Second Note Intimates Assurance that Close Guarding and Censorship Will Be Instituted at Former Kaiser's Domicile

THE HAGUE, (AP)—The Dutch government today for the second time refused to deliver the former German emperor to the allies for trial.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Foreign exchange continued to improve today. Demand sterling opened at $3.60 to $3.65 as compared with yesterday's maximum of $3.68.

Continued improvement in foreign exchange today resulted in demand sterling reaching $3.70 when the stock market closed. This was an increase of 10 cents from the minimum quotation at $3.60 and a gain of 21 cents since Wednesday.

It is generally conceded, however, that such action may be necessary to banish further restoration of British and French credits here. The point is made that the steady increase of British exports to this country is already a big factor in reducing England's foreign obligations.

In responsible quarters it has never been doubted that the $500,000,000 loan of the Anglo-French $500,000,000 loan, maturing next October, would be paid and the recent strength of that issue in the local bond market has been regarded as especially significant.

Against the probability of immediate gold shipments from England attention is called by bankers to the interest on the $500,000,000 loan, maturing next October, would be paid and the recent strength of that issue in the local bond market has been regarded as especially significant.

Withdrawal Gold Coin. An additional $5,000,000 in gold coin was withdrawn from the treasury here for shipment to South America. This makes a total of $21,500,000 withdrawn this week.

NEW JERSEY IN LITIGATION TO BEAT DRY LAW

Files Suit in Supreme Court to Have Prohibition Amendment Declared Unconstitutional and Voted Act Repealed

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The state of New Jersey through its attorney general, Thomas F. Moran, Thursday filed in the United States supreme court a suit seeking to have the prohibition amendment declared unconstitutional and to prevent the enforcement of the Volstead act. The suit is directed against Attorney General Palmer and Daniel C. Hooper, commissioner of internal revenue.

The bill sets forth that the amendment was improperly drawn, that in 21 states the legislature have not ratified it as provided by their state constitutions and that there is no power in congress to propose a constitutional amendment regarding the habits and morals of the people. It recites further that the amendment is a legislative and not a constitutional matter and that as such it was improperly passed.

Charge Violation of Rights
It is charged that the amendment centralizes authority without the consent of the people and that it is a violation of their sovereign rights. The Volstead act, having been enacted under the authority of the amendment, the petition says, is null and void.

It is claimed that the Volstead act is illegal because by "depreciating and in a large measure destroying the taxable value of real and personal property within the state it is destructive of the state's free and independent government, because it deprives the state of revenues from licenses, which in 1910 amounted to $2,428,289, and because it interferes with the internal government of the people and operates to punish them by heavy fines, imprisonment and other penalties, thus preventing application for licenses for the sale of non-intoxicating beverages which is authorized by the constitution.

Complaints for Medicine
Complaint is made that the act restricts the practice of physicians of the state and the operation of its penal, correctional and charitable institutions; that the state is in violation of the amendment in that if the act is enforced it will nullify the right of the state to regulate its internal affairs. It is claimed the act is not appropriate to enforce the prohibitions contained in the amendment, which is expressly confined to intoxicating liquors.

The complainant also declares that if the amendment is valid the right of congress to legislate under it is restricted to matters relating to the external concerns of the United States and within the peculiar domain of the federal government to regulate commerce among the states, and that the state alone has the power to enforce the act within its own borders.

UNCLE SAM'S INDIAN WARDS ARE TROUBLED OVER SOARING COSTS

REDDING, Cal., (AP)—Uncle Sam's Indian wards are troubled by the high cost of living, according to The Jackson, "ambassador" of the Pit River tribe, whose reservation is in the mountains a few miles to the northeast of here.

Jackson has just returned from Washington, D. C. where he set forth some of the problems of his tribesmen, and of northern California Indians in general before high officials. He was accompanied on the trip by Charles Green of Glenburn, sometimes known as "Chief Granddonna." Both are full-blooded Indians.

The Pit River Indians contend that the government owes them about $5,000,000 for the lands they ceded in a treaty signed in 1861. News of Jackson's high official visit, which search was being made in the archives of the White House for the treaty, which, though signed, was never ratified. The Indians hold that it is none the less binding in honor.

"We want money," Jackson insists, "but we won't keep it very long if we get it. White men soon have it all, for Indian's hands have holes in them."

The red man declared that he was astounded to find attention by the anthropologists at the capital and treated kindly and considerately by them. "But I had to grease the wheels for them," he added.

Jackson's whose home is in Klamath Falls reservation, made a trip through Modoc, Lassen, Plumas and Shasta counties, California, visiting every Pit River Indian and aiding in their needs before he set out for Washington.

"We want the Great Father (head of government) to help the starving and needy red men," he said, "when they are in an interview, aided by an interpreter." He declared the Indians on allotments are not able to make their own living and the government does not help them.

"We have lots of money in Washington," Jackson said, with reference to the proceeds from the sale of timber and grazing land, "but that does not do the hungry Indians in Lassen, Plumas, Modoc and Shasta counties any good. It does not satisfy their hunger or keep their bodies warm."

Jackson carries with him the skin of a mouse. He says he visited the cabin of Chief Buckskin Jack on Hat Creek. Buckskin Jack is living at the age of 90 years, but his food is so scanty, avers Jackson, that the mouse at his cabin died.

PLANS MAKING AMERICAN GOODS IN GREAT BRITAIN

New Corporation is Formed in London to Develop Unique Trade Policy

LONDON, (AP)—A new company has been formed to arrange the manufacture of American goods in Great Britain for British and empire markets. It is stated by the American chamber of commerce in London.

With the growth of the movement for preferential tariffs and other preferential arrangements among the countries making up the British empire, many American manufacturers already have considered it desirable to establish factories in Canada. The new company is working, however, on the supposition that the advantages of a factory in Great Britain are greater.

The American chamber understands that the new company will encourage and assist American manufacturers of successful commodities to establish plants in Great Britain, but the American manufacturer is not interested in doing so and is willing to sell his manufacturing rights, the new company will undertake to find British or French manufacturers who will take over these rights. Similarly it will introduce into America goods which have proved successful in Great Britain or France.

The new company is understood to have received many inquiries from manufacturers on both sides of the Atlantic who are anxious to have their goods produced in the other country. The function of the new company is to bring such manufacturers together, its profits being out of a percentage of the royalty or a lump sum payable for the patent or the process.

FINNS DENY ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE LORD ACTON

Helsingfors Dispatch Blames Exaggeration of Story of Minor Incident

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Finnish legation has received an official dispatch from Helsingfors, the Finnish capital, stating that there is no foundation for recent reports of an attempt to assassinate Lord Acton, British minister to Finland. The reports it appears, grew out of an incident in the regulation of street traffic at Helsingfors. When an order to halt was given by a traffic officer, it was heeded by a party of diplomatic officials.

Not being aware of the presence of the diplomats and in order to enforce his orders, a warning shot was fired in the air. Explanations led to a speedy adjustment of the incident.

ELECTRIC LINE IS EXTENDED TO PACIFIC COAST

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Completes the Electrification of 647 Miles of Road in Two Divisions

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Electric locomotives, driven by current generated by water power, today, for the first time, pulled freight trains. The new division of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, The Columbian, the company's overnight train, was the first to make the coast run. The new line, the Milwaukee line operates electric locomotives. The Montana and Rocky Mountain divisions, from Harlowtown, Mont. to Avery, Idaho, were electrified in 1915 and 1916. Steam locomotives are still used on a gap between Othello and Avery. Electrification of this gap is being rushed.

No hauling engines will be used. It was announced, to assist the electric locomotives pull the train up the 2.1 per cent coast division grade, the heaviest on the system. The electric engines, it was stated, will make the grades at about 35 miles an hour.

When the Avery-Othello gap is closed, the Milwaukee will have 860 miles of its western line electrified. From 90 to 95 electric locomotives will be doing the work that about 250 steam locomotives performed before the electrification. Substitution of water power for steam will save approximately 800,000 tons of coal and 40,000,000 gallons of oil annually, the company estimates.

Glacial streams of Mount Rainier will supply some of the power which will be used to drive the engines. On the west end, the power will come from the White, Payalup and Snoqualmie plants of the Puget Sound Traction, Light and Power company. On the east end it will be furnished by the Long Lake plant of the Washington Waterpower company. The White and Payalup plants are on streams fed by the glaciers.

Electric trains will not run into Seattle until a stretch of 18 miles long from Benton Junction is rigged with the new trolley wires. The work will start as soon as the company arranges for a long time lease on the line.

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Three emissaries from Thrace are touring this country to assist in the explanation of the position of the Greeks in the Thracian territory surrendered under the peace treaty by Bulgaria and Turkey. They are members of the Thracian commission to the United States.

The members of the mission are Angelos Constantinoles, secretary, Smyrny; Dr. Panayotis Nicolopaulo, University of Paris; Nicholas Kalitcheas, Constantinople; Dr. Pateologia Georgiou, National University of Greece. In Philadelphia they spoke in churches of various denominations and at luncheons arranged in their honor.

TO CONTROL HOG MANGE

Hog mange is spread mainly by direct bodily contact, according to investigations recently conducted by the United States department of agriculture. The disease is contracted most rapidly among hogs of low vitality, especially those kept in small enclosures. It spreads more slowly among vigorous animals kept in pastures or in clean, well-lighted, roomy pens or buildings. Failure by swine owners to control hog mange results in heavy losses, as well as from a high death rate. The department states that the disease can be eradicated by four dippings in a lime-sulphur or arsenical solution with intervals of 6 or 7 days between dippings.

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sour in the stomach much like garbage sour in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-forming mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—adv.

WILL SELL CAKE FOR ARMY FUND

Local Bakery Donates Monster Confection to Salvationist Benefit Drive

One of the chief incidental features connected with tomorrow's Salvation Army budget fund drive will be the humble sale of a monster layer cake donated to the campaign by one of the Twin Falls bakers. Special ceremonies will accompany this auction, the cake going to the highest bidder.

Many interesting features are planned in connection with the drive for funds in the commercial district tomorrow afternoon, one of the principal attractions being the operation of huts by young ladies of this city representing Salvationist units. These of these buildings will be set up at street intersections where they will catch the bulk of pedestrian traffic. The young ladies will sell doughnuts, the money derived from this source being applied on the budget fund. The huts are to be embellished in fanciful taste, with representations of the activities of the Salvation Army during the war period as well as the future. It will be at one of these huts that the monster cake will be auctioned.

Tomorrow's drive will bring to a conclusion a two-day campaign for funds to establish the Salvation Army on working basis in Twin Falls. The sum of $3,000 is required to finance operations of this corps in Twin Falls over the eight months remaining of the present year. Arrangements for the push have been made by an advisory board of business men, with Attorney Taylor Cummings chairman. This committee will be in prospect of the campaign endeavor by Twin Falls post, American Legion, War Mothers and young women of the city.

This afternoon a committee of 20 members of the American Legion, post, divided into many sub-committees, is operating in the residence district. These minor bodies have been instructed to make the canvass intensive and not to leave a residence unvisited. Tomorrow all forces will concentrate in the business section.

PROGRAM IS DEVISED FOR OPENING MEETING

Various ministerial and commercial personages of this city will have an active part in the ceremonial. The Boise band will be here to aid in the work, both at the meeting hall and in the open air sessions. BUT FOR ONE THING

A paraphrase of a statement bearing upon international relationships lately delivered by a representative of a foreign nation at a gathering of prominent Americans might read something like this:
 "Two alternative courses are now open for Jugo-Slavikia to take, either to effect an early settlement of the questions raised at the peace conference, or to leave the question unaddressed and pending for an indefinite length of time.

"In any case Italy knows her responsibilities to Jugo-Slavikia and to civilization. She will go forward unwaveringly along the pathway which she believes leads to international peace and stability. What difficulties, then, are there possibly arising between the United States and Italy with respect to the Fiume problem?

"It should be borne in mind that Japan has in the Adriatic a special possition which is not shared by the United States or by any other European power. Her future destiny is closely interwoven with that of the Adriatic and her own national safety and vital interests are in many cases directly involved in Adriatic problems which America and other nations can afford to approach from purely sentimental or economic point of view."

"Needless to say no such statement is to be attributed to a representative of Italy in the United States. In point of fact, except where substitution is made of Italy for Japan and of Jugo-Slavia for China, the foregoing is a verbatim quotation from the first public utterances before a large gathering made by the newly appointed ambassador from Tokio.

The facts adduced, however, seem pre-pertinent to the controversy now raging over the Adriatic question, and there is no reason except one, so far as the average American is able to discern, why the statement as paraphrased might not serve as well for an American expression with reference to the Adriatic as the original statement must serve in some quarters for vindication of the peace treaty settlement in the Orient.

NEW LIGHT ON AMERICAN IDEALS
 Re-adoption by the senate yesterday of the original foreign relations committee reservation to American acceptance of the Shantung provision of the peace treaty, besides vindicating the validity of the reservation itself and the growing American appreciation of the wrong committed by the so-called Shantung award may well be expected to reassure those statesmen of the great Oriental republic of the sincerity of the American protest and bring about their reaffirmation of determination, as lately stated by Premier Chia Yuen-feng in welcoming Admiral Gleaves, commander of the United States Asiatic fleet:

"We believe that our country had a right to be heard, but we realize that from you, a republic of riper

Former Baseball Star and Manager is At Ease and Through with Kase and Gump

By I. E. SANBORN
 LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Next time you read about Frank Leroy Chance coming back into baseball see not owner of one of the million dollar clubs in the majors, don't get all het up about it. Take it for granted another coast scribble has at long last been published.

Not that the former peerless leader of the Cubs can't afford to indulge in the gamble of big league club ownership, but he doesn't want to, and neither would you if you had to give up what he would have to, for a large part of the year, if he came back. Listen:

We motored out from Los Angeles to Glendora the other day—an hour's trip that made the best part of Shuridan road seem full of hummocks by comparison—and surprise! The former pilot of the great Cub machine in his "office" figuring up the 1918 profits from his orange grove, preliminary to telling Uncle Sam how much income tax to expect from that twenty-acre acre.

Some Office, This Frank's "office" has no twin, so far as known. It is a cozy corner, glass partitioned off the back porch of his bungalow, and every time he looks up from a column of figures he rests his eyes on a smooth green lawn, profusely sprinkled with rose bushes and flower beds—a sort of al fresco patio, surrounded on three sides by bungalow.

In the background of the open side is a life sized reproduction of one of those old Holland windmills. Frank had that built around the water tank and pump on which he depended for moisture before California went so dry that he had to get water for his ranch from the city's water supply. The interior of the mill now makes do luxu-quaters for the Jap help.

That's a heap eight finer place from which to boss things than the most luxuriously equipped baseball office in experience, we may learn many profitable lessons. We hope to secure from you constant advice and counsel so that we may co-operate to maintain the permanent peace of the Pacific. This is the sincere wish of the Chinese people."

 Certainly it is no small contract which China looks to America to fulfill as a counsellor and exemplar, but it is one which America ought to undertake gladly, and with full appreciation of the fact that it is not something that would be vouchsafed to hands that were stained with participation in the depopulation of a faithful friend and ally.

the world, we'll say.
 As to the bungalow itself, a real estate publicity guy, collaborating with the writer, says it is "a gem, and get close to it, description, but even they would have to leave a lot to the imagination.

Mrs. Chance, the architect.
 There's a "living and dining room across the front of it with wide windows opening out way to the front porch and the other way to the patio, framing a colorful picture in either direction. One wing contains dining room, kitchen and a sunny breakfast room. The other has two guest rooms, with baths, and a combination sun parlor and den, one side of which consists of a very old fashioned fireplace. Over the living room a second story contains a spacious, sunny dressing room, bedroom, bath and sleeping porch.

The original architect was Mrs. Frank L. Chance and she was the boss decorator, too; some of the furnishings coming from as far away as Chicago. There are several wildcat skins suspended by Frank's rifle, and the den is full of pictures and trophies which recall the day when pennants instead of oranges engrossed the master politician's attention. The whole interior is simply exquisite and in dainty contrast to the gorgeous coloring of the external environment.

This gem of a domicile is set in the middle of orange grove and at the end of a palm bordered driveway, entrance to which is made under a stone arch supported by two Cubs and bearing the legend "Cub Ranch, Frank L. Chance." So it will be your own fault if you miss it.

Bad Year; Only $12,000.
 Although last year was a comparatively poor one, Chance found the comfortable balance of more than $12,000 on the right side of his books the day we surprised him. And recently he repainted one-third of his orchard with trees which will bear their first crop this year. Less than a month ago he laughed at a man who offered him $100,000 for the place. Besides, he owns the Frank Chance building, the most desirable business block in Glendora, and has to go only three-quarters of a mile to collect his rents.

"Wouldn't I be a mutt to quit this for another baseball offer?" asked the former diamond hero. "I'd a blame sight rather nurse a sick orange tree back to health than try to coddle a modern ball player into signing a contract for less than $15,000. And when I want variety I can run up to the duck club, a mile and a half away, any day in the winter, or I can go over the mountains for a week's fishing in the spring or hunting in the fall. And the bright lights are only an hour away, but I seldom go to Los Angeles. What chance has baseball with Chance?"

On the high school floor yesterday afternoon the Kimberly hoop team was defeated by the Twin Falls second quintet in an easy game, 46 to 15. The locals took all lead as the stars and held it continuously throughout the game. All the local men did good work and completely outclassed the visitors.
 The lineups were: Kimberly—Gray and Robinson, guards; Wilson, Sullivan and King, forwards; Ham, center. Twin Falls—Dicker, center; Paulson, King and Fix, forwards; Thomson, Shiel, King and Sterns, guards.
 Between the two periods of play Irwin of Twin Falls engaged Bash of Kimberly at wrestling and pinned the latter to the mat, 11 minutes, 35 seconds.

Stan Zyzako, big brother of the much-flopped Winder, says he will be ready to tackle Stecher after he has reduced his ponderous 300 pounds.

Then he went down and out before an English fighter.

About the New Coats

On the whole it may be said that coats are of the top-coat variety, which harmonize well with the shorter skirts. The cut of this is full, so that the wrap may be loose and roomy, easy to get in and out of and not likely to crush fluffy things beneath. The fullness, however, is judiciously restrained in one way or another, by inside or outside belt, plaiting or gathers, so that the silhouette remains quite slim and well defined.

Arm Holes, in general, are of the set-in, raglan or kimona-sleeve sorts, repeating the idea of comfort expressed above. The shoulder tends to a slender, drooping effect. Materials are of the delightfully fuzzy, woolly sorts for sports and general utility wear, while introduction of smooth finished cloths, usually in combination, is made for more elegant garments.

Although, as has been said, the short coat seems to prevail, yet a longer model, after the order of the Redingote, is provided for the use of those who particularly desire a practical garment of that sort.

Illinois Executive Carries Plot to Success After Others Fail

Improvement of Vast Importance to Mississippi Valley and Northwest

All Plans to Actual Construction Resumed

One of the outstanding achievements of Gov. Frank Lowden's administration in Illinois was the... through of the Illinois waterways project...

The last bar to the project was removed January 16 with the issuance of a permit by the secretary of war authorizing the state to proceed at once with the improvement.

The waterway will be of immense value to farmers of the great productive region of the entire Mississippi valley and the Northwest.

Before the war and the increase of rail freight rates a ton of freight was carried a thousand miles by water as cheaply as fifty miles by rail.

The surveys and engineering work for the improvement have been under the direction of M. G. Barnes who, during the Roosevelt administration, designed for the government the structure of the Panama canal.

These officers state that much of the preliminary work has already been accomplished. Funds for carrying on the construction were provided through the action of the legislature authorizing the issuance of $20,000,000 bonds which have been affirmed by a vote of the people.

WOOL HOLDINGS DECLINE, REPORT

Quarterly Statement Shows Only "Comfortable Reserve Supply" in Stock

Wool holdings on December 31, 1919, were 639,000 pounds, gross equivalent, or 106,000 pounds less than on September 30, 1919, according to the quarterly stock report received Friday by the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture. That the commercial supply is evenly distributed is indicated by the fact that on December 31, 1919, manufacturers reported holdings of 844,000,000 pounds and dealers 242,000,000 pounds, gross equivalent. This should not be taken to indicate that the weather has been reported by them, for while they held practically one-half of the stock upon which there were no restrictions, it is evident that a considerable proportion of it was being stored by them and being held for shipping instructions. Although the wool supply seems rather large, when referring to the total figures, it is not considered more than a comfortable reserve supply, which should be carried in this country at all times to meet any emergency in case the regular importations of wool were interrupted, says the bureau's wool specialist.

Government Holdings Decreased
The government's holdings of wool have decreased materially since last year. The wool-purchasing quartermaster reported that on December 31, 1919, the total stock of wool in the possession of the government, spot and in transit, was 215,749,502 pounds, and that the quantity of wool in dealers' hands not yet billed to the government was 70,000,000 pounds, making in all 285,749,502 pounds, compared with 392,352,000 pounds on December 31, 1918. This clearly shows, it is claimed, that the government released its wool holdings as quickly as possible in such quantities as the market would readily absorb through public auctions throughout the year.

The British government in carrying out its proposed plan to liquidate its wool holdings as being held in this country as of December 31, 1919, 939,000 pounds of grease wool and 731,543 pounds of scoured wool, which was reported by the representative of the British government as being held in this country as of December 31, 1919.

The total holdings of dealers, manufacturers, and the United States and British governments according to conditions were: Grease wool, 834,556,329 pounds; scoured wool, 60,770,844 pounds; pulled wool, 34,907,999 pounds; tops, 19,262,009 pounds; noils, 11,209,297 pounds.

The manufacturers' stocks according to geographical distribution were as follows: Massachusetts, 62,503,533 pounds; Rhode Island, 25,490,704 pounds; Pennsylvania, 18,525,024 pounds; New Jersey, 20,554,833 pounds; New York, 18,837,556 pounds, followed by New Hampshire, Ohio, Connecticut and Maine.

The dealers' holdings of all grades, conditions and classes according to cities were as follows: Boston, 126,025,851 pounds; Philadelphia, 22,706,084 pounds; New York, 12,894,433 pounds; Chicago, 12,659,106 pounds; St. Louis, 9,114,087 pounds; Portland, 2,947,759 pounds.

WHITTAKER TO SPEAK

The meeting will be addressed by Mayor Whittaker, of Coeur d'Alene, and the Rev. W. A. Moore, of the Twin Falls Christian church, as the principal speakers. Representatives of various councils and labor lodges will be called upon for short talks.

Weather Maker Opens an Attack on Northern End

SOMEbody in the north end of the six must have understood the ill-will of the weather-maker. He has shifted his pernicious attention, temporarily, at least, from the south section to the north end. Just why the continued attack against the lower tier of counties has been discontinued for the time is not known, but the fact remains that the weather hasn't been so bad today, and fairer conditions are offered for tomorrow, while dire things are threatened for the north tonight and Saturday.

But contented with that statement is this for the upper territory: "Probably rain or snow north."
Both high and low for the past 24 hour period topped the points of the day previously. Yesterday the mercury reached 46, and only dropped back 14 degrees during the nocturnal period. There was a trace of precipitation.

CONTESTS ARE PLANNED TO HELP STIMULATE IMPROVED SPELLING

Cash Prizes are Offered for Winners in Competitive School Events to Be Held Here in April—Twin Falls Business Man Promotes Plan and Academic Authorities Give Aid

As a stimulating medium for better spelling a contest schedule has been devised by high school teachers of Twin Falls to be held here during the month of April.

The competitive feature is open to entrants from the fifth grade to the senior class of the high school inclusive.

Elimination contests will be held about April 19 to 23 by room, class and building. Final contests will be held about April 23.

The prime mover in bringing about this competitive spelling arrangement is Asher B. Wilson, lawyer and president of the Twin Falls chamber of commerce. Mr. Wilson has authorized the presentation of cash prizes to winners in the contests.

It is the plan of the general committee in charge to divide the school grade classes into three groups. The first will comprise, inclusively, the fifth and sixth grades. Miss E. M. Shotwell, supervisor of the elementary grades, will have charge of this group. The second group, comprising the seventh and eighth grades, inclusive, will be in charge of L. E. Bear, principal of the intermediate schools. Principal M. C. Mitchell, of the high school will look after the classes from nine to twelve.

The cash prizes offered are $10 for the first place winners in each group, and $5 for the second place winners. At the present time the three group directors are preparing spelling lists and the general field of subject matter will be mimeographed so that each pupil in the several departments may be supplied with a list of 50 words on each Monday morning. This affords contestants a system of familiarization with words to be found in the final tests. There will be several hundred words in the total.

It is not intended that this contest or preparatory study shall in any way interfere with, or take the place of the regular academic work, but on each Friday pupils may have an oral spelling lesson covering the field surveyed.

This exercise will consume the 20 minutes of the regular school spelling recitation; or approximately 20 minutes per week of class-room time may be used in this work.

Rules governing the contest provide that words may be pronounced but, unless the pupil pronounces it incorrectly or failure to hear it readily is apparent, pupils must pronounce each word before spelling. Failure to do this will be counted as an error against the contestant.

Words must be spelled reasonably soon after being pronounced, but they shall not be judged right or wrong until finished.

Final authority on pronunciation and spelling of all words shall be Webster's New International dictionary.
