RUSSIAN CO-OPERATIVE CHAIRMAN GIVES VIEWS

Says Workers' Societies, Now Working as Government Activity, Sole Source of Civilian Provisioning

HONOLULU (AP)—The Japanese foreign office intimates an early resumption of commercial relations with the soviet government of Russia, preliminary to formal recognition of the soviet as a de facto government, according to a Tokyo cable to the Japanese newspaper Nippon Shun, here.

MOSCOW (AP)—All co-operative societies through which soviet Russia will do business with the outside world will be represented on the commission appointed to go to London by Vladimir K. Kinechou, first chairman of the workers' co-operative organization. M. Kinechou is a man of remarkable personality and is little known outside of Russia. He was formerly a Menshevik and until recently was an opponent of communism. He played a part in the revolution of 1905 and spent 12 years in exile in Siberia.

"It is no secret to the extent that our economic position is bad," M. Kinechou said, "but it is not hopeless." In spite of four years of war against Germany and two years of civil war we have fed the people somehow and the co-operative societies have been the source of profits for the civilian population. They are now operating as a government activity through the central union of co-operative societies.

MINERS SERVE NOTICE OF REFUSAL TO HEAR COST CUT PROMISES

Declare Against Acceptance of Findings of Bituminous Coal Commission Unless a Substantial Increase in Wages and Improved Working Conditions are Provided; Point Out Rise in Prices Despite Government Representations

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—The United Mine Workers of America will refuse to accept the findings of the bituminous coal commission unless a substantial increase in wages and improved working conditions are provided, it was intimated in a statement issued today from headquarters of the organization. The miners' representatives were absent from the city and those in charge of the offices refused to comment on the state.

Defines "Full Justice"
Unless a settlement of the controversy is made on such a basis, the statement says, the miners will not feel "that full justice has been done them." The bituminous coal commission was organized by the state to bring the miners to work out a suitable wage scale for the miners and report on any plan for improving living conditions, after the strike of miners had ended.

GERMANY SEEKS TO MAKE AMEND
BERLIN (AP)—Germany has expressed her regrets to France for the inter-allied demonstration at the Hotel Adlon here Sunday night, when an anti-French party was subjected to assault at the instigation of Prince Joachim Albrecht, of Prussia, because of its members had failed to stand behind the orchestra played "Deutschland über alles."

Another incident reported Sunday night at the Hotel Adlon here in which Prince Joachim Albrecht, of Prussia, was the chief figure, leading a party of anti-French officers and French officers in the dining-room another inter-allied incident is reported from Bremen. When the Frenchmen entered the barracks in Bremen to conduct negotiations with German officers, the anti-French party was subjected to assault "Deutschland über Alles." SIMS CHARGES NAVY FAILED TO ACT PROMPTLY

Declares Dilatory Policy Prolonged Struggle for at Least Four Months and Jeopardized Outcome Unnecessarily

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rear Admiral Sims today told the senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war that the failure of the navy department to act promptly on recommendations and to place the country's entire naval resources at the disposal of the fleet within six months after the United States entered the war prolonged the struggle for at least four months. He added that it also unnecessarily jeopardized the outcome.

RAISES NO QUESTION OF EFFICIENCY DURING WAR
Explains Criticism is Impelled Solely by Sense of Responsibility to Point Out Errors to Be Corrected

Declaring that 3,000 lives were lost and $300,000,000 spent every day of the war, the rear admiral said the conclusions from his statement were obvious.
Admiral Sims said his criticisms were directed at the navy's work in 1917 and "had nothing to do with the magnificent way the navy functioned in 1918 after it really got into the war."

Denies Making "Attack"
The navy, he said, was not properly prepared in April, 1917. He denied that his statements constituted "an attack" on any one and characterized as "ridiculous" statements that he was attacking civilian control of the navy department which, he said, was essential.

BERLIN (AP)—Germany has expressed her regrets to France for the inter-allied demonstration at the Hotel Adlon here Sunday night, when an anti-French party was subjected to assault at the instigation of Prince Joachim Albrecht, of Prussia, because of its members had failed to stand behind the orchestra played "Deutschland über alles."

Still another incident of similar nature at Bremen is reported by the Vossische Zeitung. It says that yesterday two French officers and an Italian officer stopped a man wearing a field gray uniform supposing him to belong to the German army, when the man failed to salute them, and that high words followed, culminating in blows. A crowd assaulted the allied officers, the newsmen were considerably injured, the newsmen were injured, the officers were arrested by the police.

WILSON'S LETTER FAILS TO HEAD OFF ADOPTION OF COMPROMISE MEASURE

Qualification to Acceptance of Equality of Voting in League Is Endorsed by 37 to 20 Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—The reservation on equality of voting power in the league of nations was re-adopted by the senate today by a vote of 37 to 20 after it had been modified on motion of the republican leaders.

The action left only article ten reservation to be disposed of, but on motion of Senator Lodge, adjournment was taken without starting debate on that subject.
Seventeen democrats voted with the republicans for the voting power reservation. They included Senators Ashurst, Arizona; Chamberlain, Oregon; Henderson, Nevada; Myers, Montana; Nugent, Idaho; Phelan, California and Pittman, Nevada.

In its original form it had been adopted in November by a vote of 53 to 35, with only eight democrats supporting it.
A modified draft of the republican article ten reservation to the peace treaty is understood to have been appended to today by a number of republican leaders working with the democrats for a ratification compromise.

The new reservation was said to follow in general the outline of the original republican proposal adopted last November, but to contain a number of changes in wording agreed to at the suggestion of the democrats.
Predict Lodge's Approval
Republican senators seemed confident that the new reservation would have the approval of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader. It was understood, however, that Democratic leader, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, had not assented to it.

Democratic senators were slow in promising their support, while they weighed the meaning of the letter written to Senator Hitchcock yesterday by President Wilson, reiterating his opposition to any reservation which would impair the full force of article ten.
The text of the modified article ten reservation as it is understood to have been assented to by the republican leaders is follows:
The United States assumes no obligations to employ its military or naval forces, its resources, or any form of economic discrimination to preserve its territorial integrity or political independence of any other country, or to interfere in controversies between nations, whether members of the league or not, or to interfere in controversies between nations—whether members of the league or not, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress, in the exercise of full liberty of action, shall by act or joint resolution so declare.

As adopted last session the reservation read:
The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of nations of any other country, or to interfere in controversies between nations—whether members of the league or not, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the congress, in the exercise of full liberty of action, shall by act or joint resolution so provide.

Fight Takes New Angle
President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock, outlining anew his stand on reservations to the peace treaty, gave a new angle today to the ratification fight in the senate, where it has been limited by an unanimous consent in an effort to hurry a decision.
Although the president did not say what reservations he would accept or reject, the declaration that he would declare war or authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States, shall by act or joint resolution so provide.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Residents of Mexico have been warned by the foreign office to be on guard against efforts that may be made to circulate in that country counterfeit American money made in the United States, according to advices received by the state department. DeNegri, Mexican consul general at New York, that the foreign office had estimated the amount of spurious currency in circulation at $300,000,000 and that his government to adopt precautionary measures.

SUFFRAGE VOTE IS HINGED UPON RESULT OF RACE

West Virginia Senators Hastening to Capital to Cast Opposing Ballots on Amendment Ratification

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Supporters of the Anthony amendment won the first round in the senate this afternoon, when the vote of Senator Burr, who had been listed as an anti-suffragist, but who actually was supporting Senator Montgomery, who had come from Illinois, from voting. They also brought about adjournment.

CHICAGO (AP)—Undeterred by news that he may arrive too late, Jesse A. Bloch, state senator of West Virginia, left Chicago at 12 o'clock on a special train in an effort to reach Charleston in time to cast the deciding vote for woman's suffrage.

Advised by the Associated Press that Senator A. I. Montgomery, listed as an anti-suffragist, had reached Charleston and that, even if the vote could be delayed until his arrival, he probably would only bring about another tie, Senator Bloch said he would make the trip anyway.
He arrived here at 11:30 o'clock from California, where he has been spending a vacation with Mrs. Bloch. By order of Governor Will H. Hays, the republican national committee had a special train and an airplane waiting.

The situation was hastily explained. A railroad representative said his special could reach Cincinnati in six hours, making connections for Charleston. C. R. Borkland, the flyer, offered to cut the time to three hours.
Mrs. Bloch cast the deciding vote for the train.
The special train cost the republican national committee $2,000. The senator had offered to make the trip for $300.

MONTGOMERY ARRIVES AT CAPITAL TO BREAK DEADLOCK
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Senator A. I. Montgomery, listed as an anti-suffragist, arrived in Charleston today, and it was announced by opponents of the Anthony amendment that he would break the deadlock in the senate this afternoon and allow that body to adjourn before Senator Bloch, the suffragist, who is hastening here from California, could arrive to vote for ratification.

Senator A. B. Montgomery some time ago sold his West Virginia holdings and moved to Illinois. He never suffragist declared. They would oppose his vote on the ground that he is no longer a resident of the state.
It was said at the state house that anti-suffrage leaders had planned to have Senator Montgomery take his seat in the senate when they body convenes this afternoon, and then to force consideration of a motion for final adjournment. Senator Montgomery, they declared, would vote with them and that when Senator Bloch arrived early tomorrow the senate would be in session, and the resolution to endorse the amendment would have been defeated.

DANIELS ARGUES FOR EXTENSIONS OF NAVAL BASES

Declares Immediate Action is Necessary to Meet Present and Prospective Needs of the Pacific Fleet

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Extensive development of naval bases and facilities on the Pacific coast was urged yesterday before the house naval committee by Secretary Daniels. Immediate action was necessary, he said, to meet the needs of the Pacific fleet, which, he estimated, was larger than the fleet which circled the globe in 1917.

Specific Recommendations
Specific recommendations made by the secretary:
Development of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, as a supply base for the fleet with facilities for repair and upkeep.
Improvements at Guam to permit of its serving as a fueling and repair station for ships on route to the far east and as a fueling base for United States merchant marine vessels.

Enlargement of the naval base at Bremerton, Wash., to permit caring for a larger quota of the fleet there.
"This yard should become one of the main repair and docking yards for our main ships."
Development of San Diego, Cal., as the main base of the Pacific fleet while on the Southern Pacific drill grounds.
Establishment of submarine and destroyer bases at Port Angeles, Wash., and Astoria, Ore.

Anticipate Criticism
Declaring that he realized that he might be criticized as advocating an increase in the number of naval bases, Mr. Daniels said that within a few years the growth of the Pacific fleet would make impossible even the program he was outlining.
Members of the committee were inclined to object to establishing new destroyer and submarine bases on the Pacific coast. Mr. Daniels, however, already in operation at San Diego and San Pedro, California, but Mr. Daniels declared the great distances on the Pacific coast made the additional bases necessary.

The secretary said a navy yard capable of accommodating the largest capital ships should be developed on San Francisco bay. He said he was already not "believe the government would be justified in deepening the channel to Mare Island sufficiently to utilize that yard for the great dreadnaughts and battle cruisers. Instead, the establishment of a new naval base below Mare Island and estimated its cost at probably $75,000,000. Mr. Daniels requested permission to accept a tract of 110 acres of land from the city of Astoria, Wash., free from incumbrance on which to build the proposed destroyer and submarine base.

Unless provision is made to maintain the efficiency of the present naval reserve force by systematic training, the navy, within a few years, will be faced with the same lack of potential manpower as when the country entered the war, Secretary Daniels told the committee. In another war, the secretary said, there probably would not be the same "opportunity for preparation."
"We must depend upon a large and efficient reserve force ready to be mobilized the instant an emergency arises," he declared. "These reserves should be given regular training in peace time to qualify them for duty afloat."

An active reserve force of 27,000 men, enlisting for one year, was recommended by Mr. Daniels as necessary to provide an adequate trained reserve. He approved the bureau of navigation recommendations for a total reserve of approximately 200,000 men, enrolling and divided into three classes, 100,000 to be trained for service with the fleet and an equal number for duty on merchant vessels.

American Forestry Association Suggestion Meets Wide-spread Response

WASHINGTON, (AP)—"The Great Tree on Boston Common" and "The Green Tree Hotel" at Le Claire, Iowa, the most famous tree on the Mississippi river were today nominated for a place in the "Hall of Fame for Trees" being compiled by the American Forestry association.
The great tree on Boston Common is nominated by Collins Warren, of Boston, who sends a complete history of the tree which was blown down in a storm February 15, 1918, the centennial of the year in which the colonists gathered around the tree and started for Lexington to give battle to the British.

"The Green Tree Hotel" at Le Claire, Iowa, is nominated by J. B. Barnes, who as a boy played leap frog between the branches of this tree with one Willie Cody afterward known to fame as "Buffalo Bill." The historic elm is well known on the Mississippi river, because to the river men it is considered to be 120 years old.

DRY AMERICA AROUSES LONDON BISHOP'S ENVY

Advices Congregation to Aish High Although Prohibition now Would Be a Mistake

LONDON, (AP)—The Bishop of London told a congregation at Southwark cathedral that he was in favor of the movement advocating prohibition for this country, but he could not help looking with somewhat envious eyes on the present position in America, in view of present public opinion it would be a mistake, in his opinion, at this moment to aim at a similar measure in this country, but at least they could aim high.
"Just think London would be," he added, "if we could get control of the drink traffic; if we could make drunken homes sober. It would have an enormous effect upon the moral question, because more than half of the immorality existing in London today is due to intemperance."

When they reached a point over 100 miles south of the boundary, near Nacozari, Sonora, shortage of gasoline forced them to land, they said. The Americans were detained by the authorities of Nacozari until a few days ago.
Since their return to El Paso last Friday, the two officers have been confined to their quarters in Fort Bliss pending a preliminary investigation of their sojourn in Mexico.

DELAYS ACTION ON CONVENTION FOR TRADE MARK

Argentine Congress Fails to Ratify Pan-American Agreement, but is Pressed by the President to Give Approval

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Despatches from the United States stating that the American Manufacturers Export Association had launched a fight against "trade mark" pirates in foreign countries, including Argentina, were read with interest by the American business colony here which is aware of frequent instances of this sort of business meanness.

Americans are far from holding Argentine alone guilty of the practice, for the stealing of marks has not been done here even by Americans from their own countrymen, it is said as well as by Europeans from Americans. The remedy against it, business men say, is for the American manufacturer to register his trade mark with the government without delay, otherwise when he attempts to enter this market he may find the same unknown individual or competitor in the same line of goods has anticipated him.

It is not necessary in Argentina for the person who registers a trade mark to pay for the actual cost of the goods. That is, anybody can register a trade mark, first come first served. Once registered, the mark can be used by no one else, and if it is pirated, the rightful owner either has to sell his products under a new trade mark or buy off the pirate.

It is known in the office of the United States consul at this port that the sum of $30,000 was paid by one American concern to recover its trade mark from a pirate.

There are reported to be certain individuals who almost make a business of appropriating trade marks of foreign concerns in order to extort a price for surrendering them to the owner. They watch newspapers for advertising in newspapers and magazines of foreign concerns whose products they judge are likely to find a market in Argentina; if they find a likely trade mark not registered, they see that it is done in their own names and then wait. They also watch for the expiration of trade marks—the period is ten years. There are many instances in which concerns have thus left their trade marks to a pirate as the result of neglecting to have them renewed.

Argentina has a treaty to ratify the American trade mark convention, under which a central agency for the ten southern republics of America would be established in Rio Janeiro. The trade mark registered there would be good in all other South American countries signatory to the convention and will save time, expense and trouble. The American administration is known to be anxious to have the treaty ratified, but congress has failed to act. It is reported that President Irigoyen is preparing a special message to congress urging that there be no further delay in the matter.

Barn Goes When Youngsters Play With Lit Candle

Structure at Murtagh Destroyed while Adults are Absent from Place

MURTAGH, (Special)—Carrying a lighted candle in the hands of children set fire to the big barn belonging to A. D. Lee. The structure was totally destroyed with most of the contents. There was no livestock in the place and the children managed to escape the flames.

The fire happened Friday afternoon while Mr. and Mrs. Lee were at the railroad station. Mrs. Lee having arranged to take a train for a short trip. The four Lee children, three boys and a five and a half year old girl had been left at home. The older boy is said to have procured a candle from the house and took the children to the barn where by accident the blaze caught in the hay. The granary and chicken house, located near by, were saved. In the barn were about 25 tons of hay and five sacks of clover. The total loss is estimated at $6,000.

WILSON DEMOCRATS OF TEXAS READY FOR FRAY

Unofficial Conference Lays Plans for Delegation to Stand for Approval of Administration

DALLAS, Tex., (AP)—Democrats of Texas supporting the re-election of President Wilson Saturday picked up the game of battle hurled down by the anti-administration faction of state democrats led by former Senator J. W. Bailey.

Meeting here in unofficial state-wide conference, the "Woodrow Wilson" democrats laid plans for an energetic campaign to send to the national convention at San Francisco a Texas delegation that will stand "solidly and unreservedly in approval and support" of the Wilson administration.

HIGH SCHOOL BALL TEAM WEAK IN BATTERY DEPARTMENT—MUST DEVELOP HURLERS AND CATCHERS

Coach Denman Rounds Up Squad of Material for Diamond Nine but Finds Lack of Promising Candidates for Peak Points — Newman Only Man of Known Qualifications on Mound — Putzier and Kringle are Prospects

With the local basketball season safely disposed of, athletic interest in the stadium for a week or so has present indications are that the school this year will be up to marks set by teams in past years. Candidate for scholastic honors in the national game will be coached by G. E. Denman, who has worked with baseball men in the local school for two years previous, each time turning out a winning diamond squad.

The call for moundmen and backstops was issued yesterday and the battery players will work out daily in the gymnasium for a week or so before going out to Lincoln field. Infielders and outfielders will begin practice probably next week, says Mr. Denman. Abundant material is in evidence for the nine with the exception of pitchers and catchers, and several of them undoubtedly will be found soon. Several men on the basketball varsity who are practically assured of regular places on the team this year, will not be able to begin work until the Moscow hoop tournament is safely out of the way in two weeks or thereabouts.

Though the problem of filling found and backstop positions is not an easy one, batteries will be picked from Epler and Roy King, catchers, and Putzier, Kringle, Newman and Kringle and other material not yet in evidence. Epler was second-string backstop last year and King has had some experience at that position, as well as on the mound. Newman is known to have pitching ability and Putzier has hurled a game or two in the past, while Kringle is expected to do a little pitching. Newman can also be used to good advantage on the initial step open. Watson, who has had more experience than any of the old men, will probably hold down third base, with Kringle at short as last year.

Fix, Thometz and Yochum, fly chasers of last season, will probably hold down the outfield corners, respectively this year. Other outfielders will likely show up as soon as active practice is begun. It is not expected that there will be any great difficulty in filling up the last three spots. Shady, Philip King and Chancell, all of the latter new men, will be out for infield positions.

Taken together, prospects for a star nine are very good, though the lineup is admittedly not as good as that of last year. After all however, there is a shortage of material only as far as the batteries and infield are concerned after active training begins. A playing schedule of ten or twelve games, including probably four with Boise, will be drawn up within a few weeks, and the first diamond tilt of the season played in about a month.

"REBEL" RUSSELL'S ARM IS RESTORED; COMEBACK LIKELY

White Sox Pitcher Said to Be Due for Biggest Year of His Entire Career

"Reb" Russell is due to come through in a blaze for the White Sox this year. That's the tip handed out in Chicago, where most folks believe the White Sox can cap the pennant this season if they bolster up their pitching staff—which evidently died on masee last fall.

Russell was born in Aulbury, Miss., March 22, 1889. In 1912 the Bonham club in the Texas-Oklahoma league signed him and later in the season passed him on to Fort Worth in the Texas league. That same fall he was picked for a trial by the White Sox and finally was purchased for a reported price of $450. When he joined the club in the south in the spring of 1913 he was a raw bird as far as pitching was concerned, but before the curtain was rung down on the big league campaign that season Russell was the sensation of the major leagues and one of the most valuable pitchers in either circuit.

He continued to star for three or four seasons and then his arm went wrong.

Train in Earnest For Mat Contests Next Friday Night

High School Wrestlers are Preparing for Coming of Boise Athletes

Wrestlers of the boxing and wrestling club are putting in earnest preparations for the Twin Falls-Boise intercollegiate wrestling meet Friday night. Robery the local wrestlers.

Brief Bits of Sport

The Cardinals have a semi-pro catcher named Roth on their list.

This makes two Roths, a Ruth and a Rath in major ball circuits.

The Chicago Cubs gave Lee Magee his unconditional release recently.

Magee has been unable to get on with any other major club and he now threatens to bring suit against the Cubs for cancelling him.

Eighty cities in the United States support lawn tennis to the extent of having 1367 courts.

Ain't any more lawn tennis than baseball in Twin Falls, either.

Lew Edward, Australian lightweight scrapper, says his legitimate weight is 131 pounds ringside. He adds, also, that he will compel Benny Leonard to agree to 133 pounds ringside, before he will enter into an agreement to fight the champion.

The Pacific Coast league seems to be honeycombed with dissatisfied players. The latest is Charlie Pich, shortstop, who refuses to report to the Angels. Charles says he will play independent ball this year.

It is a bad day for the sport when a swimming record isn't cracked or at least badly bent.

Only two new managers will be seen in the Pacific Coast league this spring. They are Ernie Johnson of the Salt Lake club, and Clyde Vares of Seattle.

A Memphian, who battles at 133 pounds and whose name is given as "Red" Herring, is laying for Benny Leonard.

Red and Ben met in the ring recently and Red went down for more than the count. Now he wants another chance to show that he can kuckout the champion.

Should have done it on the first opportunity, if he could.

MRS. STOKES TO HAVE NEW TRIAL

Federal Court Reverses Verdict of Conviction of Wealthy Woman Socialist

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The United States circuit court here today reversed the verdict by which Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes, wealthy New York socialist, was convicted in New York City in June, 1918, of violating the espionage act, and remanded the case for new trial. Mrs. Stokes was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

The reversal was based solely on the charge given by the Federal Judge, Judge Van Valkenburgh, who presided at the trial and which was declared prejudicial to the defendant. Mrs. Stokes was indicted on charges that she wrote in a confidential opinion, a Kansas City newspaper, denouncing the government as being "for the profiteers."

The opinion, written by Judge Stone and concurred in by Judges Stribner and Carland stated that "the charge contained in several places a rich and inspiring exhibition of patriotism; that it was written in a confidential opinion, raising the point of Judge Van Valkenburgh's instructions to the jury on the matter of Mrs. Stokes' belief as an internationalist."

The trial court held, Judge Carland continued, "that internationalism is incompatible with patriotism; and it should be very careful not to punish a citizen for opinions honestly held."

ENGLAND TO ESTABLISH FIRST COPPER REFINERY

Newton Abbot Is Chosen as Site for Pioneer Electrolytic Plant in Great Britain

NEWTON ABBOT, Eng. (AP)—This little town has been chosen as the site for the first electrolytic copper refinery in Great Britain, to cost 10,000,000, 000 pounds.

The war revealed the fact that there was no refinery of this kind in Great Britain. The non-ferrous trades committee formed by the government strongly recommended a plant capable of producing 100,000 tons of copper should be established in the United Kingdom for which, as far as possible, British copper in billet form should be used.

The government promised financial assistance if required and Sir Gerald Maitland, a member of the committee, which copper firm, who was chairman of the committee, now heads a syndicate which will erect the new copper refining plant.

SIMMS' CHARGES NAVY FAILED

Impelled by Sense of Duty

Declaring that he had raised questions about the efficiency of the navy solely because he had felt it his duty to point out errors, the admiral said he had been "much embarrassed by implications of insubordination and impropriety."

He also vigorously attacked what he characterized as efforts to "cover up" or "divide allegiance" and of being "pro-British," saying that he happened to be born in Canada because his mother went there on a visit.

"If they didn't want a man who was pro-British and pro-French to sit in the councils of the allies why didn't they send a pro-German with a trunkful of bombs," asked the admiral.

Admiral Sims said he repeatedly asked the department to relieve him if he had lost its confidence.

Committee Delays Questioning

When the admiral had concluded reading a statement the committee recessed until tomorrow without cross-examining him. His statement set forth in detail his criticism of the navy department's method of conducting its participation in the war.

In his statement, Admiral Sims affirmed that the main issue was "determination of personal responsibilities," but the recognition of "unsound methods in the execution of war policies" that the fundamental causes thereof may be removed.

Asks Pointed Questions

"If I am wrong," he continued, "and we were prepared, and if we had plans before and at the beginning of the war similar to those announced on paper, some time after we declared war, and if such plans were in accordance with the policy which was actively and actually pursued at the end of the first eight months of the war, then it is a grave error that all the forces, men and ships which were actively engaged in the war zone at the end of this six months delay were not there at the end of the first month."

"Granting that the work of our navy was necessary and was based on sound policy and military tactics, it is indispensible that if any delay occurred in putting that policy into effect the war was thereby prolonged and, as a consequence lives and resources needlessly sacrificed."

"If such is not the case, that is, if the work of our navy was not necessary then our naval contribution did not amount to much."

"It did amount to a great deal as every one agrees, and hence it is the motive of my letter to show that un sound methods caused such delay, and that they should be removed, and an, extent as to make them impossible of recurrence in the future."

"The issue is that of our national safety."

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

OF MARY GRAMM DOWNER

THE ANGRY RAIN.

"Well," said the King of the Clouds, "my children, the army of raindrops, they are very angry. They are so mad as they can be. Just listen to them!"

Old Nurse Fog listened to them as she rocked the little grandchild-children to sleep.

"Listen my darling little mist ones," she said, "and after you've had a good rest your old nurse will let you play. You can play all day tomorrow."

So she sang the "Nurse" Fog Lis. Mist grandchild-children to sleep, and they liked her singing, though it was hoarse and sounded as though she had a bad cold.

"Ah," she said, "my little charge are now asleep, so I can talk to you, King of the Clouds. What is it you asked me to do?"

"I asked you to listen to the army of raindrops," said the King of the Clouds. "They're just tumbling all over each other in anger."

"What is the trouble?" asked Nurse Fog.

"Didn't you hear?" asked the King of the Clouds.

"No," said Nurse Fog. "I was busy singing the children to sleep, or, I should say, the grandchild-children."

"The children," began the King of the Clouds, "for in other words the army of raindrops, or in other words the rain, began to pour down. Some of it went sideways, all of it went partly sideways."

"But a great deal of it went into windows and scampered about on the floors and played with the curtains and had a great deal of fun."

"There was a little girl in bed whose name was Melly. Her window was right by the side of her bed, and the rain began to jump in and play on her head."

"A number of the drops landed on her forehead and they laughed and ran races right over it."

"Well, she woke up and this is the point where the trouble began."

"She felt her head and it was quite damp, and her forehead was wet. Then she noticed that the floor was soaking wet and that the curtains were hanging limply by the windows."

"What she wanted, said, 'What this limit? This is too much. Why, it has rained right into my room and right on me and my curtains, and everything!'"

NO HAIR CUT FOR BASEBALL: SAMPSON

WILSON'S LETTER FAILS

foot virtual nullifications" of the pact. To weaken article ten of the league of nations covenant, he said, would be to cut the "very heart" from it.

Foreign Politics Claim Interest. Special interest was evidenced in that part of the letter dealing with that subject and other great powers. The president declared "imperialistic policies were by no means dead in the councils of the nations whom we most trust. Without article ten, he said, there could be no certainty of renunciation of plans for territorial aggrandizement at the expense of weaker peoples. The president mentioned specifically in this connection that Great Britain and Japan before the war had found many interests in common in the Pacific.

Given Various Interpretations. The president's letter, coming when article ten negotiations were declared by an opponent to have brought the two sides "very near together" was given differing interpretations. But compromise continued their efforts, telling their colleagues they felt free to sign since the executive did not say it would pocket the treaty if it carried compromise reservations.

In the senate yesterday the last of the 14 republican reservations except those relating to article 10 and league voting power were swept out of the way and debate on the voting power provision began. The four adopted Senate amendments, the economic boycott, alien property and the labor section, the latter being to a roll call without debate.

Last Pull May Be Hardest

While the article ten negotiations reached a point, it was said, where addition or omission of only a few words stood in the way of an agreement, leaders emphasized that the last pull might be the hardest and minimizing hope that enough senators to insure ratification would be brought into accord. It was also pointed out that neither Senator Lodge nor Senator Hitchcock, democratic leaders, had consented to negotiations and that even if a bi-partisan agreement were reached it might not command a two-thirds vote.

Senator Hitchcock described President Wilson's letter as "illuminating," Senator Lodge declined to discuss it, and Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, leader of the irreconcilables, said the president had helped insure the treaty's defeat by throwing cold water on compromise.

Note Absence of Threat

Democratic senators were quick to see, however, that the president did not advise them to vote against ratification as he did last November, nor promise a "pigpen" on the treaty if they refused with more than interpretive reservations. In that respect they contrasted it with his November letter, in which he suggested that the treaty with republican reservation be voted down.

It also was pointed out by democrats that Mr. Wilson did not center his objection on any specific form of reservation and that his hope was revived in some quarters that he would take under protest such compromise as now is under negotiation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE VOTERS KEPT AT HOME BY STORM

Highway Blockades Due to Blizzard Prevent Nearly 100 Towns from Taking Part in Elections

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—Highway blockades due to the blizzard of Saturday prevented nearly 100 towns from participating in the presidential primaries held in the state today. Secretary of State Edward G. Bean expects that the deferred primaries will be held as soon as traffic conditions permit.

It was believed the official returns would not be received for at least a week. Four out of the five registered voters in the town of Windsor were sick and the remaining voter sought the advice of the secretary of state's office as to whether he should go through the formality of a town meeting and election.

Today's Markets

New York Exchange
NEW YORK, (AP)—The supreme court decisions with their favorable bearing upon stock dividends and railway values constituted the primary factors of today's active and irregularly strong stock market. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares. Bulls: General Motors and several of the oils dominated the reduced dealings of the final hour, mostly at additional advances. Elsewhere further selling for profits inspired many gains. The closing was firm.

Grains and Provisions
CHICAGO, (AP)—Although bearish contracts of the government report on farm reserves weakened the corn market at the opening, commission houses quickly took care of all the offerings, and then lifted prices to above yesterday's finish. Every future delivery except May reached a new top level for the season. (Profit taking by long checked the advance. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1 3/4's lower, with May $1.46 to 1.46 1/2 and July $1.89 to 1.89 1/2, were followed by upturns all around.

Subsequently the profit taking sales became a burden on the market, and forced material setbacks. The close was heavy, 7-8 to 3c net lower, with May $1.45 7/8 to 1.46 and July $1.89 3/8 to 1.89 1/2.

Also paralleled the action of corn. After opening 1-4 to 1-4 off, including July at 55 3/4 to 76c, the market rallied sharply.

Provisions were depressed by weakness in the hog market. The strength of grain, however, tended to bring about something of a recovery.

FORDNEY CALLS FOR ACTION ON SOLDIER RELIEF

Ways and Means Committee Chairman Charges Members with Effort to Kill Bonus Legislation by Delay

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Charges that members of the House were an attempt to "kill" bonus legislation by delay, were made today by Chairman Fordney when the committee resumed hearings on soldier relief legislation.

"If I am ready to begin business now," the chairman said when members suggested hearings be postponed until after the legislative committee of the Senate Legion committee had time to further consider soldier relief plans.

"I don't want to crowd this measure, but we know the attitude of former service men," the chairman continued. "Every officer who had good pay doesn't want to come back. The veterans who suffered financial losses are overwhelmingly in favor of some relief plan."

Representative Kitchin, democrat, North Carolina, said treasury department officials ought to be heard by the committee before any plan was worked out.

The committee decided to call Secretary Houston, Assistant Secretary LaFollette and Governor Harding of the federal reserve board Thursday.

SOCIALISTS TO NOMINATE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

Employ Bait to Catch Radical and Progressive Element of A. F. of L.

CHICAGO, (AP)—The socialist party will hold its first presidential nominating convention since 1912 in New York city May 8, the national executive committee decided here today.

An effort will be made to enlist the "radical and progressive element" of the American Federation of Labor in the socialist fight, it was announced.

Invitations to send delegates to the socialist convention are to be sent to the United Mine Workers, Amalgamated Clothing Workers, International Ladies Garment Workers, Furriers, Machinists and Workmen's Circle.

National committeemen report a "widespread" and insistent demand for the nomination of Eugene W. Dubs, now a prisoner in Atlanta penitentiary for "alleged violation of the espionage law," it was announced. He is the only candidate in the field.

Ed Dubs is nominated vice-presidential and other candidates will make the campaign for him.

Scott Nearing and Joan Longue, former socialist deputy of France, editor of "Le Populaire," and grandson of Karl Marx, have been engaged to assist in the campaign, according to Otto F. Brantstetter, national secretary.

MEXICO SETS LIMIT FOR PAYMENT OF MINES TAX

Owners Complain Against Double Tribute, One to Rebels and One to Government

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Mines owners in Mexico have been given until March 11 to pay their taxes to the Mexican government, according to advices from Mexico City, but they have refused to do so, claiming that the government is not to resort to immediate confiscation, or "forced sale" except in aggravated instances.

Many mining companies claim they have been forced to pay double tribute, one to the rebels and one to the government.

EXPRESS STRIKE LEADER SACRIFICES UNION CARD

Organization Cancels Shepherd's Membership for Unauthorized Action

CHICAGO, (AP)—Officials of the International Brotherhood of Railway Express Clerks, who cancelled the union card of R. E. Shepherd, leader of an unauthorized strike of employees of the American Railway Express company here, today announced that other strike leaders would be expelled from the union.

Shepherd accused the international union of "strike breaking" and charged bad faith to the Railway Express Drivers union, which he said had signed an agreement to go on a sympathetic strike.

The employees struck for a wage increase of $35 a month.

JAILERS ASSERT I. W. W. IS SANE

Give Testimony to Refute Plea of Mental Inability in Murder Trial

MONTESANO, Wash., (AP)—Loren Roberts, one of the ten alleged I. W. W. on trial here for the murder of Warren O. Grimm, Centralia Armistice Day parade victim, for whom a plea of insanity has been entered, is normally rational in the opinion of his two jailers, according to their testimony at the trial today.

J. H. Cooper and Roy Lamon, under whose observation Roberts has been since his incarceration in the Gray's Harbor county jail, testified today the prisoner behaved about the same as did other prisoners, with the exception that he was not very talkative. When he does talk, they said, his conversation is rational.

Neither of the jailers had ever heard Roberts speak of Vandewater, defense counsel, as being Colonel Brice Disque, recent head of spruce production in the northwest. Defense testimony had alluded to such a purported delusion.

BOYS WHO LOST BAGGAGE WRITE K. C.

"Cases" Have Found Thousands of Pieces for A. E. F. Men—100,000 Yanks Attending K. C. School.

One of the most recent tasks which the Knights of Columbus took charge of was the establishment of a Lost Baggage Bureau at 461 Fourth avenue, New York City. Through this department thousands of soldiers' trunks, boxes and baggage bags lost while in the service of the A. E. F. have been salvaged. Thousands of communications from former service men are daily received inquiring after lost luggage. This service is likewise free to all the veterans. There is more than 50,000 pieces of nondescript baggage to be picked up at Hoboken, N. J., and in co-operation with the War Department the Knights are reclaiming pieces for men all over the country. The Knights are also locating for relatives the personal effects of deceased soldiers.

An invitation is extended to every soldier, sailor and marine now back to work in "civies" to communicate with this bureau for lost baggage. This work will continue indefinitely and can be greatly facilitated if the men co-operate by corresponding with the Baggage Department. "It is advisable to get the address and telephone number and organization to which attached and a description of the property and where it was last seen.

Go to a Casey School.

The chain of supplementary evening schools which the Knights of Columbus are maintaining throughout the country are commencing the new year with a total registered attendance of 10,000 pupils, all former service men who have eagerly grasped the opportunity of securing a better education through the beneficence of the Knights. No pupil who served his country is charged a solitary penny for admission, books are provided free, and the schools are also free to members of the order. A nominal fee is charged to non-members or civilians who have not been in the service of the country. Already several hundred women war workers have been admitted to the schools through a recent ruling which permits for their entrance.

More than fifty schools have been established, and within the next three months the hope is entertained that evening schools will be flourishing in every large city and town about the country under the auspices of the Knights. Among the cities where schools have been started are New York, Chicago, Boston, Buffalo, Providence, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Atlanta and other large cities.

Lafayette State to Lorraine City. Paul Bartlett, the eminent American sculptor, is preparing his models for the statue of Lafayette which the Knights are going to present to the historic city of Metz. This statue, which will be a replica of the Bachellet "Lafayette in the Louvre," will be presented to France next September. President Polcare will preside at the ceremonies and Marabel Foch will unveil the statue. The present work in the Louvre is presented to the French Republic by the school children of the United States.

A pilgrimage of several thousand members of the Knights of Columbus to the Lorraine city on the occasion of the presentation of the Lafayette statue is now being planned. Every member of the Knights will contribute to the fund for the statue, which will have four bas-reliefs commemorating historic periods of the World War.

The French government is planning a great celebration in connection with the gift from the Knights throughout Alsace and Lorraine. Arrangements are being made by both church and civil authorities to give the Knights of Columbus visitors and their friends the type of a reception which France has been unable to give since the start of the World War.

Distinguished Americans and Frenchmen are co-operating in assuring this feat of the celebration.

The K. C. as an organization, is one of the biggest thrift promoters in the U. S. A. Recent estimates showed that the national, state and local councils of the K. C. and individual members have been saved over $300,000,000 in war and other securities.

KANSAS FARMERS HOLD WHEAT

TOPEKA, (AP)—Kansas farmers still have 36,240,000 bushels of wheat on hand out of the 1919 production, according to the report issued by E. C. Faxton, field agent of the United States bureau of crop estimates, for Kansas.

LOWDEN FOR ECONOMY

Term as Governor a Record of Saving and Efficiency.

Simplifies Management of State Affairs With Results Profitable to the Tax Payers.

The high cost of government has supplied the supporters of Frank O. Lowden the platform on which they are confident he will be elected president of the United States.

Governor Lowden was born on a farm and worked his way through school by teaching. He is a product of the Middle West, having been born in Minnesota, raised in Iowa and then coming to Chicago. He worked as a clerk in a Chicago law office for 38 a week while preparing for his profession. Later he entered politics. He was thrice elected congressman from the Thirtieth Illinois district before voluntarily retiring.

He was elected governor of the state in 1916 by a tremendous plurality and his record as chief executive has put him in the list of presidential possibilities. Friends of the governor explain that he had to be dragged into the race for president. Certainly he does not seem to worry about the outcome of the campaign.

"I think one of the greatest needs of the country today is a stronger, fiercer, happier Americanism," said Governor Lowden. "We can compel aliens to respect our form of government, or get out, and that we must do. At the same time we are under the profound necessity of earning that respect from all right thinking men. We are hearing strong premonitions against profiteering and extravagance. Yet it is hardly dawning on the public mind that we can be paying excessively for government, as well as for sugar, meat or fuel.

Under my administration these bureaus have been consolidated into nine departments, whose chiefs reside at the state capital and are held individually responsible. One effect of this has been to reduce the tax rate of the state 33 per cent in two years. Adoption of a budget system has been a valuable adjunct in saving the taxpayers money. I think efficiency and economy in government is one mighty step in the direction of improved Americanism."

MAYOR WHITAKER

The farmers of Twin Falls county are to be asked to join with the labor leaders of this section in a movement having for its object the raising of wages of farm workers. So much was made clear at Sunday's meeting at the Lavering when Mayor Whitaker of Potlatch discussed the loyalty and disloyalty of the two sides of the present labor controversy and wound up with a clever appeal to his hearers to stand fast in their support of these stores and business houses whose names appear upon a printed list circulated by the Women's Union Labor League, an adjunct to the major organization.

Some time ago there was published in a local newspaper a statement purporting to come from Mayor Whitaker quoting the Mayor as saying that any man who would subscribe to the American Plan should be deported. There was a good deal of veiled reference to this sort of thing in Sunday's speech but most of it was so hedged about by words that it is difficult to offer an exact quotation.

But in the case of the first statement, presumably the Mayor knew exactly what he was saying and meant exactly what he said.

The statement was not made in a speech where an error of judgment on the spur of the moment sometimes creeps into the utterances of the best trained speakers, it was contained in a written statement by the Mayor which, presumably he had plenty of time to review and revise and eliminate any first features which might have seemed upon final consideration to have been unwarranted. He wrote it and he no doubt meant it.

The average man of ordinary intelligence does not agree with the Mayor. The fact of the matter is, nobody can agree with him. His statement was probably not intended to be taken seriously but it illustrates very well the spirit in which Mayor Whitaker and most of the radical leaders in the movement approach the matter of their argument.

There is no compromise about Whitaker. To Whitaker, the things he stands for are right and all other things are wrong. Whitaker would crucify the unbeliever; he would consign to eternal damnation the man or institution who would raise a finger in defense of the things which Whitaker has made up his mind are wrong.

This particular point of view does not in any manner contribute to a settlement of the problem, in fact it makes a settlement greatly more difficult.

As to the proposition of a political amalgamation between the farmers and organized labor, well, to quote one of the speakers, "The marriage comes off in the Fall."

WHAT BENEFIT?

Events leading to the present situation are so widely and well known and so plainly indicate the responsibility of leading members of the national administration for prevailing high prices of sugar that it is hard to see where any beneficial purpose can be served by the investigation in the premises lately authorized by a partisan vote in the house of representatives.

It is not to be denied that in 1918 the sugar equalization board, with the consent of the president bought the Cuban sugar crop at 5 1/2 cents per pound, nor that in last August and September, in two separate communications, the sugar equalization board warned the president of a sugar shortage in 1920, asserting that there would be a great increase in the cost of sugar if he did not assent to the purchase of the 1920 Cuban crop at the price then offered: 6 1/2 cents a pound.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY CHIEFS BACK LOWDEN

SENATOR MCCORMICK, HAROLD HICKES AND OTHERS PUSH ILLINOISIAN IN RACE

The closest friends of the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt and former leaders of the Progressive party in Illinois and other states of the middle West are enthusiastically supporting Gov. Frank O. Lowden's candidacy for the Republican nomination for president. United States Senator Medill McCormick is one of the most active workers in Gov. Lowden's behalf, both in Washington and in Chicago. Other former Progressives who are fighting for Lowden in the present campaign are: Harold L. Ickes, former chairman of the national committee of the Progressive party; Congressman Ira G. Conley of Aurora; B. F. Harris of Champaign; Frank H. Frank of Bloomington, Progressive party candidate for governor of Illinois in 1912; George H. Porter, of Chicago, and Thomas D. Knight, former president of the Chicago Progressive club. Col. Roosevelt was the guest of Gov. Lowden for three days at the executive mansion in Springfield, Ill., in August, and again in October, 1918. If nominated for president Gov. Lowden will, in the opinion of the leaders, unite all factions of the party. He is perhaps the only candidate mentioned acceptable to the old leaders as well as to the Progressive element.

A look of bewilderment broke out on his face as he said, "Holy smoke, how do you live there when I live there?"

HUNGARY LABORS UNDER HARDSHIP

Member of Delegation Sent to Paris Criticizes Peace Settlement

BUDAPEST, (AP)—Roland Hegedus, director of the Commercial bank and financial representative of the Hungarian delegation sent to Paris to discuss peace terms, says Hungary's banking situation cannot be looked on as cheerful. "All the banks loaned money to the government during the war and later, so if the government can't pay we are injured," he adds. "The ability of the state to pay depends on the kind of a peace we get."
 "According to the boundaries now fixed, it is difficult for us to operate our industries. My bank operates about 25 small railways, for instance, and part of these railways are in our territory, part in that of our neighbors, the Rumanians, the Serbs, Czechs and so on. Because of the line drawn by the peace conference, these railways may have to cross and recross customs frontiers several times.

"There are many sugar factories hindered in the same way. The factory may be left in Hungarian territory while the best crop is across a customs line. The largest iron works in Hungary are out off from their ore, the latter having been given to the Czechs."
 "Agriculture is the only thing left us, and with rich land an energetic people we are bound to rise again. The waters of the Danube haven't been taken from us and with irrigation we may do a good deal.

"From a merely money point of view, we have in circulation about 10,000,000,000 crowas. The damage done by the bolsheviks may be estimated at 5,000,000,000. Our total war debt was about 32,000,000,000 crowas, one-half of which was consolidated into war loans.

"Despite a crazy quilt boundary line fixed by the allies, leaving hundreds of villages to us and yet placing the railroad stations of these villages in foreign territory with a customs barrier, making it difficult for the villages to use the railroad, we have not despaired."

American Manhood Grown Effeminate, Cardinal Declares

Churchman Argues for Assertion of Authority by Head of Household

BOSTON, (AP)—Growing weakness on the part of the men of the country is the chief cause of the sinister feminism, Cardinal O'Connell told a gathering of men at the cathedral of the Holy Cross Sunday night. Man, as the head of the house, he said, should assert his proper authority in the home.

Failure to do this, the cardinal asserted, leads to a false feminism, which unless it is curbed in time, will have disastrous results for humanity. "The woman are becoming masculine. If you please, and the men are becoming effeminate. This is disaster."
 Cardinal O'Connell questioned how a father could "look on and see his children, especially the girls running rampant without any consideration for modesty."
 The evil of extravagant expenditure, he predicted, would cause a financial reaction in America to some degree similar to that which has caused Europe's virtual bankruptcy, was criticized. The cardinal argued also against what he said was a continual clamor for more pay by working men, and advised that they be on their guard against the spirit working underground for perpetual strikes with the purpose of destroying organization and industry.

HARD PROBLEMS ARE CONSIDERED

Council Members Wrestle With Knotty Questions in "Clubby" Conclave

Another "nocturnal" meeting of the city council was conducted last night at the residence of the members, C. B. Chaswell and C. S. McKelvie, the session was lacking in official aspect and authority, therefore nothing of a decided nature was laid before the board.

In the absence of a quorum the session developed into a chat session, sort of clubby affair, with many members of the city and community good were discussed informally, but with a view to regulation of matters later to come up for consideration at official sessions.

For instance the resignation of Engineer J. E. Byers, supervisor of operations at the city filtration plant, was discussed as a suggestion of Water works Superintendent John J. Pilgerzin. This subject developed a lot of angles and phases, the main one being the extreme difficulty in procuring good men for the positions. Mr. Byers expects about April 1 to resume regular engineering work with an eastern concern and has notified the water works superintendent of his intention to leave the city's employ. Mr. Byers was before entering the United States army for service in France where he was permanently injured, employed by the Burns-McDonald Engineering company of Kansas City. When his resignation was first submitted he contemplated returning to that concern's employ. Now, according to the engineer will be employed by an other concern.

That man adapted to fill the position soon to be vacant at the filtration plant are scarce—was the burden of a plaint lodged by Mr. Pilgerzin who claimed that all efforts put forth thus far to get a competent man had proved fruitless. The city engineer-supervisor who can conduct the necessary tests at the plant, including chemical analysis.

Other matters discussed included contracting of the north avenue water tower, and the quality of concrete mixture necessary to make the conduit waterproof and capable of resisting corrosion.

Another matter, one of vital importance to the city in general, given considerable thought last night, was that of purchasing materials for the water works. The city engineer until recently the city has been unable to make wholesale purchases on account of lack of space for storage. The city expects to issue for purchase in carload quantities through competitive bidding.

CANNOT PAY CAFE INSPECTION PRICE FOR BEEVES—FIX WEIGHT

Abattoir Inspector W. A. Faloon Calls Council Members' Attention to "Leak" in the Law which Sets No Limit on Weight of Veals—Twenty Per Cent of Hogs Slaughtered Last Week Showed Signs of Tuberculosis

The municipal law governing the prices to be charged for meat inspections fixes the price for dressed beefs at $1. That for a veal at 20 cents.

The difference is decided, and since no maximum weight limit was fixed by the law-makers, butchers could find it quite to their interest to specify some large carcasses as "veal" when setting for inspection.

This is not an official report by the meat and abattoir inspector, nor is it a part of an official executive complaint to the city council although the meat inspector is responsible for the suggestion that adverse weight be taken of the vagueness of the local law by butchers who preferred to run the limit of weight for veals into the class. It would be a saving of 80 cents per head.

The fact that the meat inspection ordinance is "leaky" in respect to inspection prices fixed was brought to the attention of members of the city administrative department last night by Inspector W. A. Faloon, who recommended that a maximum weight limit be placed on carcasses of veal. Hencforth the pound will be the maximum carcass weight for which an inspection fee of 20 cents will be returnable. Any veals weighing more than that will be charged for at beefs price.

Asked for a statement as to the quality of beef being butchered for the Twin Falls community, consumption Inspector Faloon gave a very gratifying report stating that adverse general quality of animals killed during the week, the first biweekly period of inspection was better than fair. He did say some "baby beef" had been slaughtered, and that while he has found some carcasses below a grade "good," the average was satisfactory. In connection with hog slaughtering Mr. Faloon said he had found about 20 per cent of carcasses tubercular to a certain degree. He stated that during yesterday's inspection he discovered one pork carcass "protray well peppered with tuberculosis."

According to city officials, rules the quality of animals killed during the week, the average was satisfactory. In connection with hog slaughtering Mr. Faloon said he had found about 20 per cent of carcasses tubercular to a certain degree. Stormy Weather Brews or There's No Use Guessing

THREATENING are the weather conditions hereabouts that even the weather man supports our statement that something's wrong.

Clouds and day-darkness are the long and stiff breeze prevailing from the west—or perhaps it is the north. How can one tell when the sun doesn't shine?

The spec doc's weather dings points its beak downward, bespeaking a heavy atmospheric pressure, which, in turn, pronounces approaching storm.

Over in the protected corners of the courthouse's southern exposure bushes are beginning to send forth a verdant crown in defiance of the permanent passing of the winter's somnolent period.
