied Alexandria, in southeastern Asia-Minor. This, it is believed, may indicate the French forces in this region are steadily retreating before enemy concentrations on the Aintab-Marash line.

BERLIN, (AP)—Protests against the proposal of the Prussian diet to compensate former Emperor William for the loss of his throne, and demands that the estates of the crown be expropriated were voiced in resolutions passed unanimously at a meeting of the socialist party of the Berlin district last evening. Several members of the ministry were present. Warning was given that if the diet's proposal was accepted by the bourgeois parties, the socialists would withdraw from the German governments.

FAVORS EARLY FILING OF REPORT ON CHURCH
BOSTON, (AP)—The way to an early filing of the report of the master who heard testimony in litigation involving several groups prominent in the government and administration of the Christian and Reformed church was cleared today.

Judge Chesby in the supreme court decided a motion that the master be directed to report the case for further evidence in one of the suits, and refused another motion that the time for filing the master's report be extended from four to six months from the date when the independent referees will become effective.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., (AP)—The Geop Purchasing agency today announced an advance in the price of Pennsylvania crude oil of 15 cents a barrel to $5.00. Cabell grade was also advanced 25 cents to $3.67.

Independent refiners, it was reported, offered to raise above posted prices, but little oil was sold. Producers, it was the prevailing opinion, were waiting for higher prices which they expected to develop March 16 when the Geop company's plan of 15 cents a barrel from the independent refiners will become effective.

MEXICAN BANDITS RAID'S TOLL OF DEATHS INCREASES TO TWO

J. A. Fraser, Brother of Slain Arizona Storekeeper, Succumbs to Injuries Inflicted by Outlaws.

AUTHORITIES GIVE ASSURANCE OF EFFORT TO APPREHEND MURDERERS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The American consul at Nogales reported to the state department today that the Mexican consul there and General Pita, of the Mexican federal army had promised that every effort would be made to capture the Mexican who raided the American side of the border last Friday.

A Mexican bandit named Cacho-ton was found hanged on the morning of February 28 near the place where Augustus Morrill, once American consul at Maricopa, was killed. Pita, said the bandit was executed "possibly as the slayer of Morrill," by order of Cipriano Corona, the leader of the bandits in the state of Colima.

NOGALES, ARIZ., (AP)—With the death here early today of J. A. Fraser, American storekeeper of Ruby postoffice, 30 miles from here, the death toll as a result of a raid by Mexican bandits on Fraser's general store Friday was increased to two. Alexander Fraser, J. A. Fraser's brother and business partner, died Friday shortly after the attack.

Ends Fruitless Chase
Ray Earheart, sheriff of Santa Cruz county, returned here today after a fruitless chase after the two bandits in Mexico.

Colonel S. C. Carahan, commanding officer of the Nogales military district declared today he was convinced the Mexican military authorities in Sonora were doing their utmost to apprehend the culprits. He repeated the desire that any American troops had crossed the line.

Federals in Pursuit
"I have just had a conference with the Mexican military officials stationed opposite here, and I have been assured that they are doing their best to capture the bandits," Colonel Carahan said. "They are sending cavalry units in pursuit and have asked the civilians in the neighborhood to be on the lookout for the men."

Colonel Carahan added he did not believe there would be any punitive expedition into Arizona as the result of the attack on the Fraser brothers. Colonel Carahan declared American troops could not enter Mexico without the consent of the Mexican authorities, according to the military official.

Post Is Exhausted
The posse led by Sheriff Earhart was forced to return because the horses and bloodhounds of the party became exhausted after hours of travel over the rugged mountain trails. One of the bandits was reported as having been seen near Santa Rosa, 35 miles southwest of Nogales.

ITALY INCLINES TO COMPROMISE UPON ADRIATIC

Wilson Prepares to Draft Answer to British and French Premier's Suggestion of American Aid in Settlement

ROME, (Havre), (AP)—Premier Nitti is disposed to accept a compromise settlement of the Adriatic question, according to the Messagero. By this arrangement the newspaper says, Italy would not claim territorial continuity between Trieste and Fiume, but consent that the city be placed under Italian sovereignty. The league of nations it is said, will be in charge of the administration of the port.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson has begun work on his answer to the British and French premiers on the Adriatic situation. In preparation for the actual drafting, a committee has been set up to study the matter at the state department. The nature of the communication has not been disclosed.

Mr. Wilson apparently was planning to make prompt reply to the premiers' suggestion that the United States join with the British and foreign governments in seeking to bring about a solution of the Adriatic problem through direct negotiations between Italy and Jugoslavia. It was noted that some dispatches indicated that Premier Nitti of Italy had already opened negotiations with the Jugo-Slovak authorities to this end.

There was no comment available from officials here as to the extent President Wilson might be willing to go in joining directly with Premiers Miller and Lloyd George in fostering these new negotiations.

ADMINISTRATION RETURNS RAIL SYSTEMS OF COUNTRY TO PRIVATE MANAGEMENT

Interstate Commerce Commission Makes Formal Announcement of New Powers Delegated to It and Rights and Privileges Accorded Carriers by New Law Given Executive Approval on Eve of Transfer of Control to Owners

UNION LABOR LEADERS CONSIDERING TEST OF BILL'S CONSTITUTIONALITY

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Railroads of the country, operating for the first time in twenty-six months under their own management, were formally notified today by the interstate commerce commission of the new powers delegated to that body and of the rights and privileges accorded the carriers by the new railroad law.

The commission's announcement explained that provisions of the law against rate reductions prior to September 1 without the commission's approval, and its authority, but that changes in rate regulations, classifications and practices in which a decision had been effective on the date designated. All changes in rates and classifications effective prior to today will stand, the statement said.

President Wilson signed the railroad bill Saturday night on the eve of the return of the roads to their owners and to private control.

The proclamation issued at the time the bill was signed, Mr. Wilson vested in Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, virtually all powers conferred by the new law, and Mr. Hines will also continue to exercise the duties of director general which continued beyond the return of the roads to private control at midnight Sunday.

Repplies to Brotherhoods
The White House also made public the text of the president's reply to a recent request of representatives of the railroad brotherhoods that the government commission composed equally of employers' and employees' delegates to consider wage demands made by the brotherhoods. He remained silent on the subject of the government commission does not refer directly to the memorial later presented by the brotherhood heads asking that he veto the railroad bill.

Restores to Competition
The operating division of the United States railroad administration, the governmental agency which for more than two years has controlled by operation of the nation's railroad system, today passed out of existence. With its passing at midnight, the 230 lines that had been merged into what was practically a single system again went under control of private interests, free to operate in competition as of old. The transfer was without incident.

Elmer Alton Bennett, one of the staff of directors and executives who controlled the roads during government operation Director General Hines said he remains silent on the subject of the government commission does not refer directly to the memorial later presented by the brotherhood heads asking that he veto the railroad bill.

contracts and grievances yet to be settled, and among which are 83 compensation contracts with various roads which still are the subject of negotiation.

Under the so-called railroad reorganization bill which governed the return of the transportation systems to private ownership, but little jurisdiction is retained by the government. Under its terms the interstate commerce commission is given greater power to control rates and compulsory arbitration of labor disputes is required. The government also retains a certain amount of control over their bond issues, but at the same time insures a fixed percentage of profit and makes it possible for labor to share in the profits from a federal fund set aside for that purpose.

Centers Power in President
Specifically, the bill authorizes the president to settle all questions, including the rate of interest, and appropriate $200,000,000 for that purpose.

Provides guarantees of "standard returns" to carriers for a period of six months after the termination of federal control.

Creates a "revolving fund" of $300,000,000 for making new loans to carriers.

Creates a railroad labor board and other machinery for the amicable settlement of disputes between employers and employees.

Directs the interstate commerce commission to fix rates that will provide for a six per cent return to the railroads on the value of the aggregating railroad property devoted to the public use.

2.5 BEER VALID IN WISCONSIN

Federal Court Holds State Law Takes Precedence Over U. S. Regulation

MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP)—Manufacture and sale of 2-5 beer in Wisconsin was legalized in a decision handed down today by Federal Judge Geiger in the case of the Milwaukee Brewing Products company for an injunction to halt enforcement of the Volstead act.

By his decision Judge Geiger upheld the Milwaukee law thus assuming that state prohibition laws take precedence over federal regulations.

The court held section 1, title 2, of the Volstead act unconstitutional. The court also held that inasmuch as the constitutional amendment prohibited only intoxicating liquors neither Congress nor the legislature has the power to define the word intoxicating liquor so as to include beverages non-intoxicating in fact. The Milwaukee company claimed that 2-5 per cent beer was not intoxicating and that the amendment does not prohibit the state from fixing a standard under the police power. This is the matter now pending for judgment on the question in the United States.

The decision resulted from the filing of an injunction suit by the Milwaukee Brewing Products company, a company which has three breweries at Milwaukee to retain enforcement of prohibition legislation insofar as it interferes with the manufacture of beer containing 2 1/2 per cent alcohol.

It was claimed by counsel for the company that congress acted illegally in limiting alcoholic content of liquor which can be sold under the constitutional amendment to an amount less than that of one per cent. It was also argued that the Milwaukee law, permitting sale of 2-5 per cent beer in Wisconsin has precedence over later federal limitations.

TREATMENT OF INSANE CALLED UNINTELLIGENT

Stanford University President Terms Situation in American Mental Hospitals Terrible in Talk to Medicos

CHICAGO, (AP)—The situation of the American hospitals for the insane was termed "truly terrible" by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, in an address he delivered here at the annual Congress of Medical Education.

After emphasizing the need for teaching hospitals in every large city in the country, Dr. Wilbur had this to say of the hospitals for the insane:

"The average medical man of psychology and psychiatry is painful. Every such hospital should be a live optimistic center for study and not a pen for the lingering care of the hopeless or semi-hopeless. We cannot think of medical education in the future without bringing the stimulus of the student to all such hospitals and likewise bringing one such hospital into the closest of contact with every medical school."

"Perhaps with the establishment of such conditions we can gradually place the decisions upon the questions of mental conditions in the hands of physicians instead of in those of untrained judges and emotional jurors."

Dr. Wilbur said that "commonly well-being depends upon the engineer and physician more than the poet or the lawyer. It is the duty of the physician to study the causes of diseases to reduce the heavy burden of 'sickness, weakness and mental unsoundness.' But, he continued, "during the period immediately before me no greater disaster could come to the medical education than to have it and all of its necessary accessories fall completely into the hands of the state. The glory of American education lies in the initiative of such institutions as Harvard and Johns Hopkins. We may look ahead to a democratic state with governing bodies and a public voice enough to warrant a sensible education for several generations who can not safely trust the future of medical education to the chance of politics."

Urges Higher Standards
"The state university medical schools will come from the active presence of those independently endowed setting the standards. When the existing medical institutions of all sorts become centers of education of one form or another, Dr. Wilbur said, "we can enjoy the physical comfort and happiness of the race."

Portrait of Ugliest Woman Finds a Buyer

Lock of Beauty Seems to Enhance Rather Than Depress Price of the Painting

LONDON, (AP)—The portrait by Quilina Matsya of Margaret, Duchess of Connaught and Stratford, called the ugliest woman on earth in the medicine day was sold at auction here the other day for 880 guineas. Experts say that no more appalling travesty of the human form has been known since that which Matsya's brush left on the canvas. The great lady's face is described as nearer that of one of the anthropoid apes than a woman, with tiny eyes, an upper lip interminably long, a nose for which no word can be found and the whole monstrosity crowned with a jeweled headpiece that multiplied her "charm" a hundred fold. Her lock of beauty seemed rather than depress the price of the portrait.

Unique Belgian Sport

Sand-boat racing is a sport enjoyed by Belgians and visitors along the sand dunes of La Panne. The boats are so named because they are pulled on the shore. A small boat is spread on four wheels and on the cross bars of the frame is set a good sized mast and sail. This wheeled craft is guided by a rope, as boys steer a bob sledge or a small wheel. In a good breeze the boats make 15 to 20 miles an hour. The sand sailor can tack or turn his craft around just as easily as if he were sailing on water.

GIVES BENEFIT OF ENLISTMENT

Hope for Further Awards Expressed for High School Boy's Essay

Officers in charge of the army recruiting station in Twin Falls entertain hope that the essay on "Benefits of Enlistment in the United States Army," written by Lawrence Sizer, and winning the prize of a gold watch offered by W. R. Friebe for the best article on the subject penned by a local high school student, will receive further award in competition against the essays of other high school entrants to be decided by recruiting officers at Salt Lake City.

Sizer's essay follows:

"What previous experience have you had?"

This is a question that you will have to answer before you can secure any position.

What is your answer? Are you one of those who have been unable to complete your studies? Or, have you an opportunity to make up this deficiency. The army offers you a course in training which is equal to any offered in the United States.

The great war has taught us that the man who has specialized, who can do one thing well, is the man who is in demand and who will be a success. The army offers you the chance to specialize. If you are a man who likes to do it, or what you have talent in, you can get it in the army.

Are you in an unhealthy condition? Is your body run down? The army has a corps of trained physicians who by system of training, can put you on your feet. A man cannot enjoy life unless he is at his best physically. Do you want to know the joy of living and get all that is in it? What you like to do, you can get it in the army.

Are you down and out? Would you like to start out with a clean slate? Let the army put you on your feet. They will take you by the hand and lead you to the world and back if it need be. Do you want a square deal? You get it in the army.

Do you lack tenacity, soft reliance? The army offers you a chance to earn money for yourself. Get out of that rut. You can acquire all of these. Do you want success? You can get it in the army.

Suppose you were to offer to send you to college, pay of your expenses, furnish your clothing, expert medical advice, and pay you for going. Would you accept my offer? Certainly you would. The army offers you the equivalent of this. Why don't you accept it?

Remember, no matter what line you are interested in, if you want to follow it up, you can get it in the army.

MEXICO MAKES PROGRESS FOR PACIFICATION

Capture of Arenas and Caravaj Leaves Only Villa, Pelaez and Felix Diaz Operating in Field of Banditry

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Orfilo Arenas, a rebel leader, has been captured by secret military police at Puebla, according to a telegram from Governor Alfonso Cabrera, of the state of Puebla, made public here last night. Arenas was taken into custody when he attempted to enter the city of Puebla after leaving the gulf coast region. About a year ago a brigade of soldiers under command of Arenas and protected by the Inter-Oceanic railway revolted after Arenas received a large sum for the payment of the troops. Since that time this force has been operating with constantly increasing success in outlying portions of Puebla and Tlaxcala.

Semi-official reports announce the capture of Marcelo Caravaj, an attorney of Tlaxcala. This bandit, in the state of Tlaxcala, has been captured by General Francisco Murguía came to this city for a conference with President Carranza recently relative to plans for the apprehension of Caravaj.

Newspapers here in commenting upon the capture of Arenas and Caravaj point out the progress made by the present administration toward "complete pacification of the country" before the July elections and the change in the government. Among outlaws who have been put to death or slain in battle during the past year were Felipe Alvarez, Aureliano Reyes, Francisco Alvarez, Jose Ines Chavez, Garcia and Emiliano Zapata. Among those captured were Guadalupe de La Llave and Luis Galbarrero, while General Melvoro is still at large in negotiation with federal officials preparatory to surrendering. The capture or surrender of more than a score of minor outlaws throughout the country also occurred during the year. This leaves only Francisco Villa who is operating with a small force in a mountainous district in the north, and Manuel Flores and Felix Diaz, who are virtually powerless in the gulf coast region.

Human Life Needs Beauty.

Men cannot live by bread alone. The mind cannot develop on an exclusively scientific diet. If we sat on our spinning globe and studied only the physical laws that keep it going we should become either lunatics or machines. The lines of beauty in the form and decoration of a vase, and the studied harmony of tones and colors that give the soul as though they were musical sounds, are like to the inscriptions made on his dungeon walls by a life prisoner, who, with their aid, drives away madness and keeps his mind sweet.—Chicago American.

MAD MULLAH IS THORN IN SIDE OF EUROPEANS

Militant Moslem Leader Escapes the Successful Attack Made by British and Italian Forces

NEW YORK, (AP)—Mohammed Sul Abdullah, the "Mad Mullah" of Somaliland, against whom British and Italian forces recently have been successful with tanks and aircraft, but who, himself, escaped, has caused trouble for the British for many years. He began stirring up the natives of Somaliland in 1890, after making a pilgrimage to Mecca, and his "holy wars" sometimes have attained considerable success. In 1890 dispatches said he was leading an uprising in the interior of Somaliland, and it was suggested that "a military promenade" be taken against him. That "promenade" grew into a desultory campaign which took three years and cost the British government $15,000,000. Even then, his power was only temporarily broken by the battle of Jibhah, for he fled with the remnants of his forces to Italian territory, destroying wells as he went and thus making pursuit impossible.

Zeal Augments Influence

While he was only one of the lesser religious chiefs of his country, his pilgrimage to Mecca and his zeal in preaching the Moslem faith augmented his influence until he had collected a large army, in which were some of the best fighting tribes in that part of Africa.

He preached war for the protection of Islam and advocated the extermination of whites, and with the increase of his power began a crusade, aided by German tribes, finally gaining over the whole of Somaliland.

As the result of an agreement reached in December, 1905, between Great Britain and Italy, the Mullah was assigned an assignment of a settled portion in Somaliland, together with grazers' rights in certain parts of British and Italian territory, he undertook to observe peace toward Britain and Italy.

Slaughter Britain's Friends

His next outbreak of consequence was in 1910, when he started a ferocious campaign against the sultanates under British protection, and slaughtered hundreds of tribesmen friendly to the British. Wide areas were laid waste and towns razed. The natural obstacles of the torrid desert country, combined with the Mullah's fanaticism won out. The British decided to evacuate the country, for the time being. In 1916 he was again reported to be stirring up the tribesmen against the British, and his adherents were scattered by British forces.

"Mullah" in Somaliland means "leader" and because of Mohammed Sul Abdullah's fanaticism and his campaigns for extermination of whites, he has become a religious leader—galaad—be title of "Mad Mullah."

GIVES VIEWS OF ROOSEVELT ON FORMER KAISER

America Unpopular in Germany. In 1911 Says Former President's Letter Revealed by His Biographer

NEW YORK, (AP)—An intimate picture of the former emperor of Germany, drawn by Colonel Brewster in a letter to Sir George Otto Trevelyan, in 1911, which shows him in the light of an "adorer" of England, appears in the March number of Scribner's Magazine today.

It is the concluding portion of Roosevelt's personal $5,000-word account of his travels in Europe following his escape from his memorable African hunting trip.

The former president wrote that William agreed with him, during the course of a long interview at Potsdam, that war between England and Germany would be "an unspoken calamity." The colonel said that Prince Henry of Prussia, of whom the then kaiser was "father jealous," was "a more really powerful and cold-blooded man than the emperor and that of the two he was the more hostile to England."

Unpopular All Round

Referring to his visit to Berlin, following "delightful" receptions in Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden, the colonel wrote that the German authorities and people showed him every courtesy and civility but that excepting the university folk, "they really did not want to see me."

Germany, he said, was "a thoroughly unattractive and debasing." The lower classes, on the other hand, were socialists who regarded me as an enemy rather than a friend.

The middle class looked upon me as a representative of an America which consisted of business rivals and whose rivalry was irritating and obnoxious."

An interesting sidelight on von Tirpitz, then the secretary of war, was afforded by the colonel's reference to an interview with the man who later inaugurated the ruthless submarine warfare. Von Tirpitz, he said, was intensely interested in the voyage of the American battleship around the world, and he told the former president that he had not believed in the British naval and foreign offices had felt the same way. "He said he expected Japan would attack the fleet while it was on its way round the world."

Referring to von Tirpitz, "I told him," he wrote, "that I had not expected such an attack, but that I had thought it possible; in other words, that I thought the chance was against me. Von Tirpitz's chance for it. My point of view at the time the fleet sailed was that if the Japanese attacked it, it was a certain sign that they were intending to attack us at the first favorable opportunity."

"I had been doing my best to be polite to the Japanese and had finally become uncomfortable and finally became very slight and under the influence of their communications in connection with things that happened on the Pacific slope; and I finally made up my mind that they thought I was afraid of them."

Every particle of trouble with the Japanese government and the Japanese press stopped like magic as soon as they found they were dealing with me, and was obviously in good trim. As I told von Tirpitz, I thought it a good thing that the Japanese should know they were dealing with me, who were vastly different from the fleet of poor Bojovetevsky." Von Tirpitz and William, he said, told him that they regarded the voyage of the fleet as having "done more for peace in the Orient than anything else that could possibly have happened."

Impressed by Norwegian

Other portions of the colonel's letter to Sir George deal with anecdotes and references to his association with European royalties. The simple, unaffected, democratic simplicity of the rulers of Norway impressed him deeply. "At Christiania," he wrote, "we were taken at once to the palace, where we stayed; and I could hardly speak too strongly of King Haakon, Queen Maud and little Olaf. They were deep and warm, and they were the only ones we met again; if over Norway decides to turn republic we should love to have them come to live near Sigmund. He is Norway is as funny a kingdom as was ever imagined outside of opera bouffes, although it wasn't opera bouffes at all, for the Norwegians are the most powerful of men and women. But they have the most genuinely democratic society to be found in Europe, not excepting Switzerland; there are only two or three states in the world that have a more genuine democracy. They have no nobles, hardly even gentry; they are peasants and small townpeople—farmers, sailors, fishers, folk, mechanics and small traders. On this community a royal family is suddenly plumped. It is much as if Vermont should find that the experiment of having a king. Yet it certainly seemed as if the experiment were entirely successful."

VIENNESE CIGARETTES DRAW CAUSTIC COMMENT

Greatest Forest Being Smoked Up in the Jocular Declaration of Austrian Satirists

VIENNA, (AP)—Tobacco smokers of this city jocularly declare that the great Vienna forest is being gradually smoked up in cigarettes. This is intended as a satire on the quality of material used in the manufacture of Austrian cigarettes.

Tobacco products are a government monopoly and regulated in quantity of issue. "The allowance to each individual is very small, equal, however, that it is only necessary to pass the word in the right quarter to obtain cigarettes in quantity. One thousand recently purchased by the Associated Press correspondent were of fair quality as tobacco goes in Austria and probably consisted of not more than two-thirds leaves and grasses. But the price was equal to first class American cigarettes such as usually are served in clubs."

Return of Asquith to London as Member of Parliament Attracts Wide Attention from Both Press and Public

LONDON, (AP)—The return of former Premier Asquith to active service in parliament today as the result of his recent election to represent the Paisley constituency attracted considerable attention from both the press and the public. Asquith, who was elected in outlying the plans for the day, including a sort of triumphant procession from Cavendish Square to the house of commons, was marked as the central figure, with the ex-premier's return to the commons was under conditions which usually accompany royal visits to parliament and produced a "tremendous reception" for the liberal leader.

Newspaper which are not supporters of Mr. Asquith joined in giving details of the demonstrations that had been planned. The Daily Mail, which has been usually antagonistic to him, said the excitement over his return to parliament was "popular recognition of the fact that with his return this morning a parliamentary opposition will come into existence for the first time since the war." The newspaper added:

"The absence of such opposition and the jealousy of non-constituents Liberal and laborites have put unchallenged power in the hands of the government, which has been injurious to parliamentary government and the welfare of the nation."

The charcoal should be changed every three months and the sponge several times a year.

Profited by Ghost's Visit

Pierre-Gastron, a tradesman of Montmartre, which is a part of old Paris, had for a neighbor an old miser, who died suddenly. Gastron had been kind to the old man. On the night after his death the ghost of the miser appeared to Gastron, and said: "I left you my money. Go and look under the third board from the wall in my bedroom, and you will find my will with a bag of coins." Gastron hurried off at once, and by the place mentioned discovered the will mentioned by the ghost and 700 francs in silver.

Crocodile's Record Swam

How far can a crocodile swim? Perhaps it would be more practical to ask how far crocodiles do swim? J. Stanley Gardner claims the record for a crocodile (Crocodilus porosus) that recently lauded in the Fiji Islands, where he took its photograph. No crocodiles of this species inhabit the Fiji Islands, and the nearest spot where they are known to live is the New Hebrides, 633 miles distant. Therefore, this crocodile must have swam 633 miles in the open sea.

This step was also urged by Pierre Renaudel, who said that at such a meeting the French socialist party, "which now does not belong to any international, might discuss the course of action to be taken and reach some decision."

Reber River

The discovery that there is a kind of struggle for existence among rivers is one of the interesting results of the modern study of physiography. A notable example of this content is exhibited by England's two biggest rivers, the Thames and the Severn. Between their valleys lie the Cotswold hills, and exploration shows that the Severn, by eating backward among these hills where softer strata underlie them, has diverted to itself some of the headwaters that formerly flowed into the Thames.—New York Post.

Receding China

Generally speaking, a receding, weak chin is a poor sign in man and woman. It does not denote a warm nature, shows a lack of moral and mental force, and indicates that its possessor is easily discouraged. All the same, it does not do to sum up anyone from the chin alone. There may be other characteristics which counterbalance defects.

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP)—Expenditure of $5,000,000 by the United States army for military roads on the island of Oahu has been recommended to the War Department by Major General G. M. EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you buy at any drug store the ready to use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and lustrant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way is to Follow Form 1040A. Free Advice in Doubtful Cases. Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from income tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.

All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must show True Figures.

In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an income tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file a return. This exemption is not a deduction from a person's gross income but a credit against his return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law.

For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.

Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he rented buildings, land, apartments or rooms such rents must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to rents.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report what came any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

ALLEGED SLAYER DENIES PART IN FATAL SHOOTING

Defense in Trial of I. W. W. for Murder in Armistice Day Killings Falls to Prove Overt Act

MONTESANO, Wash., (P)—Mike Sheehan, one of ten alleged I. W. W. on trial here for the murder of Warren O. Grimm, Centralia armistice day parade victim, took the stand in his own behalf at the sixth week of the trial opened today.

Sheehan testified he did not participate in the shooting on November 11, but that he had no knowledge of an alleged contemplated raid on the I. W. W. hall. He hid in an ice box, he testified, as soon as the shooting began.

Defense counsel in the trial of ten alleged I. W. W. here for the murder of Warren O. Grimm, Centralia armistice day parade victim, failed Saturday to prove an overt act on the part of the defendant, Judge John M. Wilson, presiding at the trial, ruled.

Judge Wilson ordered defense counsel to desist from attempting to prove an alleged conspiracy to raid the I. W. W. hall in Centralia until he had proved the overt act. Defense witnesses throughout the day had testified in an effort to prove Grimm had attacked the I. W. W. hall.

Political Notes

TRENTON, N. J., (P)—Republican headquarters Saturday announced that the republican national committee has adopted "the New Jersey dollar bond plan to be used in raising funds through the sale of about fifty bonds in a number of more than 2000 election districts in the state, "to be payable in the election of a republican president." In reality, the bond is a campaign contribution.

DEVIL'S LAKE, N. D., (P)—William J. Bryan, in a telegram to J. H. Bloom, democratic state leader, received here Saturday night from Miami, Fla., declared that enforcement of prohibition would be the paramount issue until the "outlawed liquor traffic ceases to menace the homes of the land."

BISMARCK, N. D., (P)—Major General Leonard Wood will not file a petition as a candidate at the North Dakota presidential preference primary on March 16, it was announced here today.

ABERDEEN, S. D., (P)—Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, independent republican candidate for president at the March primary, will launch his South Dakota campaign in a speech here tonight. Senator Johnson arrived this morning from North Dakota, where he had been campaigning; he will make five speeches in the state.

CHICAGO, (P)—General Leonard Wood and Senator Miles Polkadont will hold a joint debate at Pierre, South Dakota, on March 20, three days before the South Dakota primary. Wood headquarters announced today.

General Wood will spend from March 15 to March 20 touring the state.

LANSING, Mich., (P)—Closing at noon today of the filing time for nominations in Michigan's presidential preference primary, showed that seven candidates will appear on the republican and five on the democratic ticket, with Herbert Hoover on both tickets.

The socialists have nominated Eugene V. Debs.

Those who will appear on the republican ticket are: Senator Miles F. Polkadont, Washington; Herbert Hoover, Major General Leonard Wood, General John J. Pershing, Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois; Senator Hiram Johnson, California; and Wm. G. Simpson, Detroit, Mich.

On the democratic will be Governor Edwards, New Jersey; Wm. J. Bryan, Attorney General Palmer, William G. McAdoo and Herbert Hoover.

An eleventh hour effort to place the name of Senator Harding of Ohio on the republican ticket failed, as his friends had less than 100 signatures when the books were closed.

Today's Markets

New York Exchange

NEW YORK, (P)—Stocks were dull and irregular during the early and intermediate period of today's trading, but finished at variable gains. The decision of the United States supreme court favoring the United States steel corporation was the deciding factor. Sales approximated $80,000 shares. The final hour was the most active of the session, representative industrials advancing 2 to 5 points. The closing:—

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (P)—Prices of Liberty bonds at 2:55 p. m. today were: 3 1-2's $94.80; first 4's $90.20; second 4's $88.50; first 4-1/4's $90.90; second 4-1/4's $89.50; third 4-1/4's $92.80; fourth 4-1/4's $90.94; Victory 3-8's $97.28; Victory 4-3/4's $97.32.

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO, (P)—Belief that private estimates of farm reserves of grain would show large holdings in stocks today was a factor in the corn market. Bearish sentiment was also emphasized by opinion that the railroads in the hands of individual owners would facilitate a better distribution of cars. Selling, however, was not of an aggressive character. Opening prices, which ranged from 3-4c decline to 1-2c advance, with May $1.26 1/4 to 1.26 3/4 and July $1.20 1/4 to 1.20 3/4, were followed by moderate upticks and then by a nearly general fresh setback.

Subsequently, a sharp advance resulted from an estimate that the consumption of corn from November 1 to March 1 was nearly the largest ever known. The advance, however, was not held. Prices closed nervous, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-2c lower, with May $1.26 3/4 to 1.26 1/2 and July $1.21 to 1.21 1/8.

May 1920 was a ratio fine as a result of speculative buying. After opening unchanged to 3-8c off, including May at 75 1/2 to 75 3/8c, the market scored gains all around.

Declines in the value of hogs caused a depressing influence on provisions. Besides, demand lacked volume.

ADMINISTRATION RETURNS THE RAILWAY SYSTEMS

Distributes Excess Earnings Provides that if any carrier earns in any year a net operating income in excess of six per cent, one-half of such excess must be placed in a reserve fund and the other half that be paid into a general contingent fund to be used to make loans to carriers.

Gives to the interstate commerce commission the power to regulate the issue of railroad securities.

Increases the interstate commerce commission from nine to eleven members and their salaries from $10,000 to $12,000.

Whether union labor leaders, who stubbornly opposed the measure in congress and later sought to have President Wilson veto it, will test the constitutionality of the bill in the courts will be decided here today at the conference of executives of the railway brotherhoods.

The conference was arranged to consider the president's veto and their formally presented objection to the bill.

Signifies Intense Imagination. In numerous types of handwriting the manner of throwing the looped ts in and other long letters to excess above the line becomes the most striking feature, one which catches the eye immediately.

Whenever this formation appears it symbolizes the existence of a startling, vivid, intense imagination, which gives the writer a mental trend which will overbalance other qualities and produce the effect of high nervous tension and a lack of repose.

LAVERING

Arthur Wilyon Evans, nephew of David Lloyd-George, has seen much of the world and its people. He has traveled in fifteen countries and lived in six of them, in each as close a student of political conditions as he could be.

The following article from the South Bond, Indiana, Times is typical of the press comment accorded Arthur Wilyon Evans throughout the country: "Dr. Evans is a Welshman by birth, by adoption an American. He has all of the Welshman's inimitable wit, epigrams with the grammatical oddities of the American, so that his speech is a marvel of scholarly erudition, Welsh humor, and Yankee slang."

LABOR UNDER THE BRID'S REIGMB: Well corroborated reports emanating lately from soviet Russia tell of the adoption of a plan outlined by Trotsky...

Referring to the work of the red army, Trotsky said on this occasion: "They (the soldiers) have learned under the very hardest conditions to load hundreds of thousands of organized masses and have led them into battle..."

"Many in the army have already completed their military task but they cannot be demobilized yet. Now that they have been released from their military duties they must fight against economic ruin and against hunger..."

"Labor conscription means that the qualified workers in the army must take their work books and proceed to places where they are required, where their presence is necessary to the economic system of the country..."

LABOR CONSCRIPTION! Trotsky tells what it means in Russia, and somehow his definition is at wide variance from the meaning put upon the phrase in those quarters in America where lately a mighty howl was set up when it was proposed to set up a tribunal in justice as truly to the workman who wanted to quit his employment as to others who would be affected by his act.

LABOR CONSCRIPTION! Of course it is an element inseparable from any attempt of a socialist regime, but many people have failed to see it. One wonders if Russians would have been as ready to accept the bolshevik phrase of socialism if they could have foreseen this inevitable resultant.

It might be remarked, too, in this connection, that radical movements in general seem to have a decided tendency for developing in a manner at variance with the notions of those who supported the new departure in its inception. It is of course, unnecessary to look beyond the borders of the United States for an example of this fact.

GREAT WELSH LECTURER COMES

Arthur Walwyn Evans, nephew of David Lloyd-George, son of the great Welsh revivalist, will be here soon on the Lyceum course and his lecture will be one of the longest remembered events of the season.

He contrasts in telling comparisons the weakness and strength of America from a Welshman's viewpoint. Often he hits hard but he hits constructively. In the opinion of press and public this great Welsh orator is contributing the sanest criticism and the most fervent tribute to our country that has been heard in many years.

Wealth in Dead Sea Region. It is not generally known that ample quantities of bitumen occur in the Dead Sea region. JOCKEY BYRNE AND McTAGGART MAY RIDE AGAIN

Reinstatement of the Brilliant Horse Pilots is Likely Soon to Be Granted

It is reported that Jockey's Joe Byrne and Tommy McTaggart will be seen in the saddle again next season. It is said both of them have promised that their applications for licenses will be favorably acted upon in time.

McTaggart Off Two Years. Byrne has been in the ground a year and McTaggart has been deprived of his riding privileges for two seasons.

A story in connection with this affair is to the effect that Tommy, while riding the horse at Hart, Fresno, was promised to send a friend, through his valet, some winners—horses that he was to ride. He did so and three out of four went over.

Tippling Leaks Out. Of course this leaked out in time, and Tommy looked to be in a most disgraceful position. Investigation developed the fact, however, that Tommy had not sent any of those horses away. The valet was alleged to have done so.

B-b-b-back from B-b-b-Burley, Kip! 'Twas a glorious time while it lasted. Awful dry town 'over there, though for some folks.

Foot is in was gosh-awful dry for instead of fast on his feet. The camel is a noble bird. He habit the dry Sahara; His burden bears without a word.

Ever hear about the Swede feller who called at the bar (it was before July 1, 1919) for some squirrel whiskey?

No! Well, he did, and was told there was in stock some "Old Crow." Whereupon he explained he didn't want to fly; "Ward want something to make me jump around a little."

Maybe Klaus should have tried squirrel whiskey instead of the monkey kind; the latter may only make him fussy such an expiatory pilgrimage.

Have you ever stopped to count the middleweight wrestling champions there are. For instance, there's Jack Harbertson, Mike Yokoi, Waino Kelenen, Joe Miller, and probably six or eight others.

Looks as if Dempsey's managuer quoth correctly as far as his protégé's interests are concerned. By the time the fight is pulled off the two notorious white jacks for pugilism should be playing solitaire in the Leavenworth federal donjon keep.

According to word from Edmonton, Altn, Jim Flynn and Tommy Burns are trying to get themselves matched for a limited-round fistic affair. Now if we could only hear from Billy Taylor he might arrange a match with Frank Klaus, Billy Stiff or Jack Moffat or somebody like that.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net income of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected. Returns must each must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen...

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children...

A minor who has a net income of $100 or more is not considered a dependent and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $2,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return.

Sworn statements of such it must be that the returns are accurate.

Sworn persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds.

Every partnership doing business in the United States must file a return on Form 1065; and every personal service corporation must file a similar return.

Trustees, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are required to file returns. In some cases, Form 1041 is used; in others, Form 1040; and in still others, returns on both forms are required.

Information returns, on Forms 1099 and 1066, must be filed by every organization, firm or person who paid, during 1919, an amount of $1,000 in salary, wages, interest, rent, or other fixed or determinable income to another person, partnership, personal service corporation or fiduciary.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Bonner

COW AND FIG.

"Such a curious thing happened the other day," said Mrs. Cow. "Moo, moo, I'd like to tell you about it."

"So Mrs. Cow looked over the fence of her field into the small, dirty yard where Mrs. Fig was sitting in the second and Mrs. Pig said:

"No," said Mrs. Cow, "that isn't what I am going to tell you, though that is true enough. What I have to tell you is something quite funny."

"Grunt, grunt," said Mrs. Fig. "I'd be glad of a joke. I haven't had one for a long time. I've looked to each side to see if there were any jokes around and I've not seen one."

"You don't usually see jokes at either side of you, do you?" asked Mrs. Cow.

"Oh, yes," said Mrs. Fig. "I quite often do. Quite, quite often I find something that has been left by mistake on my side of the fence. And that is one joke no one else has."

"Do you consider that the only kind of a joke?" asked Mrs. Cow.

"Not the only kind, but I do consider it or something of that kind a good joke," said Mrs. Fig. "Grunt, grunt, grunt, as you say."

"Don't you consider a joke, such as I have to tell, a joke?" asked Mrs. Cow.

"I don't know until I hear it," said Mrs. Fig.

"Well," said Mrs. Cow, "a great many of us were upon our field or in our field whichever way you want to have me say it."

"I don't mind which way you say it," said Mrs. Fig. "A creature who cares for mud and weeds isn't fussy about words."

"Then," she continued after she had chewed her cud without speaking for some moments, "I will continue."

"We were in the field which is near the lake and we all wandered down to the lake. Although it was a cool autumn day we went into the water and we found it so refreshing and so pleasant that some of us waded up to our necks."

"Well, then a little boy from the city was sitting on the bank and he was wading very much to go fishing. Every lake and river and pond and stream he passed by when he was walking or riding in an automobile or on his bicycle with other boys he would always stop and say:

"Is there any fishing in this lake?" "Well, when he asked that question as he passed by the lake where we were wading he did so before he noticed us. Then someone who was with him laughed and said:

"I don't know about there being fish in that lake, but there are cows there. How would you go for them?" "Now, there might have been some creatures who would have become excited about that. But we didn't. We don't become excited about things. That's the nature of cows. And we all slowly grined in our lazy fashion and said as we heard the joke:

"Moo, moo, not a bad joke at all." "Some creatures might have become excited and wondered if the little boy would come after us with a hook and line but we didn't become excited and it was just as well, for anyone would see, after a moment's thought, that it was nothing but a joke."

LARK LEADS TO PROBATE COURT

Fourteen Young Men and Women Haled before Magistrate for Disturbance of Peace

Accused in a probate court complaint of a misdemeanor by disturbing the peace, fourteen young men and women, mostly those belonging to the Twin Falls family, faced Judge C. P. Duvall this morning to answer charges lodged by the county authorities. All admitted guilt.

Those named in the complaint are: Bryan Glavin, of Berger; Helen O. Chapman, Ralph Husted, Mark Wilkins, Gordon Wilkins, Leonard Bennett, Inez Zanger, Marcela Brown, Inez Van Meter, Nellie Van Meter, Helen Spangler, Dora Eldred, Mary Dunn, Helen Tolene. All are between 19 and 21 years of age. A fine of $10 was levied against each of the young men. The girls were allowed freedom without penalty after being sternly admonished by the court in a summing up of the case.

Arrest of the party was made at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at an unoccupied house owned by Fred Foss near East Lane. The house was recently occupied by a family and is fully furnished. The party, according to juvenile officers and Sheriff Springs, went to the Foss home immediately from a dance at 7:30 p. m. shortly after Saturday midnight, the house being occupied until 6 a. m. Sunday, when all went down town for breakfast. The party consisted of seven young men and seven girls, returned after breakfast and occupied the place until their arrest at 10 o'clock following complaints lodged by neighbors. All were released on their recognizance to appear for hearing in the probate court this morning.

SHRINE CEREMONIAL AT BURLEY ESTABLISHES LODGE'S RECORD

Bigger and Better Yet is Season's Initiatory Function with Class of More Than 100 Presented is Free and Bountiful—Community and Club Voted Appreciation

Bigger and better yet was the Spring ceremonial of the Order of Myrtle Shrine, held at Burley, last Saturday. The event made history for both the order and Burley, since it provided one of the most roaring lodge conventions Idaho has ever had, and also opened the way for Burley's municipality to display its entertaining genius.

The coronation drew together in a class of 108 novitiates, those coming from the surrounding lodges of the state as a rule. The lodge ceremonies and observances, in connection with the initiatory event, were of a particularly impressive and extensive nature. Shrine members from all parts of the state began to reach Burley on Friday to properly prepare the way for the advent of the pilgrims across the hot desert sands. Arranging the Idaho contingent of Myrtle Men was a goodly representation of Utah Shriners, including the Arab patrol of El Kalah temple, Salt Lake. The program throughout was inviting and happily enjoyed both behind the secret veil and on the street.

During the early part of the forenoon and afternoon of Saturday extensive programs were enacted for the benefit of the public. The novitiates, rope decked, were marched and counter-marched through the streets, the parade being headed by a band. Initiatory ceremonies were engaged in during the late hours of the afternoon and during the evening. Between the first and second parts of the initiatory schedule a banquet for the Shriners and friends was provided for both Shriners and the class in Arcadian hall. While this function was going on a similar feast was being served for Shriners ladies and friends at the National hotel. A dance was conducted throughout the afternoon and evening and was liberally patronized. A participant in an enlightening and interesting performance was given in the Burley theatre, an event especially staged for the Shriners.

The banquet at the hotel, while open to the public, was especially catered to for Shriners as well as to attend. Governor D. W.
